U.S. OPEN CUP

The Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup (formerly the National Challenge Cup) was born in 1913 and crowned its first champion in 1914 (Brooklyn Field Club) and since then is the second-oldest continually operating soccer tournament in the world. The Open Cup is an unbroken thread that runs from the early 20th century to today. From the industrial leagues of the 1920s and 30s, to the ethnic flavor of the post-World War II era, and the dominance of MLS since the league's birth in 1996, the Open Cup tells the confusing, chaotic and unlikely story of soccer's success on American shores. Join ussoccer.com for a look at the Cup from the good old days when there were laces on the ball, up to the gleaming professionalism we know now.
