

SOUTH BEND CUBS 2018 MEDIA GUIDE

President Joe Hart, Owner Andrew Berlin, Cubs President Theo Epstein and Cubs Senior Vice President Jason McLeod

In the first six years of his ownership, Andrew Berlin and his staff have turned the South Bend baseball franchise from a rustbelt dud to Minor League gold standard.

The story of how the Chairman and CEO of Berlin Packaging acquired the team has been well documented, including the date down to the minute (November 11, 2011 at 11:11am). But what was the secret ingredient that brought new life into a historical ballpark and baseball team that had lost its identity?

"I really had the itch to buy a Major League team, but I wanted to stay in the Central Division," Berlin said when asked why he bought the South Bend Silver Hawks. "Unfortunately, no team was for sale, so I turned my attention then to the Minor Leagues. Thankfully at the time, the Silver Hawks were for sale."

Berlin knew he needed help along the way. Not long after he began his search for a Team President, one candidate jumped to the top of his list. After a five-hour meeting, Berlin hired Joe Hart.

"The franchise at the time was less stable than I thought it would be," Hart said. "My last team in Port Charlotte, Florida was a brand-new organization. I think coming here to South Bend and completely overhauling things here was harder than starting the team in Port Charlotte."

In order to plan well for the future, Hart took an in-depth look at the past.

Hart knew the South Bend franchise had been extremely successful in the past. Starting in 1988 as the Midwest League affiliate of the Chicago White Sox, the team was a hit among locals, drawing an average of 250,000 fans each season. South Bend has always been known for college sports with the University of Notre Dame. However, professional sports were new on the scene in the late '80s. Looking back at the numbers, Hart found that baseball fans in South Bend were present, but the ballpark amenities and experiences were not up to par.

"We immediately joined every chamber of commerce within 60 miles of the ballpark," Hart said. "As much as I wanted the public to come to the ballpark in the first season, people needed to know that we were making much needed upgrades, listening to their concerns about the facility and amenities, and we had to gain their trust."

After year one, Berlin and Hart's next step of the plan started with building and revitalizing the front office staff with capable and passionate baseball minds. Adding the likes of Nick Brown as Vice President, Andy Beuster as an Assistant General Manager, and Nick Barkley as the Director of Food Services gave South Bend a concrete base that set up for a bright future.

"Revitalizing the front office staff was an important step for us," Hart said. "We needed to bring in individuals with the same mindset and same beliefs."

Just as Berlin did with Hart, the new front office was carefully selected with qualified people who were up to the challenge. The task at hand was to transform the ballpark physically, but the park needed to be more attractive for both fan experience and monetary reasons. With the additions of the splash pad, the tiki hut, and plenty of new food options across the concourse, Four Winds Field has become a destination for baseball fans from across the country.

"We needed to improve everything," Berlin said. "From the cleanliness, to infrastructure, quality of food, sponsorship, merchandise... everything needed an upgrade."

As the franchise made these massive improvements, the fan base in South Bend grew at a rapid pace.

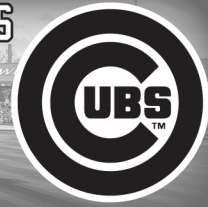

According to Berlin, the biggest accomplishment to date started with bringing in the Chicago Cubs to South Bend. When Theo Epstein and Jed Hoyer first visited Four Winds Field, Berlin took them around the ballpark; selling them on the South Bend brand, and eventually convincing them that the road to the World Series can and will start in South Bend. The Silver Hawks became the South Bend Cubs on September 25, 2014, a monumental achievement for the franchise.

The arrival of the Cubs changed the complexion of South Bend Baseball forever. Not only was it a smart relationship for both sides, but according to Hart, the South Bend brand is stronger than ever.

"Getting the Chicago Cubs to come here had a catalyst effect on the entire community," Berlin said. "That's what is so wonderful about baseball and sports. When done right, it has an economic and positive impact on a community. We've seen that in spades here in South Bend."

FOUR WINDS FIELD WHERE EVERYONE COMES TO PLAY

“Four Winds Field is a major-league field.”

Joe Hart, South Bend Cubs
President

Since purchasing the South Bend franchise in 2011, owner Andrew T. Berlin has led a slew of renovations and improvements to Four Winds Field. A full high-definition video production room, two additional outdoor suites, a new home clubhouse and a pristine natural grass surface headline the major improvements.

1ST SOURCE BANK PERFORMANCE CENTER

The South Bend Cubs Performance Center, run by former long-time manager Mark Haley, aids in player development through new batting cages, a fitness center and a renovated clubhouse. The facility is also used by the community for baseball and softball instruction.

“The gold standard in the minor leagues”

Andrew T. Berlin, South
Bend Cubs owner

Team Owner: Andrew Berlin

WELCOME TO THE 2018 SOUTH BEND CUBS SEASON!

I love the promise of each new season. Each fresh year gives our organization the chance to re-dedicate itself to the goals I established when I purchased the team in 2011: great baseball, thrilling memories for families and fans, and a revitalized South Bend.

We've made terrific progress on each of these goals. This is our fourth season affiliated with the Chicago Cubs, and I assure you we strive for excellence at each "at bat" we have. Importantly, we have some amazing momentum from last season – momentum that will help us on the field and off.

Great baseball

The Cubs continue to have terrific talent in their farm system. That means you get to see tomorrow's stars in South Bend today. And sometimes, like last year when we hosted Jason Heyward on a rehab assignment, you can see your favorite Chicago Cubs at Four Winds Field.

We played well last season, and the South Bend Cubs sent four players to the Midwest League All Star Game. Jimmy Gonzalez is back at the helm as Manager for his fourth season. Jimmy, 2016's Midwest League Manager of the Year, knows how to get the best out of his players.

Thrilling memories for families and fans

Last season we set another single season attendance record for our franchise, with more than 354,000 people coming through our gates. Each of these fans got a wonderful experience, with 87% of the respondents to our year-end fan thrill survey rating the experience as a 9 or a 10 on a 0-10 scale. And we are proud that Four Winds Field was voted by fans as the 2017 Best Low-A baseball stadium in Ballpark Digest.

This year we are making further enhancements, including an expanded Toyota Fun Zone for kids, a new walk-in Corona Beer Cave for adults, new food and merchandise options, and more service training for our whole staff. In addition, in June we are opening our new rooftop deck on top of The Ivy; with spectacular views, this group space will hold up to 300 people and will have a full kitchen and bar.

A revitalized South Bend

The Ivy at Berlin Place – a $23 million new development that includes 121 apartment units – will be the premier living space in downtown South Bend. The first units will be available for occupancy in mid-July, with entire project completed by the end of September. Learn more at TheIvyBerlinPlace.com.

This development is already attracting additional investment to South Bend.

Thank you for your support. Play ball!

CLASS A AFFILIATE OF THE CHICAGO CUBS

MIDWEST LEAGUE

To the Millions of Midwest League Fans:

I am thrilled to begin my 4th season as Midwest League President. Each day I realize how lucky I am to have the privilege of working with our 16 teams who are the best in Minor League Baseball. We have consistently exceeded 4 million fans coming through Midwest League Park gates each season. Therefore, I have the luxury of welcoming our fans in a way which highlights the fact each of you are not only "1 in a million", but 1 in 4 million!!!

The success of the Midwest League does not happen by accident. Each time I visit the parks around the League I find smiling faces, families holding hands and laughing at the entertainment, and cheering the play on the field. This affordable opportunity each of our Clubs provide to our fans is done with a welcoming smile and a true desire to treat you all as valued guests.

What makes me most proud is how our Clubs are excellent corporate citizens and each year either lead or are among the top 2 or 3 Leagues in Charitable Contributions of all of Minor League Baseball. In fact, more than a dollar per ticket goes back to worthy causes in each of our cities. For this philanthropy I thank our Clubs and fans.

We had a great 2017 Championship Season with the Whitecaps maintaining the best record for a Minor League Team, the TinCaps fielding the youngest team in Minor League Baseball and making it to the final Championship Series, and our Astros affiliate Quad Cities River Bandits winning it all, just like the parent Club in Houston.

So, saddle up, and get ready for another exciting season in the Midwest League; 2018 will be the best ever! A new set of players and teams will be thrilling our fans April through September. Don't miss an opportunity to take in a Midwest League game, as you'll experience a lifetime of memories. Play Ball!!!

Sincerely,

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA GUIDELINES

SEASON CREDENTIALS will be issued only to those legitimate newsgathering organizations that plan to cover the Cubs on a daily basis. Credentials are non-transferable and must be visible at all times.

DAILY CREDENTIALS will be issued to legitimate newsgathering organizations that do not qualify for season credentials. To obtain credentials, your initial request must be made in writing on letterhead to the South Bend Cubs Media Relations Department. Once your letter is on file, you fax (574-235-9950), e-mail (mediarelations@southbendcubs.com) or call (574-235-9988) in daily credential requests. The deadline to submit your credential request is 24 hours before game time.

PARKING PASSES: Your media pass will also serve as your parking pass. The reserved media parking lot is Lot A. There is no parking fee for working media.

PRESS WILL CALL: Credentials may be picked up at the Will Call window. You may pick up your pass beginning at 10:00 a.m. Monday-Friday and 11:00 a.m. Saturday and Sunday.

ADMISSION: Media must enter Four Winds Field through Gate A.

FIELD: Only credentialed media with field access will be allowed onto the field. All media must clear the field 15 minutes prior to the start of the game unless special permission has been granted.

DUGOUT: Photographers are allowed in the dugout camera area but are not permitted into the team's side of the dugout. Space is limited and will be granted on a first come, first serve basis. The South Bend Cubs reserve the right to deny access to the camera well based on availability.

PRESS BOX: The press box is located on the main concourse behind home plate. No food or drink is to leave the press box unless it is for a member of the camera crew. The press box is available to working media only. No spouses, guests or children of members of the media will be allowed in the press box.

FOOD: A press box meal will be provided by the South Bend Cubs.

STATS & INFORMATION: Game notes and statistics are available in the press box approximately three hours before game time. Anyone needing information earlier should contact the South Bend Cubs Media Relations Department.

CLUBHOUSE: The South Bend Cubs clubhouse is open to the media during the first 15 minutes of visitors batting practice with permission from a member of the South Bend Cubs Media Relations Department. Manager Jimmy Gonzalez and select players will also be available 20 minutes after the game. The clubhouse manager will post a "Clubhouse Open" sign during these times. These times are estimates and can be changed at the manager's discretion. If you have a specific request for an interview that cannot take place during the above times, please contact media relations at mediarelations@southbendcubs.com. The training room is always off-limits to members of the media.

BATTING PRACTICE: Members of the media are welcome to attend batting practice and interview players during this time, pending manager approval. A member of the Cubs Media Relations Department must accompany media members for interviews during batting practice. While on the field, members of the media must stay in foul territory to avoid possible injury. The Cubs are not responsible for any injuries that may be incurred while on the field.

AUTOGRAPHS: Autograph-seeking by members of the media is prohibited.

FOR MORE INFORMATION regarding policies or questions about interviews, photo requests, statistical information, credential requests, news releases, etc., please contact the Cubs Media Relations Department at mediarelations@southbendcubs.com.

VIOLATIONS of media regulations may result in revocation of an individual's credentials.

FOUR WINDS FIELD GROUND RULES

1. Ball lodged in, on or behind backstop is a dead ball.
2. Dugouts: Netting on rails in front of both dugouts is live. If a ball bounces off netting and lands in playing area, ball is live. Netting behind dugouts is dead. If a ball hits netting and drops into the dugout, ball is dead. Any ball that hits directly over the dugout is dead. The top step of either dugout opening is in play, any other area past top step is dead. If a fielder, after catching a fly ball, steps into a dugout, but does not fall, the ball is in play and runners may advance at their own peril, and the fielder may throw from the dugout.
3. The camera pits located in the dugouts are dead.
4. The railings along the first and third base lines are in play. If a ball bounces over the railing and into the stands, it is dead.
5. Tarps: If a ball rolls into, under or behind the tarps, it is dead. Balls deflecting off the tarps are in play. A player may not use the tarp as a step to make a play. Any diving on or over to make a play is permitted. No elevation allowed on tarp.
6. If any ball gets lodged underneath or in between the steel steps on each side of the dugout, the ball is dead. A player may not use the steel steps to make a play.
7. Bullpens: All fair balls hit or thrown into the bullpen area are live except those that become lodged beneath the bullpen benches. Lodged balls are dead. All chairs are to remain up against the wall.
8. Outfield wall: Any batted ball that clears the metal railing above the wall is a home run with the exception of the left and right field exposed concrete walls, next to each foul pole. A ball is considered a home run in those areas if the batted ball clears the top of either concrete wall. If a ball becomes lodged between or under padding, it is dead.
9. Any batted ball that hits any part of the foul pole is a home run.
10. The ball must clear the batter's eye for it to be a home run. If a ball hits any part of the batter's eye it is in play. The horn on top of the batter's eye is in play.
11. Center field: If the ball becomes lodged under the gate in center field, or goes through a gap in the gate on a fly or bounce, it is dead and ruled a double.
12. Center field: If the ball lands in the camera window inside the batters eye, it is ruled a double.
13. The stadium bridge between the video board and batters eye is recessed. If a batted ball hits any part of the bridge and bounces back into play, it is considered a home run.
14. The Barefoot Wine Party Patio Sign is even with the outfield metal railing. Any batted ball that hits the sign and bounces back into play is live.

DARIN PRITCHETT AND BRENDAN KING, VOICES OF THE SOUTH BEND CUBS

Darin Pritchett is in his fourth season as the play-by-play broadcaster for the South Bend Cubs. He will be joined this season by new #2 voice Brendan King. The two broadcasters will work side by side for every South Bend Cubs home game.

Pritchett is in his 19th year at WSBT Radio where he is the station's sports director. He also hosts Weekday Sportsbeat, broadcasts sports reports on The WSBT Morning News with JT and hosts WSBT Radio's Notre Dame football pre game show. Pritchett is in his sixth season calling Notre Dame hockey games.

A 2017 graduate of Butler University, King enters his second year in professional baseball after spending the 2017 campaign with the Boise Hawks, short-season A affiliate of the Colorado Rockies. King also broadcasted baseball throughout college with the Big East Conference and in the Cape Cod Baseball League with the Orleans Firebirds.

You can hear every South Bend Cubs game on 96.1fm WSBT. The games will also be available on WSBTRadio.com, SouthBendCubs.com and the WSBT Radio App. Pritchett will handle Play-by-Play for innings 1-3 and 7-9, while King will take innings 4-6.
