Nick Sakellariadis

Mr. Sakellariadis recently retired following a 35-year investment banking career at Citigroup-related companies. Mr. Sakellariadis served in various investment banking capacities at Citigroup companies including as Managing Director in the Mergers and Acquisitions Group, and as head of the Financial Restructuring Group, and as a member of the Advisory Committee, which reviewed and approved all fairness and valuation opinions rendered by the firm. He served as an advisor in transactions totaling in excess of $200 billion. Mr. Sakellariadis covered the Automotive, Homebuilding and Building Products sectors, as well as other industrial companies.

Mr. Sakellariadis graduated from Harvard College, magna cum laude in 1973, and received an M.B.A. from the Harvard Business School, and a J.D. degree from the Harvard Law School. He was a Fulbright/ITT Scholar in 1973-1974

Mr. Sakellariadis is a former co-chairman of the Harvard College Fund, Fundraising Co-Chairman of the Harvard College Class of 1973, former Fundraising Co-Chairman (along with Greg Rosenbaum) of the Harvard Law School Class of 1977, Advisory Trustee of the New York Botanical Garden, former Trustee and Treasurer of the U.S. Board of Athens College, Advisory Trustee of Phoenix Country Day School, 29-year member of the Parish Council and former President of the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church in New York City, and a member of four national Greek Church and cultural organizations as well as Member of Major Gifts Committee for the Harvard Business School Class of 1977. He is a recipient of the Ellis Island Medal of Honor.

Greg Rosenbaum

Mr. Rosenbaum is President of Palisades Associates, Inc., a merchant banking and investment firm. Mr. Rosenbaum began his business career in 1978 at The Boston Consulting Group. In 1982, he was named a Vice President of The Dyson-Kissner-Moran Corporation, a private investment firm that pioneered leveraged buyouts. In 1987, Mr. Rosenbaum was one of the founding Managing Directors of The Carlyle Group. In 1989, he founded Palisades Associates, Inc.

A Toledo native and 1970 Ohio High School State Debating Champion, Mr. Rosenbaum received an A.B. in Government from Harvard College, magna cum laude, in 1974, where he won the National College Debate Championship, and jointly earned a J.D. from Harvard Law School, where he won the Ames Moot Court Competition, and an M.P.P. from Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government in 1978. While pursuing his graduate studies, Mr. Rosenbaum served as Coach of Debating at Harvard, leading the team to another National Championship, and as a Teaching Fellow in Government and Social Sciences. He is admitted to the active practice of law in Ohio and Illinois and before the Supreme Court of the United States, and is a member of the American Bar Association's Sections on Antitrust Law and Business Law, the Ohio State Bar Association and the Dayton Bar Association.

Mr. Rosenbaum has served on numerous boards of directors, both for-profit and not-for-profit, public as well as private. In 2011, the Metropolitan Council on Jewish Poverty named Mr. Rosenbaum the Humanitarian of the Year. He is a member of the boards of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Foundation and the USA Swimming Foundation. In 2016, he served as the Team Leader for the USA Modern Pentathlon Team at the Rio Olympics. In 2013, Mr. Rosenbaum was appointed by President Obama to the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, a position he held until 2017. He served as a Vice Chair of the Platform Committee for the 2016 Democratic National Convention and recently joined the board of the Center for American Progress Action Fund. For his work with the U.S. Army's World Class Athlete Program, Mr. Rosenbaum was awarded the Public Service Medal by the Secretary of the Army in 2017.

Michael Savit

Mr. Savit is the Managing Partner of the HWS Group, which over the past 18 years has owned and operated seven Minor League baseball teams as well as an NBA Development League team in Springfield, MA. Mr. Savit is also a limited partner in the Memphis Grizzlies of the NBA.

Prior to the formation of the HWS Group, Mr. Savit worked for 16 years for the Cleveland-based International Management Group (IMG), specializing in event management. In 1997, he and his brother, Jeffrey, founded the HWS Group, headquartered in Wellesley, MA, in honor of their late father, Herbert W. Savit. The first two teams with which he was involved were the Augusta GreenJackets of the South Atlantic League (1998-2005) and the Michigan BattleCats of the Midwest League (2000-2001). Along with two other teams HWS Group purchased, the Mobile BayBears of the Southern League (2003-2017) and the Columbia Blowfish of the Coastal Plain (collegiate) League (2006-2013), those teams have since been sold.

Currently Mr. Savit serves as Managing Partner of the Modesto Nuts of the California League (2005-present) and the Mahoning Valley Scrappers of the New York-Penn League (2007-present). Mr. Savit received an A.B. degree in Government from Harvard College in 1978, where he served as Sports Editor of the Harvard Crimson.He is currently involved in numerous philanthropic endeavors in the New England area, including the HWS Golf Classic, which since 2002 has raised over $1.2million for the Herbert W. Savit Research Fund at Brown University and the Miriam Hospital in Providence, RI, dedicated to focused research in myeloid diseases.

Dragons Front Office

Robert Murphy has served as President of the Dayton Dragons since the organization's inception in 1999 and has worked in sports management since Twice in his tenure with the Dragons, Murphy has been selected nationally as the industry's top leader. Following the 2018 season, Murphy was named by Baseball America as Minor League Baseball Executive of the Year. He received the same honor from The Sporting News in 2005. Additionally, Murphy has been chosen by the Midwest League as its Executive of the Year in 2000 and 2011. In 2000, he was named to Dayton Business Journal's Top 40 Under 40 in Business. In 2013, Murphy was awarded the West Chester-Liberty Chamber Alliance Everest Award honoring leaders and legends on the I-75 Growth Corridor.

Under Murphy's leadership, the Dragons have sold-out every home game since their inception in 2000, breaking the all-time North American record for most consecutive sellouts on July 9, 2011 when they sold out their 815th consecutive game, topping the record set by the Portland Trail Blazers of the NBA.

The Dragons organization has received many honors and awards during Murphy's tenure (see page 5), most recently in 2018 when the Dragons were selected as the Miami Valley's Customer Service Business of the Year by Dayton Business Journal. In 2004, the Dragons received the Bob Freitas Award from Baseball America for being the top Class-A franchise in professional baseball. In 2011, Ballpark Digest named the Dragons as the Minor League Baseball "Organization of the Year." In 2012, the Dragons organization was awarded Minor League Baseball's John H. Johnson President's Award, the top honor bestowed by the industry's leadership organization. The annual award honors the individual or club that best exemplifies the standards of the complete baseball franchise. The Dragons were the Midwest League nominee for the same award in 2001, 2011, and 2012. Also in 2012, the Dayton Dragons were named as one of five finalists for the Sports Business Journal Professional Sports Team of the Year Award, becoming the first minor league team from any sport to be selected as a finalist for the award. In 2016, 2017, and 2018, the Dragons were selected as the Midwest League nominee for the Charles Murphy Patriot Award, which recognizes outstanding support of the military. Robert received his undergraduate degree in communications and media arts from Buffalo State College and received his MBA from the State University of New York at Buffalo. He and his wife, Kathy, have three children.

Eric Deutsch has been with Dragons since their inception in 1999 and has worked in professional sports since 1993. He worked with the Las Vegas Stars/51's of the Pacific Coast League before joining the Dragons. Eric was born at the Grand Forks Air Force Base in North Dakota, but was raised in Las Vegas. He received his accounting degree from the University of San Diego in 1990 and worked for Solar Turbines/Caterpillar in San Diego in the finance department for two years before moving on to graduate school. In 1993 Eric received his Master of Science in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University of Miami, Florida. Eric and his wife, Courtney, have four children.

Luis Bolivar - Manager

Bolivar (BULL-uh-varr) returns to the Dragons for his third season as manager after serving as the Dragons hitting coach for three seasons, 2014-16. He is the ninth manager in Dragons history. Bolivar played in 180 games for the Dragons in 2003-'04 and represented Dayton in the 2004 Midwest League All-Star Game. He is the first Dragons player to also serve as a coach or manager for the team. Bolivar began his coaching career as the hitting coach for the AZL Reds in 2013.

PLAYING CAREER: Bolivar spent nine years in the Minor Leagues including eight seasons in the Reds organization. From 2002-'09, he played at every level in the Reds farm system. He played at least 150 games at three different positions, working at second base, shortstop, and third base.

He also saw action in left field, right field, and first base. On April 7, 2008, Bolivar became just the 11th player in Southern League history to collect six hits in one game as a member of the Chattanooga Lookouts.

PERSONAL: Bolivar, 37, has resided in the Dayton suburb of Vandalia since his tenure as a Dragons player and served as an assistant coach at Vandalia-Butler High School prior to joining the Reds as a coach in 2013. He and his wife, Kelly have four children: Kamryn, Luisa, Zoey, and Enzo. Bolivar was born and raised in Venezuela before coming the United States as a Reds prospect in 2002. He became a U.S. citizen in 2017 in a legal ceremony that was attended by every player on the Dragons team.

Seth Etherton - Pitching Coach

Etherton, a former Reds pitcher, returns to the Dragons in 2019 for his second season as the team's pitching coach. Etherton, who pitched one scoreless inning for the Dragons on a Major League injury rehabilitation assignment in 2002, previously served as the pitching coach for two seasons with the Billings Mustangs, one level lower in the Reds system.

PLAYING CAREER: Etherton was the Anaheim Angels first round draft pick in 1998 out of the University of Southern California. He spent parts of four seasons in the Major Leagues with the Angels, Reds, Athletics, and Royals in a big league career that was impacted by shoulder surgery in 2001. Etherton made 23 MLB starts and posted a career record of 9-7. He started seven games for the Reds in 2003.

PERSONAL: Etherton, 42, is a native of Laguna Beach, California. He attended Dana Hills High School in Dana Point, California.

Kevin Mahar - Bench Coach

Mahar returns to the Dragons for his third season as bench coach. He previously spent three years as a hitting coach in the Reds system from 2013-15. He coached the hitters at Billings for two seasons before spending a year with Daytona, then was out of coaching in 2016.

PLAYING CAREER: Mahar, a former outfielder/first baseman, played professionally for seven seasons and reached the big leagues with the Texas Rangers in 2007. He was signed by the Rangers as an undrafted free agent in 2004 out of Indiana University and completed his playing career in 2010 in the Phillies organization. Mahar was selected as a California League full-season all-star in 2005 with Bakersfield when he batted .315 with 17 home runs.

PERSONAL: Mahar, 37, grew up in Midland, Michigan, home of the Midwest League's Great Lakes Loons. He currently resides in Jasper, Indiana.

Mike Devereaux - Hitting Coach

Devereaux (DEV-err-oh) joins the Dragons in 2019 after serving as the hitting coach for the Reds Double-A affiliate in Pensacola, Florida in 2018. He spent the previous six years as a coach in the Colorado Rockies organization from 2012-17. He was a coach in the Baltimore Orioles system for two seasons from 2010-11. The 2019 season will be his 10th year in coaching in professional baseball.

PLAYING CAREER: Devereaux played in over 1,000 Major League games over a 12-year career as a big league outfielder, most notably with the Orioles. Devereaux finished seventh in the American League Most Valuable Player voting in 1992 with Baltimore, ranking fifth in the A.L. in total bases, ninth in runs batted in (107), and sixth in extra base hits (64) while blasting 24 home runs and batting .276. He was also regarded as one of baseball's best defensive center fielders and twice finished in the top five in assists, putouts, and double plays at his position. In 1995 with the Atlanta Braves, Devereaux was selected as the National League Championship Series Most Valuable Player as Atlanta, featuring four future hall-of-famers (Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, John Smoltz, and Chipper Jones), defeated a Reds team led by another future hall-of-famer, Barry Larkin, and fellow stars Ron Gant, Reggie Sanders, and current Reds broadcaster Jeff Brantley. He was originally signed by the Dodgers as a 5th round draft pick in 1985 out of Arizona State University, where he helped the team to a runner-up finish in the 1984 College World Series.

PERSONAL: Devereaux, 55, is a native of Casper, Wyoming and now resides in Ruskin, Florida. He appeared in an episode of "The Young and the Restless" in 1993.

Dragons All-Time Managers/Coaches

Dragons Managers 2000-2019

Freddie Benavides: 2000 (70-67; 2-3 post season)

Benavides was named the Dragons inaugural manager after leading the Clinton Lumber Kings in 1999 to a 69-68 record in his first season as a manager in the Reds Minor League system. Under Benavides the 2000 Dragons posted a 70-67 record and qualified for the MWL playoffs as a wild card, losing to the Michigan Battle Cats in the second round.

Donnie Scott: 2001-2003, 2007-2008 (360-336; 5-8 post season)

The Dragons reached the post season in four of Scott's five seasons as manager. Scott's first season of 2001 saw Dayton post an overall record of 82-57, which ranks as the second best in team history behind the 2011 club. The 2001 team advanced to the second round of the playoffs. Under Scott the 2002 Dragons ripped off a 13-game win streak and reached the post season. Scott returned to the Miami Valley for his second stint as Dragons manager in 2007 as the Dragons returned to the MWL playoffs in consecutive years.

Alonzo Powell: 2004-2005 (108-171; Did not qualify for post season)

The Dragons failed to make the playoffs in Powell's two seasons as manager, mainly due to hitting and pitching restrictions placed on the Reds A level minor league clubs during his tenure. Under Powell in '05, the Dragons won 12 more games than in his first season, with a 24 point improvement in team batting average, 24 more home runs and 114 more runs.

Billy Gardner, Jr.: 2006 (67-73; Did not qualify for post season)

Once again, the Dragons overall record improved as Gardner led the Dragons to a 67-73 record in his only season on the Dayton bench. Despite the increase in wins, the Dragons failed to qualify for the playoffs for the fourth straight year. Dayton finished in a third place tie at 35-35 in the first half, the best half of baseball for the team since the first half of 2003.

Todd Benzinger: 2009 - 2010 (112-165; Did Not Qualify for post-season)

Benzinger, a key member of the Reds' 1990 World Series Champions, guided the Dragons through two seasons. They failed to qualify for the playoffs in either year, losing out to South Bend by one game for the final wild card spot in the second half in 2009. The Dragons began the 2010 season by winning their first five games and were at the .500 mark at 17-17 before numerous roster changes sent the club into a skid. By season's end, a club-record 55 players had worn the uniform of the Dragons.

Delino DeShields: 2011 - 2012 (143-135; 1-2 post-season)

The Dragons established a club record for victories in a season in 2011, going 83-57 in DeShields' first season with the club. The team won the second half East Division title, going 48-22 to mark the best half in team history. It was also the best second half record in all of Minor League Baseball among leagues that play a split-season format. The Dragons lost to Lansing, two-games-to-one, in the first round of the playoffs. The 2012 season was a struggle as the Dragons finished in eighth place in both halves.

Jose Nieves: 2013 -2015 (204-222; Did Not Qualify for post-season)

The 2013 Dragons posted a winning record in the second half at 37-33 and set a club record for fewest errors in a season. The 2014 Dragons went 16-7 over the first 23 games, but after a rash of injuries and promotions, they finished in third place in the final first half standings. In the second half, the Dragons led the wild card race with two games to play but split their final two contests to fall just short. In 2015, the Dragons lost the first half wild card by two percentage points and finished the year with a winning record at 71-68.

Dick Schofield: 2016 (47-93; Did Not Qualify for post-season)

Schofield, part of a three-generation Major League family (one of only five in baseball history), endured a tough year in his only season with the Dragons. The team lost nine of its first 10 games and could never recover, finishing the first half in last place in the East Division with a 21-49 record. The Dragons improved to 26-44 in the second half, tied for last in the East. Schofield's efforts to manufacture wins was challenging as the club finished last in the league in runs scored while allowing the most runs in the circuit.

Luis Bolivar: 2017-2018 (129-149; 3-3 post season)

The Dragons earned a spot in the 2017 playoffs for the first time since 2011 and were a first half qualifier for the first time since 2007. The Dragons upset West Michigan, the East Division winner in both halves, in the first round of the playoffs before losing to Fort Wayne in three games in the second round. It was the first time in franchise history that the Dragons reached a decisive game three of the semi-finals. The Dragons produced a nine-game winning streak early in 2018 but finished both halves with a losing record.

2018 Season Review

The Dragons finished the season with a record of 58-80, missing the Midwest League playoffs after reaching the semifinal round in 2017. The Dragons had an unusal streaky start to the season that continued into May. They opened the year with three straight losses before winning their next nine games. They immediately followed the winning streak with an eightgame losing streak, then won nine of the next 10. They lost the next eight, then won seven of the next eight to run their record on the year to 25-21. But a rough finish to the first half carried into the second half and the Dragons were never able to move back into contention.

Game Highlights in 2018: Two Dragons had big nights in an 8-7 win at Clinton on May 4. Hendrik Clementina hit two home runs in the game, becoming the only Dragons player in 2018 to enjoy a multi-home run night. In the same game, Narciso Crook hit the Dragons only inside-the-park home run of the 2018 season.

On July 13, Dragons reliever Brian Hunter struck out four batters in one inning. Hunter recorded three outs on strikeouts in the inning but also notched a fourth strikeout, only to see the inning prolonged when the batter reached first on a dropped third strike.

On July 20 at Wisconsin, Jose Garcia tied a Dragons club record with five hits in a game. That same night, Garcia also enjoyed a baseball rarity when he collected two hits in the same inning, a seven-run sixth, which was the biggest scoring inning of the year for the Dragons. They beat the Timber Rattlers 12-5.

On July 27 at Fifth Third Field, the Dragons enjoyed one of their most exciting wins of the season. After falling behind Fort Wayne 5-0 early and still trailing 6-3 going to the bottom of the seventh, the Dragons mounted a comeback. Lorenzo Cedrola hit a grand slam home run and Jeter Downs followed with a solo homer as the Dragons topped Fort Wayne 8-6. Cedrola's grand slam was the only one of the year for the Dragons.

On August 15, the first four batters of the seventh inning combined to hit for the cycle for the Dragons. Leandro Santana started the inning with a home run; Reshard Munroe tripled; Raul Wallace singled; and Jose Garcia doubled.

BATTERS

Hendrik Clementina - Clementina was a starter in the mid-season Midwest League All-Star Game and then went on to be selected as the designated hitter on the league's Full-Season All-Star team. Clementina got off to a sensational start for the Dragons. By the end of May, he had played in 34 games, mostly at the catcher position, and was batting .333 with nine home runs and 32 runs batted in. He finished the year with 18 home runs to lead the team and posted an excellent .497 slugging percentage.

Jonathan India - India became the ninth consecutive Reds first round draft pick to play for the Dragons when he arrived in Dayton on July 30. He was selected earlier in the summer with the Reds first pick and fifth overall selection in the draft after a huge season at the University of Florida, where he was named Southeastern Conference Player of the Year. India played in 27 games for the Dragons in 2018.

PITCHERS

Packy Naughton – Naughton (pictured at left) became just the third player in Dragons history to lead the Midwest League in strikeouts. Naughton finished with 137, notching eight in his final start of the year on September 2 to wrap up the MWL crown. Naughton also led the MWL in innings pitched in 2018. Naughton enjoyed three straight scoreless starts from June 29-July 9, working 21 consecutive innings without allowing a run. The third game of the group was his best when he fired eight shutout innings against Great Lakes, allowing just two hits and no walks with nine strikeouts. Naughton then went on to become the Reds Minor League Pitcher of the Month for August.

John Ghyzel - Ghyzel (pictured at right), a hard-throwing reliever, was the winning pitcher in the Midwest League All-Star Game, led the league in saves with 19, was named in the Baseball America survey of league managers as the "Best Relief Pitcher" in the circuit, and was selected to the official MWL Full-Season All-Star team as the right-handed reliever. Ghyzel was an unlikely star for the Dragons after entering professional baseball in 2017 from the NCAA Division III level (University of Rochester), where all players are non-scholarship athletes. Ghyzel's fastball was clocked as high as 99 mph.

First Time Ever: On May 22, Jeter Downs ended the first game of a doubleheader with a walk-off RBI single, then led off the bottom of the first inning in the second game with a home run. Downs had two consecutive Dayton at-bats on the same day (no other Dragons player batted between his two at-bats), driving in runs in both. Jason Stark of The Athletic checked with Elias Sports Bureau, the official statistics service for Major League Baseball, and found that, at the big league level, no player in baseball history has ever had two consecutive at-bats for the same team on the same day and recorded RBI in both at bats.

Greene Days: The eyes of the baseball world were focused on Fifth Third Field on April 9 and for much of the 2018 Dragons season with the arrival of hard-throwing pitching prospect Hunter Greene. Greene made his debut in a full-season league in Dayton on April 9 before an enthusiastic crowd and a press box filled with national, regional, and local media. Greene's first pitch with the Dragons was clocked at 100 mph. The second overall pick of the 2017 draft, featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated before he finished high school, spent four months with the Dragons and showed tremendous improvement over the course of the season. In his final game, he fired a pitch at 102 mph (see photo below), the fastest pitch ever measured at Fifth Third Field, breaking a record previously set by Greene and current Major League closer Aroldis Chapman. His best game came on July 2 at Lake County, when he struck out 10 batters and walked none over seven shutout innings, allowing just two hits to earn a win.

Attendance: For the 13th consecutive year, the Dragons led all Minor League Baseball teams below the Triple-A level in attendance (130 teams). The Dragons finished the season with an attendance total of 550,725. They reached the 11 million milestone in alltime attendance at Fifth Third Field on July 31. The Dragons have led all of Single-A baseball in attendance and finished in the top-10 in all of Minor League Baseball in each of their 19 seasons of operation. The Dragons consecutive game sell-out streak continued through the 2018 season. After the final regular season home game on August 31, the streak stood at 1,316 consecutive sold-out games, an all-time record for sports in North America.

Never, Ever, Ever

On May 22, Dayton's Jeter Downs ended the first game of a doubleheader with a walk-off RBI single, then led off the bottom of the first inning in the second game with a home run. Downs had two consecutive Dayton at-bats on the same day (no other Dragons player batted between his two at-bats), driving in runs in both. Jason Stark of The Athletic checked with Elias Sports Bureau, the official statistics service for Major League Baseball, and found that, at the big league level, no player in baseball history has ever had two consecutive at-bats for the same team on the same day and recorded RBI in both at bats.

The All-Time Greatest Ending

On July 18, 2013 at Fifth Third Field, Dragons slugger Seth Mejias-Brean provided the most dramatic ending to a win in team history. Trailing Beloit 6-3 in the bottom of the ninth inning, the Dragons loaded the bases with one out. Mejias-Brean then promptly drilled a "walk-off" grand slam home run to right-center field to give his team a 7-6 win. It was the first walk-off grand slam when trailing by three runs in Dragons history and the first in the Reds organization in five years.

Cueto's 5-Inning No-Hitter

On May 13, 2006 in Appleton, Wisconsin, Johnny Cueto fired the first no-hitter by a Dragons pitcher in team history. It was the second game of a doubleheader, scheduled for seven innings. Cueto cruised through the first five, striking out eight and walking two without allowing a hit as only two balls left the infield. Rain stopped the game before the sixth inning and it did not resume. Cueto was credited with a no-hitter in the rain-shortened game. Cueto pitched a complete game in his next start (another seven-inning game) allowing just one hit.

The First Nine-Inning No-Hitter in Dragons History

On May 20, 2017 at Fifth Third Field, three Dragons pitchers combined for the first nine-inning no-hitter in Dragons history. Starting pitcher Scott Moss worked six innings, allowing three walks and two hit batsmen, but no hits, while throwing 84 pitches. Carlos Machorro, in his first game with the team, followed Moss and went two perfect innings. Then Brian Hunter tossed a 1-2-3 ninth inning to complete the no-hitter against Bowling Green. Third baseman John Sansone fielded a ground ball and threw to first for the game's final out. The Dragons won the game, 2-0.

Back-to-Back-to-Back Home Runs

vs. WM, Aug. 8, 2010 (WM 21, Dayton 10)

On June 13 at Fifth Third Field, three consecutive Dragons batters blasted home runs against the Beloit Snappers. In the second inning, Jose Ortiz started the back-to-back home run barrage with a two-run shot to center field. Jimmy Pickens hit the very next pitch for a home run to center, and Luis Gonzalez made it three in a row when he hit the second pitch for a home run to left. Four pitches-three home runs. It was the first time in franchise history that three straight Dragons batters connected on home runs.

Billy Hamilton's Season for the Ages

Billy Hamilton became a Fifth Third Field legend in 2011 when he stole 103 bases for the Dragons, establishing an all-time single-season record for the entire Reds organization. In four straight games August 21-24, he led off the game with a base hit, then stole second base on the very next pitch. In the first two games among the four, he also stole third base on the second pitch. Hamilton went on to break his own record in 2012 when he stole 155 bases in the Reds system, the most in a season in the history of professional baseball.

Daniel Renken's Strikeout Streak & the 2011 Dragons Pitchers

On June 29, 2011 at Fifth Third Field, Dayton starting pitcher Daniel Renken dominated the Lansing Lugnuts. Renken struck out the final batter of the first inning, then struck out all three hitters in the second, third, and fourth. Ten consecutive batters were strikeout victims. Renken finished the night with 14 strikeouts over six shutout innings to tie a club record. He allowed only two hits and one walk for the win. Over the 2011 season, Dragons pitchers broke the all-time Midwest League record by striking out 1,292 hitters, led by Josh Smith, the MWL's strikeout king that year, with 166 to break the club record. Smith won 14 games and was the starting pitcher in the all-star game.

Austin Kearns' Assault on the Record Books, 2000

Dragons outfielder Austin Kearns enjoyed an eight-game stretch from July 17-July 24, 2000 that will likely never be matched in the Midwest League. Kearns hit a home run in eight straight games and reached base in 14 consecutive plate appearances. Over the eight games, he hit 10 homers (including one inside-the-parker), drove in 20 runs, scored 19 times, and batted .720, going 18 for 25. For the year, Kearns was named Midwest League co-Prospect of the Year, along with Peoria's Albert Pujols.

Donald Lutz' Reverse Cycle, 2011

On July 21, 2011 at Fifth Third Field, Dayton's Donald Lutz became the first and only Dragons player to hit for the cyle, and he did it in reverse order over the first five innings of the game vs. the Peoria Chiefs. Lutz belted a home run in the first inning, connected on a triple in the second, hit a double in the third, and singled in the fifth in a 13-0 Dragons win. Lutz's Dragons teammate, Ronald Torreyes, went 5 for 5 in the same game. In 2013, Lutz became the first player raised in Germany to reach the Major Leagues when he debuted with the Reds.

Jose Siri's Hitting Streak

Jose Siri produced a Midwest League record 39-game hitting streak from June 22-August 3, 2017. On July 31, Siri broke the 40-year-old Midwest League of 35 straight games set by Waterloo's Tony Toups in 1977 with a hit on an 0-2 pitch in his final at-bat of the game at Fort Wayne. Siri batted .341 with 13 home runs, 32 RBI, 12 doubles, 3 triples, 8 stolen bases, and a .671 slugging percentage during the streak, hitting .461 on balls in play. Siri also had a 50-game on-base streak from June 15-August 12 that was the longest in Minor League Baseball in 2017. Siri's hitting streak received tremendous media attention throughout the region and across Minor League Baseball, including video highlights on Reds television broadcasts and radio replays on the Reds Radio Network.

Bobby Basham: On a Roll

In 2002, Dragons starting pitcher Bobby Basham enjoyed a stretch of three consecutive starts that will likely never be repeated in Dayton franchise history. Basham not only made three straight scoreless starts on June 23, June 28, and July 3, he pitched a nine-inning complete game in each outing. Over those 27 shutout innings, Basham walked just two and struck out 34 while surrendering only 11 hits. Basham is the only pitcher in Dragons history to toss three shutouts in his career with the team, and he did it in three straight starts. Basham posted a 1.64 ERA in 13 starts with the Dragons in 2002, the best ERA in team history for a pitcher with at least 85 innings.

2017 Season Recap

71-69 Overall; 1st Half: 41-29; 2nd Half 26-44 Midwest League East Division 1st Half Wildcard

The Dragons qualified for the Midwest League playoffs for the first time since 2011 and then set a club record for most post-season victories. The Dragons knocked off heavily-favored West Michigan in the first round of the playoffs, two-games-to-one, taking the decisive third game in an epic 11-inning battle that lasted nearly four hours. The Dragons hosted the second Reds Futures Game on April 1. The individual highlight of the season was Jose Siri's 39-game hitting streak that broke a 40-year-old league record.

2016 Season Recap

47-93 Overall 1st Half: 21-49; 2nd Half 26-44 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

The Dragons roster over the final two months of the season included Reds top prospect Nick Senzel, whose .567 slugging percentage was the highest in franchise history for any player appearing in a least 50 games. On August 13, the Dragons began a nine-game home winning streak that was one short of the all-time franchise record. The winning streak included numerous dramatic victories including an August 14 win against South Bend when five-foot-eight utility man Josciel Veras connected on a game-tying home run with one out in the bottom of the ninth to open the door to a Dragons win in the 10th.

71-68 Overall 1st Half: 39-31; 2nd Half 32-37 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

After the Dragons playoff hopes came down to the final day of the regular season in 2014 before coming up one victory short, they came even closer in 2015 but again missed out on the post-season. The Dragons finished the first half with a 39-31 record, finishing in a virtual tie with the Great Lakes Loons for the East Division wildcard spot. But the Loons, who played two fewer games due to rain, finished at 38-30. Their .559 winning percentage was two points better than the Dragons mark of .557, just enough to keep the Dragons out of the playoffs. The Dragons enjoyed one of their finest home seasons ever at Fifth Third Field. They posted a home record of 43-27, including nine consecutive home victories from July 9-21. The Dragons notched 12 "walk-off" wins, three more than they had over the previous two seasons combined. From May 28-July 12, seven of the Dragons 14 home victories came in walk-off style, including six extra-inning wins. For the year, the Dragons were 8-0 in extra inning games at home. On June 13 at Fifth Third Field, three consecutive Dragons batters blasted home runs against the Beloit Snappers. In the second inning, Jose Ortiz, Jimmy Pickens, and Luis Gonzalez all hit home runs over a stretch of four total pitches. Starting pitcher Tyler Mahle enjoyed a sensational year with the Dragons, earning Cincinnati Reds Minor League Player of the Year honors. He pitched in the mid-season Midwest League All-Star Game, then became the first starting pitcher in Dragons history to be named to the full-season MWL all-star team (one player per position). Mahle's 2.43 ERA was the second best in franchise hise history. Mahle and fellow starting pitchers Jake Paulson, Wyatt Strahan, and Tejay Antone all finished in the top 10 in the league ERA rankings. Mahle, Antone and reliever Brian Hunter pitched in the MWL All-Star Game.

68-70 Overall 1st Half: 36-32; 2nd Half 32-38 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

The Dragons hopes of qualifying for post-season play ended on the last day of the regular season. The Dragons led the second half Eastern Division wildcard race by one-half game with two games to play, but split their final two contests to fall short of the playoffs. In 2014, Major League All-Stars Aroldis Chapman and Brandon Phillips played for the Dragons on injury rehab assignments. On July 10, the Dragons made their first-ever appearance on national television when they were selected by CBS Sports Network for the MiLB Game of the Week at Fifth Third Field. For the first time in franchise history, the Dragons roster included four first round draft picks (RHP Nick Travieso, OF Phillip Ervin, RHP Nick Howard, and SS Alex Blandino). The Dragons were represented in the Midwest League All-Star Game by Travieso, RHP Sal Romano, LHP Ismael Guillon, and SS Carlton Daal. Travieso led the league in victories while Romano broke the club record for most games started by a pitcher and led the MWL in innings pitched.

2013 Season Recap

65-74 Overall 1st Half: 28-41; 2nd Half 37-33 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

The Dragons narrowly missed out on a post-season berth as the race went down to the final week of the second half. The strength of the team was defense as the Dragons set a club record for fewest errors in a season with 137 over 139 games. The Dragons put together an incredible string of comeback wins at Fifth Third Field from July 17-30, going 8-2. All eight wins were comeback victories, including two grand slams that gave the team the lead in their final at-bat; two walk-off home runs; and one win in which the Dragons came back from an 8-1 deficit. A walk-off grand slam by Seth Mejias-Brean on July 18 followed three days later by Jesse Winker's walk-off homer were two of the most dramatic victories. Based on his season in Dayton, Mejias-Brean earned the Reds Minor League Player of the Year award. The Dragons hosted the 49th Midwest League All-Star Game at Fifth Third Field on June 18. Stephenson, Winker, Zach Vincej, Sal Romano, Alejandro Chacin, Ben Klimesh, Drew Cisco, and Sean Lucas were all selected to play. Major Leaguers Johnny Cueto and Ryan Ludwick both played for the Dragons on injury rehabilitation assignments prior to their return to active duty with the Reds.

60-78 Overall 1st Half: 30-40; 2nd Half 30-38 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

The Dragons finished in eighth place in both halves in 2012. Second baseman Ryan Wright represented the club in the Midwest League All-Star Game. The final week of the regular season featured the return to Dayton of Reds all-star Joey Votto when he joined the Dragons for three games on a Major League rehabilitation assignment. The former N.L. MVP became arguably the most decorated player ever to wear a Midwest League uniform when he played for the Dragons, the same season in which he had started at first base in the Major League Baseball All-Star Game. On July 4 vs. South Bend at Fifth Third Field, the first eight Dragons batters in the first inning all reached base and scored. The Dragons scored four more runs in the second inning and led 12-1 after two, winning 17-4 and setting a club record with 24 hits. It was a year of honors for the Dragons franchise. In March, Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal selected the Dragons as one of five finalists for their national "Team of the Year" award. The Dragons became the first Minor League team in any sport to be chosen as a finalist. Then after the season, the Dragons were awarded the John H. Johnson President's Award, the top honor in Minor League Baseball.

2011 Season Recap

83-57 Overall 1st Half: 35-35; 2nd Half 48-22 Midwest League Eastern Division Second Half Champions

The Dragons enjoyed a milestone season in 2011. They garned national attention when they broke the all-time sports record for consecutive sold-out dates on July 9, registering their 815th straight sell-out. The event was covered by CNN, ESPN, the New York Times, Sports Illustrated, the Wall Street Journal, and hundreds of other media outlets. Dragons owners Magic Johnson and Archie Griffin and former Dragons (current Reds) Drew Stubbs, Chris Heisey, and Logan Ondrusek were part of a special celebration on July 23.

On the field, the Dragons set a franchise record with 83 wins and won the second half division title by going 48-22. They lost in the first round of the playoffs to Lansing, two-games-to-one. The Dragons became the first Midwest League team in 16 years to lead the league in both team batting and team pitching, setting club records in both categories. They were just the second MWL since 1969 to lead the league in both runs scored and fewest runs allowed. Dragons pitchers broke the league record in strikeouts.

Perhaps the most memorable element of the Dragons 2011 season was the base stealing exploits of shortstop Billy Hamilton, who swiped 103 bags on the year to break the Reds organizational record. Hamilton and relief pitcher Drew Hayes were selected as full-season Midwest League All-Stars. Starting pitchers Josh Smith and Daniel Corcino and first baseman Dominic D'Anna represented the Dragons in the MWL All-Star Game and Smith led the league in both victories and strikeouts.

53-85 Overall 1st Half: 30-39; 2nd Half 23-46 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

The Dragons won their first five games of the year, but the season was marked by frequent roster changes as the team utilized a club-record 55 players, dropping 24 straight home games from June 29-August 13 to set a club record. Left-handed relief pitcher Donnie Joseph spent the first two months of the season with the Dragons on the way to being named Reds Minor League Pitcher of the Year. Second baseman Henry Rodriguez represented the Dragons in the Midwest League All-Star Game. The Dragons established an all-time Single-A record for single-season attendance with a total of 597,433 (8,535 per game).

59-80 Overall 1st Half: 28-42; 2nd Half 31-38 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

The Dragons 2009 season was highlighted by the historic Reds Futures Game at Fifth Third Field on April 4th. This first-of-its-kind event served as the final '09 exhibition game for the Cincinnati Reds as they battled a collection of the top prospects in the Reds organization from the A, AA, and AAA levels. The season also featured the return to Dayton of Major League star Joey Votto, who joined the Dragons for a two-game rehab stint in June. Votto belted a home run in his first swing with the Dragons on June 20th. The Dragons got off to a rough start on the field in 2009, suffering through a club-record 11-game losing streak that left them with a mark of 1-12 after 13 games. But the club improved throughout the season and fell just one game short of qualifying for the playoffs for the third straight year. Left-handed starting pitcher Matt Fairel (8-5, 2.93) and catcher Kevin Coddington (.278, 2 HR, 42 RBI, 11 SB) represented the Dragons in the Midwest League All-Star Game in June. Shortstop Miguel Rojas was named "Best Defensive Infielder" in the league in a poll of MWL managers by Baseball America.

2008 Season Recap

66-72 Overall 1st Half: 28-40; 2nd Half 38-32 Midwest League Eastern Division 2nd Half Wild card

For the first time in seven years, the Dragons advanced to the semi-finals of the Midwest League playoffs. The club reached the post-season for the second straight year, taking advantage of a club-record 10-game home winning streak in July to complete the second half with a 38-32 record and earn the Eastern Division wildcard slot. The Dragons swept the Lansing Lugnuts in two straight games in the best-of-three first round of the playoffs before losing to South Bend in two straight in the semi-finals. Two Dragons players, third baseman Brandon Waring and shortstop Zack Cozart, were selected as the best players at their positions in the league on the Post-Season All-Star team. Cozart was also selected as the league's best defensive infielder by Baseball America. Two of the top prospects in the Reds organization spent parts of the 2008 campaign with the Dragons. Infielder Todd Frazier started the year with the team and third baseman Neftali Soto finished the season with the Dragons. The Dragons established a new club record for average attendance per home game at 8,624. Their full-season total of 586,417 led all minor league teams below the Triple-A level.

2007 Season Recap

78-62 Overall 1st Half: 44-26; 2nd Half 34-36 Midwest League Eastern Division 1st Half Champions

Donnie Scott returned to the Miami Valley and once again led Dayton to the postseason. The Dragons got off to a blistering start, winning their first nine games and 24 of their first 29 en route to a 44-26 record and first half championship. Infielders Justin Turner, Chris Valaika, and Juan Francisco were chosen to start the Midwest League All-Star Game for the Eastern Division, and were joined on the squad by outfielder Drew Stubbs, and pitchers Rafael Gonzalez, Marcos Mateo, Pedro Viola, and Sean Watson. With a strong Dayton influence, the East beat the West, 8-2. With the loss of players due to promotion and a playoff berth already wrapped up, the Dragons finished the second half at 34-36, 11 games behind the West Michigan Whitecaps. In the playoffs, Dayton took game one on the road over the South Bend Silver Hawks, but lost two straight at Fifth Third Field to lose the first round series. After the season was complete, the Dayton Dragons landed three players on the Midwest League Post-Season All-Star Team with second baseman Justin Turner, shortstop Chris Valaika, and third baseman Juan Francisco. Over the course of the season, 41 different players saw playing time with the Dragons. A total of 585,348 fans filed into Fifth Third Field to once again lead the Midwest League in total attendance and the consecutive sellout streak reached 565 games.

67-73 Overall 1st Half: 35-35; 2nd Half 32-38 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

Under first year manager Billy Gardner, the Dragons posted a 67-73 record, their best since 2002. Their 35-35 1st half record placed them in a tie for 3rd place in the Midwest League Eastern Division, 7.5 games back of eventual champion West Michigan. Injuries, promotions, and trades left the Dragons fighting for the playoffs, eventually fading from the race and finishing 32-38 in the second half. RHP Johnny Cueto posted an 8-1 record with a 2.59 ERA before being promoted to Sarasota, including throwing the first ever Dragons no-hitter in a rain-shortened game at Wisconsin. RHP Carlos Fisher led the team with 12 wins, and LHP Travis Wood recorded a season high 133 strikeouts. RHP Zach Ward's 2.29 ERA set a new Dragons record, but he finished the season with the Beloit Snappers after being traded at the deadline for major leaguer Kyle Lohse. OF Jay Bruce led the Dragons in home runs, doubles, and RBI, and won the "Star of Stars Award" after hitting a two-run home run at the All-Star Game in June. 582,903 fans filed into Fifth Third Field.

60-79 Overall 1st Half: 30-40; 2nd Half 30-39 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

The Dragons missed out on the playoffs for the third consecutive year, finishing the regular season at 60-79 overall. Dayton limped out of the gate with a 7-14 record in the month of April, and would never hit the .500 mark on the season. The Dragons finished 30-40 in the first half of the season, 11.0 games behind Eastern Division champion South Bend. Dayton opened up the second half of the season with three consecutive victories over Fort Wayne to put themselves in first place, a post they would only occupy for five days. After the hot start, the rest of the season was very similar to the first half as the Dragons closed the second half with a 30-39 record, 12.5 games behind South Bend. All total, the Dragons used 48 different players during the 2005 campaign as injuries and promotions affected the day-to-day lineup of the team. Several Dragons players earned promotions during the 2005 season: Drew Anderson made the jump from single-A Dayton all the way to AAA Louisville; John Purdom went to AA Chattanooga; while Evan Conley, Phil Gentry, Blake Hendley, and Brad Morenko finished up the year in high-A Sarasota. Fans continued to support their Dragons in large numbers in 2005. A total of 572,003 fans made their way into Fifth Third Field to once again lead the Midwest League and all of Class-A baseball.

48-92 Overall 1st Half: 27-43; 2nd Half 21-49 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

The Dragons struggled to a 48-92 record under first-year manager Alonzo Powell, failing to qualify for the playoffs for the second consecutive season. The Dragons finished 27-43 in the first-half of the season, 15.0 games behind Eastern Division winning South Bend. The second-half of the season started on a high note for the Dragons as the team picked up a second half opening game win over Lansing in extra innings to mark the first (and only) time all season that Dayton was over .500 in a half of baseball in 2004. The Dragons finished the second half at 21-49, 19.0 games behind first place West Michigan. Dayton once again lost key players to both injury and promotions within the Cincinnati system and used 51 different players in 2004.

61-78 Overall 1st Half: 35-35; 2nd Half 26-43 Did Not Qualify for Playoffs

In his third year as manager of the Dragons, Donnie Scott fielded the youngest team in the four-year history of the club. The Dragons went 35-35 in the first-half, six games behind division-winning Fort Wayne. In the second half, the Dragons were tied for the Eastern Division's top spot as late as mid-July, but injuries to key personnel in Dayton and throughout the Cincinnati system impacted the Dragons roster. The team finished the second half with a 26-43 record, 17.5 games behind first place South Bend. Seven Dragons played in the Midwest League All-Star Game including Todd Coffey, Juan Frias, Ryan Hanigan, Kevin Howard, Domonique Lewis, Mark Schramek, and Eddy Valdez. Future NL MVP Joey Votto spent the first half of the season with the Dragons before heading to Rookie-level Billings for the second half. He would return to Dayton in 2004.

73-67 Overall 1st Half: 32-38; 2nd Half 41-29 Midwest League Eastern Division 2nd Half Wild Card

The Dragons, under manager Donnie Scott, never quite got on track in the season's first half and struggled to a 32-38 fifth-place finish in the Midwest League's Eastern Division, 10 games behind the Michigan Battle Cats. The Dragons got complete game pitching performances from Bobby Basham and Andy Boutwell to win the final two games of the first half. They opened the second half by winning their first 11 games to build a 13-game winning streak, the longest in franchise history and the third longest in all of professional baseball in 2002 en route to a 41-29 second half record.

Basham fired three shutouts and four complete games among his 13 starts, posting a 1.64 ERA. Reliever Nate Cotton notched a club-record 34 saves. Strong pitching and the hitting of Edwin Encarnacion, Randy Ruiz, Noochie Varner and Chris Williamson carried the Dragons to a second-half playoff spot. Dayton fell to the West Michigan Whitecaps in the opening round of the playoffs, two-games-to-none. Varner, who hit .309 with 49 extra base hits and 37 stolen bases, actually played against the Dragons in the playoffs after the Reds traded him to the Detroit Tigers organization with a week to go in the regular season. Varner, Boutwell, Cotton, Encarnacion, starting pitchers Daylan Childress and Brad Salman, and catcher Bryan Prince all played in the mid-season MWL All-Star Game.

2001 Season Recap

82-57 Overall 1st Half: 41-29; 2nd Half 41-28 Midwest League Eastern Division 1st Half Champions

In Donnie Scott's first year as manager, the Dragons captured the Midwest League First-Half Eastern Division crown with a 41-29 record. After hosting the MWL All-Star game, Dayton had a strong second half, finishing 41-28, three games behind the Michigan Battle Cats.

In the playoffs, the Dragons defeated the Lansing Lugnuts in the first round with a two-game sweep. The Dragons lost to South Bend in the second round, two-games-to-none.

Wily Mo Pena led the MWL with 113 RBI, setting a club record. For the second straight year, the Dragons had the league's top home run hitter as Samone Peters hammered a club record 28. Josh Hall's 2.65 ERA was tops in the league, while fellow righty Ryan Mottl's 15 wins tied for the league lead. The Dragons were represented in the all-star game by Peters, Randy Ruiz, Wandel Campana, and Dustin Moseley.

70-67 Overall 1st Half: 31-36; 2nd Half 39-31 Midwest League Eastern Division 2nd Half Wild Card

Baseball returned to the Miami Valley for the first time in 51 years as the Dayton Dragons opened Fifth Third Field for an historic opening night on April 27. Manager Freddie Benavides led Dayton to a playoff berth in its first season by virtue of capturing the MWL Eastern Division's Second-Half wild card. The Dragons advanced to the playoff semi-finals, earning an opening round win over West Michigan, two-games-to-one, before losing in two games to the Michigan Battle Cats in the second round. Austin Kearns was named the MWL's Co-Prospect of the Year (with Albert Pujols) and a post season all-star. He led the league in home runs and RBI while batting .306. Right-hander Travis Thompson joined the Dragons from the Clinton Lumber Kings in late May (in an unusual situation, the Reds had two affiliates in the same league in 2000) and earned 11 wins with Dayton after notching five in Clinton. His 16 victories tied for the league lead. Adam Dunn spent the entire season with the Dragons before going on to hit 462 MLB home runs.

Baseball's Greatest Comback

On May 7, 2014 at Community Field in Burlington, Iowa, the Clinton Lumber Kings pulled off what is believed to be the biggest comeback in Minor League Baseball history. The Burlington Bees led the Lumber Kings 17-1 at the end of five innings. Clinton scored six runs in the sixth and added five more in the eighth to pull to within five at 17-12. The Lumber Kings then scored once in the ninth and loaded the bases with one out when Marcus Littlewood connected on a grand slam home run to tie the game at 17-17. The game eventually went to extra innings. In the top of the 12th, Clinton broke the tie with three more runs and held on to win 20-17, overcoming a 16-run deficit.

Dragons "On The Air"

Tom Nichols- Radio & Television Play-by-Play

Nichols is the voice of the Dragons on radio and television in addition to serving as the club's Director of Media Relations. He handles the play-by-play on 115 Dragons home and road radio broadcasts and each of the club's 25 television broadcasts. The 2019 season is Nichols' 12th year with the Dragons and his 32nd year in professional baseball. He has broadcast over 4,000 minor league games since beginning his career in 1988. In 2018, he received recognition from Ballpark Digest for "Outstanding Achievements in Minor League Baseball broadcasting." He called his first Major League game on the Cincinnati Reds Radio Network, an event that was featured in the New York Times, Sports Broadcast Journal, FOX Sports Ohio, and numerous other media outlets. He has worked at every level of Minor League Baseball (Triple-A, Double-A, Advanced-A, Single-A, and professional independent), broadcasting for the Indianapolis Indians, Mobile BayBears, Fort Wayne Wizards, Peoria Chiefs, Kinston Indians, and Gary SouthShore RailCats. He is a Ball State University graduate and a native of Muncie, Indiana, where he was inducted into the Delaware County Athletics Hall-of-Fame in 2009.

Josh Hess- Radio Play-by-Play

Hess returns to the Dragons for his second season as a radio broadcaster and media relations assistant. He is a product of the acclaimed communications program at Syracuse University. The S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse has produced many national broadcast talents including Bob Costas, Mike Tirico, Dick Stockton, Marv Albert, and Sean McDonough. Hess spent the 2017 season as the primary broadcaster for the Batavia Muckdogs of the New York/Penn League (Miami Marlins affiliate). In 2016, he gained experience as a broadcaster in the Cape Cod League, a college summer league featuring many top-level professional prospects. In 2015, he gained his first exposure to Minor League Baseball as a media assistant with the Syracuse Chiefs, the Triple-A affiliate of the Washington Nationals. Hess is a native of Woodbridge, Connecticut.

Dragons MVP Program

The Dragons elementary school MVP Program includes over 1,100 fourth and fifth grade classrooms in approximately 200 schools in 50 school districts. About 35,000 children participate. The program is in its 14th year in 2019. The Dragons MVP Program is made possible by the generous support of Ohio's 529 Plan, the Dayton Dragons Foundation, Panera Bread, WDTN TV, and Dayton's CW. The program is completely free of charge to the schools. The teacher in each of the classrooms selects five MVP's based on the teacher's judgment of performance, effort, citizenship, and improvement. The five MVPs receive four tickets to a Dragons game, tickets to a special Field Day event at the stadium during the season, an MVP certificate, and a Dragons MVP hat. Dragons players and mascots visit selected classrooms over the course of the season.

Hometown Heroes Program

Five times during the 2019 baseball season, the Dragons will partner with the Dayton Development Coalition, SRC, Inc., TACG, and Reynolds & Reynolds for a season-long tribute to all service men and women past and present. There will be four special spotlights (April 12, May 22, June 23, July 11) that will each highlight a different aspect or organization involved in the military. The season-long celebration will wrap up with a Celebration Night on August 10.

Home Run for Life

Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield and the Dragons team up to provide kids battling serious medical conditions with once-in-a-lifetime opportunities during Dragons games. Each honoree takes an honorary home run "lap" around the bases during a Dragons game and receives an honorary bat from Dragons manager Luis Bolivar. Dates are May 8, May 29, June 12, July 3, and July 31.

Community All-Stars

The Dragons partner with Vectren and Flying Ace Express Carwash on the Community All-Stars Program, honoring Dayton's best individuals and organizations that are improving the quality of life in the Miami Valley. From fire fighters to first responders to volunteers and good Samaritans, the Dragons will honor five. These honorees will be highlighted during a game with a tribute video telling their story. Dates are April 16, May 21, June 10, July 25, and August 22.

CareSource's Veteran Salute Program

CareSource's Veteran Salute program highlights five veteran's stories during the course of each season. Veterans who are chosen are honored at a Dragons game with an in-game ceremony and provided with VIP treatment during their special night. The program is an extension of CareSource's continued commitment to serving special populations and its new efforts to support veterans through innovative health and life services programs. Dates are April 28, May 23, June 21, July 3, Aug. 10.
