Mark Attanasio
Chairman and Principal Owner

The 2018 season is the 14th for Mark Attanasio as chairman and principal owner of the Milwaukee Brewers.

Attanasio is overseeing the continued organizational transition that began during the 2015 season with the ultimate goal of bringing a World Series championship to Milwaukee. Last season was an exciting one that showed tangible progress on this objective with an 86-win campaign.

The Club's investments in the baseball operations department have been focused on obtaining and developing young impact players. As a result, over the past two years, the team has built one of the strongest minor-league systems in all of Major League Baseball.

Attanasio continues to work diligently to uphold each of the four cornerstone pledges he made to the Brewers and community when he bought the team 13 years ago:

1. FIELDING A PERENNIALY COMPETITIVE TEAM

Attanasio has worked closely with General Manager David Stearns and Manager Craig Counsell, as well as the baseball operations staff, to build a sustainable flow of new players to join the team's veteran talent. Building on last season's success, the Brewers have added two top-rated outfielders for 2018. Lorenzo Cain returns to the organization under a long-term contract after winning a world championship, ALCS MVP, and being named an All-Star. Rising star Christian Yelich, 26, was obtained in a trade with the Marlins, and has won both a Silver Slugger and a Gold Glove Award.

The 2018 season will continue the strategy of focusing on the acquisition, development and retention of young players who can excel at the athletic and aggressive style of play that has been established by Craig Counsell. Significant investments will continue in scouting and player development through advanced technology, talent evaluation and analytics, as well as in acquiring top talent through the amateur draft, international market, trades and free agency.

2. DELIVERING THE BEST FAN EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE, WHETHER AT MILLER PARK, THROUGH BROADCASTS OR OVER THE INTERNET

Attanasio continues to appreciate the unwavering support and enthusiasm of Brewers fans and remains committed to providing them with the best fan experience possible. The Brewers have drawn more than 2.5 million fans at Miller Park in 10 of the last 11 seasons. The Club secured the 10th-highest total attendance in baseball last season (2,558,722).

In 2017, the Brewers unveiled the single- largest Miller Park fan experience upgrade in the history of the facility with a complete overhaul of its food and beverage operations, including the introduction of many of Milwaukee's favorite restaurants – Zaffiro's Pizza, Smoke Shack Barbeque, A.J. Bombers and Holey Moley Donuts – in addition to an expanded lineup of the usual favorites along with three new bar areas. This project earned the 2017 Ballpark Digest Award for Best New Concessions Experience.

BREWERS LEADERSHIP

New for 2018, the PNC Club Level will be renovated to include a redesign and modernization of the aesthetic for the corridor, two new food destinations and a hospitality station. In addition, there will be a new kids play area on the Terrace Level and a renovation of the main team store on the Field Level.

These and other offseason projects will continue to improve what is consistently rated a top fan environment in Major League Baseball.

3. REMAINING A LEADER IN THE COMMUNITY

Attanasio remains committed to and personally involved with Brewers Community Foundation (BCF), the charitable arm of the Club, as it continues to grow since its 2010 re-branding. BCF raised more than $3 million during 2017. Over the past eight years, BCF has provided over 1,600 grants totaling more than $12 million to nonprofit organizations across Wisconsin that support programs focused on its four areas of concentration: health, education, recreation and basic needs. In addition to fans' support of the Foundation, nearly all uniformed Brewers players, their families, and executives of the Club's front office staff contributed their time or financial resources to BCF in 2017.

4. BEING AN ORGANIZATION WHERE PEOPLE WANT TO WORK, WHETHER ON THE FIELD OR BEHIND THE SCENES

Attanasio has continued to deliver on his commitment to make the Brewers organization one of the best places to work in Greater Milwaukee as well as in all of sports. During his 13 years as principal owner, the Club has grown as a desirable destination for some of baseball's top players, front office personnel and business executives.

Under Attanasio's leadership, the corporate culture has focused on best practices and achieving excellent results across all areas of the Club. This includes providing employees with training and career development as well as opportunities to participate in the Club's community outreach efforts.

BEYOND THE BREWERS

In addition to his role as chairman and principal owner, Attanasio has been an accomplished investment management executive for more than 25 years. He is a managing partner of Crescent Capital Group, Inc., an employee-owned Los Angeles-based asset management firm, which he co-founded in 1991.

Attanasio holds positions on several not-for-profit boards in Milwaukee as well as elsewhere around the U.S., including the Board of Trustees of Heal the Bay, The Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) and Harvard-Westlake School. In addition, Attanasio is a member of Major League Baseball's Executive Council, Labor Policy Committee, Revenue Sharing Definitions Committee, and is Chairman of its Investment Committee. He is a member of LA28, the bid committee that successfully secured the 2028 Summer Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Attanasio is also an investor in the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League.

Attanasio received his A.B. from Brown University and his J.D. from the Columbia University School of Law. He and his wife, Debbie, have two sons.

BREWERS LEADERSHIPSHIP

Rick Schlesinger Chief Operating Officer

Rick Schlesinger is entering his 16th season with the Milwaukee Brewers and eighth as chief operating officer. He was named to his current position on January 24, 2011 after previously serving as executive vice president of business operations.

Schlesinger oversees the Club's business affairs, including finance, human resources, information technology, legal, sponsorships, marketing, ticketing, communications, broadcasting and non-baseball special events.

In nearly every aspect of the business, the Brewers have eclipsed records during Schlesinger's tenure. In 2017, over 2.5 million fans attended games at Miller Park, representing the 10th time in the last 11 seasons that the organization has exceeded the 2.5 million attendance mark. Additionally, the team has sold in excess of 2.3 million tickets for 12 consecutive seasons, making the Brewers one of just nine teams to reach that level each year since 2006.

Under Schlesinger's guidance, the Club has enhanced the fan experience at Miller Park on numerous fronts. The latest upgrade for 2018 includes a renovation of the PNC Club Level concourse, which serves as a popular destination for suite patrons and ticket buyers. Last season, the Brewers initiated a complete transformation of the food and beverage hospitality experience, which marked the largest Club-funded project in the history of Miller Park. Those efforts were honored with the 2017 Ballpark Digest Award for Best New Concessions Experience.

Over the years, the Brewers have expanded their reach into the community to include the rebranding of Brewers Community Foundation, Inc. and the introduction of several new initiatives to benefit area causes.

Prior to joining the Brewers, Schlesinger served as vice president, business and legal affairs/assistant general manager for the Anaheim Angels from 1998-2002 after previously working in motion picture development and production for Walt Disney Pictures and Television.

Schlesinger is actively involved in several charitable and community activities, including membership on the University of Wisconsin-Madison Department of History Board of Visitors.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1983, Schlesinger received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School (cum laude) in 1986. After graduating from Harvard, he spent six years at the Los Angeles law firm of Latham and Watkins before joining Disney.

Schlesinger is a native of Bayside, Wisconsin, and resides in Oconomowoc with his wife, Kate. They have five children: Bradley, Sam, Katie, Molly, and Mathieu.

David Stearns General Manager

David Stearns, 33, was named Brewers general manager on September 21, 2015, becoming the ninth GM in franchise history. He officially began his position on October 5, 2015.

Since becoming general manager at age 30, Stearns has implemented an approach to acquire, develop and retain young, controllable talent across all levels of the organization with the goal of making an impact at the Major League level.

This past offseason, the team signed All-Star outfielder Lorenzo Cain to a five-year contract and acquired outfielder Christian Yelich, a 2014 Gold Glove Award winner and 2016 Silver Slugger recipient, in a trade with Miami. On the pitching front, the Brewers signed right-handers Matt Albers, Jhoulys Chacín and Yovani Gallardo, along with left-handed reliever Boone Logan via free agency. The Club also agreed to a two-year contract extension with starting pitcher Chase Anderson with club options for 2020 and 2021.

Under Stearns and manager Craig Counsell, the Brewers have increased their win total in each of their first two full seasons (2016-17). Last season, the Brewers' 13-game win improvement from the previous season (73 wins in 2016; 86 wins in 2017) tied for the fourth-best increase in the majors.

Third baseman Travis Shaw, who earned 2017 team MVP honors, enjoyed a breakout season in his first season in Milwaukee as he batted .273 with 31 HR and 101 RBI after being acquired from Boston at the 2016 Winter Meetings. Fellow newcomer, first baseman/outfielder Eric Thames, tied Shaw for the team lead with 31 homers. As a team, the 2017 Brewers led their league in home runs (224, tied) and stolen bases (128) in the same season for just the second time in franchise history (also in 2012 with 202 HR and 158 SB).

Prior to joining the Brewers, Stearns spent three seasons (2013-15) with the Houston Astros as assistant general manager. In that role, he was a key member of the management team, focusing on all areas of baseball operations, including analytics, administration, player development and scouting.

During his tenure with Houston, the Astros put together one of Major League Baseball's most dramatic turnarounds in recent history as they went from 51 wins in 2013 to 70 in 2014 and 86 in 2015 to clinch a Wild Card berth.

Before joining the Astros, Stearns spent one season as director of baseball operations with the Cleveland Indians from December 2011 through November 2012, where he focused on contract negotiations, salary analysis, team strategy and roster management.

Stearns worked in the Office of the Commissioner from 2008-11, most recently as manager of labor relations. He assisted in the salary arbitration process, handling uniform player contracts, and was a member of MLB's negotiating team for the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Prior to joining Major League Baseball, Stearns served internships in the baseball operations departments of the Pittsburgh Pirates (summers of 2005-06) and New York Mets (2008). In addition, he worked for the Arizona Fall League as assistant director of baseball operations in 2007.

Stearns graduated from Harvard University in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in political science. The New York City native resides in Milwaukee with his wife, Whitney.

FIVE COUNTY STADIUM

BUILT: 1991 | CAPACITY: 6,500

LF: 330' | LCF: 365' | CF: 400' | RCF: 365' | RF: 309'

NAME: Five County Stadium is named after the five Eastern North Carolina counties that surround the ballpark. Five County Stadium is operated by and sits in Wake County, but is located in close proximity to Franklin, Nash, Johnston and Wilson counties.

BUILT: Five County Stadium was originally constructed in 1991. However, the Mudcats did not start playing at Five County Stadium until July 3, 1991 after weather complications delayed construction. Workers were still installing the stadium seats when the Mudcats finally played their first home opener at their new home. Those same workers then doubled as ushers as they installed seats for fans as they entered through the gates. Stadium workers also had to physically raise a flag pole during the opening night rendition of the National Anthem before the game. The stadium underwent a massive renovation beginning in 1997 and concluding in 1999. The renovation project included new entry features, offices, tickets booths, new playing surface and drainage system, lights, outfield wall, and a greatly improved sound system. Most recently, in 2015, Wake County and the Town of Zebulon, owners of Five County Stadium, added a state-of-the-art, 82' wide video board to the home of the Mudcats.

CAPACITY: Five County Stadium's official seating capacity is 6,500 with the possibility of an additional 1,500 to 2,000 more in stand-ing-room-only areas in the event of a sellout crowd.

NETTING: With approximately 13,000 square feet of protective netting, Five County Stadium provides one of the safest fan experiences in all of minor league baseball. The safety netting runs consistently from the far end of both bullpens (located in foul territory beyond the first and third base sides) above both dugouts and behind home plate. At an overall approximate width of 556'; the netting protects every lower level seat, as well as the majority of the upper level seating at Five County Stadium. It reaches a maximum height of 40' from the far end of both dugouts and behind home plate. The netting sits nine feet tall beginning from the far end of both dugouts and stretching out to the back of both bullpens.

GROUND RULES:

1. Everything is in play.
2. Catches can be made over the fences in left and right field foul-line areas.
3. No feet on dugout steps to make catch.
4. Ball Hitting fence signs is playable
5. Ball hitting nets, in front of video board is a home run.
6. Ball hitting ledge in front of sign under left field video board and bouncing into net is ground rule double.
8. Ball over the top of fence is a home run.

INTRA-DIV: Carolina went 50-39 versus Carolina League Southern Division opponents in 2017; with winning records versus the Dash (19-5), Pelicans (13-8) and Wood Ducks (11-10). They were just 7-16 versus Buies Creek in 2017.

HEAD-TO-HEAD PERFECTION: The Mudcats finished a perfect 13-0 when playing the Dash at home in 2017. Carolina last swept a Carolina League opponent in their overall home season series back in 2015 after finishing at 7-0 versus the Frederick Keys in Zebulon. Carolina also finished the 2015 season going 13-3 versus the Keys overall. The (Southern League) Mudcats also finished 5-0 at home versus the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx in 2006.

THE ALL-STARS: Six Mudcats were named mid-season Carolina All-Stars in 2017, while two earned post-season All-Star honors. The mid-season All-Stars included Isan Diaz, Jake Gatewood, Nate Griep, Freddy Peralta, Cody Ponce and Corey Ray. Griep and Lucas Erceg, meanwhile, were both named to the CL post-season team.

KING OF THE BIG FLY: Jake Gatewood won the 2017 Carolina League All-Star Classic Home Run Derby on 6/20/17 at Haley Toyota Field in Salem, Va. Gatewood homered 13 times in both the first and second rounds before winning the All-Star Game Home Run Derby with a final round total of 15 home runs. In 2013, a then 17-year-old Gatewood also won the Junior Home Run Derby at the MLB All-Star festivities at Citi Field in New York. THE WEEKLY'S: Three Mudcats earned Carolina League player/pitcher of week honors in 2017, with the first (of four total weekly awards) honor earned by Lucas Erceg on 7/31/17. Monte Harrison won the same award the very next week on 8/7/17 (7/31-8/6: .344/.364/.719, 7 G, 11-for-32, 3 2B, 3 HR, 7 RBI, 6 R, 1 BB, 10 K, 1 CS) and Jordan Yamamoto won the final pitcher of the week award of the season on 9/5/17 (8/24-9/4: 2-0, 0.00 ERA, 14.0 IP, 10 H, 2 BB, 14 SO). Erceg was a two-time Carolina League Player of Week award winner having won the award first on 7/31/17 (7/24-7/30: .478/.520/1.043, 7 G, 11-for-23, 6 XBH, 2 2B, 1 3B, 3 HR, 12 RBI, 1.563 OPS) and again on 8/28/17 (8/21-8/27: .500/.621/.773, 6 G, 11-for-22, 3 2B, 1 HR, 7 RBI, 8 R, 7 BB, 4 SO).

CLOSING TIME: Nate Griep became the Mudcats' all-time saves leader after closing out his 29th save of the season on 9/2/17 vs. Myrtle Beach. Griep also earned a save in his final appearance of the season and finished the year with a franchise record 30 saves (34 SVO). Those 30 saves were also the second most in Minor League Baseball in 2017. Chris Mobley set the previous Mudcats record of 28 saves in 2008. Griep also set a franchise record (23 SV) for the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers during the 2016 season.

HAWAII KO: Jordan Yamamoto finished the 2017 season just one inning shy of officially qualifying for the Carolina League lead in earned run average. Yamamoto went 9-4-1 and pitched to a stellar 2.51 ERA over 22 games, 18 starts and 111.0 inning pitched. Yamamoto led Carolina League pitchers with at least 110.0 innings in ERA (2.51), while also finishing third in average against (.221) and fourth in SO/9ip ratio (9.16). Yamamoto's final start of the season came on 9/3/17 where he struck out seven, walked one and scattered seven hits versus the Myrtle Beach Pelicans. He finished his final outing with a 73 game score and worked through seven complete frames on 105 pitches (68 strikes). The scoreless outing was his third straight scoreless start and stretched his end-of-season consecutive innings scoreless streak to 21.1 over his last four starts. Yamamoto finished 4-1 with a 0.27 ERA over his last five starts (9.27 SO/9ip, .176 AVG) and ended the year at 9-4 with a 2.51 ERA (lowest among CL starts with at least 110.0 IP).

A NOT SO HUMBLE DEBUT: Catcher Cooper Hummel made his 2017 season debut on 5/18/17 and finished a single shy of the cycle while going 3-for-3 with a double, a triple, a home run, two runs and three RBIs. In all, he doubled and scored a run in the third, tripled and drove in a run in the fourth, walked in the sixth and hit a 2-run home run with two outs in the eighth. He also caught five pop outs, picked off a runner at first and reached base safely in all four of his at bats.

2017 SEASON WRAP-UP

DAYMEN: The Mudcats combined to hit .270/.341/.434 and went 21-10 in day games in 2017... Weston Wilson hit a team best .340/.377/.500 over 13 day games in 2017 (17-for-50, 5 2B, 9 RBI)... Cooper Hummel hit .304/.439/.587 with a team best 1.026 OPS over 13 day games in 2017 (14-for-46, 10 R, 3 2B, 2 3B, 2 HR, 10 RBI, 11 BB).

20/20 CLUB: Monte Harrison and Troy Stokes Jr. were two of only 10 players in MiLB to finish the 2017 season with at least 20 home runs and 20 stolen bases. Harrison reached the 20/20 club after hitting his 20th home run and stealing his 21st base while going 3-for-6 with a home run and two stolen bases on 8/17/17 at Down East. Harrison totaled 21 home runs and 26 stolen bases between Low-A Wisconsin (11 HR, 11 SB) and High-A Carolina over the course of the 2017 season. Stokes began the year with the Mudcats and totaled 14 homers and 21 steals in 100 games before finishing the season with six home runs and nine stolen bases over 35 games with Double-A Biloxi.

THEIEVERY: The Mudcats totaled a Carolina League high 174 stolen bases and were third in most steals in MiLB last season. Luis Aviles (37 SB, 8 CS) and Trent Clark (37, 5 CS) led the Mudcats and were tied for second in the CL in steals with 37 in 2017. Corey Ray (24 SB, 10 CS) was fifth in the CL in stolen bases, while Troy Stokes Jr. (21 SB, 9 CS) was 10th. Monte Harrison totaled 16 stolen bases and was caught just once over 56 games with Carolina. The club record for steals in a season is 208 and was set by the 2000 Mudcats... The Mudcats were one of only five teams in Minor League Baseball to total at least 100 stolen bases (174) and 100 home runs (101) in 2017.

HIDDEN-BALL TRICK: Lucas Erceg successfully executed the hidden-ball trick on 5/3/17 at Five County Stadium against the Buies Creek Astros and outfielder Kyle Tucker. Tucker, and trailing runner Dexture McCall, had just stolen third and second base respectively when Erceg attempted the play. Erceg applied his tag (on a throw from catcher Mitch Ghelfi) and then bluffed his throw back to pitcher Wuilder Rodriguez before then waiting patiently for Tucker to leave third base. It took approximately :35 seconds for Tucker to step into his lead at third before Erceg applied the tag. Umpires Austin Jones and Ryan Wilhelms (plate) consulted after Erceg applied the tag and eventually decided that Tucker was out. Buies Creek Manager Omar Lopez was ejected after arguing the result of the decision. The out was the second of the seventh inning, in a game the Mudcats eventually won 3-0 (they led 2-0 before the play). The play was featured on MLB Network, SportsCenter, Around the Horn, Highly Questionable and several other outlets.

BURNING THROUGH: Milwaukee Brewers Minor League Pitcher of the Year Corbin Burnes began the 2017 season with the Mudcats before a late May (5/29) promotion to Double-A Biloxi. Burnes was 5-0 over 10 starts with the Mudcats and left the Carolina League as the league leader in ERA (1.05), WHIP (0.88) and fewest baserunners/9ip ratio (8.25). Burnes was also second in the league in lowest average against (.181), third in innings pitched (60.0) and fourth in strikeouts (56) before the promotion. Overall, Burnes went 8-3 with a 1.67 ERA (145.2 IP, 27 ER) with 36 walks and 140 strikeouts in 26 starts between Class-A Advanced Carolina and Double-A Biloxi in 2017.

ON THE SEVENTH DAY: The Mudcats went 16-6 and combined to hit .271 (26 2B, 2 3B, 11 HR) with an average of 5.69 runs/game on Sunday in 2017. That 16-6 Sunday record also included an 11-1 record in Sunday, daytime home games at Five County Stadium.

NUMBER ONE: Monte Harrison reached SportsCenter's Top 10 countdown twice during the 2017 season, with both plays landing at the number one overall spot in their respective countdowns on 7/31/17 and 8/10/17. The first play was a diving catch in left-center against the Wood Ducks at Five County Stadium on 7/31/17. The second occurred on 8/10 and was a diving catch in right against Lynchburg at Five County. Harrison also began Carolina's 9-2-6-2 triple play, which was featured as SportsCenter's "Golden Moment" on 8/9. The Mudcats were featured on SportsCenter seven times overall in 2017 (military homecoming surprise on 4/26, Lucas Erceg's hidden-ball trick on 5/3, Trent Grisham's foul ball lands in fan's cup on 5/5, Weston Wilson proposal on 5/6) and reached the No. 1 slot of the SC top 10 twice.

FOR THREE: The Mudcats turned a 9-2-6-2 triple play in game one of a doubleheader on 8/9/17 versus the visiting Hillcats. The unconventional triple play was the fifth triple play in Mudcats' team history, the first in the club's Carolina League era and the first and only triple play of the year in the Carolina League... The Mudcats also turned triple plays on 6/21/95 vs. Greenville (3-5-6-9), 5/5/96 vs. Memphis (5-4-3, 10th inn.), 8/19/08 vs. Mississippi (6-3) and on 7/31/09 vs. Chattanooga (3-2-5).

THE STREAK: Jake Gatewood tied a Mudcats' franchise record by hitting safely in 23 consecutive games between 4/21/17 and 5/14/17. The 23-game hitting streak was the longest in the Carolina League in 2017 and a career best for Gatewood. Gatewood hit .372/.443/.628 (32-for-86) with 18 runs, 10 doubles, four home runs, 14 RBIs, 11 walks and a 1.071 OPS during the streak. Bryson Myles of the 2013 Mudcats (7/15/13-8/11/13) also hit safely in 23 straight games during the 2013 season.

PLAYOFF PROCEDURES

POSTSEASON FORMAT

Four clubs will qualify for the postseason: the winners of each half in each division. Should one club win both halves of a division, the club in the same division with the second-best second-half winning percentage will qualify as a "wild card."

DIVISION SERIES

Both Division Series will open on the second day following the conclusion of the scheduled regular season. They will continue on consecutive days until a champion is determined. The two half winners within each division will face each other in a best-of five series to determine the division champion. The first two games will be played on the grounds of the second half winner (or wild card), and the remaining necessary game(s) on the grounds of the first half winner.

MILLS CUP CHAMPIOSHIP SERIES

The Mills Cup Championship Series will open on the eighth day following the end of the scheduled regular season, unless delayed by called or postponed games in either Division Series. The opening of the Series will also be delayed if either competing club is required to travel 500 or more miles following a game the previous day. Once begun, the Series will continue on consecutive days until a champion is determined.

In odd-numbered years, the first two games will be in the city of the Northern Division Champion, with the remaining necessary games in the Southern Division Champion's city. This format will be reversed in even-numbered years.

REGULAR SEASON TIEBREAKERS - FIRST HALF

In case two or more clubs shall have the same percentage at the close of the first half of the championship season, the following tie-breakers will be used. The first tie-breaker is head-to-head first-half record. If that is also tied, the first meeting between the clubs in the second half will determine the first-half championship. If three clubs have identical percentages at the end of the first half and all have identical records against the other two, the first second-half game between any two of them would eliminate one club, and the next meeting of the other two clubs in the second half would determine the first half champion.

REGULAR SEASON TIEBREAKERS - SECOND HALF

In the event that two or more clubs finish with the same percentage in the second half championship (or "wild card" postseason berth), ties will be broken as follows: first by head-to-head second-half record. If that is tied, second by overall head-to-head record. If that is also tied, then by overall record.

The Double-A version of the Mudcats then became the Pensacola Blue Wahoos.

Following the 1990 season, the then Columbus Mudcats packed up shop and left Golden Ballpark in Georgia for Eastern North Carolina where they would make their home in Zebulon and become the Carolina Mudcats. The idea was to begin play at the brand new Five County Stadium in Zebulon in 1991, but poor winter weather slowed construction forcing the Mudcats to begin their home schedule of games temporarily at Fleming Stadium in Wilson, NC.

The Mudcats then made their Fleming Stadium home debut against Greenville on April 19, 1991 in front of a crowd of 4,357. Professional baseball had been absent in Wilson for 18 years before the Mudcats used Fleming Stadium as their temporary home.

The Mudcats called Fleming Stadium home through June in 1991 before officially making their home debut at Five County Stadium on July 3, 1991. That home opener resulted in a 6-1 victory versus Greenville and was played in front of a crowd of 7,333 at Five County Stadium.

Construction workers were still installing the new stadium seats when the Mudcats finally began their home slate of games in Zebulon. Those same workers also had to physically raise a flag pole during the opening night rendition of the National Anthem before the first game in Five County Stadium history.

Season in Review: 1995 Championship Season

by Bob Licht

In 1992, Carolina was in its second season in the Triangle and was just establishing itself as the top-drawing club in the Southern League. But, on the field the 'Cats struggled and wound up with the worst record in minor league baseball. They finished with 92 losses in '92.

Please forgive the die-hard Mudcats' fans who feel a sincere, deep satisfaction for a team that, in just three seasons, improved to 95 wins in '95, and brought the Triangle its first professional championship in the modern sports era.

The Mudcats had some unfinished business entering the '95 campaign. Following their most successful season in franchise history, Carolina sought its first Southern League Championship. A year earlier, Huntsville defeated Carolina 3 games to 1 for the league title. But, Carolina won both halves a year ago and led the Southern League with an 89-55 regular season record. After capturing their second straight East Division crown (3 games to 2 over Orlando), the 'Cats defeated Chattanooga 3 games to 2 for their first-ever Southern League Championship. Carolina led the league in attendance for the second time in three years (317,802 in 70 openings, 4,540 per game average), while completing its title run.

Catcher Jason "Kid" Kendall became the second straight Mudcats' player to capture the SL's MVP award. He just missed leading the league in batting, but set a club record with a .326 average. First baseman George Canale led the league with 102 RBI, also a new team mark. Reliever "Fish Fryin" Matt Ryan shattered the single season and career club save records with 26 during the regular season. Elmer Dessens had one of the most difficult names to pronounce and one of the most difficult pitching repertoires to hit, leading the league with a 2.49 earned run average and 15 wins. His 15-8 record tied Tim Wakefield's club record. Steve Parris, a 27 year-old former Phillie and Mariner, bounced back from re-constructive shoulder surgery to start the season 8-0 and improved to 9-1 before making the jump directly to Pittsburgh. He was one of four Mudcats who was promoted to the big leagues during the season.

Gary Wilson pitched the second half title clincher, the East Division title clincher against Orlando, and the fifth and deciding game against Chattanooga for the Southern League Championship. One year earlier, Wilson had hurled the East Division title clinching victory over Greenville.

Trent Jewett, at 30 the youngest manager in club history and the youngest in the league, managed the team. It was his second straight championship following his title in Hawaii with the Kauai Emeralds during the winter.

Pitching coach Dave Rajsich captured his 9th championship in professional baseball. Both were promoted to the Pirates' Triple-A affiliate in Calgary after the season.

The 'Cats were second in the league in batting (.270) and pitching (3.48 ERA). Carolina managed more sacrifice hits (67) than any other team.

Other amazing highlights from the 1995 season were:

- George Canale's three homer game a Jacksonville on 5/1.
- Carolina's 17-inning affair against Port City on 8/12 that became the first game Five County Stadium ever suspended because of the league curfew rule.
- Brett Backlund's 13 strikeout performance on 7/12.
- Carolina's first-ever triple play, against Greenville on 6/21.
- Jacob Brumfield's game-winning homer leading off the bottom of the 9th inning in his first game on injury rehab
- Tony Womack's 9 1/2 minute at-bat in the 8th inning of the title game.

2003 Southern League Championship Series Recap

by Patrick Kinas

With Birmingham and Tennessee falling to the wayside, the Southern League Championship Series set up as a match between the league's two premier teams. Joe Davis Stadium, home of the Western Division Champion Huntsville Stars, hosted the first two contests of the best-of-five series. However, the Eastern Division Champion Carolina Mudcats came in having won five of seven meetings during the regular season, including three of four games in Zebulon just two weeks earlier. The Mudcats posted the league's best regular season record at 80-58, a full five games ahead of second place Huntsville.

Brimming with confidence, the Mudcats sent ace Trevor Hutchinson to the mound for Game 1. A scoreless stalemate between Hutchinson and Stars' starter Ben Hendrickson lasted into the eighth inning. Carolina mounted nary a threat, with the Stars having the game's best scoring chance in the sixth. All-Star Dave Krynzel tripled against Hutchinson with two outs. Then, fellow All-Star J.J. Hardy smashed one to Willingham at third base. The Mudcats' third baseman made the tough play, keeping the game deadlocked.

In the Mudcats' eighth, Drew Niles and Ryan Jorgensen opened up play with consecutive singles. Next, Chip Ambres bunted down the third-base line, reaching base when Southern League MVP Corey Hart sailed the ball over the head of first baseman Brandon Gemoll. Taking advantage of Hart's miscue, Niles trotted home with the series' first run. After an intentional walk to fill the bases, Jesus Medrano singled in two runs for a 3-0 lead. Huntsville wouldn't go down easy though. In their half of the ninth, the Stars quickly hit up Mudcats' closer Mike Flannery for two runs. However, hard-throwing lefthander Franklyn Gracesqui struck out Milwaukee's top prospect, Brad Nelson, with runners at second and third to give Carolina a 1-0 series lead.

In game two, Carolina appeared on the verge of a nearly insurmountable 2-0 lead in the best-of-five series after taking a 4-1 lead into the bottom of the seventh inning. Starting pitcher Todd Moser gave up just a single run in five innings, fanning seven and pitching out of two bases loaded jams. However, the Stars showed their grit, tying the game 4-4 thanks to two untimely errors by Carolina in the last of the ninth (among six Mudcat errors in the contest). Heroics would come in the 11th inning, as light-hitting catcher Kade Johnson swatted reliever Jose Cueto's very first pitch of the game over the left field wall to even the series.

Five County Stadium would be the site for the final games of what was now a best-of-three series. Carolina started its winningest pitcher, Donnie Bridges (10-2), in game three, hoping to seize command of the series again. The Mudcats took a mid-game 3-0 lead behind a two-run homer by Chip Ambres, and Bridges was tossing no-hit ball through five innings. However, the wheels came off when Bridges hit the first batter of the sixth. Huntsville strung three successive doubles together, leading to five runs and a 6-3 come-from-behind victory. Suddenly, the Mudcats, the wire-to-wire league favorite, found themselves in an elimination game at their home park.

The game four starting baseball fell in the hands of Carolina's Nic Ungs, a 24-year-old native of Dyersville, Iowa, famous among baseball fans as the site of the "Field Of Dreams." And on this night, Ungs pitched like he invented the game. Three first-inning runs for Carolina may have quelled Ungs' nerves, as he was unhittable for most of the contest. Ungs tossed the game of his career - a complete game three-hitter in a 7-1 Mudcats' win. One game would decide the championship.

Sunday, September 14th. A sun-splashed afternoon featuring Carolina's game one starter Hutchinson trying for an encore performance. Retiring the first nine batters of the game, Hutchinson put the Mudcats in prime position to claim their first title since 1995. However, Carolina could do little with Huntsville's Greg Bruso. Just a week earlier, Bruso knocked Birmingham out of the playoffs. Facing Carolina for the first time in the championship series, he was looking for deja vu. It was not to be though, thanks to some dutch hitting from a gritty Mudcats' squad.

In the fifth inning, with championship pressure slowly building on every pitch, the Mudcats fired the first salvo. The rally began when it should have ended. With two outs and none on, Hutchinson - 0-6, with five strikeouts as a hitter in the regular season - surprised Bruso and the Stars with his second hit of the game. Jesus Medrano followed with a seemingly benign single. Ambres then coaxed a walk from Bruso to fill the bases for Carolina's home run leader, Matt Padgett. In a game where the trophy might conceivably ride on the flight of one pitch, that one pitch came to Padgett. Crushing a ball to the right field wall for a three-run double, Padgett provided the Mudcats with the boost they needed. Championship number two was now in sight for the Carolina faithful.

Nearly spent from running the bases the previous inning, Hutchinson faced just two hitters in the Stars' sixth, hitting a man and giving up a single. Manager Tracy Woodson, sensing the fatigue in Hutchinson, called on Sean Fesh for relief. Fesh, who appeared in each of the first three games of the finals, showed why he won team's MVP award last season. The 30-year-old, who had never won a title of any kind, ended the inning having only allowed one run. He then proceeded to work a perfect top of the seventh inning, while Padgett dealt the finishing blow in the bottom half with a two-out single to score Medrano. Armed with a 4-1 lead, Carolina turned the ballgame over to their bullpen stoppers.

Gracesqui put on a powerful display in the eighth inning, issuing nothing more than a harmless two-out walk. In the ninth, with all fans standing, Flannery entered for one of the more emotional appearances of his pro career. Guarding a 4-1 lead, he retired the first two batters with ease, only to have two consecutive errors committed by second baseman Medrano. The Stars had the tying run at the plate with the Mudcats still one out away from the title. Chris Barnwell lifted a deep fly into left-centerfield, but Ambres covered the ground and made the catch to clinch the 2003 Southern League Championship for Carolina. The Mudcats' players and fans could now breathe a sigh of relief and begin celebrating their first championship in nearly a decade.

As the champagne flowed on the field, the team hoisted the championship trophy and posed for a photo. In a surprise to no one, Trevor Hutchinson was named Championship Series MVP With stellar performances in two of Carolina's three victories, it would be hard to imagine a Mudcats' championship without Hutchinson.

Far away in Miami, two former Mudcats received cell phone updates throughout the game. Dontrelle Willis and Miguel Cabrera, along with the 40,000 fans at Pro Player Stadium, cheered raucously when the Mudcats' championship score was posted on the stadium scoreboard. Six weeks later, they were celebrating again, as the Florida Marlins won the second World Series in their short existence.
