PNC Field was originally known as Lackawanna County Stadium when it opened on April 26, 1989. The artificial turf stadium was used as a multipurpose facility. Under the Phillies umbrella, the SWB Red Barons called Lackawanna County Stadium home from 1989-2006.

A new affiliation with the New York Yankees took hold and the SWB Yankees opened a new era at the stadium in 2007.

The club began a new era as the RailRiders by opening a freshly renovated PNC Field in 2013. The inaugural season of the RailRiders saw over 430,000 spectators pass through the gates, the highest turnout since 2008.

PNC FIELD GROUND RULES

1. Any batted or thrown ball that enters the dugout or strikes any equipment inside the dugout area is considered to be a dead ball and one base will be awarded.
2. Any thrown ball that strikes the protective screen in front of the dugouts will be considered a live ball. Should it enter the dugout area and return to the field of play or become lodged it will be considered a dead ball and one base will be awarded.
3. Any batted or thrown ball that becomes lodged under a bullpen area bench is considered to be a dead ball and one additional base will be awarded.
4. Any batted or thrown ball that becomes lodged in the tarp or enters the tarp cylinder shall be considered a dead ball and one additional base will be awarded.
5. No defensive player shall be permitted to place any footing on the tarp or tarp cylinder. A player may lean on the tarp.
6. A fairly batted or thrown ball lodged in the protective padding on the outfield wall shall result in two bases awarded.
7. A batted ball that hits the padding and bounces over the wall shall result in two bases awarded.
8. Any batted ball that becomes lodged in or beneath the outfield gate will be considered a dead ball and two bases shall be awarded
9. A fly ball that hits the yellow line on the outfield wall and then goes over the wall is a home run. A fly ball that hits the yellow line on the outfield wall and then goes back on the field is in play. Any ball that strikes a sign above the yellow line and returns to the field of play is deemed a home run.

MEDIA POLICIES AND INFORMATION

PRESS CREDENTIALS:

Press credentials will be issued only to accredited members of the media. Requests on company letterhead should be faxed to (570) 575-3465, emailed to amarco@swbrailriders.com or mailed to:

Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders Media Relations
PNC Field - 235 Montage Mountain Road
Moosic, PA 18507

PHOTOGRAPHERS:

Photographers are allowed in the camera wells on the field during games provided they have on display a proper field photo pass issued by the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders. Any secondary use of any picture, audio description, film/tape or drawing of an event at PNC Field (including, but not limited to: the use in delayed editorial or non-editorial, advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) by a holder of a media pass is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders.

CLUBHOUSE:

The clubhouse and dugouts will be closed to all media one hour prior to all games and will reopen 10 minutes following the end of the game to those with proper credentials. At times, certain additional restrictions may be imposed. The training room, weight room and players' lounge are closed to media at all times.

FIELD AND DUGOUTS:

The playing field and dugouts must be clear of all media representatives 30 minutes prior to game time and remain so until after the game unless otherwise instructed.

PRESS BOX:

The press box is located behind home plate with seating for media as soon as you walk in. You are required to have an official credential on your person at all times.

INTERVIEWS:

Pre-game interviews should be arranged prior to and following RailRiders batting practice on game and practice days. Post-game interviews are available starting 10 minutes after every game.

MEDIA NOTES:

Game information and statistics are available in the press box approximately two hours before game time. Anyone needing information earlier should contact the media relations department. Box scores and play-by-play sheets are available in the press box after the game.

MEDIA GUIDES:

The 2018 Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders Media Guide will be provided by a media relations representative upon request.

RAILRIDERS RADIO BROADCASTS

Prior to the start of the 2018 season, the RailRiders and Bold Gold announced a three-year extension that made "The Game" the radio home of the RailRiders through the 2020 season.

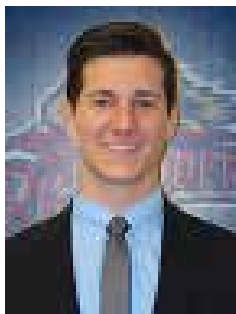

Bold Gold Media Group will air all 140 regular-season games, all post-season games, the Triple-A All-Star Game and the Triple-A Baseball National Championship Game on the multi-station network. Fans can catch 'The GAME' on five different frequencies throughout Northeast PA: 100.7 FM (Wilkes-Barre & surrounding areas), 1340 WYCK-AM (Luzerne County), 1400 WICK-AM (Lackawanna County), 1440 WCDL-AM (Lackawanna County & Pocono Lake Region) and 106.7 FM (Wayne & Pike Counties).

In addition to the over-the-air broadcast, all games will be streamed live over the Internet with links available through swbrailriders.com and boldgoldradioneпа.com. The games will also be streamed through Bold Gold's new, state-of-the-art RadioBOLD Mobile App, available for free in the Apple and GooglePlay Marketplace and at RadioBOLD.com.

ADAM MARCO: A product of Western Pennsylvania, he graduated from Mercyhurst College in 2001. After seven years on the radio professionally, Adam began his career in Minor League Baseball as a promotions intern and broadcaster for the Williamsport Crosscutters in 2007. In 2008 and 2009, he was the Assistant Media Relations Director and number two broadcaster for the Oklahoma City RedHawks.

In 2010, Adam joined the West Virginia Power, handling the team's radio broadcasts, media relations and serving as an account executive. In 2014, he was honored as the South Atlantic League's Media Relations Director of the Year. Over the final four years with the Power, he also handled all the team's marketing in addition to promotions, corporate sponsorship sales and his other responsibilities.

ADAM GIARDINO: Enters his ninth season of Minor League Baseball, and is bringing five years of experience in the Yankees system, having served as the Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations for the Trenton Thunder from 2013 to 2017. A lifelong resident of Franklin, Mass. and 2011 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Giardino works in the offseason announcing various sports for Dartmouth College, Brown University, Holy Cross, Harvard University and Northeastern University.

Prior to his time with Trenton, Giardino spent the 2012 season as the Media and Public Relations Assistant for the Lakewood BlueClaws (Class A, Philadelphia Phillies) and Broadcast Intern for the Pawtucket Red Sox (Triple-A, Boston Red Sox) during the 2010 and 2011 seasons.

BATS: LEFT

THROWS: LEFT

HEIGHT: 5'11"

WEIGHT: 185 LBS

BORN: AUGUST 11, 1960

RESIDES: TUCSON, AZ

YEARS WITH NYY: 3

DID YOU KNOW?: MITCHELL REPLACED AL PEDRIQUE, WHO SPENT 2 SEASONS WITH SWB AND WON 2 IL MANAGER OF THE YEAR AWARDS. HE IS NOW A BENCH COACH FOR THE OAKLAND ATHLETICS.

A 7th round selection of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1977, Bobby Mitchell, was named the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders Manager prior to the 2018 season.

In Mitchell's last two seasons at the helm, the Thunder won 87 and 92 games respectively (.185-.103, .642), led the team to a berth in the Eastern League Championship series each year and was named 2017 Eastern League Manager of the Year.

Mitchell appeared in 202 major league games over four seasons with the Dodgers and Minnesota Twins. He was a regular part of the outfield rotation for the Dodgers on their 1981 World Series Championship team.

When his playing career ended in 1986, he stepped into a coaching career that saw him serve as an Outfield, Base Running & Bunting Coordinator for the Atlanta Braves, Los Angeles Angels, Boston Red Sox, San Diego Padres and Montreal Expos.

He began his managerial career in 2006 with a two-year stint leading the Rancho Cucamonga Quakes (High-A, LAA). He then led the Angels' Triple-A affiliate, the Salt Lake Bees, for three seasons. In 2008 he guided the Bees to a 21-1 record to begin the season en route to a division championship and the second-best overall record in the Pacific Coast League with an 84-60 mark. The 2008 Bees began the season on an eight-game win streak, dropped their home opener; then won 13 straight for the best start in their franchise history.

Mitchell returned to a roving role in 2011 with the Angels before spending two seasons as a Manager for the Chicago Cubs' Rookie League affiliate in the Arizona League.

He attended the University of Southern California where he was a member of the 1974 NCAA Championship team under legendary Trojan coach Rod Dedeaux. He also played for the U.S. National Team in 1974 and 1976.

PITCHING COACH

TOMMY PHELPS

THROWS: LEFT

HEIGHT: 6'3"

WEIGHT: 200 LBS

BORN: MARCH 4, 1974

RESIDES: VALRICO, FL

DID YOU KNOW? PHELPS PITCHED IN THE INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOR BOTH TOLEDO (2001) AND COLUMBUS (2006)

Phelps enters 2018 for his 11th season as a coach in the Yankees organization and his third with the RailRiders. Under his tutelage in 2016, the RailRiders set franchise marks for ERA (2.98) and shutouts (24), and in 2017 he guided the staff to re-breaking the strikeout record that had been previously set in 2016. He served as Pitching Coach for High-A Tampa in 2015, mentoring a staff that led the FSL in strikeouts (1,074). Prior to that, he spent six seasons as pitching coach at Double-A Trenton (2009-14) and served as the Yankees' minor league rehabilitation coach in 2008.

Born in Seoul, South Korea, he graduated from Robinson High School in Tampa, Fla., in 1992 and was originally selected by the Expos in eighth round of the 1992 First-Year Player Draft. Phelps pitched in the Expos (1993-99), Tigers (2000-01), Marlins (2002-04), Brewers (2005) and Yankees (2006) organizations over 14 seasons.

He appeared in 75 combined Major League games (11 starts) with the Marlins and Brewers, posting a 4-5 record with one save and a 4.34 ERA. Phelps made 19 appearances (4 starts) for the 2004 World Champion Florida Marlins, posting a 4.76 ERA with 28 strikeouts over 34.0 IP. The left-hander pitched in 313 career MiLB games (182 starts), going 77-68 with five saves and a 4.12 ERA.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE MVP'S

SHANE VICTORINO -- 2005

Shane Victorino became the first Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player to win the International League's Most Valuable Player Award in 2005. At mid-season he was not even named to the All-Star team. However, a strong second half propelled him to the league's highest honor and a place on the post-season All-Star team. Overall he finished 6th in batting (.310), 2nd in runs (93), 1st in triples (16), 2nd in total bases (264), 5th in extra-base hits (59), 5th in slugging (.534) and 8th in OBP (.377). In addition he slugged 18 HR and drove in 70.

SHELLEY DUNCAN -- 2009

Shelley Duncan became the second Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player and first Yankee to win the award for his outstanding 2009 season. Duncan established a new franchise record by clubbing 30 home runs. He led the International League in home runs, RBI (99), extra-base hits (61), runs scored (85) and total bases (247). All this despite missing 20 games due to multiple big league callups. This combined with mid-season and post-season all-star selections made Duncan's 2009 season one of the best in franchise history.

BEN GAMEL -- 2016

Ben Gamel became the third Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player and first RailRider to win the award after an All-Star-caliber performance in 2016. The Neptune Beach, Fla. native owned the circuit's sixth-best batting average (.308) and finished fourth in the IL with 149 hits. He led the league with 80 runs scored to go with 26 doubles, five triples, six home runs, 51 RBI and led the team with 19 stolen bases. Gamel was the International League Rookie of the Year in 2015.

TRIPLE PLAY

The only triple play in Scranton/Wilkes-Barre history occurred June 5, 1997 at the Norfolk Tides. In game two of a doubleheader, singles by Wes Chamberlain and Phil Geisler put runners on first and second. Chris Saunders then hit a soft liner to shortstop Desi Relaford who stepped on second doubling up Chamberlain then threw to first to complete the triple play.

SWITCH-HIT HOME RUNS

On April 23, 1998 at Rochester, Darren Burton became the first Scranton/Wilkes-Barre player to switch-hit home runs in the same game. In the third inning, he hit a solo shot off righty Joel Bennett, then in the ninth inning, he connected for a three-run blast off lefty Vince Horsman.
