SCOREKEEPERS, SCOREKEEPING, AND THE SACRIFICE

By Bill McPoil

Sportswriter Henry Chadwick is generally credited as the “inventor of baseball scorekeeping” for his system used around 1870. Both Major League Baseball and Minor League Baseball hire professional scorekeepers to record every game; their record produces the box score you see in the newspaper the day after the game and the way they record a play can have a significant outcome on the statistics of a team and an individual player. But many fans keep score as well for their own enjoyment and to “stay in the game”. Such is the case with several River Cats fans. One such fan is a young woman who sits in the front row behind home plate. For every game she enters the lineup for the teams before the game starts and keeps every statistic of the game you can imagine.

One night we ended up in the Western Health Advantage Legacy Club at the same time because it was too cold to stay in our seats. She was still keeping score watching the game on the television. We landed on an obscure scorekeeping rule involving the sacrifice fly and the sacrifice bunt. When a batter hits a fly ball that is caught and a runner scores (sac fly) or when a batter bunts the ball and advances the runner (sac bunt), the batter gets credit for the sacrifice and he is not charged with making an out. Why?

It's a way to acknowledge the batter for helping his team without penalizing him by lowering his batting average. According to rule 9.08, in both cases, the batter is charged with a plate appearance but not an at bat, an important distinction. The sacrifice fly rule was introduced as an official statistic in 1908, but the rule was repealed or revised several times until it was finally implemented for good in 1954. The sacrifice bunt came into being around 1895.

PROSPECT REPORT

Heliot RAMOS

With his first full season under his belt, outfielder Heliot Ramos is poised for a breakout 2019 season in the California League. The Puerto Rican first-rounder racked up 535 plate appearances in the power-suppressing South Atlantic League in 2018. And while being the youngest player in the league, he still managed to post a .151 isolated slugging percentage – good enough to be in the top 34% of hitters with at least 200 plate appearances.

There's still good hype surrounding Ramos, who was the highest drafted player to come from his home country since shortstop Carlos Correa in 2012. His family of athletes includes his older brother Henry, who the Giants signed to a minor-league deal in the offseason, as well as his nationally-ranked, soccer-playing brother, Hector.

Ramos' athleticism is evident in nearly all aspects of the game. His arm strength lends to impressive raw power at the plate, as well as a cannon in the outfield to gun down runners. He's a 55-grade runner with quickness to track down balls. Though he displayed well-above average speed at the Excellence Games with a 6.42 60-yard dash time, that hasn't translated to eye-catching base-stealing numbers as he's totaled just 18 swipes in 159 games since turning pro.

With the San Jose Giants in 2019, the organization will look for Ramos to continue improving his strikeout rate, which he was able to drop by seven percentage points from 2017 to 2018. They'll also expect someone of his caliber to produce big slugging numbers in a league that tends to inflate power.

2019 RIVER CATS ROSTER

SHAUN ANDERSON

PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'4" | Weight: 225 | DOB: 2/14/95

Was a third-round pick by the Boston Red Sox in 2016 and pitched in their minor-league system until he was traded to the Giants on July 26, 2017 as part of the Eduardo Nunez deal. He broke camp in 2018 with the Double-A Richmond Flying Squirrels, posting a 3.45 ERA with 93 strikeouts in 94 innings before being called up to make his Triple-A debut in Sacramento. After a non-roster invite to major-league spring training this season, he'll begin the year as the Giants' fifth-ranked prospect according to MLB Pipeline.

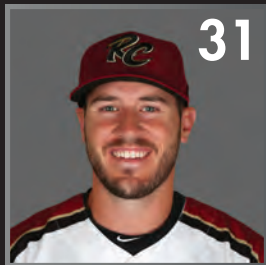

14

TYLER BEEDE

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'2" | Weight: 210 | DOB: 5/23/93

Beede, drafted in 2014's first round out of Vanderbilt University, made more starts than any other River Cats pitcher during his Triple-A debut season in 2017 and is the No. 24-ranked prospect in the system according to MLB Pipeline. He pitched six or more innings in 11 of his 19 starts, posting a 3.47 ERA in those outings. He struggled during the 2018 season with the River Cats and was sent to the bullpen for the remainder of the year, but made some mechanical adjustments in the offseason and will be back in the rotation for 2019.

31

TY BLACH

PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: L | Height: 6'1" | Weight: 205 | DOB: 10/20/90

Blach is back in a River Cats uniform after spending all of 2017 and 2018 with the San Francisco Giants. There, he pitched the third most innings on the club in 2017 and followed that up with 118.2 a year later. He owns a 4.36 ERA in nearly 300 major-league innings pitched while making almost half of his 85 appearances as a starter. Blach was a three-year starter at Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. and was selected by the Giants in the fifth round of the 2012 draft.

38

RAY BLACK

PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'3" | Weight: 230 | DOB: 6/26/90

After playing collegiately at the University of Pittsburgh, he was drafted by the Giants in the 7th round of 2011, though he missed the 2012 and 2013 seasons after undergoing shoulder surgery to repair a torn labrum. In 2014 while pitching for the San Jose Giants, he struck out nearly 45% of the batters he faced in 25 innings. In May of 2017 he had arthroscopic surgery on his throwing elbow, but returned healthy and made his major-league debut on July 8, 2018.

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'2" | Weight: 225 | DOB: 12/29/92

Originally a Houston Astros product out of Venezuela, Anderson found himself in the Giants system this offseason when he was signed to a minor-league deal on November 20, 2018. He was designated for assignment by Houston at the end of the 2015 season and was claimed by Atlanta, which is where Franco spent the last three seasons, pitching the majority of the time for the Double-A Mississippi Braves. He began the 2019 season as the No. 5 starter in the River Cats rotation.

29*WILLIAMS JEREZ*PITCHER

Bat: L | Throw: L | Height: 6'4" | Weight: 205 | DOB: 5/16/92

Jerez was acquired by the Giants late in March in a deal that sent starting pitcher and long-time River Cats pitcher Chris Stratton to the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim. The left-handed reliever is a native of the Dominican Republic but went to high school in Brooklyn, N.Y. and was drafted by the Boston Red Sox in the second round of the 2011 draft. He found himself in the Angels organization when he was traded in the deal that helped the Red Sox acquire Ian Kinsler. Jerez made his major-league debut with the Angels on August 7, 2018.

43*CHASE JOHNSON*PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'4" | Weight: 190 | DOB: 1/9/92

Drafted by the Giants in the third round of the 2013 draft, Johnson was the closer for the Cal Poly - San Luis Obispo in college after growing up in northern San Diego County. Johnson was converted into a starting pitcher during his first few years in the Giants organization but beginning in 2016 he returned to pitching as a reliever. He required Tommy John surgery in 2017 and fully recovered in May of 2018. He pitched six games for the River Cats in 2017 before injuring his throwing elbow.

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'1" | Weight: 170 | DOB: 8/13/92

Though before even playing a game in the Eastern League, Navas was called up to Triple-A. He was originally a product of the Oakland Athletics, signed in 2010 out of his home country of Venezuela. He pitched in the A's organization until the 2018 when he signed with the Cincinnati Reds in the offseason.

16*STEVEN OKERT*PITCHER

Bat: L | Throw: L | Height: 6'2" | Weight: 210 | DOB: 7/9/91

A product of the University of Oklahoma, Okert was a fourth round pick by the Giants in 2012. He was designated for assignment on March 23 but cleared waivers and returned to Sacramento to begin the 2019 season. Okert has 48.1 career innings pitched in the major leagues spread from 2016 to 2018, and is third all-time in River Cats history for pitcher appearances.

17*TYLER ROGERS*PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'4" | Weight: 180 | DOB: 12/17/90

With 55 appearances, Rogers finished tied with San Jose Giants right-hander Dylan Rheault for most games by a pitcher in the Giants' system in 2017, then followed that up by leading the system with 51 in 2018. The right-handed submariner totalled 143.2 innings over that span, entirely with the Sacramento River Cats, while holding opposing hitters to a .236 average, just two home runs, and a 2.37 ERA in 2017. His 61.0% ground ball rate was one of the highest on the Giants' farm over these last two seasons.

33*ANDREW SUAREZ*PITCHER

Bat: L | Throw: L | Height: 6'0" | Weight: 195 | DOB: 9/11/92

Suarez entered 2018 ranked the 10th best prospect on the Giants after posting a career-high 155.2 innings in 2017, 10.1 more innings than any other Giants' minor leaguer. After being the opening-day starter for the River Cats, Suarez was called up to San Francisco where he made his major-league debut on April 11. The University of Miami product was sent back down for a brief stint but was eventually called up for good, making 29 starts totaling 160.1 innings with a 4.49 ERA.

54*PAT VENDITTE*PITCHER

Bat: L | Throw: S | Height: 6'1" | Weight: 185 | DOB: 6/30/85

One of the most unique baseball players in the game, Venditte is a switch-pitcher. He throws with either arm and carries a special glove that allows him to switch hands while on the mound. He's a 33-year veteran who made his major-league debut for the Oakland A's in 2015, though it was the New York Yankees who signed him in the 20th round of the 2008 draft. Venditte spent 2018 in the Los Angeles Dodgers' system where he tossed 14 big-league innings while pitching most of his games with the Triple-A Oklahoma City Dodgers.

43*ARAMIS GARCIA*CATCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'1" | Weight: 210 | DOB: 1/12/93

Drafted in the 2nd round of the 2014 draft out of Florida International University, Garcia was the top catching prospect in the Giants' farm system until they selected Georgia Tech's Joey Bart in 2018. Garcia, though, is certainly the closest to consistent major-league time as he's currently one of three backstops on San Francisco's 40-man roster. Garcia has been known mostly for his offensive prowess, but his skills behind the dish have improved from year to year, especially during the 2018 season in Double-A Richmond.

Bat: L | Throw: R | Height: 6'0" | Weight: 210 | DOB: 11/1/83

Vogt is back with the River Cats for the third time, but first as a member of the Giants' organization. The catcher drafted out of Azusa Pacific University slashed .324/.398/.547 in 75 games for the River Cats back in 2013 and went on to become an American League All-Star with the A's from 2015 to 2016. He was designated for assignment by the A's in 2017 but was quickly picked up by Milwaukee, though he hit the injured list in August after a hard collision at the plate. He then spent most of 2018 rehabbing from a shoulder surgery that stemmed from the incident.

ABIATAL AVELINO*INFIELDER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'0" | Weight: 210 | DOB: 2/14/95

After signing out of the Dominican Republic at age 16 with the New York Yankees, Avelino was a ranked prospect in the Pinstripes' farm system for seven seasons. In 2015, he stole the fifth most bases in all of the minor leagues (54) while splitting time between Advanced-A and Double-A ball. On August 31, 2018, he was included in the trade that sent then Giants outfielder Andrew McCutchen to the Yankees. He enters the 2019 season on the Giants' 40-man roster and is ranked the No. 19 prospect in the organization by MLB Pipeline.

ZACH GREEN*INFIELDER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'2" | Weight: 225 | DOB: 3/7/94

Drafted out of Sacramento's Jesuit High School in 2012, Green played in the Philadelphia Phillies' farm system before electing free agency at the conclusion of the 2018 season. He had Tommy John surgery in August of 2016 and missed the rest of that season plus half of 2017. In 2018, he OPS'd nearly 1.000 with 17 home runs and 23 doubles in Double-A before being promoted to Triple-A Lehigh Valley where he completed the season. He signed with the Giants over the offseason and will get to play roughly ten miles from where he grew up in Carmichael.

DONOVAN SOLANO*INFIELDER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 5'7" | Weight: 210 | DOB: 12/17/87

Originally a St. Louis Cardinals prospect who signed at age 17 out of Venezuela in 2005, Solano is now with his fifth different franchise. Solano, who signed a minor-league contract with the Giants in the offseason, spent 2018 in the Dodgers organization where he played in 81 games for the Triple-A Oklahoma City Dodgers. Though he hasn't played in a major-league game since 2016, Solano has 360 big-league games under his belt since making his debut back in 2012 with the Miami Marlins.

BREIVIC VALERA*INFIELDER

Bat: S | Throw: R | Height: 5'8" | Weight: 185 | DOB: 1/8/92

Acquired by the Giants from the Orioles during the offseason after spending time with three teams in 2018. He began the spring in St. Louis Cardinals camp but was designated for assignment at the end of March. The Venezuelan was sent to the Dodgers a few days later and began the season in Triple-A with the Oklahoma City Dodgers. He was called up to Los Angeles a handful of times, appearing in 20 games. Valera was sent to Baltimore as part of the Manny Machado deal on July 18. Valera can play a variety of positions, including second base, shortstop, third base, and corner outfield.

ANTHONY GARCIA*OUTFIELDER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'0" | Weight: 180 | DOB: 1/4/92

Led the Nashville Sounds, at the time a Triple-A affiliate of the Oakland A's, in plate appearances (566), doubles (31), and home runs (25) during the 2018 season, but did not receive a September call-up from the A's. He elected free agency at the end of the year and signed a minor-league deal with the Giants on January 24, 2019. A product of Puerto Rico, Garcia was originally drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in 2009 and remained in their system until signing with Oakland after the 2017 season.

MIKE GERBER*OUTFIELDER

Bat: L | Throw: R | Height: 5'10" | Weight: 195 | DOB: 7/8/92

A 15th-round pick by the Detroit Tigers in 2014, Gerber was a teammate of Ty Blach's for two years at Creighton University. He made his major-league debut as the extra man during a doubleheader on April 20, 2018, pinch-running for future hall-of-famer Miguel Cabrera. He was placed on waivers in December and claimed on the 10th by San Francisco. He was the Tigers' Minor League Player of the Year in 2015 after hitting .292 with 31 doubles, 10 triples, and 13 home runs playing for Class-A West Michigan.

HENRY RAMOS*OUTFIELDER

Bat: S | Throw: R | Height: 6'0" | Weight: 215 | DOB: 4/15/92

Brother of highly-ranked Giants prospect Heliot Ramos, Henry joins the River Cats after playing in the Dodgers' farm system for the last two seasons. Originally a draft pick of the Boston Red Sox in 2010, Ramos is a switch-hitting outfielder who can play all three positions. He clubbed 10 home runs and 22 doubles while slugging .465 in 102 games for the Oklahoma City Dodgers last year. He received a non-roster invite to spring training this season where he was able to roam the outfield during a game with his younger brother Heliot.

MICHAEL REED*OUTFIELDER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'0" | Weight: 215 | DOB: 11/18/92

Reed was acquired in the offseason in an exchange of outfielders with the Minnesota Twins, who received John Andreoli in the deal. He's originally a fifth-round pick in 2011 by the Milwaukee Brewers out of Leander H.S. just outside Austin, TX. Reed began the 2019 season on the San Francisco Giants 25-man roster but was designated for assignment after just eight plate appearances. After clearing waivers, Reed signed a minor-league deal back with the Giants and joined the River Cats a few games into the season.

AUSTIN SLATER*OUTFIELDER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'2" | Weight: 205 | DOB: 12/13/92

Slater began 2017 playing his first 46 games in Sacramento slashing .322/.381/.460 with 12 doubles and four home runs. He received a call-up to San Francisco to make his major-league debut on June 2, going 1-for-5 with a single at Philadelphia. Before injuring his hip, the former Stanford Cardinal played in 29 games with the Giants batting .290. Similarly in 2018, Slater got off to a hot start in Triple-A and was eventually recalled to San Francisco where he played in 74 games batting .250.

MAC WILLIAMSON*OUTFIELDER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'4" | Weight: 235 | DOB: 7/15/90

Williamson wore a River Cats uniform for 94 games in 2017, then another 52 in 2018. The former Wake Forest outfielder, who pitched in high school, underwent a swing/stance change during the 2017-2018 offseason and after crushing six home runs in 11 games to start the year was called up to the Giants. Unfortunately, a collision with the wall in foul territory on April 27 sidelined him with concussion symptoms and those issues lingered throughout the rest of the year. Mac is back with Sacramento after clearing waivers and being outrighted to the River Cats.

MIKE YASTRZEMSKI*OUTFIELDER

Bat: L | Throw: L | Height: 5'11" | Weight: 180 | DOB: 8/23/90

Grandson of Boston Red Sox legend and Hall-of-Famer Carl Yastrzemski, Mike was a 14th-round pick in 2013 out of Vanderbilt University where he was teammates with River Cats' starting pitcher Tyler Beede. He played in the Baltimore Orioles farm system for six seasons, including his first three pro years in which was named a Mid-Season All-Star during each season. On March 23, 2019, the Orioles traded him to San Francisco for right-handed starting pitcher Tyler Herb. Yastrzemski has played in 269 Triple-A games, including 94 in 2018 with the Bowie Baysox where he slashed .265/.359/.441.

RIVER CATS FIELD STAFF

DAVE BRUNDAGE Manager

Brundage will take the field as the River Cats' manager for the third consecutive season. Having nearly two decades of managerial experience, the veteran manager spent four previous seasons with the International League's Lehigh Valley IronPigs (Philadelphia Phillies Triple-A), compiling a 286-289 record (.497), before heading west to Sacramento. In 2016, he led the IronPigs to an 85-58 record, the second best mark in all of Triple-A baseball.

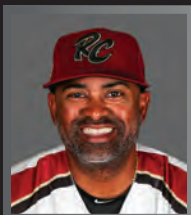

STEVE KLINE Pitching Coach

Kline rejoins the River Cats for his second season as pitching coach in Sacramento after three seasons with the Giants' Double-A affiliate Richmond Flying Squirrels. He spent the six seasons before that with the Class-A Augusta GreenJackets. He was a durable left-handed reliever during his time in the majors, appearing in 89 games in 2001 for the St. Louis Cardinals, which broke a major-league single-season record for lefties.

DAMON MINOR Hitting Coach

Minor is now in his fourth season with the River Cats after spending five seasons with the New Orleans Zephyrs. In his first year with the team in 2016, Minor helped the River Cats improve their batting average four points to the tune of a .272 average, good for sixth best in the Pacific Coast League.

JOLBERT CABRERA Fundamentals Coach

Cabrera enters his fourth season in the Giants' organization and his first as a Fundamentals Coach for the River Cats. In 2018, Cabrera served as the manager of the Class-A Augusta GreenJackets. Before that, Cabrera was the hitting coach for the AZL Giants in 2016 and was the manager with Salem-Keizer in 2017.

DAVID GETSOFF Athletic Trainer

Getsoff begins his 10th season with the Giants' organization, and his second as Athletic Trainer here in Sacramento. In 2017, he served as the organization's Latin American Coordinator and Assistant Minor League Medical Coordinator. He spent 2014-2016 with Double-A Richmond, 2012-2013 with the Class-A San Jose Giants, 2010-2011 with Class-A Augusta, and 2009 with the Class-A short season Salem-Keizer.

ANDY KING Strength & Conditioning

King is in his sixth year with the Giants' organization and his second with the River Cats after spending the 2017 season with Double-A Richmond. He was in Class-A San Jose for the 2016 season and with the Salem-Keizer Volcanoes in Short-Season A-Ball the year before that. King is a 2012 graduate of Hamline University where he earned his B.A. in Exercise and Sports Science with a concentration in Physical Therapy.

Game 15 • Home Game 9

Salt Lake Bees (4-9) 4th Pacific Southern

- vs -

SACRAMENTO RIVER CATS (6-8) 2nd Pacific Northern

Bees: RHP Alex Klonowski (0-1, 7.88) • River Cats: RHP Anderson Franco (0-0, 9.45)

Last Night's Game: LHP Ty Blach (0-0, 5.68) struggled through 3.2 innings allowing four earned runs. The River Cats dug themselves an early 5-0 hole but would climb out of it to make things interesting. In the fifth inning the River Cats used a pair of back-to-back homers, the first from OF Henry Ramos, followed by INF Abiatal Avelino to get within two runs. In the sixth the River Cats would tie it up thanks to a two-run blast off the bat of C Aramis Garcia. INF Austin Slater would give Sacramento the lead momentarily in the seventh on an RBI single. The Las Vegas Aviators offense would storm back on Sacramento's bullpen for the third straight game. The defense shared the blame in this one, however, as three errors led to three unearned runs which doomed the River Cats.

Tonight's Starter: RHP Anderson Franco (0-0, 9.45) will take the mound to start a four game home stand with the Salt Lake Bees. The 2019 season has not been kind to Franco so far this season as he has yet to make it out of the third inning in both his outings this season. Franco turned in a far better outing in his second start of the season going three and two-thirds of an inning, only giving up one earned to cut his ERA down 8.55 points. A big positive for Franco this season is his command, he has only walked one batter in 6.2 innings of work. Last season with the double-A Mississippi Braves Franco nearly sported a 4:1 K to BB ratio, striking out 130 batters while only walking 42.

Bags to Steal: INF Abiatal Avelino would nab his second stolen base on the year in the second inning last night. Avelino now leads the team in stolen bases. The team has now stolen three bases in the last two games, bringing Sacramento's total to five on the year.

Early Season Mishaps: The River Cats have shot themselves in the foot a ton this year. Sacramento had three costly errors again last night, bringing their season total to 20. The River Cats now lead the Pacific Coast League in errors.

Dinger Derby: Sacramento put on a display of power last night homering three times. This is the second game this year where the River Cats have homered three times, both of which came at home. This is also the second time this season the River Cats have hit back-to-back homers. In the fifth inning OF Henry Ramos and INF Abiatal Avelino went back-to-back. Avelino has now hit the second home run in both cases.

This Day in River Cats History: April 19, 2015: The River Cats defeated the Salt Lake Bees 15-7 in Salt Lake... INF Adam Duval went 5-for-6, finishing the day with the first cycle in River Cats history... Duval narrowly beat out an infield single in the top of the ninth to achieve the historic feat... OF Darren Ford finished the day 3-for-5, a single shy of the cycle... RHP Robert Coello improved to 2-0 with five innings pitched.

ONE-ON-ONE with SHAUN

Q&A with Shaun Anderson, pitcher for the River Cats, and Johnny Daskow, the radio broadcaster of the Sacramento River Cats.

Johnny: We're at Scottsdale Stadium talking with right-hander Shaun Anderson. You're at Spring Training, it's March 10, how have the first few weeks of spring gone for you so far?

Shaun: It's been going really well. I've been learning from a lot of guys.

There's a lot of experience here. There's a lot going on in the clubhouse so it's been a great experience so far.

Johnny: When I talk to the Giants' staff, they talk about your stuff but also about your makeup. You've always had that tenacity. We saw that last year with the River Cats: that competitive nature. That's always been a part of you, hasn't it?

Shaun: Yeah I love to compete, and there's always something you can learn. I like picking people's brains and seeing what I can learn from each guy here.

Johnny: Coming over from a different team, there are new relationships. At first you're like, "oh gosh I'm starting over again." But how have the guys been and how were they when you first got here? I'm sure it's even more comfortable now.

"Yeah I love to compete, and there's always something you can learn."

Shaun: Everyone has been so approachable. I had never been to California before so coming over I just told people that I wanted to make friends and win ballgames. That's been the thought process and it's helped me mold in here.

Johnny: As far as your pitch repertoire goes, anything in particular you are working on this spring?

Shaun: Yeah I've been working on implementing my changeup and curveball a little more. And just attacking guys with the fastball. So yeah I'm just sticking to that game plan and trying to learn from the other guys.

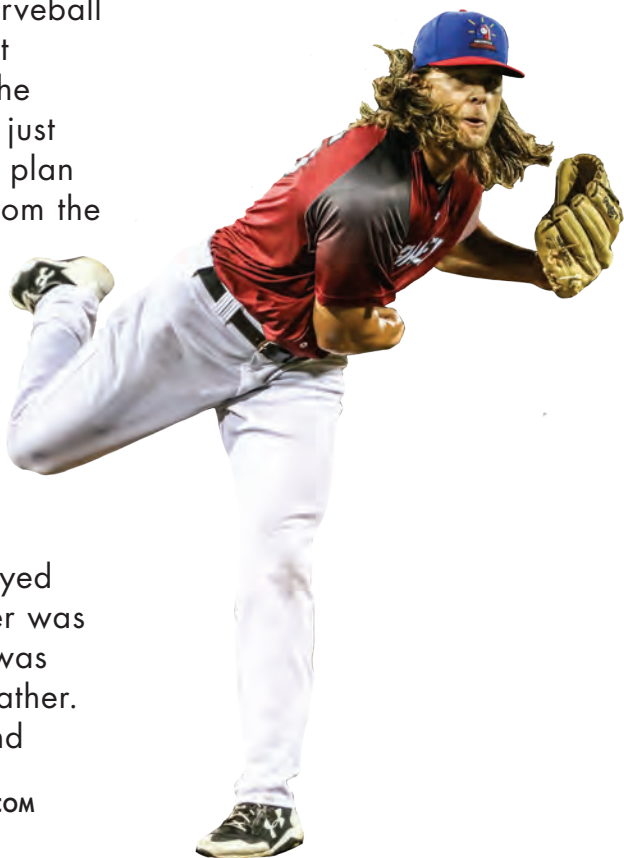

Johnny: Tell me about your experience last year. What do you like about Sacramento?

Shaun: I really enjoyed the area. The weather was always great and it was hot. I like the hot weather. I like the fan base and playing at the stadium is a pretty sweet environment.

Johnny: One of your teammates, I can't remember who, said that you were last in a bad mood maybe when you were two or three years old. Is that true?

Shaun: (laughing) No that's not true. There are some times but I just don't like to show it. I try to stay

You deserve Instant Gold Status with the Fuel Rewards® program. That means 5¢ off per gallon every fill, every day. It's our way of saying thanks for choosing Shell.

SAVE 5¢ /GAL* ON EVERY FILL

JOIN NOW at fuelrewards.com/gold

or download the app

*Restrictions apply. To qualify for the Gold/Silver Status offers, you must be a Fuel Rewards® member and swipe your Fuel Rewards® card or enter your Ali ID when you fuel at a participating Shell station. With Gold Status, you will receive 5¢/gal in Fuel Rewards® savings on every fill-up. The 5¢/gal reward for Gold Status will be combined with other rewards in your Fuel Rewards® account. If you are an existing Fuel Rewards® account. If you are an existing Fuel Rewards® member, you will receive Gold Status from 6/5/2017 through 12/31/17, the "Existing Member Introductory Period". If you are a new Fuel Rewards® member, you will receive Gold Status for the initial month you join through the last day of the month, a full calendar month later, the "New Member Introductory Period". The last 3 months of the Existing Member Introductory Period or the New Member Introductory Period (collectively the "Introductory Period") is the "Qualification Period". You will need to fill up with at least 5 gallons of fuel at least 5 times during the Qualification Period (i.e., 10/1/2017 and 12/31/2017) to maintain Gold Status during the Benefit Period. During the Benefit Period, you must continue to make a qualifying fuel purchase to maintain your Gold Status for the next 3-month Benefit Period. A qualifying fuel purchase is any fuel purchase at a participating Shell station in which you swipe your Fuel Rewards® card or enter your Ali ID and fill up with at least 5 gallons of any grade of fuel. For example, if you are a new Fuel Rewards® member and register on 6/15/2017, you will receive Gold Status through the New Member Introductory Period (i.e., 12/31/2017). You will need to fill up with at least 5 gallons of fuel at least 5 times during the Qualification Period (i.e., 10/1/2017 and 12/31/2017) to maintain Gold Status during the Benefit Period (i.e., from 1/1/2018 to 3/31/2018). Thereafter, if you continue to fill up with at least 5 gallons of fuel at least 5 times during the successive 3 consecutive month Benefit Periods, you will retain your Gold Status. If you do not maintain your Gold Status, you will receive Silver Status. With Silver Status, you will receive 3¢/gal in Fuel Rewards® savings. The 3¢/gal reward for Silver Status will be combined with other rewards in your Fuel Rewards® account. Redeem Fuel Rewards® savings with your Fuel Rewards® card or Ali ID at participating Shell stations. Fuel Rewards® savings are limited to 20 gallons of fuel per purchase, per vehicle, or fraud limits placed by Shell and/or limits placed on your financial card by your financial institution, each of which may be lower. Fuel Rewards® savings must be redeemed in a single transaction. Once you begin to dispense fuel using your Fuel Rewards® savings, you must dispense to the 20-gallon limit or you forfeit any remaining discounted gallons of fuel. For example, if you only pump fifteen (15) gallons of fuel, you would abandon the remaining five (5) gallons of discounted fuel. If you have a rewards balance greater than the current per-gallon price of fuel, the price will roll down to the maximum capability of the fuel equipment, and your remaining rewards will be saved for a future fuel purchase. Dispenser may require a price of up to 10.94/gal. It may not be possible to combine multiple discounts and/or rewards in a single transaction. For purchases of $75 or more, please go inside to pay. Unbranded diesel and alternative fuels may not be eligible. The Fuel Rewards® program is owned and operated by ExxonMobil Corporation. Offer may be modified or discontinued at any time without notice. Not valid where prohibited by law. Please see fuelrewards.com for complete Fuel Rewards® program details and Terms and Conditions.
