The dream of one native son that began decades ago has not only become a reality, but is about to enter its 18th season in 2016. The story of the Altoona Curve begins in 1979. Area native Bob Lozinak, a successful McDonald's franchisee, knew his hometown was a baseball haven and always dreamed of what it would be like to have a professional sports team in his hometown. He had a chance to make a dream of many come to fruition, so as the 1970s were about to come to a close, a series of meetings and preliminary discussions took place to put the plan into motion. However, there was enough opposition that thwarted the idea as an initial fear from natives was that a professional team would hurt the successful youth teams in the region. Professional baseball, for the time being, was put on the back burner.

In the meantime, that same year, Bob and his family went across the country and bought what became one of the most successful franchises in the entire country - the Albuquerque Dukes (AAA - Dodgers)

Fast-forward 16 years.

Like many other decisions in baseball, the latest round of major league expansion had a domino effect on the minor leagues. In 1995, Arizona and Tampa Bay were awarded major league franchises to play their inaugural season in 1998. To keep pace, baseball's rookie level added two teams in 1996. The following year, Class 'A' and Class 'AAA' each increased by two teams.

Groundbreaking ceremonies, March 7, 1998

That left only Class 'AA' in need of expansion to match the number of teams in the big leagues. In 1997, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues decided the Eastern League would receive the two new franchises to start play in 1999. Erie was an easy first choice of the NAPBL's expansion committee. After all, the SeaWolves had established short-season attendance records in the new Jerry Uht Park as part of the New York-Penn League from 1995-98.

The awarding of the second franchise wasn't easy. For months, it seemed Springfield, Mass. would land the team. However, an inability to finalize land and stadium finance deals left the NAPBL looking for another option. Enter Altoona. City native Bob Lozinak and a group of Pennsylvania lawmakers put together an 11th-hour stadium financing package and site plan. The proposal was presented to the expansion committee at an October 5, 1997 meeting in Las Vegas. It received unanimous approval and Double-A baseball was on its way to Altoona.

Ballpark ground breaking ceremonies took place on March 7, 1998 and the franchise was officially awarded the following month. In June of that year, the team selected "Curve" as its nickname. The combination railroad/baseball moniker beat out several choices like "Lake Monsters," "Ridge Runners" and, believe it or not, "Fish"!

New Curve owner Bob Lozinak sports his Pirates jacket at the press conference announcing what has become one of the longest and most successful affiliations between a minor league franchise and a major league parent club.

The next step for the Curve was affiliating with a major league team. Erie seemed to have an inside track on becoming the Pirates' new Double-A club, as the SeaWolves had served as Pittsburgh's short-season club from 1995-98. However, after a series of meetings with potential major league parent clubs, the Curve landed the coveted affiliation with the Pirates. The September 1998 announcement took the franchise to another level as the U.S. Route 22 pairing seemed an ideal fit. Central Pennsylvania fans, with their strong Pirates' roots, could now cheer for the Bucs' top prospects on their way to Pittsburgh.

The long-awaited first game in Curve history took place on April 9, 1999 in Reading, Pa. The game against the Phillies' affiliate was suspended by rain and completed the next day as part of a doubleheader. For the record, the Curve lost their first contest, 6-2, but recorded their first win hours later with a 6-4 decision in game two.

Finally, the Curve christened Blair County Ballpark on April 15 with a triumph over the Bowie Baysox. A crowd of 6,171 attended the history-making contest despite cold, rainy weather and nearly a one-hour delay.

son to that point, drawing 363,871 fans to Blair County Ballpark.

Between the 2002 and 2003 seasons, Blair County Ballpark underwent its first major capital expansion project, as a new third-base Picnic Area, left-field Party Deck and outfield reserved seating section were constructed. The additions of the new areas brought the seating capacity of the ballpark to just over 7,200 and created enough room to hold nearly 10,000 fans on any night.

During the 2003 season, the Curve, led by third-year manager Dale Sveum, took the franchise to new heights on the field, posting a 78-63 regular season record and securing the club's first-ever Eastern League postseason berth. The Curve lost to the eventual E.L. Champion Akron Aeros three-games-to-one in the first round of the playoffs. The playoff run helped fuel yet another franchise attendance record as 365,376 fans came through the gates at BCB.

In 2004, the Curve, managed by Tony Beasley, finished with a league-best 85-56 record and not only returned to the playoffs, but took the next step and advanced to the Eastern League Championship Series for the first time in club history before losing to the New Hampshire Fisher Cats. The '04 season also turned out to be a banner year at the gates as the Curve added a fifth consecutive franchise attendance record after drawing 394,062 fans to Blair County Ballpark. Among those fans who attended Curve home games in 2004 was Vice President Dick Cheney, who attended the club's Fourth of July game against Harrisburg. Following the season, Curve General Manager Todd Parnell was honored as the Eastern League Executive of the Year, while the franchise was presented the prestigious Larry MacPhail Trophy symbolizing the top promotional effort, both on and off the field, in all of baseball.

The 2005 edition of the Curve reached postseason play in dramatic fashion, sweeping a four-game road series from Bowie during the final weekend of the season to reach the playoffs for a third consecutive season. Despite losing in the first round of the playoffs, the Curve won big earlier in the season when the franchise was named the host of the 2006 E.L. All-Star Game.

Altoona would have a banner year in 2006. The highlight of the season, and arguably the top moment in the first eight seasons of Curve baseball, came on July 12th when Altoona played host to the 2006 Eastern League All-Star Game. A then Blair County Ballpark-record crowd of 9,308 were on hand to witness Curve All-Star Brett Roneberg take home MVP honors in a 5-3 win for the Southern Division All-Stars.

In the fall of 2006, the franchise won two prestigious awards, most notably the John H. Johnson President's Trophy, which is given annually to Minor League Baseball's top club on the basis of long-time franchise stability, contributions to and promotion of the baseball industry and the financial success of the team. Also, the Curve were honored by Baseball America as the 2006 winner of the Double-A Bob Freitas Award.

The 2007 season proved to be a year in which the Curve continued their winning ways, as the club marched on to its sixth consecutive winning season. That season, plenty of the Pirates' top prospects passed through Blair County Ballpark. In addition to third-baseman Neil Walker and outfielder Andrew McCutchen, first basemen Steve Pearce enjoyed one of the finest seasons in club history en route to being named the 2007 Topps Minor League Player of the Year.

In 2008, the Curve celebrated their storybook 10th anniversary season by welcoming back plenty of former stars, including Adam Hyzdu and Josh Bonifay, among many others. The Curve also unveiled their 10th Anniversary All-Time team.

On June 17, Jimmy Carter, the 39th President of the United States, attended the Curve versus Reading game while on a fishing trip in nearby Huntingdon.

The Curve captured the John H. Johnson Award in 2006 as the top franchise in the country.

As for the team, though, the Curve underachieved as they suffered their first losing season since 2001, finishing with a mark of 65-77 and a fifth place finish in the Eastern League's Southern Division.

However, 2008 will be remembered not for what happened during the season, but rather what happened following the season. On Dec. 1, 2008, President and Managing Partner, Chuck Greenberg announced that his group was selling the Curve back to original owner and visionary, Bob Lozinak. Greenberg announced that he was forming a sports consultation service and that many members of the Curve upper management would join his endeavor, including General Manager Todd Parnell.

Shortly after the announcement of the sale, it was made public that David Lozinak would be appointed as the team's Chief Operating Officer, overseeing the day-to-day functions of the ball club.

The final block to the organization's new foundation was laid on December 5, 2008 when the Lozinak Family announced that they would bring back an old friend to steer the Curve into the future -- Rob Egan. Egan was the original play-by-play broadcaster for the team from 1999-2004. He left baseball for four years, but returned to the minors to become just the fourth General Manager in the club's 11-year history.

On December 30, 2008, Minor League Baseball approved the sale of the Curve from Greenberg's group back to Lozinak and the second chapter of the Lozinak era officially began.

The 2009 season saw the Altoona Curve stumble under first-year manager Matt Walbeck as the team got off to a franchise worst 0-8 start and was never able to recover, finishing the year 62-80. However, the team did see one of the most prospect-laden lineups ever assembled in team history. As Pirates General Manager Neal Huntington traded away many valuable players at the major league level, an influx of talent came back in return. However, no one expected the fanfare that Pirates' 2008 top draft pick and top-rated prospect Pedro Alvarez would get when it was learned the New York native was being promoted from Lynchburg (A) on June 23. A throng of media attention ensued, and Alvarez lived up to all his hype.

The third baseman hit .333 with 13 home runs and 40 RBI in just 60 games with the Curve. He was named the 2009 Curve M.V.P. not only for those staggering numbers, but primarily for the impact he had in the team's overall success. In games in which Alvarez played, the Curve were 34-26 (.567) while going just 26-51 (.338) in games when Alvarez did not play.

An outstanding partnership with the Pittsburgh Pirates became even stronger during the 2009 season when, on May 23, the Curve and Pirates signed a four-year extension to their Player Development Agreement, which extended through the 2014 season.

With a solid affiliation under their belt, the Curve embarked on what was their most magical season on the field in Altoona in 2010. From the outset, the 2010 Curve had the swagger and winning attitude that would carry the club to its second division title and its first-ever Eastern League Championship.

The cast of the 2010 club pretty much came as a cohesive unit from High-A Lynchburg, where they won the Mills Cup (Carolina League championship) in 2009. On Opening Day 2010, Altoona was greeted by a prospect-laden roster that included four of the Pirates Top-10 prospects according to Baseball America and eight of the Top-30 overall prospects. It was also a roster that had veteran talent, and it proved to be the perfect mix to get Altoona off to a nearly perfect start as the club started the season 7-1, a drastic turnaround after starting 2009, 0-8.

Included in those first eight games was one day where everything seemed to fall into place for a memorable afternoon at BCB. After the first three games of the season were played under dreary cold conditions, mother nature opened the skies for a perfect 67-degree day on April 11th when the national spotlight turned to Altoona for the first professional start of Harrisburg Senators phenom Stephen Strasburg. More than 70 media members from around the country and upwards of 7,800 people came to watch the professional debut of the heralded Strasburg on the picture-perfect day in Curve, Pa. The game was also carried live on ESPN360.com and had parts of it aired on ESPNNews.

Stephen Strasburg brought the sports world's eyes to Altoona on April 11, 2010 when the right hander made his professional debut

It was the first of two national exposure days for Blair County Ballpark and the city of Altoona during 2010 as Andy Pettitte later started against Altoona in the first game of the Eastern League Championship series. Pettitte's start brought the MLB Network and some of the New York spotlight to BCB as Pettitte's Thunder met the Curve for the first time in a playoff series.

All told, Altoona finished the regular season 82-60 to win its second division title and first since 2004. The 82 wins were second most in franchise history behind the 2004 club's 85 victories under manager Tony Beasley. After dispatching of Harrisburg three games to one in the divisional round, the Curve forged on to the ELCS to meet Trenton.

Pettitte's Thunder did take Game One but Altoona once again sprung back to take the final three games of the series. Curve closer Daniel Moskos was able to get the final out via the strikeout at Waterfront Park in Trenton on September 18th to bring the first-ever E.L. Championship to Altoona.

The 2010 Curve celebrate postgame at Waterfront Park after clinching the Eastern League Championship

A few short months after the first-ever E.L. title was won, the Curve as a franchise took another step forward by unveiling the team's new logo set, which paid homage to the railroad engineers that helped put Altoona on the map. Along with the fresh new look came a new addition to the mascot family with the team bringing "Tenacious" into the fold.

Armed with a fresh new look for 2011, the Curve were also given a makeover in the coaching staff assignments as P.J. Forbes became the sixth manager in Altoona Curve history. Forbes, who had piloted the Reading Phillies of the Eastern League for three seasons from 2006-08, was coming off of back-to-back playoff appearances with High-A Lynchburg and High-A Bradenton in 2009 and 2010 (he led the '09 Hillcats to a Mills Cup title) before joining Altoona.

The 2011 Curve didn't get off to as fast of a start as the 2010 championship-winning club but did come out and compete on a nightly basis. A strange streak occurred during the season's first month as Altoona went on an unprecedented streak of 19-straight games of alternating wins and losses. The streak ran from April 10th through May 1st and was snapped on May 2nd, when Altoona won its second-straight game.

Despite the streak and an eventual 64-77 finish to the season, many positive things happened on the field in 2011 and they began with center fielder Starling Marte.

Marte, a native of Santo Domingo, D.R., was on the Curve roster from the get-go in 2011 and never ceased to impress. The 22-year-old proceeded to tear through the Eastern League en route to an Eastern League batting title and Eastern League Rookie of the Year honors. It was the first time in franchise history that a member of the Curve had won the Rookie of the Year award and it was also the first time that an active Curve player won the batting title (Jeff Keppinger won it in 2004 but spent the final months of the season as a Binghamton Met).

The speedy outfielder also set a few Curve single-season records along the way in 2011, posting franchise bests in outfield assists (18) and hits (178). In addition to his other accolades, Marte was both a mid-season and post-season E.L. All-Star, an XM Futures Game Selection, Eastern League August Player of the Month and a Topps Double-A All-Star.

Season 13 in Curve, Pa. also saw nine different former Curve players make their Major League debuts. Many of the nine played for the 2010 Eastern League Championship club (Mike Crotta, Daniel Moskos, Josh Harrison, Tony Watson, Chase d'Arnaud, Jared Hughes and Jeff Locke) while some were first-year Curve players that cracked the Pirates' 25-man roster (Eric Fryer and Aaron Thompson).

Off the field, the Curve received much national notoriety for the first-ever, on-field reversible cap, which was introduced in 2011. The cap featured the new Curve engineer on the regular side and a "Rally Cap" on the inside fashioned after rally mascot Al Tuna. The Curve's Summer Cruise Night Series, which combined a cruise giveaway with the stupendous films of Tom Cruise, was also a finalist for a Golden Bobblehead for one of the best promotions in Minor League Baseball. Average attendance at Blair County Ballpark also rose for the first time since it climbed from 2005 to the 2006 seasons.

The offseason leading into the club's 14th year of existence was also no quiet one as the Curve forged a partnership with Peoples Natural Gas that renamed the ballpark Peoples Natural Gas Field. The partnership not only included a naming-rights deal but spurred economic development at the park and surrounding areas with the use of green energy.

Altoona's 2012 season began on April 5 with a very special announcement from Pirates President Frank Coonelly, who announced to the Opening Night crowd that the Pittsburgh Pirates would be returning to Altoona to play an exhibition game before the 2013 season for the first time since 2000. On the diamond, the Curve had an up-and-down season under P.J. Forbes, who directed the Curve for a second-straight season. An end-of-the-season winning streak propelled the Curve above the .500 mark and the team finished 72-70, but missed out on the E.L. playoff picture.

In the future, the 2012 season may be remembered as the season where fans in Curve, Pa. had the opportunity to see two future aces in the making with top prospects Gerrit Cole and Jameson Taillon both making their way to Double-A during the season. Cole, the first-overall pick in the 2011 draft, reached Altoona on June 20 and made his debut at home while Taillon debuted almost exactly two months later on the road in Trenton. It was the first time that both the No. 1 and No. 2 prospects in the organization according to Baseball America were in Altoona at the same time since Andrew McCutchen and Neil Walker were in Curve uniforms for the 2007 season.

Other standouts on the field for the Curve included shortstop Brock Holt, who eventually went on to make his Major League debut later in the season with the Pirates. Holt stayed in Altoona until the beginning of August before he received his first promotion to Triple-A. After putting on a hitting clinic with Altoona, Holt lampooned International League pitching to earn his call up to Pittsburgh. The Texas native hit well enough with Altoona before his promotion and had enough at-bats to still hang on to win the Eastern League batting title, marking the second-straight season a Curve batter won the crown.

Holt was part of 11 more former Curve players to make their debuts in the major leagues in 2012, bringing the overall number to 101 in 14 seasons. Another former Curve player who made a splash in the bigs in 2012 was Marte, who homered in his first at bat as a member of the Pirates in Houston on July 26.

After being nominated for a Golden Bobblehead in 2011, the Curve franchise won a Golden Bobblehead in 2012 in the "Best Charity Promotion or Event" category for its efforts with Curve, Pa. Blue Out Saturdays, which aimed at raising awareness and funds for Prevent Child Abuse, Pennsylvania. The club, which partnered with six other teams across the state of Pennsylvania, wore Blue jerseys in support of the cause for each Saturday home game and also helped raise funds through the sale of special Blue-Out T-shirts and wristbands as well as text-to-donate programs. All told, the Curve's efforts, plus those of the other six participating teams, raised over $11,000 from the season-long efforts.

Fast forward to March of 2013 and the second-ever exhibition game between the Curve and Pirates. Despite snow the Monday before the game, the temperatures warmed up and the Curve welcomed a franchise-record 10,116 fans to watch the Pirates and Curve play their first exhibition game since 2000. Just like in 2000, fans were treated to a Curve victory, this time by a score of 8-6. Former Curve OF Starling Marte had himself a day, hitting a grand slam while going 2-for-3.

A pair of big announcements also came with the Pirates-Curve Exhibition that day. The first announcement being that the Curve and Pirates had extended their Player Development Contract a season early and extended it through the 2018 season. When the affiliation reaches the 2018 season, the Curve and Pirates will be in their 20th year as parent and affiliate. It was then revealed a short time later that the Eastern League All-Star Game was returning to Blair County with the Curve poised to host the 2014 game at Peoples Natural Gas Field.

Altoona's regular-season had its ups and downs and the team finished with a record of 63-79 under first-year manager Carlos Garcia. Despite the record, fans were treated to some of the best prospects in the Pirates system throughout the season that included RHP Jameson Taillon, OF Gregory Polanco, RHP Nick Kingham and SS Alen Hanson. Taillon, who had a cup of tea with the Curve in 2012, spent a majority of 2013 with the club before a promotion to Triple-A in August while Polanco joined the team in June and also went to Indianapolis during the month of August. Kingham joined the club midway through the year and finished the campaign with the Curve. Hanson did the same but did not join the team until late July after beginning the year with Bradenton.

One couldn't talk about the 2013 Curve season without talking about the performance of outfielder Alex Dickerson, who was in his first season at the Double-A level. Dickerson, a native of Poway, Calif., had a slow start to the year before lighting the world on fire from June until the end of the season. He went on to hit .288 for the season with 36 doubles, three triples, 17 home runs and 68 RBI in 126 games en route to being named the Eastern League Rookie of the Year. He was the second Curve player to ever win the award and the second in the last three seasons after Starling Marte won it in 2011.

The 2013 campaign also saw the club's second ever no-hitter come to fruition when Ethan Hollingsworth, Jason Townsend, Jhonathan Ramos and Ryan Beckman combined on a nine-inning no-no on July 25, 2013 in Manchester, N.H. versus the Fisher Cats. It had been over 10 years since the Curve threw a no-hitter, which occurred in 2002 when Adrian Burnside, Neal McDade and Chris Spurling accomplished the feat.

In 2014, the Curve hosted the league's annual All-Star Game with the Eastern League All-Star Stop presented by UPMC Health Plan for the second time in franchise history. Over 6,000 fans packed into Peoples Natural Gas Field to watch the leagues brightest stars for the game itself on July 16 while nearly 11,000 total across the two-days' worth of events filled PNG Field. During the first day of events, the Curve dedicated one seat in the lower seating bowl a POW/MIA Chair, never to be inhabited in memory of those soldiers that have not yet returned home.

Following up the dedication of the POW/MIA chair, the Curve hosted its version of a home run derby with the Ghostman Games & Hitting Challenge. In a competition of four players, the Curve's very own Willy Garcia won the event for the Western Division with a home run that sailed into the night sky out in left field.

On the field, the Curve struggled to a 61-81 record but the season saw Garcia set a new single-season franchise record with 19 outfield assists. Catcher Elias Diaz led the club offensively, hitting .328 with six home runs and 54 RBI through his 91 games, while right-hander Adrian Sampson aced the pitching staff, posting a 10-5 record with a 2.55 ERA in 24 starts. Both players represented the Curve in the All-Star Stop. The team also set a franchise-record for steals in a single season with 159, besting the 155-mark of the 2005 Curve.

Sampson, who was both a mid-season and post-season All-Star, also came within two outs of the franchise's first nine-inning no hitter by a single pitcher. The feat was thwarted, however, by Bowie's Mike Yastrzemski when he sliced a double down the left-field line. It was the only hit Sampson permitted on the evening and the game on July 19 still went down as the first one-hitter by single pitcher in Curve franchise history. Even cooler, he did it with his mom in attendance for the game just a few days shy of her birthday.

At the end of the year, Curve General Manager Rob Egan was presented with the Eastern League Executive of the Year Award at the Winter Meetings in San Diego, the second-ever member of the Altoona front office to receive the award.

In 2015, the Curve played their first season under the direction of manager Tom Prince. A former Major League catcher, Prince guided the Curve to their first playoff appearance since 2010 with a 74-68 record. Although the team was eliminated by Bowie in the Division Series, the Curve had one of their most successful seasons in recent years. Twelve players were promoted to Triple-A for the first time in their careers, with two of them reaching the Majors before the end of the year. The franchise also saw its highest attendance total in nine seasons. The season culminated with the Curve earning the Eastern League's nomination for the John H. Johnson President's Award, the top honor in Minor League Baseball.

2016 will be the 18th year in the Curve's history, and another group of talented prospects will be heading to Altoona to chase an Eastern League crown with growing buzz and excitement surrounding the Curve franchise and the Pittsburgh Pirates organization.

- June 1997 Altoona native Bob Lozinak joins a group that is pushing for a minor league baseball franchise.
- Oct. 4, 1997 With just hours to spare, the state of Pennsylvania allocates nearly $11 million in state funds towards the building of a new ballpark that would play host to the proposed new minor league baseball team.
- Oct. 5, 1997 The expansion committee of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues unanimously grants Altoona's bid for a new minor league franchise over the bid submitted by the city of Springfield, Mass.
- March 7, 1998 Groundbreaking ceremonies take place at the future site of Blair County Ballpark.
- April 27, 1998 Altoona is officially granted an expansion franchise by the Eastern League.

BOB & JOAN LOZINAK | MANAGING MEMBERS

Bob and Joan Lozinak on Opening Night 2009, their first game back as owners of the team since 2001.

Bob and Joan Lozinak, both Altoona natives who always had dreams of bringing professional baseball to their hometown, were finally able to realize that dream in 1999. The original owners of the franchise from 1999-2001, Bob and Joan along with their three sons, Mike, David and Steve, reacquired their hometown team on December 30, 2008.

The Lozinaks had visions of bringing professional baseball to Altoona in the late 1970s, but public opposition thwarted the idea. They then proceeded to buy the Triple-A Albuquerque Dukes from former Los Angeles Dodgers owner Peter O'Malley and over the next 20 years (1979-2000), the Dukes captured six Pacific Coast League titles and numerous awards for club operations. Lozinak is among only a handful of minor league baseball owners to have been awarded the prestigious John H. Johnson Trophy twice. The Johnson Trophy is awarded annually to the top franchise in Minor League Baseball in the U.S. and Canada. The Dukes were presented the honor in both 1984 and 1991. Additionally,

Albuquerque also captured the Larry McPhail Trophy for the country's top promotional effort in 1987.

Lozinak sold the Dukes in 2000 so he could focus his efforts on his new franchise, the Altoona Curve.

After selling the Curve in 2002, the family purchased the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx and would enjoy Double-A affiliations in the Southern League with both the Chicago Cubs and the Seattle Mariners before the team was sold in the early months of the 2008 season.

Bob was born in Altoona on June 4, 1937. His college education was halted by five years of service in the Army during the 1960s. Lozinak completed Officer Candidate's School in Lawton, Okla. and was honorably discharged as a 1st Lieutenant. Upon his departure from the Army, Lozinak returned to finish his education at St. Francis College in Loretto, Pa. and graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in History.

After college, Bob and Joan became McDonald's franchisees in 1969 and their role as an owner-operator continues with stores in Hartford County, Maryland.

Since the purchase of their first McDonald's franchise, Joan has been actively involved in many phases of the operation of the restaurant, whether it means balancing the restaurant budget or appearing at numerous functions within the community.

Joan, a graduate of Altoona Catholic High School, currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Bishop Guilfoyle Catholic High School in Altoona. She is actively involved in long-term planning, policy development, financing, capital improvements, public relations and marketing, development and alumni relations and budgetary management.

Joan has always been actively involved in the Catholic church serving as either a Eucharistic Minister or singing in the choir.

Bob and Joan Lozinak will be inducted to the Blair County Sports Hall of Fame on April 23, 2016.

The couple can often be found somewhere inside Peoples Natural Gas Field on game days enjoying Curve baseball with fellow fans and enjoying the fun, affordable family atmosphere they always dreamed of providing through the game of baseball in their hometown.

Lozinak (left) poses for a picture with Pat McKernan. McKernan was the former President of the Eastern League from 1974-81. He also served as Lozinak's General Manager of the Albuquerque Dukes from 1979-99. Together the duo won a pair of John H. Johnson Trophies (1984 and 1991) as the top franchise in the country along with the Larry McPhail Trophy in 1987 for the top promotional effort in the minors. The two are shown pictured in Altoona together in 1999. McKernan was named the "King of Baseball," at Baseball's Winter Meetings in 2000. McKernan passed away in 2001.

DAVID LOZINAK | CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

David enters his eighth year as the Chief Operating Officer of the Altoona Curve. His day-to-day responsibilities are to oversee the entire operation of the franchise.

Prior to his family reacquiring the team in December 2008, Lozinak held the same position with the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx of the Southern League.

Lozinak also spent three years working in the Accounting and Concessions departments for the Albuquerque Dukes, a team that his family owned and operated from 1979-2000.

David is a 1987 graduate of Widener University with a degree in Business Administration. He resides in Hollidaysburg with his wife, Aimee, daughter, Katie and son Will.

ROB EGAN | GENERAL MANAGER

The team's radio voice for the first six seasons (1999-2004), Rob Egan was named the fourth General Manager in Altoona Curve history on December 5, 2008. Egan returned to the Curve after spending nearly four years as the Secretary for Communications for the Catholic Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown (2005-08). Egan also created and hosted the daily sports talk show "Front & Center" on the ESPN Radio affiliates in Altoona and State College in 2005 for three and a half years.

Egan enters his 18th season in professional baseball, spending the majority of his career in the fields of communications and public relations. Prior to his first stint with the Curve (1999-2004), he worked for minor league clubs in Charleston, S.C. (1997-98), Johnstown (1996), and Salinas, Calif. (1995).

During his first six years as General Manager, the franchise has achieved milestones:

- In November 2010, the Curve unveiled entirely new logos and uniform designs which redefined the team's brand for the first time since the club's original marks were revealed in 1998. The new logos embrace the region's railroad history by incorporating an engineer character as the centerpiece with the iconic Pennsylvania keystone also used in the backdrop.
- In 2011, for the first time since 2006, the Curve's average home attendance increased. An enhanced promotional and marketing effort including more giveaway events, increased social media interaction with fans, and more ticket and food value programs, produced the increase.
- In January 2012, the Curve announced another first as the franchise prepared for its 14th season. Peoples Natural Gas, a marketing partner since relocating its headquarters in Pittsburgh in 2010, agreed to acquire the naming rights to Blair County Ballpark with a long-term pact. As part of the relationship, the Curve installed a state-of-the-art video marquee with the Peoples Natural Gas Field logo along Park Avenue to inform all who pass by of upcoming games, promotions, and events at the facility.
- In 2012, the Curve once again increased average home attendance - the first time the club has experienced back-to-back seasons of growth in attendance since 2003-04. Along the way, the franchise announced its "Curve, PA Blue Out Saturdays" initiative designed to increase awareness and fundraising for Prevent Child Abuse Pennsylvania. The Curve dedicated every Saturday home game to the effort and reached out to all of the other affiliated clubs in Pennsylvania to join them. With their collective efforts, over $11,000 was raised and over 80,000 minor league baseball fans around the commonwealth were exposed to the important message in the wake of one of the worst scandals in sports history. The Curve were recognized for the outreach with Minor League Baseball's Golden Bobblehead award for best charitable promotion.
- On March 30, 2013, a franchise-record crowd of 10,116 watched as the Curve hosted the Pirates on a sun-splashed afternoon at Peoples Natural Gas Field. Before the game, Pirates' president Frank Coonelly announced that the affiliation between the Major League club and the Curve was being extended for four more years through the 2018 season. During the game, Egan announced with Eastern League President Joe McEachern and Minor League Baseball President Pat O'Conner that the Curve would be hosting the 2014 EL All-Star Game for the first time since 2006.
- In September 2013, the Curve were honored with the Community Service Award by the Blair County Chamber of the Commerce for their efforts throughout the county in supporting charitable and civic causes.
- In 2014, the Curve welcomed their five millionth fan, successfully hosted the two-day Eastern League All-Star Stop presented by UPMC Health Plan during which nearly 11,000 people attended, and had Egan honored as the Eastern League Executive of the Year for the franchise's efforts.

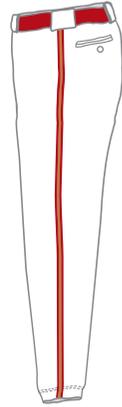

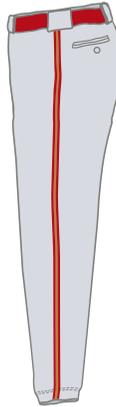

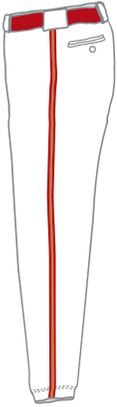

A 1991 graduate of Central Michigan University, Egan serves on the boards of Explore Altoona and the Miracle League of Blair County. He is also a member of the Blair County Chamber of Commerce Attractions Committee, a past board member and chairperson for Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, and a lector at Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament Catholic Parish. A native of Grand Blanc, Mich., Egan resides in Altoona with his wife, CK, and four children: Drew, Gabe, Caroline and Regina.

1999 JERSEYS & CAPS

For Thursday home games at Peoples Natural Gas Field in 2016, the Curve will wear the classic 1999 jerseys and caps from the team's inaugural season, featuring the original cardinal and green colors. The jerseys will be auctioned during the final game of the regular season on Thursday, September 1, with all proceeds benefiting the Children's Miracle Network.

2016 ALTOONA CURVE

Entering the year as one of the top prospects in the Pirates organization, outfielder Austin Meadows had a brief but impactful stay with the Curve at the end of the 2015 season.

Joey Cora joins the Altoona staff for his first season in the Pirates organization. He becomes the ninth manager in franchise history.

The Caguas, Puerto Rico native served as a minor league manager in the New York Mets system for two years. He led the Rookie-level Appalachian League's Kingsport Mets in 2001 and 2002, going 54-80 over the two seasons. In 2003 he was the manager of the Montreal Expos' Single-A affiliate in the South Atlantic League, the Savannah Sand Gnats, posting a 58-80 record.

Cora joined the Major League staff of the Chicago White Sox in 2004, serving various roles during his eight seasons under manager Ozzie Guillen, including the final five years as the bench coach, and won a World Series ring in 2005. He joined Guillen as the bench coach for the Miami Marlins for the 2012 season.

As a player, Cora was a first-round pick of the San Diego Padres in 1985 after his All-American career at Vanderbilt. He spent 11 seasons in the Majors from 1987-1998 with the Padres, White Sox, Mariners and Indians. He was an American League All-Star with the Mariners in 1997.

Cora made his major league debut as a member of the Padres in 1987 at the age of 21. He spent parts of three seasons with the big league club in San Diego prior to being traded to the White Sox in 1991.

After four seasons with Chicago, Cora signed with the Mariners in 1995, playing a key role in one of the team's most memorable seasons. After hitting only three homers in the regular season, Cora clubbed a solo home run against Yankees pitcher David Cone early in the decisive Game 5 of the 1995 ALDS. Later in the game with the Yankees leading 5-4, he led off the bottom of the eleventh with a drag-bunt single and later came in to score along with Ken Griffey Jr. on a walk-off double by Edgar Martinez that sent the Mariners to the ALCS.

Cora was an American League All-Star in 1997 as a member of the Mariners, hitting .300 for the season with 11 home runs and 54 RBIs. The Mariners traded him near the end of the 1998 season, and he finished the final year of his playing career with the Indians.

JUSTIN MECCAGE | PITCHING COACH

Justin Meccage (pronounced Message) enters his second season as a pitching coach at the Double-A level with the Altoona Curve this season. Last season, he coached an Altoona pitching staff that led the Eastern League and set a franchise record with 16 shutout victories. Following the season, he served as the pitching coach for the Glendale Desert Dogs in the Arizona Fall League. The 2016 season will be Meccage's sixth in the Pirates' system. Prior to joining Altoona, the Montana native spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons with the A-Adv. Bradenton Marauders. Over the last three seasons, Meccage has worked with standout pitching prospects Tyler Glasnow, Nick Kingham, Chad Kuhl and Steven Brault. In 2011 and 2012, he was the pitching coach for the State College Spikes.

Prior to his work with the Pirates' system, Meccage held the same post at Arkansas State in 2010. During that season, he was named the Sun Belt Conference Assistant Coach of the Year by SEBaseball.com. His stop at Arkansas State began in 2007 and prior to working in the Sun Belt, Meccage worked four seasons at Texas-Pan American University from 2004-07. In 2006, his pitching staff while at Texas-Pan American ended the season ranked in the Top-10 nationally with 427 strikeouts.

As a player, Meccage was drafted in the 32nd round of the 2002 draft by the New York Yankees out of Oklahoma State University. While at Oklahoma State, Meccage was named to the academic All-Big 12 team as well as a member of the Dean's List. During his pro career, Meccage pitched for the Staten Island Yankees (short-season) in 2002 and 2003 before pitching in the Frontier League (independent) in 2003 for the Cook County Cheetahs.

Meccage was born in Billings, Mont. and currently makes his offseason home in Sarasota, Fla. with his wife Stacey and sons Kyler (8), Hudson (6) and Rylan (3).

KEVIN RIGGS | HITTING COACH

Riggs, 46, embarks on his second season in Altoona and second with the Pirates organization after leading the Curve offense to the top overall team batting average (.271) in the Eastern League in 2015. The 2016 season is his tenth year as a coach or manager at the minor league level. He spent the previous eight seasons in the Colorado Rockies organization.

Riggs, 47, spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons as the manager of the Double-A Tulsa Drillers (Texas League) and piloted them to a combined record of 139-138. It was the first managerial assignment for Riggs, who served as the Drillers' hitting coach in 2012. Tulsa made the Texas League playoffs by winning the second-half title in 2013. In 2014, Riggs led Tulsa to the Texas League Championship Series before losing the decisive Game 5. Following the season, Riggs worked as the hitting coach for the Salt River Rafters of the Arizona Fall League. The Rafters went on to win the AFL title.

Prior to his work in Tulsa, Riggs had stops as the hitting coach in Advanced-A Modesto (California League) in 2011, Low-A Asheville (South Atlantic League) in 2009-10 and short-season Casper (Pioneer League) in 2007-08. During his time as a hitting coach he has worked with two league MVPs (Kent Matthes - 2011; Jordan Pacheco - 2009), one league RBI leader (Nolan Arenado - 2011) and one batting champion (Kiel Roling - 2009).

As a player, Riggs was selected in the 28th round of the 1990 draft by the Cincinnati Reds out of East Carolina University, where he was named to the All-Conference and All-Tournament teams in 1989 and 1990. He played eight seasons stateside in his pro career, reaching as high as Double-A in four different seasons. In 528 career games, Riggs posted a .296 career batting average. The Connecticut native also spent one season in China playing for the China Trust Whales where he was named the league's MVP in 1998

Away from the field, Riggs was born in Hartford, Conn. and now makes his offseason home in Phoenix, Ariz. with his wife JoAnna. They have two sons; Taylor (27) and Kevin (20).

TRIPLE PLAY BASEBALL

On May 27, 2010 in Akron, the Altoona Curve turned the second-ever triple play in franchise history. Previously, the lone triple play in team history occurred on May 3, 2001. In 2010, Chase d'Arnaud caught a line drive off the bat of John Drennen, stepped on second and threw to first to get an innings worth of work complete in a matter of moments.

Played in six games for the Spikes

Wood played 101 games for the Curve in 2015 (Mark Olson/MiLB)

OPEN THE FLOOD GATES

The first-ever home game in Curve history took place on April 15, 1999 when a crowd of 6,171 (a sellout) braved rainy conditions and a one-hour rain delay for the home opener against the Bowie Baysox. The Curve defeated the Baysox, 6-1, as Bronson Arroyo tossed 5.1 scoreless innings to notch the first of his 15 wins -- a club record -- which remains intact entering the 2016 season. Garrett Long hit the first home run at BCB, a two-run shot in the fourth inning to give the Curve an early, 2-0, lead. Altoona broke the game open by scoring four runs in the seventh inning, highlighted by a Craig Wilson two-run homer.

Listed below are all of the Pittsburgh Pirates draft picks from the 2015 amateur draft. Bold indicates a signed player. This year's MLB Draft will take place June 9-11 and the Pirates will have the 22nd pick in the first round.

REMEMBER THE NAME

The name "Curve" was officially chosen as the team nickname on July 2, 1998. The name was selected by fans in a name the team contest. Other finalists included "Fish", "Ridge Runners" and "Lake Monsters". Curve was selected for two reasons: one for the baseball connection but also as a tribute to the historic Horseshoe Curve, located just outside the city of Altoona. The landmark Horseshoe Curve was built in the 1850s as a means to make it easier for incoming trains to navigate through the Allegheny Mountains. The first train went around "the Curve" in 1854.

CRAZY EIGHTS!

In 2010, Curve outfielder Alex Presley had an unprecedented day at the plate on May 24 in Akron. The Monroe, La. native exploded for eight RBI to surpass Curve legend Adam Hyzdu for the most RBI in one game in franchise history. That feat was duplicated in 2013 by another Curve OF in Alex Dickerson, who tied the mark on July 26 in Manchester, N.H. against the Fisher Cats. Dickerson was 3-for-6 that day with a home run and two runs scored. It was part of a big weekend in Manchester as it came one night after the Curve threw the second combined no-hitter in franchise history.

It didn't take long for the city of Altoona to show the critics who said the area was too small to support a professional baseball team that it has as knowledgeable and caring fans as anywhere minor league baseball is played. It didn't take Adam Hyzdu long to discover that fact either.

THE LEGEND OF HYZDU

Hyzdu's two-year stint in Altoona left quite a dent on the record books as he still holds the franchise's single-season mark in six different offensive categories:

Home Runs:	31	Runs:	96
RBI:	106	Extra-Base Hits:	72
Games Played:	142	Slugging %:	.612

When the minor league veteran signed as a free agent with the Pirates shortly after being released by the Red Sox organization early in the 1999 season, Curve fans were just getting used to their new team and its beautiful new ballpark. Few probably even knew the names of the players they were cheering for. But soon, everyone knew about Hyzdu.

He was the club's Most Valuable Player during the inaugural 1999 season, batting .316 with 24 home runs and 78 RBI in just 91 games, before earning a late-season promotion to Triple-A. Most people thought they had seen the last of Hyzdu in a Curve uniform.

However, after a less-than-intent look from the Pirates in major league spring training, and much to the surprise of the fans of Altoona, Hyzdu returned to the Curve for the 2000 season. Although perhaps initially upset about returning to the Double-A level for the fifth time in his career, Hyzdu tore up Eastern League pitching and in return won the hearts of Curve fans. In 142 games for the 2000 Curve, he batted .290 with team records for home runs (31) and RBI (106) and earned the Eastern League's Most Valuable Player Award. By the middle of the season, the entire city of Altoona was campaigning for Hyzdu's promotion to the major leagues.

And just when it appeared as though Adam Hyzdu's 11th season as a professional baseball player would end without a major league at-bat, he had the week of his life. On September 4th, following a season-ending loss to Akron, his number 16 jersey was retired by the Curve--an honor not normally bestowed upon a minor league baseball player. Then, just four days later, Hyzdu received the call he had been waiting for--he was heading to the major leagues with the Pittsburgh Pirates! He singled in his first major league at-bat on September 8th and 12 days later hit his first major league home run against the Philadelphia Phillies at Veterans Stadium.

After returning to the minor leagues to open 2001, he was recalled by the Pirates in May and spent the majority of the season with the major league club. On July 4th that season, in his hometown of Cincinnati, Hyzdu hit two homers against the Reds, bringing his baseball playing career full circle from the days when he was belting home runs at Moeller High School.

After spending parts of the 2002 and 2003 seasons with Pittsburgh, Hyzdu left the Pirates' organization to join the Boston Red Sox system in 2004. After hitting .301 with 29 homers and 79 RBI for Triple-A Pawtucket, Adam was rewarded with a September call-up to the playoff-bound Boston Red Sox and had a chance to remain with the club as the Sox did the unthinkable and won the franchise's first World Series title since 1918.

In 2005, despite spending most of the season in the minor leagues with both the Padres and Red Sox' organizations, Hyzdu appeared in 29 big league games between San Diego and Boston, marking the sixth season in which he had seen action in the major leagues. 2005 also brought a milestone in Adam's career as he appeared in a major league postseason game for the first time.

The 2006 season saw Hyzdu appear for his fourth major league team as he played in two games for the Texas Rangers after signing with the club as a minor league free agent in November 2005. Hyzdu spent the 2007 season in Japan before announcing his retirement at the end of the year, capping off an 18-year playing career.

PITCHERS GOING DEEP

There have only been a total of four home runs hit by Curve pitchers in franchise history. Tim Alderson has two of the four home runs while Aaron France (1999) and Randy Galvez (2001) have the others.

2015 SEASON REVIEW & NOTES

RETURN TO WINNING FORM: With a 74-68 record, the Curve posted their first winning season since 2012 and made the playoffs for the first time since 2010. The Curve finished five games behind the eventual league champion Bowie Baysox and one game ahead of both Richmond and Akron for the Western Division Wild Card. The team posted a dominating first half, spending 63-of-64 days leading the division from April 16 to June 26. Overall during the season, the Curve spent just 17 games outside of the top two spots in the Western Division. After briefly falling into third place in mid-August for 13 days, the Curve moved back into second on August 22 and clinched a playoff berth with a 4-1 win at Binghamton on September 6.

PLAYOFF RECAP: The Curve faced the Bowie Baysox in the Western Division Series. After falling behind 7-0 in the second inning of Game One, the Curve began to chip away with an RBI by Stetson Allie in the fourth and a grand slam from Barrett Barnes in the fifth to close within two runs. Trailing 7-5 entering the ninth, Austin Meadows hit a game-tying, two-run homer. Two batters later, Jacob Stallings hit a walk-off single to give the Curve a 1-0 lead in the series. The Baysox, who eventually defeated the Reading Fightin Phils for the league championship, rebounded to outscore in the Curve 21-3 over the next three games, including a 3-0 win in a clinching Game Four that ended Altoona's season.

PROSPECT WATCH: The Curve featured seven of MLB.com's mid-season top 30 Pirates prospects: Tyler Glasnow (1), Austin Meadows (2), Josh Bell (3), Willy Garcia (12), Barrett Barnes (16), Chad Kuhl (18) and Steven Brault (25). This year's team also featured seven of Baseball America's preseason top 30 Pirates prospects: Glasnow (1), Meadows (3), Bell (4), Garcia (12), JaCoby Jones (13, traded to Tigers), Stetson Allie (21), Barnes (23) and Kuhl (28). Brault was B.A.'s 18th-ranked Baltimore Orioles prospect entering the year.

BLANK CHECK: The Curve pitching staff led the Eastern League lead with a franchise-record 16 shutouts pitched during the regular season. On the other side, the Curve offense was shut out only five times this season, the fewest of any team in the E.L.

MAX ATTACKS: Infielder Max Moroff picked up multiple awards with his breakout campaign in 2015. He posted a .293 batting average, the ninth-best in the league. He also ranked among the league leaders in games played (136, 1st), runs (79, 1st), hits (153, 2nd), total bases (214, 4th) and walks (70, 3rd). The infielder also had the highest fielding percentage (.978) among qualifying second basemen and led all E.L. second basemen in assists (330) and double plays (76) and finished second in putouts (215). With 153 hits this year, Moroff set a new record for the most in a season by a switch-hitter in Curve franchise history. He posted a 30-game on-base streak from April 10-May 15, the longest of any player in the league this year. He was named to the E.L. Mid-Season All-Star Team and Post-Season All-Star Team. Moroff was also selected as the Altoona Curve Most Valuable Player, and on Sept. 15, he was announced as the Pittsburgh Pirates' Minor League Player of the Year in a pregame ceremony at PNC Park.

FANTASTIC FRAZIER: Adam Frazier caught fire in June, batting .424 with a home run and eight RBIs, raising his overall average from .293 on June 1 to .363 at the end of the month. He went on a career-best 15-game hitting streak in July. Frazier missed the beginning of the season after breaking a finger in Spring Training and had not recorded enough at-bats to qualify for the league leaderboard until Aug. 20, and sat at the top of the Eastern League with a .324 average, leading the E.L., but Rule 9.22(a) awarded the batting title to Bowie's Trey Mancini.

REWRITING THE RECORD BOOKS: The Curve have set a handful of new franchise records in 2015. On Aug. 26, Max Moroff recorded his 143rd hit of the season, breaking the single-season franchise record for hits by a switch-hitter, originally set by Shawn Garrett in 2002. With a 5-0 win at New Britain on Aug. 6, the Curve set a new franchise high for the most shutouts in a season with 12 (total ended up at 16). The previous high was 11, totaled three times (2004, 06, 11). On July 21, the offense totaled 24 hits, the most in a single game in team history, in a seven-inning win over Erie. In the same game, which Altoona won, 18-7, the team record for most runs in a game was tied. Jose Osuna also set a new individual single-game franchise record by scoring five runs. On May 25, Dan Gamache went 5-for-5, tying the Curve franchise record for most hits in a game by a single player. On May 16, the Altoona pitchers combined for 13 walks, setting a new team record. On Aug. 24, Matt Benedict allowed 14 hits in a game, tying the single-game team record.

MOVIN' UP: Twelve 2015 Curve players were promoted to Triple-A for the first time in their career during the 2015 season, including position players Josh Bell, Keon Broxton, Dan Gamache, Willy Garcia and Giff Ngoepe, as well as pitchers Yhonathan Barrios, Matt Benedict, Zack Dodson, Tyler Glasnow, Jeff Inman, Chad Kuhl and Angel Sanchez.

ROAD TO THE SHOW: Six former Curve players joined the ranks of Major Leaguers for the first time in 2015. Reliever Di-ego Moreno (2010-11) debuted with the New York Yankees on June 22. Outfielder Alex Dickerson (2013) made his debut with the San Diego Padres on Aug. 6. Catcher Ramon Cabrera (2012/2014) played his first MLB game with the Cincinnati Reds on Sept. 5. Catcher Elias Diaz (2014) pinch-hit with the Pittsburgh Pirates on Sept. 12. Outfielder Keon Broxton (2014-15) appeared as a pinch runner with the Pirates on Sept. 21. On Sept. 24, Yhonathan Barrios made his MLB debut with the Milwaukee Brewers, becoming the 123rd Curve alumnus to reach the Majors.

THE BRAULT VAULT: Curve lefty Steven Brault won the Eastern League Pitcher of the Week Award for July 27-August 2 during the early stages of a dominant stretch. In his final ten starts beginning on July 18, Brault went 8-0 with a 0.96 ERA, leading the Eastern League in wins during that span and holding the best ERA in all of Double-A baseball. Brault turned heads in his first season with the Pittsburgh Pirates organization after being traded in the offseason along with Stephen Tarpley from the Baltimore Orioles for Travis Snider.

NO KUH-LING OFF: Right-hander Chad Kuhl finished with the third-best ERA in the Eastern League at 2.48, thanks in part to a dominant closing stretch of the season. Over his final 11 starts, Kuhl went 7-1 with a 1.41 ERA that also included a 23.1-inning scoreless streak. At the end of the season, he was named the 2015 Altoona Curve Pitcher of the Year.

A MEMORABLE SEASON: The Curve saw 302,761 fans at Peoples Natural Gas Field in the 2015 regular season, the highest total in nine years for the team. The franchise also received the Eastern League's nomination for the John H. Johnson President's Award, Minor League Baseball's top honor. The President's Award is presented annually to honor the "complete" baseball franchise based on franchise stability, contributions to league stability, contributions to the community and promotion of the baseball industry.

DOUBLE FEATURE TO REMEMBER

In the first game of a double-header on July 21, 2015, the Curve offense totaled 24 hits in just seven innings, the most in a single game in team history, in a seven-inning win over Erie. In the same game, which Altoona won, 18-7, the team record for most runs in a game was tied. In fact, all 18 runs were scored over a five-inning span. Jose Osuna also set a new individual single-game franchise record by scoring five runs. Stetson Allie also hit a grand slam and finished the game with a season-high five RBIs. Alongside the offensive excitement, Tyler Glasnow struck out 10 batters in his six innings for the first time in his Double-A career. In the nightcap of the double-header, the SeaWolves scored seven unanswered runs over the sixth and seventh innings to take a 7-1 lead, but the Curve rallied back with seven runs in the bottom of the seventh inning for the walk-off win, sealed by a two-run, game-winning double from Andy Vasquez.

Canal Park, home of the Akron RubberDucks, will play host to the 2016 Eastern League All-Star Game in Akron, Ohio. Festivities at Canal Park will span two days, with a Home Run Derby to be held on Tuesday, July 12 and the All-Star Game itself, pitting the E.L. East against the E.L. West, will take place Wednesday, July 13.

This season marks the first time Akron will host an Eastern League All-Star Game since 1989, and marks the first time a Western Division team hosts All-Star festivities since the Curve hosted the All-Star Stop in 2014.

Each All-Star Game team will feature 24 of the top players in the Eastern League, with each team being represented by at least one pitcher and one position player from the league's twelve clubs. The rosters will be selected through a combination of fan voting and picks from managers, media and team personnel.

BOOM, HOME RUNS

Led by Josh Bonifay's 25 home runs, the '05 Altoona Curve established the single-season franchise record by clubbing a total of 141 big flies in 142 regular-season games. The 25 home runs hit by Bonifay are the second-most in club history, trailing only Adam Hyzdu's 31 hit during the 2000 season. Team MVP Jose Bautista was second on the '05 club with 23 homers, while three other players, Craig Stansberry (18), Tom Evans (15) and Brad Eldred (13), also reached double figures. By contrast, the lone championship Curve team in 2010 only slugged 80 regular-season home runs, but hit 14 in their eight playoff games.

READY FOR OUR CLOSE-UP

The nation's eyes turned to Blair County Ballpark on April 11, 2010 when Washington Nationals prospect Stephen Strasburg made his professional debut in front of a record crowd at Blair County Ballpark. The game, which was broadcast on ESPN360.com and had live look-ins taken by ESPNews, brought a crowd of 7,887 to BCB on Sunday afternoon. It was the largest single-game crowd to take in a Curve game in the month of April in franchise history. The Curve were again featured on national television on September 14, 2010 for Game 1 of the Eastern League Championship Series, when Yankees pitcher Andy Pettitte made a rehab start for the Trenton Thunder at BCP and MLB Network carried live look-ins of the game. Curve second baseman Chase d'Arnaud homered off Pettitte to lead off the bottom of the first, but the Thunder went on to win the game in 10 innings. On June 21, 2015, a game between the Curve and Harrisburg Senators was broadcast live to American Sports Network affiliates around the U.S. as part of their Minor League Baseball Sunday Showcase series. The game was called by Brett Dolan and former big leaguer Brian McRae and featured live interviews in the broadcast booth with Curve owner Bob Lozinak and General Manager Rob Egan. The Curve went on to defeat the Senators, 7-3.

“A minor league ballpark is one thing. An amusement park is another. But tucked in the Allegheny Mountains is a place where there’s really no difference.”
 -- USA Today, August 8, 2002

Opened on April 15, 1999, Peoples Natural Gas Field is widely considered by fans, players, baseball executives and media as one of the finest minor league baseball facilities in America. Located just off Interstate 99 in Altoona, the ballpark features a beautiful brick exterior and the design is modeled after a railroad roundhouse to tie in the industry which helped found the city of Altoona and is still very much present to this day. The inside of Peoples Natural Gas Field features more than 7,200 fixed seats between two levels. The double-deck layout of the seating section allows for expansive lower and upper concourses, giving fans plenty of space to walk around the ballpark without having to fight through a stationary crowd of people. The “Skyliner” roller coaster from neighboring Lakemont Park and the scenic Allegheny Mountains add to the overall beauty of Peoples Natural Gas Field.

RADIO 1430

For an eighth straight season, the home for Altoona Curve baseball on the radio dial will be ESPN Radio 1430 (WVAM, Altoona) as they will be the helm of the team's radio network in 2016.

In addition to the flagship station, fans in the Tyrone area just north of Curve, Pa. can tune in to WTRN-AM 1340/ FM 100.7 in Tyrone. WTRN will carry all Curve games that do not directly conflict with the Pirates. For the first time in 2016, select games will be aired on 1440 WWGE in Ebensburg.

All 142 games will also be available to out-of-market listeners via AltoonaCurve.com and on mobile devices (iPhone/Android/Windows Phone/BlackBerry/Amazon Kindle) with the TuneIn Radio App. Curve fans can also watch all 71 home games and select Curve road games (if the visiting team is equipped with MiLB.tv capabilities) with a subscription to MiLB.tv. For more information on subscribing to MiLB.tv, visit MiLB.tv on the web.

As in previous seasons, most games on ESPN Radio 1430 will be preceded by "Sports Central with Cory Giger," which is hosted by Cory Giger, the longtime Curve and Penn State beat writer for the Altoona Mirror. Sports Central airs from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday, on WVAM in Altoona and on WQWK-AM 1450 in State College. The show will preview nightly Curve action as well as provide in-depth interviews with Curve coaches and prospects throughout the season.

The Curve and Forever Broadcasting will also continue their cross-promotional and marketing relationships from past seasons in 2016. Popular on-air personalities from the Forever Broadcast family of stations (Froggy98, Rocky 104.9, WALY 103.9, HOT 100, The Big 1290 WFBG and ESPN Radio 1430 WVAM) will continue to have a presence at Peoples Natural Gas Field to take part in contests and in-game events throughout the season. Fans can expect to hear Curve staffers pop on with the Forever family to join the on-air personalities on a regular basis during the season as well.

Trey Wilson (Second Season)

Trey Wilson enters his second season with the Curve and fourth overall on the airwaves in Minor League Baseball. Wilson joined the Curve prior to the 2015 season.

Prior to coming to Altoona, Wilson called games for the Lansing Lugnuts in Michigan, the Class-A affiliate of the Toronto Blue Jays, in the Midwest League during the 2014 season. He spent the previous year as the Director of Media Relations & Broadcasting with the Bluefield Blue jays, Toronto's Appalachian League affiliate in southern West Virginia. Wilson held multiple positions in the athletic department at Bluefield College in Virginia from 2010 through 2015, spending parts of six years as the school's lead broadcaster for football, basketball, baseball and volleyball while helping launch the Rams Digital Sports Network and serving as the Assistant Director of New Media & Sports Information. In 2011 and 2012,

Wilson wrote for Fox Sports-affiliated Scout.com, covering minor league prospects in the Appalachian League. He also spent parts of those two years as an intern in the sports department at WVVA, an NBC-affiliate television station, where he covered Virginia Tech, Marshall and West Virginia University among other collegiate and high school programs. He has done freelance work voicing collegiate national championship events across the United States and high school state championship events in Virginia, Maryland and Washington, D.C.

A native of Portsmouth, Va., Wilson enjoys traveling, U.S. history, photography and playing music. He earned a bachelor's degree in communication and journalism from Bluefield College.

Nate Bowen (Fourth Season)

Nate Bowen enters his fourth season with the Curve and his fifth season overall on the air in minor league baseball. He has also held broadcasting and media relations roles with the Northwest Arkansas Naturals (AA - Texas League), Durham Bulls (AAA - International League), and the Princeton Rays (Rookie - Appalachian League).

Bowen began his broadcasting career at Baldwin-Wallace University in 2005 and served as the broadcaster for the Division III School's football, basketball, and baseball teams through the 2009 season. In addition to being a play-by-play broadcaster, he co-founded The Morning Buzz, a daily morning show on the campus radio station WBWC 88.3 FM the Sting. Following graduation, Bowen served as the lead broadcaster for AM 1330 WELW for local high school and college sports. During the offseason he broadcasts local high school football and basketball in the Altoona Area for AM 1400 WWGE.

A native of Fremont, Ohio, Bowen enjoys rooting for Buffalo and Ohio sports teams, traveling, running, and meeting new and interesting people. He earned a bachelor's degree in Broadcasting/Mass Communications/Public Relations from Baldwin-Wallace University in 2009.

Fletcher Keel (First Season)

Fletcher Keel joins the Curve for the 2016 season after spending the 2015 campaign with the Bowling Green Hot Rods in the Midwest League (Low-A), which also marked his first full year in professional baseball.

Prior to joining the professional sports world, Keel spent two years calling high school games in Bowling Green, Ky. with the Sporting Times Broadcast Network, as well as co-hosting Redzone Radio and a co-producer for The Extra Point television show. For two and a half years, he was an editor on the FanSided network for Wave The Red Towel and Union and Blue, dedicating coverage to WKU athletics and the Columbus Blue Jackets.

Born and bred in Atlanta, Keel enjoys listening to music and podcasts, watching television and, when he has time, writing for fun. He earned his bachelor's degree in broadcasting in 2015 from Western Kentucky Univ.

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials for the 2016 season will only be issued to legitimate news gathering organizations that cover the Curve on a daily basis. The Curve will contact media outlets on an individual basis regarding season-long credentials. Other media organizations that would like to request a season credential can do so by sending that request on company letterhead via fax (814-283-3133) or as an e-mail attachment to twilson@altoonacurve.com.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: Daily credentials will be issued to those individuals or organizations who do not qualify for season credentials, including freelance writers and weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to radio and TV stations when the need arises for extra pre/post-game personnel and to newspaper reporters providing extra coverage. The Curve Media Relations Department should be notified at least 24 hours in advance of the game in which daily credentials are being requested. Requests should be faxed or e-mailed. Once approved, the credentials can be picked up at the Media/Handicap Gate (see below).

CREDENTIAL PICKUPS: Season Credentials can be picked at the Curve's annual Media Day activities. Media can make other arrangements with the Curve Media Relations Department to pick up credentials after that date. Daily credentials will only be available for pickup on the day they are issued at the Media/Handicap gate.

MEDIA ENTRANCE TO Peoples Natural Gas Field: All credentialed media should enter the ballpark through the Media/Handicap gate located at the top of the stairs halfway between the Front Office and the Upper Ticket Plaza on the third base side of the ballpark. No credentialed media are permitted to enter the ballpark through either the Curve Front Office or one of the ticket gates.

credentialed media are permitted to enter the ballpark through either the Curve Front Office or one of the ticket gates.

OTHER ACCEPTABLE CREDENTIALS: The Curve will also honor credentials from the Pittsburgh Pirates, National and American Leagues, the Baseball Writers Association of America and Minor League Baseball.

PRESS BOX SPACE: Though Peoples Natural Gas Field's Press Box is spacious, the Curve still gives preferred seating to those media outlets that cover the club most frequently. If your media organization needs special space requirements please contact the Curve Media Relations Department at least 24 hours prior those dates.

PHOTO WELLS: Photo wells are located at the end of both dugouts. Photographers are welcome to use this space throughout the course of the game. Photographers are not permitted in the actual dugout area or on the field once the game begins. Please wait until the end of the inning to move to or from these areas.

PARKING: Media members holding season credentials are permitted to park their vehicles in the VIP parking lot by presenting their credentials to the attendant. Please be aware that parking is available on a first-come basis. Those holding daily credentials that need to be picked up at the Media/Handicap gate will have their name placed on a VIP parking list, as long as they give at least 24 hours notice.

INTERVIEW POLICY: The Curve Media Relations Department will be glad to assist members of the media in procuring interviews with Curve players and coaching staff members. Media members wishing to do an off-site interview or a feature story should contact the Curve at least 48 hours in advance to the scheduled interview time. The media is asked to be respectful of the players' pre-game schedule when requesting an interview with a player. No one will be permitted to interview starting pitchers on the day of their start.

CLUBHOUSE POLICIES: In accordance with the regulations designated by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Major League Baseball, both clubhouses will open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before game time. Following the game, the clubhouses will be closed for a period of five minutes to allow the team ample time to return to the clubhouse. The clubhouse areas are also closed when the teams are on the field, unless previously approved by the Curve Media Relations department. Clubhouses are also closed between games of a doubleheader.

FIELD ACCESS: Credentialed media are permitted access to the field and dugout areas, but are not permitted to cross the foul lines, particularly when the team is taking batting practice. Media must leave the field and dugout areas no later than 45 minutes prior to game time.
