2015 IN REVIEW

“The echoes of Hillsboro Hops players yelling, in unison, “All Hopped Up” reverberated through the cement walls of the visitors’ clubhouse at Gesa Stadium late Sunday night. The team’s raucous celebration culminated a night which saw the Hops beat Tri-City 6-1 in the winner-take-all final game of the best-of-three 2015 Northwest League Championship Series. Hillsboro won the title for the second straight year.”

CARLOS HERNANDEZ: 2015 NORTHWEST LEAGUE PITCHER OF THE YEAR

Starting pitcher Carlos Hernandez became the first ever Hillsboro Hop to take home the award of Northwest Pitcher of the Year following a sterling 2015 season.

Hernandez set a franchise record for strikeouts on the season with 93, which was 21 more than the next closest pitcher. He credited 2015 Hops pitching coach Doug Drabek for instilling confidence in his repertoire and making him feel more confident will all of his offerings.

Hernandez posted outstanding numbers across the 2015 regular season, and then raised his game while winning two elimination games in the playoffs.

2015 regular season: 6-3, 2.32 ERA, 15 GS, 85.1 IP, 58 H, 24 R, 22 ER, 27 BB, 93 K, .193 BAA, 1.00 WHIP

2015 postseason: 2-0, 0.75 ERA, 2 GS, 12 IP, 5 H, 1 ER, 4 BB, 19 K, both wins came in elimination games

DANSBY SWANSON BEGINS CAREER WITH HILLSBORO

With the first pick in the 2015 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, the Arizona Diamondbacks selected shortstop Dansby Swanson out of Vanderbilt University.

After much speculation, Swanson was assigned to the Hillsboro Hops to begin his career and made his professional debut August 12th, 2015 at Ron Tonkin Field against the Vancouver Canadians. His first hit came August 15th -- a ringing triple to the left-field wall.

He would go on to hit .289 with one home run and 11 RBI in 22 games for the Hops. He was the first number-one overall selection to debut in the Northwest League since a 17-year-old Ken Griffey Jr. did so for the Bellingham Mariners in 1987.

August 12th, 2015 was a historic day for the Hops, as Dansby Swanson debuted at shortstop against Vancouver. (Craig MitchellDyer/Hillsboro Hops)

TWO FORMER HOPS MAKE THEIR MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUTS

Aaron Blair, 2013

Not even a week after Aaron Blair became the first Hop in the major leagues, Zac Curtis received his call to the bigs. He debuted on April 30th, 2016 against the Colorado Rockies. Curtis became the first ever Hop to debut for the parent club Diamondbacks, and in an unprecedented move, was promoted from Advanced-A Visalia all the way to the major leagues. Curtis still holds the Hops franchise record for saves in a season with 14, and recorded saves in all four of Hillsboro's playoff victories en route to the 2014 NWL Championship.

Zac Curtis, 2014

On April 24th, 2016, Aaron Blair became the first former Hop to make his Major League debut when he toed the rubber for the Atlanta Braves against the New York Mets. Blair debuted professionally for the Hops on July 5th, 2013 against Vancouver. He would go on to make eight starts for the Hops in their inaugural season. Blair was involved in a trade in the 2015 off-season that saw him, Dansby Swanson, and Ender Inciarte moved to Atlanta in exchange for Shelby Miller and Gabe Speier.
