Ken Babby Owner & C.E.O.

ken@jaxshrimp.com

Ken Babby, a native of Potomac, Maryland, opened a new era of Jacksonville baseball by becoming Owner and Chief Executive Officer of Jacksonville's Minor League Baseball club in September 2015. Building on Jacksonville's baseball tradition, he introduced the team's new identity as the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp on Nov. 2, 2016.

Babby, 38, is the founder of Fast Forward Sports Group and the youngest multi-team professional sports owner, owning the Akron RubberDucks since October 2012. He was named one of Sports Business Journal's 2016 "Forty Under 40," recognizing excellence and innovation in sports business careers – all before age 40. In 2017, he was named to the Jacksonville Business Journal's 40 under 40, and he was an Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2017 Award winner in the Northeast Ohio region.

In the inaugural season as the Jumbo Shrimp, attendance increased by more than 61,000 – the most of any Double-A ballpark and a Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville-record 23 percent – to more than 325,000 for the first time in seven years. The opening homestand of 41,276 was the highest-attended series in the ballpark's history. The Jumbo Shrimp won the Southern League's Organization of the Year and Promotional Trophy, winning two Minor League Baseball Promotions of the Month.

Babby has invested more than $1.8 million into the Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville to add the Budweiser Tiki Terrace, renovate all the private luxury suites on the BDO Suite Level, develop the Hot Corner group hospitality area, expand the suite-level lounge, and improve other ballpark areas.

In his first five seasons with Akron, the team moved from ninth to as high as fourth in the Eastern League standings, while welcoming more than 340,000 fans each of the past four seasons since the identity change to the RubberDucks. Babby has also personally invested more than $6 million for improvements to Canal Park. In the second year as the Rubber Ducks, Akron earned the 2015 Larry MacPhail Award, which goes to the Minor League Baseball team with the most outstanding and creative marketing and promotional efforts. Since Babby's acquisition of the Akron club, the franchise has grown average attendance by 38 percent and in 2016 was the Eastern League nominee for the John H. Johnson President's Award, Minor League Baseball's top award for an organization.

Prior to Akron, Babby spent 13 years in various marketing positions with the Washington Post and its online and social media counterpart, Washington Post Digital. After starting as a summer intern with the newspaper in 1999, Babby rose through the ranks, eventually attaining the position of Vice President of Advertising, and most recently, Chief Revenue Officer of Washington Post Media and General Manager of Washington Post Digital.

Babby's two-fold mission is to create a memorable, unique, affordable and enjoyable fan experience, and maximize the opportunity to create change in the community through charitable, wellness and education initiatives.

He serves on numerous boards in Northeast Ohio. In Jacksonville, Babby is a Trustee Chair of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, and on the Jacksonville University Board of Trustees, Jewish Community Alliance Board of Directors, Baptist Hospitals of Florida Board of Directors, and Visit Jacksonville Board. He is also the chair of the Baseball Internet Rights Company (BIRCO), which manages the digital and interactive media rights of its member Minor League Baseball clubs and leagues. Ken is married to his wife, Liz, and has a 9-year-old son, Josh.

@JaxShrimp

The logo Shrimp forms a J for Jacksonville. The water is included as a natural feature of the First Coast. The animated shrimp represents Affordable Family Fun, and its tenacious expression and posture represents the determination and resilience of the Jacksonville community.

The word Jacksonville is printed on the front of both home and road jerseys to proudly identify the team with its city. The aquatic-themed lettering includes the water that is a natural part of the First Coast.

The patriotic colors pay homage to the military tradition. St. Johns Navy, American Red, Patriotic Blue, and Shrimp blend to form the Jumbo Shrimp colors, as many small communities blend in Jacksonville. The letters and numbers of the wordmark and uniforms are in Jumbo Shrimp font.

The alternate logo includes the state of Florida and is on road caps to show that our home is where Florida begins.

The Bold City wordmark represents Jacksonville's nickname as the "Bold New City of the South" and is featured on an alternate jersey.

The Shrimp Boil logo is a symbol of experience shared by families and the melting pot of Jacksonville.

The gray is worn with the Shrimp and Florida logo to recognize our home state while on the road.

The American Red jersey has the Bold City nickname on the front and is worn as an alternate, as well as for Red Shirt Fridays, a promotion to support military personnel.

Shrimp Uniforms

The St. Johns Navy jersey and Camouflage jerseys - both with Jacksonville spelled on the front - also celebrate Jacksonville's military identity. Also pictured above is the Jumbo Shrimp batting practice cap, with the Shrimp Boil logo on the front.

Born: 9/24/92 in Peapack, N.J.

School: Vanderbilt Univ.

Acquired: Signed by the Marlins as a minor league free agent on August 5, 2014.

Notes: Drafted out of HS by Blue Jays in 12th round in 2011 but did not sign. Went undrafted in 2014 but the Marlins signed him to a $270,000 signing bonus after he played in the Cape Cod League, hitting .324 and 12 RBI in 18 games. Signing bonus was so large to prevent him from going back to Vanderbilt for a final year. In 2016 Norwood was named a Florida State League Midseason All-Star with Jupiter, was second on the team with 14 stolen bases and led with 49 walks. Was a 2017 Southern League All-Star for the Jumbo Shrimp, and a two-time SL Player of the Week (July 16, August 2017). Led organization in games played (135), hits (135), total bases (217), runs scored (68), slugging percentage (.459), second in home runs (19), strikeouts (134), fourth in batting average (.285) Responsible for all three walk-off home runs for Jumbo Shrimp in 2017 (April 30, May 20, July 12).

League Format

Divisional Play:

The 2018 edition of the Southern League will maintain the North-South Division alignment employed since 2008. Teams in the North Division include the Birmingham Barons, Chattanooga Lookouts, Jackson Generals, Montgomery Biscuits, and the Tennessee Smokies. The South Division will be composed of the Biloxi Shuckers, Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp, Mississippi Braves, Mobile BayBears, and the Pensacola Blue Wahoos.

Regular Season:

The regular season consists of 140 games total played in a split-schedule format. The first and second halves each consist of 70 games. Winners are selected from each division at the end of each half.

Playoff Format:

Divisional champions from the first half and the second half play each other in a best of five series. Once the North Division Championship Series and the South Division Championship Series have concluded, the two winners meet to determine who will be crowned Southern League champions. The North division champion will host the first two games in even years, the South division champion in odd years, with the next three games, if necessary, to be played on the home ground of the other division winner unless otherwise mutually agreed to by the competing clubs and the League President.

Roster Limit:

The roster is limited to 25 active players from the start to the end of the season. Prior to the 2012 season, teams had a roster limit of 24 players.

Braxton Lee won the 2017 Southern League batting title, hitting .309 between his time with the Montgomery Biscuits and Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp. Lee hit a double in his final at bat of the regular season to preserve the title. Photo Courtesy: Roger C. Hoover..

Craw Executive of Year

By Marco LaNave

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The Southern League announced in September that Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp General Manager Harold Crow is the 2017 Southern League Jimmy Bragan Executive of the Year, and the Jumbo Shrimp also are the winners of the 2017 Southern League Don Mincher Organization of the Year and 2017 Southern League Promotional Trophy. Award winners were selected by a vote of the league member clubs' general managers.

"While many of our hardworking, creative and passionate front office and ballpark staff, as well as the Jacksonville community, are working to recover from Hurricane Irma, these come as special credits to Northeast Florida," said Harold Crow. "It is an honor to be recognized by your peers, but there are many on our team who made major contributions to the success of the inaugural season of the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp."

A 16-year Minor League Baseball executive, Crow has led the Jacksonville club since Fast Forward Sports Group officially took over the franchise in September 2015. The native of Chattanooga, Tennessee, started his Minor League Baseball career in 2002 and has worked for the Johnson City Cardinals, Charleston River Dogs - where he was twice recognized by the South Atlantic League as Sales Executive of the Year and for community relations - Quad Cities River Bandits and Chattanooga Lookouts prior to coming to Jacksonville.

In the inaugural season of the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp presented by Community First Credit Union, the club welcomed 325,743 fans to the Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville - an increase of 61,342 that was the largest increase for a Double-A ballpark from 2016 to 2017, the largest in the history of the Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville and second-largest of any ballpark in domestic Minor League Baseball. The club's average attendance of 5,171 was the highest per-game average in nine years at the Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville and an increase of 23 percent over 2016.

"We continue to be humbled and honored by the Jacksonville community, whose resilience at this challenging time impresses and inspires us as an organization and residents of this special city," said Jumbo Shrimp Owner Ken Babby. "Northeast Florida's amazing response to Affordable Family Fun has put Crustacean Nation on the national landscape."

The Jumbo Shrimp drew nationwide attention in the days, weeks and months following their Nov. 2, 2016, rebranding announcement. Merchandise items had been shipped to all 50 States and more than a dozen countries before Opening Day in April. Fans submitted more than 2,000 names for the new mascot. Scampi was voted the winner. A dog from local nonprofit K9s for Warriors, Sgt. Scampi, served as the team's bat dog one inning each Friday. The new ballpark menu featured more than a dozen shrimp options and was selected to appear on the Travel Channel show "Food Paradise." Affordable Family Fun at the ballpark included the JAXSPORTS Jumbo Shrimp Neck Pillow Giveaway - named the top Minor League Baseball giveaway item by MLB.com Cut4 - and Silent Movie Night, which won awards, respectively, as June and August Minor League Baseball Promotion of the Month. The team hosted three free military appreciation nights for a second straight year and several local fundraisers at the ballpark. The club also celebrated Jacksonville's Negro League legacy with throwback Jacksonville Red Caps uniforms and a fan jersey giveaway.

Jacksonville pro baseball was founded in 1904. It began when the Jacksonville Jays participated in the South Atlantic League. In those days, baseball was played at Dixieland Park in the Southside of town. Back then, most fans would have to ride ferries to attend the games because there were still no bridges connecting one side of the St. Johns River to the other.

But even before then, Jacksonville hosted baseball's first Spring Training. Jacksonville was the site for the first Major League Baseball spring training in 1888 as the Washington Statesmen hosted the Philadelphia Athletics, Brooklyn Dodgers, Cincinnati Reds and Boston Nationals. It has been said that the Brooklyn Dodgers actually owned ships which would dock at the Hogan Street pier.

The first half-century witnessed Jacksonville professional baseball teams go through several league and name changes. From 1904-1950, they played in three different South Atlantic League classifications: Class C (1904-1917), Class B (1936-1942) and Class A (1946-1950). Jacksonville was a member of the Florida State League (Class C) and the Southeastern League (Class B) as well. The team that began its history as the Jays, also were known as the Scouts, Tarpons, Roses, Indians and Tars during this period. Not to be outdone, Jacksonville's boys also managed to bring home three league championships in 1908, 1912 and 1927. Hall of Fame reliever Hoyt Wilhelm pitched in Jacksonville from 1948-49. Red Cap Field, or Durkee Field, hosted both the minor league Tars and Negro League Red Caps teams in the post-war years.

All-time home run leader Hank Aaron was a Jacksonville Brave in 1953 and joined Felix Mantilla and two Savannah players to first integrate the South Atlantic League. Jacksonville fans were privileged to see a 19-year-old Aaron, freshly signed from Mobile, Ala. Managed by the legendary Ben Geraghty, whom Aaron called the kindest and best manager he ever played for, he garnered the Most Valuable Player award that season, batting .362 with 208 hits, 36 doubles, 125 runs batted in and 115 runs. The next season, Aaron was signed to a Major League contract by the Milwaukee Braves and began his run to the Hall of Fame. The '50s stabilized Jacksonville's pro baseball circuit. The Braves made the playoffs six times in the decade, compiling a 770-665 (.537) record and capturing the 1956 South Atlantic League championship. Knuckleball expert Phil Niekro, who won 318 Major League games, also played for the Braves in the 1960 and was later inducted into Cooperstown.

Here come the Suns. The Braves remained in Jacksonville through the 1961, but pulled up stakes as Triple-A baseball settled in. The Cleveland Indians moved their International League team from Havana, Cuba, to Jacksonville in 1962 and the Suns were born. The Suns were affiliated with the Indians for two seasons, including in 1963 when Tommy John pitched. (He later won 288 Major League games.) The St. Louis Cardinals were the Suns' affiliate in 1964-65 and then the New York Mets were for three seasons. The Mets brought Jacksonville two Hall of Fame pitchers - Nolan Ryan and Tom Seaver - and its only Triple-A Championship in 1968. But the Mets were lured away from Wolfson Park by a new ballpark in Norfolk, Va., after the season; and for 1969, Jacksonville was without a professional baseball team for the first time since World War II.

The Southern League welcomed Jacksonville in 1970, where the team has played since. It is the longest consecutive association of any city with a Class AA league. Jacksonville owns the SL record for most playoff appearances, 14, but until 1996, the team had not captured a Southern League Championship.

Membership has its privileges and the Suns were treated to a good pipeline of talent from the Kansas City Royals. The Royals became the Suns' in 1972 and remained through the 1983 season. Suns teams marched their way to five Championship Series with the Royals as their parent club. Two future big league managers used Jacksonville as a stepping stone: Billy Gardner, Sr., (1972-74) and Gene Lamont (1980-83). Both won Manager of the Year awards: Gardner in 1973 and Lamont in 1982. The Jacksonville Expos were born following the 1984 season. First, the team signed a new player development agreement with the Montreal Expos and agreed to be named after the parent club. Secondly, the team was purchased by Peter D. Bragan, Sr., an automobile dealer from Birmingham, Ala. Bragan's ownership of the club marked the longest tenure of any owner in Jacksonville professional sports history.

Expos teams made trips to the playoffs in four of the seven seasons they were in Jacksonville, but again finished just shy of bringing the city its first Southern League championship. The Expos years were probably the richest in Major League talent as a number of players went on to The Show including Randy Johnson, Larry Walker, Andres Galaraga, Marquis

Grissom, DeLino DeShields and John VanderWal, to name a few. In 1991, the Suns signed a four-year agreement with the Seattle Mariners. Although the team finished over .500 only once during this period, the team had a number of individuals who performed well and later went on to the Major Leagues. Alex Rodriguez, Bret Boone, Mike Hampton are among those who left Jacksonville and played in the Major Leagues.

Seattle left for Wilmington, N.C., after the 1994 season and the Suns began a six-year run as an affiliate of the Detroit Tigers. Things started to look brighter for the Suns future as Tigers farm hands brought the Suns within one out of the playoffs in 1995 and then swept through the Southern League in 1996. The Suns captured both the first and second half championships before beating the Carolina Mudcats for the Eastern Division title and the Chattanooga Lookouts for the first Southern League Championship. The Suns nearly won their second title in 1998 behind Southern League Most Valuable Player Gabe Kapler. After winning the first half and owning the top record in the Minors, the Suns swept Knoxville in the first round of the playoffs before losing to Mobile in the finals. Following the 2000 season, the Tigers left for Erie, Pa., and the Suns signed a four-year agreement with the Los Angeles Dodgers. Playing as an affiliate to one of the most storied franchises in all of professional sports, the Suns got off to a blazing start as they stormed to the first half crown in 2001. The Suns advanced to the finals, but because of the September 11th tragedy, the Southern League cancelled the games and declared the Suns and the Huntsville Stars co-champions. The Suns reached the finals again in 2002, but were swept by the Birmingham Barons in three games.

The Suns began a new chapter in 2003 with the opening of the $34 million Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville. The facility, built by Jacksonville taxpayers as part of the Better Jacksonville Plan, housed a franchise-record 359,979 fans in its inaugural season and surpassed that mark in year two, drawing 420,495 through the gates. The Suns welcomed the 1,000,000th fan to the Baseball Grounds in just its fourth season and led the Southern League in attendance each of those years.

Since the opening of the Baseball Grounds in 2003, a crowning achievement has been winning the Southern League Championship in 2005. Led by two-time Southern League Manager of the Year John Shoemaker, the Suns stormed through the regular season and the Southern League playoffs while earning Baseball America's coveted Minor League Team of the Year honors. Behind current major leaguers Russell Martin, Chad Billingsley, Jonathan Broxton and James Loney, along with top prospects Juan Guzman and Andy LaRoche, the Suns put together one of the greatest single teams in Jacksonville Baseball history en route to a memorable championship. Shoemaker returned to the Suns for the 2008 campaign with a distinguished lineup of future major league pitchers including Clayton Kershaw and Scott Elbert.

In 2009 the Florida Marlins became the seventh parent club in Jacksonville's Southern League history. In their first season as a Marlins affiliate the Suns exceeded all expectations by posting an 82-58 overall record and winning the Southern League Championship. The Suns repeated in 2010 as Southern League Champions with an 81-59 record. In 2014 the Suns made a memorable late season charge, winning their last 10 games to make the playoffs then sweeping the Chattanooga Lookouts in the Southern League Championship Series. This marked the 11th championship in the city's professional baseball history and the sixth title since the Suns became a member of the Southern League in 1970.

Jacksonville saw a big part of its history come to a close at the end of the 2015 season. President/Owner Peter Bragan, Jr., whose family owned the team since 1984, sold the franchise to Ken Babby of Fast Forward Sports Group. In 31 seasons, the Bragans, the longest tenure of any owner in Jacksonville professional sports history, saw each of the franchise's six Southern League titles, moved the team from Wolfson Park to the Baseball Grounds of Jacksonville and helped reestablish the Suns as a real force in the community.

On November 2, 2016, a new chapter opened in Jacksonville baseball history as the franchise was renamed to the Jumbo Shrimp. As Florida's largest city, yet in many ways a richly connected and close-knit community, Jacksonville is truly a Big Small Town. It has unique water geography as the River City on the First Coast. The 2017 season was historic, as the Jumbo Shrimp won the Second Half South Division Title before falling to Pensacola in the South Division Championship Series. Their inaugural season also garnered the Southern League's Don Mincher Organization of the Year, Promotional Trophy, and Jimmy Bragan Executive of the Year, won by General Manager Harold Crow. 325,743 fans saw the Jumbo Shrimp play at home in 2017, an attendance jump of 61,342 fans, the largest of any Double-A ballpark from 2016 to 2017, the largest in Baseball Grounds history, and second largest of any ballpark in domestic Minor League Baseball.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - Former Jacksonville Suns first baseman Andrés Galarraga, who was the 1984 Southern League Most Valuable Player and went on to play 19 major league seasons, will be inducted into the Southern League Hall of Fame this year, the Southern League of Professional Baseball Clubs announced in February.

A panel of 20 voters chose the league's fifth induction class, which will also include Birmingham/Huntsville radio broadcaster Curt Bloom, Memphis outfielder and Birmingham manager Terry Francona, and Baseball Hall of Fame outfielder Willie Mays, who played for the Negro American League's Birmingham Black Barons in the late 1940s. The inductees will be celebrated at the 2018 Southern League All-Star Game June 19 in Birmingham, Alabama. Jacksonville is the only franchise with at least one representative in each of the first five Southern League Hall of Fame classes.

For Jacksonville in 1984, he led the team in runs (81), hits (154), home runs (27), RBI (87), batting average (.289) and slugging percentage (.508), with a league-best 271 total bases to be named Southern League MVP and precipitate his major league debut the next season.

In a 19-year MLB career from 1985 to 2004, Galarraga was a five-time All-Star with two Gold Gloves and two Silver Slugger awards. He amassed 2,333 hits, a .288 career batting average and 399 home runs in the major leagues. He qualified with a .300 batting average eight times, including a .370 average to win the 1993 NL batting title. In 1988, he led the NL in hits (184), extra-base hits (79) and total bases (329). He hit 40 home runs in three straight seasons from 1996 to 1998, including an NL-best 47 in 1996. He also led the NL in RBIs in 1996 (150) and 1997 (140). He won MLB Comeback Player of the Year in 2000 after missing a season for cancer treatment. He reached the postseason five times, appearing for the Rockies (1995), Braves (1998, 2000) and Giants (2003).

Jacksonville Red Caps Negro American League

The Southern Negro League Jacksonville Red Caps (owned by the Jacksonville Terminal Station, hence the name) also played their home games at Barr Field, later Durkee Field. In 1938 the Red Caps attained major league status, joining the Negro American League and played at Durkee Field for one season before relocating to Cleveland. The Red Caps returned to Jacksonville for the 1941 and 1942 seasons. The Jumbo Shrimp honored the Red Caps in 2017 by having a Red Caps jersey replica giveaway, and the club wore Red Caps throwback uniforms on July 23.

Covering the Shrimp

Media Guidelines

Media members can access digital copies of the credential application, media guide, and game notes online at anytime at jaxshrimp.com/shrimpmedia

Credentials:

Credentials are issued only to working media for the purpose of covering the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp and are available to any media outlet on a seasonal or game-by-game, basis. Making a request for media credentials is easy. Please call or email the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp, care of Roger Hoover or Marco LaNave and include your name, media affiliation, a telephone number where we can reach you and your reason for requesting the credential. Once at the Baseball Grounds, please wear your credential at all times.

Credential Requests:

Request by Phone(904) 224-8534

Request by Emailrogerh@jaxshrimp.com or marco@jaxshrimp.com

Press Box Guidelines:

The press box at the Baseball Grounds is restricted to working media only. It is important to remember that the press box is a working environment, thus the press box is not a place for family or friends. Press box rules are strictly enforced. Also as a working press box, cheering for the Jumbo Shrimp or opponent is strictly prohibited. Press box personnel should also maintain a professional appearance at all times.

Access to players:

Players are typically available before batting practice for on-field interviews and after each game on the field or outside the clubhouse. The clubhouse is a restricted area. No family or friends are allowed in the clubhouse and autographs are absolutely NOT ALLOWED. Anyone seeking autographs in the clubhouse postgame, or at any time/place, will be removed from the facility and future media access will be limited. After each game there will be a brief cooling-off period before access to clubhouse by members of the media is allowed. The Jumbo Shrimp media staff will determine when the media can enter the clubhouse.

Pregame/Postgame:

Lineups, stats, rosters and game notes will be available before all 70 games at the Baseball Grounds for credentialed members of the media, broadcasters and scouts ONLY. The pregame printouts are available in folders next to the door to the right when entering the press box. Game recaps will be emailed after each game, all 140 contests, to members of the media that are on our press distribution list. To have your email address added to our list, please email the Shrimp at the address listed above.

On-Field Photography:

Only media members with professional photography equipment, including attached lenses and cameras such as Nikons or Canons are permitted on the field from batting practice through the end of the game. Smartphones alone do not count as professional photography equipment. Violations of this rule can result in immediate suspension of media credentials.

Media Meal:

Catering for media will be served in the main press box approximately one hour and 30 minutes prior to first pitch. Only working members of the media will be served. Bottled drinks will be available throughout the game in the main press box. Please make advance arrangements if you need special consideration. Only media, Shrimp and Marlins staff members are allowed to eat the media meal.
