2015 COACH AND PLAYER PROFILES

Brian Buchanan

Manager • 1st Season

Brian Buchanan joins the Carolina League after spending 2013 and 2014 managing the Low-A Lexington Legends. Buchanan started his managerial career at Idaho Falls in 2010 before moving up to Kane County (A) in 2012. Buchanan entered the coaching ranks after a 16-year playing career, which included the 2008-2009 seasons at Omaha. Buchanan, an All-American at the University of Virginia, was selected in the first round in 1994 by the New York Yankees. He spent seven seasons in the Major Leagues with the Minnesota Twins (2000-02), the San Diego Padres (2002-04), and the New York Mets (2005), hitting .258 with 32 home runs. Buchanan played in Japan in 2007 before signing with the Royals. He now resides in Jupiter, Fla., with his wife, Jill, and sons, Walker, Drew, Logan, and Connor. Jill is the daughter of basketball Hall of Famer John Havlicek.

Buchanan made his Major League debut in 2000 with Minnesota. He played in 30 games his rookie season, batting .232 with 8 RBI. He stayed in Minnesota until 2002 when he was traded to San Diego for Jason Bartlett. Buchanan finished his Major League career in the National League, with the Padres (2002-04) and the Mets (2004). He finished his professional career in America in the Kansas City Royals minor league system.

In 2010, Buchanan made his managerial debut in the Kansas City Organization with Rookie-Level Idaho Falls. In his managerial career, Buchanan has never managed a professional team to a .500 record. His best season as a manager came in 2013 with Low-A Lexington when the Legends went 68-70 (.493). That Legends team also included a slew of former and current Blue Rocks including Raul Mondesi, Bubba Starling, and Terrance Gore.

Brian Bocock

Bench Coach

Opening Day Age: 30

Born: March 9, 1985 in Harrisonburg, VA

Resides: Mt. Crawford, VA

Career Notes: 2015 will be Brian Bocock's first year as a coach in the Kansas City organization after spending last year as a player for Kansas City. In 2014, Bocock spent time at Double-A Northwest Arkansas and Triple-A Omaha where he batted a combined .271.

He graduated from Turner Ashby High in Bridgewater, Va...attended Stetson University in DeLand, Fla., before being selected by San Francisco in the ninth round of the 2006 June Free Agent Draft...played in the 2007 All-Star Futures Game...made the 2008 Giants as a non-roster invitee after Omar Vizquel began the year on the disabled list...became the first Giant to debut on Opening Day since Will Clark and Robby Thompson in 1986...recorded his first Major League hit on 4-1-06, a single vs. Derek Lowe.

Bocock is no stranger to the Delaware Valley as he spent time in the Phillies organization in 2010, including a brief stint with the Phils. During his playing career, Bocock was a player for six different organizations (San Francisco, Toronto, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Washington, and Kansas City). His best stint as a player in the minors was last season with Omaha where he batted .279 in 97 games. He hit 18 doubles and drove in 20 runs.

Brian Bocock currently resides in his home state of Virginia.

STEVE LUEBBER

#46

Pitching Coach

Opening Day Age: 65

Born: July 9, 1949 in Clinton, MO

Resides: Joplin, MO.

Career Notes: Steve Luebber will again serve as the pitching coach for the Blue Rocks in 2015. Luebber, a Clinton, MO native, will enter his 49th season in the game. Luebber joined the Royals in 2006 after five years as the Double-A pitching coach for the Texas Rangers. Luebber also served as the pitching coach of the Surprise Rafters in the Arizona Fall League in 2008.

Over his first eight years coaching Wilmington pitchers, a Blue Rocks hurler has made the Carolina League All-Star team sixteen times. In 2007, the squad led the league in ERA (3.43) and saves (42) while four Wilmington staffers ranked among the circuit's top six in ERA. Among those four was southpaw Rowdy Hardy, who set a franchise record with 15 wins, started the All-Star game, and was named CL Pitcher of the Year. In 2008, closer Tyler Chambliss notched 24 saves under Luebber's tutelage, one short of the franchise record. Wilmington pitchers occupied three of the CL's top 10 spots in ERA while the squad finished with the third-best team mark (3.79). In 2009, his staff again led the loop in earned run average (3.10) and posted 16 shutouts on the season. His hurlers tied the franchise record by tossing 39 consecutive scoreless innings. In 2010, Wilmington posted the second-lowest ERA in the CL at 3.91. In 2011, his staff issued the least amount of walks (378) and struck out the third-most batters (1,016) in the Carolina League. Jason Adam benefited greatly from Luebber's guidance in 2012. Adam led the CL in starts (27), and finished tied for third in strikeouts (123). In 2013, Luebber got to work with highly-regarded pitching prospects like Kyle Zimmer and Sam Selman. Under Luebber, the Blue Rocks bullpen posted an impressive 3.34 ERA in 2013. In 2014, Wilmington led the LEague in ERA (3.09), hits allowed (1056), walks allowed (330), and earned runs (400). Glenn Sparkman won Carolina League Pitcher of the Year.

Drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 13th round of the 1967 amateur draft, Luebber made his big-league debut on June 27, 1971, starting the backend of a doubleheader against the Milwaukee Brewers. He pitched professionally for 17 seasons and posted a 6-10 record and a 4.62 ERA over 66 major league appearances for the Minnesota Twins, Toronto Blue Jays and Baltimore Orioles. The 64-year-old lives in Joplin, MO. He attended Missouri Southern College and has two daughters, Lindsey and Carly, and a son, Wyatt.

Abraham O. Nunez

Hitting Coach

Opening Day Age: 39

Born: March 16, 1976 in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

Resides: Garfield, NJ

Career Notes: Abraham O. Nunez enters his first season on the Wilmington Blue Rocks coaching staff. Abraham Nunez joins Wilmington as the hitting coach after serving in the same capacity with Lexington (2014), Burlington (2013) and the Dominican Royals (2012). Nunez played for parts of 12 seasons in the Majors with the Pirates (1997-2004), Cardinals (2005), Phillies (2006-07) and Mets (2008), hitting .242 as a utility infielder. His best season came in 2005 when he batted .285 in 139 games for the St. Louis Cardinals. He retired at the end of the 2009 campaign. Born in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, he now resides in Garfield, N.J.

Born: August 25, 1991 in San Felix, Bolivar, Venezuela
Resides: San Felix, Bolivar, Venezuela
Obtained: Signed as non-drafted free agent in November 2010

Career Notes: 2014: Spent the entire season with Adv.-A Wilmington. Splitting time as a starter and a reliever, Caramo was an important part of a solid Blue Rocks pitching staff, posting an ERA of 3.59. Despite giving up a little more than hit per inning, Caramo exhibited great control walking just over a single hitter per nine innings. On May 20, he picked up his first career save going 3.1 innings and giving up two runs and striking out two. Found himself in the bullpen, posting an ERA more than a run better in relief than as a starter. 2013: Spent the entire season with Rookie-Level Idaho Falls. Ranked among Pioneer League leaders in ERA (3rd), WHIP (1.31, 3rd), and wins (T-3rd). 2012: Pitched all season in the Appalachian League. Finished among Appalachian League leaders in innings (T-1st), wins (T-3rd) and ERA (6th). 2011: Made his professional debut on May 31st. Earned Dominican Royals Pitcher of the Year honors. Led DSL in ERA while tying for first in wins.

Personal: Signed as a non-drafted free agent on November 22, 2010. Has one career complete game shutout at the professional level which came for the Dominican Summer League Royals. He only allowed a run in 5 of his 13 appearances in 2011.

2014 Season
In Review

2014 SUMMARY: The 2014 season was an up-and-down one on the field for the Wilmington Blue Rocks. There were many high points throughout the campaign and some low ones, as well. Six of Baseball America's top-10 prospects in the Kansas City Royals organization began the season on Wilmington's roster and a constant stream of roster reinforcements kept the talent level high all year. Among the big names to appear in a Blue Crew uniform during the 2014 campaign were Miguel Almonte, Christian Binford, Hunter Dozier, Brandon Finnegan, Glenn Sparkman, Sean Manaea, Raul Mondesi and Bubba Starling.

We now look back at the 2014 campaign one month at a time, giving fans a chance to remember their favorite players and re-live the year's best moments.

APRIL: The month of April began with much excitement about Wilmington's talented roster. However, in the end, it mirrored much of the season as a whole. The Blue Rocks finished April with a 10-13 record while posting a .207 team batting average and 3.61 team ERA. Miguel Almonte was brilliant on Opening Night and yielded only one hit and two walks across 5.2 scoreless frames. In the second game of the year, home runs by Cody Stubbs and Johermyn Chavez catapulted the Blue Crew to its highest scoring output of the month. What followed were two losses to the Dash and three to the Myrtle Beach Pelicans, a team that the Blue Crew struggled with all month. The two clubs played 10 times in April and Wilmington finished just 2-8 against the Pelicans. After a series win in Lynchburg, a four-game sweep at the hands of the Pelicans and a two-game split with the Carolina Mudcats, Wilmington welcomed Myrtle Beach to town again. The Blue Rocks took two out of three in the month-closing series, but it was the April 26 contest Rocks fans will remember for a long time. With two outs, Terrance Gore standing on third and the game tied, 4-4, Raul Mondesi stepped up to the plate with a chance to end it. What ensued was one of the strangest endings to a game in 2014. Mondesi struck out, but reliever Sam Stafford uncorked a wild pitch that got away from catcher Jorge Alfaro. After retrieving the baseball, the young backstop attempted to tag Gore, who raced home from third, and missed. By the time Alfaro recovered and threw to first, Mondesi had reached safely, allowing Gore's run to count and handing the Rocks the walk-off win.

MAY: When the calendar flipped to May, it seemed like the proverbial light bulb went off for the Blue Rocks. The club improved significantly at the plate while showing significantly more power. The Blue Rocks finished May 17-14 while posting a .231 batting average, 114 runs, 50 doubles, five triples, 10 homers and 100 RBIs. Wilmington pitchers had a 3.06 ERA for the month, struck out 264, walked 76 and yielded 252 hits in 264.1 innings pitched. Hunter Dozier was arguably the team's best hitter. He hit .304 with a pair of homers, seven doubles, 18 RBIs and 18 walks in 29 games played. Wilmington went on a tear from May 20-28, winning eight out of 10 contests against Carolina, Frederick and Carolina again. That stretch of winning baseball vaulted the Blue Crew above .500 and into first place for the first time since the campaign's opening week. Standout performers for the Rocks in the month of May were Hunter Dozier, Cody Stubbs, Christian Binford, Bubba Starling and Mark Peterson.

JUNE: June was an important month for the Blue Rocks organization. The Rocks entered the month in the thick of a playoff race – just 1.5 games behind Potomac for a first-half division crown – and the California League/Carolina League All-Star Game, Presented by Bank of America, was scheduled for June 17 at Frawley Stadium. The Rocks ended June with a 10-16 record and a 3.91 ERA. Wilmington faded down the stretch of the first half with a four-game losing streak between June 4-7 and posted a 4-7 record in the half's final 13 games. The Blue Crew ended the first half 33-35. At the conclusion of the first half, attention turned to the California League/Carolina League All-Star Game, Presented By Bank of America. Wilmington was the host for the fourth time in franchise history and for the first time since 2002. Four Blue Rocks were named to the Carolina League All-Star Team: Binford, Jonathan Dzedzic, Cam Gallagher and Mark Peterson. Prior to the June 17 All-Star Game itself, Blue Rocks legend Johnny Damon had his number retired. Both Damon and fellow Blue Rocks legend and number retiree Mike Sweeney gave moving speeches during the ceremony. Once the actual game began, the California League edged the Carolina League, 3-2. Once the second half got underway for Wilmington, the Rocks were left without a key cog in their lineup. Hunter Dozier was promoted to Double-A Northwest Arkansas immediately following the All-Star Break after batting .295 in 66 games for the Blue Crew. Wilmington began the second half with back-to-back losses in Myrtle Beach but then won the series finale with the Pelicans and swept Frederick to start the half 4-2. The Rocks' longest losing streak of the year followed – a six-game skid to end the month that saw Lynchburg and Salem hand them back-to-back sweeps. On June 26 and 27, the Rocks were no-hit by the Hillcats on back-to-back nights. It was the first time in franchise history that the Blue Crew had been no-hit more than once in a season. Standout performers for the Rocks in June were Hunter Dozier prior to his promotion, Michael Antonio, Miguel Almonte, Binford and Glenn Sparkman.

JULY: July saw the Blue Rocks put things together both offensively and on the mound again for an extended stretch. The Rocks finished a season-best four games above the .500 mark in July at 15-11. Wilmington's offense posted its best month of the season and hit a collective .244 with 31 doubles, 11 triples, 17 homers and 86 RBIs. Blue Crew hurlers posted a 2.21 ERA and struck out 184 in 219.2 innings pitched. The Rocks teetered between first and third place during July and finished the month at 19-19 in the second half, just 1.5 games out of a division lead. July began with the promotion of Wilmington's best pitcher, Christian Binford, to Double-A Northwest Arkansas. It also kicked off with the arrival of another highly-touted prospect, Brandon Finnegan, who was taken No. 17 overall by the Kansas City Royals just one month earlier. On July 4 Glenn Sparkman turned in one of the best pitching performances by a Blue Rock in 2014. He hurled seven shutout innings, taking a no-hitter into his final frame of work, and also struck out a then-career-best nine. Sparkman earned the Carolina League Pitcher of the Week award for his efforts. The highlight of the month for Wilmington was a four-game sweep of Potomac from July 16-18 in Woodbridge, Virginia. At the end of the month, on July 26, closer Mark Peterson earned a well-deserved promotion to Double-A Northwest Arkansas. Michael Antonio, Terrance Gore, Jared Schlehuber, Bubba Starling, Jonathan Dzedzic, Sparkman and Manaea were the standout performers in July for the Rocks. Antonio had his best month as a member of the team and hit .311 with seven doubles, a triple, a homer and nine RBIs in 18 games.

AUGUST/SEPTEMBER: With a potential second-half division title or a wild card berth in sight, August began with the possibility of Wilmington returning to the Postseason for the first time since 2012. Instead, the Rocks faltered down the stretch and finished the month of August 12-18. They were officially eliminated from Postseason contention on the final day of August during a 4-1 loss to Salem. The Rocks batted a collective .208 with a season-best 20 homers in August. August began with the promotions of Terrance Gore to Triple-A Omaha and Brandon Finnegan to Double-A Northwest Arkansas. Both players ended up getting a Major League call-up by the Kansas City Royals in September. On August 2 against Frederick, Sean Manaea turned in the longest start by a Blue Rocks pitcher. He hurled 7.1 shutout innings during a 6-0 win over Frederick. On August 29th Sean Manaea turned in what was, perhaps, his best of the season. The lefty allowed just three hits and did not walk a batter. He also struck out 12, an individual Blue Rocks season-high. On August 28, it was announced that the Carolina League named Sparkman the pitcher of the Year. Sparkman finished the campaign 8-3 with a dazzling league-best 1.56 ERA in 29 appearances (18 starts). Sparkman was 2-1 with a 1.87 ERA in six starts during the season's final month. He fanned 36, issued eight free passes, and gave up 27 hits in 33.2 innings pitched. Despite their elimination from Postseason contention on the final day of August, the Blue Rocks had one final game to play. On September 1, the Rocks were able to end the season on a high note after walking off on the Salem Red Sox, 7-6, in 10 innings. Logan Davis sent Blue Rocks fans happy one final time with a game-ending triple down the right-field line that scored Fred Ford from first. Wilmington finished the second half at 32-37 and the 2014 campaign at 65-72.

2014 CAROLINA LEAGUE OPPONENT CAPSULES

Winston-Salem Dash (Chicago White Sox)

The Dash struggled mightily in 2014, finishing with the worst record in the Carolina League at 61-78 overall. For the season, they went just 27-43 away from the friendly confines of BB&T Ballpark. Despite having the second-most hits of any club in the C.L., Winston-Salem managed to score only 588 runs, second only to the Blue Rocks for worst in the League. On the other-hand, their pitching was middle of the pack, posting a team ERA of 3.91 (4th-C.L.) and allowing more hits than any other team at 1263.

Despite a down year, there was good news to come out of Winston-Salem for the White Sox organization. Slugger Courtney Hawkins, Chicago's 9th prospect entering 2015, managed to stay healthy throughout the season and lifted his sub-Mendoza Line 2013 average to .249 in 2014. Hawkins also led the Carolina League with 87 RBI. Fellow top prospect Tim Anderson (#2) had a good year at the Advanced-A level before being called up just after the All-Star break to Double-A Birmingham. Anderson was one of the top offensive players in the league during the first half batting .297 with 31 RBI and 10 SB. Outfielder Jason Coats also had a breakout year in Winston-Salem batting .291 with a .350 OBP in 115 games before being called up to Double-A. The Dash's rotation was paced by J.B. Wendelken and Tony Bucciferro who combined for 275 IP and 223 strikeouts.

Lynchburg Hillcats (Atlanta Braves)

Lynchburg's 2014 first-half was identical to 2013 when they went 33-36, missing out on the first half crown. However, the Hillkitties' stepped it up in the second half going .500 and capturing a Carolina League Wild Card berth. The highlight of their season came on the 26th and 27th of June when they made MiLB history, hurling two consecutive combined no-hitters at Frawley Stadium to stymie the Blue Crew early in the second half. In the first game, Lucas Sims went seven hitless frames despite giving up an unearned run thanks to a passed ball, an error, and an RBI groundout from Terrance Gore. Alex Wilson then shut the door with two hitless innings to close the book on a 5-1 victory. In the second contest, it was recently signed Cody Scarpetta who stepped up to match Sims with a seven inning, seven strikeout, hitless performance. This time, the Rocks would not score as Benny Pruneda would close it out for the Hillcats' second no-hitter in as many days.

In the playoffs, Lynchburg would be swept at the hands of the eventual C.L. Champions, the Potomac Nationals. The Hillcats scored just five runs in the two-game sweep after being paced by their offense all season. Offensively, Lynchburg finished third in the league in hitting. This is in stark contrast to their pitching staff, which finished dead-last in the League with a 4.36 ERA in the pitcher-friendly C.L. Standouts for Lynchburg in 2014 included Kyle Wren, the son of former Braves GM Frank Wren. Wren batted .296 with a .359 OBP and 33 stolen bases in 76 games before getting the call to Double-A Mississippi. He also got the nod as a starter for the Carolina League All-Star team. Jose Peraza also stood-out in Lynchburg, leading the team in hitting with a .342 average in 66 games before also getting the call-up to Double-A. On the mound, the Hillcats enjoyed some consistency from the back-end of their bullpen, which was bolstered by closer Alex Wilson who finished the campaign with a 2.02 ERA and 16 saves.

Frederick Keys (Baltimore Orioles)

The 2014 Keys' season was almost identical to the Blue Rocks as the two clubs posted matching 65-72 overall records, starting off slow in the first half only to pick it up and have a strong second half. In August, the Keys got hot winning six of seven games between the 25th and the 30th. Despite being in a good spot to capture the Carolina League North Wild Card, they sputtered in their last three games as they were swept by the eventual C.L. Champion Potomac Nationals.

Despite their early struggles as a squad, Frederick enjoyed several outstanding individual performances including outfielder Glynn Davis who started out the season with a hit in 11 straight contests. Davis, prior to being named a C.L. All-Star, hit .349 in the season's first 21 games, at one point leading all of Advanced-A in hitting. Fans in Frederick were also given a treat on April 25th when Manny Machado, coming off knee surgery, started a rehab assignment with the team. In three games at the Advanced-A level, the big-leaguer Machado tore up CL pitching to a tune of .667 (8-for-12). In the field, Jason Esposito brought Frederick their first Rawlings Gold Glove recipient in the team's history. Esposito played 118 games in 2014, posting a fielding percentage of .960 with 83 putouts and 257 assists. Esposito wasn't just effective with the glove, he proved his prowess with the lumber in the season's second half batting .320 over his final 67 games. On the mound, fan favorite and Frederick-native Branden Kline did not disappoint, winning eight of his 23 starts, posting a season ERA of 3.84. Kline is currently the 26th top prospect in the Oriole's system, one of eight top Baltimore prospects to spend time in Frederick in 2014.

Carolina Mudcats (Cleveland Indians)

The Carolina Mudcats had an up-and-down 2014, posting the League's worst record in the first half and then managing to post a .500 record in the second half, despite still missing a playoff spot by two and a half games in the tough C.L. South. The most consistent piece for the Muddy's throughout 2014 was starter Ryan Merritt. Merritt, who would be the starter for the Carolina League in the All-Star game at Frawley Stadium, ended the season with 13 wins in 25 starts and a 2.58 ERA, by far his best professional season to date. He led the League in wins, becoming the first CL pitcher since 2007 to amass 13 wins in a single campaign. Merritt also led the League in innings pitched (160.1), WHIP (0.95), and complete games (2). Merritt's success made him the 27th top prospect in Cleveland's organization entering 2015.

Despite their struggle to win games consistently, the Mudcats ended up leading the C.L. in team hitting with an average of .263. Still, Carolina struggled to put runs on the board ranking fifth in RBI. Jerrud Sabourin was arguably their most consistent offensive piece before being called up to Double-A Akron. Sabourin hit .295 with a .371 OBP and 45 RBI in just 89 games.

Myrtle Beach Pelicans (Texas Rangers)

After finishing 2013 with the Carolina League's second-best record, Myrtle Beach did themselves one better in 2014 posting the C.L.'s best record at 82-56. Even though the Pelicans were 2014's most successful regular season team and featured more C.L. Top 20 Prospects than any other club (8), they became nationally recognized for the antics of Manager Joe Mikulik whose tirade against homeplate umpire Adam Beck on August 17th gained attention from major mediums including a segment on ESPN's Olbermann and thousands of YouTube hits.

The undisputed standout of the 2014 season in Myrtle Beach was Joey Gallo, who came into the year as the C.L.'s top prospect. Before deservedly getting called up to Double-A Frisco, Gallo tore up the C.L. batting .323 with a .394 OBP. Along with his innate ability to get on base, Gallo impressed with his power stroke, clubbing 21 homers in just 58 games. He ended 2014 with 42 homeruns between both levels. Gallo, along with All-Stars Jorge Alfaro and Preston Beck, helped Myrtle Beach lead the League in scoring, as they crossed the plate 683 times as a team. Alfaro and Beck led the team in RBI combining to produce 150 runs while both compiled +.750 OPS in 100+ games. Andrew Faulkner was undoubtedly the Pelicans most impressive hurler, posting a 10-1 record with a 2.07 ERA in 21 games before getting the call to AA.

After a loss in the first-round of the playoffs last year, the Pelicans got one step closer to a Mills Cup title defeating the defending Champions, the Salem Red Sox, in a four-game series which saw the Pelicans win the final three games. Myrtle Beach's momentum hit a brick wall in the Potomac Nationals who beat the Pelicans in a four game series to capture the 2014 Mills Cup Championship.

Salem Red Sox (Boston Red Sox)

Coming off a Mills Cup Championship in 2013, the Salem Red Sox had high hopes for the 2014 season as well, despite not featuring any of Boston's top 20 prospects on the Opening Day roster. Eventually, Manuel Margot, 7th prospect in Boston's system, would make his way to Salem after a successful campaign in Low-A. Margot batted .340 with 14 RBIs in just 16 games for the Sox. The defending Champs missed a first half title, finishing 11 games behind the powerhouse in Myrtle Beach. The Sox did manage a Wild Card spot in the second half, only to have their chance of repeat titles cut short by that Pelicans team in the playoffs.

The Red Sox roster went through a lot of changes throughout the year, in fact only having two position players participate in over 100 games (Matty Johnson & Mario Martinez). Offensively as a team, Salem ranked second in the League in AVG, OPS, OBP, and SLG. Pat Light was the workhorse on the mound for Salem throwing 115 innings despite an ERA near five. Kyle Kraus and Justin Haley led the team in wins with seven apiece, Haley posted an impressive 2.82 ERA for the season. Overall, Salem's pitching staff was in the middle of the pack, placing fourth or fifth in every major team-pitching category.

Potomac Nationals (Washington Nationals)

After falling to the Salem Red Sox in the 2013 Mills Cup Championship, the P-Nats came into 2014 hopeful. Led by Delaware native Tripp Keister, the Nationals had an impressive squad that featured the prospect considered to be the best average hitter in the Nationals minor league system by Baseball America, Tony Renda. Renda finished the season leading not just his team, but the League in hitting with a .307 average in 107 games. Nationals fans were also treated to a slew of big leaguers on rehab assignment including Bryce Harper who batted .750 in two appearances for Potomac, Doug Fister who didn't give up any earned runs in four innings despite giving up six hits, and Gio Gonzalez who the Blue Rocks roughed up for eight runs in 3.2 innings on June 6th.

The Nationals clinched home-field advantage in the playoffs winning both halves in the C.L. North, posting the League's second best record at 78-58, winning 39 games in each half. Not only did Potomac control the Northern Division throughout the season, they effectively ended the playoff hopes of the Blue Rocks and the Keys in the final week of the season, beating Wilmington in three out of five games and Frederick in the last three out of four. In the Divisional Round, Potomac blew by Lynchburg winning both games of the series. Then, despite losing the first game of the series, the P-Nats took the next three games from Myrtle Beach to capture their first Mills Cup Championship since 2010. In the clinching Game 4, Nationals' pitchers set down the last 19 Pelicans in a row.

SIGNIFICANT DATES IN MODERN BLUE ROCKS HISTORY

1993

April 8 -- The first game in modern Blue Rocks history is played at Winston-Salem's Ernie Shore Field. The Spirits defeat Wilmington, 6-3, in front of 5,731. Kevin Jarvis earns the win and John Gross suffers the loss.

April 10 -- The Blue Rocks post their first win in team history. Jon Lieber picks up the victory in a 9-2 win over Winston-Salem on Ernie Shore Field. Later that night, Darren Burton hits the first home run in team history in the second game of a doubleheader.

April 17 -- The Blue Rocks open Frawley Stadium (Legends Stadium at the time) with a dramatic 6-5 victory over Winston-Salem. Wilmington scores four times in the bottom of the ninth inning to win. The rally is capped with a two-run single by Raul Gonzalez.

June 12 -- The Blue Rocks clinch the first-half Northern Division title with a wild 12-7 win over Lynchburg.

September 6 -- The Blue Rocks complete a two-game sweep of the Frederick Keys to win the Northern Division Championship Series and advance to the Mills Cup Championship Series. Brian Harrison tosses the second of back-to-back shutouts to lead the Rocks to a 3-0 victory.

September 8 -- The Blue Rocks open the Carolina League Championship Series with a 6-5, 14-inning win over Winston-Salem. The Spirits then win three in a row to take the 1993 Carolina League title.

1994

June 11 -- Andy Stewart's two-out single drives home the winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Blue Rocks a 4-3 win, clinching the first-half Northern Division title.

July 20 -- Blue Rocks catcher Lance Jennings hits a two-out, solo home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Northern Division a 2-1 win in the Carolina League All-Star Game. A crowd of 6,893 is on hand at Frawley Stadium.

September 2 -- In Frederick, the Blue Rocks defeat the Keys, 8-2, to clinch the second-half Northern Division title. Catcher Sal Fasano's first-inning grand slam gives the Blue Rocks an early lead that they would never relinquish.

September 10 -- At Frawley, Wilmington defeats Winston-Salem, 7-3, in Game Three to capture its first Carolina League championship. Lance Jennings hits two home runs and drives in four runs to capture MVP honors.

1995

April 15 -- At Frawley Stadium, Jose Rosado and Pat Flury combine to toss the first no-hitter in club history in a 3-0 win over Winston-Salem.

May 3 -- Anthony Medrano, Mendy Lopez, and Carlos Mendez turn the first triple play in franchise history versus Kinston.

August 22 -- Tim Byrdak and Eric Anderson team up to blank Salem and Mike Sweeney belts two home runs in a 5-0 victory that clinches the second-half Northern Division title.

September 4 -- The Blue Rocks win at Prince William, 9-5, to wrap up the Northern Division Championship Series and set up a Mills Cup Championship Series showdown with Kinston. However, the Rocks lose the series to Kinston in three.

1996

June 15 -- Utility man Jimmie Byington becomes the first player in Blue Rocks history to play every position on the field during a game.

July 24 -- Relief pitcher Steve Prihoda strikes out eight consecutive Lynchburg Hillcats hitters for a new club record.

August 15 -- Steve Prihoda establishes a Blue Rocks single-season record, earning his 25th save of the season in a 2-1 win over the Frederick Keys at Harry Grove Stadium.

September 10 -- Hurricane Fran forces Game Three of the Mills Cup Championship Series into Frawley Stadium. Kinston, surrendering its home games, wins on a David Miller home run in the bottom of the ninth. The following day, Wilmington wins the Mills Cup on Matt Smith's two-run homer in the top of the 11th inning.

1997

April 10 -- Salem pitchers Scott Randall and Lariel Gonzalez combine on a seven-inning no-hitter as the Avalanche defeat Wilmington, 1-0. It is the first time the Blue Rocks have been held hitless in a game.

April 17-20 -- Blue Rocks pitchers combine to set a new team record by throwing 33 consecutive innings without allowing a run.

July 29 -- Matt Treanor becomes the first Blue Rock to be traded during the season. The catcher is shipped to the Florida Marlins in exchange for pitcher Matt Whisenant.

August 2 -- Mike Evans smacks his 32nd home run as a Blue Rock to become the all-time home run leader in team history, surpassing Raul Gonzalez.

August 9 -- Carlos Febles swipes his 45th stolen base to set a new Blue Rocks single-season record.

August 15 -- A 4-3 loss to Winston-Salem in 11 innings eliminates Wilmington from postseason contention. It marks the first time the Blue Rocks missed the playoffs in their first five seasons.

1998

June 19 -- The Blue Rocks pound Frederick, 12-1, and clinch the first-half Northern Division title.

June 23 -- Frawley Stadium hosts the 1998 Carolina League All-Star Game. The Northern Division defeats the Southern Division, 5-2. Blue Rocks second baseman Emiliano Escandon is named the game's MVP after his eighth-inning, bases-loaded double drives in three runs to break a 2-2 tie. Before the game, Robin Roberts (an original Blue Rock in 1948) becomes the first inductee into the Blue Rocks Hall of Fame, and his No. 36 is retired.

July 5 -- It takes a Carolina League record 21 innings over six hours and 23 minutes, but the Blue Rocks defeat the Danville 97s, 3-2, at Frawley Stadium. The game is marked by five ejections, including Blue Rocks manager Darrell Evans and pitching coach Steve Crawford.

July 17 -- Manager Darrell Evans is fired by the Kansas City Royals. Hitting coach Kevin Long fills in on an interim basis. Brian Poldberg replaces Kevin Long six days later.

September 4 -- The Blue Rocks clinch the second-half Northern Division title with a 4-3 victory over Prince William.

September 10 -- The Blue Rocks capture their third Carolina League Championship Series crown with a 3-2 victory over the Winston-Salem Warthogs in Game Four. Paul Phillips, who was called up from Short-Season Spokane during the final week of the regular season, is named series MVP.

1999

April 18 -- Wilmington sets new team records for runs and hits with a 20-3 blowout in Myrtle Beach. Dee Brown leads the 23-hit assault by becoming the first Blue Rock to hit for the cycle.

June 11 -- The Blue Rocks lose at home to Myrtle Beach, but clinch the first-half Northern Division title. The loss is the beginning of a record eight-game home losing streak.

June 23 -- Vic Radcliff breaks a 6-6 tie in the 10th inning with an RBI double to lead the Carolina League All-Stars over the California League All-Stars, 7-6. Radcliff goes 2-for-2 and is named the game's MVP. Steve Medrano adds a three-run homer, also in the 10th.

August 31 -- Wilmington clinches the second-half Northern Division title with a 4-1 win over Salem.

September 13 -- Joe Caruso's dramatic three-run homer in the seventh inning helps lead Wilmington to a 7-3 victory over Myrtle Beach in Game Four of the Carolina League Championship Series. Game Five is canceled because of Hurricane Floyd and the two teams are named co-champions.

2000

May 2 -- At Frawley Stadium, Brian Sanches tosses the Blue Rocks first nine-inning, no-hitter in team history, blanking the Lynchburg Hillcats, 5-0. Sanches walks two and records 11 strikeouts in the contest.

June 4 -- In Salem, the Blue Rocks tie a franchise record by losing their 10th straight game in dropping a 9-6 decision to the Avalanche. The Rocks defeat the Lynchburg Hillcats the next day to end the losing streak at 10 games.

June 18 -- In Potomac, the Blue Rocks end the first half of the season with the worst first-half record (29-41) in team history. The Rocks lose both ends of a twinbill to the Cannons, 4-3 in the first game and 4-1 in the nightcap.

August 5 -- Jeremy Affeldt suffers his franchise record 12th loss of the season as the Blue Rocks drop game one of a doubleheader in Myrtle Beach. Affeldt ends the season with a 5-15 record for Wilmington.

August 10 -- In Kinston, Brandon Berger smacks his 12th home run of the season and his 36th in a Blue Rocks uniform, breaking Michael Evans' all-time home run record. Berger finishes the season with 15 home runs and 39 round-trippers in his three seasons with Wilmington.

2001

April 1 -- The Blue Rocks welcome the parent Kansas City Royals to the newly expanded Frawley Stadium for an exhibition game. The game ends in a 3-3 tie. The sellout crowd of 7,269 sees former Blue Rocks Mike Sweeney, Dee Brown, Carlos Beltran, Carlos Febles, Joe Caruso and Dave Ullery play for the Royals.

June 17 -- The Blue Rocks defeat the Salem Avalanche, 2-1, in game one of a doubleheader and capture the first-half Northern Division title. This secures the club's seventh postseason bid in nine seasons in the Carolina League.

June 20 -- Blue Rocks hurler Cary Ammons is traded by the Kansas City Royals to the Cincinnati Reds in exchange for infielder Donnie Sadler. Ammons went 2-6 with a 3.88 ERA in 12 starts for Wilmington before the trade.

August 6 -- Jeff Garber wins his 200th game as the manager of the Blue Rocks with Wilmington's 9-3 victory over the Salem Avalanche at Frawley Stadium.

September 1 -- Corey Hart goes 1-for-5 in the Blue Rocks win over Potomac and establishes a new club record with a 19-game hitting streak. Alexis Gomez hit safely in 18 straight games from April 19-May 19 to break the old mark of 17 straight games with a hit by Andy Stewart (1994) and Mark Quinn (1997).

September 5 -- Jimmy Gobble fans a career-high 15 batters and the Blue Rocks defeat Frederick, 13-0, at Frawley. The Rocks sweep the Division Series, 2-0, to advance to the Mills Cup Championship Series for the seventh time in nine years.

September 10 -- The Blue Rocks fall to Salem, 6-4, in Game Five of the Championship Series. Jimmy Gobble suffers the loss for Wilmington. John Lindsey hits two home runs and is named MVP of the Championship Series.

2002

April 16 -- Manager Jeff Garber earns his 226th win as Blue Rocks skipper and surpasses John Mizerock's 225 wins over a three-year period to take over first place in the Blue Rocks all-time wins column. Wilmington defeats Kinston, 5-2, with Wes Obermueller earning the victory out of the bullpen.

June 16 -- On the final day of the first half, Ian Ferguson picks up his 11th win of the season and 21st career win with Wilmington as the Blue Rocks clinch the first-half Northern Division title with a 9-1 win over Winston-Salem. The Rocks and Lynchburg finish the first half with identical records at 47-23 and Wilmington wins the head-to-head tiebreaker, 7-2. The first-half title is the seventh for Wilmington over 10 years.

June 18 -- The Blue Rocks and Fawley Stadium host the 2002 Carolina-California League All-Star Game. Jeff Garber manages the Carolina League All-Stars. David DeJesus, Ian Ferguson, Byron Gettis and Thomas Lora represent Wilmington in the game that ends in a 3-3 tie after 10 innings. Ferguson starts the game and goes one inning for the Carolina League.

August 31 -- Danny Tamayo becomes Wilmington's second 14-game winner all-time, allowing one unearned run on four hits over five innings in a 6-1 win over the Potomac Cannons.

September 6 -- The Lynchburg Hillcats capture the 2002 Northern Division championship with a 4-3 win over the Blue Rocks. Marco Cunningham and Byron Gettis hit back-to-back homers in the first inning against Lynchburg starter, Mike Connolly, to take a 3-1 lead. The Hillcats went ahead for good in the fourth inning on a three-run home run by Randy Meadows against losing pitcher Dusty Wrightman. It marks the first time in club history Wilmington failed to reach the Championship Series after qualifying for the postseason.

July 4 -- Zack Greinke and two relievers combine on a three-hit shutout win as the Blue Rocks defeat Kinston, 2-0. In his final start with Wilmington, Greinke tosses seven innings of one-hit shutout baseball. The 19-year-old retires 14 in a row before allowing a two-out single to Miguel Quintana in the fifth. He finishes up by retiring seven in a row and 21 of the 22 batters he faces over seven innings. Robbie Morrison allows a lead-off double in the ninth inning, but retires the next three hitters to preserve the shutout and register his third save.

August 6 -- Brian Bass comes within one out of a no-hitter, but it is spoiled by a Brian Becker two-out solo homer in the ninth as Wilmington defeats Winston-Salem, 6-1. Bass exits after the homer and notches his ninth win of the year. The 21-year-old goes 8.2 innings, allowing one run on one hit. He walks two, hits a batter, and fans eight. Trey Dyson goes 2-for-3 with a home run and two RBI in the victory.

August 29 -- Wilmington defeats the Potomac Cannons, 1-0, in front of a season-high 7,424 fans at Fawley. Kyle Middleton allows three hits and strikes out a season-high 10 over seven shutout innings. The Rocks score the game's only run in the eighth on a run-scoring single by James Shanks. Robbie Morrison works a 1-2-3 ninth inning to secure his 10th save of the year and his 25th with Wilmington, dating back to 1999.

2004

June 9 - The Wilmington Blue Rocks and the Kinston Indians combine to score 30 runs in the Rocks' 18-12 victory at Fawley Stadium. The 30 runs scored sets a franchise record for most total runs in a nine-inning game. Both teams amass 35 hits, tying a single-game mark. Wilmington bats around in three separate innings: the first, fourth, and seventh. Mel Stocker gets two plate appearances in the same frame three times.

June 20 - In a ceremony held at Fawley Stadium, the Blue Rocks retire Mike Sweeney's No. 33. Sweeney played with the Blue Rocks in 1995 and made his Major League debut on September 4, 1995 with the KC Royals. Sweeney and former Blue Rocks manager John Mizerock attend the ceremony.

September 4 - The Wilmington Blue Rocks win their last home night game of the season in walk-off fashion, as Mitch Maier turns a 5-4 Frederick lead into a 6-5 Blue Rocks victory with a two-out, two-run homerun in the ninth inning. The blast was hit before a sellout crowd of 7,158, the second-largest crowd at Fawley Stadium in 2004.

September 10 - Three Wilmington pitchers hold Potomac to three hits, blanking the Cannons in the Blue Rocks 4-0 Divisional Series-clinching victory. Devon Lowery, Nate Hoelscher, and Ryan Braun combined on the shutout. The Rocks advance to the Mills Cup Championship Series for the eighth time in 12 seasons and for the first time since 2001.

September 15 - The Kinston Indians complete their comeback from a 2-0 Mills Cup Championship Series deficit and win their third consecutive game at Fawley Stadium to defeat the Blue Rocks, 3-1, and win the Carolina League championship. The Game Five defeat is the second all-time for Wilmington in the Mills Cup Championship Series (Salem, 2001).

September 21 - The Blue Rocks join Red Sox Nation as they announce a two-year player development contract with Boston. The new PDC ends a 12-year run with the Kansas City Royals as the Blue Rocks' parent club.

2005

June 16 - John McAdams, who served as the voice of Fawley Stadium since the club's inaugural season in 1993, passes away at the age of 64. "Johnny Mac" was recognized as a true friend by everyone associated with the Blue Rocks over the years. He was remembered by the likes of Philadelphia Phillies public address announcer Dan Baker and former LaSalle basketball coach Speedy Morris in a pre-game ceremony on Saturday, June 18 at Fawley Stadium.

August 18 - The Blue Rocks established a new franchise record by coming from nine runs down en route to an 11-10 win over the Winston-Salem Warthogs at Ernie Shore Field.

2006

July 4 - Outfielder Jacoby Ellsbury ties the franchise record for stolen bases in a single game when he swiped four on Fourth of July against Salem at Fawley. It was the first time a Blue Rock stole four bases in a game since Pat Hallmark swiped four at Salem in 1998, and only the third time overall a Rock accomplished the feat.

August 15 - Catcher John Otness ties the single-game franchise record for hits with five against the Keys at Frederick.

August 30 - Wilmington takes game two of a doubleheader against the Avalanche, 4-1. The win snaps Salem's winning streak at 14, the longest in the Carolina League since 1959 when the Raleigh Capitals won 15 in a row.

September 3 - Closer Mike James gets Frederick's Paco Figueroa to pop out to second base with the tying run in scoring position for a 5-4 win over the Keys at Fawley. James earns his 25th save of the season, tying the single-season franchise record set a decade earlier by Steve Prihoda in 1996.

September 20 - The Blue Rocks announce a "Return To Royalty" by announcing a two-year player development contract with the Kansas City Royals for 2007 and 2008.

November 16 - The Kansas City Royals announce Wilmington's coaching staff for the 2007 season, including a familiar face at the helm. John Mizerock, manager of the Blue Rocks from 1995-97, would return to manage in Wilmington again in 2007. The Blue Rocks went 225-193 (.538) under Mizerock during his original tenure. His previous three seasons included three half championships, two Northern Division titles and one Carolina League Mills Cup championship in 1996.

2007

April 12 - Third baseman Mario Lisson ties the single-game franchise record for hits with five in Kinston against the Indians.

August 24 - Southpaw Rowdy Hardy finishes his own rain suspended start by going all nine innings in a 12-1 blasting of the Lynchburg Hillcats for his franchise-record 15th win of the season. The opener of an impromptu doubleheader started the Sunday prior in Wilmington proves to be the most lopsided win for the Blue Rocks all season. It also marks Hardy's third nine-inning complete game of the year. The lanky lefty sits down 17 of the last 21 batters he faces, and the lone run against him is unearned.

August 31 - After faltering in their division clinching attempts the previous two nights, the Wilmington Blue Rocks finally punch their postseason ticket with a 4-0 shutout victory over the Salem Avalanche at Fawley Stadium. The Rocks' triumph wraps up the second-half title in the Northern Division, thrusting Wilmington into the Carolina League playoffs for the 12th time in club's 15-year existence. The half-championship is the 18th in franchise history and the fourth under manager John Mizerock. All-Star right-hander Julio Pimentel scatters four hits and two walks with two strikeouts over seven scoreless frames.

November 10 - Longtime Blue Rocks majority owner and team president, Matt Minker, passes away after a five-year battle with cancer. Minker's construction company literally built Fawley Stadium in an eye-popping five months in 1992-93.

2008

April 23 - Outfielder Joe Dickerson becomes the first Blue Rock to hit an inside-the-park home run since Norris Hopper on July 30, 2001. Dickerson's shot forged a 3-3 tie with the Frederick Keys at Harry Grove Stadium in the sixth inning. The Rocks would win the game, 4-3, on a wild pitch.

June 4 - Infielder Jeff Bianchi joins the short-job home run parade when he connects on an inside-the-park job against the Kinston Indians at Fawley Stadium. Bianchi's blow came against reliever Mike Pontius to start the home sixth inning and a comeback attempt from a 3-1 deficit. Center fielder Johnny Drennen turned what should have been a line-single to center into a four-bagger when he missed the catch on a head-first dive and allowed the ball to roll all the way to the wall. Bianchi circled the sacks in lightning-quick fashion, fitting since a downpour of rain would shortly thereafter suspend play. The Blue Rocks would win the game the next day, 6-5.

June 27 - Center fielder Derrick Robinson ties the franchise record for stolen bases in a game by taking four against the Salem Avalanche. He would go on to obliterate Carlos Febles' single-season mark of 49 by collecting 62 on the year.

August 29 - Though only one team claimed victory, each clubhouse had reason to celebrate this night at Fawley. The Wilmington Blue Rocks fell to the Potomac Nationals, 3-1, giving the visiting P-Nats the second-half crown in the Carolina League's Northern Division. But, by virtue of Frederick's loss to Winston-Salem, the Rocks claimed their first-ever wild card berth to lock up the team's 13th playoff appearance in 16 seasons.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Ian Ferguson is the lone Wilmington hurler in club history to win 10 or more games in two seasons; he won 10 games in 2001 and 12 in 2002. He ranks second in team history with 22 career wins.
- Wilmington has appeared in the Carolina League postseason in 15 of its 21 seasons.
- The Blue Rocks are 29-33 all-time in the postseason; they are 15-17 at home and 14-16 on the road.

2009

May 10 - Center fielder Derrick Robinson's steal of second base against the Frederick Keys established a new franchise-record for career stolen bases. The speedster broke Sergio Nunez's mark of 77 thefts. Robinson, who spent part of 2007, and all of 2008 and 2009 in Wilmington, ended the year with 132 career swipes as a Blue Rock.

August 1 - Derrick Robinson set the tone for one of the more unlikely power surges the Blue Rocks have seen. The center fielder's two-run homer capped off a five-run fifth inning which led Wilmington to an 8-3 victory over the Salem Red Sox. The round-tripper ended Robinson's 221-game, 895-at-bat homerless streak as a Blue Rock.

August 3 - In the very next game, Robinson went deep again, as the Rocks tied a franchise record with five home runs as a team in an 11-3 rout of Winston-Salem. Eric Hosmer's first career Advanced-A homer got the long-ball party started as Nick Van Stratten, Anthony Seratelli and Johnny Giavotella also left the yard for the Blue Crew.

August 19 - Derrick Robinson continued to make his mark on the Blue Rocks' record books, this time breaking one of his own records. The Florida native stole three bases against the Frederick Keys, surpassing the Wilmington single-season stolen base mark of 62, which Robinson had set in 2008. He finished the campaign with 69 thefts.

August 29 - Mike Moustakas' opening frame home run off of Salem's Kyle Weiland was the slugger's 16th dinger of the season. It marked the highest homer total for anyone on the Riverfront since Brandon Berger left the yard 16 times in 1999.

September 4 - The Blue Rocks put an exclamation point on an incredible second-half of the season by clinching a CL North crown with a 5-2 win over the Frederick Keys at Frawley Stadium. The Blue Crew got seven innings of two-run ball from starter Eduardo Paulino, and two RBIs each from Jamar Walton and Chase Fontaine en route to the celebration-inducing victory.

2010

April 13 - Michael Montgomery whiffed a career-best 13 men in a 3-1 defeat of the Kinston Indians at Grainger Stadium to earn the Rocks' their 1,300th victory in franchise history. The 20-year-old southpaw carried a perfect game into the seventh before a broken-bat infield single opened that frame. In eight of the night's nine innings, Wilmington pitching retired the side 1-2-3 as Montgomery and closer Eric Basurto combined for 17 strikeouts.

May 21 - John Lamb tossed six innings of one-run ball as the Blue Rocks earned a 4-1 victory at Frawley Stadium in the 20-year-old's Advanced-A debut. The left-hander faced the minimum in three of his six innings pitched. He did not surrender a hit until the fourth frame and fanned nine. Four times he caught Myrtle Beach looking at a called third strike.

July 16 - In his final game in a Wilmington Blue Rocks uniform Eric Hosmer went 2-for-5 with a run scored. Hosmer, who led the Carolina League in batting average, on-base percentage and doubles upon his promotion to Double-A Northwest Arkansas became the first player in franchise-history to win a CL batting crown.

August 14 - For the first time in 53 tries in 2010, the Rocks won a game they trailed after eight innings. Ernesto Mejia's two-run single tied the game at 3-3 in the ninth, and his two-run triple in the 14th put the Rocks ahead to stay in a 6-3 triumph over . Mejia knocked in five runs on three hits as he fell just a double shy of the cycle that night.

September 6 - Blue Rocks pitcher Aaron Crow was named Carolina League Pitcher of the Week, marking the ninth time a Rock was honored by the league office in 2010. Montgomery, Lamb, Alex Caldera, and Bryan Paukovits claimed CL Pitcher of the Week laurels in 2010 as well, with Montgomery grabbing that honor twice in a row to begin the year. Third baseman Jamie Romak took Player of the Week accolades three times during June and July. No other Carolina League team claimed as many weekly honors as the Blue Rocks.

2011

May 25 - The Rocks reach their high water mark of the 2011 season with a walkoff win against the Frederick Keys. A wild pitch by Sean Gleason in the 9th inning allowed Yem Prades to score the winning run in a thrilling 6-5 victory at Frawley Stadium. The win put Wilmington 11 games over .500, the high water mark for the season.

June 11 - Nick Francis tied a record that only nine others in Blue Rocks history have accomplished by smacking five basehits at Winston-Salem. Francis notched singles in the 1st, 2nd, and 5th innings off Dash pitching. He roped a triple in the 8th inning and then with two outs in the 9th inning, Francis singled through the left side to complete the feat.

June 15 - The Blue Rocks claimed the franchise's 1,400th victory with a 4-3 win over the Lynchburg Hillcats. A solo home run from John Whittleman and an RBI single from Alex McClure in the 8th inning put the Rocks ahead for good as they claimed their 34th win of the season. Tim Melville threw five inning of two run ball, while Dusty Odenbach grabbed his first win of the season, yielding only one run in three innings. Ryan Dennick threw a scoreless ninth for the save.

August 20 - In the first game of a doubleheader against the Salem Red Sox, John Whittleman reached a plateau few have reached in Blue Rocks history. In the third inning, a solo home run to right field gave the Blue Rocks a 4-0 lead and also saw Whittleman reach the 20-HR mark. Whittleman is only the third player in team history to reach 20 home runs in a season, joining Larry Sutton (26 in 1994) and Hugh Walker (21 in 1993). The Rocks won the game 6-2.

2012

July 6 - Lane Adams collects two of the Blue Rocks four home runs to guide his team to a 10 inning win over Lynchburg 6-5. The second dinger by Adams gave Wilmington the lead in the top of the 10th, and helped the team avoid a three-game sweep against the Hillcats.

August 3 - Infielder Matt Fields earns Carolina League Topps Player of the Month Honors for July. In 27 games, Fields hit .355 with 13 home runs and 19 RBIs, while his .794 slugging percentage was tops in all of minor league baseball. Adams becomes the eighth member of the Blue Rocks to garner the award.

August 10 - Following a closed door team meeting, The Blue Crew hammers Salem 9-1. Matt Fields led the charge, becoming the second Wilmington player to record a two-homer game on the season. This win would be a sign of things to come. Over the final 24 games of the season, Vance Wilson's team would post a league-best 16-8 record.

August 30 - The Blue Rocks clinch the second half Northern Division Championship with a 9-3 win over the Myrtle Beach Pelicans. A six-run fourth inning broke the game open, as Wilmington advanced to the Carolina League Playoffs for the first time since 2009. Wilmington starter Leondy Perez was stellar, tossing 7.1 innings, allowing just five hits, one walk, and an unearned run. Tyler Sample finished off the Pelicans, surrendering a pair of runs over the final 1.2 innings.

September 7 - Wilmington falls to Lynchburg 2-1 in Game Three of the Northern Division Championship Series. Hillcats catcher Braeden Schlehuter put his team on top for good in the bottom of the eighth, with a solo home run off Wilmington reliever Robinson Yambati. Lynchburg would eventually win the Mills Cup, defeating Winston-Salem three games to one in the best-of-five series.

2013

May 1 - Facing Salem, Cheslor Cuthbert gave Wilmington its first walk-off win of the year, thanks to a solo homer off Mike McCarthy in the bottom of the ninth. That would not be the team's only walk-off victory of the series, as Jorge Bonifacio completed an 11-inning win the next night with a sacrifice fly to right field.

June 29 - Coming off a very difficult first leg of the season where he went 1-6 and posted a 5.98 ERA, Royals No. 1 prospect Kyle Zimmer turned in his best performance as a professional. In game one of a doubleheader against Potomac, Zimmer tossed a seven-inning complete game shutout and carried a no-hitter into the sixth inning for the second time in 2013. Not only had the proverbial light bulb gone off for Zimmer, but Kansas City general manager Dayton Moore was in attendance to see it himself.

July 9 - An overpowering start by Kyle Zimmer, his second-to-last before getting promoted to AA-Northwest Arkansas, keyed a big series win over Frederick. Zimmer tossed 6 innings while yielding just one run and striking out 13 en route to an 8-1 victory.

August 13 - The Blue Crew took two out of three from the eventual Mills Cup Champion Salem Red Sox, and the series finale was one of the most memorable games in franchise history. After 18 long innings, Dennis Raben recorded the game-winning hit, lining an RBI single to center right before the stroke of midnight. The game went down as the second-longest in Blue Rocks history, as well as the fifth-longest in the history of the Carolina League.

2014

April 26 - After starting the season 0-7 against the Myrtle Beach Pelicans, the Blue Rocks claimed their first victory of 2014 against their Carolina League rival in highly improbable fashion. Trailing 4-3 heading into the bottom of the 9th, Wilmington tied the game and put Terrance Gore on third base as the winning run with two outs. Raul Mondesi would then strikeout, but the pitch got away from catcher Jorge Alfaro. Gore sprinted home and avoided Alfaro's tag, who was also too late to get Mondesi at first base. The Blue Crew won 5-4 on a walk-off strikeout.

May 6 - Down by one run heading into the top of the 9th, Hunter Dozier hits a go ahead grand slam at Potomac to put the Rocks in front late. Wilmington would go on to defeat the Nationals 6-3.

June 17 - Frawley Stadium plays host to the annual Carolina/California League All Star Game. In a close contest, the California League All Stars defeat the Carolina League 3-2.

July 13 - Christian Binford pitches a scoreless inning in the MLB Futures Game at Target Field. The right hander was named to the game while pitching for the Blue Rocks. Binford went 5-4 with a 2.40 ERA during his time in Wilmington, where he was also named to the Carolina League All Star team.

September 1 - After spening parts of the 2014 season in Wilmington, Brandon Finnegan and Terrance Gore get promoted to the Major League level. 2012-13 Blue Rock Lane Adams would join the September call-ups as well. Finnegan and Gore would go on to play in the World Series, with Finnegan becoming the first player in history to play in both the Division I College World Series and the MLB World Series in the same year.

September 1 - The same day three of their former players got the call to the show, the Blue Rocks ended their regular season in style, walking off against the Salem Red Sox, 7-6. Down 6-4 heading into the 9th, Wilmington put together a rally to tie the game and force the contest into extras. Then, after being recalled from Rookie-Level Idaho Falls earlier that day, Logan Davis came through with a game-winning triple in the bottom of the 10th, plating Fred Ford from first base.

BLUE ROCKS TEAM HISTORY

In 1940, R.R.M. (Bob) Carpenter brought professional baseball back to the city with the original Wilmington Blue Rocks. The team was a Class B Interstate League affiliate of the Philadelphia A's. Hall-of-Famer Connie Mack owned the Blue Rocks for their first four years of existence. Another Hall-of-Famer, Chief Bender, served as the Blue Rocks first manager.

In 1943, Carpenter, who was a partner with Mack since the Blue Rocks' inception, took full ownership of the club. For their final nine years, the original Blue Rocks were a Philadelphia Phillies affiliate.

The nickname "Blue Rocks" came from 73-year-old Robert Miller in a name-the-team contest. Miller lived in the Henry Clay section of the city, famed for its blue granite found along the Brandywine River.

The Blue Rocks played in Wilmington Park, a $185,000 facility at 30th Street and Governor Printz Boulevard. At the time, it was considered one of the finest minor league parks in the country.

In Wilmington's 13 years in the Interstate League, the Blue Rocks won four Governor's Cup titles and missed the postseason only twice. Pitchers Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons and outfielder Elmer Valo were some of the notables who played for the Blue Rocks before going to the major leagues.

After setting many records for attendance, the Blue Rocks' fan support dwindled and 1952 was their final season in the Interstate League.

In 1993, the Blue Rocks returned to professional baseball as the Class-A Carolina League affiliate of the Kansas City Royals. The franchise, formerly known as the Peninsula Pilots, was moved from Hampton, VA.

The stadium, built by the construction company of former Blue Rocks president Matt Minker, was named Legends Stadium (later changed to Judy Johnson Field at Daniel S. Frawley Stadium).

Like their forerunners, the modern Blue Rocks have enjoyed great on-field success. Since their return in 1993, Wilmington has one of the best winning percentages in all of Minor League Baseball, winning eight Northern Division titles in 19 years and four Carolina League championships.

Before the Blue Rocks 1865-1940

1865 - A group of young businessmen form the Diamond State Baseball Club, the first organized baseball in Wilmington.

May 1866 - The Diamond State Club hosts an exhibition against the Philadelphia Athletics. The powerful visitors win 104-5.

1873 - The amateur Quicksteps rise to prominence as Wilmington's premiere baseball club.

1875 - The first professional team comes to town as the Chicago Whistockings knock off the Quicksteps, 11-4.

August, 1875 - The successful Quicksteps build new grounds and prohibit betting at their games. Late in the season, they welcome the now-professional Athletics to town and win, 6-4.

1876 - The Quicksteps become Wilmington's first professional team, bringing in out-of-town players and paying them about $10 a week.

1877 - The original Quicksteps disband due to lack of fan support.

1883 - Wilmington assembles a team for the new Interstate League and gives it the traditional Quicksteps moniker. The team stumbles to a 27-48 record.

1884 - The Interstate League reassembles under the name Eastern League. The Quicksteps lay waste to the rest of the league, romping to a 50-12 record by mid-August.

August 1884 - Wilmington leaves the Eastern League to fill an empty spot in the Union League, a "major league." The team finishes just 2-16 and disbands before the season ends. A stable professional team does not return to Wilmington for 20 years.

July 4, 1896 - The Wilmington Peaches, an entry in the Atlantic League, play a tripleheader against the Paterson, NJ club, with the final game played under artificial lights. For improved visibility, a softball is used. Hall-of-Famer Honus Wagner plays for the Paterson club. The ball was lost so many times and so many runs were scored that they did not keep score. The first major league night game would not be played until 40 years later.

1901-03 - Two amateur teams, the AA's and the BB's become the most popular Wilmington teams of all time. The AA's draw 10,500 fans to their 1903 opener; across town, the BB's draw 4,500.

1904-05 - The AA's bring pro ball back to Wilmington, entering the independent Tri-State League and taking the name of the Wilmington Peaches.

1907 - The Tri-State League becomes part of the National Agreement and is now recognized as a Class-B league. Future Yankee manager Joe McCarthy plays for the Peaches.

1913 - The Tri-State club, now known as the Chicks, wins the league championship, finishing 66-45.

1915-1939 - Professional baseball takes a hiatus from Wilmington. Negro League teams play in 1925 and 1932.

1918 - Amateur teams, named after wartime industries, play each other in Wilmington. Shoeless Joe Jackson plays for the league-champion "Shipbuilders."

1940 - Bob Carpenter and Connie Mack bring the Blue Rocks to Wilmington.

WP: Martin LP: Lowery ATT: 1,032

Kinston's J.D. Martin puts forth a spectacular showing, carrying a no-hitter into the fourth inning while retiring 17 of the final 20 batters to lead the Indians to the Mills Cup Championship.

2006 NORTHERN DIVISION SERIES

Game 1: Wednesday, Sept. 6 at Frederick

WIL	020 100 000	3	10	0
FRE	000 100 000	1	3	3

WP: Buchholz LP: Ramirez ATT: 2,037

Starter Clay Buchholz ties a pair of career-high marks with six innings pitched and 10 strikeouts, allowing just one run on three hits for the win. Bubba Bell goes 2-for-4 with a home run and two RBIs. Closer Mike James hurls a scoreless and hitless ninth for the save.

Game 2: Thursday, Sept. 7 at Wilmington

FRE	000 101 000	2	1	0
WIL	100 000 000	1	5	2

WP: Anderson LP: Bowden ATT: 1,667

Craig Anderson & Rommie Lewis combine on a five-hit-ter. Frederick breaks up a 1-1 tie without a hit in the sixth. Pete Maestrales drew a lead-off walk and moved up a Paco Figueroa sac bunt. Mario Delgado reached & Maestrales scored on an Iggy Suarez error.

Game 3: Friday, Sept. 8 at Wilmington

FRE	012 400 002	9	15	2
WIL	001 000 003	4	7	4

WP: Hart LP: Rozier ATT: 986

Wilmington loses starting pitcher Michael Rozier in the third inning when he is hit in the back of the head on a line drive by Mario Delgado. Wilmington's bullpen allows six unearned runs thereafter. Nolan Reimold and Vito Chiaravallotti homer for Frederick.

2007 NORTHERN DIVISION SERIES

Game 1: Wednesday, Sept. 5 at Wilmington

FRE	013 003 110	9	17	0
WIL	020 000 000	2	8	1

WP: Bergensen LP: Hardy ATT: 1,238

Carolina League Pitcher of the Year Rowdy Hardy was harassed for his worst outing of the season, yielding seven runs (five earned) over 5.2 innings, as the Rocks absorbed their second-most lopsided playoff loss in franchise history. Mario Lisson and Miguel Vega each had two of Wilmington's eight base hits on the night.

Game 2: Thursday, Sept. 6 at Frederick

WIL	000 000 001	1	1	1
FRE	000 200 100	3	7	1

WP: Spooner LP: Pimentel ATT: 1,726

Frederick starter Chorye Spooner dominated the Blue Rocks, striking out nine and walking none while hurling his fourth complete game of the season. His shut-out and no-hit bids were simultaneously smashed when Jose Duarte drilled a two-out, ninth-inning home run to center field that just cleared the wall. The only other baserunner Wilmington had on its last evening of the 2007 season came courtesy of Frederick's lone defensive miscue, a ground ball through the wickets of third baseman Ryan Finan in the fifth inning off the bat of Brian McFall.

2008 NORTHERN DIVISION SERIES

Game 1: Wednesday, Sept. 3 at Potomac

WIL	000 000 010 000 000	1	5	0
POT	000 010 000 000 001	2	11	0

WP: Leatherman LP: Haltiwanger ATT: 851

In what boiled down to a battle of bullpens, the Wilmington relief corps finally cracked after three hours and 54-minutes of taut baseball. Russ Haltiwanger uncorked a wild pitch with two outs in the bottom of the 15th that scored Boomer Whiting from third base and the Potomac Nationals walked off with a 2-1 victory. The division-champion P-Nats handed the Rocks just their fifth Game One setback in 17 all-time playoff series. It marked the longest playoff game in team history.

Game 2: Thursday, Sept. 4 at Potomac

WIL	010 100 000 0	2	6	2
POT	011 000 000 1	3	13	0

WP: Everts LP: Chambliss ATT: 812

Dan Lyons delivered an RBI single off All-Star closer Tyler Chambliss in the bottom of the 10th inning to give the P-Nats a commanding 2-0 lead in the series. Jeff Bianchi had a heroic effort for the Blue Rocks in spite of the loss. The second baseman gave the Rocks their first lead of the series with a one-out solo blast off starter Erik Arnesen in the top of the second inning. Bianchi cleared both levels of the blue batter's eye in dead-center field. Trailing 2-1 in the fourth, Bianchi again came to the rescue when he singled home Paulo Orlando from second base with two outs.

Game 3: Friday, Sept. 5 at Wilmington

POT	001 000 000	1	2	2
WIL	000 000 000	0	4	0

WP: Detwiler LP: Teaford ATT: 1,103

Boomer Whiting knocked in the game's lone run with a third-inning sac fly. Starter Everett Teaford (0-1) tied a season and career-high with nine strikeouts and walked one batter over seven stellar frames. One of the two hits the lefty gave up was a ground-rule double by Michael Burgess leading off the third inning. After a sac bunt moved him to third, Burgess came plateward on Whiting's fly ball to left field. Whiting, who scored both walk-off runs in the first two games, undoubtedly was the most valuable player in the series. Wilmington's Chris Chavez and Ben Swaggerty combined to face the minimum over the final two innings. On the series, the Rocks hit a slim .133 (15-for-113). In the Game Three loss, the Rocks loaded the bases in three separate innings, yet came up empty each time en route to stranding eight men in scoring position.

BLUE ROCKS POSTSEASON HISTORY

2009 NORTHERN
DIVISION SERIESGame 1: Sept. 9 at Lynchburg

WIL	040 000 003	7	11	2
LYN	000 000 100	1	6	2

WP: Paulino LP: J. Wilson ATT: 585

Starter Eduardo Paulino allowed only a single score on four hits in 6.1 sterling frames, and the Rocks plated four second-inning runs courtesy of five singles and a pair of Lynchburg errors to take the early series lead.

Game 2: Thursday, Sept. 10 at Lynchburg

WIL	000 000 000	0	6	0
LYN	010 000 00x	1	5	1

WP: Owens LP: Duffy ATT: 572

Lynchburg starter Rudy Owens (1-0) held the Rocks at-bay for six scoreless innings, as Wilmington managed to move just three runners into scoring position all night.

Game 3: Friday, Sept. 11 at Wilmington

LYN	000 000 000 000	0	4	1
WIL	000 000 000 002	2	7	1

WP: Bowden LP: Uviedo ATT: 774

After enduring a 46-minute rain delay at the outset, dreary damp conditions all night, and 20 consecutive scoreless innings over two games, the Wilmington Blue Rocks offense ended the evening in style. Eric Hosmer blasted a two-run homer over the right-field fence to give the Rocks a 2-0 walk-off win and a two-games to one series advantage. The triumph was Wilmington's fourth walk-off postseason win in franchise history and its first since the championship-clinching victory during Game Four of the 1998 finals vs. Winston-Salem.

Game 4: Saturday, Sept. 12 at Wilmington

LYN	010 001 021	5	9	2
WIL	101 000 000	2	7	3

WP: McSwain LP: Rivas ATT: 623

The Blue Rocks could not get the big hit as they left 12 men on base including eight in scoring position.

Wilmington went 1-for-11 (.091) with runners in scoring position as the series shifted back to the hill city.

POSTSEASON
DID YOU KNOW?

- Eric Anderson is the only Wilmington hurler to register more than one postseason win as a Blue Rock.
- Jason Kaanoi, Todd Thorn and Junior Guerrero are the only three pitchers to lose two postseason games for the Blue Rocks.
- The Blue Rocks have posted seven shutout wins in the postseason and have been shutout eight times.
- The Blue Rocks have drawn 67,456 fans to 32 postseason home games.

Game 5: Sunday, Sept. 13 at Lynchburg

WIL	010 000 010	2	10	0
LYN	002 000 30x	5	6	0

WP: B. Morris LP: Villa ATT: 558

Lynchburg's Josh Harrison had two hits and drove in four runs, while Erik Huber added a pair of doubles and cut down two men at the plate, as the Lynchburg Hillcats took Game Five to pull a shocking upset over a Blue Rocks team which finished the year with the Carolina League's best record. Huber's heroics came after not appearing in any of the series' first four games. It was Wilmington's 10th loss in its last 12 postseason contests.

2012 NORTHERN
DIVISION SERIESGame 1: Wednesday, Sept. 5 at Wilmington

LYN	100 010 024	8	15	0
WIL	000 000 000	0	3	2

WP: Schlosser LP: Pounders ATT: n/a

The Hillcats record 15 hits (14 of them singles) to move within a game of the Mills Cup Championship Series. The Blue Rocks had no answer for Hillcats starter Gus Schlosser. He tossed eight scoreless frames, allowing only three hits and a walk while striking out six.

Game 2: Thursday, Sept. 6 at Lynchburg

WIL	004 130 040	12	18	2
LYN	100 000 020	3	7	1

WP: Adam LP: Delgado ATT: n/a

Wilmington sets a postseason record with 18 hits (prior team-high was 14) to force a decisive third game. It was also the Blue Crew's most lopsided playoff win since the 2004 Mills Cup (10-1 win over Kinston). Six players recorded multiple hits, while starting pitcher Jason Adam picked up the win, going seven innings and surrendering only one earned run.

Game 3: Friday, Sept. 7 at Lynchburg

WIL	001 000 000	1	5	0
LYN	000 100 01x	2	5	0

WP: Cornely LP: Yambati ATT: n/a

With one out in the bottom of the eighth and the game tied, Hillcats catcher Braeden Schlehuter belted a solo homer off Robinson Yambati to give Lynchburg the lead and the eventual win.
