INFIELD FLY RULE

By Bill McPoil

The ball is popped up, the runners on first and second are tagging up and before the ball is caught, one of the umpires throws his hand in the air and calls out “infield fly.” Well, we can all see that so why is he telling us? What he’s doing is invoking rule 5.09 (a)(5). That rule mandates that when there are runners on first and second, or first, second, and third, and there are one or no outs, any fly ball that can be caught with ordinary effort by an infielder is hit, the batter is automatically out. It’s a judgement call by the umpire.

The rule doesn’t get used very often (there are no statistics on its use since it is not part of the data kept by baseball statisticians), but when it is used it can be controversial. In the 2008 World Series, Phillies’ third baseman Pedro Feliz hit a pop-up with runners on first and second. The game was being played in the rain with strong winds and the umpires did not invoke the rule. The umpire crew chief Tim Tschida explained that because of the weather conditions, the player “could not make the play with ordinary effort.”

Then, in 2012, in the eighth inning of the one-game wild card playoff between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Atlanta Braves, Braves shortstop Andrelton Simmons hit a 225 foot pop up to shallow left field. Cardinals’ shortstop Pete Kozma, who was playing in normal position, ran out to left field to catch the ball while left fielder Matt Holliday ran into catch it as well. Kozma, thinking Holliday was going to make the catch, backed off and the ball was not caught by either of them. In a very controversial call, left field umpire Sam Holbrook called the infield fly rule just before the ball hit the ground. The result meant the Braves now had runners at second and third with two outs, instead of bases loaded with one out. The Braves did not score in the inning, and the Cardinals went on to win the game, 6-3, eliminating the Braves from the postseason.

So why have the rule? What if, with runners on first and second and no outs, the batter pops up to the third baseman. Because the ball was hit in the air, neither runner on base attempts to advance, instead returning to their base. The batter, thinking it is an easy out, casually starts jogging to first. If that third baseman let the ball drop, he could quickly grab it and step on third before throwing to second. The second baseman then fires to third and the team has turned a triple play. The rule is in place to prevent the defense from abusing the tag rule to turn a double play or triple play by intentionally not catching a ball.

PROSPECT REPORT

Jake WONG

Arizona native Jake Wong stayed close to home when he chose to attend Grand Canyon University after graduating from Hamilton H.S. in the Phoenix suburb of Chandler. His strong performance as a junior in 2018 helped surge the newly-admitted NCAA program and ultimately led to the school's highest draft selection since Tim Salmon went 69th overall in 1989.

Wong's profile features a mid to sometimes upper-90s fastball to go along with a curveball and a changeup. When Wong is sitting in the lower half of the zone, the fastball takes on sinker-like characteristics. This pitch helps him thrive as a weak contact pitcher as opposed to a strikeout guy, which could help him become an effective innings eater if he reaches his ceiling.

And as you would imagine, in 40.2 innings with the Augusta GreenJackets to begin this season, Wong didn't put up gaudy strikeout totals (22.1%) but instead pitched to soft contact for an opposing batting average of .186, opposing OPS of .521, and a ground-ball rate of nearly 50%.

It all came together for a 1.99 ERA in those eight starts, prompting a mid-season promotion (alongside fellow rotation-mate Sean Hjelle) to the Advanced-A San Jose Giants. This puts the right-hander on track for another mid-season call-up to Double-A next season, as long as everything goes well in the hitter-friendly California League.

FERNANDO ABAD

PITCHER

Bat: L | Throw: L | Height: 6'1" | Weight: 220 | DOB: 12/17/85

Abad is an eight-year major-league veteran signed to a minor-league deal in the offseason. After breaking camp in Richmond, and proceeding to allow just four baserunners and zero runs in six innings, Abad was promoted to Sacramento to bolster the bullpen. Abad, who has pitched more than 300 innings combined for five different MLB teams, began the 2018 season in the New York Mets system but was suspended for 80 games after testing positive for the banned substance Stanazolol.

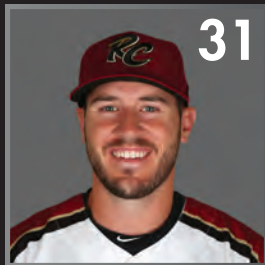

TYLER BEEDE

PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'2" | Weight: 210 | DOB: 5/23/93

Beede, drafted in 2014's first round out of Vanderbilt University, made more starts than any other River Cats pitcher during his Triple-A debut season in 2017 and is the No. 24-ranked prospect in the system according to MLB Pipeline. He pitched six or more innings in 11 of his 19 starts, posting a 3.47 ERA in those outings. He struggled during the 2018 season with the River Cats and was sent to the bullpen for the remainder of the year, but made some mechanical adjustments in the offseason and will be back in the rotation for 2019.

TY BLACH

PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: L | Height: 6'1" | Weight: 205 | DOB: 10/20/90

Blach is back in a River Cats uniform after spending all of 2017 and 2018 with the San Francisco Giants. There, he pitched the third most innings on the club in 2017 and followed that up with 118.2 a year later. He owns a 4.36 ERA in nearly 300 major-league innings pitched while making almost half of his 85 appearances as a starter. Blach was a three-year starter at Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. and was selected by the Giants in the fifth round of the 2012 draft.

RAY BLACK

PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'3" | Weight: 230 | DOB: 6/26/90

After playing collegiately at the University of Pittsburgh, he was drafted by the Giants in the 7th round of 2011, though he missed the 2012 and 2013 seasons after undergoing shoulder surgery to repair a torn labrum. In 2014 while pitching for the San Jose Giants, he struck out nearly 45% of the batters he faced in 25 innings. In May of 2017 he had arthroscopic surgery on his throwing elbow, but returned healthy and made his major-league debut on July 8, 2018.

Following Tommy John surgery at the conclusion of 2017, Coonrod finished up his rehab in July of 2018 and returned to action pitching for the AZL Giants and the San Jose Giants, where during his brief time in San Jose he struck out 46.4% of the batters he faced in 6.1 innings. Jerez was acquired by the Giants late in March in a deal that sent starting pitcher and long-time River Cats pitcher Chris Stratton to the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim. The left-handed reliever is a native of the Dominican Republic but went to high school in Brooklyn, N.Y. and was drafted by the Boston Red Sox in the second round of the 2011 draft. He found himself in the Angels organization when he was traded in the deal that helped the Red Sox acquire Ian Kinsler. Jerez made his major-league debut with the Angels on August 7, 2018.

26*DILLON MCNAMARA*PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'5" | Weight: 230 | DOB: 10/6/91

The tall right-hander was traded to the Giants in exchange for cash on July 23, 2017 and has bounced between Double-A and Triple-A during his almost-two seasons in the organization. McNamara made his Triple-A debut last year, appearing in six games for the River Cats but spent most of his time in Richmond where he owned a 1.20 ERA in 33 games. He began the 2019 season in Extended Spring Training while rehabbing an injury, but was added to the River Cats roster on May 10.

16*STEVEN OKERT*PITCHER

Okert has 48.1 career innings pitched in the major leagues spread from 2016 to 2018, and is third all-time in River Cats history for pitcher appearances.

A native of Mayari, Cuba, Quiala originally signed with the Houston Astros as a minor league free agent in 2015. The right-hander was released by the Astros following the 2018 season and signed with the San Francisco Giants before spring training in 2019. His best professional season was 2017, when he went 9-5 with a 2.57 ERA with Advanced-A Buies Creek and Double-A Corpus Christi. Quiala began 2019 with Double-A Richmond before being promoted to Sacramento on April 26.

DERECK RODRIGUEZ*PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'1" | Weight: 215 | DOB: 6/5/92

Selected by the Minnesota Twins in the sixth round of the 2011 First-Year Player Draft out of Pace High School in Miami Gardens, Fla. He made the transition from outfielder to pitcher following the 2013 season. His father, Ivan, spent 21 years in the Major Leagues, won 13 Gold Gloves and was a 14-time All-Star. Rodriguez was signed by the San Francisco Giants as a minor league free agent before the 2018 season and began the year with the River Cats. He was called up to make his Major League debut on May 29, 2018.

TYLER ROGERS*PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'4" | Weight: 180 | DOB: 12/17/90

With 55 appearances, Rogers finished tied with San Jose Giants right-hander Dylan Rheault for most games by a pitcher in the Giants' system in 2017, then followed that up by leading the system with 51 in 2018. The right-handed submariner totalled 143.2 innings over that span, entirely with the Sacramento River Cats, while holding opposing hitters to a .236 average, just two home runs, and a 2.37 ERA in 2017. His 61.0% ground ball rate was one of the highest on the Giants' farm over these last two seasons.

SAM SELMAN*PITCHER

Bat: R | Throw: L | Height: 6'3" | Weight: 190 | DOB: 11/14/90

A former second-round pick of the Kansas City Royals, Selman joins the River Cats after dominating in his seven innings pitching for the Double-A Richmond Flying Squirrels. He pitched collegiately for Vanderbilt University, where he was teammates with current River Cats Tyler Beede and Mike Yastrzemski. Pitching between Double and Triple-A during the 2017 season, Selman struck out 97 batters in just 67.2 innings while sporting a 2.66 ERA.

PAT VENDITTE*PITCHER

Bat: L | Throw: S | Height: 6'1" | Weight: 185 | DOB: 6/30/85

One of the most unique baseball players in the game, Venditte is a switch-pitcher. He throws with either arm and carries a special glove that allows him to switch hands while on the mound. He's a 33-year veteran who made his major-league debut for the Oakland A's in 2015, though it was the New York Yankees who signed him in the 20th round of the 2008 draft. Venditte spent 2018 in the Los Angeles Dodgers' system where he tossed 14 big-league innings while pitching most of his games with the Triple-A Oklahoma City Dodgers.

RONNIE FREEMAN*CATCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'1" | Weight: 190 | DOB: 1/8/91

Originally drafted by the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2012 out of Kennesaw State University, Freeman had his best season offensively in 2014 with Advanced-A Visalia, slashing .278/.340/.392 with three home runs and 24 doubles. He was traded to the Giants from the Arizona on March 24, 2018 and played in 12 games for Double-A Richmond before being called up to the River Cats. He would eventually play 61 games for Sacramento, batting .264 with seven doubles and three home runs.

ARAMIS GARCIA*CATCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'1" | Weight: 210 | DOB: 1/12/93

Drafted in the 2nd round of the 2014 draft out of Florida International University, Garcia was the top catching prospect in the Giants' farm system until they selected Georgia Tech's Joey Bart in 2018. Garcia, though, is certainly the closest to consistent major-league time as he's currently one of three backstops on San Francisco's 40-man roster. Garcia has been known mostly for his offensive prowess, but his skills behind the dish have improved from year to year, especially during the 2018 season in Double-A Richmond.

FRANCISCO PENA*CATCHER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'2" | Weight: 230 | DOB: 10/12/89

Brother of major-league infielder Tony Peña, Francisco has 86 big-league games with three different teams under his belt since debuting in 2014 with the Kansas City Royals. Peña was signed by the New York Mets out of the Dominican Republic back in 2009, but became a member of the Giants' organization on May 2, 2019 when he was traded by the St. Louis Cardinals to San Francisco in exchange for cash. Peña began the 2019 season with the Triple-A Memphis Redbirds after playing 58 games in the majors for the Cards in 2018.

ABIATAL AVELINO*INFIELDER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'0" | Weight: 210 | DOB: 2/14/95

After signing out of the Dominican Republic at age 16 with the New York Yankees, Avelino was a ranked prospect in the Pinstripes' farm system for seven seasons. In 2015, he stole the fifth most bases in all of the minor leagues (54) while splitting time between Advanced-A and Double-A ball. On August 31, 2018, he was included in the trade that sent then Giants outfielder Andrew McCutchen to the Yankees. He enters the 2019 season on the Giants' 40-man roster and is ranked the No. 19 prospect in the organization by MLB Pipeline.

RYAN HOWARD*INFIELDER

Bat: R | Throw: R | Height: 6'2" | Weight: 195 | DOB: 7/25/94

Howard was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the fifth round of the 2016 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of Missouri. In his first full season as a professional in 2017, Howard hit .306 in 127 games with Advanced-A San Jose and was promoted to Double-A Richmond to begin the 2018 season. Howard began the 2019 season by being assigned to Double-A Richmond, but was promoted to Triple-A Sacramento on May 9, 2019 where he has played second, third, and shortstop.

He hit .297 with 5 homers, 3 triples, 14 doubles and 48 RBIs in 60 games for the Tar Heels in 2011. He was rated as the No. 1 prospect in North Carolina by Impact Baseball. RIVER CATS FIELD STAFF

DAVE BRUNDAGE Manager

Brundage will take the field as the River Cats' manager for the third consecutive season. Having nearly two decades of managerial experience, the veteran manager spent four previous seasons with the International League's Lehigh Valley IronPigs (Philadelphia Phillies Triple-A), compiling a 286-289 record (.497), before heading west to Sacramento. In 2016, he led the IronPigs to an 85-58 record, the second best mark in all of Triple-A baseball.

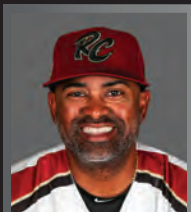

STEVE KLINE Pitching Coach

Kline rejoins the River Cats for his second season as pitching coach in Sacramento after three seasons with the Giants' Double-A affiliate Richmond Flying Squirrels. He spent the six seasons before that with the Class-A Augusta GreenJackets. He was a durable left-handed reliever during his time in the majors, appearing in 89 games in 2001 for the St. Louis Cardinals, which broke a major-league single-season record for lefties.

DAMON MINOR Hitting Coach

Minor is now in his fourth season with the River Cats after spending five seasons with the New Orleans Zephyrs. In his first year with the team in 2016, Minor helped the River Cats improve their batting average four points to the tune of a .272 average, good for sixth best in the Pacific Coast League.

JOLBERT CABRERA Fundamentals Coach

Cabrera enters his fourth season in the Giants' organization and his first as a Fundamentals Coach for the River Cats. In 2018, Cabrera served as the manager of the Class-A Augusta GreenJackets. Before that, Cabrera was the hitting coach for the AZL Giants in 2016 and was the manager with Salem-Keizer in 2017.

DAVID GETSOFF Athletic Trainer

Getsoff begins his 10th season with the Giants' organization, and his second as Athletic Trainer here in Sacramento. In 2017, he served as the organization's Latin American Coordinator and Assistant Minor League Medical Coordinator. He spent 2014-2016 with Double-A Richmond, 2012-2013 with the Class-A San Jose Giants, 2010-2011 with Class-A Augusta, and 2009 with the Class-A short season Salem-Keizer.

ANDY KING Strength & Conditioning

King is in his sixth year with the Giants' organization and his second with the River Cats after spending the 2017 season with Double-A Richmond. He was in Class-A San Jose for the 2016 season and with the Salem-Keizer Volcanoes in Short-Season A-Ball the year before that. King is a 2012 graduate of Hamline University where he earned his B.A. in Exercise and Sports Science with a concentration in Physical Therapy.

LAS VEGAS AVIATORS (31-25) 2nd Pacific Southern

-vs-

SACRAMENTO RIVER CATS (27-28) T-2nd Pacific Northern

Aviators: LHP Tyler Alexander (1-3, 6.49) • River Cats: RHP Yoanys Quiala (1-2, 5.70)

Yesterday's Game: The Sacramento River Cats broke an eight-game skid versus the Las Vegas Aviators, shutting them out 1-0 thanks to an outstanding combined pitching effort and a third inning home run from leadoff hitter OF Mike Gerber. RHP Anderson Franco cruised through three innings until a 67 minute power outage halted his night. The bullpen picked up where Franco left off allowing just three baserunners to reach the rest of the game. SP Pat Venditte turned in three perfect innings, striking out four to pick up his third win of the season. RHP Fernando Abad picked up his sixth save of the season.

Tonight's Starter: RHP Yoanys Quiala (1-2, 5.70) will take the hill for his seventh start of the season. Quiala just can't seem to avoid the one bad inning this year, in every start but one this season he has one inning which he gives up 2-3 runs. Ironically enough, Quiala's best start of the year came on May, 12 against the El Paso Chihuahuas who have one of the best offenses in the PCL. Quiala gave up one earned while scattering four hits and striking out a season high six batters. On the year Quiala is striking out 21.6 percent of batters he faces while walking 9.7 percent.

Gerber Baby: OF Mike Gerber supplied the lone run for the River Cats Friday with a third inning solo blast to centerfield, in doing so he accomplished a feat the River Cats haven't achieved since the 2015 season. It was the first time the River Cats have homered in a 1-0 win since Adam Duvall did it on April 9, 2015 against the Salt Lake Bees. On the year Gerber leads the River Cats in batting average at .344 and runs batted in with 34. Gerber is second on the team in home runs with 11.

Bullpen cont.: The Sacramento River Cats bullpen has been dominant for most of the year and last night was no different. SP Pat Venditte, RHP Dillon McNamara, LHP Williams Jerez and LHP Fernando Abad combined for six innings of scoreless, one-hit baseball lowering their already impressive ERA down to 3.73. The Sacramento bullpen ranks third in the PCL in ERA and second in strikeouts with 292.

Jumping on Top: When it comes to hitting the first pitch of the at-bat nobody in the league does it better than the River Cats. The River Cats lead PCL in batting average and home runs and rank second in runs batted in. On the year Sacramento is hitting an amazing .427 on 0-0 counts with 22 home runs and 66 runs batted in and 71 runs scored. Only Round Rock has more RBI and runs scored.

Delays: So far this season the River Cats have been fortunate when it comes to weather delays. Sacramento has only experienced one weather delay this season in Fresno. Last night the River Cats got delayed, but it wasn't due to weather. Sacramento had to delay play for 67 minutes due to a power outage with the stadium lights.

This Day in River Cats History: June 1, 2006: The Sacramento River Cats defeated the Las Vegas 51s 9-5 in 11 innings in Las Vegas...DH Hiram Bocachica went 2-for-4 with a triple and home run and C John Baker had four of the team's 16 hits on the night...OF Jason Perry was the catalyst for the River Cats' four-run 11th inning, hitting a solo home run...RHP Santiago Casilla blew his fourth save of the season but ended up with his first win of the year...he went three innings, allowing one run on three hits while walking one and striking out four.

JUNE 1 IN MLB HISTORY

June 1, 1923: The Giants pound the Phillies at the Baker Bowl, 22-8. The Philadelphia contest marks the first time this century a team has scored in every inning of a game.

June 1, 1964: The exhibition game with their Williamsport farm club is rained out, much to the delight of the Mets. Yesterday, the team finished a ten-hour marathon at 11:25 p.m., dropping a twin bill to the Giants, 5-3 and 8-6, which included a 23-inning nightcap.

June 1, 2012: Johan Santana, who did not pitch last year because of shoulder surgery performed at the end of the 2010 season, no-hits the Cardinals at Citi Field, 8-0, with the help of third base ump's blown call on a fair ball and an outstanding defensive play by outfielder Mike Baxter. The 33-year-old two-time Cy Young Award winner's 134-pitch effort ends the Mets' streak of over fifty seasons, spanning 8,020 games, without a no-hitter.

READY. SET. GOLD

Joey Logano
NASCAR Driver, Daytona 500 Champion

You deserve Instant Gold Status with the Fuel Rewards® program. That means 5¢ off per gallon every fill, every day. It's our way of saying thanks for choosing Shell.

SAVE 5¢ /GAL* ON EVERY FILL

JOIN NOW at fuelrewards.com/gold

or download the app

*Restrictions apply. To qualify for the Gold/Silver Status offers, you must be a Fuel Rewards® member and swipe your Fuel Rewards® card or enter your Ali ID when you fuel at a participating Shell station. With Gold Status, you will receive 5¢/gal in Fuel Rewards® savings on every fill-up. The 5¢/gal reward for Gold Status will be combined with other rewards in your Fuel Rewards® account. If you are an existing Fuel Rewards® account. If you are an existing Fuel Rewards® member, you will receive Gold Status from 6/5/2017 through 12/31/17, the "Existing Member Introductory Period". If you are a new Fuel Rewards® member, you will receive Gold Status for the initial month you join through the last day of the month, a full calendar month later, the "New Member Introductory Period". The last 3 months of the Existing Member Introductory Period or the New Member Introductory Period (collectively the "Introductory Period") is the "Qualification Period". You will need to fill up with at least 5 gallons of fuel or at least 6 times during the Qualification Period (i.e., 10/1/2017 and 12/31/2017) to maintain Gold Status during the Benefit Period. During the Benefit Period, you must continue to make a qualifying fuel purchase to maintain your Gold Status for the next 3-month Benefit Period. A qualifying fuel purchase is any fuel purchase at a participating Shell station in which you swipe your Fuel Rewards® card or enter your Ali ID and fill up with at least 5 gallons of any grade of fuel. For example, if you are a new Fuel Rewards® member and register on 6/15/2017, you will receive Gold Status through the New Member Introductory Period (i.e., 12/31/2017). You will need to fill up with at least 5 gallons of fuel or at least 6 times during the Qualification Period (i.e., 10/1/2017 and 12/31/2017) to maintain Gold Status during the Benefit Period (i.e., from 1/1/2018 to 3/31/2018). Thereafter, if you continue to fill up with at least 5 gallons of fuel at least 6 times during the successive 3 consecutive month Benefit Periods, you will retain your Gold Status. If you do not maintain your Gold Status, you will receive Silver Status. With Silver Status, you will receive 3¢/gal in Fuel Rewards® savings. The 3¢/gal reward for Silver Status will be combined with other rewards in your Fuel Rewards® account. Redeem Fuel Rewards® savings with your Fuel Rewards® card or Ali ID at participating Shell stations. Fuel Rewards® savings are limited to 20 gallons of fuel per purchase, per vehicle, or fraud limits placed by Shell and/or limits placed on your financial card by your financial institution, each of which may be lower. Fuel Rewards® savings must be redeemed in a single transaction. Once you begin to dispense fuel using your Fuel Rewards® savings, you must dispense to the 20-gallon limit or you forfeit any remaining discounted gallons of fuel. For example, if you only pump fifteen (15) gallons of fuel, you would abandon the remaining five (5) gallons of discounted fuel. If you have a rewards balance greater than the current per-gallon price of fuel, the price will roll down to the maximum capability of the fuel equipment, and your remaining rewards will be saved for a future fuel purchase. Dispenser may require a price of up to 10.94/gal. It may not be possible to combine multiple discounts and/or rewards in a single transaction. For purchases of $75 or more, please go inside to pay. Unbranded diesel and alternative fuels may not be eligible. The Fuel Rewards® program is owned and operated by ExxonMobil Corporation. Offer may be modified or discontinued at any time without notice. Not valid where prohibited by law. Please see fuelrewards.com for complete Fuel Rewards® program details and Terms and Conditions. ONE-ON-ONE with SAM

Q&A with Sam Selman, pitcher for the River Cats, and Johnny Daskow, the radio broadcaster of the Sacramento River Cats.

Johnny: Left-hander Sam Selman with us, and Sam you are kind-of settling in to the Sacramento area. This is not your first rodeo in Triple-A, but how are you enjoying Sacramento so far?

Sam: I'm really enjoying it out here. I actually came here last year when I was with the Omaha Storm Chasers, my previous team, and really enjoyed the area. I'm staying down here in a good apartment nearby with a bunch of the guys. I'm loving being able to explore the town, taking the Jump Bikes around to the different restaurants and things, but yeah, it's been a great time so far.

SELMAN

13 | PITCHER

Johnny: You went to pitching-rich Vanderbilt – incredible tradition there. You actually went to Vandy and got humbled a bit. You dominated in high school and then went to Vanderbilt and you didn't pitch the first two years, you just soaked it all in and learned. Can you take us through those first two years, was it frustrating or were you able to embrace the situation?

Sam: So yeah, I came from a small high school in Austin, Texas and we had 18 guys on our baseball team. From my school when I was a 14th round draft pick I was no doubt the first person ever to be drafted, and probably the first to play collegiate baseball. So, then I went to Vanderbilt where everyone is the same, they are all good. I only pitched a few innings during my first two years, but finally after my sophomore year, we had 14 guys either graduate or get drafted so there was an opportunity for me to pitch 80 innings in 2012 for my Junior year.

Johnny: What is it about Vandy that makes it a baseball player factory, with all the players that have come out of there to have success in the minor league and in the big leagues? It's pretty special.

Sam: Yeah, it's the best recruiting tool you can possibly have. You get to play in Nashville, and go to a top school in the country, and by the way we've had 120-plus guys drafted and have 14 players currently in the Major Leagues. And all those guys come back and contribute to the program. There are resources for alumni to come back and work on their games after they graduate. Yaz (teammate and Vanderbilt alum Mike Yastrzemski) goes back every offseason, and I go back whenever I can. It's just a fun atmosphere that everyone wants to remain a part of.

you take us through a bit about growing up in Austin, Texas?

Sam: You know, people ask me all the time when they go to visit there, like "what should I go do?" or "what should I see?". But it's a very different town than it was when I grew up there. So, my parents are from there, my grandparents are from there, so it was slowly on the rise when I was growing up, similar to Nashville when I was in college. Now they are both just booming great towns that everyone wants to go to. But your hometown is your hometown. I'm not sure of the best bars and hip new sushi places, but I can tell you where my brother and I golfed every Sunday or where my favorite Mexican food place is.

Johnny: You are going to be someone who really appreciates when you finally get the call to the big leagues. You've been through so much in this game, can you imagine what that feeling is going to be like?

Sam: You know what, you think about it all the time. You think about but at the same time you don't think about it because you have to keep grinding on through. It's one of those things where you don't want to always be looking up to see how well you've done, because that's the moment when you trip and fall and things start going south. So, I obviously thought about it and dream about that experience. I've been on this ride for so long, but so have my parents and friends who have supported me along the way, so they're a huge part of it as well.
