2014 MEDIA GUIDELINES

CREDENTIALS

Credentials must be visible at all times. All media with access to restricted areas will be required to produce photo ID and all bags with equipment are subject to inspection.

Seating at KeyArena's press table is restricted to accredited working media representatives. Non-working media will be seated in reserved seat areas when seats are available.

Single-game credentials must be requested no later than noon the day before the game and by Friday at noon for Sunday games. You may request credentials by writing on your company's letterhead and scanning or mailing it to the Seattle Storm Public Relations Department. Credentials are good for admittance to KeyArena through the credential entrance only, home and visiting locker rooms and the KeyArena Media Room.

Pre-arranged credentials may be picked up before the game at the media entrance. The media entrance opens two hours prior to tipoff.

MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING SEATTLE STORM SEASON CREDENTIALS MUST NOTIFY THE STORM'S PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT IF PLANNING TO COMVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING.

AUTOGRAPHS

Seeking autographs or souvenir items from players or coaches is STRICTLY PROHIBITED and subject to forfeiture of credential.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media entrance is located at the bottom of the ramp in the South Parking Lot of KeyArena. Only media members who hold Seattle Storm or WNBA media credentials will be admitted through this entrance.

SEATTLE STORM MEDIA ROOM

The Seattle Storm Media Room is located on the lower west concourse outside Aisle 15 of KeyArena. The Storm Public Relations Department must limit media room usage to members of the media only when valid Storm or WNBA media credentials are presented. It is impossible to accommodate family members, friends, guests or others.

THE PROFESSIONAL INTENT OF THE ROOM IS TO PROVIDE A MEETING AND WORK PLACE FOR THE MEDIA AND GAME PERSONNEL. ANY ABUSE OF THE MEDIA ROOM AND/OR MEDIA PRIVILEGES WILL CAUSE FORFEITURE OF CREDENTIALS.

WIRELESS INTERNET

Wireless internet is available in the media room and the lower bowl. Hardlines are also provided and are encouraged when working in the lower bowl. Please contact a member of the Storm Public Relations Department to gain access.

PRESS ROW

Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere at press row. No cheering or personal photos will be tolerated and may result in forfeiture of credential.

CONTINUED 2014 MEDIA GUIDELINES

LOCKER ROOMS

Both the Storm and the visitors' locker rooms will be open to the media for 30 minutes, beginning 90 minutes before tipoff and ending 60 minutes before tipoff.

Both locker rooms will be open for 30 minutes following the game. Cell phone usage by credentialed media is prohibited inside locker rooms.

PHOTOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

Only those photographers on assignment will be allowed space on the floor and photo credentials must be visible at all times.

Photographers are allowed only within the designated photographers' area at each end of the court.

All photographers and camera operators must stay at least four feet behind the baseline at all times.

Photographers must remain seated and stationary at all times, except during quarter breaks and halftime.

Photographers are not allowed on the court at any time during the game.

No food or drink is allowed on the playing floor.

Photographers cannot photograph from vomitories or the escape lanes on either side of both baskets.

When placing tape on the court, photographers must receive authorization from a member of the Storm Public Relations Department.

PHOTOGRAPHY IN THE LOCKER ROOM

No still photography is permitted in either team's locker room at any time.

TV CREWS

Credential requests must be received by noon the day of the game. News crews are restricted to crowd interviews on KeyArena's main concourse only. Interviews are not allowed in the vomitories on any level of KeyArena.

News crews are not allowed on the Suite Level of KeyArena unless accompanied by a member of the Storm Public Relations Department. In order to enter a Suite, each news crew must have permission from the individual Suite holder to enter their respective Suite. Once permission is granted, the news crews must inform a member of the Storm Public Relations Department.

During game action, news crews must shoot crowd reaction from designated areas. Check with the Storm Public Relations Department for locations. No interviews will be allowed within the seating bowl once game action begins.

INTERNATIONAL MEDIA

All international media (affiliations distributed outside of the U.S.) requests are handled by the NBA International PR Department. Any international media member interested in covering a Seattle Storm regular season game must first submit a request in writing to the WNBA/NBA. Please do not contact the Storm individually.

All credential requests must be received at least three business days prior to the first games requested.

Photo identification will be required when picking up confirmed credentials at the Storm Media Entrance.

Requests may be FAXED to the attention of:

NBA International

FAX: (212) 407-8044

Additional information on international media policies may be obtained by contacting the NBA International PR Department at (212) 407-8000.

Royal Brougham Pavilion	The 2014 WNBA season marks the fifth year for the Seattle Storm in its new practice facility, Royal Brougham Pavilion at Seattle Pacific University (SPU).

On Dec. 7, 2009, the Storm announced it had signed an agreement to use the facility for five years. As part of the agreement, a new professional-length court was put in place in the lower level of the pavilion. The Storm is the primary user of the new court during the WNBA season. In the offseason, the court is used by SPU. The Storm and SPU also collaborate in putting on basketball clinics for kids and coaches.

Prior to the 2010 season, the Storm has used the Furtado Center as its practice facility for 10 years. The Center was purchased by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and is now used for the foundation's headquarters.

WNBA CARES

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people with a special emphasis on programs that promote a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, increase breast and women's health awareness, support youth and family development, and focus on education.

PHILANTHROPY: Donated more than $11.5 million to charity, with more than $3.5 million raised in the fight against breast cancer

SERVICE: More than 565,000 hours of hands-on service

LEGACY: More than 45 places where kids and families can live, learn or play

INSPIRATION: 27 current and former WNBA coaches and players have traveled to 27 countries across five continents as sport ambassadors inspiring youth and promoting health and wellness through basketball.

WNBA CARES WEEK

To promote the tip off of the season, the league and teams will partner with community and marketing partners to host community and fan engagement events that highlight our commitment to the community. WNBA Cares Week will take place from May 17 – 23.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program focuses on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. This season WNBA Breast Health Awareness Week will take place from July 28 – August 3.

WNBA FIT

The WNBA FIT platform is the league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages physical activity and healthy living for children and families through grassroots programs and events, and products related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. In cooperation with well-established health and wellness organizations, WNBA FIT informs, educates and engages children and families in healthy living practices.

WNBA INSPIRING WOMEN

The Inspiring Woman platform celebrates women who demonstrate their ability to inspire others through their commitment.

WNBA CARES

COMMUNITY ASSIST AWARD

The WNBA Cares Community Assist Award presented by State Farm recognizes a WNBA player for their outstanding efforts in the community and for ongoing philanthropic work during each month of the 2014 WNBA season.

FORCE 10 HOOPS LLC

The Seattle Storm's ownership group, Force 10 Hoops LLC, is comprised of three Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders, all season ticket holders, who stepped forward to purchase the Storm in January 2008 so that the team would remain in Seattle. Their actions were driven by their shared commitment to the importance of giving back to the community and to the philosophy that women and girls should have the chance to compete at every level.

The group's announcement of intent to purchase the Storm was made on Jan. 8, 2008, and the purchase was approved by the WNBA Board of Governors on Feb. 28, making the Storm one of six independently owned franchises in the WNBA. Force 10 derives its name from the point on the Beaufort wind scale at which bad weather officially becomes a storm.

Share your feedback with the Storm's ownership group at Force10Hoops@StormBasketball.com

Dawn Trudeau

As the chairperson for Force 10 Hoops and the president of the Seattle Storm Foundation, Dawn Trudeau is committed to giving back to her local community in order to assure that women and girls have the opportunity to compete at any level, whether in the classroom, in business, education or athletics.

Trudeau has spent more than 20 years in the software industry, including 14 years at Microsoft, where she led divisions in Database and Development tools as well as Consumer Products. In the next 15 years, she has helped emerging non-profits to develop the capacity to deliver their programs with maximum effectiveness.

Trudeau is a devoted member of numerous boards, including:

- Board of the Economic Opportunity Institute
- University of Washington Women's Center Advisory Board
- Board of Social Venture Partners International
- Microsoft Alumni Foundation Board

Trudeau focuses her energy on early learning and socio-economic justice programs that help provide equal opportunity for all people to develop economic security and personal success.

Lisa Brummel

As the senior vice president for Human Resources at Microsoft and a member of Microsoft's senior management team, Lisa Brummel manages her time between the Storm, business and various charitable ventures. For 10 years prior to her current career, she served as corporate vice president of Microsoft's Home & Retail Division. As head of this billion-dollar division, she was responsible for overseeing worldwide development and business strategy for Microsoft's line of consumer hardware and software.

During her athletic career at Yale University, Brummel was named to the Ivy League Women's Hall of Fame for Softball, received MVP honors on the All-Ivy teams for both basketball and softball, and held numerous university records. She was drafted to the Dallas Diamonds in the fourth round of the 1981 Women's Professional Basketball League (WBL) draft. Brummel is an active philanthropist for organizations associated with Hopelink community services, the University of Washington Medical Center and Yale University.

Ginny Gilder

An experienced entrepreneur, Ginny Gilder has started several business and non-profit ventures, including Gilder Office for Growth, LLC, her family's investment office, which she heads as the CEO. She is also president of one of her family's philanthropic entities, which invests in projects throughout the world that seek to level the economic playing field and promote social justice. She established Washington Works, a local nonprofit dedicated to assisting welfare recipients obtain and retain livable-wage employment and served as the organization's first Executive Director. Gilder also has served on various non-profit boards, both locally and nationally, all focused on education or athletics.

Gilder earned four varsity letters as a rower at Yale University and was an All-Ivy Champion twice. During her freshman year, she helped usher in the post-Title IX era at Yale by participating in the now-famous Women's Crew Strip to protest the lack of equal facilities. Gilder represented the United States on four national rowing teams, including two Olympic teams. She was named to the U.S. team that boycotted the 1980 Moscow Olympic Games and in 1984 won a silver medal four years later at the Los Angeles Olympic Games. Gilder has since helped launch community rowing programs in Boston, Mass. and Derby, Conn. She received an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award for community service in 2004.

SEATTLE STORM EXECU-

Karen Bryant Storm President & CEO

For more than 18 years, Karen Bryant has been involved with professional women's basketball.

Bryant got her start in professional sports when she was recruited by the American Basketball League to serve as the Seattle Reign's Director of Operations during the team's inaugural season in 1996. After the ABL folded, she was hired by the Ackerley family and the Seattle SuperSonics in 1999 to help bring a WNBA expansion team to Seattle. With Bryant's leadership and the support of the Sonics, Seattle was awarded a WNBA franchise and the Storm played its inaugural season in 2000.

After the Sonics departed for Oklahoma, Bryant was named President & CEO by the new ownership group – Force 10 Hoops. As President & CEO, she is responsible for overseeing business and basketball operations for the organization. Under her guidance, the Storm won the WNBA Championship in 2004 and 2010. Bryant's leadership has helped guide the Storm to be recognized as one of the league's premier independently owned franchises, on and off the court.

As a businesswoman in the sports world, Bryant's past as a notable basketball player laid the foundation for her success. From Edmonds, Bryant graduated from Woodway High School in 1986 and left high school with a girls basketball state championship and All-State honors. She concluded her playing career in 1991 as a member of the UW Husky women's basketball team who qualified for the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Elite 8.

Bryant has been widely acknowledged as a professional sports visionary and community leader, and her abundance of awards and affiliations speak for themselves. These prestigious awards include:

- Puget Sound Business Journal recognized her as one of their Women of Influence (2005)
- Awarded the prestigious Health and Dignity Award by the Americans for UNFPA (2010)
- Bryant and the Storm owners were named Girl Scouts of America's Women of Distinction (2011)
- Bryant was a recipient of the Community Spirit of Seafair Award (2013)
- Bryant was inducted to the University of Washington Department of Communication Hall of Fame (2013)
- Named Sports Executive of the Year by the Seattle Sports Commission (2011)

Bryant is also committed to giving back to the community and lending her skills as an entrepreneur and passionate individual and has previously served on the boards of Boys and Girls Clubs of King County, Special Olympics Washington, Girls Scouts – Totem Council and King County Sexual Assault Resource Center.

Bryant announced on Jan. 3, 2014 that the 2014 Storm season would be her last with the franchise.

SEATTLE STORM EXECUTIVE

SHANNON BURLEY VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING

For over 18 years, Shannon Burley has been involved in sports marketing. As the Vice President of Marketing with the Seattle Storm, Burley is responsible for overseeing all brand communication, social responsibility, database marketing, digital and social media, public relations and ticket sales.

Burley was the driving force behind a contract negotiation with BELO Corporation in May of 2013, resulting in the broadcast of every Storm home game on local television, making significant strides for the Storm and the WNBA.

In 2011, Burley oversaw a tickets sales department that experienced a 90% season ticket renewal and a 100% increase in new full season ticket holders compared to 2010.

Prior to joining the Storm, Burley was the Director of Marketing and Advertising at Joe's Sports and Outdoor. A member of the Joe's corporate team from 2002 to 2009, Burley oversaw the company's marketing and advertising efforts in addition to regionally growing the Joe's business through sports and community relations.

Burley speaks annually to the Seattle University Masters of Sports Administration and Leadership Program, is a board member of Central Washington University's Center for Sports Business and sits on the Seattle Sports Commission's Sports Star of the Year Awards' committee.

A collegiate soccer player, Burley graduated from Portland State in 2000 with a Bachelors of Science in communications studies. She went on to become the Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing, creating programs to enhance PSU's students athletes' collegiate experience off the field by integrating them in to the community. She built relationships with community partners and established role models for underserved youth throughout the city of Portland.

TRICIA MCLEAN VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE & HR

Tricia McLean is currently the VP of Finance & Human Resources for the Seattle Storm. Beginning with the Storm in 2008, her responsibilities include preparing financial reports for internal, state, federal and WNBA entities, overseeing payroll, forecasting and cash flow management, budget supervision and implementation, supervising accounting staff and creating and managing policies and procedures. During her tenure with the Storm, she has facilitated the team transition to an independent franchise and assisted in their viability as a sustainable and profitable company.

Tricia is a Seattle native and holds a Bachelor of Science in Finance & Accounting. She has over 20 years of management level accounting and finance experience. Prior to working with the Storm, Tricia worked for the Sonics organization.

Hobbies include volunteering at Holy Rosary School where her children attended, and where she served in many capacities, including President of School Commission.

KYLE WATERS VICE PRESIDENT, TICKET SALES & SERVICE

Kyle Waters rejoined the Seattle Storm in January of 2014 as the vice president of ticket sales and service. Waters returns to the Storm after a previous seven-year stint, starting in June 2005 as a part-time sales associate and ending in February 2012 as the director of ticket sales & service.

Waters currently oversees all ticketing aspects of the Storm, including Season Ticket Holder benefits and retention, ticket sales promotions, group sales and ticket holder customer service.

Waters has an extensive background in tickets sales. Most recently, Waters was the general manager of ticket sales and service for Collegiate Consulting in the Purdue University Athletics Department. With Waters at the helm of the sales team in West Lafayette, Ind., the Purdue Football season ticket sales reached their highest mark since 2007, men's basketball attendance ranked in the top 25 nationally and women's basketball attendance ranked in the top 10 nationally and No. 1 in the Big Ten Conference. Waters' team also set new season ticket records in volleyball and baseball.

Throughout his first stint with the Storm from 2005-12, Waters was consistently among the top sellers in the WNBA and was managing the sales team when they achieved the Storm's largest revenue mark since becoming an independent team in 2008.

A native of Pleasanton, Calif., Waters earned a B.S. in sports business with an economics minor, graduating with honors from the University of Oregon in 2005.

HEAD COACH & GENERAL MANAGER BRIAN AGLER

The 2014 WNBA season marks Brian Agler's seventh campaign as the Seattle Storm head coach, and his tenth year as a head coach in the WNBA. The win on June 1, 2012 against the Tulsa Shock was the 212th of Brian Agler's career, moving him past Van Chancellor (211), former coach of the Houston Comets, to become the all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball history. Agler won 78 games in the ABL and now has 172 WNBA wins (250 total), including 124 with the Storm. Agler was introduced as the Storm's head coach on Jan. 8, 2008 and is the third coach in Storm history. He also assumed the role of Director of Player Personnel.

In 2010 the Storm captured the league's championship title, its second, with an impressive regular season record of 28-6 and an undefeated playoff record of 7-0. Additionally, Coach Agler was recognized as the WNBA's Coach of the Year. Prior to joining the Storm in 2008, Agler was the head coach and general manager of the expansion team Minnesota Lynx from 1999-2002, where he compiled a 42-54 (.438) record. Before being named the first coach of the expansion Lynx, Agler served as the head coach of the Columbus Quest of the ABL from 1996-1999, compiling an 82-22 record. He led the Quest to back-to-back ABL championships in 1997 and 1998 and was named the ABL Coach of the Year for the 1996-97 season.

Agler completed his third season as an assistant coach for the San Antonio Silver Stars in 2007. Prior to joining San Antonio, he served as assistant coach with the Phoenix Mercury and helped guide the team to a 17-17 record after the Mercury finished with an 8-26 record in 2003.

Agler spent 15 seasons coaching among the college ranks, including 13 seasons as a head coach. He posted an impressive collegiate record of 248-135 (.648 winning percentage). From 1993-96 he served as the head women's basketball coach at Kansas State. In 1988, Agler took over as the head women's coach at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. In five seasons at UMKC, Agler was 85-54 and took the Kangaroos from a 9-16 record in 1988-89 to four straight winning seasons with 17 or more victories. Under his direction, UMKC led the NCAA in scoring defense three consecutive seasons from 1990-93. In 1991, UMKC set an NCAA team record, allowing 51.8 points per game.

As the head women's basketball coach at Northeast Oklahoma A&M Junior College from 1984-88, Agler compiled a 124-42 record (.747 winning percentage). In 1985-86, NEO A&M was ranked second nationally and posted a 30-2 record.

Agler attended Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, where he starred on the basketball team for four seasons. He led the Tigers to their only NCAA Division III Championship in basketball as a freshman. He started all 112 games during his college career, leaving the school as the all-time assist leader (481). Agler helped lead his team to a 91-21 record during his four years with the Tigers, and was named most valuable player in the Ohio Athletic Conference and first-team All-America as a senior. In 1995, he was inducted into the Wittenberg Hall of Honor.

In 1980, Agler graduated with a degree in special education and physical education. He received his master's degree in education from Pittsburg State University (Pittsburg, Kansas) in 1985. Agler and his wife Robin, have one son, Bryce, and one daughter, Taylor.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

JENNY BOUCEK

Jenny Boucek, in her fourth season for the Storm under the leadership of Brian Agler, rejoined the defending WNBA champions in 2010 as the Director of Player Development and Scouting.

Boucek served as an assistant coach for the Storm under Anne Donovan during the 2003, 2004 and 2005 seasons and was an integral part of the 2004 WNBA championship team. Additionally, Boucek served as the head coach for the now defunct Sacramento Monarchs and compiled a record of 40-41 during her two-plus seasons (2007-2009) with the organization. With her title in Sacramento, Boucek became the first person in WNBA history to be a player, assistant coach and head coach in the league.

Boucek was an advanced scout for the NBA's Seattle SuperSonics, the first woman to hold that title within an NBA organization.

After beginning her WNBA coaching career began in 1999 as an assistant with the Washington Mystics, Boucek spent three seasons as an assistant with the Miami Sol. She played professional basketball for two years before joining the coaching ranks. In 1997, the WNBA's inaugural season, Boucek was a member of the Cleveland Rockers.

Boucek also played in Iceland in 1998 and was voted the country's best player after averaging 23 points, seven rebounds and six assists. She returned to Cleveland for the 1998 season but was forced to retire due to a career-ending back injury.

A four-year starter at the University of Virginia (1992-96), Boucek helped lead the Cavaliers to four regular-season ACC Championships and three NCAA Elite Eight appearances. She was a two-time GTE Academic All-America team member and two-time ACC selection. Boucek twice earned team Defensive Player of the Year honors and finished her career at Virginia as a member of the 1,000-point club. She also competed in the U.S. Olympic Festival in 1993.

ASSISTANT COACH

SHAQUALA WILLIAMS

Williams enters her first season on the sideline for Seattle. She joins the professional coaching ranks after brief stints playing for WNBA teams in Los Angeles and Seattle from 2003-2005, and in Melbourn, Poland and Burhaniye, Turkey from 2005-06.

Williams comes to the Storm after spending two years as an assistant coach for Seattle University's women's basketball team, who was the WAC Champions in 2013-14. At Seattle U, Williams was primarily in charge of the Redhawks' skill development of guards and wings, scouting opponents, recruiting, and coordinating the team's camps.

Before coming to the Storm, Williams served as the assistant women's basketball coach at Sacramento State University. While there, her duties included overseeing skill development for point and shooting guards, coordinating recruitment strategies, and providing oversight for student-athlete academic development. Prior to Sacramento State, she also was the Director of Skill Development and Coaching for the Team Players Youth Basketball Program in Portland, Ore., as well as the Sports and Fitness Director at Westside Athletic Club in Nashville, Tenn.

At the collegiate level, Williams was a four-year varsity basketball letter winner and three-time All-Pac-10 honoree at the University of Oregon, as well as being named Pac-10 Freshman of the Year (1999) and Pac-10 Player of the Year (2000). In 2001, she had the opportunity to compete in the USA Basketball World University Games in Beijing, China. Outside of athletics, she excelled academically and in leadership, attending the 2001 Pac-10 Conference Leadership Conferences in San Francisco, Calif. and the 2001 NCAA National Leadership Conference in Orlando, Fla. She also received the 2000 Higden Award for excellence in athletics, academics, and citizenship and was a two-time Oregon Scholar Athlete Award recipient (2000, 2002).

MANAGER OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS PRESTON FAWCETT

Preston Fawcett enters his first season as the manager of basketball operations with the Seattle Storm. He comes to the WNBA after working as a Phase II Logger at Synergy Sports Inc. His duties included break down of NBA and college basketball games using the "synergy string" formulation, allowing coaches to easily break down film.

Fawcett graduated in the Spring of 2013 from the University of Arizona, earning his BA in broadcast journalism. While in Tuscon, Fawcett served as a student manager for the University of Arizona Men's Basketball program for two years. He was responsible for game and practice set-up, stats, travel and film breakdown.

As a native of Kirkland, Wash., Fawcett enjoys reading and golf in his spare time.

EQUIPMENT MANAGER & VIDEO COORDINATOR KAYCE KIRIHARA

Kayce Kirihara is in her fourth season as the equipment manager and video coordinator for the Seattle Storm. After eight seasons as a Storm ball kid, she was elevated to the position midway through the 2011 season.

Her duties include managing the Storm players' gear, managing and scheduling the team's ball kids, editing Storm game tapes, helping with the scouting of Storm opponents and assisting the coaching staff with additional video production.

A native of Seattle, Kirihara attended Franklin High School where she played basketball and volleyball. She attended the University of Hawaii-Hilo on a basketball scholarship and graduated with a degree in communications.

TEAM ATHLETIC TRAINER TOM SPENCER

Tom Spencer, in his seventh season as the head athletic trainer for the Seattle Storm, graduated from Central Washington University in 1990 with a degree in individualized studies: Sports Medicine and Adaptive Physical Education.

Spencer worked for the Milwaukee Brewers for one summer as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Peoria Brewers of the Arizona summer league in 1988. From 1989-1999, Spencer worked for the Cincinnati Reds as a Head Minor League Athletic Trainer at many different levels from Rookie ball to Double A. Most recently, Spencer went back to school to become a Physical Therapist Assistant in 2002 and since then he has been working for Peak Sports and Spine Physical Therapy. Spencer opened an office in the Lake city area in August of 2006.

Spencer was born and raised in the Seattle area. He, his wife Margaret and his two daughters Marisa (17) and Mariel (15), live in the greater Seattle area. In Tom's spare time he likes to watch and coach his daughters' sports.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

JORDAN CHUN

Virginia Mason Medical Center's Sports Medicine Clinic is proud to be the health care provider for the Seattle Storm. Dr. Chun is the head team physician. Dr. Chun's medical pursuits include musculoskeletal issues and exercise and fitness. He also has an interest in illness and injuries due to exercise, such as concussion and heat illness, and chronic disease management, such as diabetes and asthma, in active lifestyles. Dr. Chun enjoys all sports, regular exercise, surfing, traveling and spending time with family and friends.

Dr. Chun is certified by the American Board of Family Medicine and has a Certificate of Added Qualification in Sports Medicine. He joined Virginia Mason in 2009. Virginia Mason's Sports Medicine Clinic is located in downtown Seattle.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

SUSAN BORCHARDT

Susan Borchardt enters her second season with the Seattle Storm as the strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to Seattle, Borchardt was at Stanford University from 2011-12 as the team's intercollegiate athletic development specialist. She was responsible for all aspects of the players' performance enhancement.

Borchardt served as assistant coach and strength and conditioning specialist for CB Baloncesto Granada's Liga EBA team based in Granada, Spain, from 2006-09. She directed player skill development work with the club's EBA players while also working individually with select ACB players. She interned with the National Strength and Conditioning Association's (NSCA) World Headquarters in Colorado Springs, Colo., helping develop appropriate summer workout plans for elite-level athletes.

Borchardt played for the Cardinal from 2000-05, helping lead the team to four NCAA Tournament appearances and a pair of regional final berths (2004-05). She was twice named All-Pac-10 honorable mention (2004-05) and thrice earned Pac-10 All-Academic recognition. She was named honorable mention in 2003, to the Second Team in 2004 and to the First Team in 2005.

During her five years at Stanford (she redshirted the 2001-02 season due to injury), Borchardt played in 101 games, starting 94. She scored 815 points (8.1 ppg), passed out 233 assists, made 144 three-pointers, and boasted shooting percentages of 46.2% from the field, 39.9% from behind the arc and 84.9% from the free-throw line during her Cardinal career.

Borchardt would go on to play professionally for the Minnesota Lynx during the 2005 WNBA season. A native of Richfield, Minn., Borchardt earned her bachelor's degree in psychology in 2005. She would go on to earn her master's degree in exercise science from California University of Pennsylvania in 2010.

Borchardt holds several certifications, including the Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (NSCA-CSCS), Performance Enhancement Specialist (NASM-PES) and Specialist in Performance Nutrition (ISSA-SPN).

Borchardt and her husband, Curtis, a former Stanford men's basketball standout and member of the NBA's Utah Jazz from 2003-05, have three children: Finley, Flory and Avery.

Chicago's Sylvia Fowles became the first player in league history to post two 20-20 games in the same season. Fowles, who scored 20 points and added 21 rebounds vs. Connecticut on this date, had previously posted 24 points and 22 rebounds vs. Connecticut on May 31.

September 8, 2013

Second-year guard Riquna Williams sets a WNBA single-game scoring record with 51 points in the Tulsa Shock's win at San Antonio. The 51-point effort surpassed the previous mark of 47 set by Phoenix's Diana Taurasi in 2006 and Seattle's Lauren Jackson in 2007.

September 15, 2013

Guard Katie Smith, a veteran of 15 WNBA seasons and a seven-time WNBA All-Star, finishes her illustrious career ranked No. 1 in league history in three-point shots made (906); second in total points (6,452, trailing only Tina Thompson) and minutes played (15,725); fourth in free throws made (1,440); and fifth in field goals made (2,053).

September 27, 2013

Forward Tina Thompson, the only player to play in each of the WNBA's first 17 seasons, plays her final game as Seattle is eliminated from the playoffs by Minnesota in the Western Conference Semifinals. The nine-time WNBA All-Star selection ended her career ranked as the league's all-time leader in points (7,488), field goals made (2,630), and minutes played (16,088); second in free throws made (1,480) and total rebounds (3,070); and fourth in three-point field goals made (748).

October 10, 2013

After advancing to the WNBA Finals for the third consecutive season, the Western Conference champion Minnesota Lynx toppled the Atlanta Dream 3-games-to-0, giving Minnesota its second WNBA title in franchise history and its second crown in a three-year span. Following an 86-77 Game 3 victory at Gwinnett Arena in suburban Atlanta, Lynx forward Maya Moore, the runner-up for the regular-season MVP award, was named the MVP of the Finals. The Georgia native averaged 20 points, 6 rebounds, and over 2 assists during the Finals series.

December 10, 2013

The 13th annual WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2014 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm) was conducted in a televised event live on ESPN during SportsCenter for the second straight year. The Connecticut Sun, which had 442 chances out of 1,000 to receive the first overall selection, the most of any of the four teams in the lottery mix, ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Tulsa Shock, San Antonio Silver Stars, and New York Liberty.

January 14, 2013

The WNBA's San Antonio franchise officially changes its nickname from Silver Stars to Stars.

February 5, 2013

The WNBA and NBA Board of Governors unanimously approved the purchase of the Los Angeles Sparks by an investment group led by Earvin "Magic" Johnson and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Mark R. Walter. The investment group includes Dodger co-owners Todd L. Boehly, Robert L. Patton and Stan Kasten.

March 7, 2013

The Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and the Women's National Basketball Players Association (WNBPA) entered into a new eight-year collective bargaining agreement, commencing with the 2014 season and continuing through 2021. The new collective bargaining agreement includes an additional 12th roster spot, salary cap increases and reduced revenue sharing thresholds, making it more likely that the players will share in league revenue growth. In addition, a new "Time Off Bonus" (up to $50,000 per team) can

Storm Season Notes

- The Storm finished second in the Western Conference with a 20-14 record, matching the then franchise mark for regular-season wins.
- Seattle made its third postseason appearance, falling 2-1 to Houston in the First Round.
- The Storm set a club record by posting a 14-3 mark at KeyArena. The Storm finished the season with a nine-game home winning streak, the longest in team history.
- Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson were both named to the All-WNBA First Team. Bird received the honor for the fourth consecutive year and Jackson for her third straight year.
- Both Bird and Jackson were named as starters for the Western Conference in the 2005 WNBA All-Star Game.
- Anne Donovan became the first female coach in WNBA history to win 100 games when the Storm beat the Minnesota Lynx at KeyArena on Aug. 18. Donovan became the fourth coach overall to reach the 100-win plateau.
- Sue Bird won the WNBA's assist title after finishing second the previous three seasons.
- The Storm broke the 150,000 barrier in attendance as 150,760 fans attended games at KeyArena. Seattle's 11 percent increase over 2004 attendance was the largest in the league.
- On Aug. 27, Donovan signed a contract extension to remain head coach of the Storm.

Storm Season Notes

- The Storm finished fourth in the Western Conference with a record of 18-16 and earned a playoff berth for the third consecutive season. Seattle's nine road victories were a franchise record.
- Seattle fell to Los Angeles 2-1 in the First Round of the WNBA Playoffs.
- Sue Bird and Lauren Jackson were both named to the WNBA's All-Decade Team.
- Both Bird and Jackson were also named as starters for the Western Conference at the WNBA All-Star Game.
- Jackson tallied her 3,000th career point on June 7 at Chicago, becoming the youngest (25 years, 33 days) and fastest (162 career games) player in WNBA history to reach the milestone.
- The victory over Charlotte on Aug. 5 was the 120th of Anne Donovan's career, moving her past Michael Cooper and into third place on the league's all-time wins list.

Storm Season Notes

- The Storm became the first team since the WNBA Finals expanded to a best-of-five series to sweep its way through the postseason and the only team in league history to finish the regular season and playoffs unbeaten at home
- The Storm completed the 2010 WNBA regular season with a record of 28-6 (the WNBA's best in 2010 and a Storm franchise best). It was the team's fifth 20-win season, third 20-win season in a row and the third with Coach Brian Agler.
- The Storm has become only the fourth professional team to go through the playoffs undefeated while playing at least seven games.
- The Storm completed the 2010 regular season and postseason on a 10-game winning streak.
- The Storm went undefeated at home, joining the 2001 Los Angeles Sparks as the only team in WNBA history to do so and becoming the first team in league history to win 17 home games during the regular season.
- The Storm won 28 games, tying the record for the most wins in WNBA history (with the 2000 and 2001 L.A. Sparks, both 28-4).
- The Storm won 13 games in a row from June 18-July 30, 2010, the longest streak in team history and the third longest the WNBA has ever seen (Los Angeles, 18, June 26-Aug. 11, 2001; Houston, 15, June 27-July 30, 1998).
- The Storm started the season (20-2), equalling the WNBA record for the best start after 22 games (the 1998 Houston Comets started 25-2 and fin-

Storm Season Notes

- The Storm reached the 20-win mark for the fourth consecutive season and became just the second team in the WNBA history to be so consistently successful for so long. The 21 wins rank third in franchise history (28 in 2010, 22 in 2008).
- The Storm's eighth playoff appearance in a row ties the Sparks for the longest streak in WNBA history.
- The Storm finished the season 15-2 at KeyArena, tying Connecticut for the league's best home record. Under Agler, the Storm improved to 61-7 (.897) at home.
- Katie Smith reached 6,000 points in the season's final game, becoming just the third WNBA player to the mark. Counting the

Storm Season Notes

- For the second straight year, the Storm led the WNBA in scoring defense, allowing 72.8 points per game.
- The Seattle Storm completed the 2009 WNBA regular season with a record of 20-14. It was our fourth 20-win season, our second 20-win season in a row and the second with Coach Brian Agler.
- Lauren Jackson, Sue Bird and Swin Cash all were voted by fans as starters for the 2009 WNBA All-Star game.
- Lauren Jackson reached her 5,000-career-point milestone Saturday, Aug. 15 in Atlanta, becoming the fastest in league history to reach the 5,000-points plateau.
- She also reached her 2,000-career-rebound milestone on Saturday, Aug. 1 at home vs. San Antonio.
- Swin Cash also reached her 3,000-career-point milestone Saturday, Aug. 15 in Atlanta. Cash was also named the All-Star game MVP.
- Sue Bird reached the 3,000-career point milestone at Sacramento on Friday, July 17, 2009. She passed Shannon Johnson on the career assists list this season, moving into the 2nd spot on the WNBA career list with 1,425.
- Sue Bird won the 2009 WNBA Peak Performer Award for assists – she led the WNBA in assists, averaging 5.8 assists per game in 2009.
- Lauren Jackson and Tanisha Wright were named to the 2009 WNBA All-Defensive First Team.

Storm Play-by-Play DICK FAIN

Twitter: @DickFain

Dick Fain is entering his seventh year as the "Voice of the Storm". Dick worked alongside David Locke and Elise Woodward and was the sideline reporter as well as fill-in play-by-play and color analyst from 2002-2006 and was part of the broadcast team during the WNBA championship run in 2004 and 2010. Dick has spent 15 years at Sports Radio 950 KJR, where he has served as show host and Sports Director.

He also serves as a play-by-play voice for the Seattle University men's basketball team. Dick graduated from the University of Washington in 1996 with a degree in broadcast journalism after attending Mount Rainier High School in Des Moines where he continues to serve as a Varsity Boys' Basketball coach. In addition, Dick went back to school to pursue his Master's in Sports Administration and Leadership at Seattle University, he graduated in 2011. Dick is a lifelong resident of the Seattle area; he and his wife Janna live in the Seattle suburb of Normandy Park.

COLOR ANALYST ADIA BARNES

Twitter: @AdiaBarnes

Adia Barnes enters her eighth season as the color analyst for the Seattle Storm. As a former member of the 2004 WNBA Champion Storm, Barnes's boasts an impressive basketball resume. She also is entering her fourth year on the University of Washington women's basketball staff.

The leading scorer in the history of University of Arizona women's basketball, Barnes was a three time all-conference selection and Pac-10 player of the year in 1997-98. She currently ranks sixth among all-time conference scoring leaders. Barnes also had a 12 year professional career that included a WNBA championship with the Seattle Storm in 2004 and extensive overseas experience with stops in the Ukraine, Israel, Turkey, Russia and Italy.

On the Huskies staff, Barnes was recently promoted to recruiting coordinator. She will handle all aspects of recruiting, including budget, compliance and planning. This work will be in addition to her roles in player development. During her first season in the collegiate coaching ranks, the "Dawgs" reversed a five year losing record and posted their first twenty win campaign in a decade.

Barnes has been a fixture in the Seattle area since 2002 through her Adia Barnes Foundation, which mentors under-served youth and conducts charitable events and community service projects such as school supply drives. In cooperation with the Huskies marketing department, the foundation also promotes ticket sales through efforts such as Barnes' Dawgs.

She formerly served as Director of Player and Coach Development at Seattle Academy and is widely known throughout the Puget Sound region as a broadcaster for NBA TV and Fox Sports Northwest. She recently
