DEDICATED TO ADAM CAVE (1994-2016)

Adam Cave was a member of the Lakers organization since September 2016, when he took over as video coordinator for the then-Los Angeles D-Fenders. Prior to joining the Lakers family, Cave had spent time as a student assistant coach and video coordinator for the Pomona-Pitzer men's basketball team, and he enjoyed previous interning stints with the LA Clippers and the Los Angeles Sparks.

Cave was known for his spirit and passion for the sport of basketball and the Lakers organization. He was a loved and valued member of the team and was honored throughout the 2016-17 season with a "Cave" patch on the team's jerseys.

"His energy, positivity and passion for this organization were apparent and made him a favorite among our coaches, players and staff," said South Bay Lakers President, Joey Buss. "Adam came to work each day with the goal of making this team the best that it could be, and that is a lesson that won't be forgotten with his passing. We consider ourselves lucky to have known Adam."

Adam is survived by his parents, Robert and Susan, as well as his brother, Ian.

JOEY BUSS

The South Bay Lakers enter their 11th year as a franchise in 2017-18, and team President/CEO Joey Buss has led the Lakers minor league affiliate every step of the way. Now in his senior role for more than a decade, Buss is responsible for overseeing the SB Lakers business and basketball operations while also serving as Vice President of Research and Development for the Los Angeles Lakers, where he is responsible for exploring new technologies and strategies for business and basketball development.

Behind the leadership of Buss, the South Bay Lakers franchise has established itself as one of the G League's top producers of NBA talent. In fact, the minor league affiliate has helped to develop 19 assignment players for the Los Angeles Lakers, while former South Bay Lakers have earned NBA call-ups on 26 occasions. On the court, South Bay has won three division titles and has advanced to the NBA G League Finals on two occasions, including a 2015-16 run that saw the team finish one win short of a title.

Buss and Nick Mazzella work closely with Earvin "Magic" Johnson, Rob Pelinka and Coach Luke Walton to construct the Lakers Summer League and Training Camp rosters, while managing all G League Call-Ups and assignment player decisions. Most recently, the Summer League roster they constructed went on to win the 2017 Las Vegas Summer League Championship.

Prior to assuming his current position with the South Bay Lakers, Buss spent a year preparing for his role as Lakers alternate governor, working closely with both Jeanie Buss and Tim Harris, longtime executives in the business operations department for the team. Not long after becoming an alternate governor, Buss accepted the Larry O'Brien Trophy on behalf of the organization after the Lakers defeated the Orlando Magic in the 2009 NBA Finals.

After graduating from the University of Southern California, Buss served as a coaching associate for the Lakers during the 2006-07 season. Buss got his first glimpse into the business of basketball at the age of 20, when he held a summer internship in the basketball operations department of the nearby Los Angeles Sparks for the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

Away from the court, Buss and his wife Dr. Nicole Buss reside in Rancho Palos Verdes with their sons Benjamin and Oliver. Dr. Nicole Buss earned her doctorate degree in Occupational Therapy at USC and serves on the Board of Directors for Town & Country Nursery School.

GENERAL MANAGER

NICK MAZZELLA

A member of the Lakers organization since 2004, General Manager Nick Mazzella enters his fifth season with the South Bay Lakers. In this role, he is responsible for the day-to-day management of the team, serving as point person for all personnel decisions, contract negotiations, salary cap concerns and scouting for the South Bay Lakers. Mazzella also serves as the Director, Research and Development for the Los Angeles Lakers. In his role with Los Angeles, Mazzella oversees the Summer League roster and assists Los Angeles Basketball Operations with Training Camp invitees.

With an eye for developing young talent while remaining competitive on the court, Mazzella had an immediate impact for the South Bay Lakers after taking over as GM in 2013.

In his first season, South Bay won the West Division Title after finishing with a 31-19 record, the second-best mark in the G League. Earlier that year, Mazzella orchestrated a trade for Manny Harris, who after only a month became the first South Bay player to receive an NBA Call-Up to the Los Angeles Lakers. Three other players - Malcolm Thomas, Shawne Williams and James Southerland - would go on to receive call-ups throughout the year, while two members of the South Bay Lakers staff were added to NBA benches in Luke Walton and Thomas Scott. Overall, 10 players have received NBA call-ups under Mazzella's leadership, and South Bay has helped to develop nine Lakers assignment players on his watch.

Mazzella's moves in the front office have translated to success on the hardwood. In addition to a division crown in his very first season, Mazzella's Lakers were one game away from the franchise's first-ever NBA G League Championship in 2015-16. South Bay finished with a 27-23 regular season record, but sprang to life in the playoffs to reach the G League Finals for the second time. During the most recent season, Mazzella built a roster that won the Pacific Division crown (34-16) and got off to the hottest start in league history, opening the year at 24-6. Last year's team also produced NBA talent as three members from the team are now in the NBA: Vander Blue (Los Angeles), Josh Magette (Atlanta) and David Nwaba (Chicago). Mazzella also helped build the 2017 Los Angeles Lakers Summer League team which won its first ever championship, led by current South Bay players Vander Blue and Alex Caruso.

Prior to accepting his current position as general manager, Mazzella spent nine seasons in the Lakers Public Relations department, taking over as public relations coordinator in 2006. Mazzella earned the position after working as a part-time basketball operations assistant and public relations intern for the Lakers. During his time with Los Angeles, Mazzella was part of two NBA championship teams and made three trips to the NBA Finals.

A graduate of the University of California, Santa Barbara, Mazzella received a bachelor's degree in Business Economics with a minor in Sports Management in 2006.

He and his wife, Susan, currently reside in Redondo Beach.

HEAD COACH

COBY KARL

Coby Karl enters his second season as head coach of the South Bay Lakers in 2017-18.

Karl found great success during his first season leading the team. He helped guide the Lakers to their first Pacific Division title with a record of 34-16, second best in team history, and was even named head coach of the Western Conference All Star Team. Karl guided the Lakers to a 24-6 start to the year, which is tied for the best 30-game start to a season in G League history. In his first year, he helped develop three NBA Gatorade Call-Ups, David Nwaba (twice) and Justin Harper, and helped with the development of Los Angeles Lakers center Ivica Zubac.

A former player for the South Bay organization, Karl appeared in 17 games for the team during the 2007-08 season while on assignment from the Lakers. On February 19, 2008, he became the second player in league history to play in an NBAGL and NBA game in the same day, following former Lakers guard Jordan Farmar. As a player, Karl saw action with the Lakers, Cleveland Cavaliers and Golden State Warriors of the NBA, as well as with South Bay, Reno Bighorns, and Idaho Stampede of the NBAGL.

The former guard most recently served as an assistant coach on the Westchester Knicks staff during the 2015-16 season at the conclusion of his playing career, helping the Knicks to earn their first playoff berth in franchise history as the team improved from 10-40 in 2014-15 to 28-22 just a year later.

Along with his domestic experience, the son of NBA veteran coach George Karl also knows the international game, having played professionally in Spain, Italy, and Germany.

A native of Great Falls, Montana, Karl attended Homestead High School in Mequon, Wisconsin, before graduating from Boise State University with a B.A. in Communications. The 6-foot-5 shooting guard led the Broncos in points (17.2) and assists (4.0) as a junior, and he averaged 14.8 points and 4.0 assists during his senior season en route to First Team All-WAC honors in 2007.

ASSISTANT COACH

BRIAN WALSH

Brian Walsh begins his third season with the South Bay Lakers as an assistant coach, bringing an extensive background of coaching with him.

Walsh enjoyed plenty of success in his first year with the team in 2015-16, helping to lead a team that came one win away from an NBA G League Championship. As an integral part of South Bay's gameplanning, Walsh played a large role in developing one of the league's most efficient units.

A teacher of the game at virtually every level, Walsh played a role in developing younger players as an assistant at Albuquerque High School in 2014-15. Prior to that, Walsh gained a wealth of experience at the international level, working in a coaching capacity in countries such as Venezuela, Belarus, China and Vietnam.

Walsh got his start at the professional level with the New Mexico Slam as head coach/director of player personnel, before joining the Baylor University staff as an assistant coach and lead scout. Prior to the 2004-05 season, Walsh joined the Dakota Wizards staff as assistant coach under head coach Casey Owens, who would later take over as head coach for the D-Fenders. In 2006, Walsh got his first head coaching experience with Gambusinos De Fresno in Mexico, before joining the Colorado 14ers staff later that year. With Walsh solely responsible for scouting and player development, the 14ers reached the Finals. Walsh's G League experience continued as he spent the 2007-08 season with the Rio Grande Valley Vipers in an associate head coaching role, eventually closing out the season as interim head coach. Prior to the 2009-10 season, Walsh took over as head coach of the Al Ahli Professional Sports Club, winning the SBL U19 Championship, while reaching the semi-finals of the Arab Nations Cup. In 2012-13, he once again sat alongside Owens as an assistant for Guaiquerias in Venezuela.

ASSISTANT COACH

ISAIAH FOX

Isaiah Fox begins his second season as an assistant coach with the South Bay Lakers.

Specializing in player development, Fox has mentored players at various levels and prior to joining the Lakers for the 2016-17 season, he was most recently instructing student-athletes at Monrovia High School in nearby Monrovia, California. He has also been a sports program coordinator at a local YMCA chapter in Monrovia, served as an assistant coach with Victor Valley Junior College and founded PDX Basketball, an organization focusing on the development of young players in the community.

A former McDonald's All-America nominee, the 6-foot-9 Fox lettered for the University of Arizona basketball team from 2002-06. At the conclusion of his collegiate career, Fox was drafted by the Austin Toros of the NBA D-League in 2008 before gaining international experience in Australia, Mexico and Japan.

ASSISTANT COACH

DANE JOHNSON

Dane Johnson enters his first season as an assistant coach with the South Bay Lakers, after previously serving as a coaching assistant with the team.

Johnson's basketball career stretches back to his days at St. Francis DeSales High School where he led his team to two undefeated league championships and was a first-team all-league selection for three years. Johnson then played a year at Western Oregon University before transferring to Portland State, where he led his team in assists in his final season. Johnson would then play a year in the International Basketball League before working in Salem, Oregon at The Hoop, a competitive basketball training facility that works with young basketball players.

ASSISTANT COACH

SEAN NOLEN

Nolen enters his first season as an assistant coach with the South Bay Lakers in 2017-18.

Nolen, a University of Northern Colorado basketball alum, joins Karl's staff after previously serving as the head basketball coach at Colorado Academy High School since November 2013. Nolen led the team to a school record of 24 wins in his first season and brought his team to State Championship Games in 2013-14 and 2014-15. Nolen is also the founder of the Colorado Elite Basketball Academy which he started back in August 2009. The academy is geared toward kids looking to improve their skills while giving them a platform to showcase their talents on the AAU circuit. Nolen served as a coach at the academy and twice led the top teams to National Tournament Championships. Nolen had an accomplished collegiate career, leaving his alma mater having broken 10 school records upon graduation, including most assists in school history (427), a record that remains today.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT COACH

METTA WORLD PEACE

Metta World Peace enters his first season as a player development coach for the South Bay Lakers in 2017-18.

World Peace comes to South Bay as a seasoned veteran of the Lakers organization, having spent six seasons as a player with the Los Angeles Lakers (2009-14, 2015-17). World Peace was a key player on the 2010 NBA Champion Lakers and ranks ninth all-time in three pointers made (420) in franchise history. The four-time All-Defensive team selection posted career averages of 13.2 points, 4.5 rebounds and 2.7 assists in his 17-year career with the Bulls, Pacers, Kings, Rockets, Knicks and Lakers. Originally selected with the 16th overall pick in the 1999 Draft by the Chicago Bulls, World Peace was also named an All Star in 2004, the same year he was named to the All-NBA Third Team and awarded the Defensive Player of the Year.

Originally from Queens, New York, World Peace attended La Salle Academy (New York City) before playing two seasons at St. Johns (1997-99). World Peace led the Red Storm to the Elite Eight in 1999, and left the university with career averages of 13.1 points, 6.3 rebounds and 3.2 assists in 69 career games.

World Peace also played for the Sichuan Blue Whales of the Chinese Basketball Association and the Pallacanestro Cantu of Italy, before spending his last two seasons with the Los Angeles Lakers.

VIDEO COORDINATOR

ANTHONY BEAUMONT

Anthony Beaumont enters his first season as the video coordinator for the South Bay Lakers in 2017-18.

Anthony Beaumont will join South Bay as the team's video coordinator after previously serving in the same capacity for the Indiana Fever of the WNBA and the Sioux Falls Skyforce. Beaumont has also previously served as an assistant video coordinator with the WNBA's Chicago Sky and a Statistics Coordinator for the Chicago Bulls. Beaumont earned his Bachelor's degree in Sports Management from Loyola University in Chicago, Illinois.

ATHLETIC TRAINER

HEATHER MAU

Heather Mau enters her second season as head athletic trainer for the South Bay Lakers.

In her role, Mau will be in charge of monitoring the health of the team and is responsible for injury prevention and treatment of all players. She most recently worked at Cal State Northridge, where she provided services for up to five varsity sports. A graduate of Adelphi University, Mau holds a B.S. in Exercise Science and a Masters in Athletic Training from California Baptist University.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING/MASSAGE THERAPY/EQUIPMENT

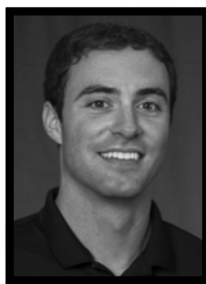

MISHA CAVAYE

Misha Cavaye enters his second season with the South Bay Lakers in the multi-faceted role of strength and conditioning coach, massage therapist and equipment manager.

A native of London, England, Cavaye has an extensive history with the Los Angeles Lakers organization, having served as an assistant equipment manager with the team since 2011. Since 2014, Cavaye has been a performance coach with Velocity Sport Performance and a posture therapist for Myodetox, specializing at in-home pain treatment, rehabilitation and other manual therapies. He is a graduate of Cal State Northridge and Concordia University.

BASKETBALL OPERATIONS COORDINATOR

NICK LAGIOS

Nick Lagios enters his third season with South Bay, and his first in his new role as Basketball Operations Coordinator. Lagios had previously served as the team's video coordinator and basketball operations assistant.

Prior to joining the organization, the University of Colorado graduate, served as a team assistant with the Australian National Basketball Team at the 2016 Rio Olympic Games. He has also previously worked with the Stanford men's basketball team.

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

JESSE BUSS

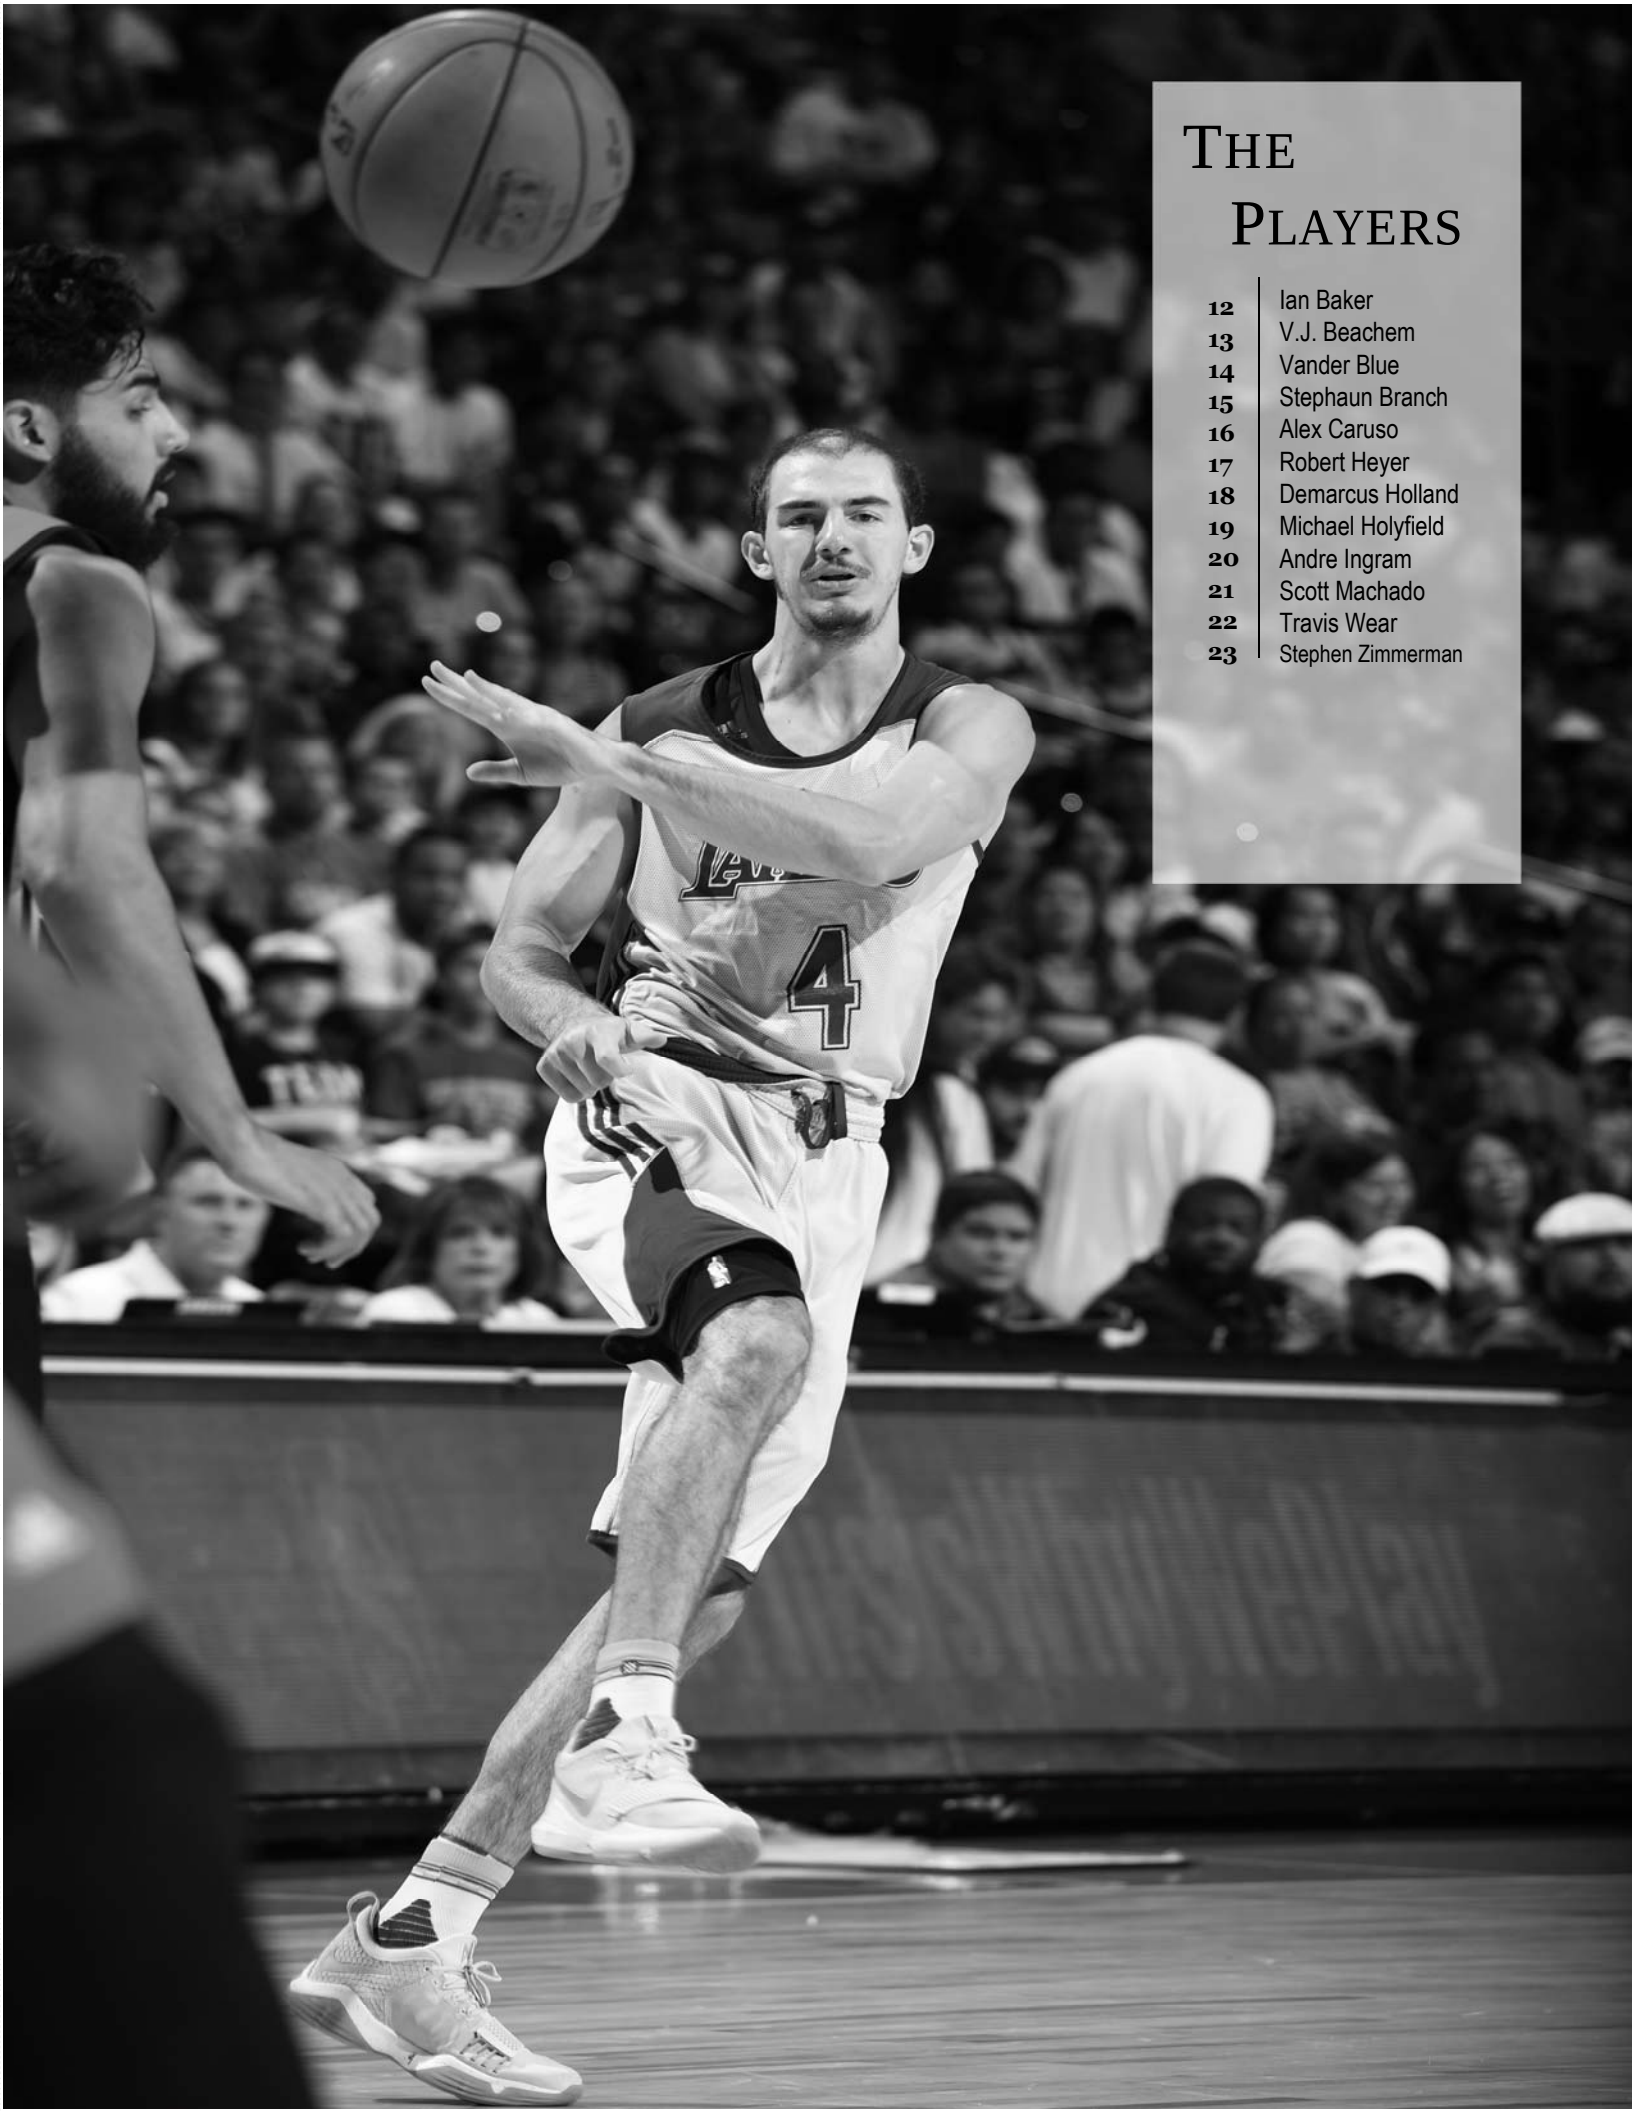

Jesse Buss begins his third season in the role of assistant general manager/director of scouting. In his role, Buss oversees all scouting-related matters for both the Lakers and South Bay Lakers, and has an essential role in the drafting of players for both franchises.

At the helm of the teams' scouting efforts, Buss orchestrates the schedules for the scouting staff, and maintains a rigorous scouting schedule himself, ensuring well-informed and thorough decisions can be made on all draft eligible prospects each year.

Prior to his promotion, Buss served as the Lakers' director of scouting from 2012-15. Originally joining the organization in 2006, Jesse spent two seasons as a basketball operations assistant, where he wrote scouting reports in addition to his local scouting duties. He went on to serve as a scout from 2008-11, working domestically and internationally, and then as scouting coordinator for the 2011-12 season, overseeing all scouting operations.

The youngest son of the late Dr. Jerry Buss, Jesse grew up in San Diego and is a Chargers, Dodgers, and Kings fan. He and his fiancé Jordanna had their first child, son Jaden, in February 2016.

MEDIA & GENERAL INFO

- 131 | Media Guidelines / Policies
- 132 | UCLA Health Training Center Info

MEDIA GUIDELINES AND POLICIES

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All requests should be submitted via email or in writing (on company letterhead) to the South Bay Lakers Media Relations Department at least 24 HOURS PRIOR to the game you wish to cover.

NO CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED ON GAME DAY.

Please make certain all requests for credentials are confirmed by the MR department prior to arriving at UCLA Health Training Center. Credentials can be picked up at will call, located at the south entrance to the UCLA Health Training Center, adjacent to the box office. Proper identification is required to pick up all media credentials. Credentials must be visibly worn at all times and are non-transferable.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is available free of charge in the UCLA Health Training Center south lot, located at the south of the facility.

DIRECTIONS TO UCLA HEALTH TRAINING CENTER

From 405 Freeway, take 105 Freeway West. Exit on Nash. Take Nash three blocks south of Imperial Hwy. Turn left on Mariposa and continue to 2275 E. Mariposa.

PRE & POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

In accordance with NBA G League policy, both the Lakers and visiting locker rooms will be open to media members for a 45 minute period prior to game time (5:30 - 6:15 for a 7:00 pm game) and after approximately 15 minutes following the conclusion of the game. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the media with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms.

ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

GAME NOTES & STATISTICS

Game notes, rosters, etc. are available in the press room 2 ½ hours prior to game time. Statistics for each quarter and half will be available to working media following the conclusion of each period and at half-time. Postgame statistics are distributed as quickly as possible following the game and can always be found in the press room adjacent to the court.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Limited space is available for still photographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined on game day. ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED. Photographers must stay in their designated areas, and are asked to be considerate of print media and fans directly in their viewing area.

PRACTICE POLICY

The Lakers will conduct practices at UCLA Health Training Center, located at 2275 E. Mariposa Avenue in El Segundo, CA. Approximately the final 30 minutes of each practice will be open to the media, with players and coaches available for brief interviews immediately following each practice. Please contact the South Bay Lakers Media Relations Department to confirm practice times, sites and availability of players and coaches.

BROADCAST

Select games will be broadcast on Spectrum Sportsnet. Fans can also follow their favorite teams and prospects all season by streaming games live for free on Facebook Live or via the NBA G League's YouTube channel and through a YouTube video player on NBA.com.

On September 18, 2015, construction began on the new 120,000 square-foot facility that will serve as the home for the Los Angeles Lakers and the South Bay Lakers. The UCLA Health Training Center, located at 2275 E. Mariposa Avenue in El Segundo, will be used by both teams as a training center, but will also host all home games for the South Bay Lakers. The building also houses offices for many branches within both organizations.

The 80,000 square-foot first floor includes a double court gymnasium with on-court smart board and video displays for strategic planning and playbacks; plyometric training areas; weight and conditioning gym that opens to the court; a video theater/screening room directly adjacent to the player lounge; an indoor-outdoor lounge fully outfitted for video, sound and a myriad of digital connections; a barber shop; a player kitchen and training table (as well as an adjacent commercial kitchen directed by a nutritionist); a player quiet room outfitted with blue light spectrum lighting; a state-of-the-art training room with multiple whirlpools, two plunge pools, a resistance pool and cryogenics chamber; a separate training area for the South Bay Lakers and all the necessary accessory spaces to support a high level Training, Recovery and Rest program.

The building is conceived to be in concert with and as part of the Lakers branding strategy; its form and imagery designed to communicate the team identity, history, philosophy, goals and ambitions. The project is designed for players, staff, guests and sponsors to feel the excitement of being within the team's inner sanctum, starting with their entry to the grounds and continuing throughout. The layout integrates the Lakers business and the basketball side; facilitating a synergistic relationship across all aspects of the organization. The project is intended to be a showcase for player/coach recruitment and for promotions involving corporate sponsors and strategic partnerships.

Designed by Detroit-based sports and entertainment architect ROSSETTI in conjunction with the Los Angeles architectural office of Perkins + Will, the facility became the home of the Lakers organization in August of 2017.
