ALTOONA CURVE HISTORY

The dream of one native son that began decades ago has not only become a reality, but is about to enter its 20th season in 2018. The story of the Altoona Curve begins in 1979. Area native Bob Lozinak, a successful McDonald's franchisee, knew his hometown was a baseball haven and always dreamed of what it would be like to have a professional sports team in his hometown. He had a chance to make a dream of many come to fruition, so as the 1970s were about to come to a close, a series of meetings and preliminary discussions took place to put the plan into motion. However, there was enough opposition that thwarted the idea as an initial fear from natives was that a professional team would hurt the successful youth teams in the region. Professional baseball, for the time being, was put on the back burner.

In the meantime, that same year, Bob and his family went across the country and bought what became one of the most successful franchises in the entire country - the Albuquerque Dukes (AAA - Dodgers)

Groundbreaking ceremonies on March 7, 1998

Fast-forward 16 years.

Like many other decisions in baseball, the latest round of major league expansion had a domino effect on the minor leagues. In 1995, Arizona and Tampa Bay were awarded major league franchises to play their inaugural season in 1998. To keep pace, baseball's rookie level added two teams in 1996. The following year, Class 'A' and Class 'AAA' each increased by two teams.

That left only Class 'AA' in need of expansion to match the number of teams in the big leagues. In 1997, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues decided the Eastern League would receive the two new franchises to start play in 1999. Erie was an easy first choice of the NAPBL's expansion committee. After all, the SeaWolves had established short-season attendance records in the new Jerry Uht Park as part of the New York-Penn League from 1995-98.

Curve owner Bob Lozinak sports his Pirates jacket at the press conference announcing what has become one of the longest and most successful affiliations between a minor league franchise and a parent club (Sept. 15, 1998)

The awarding of the second franchise wasn't easy. For months, it seemed Springfield, Mass. would land the team. However, an inability to finalize land and stadium finance deals left the NAPBL looking for another option. Enter Altoona. City native Bob Lozinak and a group of Pennsylvania lawmakers put together an 11th-hour stadium financing package and site plan. The proposal was presented to the expansion committee at an October 5, 1997 meeting in Las Vegas. It received unanimous approval and Double-A baseball was on its way to Altoona.

Ballpark groundbreaking ceremonies took place on March 7, 1998 and the franchise was officially awarded the following month. In June of that year, the team selected "Curve" as its nickname. The combination railroad/baseball moniker beat out several choices like "Lake Monsters," "Ridge Runners" and, believe it or not, "Fish"!

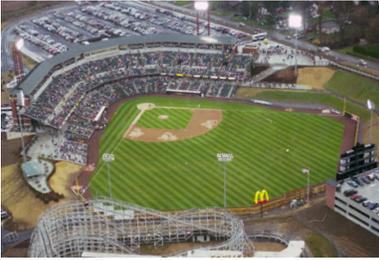

The next step for the Curve was affiliating with a major league team. Erie seemed to have an inside track on becoming the Pirates' new Double-A club, as the SeaWolves had served as Pittsburgh's short-season club from 1995-98. However, after a series of meetings with potential major league parent clubs, the Curve landed the coveted affiliation with the Pirates. The September 1998 announcement took the franchise to another level as the U.S. Route 22 pairing seemed an ideal fit. Central Pennsylvania fans, with their strong Pirates' roots, could now cheer for the Bucs' top prospects on their way to Pittsburgh.

The long-awaited first game in Curve history took place on April 9, 1999 in Reading, Pa. The game against the Phillies' affiliate was suspended by rain and completed the next day as part of a doubleheader. For the record, the Curve lost their first contest, 6-2, but recorded their first win hours later with a 6-4 decision in game two.

The Curve defeated the Bowie Baysox, 6-1, in the first game played at Blair County Ballpark on April 15, 1999

Finally, the Curve christened Blair County Ballpark on April 15 with a triumph over the Bowie Baysox. A crowd of 6,171 attended the history-making contest despite cold, rainy weather and nearly a one-hour delay.

The 1999 Curve went 67-73 on the field and finished last in the Eastern League's Southern Division. Pitcher Bronson Arroyo won 15 games, tied for the most in the league and still the most in a single season for a Curve pitcher. Outfielder Adam Hyzdu cemented himself as the Curve's first star, hitting .316 with 24 home runs. Third baseman Kevin Haverbusch was the Curve's lone representative at the Double-A All-Star Game in Mobile, Ala.

On July 25, 1999, catcher Yamid Haad became the first Curve alum to reach the Majors, debuting with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

323,932 fans flocked to Blair County Ballpark during the inaugural season.

In 2000, the Curve posted a 74-68 record, their first winning season, and saw 333,968 fans at Blair County Ballpark. Adam Hyzdu returned for a second season with the Curve, hitting 31 homers and driving in 106 runs, both still good for single-season franchise records. Following the final game of the season on September 4, 2000, the Curve retired Hyzdu's number 16. Hyzdu is still tied for the most homers in a Curve career with 55, and he is the only player in team history to play 142 games in a season, a feat he accomplished in 2000.

In 2001, Dale Sveum became the second manager in the team's history. Attendance continued to climb, with 348,316 fans attending games at Blair County Ballpark. The team finished the year 63-79.

After three remarkable seasons, the Lozinak family sold the franchise to a group headed by Pittsburgh attorney Chuck Greenberg on April 2, 2002. Among the limited partners in Greenberg's collective: Pittsburgh Penguins' owner, star center and NHL Hall of Famer Mario Lemieux; Pittsburgh Steelers' all-pro running back Jerome Bettis; Altoona-based businessmen Steve Sheetz and Don Devorris. Todd Parnell was tabbed as the team's new General Manager.

On August 5, 2002 the Curve announced a new four-year affiliation agreement with Pittsburgh, securing one of baseball's strongest affiliations through 2006. Despite the ownership change, the Curve franchise enjoyed its most successful season to that point, drawing 363,871 fans to Blair County Ballpark.

Between the 2002 and 2003 seasons, Blair County Ballpark underwent its first major capital expansion project, as a new third-base Picnic Area, left-field Party Deck and outfield reserved seating section were constructed. The additions of the new areas brought the seating capacity of the ballpark to just over 7,200 and created enough room to hold nearly 10,000 fans on any night.

During the 2003 season, the Curve, led by third-year manager Dale Sveum, took the franchise to new heights on the field, posting a 78-63 regular season record and securing the club's first-ever Eastern League postseason berth. The Curve lost to the eventual E.L. Champion Akron Aeros three-games-to-one in the first round of the playoffs. The playoff run helped fuel yet another franchise attendance record as 365,376 fans came through the gates at BCB.

In 2004, the Curve, managed by Tony Beasley, finished with a league-best 85-56 record and not only returned to the playoffs, but took the next step and advanced to the Eastern League Championship Series for the first time in club history before losing to the New Hampshire Fisher Cats.

The '04 season also turned out to be a banner year at the gates as the Curve added a fifth consecutive franchise attendance record after drawing 394,062 fans to Blair County Ballpark. Among those fans who attended Curve home games in 2004 was Vice President Dick Cheney, who attended the club's Fourth of July game against Harrisburg. Following the season, Curve General Manager Todd Parnell was honored as the Eastern League Executive of the Year, while the franchise was presented the prestigious Larry MacPhail Trophy symbolizing the top promotional effort, both on and off the field, in all of baseball.

The 2005 edition of the Curve reached postseason play in dramatic fashion, sweeping a four-game road series from Bowie during the final weekend of the season to reach the playoffs for a third consecutive season. Despite losing in the first round of the playoffs, the Curve won big earlier in the season when the franchise was named the host of the 2006 E.L. All-Star Game.

TEAM HISTORY

ORGANIZATION

Altoona would have a banner year in 2006. The highlight of the season, and arguably the top moment in the first eight seasons of Curve baseball, came on July 12th when Altoona played host to the 2006 Eastern League All-Star Game. A then Blair County Ballpark-record crowd of 9,308 were on hand to witness Curve All-Star Brett Roneberg take home MVP honors in a 5-3 win for the Southern Division All-Stars.

The Curve hosted the 2006 Eastern League All-Star Game at BCB in front of a then-stadium record 9,308 fans

The Curve captured the John H. Johnson Award in 2006 as the top franchise in the country

In the fall of 2006, the franchise won two prestigious awards, most notably the John H. Johnson President's Trophy, which is given annually to Minor League Baseball's top club on the basis of long-time franchise stability, contributions to and promotion of the baseball industry and the financial success of the team. Also, the Curve were honored by Baseball America as the 2006 winner of the Double-A Bob Freitas Award.

On the field, the 2006 Curve posted a 75-64 record under first-year manager Tim Leiper and reached the Eastern League postseason for the fourth straight season, ultimately losing in a back-and-forth Divisional Series to the Akron Aeros.

Future National League Most Valuable Player Andrew McCutchen played for the Curve in 2006 and 2007

The 2007 season proved to be a year in which the Curve continued their winning ways, as the club marched on to its sixth consecutive winning season. That season, plenty of the Pirates' top prospects passed through Blair County Ballpark. In addition to third-baseman Neil Walker and outfielder Andrew McCutchen, first basemen Steve Pearce enjoyed one of the finest seasons in club history en route to being named the 2007 Topps Minor League Player of the Year.

In 2008, the Curve celebrated their storybook 10th anniversary season by welcoming back plenty of former stars, including Adam Hyzdu and Josh Bonifay, among many others. The Curve also unveiled their 10th Anniversary All-Time team.

On June 17, Jimmy Carter, the 39th President of the United States, and his wife, Rosalynn, attended the Curve versus Reading game while on a fishing trip in nearby Huntingdon. Carter sported a black Curve jersey and watched the game with friends and family members in luxury suite 410.

Former President Jimmy Carter attended a Curve game at BCB on June 17, 2008

As for the team, though, the Curve underachieved as they suffered their first losing season since 2001, finishing with a mark of 65-77 and a fifth place finish in the Eastern League's Southern Division.

However, 2008 will be remembered not for what happened during the season, but rather what happened following the season. On Dec. 1, 2008, President and Managing Partner, Chuck Greenberg announced that his group was selling the Curve back to original owner and visionary, Bob Lozinak. Greenberg announced that he was forming a sports consultation service and that many members of the Curve upper management would join his endeavor, including General Manager Todd Parnell.

Shortly after the announcement of the sale, it was made public that David Lozinak would be appointed as the team's Chief Operating Officer, overseeing the day-to-day functions of the ball club.

The final block to the organization's new foundation was laid on December 5, 2008 when the Lozinak Family announced that they would bring back an old friend to steer the Curve into the future -- Rob Egan. Egan was the original play-by-play broadcaster for the team from 1999-2004. He left baseball for four years, but returned to the minors to become just the fourth General Manager in the club's 11-year history.

On December 30, 2008, Minor League Baseball approved the sale of the Curve from Greenberg's group back to Lozinak and the second chapter of the Lozinak era officially began.

The 2009 season saw the Altoona Curve stumble under first-year manager Matt Walbeck as the team got off to a franchise worst 0-8 start and was never able to recover, finishing the year 62-80. However, the team did see one of the most prospect-laden lineups ever assembled in team history. As Pirates General Manager Neal Huntington traded away many valuable players at the major league level, an influx of talent came back in return. However, no one expected the fanfare that Pirates' 2008 top draft pick and top-rated prospect Pedro Alvarez would get when it was learned the New York native was being promoted from Lynchburg (A) on June 23. A throng of media attention ensued, and Alvarez lived up to all his hype.

Top prospect Pedro Alvarez was named the Curve's Most Valuable Player in 2009

The third baseman hit .333 with 13 home runs and 40 RBI in just 60 games with the Curve. He was named the 2009 Curve M.V.P. not only for those staggering numbers, but primarily for the impact he had in the team's overall success. In games in which Alvarez played, the Curve were 34-26 (.567) while going just 26-51 (.338) in games when Alvarez did not play.

An outstanding partnership with the Pittsburgh Pirates became even stronger during the 2009 season when, on May 23, the Curve and Pirates signed a four-year extension to their Player Development Agreement, which extended through the 2014 season.

With a solid affiliation under their belt, the Curve embarked on what was their most magical season on the field in Altoona in 2010. From the outset, the 2010 Curve had the swagger and winning attitude that would carry the club to its second division title and its first-ever Eastern League Championship.

The cast of the 2010 club pretty much came as a cohesive unit from High-A Lynchburg, where they won the Mills Cup (Carolina League championship) in 2009. On Opening Day 2010, Altoona was greeted by a prospect-laden roster that included four of the Pirates Top-10 prospects according to Baseball America and eight of the Top-30 overall prospects. It was also a roster that had veteran talent, and it proved to be the perfect mix to get Altoona off to a nearly perfect start as the club started the season 7-1, a drastic turnaround after starting 2009, 0-8.

Included in those first eight games was one day where everything seemed to fall into place for a memorable afternoon at BCB. After the first three games of the season were played under dreary cold conditions, mother nature opened the skies for a perfect 67-degree day on April 11th when the national spotlight turned to Altoona for the first professional start of Harrisburg Senators phenom Stephen Strasburg. More than 70 media members from around the country and upwards of 7,800 people came to watch the professional debut of the heralded Strasburg on the picture-perfect day in Curve, Pa. The game was also carried live on ESPN360.com and had parts of it aired on ESPNNews.

Rob Egan served as the Curve's fourth general manager from 2009-2016

Stephen Strasburg brought the sports world's eyes to Altoona on April 11, 2010 when he made his professional debut

It was the first of two national exposure days for Blair County Ballpark and the city of Altoona during 2010 as Andy Pettitte later started against Altoona in the first game of the Eastern League Championship series. Pettitte's start brought MLB Network and some of the New York spotlight to BCB as Pettitte's Thunder met the Curve for the first time in a playoff series.

All told, Altoona finished the regular season 82-60 to win its second division title and first since 2004. The 82 wins were second most in franchise history behind the 2004 club's 85 victories under manager Tony Beasley. After dispatching of Harrisburg three games to one in the divisional round, the Curve forged on to the ELCS to meet Trenton.

Pettitte's Thunder did take Game One but Altoona once again sprung back to take the final three games of the series. Curve closer Daniel Moskos was able to get the final out via the strikeout at Waterfront Park in Trenton on September 18th to bring the first-ever E.L. Championship to Altoona.

A few short months after the first-ever E.L. title was won, the Curve as a franchise took another step forward by unveiling the team's new logo set, which paid homage to the railroad engineers that helped put Altoona on the map.

Yankees pitcher Andy Pettitte started against the Curve in Altoona in Game 1 of the 2010 Eastern League Championship Series

The Curve defeated the Trenton Thunder, three-games-to-one, to win their first-ever Eastern League championship in 2010

Armed with a fresh new look for 2011, the Curve were also given a makeover in the coaching staff assignments as P.J. Forbes became the sixth manager in Altoona Curve history. Forbes, who had piloted the Reading Phillies of the Eastern League for three seasons from 2006-08, was coming off of back-to-back playoff appearances with High-A Lynchburg and High-A Bradenton in 2009 and 2010 (he led the '09 Hillcats to a Mills Cup title) before joining Altoona.

The 2011 Curve didn't get off to as fast of a start as the 2010 championship-winning club but did come out and compete on a nightly basis. A strange streak occurred during the season's first month as Altoona went on an unprecedented streak of 19-straight games of alternating wins and losses. The streak ran from April 10th through May 1st and was snapped on May 2nd, when Altoona won its second-straight game.

Despite the streak and an eventual 64-77 finish to the season, many positive things happened on the field in 2011 and they began with center fielder Starling Marte.

Marte, a native of Santo Domingo, D.R., was on the Curve roster from the get-go in 2011 and never ceased to impress. The 22-year-old proceeded to tear through the Eastern League en route to an Eastern League batting title and Eastern League Rookie of the Year honors. It was the first time in franchise history that a member of the Curve had won the Rookie of the Year award and it was also the first time that an active Curve player won the batting title (Jeff Keppinger won it in 2004 but spent the final months of the season as a Binghamton Met).

The speedy outfielder also set a few Curve single-season records along the way in 2011, posting franchise bests in outfield assists (18) and hits (178). In addition to his other accolades, Marte was both a mid-season and post-season E.L. All-Star, an XM Futures Game Selection, Eastern League August Player of the Month and a Topps Double-A All-Star.

Starling Marte became the first Curve player to win the Eastern League Rookie of the Year Award in 2011

Season 13 in Curve, Pa. also saw nine different former Curve players make their Major League debuts. Many of the nine played for the 2010 Eastern League Championship club (Mike Crotta, Daniel Moskos, Josh Harrison, Tony Watson, Chase d'Arnaud, Jared Hughes and Jeff Locke) while some were first-year Curve players that cracked the Pirates' 25-man roster (Eric Fryer and Aaron Thompson).

Off the field, the Curve received much national notoriety for the first-ever, on-field reversible cap, which was introduced in 2011. The cap featured the new Curve engineer on the regular side and a "Rally Cap" on the inside fashioned after rally mascot Al Tuna. The Curve's Summer Cruise Night Series, which combined a cruise giveaway with the stupendous films of Tom Cruise, was also a finalist for a Golden Bobblehead for one of the best promotions in Minor League Baseball. Average attendance at Blair County Ballpark also rose for the first time since it climbed from 2005 to the 2006 seasons.

The offseason leading into the club's 14th year of existence was also no quiet one as the Curve forged a partnership with Peoples Natural Gas that renamed the ballpark Peoples Natural Gas Field. The partnership not only included a naming-rights deal but spurred economic development at the park and surrounding areas with the use of green energy.

Altoona's 2012 season began on April 5 with a very special announcement from Pirates President Frank Coonely, who announced to the Opening Night crowd that the Pittsburgh Pirates would be returning to Altoona to play an exhibition game before the 2013 season for the first time since 2000. On the diamond, the Curve had an up-and-down season under P.J. Forbes, who directed the Curve for a second-straight season. An end-of-the-season winning streak propelled the Curve above the .500 mark and the team finished 72-70, but missed out on the E.L. playoff picture.

In the future, the 2012 season may be remembered as the season where fans in Curve, Pa. had the opportunity to see two future aces in the making with top prospects Gerrit Cole and Jameson Taillon both making their way to Double-A during the season. Cole, the first-overall pick in the 2011 draft, reached Altoona on June 20 and made his debut at home while Taillon debuted almost exactly two months later on the road in Trenton. It was the first time that both the No. 1 and No. 2 prospects in the organization according to Baseball America were in Altoona at the same time since Andrew McCutchen and Neil Walker were in Curve uniforms for the 2007 season.

Gerrit Cole was the top pick in the 2011 MLB Draft before joining the Curve in 2012

Other standouts on the field for the Curve included shortstop Brock Holt, who eventually went on to make his Major League debut later in the season with the Pirates. Holt stayed in Altoona until the beginning of August before he received his first promotion to Triple-A. After putting on a hitting clinic with Altoona, Holt lampooned International League pitching to earn his call up to Pittsburgh. The Texas native hit well enough with Altoona before his promotion and had enough at-bats to still hang on to win the Eastern League batting title, marking the second-straight season a Curve batter won the crown.

Holt was part of 11 more former Curve players to make their debuts in the major leagues in 2012, bringing the overall number to 101 in 14 seasons. Another former Curve player who made a splash in the bigs in 2012 was Marte, who homered in his first at bat as a member of the Pirates in Houston on July 26.

After being nominated for a Golden Bobblehead in 2011, the Curve franchise won a Golden Bobblehead in 2012 in the "Best Charity Promotion or Event" category for its efforts with Curve, Pa. Blue Out Saturdays, which aimed at raising awareness and funds for Prevent Child Abuse, Pennsylvania. The club, which partnered with six other teams across the state of Pennsylvania, wore Blue jerseys in support of the cause for each Saturday home game and also helped raise funds through the sale of special Blue-Out T-shirts and wristbands as well as text-to-donate programs. All told, the Curve's efforts, plus those of the other six participating teams, raised over $11,000 from the season-long efforts.

In 2013, the Curve and Pirates played an exhibition game at Peoples Natural Gas Field in front of 10,116 fans, the largest crowd in the history of the ballpark

In 2013, Pirates president Frank Coonelly (center) announced an extension of their Player Development Contract with the Curve through the 2018 season

Fast forward to March of 2013 and the second-ever exhibition game between the Curve and Pirates. Despite snow the Monday before the game, the temperatures warmed up and the Curve welcomed a franchise-record 10,116 fans to watch the Pirates and Curve play their first exhibition game since 2000. Just like in 2000, fans were treated to a Curve victory, this time by a score of 8-6. Former Curve OF Starling Marte had himself a day, hitting a grand slam while going 2-for-3. A pair of big announcements also came with the Pirates-Curve Exhibition that day. The first announcement being that the Curve and Pirates had extended their Player Development Contract a season early and extended it through the 2018 season. The agreement between the Curve and Pirates secured the affiliation through 2018, the 20th year as parent and affiliate. It was then revealed a short time later that the Eastern League All-Star Game was returning to Blair County with the Curve poised to host the 2014 game at Peoples Natural Gas Field.

Altoona's regular-season had its ups and downs and the team finished with a record of 63-79 under first-year manager Carlos Garcia. Despite the record, fans were treated to some of the best prospects in the Pirates system throughout the season that included RHP Jameson Taillon, OF Gregory Polanco, RHP Nick Kingham and SS Alen Hanson. Taillon, who had a cup of tea with the Curve in 2012, spent a majority of 2013 with the club before a promotion to Triple-A in August while Polanco joined the team in June and also went to Indianapolis during the month of August. Kingham joined the club midway through the year and finished the campaign with the Curve. Hanson did the same but did not join the team until late July after beginning the year with Bradenton.

One couldn't talk about the 2013 Curve season without talking about the performance of outfielder Alex Dickerson, who was in his first season at the Double-A level. Dickerson, a native of Poway, Calif., had a slow start to the year before lighting the world on fire from June until the end of the season. He went on to hit .288 for the season with 36 doubles, three triples, 17 home runs and 68 RBI in 126 games en route to being named the Eastern League Rookie of the Year. He was the second Curve player to ever win the award and the second in the last three seasons after Starling Marte won it in 2011.

The 2013 campaign also saw the club's second ever no-hitter come to fruition when Ethan Hollingsworth, Jason Townsend, Jhonathan Ramos and Ryan Beckman combined on a nine-inning no-no on July 25, 2013 in Manchester, N.H. versus the Fisher Cats. It had been over 10 years since the Curve threw a no-hitter, which occurred in 2002 when Adrian Burnside, Neal McDade and Chris Spurling accomplished the feat.

TEAM HISTORY

ORGANIZATION

In 2014, the Curve hosted the league's annual All-Star Game with the Eastern League All-Star Stop presented by UPMC Health Plan for the second time in franchise history. Over 6,000 fans packed into Peoples Natural Gas Field to watch the league's brightest stars for the game itself on July 16 while nearly 11,000 total across the two-days' worth of events filled PNG Field. During the first day of events, the Curve dedicated one seat in the lower seating bowl a POW/MIA Chair, never to be inhabited in memory of those soldiers that have not yet returned home.

Following up the dedication of the POW/MIA chair, the Curve hosted its version of a home run derby with the Ghostman Games & Hitting Challenge. In a competition of four players, the Curve's very own Willy Garcia won the event for the Western Division with a home run that sailed into the night sky out in left field.

Willy Garcia is mobbed by Alen Hanson after his game-winning home run in the 2014 Ghostman Games during the Eastern League All-Star festivities

On the field, the Curve struggled to a 61-81 record but the season saw Garcia set a new single-season franchise record with 19 outfield assists. Catcher Elias Diaz led the club offensively, hitting .328 with six home runs and 54 RBI through his 91 games, while right-hander Adrian Sampson aced the pitching staff, posting a 10-5 record with a 2.55 ERA in 24 starts. Both players represented the Curve in the All-Star Stop. The team also set a franchise-record for steals in a single season with 159, besting the 155-mark of the 2005 Curve.

All-Star first baseman Josh Bell was part of the Curve's on-field resurgence in 2015 as the team reached the postseason for the first time since 2010

Sampson, who was both a mid-season and post-season All-Star, also came within two outs of the franchise's first nine-inning no hitter by a single pitcher. The feat was thwarted, however, by Bowie's Mike Yastrzemski when he sliced a double down the left-field line. It was the only hit Sampson permitted on the evening and the game on July 19 still went down as the first one-hitter by single pitcher in Curve franchise history. Even cooler, he did it with his mom in attendance for the game just a few days shy of her birthday.

At the end of the year, Curve General Manager Rob Egan was presented with the Eastern League Executive of the Year Award at the Winter Meetings in San Diego, the second-ever member of the Altoona front office to receive the award.

their careers, with two of them reaching the Majors before the end of the year. The franchise also saw its highest attendance total in nine seasons. The season culminated with the Curve earning the Eastern League's nomination for the John H. Johnson President's Award, the top honor in Minor League Baseball.

Joey Cora took over as the Curve's manager in 2016, leading the team back to the postseason in what would be his only season with Altoona. The Curve were eliminated in the Western Division Series by the eventual-league-champion Akron RubberDucks.

Outfielder Austin Meadows, who was named by Baseball America as the Eastern League's most exciting player, turned heads early in the season when he went on a franchise-record 24-game hitting streak prior to his promotion to Triple-A.

The Pirates' top prospect in 2016, Austin Meadows posted a 24-game hitting streak with the Curve, a new franchise record

In 2016, 14 former Curve players made their MLB debuts, the most in a single season since the franchise was founded. Nine of those players debuted with the Pirates: Alen Hanson, Jameson Taillon, Jacob Stallings, Adam Frazier, Chad Kuhl, Steven Brault, Tyler Glasnow, Josh Bell and Max Moroff.

Derek Martin became the Curve's fifth general manager in the fall of 2016

Following the season, the Pirates announced that Cora would be the new major league third base coach. 2015 Curve manager Tom Prince was also added to the big league coaching staff, taking over as Clint Hurdle's new bench coach.

Changes also came to the Altoona front office. After eight seasons as general manager and 14 overall seasons with the Curve, Rob Egan left to take the same job with the Triple-A Charlotte Knights. The Curve announced former front office staff member Derek Martin as the new general manager in the fall of 2016.

During the 2017 preseason, new stadium updates and upgrades were made to Peoples Natural Gas Field, beginning with the demolition of the original box office and construction of a brand new one. The stadium also received new field lights, becoming one of the first two Eastern League parks to upgrade to LED lighting.

Top Pirates pitching prospect Mitch Keller was named as the 2017 Eastern League Postseason Most Valuable Player after dominating performances against Bowie and Trenton

New netting was also installed behind home plate to improve fans' views and provide more protection.

Indiana, Pa. native Michael Ryan was named as Curve manager prior to the season after leading the A-Adv. Bradenton Marauders to the Florida State League title in 2016. By season's end, he and his club replicated that feat in Double-A, winning the Curve's second Eastern League championship. The Curve won their second Western Division title on September 4, the last day of the regular season, with a walk-off home run by Mitchell Tolman in the bottom of the 12th inning against the Harrisburg Senators.

The Curve rode the momentum into the playoffs, and they began postseason play with one of the most dominating pitching performances in team history. Pirates' top pitching prospect Mitch Keller took the mound in Game 1 of the Western Division Series at Bowie on September 8 and threw a complete-game shutout on just 90 pitches, allowing only one hit.

With wins in the next two games against the Baysox, the Curve advanced to face the Trenton Thunder in the Eastern League Championship Series, a team that won 92 games during the regular season. Starting pitchers Brandon Waddell and J.T. Brubaker led the Curve to road wins in the first two games in the best-of-five series. The Curve returned home for Game 3 on September 14 and a chance to clinch with Keller on the mound.

The Thunder plated a pair of early runs to take a 2-0 lead, but the Curve rallied in the fifth inning. Jerrick Suiter got the Curve on the board with a bases-loaded walk and Jin-De Jhang followed with a two-out, bases-clearing triple to give the Curve a 4-2 lead. Keller settled in to strike out eight batters over 7.1 innings en route to winning the Eastern League Postseason Most Valuable Player Award.

Closer Tate Scioneaux took the mound for the Curve in the ninth inning and struck out the side in order to close out the game and the championship for the Curve, who became just the third E.L. team since 1983 to sweep all six of their postseason games.

Prior to the 2018 season, the Curve made some fresh updates to the ballpark that included a brand new, state-of-the-art video board, upgraded broadcasts and televisions, a new playing surface, new on-field caps and a new alternate red jersey.

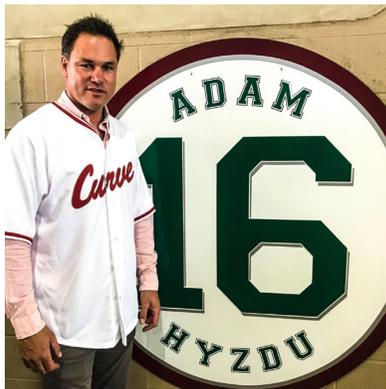

The team honored their growing history throughout 2018 with a season-long celebration of 20 Seasons of Curve Baseball in Altoona and welcomed back former stars Adam Hyzdu and Jack Wilson. The team also unveiled their Fans' Choice All-Time Curve Team Bobblehead Series, a set of 11 bobblehead giveaways, to honor the 20th season.

Entering the season, MLB.com ranked the Altoona roster as one of "the Minors" 10 most talented teams" while 12 of MLB.com's Preseason Top 30 Pirates prospects spent time with the Curve during the season: Mitch Keller, Ke'Bryan Hayes, Cole Tucker, Bryan Reynolds, Taylor Hearn, Luis Escobar, Nick Kingham, Will Craig, Stephen Alemais, Jason Martin, Nick Burdi and Brandon Waddell.

Keller, the Pirates top overall prospect by both Baseball America and MLB Pipeline entering the 2018 season, followed up a strong 2017 postseason and cemented his name as one of the best pitchers in Curve history. Keller went 9-2 with a 2.72 ERA in 14 starts and threw eight, one-hit shutout innings in his final Curve start on June 25 vs. Harrisburg before he was promoted to Triple-A Indianapolis. In 22 compined starts (regular season and playoffs) with the Curve, Keller went 13-4 with a 2.63 ERA.

First baseman Will Criag was the 2018 Altoona Curve MVP and played the hero in the 2018 Eastern League All-Star Classic in Trenton. With the game tied 4-4 after nine innings, a swing-off between Craig and Zach Green of Reading replaced extra innings with Craig coming out on top. Craig led the Eastern League with 102 RBIs in the regular season to become just the second Curve hitter to eclipse 100 RBIs in a single season, joining the legendary Adam Hyzdu. A first round pick by the Pirates in the 2016 draft, Craig also clubbed 20 homers during a season in which he was an Eastern League Mid-Season and Post-Season All-Star.

Third baseman Ke'Bryan Hayes played one of the best defensive seasons the Eastern League has ever seen during the season. The Pirates first-round draft choice in 2015 won back-to-back Rawlings MiLB Gold Glove Awards as the best defensive third baseman in the minors with a .974 fielding percentage at A-Adv. Bradenton in 2017 and turned around in 2018 with a .978 mark in Altoona. Hayes' .978 fielding percentage at third base ranked as the highest ever recorded at the position in the Eastern League with data only available dating back to 1959.

As a team, the Curve trailed Akron by seven games entering play on August 1 before surging back over the final month of the season. With a record of 78-60, the Curve captured a second straight division title by one game over Akron, matched a team record with a fourth consecutive playoff berth (2003-06) and earned back-to-back division crowns for the first time in team history.

However, Akron eliminated the Curve from postseason play in four games during the Western Division Series. The RubberDucks took the first two games in Akron, but the Curve did not go quietly once the series shifted to Altoona.

AKRON JUMPED OUT TO A 5-0 LEAD IN GAME 3 AT PNG FIELD AND WERE ON THE BRINK OF SWEEPING THEIR WAY TO THE ELCS. IN THE BOTTOM OF THE FIFTH, HOWEVER, THE CURVE SCORED THEIR FIRST RUN AND MANAGED TO LOAD THE BASES FOR COLE TUCKER, WHO DELIVERED ONE OF THE MOST ELECTRIFYING MOMENTS IN THE CURVE'S 20-YEAR HISTORY. IN AN 0-2 COUNT, TUCKER CRUSHED A GRAND SLAM INTO THE LEFT FIELD BLEACHERS AND TIED THE GAME, 5-5. ALTOONA RALLIED FOR THREE MORE RUNS IN THE EIGHTH AND WENT ON TO FORCE A FOURTH GAME WITH AN 8-5 VICTORY. UNABLE TO HARNESS THAT MOMENTUM THE NEXT DAY, THE CURVE LOST GAME 4 TO THE 'DUCKS, 9-0, TO CLOSE OUT THE TEAM'S 20TH SEASON.

Shortstop Cole Tucker helped the Curve stave off elimination from the 2018 Western Division Series with a game-tying grand slam in game three at PNG Field

Bell and Luplow all started that game as well while C Elias Diaz, 3B Jose Osuna, 2B Josh Harrison, SS Jordy Mercer and P Nick Kingham joined them on the field in Pittsburgh.

In 2018, 14 former Curve players made their MLB debuts and matched the 2016 total for the most in a single season over the first 20 years of the franchise's history. Just as it was in 2016, nine of those players debuted with the Pirates: Clay Holmes, Nick Kingham, Austin Meadows, Tanner Anderson, Alex McRae, Kevin Newman, Pablo Reyes, Kevin Kramer and Nick Burdi.

Jack Wilson returned to Curve, Pa. on August 11, the night of his 20th Season Fans' Choice All-Time Curve Team Bobblehead Giveaway

A few days later on September 12 in St. Louis, the Pittsburgh Pirates lineup was composed completely of Curve alumni for the first time ever. Pirates Manager Clint Hurdle went with the following at Busch Stadium against the Cardinals: 2B Adam Frazier, CF Starling Marte, 1B Josh Bell, RF Jordan Luplow, 3B Kevin Kramer, LF Pablo Reyes, SS Kevin Newman, C Jacob Stallings and P Jameson Taillon. The first All-Curve Alumni lineup for the Pirates at PNC Park happened a short time later on September 23 against the Milwaukee Brewers. Reyes, Marte,

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The name "Curve" was officially chosen as the team nickname on July 2, 1998. The name was selected by fans in a name the team contest. Other finalists included "Fish", "Ridge Runners" and "Lake Monsters." Curve was selected for two reasons: one for the baseball connotation but also as a tribute to the historic Horseshoe Curve, located just outside the city of Altoona. The landmark Horseshoe Curve was built in the 1850s as a means to make it easier for incoming trains to navigate through the Allegheny Mountains. The first train went around "the Curve" in 1854.

BOB & JOAN LOZINAK | MANAGING MEMBERS

Bob and Joan Lozinak, both Altoona natives who always had dreams of bringing professional baseball to their hometown, were finally able to realize that dream in 1999. The original owners of the franchise from 1999-2001, Bob and Joan along with their three sons, Mike, David and Steve, reacquired their hometown team on December 30, 2008.

The Lozinaks had visions of bringing professional baseball to Altoona in the late 1970s, but public opposition thwarted the idea. They then proceeded to buy the Triple-A Albuquerque Dukes from former Los Angeles Dodgers owner Peter O'Malley and over the next 20 years (1979-2000), the Dukes captured six Pacific Coast League titles and numerous awards for club operations. Lozinak is among only a handful of minor league baseball owners to have been awarded the prestigious John H. Johnson Trophy twice. The Johnson Trophy is awarded annually to the top franchise in Minor League Baseball in the U.S. and Canada. The Dukes were presented the honor in both 1984 and 1991. Additionally, Albuquerque also captured the Larry McPhail Trophy for the country's top promotional effort in 1987.

Bob and Joan Lozinak on Opening Night 2009, their first game back as owners of the team since 2001

Lozinak addresses the crowd at Peoples Natural Gas Field on September 14, 2017, following the Curve's 4-2 defeat of the Trenton Thunder to solidify the franchise's second Eastern League Championship

Lozinak sold the Dukes in 2000 so he could focus his efforts on his new franchise, the Altoona Curve.

After selling the Curve in 2002, the family purchased the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx and enjoyed Double-A affiliations in the Southern League with both the Chicago Cubs and the Seattle Mariners before the team was sold in the early months of the 2008 season.

Bob was born in Altoona on June 4, 1937. His college education was halted by five years of service in the Army during the 1960s. Lozinak completed Officer Candidate's School in Lawton, Okla. and was honorably discharged as a 1st Lieutenant. Upon his departure from the Army, Lozinak returned to finish his education at St. Francis College in Loretto, Pa. and graduated with a bachelor's degree in history.

After college, Bob and Joan became McDonald's franchisees in 1969 and their role as an owner-operator continues with stores in Hartford County, Maryland.

Since the purchase of their first McDonald's franchise, Joan has been actively involved in many phases of the operation of the restaurant, whether it means balancing the restaurant budget or appearing at numerous functions within the community.

Joan, a graduate of Altoona Catholic High School, currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Bishop Guilfoyle Catholic High School in Altoona. She is actively involved in long-term planning, policy development, financing, capital improvements, public relations and marketing, development and alumni relations and budgetary management.

Joan has always been actively involved in the Catholic church serving as either a Eucharistic Minister or singing in the choir.

Bob and Joan Lozinak were inducted to the Blair County Sports Hall of Fame on April 23, 2016.

FRONT OFFICE & EXECUTIVES

DAVID LOZINAK | CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

David enters his eleventh year as the Chief Operating Officer of the Altoona Curve. His day-to-day responsibilities are to oversee the entire operation of the franchise.

Prior to his family reacquiring the team in December 2008, Lozinak held the same position with the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx of the Southern League from 2002 through 2007.

Lozinak also spent three years working in the Accounting and Concessions departments for the Albuquerque Dukes, a team that his family owned and operated from 1979-2000.

David is a 1987 graduate of Widener University with a degree in Business Administration. He resides in Hollidaysburg with his wife, Aimee. His son, Chaston, is married to Cassandra and resides in Albuquerque with their four children: Leia, Lincoln, Levi and Logan. His daughter, Katie, resides in Tyler, Texas and is engaged to marry Jeremy Kennedy on September 14 of 2019. His son, Will, is a sophomore at Morehead State University in Kentucky and is a pitcher on the baseball team.

DEREK MARTIN | GENERAL MANAGER

On October 7, 2016, Derek Martin was announced as the fifth general manager in Altoona Curve franchise history. Martin returned to the Altoona front office, where he served in various roles from 2003-2007.

He joined the Myrtle Beach Pelicans as the team's assistant general manager from 2007-2009. After three seasons in South Carolina, Martin returned to Pennsylvania in 2009, where he worked with Blue Knob Auto in finance and insurance from 2009-2012. Most recently, he worked as a commercial insurance agent for the Teeter Group from 2012-2016.

A native of Clarion, Pa. and a graduate of Slippery Rock University, Martin began his career in baseball as an intern with the Reading Phillies in 2001. From 2002-2003, he completed an internship with Aramark food and beverage service at Pittsburgh's PNC Park before joining the Curve's sales staff in November 2003. He became the team's director of sales in January 2005.

Martin resides in Roaring Spring, Pa. with his wife Abby and their three children (Rory, 7; Hudson, 5; Molly, 3).

NATE BOWEN | ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Nate Bowen enters his seventh season with the Curve and his first as assistant general manager. He joined the Altoona front office as the Communications & Broadcasting Assistant in 2013 before rising through the ticket sales department.

Bowen served parts of five seasons in the Curve broadcast booth that included the 2017 Eastern League Championship clincher, the 2014 Eastern League All-Star Game as well as the Pirates vs. Altoona Curve exhibition game at PNC Field in 2013. He has also held broadcasting and media relations roles with the Northwest Arkansas Naturals (AA - Texas League), Durham Bulls (AAA - International League), and the Princeton Rays (Rookie - Appalachian League). He began his broadcasting career at Baldwin-Wallace University in 2005 and served as the broadcaster for the Division III school's football, basketball, and baseball teams through the 2009 season. In addition to being a play-by-play broadcaster, he co-founded The Morning Buzz, a daily morning show on the campus radio station WBWC 88.3 FM The Sting. Following graduation, Bowen served as the lead broadcaster for AM 1330 WELW in the Cleveland, Ohio area for local high school and college sports. During the offseason he serves as the play-by-play voice of Division III Carnegie Mellon University, and broadcasts games for several Altoona area high schools on 107.7 WMES and 1400 WWGE.

A native of Fremont, Ohio, Bowen enjoys rooting for Buffalo and Ohio sports teams, traveling, and running. He earned a bachelor's degree in Broadcasting/Mass Communications/Public Relations from Baldwin-Wallace University in 2009.

PIRATES' LONGEST, UNINTERRUPTED AFFILIATIONS

The Curve have been the Pittsburgh Pirates' Double-A affiliate since the team started play in 1999. The relationship officially began on September 15, 1998 with the announcement of the first Player Development Contract between the two teams. Located just 85 miles (as the crow flies) from PNC Park, Altoona's 21-year relationship with the Pirates is the longest-running, uninterrupted minor league affiliate in the 138-year history of the Pittsburgh Pirates. On March 17, 2018, the two teams announced the extension of their PDC through the Curve's 24th season in 2022. Below is a complete list of Pirates minor league affiliations to last ten seasons or longer.

CLUB	YEARS	CLASS	LEAGUE	CLUB	YEARS	CLASS	LEAGUE
Altoona Curve	21 (1999-pres.)	AA	Eastern	Albany Senators	11 (1940-1950)	A	Eastern
Salem Rebels/Pirates	17 (1964-1980)	A	Carolina	Augusta Pirates/GreenJackets	11 (1988-1998)	A	South Atlantic
Indianapolis Indians	15 (2005-pres.)	AAA	International	Bradenton Marauders	10 (2010-pres.)	A-Adv.	Florida State
Lynchburg Hillcats	15 (1995-2009)	A-Adv.	Carolina	Hickory Crawdads	10 (1999-2008)	A	South Atlantic
Columbus Jets	14 (1957-1970)	AAA	International	West Virginia Power	10 (2009-2018)	A	South Atlantic

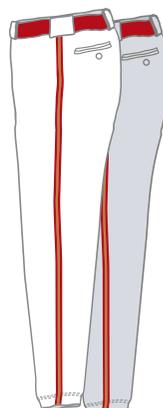

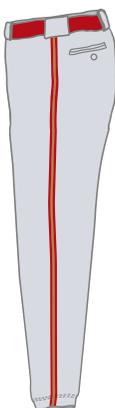

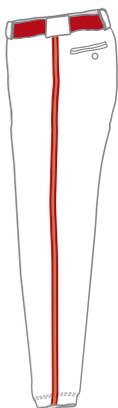

Salem, Va. is the only city to serve as a Pirates affiliate for more total seasons than Altoona. Salem was an affiliate at three different levels for 28 seasons combined over two different stints (1964-80 & 1990-94). The Salem Rebels (renamed the Pirates in 1972 after Pittsburgh's 1971 World Series title) were the Rookie-level affiliate from 1964-67, then moved up to full-season Class A in 1968 and remained through 1980. After three years as an affiliate of the San Diego Padres and three more with the Texas Rangers, Salem returned to Pirates affiliation in 1987 and were re-named the Buccaneers. The Carolina League became Class A-Advanced in 1990 and Salem remained an affiliate through 1994 before the Pirates struck an agreement with the Lynchburg Hillcats prior to the 1995 campaign.

THE 20TH SEASON OF CURVE BASEBALL: The Curve won the Western Division title for the second straight season and won the regular-season division crown for the fourth time in franchise history. The team finished the season 18 games over .500 with a .565 winning percentage, the third-best in team history behind 2004 and 2010, while also posting the best winning percentage in the Eastern League during the season. The Curve qualified for the Eastern League postseason for the ninth time in the club's 20 seasons, and it made its fourth straight playoff appearance, the longest active streak in the Eastern League and tied for the longest streak in franchise history (2003-06).

WILL POWER: First baseman Will Craig became just the second player in Curve history to reach triple-digits in RBIs, finishing the year with 102, which sat four shy of the most in team history (Adam Hyzdu - 106 in 2000). It was also the most by a Pirates minor leaguer since Steve Pearce drove in 113 in 2007 and the fourth-highest in the Eastern League since 2014. Craig hit a career-best 20 homers, tied for the seventh-most in a season in Curve history. It was the tenth season with 20 or more homers by a Curve player in club history. He led the league in RBIs and finished sixth in homers. He also led all of Double-A and ranked tied for fifth in all of Minor League Baseball in RBIs. Craig finished tied for third in the Eastern League Home Run Derby on July 10 in Trenton. He was also the starting DH in the Eastern League All-Star Game on July 11 and was picked as an Eastern League Post-Season All-Star.

YOUNG HAYES: Third baseman Ke'Bryan Hayes was the starting third baseman in the Eastern League All-Star Game in Trenton and for the All-Star Futures Game in Washington, D.C. He was also picked as an Eastern League Post-Season All-Star. After hitting .237 in 37 games through May 18, Hayes ranked third in the league from May 19 through the end of the season with a .318 average over his final 80 games. Hayes broke the Eastern League record for the top fielding percentage by a third baseman at .978. After the season, Hayes was honored as the top third baseman in the minors for the second straight year with the 2018 Rawlings MiLB Gold Glove Award®.

ALEMAIS-ING: Second baseman Stephen Alemais finished third on the team with a .279 batting average, which ranked 13th in the league. He opened the season with a .310 batting average over his first 15 games through April 23, but batted just .102 (6/59) over his next 18 games from April 25-May 18. From May 19 through the end of the season, Alemais hit .309 (88/285), fifth-best on the circuit. Removing his 18-game slump, Alemais hit .309 (106/343) for the year.

D-D-DEFENSE: The Curve led the league with a .985 fielding percentage in 2018 and committed 74 errors, both new franchise records. Third baseman Ke'Bryan Hayes had a .978 fielding percentage for the season, which ranked as the highest by a third baseman in the Eastern League dating back to at least 1959. The fielding percentage was also the best among all third basemen in the minors in 2018. Will Craig led all E.L. first basemen with a .993 fielding percentage and Cole Tucker had the highest fielding percentage by an E.L. shortstop at .973. Craig, Stephen Alemais and Hayes were all named as the top defensive players at their positions by Baseball America in August.

MOVING ON AND GETTING OVER: In his second season with the Curve, Cole Tucker led the Eastern League with 35 stolen bases, which is the fourth-most in a season in team history. Tucker did not pick up his first stolen base of the season until May 20, going 0-for-5 to that point, but went 35-for-42 the rest of the way. His 35 steals were also tied for third in Double-A.

ROLLIN' REYNOLDS: After playing just four games to open the season, Bryan Reynolds was out from April 10 through May 29 with a hamate fracture. Over his final 45 games, Reynolds hit .343 (61/178), sixth in the league, with six homers and 27 RBIs, collecting multiple hits in 19 of those games. He led the team and finished fifth in the league with a .302 batting average and has hit .300 or better in all three seasons of his professional career.

J-MART: At the time of his promotion to Triple-A on June 28, Jason Martin ranked fifth in the league in batting average (.325), tied for third in hits (83), tied for third in runs scored (49) and tied for third in triples (5). He left with the fifth-highest batting average in team history (min. 289 PA). For the season, Martin had the highest batting average in the league among hitters who had at least 275 plate appearances.

MITCH'S PITCHES: Right-hander Mitch Keller entered the year as the Pirates' top prospect and won nine of his 14 starts with Altoona prior to being promoted to Triple-A on June 28. At the time of his promotion, Keller ranked fourth in the league in ERA (2.72), first in wins (9), third in innings pitched (86.0), fourth in BAA (.208) and second in baserunners/9 IP (10.05). He left Altoona ranked fourth all-time with a 2.83 career ERA among pitchers with at least 20 regular-season starts. Over his last four starts with the Curve, Keller went 4-0 with a 0.69 ERA and a 0.81 WHIP.

RED HOT HEARN: Left-hander Taylor Hearn was the starting pitcher for the Western Division in the Eastern League All-Star Game on July 11 in Trenton. After going 0-3 with a 5.81 ERA over his first five starts through May 4, Hearn went 3-3 with a 2.20 ERA over his final 14 starts with Altoona prior to being traded to the Texas Rangers on July 31. At the time of the trade, Hearn was ranked fifth in the league with a 3.12 ERA, tied for first with 107 strikeouts, third with a 1.09 WHIP, tied for first with a .198 BAA and first with 9.26 K/9 IP.

LATE-SEASON CHARGE: The Curve entered August trailing Akron by seven games in the Western Division standings. Over the final 34 games, the Curve went 22-12, best in the league, to capture the division crown by one game. Over the last 13 series of the season, the Curve won 10, lost two and split one. After falling a game under .500 and back to fourth in the division on June 5, the Curve went 52-33 through the rest of the season.

SHINING STARS: The Curve were represented by four players in the 2018 Eastern League All-Star Classic in Trenton on July 11: Taylor Hearn, Sean Keselica, Will Craig and Ke'Bryan Hayes. Hayes and Mitch Keller were also selected to represent the Pirates in the All-Star Futures Game at Nationals Park. Craig and Hayes were named Eastern League End-of-Season All-Stars.

PROSPECT WATCH: Heading into the season, MLB.com ranked the Altoona roster as one of "the Minors 10 most talented teams." Throughout the season, the Altoona roster featured 12 of MLB.com's Preseason Top 30 Pirates prospects: Mitch Keller (1), Ke'Bryan Hayes (4), Cole Tucker (5), Bryan Reynolds (6), Taylor Hearn (11), Luis Escobar (12), Nick Kingham (13), Will Craig (18), Stephen Alemais (20), Jason Martin (22), Nick Burdi (24) and Brandon Waddell (29), and also featured 12 of Baseball America's Preseason Top 30 Pirates prospects: Keller (1), Hayes (4), Tucker (6), Escobar (7), Kingham (8), Hearn (9), Waddell (19), Craig (24), Burdi (25), Yeudy Garcia (26), Alemais (28) and Dario Agrazal (26). Reynolds was named by Baseball America as San Francisco's No. 5 prospect prior to being traded to Pittsburgh and Martin was Houston's No. 19 prospect prior to his trade. This year's Curve team had 11 of MLB.com's Top 30 prospects at the end of the season's rankings, including: Keller (1), Hayes (2), Tucker (5), Reynolds (8), Escobar (11), Martin (13), Craig (16), Alemais (18), Burdi (20), Waddell (24) and Agrazal (26).

ROAD TO THE SHOW: During the 2018 season, 14 former Curve players made their MLB debuts during the 2018 season, tied with 2016 for the most all-time. The list included RHP Clay Holmes (2016 Curve) with the Pirates on April 8, RHP Nick Kingham (2013-14, '16, '18) on April 29 with the Pirates, LHP Brandon Mann (2014 Curve) with the Rangers on May 13, OF Austin Meadows (2015-16) with the Pirates on May 18, RHP Robert Stock (2015) with the Padres on June 24, RHP Tanner Anderson (2017) with the Pirates on July 2, LHP Jeremy Bleich (2015) with the Athletics on July 13, RHP Alex McRae (2016-17) with the Pirates on August 1, INF Kevin Newman (2016-17) with the Pirates on August 16, RHP Daniel Zamora (2017) with the Mets on August 17, INF/OF Pablo Reyes (2017-18) with the Pirates on September 2, INF Kevin Kramer (2017) with the Pirates on September 5, C Reese McGuire (2016) with the Blue Jays on September 6 and RHP Nick Burdi (2018) with the Pirates on September 11.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

Michael Ryan, a native of Western Pennsylvania, returns for his third season as the manager of the Altoona Curve in 2019. He was announced to the position on December 23, 2016. The Pirates announced Ryan's return to Altoona on January 18, 2019.

Ryan enters the 2019 campaign as the second-winningest manager in team history with a .547 winning percentage. Tony Beasley held a .569 mark at the helm over the 2004-05 seasons. Under Ryan's direction in 2018, the Curve finished with the Eastern League's best winning percentage and won the Western Division championship for the second consecutive year. It was the first time in franchise history that the Curve repeated as division champs.

In his first season with the Curve in 2017, Ryan led the club to its second Eastern League championship in franchise history with a three-game sweep over the Trenton Thunder in the ELCS. The Curve went 74-66 in the regular season, winning their third division crown in team history by two games over the second-place Bowie Baysox.

The title was the second for Ryan in as many seasons. In 2016, he managed the Class-A-Adv. Bradenton Marauders to a Florida State League championship. It was the first A-Adv. championship for a Pirates-affiliated team since the Lynchburg Hillcats won the Carolina League title in 2009.

Ryan began his managerial career in 2013 with the West Virginia Power, the Pirates' then-Class-A affiliate in the South Atlantic League, leading the club to an 82-58 overall record and second-half Northern Division championship while setting the franchise record in wins. The Power were eliminated in the division series by the Hagerstown Suns, two games to one.

He returned to Charleston with the Power in 2014 before earning a promotion to manage Bradenton in 2015. Overall, Ryan has compiled a 432-395 record over six seasons as a minor league manager. Ryan was also a coach with the Curve in 2012 under former manager P.J. Forbes.

PLAYING CAREER

Ryan was drafted in the fifth round by the Minnesota Twins out of Indiana Area Senior High School in 1996, where he played baseball, basketball and football and was an all-state selection in football and baseball in 1996. Ryan played 15 professional seasons, including five in the majors. The former outfielder spent four seasons in the big leagues with the Twins from 2002-05 and played for the Los Angeles Angels in 2010. He was the first native of Indiana, Pa. to play in the majors since infielder Henry Youngman played 13 games with the Pirates in 1890.

Ryan began his professional career with the Twins' Gulf Coast League affiliate in 1996 at the age of 18. He climbed a step up the minor league ladder each of the next four seasons with the Rookie-level Elizabethton Twins in 1997, Single-A Fort Wayne Wizards in 1998, A-Adv. Fort Myers Miracle in 1999 and Double-A New Britain Rock Cats in 2000.

In the Eastern League, Ryan hit .277 with 11 homers and a team-leading 69 RBIs. He played three games with the Triple-A Salt Lake Buzz at the end of the 2000 season.

Ryan spent all of the 2001 season with the Twins' new Triple-A affiliate, the Edmonton Trappers, and finished second on the team in homers (18) and RBIs (73) behind only current Harrisburg Senators manager Matt LeCroy. In 2002, Ryan returned to Edmonton and went on to earn a Pacific Coast League Post-Season All-Star selection after clubbing 31 homers and collecting 101 RBIs, both career highs as the Trappers won a PCL championship.

On September 19, 2002, Ryan saw his first Major League action with the Minnesota Twins. In what would have been a memorable debut, he picked up two hits, two RBIs and scored two runs, a major league record, in the first inning at Comerica Park against the Detroit Tigers during a nine-run frame for the Twins. However, the game was called prior to the top of the third inning due to rain, erasing his performance from the record books. Ryan made what would be recorded as his "official" Major League debut on September 20 and went 0-for-4.

Ryan returned to Triple-A Rochester for most of 2003 and was called up to Minnesota in mid-August. Over 27 big league games, he hit .393 with five homers and 13 RBIs to close out the regular season as the Twins won the AL Central, earning a spot on Minnesota's postseason roster. The Twins lost to the Yankees in the American League Division Series, three games to one. Ryan struck out against Roger Clemens in a pinch-hit appearance during Game 3, his only at-bat in the playoffs.

Over the next two seasons, Ryan combined to play 93 more games for the Twins before becoming a free agent after 10 years (1996-05) with the organization. He signed with the Braves for the 2006 season and spent the entire year with Triple-A Richmond.

Ryan signed with the Pirates in 2007 and was a non-roster invitee to spring training. In the Grapefruit League, he hit .396 for the Pirates and drove in nine runs over 22 games. Ryan spent the entire regular season with the Triple-A Indianapolis Indians, hitting .259 with 52 RBIs and leading the Tribe with 16 home runs.

With an overhaul of the Pirates' front office prior to the 2008 season, Ryan became a free agent and signed with the independent Somerset Patriots. He spent three months with the team and was named as an Atlantic League All-Star before signing a minor league deal with the Florida Marlins. He played the remainder of the season with the Triple-A Albuquerque Isotopes, hitting .321 with nine homers over just 33 games.

The Marlins moved their Triple-A affiliation to New Orleans in 2009 and Ryan spent the entire season with the Zephyrs, leading the team with a .300 batting average and earning a Pacific Coast League Mid-Season All-Star selection.

Ryan signed as a free agent with the Los Angeles Angels in 2010 and again opened the season in Triple-A, this time suiting up for the Salt Lake Bees. After hitting .351 over his first 21 games, Ryan earned a call up to the big leagues on May 7, marking his first major league action in five years.

In 22 games for the Angels, Ryan hit .205 while playing left field and first base. He was designated for assignment on June 17 and played out the remainder of his final season with Salt Lake.

After not signing with a club in 2011, Pirates' Director of Minor League Operations Larry Broadway hired Ryan as a coach in November 2011.

Ryan currently resides in the Pittsburgh area with his wife, Alicia, and their two sons, Brennan (9) and Blake (7).

Joel Hanrahan, 37, joins the Curve coaching staff for his first season in Altoona and third year as a coach in the Pirates minor league system. He spent the 2018 season as the pitching coach for the Class-A West Virginia Power and held the same role with the Rookie-level Bristol Pirates in 2017.

A right-handed reliever for the majority of his playing career, Hanrahan pitched for the Pittsburgh Pirates for parts of four seasons (2009-12) and was a two-time National League All-Star (2011 & 2012). He became the Bucs' closer during the 2010 campaign and tallied 82 total saves (fifth-most in club history) while wearing the Black & Gold. He set a new club record with 40 saves in 2011 and held a 1.83 ERA over 70 outings. Mark Melancon is the only Pirates closer with more saves (51 in 2015) in a single season while Hanrahan and Melancon are the only members of the team's 40-save club.

Hanrahan came to Pittsburgh in a trade from the Washington Nationals on June 30, 2009 with Lastings Milledge in exchange for a pair of Curve alumni: Sean Burnett and Nyjer Morgan. He was traded by the Pirates to the Boston Red Sox on December 26, 2012 with Brock Holt for Ivan De Jesus, Mark Melancon, Stolmy Pimentel and Jerry Sands.

During his first year in Boston, Hanrahan had season-ending Tommy John surgery in May 2013 and never returned to a big league mound. A second UCL injury during spring training in 2015 required another Tommy John operation and halted a comeback attempt with the Detroit Tigers. Hanrahan formally retired on November 15, 2016.

Overall, Hanrahan played seven seasons in the big leagues with Pittsburgh, Washington and Boston. He logged a 22-18 career record with a 3.85 ERA over 362 appearances. His playing career spanned 14 seasons and began as a second-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2000. He played seven years in the Dodgers' farm system without a call to the majors. He signed with the Nationals after the 2006 campaign and made his MLB debut as a starter on July 27, 2007 against the New York Mets at Shea Stadium and hit a triple in his first plate appearance.

Hanrahan, an Iowa native, resides in Lewisville, Texas with his wife, Kim, and two children: Ryan (6) and Cora (3).

Jon Nunnally, 47, joins the Pirates organization ahead of the 2019 season for his 12th year as a coach in professional baseball. He spent the previous two seasons as the Minor League Outfield and Baserunning Coordinator for the Los Angeles Angels.

Nunnally has major league experience both as a player and a coach. During the 2010-11 seasons, Nunnally was the Cleveland Indians' hitting coach under then-manager Manny Acta. As a player, he was an outfielder that spent parts of five seasons in the big leagues from 1995-2000.

His coaching career began in 2007 as the hitting coach for the Class-A-Adv. Kinston Indians. He moved up to Triple-A Columbus in 2009 before reaching the MLB staff the next season. Nunnally has also been a minor league hitting coach for the Toronto Blue Jays with the Double-A New Hampshire Fisher Cats (2012 and 2014) and Triple-A Buffalo Bisons (2013). He also spent two seasons in the Boston Red Sox system as a hitting coach with the Salem Red Sox (2015) and Portland Sea Dogs (2016).

Nunnally was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the third round of the 1992 draft out of Miami-Dade College and played the first three seasons of his 15-year playing career in the Tribe's system. The Kansas City Royals chose Nunnally in the Rule 5 Draft after the 1994 season and he made his MLB debut with the Royals on April 26, 1995. He hit .244 with 14 homers during his rookie season in '95. He was traded to the Cincinnati Reds on July 15, 1997 and hit .318 with 13 homers over the final 65 games of the year. Nunnally played one more year in Cincinnati before spending single campaigns with the Red Sox and Mets. In 364 career MLB games, the left-handed hitter batted .246 with 42 homers and 125 RBIs.

2019 CURVE

Nunnally played for the Pirates' Triple-A affiliate, the Indianapolis Indians, during his last year of affiliated experience in 2005. He also played in the Milwaukee Brewers and St. Louis Cardinals organizations before joining the Pirates. He played one season in Japan (2000) and concluded his playing career in 2006 after a stint in the Mexican League.

Nunnally resides in Ringgold, Va. with his wife, Tammy. He has three children: daughters Kristen (27) and Josie (17) and son Jonathan Jr. (23).

CRAZY 8s

In 2010, Curve outfielder Alex Presley had an unprecedented day at the plate on May 24 in Akron. The Monroe, La. native exploded for eight RBI to surpass Curve legend Adam Hyzdu for the most RBI in one game in franchise history. That feat was duplicated in 2013 by another Curve OF in Alex Dickerson, who tied the mark on July 26 in Manchester, N.H. against the Fisher Cats. Dickerson was 3-for-6 that day with a home run and two runs scored. It was part of a big weekend in Manchester as it came one night after the Curve threw the second combined no-hitter in franchise history.

TRIPLE PLAY BASEBALL

On May 27, 2010 in Akron, the Altoona Curve turned the second-ever triple play in franchise history. Previously, the lone triple play in team history occurred on May 2, 2001. In 2010, Chase d'Arnaud caught a line drive off the bat of John Drennen, stepped on second and threw to first to get an innings worth of work complete in a matter of moments. The first triple play came against Harrisburg, a 2-6-4 groundout, J.R. House to Shaun Skrehot to Chris Peterson.

It didn't take long for the city of Altoona to show the critics who said the area was too small to support a professional baseball team that it has as knowledgeable and caring fans as anywhere minor league baseball is played. It didn't take Adam Hyzdu long to discover that fact either.

When the minor league veteran signed as a free agent with the Pirates shortly after being released by the Red Sox organization early in the 1999 season, Curve fans were just getting used to their new team and its beautiful new ballpark. Few probably even knew the names of the players they were cheering for. But soon, everyone knew about Hyzdu.

He was the club's Most Valuable Player during the inaugural 1999 season, batting .316 with 24 home runs and 78 RBI in just 91 games, before earning a late-season promotion to Triple-A. Most people thought they had seen the last of Hyzdu in a Curve uniform.

However, after a less-than-intent look from the Pirates in major league spring training, and much to the surprise of the fans of Altoona, Hyzdu returned to the Curve for the 2000 season. Although perhaps initially upset about returning to the Double-A level for the fifth time in his career, Hyzdu tore up Eastern League pitching and in return won the hearts of Curve fans. In 142 games for the 2000 Curve, he batted .290 with team records for home runs (31) and RBI (106) and earned the Eastern League's Most Valuable Player Award. By the middle of the season, the entire city of Altoona was campaigning for Hyzdu's promotion to the major leagues.

And just when it appeared as though Adam Hyzdu's 11th season as a professional baseball player would end without a major league at-bat, he had the week of his life. On September 4th, following a season-ending loss to Akron, his number 16 jersey was retired by the Curve--an honor not normally bestowed upon a minor league baseball player. Then, just four days later, Hyzdu received the call he had been waiting for--he was heading to the major leagues with the Pittsburgh Pirates! He singled in his first major league at-bat on September 8th and 12 days later hit his first major league home run against the Philadelphia Phillies at Veterans Stadium.

After returning to the minor leagues to open 2001, he was recalled by the Pirates in May and spent the majority of the season with the major league club. On July 4th that season, in his hometown of Cincinnati, Hyzdu hit two homers against the Reds, bringing his baseball playing career full circle from the days when he was belting home runs at Moeller High School.

After spending parts of the 2002 and 2003 seasons with Pittsburgh, Hyzdu left the Pirates' organization to join the Boston Red Sox system in 2004. After hitting .301 with 29 homers and 79 RBI for Triple-A Pawtucket, Adam was rewarded with a September call-up to the playoff-bound Boston Red Sox and had a chance to remain with the club as the Sox did the unthinkable and won the franchise's first World Series title since 1918.

In 2005, despite spending most of the season in the minor leagues with both the Padres and Red Sox organizations, Hyzdu appeared in 29 big league games between San Diego and Boston, marking the sixth season in which he had seen action in the major leagues. 2005 also brought a milestone in Adam's career as he appeared in a major league postseason game for the first time.

The 2006 season saw Hyzdu appear for his fourth major league team as he played in two games for the Texas Rangers after signing with the club as a minor league free agent in November 2005. Hyzdu spent the 2007 season in Japan before announcing his retirement at the end of the year, capping off an 18-year playing career.

IT KEEPS GOING & GOING...

The longest game in Altoona Curve history took place on July 13, 2000 in Norwich, Conn, when Altoona outlasted the Navigators, 6-5, in 19 innings. The game took six hours and 17 minutes to play. With the score tied 2-2, the Curve scored four times in the top of the 19th inning before they withstood a three-run comeback attempt in the bottom half of the frame to earn the win.

NOTE: From 1999-02 Curve players participated in the Double-A All-Star Game, which included players from the Eastern, Southern and Texas Leagues. The Eastern League began holding its own All-Star Game in 2003.

The Diamond, home of the Richmond Flying Squirrels, will host the 2019 Eastern League All-Star Game. The All-Star Game will take place on Wednesday, July 10 with nearly a weeks' worth of festivities in the Commonwealth's capital city. After a kickoff event on Sunday, July 7, country music duo Big & Rich will headline a concert at Richmond Raceway on Monday, July 8 followed by the Eastern League Celebrity Home Run Derby & Funnville Fanfest at The Diamond on Tuesday, July 9.

The 2019 mid-season exhibition will be the first time Richmond has ever hosted the Eastern League All-Star Game since the team joined the league before the 2010 season (relocated from Connecticut after 2009 season).

The Western and Eastern Divisions will field a team of 24 of the top players in the Eastern League, with each team being represented by at least one pitcher and one position player from the league's twelve clubs. The rosters will be selected through a combination of fan voting and picks from managers, media and team personnel.

Playoff Format

- Divisional Playoffs: Division champions from each half will play a best-of-five series with a 2-3 format with the first-half division champ hosting games 3-5
- Championship Series: Winners of two divisional series play in a best-of-five series with a 2-3 format.
- Eastern Division hosts first two games in odd numbered years
- Western Division hosts first two games in even numbered years

Tiebreakers

- If the same team wins both halves, the team with the best full-season record will earn the second playoff spot for that division.
- Ties for first place are broken on head-to-head records during the current half. If three or more teams are tied, the best aggregate record among the tied teams will serve as the tiebreaker.

GOING, GOING, GONE

Led by Josh Bonifay's 25 home runs, the 2005 Altoona Curve established the single-season franchise record by clubbing a total of 141 big flies in 142 regular-season games. The 25 home runs hit by Bonifay are the second-most in club history, trailing only Adam Hyzdu's 31 hit during the 2000 season. Team MVP Jose Bautista was second on the 2005 club with 23 homers, while three other players, Craig Stansberry (18), Tom Evans (15) and Brad Eldred (13), also reached double figures. By contrast, the first championship Curve team in 2010 only slugged 80 regular-season home runs, but hit 14 in their eight playoff games.

NATIONAL TELEVISION

The nation's eyes turned to Blair County Ballpark on April 11, 2010 when Washington Nationals prospect Stephen Strasburg made his professional debut in front of a record crowd at Blair County Ballpark. The game, which was broadcast on ESPN360.com and had live look-ins taken by ESPNEWS, brought a crowd of 7,887 to BCB on Sunday afternoon. It was the largest single-game crowd to take in a Curve game in the month of April in franchise history. The Curve were again featured on national television on September 14, 2010 for Game 1 of the Eastern League Championship Series, when Yankees pitcher Andy Pettitte made a rehab start for the Trenton Thunder at BCP and MLB Network carried live look-ins of the game. Curve second baseman Chase d'Arnaud homered off Pettitte to lead off the bottom of the first, but the Thunder went on to win the game in 10 innings. On June 21, 2015, a game between the Curve and Harrisburg Senators was broadcast live to American Sports Network affiliates around the U.S. as part of their Minor League Baseball Sunday Showcase series. The game was called by Brett Dolan and former big leaguer Brian McRae and featured live interviews in the broadcast booth with Curve owner Bob Lozinak and General Manager Rob Egan. The Curve went on to defeat the Senators, 7-3.

“A minor league ballpark is one thing. An amusement park is another. But tucked in the Allegheny Mountains is a place where there's really no difference.”
-- USA Today, August 8, 2002

Opened on April 15, 1999, Peoples Natural Gas Field is widely considered by fans, players, baseball executives and media as one of the finest minor league baseball facilities in America. Located just off Interstate 99 in Altoona, the ballpark features a beautiful brick exterior and the design is modeled after a railroad roundhouse to tie in the industry which helped found the city of Altoona and is still very much present to this day. The inside of Peoples Natural Gas Field features more than 7,200 fixed seats between two levels. The double-deck layout of the seating section allows for expansive lower and upper concourses, giving fans plenty of space to walk around the ballpark without having to fight through a stationary crowd of people. The “Skyliner” roller coaster from neighboring Lakemont Park and the scenic Allegheny Mountains add to the overall beauty of Peoples Natural Gas Field.

TALKRADIO 98.5 WRTA

US. FOODS CURVE RADIO NETWORK

After a successful new partnership in 2017-18, News Talk 98.5/1240 WRTA returns as the flagship home of the US. Foods Curve Radio Network in 2019.

The Curve and Sounds Good Media continue their relationship this year with 110 regular-season games airing on News Talk 98.5/1240 WRTA in the Altoona area. The 30 day games in 2019 will be carried on 1370 AM WKMC and its FM simulcast on 96.1 FM.

WPHB 1260 AM in Centre County, Pa. also returns for the station's second season as an affiliate.

New for 2019, US. Foods has extended their long-standing relationship with the Curve as the naming rights holder for the radio network.

All 140 games will also be available to out-of-market listeners via AltoonaCurve.com and on mobile devices (iPhone/Android/Windows Phone/BlackBerry/Amazon Kindle) with the TuneIn Radio App. Curve fans can also watch all 70 home games and all 70 road games with a subscription to MiLB.tv. For more information on subscribing to MiLB.tv, visit MiLB.tv on the web.

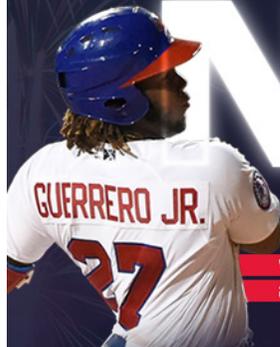

The Curve and Sounds Good Media will also continue their cross-promotional and marketing relationships from past seasons in 2019. Popular on-air personalities from the Sounds Good Media family of stations (Q94, Mix 94.7, News Talk WRTA and 1370 WKMC) will be on hand throughout the season at Peoples Natural Gas Field to take part in contests and in-game events.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Garrett Mansfield (Second Season) @GarrettMansfield

Garrett Mansfield is in his second season with the Curve and fourth overall in Minor League Baseball. Mansfield joined the Curve prior to the 2018 season and was promoted to the lead play-by-play position after the season.

Before coming to Altoona, Mansfield spent the 2017 season with the Beloit Snappers, Single-A affiliate of the Oakland Athletics, where he called Midwest League games as the Media Relations & Marketing Manager. He also spent time in the booth with the El Paso Chihuahuas, the Triple-A affiliate of the San Diego Padres, in 2016 as their Broadcast & Media Relations Assistant. Before working in professional baseball, Mansfield spent two summers broadcasting baseball in the Alaska Baseball League for the Chugiak-Eagle River Chinooks.

Between stops in baseball, he has served as a television play-by-play broadcaster for the West Ohio Sports Network, headquartered in Lima, Ohio. He has called high school football, basketball, volleyball, soccer and hockey for the regional network.

Mansfield began his broadcasting career at Bowling Green State University, where he joined the Bowling Green Radio Sports Organization as a student. Over his four years at BGSU, he called numerous athletic events for the Falcons on each of the two campus radio stations. He traveled frequently with the women's basketball team while BGRSO carried their games exclusively on 88.1 WBGU-FM. Mansfield also voiced the 2014 Mid-American Conference Football Championship at Ford Field in Detroit between Bowling Green and Northern Illinois.

The Defiance, Ohio native now lives in Altoona with his wife, Carlina, whom he married on March 17, 2018. He enjoys cheering for the Cleveland Browns and Notre Dame football teams in the fall in addition to traveling, watching movies and learning about American history with his wife. Mansfield earned a bachelor's degree in Telecommunications from Bowling Green State University in 2015.

Michael Marcantonini (First Season) @MIKEdUpSports

Michael Marcantonini joins the Curve broadcast team ahead of the 2019 season for his first year in affiliated baseball and second in professional baseball.

Marcantonini spent the 2018 season as a play-by-play broadcaster and media relations assistant with the York Revolution of the independent Atlantic League. His previous broadcasting stops include serving as the voice of the Rockford Rivets in the Northwoods League during the summer of 2017 before moving on to call games in the California Winter League in 2018.

A native of Blue Bell, Pa., Marcantonini graduated from Penn State University in May 2017 with a degree in broadcast journalism, certificate in sports journalism and minor in entrepreneurship. He was a member of The LION 90.7 FM student radio station where he called Penn State football, basketball and baseball games, and hosted "The Sports Blitz" talk show. Marcantonini served as the station's sports director during his senior year, and covered the 2017 Rose Bowl and 2016 Big Ten Football Championship. He was also an on-air analyst and producer for "Penn State Sports Night" on PSNtv.

Marcantonini enjoys listening to country music, going to the beach, playing fantasy football and staying active. He's always up to hit a round of batting practice and have a catch, and hopes to eventually visit every MLB ballpark. He's a fan of the Philadelphia Eagles, 76ers, Penn State football and Villanova basketball.

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials for the 2019 season will only be issued to legitimate news gathering organizations that cover the Curve on a daily basis. The Curve will contact media outlets on an individual basis regarding season-long credentials. Other media organizations that would like to request a season credential can do so by sending that request on company letterhead via fax (814-283-3181) or as an email attachment to gmansfield@altoonacurve.com.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: Daily credentials will be issued to those individuals or organizations who do not qualify for season credentials, including freelance writers and weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to radio and TV stations when the need arises for extra pre/postgame personnel and to newspaper reporters providing extra coverage. The Curve Media Relations Department should be notified at least 24 hours in advance of the game in which daily credentials are being requested. Requests should be faxed or emailed. Once approved, the credentials can be picked up at the Media/Handicap Gate.

CREDENTIAL PICKUPS: Season Credentials can be picked up at the Curve's annual Media Day activities. Media can make other arrangements with the Curve Media Relations Department to pick up credentials after that date. Daily credentials will only be available for pickup on the day they are issued at the Media/Handicap Gate.

MEDIA ENTRANCE TO PEOPLES NATURAL GAS FIELD: All credentialed media should enter the ballpark through the Media/Handicap gate located at the top of the stairs halfway between the Front Office and the Upper Ticket Plaza on the third base side of the ballpark. No credentialed media are permitted to enter the ballpark through either the Curve front office or one of the ticket gates.

OTHER ACCEPTABLE CREDENTIALS: The Curve will also honor credentials from the Pittsburgh Pirates, National and American Leagues, the Baseball Writers Association of America and Minor League Baseball.

PRESS BOX SPACE: Though Peoples Natural Gas Field's press box is spacious, the Curve still give preferred seating to those media outlets that cover the club most frequently. If your media organization has special space requirements, please contact the Curve Media Relations Department at least 24 hours prior to those dates.

PHOTO WELLS: Photo wells are located at the end of both dugouts. Photographers are welcome to use this space throughout the course of the game. Photographers are not permitted in the actual dugout area or on the field once the game begins. Please wait until the end of the inning to move to and from these areas.

PARKING: Media members holding season credentials are permitted to park their vehicles in the VIP parking lot by presenting their credentials to the attendant. Please be aware that parking is available on a first-come basis. Those holding daily credentials that need to be picked up at the Media/Handicap gate will have their name placed on a VIP parking list, as long as they give at least 24 hours notice.

INTERVIEW POLICY: The Curve Media Relations Department will be glad to assist members of the media in procuring interviews with Curve players and coaching staff members. Media members wishing to do an off-site interview or a feature story should contact the Curve at least 48 hours in advance to the scheduled interview time. The media is asked to be respectful of the players' pregame schedule when requesting an interview with a player. No one will be permitted to interview starting pitchers on the day of their start.

CLUBHOUSE POLICIES: In accordance with the regulations designated by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Major League Baseball, both clubhouses will open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before game time. Following the game, the clubhouses will be closed for a period of five minutes to allow the team ample time to return to the clubhouse. The clubhouse areas are also closed when the teams are on the field, unless previously approved by the Curve Media Relations Department. Clubhouses are also closed between games of a doubleheader.

FIELD ACCESS: Credentialed media are permitted access to the field and dugout areas, but are not permitted to cross the foul lines, particularly when the team is taking batting practice. Media must leave the field and dugout areas no later than 45 minutes prior to game time.

LIVE VIDEO: Live video is not permitted within 20 feet of the batting cages at PNG Field or on the road during Curve batting practice. Live video must be shot from a minimum of 10 feet away from the bullpen at PNG Field. Live video cannot exceed more than five minutes at a time during batting practice. Live video is not permitted inside the Curve clubhouse at any time. Live social media interviews will not be permitted at any time.
