Tom Dickson and Sherrie Myers, Owners

In 1996, Tom Dickson and Sherrie Myers launched their first minor league baseball team, the Lansing Lugnuts, spearheading the development and construction of the team's home stadium. During that inaugural season, the Lugnuts set the attendance record for any Class-A team in its first year, drawing over 535,000 fans. The total ranks second in Midwest League history, trailing only the 1996 attendance of the West Michigan Whitecaps.

In large part due to the success of the Lugnuts, Dickson and Myers were named "Entrepreneurs of the Year in the State of Michigan" in 1997.

In 2001, the couple purchased Charleston of the South Atlantic League and worked with government officials to put together financing for a new ballpark. In October 2002, funding for the new $23 million facility was approved.

In 2004, Dickson and Myers purchased the Orlando Rays franchise, moving it to Montgomery, Alabama. The renamed Montgomery Biscuits have served as one of the crown jewels of Class-AA and were named MiLB.com's Double-A Team of the Year in 2006 and 2007.

In addition to Lansing, Charleston and Montgomery, the couple has been responsible for the development of over $150 million worth of new minor league ballparks in markets such as Dayton, Ohio; Joliet, Illinois; Gary, Indiana; and Eastlake, Ohio. Tom Dickson and Sherrie Myers have received a multitude of awards for their entrepreneurial efforts and have been covered in a long list of national media outlets including CNN, The Wall Street Journal, ESPN, USA Today, Southern Living Magazine, Smart Money Magazine, and Baseball America.

In addition to the Dickson and Myers' sports franchises, they own two other companies: Professional Sports Marketing, a sports consulting company, and Professional Sports Catering, a food services company that serves 12 different Minor League teams: the Lugnuts, Biscuits, Asheville Tourists, Dayton Dragons, Erie SeaWolves, Kane County Cougars, Laredo Lemurs, Oklahoma City RedHawks, Peoria Chiefs, Quad Cities River Bandits, Rancho Cucamonga Quakes, South Bend Silver Hawks, State College Spikes and Tulsa Drillers.

Patrick Day General Manager

Patrick Day enters his sixth year as Lugnuts General Manager in 2012. He has been a part of the Professional Sports Marketing team for 12 years, working as an Assistant General Manager in Charleston, West Virginia, and Montgomery, Alabama. He graduated from Concord College with a Bachelor's degree in Mass Communications and an emphasis in public relations and advertising. Originally from western Massachusetts, Patrick lives in Delta Township with his wife, Erica, and daughter, Emerson.

Nick Gruesser Assistant General Manager

Nick Gruesser joined the Lugnuts in 2001, working primarily in sales, and was promoted to Assistant General Manager following the 2006 season. Nick oversees team relations, the corporate sales and group sales departments, and the operations, sponsorship and box office departments. Nick attended Wilmington College, where he was a four-year letterman and team captain for the Wilmington football team, graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Sports Administration and Leadership.

Lugnut Charities

Lugnut Charities is dedicated to supporting existing programs and creating new opportunities to benefit youth in the greater Lansing community. Since its inception in September of 1996, Lugnut Charities has contributed more than $230,000 to programs and projects in the community.

The Lansing Lugnuts are proud to partner with the following charitable organizations during the 2012 season: Early Childhood Investment Corporation, Impression 5 Science Center, Capital Area United Way, the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Michigan and The Lansing Promise Foundation. Each custom-designed package has been created to maximize the impact of minor league baseball to help meet the specific objectives of each organization.

On August 25th, the Lugnuts will honor their 2012 charity partners on Lugnut Charities Night at Cooley Law School Stadium, presented by Dan Henry Distributing. The night will feature the United Way Lugnuts Jersey Auction.

Off the Field

In 2011, the Lansing Lugnuts were highly active in the community...

- The Lugnuts donated 118 gift baskets to local non-profit events.
- The Lugnuts donated 312 tickets to deserving youth.
- Big Lug made 80 appearances to non-profit events in the Lansing community.
- The Lugnuts front office staff made five speaking appearances and volunteered at numerous local events, such as Halloween Trick-or-Treating in downtown Lansing.
- Lugnuts players contributed 25 hours of community appearances.
- The Lugnuts' elementary school reading program reached 20 schools in the mid-Michigan region.

In 2012, Big Lug and the Lugnuts have continued to reach out to the community.

During Reading Month in March, the elementary school reading program visited 10 elementary schools in the mid-Michigan area. At each school, Big Lug and Lugnuts staff members brought a book about baseball, getting students and teachers involved in acting out a skit based on the book.

Big Lug is continuing to keep a busy schedule, appearing at the Total Health Chiropractic Children's Health Expo, Lansing Home and Garden Show, Delta Rocks Family Festival and the Michigan Girl Scouts' 100th anniversary in Lansing.

1st Round, 2011 Midwest League Playoffs Lugnugs defeat Dragons, 2 games to 1

A contentious, emotional, nailbiting series began with a convincing 7-3 Dayton home win in Game 1 that featured an ejection of Lugnuts manager Mike Redmond. Looking for the sweep, the Dragons took a 2-1 lead to the bottom of the ninth in Game 2 -- only to see Matt Nuzzo knock a two-strike, two-out, game-winning two-run homer in a dramatic 3-2 Lugnuts win. In the decisive Game 3, Lansing took an early lead and held on tight through a series of Dayton threats, eliminating the favored Dragons, 4-3.

There are three different teams who all answer to a "Caps" nickname in the MWL: the Captains, TinCaps and Whitecaps.

2nd Round, 2011 Midwest League Playoffs Lugnuts defeat TinCaps, 2 games to 0

Fort Wayne cruised into the Eastern Division Finals following a first round sweep of Bowling Green. In Game 1 at Parkview Field, Egan Smith outdueling TinCaps top prospect Keyivius Sampson in a 4-1 Lugs victory. In Game 2, Lansing built an early 6-2 lead on an Oliver Dominguez three-run homer, only to see Fort Wayne tie the score at 6-6 in the eighth and 7-7 in the ninth. The Lugnuts clinched their ticket to MWLCS on a Michael Crouse bases-loaded walk in the bottom of the ninth, supplying an 8-7 anticlimax.

Fort Wayne, Vancouver and Bob Freitas

by Keaton Gillogly

The Fort Wayne Wizards underwent a franchise makeover entering 2009, changing their uniform, mascot, logo and team colors, rebranding themselves as the TinCaps, and opening the gates to beautiful Parkview Field. This past offseason, the TinCaps were honored by Baseball America with the 2011 Bob Freitas "Organization of the Year" award for the Class-A level.

The Bob Freitas Award recognizes long term success, community impact and innovative ballpark experience; Fort Wayne has ranked third in attendance among Midwest League teams each of the last three seasons, hosts around 400 events a year, drawing about 100,000 non-baseball patrons, and earned MiLB's top honors at the Promotional Seminar for converting their video board to 3-D for their 2011 Opening Day and passing out 10,000 3-D glasses to fans.

Lugnuts fans might recognize another team honored with a 2011 Freitas Award: the Vancouver Canadians. In the first year as an affiliate of their home-country Blue Jays, Vancouver sold out 30 of their 38 home games, completed renovations of their 60-year-old-ballpark and started a new charity organization named the Vancouver Canadians Baseball Foundation.

Lansing and Great Lakes play a scheduled doubleheader against one another on Saturday, April 7th, because of the sixth annual Crosstown Showdown exhibition game between the Lugnuts and Michigan State University, set for Thursday, April 5th. The Lugnuts and the Loons, therefore, are the only full-season Minor League teams in the country not to open their seasons on April 5th.

Baseball Geography

The Great Lakes Loons do not play in Great Lakes, Michigan; they play in Midland. This is one of the traditions of sports, naming a team after an area or region rather than the city in which they play. In the Majors, the Arizona Diamondbacks play in Phoenix; the Colorado Rockies play in Denver; the Minnesota Twins play in Minneapolis; the New York Mets play in Flushing; the New York Yankees play in the Bronx; the Tampa Bay Rays play in St. Petersburg; and the Texas Rangers play in Arlington. The Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim are in their own category. As for the affiliated Minor Leagues:

In 2010, their first season in the MWL, the Captains clinched 1st place in the Eastern Division with a walk-off victory over the Lugs in the first half finale. Lake County went on to win the championship.

Long-Distance Relationships

(source: GlobeFeed.com)

The Lake County Captains are close to the Cleveland Indians in more ways than one. Lake County is affiliated with the Tribe -- and the city of Eastlake is just under 17 miles away from the city of Cleveland.

The distances between farm clubs and their parent clubs in the Midwest League, from nearest to farthest:

2011 Season Series in Retrospect

The Lugnuts and Silver Hawks played each fairly even over the course of the season, with the Lugs taking nine of the 17 meetings between the two divisional foes.

The statistics told a different story: Lansing's offense managed just a .218 team batting average compared to South Bend's .253 clip, and the Lugnuts were outscored 74-64 and outthomered 10-6. This disparity was mostly caused by the Lugs' worst loss of the year, a 12-0 rout on June 16th at Cooley Law School Stadium.

Stan Coveleski

Of all of the stadiums in the Midwest League, South Bend's home park has the most widely used nickname: Stanley Coveleski Regional Stadium is known familiarly as "The Cove."

As for the namesake of the ballpark, the right-hander born Stanislaus Kowalewski (1889-1984) of Shamokin, PA, used a nasty spitball to great effect during a career lasting from 1912-1928. He finished with a won-lost record of 215-142 and an ERA of 2.89, having toiled for the Philadelphia Athletics, Cleveland Indians, Washington Senators and New York Yankees, and then he retired to South Bend to become a local icon.

He was brought back into the national spotlight by Lawrence Ritter's Glory of Their Times, chronicling interviews with ballplayers from the early 20th century. Three years after the book came out in 1966, Coveleski was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame.

Other Minor League ballparks with Major League namesakes include Hank Aaron Stadium (Mobile BayBears), Jackie Robinson Ballpark (Daytona Cubs), (Bill) McKechnie Field (Bradenton Marauders), Mike Lansing Field (Casper Ghosts) and George M.Steinbrenner Field (Tampa Yankees).

The Lugnuts commute to West Michigan; the 70-mile drive is the ballclub's only commuter road trip in the Midwest League.

2011 Season Series in Retrospect

The Lugnuts were scheduled to open the season at home against the Whitecaps, but unplayable field conditions wiped out the first three games in Lansing, canceling one. The season opener was pushed back to April 10th at West Michigan, won by the Whitecaps via a 13-12 slugfest.

That was be one of the rare triumphs for West Michigan in the 2011 season series. The Lugnuts won the next nine meetings, including three doubleheader sweeps. Michael Crouse homered four times and notched 14 RBIs while Egan Smith went 3-0 with a 0.56 ERA in three starts to lead the Lugs' dominance.

Baseball in West Michigan

by Keaton Gillogly

The history of baseball in West Michigan dates back to 1883 and the Northwestern League, with professional baseball in Grand Rapids for the next 34 years. From 1917-1951, however, no team spent more than five continuous years there. After the final season of the Grand Rapids Jets in '51, the area began a 43-year professional baseball drought.

The drought ended because of two men, Lew Chamberlin and Denny Baxter. In November 1989, the duo were a part of the Wisconsin Baseball Partnership which purchased the Wausau Timbers and turned them into the Kane County Cougars. Four years later, Chamberlin and Baxter successfully purchased the Madison Muskies and moved them across Lake Michigan to become the Whitecaps for the 1994 season. 475,212 patrons walked through the turnstiles of Old Kent Park in the inaugural season, breaking a Class-A single-season attendance record which had stood for nearly 50 years -- a record they rewrote each of the next two seasons.

It was a smashing initial decade for West Michigan; in 1999, Baseball America named the 1997 Whitecaps the third best Minor League team of the 1990s. That '97 club had the best record in professional baseball and fielded six future Detroit Tigers. The Whitecaps were also honored by Baseball America as the Class-A Organization of the Decade.

Carlos Alberto Zambrano
Pitcher, 1999 • Inducted 2010

At age 18, led Lugs with 13 wins in first professional season as full-time starter. Debuted in National League two years later. Pitched no-hitter vs. Houston on 9/14/08. Honored as a three-time All-Star and three-time Silver Slugger in the Major Leagues.

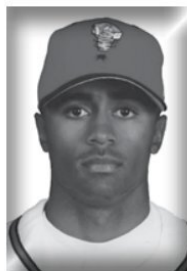

Brian Allan Dopirak
First Baseman, 2003-2004 • Inducted 2010

Played on 2003 Midwest League Championship team. Set franchise records in 2004 for home runs, RBI, total bases and extra bases, tying records for hits and doubles. Honored as 2004 Midwest League MVP and Midwest League Prospect of the Year.

Donald Corey Patterson
Outfielder, 1999 • Inducted 2011

3rd overall pick in 1998 draft starred for Lugnuts in his professional debut, batting .320 with 35 doubles, 17 triples, 20 homers and 33 steals. Named 1999 Midwest League Prospect of the Year. First Lansing Lugnut to hit for the cycle, 7/5/99 at South Bend. Made Major League debut with the Cubs on 9/8/00.

Historical Timeline

- 1889 - William Mumby manages the first Lansing pro baseball team to a 42-56 record and fourth place.
- 1890 - Under Al Manassau, the team loses 17 of its first 21 games. The Michigan State League folds in June.
- 1895 - The Lansing Senators feature 47-year-old Bud Fowler (born John W. Jackson in Cooperstown), the first professional black baseball player. The team also features John "Jack" Morrissey, who bats .362, and Jack Daley, who bats .397 with 124 runs scored, 143 hits, and 25 home runs.
- 1902 - The Senators shut down operations in August and the Michigan State League disbands soon after.
- 1907 - Playing in the Southern Michigan League, the Senators post a 46-57 record behind the leadership of Lansing native Morrissey, his first of eight seasons as manager. In 1902-03, Morrissey had played with Cincinnati in the National League, batting .258 in 41 games.
- 1908 - Lansing finishes with a middling 60-65 record, but pitcher George Pearce compiles 298 strikeouts and player/manager Morrissey fashions 141 hits to lead the offense.
- 1910 - In Jack Morrissey's finest season at the helm of the Senators, Vic Saier (175 hits) and Homer "Slab" Warner (23 wins) lead Lansing to an 87-52 record, tied for first place with the Kalamazoo Celery Eaters in the eight-team Southern Michigan League. The Celery Eaters defeat the Senators for the league championship.
- 1911 - Slab Warner sets a league record with 26 wins alongside 231 strikeouts. The Senators finish in second place.
- 1912 - Al "Bull" Durham, splitting the season between Lansing and Bay City, sets a league record with 25 homers.
- 1913 - T.H. Nellis collects 146 hits in the Senators' first season in the Southern Michigan Association.
- 1914 - On July 10, the middling 33-35 Senators move to Mount Clemens and become the Bathers, finishing 63-80. The Southern Michigan Association disbands at season's end.
- 1921 - The third-place Senators finish 65-63 in the Central League thanks to 18 wins from Lawrence Reno.
- 1922 - Lansing slips to 60-67, but Les Bell shines with a .329 average. The league shuts down at year's end.
- 1940 - Affiliated with the St. Louis Cardinals as part of Branch Rickey's groundbreaking farm system, the Lancers are the doormat of the six-team Michigan State League despite a dynamic offense. Gerald Burmeister leads the way with a .360 average, 15 home runs and 86 RBI. Teammate Dick Sisler, son of Hall of Famer George Sisler, bats .322; he would later play eight seasons in the Majors.
- 1941 - Renamed the Senators and no longer affiliated, Lansing loses 78 of 113 games, Everett Robinson's .345 average and 95 RBI going for naught. The team and league both disband at season's close.
- 1996 - Professional baseball returns to Lansing with the Lugnuts, a Class-A Midwest League affiliate of the Kansas City Royals. The first game played at brand new Oldsmobile Park is between the University of Michigan and Michigan State University on April 3, 1996, won by the Wolverines, 5-4, in 10 innings. The Colorado Silver Bullets, an all-female pro baseball team managed by Hall of Famer Phil Niekro, play at Oldsmobile Park on July 6th, losing to the Madison Stars, 8-1. Over the course of the season, the Lugnuts set a record for Minor League Baseball attendance, drawing 538,326 fans.
- 1997 - The Lugnuts host the Midwest League All-Star Game (won by the Eastern Division, 6-5) and win the Midwest League Championship after squeaking into the playoffs with a 69-68 record. The season also sees Jose Santiago make his debut with Kansas City, the first Lugnut to reach the Majors.
- 1999 - After missing the playoffs in 1998, the Lugnuts enter 1999 with a new affiliation, switching from the Royals to the Chicago Cubs. It's an exciting season: Lansing both hosts the All-Star Game and returns to the postseason behind MWL Prospect of the Year Corey Patterson, who hits for the franchise's first cycle at South Bend on July 5th. In the first round, Lansing sweeps away Michigan in two games before having the tables turned on them in a two-game sweep by Wisconsin.
- 2000 - Ryan Gripp leads the league with a .333 batting average and 166 hits, adding 20 home runs and 92 RBI while Oscar Montero posts a 0.37 ERA, allowing only one ER in 24.1 innings, but the Lugnuts finish 70-68 and miss the playoffs. On June 13th, Clinton's Scott Dunn twirls a 7-0 perfect game against Lansing.
- 2002 - Another All-Star Game and Championship in the same season? Almost. Lansing hosts its third All-Star Game (the East defeating the West, 6-3), but falls in the Championship Series to Peoria, 3-games-to-1. In the series finale on September 13th, the Chiefs overcame a 10-2 seventh-inning deficit, scoring eight runs in the ninth to claim a stunning 11-10 victory for the league title.
- 2003 - A memorable April 21st: Donnie Hood hits for the cycle and Justin Jones, Westin O'Brien, Mark Carter combine to throw the first no-hitter in franchise history, blanking Dayton, 15-0. The season gets better from there: Lansing's Keith Butler collects three hits in three at-bats and drives in the game-winning run in the All-Star Game to be named the Star of Stars. The Lugnuts win their second Midwest League Championship in dominating fashion, sweeping South Bend in two games, Battle Creek in two games, and Beloit in three games. Starters Anderson Tavares, Carlos Vasquez, and Andy Sisco lead the way, with closer Jason Wylie saving a franchise record 29 games to go along with 1.38 ERA
- 2004 - Eight different Lugnuts are named to the Midwest League All-Star Team, with Brian Dopirak honored as both the MVP and the Prospect of the Year thanks to a .307 average, 39 home runs, and 120 RBI. Chris Walker adds a franchise record 60 stolen bases. On the mound, catcher-turned-ace Carlos Marmol posts 14 wins and strikes out 154, though he is overshadowed by 21-year-old Sean Marshall, who records a startling 1.11 ERA in seven starts. The season also sees Mark Prior make a pair of rehab starts.
- 2005 - In the offseason, the Lugnuts change affiliations from the Cubs to the Blue Jays. Seven players earn All-Star Game nods including Casey Janssen, who goes a 4-0 in seven starts with a 1.37 ERA and a 38/4 strikeout/walk ratio. On June 2nd, Chip Cannon hits for the cycle in a 14-13, 13-inning victory against Clinton.
- 2007 - The inaugural Crosstown Showdown is held between Michigan State and Lansing on April 3, won 4-3 by the Lugnuts in nail-biting fashion. The season's star is Blue Jays prospect Travis Snider, who hits for the cycle in reverse order (amidst a 5-for-5 night) in a 9-3 victory at Fort Wayne on July 7. He finishes the season with a team-leading .313 batting average, 143 base hits, 16 home runs, and 93 runs batted in. On August 25, there is a different reason to celebrate as the Lugnuts welcome in Oldsmobile Park's 5,000,000th fan.

Timeline / Year-by-Year

2008 - Behind 28-year-old first-year manager Clayton McCullough and seven MWL All-Stars, the Lugnuts win their first division title since 1999, wrapping up the first-half Eastern Division title.

2009 - On April 16th, a record crowd of 12,992 watches the third installment of the Crosstown Showdown on April 16. The Spartans squash the Lugnuts, 12-2, for their first win in the series.

2010 - Oldsmobile Park is renamed Cooley Law School Stadium in the off-season. Former Major League catcher Sal Fasano makes his managerial debut in the Lugnuts dugout. On May 1st, Chris Hopkins' game-winning RBI single in the bottom of the ninth lifts the Lugnuts to their 1,000th all-time victory, 3-2 over Fort Wayne. On July 26th, Brad Glenn hits for the cycle at home against Clinton.

2011 - Steered by MWL Manager of the Year Mike Redmond and spearheaded by MWL Midseason/Postseason All-Star outfielders Michael Crouse and Jake Marisnick, the Lugnuts qualify for the playoffs via tiebreaker on the last day of the first half, then make an unexpected postseason run. On September 9th, one out away from elimination against powerful Dayton in Game 2 of their 1st round series, the Lugs received a dramatic two-run game-winning home run from second baseman Matt Nuzzo on September 9th, starting a string of four consecutive playoff victories vs. Dayton and Fort Wayne to clinch the Eastern Division title. However, the Lugnuts are swept in three games by Quad Cities in the Midwest League Championship Series. The season also included a stretch of 27 consecutive scoreless innings from standout hurler Drew Hutchison before his midseason promotion to the Florida State League.

The Crosstown Showdown

It's the battle of Lansing and East Lansing, black and red vs. green and white!

The Lansing Lugnuts and Michigan State University Spartans began playing the Crosstown Showdown, presented by Auto-Owners Insurance, in order to raise interest in the national pastime within the greater Lansing/East Lansing community. The game has been a resounding success, bringing in over 38,000 fans and producing the two largest crowds in stadium history.

Highlights from the first five meetings:

- In the inaugural showdown in 2007, Michigan State mounted a ninth-inning rally that put the potential game-tying run on base, only to see Julio Pinto snuff out the bid by striking out Kyle Hurtt to preserve a 4-3 win.
- In 2008, the game was shortened from nine to seven innings. A run-scoring error and a wild pitch from Michigan State in the sixth inning opened the door for the Lugnuts to escape with a 4-2 triumph.
- In 2009, the men of Sparta picked up their first victory, battering Lugnuts starting pitcher Scott Gracey for seven runs on eight hits and cruising to a 12-2 rout in front of a stadium record crowd of 12,992.
- In 2010, the Showdown was scheduled to be played on April 7th, but was postponed due to rain. 19 days later, the Lugnuts exploded for five runs in the fifth inning against Andrew Webb on their way to a slim 5-4 victory.
- In 2011, a tense pitcher's duel saw the Spartans tally in the first and fourth innings and hold off the Lugnuts late in a slim 2-1 victory.

Outfielder Eli Boike notably played in Crosstown Showdowns from 2007 through 2009 as a member of the Spartans, signed with the Toronto Blue Jays as an undrafted free agent, and made his Lugnuts debut in 2011.

Organizational Success in 2011

Only one Jays affiliate had won a league title since the Lugnuts joined the Toronto system in 2005: the 2007 Auburn Doubledays. Last season, however, there was a change for the better: both the New Hampshire Fisher Cats and Vancouver Canadians hoisted their league trophy, while the Lugnuts and Bluefield Blue Jays each made it to their league championship series.

Blue Jays Affiliates Since 2005

The Lugnuts joined the Toronto organizational ladder leading into the 2005 season. Over that time, there have been the following changes elsewhere in the system:

- The Blue Jays' Triple-A team changed from the International League's Syracuse SkyChiefs (1978-2008, renamed the Chiefs in December 2006) to the Las Vegas 51s (2009-present) of the Pacific Coast League.
- The Blue Jays' Double-A team has remained the Eastern League's New Hampshire Fisher Cats (2003-present).
- The Blue Jays' A-Advanced team has remained the Florida State League's Dunedin Blue Jays (1985-present).
- The Blue Jays' Short-Season A team changed last season from the New York-Penn League's Auburn Doubledays (2001-2010) to the Vancouver Canadians (2011-present).
- The Blue Jays' Rookie team changed from the Appalachian League's Pulaski Blue Jays (2003-2006) to the Gulf Coast League Jays (2007-present), adding a second rookie-level team last season in the Bluefield Blue Jays (2011-present).

Life in the Dominican Summer League

The Jays first coordinated a team in the Boca Chica South Division of the Dominican Summer League during the 2006 season, finishing with a sterling 44-29 record thanks to such future Lugnuts as outfielders Moises Sierra and Welinton Ramirez, infielder Oliver Dominguez and pitchers Joel Carreño and Luis Perez.

In 2007, Toronto fielded two different teams: Blue Jays1 featured future Lugnuts ace Henderson Alvarez but posted a disappointing 23-47 record, while Blue Jays2 went 34-36 with future Lugnuts reliever Nestor Molina playing third base and outfield.

In 2008, Blue Jays1 went 36-34 with catcher Carlos Perez batting .306 to earn himself a spot in the Dominican League All-Star Game. He was joined there by infielder Oliver Dominguez, who hit .305 with a .404 OBP for the 34-35 Blue Jays2 squad.

Toronto contracted back to one DSL team in 2009, playing in the Boca Chica North Division. The club recorded a 43-26 record thanks in large part to the offensive performances of third base platoon Manuel Falcon (.314 AVG, .415 OBP in 54 games) and Fausto Natera (.300 AVG, .386 OBP, 22 SB; led team in runs, hits, triples, and stolen bases).

The Blue Jays moved to the San Pedro Division in 2010, remaining at one team.

Media Information

Midwest League Rules

All-Star Selection - The Midwest League All-Stars are selected by the league's managers. They may not vote for their own players.

Consecutive Hitting Streak - A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if a batter's plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit-by-pitch, defensive interference, or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

Consecutive Playing Streak - A consecutive playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before complying with these requirements, his streak shall continue.

Designated Hitter Rule - A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included in the lineup card presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of the designated hitter for that game. The designated hitter may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The replacement player may stay in the game defensively, but the pitcher must take the place in the batting order of the replaced defensive player.

Disabled List Length - A player placed on the DL must sit out seven days. Day one is the first day after the player's last game played.

Doctored Bat - If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out, ejected and subject to additional penalties. A ball hit by an illegal bat does not count. If an umpire sees an illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Earned Runs Rule - A run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned runs, the inning should be reconstructed without errors and passed balls. The benefit of the doubt is always given to the pitcher in determining bases reached.

League Leader - To qualify for the league batting championships, a player must have a minimum of 378 plate appearances. To qualify for the ERA title, a pitcher must have a least 112 innings pitched.

Magic Number - Add one to the number of games remaining, then subtract the games ahead in the loss column of closest opponent.

Night Game - Any scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. or later will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed for any reason, it shall still be considered a day game.

Pinch Hitter Rule - A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter, and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up. A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter in his first time at bat. On subsequent trips, he is a designated hitter only.

Player Eligibility - There are no age restrictions on player eligibility in the Midwest League, however, no more than two players on a team's active list may have five or more years of prior service. A player shall be credited with one year of minor league service for each season he was active or on the Disabled List of a minor league club for at least 30 days.

Playoff Tie-Breakers - Ties involving two teams: 1) best record in head-to-head meetings; 2) best run differential in head-to-head meetings; 3) winner of final meeting of the season between the clubs. Ties involving more than two teams: 1) best winning percentage in games involving tied teams for the full season; 2) best run differential in games involving tied teams for the full season; 3) best winning percentage in second half games only in games involving tied teams; 4) best run differential in second half games only in games involving tied teams.

Saves Rule - One save per game may be credited. Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following criteria:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and
2. He is not the winning pitcher; and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or
 - b. He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck; or
 - c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

A "blown save" occurs when a pitcher who has entered a game in a save situation departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead. If the save situation still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. If he has not given up the lead when he departs, even though the save situation may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

Suspended Game Rule 4.11d (Official Baseball Rules) - A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

1. The visiting club has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored;
2. The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead;
3. The game is not yet a regulation game (4.5 innings with the hosts ahead, or five innings with the visiting club ahead or tied);
4. Any regulation game tied at the point play is stopped because of weather, curfew, or any other reason;
5. If a game is suspended before it becomes a regulation game, and is continued prior to another regularly scheduled game, the regularly scheduled game will be a seven-inning game.
6. If a game is suspended after it is a regulation game, and is continued prior to another regularly scheduled game, the regularly scheduled game will be a nine-inning game.

EXCEPTION: The Suspended Rule will not apply to the last scheduled game between the two teams during the League Playoffs.

Jackson Field Ground Rules

1. Dugout Railings (Green Padded and Gray Metal): If a thrown ball bounces off a dugout railing and lands in the playing surface, it remains in play. If a ball hits a dugout railing and goes into a dugout, it is considered dead.
2. Railings along first and third base lines: If a batted or thrown ball bounces off a railing and stays in the playing surface, it remains in play. If a ball bounces over a railing and into the stands, it is considered dead.
3. Tarp: If a thrown or batted ball bounces off the tarp, it remains in play. If the ball lodges in the tarp, it is considered dead.
4. Bullpens: A batted or thrown ball that goes into either bullpen remains in play.
5. Right Field: A batted ball must clear all gray metal railings to be considered a home run. A batted ball hit off the right field corner wall or the top of an outfield sign remains in play. A batted ball must be hit completely over the wall and all outfield signs in order to be a home run.
6. Center Field: A batted ball landing above the gray metal railing is a home run. A batted ball that strikes the center field scoreboard is considered a home run. A batted ball that strikes the wall just below the scoreboard is a home run. A batted ball must completely clear the all signs and railings in left center field to be a home run. If it bounces off of a sign or railing, it remains in play. All batted balls hit above the gray metal railing above outfield signs are home runs.
7. Left Field: A batted ball must clear the gray metal railings to be considered a home run. A batted ball striking the left field corner wall (LAFUCU sign) remains in play; the ball must land over the LAFUCU wall to be considered a home run. A batted ball landing to the right of the LAFUCU sign and above the railing is considered a home run.
8. Outfield Railings: A batted ball must completely clear the gray metal railings to be considered a home run. Any ball going through the gray metal railing shall be considered a ground rule double.

Policies / Local Media

The Lansing Lugnuts and the players and coaches of the Toronto Blue Jays organization extend our gratitude and appreciation for your support and coverage.

Lugnuts manager John Tamargo, Jr., and his ballclub are looking forward to working with you during the 2012 season. We ask that you please adhere to the following rules and regulations:

- Following the game's completion, please allow the coaching staff and players 10 minutes before entering the clubhouse to conduct interviews.
- Please conduct interviews with players first, as they will leave the ballpark before the staff.
- At Cooley Law School Stadium, Lugnuts players will be available on a daily basis for interviews directly after batting practice for 20-30 minutes. Other interview situations and times may be set up by prior arrangement, but the coaching staff prefers for player interviews to be conducted directly after batting practice whenever possible.
- In order to coordinate an interview with a member of the Lugnuts, please contact Jesse Goldberg-Strassler via email at jgoldstrass@lansinglugnuts.com or at (517) 485-4500, ext. 233.
- Interviews with players and coaches may be arranged while the team is on the road. If Jesse Goldberg-Strassler cannot be reached, please contact Lauren Truax, the Lugnuts Marketing Manager, at ltruax@lansinglugnuts.com or call (517) 485-4500, ext. 227.

Thank you for your cooperation in adhering to these rules and regulations.

We look forward to seeing you at Cooley Law School Stadium during the 2012 season!
