Dan Gilbert is Founder and Chairman of Quicken Loans Inc., the nation’s second largest mortgage lender. He is also Founder and Chairman of Rock Ventures LLC, the umbrella entity for his portfolio of business and real estate investments, and majority owner of the NBA Cleveland Cavaliers. Rock Ventures and its more than 110 affiliated companies across the country employ more than 24,000 team members.

In 2013–2014, Detroit-based Quicken Loans closed $140 billion in home loan volume across all 50 states, and in 2014, for the fifth consecutive year, earned J.D. Power’s highest rating for customer satisfaction among all U.S. home loan lenders. Quicken Loans is No. 1 on Computerworld magazine’s “100 Best Places to Work in IT” and has been named one of FORTUNE Magazine’s “100 Best Companies to Work For” for 12 consecutive years.

Dan is also a shareholder in several sports-related consumer and technology businesses, including a leading wall graphics company (Fathead), electronic ticketing company (Flash Seats) and innovative sports equipment helmet maker (Xenith). In 2008, Dan acquired One Reverse Mortgage. The company specializes in products that allow homeowners, 62 years and older, the opportunity to convert some of the equity in their homes into tax-free money. One Reverse Mortgage is now the largest retail reverse mortgage lender in the country.

Dan began moving his Family of Companies to Detroit’s central business district in 2010 in an effort to help lead the transformation of a great American city. In January 2010, Dan co-founded Bedrock Real Estate Services, a full-service real estate firm specializing in purchasing, leasing, financing, developing and managing commercial space based in downtown Detroit. Since then, he has invested more than $1.8 billion to purchase and renovate more than 80 commercial properties accounting for more than 13 million square feet in the city’s urban core. Thousands of jobs have been created, and today more than 13,000 Rock Ventures team members work in downtown Detroit.

Dan founded Rock Gaming, a developer and owner of unique urban casinos in Cleveland, Cincinnati and Baltimore. The company acquired Detroit’s Greektown Casino-Hotel in April 2013.

In March 2013, Rock Ventures, in collaboration with the Downtown Detroit Partnership and Detroit Economic Growth Corporation, unveiled and implemented a visionary placemaking and retail plan centered on creating activity and vibrant, distinct destinations to draw people to the region using a multifaceted approach to the planning, design and management of public spaces.

Dan is a Founder and Principal of Detroit Venture Partners (DVP), a venture capital firm that funds startup and early-stage technology companies in Detroit. He is also a Founding Partner of Detroit-based private equity group Rockbridge Growth Equity LLC, which invests in growing businesses in the financial services, Internet technology, consumer-direct marketing and the sports and entertainment industries across the United States.

In September 2013, Dan was named co-chair of the Blight Removal Task Force. The group, appointed by the Obama Administration, published a detailed plan in May 2014 to remove all blighted structures and lots in the city of Detroit. He also serves as Vice Chairman of the M-1 RAIL initiative, which began construction in July 2014. The 6.6-mile light rail system is designed to spur economic development and improve downtown and midtown Detroit’s transportation infrastructure. In 2007, Dan founded Bizdom, a nonprofit entrepreneurial accelerator that trains, mentors and finances business builders in their startup enterprises in Detroit and Cleveland.

Dan serves on the boards of the Cleveland Clinic, the Washington D.C.-based Children’s National Medical Center and the Children’s Tumor Foundation, which is focused on finding a cure for the genetic disorder neurofibromatosis.

He earned his bachelor’s degree from Michigan State University and his law degree from Wayne State University.

DAVID GRIFFIN— GENERAL MANAGER, CLEVELAND CAVALIERS

David Griffin was named the 10th General Manager in Cleveland Cavaliers history on May 12, 2014. As the GM, he manages and oversees all aspects of scouting, personnel, player acquisitions and transactions, and all team operations. He also oversees the Cavs' exclusive NBA Development League affiliate, the Canton Charge. With community involvement being integral to Griffin's focus with the team, he also guides the team's player appearance committee in partnership with the business side of the Cavs organization.

Since being named general manager, Griffin has repositioned the team for continued and sustainable success via drafts and trades, while signing noteworthy free agents. Several of his most significant efforts came in the summer of 2014 when he brought in one of the most successful coaches in Europe, David Blatt, while also inking three-time NBA All-Star Kyrie Irving to a maximum length contract extension, signing four-time MVP LeBron James, and acquiring three-time NBA All-Star Kevin Love via trade. In January 2015, Griffin also made key transactions to obtain Timofey Mozgov, Iman Shumpert and J.R. Smith, moves that helped the Cavs capture a fourth Central Division title with a 53-29 record, including an NBA-best 34-9 mark over the final 43 games of the regular season, and then on to the playoffs where the team won their second Eastern Conference Championship.

Griffin was the acting GM for the Cavaliers' final 33 games of the 2013-14 season in which the team had a 17-16 record following his appointment. He joined the Cavaliers as vice president of basketball operations in September 2010, managing all basketball and front office matters while overseeing the team's scouting and player personnel areas.

Prior to joining the Cavaliers, Griffin spent 17 seasons with the Suns, the last three as the club's senior vice president of basketball operations after being named to the position in June 2007. After originally joining the Suns basketball communications department in 1993 as an intern, Griffin saw his responsibilities steadily grow due to his passion, work ethic and analytical expertise.

After aiding the club's media relations efforts for four seasons, Griffin moved to the basketball operations side in 1997, with a primary focus on statistical analysis, draft and free agency information, video preparation and scouting reports. Along the way, Griffin held the titles of assistant general manager of player personnel, director of player personnel, assistant director of player personnel and basketball operations assistant with the Suns.

The Phoenix native graduated from Arizona State in 1995 with a degree in political science. He and his wife, Meredith, reside on the east side of Cleveland.

canton charge media information

The Canton Charge Communications Team welcomes you to the 2015-16 NBA Development League season. It is our goal to provide a professional and productive working environment. To assist in your coverage of the Charge, please note the following:

Credentials: You must have a Charge credential (season or single-game) or an NBA Development League media pass to be admitted to the Canton Memorial Civic Center, and your credential must be visibly worn at all times. Credentials should be requested through the Charge Communications Team.

Your credential does not guarantee a seat. Please contact the Communications Team no later than 5:00 p.m. the day before a game (5:00 p.m. on Friday for weekend and Monday games) to reserve a seat in the press seating areas. Single-game credentials can be picked up at the media entrance.

Season and single-game credentials are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the Canton Memorial Civic Center and the forfeiture of the credential. No autographs are allowed during media access periods.

Media Entrance: All members of the media must enter the Canton Memorial Civic Center through the media entrance (on the north side of the building facing the staff parking lot & Wendy's), which opens two hours prior to game time.

Media Workrooms: There is a work area for media inside the Canton Memorial Civic Center. Writers working on deadline should work out of the media workroom. It will open two hours before game time and remain open until the last member of the media is finished working. In order to provide the proper working environment, friends, relatives or guests of the media will not be permitted access to the media workrooms.

Telephones: A limited number of telephones are provided for general use in the media workrooms. Individuals using those phones should make all calls on a collect, third-person or credit card basis. If you would like to order your own phone line, please contact the Communications Team.

Seating: Seating is available in the media section located in the courtside press tables; seating will be designated for beat reporters and visiting writers. There are electrical outlets and hard internet Ethernet lines at all locations, while telephones are located at various points courtside.

TV and Radio: Visiting television broadcast positions will be courtside. Radio broadcast positions will be on the courtside press table. If statisticians are desired, please make arrangements with the Communications Team at least 24 hours before game time. All requests for pregame or postgame interviews should be directed to the Communications Team.

Photographers: Photographers are asked to keep off of the sidelines and to be considerate of the season ticket holders seated directly behind them. Photographers must be on assignment from a recognized news source; freelance photographers will not be credentialed. Photographers are asked to wear rubber-soled shoes and are required to have rubber lens shades for their cameras. Only television photographers doing postgame interviews will have access to locker room areas.

Locker Rooms: In accordance with NBA policy, both locker rooms are open to members of the media during pregame for a 45-minute period that ends 45 minutes before the scheduled game time. Postgame media availability follows a 10-minute cooling off period. Only working members of the press with the appropriate print or video credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms; no photo-only media will be allowed into the locker room. The Charge locker room is located at the southwest side of the building to the left of the VIP stage, while the visitors' locker room is located on the northwest side of the building to the right of the VIP stage.

Cell Phone Use in Locker Room: Per league policy, cell phones are not permitted to be used in the locker room by any media member.

canton memorial civic center

For a town that's equated with pro football excellence, the city of Canton has welcomed pro hoops to central Stark County with open arms.

And Canton's first pro squad – the NBA D-League's Canton Charge – has appreciated that embrace since the moment they tipped off their inaugural season within the Canton Memorial Civic Center.

It's not as if Canton hasn't seen its share of exciting roundball at the Civic Center. For years, fans have watched several future pros – including a few future Cavaliers – cut their teeth in the high school playoffs.

"Every year I visit the Civic Center to watch several Sectional and District OHSAA playoff games, and I'm always amazed by how many of these local stars experience success at the college and professional level," observed Mayor William Healy. "Former NBA stars, Nick Weatherspoon, Gary Grant, Phil Hubbard, Keith McLeod and Eric Snow all called Canton their hometown, so we are no stranger to professional basketball."

Keith McLeod, the first-ever player signed by the Charge before their inaugural season, played his share of big games at the Civic Center.

The 32-year-old Canton-McKinley grad eventually moved on to win Player of the Year honors in the M.A.C. with Bowling Green, and played for four NBA teams before returning home.

He recalled a big game against Jackson High at the Civic Center – avenging McKinley's only home loss of the season. And now, some of those same hoops fans will see the Charge's new combo-guard once again.

"Around here, that's all I'm hearing is people saying, 'I can't wait to get to a game,'" beamed McLeod. "I think it's going to be real nice, and I think everybody around here is excited to see what it's going to be like."

The Civic Center, built in 1951, has hosted – and continues to host – more than just basketball. The Canton Invaders played indoor soccer there for 13 years and the Canton Legends indoor football played there for three. Currently, indoor soccer is represented by the Ohio Vortex and indoor football, the Canton Cougars.

Several WWE Live Events have been held at the Civic Center, and the venue hosted an MMA event just two nights before the Charge opener.

The 3,942-seat arena has also welcomed some of the biggest names in entertainment and politics. Comedians Jeff Dunham and Eddie Griffin have performed there recently and legends like Bob Dylan have done so in the past. And naturally, the Globetrotters make an annual stop.

Rudy Giuliani and George W. Bush have spoken at the Civic Center, as has Barack Obama – who held a Closing Address Rally eight days before being elected as Commander in Chief.

Of course, before becoming the everyday home of a professional basketball team, the Civic Center appreciated some updates and renovations. The Cavaliers organization rolled up their sleeves to get them done in short order.

While the Civic Center retains the special character of a proud and experienced basketball venue, several updates and a couple renovations have also readied it for the next phase of its service as home to a new pro team. A new pro-style maple court and extension baskets from Spalding were installed. The overhead lighting grid was also increased and improved. Plus, other lighting effects and physical updates in the seating area were added that will certainly create an updated look and feel to the game environment, while maintaining the great old-school vibe and closeness to the game.

The fan experience at the Civic Center was also considered, and floor seating, court boxes and a VIP area were added.

Cavaliers Vice President of Facility Operations, Antony Bonavita ran the point for most of the improvements.

"We focus on great fan experiences (at Quicken Loans Arena) and we wanted to create a platform for that in Canton," said Bonavita. "Similar to our Cavaliers product, we wanted to make sure that people recognize that what you see at The Q – obviously to a different degree – is what you're going to experience with the Canton Charge."

The Charge players are also pleased with the renovations – which began two months prior to the season and wrapped up in time for opening tipoff. Improvements included a renovated locker room with shower heads that were adjusted for potential 6-9 power forwards.

The Civic Center is where the Charge unveiled the finished product on November 25, 2011, but before they could take the (new) floor, they needed a place to hone their skills.

edgewood community center

And in late September of 2011, the Cavaliers and Charge settled on the spacious Edgewood Community Center as the team's official practice and training facility.

Edgewood Community Center has been open to the public since March 2007, with the goal of enriching the community's physical, emotional and spiritual health – from children to seniors – through fitness, sports, arts, recreation and wellness. This year, the court was configured into a regulation NBA court.

It had to be stripped down – which was a process lasting almost four weeks. It was also an 84-foot court that had to be extended to 94 feet. Lines were painted, a shot clock installed and coaches offices were retrofitted.

ECC is not only where the squad practices, it's where a good portion of it is assembled. The facility hosts the team's NBA D-League Draft party. Media, Cavaliers and Charge staff – along with season ticket holders – watch the selections unfold in real time.

The Civic Center has seen its share of legends and Hall of Famers walk through the door – from Deion Sanders to President Donald Trump.

Canton's D-League hoopsters are a long way from basketball's Hall of Fame. But as Confucius said: The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step.

"This is something that the Civic Center can be proud of long-term," concluded Bonavita. "We certainly appreciated the great partnership with the city and the fans. We said we were going to bring a first-class product to Canton – and I think we've done that."
