JAMIE QUIRK #9

Manager • 1st Season

Career Notes: This will be Quirk's third season as a manager in pro ball. In each of his first two seasons, the team he ended the season with reached the playoffs before bowing out in the first round. Quirk spent the prior two seasons managing in the San Diego Padres organization, starting at Advanced A with the Lake Elsinore Storm two years ago before finishing with their AAA affiliate the El Paso Chihuahuas.

Quirk returns to the Royals organization after starting his professional playing career in Kansas City. Quirk spent a total of 18 seasons in the major leagues, making his debut in September of 1975 with the Royals and hitting his first career home run later that month off of future Hall of Famer Rollie Fingers. Quirk's longevity in the show can be traced back to his move to catcher in the 1978 season. He had spent the prior year with the Milwaukee Brewers, but returned to the Royals the following year where he was moved to the position of backstop where he mostly played for the remainder of his career.

He had three separate tours with the Royals including a stint with them during the 1985 season where he, along with the rest of the Royals, won the World Series. Although his final game was on October 4, 1992, eight seasons prior he was on the St. Louis Cardinals when he was released and named to their coaching staff, but was signed by the Chicago White Sox as a player before being sold to the Cleveland Indians where he only had one at bat... a home run on September 27th in a 4-3 Indians' win. In all, Quirk spent 18 seasons with seven teams and although retiring with just 43 home runs, that tally was the most home runs hit by a player with a last name beginning with "Q" until Mark Quinn's only two home runs in the 2002 season surpassed that mark (Quinn, who played four seasons from 1999-2002 all with the Royals finished his career with 45 home runs).

When he finally did quit playing he immediately turned to coaching where his first stop was a familiar one, the Kansas City Royals. Quirk spent the 1994-2001 seasons as a bench coach and bullpen coach for the Royals before a one year stay as a coach with the Texas Rangers. The 2003-2008 seasons were spent with the Colorado Rockies as a bench coach and while a one year period as a scout with the Cincinnati Reds broke up his streak of coaching he immediately returned to the fold as a bullpen coach for the Astros in 2010 and 2011 before serving under Dale Sveum with the Chicago Cubs as their bench coach in 2012 and 2013.

"Jamie is an experienced baseball man and natural leader," said Royals vice president/assistant general manager J.J. Picollo. "We are looking forward to him working with and sharing his experiences with our players and are extremely fortunate to have someone with his vast experience on our coaching staff."

Quirk lives with his wife, Anna, in Kansas City, MO and the couple have three children. Although never playing in any professional games, their son, Kemer, was drafted in the 40th round of the 2008 draft by the Colorado Rockies.

CHRIS WIDGER

#32
Bench Coach
Opening Day Age: 44
Born: May 21, 1971 in Wilmington, DE
Resides: Wilmington, DE

Career Notes: This will be Widger's first year as a Bench Coach with the Wilmington Blue Rocks after serving as the Manager of the Independent League Camden Riverhawks the last two seasons. A third round pick in the 1992 Major League Baseball Draft, Widger played for the Seattle Mariners, Montréal Expos, New York Yankees, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago White Sox, and Baltimore Orioles. On July 23, 2006, he was placed on waivers by the White Sox, who had acquired Sandy Alomar, Jr. to replace him as their backup catcher and played the final two months of the season with the Baltimore Orioles.

Widger played 9 years in Major League Baseball, establishing himself as an everyday player during his tenure with the Expos. After playing the 2004 season with the independent Camden Riverhawks, Widger made it back to the MLB with the Chicago White Sox as a backup where he won a World Series in 2005. He played catcher, but also played at first base, third base, and once in the outfield. He is a graduate of George Mason University and Pennsville Memorial High School in Pennsville, N.J., currently residing in Wilmington.

Pitching Coach
Opening Day Age: 55
Born: November 30, 1960 in Baytown, TX
Resides: Huntsville, TX

Career Notes: Corbell is replacing the longest tenured coach in Blue Rocks history, Steve Luebber, who will be spending the year in the same position with the AA Northwest Arkansas Club.

Corbell was drafted twice in the early 80s, first in the 8th Round of the 1981 January Draft-Regular Phase by the Chicago White Sox out of Blinn College (Brenham, TX) and then again in the 21st Round of the 1983 June Amateur Draft by the San Francisco Giants out of the University of Arkansas.

He would go on to pitch for seven seasons in the minor leagues, reaching as high as AAA for the first time in 1987 stacking up a record of 9-7 that season for the Phoenix Firebirds (AAA, SFG). In March of 1988 he was traded to the Oakland As organization for a struggling A-ball pitcher... Rod Beck, who pitched for 13 seasons in Major League Baseball. In seven seasons in the minors, Corbell posted a record of 54-42 (a .563 winning percentage) to the tune of a 3.67 ERA, retiring after the 1989 season with the Huntsville Stars (AA, OAK).

After ending his professional pitching career, Corbell turned to coaching, first in the collegiate ranks where he spent 14 seasons. His initial stop was with Lamar University (Beaumont, TX) where he coached from 1989-1991 and then to Galveston College, coaching the Whitecaps from 1992-2002 including the 1994 season when they won the NJCAA Division I Baseball World Series. In his final four seasons in Galveston, Corbell was the head coach before making his return to minor league baseball as a pitching coach with the Vermont Expos (NY-Penn, MON) in 2002. He would spend the next four seasons coaching in the Montreal Expos/Washington Nationals organization, ending his time with the Expos/Nationals as a coach on the 2005 New Orleans Zephyrs.

He then jumped ship to the Florida/Miami Marlins organization, serving as the pitching coach for the Jamestown Jammers in 2007 and 2008 before another two year pit stop with the Greensboro Grasshoppers in 2009 and 2010 in the same role. He returned to the Zephyrs, this time as a member of the Marlins organization for the 2011-2014 seasons, finishing his tenure in the organization as the Marlins' Minor League Pitching Coordinator.

ABRAHAM O. NUNEZ

Hitting Coach
Opening Day Age: 40
Born: March 16, 1976 in
Santo Domingo, Distrito Nacional, Dominican Republic
Resides: Garfield, N.J.

Career Notes: Abraham O. Nunez enters his second season on the Wilmington Blue Rocks coaching staff after helping lead Wilmington to its first Mills Cup Championship Series appearance 14 years in last year's campaign. The 2016 season will be his fifth as a coach. The 39-year-old Dominican Republic native played in parts of 12 seasons as a big leaguer, including a two-year stint just up I-95 from Fawcett Stadium with the Phillies. His best year came in 2005 when he batted .285 in 139 regular season games, and helped lead the Cardinals to the National League Championship Series.

In the 2005 playoffs he batted .375 in seven games (9-for-24) while knocking a double, scoring four runs and stealing a bag in his only attempt. Over his 12 year career he accrued a batting average of .242 while collecting 125 extra base hits including 88 doubles while driving in 209 men. He had a 70% success rate nabbing bases as a runner and sported a fielding percentage of .972, primarily at third, second, and short. Incidentally, he faced one batter as a pitcher in his major league career; his Pittsburgh Pirates team was on the wrong end of a 12-1 blowout to the Chicago Cubs on May 30th, 2004 when he was asked to face Corey Patterson with two out in the top of the ninth and threw three strikes, getting Patterson to fly out to right. He also started an around-the-horn triple play against the Cincinnati Reds on April 21st, 2007.

His entire coaching career has been spent in the Royals organization. He began coaching as a hitting coach in 2012 in the Dominican Summer League, coaching the Royals affiliate before joining the Burlington Royals in 2013 in the same position. He was bumped up a level for the 2014 season, moving to the Lexington Legends in the South Atlantic League before ending up in Wilmington last season.

JARRETT ABELL

Strength and Conditioning Coach
Resides: Kansas

Career Notes: Abell Worked for Lexington in 2015 and Idaho Falls in 2014. He received his Masters degree in Exercise Science from Wichita State University in 2013, where he worked with four Women's Olympic sports teams, baseball and basketball. After that he worked with TCU football, baseball and basketball as their strength and conditioning coach before joining EXOS as a Performance Specialist. Played college football at Bethel University.

MATT ALVAREZ #30

Position: RHP • Height: 6'2 • Weight: 190 • B/T: R/R
Opening Day Age: 24
Born: January 11, 1991
Resides: Cranbury, N.J.
Obtained: Signed as a Non-Drafted Free Agent by the Royals on August 8, 2013 out of Boston College

Career Notes: 2015: Spent the season with the Blue Rocks, posting a 2-2 record and 3.66 ERA exclusively as a reliever. Did a good job striking out batters, just under one an inning (49 in 51.2 innings). Gave up three runs in just 0.1 inning in his Blue Rocks debut on April 11. Settled down immediately after that, allowing just two runs (one earned) in his next 13 outings, with the most impressive coming on May 10 against Lynchburg. He struck out five of the eight batters he faced in that appearance, allowing just one run. Got his first win with the Blue Rocks by pitching a shutdown 12th inning on May 19 against the Dash and striking out two. First Blue Rocks save was four days later, striking out three in 1.2 innings and ceding just one hit against Carolina. Finished the season though on a little bit of a down slope, giving up runs in 12 of his final 18 appearances. Had a 12.50 ERA against the Pelicans (5 Gs, 7.2 IP, 10 ER), and a 2.25 ERA against everybody else (11 ER in 44 IP). 2014: Was with Lexington for the entire year and picked up his first career win on May 11 against Greensboro when he threw two innings in relief, striking out one and walking one while not ceding any runs. Pitched seven days later and recorded his first career save, pitching the ninth innings over Hagerstown, striking out two in the frame. Struck out a career high eight in his best performance of the season, when he started a game against West Virginia on August 3. He went five innings of shutout baseball in the win giving up just a couple of hits and two walks, but would lose his final two decisions of the year. 2013: Debuted on August 16 against the Billings Mustangs, getting two outs and not allowing a run. Gave up runs in just one of his six appearances, but it was four runs on August 25 when he did not record an out.

Personal: Signed as a Non-Drafted free agent out of Boston College. Recorded 83 strikeouts in 83.1 innings for the Eagles. His grandfather, Marciano, played soccer in the Spanish Premier League, and played for Spain in the Olympics. His Father, Michael, played soccer at Rutgers and sister, Micaela, played at Notre Dame.

Opening Day Age: 23
Born: July 3, 1992 in Wildmar, CA
Resides: Temecula, CA
Obtained: Drafted in the 21st Round of the 2015 June Amateur Draft by the Royals out of Univ. of San Diego

Career Notes: 2015: Made his professional debut with the Burlington Royals on June 23 against the Princeton Rays and took off, grabbing two hits in four at bats and scoring a run. Immediately followed that up with a 3-for-4 outing, driving in three, scoring twice and picking up first extra base hit of pro career (a double). Launched his first home run on July 1st against the Bluefield Blue Jays in a 2-for-3 game. Continued with a hot bat all season, finally getting called up to Lexington on August 7 where he again picked up a hit in his first action, going 1-for-4 with a run scored. First multi hit game with the Legends came on the 12th against the Charleston River Dogs (2-for-5). Blasted his first home run with the Legends in his second professional four hit game against the Hagerstown Suns on August 22. Went 4-for-4 adding two doubles, scoring and driving in three runs (other four hit game was with Burlington--4-for-4 on 7/24, including a double and two runs scored).

Personal: Austin Lisi Bailey, the son of Scott and Beth Bailey of Windmar, CA. Dirt bike racer since the age of three, chose USD over Cal State Fullerton, UC Riverside, Arizona, UCLA, and Long Beach State. Team won the WCC Tournament as a sophomore, batted .388 with seven hits, two doubles, a home run and six RBI. Was selected as a Freshmen All-American by Louisville Slugger and was named to the WCC All-Freshmen team. Finished collegiate career batting .307 with 207 hits, 32 doubles, seven triples, three home runs and 107 RBI. His on base percentage after four years was .392.

Went 3-for-5 a week later on the 15th against the Keys, scoring four runs in the game and ten days later hit a walk-off single in the 10th against the Hillcats. Picked up four hits against the Dash on the first day of September, driving in a pair and picking up two doubles while scoring a run. Finished the season batting .235 and driving in 16 with a home run. 2014: Finished below the Mendoza line for the second straight season (.198) picking up just 17 extra base hits in 450 at bats and never driving in more than three in a game. 2013: Had an awful start to the year, starting the campaign with the Legends where he hit just .188, but after a demotion had his best season with any team, batting .280 in 69 games and collecting 23 extra base hits including five triples and three home runs. Also drove in 58, his most with any club. It was helped by a drastically better approach at the plate, walking 26 times to only 42 strikeouts. 2012: Spent the entire year with Burlington, playing in 58 games, finishing eighth in the league in hits (64) and ninth in runs (40). 2011: Made his pro debut with the Arizona Royals, ranked as the eighth best prospect in the league and best defensive prospect in the Royals organization by Baseball America. Had a five RBI day on 8/28 against the Padres.

Personal: Signed out of high school in Venezuela, and was ranked the Royals best defensive infield prospect by Baseball America in 2011, 2012, and 2013.

Position: LHP • Height: 6'4 • Weight: 200 • B/T: L/L
Opening Day Age: 24
Born: October 23, 1991 in Denver, CO
Resides: Denver, CO
Obtained: Drafted in the 17th Round of the 2014 June Amateur Draft by the Royals out of Bellevue Univ. (NE)

Career Notes: 2015: Started the year with Lexington and despite picking up his first career win in his first outing (three innings giving up just one run on a home run) he struggled in his next two times on the bump before getting demoted. He settled down with the Chukars, giving up just one run in four appearances and getting promoted back to Lexington where he would finish the year with an even 4.00 ERA, striking out 21 batters in 36 innings. In his second stint with the Legends he had eight appearances where he went at least two innings of work including his final outing of the year where he tossed 3.2 scoreless frames. Ceded just a pair of hits and striking out four for his second win of the year with the Legends. 2014: Debuted on June 23 with Burlington and pitched two shutout innings while not giving up a hit or a walk and striking out four. Pitched two innings again on July 10 not allowing any runs or hits, but walking three and striking out just one. Would give up three runs in each of his next two appearances, but would settle down, not allowing an unearned run over his final four, finishing the year with a 11 to 10 strikeout to walk ratio.

Personal: Graduated from Denver's Thomas Jefferson High in 2010 and went on to attend Northeastern Junior College in Sterling, CO. He posted a 14-7 mark over two seasons and was selected by the Phillies in the 25th round of the 2012 June Free Agent Draft. Bypassed that chance and attended Bellevue University (NE) where he went 9-2 with a 3.59 ERA and 101 strikeouts in 77.2 innings pitched, earning second team all-conference for his performance.

Born: November 21, 1994 in San Cristobal, D.R.
Resides: San Cristobal, D.R.
Obtained: Signed as a Non-Drafted Free Agent by the Royals on July 2, 2011

Career Notes: 2015: Started the season with the Legends before getting called up on July 7. Knocked 29 doubles and five home runs in 74 games with the Legends before promotion. Made his debut on the July 7, going hitless in four at bats with a strikeout. Collected his first hit on July 10 against Lynchburg (1-for-4). Had to wait until the 23 for his first multi-hit game, when he went 2-for-4 with an RBI. First home run with Wilmington was against the Dash on July 30 in a 1-for-4 performance (solo home run). Had a season high (with Wilmington) seven game hit streak from August 6-14, whacking ten hits with a double and a couple of runs scored. 2014: Was with Lexington for the entire 2014 campaign, posting his best marks in hits, doubles, home runs and runs scored. Had his first four hit game on July 1 versus Greensboro (4-for-5, R). Also had a career low in errors with four. 2013: Had his best statistical season, stroking to a .301 clip with 26 extra base hit, (15 2B, 8 3B, 4HR) while knocking in 44. Also stole the most bases of any season in his career with nine. Led the league with the eight triples and was second in the Pioneer with 87 hits. Hit first career home run on July 10 against the Helena Brewers. 2012: Debuted on June 18, going 2-for-6 with a double, a run scored and an RBI. Hit safely in his next six games picking up nine more hits. Produced his first 5-RBI game against Billings on August 22, going 2-for-5 with a double and a run scored.

Personal: Signed for a reported $3 Million. Last year was ranked the 22nd best prospect in the Royals Organization by Baseball America and this year is ranked 26th.

Opening Day Age: 21
Born: May 31, 1994
Resides: Galesburg, IL
Obtained: Drafted in the 5th Round of the 2012 June Amateur Draft by the Royals out of Galesburg HS (ILL)

Career Notes: 2015: For the second year in a row, spent the entire season with the Legends. By far his best season at the dish with a .284 batting average, clubbing 20 doubles for a career high along with three home runs. Cut down on the strikeouts to just 81 and was more patient at the plate with 50 walks, a career high although he did miss the entire month of May. Had four games with 3-hits and 16 multi-hit games overall. 2014: Spent the entire season with the Legends, knocking in 39 men, the most in his career. Although he did bat .233 he also belted four home runs, again the most in his career. Had three different games with four RBI (April 14, May 13, and July 8). 2013: Spent the season with Burlington before playing in four games with the Legends after the conclusion of the Burlington season. Did not bat well with Burlington, hitting just .219 in 40 games, driving in 14 on just four extra base hits. In short time with Legends, did much better, going 6-for-14 with half the hits doubles. 2012: Went hitless in his debut, but followed that with a 2-for-4 outing, driving in a pair and scoring three runs on a double and a couple of walks. Drove in four on June 29 against the AZL Reds, winding up 1-for-3 with a double, two more walks and a run scored. Plated three more in the next game. Would have just two more 3-RBI games the rest of the season. first three-hit game came on August 13 and did the same the very next day, adding three RBI with two doubles. Hit his first career home run on July 30 against the AZL Mariners (2-run HR).

Resides: Oxford, AL
Obtained: Drafted in the 6th Round of the 2012 June Amateur Draft by the Royals out of Oxford HS (AL)

Career Notes: 2015: Began the year with the Legends before ending it in Wilmington. Grabbed a save in his first Legend appearance with a shutdown ninth inning, striking out two and giving up a hit. Returned immediately to his more comfortable starter role, going seven innings for the first time in his career on May 17 against Savannah in a win. Was called up to Wilmington for the July 8 game against the Keys, picking up the win and going seven innings yet again, allowing just three runs while striking out five and not walking a single batter. Went 6.2 against the Mudcats on July 19 with no runs allowed, striking out six and walking three batters. Ended the year with a 3.93 ERA, striking out 35 and walking just 19 with the Blue Rocks. 2014: Spent season with the Chukars where he struggled to the tune of a 5.00 ERA, but struck out 56 batters to just 15 in 70.2 innings. Was used primarily as a long reliever, coming in after scheduled short starts. Lost his first decision of the year before picking up wins in his next two outings including the longest outing of his career at that time on June 29, going 6.2 innings out of the bullpen, ceding two runs and striking out five to just two walks. The first save of his career came on July 24 when he posted a new career high in strikeouts with seven. He tossed the final 3.2 innings of the game, giving up two walks and two runs, but finishing off the 9-7 win against Orem. 2013: Moved to Burlington for the 2013 season, not giving up a run in his first eleven innings (two starts), the first of which notched his first career win (5 IP, 4K, 2BB, 3H). Tied his career high of six strikeouts in the second game of a doubleheader on July 26, going six innings for a new career high as well. 2012: Gave up a run in 2.1 innings of work in his professional debut on June 22, striking out four and issuing one walk. Threw a season high five innings on August, giving up just a run while striking out four. Season high six strikeouts on August 18, giving up three runs in 4.1 innings pitched and issuing a lone walk.

Personal: Went 5-2 his senior year of high school posting an ERA of 2.20 with 75 strikeouts over 55.0 innings helping his team with the 2012 Class 6A state championship. Turned down an opportunity to play collegiately at Samford University by signing with the Royals. His father, Mike, played baseball at Southern Union Junior College and Jacksonville State University.

Born: July 26, 1993 in Dunedin, FL
Resides: Frisco, TX
Obtained: Drafted in the 8th Round of the 2014 June Amateur Draft by the Royals out of Sam Houston St. Univ.

Career Notes: 2015: Began the season with the Legends and pounded the ball before finishing with Wilmington. Led the team in home runs at the end of the season with 19 despite only playing in 81 games. His 56 RBI would end up as second on the club and he notched his first multi-HR game as a pro against Kannapolis on May 9 (2-for-5). Had a three-game home run streak May 23-25 and a 15 game hit streak from June 20-July 9. Promoted to Wilmington on July 17 and went 1-for-4 against the Keys while driving in a run. Punched first multi-hit game and extra base hit with the Blue Rocks on July 21 (2-for-3, 2B, RBI, BB). First home run came ten days later against Carolina, going 1-for-3 in that game and the solo shot. Struck out 36 times in his first 104 at bats with Wilmington, but heated up, most notably driving in six runs on August 15 against Potomac (4-for-5, 2HR, 6RBI). Had a season high five game hit streak from August 26 to September 1 that included a pair of home runs. 2014: Destroyed the Pioneer League on his way to being named the Pioneer League MVP, Idaho Falls Player of the Year, as well as receiving All-Star honors. Batted an outrageous .361, and led the league in runs (61), hits (90), OPS (1.034) and slugging (.590). Was third in home runs and batting average and fourth in RBI and walks. Went 5-for-5 in his very first game including his first professional home run, scoring three times, driving in two and even stealing a base.

Personal: Ryan Patrick O'Hearn. Was ranked as the 25th best prospect in the Royals Organization by Baseball America last season and is the 14th ranked prospect prior to the 2016 campaign. Attended Sam Houston State University where he teamed with fellow Royals prospect Corey Toups.

Born: December 2, 1993 in Baton Rouge, LA
Resides: Greenwell Springs, LA
Obtained: Drafted in the 3rd Round of the 2012 June Amateur Draft out of Parkview Baptist HS (LA)

Career Notes: 2015: Spent the entire season with the Legends in his first full season back from injury. Struck out just 57 batters in 95 innings with his longest outing coming on May 11, giving up just one hit in six innings of relief. He had one of his best appearances while picking up his first career save on June 7, going five innings without allowing any runs on just three hits. Was roughed up at the end of the year, allowing multiple runs in seven of his last eight outings. At one point received four straight losses in four straight appearances. 2014: Didn't return from Tommy John rehab until August, making six shortened starts with Burlington never going more than 4.1 innings before moving to the Chukars for his final start of the year. 2013: Missed the second half of the year attempting to rehab an elbow issue while with the Legends, but was shutdown and had Tommy John surgery in October. Before the injury, picked up his first win of the season on April 19 when he notched career highs in innings and strikeouts, pitching seven innings of shutout baseball and striking out six while walking just one. 2012: Pitched two innings in his professional debut with the Burlington Royals on June 20. Struck out two and walked two without allowing a run. Won three starts in a row from July 6 to July 23, going six innings on July 6 with the only batter to reach base coming on an HBP while striking out three.

Personal: Helped his high school team win the 2009 Class 3A championship and was named a 2012 Preseason All-American by Perfect Game and Rawlings. Bypassed a scholarship to Auburn by signing with the Royals.

Obtained: Drafted in the 2nd Round of the 2015 June Amateur Draft by the Royals out of Azusa Pacific Univ. (CA)

Career Notes: 2015: Made his debut on June 27 with the Arizona Royals going two innings of shutout baseball but walking three men and not striking out any batters. Next time out he went three perfect innings striking out three batters. Was moved up to the Chukars on July 16 and was used primarily as a reliever, giving up two runs in just 0.2 innings thanks to a wild outing where he walked five batters. Walks were the main concern on the year as he walked 24 in 31.1 innings. Picked up his first career win on August 6 against the Helena Brewers, not allowing a run in 2.2 innings, ceding just one hit while punching out six and walking a pair. Notched a career high seven strikeouts in his only start with the Chukars, going the first three innings (tying a season high), and walking another two batters while giving up just one hit. Collected his only save on the year on August 22 by tossing the final three innings, giving up two runs, but striking out five to just one walk. Finished the year on a high note with back-to-back wins without allowing a hit, striking out four and walking two in each outing, going three innings in one and 2.2 in the final outing.

Personal: Joshua Tyler Staumont was drafted in the 2nd Round of the 2015 Draft, 64th overall. Is ranked as the 15th best prospect in the Royals Organization by Baseball America as has the best fastball in the organization according to the same publication.

Position: LHP • Height: 6'3 • Weight: 219 • B/T: L/L
Opening Day Age: 20
Born: December 16, 1993
Resides: Cary, N.C.
Obtained: Drafted in the 25th Round of the 2012 June Amateur Draft by the Royals out of Apex HS (N.C.)

Career Notes: 2015: Began the year with Lexington and grabbed a win in his first start, firing five shutout frames on April 10, ceding just three hits and striking out five without a walk. However, missed more than a month from May 3 to June 21 and rehabbed first in Arizona and then in Burlington where struck out 21 in 24.1 innings. Came back to the Legends and finished his year with a 4.25 ERA, winning his final decision of the year when he took the mound on August 25 and shut down Rome Braves through six innings, whiffing four batters and walking one on six hits. 2014: Was with the Legends for the entire year, struggling while putting up a 5.43 ERA and a 6-10 record. Did go seven shutout innings on April 22 against Hickory, striking out two and walking just a lone batter. Lost six straight decisions from April 29 to June 22 (ten starts). Picked up his final win of the season on August 23 against Augusta, keeping the Green Jackets off the board through six innings, giving up just two hits and three runners total (a HBP) as he struck out four and did not walk a single batter. 2013: Split time between Burlington and Idaho Falls, exclusively as a starter, pitching very well in Burlington while holding down a 2.81 ERA. Struck out 39 in 51.1 innings and walked just 14. Allowed one earned run or less in eight of ten starts, tying a career high in strikeouts on a couple of different instances including on July 25 when he went seven innings allowing two unearned runs and walking just a single batter. Got a No-Decision, a win and a loss (in that order) in his three starts with the Legends. 2012: Made his professional debut on June 24, throwing three shutout innings and giving up just one hit while striking out a pair with no walks. Followed that up with his first win with three more innings of shutout baseball on June 29 and backed that up with his first save on July 5, tossing two shutout innings to close out the AZL Royals game against the AZL Reds. Picked up his final win of the season on August 22 when he went a career high five innings in relief, allowing two runs and striking out three in the outing. Last appearance of the season resulted in a loss, but fanned a career high four batters in the August 27 outing.

Personal: Matthew Nathan Tenuta committed to play at North Carolina State before signing with the Royals. His brother, Zach, played football at Marshall and Akron. His father, Jon, played football at Virginia, where he was the Associate Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator until the end of the 2015 season. His mother, Lori, played basketball at Virginia.

Career Notes: 2015: Was a Chukar for the entire season. Struck out a career high four and matched a career high in innings with three in his first appearance of the season, but he did give up a couple of runs while walking a pair. Won four straight decisions from July 16 to August 16. Best outing of the year came on August 24 when he yet again went three innings and struck out four, this time not giving up any hits while walking two and hitting a batter. Again showed off the strikeout prowess, punching out 25 in 24.1 innings, but again had issues with walks, issuing 20 free passes. 2014: Appeared in ten games, all with the Burlington Royals, showing off his strikeout numbers like he did in college, punching out 16 in 12.1 innings although he also walked 16. Made his debut on June 24 with 1.1 innings of shutout baseball. Collected his first career win in his next appearance on June 29, going 1.2 innings and fanning three (a mark he would match two more times that season). Threw three innings on July 11 for a season high, not allowing any runs and just one hit although he did walk three against two strikeouts.

Personal: Ian M. Tompkins is the son of Michael and Mary Anne Tompkins. Pitched three seasons for the Hilltoppers, assuming the closing role in his sophomore season. Struck out 46 in 26 innings his Junior season with 14 saves after striking out 59 in 35.1 innings his sophomore year.

Career Notes: 2015: Moved up to play with the Legends where he remained for the entire season. Got a hit in his first game and walked three times on April 17 while scoring a pair of runs. Followed that game up with his first career 4-RBI game, hitting a grand slam against the Power in the 9th inning of an 8-6 loss, his third home run of the month. Had ten hits during a six game hitting streak from May 14-22. A 13-game hit streak bumped up his average, with five of those games producing three hits and one producing four. Finished the season with 33 multi-hit games although wound up on the 7-Day DL at the end of the year. 2014: Spent the entire season with the Chukars, picking up a double as his first hit in his first game, going 1-for-2 with a pair of walks and a run scored. Walked four times in six plate appearances on June 20 (1-for-2, R) and ten days later hit his first home run in his first multi-hit game (2-for-3, HR, 2 RBI, R). Produced his first three-hit game on July 9 (3-for-4), driving in and scoring a run while adding a double. All three hits in five at bats on July 13 were doubles, driving in two in the game and scoring a run. Roped off a 14-game hit streak from July 18 to August 4 and followed that with a 10-game hit streak from August 10 to August 21. Made Pioneer pitchers work, walking 43 times and striking out just 38 on his way to an All-Star honor. Led the league with a .453 on-base percentage while ranking second in walks, tied for second in doubles, third in OPS (.960), tied for third in runs, sixth in batting average (.335) and ninth in slugging (.507).

Personal: Was an All-District Cornerback for College Park HS. Was a teammate of Ryan O'Hearn's at Sam Houston St. University.

Career Notes: 2015: Started and ended the year with the Lexington Legends although he did play in six games with the Blue rocks (and one with the Burlington Royals). After driving in just one run in the previous two seasons, drove in a run in the first game he played in on the year, going 2-for-3 with a double, two runs scored and an RBI. Added five more multi-hit games with the Legends in the early portion of the year before getting the call up to Wilmington on July 10. Went hitless in his first game, but picked up his first Blue Rocks RBI by walking with the bases loaded. Grabbed first hit with the Blue Rocks on July 12 against Lynchburg, going 1-for-4. Final game with the Blue Rocks was his best game, hitting 3-for-4 with a double and an RBI against Carolina. Played one game with the Burlington Royals where he went 2-for-3 before finishing up the year with the Legends and homering in back-to-back games (August 28 and August 31). 2014: Moved up to the Lexington Legends for the year, but missed almost two months of the season from beginning of June to end of July. When he did play he batted well, ending the year at .276, but in just eight games played. 2013: Was with the Burlington Royals for the entirety of the season, but was used as a backup catcher, appearing in just 19 games. Average dropped again, this time to .222 for the year, compiling just two extra base hits in 54 at bats and not driving in anybody on the year. Best game of the year was his last one when he went 2-for-4 with a double and two runs scored. 2012: Moved to the Arizona Royals for the year, playing the majority of his games behind the plate. Average dropped down to .232 for the year, piling up just six extra base hits (four doubles, a triple and a home run). Went 3-for-3 on July 9 against the Padres for his best game of the season where he blasted his only home run of the year, driving in two and scoring twice while also walking. Had four multi-hit games in the final month of the season (15 games), walking ten times and striking out just nine. 2011: Picked up hits in his first three games, again spending the year with the DSL Royals. Had a much better season, playing in 53 games and getting named to the Dominican League All-Star team while mostly playing first base. Picked up his first career three hit game by going 3-for-5 on June 14, hitting his only home run of the season and driving in two. Produced his first career three-RBI game and did so in back-to-back games on June 23 and 24 (both 2-for-4). Cooled off though at the end of the summer, getting hits in just three of his final 15 games, but he did have his best season in terms of on base percentage (.397) thanks to a career high 38 walks against just 22 punchouts. 2010: Made his professional debut on May 29 against the DSL Mets 2. Went 0-for-1 in that game before picking up his first career hit on June 1, going 1-for-3 and getting hit by a pitch. Played primarily as a catcher and despite batting just .218, did a good job of getting on base, getting hit six times that summer and walking 18 times to just 22 strikeouts. Tallied first RBI, extra base hit and multi-hit game on the same day (June 27), when he knocked a triple as one of his two hits on the day (2-for-4) while also driving in a pair of runs. Belted his first home run (and only of the season) on August 14, scoring a pair of runs and scoring a pair while going 1-for-2 on the day with a walk.

Personal: Was named a 2011 Dominican League All-Star

2015 SUMMARY: The 2015 season for the Wilmington Blue Rocks was a rollercoaster ride that started high, and dipped extremely low before a final upswing almost brought home a championship. The Blue crew captured the Northern Division crown in the first half of the season with a 38-32 record to secure a playoff spot, but lost a record 45 games in the second half including a franchise record 14 in-a-row. However, eight of the top 30 prospects in the Royals' organization (according to Baseball America) joined the Blue Rocks at one point or another during the 2015 campaign, and with the bevy of talent on board, the Blue Rocks did something they hadn't done since 2004; make the Mills Cup Championship Series.

It was there that the team they played to start the season, the Myrtle Beach Pelicans, ended the Blue Rocks' whiplash of a season via a three game sweep, including a 3-2 walk-off win in Game Three.

We now look back at the 2015 campaign one month at a time, giving fans a chance to remember their favorite players and re-live the year's best moments.

APRIL: The season began way back in April, and after opening night jitters saw the Blue Rocks drop their first game of the season 8-1 to the Pelicans, they bounced back in the second game with help from the long ball. Zane Evans stroked the first home run of the year for the Blue Rocks in the top of the second inning and they never looked back. The Kansas City Royals third ranked prospect according to Baseball America, Bubba Starling, walloped a three run home run in the fourth and the route was on, as the Blue Rocks eventually pulled away with an 8-3 victory for their first of the season. The first road trip of the season ended at 3-3, highlighted by Jakob Junis' six innings of shutout baseball to pull the Blue Rocks back to .500 in their final game of the six-game road trip. When the Blue Rocks finally made their first appearance of the season at Frawley Stadium they found Bubba to be beautiful; the centerfielder Bubba Starling roped a double in the bottom of the ninth to give the Blue Rocks a 3-2 walk-off win, pushing them above .500 for the first time all year. While a loss followed the frenzy finish to the first home game of the season, the Blue Rocks responded with back-to-back victories over the Frederick Keys for their first series win of the year. Starling kept up the hot pace, picking up a pair of hits including a solo home run as the pitching continued to hold the Keys at bay. The Potomac Nationals next visited Frawley Stadium and shut down the Blue Rocks over the first two games but a five fun fifth in the third game of the series ended a scoreless streak of 14.2 innings, ending the home stand at a 4-3 mark and 7-6 overall. Things took a down swing though for the Blue Rocks as they headed to the P-Nats home, Pfitzner Stadium. They dropped the first three, two in walk-off fashion (the third and fourth such losses of the early season), before Zane Evans blasted the Blue Rocks to victory in the final game of the series, going yard twice and driving in five runs. A return to home and a series win against the pesky Pelicans sealed a 10-10 record for April.

MAY: The Blue Rocks stormed out of the gates in May, taking three of four from the Winston-Salem Dash, including a series finale 4-3 victory in which both Zane Evans and Daniel Rockett went deep to close off an impressive 5-2 home stand. After a washout of a road trip, the Blue Rocks returned home to Frawley Stadium for seven games, including a Mother's Day affair. The Rocks arms made their mamas proud, striking out 15 Hillcats, but the two teams split the four game set, setting up a series versus the P-Nats. After a loss in the first game, Ramon Torres' second walk-off hit of the season led the way to Cody Reed's six innings of shutout baseball in the home stand finale, which the Blue Rocks won 1-0, pushing their record to 18-15 and 13-8 at home. The Blue Rocks headed next to Lynchburg where they lost two of three. It could have been worse however, but thanks to Dex Kjerstad's three-run pinch-hit top of the ninth inning home run, the Blue Rocks salvaged the middle game of the series 4-2 in dramatic fashion. Back at home in the next game, Jakob Junis tossed nine innings of one run baseball, but had to settle for the No Decision as the Blue Rocks finally prevailed 2-1 in 12 innings over the Dash with Ramon Torres yet again providing the theatrics with a walk-off single. The Blue crew could not complete the sweep at home despite Alex Mills' ten strikeouts in the finale, dropping that game 2-0 and landing at 21-18 on the year. Six wins in-a-row had the Blue Rocks riding high, but a five game losing streak brought them back down to earth at the end of May, finishing at 27-23 while being shutout a league high seven times, and scoring three runs or fewer in 15 of their last 20 games.

JUNE: Alec Mills brought the skid to a screeching halt, going eight strong in the first game of the month, buoyed by Cody Stubbs three hits including a home run in the Blue Rocks 4-1 win. A 6-5 win over the Mudcats completed the road trip in style for the Blue crew, setting up a pivotal series with the Frederick Keys for first place in the North. Rain greeted the Keys and Blue Rocks in Wilmington in the first game of the series and despite a five-run deficit, the Blue crew pulled out a 7-5 win in a rain-shortened contest before taking the next three to sweep the Keys out of Frawley Stadium, putting them ten games above .500 at 33-23. The Blue Rocks would lose six of their next seven and four in-a-row, but there was good news during that span as four Blue Rocks were named to the Carolina League All-Star Game: Pitchers Alec Mills, Cody Reed and Erik Skoglund, as well as infielder Ramon Torres. Skoglund rewarded the voters by snapping the four-game losing streak back at home with seven strong innings. The Blue Rocks wrapped up the North Division crown and secured a playoff spot with scattered wins and losses from the Keys and Hillcats. The first half of the season concluded with the Blue Rocks triumphant in a 6-0 shutout, moving their record to 38-32 at the end of the first half. The second half started well with a doubleheader sweep of the Potomac Nationals at Frawley Stadium before Alec Mills put the cherry on top of June. Mills dominated out on the mound in the final game, tossing seven shutout innings (and pushing his shutout streak to 23.1 IP in the process), as the Blue Rocks eked out a 1-0 victory with help from a Mauricio Ramos home run. Mills was named the Carolina Pitcher of the month for June, a month in which he went 3-0 in five starts while posting a miniscule 0.99 ERA and striking out 28 in 36.1 innings pitched.

JULY: Initially the heat of July did nothing to stop the suddenly hot Blue Rocks who started the month at 42-33. After watching the first game of the month slip through their hands, the pitching staff fanned 17 in the next game with nine from Luis Rico and another eight from Matthew Strahm en route to a 3-2 win over the Hillcats. The Blue crew did not stop there, scoring eight in the eighth of the next game after finding themselves down 6-1 entering the frame for a 9-6 victory and moving back to ten games above .500 at 44-34. But then the second half spiral began. The Blue Rocks ended up on the wrong side of the ledger in their longest game of the season, a 14 inning affair and then a few games later won a wild 15-10 battle before losing an eleven inning contest 5-2. Back-to-back series losses against the Hillcats and Dash continued the slide before the Blue Rocks headed home for quite possibly their most dramatic victory of the season; they scored five runs in the bottom of the ninth inning to knot the game 6-6 on a Robert Pehl bases clearing double with two outs. After a scoreless top of the tenth Humberto Arteaga ended things with a single to plate Logan Moon for the 7-6 thrilling come-from-behind win. That was the last smile on the faces of the Blue Rocks as the month ended with six straight defeats.

AUGUST: The losing streak continued for a franchise record 14 games as the Blue Rocks dropped their first eight of the month. The streak was finally snapped during a 12 inning affair at home when Jack Lopez's single propelled the Blue Rocks to a 2-1 victory over the Mudcats, their sixth walk-off win of the season. However, a couple of shutouts and a walk-off loss saw three more in the loss column for the Blue Rocks. With the frustration piling up, they put all that anger into their game on the 15th against the P-Nats, scoring 13 runs, six off of the bat of Ryan O'Hearn who homered twice in the 13-10 victory. They wrapped up the series win the next night as O'Hearn drove in four more for ten in two days. The Blue crew returned home where they dropped the next two, but were able to salvage a 7-6 win, which saw home runs from both Cam Gallagher and O'Hearn. Mauricio Ramos clubbed his eighth home run of the season in the next game, a 7-5 triumph for the Blue Rocks, before Salem battled back to take the next two games. It was back down to Carolina where they were shutout for the 17th time on the season. They would follow up with another L, but embarked on a three game winning streak, highlighted by Dominique Taylor's ninth inning two-run triple for the second straight win and a 7-5 victory. Unfortunately the Blue Rocks could not keep the momentum in what turned out to be their final game of the month, losing 1-0 in twelve innings for their tenth walk-off loss of the year.

SEPTEMBER/PLAYOFFS: After a slow start to September, Jack Lopez's late inning three-run double helped the Rocks edge the Pelicans in the regular season finale. Finally it was playoff time. Alec Mills took the mound in Game One of the Northern Division series against the Lynchburg Hillcats, fanning five of the first nine batters he faced, eventually tossing six innings of shutout ball. The offense received five separate two-out hits, winning the first game of the series 6-1. In Game Two, Jack Lopez sent the Blue Rocks to the Mills Cup for the first time since 2004 with a two-run home run in the top of the eighth inning of a 2-2 ballgame, rocketing the Blue crew to a 4-3 victory and a sweep of the Hillcats. However, the Blue Rocks were in turn swept by the Pelicans in the Mills Cup Championship series, dropping the first game 3-2 in ten innings, getting shutout in the next game 2-0 before watching their season end in the bottom of the ninth of Game Three thanks to a Pin-Chieh Chen two-out bases loaded single, giving the Pelicans the 3-2 win and the Mills Cup Championship.

2015 CAROLINA LEAGUE OPPONENT CAPSULES

Winston-Salem Dash (Chicago White Sox)

It was a tale of two halves and two extremes for the Dash last season. Since changing their name in the 2009 season to the Dash, they had never posted a half in which they lost 40 games, which is exactly what they did in the first half, going 30-40. They had also never won 45 games, which is a feat they accomplished in the second of the season, going 45-23.

After securing a playoff spot by winning the second half of the Southern Division, the Dash found themselves up against the Myrtle Beach Pelicans. The team with the second best ERA in the league (3.13) jumped out to a 1-0 series lead behind a three-run first inning and some strong pitching, but the worst hitting team in the league (.244) failed in back-to-back come-back attempts on the road, losing both games by 4-3 tallies to end their season.

Trey Michalczewski (eighth ranked prospect last year and sixth ranked prospect this year in the Chicago White Sox's organization leading the way) led the way offensively for the Dash, coming in second in the Carolina League in both RBI (75) and doubles (35) while tallying 187 total bases. His RBI totals were helped out by the presence of Adam Engel (23rd/tenth) who scored 90 runs on the season to lead the league and collected 133 hits, good enough for second. The centerfielder flew by the league on the base paths, nabbing 65 stolen bases, 31 more than nearest competitor while edging his teammate Michalczewski with eight more total bases. One of the most relied upon and consistent arms in the league last year was Matt Heidenreich who led the league in wins for the Dash (12) while compiling second best ERA (2.76). Brad Goldberg helped out in the back end and closed out eleven games (fifth in the league) for the boys from BB&T Ballpark.

The highlight of the season for the Dash though came early, all the way back on April 15th when James Dykstra tossed the franchise's 15th No-Hitter and first since June 2009. The righty needed just 71 pitches in the first game of a double header to retire all 21 batters he faced. Only one man reached base, a leadoff walk in the fourth, but Dykstra immediately picked off the runner, meaning he never had to throw a single pitch out of the stretch. Dykstra's performance garnered the MiLB's Performance of the year award as voted upon by fans.

Lynchburg Hillcats (Cleveland Indians)

While the Blue Rocks were the only Northern Division team to finish above .500 in the first half of the 2015 season, the Lynchburg Hillcats were the only team to finish above .500 in the second half of the season, earning them the Northern Division second half crown. That meant a date in the Northern Division Championship Series between the Blue Rocks and the Hillcats. It was all Blue Rocks in the two game series as the Blue Rocks swept the Hillcats by scores of 6-1 and 4-3 to end the Hillcats season.

The Hillcats mashed as a ballclub, leading in every single offensive category with the exception of walks and stolen bases. Their 98 home runs were 26 more than Carolina who was second, and they had more than 250 total bases than the next closest club. The reason for the offensive explosion down in Lynchburg was quite obvious; the Hillcats had three of their top five prospects from last year bashing balls at Calvin Falwell Field for the majority of the year (Bradley Zimmer, Clint Frazier and Mike Papi).

However, Nellie Rodriguez, the number 19 prospect (and 18th this year) who belted the most home runs in the Carolina League last season (17) and pushed across the most runs (84). Clint Frazier was right behind him though with 16 of his own dingers and 72 RBI, which was good enough for third. Frazier did lead the league in hits with 143 in his High A campaign and smoked the competition in the total bases department, finishing with 233, 37 more than teammate Nellie Rodriguez who was second. While hitting was not a problem for the promising young squad, pitching was. The team finished the year with a 3.77 ERA, second to last in the league.

Frederick Keys (Baltimore Orioles)

The Frederick Keys were by far the most consistent team in the Carolina League last year, but this was not a good thing for the club as they posted identical 32-38 records in both the first and second half of the season, finishing out of the playoff race, meaning no postseason play at Nymeo Field at HGS.

The lost season was primarily due to the fact their arms could not get anybody out. The Keys were dead last in the league in team ERA, finishing with a monstrous 4.27, more than a half run higher than Lynchburg's team ERA of 3.77, which was seventh. The main abuser was Mitch Horacek who led the league in losses with 17, four clear of Trey Ball's (SAL) 13 defeats. Horacek though was repeatedly sent out to the mound to work on his stuff and he did just that, coming in second in the league in innings pitched (154.1, 1.1 IP behind the Blue Rocks' Jakob Junis) while pulverizing the league in the strikeout department with a whopping 146, 23 more than Junis. Ironically though, the Keys did end up with three different pitchers tossing shutouts: Horacek, David Hess as well as Mikey O'Brien. The anchor in the bullpen, Cody Wheeler, finished the year tops in saves with 17 while maintaining an ERA of 2.79. Josh Hart and Adrian Marin both finished in the top five in steals with 30 and 25 respectively.

Carolina Mudcats (Atlanta Braves)

The Carolina Mudcats tried to claw and scratch their way to a .500 first half record, but fell one game short, ending the opening stanza at 34-35. The second half fared a little better as they ended up four games above the break even mark at 37-33, but due to the Myrtle Beach Pelicans grabbing the first half crown and the tremendous second half of the Keys, the Mudcats were left at home come playoff time.

Connor Lien and Jacob Schrader tried to do their part to keep the Mudcats competitive as Lien finished the season fifth in the league with a .285 batting average and Schrader posted 15 home runs, good enough for third. Lien was one of the more consistent in the league as a whole, racking up 129 hits (3rd) and scoring 72 times (5th). Lien also made pitchers pay when he reached base, swiping 34 bags, only trailing Engel's lofty 65. The team's bats did not help the cause, hitting .244 on the year (7th), but the arms were decent to the tune of a 3.38 ERA, which was fourth in the league. Both Seth Webster and Blair Walters helped the cause at Five County Stadium by twirling ERAs of 2.82 and 3.13 to both finish in the top five.

Myrtle Beach Pelicans (Chicago Cubs)

The Myrtle Beach Pelicans were by far the best team in the Carolina league last season, grabbing the Southern Division crown in the first half of the season with a 41-28 record and then following a 40-29 mark in the second half with a 2-1 series victory in the Southern Division Series before sweeping the Blue Crew in three straight games and bringing back the Mills Cup Championship to TicketReturn.com Field.

While the Pelicans were just third in the league as a team in batting average at .253, it was their pitching that propelled them to the championship. The Pelican arms posted a 3.01 ERA, a full tenth of a run better than the next team up, the Dash. Leading the way on the mound for the Pelicans was Jonathan Martinez who was tops in the league with a 2.56 ERA. The team was consistent throughout as Jasvir Rakkar closed things down late in games, picking up 16 saves for second in the league. The Pelicans were also fortunate enough to be the only team in the league with a pitcher, Daury Torrez, who picked up more than one complete game (2).

The club also had the only player in the league to hit above .300 as Chesney Young belted baseballs to the tune of a .321 average. Jacob Rogers also clocked 12 home runs (T-4th) and drove in 69 (4th) while Mark Zagunis (15th prospect last year, 11 this year) scored the third most runs, crossing the plate 78 times, in large part thanks to drawing the second most walks in the league with 80, placing him second as well in On Base Percentage at .406.

Salem Red Sox (Boston Red Sox)

After reaching the playoffs in the 2014 season thanks to a wild-card berth and getting bounced by the Pelicans, the Salem Red Sox were looking to grab their second Mills Cup Championship in three years and posted a strong first half, going 38-32. However, the Pelicans 40-29 mark kept them from sealing a playoff spot and the Red Sox second half record of 30-40 meant they would stay home from the playoffs.

Team wise it was a decent season for the Red Sox who hit .258 (2nd) and had a slightly high team ERA of 3.69 (6th). They got good work out of Kevin Heller at the plate, who reached base with more frequency than any other player in the league, getting on base at a .409 clip while stroking well enough to reach a batting average of .297 (2nd) and slugging at a .435 pace, good enough for fifth.

Kevin McAvoy (21st ranked prospect this year) picked up eleven wins to tie him for second in the league while Teddy Stankiewicz (20/20) was one of just six pitchers in the league to toss a complete game shutout. Both McAvoy and Stankiewicz were workhorses for the Red Sox with Stankiewicz's 141.1 innings pitched a mere one out more than McAvoy's as the two finished fourth and fifth in the innings pitched category.

Potomac Nationals (Washington Nationals)

Nine of the top 30 prospects in the Nationals organization found themselves wearing P-Nats jerseys last season, but upheaval in the organization and poor play/injuries saw three of the players (Jake Johansen, Hector Silvestre, and Spencer Kieboom) drop out of the top 30 and one (Nick Pivetta) get traded out (Phillies). Not surprisingly, it was not a fun season record wise for the boys from Pfitzner Stadium as the Potomac Nationals dropped 37 games in both the first and second half of the season. They pulled away with 33 victories in the first half and 32 in the second half while missing the playoffs. The team was just about average all year, finishing fourth in batting average at .252 and third in pitching at 3.31.

In his short time with the P-Nats, #1 prospect Lucas Giolito was everything scouts said he would be; despite compiling a 3-5 record, Giolito posted a 2.71 ERA while striking out 86 in 68.2 IP. Reynaldo Lopez (5/3) accrued the same WHIP as Giolito (1.22) and had impressive strikeout numbers as well, punching out a team leading 94 in a team high 99 innings or work.

Spencer Kieboom (Dropped Out/23) had injuries derail his season but fellow catcher Raudy Reed (23/22) turned heads in his short time with the team, hitting .389 in 15 games. Drew Ward (16/8) pushed across 47 men, most on the team, while finishing fourth in doubles at 19 and third on the team in home runs with 6 as nobody reached double digits.

SIGNIFICANT DATES IN MODERN BLUE ROCKS HISTORY

April 8 -- The first game in modern Blue Rocks history is played at Winston-Salem's Ernie Shore Field. The Spirits defeat Wilmington, 6-3, in front of 5,731. Kevin Jarvis earns the win and John Gross suffers the loss.

April 10 -- The Blue Rocks post their first win in team history. Jon Lieber picks up the victory in a 9-2 win over Winston-Salem on Ernie Shore Field. Later that night, Darren Burton hits the first home run in team history in the second game of a doubleheader.

April 17 -- The Blue Rocks open Frawley Stadium (Legends Stadium at the time) with a dramatic 6-5 victory over Winston-Salem. Wilmington scores four times in the bottom of the ninth inning to win. The rally is capped with a two-run single by Raul Gonzalez.

June 12 -- The Blue Rocks clinch the first-half Northern Division title with a wild 12-7 win over Lynchburg.

September 6 -- The Blue Rocks complete a two-game sweep of the Frederick Keys to win the Northern Division Championship Series and advance to the Mills Cup Championship Series. Brian Harrison tosses the second of back-to-back shutouts to lead the Rocks to a 3-0 victory.

September 8 -- The Blue Rocks open the Carolina League Championship Series with a 6-5, 14-inning win over Winston-Salem. The Spirits then win three in a row to take the 1993 Carolina League title.

June 11 -- Andy Stewart's two-out single drives home the winning run in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Blue Rocks a 4-3 win, clinching the first-half Northern Division title.

July 20 -- Blue Rocks catcher Lance Jennings hits a two-out, solo home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to give the Northern Division a 2-1 win in the Carolina League All-Star Game. A crowd of 6,893 is on hand at Frawley Stadium.

September 2 -- In Frederick, the Blue Rocks defeat the Keys, 8-2, to clinch the second-half Northern Division title. Catcher Sal Fasano's first-inning grand slam gives the Blue Rocks an early lead that they would never relinquish.

September 10 -- At Frawley, Wilmington defeats Winston-Salem, 7-3, in Game Three to capture its first Carolina League championship. Lance Jennings hits two home runs and drives in four runs to capture MVP honors.

1995

April 15 -- At Frawley Stadium, Jose Rosado and Pat Flury combine to toss the first no-hitter in club history in a 3-0 win over Winston-Salem.

May 3 -- Anthony Medrano, Mendy Lopez, and Carlos Mendez turn the first triple play in franchise history versus Kinston.

August 22 -- Tim Byrdak and Eric Anderson team up to blank Salem and Mike Sweeney belts two home runs in a 5-0 victory that clinches the second-half Northern Division title.

September 4 -- The Blue Rocks win at Prince William, 9-5, to wrap up the Northern Division Championship Series and set up a Mills Cup Championship Series showdown with Kinston. However, the Rocks lose the series to Kinston in three.

1996

June 15 -- Utility man Jimmie Byington becomes the first player in Blue Rocks history to play every position on the field during a game.

July 24 -- Relief pitcher Steve Prihoda strikes out eight consecutive Lynchburg Hillcats hitters for a new club record.

August 15 -- Steve Prihoda establishes a Blue Rocks single-season record, earning his 25th save of the season in a 2-1 win over the Frederick Keys at Harry Grove Stadium.

September 10 -- Hurricane Fran forces Game Three of the Mills Cup Championship Series into Frawley Stadium. Kinston, surrendering its home games, wins on a David Miller home run in the bottom of the ninth. The following day, Wilmington wins the Mills Cup on Matt Smith's two-run homer in the top of the 11th inning.

1997

April 10 -- Salem pitchers Scott Randall and Lariel Gonzalez combine on a seven-inning no-hitter as the Avalanche defeat Wilmington, 1-0. It is the first time the Blue Rocks have been held hitless in a game.

April 17-20 -- Blue Rocks pitchers combine to set a new team record by throwing 33 consecutive innings without allowing a run.

July 29 -- Matt Treanor becomes the first Blue Rock to be traded during the season. The catcher is shipped to the Florida Marlins in exchange for pitcher Matt Whisenant.

August 2 -- Mike Evans smacks his 32nd home run as a Blue Rock to become the all-time home run leader in team history, surpassing Raul Gonzalez.

August 9 -- Carlos Febles swipes his 45th stolen base to set a new Blue Rocks single-season record.

August 15 -- A 4-3 loss to Winston-Salem in 11 innings eliminates Wilmington from postseason contention. It marks the first time the Blue Rocks missed the playoffs in their first five seasons.

June 19 -- The Blue Rocks pound Frederick, 12-1, and clinch the first-half Northern Division title.

June 23 -- Frawley Stadium hosts the 1998 Carolina League All-Star Game. The Northern Division defeats the Southern Division, 5-2. Blue Rocks second baseman Emiliano Escandon is named the game's MVP after his eighth-inning, bases-loaded double drives in three runs to break a 2-2 tie. Before the game, Robin Roberts (an original Blue Rock in 1948) becomes the first inductee into the Blue Rocks Hall of Fame, and his No. 36 is retired.

July 5 -- It takes a Carolina League record 21 innings over six hours and 23 minutes, but the Blue Rocks defeat the Danville 97s, 3-2, at Frawley Stadium. The game is marked by five ejections, including Blue Rocks manager Darrell Evans and pitching coach Steve Crawford.

July 17 -- Manager Darrell Evans is fired by the Kansas City Royals. Hitting coach Kevin Long fills in on an interim basis. Brian Poldberg replaces Kevin Long six days later.

September 4 -- The Blue Rocks clinch the second-half Northern Division title with a 4-3 victory over Prince William.

September 10 -- The Blue Rocks capture their third Carolina League Championship Series crown with a 3-2 victory over the Winston-Salem Warhogs in Game Four. Paul Phillips, who was called up from Short-Season Spokane during the final week of the regular season, is named series MVP.

1999

April 18 -- Wilmington sets new team records for runs and hits with a 20-3 blowout in Myrtle Beach. Dee Brown leads the 23-hit assault by becoming the first Blue Rock to hit for the cycle.

June 11 -- The Blue Rocks lose at home to Myrtle Beach, but clinch the first-half Northern Division title. The loss is the beginning of a record eight-game home losing streak.

June 23 -- Vic Radcliff breaks a 6-6 tie in the 10th inning with an RBI double to lead the Carolina League All-Stars over the California League All-Stars, 7-6. Radcliff goes 2-for-2 and is named the game's MVP. Steve Medrano adds a three-run homer, also in the 10th.

August 31 -- Wilmington clinches the second-half Northern Division title with a 4-1 win over Salem.

September 13 -- Joe Caruso's dramatic three-run homer in the seventh inning helps lead Wilmington to a 7-3 victory over Myrtle Beach in Game Four of the Carolina League Championship Series. Game Five is canceled because of Hurricane Floyd and the two teams are named co-champions.

2000

May 2 -- At Frawley Stadium, Brian Sanches tosses the Blue Rocks first nine-inning, no-hitter in team history, blanking the Lynchburg Hillcats, 5-0. Sanches walks two and records 11 strikeouts in the contest.

June 4 -- In Salem, the Blue Rocks tie a franchise record by losing their 10th straight game in dropping a 9-6 decision to the Avalanche. The Rocks defeat the Lynchburg Hillcats the next day to end the losing streak at 10 games.

June 18 -- In Potomac, the Blue Rocks end the first half of the season with the worst first-half record (29-41) in team history. The Rocks lose both ends of a twinbill to the Cannons, 4-3 in the first game and 4-1 in the nightcap.

August 5 -- Jeremy Affeldt suffers his franchise record 12th loss of the season as the Blue Rocks drop game one of a doubleheader in Myrtle Beach. Affeldt ends the season with a 5-15 record for Wilmington.

August 10 -- In Kinston, Brandon Berger smacks his 12th home run of the season and his 36th in a Blue Rocks uniform, breaking Michael Evans' all-time home run record. Berger finishes the season with 15 home runs and 39 round-trippers in his three seasons with Wilmington.

April 1 -- The Blue Rocks welcome the parent Kansas City Royals to the newly expanded Frawley Stadium for an exhibition game. The game ends in a 3-3 tie. The sellout crowd of 7,269 sees former Blue Rocks Mike Sweeney, Dee Brown, Carlos Beltran, Carlos Febles, Joe Caruso and Dave Ullery play for the Royals.

June 17 -- The Blue Rocks defeat the Salem Avalanche, 2-1, in game one of a doubleheader and capture the first-half Northern Division title. This secures the club's seventh postseason bid in nine seasons in the Carolina League.

June 20 -- Blue Rocks hurler Cary Ammons is traded by the Kansas City Royals to the Cincinnati Reds in exchange for infielder Donnie Sadler. Ammons went 2-6 with a 3.88 ERA in 12 starts for Wilmington before the trade.

August 6 -- Jeff Garber wins his 200th game as the manager of the Blue Rocks with Wilmington's 9-3 victory over the Salem Avalanche at Frawley Stadium.

September 1 -- Corey Hart goes 1-for-5 in the Blue Rocks win over Potomac and establishes a new club record with a 19-game hitting streak. Alexis Gomez hit safely in 18 straight games from April 19-May 19 to break the old mark of 17 straight games with a hit by Andy Stewart (1994) and Mark Quinn (1997).

September 5 -- Jimmy Gobble fans a career-high 15 batters and the Blue Rocks defeat Frederick, 13-0, at Frawley. The Rocks sweep the Division Series, 2-0, to advance to the Mills Cup Championship Series for the seventh time in nine years.

September 10 -- The Blue Rocks fall to Salem, 6-4, in Game Five of the Championship Series. Jimmy Gobble suffers the loss for Wilmington. John Lindsey hits two home runs and is named MVP of the Championship Series.

April 16 -- Manager Jeff Garber earns his 226th win as Blue Rocks skipper and surpasses John Mizerock's 225 wins over a three-year period to take over first place in the Blue Rocks all-time wins column. Wilmington defeats Kinston, 5-2, with Wes Obermueller earning the victory out of the bullpen.

June 16 -- On the final day of the first half, Ian Ferguson picks up his 11th win of the season and 21st career win with Wilmington as the Blue Rocks clinch the first-half Northern Division title with a 9-1 win over Winston-Salem. The Rocks and Lynchburg finish the first half with identical records at 47-23 and Wilmington wins the head-to-head tie-breaker, 7-2. The first-half title is the seventh for Wilmington over 10 years.

June 18 -- The Blue Rocks and Fawley Stadium host the 2002 Carolina-California League All-Star Game. Jeff Garber manages the Carolina League All-Stars. David DeJesus, Ian Ferguson, Byron Gettis and Thomas Lora represent Wilmington in the game that ends in a 3-3 tie after 10 innings. Ferguson starts the game and goes one inning for the Carolina League.

August 31 -- Danny Tamayo becomes Wilmington's second 14-game winner all-time, allowing one unearned run on four hits over five innings in a 6-1 win over the Potomac Cannons.

September 6 -- The Lynchburg Hillcats capture the 2002 Northern Division championship with a 4-3 win over the Blue Rocks. Marco Cunningham and Byron Gettis hit back-to-back homers in the first inning against Lynchburg starter, Mike Connolly, to take a 3-1 lead. The Hillcats went ahead for good in the fourth inning on a three-run home run by Randy Meadows against losing pitcher Dusty Wrightsman. It marks the first time in club history Wilmington failed to reach the Championship Series after qualifying for the postseason.

July 4 -- Zack Greinke and two relievers combine on a three-hit shutout win as the Blue Rocks defeat Kinston, 2-0. In his final start with Wilmington, Greinke tosses seven innings of one-hit shutout baseball. The 19-year-old retires 14 in a row before allowing a two-out single to Miguel Quintana in the fifth. He finishes up by retiring seven in a row and 21 of the 22 batters he faces over seven innings. Robbie Morrison allows a lead-off double in the ninth inning, but retires the next three hitters to preserve the shutout and register his third save.

August 6 -- Brian Bass comes within one out of a no-hitter, but it is spoiled by a Brian Becker two-out solo homer in the ninth as Wilmington defeats Winston-Salem, 6-1. Bass exits after the homer and notches his ninth win of the year. The 21-year-old goes 8.2 innings, allowing one run on one hit. He walks two, hits a batter, and fans eight. Trey Dyson goes 2-for-3 with a home run and two RBI in the victory.

August 29 -- Wilmington defeats the Potomac Cannons, 1-0, in front of a season-high 7,424 fans at Fawley. Kyle Middleton allows three hits and strikes out a season-high 10 over seven shutout innings. The Rocks score the game's only run in the eighth on a run-scoring single by James Shanks. Robbie Morrison works a 1-2-3 ninth inning to secure his 10th save of the year and his 25th with Wilmington, dating back to 1999.

June 9 - The Wilmington Blue Rocks and the Kinston Indians combine to score 30 runs in the Rocks' 18-12 victory at Fawley Stadium. The 30 runs scored sets a franchise record for most total runs in a nine-inning game. Both teams amass 35 hits, tying a single-game mark. Wilmington bats around in three separate innings: the first, fourth, and seventh. Mel Stocker gets two plate appearances in the same frame three times.

June 20 - In a ceremony held at Fawley Stadium, the Blue Rocks retire Mike Sweeney's No. 33. Sweeney played with the Blue Rocks in 1995 and made his Major League debut on September 4, 1995 with the KC Royals. Sweeney and former Blue Rocks manager John Mizerock attend the ceremony.

September 4 - The Wilmington Blue Rocks win their last home night game of the season in walk-off fashion, as Mitch Maier turns a 5-4 Frederick lead into a 6-5 Blue Rocks victory with a two-out, two-run homerun in the ninth inning. The blast was hit before a sellout crowd of 7,158, the second-largest crowd at Fawley Stadium in 2004.

September 10 - Three Wilmington pitchers hold Potomac to three hits, blanking the Cannons in the Blue Rocks 4-0 Divisional Series-clinching victory. Devon Lowery, Nate Hoelscher, and Ryan Braun combined on the shutout. The Rocks advance to the Mills Cup Championship Series for the eighth time in 12 seasons and for the first time since 2001.

September 15 - The Kinston Indians complete their comeback from a 2-0 Mills Cup Championship Series deficit and win their third consecutive game at Fawley Stadium to defeat the Blue Rocks, 3-1, and win the Carolina League championship. The Game Five defeat is the second all-time for Wilmington in the Mills Cup Championship Series (Salem, 2001).

September 21 - The Blue Rocks join Red Sox Nation as they announce a two-year player development contract with Boston. The new PDC ends a 12-year run with the Kansas City Royals as the Blue Rocks' parent club.

June 16 - John McAdams, who served as the voice of Fawley Stadium since the club's inaugural season in 1993, passes away at the age of 64. "Johnny Mac" was recognized as a true friend by everyone associated with the Blue Rocks over the years. He was remembered by the likes of Philadelphia Phillies public address announcer Dan Baker and former LaSalle basketball coach Speedy Morris in a pre-game ceremony on Saturday, June 18 at Fawley Stadium.

August 18 - The Blue Rocks established a new franchise record by coming from nine runs down en route to an 11-10 win over the Winston-Salem Warthogs at Ernie Shore Field.

July 4 - Outfielder Jacoby Ellsbury ties the franchise record for stolen bases in a single game when he swiped four on Fourth of July against Salem at Fawley. It was the first time a Blue Rock stole four bases in a game since Pat Hallmark swiped four at Salem in 1998, and only the third time overall a Rock accomplished the feat.

August 15 - Catcher John Otness ties the single-game franchise record for hits with five against the Keys at Frederick.

August 30 - Wilmington takes game two of a doubleheader against the Avalanche, 4-1. The win snaps Salem's winning streak at 14, the longest in the Carolina League since 1959 when the Raleigh Capitals won 15 in a row.

September 3 - Closer Mike James gets Frederick's Paco Figueroa to pop out to second base with the tying run in scoring position for a 5-4 win over the Keys at Fawley. James earns his 25th save of the season, tying the single-season franchise record set a decade earlier by Steve Prihoda in 1996.

September 20 - The Blue Rocks announce a "Return To Royalty" by announcing a two-year player development contract with the Kansas City Royals for 2007 and 2008.

November 16 - The Kansas City Royals announce Wilmington's coaching staff for the 2007 season, including a familiar face at the helm. John Mizerock, manager of the Blue Rocks from 1995-97, would return to manage in Wilmington again in 2007. The Blue Rocks went 225-193 (.538) under Mizerock during his original tenure. His previous three seasons included three half championships, two Northern Division titles and one Carolina League Mills Cup championship in 1996.

April 12 - Third baseman Mario Lisson ties the single-game franchise record for hits with five in Kinston against the Indians.

August 24 - Southpaw Rowdy Hardy finishes his own rain suspended start by going all nine innings in a 12-1 blasting of the Lynchburg Hillcats for his franchise-record 15th win of the season. The opener of an impromptu doubleheader started the Sunday prior in Wilmington proves to be the most lopsided win for the Blue Rocks all season. It also marks Hardy's third nine-inning complete game of the year. The lanky lefty sits down 17 of the last 21 batters he faces, and the lone run against him is unearned.

August 31 - After faltering in their division clinching attempts the previous two nights, the Wilmington Blue Rocks finally punch their postseason ticket with a 4-0 shutout victory over the Salem Avalanche at Fawley Stadium. The Rocks' triumph wraps up the second-half title in the Northern Division, thrusting Wilmington into the Carolina League playoffs for the 12th time in club's 15-year existence. The half-championship is the 18th in franchise history and the fourth under manager John Mizerock. All-Star right-hander Julio Pimentel scatters four hits and two walks with two strikeouts over seven scoreless frames.

November 10 - Longtime Blue Rocks majority owner and team president, Matt Minker, passes away after a five-year battle with cancer. Minker's construction company literally built Fawley Stadium in an eye-popping five months in 1992-93.

April 23 - Outfielder Joe Dickerson becomes the first Blue Rock to hit an inside-the-park home run since Norris Hopper on July 30, 2001. Dickerson's shot forged a 3-3 tie with the Frederick Keys at Harry Grove Stadium in the sixth inning. The Rocks would win the game, 4-3, on a wild pitch.

June 4 - Infielder Jeff Bianchi joins the short-job home run parade when he connects on an inside-the-park job against the Kinston Indians at Fawley Stadium. Bianchi's blow came against reliever Mike Pontius to start the home sixth inning and a comeback attempt from a 3-1 deficit. Center fielder Johnny Drennen turned what should have been a line-single to center into a four-bagger when he missed the catch on a head-first dive and allowed the ball to roll all the way to the wall. Bianchi circled the sacks in lightning-quick fashion, fitting since a downpour of rain would shortly thereafter suspend play. The Blue Rocks would win the game the next day, 6-5.

June 27 - Center fielder Derrick Robinson ties the franchise record for stolen bases in a game by taking four against the Salem Avalanche. He would go on to obliterate Carlos Febles' single-season mark of 49 by collecting 62 on the year.

August 29 - Though only one team claimed victory, each clubhouse had reason to celebrate this night at Fawley. The Wilmington Blue Rocks fell to the Potomac Nationals, 3-1, giving the visiting P-Nats the second-half crown in the Carolina League's Northern Division. But, by virtue of Frederick's loss to Winston-Salem, the Rocks claimed their first-ever wild card berth to lock up the team's 13th playoff appearance in 16 seasons.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Ian Ferguson is the lone Wilmington hurler in club history to win 10 or more games in two seasons; he won 10 games in 2001 and 12 in 2002. He ranks second in team history with 22 career wins.
- Wilmington has appeared in the Carolina League postseason in 16 of its 23 seasons.
- The Blue Rocks are 31-36 all-time in the postseason; they are 16-19 at home and 15-17 on the road.

SIGNIFICANT DATES IN MODERN BLUE ROCKS HISTORY

May 10 - Center fielder Derrick Robinson's steal of second base against the Frederick Keys established a new franchise-record for career stolen bases. The speedster broke Sergio Nunez's mark of 77 thefts. Robinson, who spent part of 2007, and all of 2008 and 2009 in Wilmington, ended the year with 132 career swipes as a Blue Rock.

August 1 - Derrick Robinson set the tone for one of the more unlikely power surges the Blue Rocks have seen. The center fielder's two-run homer capped off a five-run fifth inning which led Wilmington to an 8-3 victory over the Salem Red Sox. The round-tripper ended Robinson's 221-game, 895-at-bat homerless streak as a Blue Rock.

August 3 - In the very next game, Robinson went deep again, as the Rocks tied a franchise record with five home runs as a team in an 11-3 rout of Winston-Salem. Eric Hosmer's first career Advanced-A homer got the long-ball party started as Nick Van Stratten, Anthony Seratelli and Johnny Giavotella also left the yard for the Blue Crew.

August 19 - Derrick Robinson continued to make his mark on the Blue Rocks' record books, this time breaking one of his own records. The Florida native stole three bases against the Frederick Keys, surpassing the Wilmington single-season stolen base mark of 62, which Robinson had set in 2008. He finished the campaign with 69 thefts.

August 29 - Mike Moustakas' opening frame home run off of Salem's Kyle Weiland was the slugger's 16th dinger of the season. It marked the highest homer total for anyone on the Riverfront since Brandon Berger left the yard 16 times in 1999.

September 4 - The Blue Rocks put an exclamation point on an incredible second-half of the season by clinching a CL North crown with a 5-2 win over the Frederick Keys at Frawley Stadium. The Blue Crew got seven innings of two-run ball from starter Eduardo Paulino, and two RBIs each from Jamar Walton and Chase Fontaine en route to the celebration-inducing victory.

April 13 - Michael Montgomery whiffed a career-best 13 men in a 3-1 defeat of the Kinston Indians at Grainger Stadium to earn the Rocks' their 1,300th victory in franchise history. The 20-year-old southpaw carried a perfect game into the seventh before a broken-bat infield single opened that frame. In eight of the night's nine innings, Wilmington pitching retired the side 1-2-3 as Montgomery and closer Eric Basurto combined for 17 strikeouts.

May 21 - John Lamb tossed six innings of one-run ball as the Blue Rocks earned a 4-1 victory at Frawley Stadium in the 20-year-old's Advanced-A debut. The left-hander faced the minimum in three of his six innings pitched. He did not surrender a hit until the fourth frame and fanned nine. Four times he caught Myrtle Beach looking at a called third strike.

July 16 - In his final game in a Wilmington Blue Rocks uniform Eric Hosmer went 2-for-5 with a run scored. Hosmer, who led the Carolina League in batting average, on-base percentage and doubles upon his promotion to Double-A Northwest Arkansas became the first player in franchise-history to win a CL batting crown.

August 14 - For the first time in 53 tries in 2010, the Rocks won a game they trailed after eight innings. Ernesto Mejia's two-run single tied the game at 3-3 in the ninth, and his two-run triple in the 14th put the Rocks ahead to stay in a 6-3 triumph over . Mejia knocked in five runs on three hits as he fell just a double shy of the cycle that night.

September 6 - Blue Rocks pitcher Aaron Crow was named Carolina League Pitcher of the Week, marking the ninth time a Rock was honored by the league office in 2010. Montgomery, Lamb, Alex Caldera, and Bryan Paukovits claimed CL Pitcher of the Week laurels in 2010 as well, with Montgomery grabbing that honor twice in a row to begin the year. Third baseman Jamie Romak took Player of the Week accolades three times during June and July. No other Carolina League team claimed as many weekly honors as the Blue Rocks.

May 25 - The Rocks reach their high water mark of the 2011 season with a walkoff win against the Frederick Keys. A wild pitch by Sean Gleason in the 9th inning allowed Yem Prades to score the winning run in a thrilling 6-5 victory at Frawley Stadium. The win put Wilmington 11 games over .500, the high water mark for the season.

June 11 - Nick Francis tied a record that only nine others in Blue Rocks history have accomplished by smacking five basehits at Winston-Salem. Francis notched singles in the 1st, 2nd, and 5th innings off Dash pitching. He roped a triple in the 8th inning and then with two outs in the 9th inning, Francis singled through the left side to complete the feat.

June 15 - The Blue Rocks claimed the franchise's 1,400th victory with a 4-3 win over the Lynchburg Hillcats. A solo home run from John Whittleman and an RBI single from Alex McClure in the 8th inning put the Rocks ahead for good as they claimed their 34th win of the season. Tim Melville threw five inning of two run ball, while Dusty Odenbach grabbed his first win of the season, yielding only one run in three innings. Ryan Dennick threw a scoreless ninth for the save.

August 20 - In the first game of a doubleheader against the Salem Red Sox, John Whittleman reached a plateau few have reached in Blue Rocks history. In the third inning, a solo home run to right field gave the Blue Rocks a 4-0 lead and also saw Whittleman reach the 20-HR mark. Whittleman is only the third player in team history to reach 20 home runs in a season, joining Larry Sutton (26 in 1994) and Hugh Walker (21 in 1993). The Rocks won the game 6-2.

July 6 - Lane Adams collects two of the Blue Rocks four home runs to guide his team to a 10 inning win over Lynchburg 6-5. The second dinger by Adams gave Wilmington the lead in the top of the 10th, and helped the team avoid a three-game sweep against the Hillcats.

August 3 - Infielder Matt Fields earns Carolina League Topps Player of the Month Honors for July. In 27 games, Fields hit .355 with 13 home runs and 19 RBIs, while his .794 slugging percentage was tops in all of minor league baseball. Adams becomes the eighth member of the Blue Rocks to garner the award.

August 10 - Following a closed door team meeting, The Blue Crew hammers Salem 9-1. Matt Fields led the charge, becoming the second Wilmington player to record a two-homer game on the season. This win would be a sign of things to come. Over the final 24 games of the season, Vance Wilson's team would post a league-best 16-8 record.

August 30 - The Blue Rocks clinch the second half Northern Division Championship with a 9-3 win over the Myrtle Beach Pelicans. A six-run fourth inning broke the game open, as Wilmington advanced to the Carolina League Playoffs for the first time since 2009. Wilmington starter Leondy Perez was stellar, tossing 7.1 innings, allowing just five hits, one walk, and an unearned run. Tyler Sample finished off the Pelicans, surrendering a pair of runs over the final 1.2 innings.

September 7 - Wilmington falls to Lynchburg 2-1 in Game Three of the Northern Division Championship Series. Hillcats catcher Braeden Schlehuter put his team on top for good in the bottom of the eighth, with a solo home run off Wilmington reliever Robinson Yambati. Lynchburg would eventually win the Mills Cup, defeating Winston-Salem three games to one in the best-of-five series.

May 1 - Facing Salem, Cheslor Cuthbert gave Wilmington its first walk-off win of the year, thanks to a solo homer off Mike McCarthy in the bottom of the ninth. That would not be the team's only walk-off victory of the series, as Jorge Bonifacio completed an 11-inning win the next night with a sacrifice fly to right field.

June 29 - Coming off a very difficult first leg of the season where he went 1-6 and posted a 5.98 ERA, Royals No. 1 prospect Kyle Zimmer turned in his best performance as a professional. In game one of a doubleheader against Potomac, Zimmer tossed a seven-inning complete game shutout and carried a no-hitter into the sixth inning for the second time in 2013. Not only had the proverbial light bulb gone off for Zimmer, but Kansas City general manager Dayton Moore was in attendance to see it himself.

July 9 - An overpowering start by Kyle Zimmer, his second-to-last before getting promoted to AA-Northwest Arkansas, keyed a big series win over Frederick. Zimmer tossed 6 innings while yielding just one run and striking out 13 en route to an 8-1 victory.

August 13 - The Blue Crew took two out of three from the eventual Mills Cup Champion Salem Red Sox, and the series finale was one of the most memorable games in franchise history. After 18 long innings, Dennis Raben recorded the game-winning hit, lining an RBI single to center right before the stroke of midnight. The game went down as the second-longest in Blue Rocks history, as well as the fifth-longest in the history of the Carolina League.

April 26 - After starting the season 0-7 against the Myrtle Beach Pelicans, the Blue Rocks claimed their first victory of 2014 against their Carolina League rival in highly improbable fashion. Trailing 4-3 heading into the bottom of the 9th, Wilmington tied the game and put Terrance Gore on third base as the winning run with two outs. Raul Mondesi would then strikeout, but the pitch got away from catcher Jorge Alfaro. Gore sprinted home and avoided Alfaro's tag, who was also too late to get Mondesi at first base. The Blue Crew won 5-4 on a walk-off strikeout.

May 6 - Down by one run heading into the top of the 9th, Hunter Dozier hits a go ahead grand slam at Potomac to put the Rocks in front late. Wilmington would go on to defeat the Nationals 6-3.

June 17 - Frawley Stadium plays host to the annual Carolina/California League All Star Game. In a close contest, the California League All Stars defeat the Carolina League 3-2.

July 13 - Christian Binford pitches a scoreless inning in the MLB Futures Game at Target Field. The right hander was named to the game while pitching for the Blue Rocks. Binford went 5-4 with a 2.40 ERA during his time in Wilmington, where he was also named to the Carolina League All Star team.

September 1 - After spending parts of the 2014 season in Wilmington, Brandon Finnegan and Terrance Gore get promoted to the Major League level. 2012-13 Blue Rock Lane Adams would join the September call-ups as well. Finnegan and Gore would go on to play in the World Series, with Finnegan becoming the first player in history to play in both the Division I College World Series and the MLB World Series in the same year.

September 1 - The same day three of their former players got the call to the show, the Blue Rocks ended their regular season in style, walking off against the Salem Red Sox, 7-6. Down 6-4 heading into the 9th, Wilmington put together a rally to tie the game and force the contest into extras. Then, after being recalled from Rookie-Level Idaho Falls earlier that day, Logan Davis came through with a game-winning triple in the bottom of the 10th, plating Fred Ford from first base.

June 19 - Skipper Brian Buchanan had to listen to the Blue Rock's 4-1 loss from the clubhouse after he was ejected in the second inning arguing a call that was eventually overturned in favor of the Blue Rocks. The rest of the Blue crew joined their skipper in watching and waiting after the game, tuning in to the Hillcats affair. The wait proved fruitful when they found out the Hillcats lost as well, clinching the first half crown for the Blue Rocks; the first time they won either half of the season since 2012 and the first time they won the first half since 2006 when they were a member of the Red Sox organization.

July 3rd - Down 6-1 in the bottom of the eighth inning to the Lynchburg Hillcats, things looked dour for the Blue Rocks. However, they loaded the bases with nobody out and that is when the flood gates opened: a Ramon Torres single cut the deficit to 6-2 still with the bases loaded and nobody out, which set up Mauricio Ramos who had smacked a solo home run earlier in the game, this time he couldn't clear the fence, but he cleared the bases with a double, pulling the Rocks within a run. Two batters later Frank Schwindel singled to tie the game and Alfredo Escalera joined the hit parade with his own single a pair of batter later to put runners on the corners. An errant pick-off throw tossed the Rocks into the lead and after they yet again loaded the bases, the cherry was put on top of the comeback with a two-run double from Jack Lopez that pushed the advantage to 9-6, which is how the game would end.

July 25 - The July fireworks continued for the Blue Rocks as down 6-1 to Lynchburg was apparently the magic quotient for comebacks. That was the score in the bottom of the ninth inning against the Hillcats when the Blue Rocks loaded the bases with one out. After a strikeout, Carlos Garcia walked to force in a run and Humberto Arteaga would poke a single to make it a three run game, still with the bases loaded. Robert Pehl erased that deficit with one swing of the bat, roping a double to clear the bases and tying the game at 6-6 all while the Blue crew had been down to their final out. Elier Hernandez would strike-out for the second time in the frame to send the game to extras. In the bottom of the tenth, with the bases loaded and two outs, Arteaga provided the heroics with a single for the dramatic 7-6 victory.

August 4 - Ho Hum, another triple play turned by the Blue Rocks. For the third time in the season, the Blue Rocks turned a triple play: the first was on April 19th on a ball that was eventually determined to be a short hopped catch, which confused the runners allowing the Rocks to turn three, the next was on June 9th when the Rocks went around the horn 5-4-3, and then on August 4th, it was a 6-4-3 turning that began with the runner trying to advance from second to third getting tagged out. Even more astounding, the 2014 Blue Rocks accomplished the feat on July 27th, meaning the Blue Rocks turned four triple plays in the span of 373 days.

August 9 - A 7-4 loss to the Hillcats in Lynchburg marked the 14th straight loss by the Blue Rocks, a franchise record. The only thing stopping it from being a 17 game losing streak was a 7-6 walk-off win on July 25th and the streak finally snapped with a 2-1 walk-off win on August 11th. The Blue crew won just two of 21 games from July 20th, to August 14th.

September 11 - With the game tied 2-2 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Jack Lopez clobbered a two-run home run to put the Rocks up 4-2 in Game Two of the Northern Division Series. The Blue Rocks would hold on for a 4-3 win, sending them to the Mills Cup for the first time since 2004.

BLUE ROCKS TEAM HISTORY

In 1940, R.R.M. (Bob) Carpenter brought professional baseball back to the city with the original Wilmington Blue Rocks. The team was a Class B Interstate League affiliate of the Philadelphia A's. Hall-of-Famer Connie Mack owned the Blue Rocks for their first four years of existence. Another Hall-of-Famer, Chief Bender, served as the Blue Rocks first manager.

In 1943, Carpenter, who was a partner with Mack since the Blue Rocks' inception, took full ownership of the club. For their final nine years, the original Blue Rocks were a Philadelphia Phillies affiliate.

The nickname "Blue Rocks" came from 73-year-old Robert Miller in a name-the-team contest. Miller lived in the Henry Clay section of the city, famed for its blue granite found along the Brandywine River.

The Blue Rocks played in Wilmington Park, a $185,000 facility at 30th Street and Governor Printz Boulevard. At the time, it was considered one of the finest minor league parks in the country.

In Wilmington's 13 years in the Interstate League, the Blue Rocks won four Governor's Cup titles and missed the postseason only twice. Pitchers Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons and outfielder Elmer Valo were some of the notables who played for the Blue Rocks before going to the major leagues.

After setting many records for attendance, the Blue Rocks' fan support dwindled and 1952 was their final season in the Interstate League.

In 1993, the Blue Rocks returned to professional baseball as the Class-A Carolina League affiliate of the Kansas City Royals. The franchise, formerly known as the Peninsula Pilots, was moved from Hampton, VA.

The stadium, built by the construction company of former Blue Rocks president Matt Minker, was named Legends Stadium (later changed to Judy Johnson Field at Daniel S. Frawley Stadium).

Like their forerunners, the modern Blue Rocks have enjoyed great on-field success. Since their return in 1993, Wilmington has one of the best winning percentages in all of Minor League Baseball, winning eight Northern Division titles in 19 years and four Carolina League championships.

BEFORE THE BLUE ROCKS 1865-1940

1865 - A group of young businessmen form the Diamond State Baseball Club, the first organized baseball in Wilmington.

May 1866 - The Diamond State Club hosts an exhibition against the Philadelphia Athletics. The powerful visitors win 104-5.

1873 - The amateur Quicksteps rise to prominence as Wilmington's premiere baseball club.

1875 - The first professional team comes to town as the Chicago Whitestockings knock off the Quicksteps, 11-4.

August, 1875 - The successful Quicksteps build new grounds and prohibit betting at their games. Late in the season, they welcome the now-professional Athletics to town and win, 6-4.

1876 - The Quicksteps become Wilmington's first professional team, bringing in out-of-town players and paying them about $10 a week.

1877 - The original Quicksteps disband due to lack of fan support.

1883 - Wilmington assembles a team for the new Interstate League and gives it the traditional Quicksteps moniker. The team stumbles to a 27-48 record.

1884 - The Interstate League reassembles under the name Eastern League. The Quicksteps lay waste to the rest of the league, romping to a 50-12 record by mid-August.

August 1884 - Wilmington leaves the Eastern League to fill an empty spot in the Union League, a "major league." The team finishes just 2-16 and disbands before the season ends. A stable professional team does not return to Wilmington for 20 years.

July 4, 1896 - The Wilmington Peaches, an entry in the Atlantic League, play a tripleheader against the Paterson, NJ club, with the final game played under artificial lights. For improved visibility, a softball is used. Hall-of-Famer Honus Wagner plays for the Paterson club. The ball was lost so many times and so many runs were scored that they did not keep score. The first major league night game would not be played until 40 years later.

1901-03 - Two amateur teams, the AA's and the BB's become the most popular Wilmington teams of all time. The AA's draw 10,500 fans to their 1903 opener; across town, the BB's draw 4,500.

1904-05 - The AA's bring pro ball back to Wilmington, entering the independent Tri-State League and taking the name of the Wilmington Peaches.

1907 - The Tri-State League becomes part of the National Agreement and is now recognized as a Class-B league. Future Yankee manager Joe McCarthy plays for the Peaches.

1913 - The Tri-State club, now known as the Chicks, wins the league championship, finishing 66-45.

1915-1939 - Professional baseball takes a hiatus from Wilmington. Negro League teams play in 1925 and 1932.

1918 - Amateur teams, named after wartime industries, play each other in Wilmington. Shoeless Joe Jackson plays for the league-champion "Shipbuilders."

1940 - Bob Carpenter and Connie Mack bring the Blue Rocks to Wilmington.

2006 NORTHERN DIVISION SERIES

Game 1: Wednesday, Sept. 6 at Frederick

WIL	020 100 000	3	10	0
FRE	000 100 000	1	3	3

WP: Buchholz LP: Ramirez ATT: 2,037

Starter Clay Buchholz ties a pair of career-high marks with six innings pitched and 10 strikeouts, allowing just one run on three hits for the win. Bubba Bell goes 2-for-4 with a home run and two RBIs. Closer Mike James hurls a scoreless and hitless ninth for the save.

Game 2: Thursday, Sept. 7 at Wilmington

FRE	000 101 000	2	1	0
WIL	100 000 000	1	5	2

WP: Anderson LP: Bowden ATT: 1,667

Craig Anderson & Rommie Lewis combine on a five-hit-ter. Frederick breaks up a 1-1 tie without a hit in the sixth. Pete Maestrales drew a lead-off walk and moved up a Paco Figueroa sac bunt. Mario Delgado reached & Maestrales scored on an Iggy Suarez error.

Game 3: Friday, Sept. 8 at Wilmington

2007 NORTHERN DIVISION SERIES

Game 1: Wednesday, Sept. 5 at Wilmington

FRE	013 003 110	9	17	0
WIL	020 000 000	2	8	1

WP: Bergensen LP: Hardy ATT: 1,238

Carolina League Pitcher of the Year Rowdy Hardy was harassed for his worst outing of the season, yielding seven runs (five earned) over 5.2 innings, as the Rocks absorbed their second-most lopsided playoff loss in franchise history. Mario Lisson and Miguel Vega each had two of Wilmington's eight base hits on the night.

Game 2: Thursday, Sept. 6 at Frederick

WIL	000 000 001	1	1	1
FRE	000 200 100	3	7	1

WP: Spooner LP: Pimentel ATT: 1,726

Frederick starter Chorye Spooner dominated the Blue Rocks, striking out nine and walking none while hurling his fourth complete game of the season. His shutout and no-hit bids were simultaneously smashed when Jose Duarte drilled a two-out, ninth-inning home run to center field that just cleared the wall. The only other baserunner Wilmington had on its last evening of the 2007 season came courtesy of Frederick's lone defensive miscue, a ground ball through the wickets of third baseman Ryan Finan in the fifth inning off the bat of Brian McFall.

2008 NORTHERN DIVISION SERIES

Game 1: Wednesday, Sept. 3 at Potomac

WIL	000 000 010 000 000	1	5	0
POT	000 010 000 000 001	2	11	0

WP: Leatherman LP: Haltiwanger ATT: 851

In what boiled down to a battle of bullpens, the Wilmington relief corps finally cracked after three hours and 54-minutes of taut baseball. Russ Haltiwanger uncorked a wild pitch with two outs in the bottom of the 15th that scored Boomer Whiting from third base and the Potomac Nationals walked off with a 2-1 victory. The division-champion P-Nats handed the Rocks just their fifth Game One setback in 17 all-time playoff series. It marked the longest playoff game in team history.

Game 2: Thursday, Sept. 4 at Potomac

WIL	010 100 000 0	2	6	2
POT	011 000 000 1	3	13	0

WP: Everts LP: Chambliss ATT: 812

Dan Lyons delivered an RBI single off All-Star closer Tyler Chambliss in the bottom of the 10th inning to give the P-Nats a commanding 2-0 lead in the series. Jeff Bianchi had a heroic effort for the Blue Rocks in spite of the loss. The second baseman gave the Rocks their first lead of the series with a one-out solo blast off starter Erik Arnesen in the top of the second inning. Bianchi cleared both levels of the blue batter's eye in dead-center field. Trailing 2-1 in the fourth, Bianchi again came to the rescue when he singled home Paulo Orlando from second base with two outs.

Game 3: Friday, Sept. 5 at Wilmington

POT	001 000 000	1	2	2
WIL	000 000 000	0	4	0

WP: Detwiler LP: Teaford ATT: 1,103

Boomer Whiting knocked in the game's lone run with a third-inning sac fly. Starter Everett Teaford (0-1) tied a season and career-high with nine strikeouts and walked one batter over seven stellar frames. One of the two hits the lefty gave up was a ground-rule double by Michael Burgess leading off the third inning. After a sac bunt moved him to third, Burgess came plateward on Whiting's fly ball to left field. Whiting, who scored both walk-off runs in the first two games, undoubtedly was the most valuable player in the series. Wilmington's Chris Chavez and Ben Swaggerty combined to face the minimum over the final two innings. On the series, the Rocks hit a slim .133 (15-for-113). In the Game Three loss, the Rocks loaded the bases in three separate innings, yet came up empty each time en route to stranding eight men in scoring position.

After enduring a 46-minute rain delay at the outset, dreary damp conditions all night, and 20 consecutive scoreless innings over two games, the Wilmington Blue Rocks offense ended the evening in style. Eric Hosmer blasted a two-run homer over the right-field fence to give the Rocks a 2-0 walk-off win and a two-games-to-one series advantage. The triumph was Wilmington's fourth walk-off postseason win in franchise history and its first since the championship-clinching victory during Game Four of the 1998 finals vs. Winston-Salem.

Game 4: Saturday, Sept. 12 at Wilmington

LYN	010 001 021	5	9	2
WIL	101 000 000	2	7	3

WP: McSwain LP: Rivas ATT: 623

The Blue Rocks could not get the big hit as they left 12 men on base including eight in scoring position. Wilmington went 1-for-11 (.091) with runners in scoring position as the series shifted back to the hill city.

Lynchburg's Josh Harrison had two hits and drove in four runs, while Erik Huber added a pair of doubles and cut down two men at the plate, as the Hillcats took Game Five to pull a shocking upset over a Blue Rocks team which finished the year with the Carolina League's best record. Huber's heroics came after not appearing in any of the series' first four games. It was Wilmington's 10th loss in its last 12 postseason games.

2012 NORTHERN DIVISION SERIES

LYN	100 010 024	8	15	0
WIL	000 000 000	0	3	2

WP: Schlosser LP: Pounders ATT: 922

The Hillcats record 15 hits (14 of them singles) to move within a game of the Mills Cup Championship Series. The Blue Rocks had no answer for Hillcats starter Gus Schlosser. He tossed eight scoreless frames, allowing only three hits and a walk while striking out six.

Game 2: Thursday, Sept. 6 at Lynchburg

WIL	004 130 040	12	18	2
LYN	100 000 020	3	7	1

WP: Adam LP: Delgado ATT: 864

Wilmington sets a postseason record with 18 hits (prior team-high was 14) to force a decisive third game. It was also the Blue Crew's most lopsided playoff win since the 2004 Mills Cup (10-1 win over Kinston). Six players recorded multiple hits, while starting pitcher Jason Adam picked up the win, going seven innings and surrendering only one earned run.

Game 3: Friday, Sept. 7 at Lynchburg

WIL	001 000 000	1	5	0
LYN	000 100 01x	2	5	0

WP: Cornely LP: Yambati ATT: 582

With one out in the bottom of the eighth and the game tied, Hillcats catcher Braeden Schlehuder belted a solo homer off Robinson Yambati to give Lynchburg the lead and the eventual win.

WIL	010 000 001 0	2	6	0

WP: Berg LP: Rico, L ATT: 1,575

Ryan O'Hearn clubbed his first postseason home run to put the Blue Rocks up early, but the lead slipped out of their hands with two runs from the Pelicans in the sixth. Down a run in the bottom of the ninth inning, the Blue Rocks would load the bases with nobody out, but could only scratch across a single run to tie the game in their last outs. That would come back to haunt the Blue Rocks as the Pelicans plated a man in the tenth and the Blue Rocks fell in extras in Game One.

Game 2: Monday, Sept. 14 at Wilmington

The Blue Rocks once again fought back to tie the game in the ninth only to see the lead, game, and season evaporate in the next frame. The Blue crew climbed out of an early 2-0 hole with single runs in the third and ninth. But with the bases loaded and two outs, Pin-Chieh Chen again played the hero; dribbling one off of the plate down the third baseline and out of the reach of Mauricio Ramos for the Walk-Off Championship win.
