Credentials

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All credentials must be worn and visible at all times, are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejections from the BOK Center and confiscation of the pass. Please note all personal items are subject to search upon entering the BOK Center.

Single game credentials should be requested via e-mail through the Tulsa Shock Media Relations department a minimum of 24 hours prior to game time or by 3:00 p.m. Friday for all Saturday, Sunday and Monday games.

Single game credentials will be issued on a space available basis. Members of the media need to pick up their credentials at the media entrance located off of 1st Street (between Denver and Frisco) beginning two hours prior to game time. Credentials are good for admittance to the BOK Center, media room, media seating and both locker rooms.

Absolutely no autographs are allowed during media access period.

WNBA Media Access Policies

Day of Game

Shootarounds: All shootarounds will be closed to media, but all players and coaches will be available for a 15-minute period in a designated area. For home games, for a 7:00 p.m. tip-off, the Shock usually shoot at 10:00 a.m. at the BOK Center and will begin the 15-minute media access period at the Shock locker room following shootaround at 11:00 a.m. For road games, media need to contact the Shock Media Relations Department to verify shootaround times and media access periods. If the team does not have a shootaround, it is not required to have a media "shootaround" interview session.

Pre-Game: The WNBA will retain the policy of a 30-minute open locker room beginning 90 minutes before the game and ending 60 minutes before the game. All head coaches must make themselves available for a minimum of 15 minutes within the 30-minute window.

Post-Game: No later than 10 minutes following the game, all coaches must make themselves available to the media. Following a five-minute window for coaches, all locker rooms will be open to the media. Cell phone use is prohibited while in team locker rooms.

Practice Media Access

The last 30 minutes of each practice will be open to the media, unless otherwise posted by the Shock Media Relations Department. Media planning to attend a practice should confirm that morning that practice times have not changed, or that practice has not been canceled. All interviews will be conducted after practice concludes.

Photographers

Limited space is available for still photographers and videographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined on game day. All cameras are required to have rubber lens shades. Absolutely no tripods allowed. Use of flash is prohibited. Photographers cannot take pictures from, or block the escape lanes next to the baskets. No food or drink is allowed on the floor. Photographers are not allowed on court during the game. Photographers must stay in their designated areas and are asked to be considerate of fans directly in their viewing area.

Game Notes & Statistics

Pre-game game notes, media guides, statistics, rosters, starting lineups and play-by-play sheets will be available in the media room prior to each game. Game statistics will be distributed to the working media twice during each half, as well as halftime and postgame. Postgame quotes and notes are distributed via email as quickly as possible following each game.

Media Room

The media room is located on the event level in the east section (between sections 103-106) of the BOK Center and is accessible only with a valid media credential. The media room is open two and a half hours prior to game time. The professional intent of the media room is to provide a meeting and working area for writers, reporters, broadcasters and game personnel. Family members, friends and guests will not be admitted. Any abuse of the media room will result in confiscation of your media credential.

Wireless Internet

Wireless internet is available in the media room and on the event level on court. For wireless login information, please see a member from the Shock Media Relations Department.

In 2014, Swetoha was named one of Susan G. Komen's Pink Tie Guys members for the city of Tulsa. Swetoha also is a member of Leadership Tulsa Class of 46.

FRED WILLIAMS

FRED WILLIAMS HEAD COACH

Fred Williams is entering his second season as the Head Coach of the Tulsa Shock. Williams was named Head Coach of the Shock on Jan. 23, 2014. Under his leadership in his first season with the club the Shock had its best season in franchise history since moving to Tulsa in 2010, finishing the 2014 season with a record of 12- 22.

Williams previously spent six seasons with the WNBA's Atlanta Dream, becoming their head coach midway through the 2012 season. In his last four seasons in Atlanta before coming to Tulsa, Williams was on a coaching staff for three WNBA Finals (2010, 2011, 2013). Also while with the Dream, Williams took the team to three WNBA Eastern Conference Championships, and in six years there he coached in five WNBA Playoff appearances.

At one time in his career coach Williams served as an advance scout for the National Basketball Association's (NBA) Utah Jazz, Seattle Supersonics, Sacramento Kings and Washington Wizards. He was also awarded the National Women's Basketball League coach of the year and named as coach for the All-Star team in 2006 in which he guided the San Diego Siege to the NWBL championship finals.

From 2003 to 2004, Williams served as an assistant coach with the former WNBA franchise, the Charlotte Sting. Before then, he spent four seasons rebuilding the WNBA's Utah Starzz, now defunct. He started in Salt Lake City as an assistant coach the first season (1998), and for the next three seasons as the team's Head Coach (1999, 2000, 2001).

Before he began his coaching career at the professional level, Williams served as assistant and head coach at the University of Southern California (USC) women's basketball team from 1983 to 1990, and then again from 1994 to 1997. Williams helped guide the Trojans to back-to-back NCAA titles in 1983 and 1984.

During his career Williams has coached several Hall of Fame players such as Cheryl Miller, Cynthia Cooper-Dyke, Pamela McGee, Lisa Leslie and Tina Thompson.

Coach Williams is from Inglewood, California and a graduate of Boise State University. While at Boise State, Williams was an All-Big Sky player and one of the top free-throw shooters in the country. After graduating from Boise State with a degree in communications, Williams signed as a free agent with the Utah Jazz of the NBA.

When Williams isn't coaching he's an avid musician and goes by Freddy Bass Williams. Williams has released three contemporary jazz albums called "Game Time", "My Gift to You", and "Mixtape Jazz", just recently released. He also owns Freddy Bass Music Productions and is in the process of writing a kids coloring book. He is married to Bo Talley-Williams.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BRIDGET PETTIS

ASSISTANT COACH

Bridget Pettis enters her second season as an assistant coach with the Tulsa Shock. In 2014, Pettis assisted the Shock coaching staff to help the Shock finish with their best record since the team relocated to Tulsa. Pettis was previously an assistant coach for the Phoenix Mercury and won two WNBA Championships as a member of Phoenix's coaching staff (2007 and 2009).

In 2013, Pettis was an assistant coach for the Los Angeles Sparks. Prior to that, Pettis served as an assistant coach with Phoenix from 2006 to 2009. She later served as director of basketball operations from 2010 to 2011 before retiring at the end of the 2011 season.

Pettis played in the WNBA for eight years. She was selected in the first round (seventh overall) in the 1997 WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury. Pettis played for the Mercury for six years (1997-2001)(2004-2006). She also played for the Indiana Fever for two seasons from 2002 to 2003. She finished her playing career with a total of 1,408 points playing in 228 games.

In 2006, Pettis was honored for her contributions to the Phoenix Mercury organization with a banner that hangs in the US Airways Center.

She attended the University of Florida from 1991 to 1993 where she played under head coach Carol Ross. In 1993, Florida earned their first birth into the NCAA Tournament and made it to the second round.

Pettis played 14 years internationally in Italy, Turkey and Spain.

ED BALDWIN

ASSISTANT COACH

Ed Baldwin enters his second season as an assistant coach with the Tulsa Shock. Baldwin assisted the Shock coaching staff to help the Shock finish with their best record since the team relocated to Tulsa.

Baldwin previously spent four years as an assistant coach for Ohio State University Women's Basketball on Jim Foster's staff, from 2008 to 2013. In his first full year as an assistant on Foster's staff in 2008-09, Ohio State won 29 games, captured its fifth-straight Big Ten championship and reached the Sweet 16. In 2009-10, he helped the Buckeyes to a school-record 31 wins and a record sixth-straight conference crown. In 2011, the Buckeyes captured their third straight Big Ten tournament title before advancing to their second Sweet 16 in three years. In Baldwin's last season, Ohio State advanced to its school-record 10th consecutive NCAA tournament while finishing the season 25-7 overall. He was the Director of Basketball Operations at Ohio State from 2007 to 2008.

Prior to Ohio State, Baldwin spent 13 years as the Head Coach at UNC-Charlotte from 1988 to 2000. Baldwin left as the winningest Head Coach of the women's program in UNC-Charlotte history with 175 victories. Establishing school records for wins in a season (24) and winning percentage (.793), Baldwin also mentored two All-Americans: Markita Aldridge (1992-93, 1995-96) and Jameka Jones (1999-00). Also, under his guidance, Tonya Phifer was selected for the All-Conference USA team.

Baldwin also coached alongside Dawn Staley at Temple, from 2000 to 2002. He helped lead Temple to its first-ever Atlantic 10 Championship and its first NCAA Tournament appearance in his initial season. Baldwin also served as an Assistant Coach at the University of South Carolina for two seasons from 2002 to 2004. In 1997, Baldwin won gold as an Assistant Coach for the USA at the World University Games in Sicily. Representing USA Basketball in 2000, Baldwin won gold again as an Assistant Coach at the Junior World Championship in Argentina.

Prior to his arrival at Charlotte, Baldwin worked for three years as an assistant to 1988 USA Olympic coach Kay Yow at NC State. NC State went 52-35 while he was in Raleigh, winning the 1987 Atlantic Coast Conference title.

Baldwin began his coaching career at Raleigh's Broughton High School. The Caps compiled an incredible 124-26 record during his six years and won state 4-A championships in 1983 and 1985. He was recognized for his efforts on no fewer ED BALDWIN BIOGRAPHY than three occasions, earning Coach of the Year honors from the Raleigh Times and the Raleigh Sports Club. In 1986, he was tabbed North Carolina High School Coach of the Year by the Greensboro Record for his work at Broughton.

Baldwin graduated from North Carolina Central University with a degree in social studies in 1976. As an athlete, he was a four-year letterwinner on the offensive line in football. Baldwin is married to the former Terri Hemphill. Married in 1994, they have a daughter, Shantia, and a son, Stevon.

ALLISON RUSSELL

ATHLETIC TRAINER AND DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Allison Russell is going into her fourth season with the Tulsa Shock. She is originally from Tulsa and graduated from East Central High School in 2000. She earned her Bachelor degree in Athletic Training at the University of Tulsa (TU), in 2004. While at TU, she worked with their football, women's soccer, women's basketball, and men's and women's track and field programs.

Following her graduation from TU, Russell was offered a Graduate Assistant in the Sports Medicine Department at Oral Roberts University (ORU) in Tulsa in the fall of 2004. While at ORU, she began her masters in Public School Administration, while working also with ORU's women's soccer and women's basketball programs. Russell was hired as the Director of Sports Medicine at ORU in May of 2005. She oversaw the Sports Medicine Department and continued to work primarily with women's basketball and women's soccer.

In July 2008, Russell took a Clinical Athletic Trainer with STI: Physical Therapy and Rehab in Phoenix, Ariz. While with STI, she assisted therapists in daily care of all patients. In 2011, she returned to Tulsa to join the Tulsa Shock staff midway through the season. She returned to STI following the completion of the 2011 season. Russell returned to the Tulsa Shock for the 2012 season and went back to STI in Phoenix immediately following. In November 2012, she began working for Phoenix Fire Physical Therapy in Phoenix, Arizona.

In March 2014, Russell returned to become a full-time member of the Tulsa Shock Staff as Head Athletic Trainer and Director of Basketball Operations.

CLAUS DE SOUZA

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

De Souza joins the Tulsa Shock for his first season in 2015. He was born in Brasilia, Brazil and played basketball growing up and practiced Brazilian Jiu Jitsu and Judo. He has also played and coached basketball at different levels in his native Brazil.

He earned his undergraduate degree in Sport and Physical Education at Laurentian University, Sudbury-ON, Canada, after which he worked for Healthy Living - Health Education and Professional coaching in Sudbury. While there he had the opportunity to work with high level athletes playing in leagues such as the National Hockey League (NHL), Ontario Hockey League (OHL), Team Canada, the NCAA and CIS.

He spent the summer of 2013 in Birmingham, AL doing an internship at Samford University where he worked with the football, basketball and volleyball programs. In August of that year he became a graduate assistant for the Athletic Performance department at The University of Tulsa. At Tulsa he worked with many different sports programs including football, women's and men's basketball, men's and women's tennis, track athletes and men's golf.

He graduated from the University of Tulsa in May 2015 with a Masters in Education of Applied Sciences. In addition to his position with the Shock, De Souza works as an Assistant Performance coach for the University of Tulsa.

BOK CENTER INFORMATION

The BOK Center is Tulsa's state-of-the-art sports and entertainment venue that opened in fall 2008. The 19,199-seat venue is home to the WNBA Tulsa Shock, and the CHL Tulsa Oilers. The BOK Center was designed to host major concerts, family shows, ice shows, and other world class entertainment.

Located off Interstate 244 in downtown Tulsa, the BOK Center is diagonal from the Tulsa Convention Center which completed renovations in January 2010, making it an entertainment and business complex.

Owned by the City Of Tulsa, and Tulsa Public Facilities Authority, the BOK Center is part of Vision 2025, a project to grow economic and community infrastructure for future generations. The City hired SMG, a world leader in venue management, marketing and development, to manage the facility.

In 2011, the International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM) awarded BOK Center the Venue Excellence Award. This prestigious award is given annually to only one arena in the world and recognizes the best arena based on four criteria used to demonstrate the ways in which the venue has excelled in the management and operation of a public assembly venue. The criteria for the award includes: Operational Excellence, Teambuilding/Professional Development, Safety and Security, and Service to the Community.

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people with a special emphasis on programs that promote a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, increase breast and women's health awareness, support youth and family development, and focus on education.

PHILANTHROPY: More than $11.5 million donated to charity, more than $3.5 million raised in the fight against breast cancer.

SERVICE: More than 565,000 hours of hands-on service.

LEGACY: More than 45 places where kids and families can live, learn or play.

INSPIRATION: 27 current and former WNBA coaches and players have traveled to 27 countries across five continents throughout the world as sport ambassadors inspiring youth and promoting health and wellness through basketball.

WNBA FIT

The WNBA FIT platform is the league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages physical activity and healthy living for children and families through grassroots programs and events, and products related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. In cooperation with well-established health and wellness organizations, WNBA FIT informs, educates and engages children and families in healthy living practices.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program focuses on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. This season WNBA Breast Health Awareness Week will take place from July 28 – August 3.

WNBA INSPIRING WOMEN

The Inspiring Woman platform celebrates women who demonstrate their ability to inspire others through their commitment, passion and dedication to work, family and community.

WNBA CARES COMMUNITY ASSIST AWARD

The WNBA Cares Community Assist Award presented by State Farm recognizes a WNBA player for their outstanding efforts in the community and for ongoing philanthropic work during each month of the 2015 WNBA season.

- June 21, 2011 The Los Angeles Sparks host the New York Liberty at STAPLES Center in the WNBA’s 15th Anniversary Game, played 15 years to the day of the league’s inaugural matchup between the same two teams in LA. The Sparks win, 96-91.
- July 23, 2011 In honor of the WNBA’s 15th season, the league unveiled its “Top 15 Players of All Time” during a halftime ceremony live on ABC at the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game presented by adidas. With consideration given to on-court performance and ability, leadership, sportsmanship, and community service, as well as to contributions to team success and women’s basketball, voting was conducted by fans, select national and WNBA-market media, and by current players and coaches. The players named were: Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Becky Hammon, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Ticha Penicheiro, Cappie Pondexter, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes, Diana Taurasi, Tina Thompson, and Teresa Weatherspoon.
- August 9, 2011 In a road game at the Phoenix Mercury, Minnesota Lynx all-stars Lindsay Whalen and Seimone Augustus became the 35th and 36th players to surpass the 3,000-point mark for their respective careers, but the first pair of teammates to eclipse the mark in the same game. In the process, Augustus also tied the Mercury’s Diana Taurasi as the fastest player in WNBA history to reach 3,000 (151 games).
- August 22, 2011 The WNBA and Boost Mobile, an industry leader in no-contract wireless service, announced a landmark multiyear marketing partnership that made Boost Mobile the first league-wide marquee partner of the WNBA. As part of the deal, the Boost Mobile brand logo was subsequently featured on the front of the game jerseys of 10 of the WNBA’s 12 teams. It marked the first time the WNBA had a league partner with jersey branding for multiple teams throughout the season other than adidas, the league’s official outfitter.
- October 2, 2011 Despite falling to the host Minnesota Lynx in Game 1 of the WNBA Finals, Atlanta Dream forward Angel McCoughtry set Finals records for points in a quarter (19 in the third), points in a half (27 in the second), and consecutive points (14 from late in the first half into the third quarter).

WNBA TIMELINE

- October 5, 2011 The Atlanta Dream's Angel McCoughtry surpasses the WNBA Finals record (set by her in 2010) for most points in a single game with 38 in a loss to the host Minnesota Lynx.
- October 7, 2011 In a celebration of its 15th season, the WNBA and partner Boost Mobile unveiled the Top 15 Moments in league history as voted by fans. The top moment was Teresa Weatherspoon's half-court shot at the buzzer to win Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals for the New York Liberty and send that series to a decisive third game. Ranking second was the WNBA's first ever game (NY Liberty at LA Sparks, June 21, 1997); third was Sparks' center Lisa Leslie throwing down the first dunk in WNBA history in the first half of a game vs. the Miami Sol.
- October 7, 2011 The Minnesota Lynx captured their first WNBA title with a 73-67 win over the Atlanta Dream. Lynx guard/forward Seimone Augustus was named Finals MVP after leading the Lynx to a sweep in the best-of-five series. Augustus posted 22 points and seven assists in Game 1 and had a franchise-playoff record 36 points in Game 2, including 15 in the fourth quarter.
- April 16, 2012 The 2008 WNBA Draft presented by Boost Mobile took place at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, CT, marking the second straight year that the draft was held on the campus of the league's broadcast partner. Stanford's Nnemkadi Ogwumike (Sparks), Tennessee's Shekinna Stricklen (Storm), Notre Dame's Devereaux Peters (Lynx), Tennessee's Glory Johnson (Shock), and Miami's Shenise Johnson (Silver Stars) were the top five picks.
- June 3, 2012 Angel McCoughtry of the Atlanta Dream sets the WNBA's single-game mark for most successful free throws without a miss, going 17-for-17 vs. Chicago.
- June 15, 2012 With a win over Phoenix on June 15, the defending champion Minnesota Lynx set a WNBA record for the best start to a season, going 10-0 out of the gate before being upended by Seattle.
- June 16, 2012 Already the WNBA's career steals leader, Tamika Catchings also took over the top spot in league history for career free throws made when she hit six of eight from the charity stripe against Chicago.
- June 17, 2012 Connecticut's Tina Charles, with 23 points and 22 rebounds at Atlanta, became the first player in WNBA history to log three 20-20 games in a career.
- July 14-Aug. 15, 2012 The WNBA temporarily stops play to give players the opportunity to compete in the 2012 Olympic Games in London. The U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team – comprised of 12 WNBA players – defeated France in the gold medal game. The win gave the United States women their fifth consecutive Olympic gold medal and, dating back to the bronze medal game in 1992, stretched the team's winning streak to 41 games.
- Sept. 18, 2012 Already the WNBA's all-time leading scorer, Tina Thompson (Seattle) became the first player in the history of the league to surpass 7,000 career points with her jump shot at the 9:03 mark of the second quarter of the Storm's victory over visiting Chicago at KeyArena. The milestone capped a season in which Thompson also became the first WNBA player to top 15,000 minutes played and 2,450 field goals made.
- Aug. 28, 2012 A put-back basket against San Antonio by Minnesota Lynx center McWilliams-Franklin, moved the 14-year veteran and six-time All-Star into first place on the WNBA's career list for offensive rebounds, surpassing the 1,049 of Yolanda Griffith.
- Sept. 22, 2012 Temeka Johnson of the Tulsa Shock finished the regular season with the league's best single-season mark in history for three-point FG percentage (.531, 34 of 64). On the same day, Ticha Penicheiro of the Chicago Sky plays the final game of her career and, with two assists, increases her WNBA career record to 2,599.
- Sept. 26, 2012 The WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2013 WNBA Draft) was held for the first time at ESPN's studios in Bristol, Conn., live during the 6 p.m. ET edition of SportsCenter. The Phoenix Mercury ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Chicago Sky, Tulsa Shock, and Washington Mystics.
- Oct. 21, 2012 Indiana defeated the defending champion Minnesota Lynx 3-games-to-1, giving the Fever its first WNBA championship in franchise history. Following Game 4, an 87-78 home win at Indianapolis' Bankers Life Fieldhouse, Indiana forward Tamika Catchings was named MVP of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile. Catchings, a three-time Olympic gold medalist and the league's 2011 MVP, averaged 22.3 points, 6 rebounds, and 2 steals during the Finals.
- Dec. 13, 2012 Following the league's Board of Governor's Meeting, the WNBA announces it will implement new rules regarding flopping and defensive three-seconds, while also extending the three-point line from 20 feet, 6 1/4 inches to 22 feet, 1 3/4 inches, consistent with the distance inherent in all FIBA competitions. The rules will go into effect beginning with the 2013 season.
- March 28, 2013 The WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership for another six years, paving the way for WNBA games to be televised on ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 through 2022. The announcement, made by John Skipper, President of ESPN, Inc. and Co-Chairman of the Disney Media Networks, and Laurel J. Richie, WNBA President, extends the WNBA's television relationship with ESPN to 26 years. With the deal, up to 30 live games will be televised on ABC, ESPN or ESPN2 each season, including exclusive telecasts of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile.
- March 28, 2013 On the same day as the WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership, the league also introduced a new brand identity. The refreshed identity reflects how far the level of play has come in 16 years as stronger, more agile players have made the game more competitive. The cornerstone of the new WNBA visual identity is a more modern "Logowoman" – the player silhouette within the logo – that better embodies the athleticism and diversity of current WNBA players while leveraging the distinctive orange-and-oatmeal color scheme of the league's iconic game ball.
- April 15, 2013 For the first time in the WNBA's 17 seasons, the league's Draft is televised live in primetime. The 2013 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm takes place for the third straight year at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn., this time airing live at 8 p.m. ET on ESPN2. One of the most anticipated draft classes in league history is led by the "3 to See" – Brittney Griner of Baylor, Elena Delle Donne of Delaware, and Notre Dame's Skylar Diggins. The Phoenix Mercury select Griner with the No. 1 overall pick; the Chicago Sky then take Delle Donne with the No. 2 selection, and the Tulsa Shock claim Diggins third.

WNBA TIMELINE

- May 27, 2013 While the WNBA's 17th season officially tipped off on May 24, it was a May 27 Memorial Day TV doubleheader on ESPN2 that introduced the "3 to See" – Phoenix center Brittney Griner, Chicago guard/forward Elena Delle Donne, and Tulsa guard Skylar Diggins – to WNBA fans. Griner, Delle Donne, and Diggins, the first, second, and third overall draft picks in the 2013 Draft, were the featured players as Tulsa first hosted the Washington Mystics and Phoenix then hosted Chicago.
- May 27, 2013 Brittney Griner, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2013 Draft, registered two dunks in her very first game, becoming the first WNBA player ever to dunk multiple times in the same game.
- June 8, 2013 The WNBA becomes the first U.S. professional basketball league to implement "Ref Cam" as part of a game telecast. A wireless, HD, mini point of view camera positioned at eye-level on game official Lamont Simpson, "Ref Cam" allowed viewers to virtually be on the court during the live ABC broadcast when Indiana hosted Phoenix.
- July 6, 2013 Mike Thibault moved ahead of Van Chancellor to become the head coach with the most regular-season victories in WNBA history. Thibault reached the milestone with the Washington Mystics' 62-59 win over the Seattle Storm. The win was Thibault's 212th regular-season victory as a WNBA head coach.
- July 27, 2013 The Los Angeles Sparks' Candace Parker was crowned MVP of the 2013 Boost Mobile WNBA All-Star Game after setting an All-Star Game record with 23 points, topping the mark of 22 set by Swin Cash in 2009. Parker shot 10-for-13 from the field and chipped in 11 rebounds. Leading into the All-Star Game, the Chicago Sky's Elena Delle Donne became the first rookie ever to lead all vote-getters for the event.
- August 18, 2013 Chicago's Sylvia Fowles became the first player in league history to post two 20-20 games in the same season. Fowles, who scored 20 points and added 21 rebounds vs. Connecticut on this date, had previously posted 24 points and 22 rebounds vs. Connecticut on May 31.
- September 8, 2013 Second-year guard Riquna Williams sets a WNBA single-game scoring record with 51 points in the Tulsa Shock's win at San Antonio. The 51-point effort surpassed the previous mark of 47 set by Phoenix's Diana Taurasi in 2006 and Seattle's Lauren Jackson in 2007.
- September 15, 2013 Guard Katie Smith, a veteran of 15 WNBA seasons and a seven-time WNBA All-Star, finishes her illustrious career ranked No. 1 in league history in three-point shots made (906); second in total points (6,452, trailing only Tina Thompson) and minutes played (15,725); fourth in free throws made (1,440); and fifth in field goals made (2,053).
- September 22, 2013 Forward Tina Thompson, the only player to play in each of the WNBA's first 17 seasons, plays her final game as Seattle is eliminated from the playoffs by Minnesota in the Western Conference Semifinals. The nine-time WNBA All-Star selection ended her career ranked as the league's all-time leader in points (7,488), field goals made (2,630), and minutes played (16,088); second in free throws made (1,480) and total rebounds (3,070); and fourth in three-point field goals made (748).
- October 10, 2013 After advancing to the WNBA Finals for the third consecutive season, the Western Conference champion Minnesota Lynx toppled the Atlanta Dream 3-games-to-0, giving Minnesota its second WNBA title in franchise history and its second crown in a three-year span. Following an 86-77 Game 3 victory at Gwinnett Arena in suburban Atlanta, Lynx forward Maya Moore, the runner-up for the regular-season MVP award, was named the MVP of the Finals. The Georgia native averaged 20 points, 6 rebounds, and over 2 assists during the Finals series.
- December 10, 2013 The 13th annual WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2014 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm) was conducted in a televised event live on ESPN during SportsCenter for the second straight year. The Connecticut Sun, which had 442 chances out of 1,000 to receive the first overall selection, the most of any of the four teams in the lottery mix, ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Tulsa Shock, San Antonio Silver Stars, and New York Liberty.
- January 14, 2014 The WNBA's San Antonio franchise officially changes its nickname from Silver Stars to Stars.
- February 5, 2014 The WNBA and NBA Board of Governors unanimously approved the purchase of the Los Angeles Sparks by an investment group led by Earvin "Magic" Johnson and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers, Mark R. Walter. The investment group includes Dodger co-owners Todd L. Boehly, Robert L. Patton and Stan Kasten.
- March 7, 2014 The Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) and the Women's National Basketball Players Association (WNBPA) entered into a new eight-year collective bargaining agreement, commencing with the 2014 season and continuing through 2021. The new collective bargaining agreement includes an additional 12th roster spot, salary cap increases and reduced revenue sharing thresholds, making it more likely that the players will share in league revenue growth. In addition, a new "Time Off Bonus" (up to $50,000 per team) can be earned by a player who limits the amount of time she will play professional basketball (and/or play for a national team) during the off-season.
- September 12, 2014 The Phoenix Mercury capped off a historic season by defeating the Chicago Sky in three games to win the 2014 WNBA title. Led by Diana Taurasi and Brittney Griner, this 2014 Phoenix Mercury forever etched their name in the record books. This was the franchise's third-ever championship.
