Jud Buechler

Head Coach

In his second season on Luke Walton's staff, Jud Buechler will get his first taste of the NBA Summer League as he serves as the team's head coach. Buechler enjoyed a 12-year playing career highlighted by winning three consecutive championships with the Chicago Bulls from 1996-98, and was a member of the 1995-96 Bulls team that went 72-10 in the regular season. Buechler also suited up for the New Jersey Nets, San Antonio Spurs, Golden State Warriors, Detroit Pistons, Phoenix Suns, and Orlando Magic between the 1990-91 and 2001-02 seasons, appearing in 720 regular season (29 starts). In 1998-99, he finished 10th in the league in three-point field goal percentage, playing all 50 games of the lockout-shortened season. In total, he made the postseason seven times with three different teams, appearing in 71 playoff games.

The University of Arizona alum played four seasons under Hall of Fame coach Lute Olson from 1986-90, averaging 14.0 points, 8.3 rebounds, and 4.0 assists as a senior, and was a First-Team All-Pac 10 selection before being drafted 38th overall in the 1990 NBA Draft by the Seattle Supersonics. In addition to his basketball accolades, the 48-year-old was also an All-America volleyball player in college.

The Poway, CA native led Poway High School to three consecutive California Interscholastic Federation championships and was named CIF Player of the Year once, and in 2012 became the first athlete inducted into the Poway High School Hall of Fame.

Brian Keefe

Assistant Coach

A 13-year veteran of the NBA coaching realm, Brian Keefe begins his second season with the Lakers. Keefe arrived in L.A. after spending the 2013-2015 seasons as an assistant coach with the New York Knicks, preceded by seven seasons spent working with the Oklahoma City Thunder (including the organization's final season in Seattle), originally joining the franchise in the summer of 2007. He served as a player development coach for two years with the Thunder before spending his final five seasons as an assistant coach, and during his run, the team reached the post-season five times including a trip to the 2012 NBA Finals.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Keefe spent two seasons (2005-07) as assistant video coordinator for the San Antonio Spurs, earning an NBA Championship ring as part of Gregg Popovich's staff following the Spurs' title run in 2007.

Keefe's coaching career began in 2000-01 as a graduate assistant at the University of South Florida and continued as an assistant coach at Bryant University in Rhode Island (2001-05) before joining the Spurs.

A graduate of the University of Nevada-Las Vegas with a degree in sociology, Keefe played his final two collegiate seasons for the Rebels after transferring from UC Irvine. He served as team captain at both schools, and was named to the All-Big West Second Team in 1996 while at UC Irvine.

Mark Madsen

Assistant Coach

A two-time NBA Champion as a player with the Lakers (2001 and 2002), fan favorite Mark Madsen returns to the Summer League bench for the fourth consecutive year. The 2017-18 season will be his fifth in a coaching capacity with L.A., and fourth as an assistant coach, after serving as player development coach for the 2013-14 campaign.

Selected 29th overall by the Lakers in the 2000 NBA Draft, Madsen played three seasons in L.A. (2000-03) and was a member of back-to-back NBA championship teams his first two seasons in the league. He then signed with the Minnesota Timberwolves prior to the 2003-04 campaign and played six seasons (2004-09) with the Wolves. In 453 games (70 starts) over nine NBA seasons, Madsen averaged 2.2 points and 2.6 rebounds.

Following his playing career, Madsen served as an assistant coach during the 2009-10 season with the Utah Flash of the NBA D-League before returning to his alma mater, Stanford University, where he earned his MBA from the Stanford Graduate School of Business in 2012. That same year, he was named an assistant coach on Stanford Head Coach Johnny Dawkins' staff and spent the 2012-13 season working in recruiting, opponent game planning, and player skill development.

Known by fans as "Mad Dog" for his signature physical and aggressive style of play, Madsen has enjoyed success at every level of basketball. Helping lead Stanford to four NCAA Tournament appearances, including the 1998 Final Four, Madsen averaged 10.9 points and 7.9 rebounds for his Cardinal career while ranking among the school's top-10 all-time performers in field goal percentage (4th/.587) and total rebounds (6th/857). The Cardinal also notched its first 30-win season (1997-98), claimed two Pac-10 titles (1999, 2000), earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time (2000) and advanced to the NCAA Final Four (1998).

A native of Danville, CA, Madsen, 41, earned his undergraduate degree in economics in 2000. He attended San Ramon Valley High School and served a two-year Mormon mission in Spain following his graduation from high school.

Miles Simon

Assistant Coach

The first-year coach joins Luke Walton's staff after serving as a prep coach with USA Basketball. Most recently, Simon served as head coach of the 2017 USA Junior National Select Team for the Nike Hoops Summit, leading the USA to a victory over the World Select Team. Simon won gold medals as an assistant for the 2016 USA Men's U17 World Championship Team, as well as the 2015 USA Men's U16 National Team. In addition to his work with USA Basketball, Simon has spent each of the last nine NBA off-seasons working in a player development role with some of the league's top talent and served as the Director of the Nike Basketball Academy last summer. Simon has also worked as a college basketball analyst for ESPN.

The Arizona alumnus was the 1997 NCAA Tournament MOP after leading the Wildcats to a National Championship as a junior. Upon graduation, Simon played one season for the Orlando Magic (1998-99), before spending time playing overseas and in the CBA. At the conclusion of his playing career, Simon spent three seasons (2005-08) as an assistant coach at Arizona on Lute Olson's staff.
