JOHN HUFNAGEL PRESIDENT, GENERAL MANAGER AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBER

CFL • 19 | STAMPS • 18

John Hufnagel was named president and general manager of the Calgary Stampeders on Jan. 27, 2016.

After returning to the Stampeders in 2008, Hufnagel served eight years as head coach and general manager before ceding coaching duties to Dave Dickenson at the conclusion of the 2015 season.

Hufnagel is a two-time winner of the Annis Stukus Trophy as the CFL's coach of the year and led the Stampeders to Grey Cup victories in 2008 and 2014. He had a 102-41-1 career mark as a head coach and his winning percentage is best among coaches with at least 100 games on the sidelines.

The Stampeders have reached double digits in victories in each of the 10 seasons since Hufnagel's return in 2008, have six first-place finishes in the West Division and have qualified for the post-season every year.

Hufnagel began his coaching career in 1987 with the Saskatchewan Roughriders as a player/coach. In 1990, he joined the Stampeders as offensive coordinator under Wally Buono. In this role, Hufnagel helped guide the team to three Grey Cup games, including a championship in 1992. His innovative offences were explosive under the direction of Doug Flutie, who received the CFL's Most Outstanding Player award three consecutive years (1992-1994) with the Stamps. Hufnagel also developed Jeff Garcia and enabled him to take over from Flutie in 1996. These high-powered offences produced future Hall-of-Famers such as Terry Vaughn, Rocco Romano, Allen Pitts and Flutie, along with players who received numerous league accolades such as David Sapunjis and Vince Danielsen. During Hufnagel's first seven seasons with the Stampeders, the team finished first in the West Division six times.

Following his early success in the CFL, he went to the Arena Football League as head coach/general manager of the New Jersey Red Dogs. In two seasons, he posted a 17-11 record. Hufnagel joined the Cleveland Browns in 1999 and spent two seasons as the team's quarterbacks coach. In 2001, he was the quarterbacks coach for the Indianapolis Colts when Peyton Manning completed 62.7 per cent of his passes and threw for 4,131 yards. Hufnagel spent the 2002 season as quarterbacks coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. That year, Mark Brunell threw just seven interceptions in 416 pass attempts and his 85.7 quarterback rating was his highest in four years.

Hufnagel spent the 2003 season as quarterbacks coach for the Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots. Under his tutelage, Tom Brady completed 60.2 per cent of his passes for 3,620 yards, 23 touchdowns and 12 interceptions and was named the Super Bowl MVP.

The next season, Hufnagel joined the New York Giants, with whom he spent three seasons as offensive coordinator. In 2004, the Giants scored 60 more points than they had the previous season. Running back Tiki Barber set a franchise record with 1,518 rushing yards and quarterback Eli Manning starting laying a foundation that saw him emerge as the Super Bowl MVP for the 2007 season. In 2005, Barber upped his team record to 1,860 rushing yards and the Giants had the third-highest scoring offence in the NFL.

Hufnagel returned to the Stampeders on Dec. 3, 2007, when he was introduced as head coach/general manager.

Prior to coaching, Hufnagel starred at Penn State University. In his final two seasons as a starter, Hufnagel's record was 21-3. As a junior, he led the Nittany Lions to a 30-6 Cotton Bowl win over Texas and in his final season took his team to the Sugar Bowl. He also finished sixth in Heisman Trophy voting in 1972.

In 1973, he was a 14th-round draft choice of the Denver Broncos. He spent three seasons with the Broncos before beginning a 12-year CFL career with the Calgary Stampeders (1976-79), Saskatchewan Roughriders (1980-83, 1987) and Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1984-86).

Hufnagel earned a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing from Penn State. John and Sherry reside in Cochrane. He has two daughters, Neely and Lindsey, and a son, Cole.

DAVE DICKENSON

HEAD COACH

CFL • 10 | STAMPS • 10

Dickenson returns for his 10th season on the Stampeders coaching staff and third as the team's head coach. He also serves as offensive coordinator, a position he's held for the past seven seasons.

In 2017, Dickenson led the Stamps to a 13-4-1 record, a second straight first-place finish in the West Division and a second consecutive appearance in the Grey Cup game. That brought Dickenson's career win total to 28, a CFL record for most victories by a head coach in his first two seasons. The Stamps allowed the fewest points in the CFL in 2017 and were second in points scored. They also forced the most turnovers in the league while committing the fewest. Dickenson was the West Division finalist for the CFL's coach of the year award.

In his first season as head coach, Dickenson led the Stamps to a 15-2-1 mark for a franchise single-season record of 31 standings points. With their Western Final win over the BC Lions, the 2016 Stamps became the first team in franchise history to go a combined 10-0 at home in regular-season and playoff action. Dickenson set the league record for most wins by a rookie head coach and was voted the CFL's coach of the year. Calgary scored the most points in the CFL in 2016 and also allowed the fewest.

Under Dickenson's tutelage in 2015, the Stamps offence led the CFL in points with 452, quarterback Bo Levi Mitchell was first in the West Division with 4,551 passing yards and 26 touchdown passes and Eric Rogers led the league with 1,448 receiving yards. The Stamps allowed the fewest sacks in the league, three different tailbacks recorded 100-yard games and five members of the offence earned West Division all-star honours.

In 2014, Dickenson oversaw an offence that led the CFL in points scored, touchdowns, rushing touchdowns, first downs, rushing offence, average gain per pass, fewest interceptions and fewest sacks allowed.

In 2013, Calgary's offence led the league in several categories including points, touchdowns, net offence, net rushing yards and fewest sacks allowed. The Stamps saw three different quarterbacks earn victories as starters and running back Jon Cornish was named the CFL's Most Outstanding Player and top Canadian.

In 2012, Dickenson's offence ranked in the top two of several categories including first in touchdowns scored and rushing touchdowns and second in points scored, first downs, rushing yards and pass-completion percentage. Cornish led the league in rushing on his way to being named the CFL's Most Outstanding Canadian. The offence also featured three CFL all-stars in Cornish, offensive lineman Dimitri Tsoumpas and receiver Nik Lewis.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2011, Dickenson oversaw a Stamps offence that was tied for second-most points scored with 511. Calgary also had the second-most first downs and finished second in net yards offence and net yards rushing. The offence produced two CFL all-stars, with Tsoumpas and Lewis earning the honours.

When Dickenson joined the coaching ranks in 2009, he tutored the Stampeders running backs and helped Joffrey Reynolds claim the CFL rushing crown. In 2010, his role expanded as he was named quarterbacks coach, called offensive plays on game days and was heavily involved in game planning.

During the 2010 campaign, the Stamps offence led the CFL in points, total yards, first downs and rushing yards while Stamps quarterback Henry Burris was voted the CFL's Most Outstanding Player.

Dickenson joined the coaching staff after an outstanding 13-year professional playing career. He spent 11 of his 13 seasons in the Canadian Football League, six of those with the Stampeders (1996-2000 and 2008).

A potent combination of intelligence, athletic ability and courage, Dickenson set a number of CFL passing records and was named the league's Most Outstanding Player in 2000 after throwing for 4,636 yards, 36 touchdowns and only six interceptions while guiding the Stampeders to a 12-5-1 record.

After spending two seasons in the National Football League — with San Diego in 2001 and with Seattle, Miami and Detroit in 2002 — Dickenson returned to Canada and signed with the BC Lions where he was reunited with former Stampeders boss Wally Buono. After five seasons with the Leos — including a 2005 campaign in which he established league records for highest completion percentage and quarterback rating in a single season and an MVP performance in the 2006 Grey Cup — Dickenson returned to Calgary in 2008 for what proved to be his final season.

Dickenson joined the Stampeders in 1996 after a stellar career at the University of Montana. He was a three-time conference MVP with the Grizzlies and in 1995 led the nation in passing while guiding Montana to the NCAA Division 1-AA national title. He was named a member of the College Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2018.

Dickenson, his wife Tammy and children Avery and Cooper live in Calgary year round. His coaching role extends into the off-season as he annually operates the Dickenson Passing Academy to work with young quarterbacks and receivers.

DEVONE CLAYBROOKS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

CFL • 7 | STAMPS • 7

Claybrooks is in his seventh season as a member of the Stamps coaching staff and his third as defensive coordinator.

From 2012-15, he served as Calgary's defensive line coach.

In Claybrooks' second season as defensive coordinator, the Stamps allowed opposing offences a league-low 301 points and also led the CFL with 45 turnovers forced. Calgary also ranked first in average offence allowed (a league-low 314.7 yards per game), quarterback pressures (125) and average yards per play (5.7) while sharing the league lead with 50 sacks.

The defensive unit was led by Alex Singleton, who was voted the CFL's Most Outstanding Defensive Player for a season in which he established a league record for most tackles in a season by a Canadian and team marks for most defensive tackles and most total tackles in a season. Singleton, defensive back Ciente Evans and defensive linemen Charleston Hughes and Micah Johnson were all selected as league all-stars.

In Claybrooks' first season as defensive coordinator, the Stamps were the league's stingiest team when it came to points allowed as well as yards per play and yards per pass. Calgary was second in turnovers forced (45) and opponents' completion percentage (65.4). The Stamps defence produced five CFL all-stars in 2016 including defensive linemen Hughes and Johnson and defensive backs Evans, Tommie Campbell and Jamar Wall.

In 2015, Claybrooks oversaw a defensive line that helped the Stamps finish among the league leaders in sacks and average yards allowed per rushing attempt. The 2014 season saw the Stamps defence tie for first in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (10) and finish second in fewest points allowed (347).

In 2013, Claybrooks oversaw a defensive line that finished first in the league in quarterback sacks and featured defensive ends Hughes and Cordarro Law, who finished first and third in the CFL in the sack category. Hughes was named a CFL all-star and was the West Division nominee for the CFL's Most Outstanding Defensive Player award.

In his first season as a coach in 2012, Claybrooks guided a Stamps D-line that overcame numerous injuries to finish tied for second in the league in quarterback sacks (43) and allowed an average of fewer than 100 rushing yards per game. Hughes ranked second in the CFL in sacks (11), tied for the league lead in forced fumbles (five) and earned a spot on the CFL all-star team.

Claybrooks spent three seasons as a player with the Stamps and was a member of the Montreal Alouettes for two seasons prior to that. Over his five-year CFL career, Claybrooks played 75 regular-season games and recorded 161 tackles and 14 sacks and recovered two fumbles.

In 2011, Claybrooks played 15 regular-season games and one playoff game for the Stamps. His coaching and leadership skills were evident throughout the season as Claybrooks regularly taught some of the team's young defensive linemen about the game.

Claybrooks started his professional football career by attending Green Bay Packers training camp in 2001 before signing with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and then the Cleveland Browns. He played for the Rhein Fire in NFL Europe in 2002 before returning to Tampa Bay. Claybrooks was a member of the Buccaneers when they won Super Bowl XXXVII.

MARK KILAM

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

CFL • 14 | STAMPS • 14

Kilam is in his 14th season with the Stampeders and his ninth as special teams coordinator.

In 2017, the special-teams unit included a record-setting performance by Roy Finch, who tied a franchise single-season mark with three punt-return touchdowns and beat his own record for most punt-return yards in a season. He finished the year with 1,200 punt-return yards, the third-best total in league history, and was named the CFL's Most Outstanding Special Teams Player. Finch and kicker Rene Paredes, who led the CFL with a 91.4-per cent success rate on field-goal attempts, were named CFL all-stars. Punter Rob Maver was second in the CFL with a net punting average of 35.6 yards and led the league with 13 punts inside the opposition's 10-yard line.

As a team, the Stamps led the CFL with five return TDs, a 15.4-yard average on punt returns and a league-low 8.9-yard average for opposition punt returns. Including a score on a blocked punt, the special-teams unit scored six touchdowns. Calgary was tied for second in the league with three blocked kicks.

In 2016, the Stamps led the CFL with an average of 24.3 yards on kickoff returns. Paredes tied the franchise record with 56 field goals including a league-leading 18 three-pointers from 40 yards or longer. Paredes' season included a streak of 32 consecutive successful field goals. He was second in the CFL in both points (203) and kickoff average (66.4 yards). Maver averaged a career-best 46.9 yards per punt and was among the league leaders with seven punts pinning the opposition inside its own 10-yard line. The Stamps' special-teams unit blocked three punts.

In 2015, the group was led by Paredes, who made 41 of 47 field goals, 26 converts and seven singles for a West Division-leading total of 156 points. He earned West Division and CFL all-star nods and was the West's finalist for the Most Outstanding Special Teams Player award. Maver was second in the league in punting average (45.7 yards).

In 2014, Paredes was tops in the CFL with 80 kickoffs for 5,052 yards. The Stamps did not give up a special-teams touchdown all season and the kickoff team led the league in average drive start. Maver was named a West Division all-star.

The 2013 season produced three CFL all-stars for the Calgary special-teams unit in Paredes, Maver and returner Larry Taylor. Paredes' exceptional season was highlighted by two new league records including longest consecutive field goal streak (39) and field-goal efficiency (94.7 per cent) and he was named the CFL's Most Outstanding Special Teams Player. The Stamps also excelled on coverage, leading the league in net punting and placing second in kickoff coverage.

In 2012, Stamps kickers Maver and Paredes were named CFL all-stars. Maver led the CFL in net punting with a 36.2-yard average while Paredes set a new franchise record and turned in what was the second-best single-season success rate in CFL history by converting 93.0 per cent of his field-goal attempts. The cover teams led the league in fewest big plays allowed while the Stamps ranked second in the CFL in big plays made by their own return teams.

During the 2011 season, the Stamps special-teams units produced a CFL all-star in punter Burke Dales and two West Division all-stars in Dales and returner Taylor. Dales led the CFL and established a career best by averaging 47.2 yards per punt. Taylor led the West Division and was second in the CFL with 1,778 combined yards on punt, kickoff and missed-field goal returns.

For a second consecutive season, the Stamps featured a rookie kicker in 2011 as Paredes was signed after a Week 1 injury to Maver. Including the playoffs, Paredes converted on 38 of 48 field goals including conversions on seven of nine tries from 40 yards or more.

In 2010, Kilam worked with rookie Maver, who won the CFL scoring title and set the all-time Stamps mark for scoring by a rookie with 185 points. Dales was voted to the CFL all-star team and he led the league with a 45.6-yard punting average.

Prior to assuming the special teams coordinator's position, Kilam worked in the dual roles of linebackers coach and strength and conditioning coach during the 2009 season, contributing to a Calgary defence that allowed the fewest points in the West Division.

In 2008, Kilam worked with a defence that allowed the fewest points, touchdowns and points per game in the CFL.

Kilam joined the team in 2005 as strength and conditioning coach and began assisting the defence from the coaches' box on game day at mid-season. The following season, he worked as the defensive quality control coach and assisted with the linebackers. In 2007, he coached the nickel and dime backs and was promoted to linebackers coach during the year.

Kilam has won two Grey Cups, both with the Stampeders, in 2008 and 2014.

Before he joined the Stamps, Kilam coached on the defensive staff of the Southern Alberta All-Star Team in the Provincial Senior Bowl from 2003-05. Kilam also coached on the defensive staff with the Cochrane Cobras (2002-05) who went undefeated and won three provincial high school championships in that time.

PETE COSTANZA

RECEIVERS COACH

Costanza is in his 11th season as the Stamps' receivers coach.

In 2017, Costanza oversaw a group of receivers that included four players who made at least 40 catches for 700 yards. Despite the fact the projected starters missed a combined total of 27 games due to injury, the receivers helped the Stamps amass the second-highest point total in the CFL. Marken Michel led the CFL with a 19.0-yard average per reception and was Calgary's nominee for the league's Most Outstanding Rookie award.

In 2016, the receiving corps included Marquay McDaniel, who surpassed the 1,000-yard mark, and CFL rookie of the year DaVaris Daniels, who led the team with nine receiving touchdowns despite not making his season debut until Week 9.

During the 2015 season, Costanza oversaw a group that featured the emergence of league-leading pass-catcher Eric Rogers, who recorded 1,448 yards, 10 touchdowns and one two-point conversion while earning CFL all-star honours. McDaniel also posted a 1,000-yard season and became the CFL's record-setting two-point-convert threat with five.

In total, 17 differentStampeders recorded receptions in 2015, contributing to the team's league-leading offensive points total (452). Five different receivers recorded three or more touchdowns.

In 2014, theStampeders were tops in the CFL with 511 points. Calgary's pass-catchers provided reliable targets and steady hands for first-year starting quarterback Bo Levi Mitchell, who posted a 12-2 record and led the CFL in passer rating.

Thirteen differentStampeders had touchdown catches in 2014. Injuries provided an opportunity for rookie receiver Rogers to see action late in the season and he responded with two touchdowns in the regular-season finale, two more scores in the Western Final and 108 receiving yards in the Grey Cup.

Injuries also affected the receiver position in 2013, but the unit still finished third in the league in receptions and receiving touchdowns and finished second in pass-completion percentage. McDaniel was named a CFL all-star and led the team in receiving with 1,047 yards and eight touchdowns on 76 catches.

In 2012, Costanza oversaw a unit featuring CFL all-star Nik Lewis, who made a career-high 100 catches and finished fourth in the league in receiving yards with 1,241. A total of 17 different players made catches for the Stamps including three who surpassed the 50-reception mark.

In 2011, Costanza coached a Stamps receiving corps led by Lewis, who was named a CFL all-star and was the team's nominee for Most Outstanding Player.

The 2010Stampeders receiving group featured three 1,000-yard pass-catchers in Lewis, Romby Bryant and Ken-Yon Rambo. It was the first time since 2000 the Stamps featured a trio of 1,000-yard receivers. The combined 3,604 yards and 32 touchdowns of Bryant-Lewis-Rambo were the best totals of any three teammates in the CFL during the 2010 season and their 240 catches were good for second place.

In 2009, the Stamps were one of the CFL's top passing clubs despite injuries to receivers. Calgary produced two 1,000-yard receivers in Lewis and league all-star Jermaine Copeland.

In his first season in 2008, Costanza worked with an extremely talented group of receivers including Rambo, who broke the 1,000-yard mark for the first time in his professional career and led the CFL in receiving yards.

Prior to joining the Stamps, Costanza was head coach of the Albany Conquest in Arena Football League 2. He led the Conquest for four seasons and spent a total of seven seasons in the league. In 2006, Costanza's Conquest became the first team in af2 history to top 5,000 yards total offence. In 2003, he was a top candidate for coach-of-the-year honours.

In between af2 seasons, Costanza worked as defensive backs coach at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. In 2007, RPI won the Liberty League and Costanza was part of the conference's Coaching Staff of the Year. In 2006, RPI led the conference in scoring defence, takeaways, interceptions, rushing defence, total defence and red-zone defence.

Costanza also worked with two Arena Football League teams and got his start as receivers coach of the New Jersey Red Dogs in 1997 when John Hufnagel was head coach.

In his free time, Costanza enjoys the local landscape by snowboarding and fly-fishing.

MARC MUELLER

RUNNING BACKS COACH

CFL • 5 | STAMPS • 5

Mueller is in his fifth season with the Stampede and his fourth as running backs coach.

In 2017, the Stamps running back group featured tailback Jerome Messam, who cracked the 1,000-yard plateau and missed out on a second consecutive CFL rushing title by just 20 yards. The Stamps were among the league leaders with 18 rushing touchdowns, just two fewer than the CFL-best total.

In 2016, Messam won the CFL rushing title with 1,198 yards and was voted the league's Most Outstanding Canadian. As a team, the Stamps were second in the CFL with 21 rushing touchdowns and an average gain of 5.3 yards per rush. The blocking work of the Stamps' running backs also helped the team allow a league-low 20 sacks.

In 2015, Mueller's first year as running backs coach, three different players — Jon Cornish, Matt Walter and Messam — recorded 100-yard games and the Stamps ranked second in the CFL with 14 rushing touchdowns.

In 2014, his first with the Stampede, Mueller served as a defensive assistant and worked closely with the linebackers. The Stamps defence ranked second in the CFL in 2014 with an average of 19.3 points allowed per game and also finished second in takeaways with 43.

In 2013, Mueller served as quarterbacks coach for the University of Regina Rams, his alma mater. Under Mueller's guidance, the Rams led Canada West in passing offence with 359.4 yards per game.

The Regina native spent six seasons (2007-2012) at the University of Regina and was the Rams' starting quarterback for three seasons. During his first two years as a starter in 2009 and 2010, Mueller finished first in the conference in completions (176 in 2009, 182 in 2010) and passing yards (2,308 in 2009, 2,437 in 2010) and finished second in touchdown passes (nine in 2009, 14 in 2010).

Mueller suffered a season-ending injury on the second play of the 2011 season and was granted a medical redshirt. He returned as the starter for his final year in 2012.

He left Regina with several school records including career pass-completion percentage (62.1), single-season records in pass attempts (310 in 2009), pass completions (182 in 2010) and pass-completion percentage (67.8 in 2012) and single-game records in most attempted passes (55 in 2012 against Manitoba) and pass-completion percentage (78.4 in 2012 at Saskatchewan).

Mueller was invited to the 2011 CFL Combine and attended training camp with the Edmonton Eskimos that June, seeing playing time at quarterback in one pre-season game.

The business administration major quarterbacked the Sheldon-Williams Spartans to the 2006 Saskatchewan 4A high school championship. Mueller is the grandson of CFL Hall of Fame quarterback Ron Lancaster.

RYAN DINWIDDIE

QUARTERBACKS COACH

Dinwiddie is in his third season as the Stamps' quarterbacks coach. He joined the Stampede in 2016 after three years on the staff of the Montreal Alouettes.

In 2017, Stamps starting quarterback Bo Levi Mitchell was third in the CFL with 4,700 passing yards. Calgary finished second in the CFL in points scored and committed the fewest turnovers. Dinwiddie also worked with second-year pivot Andrew Buckley, who completed all 10 of his passes in a relief appearance against Hamilton and made his first career start in a Week 20 matchup against Winnipeg.

In Dinwiddie's first year with the Stamps, Mitchell threw for 5,385 yards and a league-leading 32 touchdown passes in earning the CFL's Most Outstanding Player award. Stamps passers threw just 10 interceptions, tied for the lowest total in the CFL, and helped Calgary score a league-best 586 points. Buckley served as the Stamps' short-yardage specialist and he tied the CFL's single-season record for most rushing touchdowns by a Canadian quarterback with eight.

Dinwiddie served as the Alouettes' co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach in 2015. Under Dinwiddie's tutelage, Montreal led the CFL with 129 rushing first downs and was first in the East Division with 2,076 rushing yards including 1,059 by league rushing champion Tyrell Sutton.

The Elk Grove, Calif., native joined the Alouettes' staff in 2013 as offensive quality control coach and was named quarterbacks coach prior to the 2014 season. He was promoted to offensive coordinator during training camp and, despite instability and injury issues at the quarterback position — four different players made starts — the Alouettes finished 9-9 and reached the Eastern Final.

A quarterback, Dinwiddie played five seasons in the CFL including three with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (2006-08) and two with the Saskatchewan Roughriders (2010-11). His first career start came in the Bombers' 2007 Grey Cup meeting with Saskatchewan and in his regular-season debut as a starter — on July 24, 2008, against Calgary — he threw for 450 yards.

Prior to turning pro, Dinwiddie starred at Boise State where during his senior season he threw for 4,031 yards and 28 touchdowns. He signed with the National Football League's Chicago Bears as an undrafted free agent in 2004 and spent time with the Hamburg Sea Devils in NFL Europe before coming to the CFL.

PAT DELMONACO

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

CFL • 9 | STAMPS • 5

DelMonaco returns for his fifth season as the Stampeders offensive line coach. Additionally, he oversees the club's free-agent tryout camps during the off-season.

In 2017, the Stamps allowed the second-fewest sacks in the CFL. In four years with DelMonaco as offensive line coach, the Stamps have never finished lower than second in that category. The line also paved the way for tailback Jerome Messam to crack the 1,000-yard mark and compete for the CFL rushing title, an honour on which he missed out by just 20 yards. Despite limited experience at the position, Ucambre Williams became the team's starting centre and was Calgary's nominee for the CFL's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman award.

In 2016, the Stamps allowed the fewest sacks in the CFL for a third consecutive season under DelMonaco's guidance. Despite the fact that injuries forced the team to use 12 different offensive linemen over the course of the season and that not once after the 11th game of the season was Calgary able to use the same five starters in back-to-back games, the line helped pave the way for an offence that led the league in points scored and a running back — Messam — that won the league rushing title. Two members of the offensive line — Derek Dennis and Spencer Wilson — were named CFL all-stars and Dennis was voted the league's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman.

In 2015, DelMonaco's second season with the Stampeders, the club allowed the fewest sacks for a second straight year and the offensive line paved the way for three different tailbacks to record 100-yard games. The offensive line showed great resiliency and flexibility as injuries forced players to change positions multiple times. Only West Division all-stars Pierre Lavertu and Wilson started all 18 regular-season games.

In 2014, Calgary led the CFL in rushing yards (143.9 yards per game) and fewest sacks allowed (26). The line helped Jon Cornish win a third consecutive rushing title despite playing just nine games and four different Calgary backs recorded 100-yard rushing games. Two members of the line — left tackle Stanley Bryant and centre Brett Jones — earned CFL all-star recognition.

The Stampeders did not allow a single sack in the 102nd Grey Cup game as Calgary beat Hamilton to win the seventh title in franchise history.

DelMonaco joined the Stamps in 2014 after spending the previous four seasons as the offensive line coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Under DelMonaco, members of the Blue Bombers offensive line earned a total of five division all-star honours and Winnipeg had a per-game rushing average of more than 100 yards in three of his four seasons.

DelMonaco joined the Blue Bombers in 2010 after a seven-year stint at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He was RPI's offensive line coach for two seasons (2003-04) and the offensive coordinator for five years (2005-09).

He previously had stops at Hudson Valley Community College and as a graduate assistant at the University of Illinois. DelMonaco played offensive line for four seasons at the University of Albany and was a captain during his senior season. The Great Danes won two conference championships during DelMonaco's Albany career.

DelMonaco and his wife Kelly have two children — Julia and Pasquale III.

COREY MACE

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

CFL • 3 | STAMPS • 3

Mace is in his eighth season in the Stampeders organization and his third as the defensive line coach.

In 2017, the defensive line was part of a Calgary defence that allowed opposing offences a league-low 301 points. The Stamps led the CFL with 125 quarterback pressures and were tied for first with 50 sacks. Charleston Hughes led the CFL with 11 sacks while Ja'Gared Davis and Micah Johnson each had nine. Hughes and Johnson earned CFL all-star recognition.

In his first season as a coach, Mace oversaw a group that included 2016 CFL sack leader Hughes. As a unit, the Stamps defensive line produced 46 of the Stamps' league-leading 53 sacks. The line was also instrumental in a run defence that allowed the Stamps to tie for league lows in touchdowns allowed (11) and average opponents' gain per rush (4.6 yards). Hughes and Johnson both earned CFL all-star honours.

The Vancouver native joined the Stampeders as a player in 2010 and appeared in 40 regular-season games for the Red and White. The defensive tackle recorded 44 tackles and four sacks during his Calgary career and scored two touchdowns — one on a reception as part of the short-yardage unit and one on a fumble recovery. Mace also played six post-season contests for the Stamps including the 2014 Grey Cup, in which he recorded a sack to help Calgary defeat Hamilton for the title.

Mace won the Stamps' 2014 Presidents' Ring award as voted by teammates for his contributions on and off the field and remains an active member of the community. He has hosted 15 clients from Enviros — a Calgary-based not-for-profit organization dedicated to enhancing the quality of family life in Alberta — at every Stamps home game as part of the Mace's Faces program and has spearheaded a Christmas turkey and ham drive to benefit local food banks since 2013.

Prior to joining the Stampeders, Mace spent three seasons (2007-09) in the National Football League — playing a total of five games for the Buffalo Bills — and starred at the University of Wyoming, where he earned second-team all-Mountain West honours during his senior season.

BRENT MONSON

LINEBACKERS COACH

CFL • 10 | STAMPS • 10

Monson is in his 10th season as an assistant coach for the Calgary Stampeders and his sixth guiding the linebackers.

In 2017, Monson's linebacking corps was part of a Calgary defence that allowed the fewest points in the CFL and also ranked first in average offensive yards allowed (a league-low 314.7 yards per game) and average yards per play (5.7). The linebacking crew was led by Alex Singleton, who was voted the CFL's Most Outstanding Defensive Player for a season in which he established a league record for most tackles in a season by a Canadian and team marks for most defensive tackles and most total tackles in a season.

In 2016, the linebackers were part of a defensive group that allowed the fewest points in the CFL. Outside linebacker Deron Mayo led the Stamps with 77 tackles while Singleton, as a rookie, emerged as the starter at middle linebacker.

The previous season, Monson oversaw a group that helped Calgary rank first in the league in average offensive points allowed (16.1). Mayo led the team in tackles with 72 and Calgary also allowed just four rushing touchdowns in 2015, five fewer than any other team in the league.

Monson served as running backs coach from 2012-14.

In 2014, the Stamps running game led the league in several categories including net rushing yards (2,590), first downs rushing (156) and average yards rushing per game (143.9). The Stamps also were tops in the league in rushing touchdowns with 25. Running back Jon Cornish led the league in rushing for a third straight season with 1,082 yards despite playing in only nine games. He was named a CFL all-star and the CFL's Most Outstanding Canadian. Cornish was one of four Stamps running backs to register a 100-yard rushing game during the season.

In 2013, the Stamps led the CFL in several rushing categories including most first downs (160), most net yards (2,547), highest average per-game yardage (141.5) and highest average gain per rush (6.2). Cornish finished the season as the CFL leader in touchdowns (14) and rushing yards (1,813), breaking his own record for rushing yards in a single season by a Canadian running back and reaching the fourth-best single-season total in CFL history. Cornish was named the 2013 Most Outstanding Player and Most Outstanding Canadian.

In 2012, during Monson's first season overseeing the running backs, the Stamps led the CFL in rushing touchdowns with 20 and were second in the league with 2,088 rushing yards. Cornish led the CFL in rushing with 1,457 yards — setting a single-season record for most rushing yards by a Canadian in the process — and shared the league lead with 11 rushing touchdowns.

In 2011, Monson was Calgary's defensive line and strength and conditioning coach. Monson was the team's linebackers and strength and conditioning coach in 2010 and 2009.

In 2010, Monson handled a talented and accomplished linebacking corps that contributed to the Stamps defence allowing the fewest points in the West Division. In his first season as middle linebacker, Juwan Simpson shared the team lead with seven sacks, earned CFL all-star recognition and was a finalist for the league's Most Outstanding Defensive Player award.

Monson is a graduate of McMaster University.

JOSHUA BELL

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

Bell enters his fifth season in the Stampeders organization and his first as a member of the coaching staff.

Bell joined the Stampeders as a player in 2014 after two seasons with the BC Lions. He started 76 regular-season and post-season games for the Red and White — with all but one of those starts coming at the safety position — and was a member of the Stamps' Grey Cup championship team in 2014. Bell was a West Division all-star in 2015 and in 2017 he served as a team captain and won the Presidents' Ring award as voted by his teammates for excellence on and off the field. He also received the Herm Harrison Memorial Award for his work in the community.

In 86 career games for the Stampeders and Lions, he had 206 tackles including 10 tackles for loss, 16 special-teams tackles, one sack, five interceptions, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and 17 knockdowns.

Prior to coming to the CFL, Bell played a total of 13 National Football League games over two seasons with the Denver Broncos and Green Bay Packers.

Collegiately, Bell played four seasons at Baylor (2004-07) and in 46 career games for the Bears, he had 93 tackles, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

He orders and issues all equipment — everything from chewing gum to shoes and cleats — and also coordinates the transport of the club's equipment to and from each road site.

Each off-season, Hopkins and Edmonton Eskimos equipment manager Dwayne Mandrusiak have coordinated an equipment inspection program for amateur football in the province. Run under the auspices of Football Alberta, Hopkins and Mandrusiak visually inspect equipment and give recommendations on storing, cleaning, reconditioning and disposal to Peewee, Bantam, Midget and high school

GREY CUP HISTORY

The Calgary Stampeders have made it to the Grey Cup 16 times in their history and have seven championships to their credit.

The Stamps won their first championship in just their fourth year of existence, claiming the 1948 title. They returned to the Grey Cup in 1949 but this time lost the match to Montreal.

That would mark the end of the Stamps' participation in the big game until nearly two full decades later in 1968. Calgary lost the '68 contest but the appearance started a run in which the Red and White advanced to the Grey Cup three times in four seasons, culminating with a victory in 1971.

Then came another drought, this one lasting exactly 20 years before Calgary reached the Grey Cup in 1991. While the Stamps lost the 1991 Grey Cup game to Toronto, the contest nevertheless marked the dawn of an era of Stampeders excellence. The Red and White reached the Grey Cup game six times in 11 years and won three titles.

After a relatively short lull of six seasons, the Stamps returned to the pinnacle in 2008 and won again in 2014.

The Presidents' Ring is presented annually to the Calgary Stampeders player deemed by his teammates to have best combined excellence on the football field with leadership, inspiration and motivational skills.

Joshua Bell was the 2017 winner of this award. In what would prove to be his final season as an active player, Bell served as one of Calgary's team captains. He started 15 games at safety and had 31 tackles including a tackle for loss. He also had one sack, one interception, two knockdowns, one forced fumble and three QB pressures.

In addition to his play on the field, Bell often delivered emotional pre-game speeches to the players in the locker room and he started the practice – eventually picked up by other members of the defence – of painting his face in team colours for games.

The Presidents' Ring was established in 1967 by team president George McMahon and general manager Rogers Lehw.

HERM HARRISON MEMORIAL AWARD

Honouring the memory of one of the legendary figures in Stampeders history, the Herm Harrison Memorial Award was instituted in 2014 and recognizes a Stampeders player who distinguishes himself in the field of community service. Harrison passed away on Nov. 2, 2013, at the age of 74.

One of the franchise's all-time greats, Harrison played for the Stampeders from 1964-72 and was a West Division all-star on six occasions and a CFL all-star three times. Harrison settled in Calgary after his playing career and was an active member of numerous community activities as an alumnus. Among the many causes he supported, the Special Olympics were a particular favourite. He was added to the Stampeders Wall of Fame in 1988 and inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 1993.

In 2017, Joshua Bell won the award in what would prove to be his final season as an active player. Bell is actively involved as a mentor to young men and women and also provides financial assistance to low-income families. Since 2009, he's been a volunteer track coach at his alma mater – Skyline High School in Dallas – and offers guidance and moral support to young athletes. He's also provided coaching to track athletes in Calgary.

In 2015, Bell started an annual charity flag football program involving approximately 100 kids from Dallas-area schools and uses the event as an opportunity to mentor the youngsters.

The same leadership qualities Bell demonstrates in the community were also apparent in the football locker room. He consistently provided guidance to the Stampeders' young cornerbacks and was voted by teammates to serve as one of the team captains. In 2018, he will serve as Calgary's defensive backs coach.

SIDELINES

2018 MEDIA POLICY

The 2018 Calgary Stampeders media policy was created in conjunction with the CFL Operations Manual. All Stampeders policies adhere to the CFL document and are subject to change in accordance with the document. The Stampeders communication staff also reserves the right to respond on a case-by-case basis with other measures to help the media do their job and/or to protect the football club.

MEDIA REGULATIONS

A. GAME DAY ACCESS

i) Pre-game: Media accredited with press box passes are allowed on the west sideline area of the field until five minutes prior to kickoff. Media accredited with sideline passes may remain. There will be no locker-room access prior to the game. Game day pre-game interview requests must be arranged 48 hours in advance and must be conducted no later than two hours prior to game.

Media interested in shooting a pre-game live feed during the regular season, not involving a player or coach, must request so with the Stampeders communications department 72 hours prior to the game. All media approved to shoot inside the stadium bowl must be finished shooting 15 minutes before the top or bottom of the hour (for a 7 p.m. advertised kickoff, live feeds must end by 6:45 p.m. or for a 7:30 p.m. advertised kickoff, live feeds must end by 7:15 p.m.). Pre-game live-feed shoots will not be permitted when TSN is airing a CFL on TSN pre-game show or when a local blackout is in effect for the game.

ii) During game: Media granted on-field sideline access during the game must remain outside the Players' Box and within designated areas at all times. Any members of the media found inside the Players' Box or outside of designated areas will be relocated and credentials may be revoked at the discretion of Stampeders communication staff. Sideline reporters seeking injury information or other team updates must speak to Jean Lefebvre, the team's director of communications.

Because of limited space in the press box, an auxiliary media area will be created in the media room where the pre-game meal will be served.

iii) Post-game: With five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, media with press box passes will be escorted to a designated area at field level until the game's completion. In certain circumstances, controlled on-field media availability (players only) may occur immediately following the conclusion of the game to a maximum of five minutes after the end of the game (as determined by Stampeders communications staff). Following on-field availability, there will be a period designated as "team time" where no interviews will occur and the locker room is closed to the media. "Team time" will last no more than 15 minutes, after which head coach Dave Dickenson will be brought to the designated interview area. Once media is finished speaking with Dickenson, the locker room will open to working media and select players may be brought to the designated interview area.

B. DAY BEFORE GAME

A media availability will be held the day before games in a designated interview area of the home team. Both head coaches will be made available to answer questions from members of the media between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. local time. If a team is not able to practise the day before a game or is unable to do a formal media availability because of flight delays or some other occurrence, the coach and select players will be made available to the media at a designated hotel or facility.

C. PRACTICE DAYS

i) Practice schedules for the upcoming week will be released in advance and are accessible at Stampeders.com.

a) Open practices: In accordance with the CFL Media Policies and Procedures, the Stampeders have the option of closing one practice per week. All other practices must be open during regular season and playoffs. During Grey Cup week, one practice is closed to the media.

b) During practice: Members of the media are not permitted to speak with players – injured or otherwise – or coaches during practice unless specifically requested. All members of the media are prohibited from being in the players' box during practice. If required, pass through the back of players' box on the east side of the field to move down the sideline.

ii) Shooting practice: Stampeders communications staff reserves the right to restrict photography (still or video) during portions of practice. Photographers cannot shoot during team and skelly drills but generally can shoot stretching, individual and fundamental drills.

Tripods are permitted only on the East sideline of McMahon Stadium and must be manned at all times or completely removed from the field of play. For the protection of players, television and still photographers must remain at least five yards off the field of play, behind the line of scrimmage and out of the end-zones.

iii) Coach interviews: Dave Dickenson will be available to the media shortly after practice sessions. Interviews with assistant coaches must be requested through the Stampeders communications staff and the coaches will be available as soon as possible after practice.

iv) Player interviews: On practice days, players will be available to the media in an area just outside of the locker room. To assist with specific requests, media must identify player requests to Stampeders communications staff in advance.

D. OFF DAYS

Coach and player media availability is not required on off-days. In special circumstances, Stampeders communications staff may accommodate requests.

E. TRAINING CAMP

Players and Dave Dickenson are available immediately after the morning and afternoon sessions. Assistant coaches can be made available upon request but their availability is dependent upon meeting schedules. Regular-season rules apply with regards to shooting in camp.

Greg played college football at Brigham Young University and was an NCAA academic all-American in 1982. team, first as the sideline host and then as the broadcast host. Jock is married to a third-generation Calgarian and has two active kids.

DAVE ROWE CO-HOST OF PRE-GAME AND POST-GAME SHOWS

9th year • Dave got his first taste of sideline reporting sneaking onto the turf at Empire Stadium in 1979 for warmup between the Lions and the Blue Bombers. Security didn't run him off then . . . and now he has the Stamps' permission to lurk by the bench during home games while trying to unravel Dave Dickenson's big plan. Catch Dave on the pre- and post-game shows and delivering sports on the morning news with Bruce Kenyon.

STAMPEDERS FOUNDATION

The Stampeders Foundation is a community and charitable initiative dedicated to improving the lives of Calgarians and Southern Albertans.

The Stampeders Foundation consolidates and strengthens the club's many charitable endeavours and longstanding commitment to the community and allows the organization to build upon its relationship with the community.

Through the annual Stampeders poker tournament, 50/50 ticket sales at Stampeders home games and other fundraising initiatives, the Foundation supports grassroots and amateur football programs and education as well as health and wellness projects.

The entire Stampeders organization takes great pride in giving back to the community. The players and Outriders annually contribute hundreds of hours of their time to community service and charitable work.

Outriders

THE STAMPEDES' OFFICIAL DANCE TEAM

The Outriders cheer team consists of committed members who represent the football club on numerous occasions throughout the year.

The Outriders, presented by Century Downs and Century Casino, are selected through an intensive audition and interview process each winter and are evaluated on dance ability and experience, physical fitness and character.

When not serving as a member of the cheer team, these women are full-time professionals and post-secondary students.

The Outriders attend practices each week as well as pre-game rehearsals from April through November to prepare for each Stampede home game.

As a team, they perform hundreds of community appearance hours each year. All not-for-profit and civic Outrider appearances are pro bono. A minimal appearance fee is charged for corporate functions. All Outriders events allow the team to interact with Stampede fans and serve as fundraising efforts to send the team to the 106th Grey Cup in Edmonton.

A highlight of each and every season is the always-popular Little Miss Outrider program. This special experience consists of a preparation camp for youngsters to learn basic dance routines from the Outriders. Following the rehearsals, all participants perform as the halftime showcase at a Stampede home game.

The Outriders head coach is Kyla Findlay.

For more information on the Outriders, please visit Stampede.com

QUICK SIX

When the Stamps score a touchdown at McMahon Stadium, the Stampeders Touchdown Horse leads the charge down the east sideline as the crowd erupts in celebration.

What had been a long-standing tradition at Stampeders football games was enhanced in 1993 when the club introduced a white gelding to match the team's trademark logo, the white mustang. Quick Six was introduced in 2003 and continues the tradition to this day.

Chelsea Drake, the other half of the Calgary Stampeders Touchdown Horse tandem, enters her third full season as Quick Six's rider. She is the daughter of Karyn Drake, who served as the touchdown horse rider for the previous 23 years.
