Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on education, youth and family development and health and wellness.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative.

WNBA FIT

Encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine.

The NBA FIT/ WNBA FIT Challenge is free for boys and girls ages 14 and under, and encourages participants to maintain healthy, active lifestyles. The competition will offer more than 100,000 youngsters the chance to demonstrate their physical fitness through a time-based fitness course that includes line sprints, jump rope, speed revolutions, wall passes, and defensive shuffles. The challenge tests participants' speed, strength, agility, and overall physical fitness.

Dribble, Dish & Swish is free for boys and girls ages 7 to 12 and encourages participants to be active and to maintain healthy lifestyles. The competition gives participants the opportunity to showcase their fundamental basketball skills and physical fitness through a time-based, half-court obstacle course. The local champion in each age and gender group will receive an all-expense paid trip to NBA All-Star 2010 in Dallas, Texas, where they will compete in the national finals for the chance to serve as a ball kid at a select NBA All-Star event.

READ TO ACHIEVE

A year-round, league-wide initiative that promotes the values of reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community based organizations, and the creation of Reading and Learning Centers and Reading Corners throughout the world.

VACCINES FOR TEENS

A national multimedia campaign designed to educate teens and their parents about the importance of vaccination against potentially life-threatening diseases.

The Seattle Storm believes that success is not measured solely by wins on the basketball court. Giving back to the community is also a high priority, and the Storm has established a strong connection with its fans throughout the region.

The team aims to serve as a powerful community advocate with a focus on literacy, health and fitness, support for women and girls and youth basketball. The Storm strives to strengthen the bond between players and fans by creating meaningful, personal experiences and to enrich their support of local organizations through effective community partnerships.

Recognized as one of the WNBA's most active teams in the community, the Storm is committed to serving others through the team's community initiatives.

READ TO ACHIEVE

With the goal of making "Every Child a Reader," the Storm continues its partnership with the Boys & Girls Clubs of King County to promote summer reading in the Read to Achieve program. Youth participants who complete the program earn Storm tickets, and Storm players visit Boys & Girls Clubs locations to read to children.

TICKETS FOR KIDS

One of the Storm's signature community initiatives is Tickets for Kids, a charitable donation program that allows individuals and corporations to purchase Storm tickets for local nonprofit organizations that serve children in the Puget Sound area. Through Tickets for Kids, children have the opportunity to experience the WNBA firsthand and to be exposed to positive female role models.

JR. STORM PROGRAM

The Storm is a positive organization that demonstrates its commitment to the community by investing in local youth. Storm players are strong role models and the organization actively leads community initiatives that encourage youth to lead a healthy and active lifestyle. Through the Storm, Bing too will connect with the Seattle community from the ground level and support positive initiatives to ensure our community can continue to have access to these activities. As the presenting sponsor of the Jr. Storm youth basketball initiative Bing will provide tickets to all program participants during the 2010 season.

In April of 2010, the Storm and Bing launched the first Jr. Storm Tour and will host free basketball clinics for youth between Kindergarten and 6th grade at every King County Boys and Girls Club location during the 2010 season.

2005 STORM SEASON NOTES

The Storm finished second in the Western Conference with a 20-14 record, matching the then franchise mark for regular-season wins.

Seattle made its third postseason appearance, falling 2-1 to Houston in the First Round.

The Storm set a club record by posting a 14-3 mark at KeyArena. The Storm finished the season with a nine-game home winning streak, the longest in team history.

Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson were both named to the All-WNBA First Team. Bird received the honor for the fourth consecutive year and Jackson for her third straight year.

Both Bird and Jackson were named as starters for the Western Conference in the 2005 WNBA All-Star Game.

Anne Donovan became the first female coach in WNBA history to win 100 games when the Storm beat the Minnesota Lynx at KeyArena on Aug. 18. Donovan became the fourth coach overall to reach the 100-win plateau.

Sue Bird won the WNBA's assist title after finishing second the previous three seasons.

The Storm broke the 150,000 barrier in attendance as 150,760 fans attended games at KeyArena. Seattle's 11 percent increase over 2004 attendance was the largest in the league.

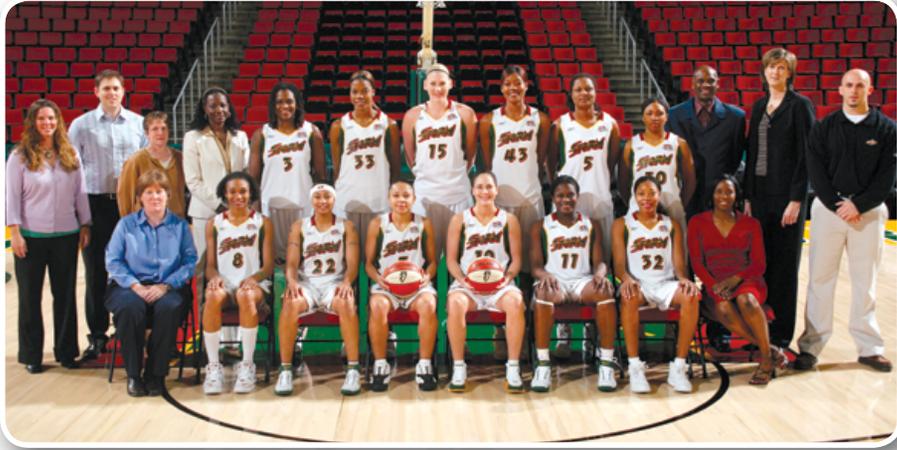

On Aug. 27, Donovan signed a contract extension to remain head coach of the Storm.

2006 STORM SEASON NOTES

The Storm finished fourth in the Western Conference with a record of 18-16 and earned a playoff berth for the third consecutive season. Seattle's nine road victories were a franchise record.

Seattle fell to Los Angeles 2-1 in the First Round of the WNBA Playoffs.

Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson were both named to the WNBA's All-Decade Team.

Both Bird and Jackson were also named as starters for the Western Conference at the WNBA All-Star Game.

Jackson tallied her 3,000th career point on June 7 at Chicago, becoming the youngest (25 years, 33 days) and fastest (162 career games) player in WNBA history to reach the milestone.

The victory over Charlotte on Aug. 5 was the 120th of Anne Donovan's career, moving her past Michael Cooper and into third place on the league's all-time wins list.

2008 STORM SEASON NOTES

The Storm completed its 2008 regular-season home schedule 16-1, tying the most home wins for a WNBA team.

The Storm tied the franchise record for longest home winning streak with a pair of 10-game streaks, including the final 10 games at KeyArena from June 20-Sept. 12.

The Storm's 22-win season set a new franchise record.

Seattle's 3-0 start to the 2008 season was the first time in franchise history the team remained undefeated after its first three games.

The Storm dropped to 1-5 all-time in First Round playoff series and was eliminated in the semifinals for the fourth consecutive season. Seattle fell to Los Angeles 1-2 in the First Round of the WNBA Playoffs.

Sue Bird returned from the 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics with a Gold Medal, while Storm teammate Lauren Jackson finished with a Silver Medal.

Lauren Jackson was named to the 2008 WNBA All-Defensive Second Team.

Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson were both named to the 2008 All-WNBA Second Team.

The Storm's seven-game winning streak, from June 29 through July 18, was the longest in team history. Six of the seven wins came by double-figures.

GENERAL MEDIA INFORMATION

Welcome to the 2010 Seattle Storm season.

The following media guidelines have been established to assist you in your coverage of the Storm and to provide a professional, comfortable working environment for all members of the media.

PR HOTLINE: 206-281-5847

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS OR INTERVIEW REQUESTS, PLEASE CONTACT THE STORM PR HOTLINE.

KEYARENA is located on the grounds of the Seattle Center. From I-5 (north or southbound) take the Mercer Street exit and follow the signs marked "Seattle Center." The arena is approximately 25 minutes north of the airport.

MEDIA ENTRANCE is located through Parking Lot 4 on the south side of KeyArena (corner of Warren Street and Thomas Street).

CREDENTIALS may be requested by calling the public relations department 24 hours prior to the game. Credentials are issued to accredited members of the media who are on assignment to cover a specific game. Please confirm your credential request prior to arriving at the game. Credentials should be used for work at all times and are non-transferable. Unauthorized use of a credential may subject the bearer to ejection from the arena and forfeiture of the credential.

PARKING is available on a limited basis and may be arranged by phoning the public relations department.

TELEPHONES are provided in the media workroom and on a limited basis at courtside. If you need a dedicated phone line, call the public relations department to make arrangements.

SEATING is located at courtside, on the second level of the west side of the arena and in all media sections. Please do not switch seating without approval from a member of the public relations department. Seating charts can be found at the media entrance and in the media workroom.

PHOTOGRAPHERS can find photo charts with their assigned spots at the media entrance, in the media workroom and on the basket stanchions. All lanes are assigned and photographers are asked to not switch lanes without approval from a member of the public relations department. Please be considerate of season-ticket holders seated directly behind you. For the safety of players and in accordance with league rules, photographers must remain at least four feet behind the baseline at all times. Remote cameras and tripods are not permitted. Use of a flash is prohibited. Rubber lens shades are required on all lenses for still photographers, broadcasters, news and entertainment video and film crews.

THE MEDIA ROOM is located on the lower west concourse directly above the visitors' locker room. The room opens two hours prior to each game and is equipped with telephones, outlets, a fax machine, Storm game notes, league statistics and scores from other WNBA games.

LOCKER ROOMS are located on the west side at court level. In accordance with WNBA policy, locker rooms will be open for a 30 minute period ending one hour before the start of a game. Locker rooms are reopened to the media after the game no later than 10 minutes following the game's conclusion and remain open for a minimum of 30 minutes. Following the 30 minute media access period, locker rooms will be closed for a 20-30 minute period to allow players to shower and dress, and the locker rooms then may again be opened to the media.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS that require special accommodations should be made ahead of time by calling the PR Hotline at 206-281-5847.

WNBA HISTORY

On April 24, 1996, women’s basketball announced “We Got Next” as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women’s National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June of 1997.

Since that day in 1996 there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

Val Ackerman — the first president of the WNBA

Sheryl Swoopes — the first player signed to the WNBA

Cynthia Cooper — the league’s first Most Valuable Player

Houston Comets — the first WNBA Champions

Lisa Leslie — the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)

Lauren Jackson — the first international player to win MVP (2007)

Candace Parker — the first rookie to earn the league’s MVP honor (2008)

Sylvia Fowles — the first goaltending call (vs. LA 6/3/2008)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, California. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks’ guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A Growing Game: The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women’s basketball over the past 12 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and our league reflects this trend, featuring 23 international players from 16 countries and territories at the end of the 2008 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased +277 percent since 1990 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 18 percent since 1990 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). This special event, hosted by the WNBA and the Connecticut Sun, will take place at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, CT on Saturday, July 10. ESPN will broadcast the game with tip-off set for 3:30 p.m. ET. The USA Basketball squad will be coached Geno Auriemma.

The 2009 WNBA All-Star Game was held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. on Saturday, July 25. It was the ninth such game in league history, and second played at Mohegan Sun, and was played in front of a sellout crowd of 9,518. The West beat the East 130-118 in the highest scoring All-Star Game in WNBA history. Swin Cash of the Seattle Storm claimed MVP honors. Cash, who tallied an All-Star record 22 points on 10-of-16, was one of five former UConn Huskies who were participating in the game.

Inspiring Coach: The Inspiring Coach Award is an annual honor introduced in 2007 to honor coaches who have positively influenced athletes across numerous levels and whose achievements leave an indelible mark on sports as a whole. The University of Tennessee’s Pat Summitt earned the honor in 2009 for her profound impact on female athletes and her demonstrated commitment, passion, and dedication to work, family, and community. Previous winners include Kay Yow and Jody Conradt.

Inspiring Women: The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family, and community. Past honorees include Emmy-award winning journalist Cokie Roberts, Good Morning America’s Robin Roberts, Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, and the WNBA All-Decade Team.

MEDIA/WNBA INFORMATION

Dawn Staley Award: The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Tamika Catchings won the inaugural award in 2007 while Tamika Raymond was named the winner for 2008. A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history, while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

Marketing: The WNBA maintains marketing, promotional, and media partnerships with a variety of top companies, each with varying levels of activation and integration in league operations.

Marketing Partners: adidas, EA SPORTS, Gatorade, HP, Kia Motors, NIKE, Peak, Pitney Bowes, Russell, Southwest, Spalding, Starwood, T-Mobile, Toyota

Promotional Partners: 1-800-Flowers, Booz Allen, Meredith, General Mills, OfficeMax, Protégé

Media Partners: IHOP, Merck, Sanofi Pasteur

New partners in 2008 included such major companies as Kia Motors, IHOP and Pitney Bowes. HP, Starwood Hotels and Resorts and "Got Milk?" all joined the WNBA as partners for the 2009 season.

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fan base of women, families, and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events. Through the WNBA's extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas, the sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA – having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 – but also as the presenter of the 2007, 2008, and 2009 WNBA Drafts and in 2008 became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the playoffs and Finals.

Two WNBA teams entered the 2009 season as forerunners in the league's Marquee Partnership program, which includes multiyear deals featuring branded sponsorship of game jerseys – the Phoenix Mercury partnering with LifeLock, a giant in the identity theft industry, and the Los Angeles Sparks partnering with Farmers Insurance Group.

TV Ratings: The WNBA concluded the 2009 regular season with its third consecutive year of increased attendance and second consecutive year of increased viewership on ESPN2. The WNBA regular season on ESPN2 concluded with an average of 269,000 viewers, up 8 percent versus 2008 (248,000 viewers). Regular-season games on ESPN2 saw increases in key demographics, including men 18-34 (+9 percent), men 18-49 (+14 percent), and men 23-54 (+23 percent).

For the 2009 WNBA Finals presented by adidas, average viewership on ESPN2 jumped 76 percent from 2008. The five-game series featuring the Indiana Fever and Phoenix Mercury also featured three sellouts and the highest total attendance figure (82,018) in WNBA Finals history.

The WNBA has one of the top five Facebook fanbases among sports leagues, with more than 275,000 fans (www.Facebook.com/wnba).

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2009 included live national telecasts of 29 regular-season and postseason contests on ESPN2 and ABC, and another 50 games on NBA TV, as well as games streamed on ESPN360.com.

In addition, fans watched more than two million streams of live and archived games through WNBA LiveAccess, a new feature on WNBA.com that provided fans with free access to more than 200 live game Webcasts – the league's most comprehensive offering – throughout the season.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tips off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

Global Reach: Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2009, for the third straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the previous total of 198 countries. Included were television agreements in six new countries: Argentina, Bulgaria, Jamaica, Pan Africa, South Korea and China. In addition, for the fourth consecutive year, fans in China were able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on NBA.com/china.

WNBA rosters for the 2009 season featured 18 international players from 11 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent are the Seattle Storm's Lauren Jackson (Australia), Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent), and Los Angeles Sparks' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal).

Ownership: Seven WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, Tulsa Shock and Washington Mystics.

With the announcement on Oct. 20, 2009 that the Detroit Shock would relocate to Tulsa, Okla., Tulsa Pro Hoops L.L.C. will begin play in 2010 and is led by Bill Cameron and David Box. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008. In October, 2009, Kathy Betty purchased the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Sheila Johnson's Washington Mystics, Michael Alter's Chicago Sky, and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently owned WNBA franchises.

Seven women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics); Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks); Kathy Betty (Atlanta); and Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau (Seattle Storm). An eighth, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Key Highlights: Diana Taurasi won both the 2009 WNBA MVP award and the 2009 WNBA Finals MVP award. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star and Finals MVP awards during the 2001 season.

In 2008, Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player of the Year in the same season. The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game. She also became just the second player (Lisa Leslie), to dunk in a WNBA game.

While Diana Taurasi of the Phoenix Mercury won her first WNBA MVP award in 2009, there have been several repeat honorees. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks earned the award in 2006, 2001, and 2004. Leslie joined the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes as the only players in WNBA history to capture MVP honors three times. Two players have won the award twice in a career: Houston's Cynthia Cooper (1997, 1998) and Seattle's Lauren Jackson (2003, 2007). The others to capture MVP honors are Yolanda Griffith (then with Sacramento in 1999) and Los Angeles' Candace Parker (2008, when she became the first rookie in league history to earn the award).

Taurasi rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

There is only one player who has reached 6,000 points in her WNBA career. Lisa Leslie, who retired following the 2009 season, ranks at the top of the WNBA's all-time scoring leaders with 6,263 points. The players who have passed the 5,000 point plateau are Tina Thompson, Katie Smith, and Lauren Jackson.

Lauren Jackson became the youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point on July 27, 2007. However, that record was broken when Diana Taurasi reached the same milestone on July 27, 2009 in just 197 games.

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

WNBA Cares: Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, breast health awareness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including Breast Health Awareness, WNBA Green Week, Go Red For Women, WNBA Fit, and Read to Achieve.
