WE COVER EVERY BASE IN AGRICULTURE

CHS is a farmer-owned cooperative with one mission: helping those farmers win. It's why our cooperative team provides the inputs, technology and solutions to sustainably grow crops, the infrastructure to move grains and other products around the globe, and the fuels and energy to power the communities we serve. And what starts in farmers' fields becomes the food we enjoy at the ballpark and on our home plates.

SAINTS OWNERSHIP & EXECUTIVES

MARV GOLDKLANG
Chairman

Although a lawyer by profession, he enjoys working around the ballpark more than in a courtroom or the boardroom. A part-owner of the New York Yankees, Marv has served as the Saints Chairman of the Board since the team's inception in 1992. He played a key role in the formation of the "new" Northern League in 1992 and moved to the forefront again in 2006 with his leadership in the formation of the "new" American Association. Most recently, he helped negotiate the Triple-A partnership between the Saints and Minnesota Twins.

In addition to the Saints, Marv is the principal owner of Charleston (SC), the Yankees affiliate in the Class A South Atlantic League and Hudson Valley (NY), the Rays team in the short-season New York-Penn League.

Marv serves as Chairman of the Board for the Goldklang Group, which he co-founded in 1999, whose members provide management and consulting services. In addition to working with the teams in which he has a direct interest, the Group has several major and minor league sports franchises among its clients. It also has participated in the construction of sparkling new stadiums in St. Paul, Charleston, Hudson Valley and Brockton (MA) as well as assisting in the renovation of the Sioux Falls stadium.

Trademarks of his teams are their high attendance figures and national reputation for interesting, innovative, yet timely, promotions. Marv is an inductee in both the South Atlantic League and Florida State League Halls of Fame and is a member of the Board of Trustees, which oversees Minor League Baseball. He serves as Chairman of the Executive Committee for the South Atlantic League and a member of the New York-Penn League Executive Committee. Baseball America has identified Marv as among the most influential people in the industry.

Marv's interest in baseball goes back to his college days when he pitched for the University of Pennsylvania. There, he set a school record that still stands when he hit four batters with four pitches. Not only did he do it in the same inning, but he did it to consecutive batters.

MIKE VEECK
President

It is a name synonymous with FUN at the ballpark. Veeck continues to blaze new trails every baseball season. After all, who else would hire a dog or pig to deliver baseballs to the umpire, a Roman Catholic nun to give massages, mimes to perform instant replays, or lock fans out of the stadium to set an all-time attendance record for fewest people at a game.

The Veeck family started in baseball nearly a century ago when Veeck's grandfather was president of the Chicago Cubs. Veeck's father, Bill, was a Hall of Fame owner with the St. Louis Browns, Cleveland Indians, Chicago White Sox, and the then-minor league Milwaukee Brewers. Bill Veeck will always be remembered for signing Larry Doby, the first black man to play in the American League, and for sending 3'6" Eddie Gaedel to the plate for the Browns in a 1951 game against Detroit. It is with the belief that anything is possible and no idea too silly that Veeck operates his ballclubs.

Veeck is part owner of five baseball teams including the Charleston RiverDogs and is a consultant for one other. He has served to put fun back into baseball while proving his ideas are not specific to sport. An advertising professional, coveted public speaker, founder of the Veeck Promotional Seminar, and all-around idea man, Veeck wrote a book, entitled "Fun is Good," describing how this simple philosophy leads to success in any business.

Veeck has spoken and entertained groups at companies such as 3M, the NBA, General Mills, and NASCAR.

Veeck and his wife Libby, reside in Mt. Pleasant, S.C. He is the father of two children, William "Night Train" and Rebecca.

JEFF GOLDKLANG
Managing Director

Goldklang, a left-hander out of New Jersey, has been involved with the Group in various executive roles since his arrival in 2002. He began his career with the Charleston RiverDogs in 1994, handling the concessions and merchandise operations and was instrumental in the transition of the club into its new ballpark for 1997.

Upon leaving the RiverDogs, Goldklang joined Integrated Sports International, continuing with them through their acquisition by SFX Sports Group and subsequently Clear Channel Entertainment. During his tenure, Goldklang was part of the group that developed the Properties division of SFX Sports, managing all aspects of the merchandising program and specializing in the formation of sponsorship agreements with national brands, primarily sports related. In addition, he developed marketing programs for SFX Sports as well as the Theatrical, Radio, and Outdoor divisions of Clear Channel Entertainment.

Goldklang's current responsibilities as President within the Group center on the broad scale oversight of the Group's four franchises. This includes managing the financial operations of the Group's entities, managing the year-round use of venues, and coordinating- in tandem with the Group's marketing department- national and regional opportunities for the four Goldklang clubs.

BILL MURRAY
Team Psychologist

A lifelong baseball fan, Bill has been a part of the St. Paul Saints since the team's inception in 1993. On Opening Night, he was stationed outside the ballpark selling programs and later tossed out a first pitch. The next night, he coached first base. He was in the coaches' box again on August 10, 1997 when he played a major role in the biggest rally in team history. That night, the Saints trailed Sioux Falls, 9-2, after three innings. With the pennant race in full swing, manager Marty Scott turned the third base coach's box over to Murray, who had been coaching at first base that game.

St. Paul promptly began to rally, chipping away at the Canaries. It was 9-8 in the eighth inning with Lamarr Rogers on second and Dwight Smith on third and two out when things really got interesting. Lance Robbins singled to shallow left. Smith scored easily and Murray daringly sent Rogers home as well. Rogers barely beat the throw to the plate and the Saints had a thrilling 10-9 victory – and the biggest come-from-behind win in franchise history.

Among Murray's duties when he visits St. Paul: morale boosting and BP crusher.

TOM WHALEY
Executive Vice President

The St. Louis, MO native is a recovering attorney whose baseball career began accidentally in 1992 when he sold an outfield wall billboard, program ad, and four-season tickets to the general manager of a moving company as they stood on the courthouse steps following a hearing.

From 1993-98, he served as the Saints' Director of Operations and Assistant General Manager.

He spent two seasons as the Director of Corporate Sales for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays before joining the Goldklang Group in January 2001. He was principally involved in the start-up of the Can-Am League's Brockton Rox and the construction of a new baseball stadium and conference center in the Boston suburb in 2002. A year later, he was on hand when the Rox won the league championship.

In August 2002, he returned to the Saints, assuming his current position as Executive Vice-President responsible for business development and was one of the instrumental people in making CHS Field a reality. He purchased an ownership interest in the Saints in 2005. He lives in Lino Lakes with his wife, Kathleen. Three grown children live in a galaxy far, far away. Whaley is the past Board Chair for the St. Paul Area Chamber of Commerce.

DEREK SHARRER
Executive Vice President /
General Manager

Since moving to the Twin Cities in 2004, Sharrer continues to make the St. Paul Saints one of the more successful Minor League baseball teams in the country. His hard work and dedication have been rewarded the last four years, receiving Executive of the Year honors in the American Association from 2015-19. He oversaw the opening of CHS Field in what was an historic, record breaking year for the organization. The record breaking first year was topped in 2016 when the Saints finished seventh in all of minor league baseball in average attendance and number one in percent capacity, at 117%. They have topped Minor League baseball in percent capacity five straight seasons, averaging 113% capacity over that time.

Upon beginning his career in Fort Myers, FL with the Goldklang Group's Florida State League franchise, the Whiteland, IN native rose through the ranks of the Miracle quickly, ascending to the GM's chair in 1997. As part of the job there, he worked extensively with the Miracle's parent team – the Minnesota Twins – during spring training. The Miracle consistently bucked the trend of poor Florida State League attendance and led in that department under Sharrer.

In 2001, he moved to Charleston, SC. The RiverDogs, a Tampa Bay affiliate in the Class-A South Atlantic League, set attendance records every year Sharrer was there. With the help of such interesting promotions as Nobody Night (when fans weren't allowed into the ballpark until it was an official game), the RiverDogs drew a then team record 259,007 fans in 2003. Charleston mayor Joe Riley thought so much of Sharrer that he helped organize a special day in his honor before he left to join the Saints.

The days in St. Paul have been just as magical, leading a staff that has come up with promotional ideas that have gained national attention. Everything from Bud Selig ties, to the Michael Vick Chew Toy, to the incredible Bobblefoot, to the World Record Pillow Fight in 2015, to the most recent ballpark-wide food fight in 2018.

"St. Paul is a special place to live and work – particularly if work is minor league baseball," Sharrer said. "The Saints' tradition – thanks primarily to our fans – was established long before I arrived. I'm just thrilled to be a continuing part of it."

Sharrer resides in Woodbury with his wife Kandice, sons Sullivan and Lawson. "My family and I have thoroughly enjoyed our time here," he said. "We are looking forward to many more years to come."

CHRIS SCHWAB
Senior Vice President /
Assistant General Manager

This season will mark Chris's 18th in baseball, all with the Goldklang Group. This White Bear Lake native received his Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing from Minnesota State University.

In 2004, he started as a game day intern during the Saints championship season. Following that season, he moved to Sioux Falls and began working with the Canaries. Chris had many rolls with "The Birds" including Promotions Director, Box Office Manager, Director of Sales, and Assistant General Manager. The 2008 season was a banner year for Schwab and the Canaries, while breaking attendance records, the Canaries brought home their first, and only, championship.

Following the 2009 season, Schwab found his way back home to St. Paul. He works heavily in the ticket and sponsorship sales area and can be heard every game night telling fellow staff members "smiles everyone." Chris knew that sales was in his blood when, in 1993, he set the Minnesota Cub Scout record in nut roll and Christmas wreath sales. "When you have the opportunity to work with people like Tom, Derek, Mike, Marv and Bill, it makes the 17-years go by quickly".

COACHES

TOBY GARDENHIRE

The very first manager for the St. Paul Saints as a Triple-A affiliate of the Minnesota Twins. Who is Toby Gardenhire. There will be a lot of firsts in 2021 with the affiliation between the and Twins, but Gardenhire's name will forever be etched in the record books. He has eaten, breathed, and lived baseball ever since he was born in Manhasset, New York while his Dad, Ron, played for the New York Mets.

While his managerial career is just getting started, it has been extremely successful in the small sample size. In his first season at the helm he guided the 2018 the Single-A Cedar Rapids Kernels to a playoff berth in 2018 after winning the second half Western Division title. Overall, the Kernels went 77-62, fourth best record in the 16-team league. The Kernels swept their quarterfinal series, 2-0 over the Beloit Snappers (Oakland Athletics) before losing 2-0 to the Peoria Chiefs (St. Louis Cardinals) in the semifinals.

The following year, Gardenhire was promoted to High-A Fort Myers where he was named the Florida State League Manager of the Year and once again earned a playoff berth. The Miracle won the first half title and finished 74-59, third best record in the 12-team Florida State League. The league, however, cancelled their playoffs due to Hurricane Dorian.

Gardenhire has amassed a 151-121 record in his two seasons. He was scheduled to manage the Twins Triple-A team in Rochester during the 2020 season, but COVID-19 cancelled all of Minor League Baseball. Instead, Gardenhire was sent to St. Paul where he was one of the coaches at the alternate site for the Twins Taxi squad.

This is Gardenhire's sixth season as a coach or manager in the Twins organization. He assisted the GCL Twins in 2016, began the 2017 season as the third base coach for the Red Wings before finishing the year as the hitting coach for the GCL Twins. Gardenhire began his coaching career at the University of Wisconsin-Stout where he amassed an 81-117 record in five seasons (2012-16) and helped guide the Blue Devils to a 2014 WIAC tournament berth, their first in seven years.

Gardenhire has spent his entire professional career with the Twins organization. In addition to six seasons as a coach or manager, he played seven seasons in their Minor League system. He was originally drafted by the Twins in the 38th round in 2002 out of the University of Arkansas-Fort Smith, but did not sign. In 2005, he was selected in the 41st round by the Twins out of the University of Illinois. Gardenhire played at every level from the Rookie Appalachian League up through Triple-A. In 533 games he slashed .232/.292/.274 with 156 runs scored, 44 doubles, three triples, and six home runs.

DID YOU KNOW? Toby hit six home runs in his seven-year Minor League career. Two of those came against future Major Leaguers while he was at Triple-A in his final pro season in 2011: Mike Minor (Gwinnett) and Greg Smith (Pawtucket).

COACHING STAFF

MATT BORGSCHULTE HITTING COACH

The 30-year-old Borgschulte, who was scheduled to be the hitting coach in Rochester for 2020 and instead coached at the alternate site at CHS Field, begins his fourth season as a coach in the Twins organization.

He began as a hitting coach with the GCL Twins in 2018 and worked with Gardenhire in 2019 as hitting coach of the Mighty Muscles. Prior to that, Borgschulte was a coach in the St. Louis Cardinals organization in 2017 with High-A Palm Beach, eventually serving as their hitting coach over the final two months. Before joining the professional ranks, Borgschulte was a coach at his alma mater, Drury University (2014), then went on to Southeast Missouri State University (2015 & 2016), and Tusculum College (2015). He played two years at Drury and became the first All-American selection in the Panther programs seven-year history when he was named All-American Second Team as a senior in 2013. His 60 RBI and 125 total bases as a senior rank him third and tied for third, respectively, in single-season school history. His 20 home runs rank second in school history and he's third with a .577 career slugging percentage. Borgschulte attended Western Kentucky University from 2010-11.

MIKE MCCARTHY PITCHING COACH

Mike McCarthy was scheduled to be the pitching coaches in Rochester in 2020 and instead coached at the alternate site at CHS Field. The 33-year-old McCarthy began in the Twins organization in 2018 and spent two seasons as the Red Wings bullpen coach. The 2020 season was scheduled to be his first as pitching coach. McCarthy was a 14th round pick by the Boston Red Sox in 2011 out of Cal State University-Bakersfield. He spent six seasons in the Red Sox organization pitching at every level from Low-A through Triple-A. He went 28-27 with a 4.57 ERA and eight saves in 150 games (61 starts). In 496.0 innings he struck out 327 while opponents hit .275 against him. At CSU Bakersfield, he recorded a 1.62 ERA his senior season and tied for the DI regular season lead with 127.2 innings. McCarthy earned a Bachelor's Degree in pre-med at CSU Bakersfield and got his MBA from the University of Phoenix in 2016. He is currently working on a second Master's degree in Sport and Human Performance from American Military Institute. Following his playing career, and before he landed with the Twins, he worked in marketing for Lengthwise Brewing Company in Bakersfield. He is also a field coordinator for Baseball Miracles, a non-profit that aims to bring the game of baseball to deserving children in underserved communities around the world.

CIBNEY BELLO PITCHING COACH

The 38-year-old Bello is no stranger to the Twins organization. The 2021 season is his sixth as a coach in the system. He was also scheduled to be a pitching coach for Rochester in 2020, but instead was sent to the alternate site at CHS Field.

He's been the pitching coach in the organization with the Rookie GCL Twins (2016-17), Single-A Cedar Rapids (2018), and Double-A Pensacola (2019). In 2019, Bello was moved up to the Major Leagues, spending the final month of the season with the Twins. His coaching career began in 2011 when he was a pitching coach intern for the Rookie AZL Mariners, working under former Major League pitcher Gary Wheelock. He impressed during his internship and became the pitching coach for the AZL Mariners from 2012-13 and then moved up to the Single-A Clinton LumberKings from 2014-15. The Mariners were familiar with Bello having signed him as a non-drafted free agent in 2000 out of Venezuela. He pitched eight years for the Mariners organization, pitching in Venezuela from 2000-02 before pitching with the AZL Mariners in 2003. He reached High-A in both 2006 and 2007, his final season with the Mariners. Bello pitched in the Independent Can-Am and Golden Baseball Leagues from 2008-10.

TYLER SMARSLOK INFIELD COACH

The 28-year-old Smarslok will begin his professional career in 2021, although he was scheduled to be a coach with the GCL Twins in 2020. Despite this being his maiden voyage as a coach at the professional level, Smarslok has spent each year since he graduated from Kean University in 2015 as a collegiate coach. He's served as an assistant coach for Marist, Seton Hall University, Heidelberg University, and Claremont-Mudd Scripps. He operated as the volunteer assistant at Seton Hall in 2019 where he was the infield coach, responsible for the players' development and in-game alignment. Smarslok was a three-time DIII College World Series participant, an All-Conference, and National Rawlings Gold Glove recipient in his time at Kean University. He helped lead the Cougars to two NJAC Tournament Championships.

JASON KIRKMAN
CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER

The 46-year-old Kirkman, who was scheduled to begin his inaugural season in the Twins organization last year with the Red Wings, brings a bevy of experience to the Saints. Prior to being hired in 2020 by the Twins, Kirkman was with the Andrews Institute for Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine and Nemours Children's Health System. He brings 16-years of baseball experience as an athletic trainer. Kirkman began in the Phillies system at Low-A Batavia (2003), moved to Single-A Lakewood (2004-05), Double-A Reading (2007), Triple-A Lehigh Valley (2008-11), and High-A Clearwater (2012-13). From there, he landed with the Atlanta Braves and was the Athletic Trainer at the Rookie-level Gulf Coast Braves (2014). His final stop in the baseball world was with the Los Angeles Dodgers organization. He was with High-A Rancho Cucamonga (2015-16), where he was the California League Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2016. He spent 2017 at Double-A Tulsa and 2018 at Triple-A Oklahoma City. In addition to his time in baseball, Kirkman has professional hockey experience in the West Coast Hockey League with the Tacoma Sabercats (2000-2002) as the head athletic trainer. He got his start as an intern athletic trainer in the ECHL with the Idaho Steelheads (1998-2000). Kirkman earned his Bachelors of Science with an athletic training option from Boise State University in 2000 and Master of Health Science with an athletic training option from Nova Southeastern University in 2007.

STRENGTH COACH

The 28-year-old Dean begins his fourth season as a strength coach with the Twins organization after spending 2017-18 with the Mighty Muscles and 2019 with the Red Wings. He was scheduled to return to Rochester in 2020. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and studied Human Performance and Exercise Science at the University of Alabama, earning his Master's Degree in December, 2016.

PERSONAL FACTS

- Would go to Major League parks with his Dad, Tom, go to the outfield and hit a bag of balls as far as he could. When he was done, he'd run off and his Dad would have to pick up all the baseballs
- Barry Larkin is a family friend and private coach for Nick
- Began dabbling in music in 6th grade. His first song was Domination which he said was bad, terrible. A couple years later he started letting his parents hear his music and his Dad bought him a microphone. Released a nine song EP titled "I Do It All" in 2019. He writes his own lyrics and uses music as a creative outlet
- Dealt with gastritis in 2018 and 2019 (inflammation of the lining of the stomach the result of infection with the same bacterium that causes most stomach ulcers). Got rid of drinking soda, laid off fried foods as much as possible, cut out milk and ice cream. Was playing around 185-190 then got sick in 2018 and dropped to 260
- Dad, John, took the day off managing the Red Sox to watch his son pitch his first Major League game on July 1, 2017. Gary DiSarcina managed in his place (Red Sox won 7-1)

2020:

- Did not play an official professional game and was left off the Twins' 60-man Player Pool.
- Participated in Twins Fall Instructional League during October in Ft. Myers, FL.

2019: Began season with Double-A Pensacola...named Southern League Pitcher of the Week twice with Blue Wahoos: May 5 (1-0, 0.75 ERA, 12.0 IP, 1 ER, 3 BB, 7 K) and June 30 (1-0, 0.69 ERA, 13.0 IP, 1 ER, 2 BB, 8 K)...named Southern League Midseason All-Star...went 2-2, 1.92 ERA (51.2 IP, 11 ER) with 11 walks and 34 strikeouts in 10 starts pre-break...promoted to Triple-A Rochester August 6 for three starts, going 1-2, 4.50 ERA (16.0 IP, 8 ER) with three walks and 10 strikeouts...transferred back to Pensacola August 20 and made two starts to finish the season...combined to go 5-7, 2.90 ERA (127.1 IP, 41 ER) with 27 walks and 94 strikeouts in 23 starts between the two levels...held right-handed batters to a .225 batting average and left-handers to a .264 average...named best control in Twins minor league system by Baseball America following season.

2018: Spent season with Single-A Ft. Myers after being activated from the Military List on June 1...allowed three earned runs or fewer in nine of his first 10 appearances with a 3.41 ERA (60.2 IP, 23 ER)...played for Salt River Rafterers of the Arizona Fall League, going 1-1, 3.86 ERA (21.0 IP, 9 ER) with 11 walks and 14 strikeouts in six games (5 starts)...following season was named Air Force Academy Male Athlete of the Year.

2017: Made five starts between Rookie-Elizabethton and Single-A Cedar Rapids, combining to go 2-2, 2.61 ERA (31.0 IP, 9 ER) with seven walks and 20 strikeouts...placed on Military List July 26 for remainder of season.

2016: Began professional career with Rookie-Elizabethton, appearing in four games, all in relief, striking out eight in 8.2 innings pitched.

JAX AND THE AIR FORCE ACADEMY: Played baseball full-time while concurrently serving in the Air Force through the Air Force's World Class Athlete Program (WCAP); he was accepted into the program in April 2018 as a Second Lieutenant (the rank all cadets receive after graduating from the Academy)...the WCAP program was established in 1995 in honor of Tuskegee Airman Malvin G. Whitfield, who in 1952 became the first active-duty American serviceman to win an Olympic gold medal, doing so while simultaneously serving as a Korean War tail gunner...the program allows active duty soldiers to train for the Olympics as their full-time job responsibility, while still maintaining active duty status in the military (the Army has a similar program)...members of the program must still complete all mandatory Air Force trainings, continuing education, fitness assessments, etc...Jax became eligible for the program in 2018, because baseball was readmitted to the Olympics for 2020...he was paid by the Air Force while on active duty from 2018-19, as he could not have an outside source of income while on active duty; the Twins paid for equipment, travel, etc., thanks to a special deal arranged between MLB and the Air Force...he completed his two-year active duty commitment in 2019 and transferred to the Air Force Reserve in November 2019...Jax was promoted to First Lieutenant in May 2019 and is due to receive the rank of Captain in May 2021.

PROFESSIONAL: Selected by Twins in third round (93rd overall) of 2016 First-Year Player Draft; signed by scout Ted Williams...originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 12th round of the 2013 First-Year Player Draft.

AWARDS & HONORS

2019: Southern League Mid-Season All-Star (Pensacola)

PERSONAL FACTS

- First name is James. Middle name is Griffin. Dad's name is James Garth Jax, but goes by Garth Jax
- Has two younger twin brothers, Carson and Parker, who also went to Air Force
- Member of cadet squadron 21 at Cherry Creek (CO) HS

- Dabbled in football at QB, but his Dad was afraid he would wreck his body. Played corner infield and outfield in HS and didn't pitch until he got to college
- Was a Perfect Game Top 500 & 3rd ranked RHP from Colorado
- Originally said no to Military Academies as his first offer was West Point. But he wanted to play baseball at a big time school. Gave it some more thought, went on an official visit to the Air Force, and it turned out to be the right fit for him
- As part of his training, he was once dropped by parachute into the Rocky Mountains with a group of cadets, and ordered to locate and reach a certain pickup point within six days, all while staying hidden from "searchers" trying to flush them out
- Set a freshman record with 90.2 IP in 2014
- Finished with a school record 2.05 ERA in 2016 (junior) at Air Force, 2nd most wins (9) & 3rd most innings (105.2 IP)
- Had two separate scoreless streaks of 24.1 IP & 23.0 IP as a junior
- This is Griffin's 5th year of playing ball (2020 not counting) and makes him longest tenured player that finished schooling at Air Force. Also became first Air Force grad to play at Triple-A (2019)
- Department of Defense grants a 60-day leave between graduation and reporting for duty. Jax used that time in June 2017 to report to extended spring training and then played five weeks of the season
- Was named the Air Force Male Athlete of the Year for 2018

PERSONAL FACTS

- Maternal Uncle, Brian Cabral, went to University of CO, played 9 years in NFL and was an ILB coach at CU for more than 2 decades, including interim HC for 3 games in 2010. Currently Associate Head Coach & DC at Indiana State. Won a Super Bowl with '85 Bears
- Grandfather, Walter Cabral, was the first Hawaiian to play football at Notre Dame
- When Trevor was 12, his Dad put a fake $1 million bill on a framed photo in their home of Trevor smashing a HR. The rationale? He believed his son's swing would one day earn him a million dollars (signed for $2.55 million w/Twins)
- Played on same team at Oregon State in 2018 as White Sox 1st round pick Nick Madrigal (4th overall in 2018), Cady Grenier (1st round, 37th overall to Orioles in 2018) & Adley Rutschman (1st overall pick to Orioles in 2019) in 2018. Madrigal hit .340 in 2020 in 29 games
- Hit a two out, two-run HR in top of 9th of Game 2 of 2018 College World Series that gave Oregon State a 5-3 lead (won by that score) over Arkansas. They would go on to win the next game and the College World Series

PERSONAL FACTS

- Dad, Joe (pitcher), played for the Oakland Athletics organization from 1983-90 and was called up to the Major Leagues for a total of four days in 1988, but never appeared in a game.

- In 2013, he was promoted to High-A San Jose on July 6. He didn't walk a batter in his first 17 games (20.1 IP) until he walked Juan Silva of Bakersfield with two outs in the 9th. It was his only walk in 25.2 IP with San Jose. Had a 45 to 1 strikeout to walk ratio

- Struck out all three outs in his Major League debut on 4/15/16 @ Dodgers

- Turns his back when he pitches. Says he's been doing it since HS and didn't pick it up from anyone. Had a high leg kick and turned his back a little, then slowly got rid of the high leg kick and started turning his back a little more

- During his time with cancer, took a photo with the Phillies Cole Hamels. Also received encouragement and an autograph from Chase Utley when he was 10 on a trip to Citizens Bank Park, who he would reunite with 8 years later at Spring Training with the Dodgers in 2018 when Utley was with the team

- Writes the names of fellow cancer patients, under the brim of his cap, of both survivors and those that didn't make it. He started this at the age of 10 and did that as recently as 2018. Since then, carries a hat that has a bunch of names on it and puts it on his top shelf with all his other hats in his locker

- The radiation treatment he's gotten has thinned the walls of his bladder, which means he gets dehydrated easily. Means he can't drink caffeine, soda, lemonade & alcohol or tobacco. He drinks diluted Gatorade and water

- Struck out 20 in a 140 pitch CG with San Jacinto College in the Junior College National semifinal (team lost in finals 5-2)

- Committed to Texas Tech before being drafted by the Dodgers

AWARDS & HONORS

2014: MiLB.com Organizational All-Star (Kansas City), Baseball America High Class-A All-Star (Wilmington), & Carolina League Pitcher of the Year

PERSONAL FACTS

- Played football at Ganado (TX) HS (population 2,000, 90 miles southwest of Houston) and played a little bit of everything from kicker to WR to RB to LB.

- Was in the marching band in high school

- Wound up going to Wharton County (TX) JC because he went to a tryout after playing summer ball for the Victoria Generals. At the tryout a pro scout named Rusty Pendergrass (former Astros scout known for helping land Ben Zobrist and Hunter Pence) told him to call Wharton and tell them he was going to school there. So he did and they said, "We'll see you Monday." (although he had received a scholarship offer from DI Texas A&M Corpus Christi)

- Royals asked him to go to Kauffman and throw a bullpen session after his second year at Wharton JC, so he and his Mom drove from Ganado to Kansas City, MO (830 miles)

- Broke his thumb in Spring Training in 2017 when he was doing fielding drills in the outfield with other pitchers and a rag ball (used to prevent injuries) bounced off the grass and hit the tip of his thumb. Didn't realize he broke the thumb at first. Couldn't bend the thumb and realized something was wrong. Had three pins inserted into his thumb

DIAMONDS IN THE ROUGH

The count continues to grow for the St. Paul Saints. The talent that rolls through St. Paul doesn't always stay here. Many of the big sluggers and hard throwing pitchers catch the eye of scouts in attendance. As the 2021 season begins, the current total is 137 contracts sold, 127 total players including eight who had their contract sold twice and Caleb Thielbar who became the first player to have his contract purchased three times. Of the 137 contracts sold, eight were sold to international teams and a total of 19 have made it to the ultimate level of baseball following their time with the Saints (Julio DePaula, who played for the Saints in 2011, made it to the Major Leagues in 2014, never pitched in a game, but does not show up on the list below because his contract wasn't purchased directly from the Saints). The 2019 season had three players with their contract purchased, pitcher Nick Belzer had his contract purchased by the Milwaukee Brewers in June, outfielder Max Murphy had his contract purchased by the Arizona Diamondbacks in July, and pitcher Chris Lee by the Brewers in December.

Here is a list of players during the Saints' 28 seasons that have caught on with a Major League organization.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

As the Saints enter their first season as the Triple-A affiliate of the Minnesota Twins in 2021, fret not fans the pig isn't going anywhere. During the entire off-season people kept asking if we would keep the pig. Despite the fact we said over and over that we weren't going to change, not everyone believed us. Hopefully, this will make you feel a little more at ease. Even during a pandemic season in 2020, we had a pig. We're not giving up on the little swine just because we're a part of affiliated baseball. From the beginning of the season until the end, fans get a chance to watch the pig grow right before their eyes. Here is a look back at all the Saints pigs. The 2021 name was unveiled just before the Opening Day.

CHS FIELD

CHS FIELD FACTS & INFORMATION

The St. Paul Saints moved into their new home, CHS Field, prior to the beginning of the 2015 season. The state of the art ballpark was built and designed by Ryan Companies, Snow Kreilich Architects and Aecom. The ballpark incorporates the Lowertown neighborhood in its design on the Broadway side and gradually changes over to greenspace as it moves towards the field and outfield, incorporating in the Bruce Vento Nature Preserve beyond the ballpark in left field.

PROJECT COST:

- $63,000,000 (this is the cost of the entire project, not of just the ballpark)

SCHEDULE:

- Ground (Building) Breaking – July 13, 2013
- Construction Completion – February 27, 2015

DESIGN FACT:

- Fully accessible and fan friendly (at grade entry from downtown to concourse seating, 4 spectator elevators, semi-ambulant back row at concourse level, distributed accessible seating in every seating type and area).
- Visually porous design offers views of the historic Lowertown neighborhood and the Mississippi River valley.
- Artist's Gallery hosts interchangeable local artwork and the Andy Nelson mural from Midway in prime territory behind home plate.
- Western red cedar wood soffit provides a strong visual design element across the Concourse.
- Outfield batters eye features planter
- Trees are located inside the ballpark and in the concourse.
- Ballpark is oriented to take advantage of the natural topography of the site, nesting the seating bowl into the hillside
- Public artists, Futures North, art installation named "Meander". Physical and electronic visualization of data collected about the Mississippi River between headwaters at Lake Itasca and the Minnesota state line.
- Landscape design inspired by "stitching the seam" between downtown Saint Paul and the Bruce Vento Nature Sanctuary. The plantings transition from more rigorous urban to more naturalized, inspired by the natural reclamation of former industrial uses.
- Includes FM radio assistive listening system.
- All concession and ticket counters are accessible.

- 74 high definition televisions
- 129 speakers with a 22,800 watt sound system in the ballpark

SUSTAINABILITY:

- Reused 230 structural pile caps
- Reused 320 feet of existing foundation wall
- First Minnesota Sustainable Building Guidelines B3 compliant ballpark – the State's guideline for publicly funded buildings.
- 27,000 gallon cistern below the centerfield concourse captures 30,000 SF of rainwater hitting the roof of the next door neighbor MetCouncil Operations and Maintenance Facility. The water will be reused for fixture flushing and playing field irrigation. This will save 450,000 gallons of domestic water use each year, and will be one of the first ballparks to reuse rainwater for field irrigation and fixture flushing.
- Tree trenches at the Broadway entrance will capture and filter stormwater before releasing it off site.
- Rain garden at the 4th street entrance will capture and filter stormwater from the city street and adjacent sidewalks, before releasing it off site.
- Sub-grade filtration system below the playing field will capture and filter stormwater before releasing it off site.
- 102.5 kW solar array will supply 12% of the ballpark's energy demand in addition to acting as a shade pavilion in The Lawn group sales area. This is one of the largest in stadium arrays in professional sports.
- Spaces operated year round are supplied with heating and cooling by Saint Paul District Energy's hot water and chilled water loops. This is one of only a few ballpark that operate on district energy.
- Contamination 82,000 yards (49,500 cubic yards) of contaminated soils were removed from the site and placed
- The remaining contaminated soil has been capped such that stormwater is not able to filter through the remaining contaminants.
- All together, a site that was virtually 100% impervious, now boasts 55.9% pervious greenspace or paving.
- A site with virtually no trees not contains 135 trees and 36,000 SF of planting.
- The combination of these facts makes CHS field one of the most sustainable ballparks in America, as no other ballpark combines this level of stormwater management and reuse, with solar and district energy, while replacing a site with this level of contamination with this much greenspace.
- Nearly half of the materials, by weight, in the ballpark are recycled or salvaged.

CHS FIELD GROUND RULES

1. Any thrown ball that hits off the net behind home plate is considered in play
2. Any thrown ball that sticks in the net or padding behind home plate is automatically a dead ball
3. A fielder must catch a foul ball in front of either dugout with two feet on the playing surface
 - a. If a fielder catches a ball with two feet in the field of play and his momentum carries him into the dugout, the batter is out.
 - b. If a fielder catches a ball with two feet in the field of play and his momentum carries him into the dugout, he must return both feet to the playing surface before he can throw the ball to try and get a runner
 - c. If a fielder catches a ball in foul territory and slides or falls into the dugout and maintains control of the catch, the batter is out, but the base runners move up one base
 - d. A fielder may not stand on the wall in foul territory to catch a ball, nor may he have a foot in the stands
 1. As long as a fielder's feet are on the ground when they make the catch, his momentum may carry him over the wall and into the stands. He must maintain control of the ball when landing in the stands
 - e. A fielder may not stand on the tarp and catch a foul ball
 1. As long as a fielder's feet are on the ground when they make the catch, his momentum may carry him on the tarp to make the catch
4. A thrown ball that crosses the railing of the dugout is automatically a dead ball and the runner advances one base
5. If a ball goes behind the tarp, gets lodged in the tarp or goes into the tube the ball is automatically dead
6. If the ball gets stuck anywhere in the scoreboard in right-center field the ball is automatically dead
7. If the ball gets stuck anywhere in the outfield padding, the outfielder must raise his hands to signify a dead ball. If the outfielder plays the ball, the ball is considered live
8. If the ball gets lodged in the bullpen fence, the outfielder must raise his hands to signify a dead ball. If the outfielder plays the ball, the ball is considered live
9. The ball must clear the black wall in right field to be considered a home run. Any ball that hits off the metal railing above the black wall is a home run
10. Any ball hit to the left of the yellow line above the outfield wall is considered a home run
11. Any ball hit off the batters eye is considered a home run

CHS FIELD COVID-19 POLICIES

On behalf of the St. Paul Saints, the Triple-A affiliate of the Minnesota Twins and a member of the Triple-A East in the Major League Baseball Professional Development Leagues, the practices identified below represent practical best efforts to proactively invest and keep our community safe when attending functions, events and games at CHS Field, in preparation for the 2021 season. The outlined steps and initiatives are intended to preserve the safety of staff, players, fans, and guests.

The Saints will continue to follow the guidance of national, state and local agencies, as well as the directives of Major League Baseball, to develop these policies for hosting events at CHS Field. The input of public health and medical partners play a significant role in informing the policies below.

MASK REQUIREMENT

A. In accordance with the MaskUpMN mandate all employees and guests will be required to wear protective masks inside of CHS Field.

- I. All staff members shall be required to wear protective masks, as necessitated by current guidelines and best practices policies.
- II. Fans will be required to wear protective masks throughout the duration of their visit, except for when eating or drinking while seated in their reserved seats.

VENUE PLAN

A. In accordance with the Minnesota Department of Health and the StaySafeMN task force, this plan has been designed to comply with the guidance developed for outdoor entertainment venues.

- I. A maximum of 2,100 fans per game (approximately 27% of capacity)
- II. All seats or seating areas will be reserved allowing for a controlled environment
- III. Socially distant seating will be available in the reserved seating bowl (sections 101-120, the Treasure Island Berm (utilizing reserved seating boxes, premium group areas (utilizing reserved tables), the Suite level, and the Securian Financial Club.
- IV. Multiple socially distant entry/exit gates will be utilized. Upon purchasing tickets, fans will be directed to enter through a recommended gate determined by their seat location.
- V. Concourse – full 360 degree concourse will be open to all guests allowing for the maximum available space to be utilized when accessing restrooms, concessions, and team stores. Concourse traffic will be controlled through the use of stanchions, signage, public address, and direct communication with guests, directing them to follow right side traffic procedures.
- VI. Concession points of sale and team store locations will be staged with stanchions and floor marking to allow for proper social distancing (see images below from 2020 implementation).
- VII. Restrooms – sinks and urinals will be closed in an alternating pattern to limit capacity and allow for proper social distancing (see images below from 2020 implementation).
- VIII. Masks will be required for visitors throughout their time at CHS Field, but can be removed while seated and/or eating and drinking.
- IX. Concourse will be stanchioned to provide a safe, predictable walking traffic pattern for fans.
- X. Dugouts and Bullpens will be cleaned before and after every game. Additional rules with respect to these common areas will be developed and implemented to best ensure player, staff and fan health and safety. The Team will adhere to MLB's "buffer zone" guidelines to ensure proper distancing between fans and players/on-field staff.

B. The Saints will communicate with fans via email, text, and social media in advance of their game to provide specific instructions on parking, entrance, masking, and health screening.

SEAN ARONSON

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Aronson begins his 15th season with the Saints and will handle all 142 broadcasts. In 2016 he was awarded the Ballpark Digest Broadcaster of the Year Award for all of minor league baseball and on the final day of that regular season he became the first broadcaster in Saints history to call 1,000 games. He was nominated for a Regional Emmy for Saints TV broadcasts in 2010. Aronson works year-round with the Saints and is also in charge of the media relations. He was with another Goldklang Group team prior to his tenure with the Saints, working for the Fort Myers Miracle (Single-A Twins) from 2003-06. Prior to his stint with the Miracle, he spent two seasons with the Allentown Ambassadors of the then Northern League. Minnesota is the fifth state Aronson has lived. He graduated from the University of Colorado-Boulder with a B.S. in Journalism. He got his start as a broadcaster doing high school baseball in Colorado. Aronson, 44, was raised in Northridge, CA.

JW COX

PLAY-BY-PLAY/ANALYST

J.W. is in his 8th season as part of the Saints broadcast booth, first joining the team in 2014 during the final season at Midway Stadium. Over the last four seasons you could also catch J.W. as a co-host on Saints Live. A graduate of Arizona State University, J.W. spent four summers calling baseball in North Carolina and Wisconsin before coming to Minnesota as the radio voice of St. Cloud State football and men's and women's basketball, a position he has held since 2011. Along with covering multiple high school sports for North Metro TV, J.W. is also an anchor and reporter for Minnesota News Network. While not one to normally play favorites, J.W. won't hesitate to tell you his top three listeners, no matter what he's covering, are his wife Emily and two daughters Penelope and Winslow.

ANDY HELWIG

PRE- POST-GAME HOST

Helwig enters the 2021 season as his 4th season as a Minor League Baseball broadcaster. In 2020, the Buffalo, NY native was slated to broadcast games for the Myrtle Beach Pelicans (former Adv.-A affiliate of the Chicago Cubs) before the season was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In 2019 he was a member of the Buffalo Bisons broadcast team (Triple-A, Blue Jays) where he called play-by-play of select games and hosted the pre and postgame shows, along with interviewing the likes of Bo Bichette, Cavan Biggio and Vladimir Guerrero Jr. The 2018 season saw Helwig take on the role of Director of Broadcasting & Media Relations with the Batavia Muckdogs (former Single-A affiliate of the Miami Marlins) where he broadcast all 76 games for the New York-Penn League club. In the baseball offseason, Helwig is the radio voice of Canisius College basketball (Division I - Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference) and broadcasts a variety of other sports on ESPN3 and ESPN+. Helwig graduated in 2019 from Canisius College with Bachelor's Degrees in both Journalism and Sport Management. In his free time, the 23 year-old plays below-average golf, roots for the Buffalo Bills and Sabres and spends time with his dog, Juice.

ST. PAUL SAINTS BROADCAST INFORMATION

From TV, to radio, to streaming platforms there won't be any excuses not to follow the Saints in 2021.

Three different TV stations will carry the Saints, in addition to their traditional Saints Cable Network broadcasts, this season. Each Friday night home game will be carried on FOX 9+ (Comcast 10/807, DirectTV 29, Dish 29, Mediacom 10/803, Over the Air 9.2 and Spectrum 10). The Saints have a total of 10 Friday night home games, beginning with May 14. In addition to the broadcast of the games, FOX 9+ will also carry the post-game fireworks show. Each Friday night fireworks show is set to a different musical theme.

For the third full season, all Sunday home games will be carried on 45TV, the only fully independent station in Minneapolis/St. Paul. The Saints have a total of 10 Sunday home games beginning with May 16.

The Saints will also have 10 home games on Bally's Sports North/Bally's Sports North PLUS beginning with the Wednesday, May 19 game on BSN (would move to BSN Plus if there is a Minnesota Wild playoff game). The other nine games are: May 20 (BSN Plus), May 22 (BSN, unless there is a Wild playoff game then BSN Plus), June 12 (BSN Plus), July 1 (BSN), July 15 (BSN), July 28 (BSN Plus), July 31 (BSN Plus), August 18 (BSN), and August 21 (BSN).

A total of 30 of the Saints 60 home games are broadcast on over the air channels with the remaining 30 on the Saints Cable Network, cable access channels in and around the Twin Cities Metro Area. The channel in your area can be found at saintsbaseball.com.

The Saints will broadcast all 60 home games at MiLB.TV. A subscription is required and includes the broadcast of all Minor League teams.

In addition to TV, the Saints will broadcast all 120 games via radio through KFAN Plus (96.7 FM) and for the first time in franchise history the Saints will appear on KFAN (100.3 FM). All Sunday games will be carried on KFAN, as well as on KFAN Plus (the Saints will be bumped off of KFAN if any scheduling conflicts arise i.e. Wild playoff games). For those that don't live in the coverage area, fans can download the iHeart Radio app and listen to games anywhere in the world.

Sean Aronson returns for his 15th season as the play-by-play broadcaster of the Saints and will handle the broadcast for all games. He will be joined by J.W. Cox who returns for his eighth season working alongside Aronson. Cox has been the part time number two broadcaster for the last seven seasons, but now steps into the full-time roll in 2021. Cox did play-by-play for St. Cloud football and currently does Huskies Men's and Women's Basketball as well as play-by-play on TV for North Metro Television and PrepSpotlight.tv. He also works for the Minnesota News Network. Joining the broadcast team is Andy Helwig, who will host a 20-minute pre- and post-game show on all radio broadcasts. Helwig spent 2019 in a similar role with the Buffalo Bisons, while also filling in on select broadcasts. He got his start in the baseball world in 2018 as the Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations for the Batavia Muckdogs. Since 2015, Helwig has been the voice of Canisius Men's Basketball.

SEAN ARONSON

Aronson begins his 15th season with the Saints and will handle all 120 broadcasts. In 2016 he was awarded the Ballpark Digest Broadcaster of the Year Award for all of minor league baseball and on the final day of that regular season he became the first broadcaster in Saints history to call 1,000 games. He was nominated for a Regional Emmy for Saints TV broadcasts in 2010. Aronson works year-round with the Saints and is also in charge of the media relations. He was with another Goldklang Group team prior to his tenure with the Saints, working for the Fort Myers Miracle (Single-A Twins) from 2003-06. Prior to his stint with the Miracle, he spent two seasons with the Allentown Ambassadors of the then Northern League. Minnesota is the fifth state Aronson has lived. He graduated from the University of Colorado-Boulder with a B.S. in Journalism. He got his start as a broadcaster doing high school baseball in Colorado. Aronson, 44, was raised in Northridge, CA.

ST. PAUL SAINTS MEDIA POLICIES

The St. Paul Saints will follow all CDC and Minnesota Department of Health guidelines for all areas of the ballpark including the press box. Please note the below rules are subject to change and information will be provided to media members regarding and all adjustments. Failure to comply will result in a loss of media privileges.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

The healthy and safety of everyone at CHS Field is of the utmost importance. All members of the media are required to wear a mask at all times, except when eating or drinking. The face masks must completely cover your nose and mouth. We also ask all media members to practice social distancing. The Saints will do their best to socially distance media members in all seating areas of the press box and auxiliary areas. These rules applies to every working media member, including those that have received FDA-approved COVID-19 vaccinations.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All media requests must be submitted no later than 24-hours prior to their requested date. Media members can request passes by going to INSERT LINK HERE. All media credentials will be issued digitally. If you are unable to utilize your phone for a digital credential, you will be required to print the credential and present it upon entry. Your Twins press pass WILL NOT get you into CHS Field and you must request a pass from the Saints. Please contact Sean Aronson (saronson@saintsbaserball.com) regarding the credential process)

MEDIA ACCESS

As per MLB guidelines to all Minor League teams, members of the media are prohibited from accessing any area frequented by Tier 1 and 2 personnel. This includes and is not limited to the home and visiting clubhouses, playing field, warning track and dugouts.

PRESSBOX ACCESS

Due to the need for physical distancing their is limited space in the CHS Field Press Box. The Saints will work with all media members to accomodate them inside the press box, outside of the press box between the Securian Financial Club and press box or in an auxiliary location. The Saints will do their best to be fair to all media members, but priority seating areas will be given to those that routinely cover the team. Food and beverage will be provided to working media each game. Soda and water are available in the refrigerators located in the back of the main area of the press box. Meals are scheduled to arrive approximately one hour prior to first pitch. Any additional food or drinks will be the responsibility of each media member. No alcohol will be allowed inside the press box.

INTERVIEWS

The Saints will do their best to work with media members to set up interviews pre- and post-game and throughout the season when the team is on the road. All interviews will either be over a video conference or in person outside. Players must remain on the field and media members must be in the stands, at least six feet (approximately the second row of seats) from the field.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

All baseball information, including game notes, stat packs, lineups, rosters and press releases are available at saintsbaserball.com in the "Sean Aronson Virtual Press Box."

PHOTOGRAPHERS AND VIDEOGRAPHERS

Still photographers and videographers are subject to the same rules noted above for other members of the media. Videographers can shoot from the Club level in between the Securian Financial Club and press box or along the concourse, but may not impede the view of any fan. Still photographers WILL NOT be allowed in the camera wells of either dugout. Still photographers will be allowed down in the promotions area, located at the bottom of the steps to the left of the first base dugout, only when shooting photographs. If you are not actively shooting photos you will not be allowed to loiter in that area under any circumstances. If you are loitering in that area you will be asked to leave. Continual loitering in that area will result in loss of your media credential.
