BROADCAST

RADIO.....ESPN 100.9-FM (WLUN)
 Lead Play-by-Play Broadcaster.....Chris Vosters
 Radio Broadcaster.....Brad Tunney
 Producers.....Josh Baker, Jordan Gonder, Dylan Rocha

ESPN 100.9-FM (WLUN) holds the exclusive over-the-air and internet radio English-speaking broadcast rights to Great Lakes Loons baseball. No other radio station may broadcast live during Loons games without written permission from the Great Lakes Loons organization. This season marks the 12th straight for the Loons on the 100.9-FM signal. ESPN 100.9-FM broadcasts from the station's studios in the suite level at Dow Diamond.

All Loons broadcasts begin with the 30-minute Loons On-Deck Circle, built by KJP Sales, featuring the latest news and information about the team, interviews, out-of-town scores, starting lineups, pitching matchups and more. The Loons Postgame Show follows every broadcast with a game recap, reaction, interviews and highlights. Audio of the games stream live on ESPN1009.com and Loons.com. Live video featuring Loons radio broadcasters is available for home games at Loons.com via the MiLB.TV streaming service.

Chris Vosters is now in his fourth season as the lead play-by-play broadcaster for the Great Lakes Loons. He will provide the call for all regular season and postseason games. He will also contribute to pregame and postgame coverage alongside Brad Tunney during the 2018 season. The Brookfield, Wisc., native is a 2013 graduate of the University of Wisconsin and has made stops with the Frisco RoughRiders (Double-A), the Northwoods League, 91.7-FM (WSUM) and 620 AM (WTMJ).

Tunney returns to the Loons radio booth for his fourth season. Tunney serves as the play-by-play broadcaster for ESPN 100.9-FM's coverage of high school football and basketball during the fall and winter months, as well as the voice of Northwood Timberwolves basketball. The Clinton Township, Mich., native is a 2016 graduate of Central Michigan University.

Jerry O'Donnell is the station's production and operations director and the PA Announcer at Dow Diamond. Jay Arons is the sales director. Tunney serves as the program manager. Robin Gover is the business manager. Matt DeVries handles marketing and communications.

ESPN 100.9-FM was purchased by the Loons organization on March 25, 2008 from the Last Bastion Trust. The station was previously owned by Citadel Broadcasting, operating as a simulcast of classic rock station WILZ-FM. The Michigan Baseball Foundation, the 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation that owns Dow Diamond, helped finance the purchase. The Foundation also funded the construction of the radio studio in the Dow Diamond press box, overlooking the baseball field, which was completed in January 2009.

Daily Credentials will be issued to legitimate news-gathering organizations that will cover the team on a limited basis. To obtain credentials, your initial request must be made via email to Loons Communications Manager Matt DeVries (mdevries@loons.com). The deadline to submit your credential request is 24 hours prior to game time. Field Access: Only credentialed media with field access will be allowed on the field. All media must clear the field one hour prior to the start of the game unless special permission has been granted.

Pregame Availability: Members of the media are welcome to attend batting practice and interact with coaches and players during this time, so long as it does not interfere with the players or coaches' workout schedule. Media members are at their own risk of injury when on the field. The Loons are not responsible for any injuries that may occur while on the field. Media members must stay in foul territory while on the field and may not go beyond first or third base. When possible, please try to stay on the warning track and off the grass. All non-uniformed personnel need to clear the field approximately one hour before game time. Loons' players and coaches will also be made available during the visiting team's batting practice. Visiting batting practice is the best time to interview Loons players and coaches.

Press Box: The press box is located on the suite level behind home plate. Because of limited media space, special seating preference will be given to media outlets who reserve a media seat prior to the game via email to Matt DeVries. The press box is available to working media only. No spouses, guests or children of members of the media will be allowed in the press box without prior consent. No alcoholic beverages are allowed in the press box.

Food: Media food will be provided prior to the start of the game in the press box. No food or drink is permitted to leave the press box unless it is for a member of the camera crew.

Photographers: Still & video photographers are permitted in the dugout camera wells, adjacent to each dugout. Photographers may not enter the playing field or the dugouts at any time during the game. They also may shoot from other locations throughout the ballpark, but must not interfere with ballpark patrons.

Stats and Information: Game notes, lineups and statistics are available in the press box. More information is available at Loons.com. Anyone needing additional information not typically provided or information earlier than normal should contact Matt DeVries..

Clubhouse: The Great Lakes Loons' clubhouse is closed to the media. Media members needing a specific interview while players are in the clubhouse should contact Matt DeVries or another member of the Loons Media Relations staff. After the game, players and coaches will be made available upon request. The trainer's room is closed to the media at all times. Players and coaches will not be made available during rain delays or between games of a doubleheader, unless otherwise requested and granted.

No autographs: Credentialed members of the media are strictly prohibited from autograph seeking under any circumstances.

For more information regarding policies or questions about interviews, photo requests, statistics, credential requests, news releases, or any other media related questions, please contact Matt DeVries via email (mdevries@loons.com) or at 989-837-6171. Violations of the Loons' media policy may result in revocation of the individual's credential and future access. These rules are subject to change at the discretion of the Great Lakes Loons, the Los Angeles Dodgers or Minor League Baseball. Thank you for your cooperation.

John Shoemaker returns to Midland for a second stint with the Loons

COACHING STAFF

JOHN SHOEMAKER - MANAGER

John Shoemaker returns as manager for the Loons in his 42nd year with the Dodgers organization. Shoemaker managed the Loons from 2011-2012. He is the sixth Loons manager in the past six seasons.

Shoemaker played second base in the Dodgers minor league system from 1977-1980. He made it to Triple-A Albuquerque in 1980 before retiring from playing baseball to become the hitting coach with the Vero Beach Dodgers the following year.

The first managerial opportunity accepted by Shoemaker was to take over for Vero Beach in 1987. He finished 62-76 that season.

Shoemaker took a short break from his managerial duties in 2009-2010, but remained in the Dodgers organization as the Camelback Ranch-Glendale Coordinator of Instruction. He made his first stint with the Loons from 2011-2012, posting a 139-140 overall record.

The 61-year-old was born in Chillicothe, Ohio and graduated from Waverly High School. In college at Miami University, Shoemaker shot 10-of-15 from the field for 20 points against Marquette in the 1978 NCAA Tournament. He added four rebounds and six assist in the First Round victory.

Shoemaker was drafted by the San Francisco Giants in the 26th round of the 1974 Amateur Draft, but turned down the opportunity to attend Miami University in Ohio. In the 1977 Amateur Draft, the left-handed hitting infielder was selected in the 35th round by the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Chicago Bulls drafted Shoemaker in the 6th round of the 1978 NBA Draft after the 6-foot-2 guard averaged 10.2 points, 2.9 rebounds and 4.3 assists for Miami in his senior 1977-78 season.

BOBBY CUELLAR - PITCHING COACH

Bobby Cuellar begins his second stint with the Loons as the pitching coach in his fourth season with the Dodgers organization. Cuellar's first season with the Loons was in 2016.

Since joining the Dodgers organization in 2015, Cuellar also spent time with Ogden in 2015 and 2017.

Prior to making his debut as a minor league coach in 1983, Cuellar earned a brief stint in the MLB with the Texas Rangers in 1977. He pitched in four games, allowing four hits, two walks, one home run and one earned run against 24 batters faced. His only home run allowed was to three-time All-Star Dave Kingman. Cuellar struck out three hitters in 6.2 innings pitched for the Rangers.

Cuellar, who is bilingual in Spanish and English, spent time in Texas, Cleveland and Seattle's organization as a right-handed relief pitcher.

A native of Alice, Texas and a graduate from the University of Texas, Cuellar has coached at the minor league level as a pitching coach, bullpen coach and manager. He was the manager of the Wausau Timbers from 1986-1987 and the New Britain Rock Cats in 2008.

The Timbers went 73-60 in 1986 and 57-83 in 1987, while the Rock Cats were 64-77 during the 2008 season.

Cuellar, 65, has taught star pitchers Pedro Martinez, Randy Johnson, Carl Pavano and Javier Vázquez, along with instructing Johan Santana on the changeup while working as the pitching coach for the Edmonton Trappers from 2001 to 2002.

Originally from Cartagena, Colombia, Fernandez played 10 minor league seasons with four organizations: Mariners, Twins, Astros, Cubs. Fernandez did not reach the Major League level as a player, but logged 32 career games at Triple-A. He also spent two seasons in the Midwest League with the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers (Mariners) in 2007 and the Beloit Snappers (Twins) in 2008. He played 88 career games in the Midwest League and batted .271 in his only two seasons in low Class-A.

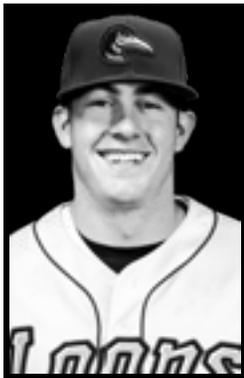

Fernandez, 31, enjoyed an active offseason prior to the 2017 season with the Loons. He managed Leones of the Colombian Professional League (LCBP) to a championship, and served as Team Colombia's First Base Coach in the World Baseball Classic. 2017 marked the first time Colombia qualified for the WBC. The Colombian team included Julio Teheran and Dilson Herrera, both of whom hail from Fernandez' home down of Cartagena.

Fernandez was signed by the Mariners as a non-drafted free agent on July 2, 2003. He was just 16 years old.
