HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA POLICY

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials will be granted based on the following guidelines:

1. Houston-area media agencies which cover the Houston Texans on a daily basis will receive top priority.
2. Media agencies which cover the opposing team as requested by the opposing team's public relations staff.
3. National media agencies which cover the National Football League regularly (includes online properties such as ESPN.com, Yahoo! Sports, CBSSports.com, etc.).
4. Daily or weekly newspapers with a circulation of at least 100,000.
5. Television stations with a nightly news show & a nightly sports segment.
6. Radio stations with a 24-hour sports format that are affiliated with a national radio network (i.e. ESPN, SportingNews, Westwood One, etc.).
7. Daily or weekly newspapers with a circulation of at least 50,000.
8. Other requests not falling under one of the above categories will be considered on the basis of space availability in the NRG Stadium press box.
9. No freelance credentials will be granted.

Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested before 5 p.m. on the Tuesday prior to each home game. All credential requests must be submitted online at http://media.houstontexans.com.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS (ROAD GAMES)

If you are a regular member of the Houston media who wishes to cover the Texans on the road, submit your request for game credentials and parking passes through Amy Palcic at amy.palcic@houstontexans.com. All requests must be submitted no later than one game prior to a road contest. Credentials will be distributed on either Wednesday or Thursday during open locker room.

GAME DAY PARKING

Parking for Texans games must be applied for online at http://media.houstontexans.com. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to media parking lots on game day.

ENTRY ON GAME DAY

The media entrance at NRG Stadium is on the west side of the stadium on the corner of Kirby and Murworth. Enter through the media entrance which is located just right of the Verizon VIP gate.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media will call is located on the west side of the stadium at the corner of Kirby and Murworth. The media will call gate is located just right of the Verizon VIP gate. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the media will call window. Please remember to bring valid identification. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff and bags will be checked upon entrance to the stadium.

PHONES AND INTERNET

To request a phone on game day, contact Jeff Schmitz of the Houston Texans IT department at (832-667-2130) the week prior to the game. The Texans press box offers complimentary wireless Internet. If you have any questions on game day, see Schmitz at his post in the press box, located on the third level behind Brett Maikowski and Amy Palcic.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Texans and visiting interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE TEXANS LOCKER ROOM. With six minutes remaining in the game, take the media elevator to the field level. Videographers without field access will be in the team auditorium for the duration of the game. Bill O'Brien's post-game interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Texans Team Auditorium (white arrow). Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the mult box to ease congestion at the podium. Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitor's interview room across from the visiting locker room.

To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevator to the service level and follow proper direction arrows on the ground:

Blue - Texans locker room
Red - Visitors locker room
White - Texans postgame press conference

PRESS BOX

The press box phone numbers are (832) 667-2831 (home PR) and (832) 667-2814 (visiting PR).

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers who are credentialed on a season-long basis for sideline access will be required to wear a photo vest. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for recognized or sports publications. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

MEDIA WORKROOM

The media workroom is located on the service level at NRG Stadium across from the Texans locker room. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Phones, Texans information, NFL news releases and other information are available. Wireless service will be available in the media workroom.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All interview requests for Houston Texans executives, coaches, and players should go through the Texans communications department. Please give at least 48 hours for your request.

For Texans players and assistant coaches, please send your request to Brett Maikowski (email: brett.maikowski@houstontexans.com; phone: (832) 667-2037) or Omar Majzoub (email: omar.majzoub@houstontexans.com; phone: (832) 667-2241).

Requests for Bob McNair, Rick Smith, Bill O'Brien and J.J. Watt should be sent to the attention of Amy Palcic. Her email address is amy.palcic@houstontexans.com and phone number is (832) 667-2220.

O'Brien's Monday news conference is held in the media workroom. He also speaks with the Texans' media on Wednesday through Friday in the media workroom (times will be emailed out at the beginning of each week).

HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA POLICY

OPEN LOCKER ROOM PERIODS

The Texans will have open locker room periods on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Special requests can be fulfilled on Monday or Tuesday, but it should be cleared with a member of the Texans communications department. You should give at least a week's notice for special arrangements on Monday and Tuesday. Everyone in the locker room must dress professionally and have a job function. The Texans communications department can remove any member of the media from the locker room for improper dress or unprofessional behavior.

CONFERENCE CALLS

The Texans communications staff will record and transcribe all visiting team conference calls. These transcripts will be emailed out and posted on the Houston Texans media website at http://media.houstontexans.com. Conference calls take place on Wednesday in the media workroom. Weekly updates of conference call participants and times will appear on the Houston Texans media website at http://media.houstontexans.com.

PRACTICE REGULATIONS

Texans locker room and practices will be open to the media during the week as specified. We will provide a specific time during practice for shooting video.

PRESS RELEASES

The Texans' weekly press releases, as well as other news and information on the club, can be accessed on the team's official website at http://www.houstontexans.com or in the media section at http://media.houstontexans.com. Members of the media can also access league information from the NFL's media site at http://www.nflcommunications.com. The NFL's official web site address is http://www.NFL.com.

PARKING DURING THE WEEK

Parking for covering Texans weekly press conferences, open locker room or for access to the media workroom, use the Day Lot, located on the southeast corner of Kirby and Westridge. While covering practice, park in the Teal Lot on the northeast corner of Kirby and Murworth.

LIVE SHOTS

MONDAY-FRIDAY

Live shots on NRG Park property must be set up through the Texans communications department in conjunction with SMG. Please contact Omar Majzoub at omar.majzoub@houstontexans.com or (832)-667-2241 before setting up a live shot. Locations will be set up through the communications department. Please give the Texans at least 12 hours advance notice to ensure proper set up.

GAMEDAY

NFL network television partners and Texans media partners will be given priority for live shots at NRG Stadium. Television stations are allowed to shoot live at NRG Stadium until one hour before kickoff. Permission from the Texans communications department is required at least 48 hours before the game in order to shoot live.

NFL network television partners and Texans media partners are the only broadcast entities permitted to shoot live from inside NRG Stadium in the hour following the conclusion of the game. All other entities are not permitted to shoot live, transmit taped interviews for live broadcast or transmit live programming from inside NRG Stadium until one hour after the conclusion of the game.

Live shots and live streaming for transmission are NOT PERMITTED from the Texans postgame locker room for any entity.

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

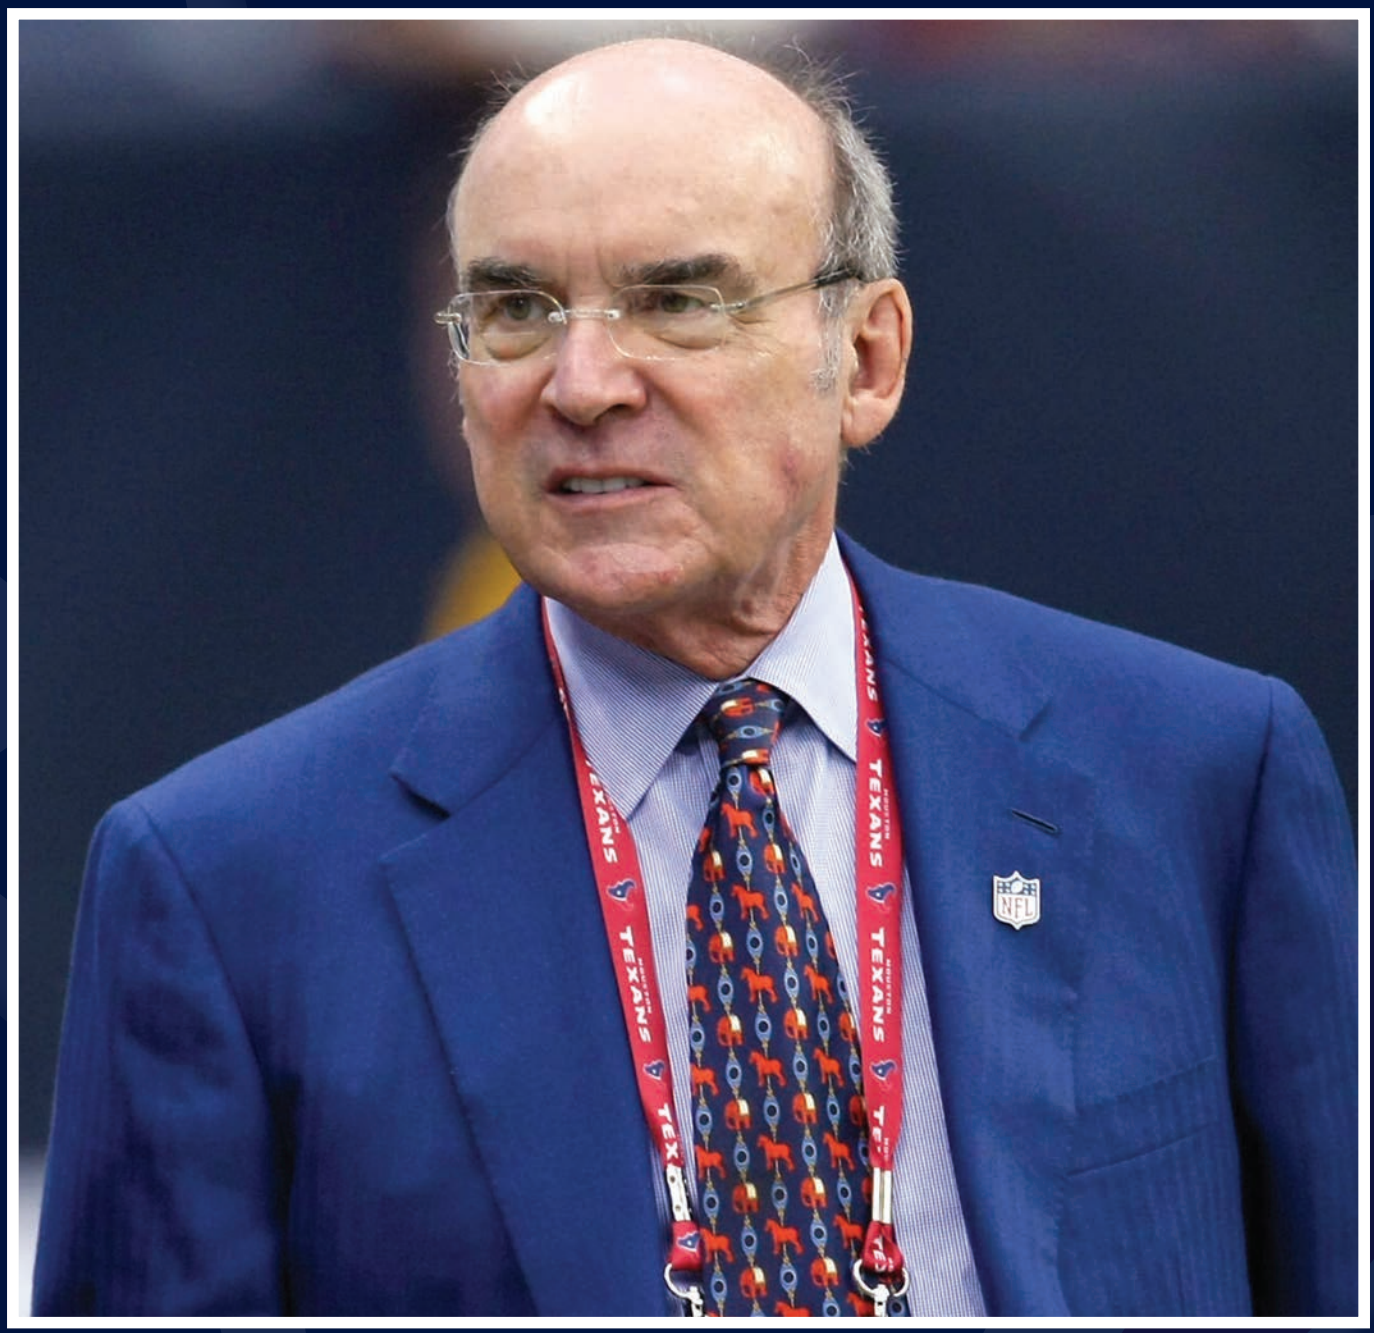
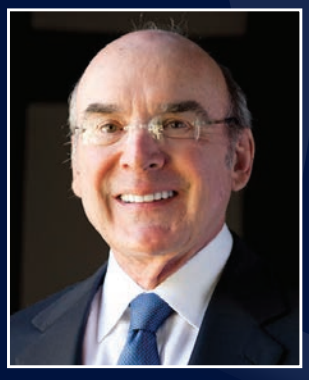
IN MEMORY OF
PHILIP BURGUIÈRES
1943 – 2016





Texans limited partner and former Vice Chairman Philip Burguières was a key contributor to the birth of the franchise. He served as chairman and chief executive officer of Weatherford International, Panhandle Eastern Corporation and Cameron Iron Works, Inc., and served as a director of other energy companies and various medical-related boards. Burguières joined Bob McNair in the late 90s in the quest to bring the NFL back to Houston.

He was highly instrumental in helping put the front office and business team together. He also led the effort in assembling a dynamic group of limited partners.

Upon his passing in June, McNair said "Philip was a long-time friend of mine and a mentor to many. He will be greatly missed."

ROBERT C. McNAIR

FOUNDER, CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Robert C. McNair, a leading businessman, sportsman and philanthropist in Houston, Texas for more than 50 years is the founder, chairman and chief executive officer of the Houston Texans NFL team. McNair is perhaps best known in the business community as the Founder of Cogen Technologies, which became the largest privately-owned cogeneration company in the world, with an aggregate capacity of 1,400 megawatts. In 1999, he sold the company while retaining ownership of power plants in New York and West Virginia.

McNair serves as chairman of The McNair Group, headquartered in Houston, where he oversees an investment portfolio that includes interests in two cogeneration plants in the eastern United States. He owns Palmetto Partners, Ltd. and RCM Financial Services, L.P., private investment entities that manage the McNairs' private and public equity investments. In 1997, McNair was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and in 2010, the Houston Hall of Fame.

Committed to bringing a National Football League team to Houston, McNair formed Houston NFL Holdings in 1998. On October 5, 1999, the NFL awarded him the 32nd NFL franchise, returning professional football to the city of Houston in 2002. McNair's influence and leadership also brought two Super Bowls to Houston's NRG Stadium: Super Bowl XXXVIII in 2004 and Super Bowl LI, to be played in February of 2017.

In 2011, McNair's Houston Texans won their first AFC South title. In 2012, they gave Houston its first NFL playoff game in nearly 18 years after a 31-10 win against Cincinnati in the Wild Card round on January 7, 2012. The Texans then claimed their second consecutive AFC South title in 2012 and finished the regular season 12-4, matching the most regular-season wins in the city of Houston's NFL history. McNair hired Bill O'Brien as the third head coach of the franchise in January 2014, ushering in a new era of Texans football following a disappointing 2013 season. In 2015, the Texans reclaimed their AFC South Division Championship after decisively beating the Jacksonville Jaguars 30-6.

McNair is actively involved in NFL affairs serving as chairman of the Finance Committee and is a member of the Audit and the Los Angeles Opportunities Committees.

As Founder and Chairman Emeritus of the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl, McNair revived Houston's collegiate bowl game on December 28, 2006. The game now features teams from the Big 12 and SEC conferences, and attracts approximately 58,000 fans each year to NRG Stadium - the sixth-best among non-college football playoff bowls. In 2006, McNair selected The DePelchin Children's Center as the bowl game's charitable beneficiary. DePelchin has since received more than $700,000 in financial support and over $11 million in promotional value from the Texas Bowl partnership.

Stonerside Stable, a major thoroughbred horse farm in Kentucky, is also among McNair's successes. A 1,947-acre thoroughbred horse farm and racing stable, Stonerside was home to more than 275 racehorses, broodmares, yearlings and weanlings. From its inception in 1994, Stonerside won 72 Graded Stakes races including Grade I wins in the Belmont, Breeders' Cup Mile, the Travers, the Haskell, the Hollywood Gold Cup, the Cigar Mile, the Carter, the Swaps, the Wood Memorial, the Matriarch and the Oak Leaf Stakes. Stonerside has also finished second and third in the Kentucky Derby and was the co-breeder of Fusaichi Pegasus, winner of the Derby in 2000. Stonerside has bred the winners of over $50 million, including the 2008 Breeders' Cup Classic winner Raven's Pass and 2008 Champion American Juvenile colt Midshipman, the winner of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Stonerside was named Breeder of the Year in 2007 and 2008 by Kentucky horsemen.

McNair served on the boards of the Breeders' Cup and Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association and was awarded the Allan Bogan Memorial Award for outstanding services to the Texas Thoroughbred Association. McNair is a member of the prestigious Jockey Club, which governs the sport of thoroughbred racing. In October 2008, McNair sold Stonerside Farm and Racing Stable.

McNair is the Chairman of The Robert and Janice McNair Foundation and the Houston Texans Foundation headquartered in Houston, Texas, and the Robert and Janice McNair Educational Foundation located in Forest City, N.C. For over 20 years, the McNairs have given generously to a wide array of charitable, scientific, literary, educational and religious organizations including the Baylor College of Medicine's MD/PhD Program, and scholarship initiatives at the University of South Carolina, Columbia College, Rice University, Austin College, Virginia Tech and Houston Community College.

The McNairs' passion for education includes the Houston Independent School District's Fine Arts Program, Project GRAD Houston, Teach For America, the Neuhaus Education Center, and the Houston-area charter schools initiative. At Rice University, they endowed the Robert and Janice McNair Public Policy Chair at the James A. Baker III Institute for Public Policy; a position held by the institute's founding director, Ambassador Edward P. Djerejian. The McNairs' love of community is evident throughout the city of Houston and includes the Houston Zoo's McNair Asian Elephant Habitat, the jogging trail at Discovery Green, the San Jacinto Girl Scouts Equestrian Center, the McNair Cub Scout Adventure World, the United Way Computer Training Center and McNair Hall and McNair Plaza at Houston Baptist University. They have also sponsored community outreach programs for the Houston Symphony, Houston Grand Opera, Houston Museum of Fine Arts and Young Audiences of Houston. In addition, Bob McNair was a founding member of the Cotswold Project, a revitalization project in downtown Houston.

In 2007, the McNairs turned their philanthropic focus to medical research with a transformational gift to the Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, which established the McNair Medical Institute funding the McNair Scholars Program. The McNair Scholars Program recruits world-class physicians and scientists in the fields of Type 1 diabetes, breast and pancreatic cancer and the neurosciences. Additional McNair research scholars have also been established at MD Anderson, The Menninger Clinic, Texas Children's Hospital and the Texas Heart Institute.

In 2013 and 2014, the McNairs provided major gifts to Houston's AD Players Theater, Houston's United Way 2-1-1 Capital Campaign, the Star of Hope Family Place, Houston Parks Bayou Greenways 2020, and the Houston Zoo's Phase II African Forest campaign. Honoring the fruits of American entrepreneurism, in 2015 the McNairs established McNair Centers for Entrepreneurism and Free Enterprise at the Rice University James A. Baker III Institute for Public Policy, the University of St. Thomas - Houston, the University of South Carolina, Columbia College in Columbia, North Carolina, and Northwood University in Midland, Michigan. In 2016, they established the McNair Center for Entrepreneurism and Free Enterprise at Houston Baptist University.

far and wide. In 2003, the Association of Fundraising Professionals honored their namesake foundation, The Robert and Janice McNair Foundation, with their 2003 Outstanding Philanthropic Foundation Award. In November 2004, the Houston Independent School District followed with their Hall of Fame Award, and in 2008, Young Audiences of Houston bestowed their Houston Community Arts Partner Leadership Award. In 2012, the Neuhaus Education Center applauded the Foundation for 15 years of loyal support, and in May it was recognized at the Mayor's Literacy Leadership Breakfast. In 2013, during their "Hats in the Park" luncheon, the Hermann Park Conservancy honored the Foundation for supporting Centennial Gardens.

Bob McNair has been the recipient of numerous awards including the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award, Northwood University's Outstanding Business Leader Award, the Association for Private Enterprise Education's Herman W. Lay Memorial Award, the Houston Chapter of the National Football Foundation's Distinguished American Award, the Houston Rotary Club's Distinguished Citizen Award, The South Main Center Association's City Builder Award, the Houston Advertising Federation's Annual Trailblazer Award (for significantly enhancing the overall image of Houston both locally and globally), the Sam Houston Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America Distinguished Citizen Award, The Texas Heart Institute's Denton A. Cooley Leadership Award, the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge National Award for Outstanding Patriotism, Responsible Citizenship and Community Involvement, and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes President and Mrs. George H. W. Bush Community Impact Award.

In June 2005, Rice University's board of trustees named their 167,000-square-foot Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management, "The Janice and Robert McNair Hall." In October 2007, the Baylor College of Medicine presented their first Pink Ribbon Hero Award for Ambassadorship to the McNairs for their support of past Pink Ribbon Houses and for their commitment to fight cancer. In April 2009, the KIPP Academy honored the McNairs for their devotion in supporting the education of inner city and underprivileged youth. In May 2009, Bob McNair was named "Entrepreneur of the Decade" by the Houston Technology Center. In November, he was awarded the James A. Baker III Prize for Excellence in Leadership, an honor that recognizes nationally and internationally renowned leaders for excellence in public service and civic life. That December, McNair received the inaugural Rotary Lombardi Humanitarian Award, followed by the Houston Independent School District presenting him with their Encore for Excellence Award. In April 2010, the DePelchin Children's Center presented Bob and Janice McNair with their Kezia DePelchin Award in honor of their long-standing support of the DePelchin Center.

In May 2010, Bob McNair was inducted into the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame, and in November, the Association of Fundraising Professionals presented Bob and Janice McNair with their Maurice Hirsch Award for Philanthropy, the highest recognition given to an individual or family for exceptional generosity and outstanding civic and charitable responsibility. In 2012, Rice University again honored the McNairs during the 10th anniversary of McNair Hall, and in 2013, they were the recipients of the Texas Association of Partners in Education Award for the Texas Outstanding Sports Partnership.

In 2014, the McNairs received UNICEF's inaugural Margaret Alkek Williams Humanitarian Award, and Houston Baptist University's Spirit of Excellence Award. They were honored by the Houston Zoo at their annual gala and by the Souper Bowl of Caring during their annual recognition luncheon. In 2011, Bob McNair was honored by the Junior Achievement of Southeast Texas as a Class of 2011 Laureate, and the JA Hall of Achievement. In September 2011, Texas Children's Cancer Center honored the McNairs as their 2011 Community Champions. In April 2012, the Escape Family Resource Center honored them as headliners for their annual Celebrity Serve benefit.

Bob McNair was selected as one of Texas Medical Center's 2013 Men of Distinction, and Bob and Janice McNair were Honorary Co-Chairs for Impact a Hero's 2013 Gala. They have chaired the American Cancer Society's Hope Lodge Houston campaign, and were honored as Community Partner Honorees, along with the Houston Texans, at the Houston Symphony's Centennial Opening Night in September 2013. In November 2013, the McNairs were selected by the DePelchin Center to serve as Honorary Event Chairs at their Children's Center Gala. In February 2014, Bob and Janice McNair received the Houston Community College's Crystal Eagle Award. In November 2015, MD Anderson and NBC's Tom Brokaw honored Bob McNair as an MD Anderson Living Legend. In March of 2016, Texas Children's Hospital announced Janice and Bob McNair as Honorary Chairs of their Promise Campaign.

Bob McNair is a current or past member of the Board of Trustees for numerous institutions including Rice University, Baylor College of Medicine, the Texas Heart Institute, Houston Grand Opera, the Museum of Fine Arts – Houston, the Greater Houston Partnership, the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Free Enterprise Institute, the Sigma Chi Foundation, the Federal Reserve Banks of Dallas and Houston, and the Young Presidents' and World Presidents' Organizations.

Bob McNair was born in Tampa, Fla. He and his wife, Janice Suber McNair, have been residents of Houston since 1960. McNair graduated from the University of South Carolina in Columbia, S.C. in 1958 with a Bachelor of Science degree. In 1999, Mr. McNair received an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from the University of South Carolina. In 2010, he received an Honorary Doctor of Humanities in Medicine from Baylor College of Medicine. Janice McNair graduated from Columbia College in Columbia, S.C. in 1959. In 2015, she received an Honorary Doctor of Humanities from Columbia College.

D. CAL McNAIR

VICE CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

D. Cal McNair was named vice chairman of the Houston Texans in January 2008 and assumed the additional role of chief operating officer in April 2012. He has been a limited partner of the Texans since 2001. McNair also serves as the vice chairman of Palmetto Partners, Ltd., the private equity investing arm of The McNair Group.

McNair, who has been actively involved with the football operations of the Texans franchise since its inception, attends NFL meetings as part of team management and serves on the NFL Investment Committee. He has been part of the Texans' search committee in several key hires throughout franchise history, including current Head Coach Bill O'Brien in 2014, Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Rick Smith in 2006, former Head Coach Gary Kubiak in 2006 and former Defensive Coordinator Wade Phillips in 2011.

Those hires have paid dividends for the Texans, with O'Brien leading the team to a 9-7 record in his first year as the franchise's head coach in 2014. Houston's seven-win improvement under O'Brien in 2014 led the NFL and made the Texans the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a season in which it won two-or-less games. O'Brien also finished second in the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year voting in 2014.

In 2015, Houston clinched its third AFC South Division title in franchise history and first since 2012. The division title marked the team's third in the last five years, which ranks tied for fourth in the NFL during that span. The Texans also became the only NFL team since 1950 to make the playoffs with four different starting quarterbacks winning a game during the regular season and had a defense that finished third in the NFL in total yards (310.2) and passing yards (210.4) allowed per game.

After getting hired in 2006, Smith and Kubiak worked together to build the franchise's first two AFC South championship teams in 2011 and 2012. The hiring of Phillips, who was named the 2011 PFW/PFWA Assistant Coach of the Year, helped bring about the third-largest defensive turnaround in modern NFL history from 2010-11 and played a major role in the franchise's first-ever playoff berth.

Prior to 2001, McNair worked at Cogen Technologies for 11 years. In 1987, he was hired as one of the company's first employees. After beginning his tenure with Cogen, McNair helped oversee the construction of several major power plants in the eastern United States, managing those assets in the areas of financial analysis and project management.

McNair is a member of the board of trustees of The Robert and Janice McNair Foundation, as well as the Robert and Janice McNair Educational Foundation. He is a director and vice president of the Houston Texans Foundation, a member of the United Way's prestigious Alexis de Tocqueville Society and a current or past member of the Amegy Bank Advisory Board, The University of Texas Chancellor's Council, The Council of Overseers at Rice University's Jones Graduate School of Business, Houston Zoo Board, the Fort Worth Zoo Board and the All Saints Episcopal School Board in Fort Worth.

McNair attended the University of Texas at Austin, where he was a four-year member of the Longhorn football team. He earned a Master of Business Administration degree from the Rice University Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management.

Born in Houston, McNair attended Cypress-Fairbanks High School. McNair has six children. He resides in Houston with his wife, Hannah.

RICK SMITH

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

Rick Smith oversees all football-related operations and the player acquisition process as Houston Texans Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager. Smith is in his 11th season as General Manager and sixth as Executive Vice President of Football Operations.

Named general manager by owner Bob McNair on June 5, 2006, Smith's appointment made him the youngest general manager in the NFL at 36. Since then, Smith has assembled and led a football operations staff that prides itself on providing players and coaches with the tools needed for success on and off the field.

Smith's leadership, vision and success have garnered recognition by the league. NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell appointed Smith to the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee on Dec. 5, 2008. His peers honored him with the Tank Younger Award in 2008, presented annually by the Fritz Pollard Alliance for outstanding work in an NFL front office. Smith was an original member of the General Managers Advisory Committee, which provides advice and other feedback to the NFL Football Operations department on the integrity of the game, expansion of technology and other ways to improve the league.

In 2015, Houston clinched its third AFC South Division title in franchise history and first since 2012. The division title marked the team's third in the last five years, which ranks tied for fourth in the NFL during that span. The Texans also became the only NFL team since 1950 to make the playoffs with four different starting quarterbacks winning a game during the regular season and had a defense that finished third in the NFL in total yards (310.2) and passing yards (210.4) allowed per game, while setting the franchise single-season records for sacks (45.0) and third down percentage (28.5). That percentage led the NFL in 2015 and was the lowest single-season mark by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7).

From day one, Smith and his staff rolled up their sleeves and scoured the free agent, draft and trade markets for players who would thrive with the Texans, solely focused on transforming their 2-14 team in 2005 into a perennial contender. The transformation culminated in back-to-back AFC South crowns and the franchise's first two playoff berths in 2011 and 2012.

Smith and his staff have been able to adapt and find the right personnel to fit changing schemes and coaching staffs throughout his tenure. He was faced with both heading into the 2014 season following a disappointing 2013 season. However, the Texans posted the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history and became the sixth team in the last 36 years to post a winning record of 9-7 after having two wins or less the previous season.

Houston also forced a franchise-record 34 turnovers in 2014 and became the third team in the last 20 years to lead the NFL in takeaways after finishing last the year before. On offense, the Texans' 135.1 rushing yards per game ranked fifth in the NFL and was the second-highest mark in franchise history.

This past spring, in his 10th draft with the Texans and third with Head Coach Bill O'Brien, Smith selected six players who fit the credo he established when he arrived in Houston, "We're looking for tough, smart, physical players with high character who are competitive and passionate about football."

The Texans traded up one spot in the first round to select Notre Dame WR Will Fuller (21st overall). In the second round, Houston moved up another two spots to select C Nick Martin (50th overall), also from Notre Dame. In the third round, the Texans took Ohio State WR Braxton Miller with the 85th overall pick. San Jose State RB Tyler Ervin was the Texans selection in the fourth round (119th overall). Houston closed out the draft with two fifth-round picks, West Virginia S K.J. Dillon (159th overall) and Clemson NT D.J. Reader (166th overall).

Collectively, the Texans' current roster, all acquired by Smith, has earned 24 Pro Bowl selections, 22 first- or second-team Associated Press All-Pro distinctions, three Defensive Player of the Year awards and one Defensive Rookie of the Year award.

The Texans have been particularly successful drafting in the first round of the NFL Draft under Smith. Houston is the only team in the NFL with every first-rounder since 2008 still on its roster and all but one of Smith's first-round draft picks played in every game as a rookie.

Seven of Smith's nine first-round selections have started 10-or-more games as a rookie with the franchise. Five have started every game as a rookie: LT Duane Brown (2008), ILB Brian Cushing (2009), CB Kareem Jackson (2010), DE J.J. Watt (2011) and WR DeAndre Hopkins (2013).

Watt, the 11th overall pick in 2011, has already tied an NFL record with three Defensive Player of the Year awards (2012, 2014 and 2015) and became the first player in NFL history to have 20.0-or-more sacks in separate seasons. Cushing was selected 15th overall in 2009 and went on to be named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and earn second-team All-Pro honors in 2011. Brown (26th overall in 2009) has been widely considered one of the best left tackles in the NFL and is the first lineman in franchise history to earn All-Pro recognition, doing so in 2011 and 2012. Hopkins, who was taken 27th in 2013, has the most catches (239) in NFL history for a player age 23 or younger and is the second player under the age of 24 to have 3,500 career receiving yards (Randy Moss).

Unrestricted free agents have also thrived in Houston on Smith's watch. CB Johnathan Joseph, who helped turn the Texans' defense around after signing from Cincinnati in 2011, has been to the Pro Bowl twice since joining the Texans. Former DE Antonio Smith signed with Houston in 2009 and set career highs in sacks in 2011 and 2012, earning a trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2011 season. Former G Wade Smith signed with the Texans in 2010 from Kansas City and made the first Pro Bowl of his career in 2012, his 10th season.

Smith also orchestrated the trades that brought quarterback Matt Schaub from Atlanta in 2007 and center Chris Myers from Denver in 2008. Both players earned multiple Pro Bowl berths with the franchise. Additionally, the Texans have executed 15 draft-day trades in the last 10 years under Smith.

Smith places a premium on college free agents. The most well-known college free agent success story in Texans history is former RB Arian Foster. Undrafted out of Tennessee in 2009, Foster signed with Houston and spent most of his rookie season on the practice squad. Foster started 2010 with a 231-yard effort against Indianapolis and went on to have the best season ever by an undrafted running back, winning the 2010 rushing title, All-Pro honors and the first of three consecutive Pro Bowl nods. He rose from practice squad player to one of the most complete backs in the NFL and the franchise's all-time leading rusher with 6,472 yards (2009-15).

In 2012, the Texans won their second consecutive AFC South Division crown and set a franchise mark with a 12-4 record. Houston advanced to the Divisional round of the playoffs in 2011 and 2012, compiling a 22-10 regular season record that tied for the second-best mark in the AFC. Smith's tenure in Houston began with a 6-10 record, followed by a pair of 8-8 records in 2007 and 2008. In 2009, the Texans posted the first winning season in franchise history, narrowly missing the playoffs at 9-7 and followed that season up by going 6-10 in 2010.

Smith has found a way to consistently strengthen Houston's roster and is continuing to build upon a foundation of talent and depth with the cornerstones of scrupulous evaluation, opportunistic free agency signings, smart trades and a methodical draft strategy.

The 2011 campaign tested these principles unlike any other year. The Texans faced a drastically shortened 2011 offseason, a complete defensive scheme change, and a glut of injured starters, including season-ending injuries to Schaub, QB Matt Leinart and Pro Bowl DE Mario Williams. In addition, All-Pro WR Andre Johnson missed more than half the season due to injury.

Smith's principles and commitment to the Texans' player acquisition strategy withstood the storm. The Texans managed to go 10-6 in 2011, win the AFC South and secure a playoff berth for the first time in franchise history. Most notable was the play of former fifth-round draft pick QB T.J. Yates. Yates was pressed into action as a rookie following the losses of Schaub and Leinart and became the first rookie quarterback to orchestrate comeback wins in his first two starts since 1968, including Houston's playoff-clinching victory at Cincinnati in Week 13.

The Texans finished 2011 with the NFL's second-ranked defense, a dramatic improvement over the unit that ranked 30th in the NFL in 2010. Houston's 912-yard improvement was the third-greatest leap for a defense from one year to the next since 1970. On offense, Houston set a franchise rushing record for the second straight season and ranked second in the NFL with 153.0 rushing yards per game.

In Smith's former role leading the Denver Broncos pro personnel department, the franchise posted the league's fifth-best regular-season record from 2000-05, going 61-35 (.635). The 61 wins were the most of any AFC West team during that span, 10 more than the next closest team, Kansas City. Denver was one of only four teams in the NFL to reach the playoffs each season from 2003-05.

Before moving into the front office, Smith spent four years as the Broncos' assistant defensive backs coach and earned two Super Bowl rings while helping guide a unit that consistently ranked as one of the league's best. The team won more games from 1996-98 (46) than any club during that three-year period.

Smith joined the Broncos on April 3, 1996, following a two-year stint as defensive backs coach at his alma mater, Purdue University. He spent a short time at TCU prior to joining the Broncos.

A 1992 graduate of Purdue, Smith began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Boilermakers, serving as the school's assistant strength and conditioning coordinator. After serving as the team's graduate assistant tight ends coach for one season, Smith was hired as the secondary coach, becoming the youngest full-time position coach in the Big Ten Conference at the time at the age of 24. In 2012, Smith was honored by his alma mater with the Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Smith started at strong safety and was a defensive captain for Purdue as a senior in 1991. A native of Petersburg, Va., he attended Meadowdale High School in Dayton, Ohio. Smith is also a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Smith supports several schools in the community, including The Awty International School and The Regis School of the Sacred Heart, and serves on the Board of Directors for Pro-Vision Academy, a charter school that provides young people in the greater Houston area with academic, social and economic opportunities in hopes of inspiring purpose and optimism. He and his wife, Tiffany, co-chaired the charter school's first Cornerstone Luncheon in May 2014, helping raise more than $300,000 at the event. The Smith Family also gives time and resources to many other local charities throughout Houston, including the Linda Lorelle Scholarship Fund, Susie Bean Gives, the United Way and the Children's Museum of Houston.

Rick and Tiffany Smith live in Houston with their sons, Robert LaMar and Christian LaMar, and daughter, Avery Jordan.

JAMEY ROOTES

PRESIDENT

Jamey Rootes serves as president of the Houston Texans and is responsible for all business functions of the club. Under Rootes' leadership, the Texans have earned many distinctions, including numerous "Crystal Awards" for marketing excellence. J.D. Power & Associates recognized the team for providing the best fan experience in the NFL and even featured the Texans as a service success story in their book entitled "Satisfaction." The Texans were also recognized with Sports Business Journal's PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major professional sports team based on business excellence criteria. In 2015, the Texans extended their sell-out streak to 143 consecutive home games, a Houston NFL record and a testament to the quality of service and entertainment provided by the organization on game day. As a result, the Texans have consistently been recognized as one of the most valuable professional sports franchises both in the NFL and globally, as measured by a variety of business publications. In 2013, 2014 and 2015, the Texans were recognized by the Houston Chronicle as one of "Houston's Top Workplaces".

Rootes was selected twice by SportsBusiness Journal as a member of its distinguished "Forty Under 40" list of leading sports executives. In 2014, Rootes was named a finalist for Executive of the Year by the Stadium Business Awards. Rootes maintains an active role in the community and is currently serving as the Chair of the Greater Houston Partnership. He also serves on a number of boards, including the United Way and the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau. He also oversees the activities of the Houston Texans Foundation, which donated over $1.5 million in 2015 to benefit youth and families in the Houston area. Since inception, the Texans have helped raise well over $25 million through annual fundraising events, disaster response programs, the team's United Way campaign and partnerships with non-profit organizations on game day.

Prior to joining the Texans, Rootes helped to launch Major League Soccer as president and general manager of the Columbus Crew. During his tenure, the Crew was consistently among the league's strongest teams both on and off the field, and Rootes was recognized as Executive of the Year in 1996 and Marketing Executive of the Year in 1999. Rootes helped lead the construction of Crew Stadium in 1999, which was the first stadium of its type in the United States. This facility earned distinction as America's Foremost Sports Facility of the Year and led to the development of numerous soccer-specific stadiums across the United States over the past decade, including BBVA Compass Stadium in Houston.

A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Rootes graduated Cum Laude from Clemson University's Calhoun Honors College. While attending Clemson, Rootes was a member of the Tigers' soccer team that captured two NCAA titles and he served as Student Body President. While earning a Master of Business Administration (MBA) with honors at Indiana University, he served as an assistant soccer coach for the Hoosiers. Rootes previously held positions at IBM and Procter & Gamble before entering sports. He lives in West University with his wife, Melissa, and their children, Chris and Caroline.

SCOTT SCHWINGER

PRESIDENT/CEO OF THE MCNAIR GROUP, CFO OF THE TEXANS

Scott Schwinger serves as President and CEO of The McNair Group and as Chief Financial Officer for the Texans.

For the past 22 years, Schwinger has held positions with various companies owned, directly or indirectly, by Robert C. McNair including President of Palmetto Partners Ltd., RCM Financial Services, L.P., and Vice President of Cogen Technologies. In April 2010, he was named the CEO of The McNair Group. In his role, he oversees the investment and management activities for The McNair Group of companies which include portfolios of public and private equities and certain operating companies.

Schwinger oversees a staff of more than 40 and is responsible for the management of all McNair Group companies. His duties include investment management, deal structuring, financial reporting, budgeting, treasury, risk management, management information systems and all debt and equity financings. Specific areas of investment focus include real estate, energy, healthcare and financial services.

He provided the financial analysis support beginning in 1998 to bring professional football back to Houston. Schwinger also served on the Houston Super Bowl XXXVIII Host Committee, Inc. Since the award of the team in 1999, Schwinger has successfully coordinated and structured debt financings totaling $675 million, one of the largest and most successful series of financings to date for a professional sports team.

Schwinger earned a Bachelor of Arts in mathematics from Vanderbilt University and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Texas at Austin. In the community, he serves on the boards of the Make-A-Wish Foundation and The Endowment Fund. He is also a member of the Young Presidents Organization. He and his wife, Becca, both native Houstonians, are the parents of sons, Corbin and Charley, and daughter, Cara.

SUZIE THOMAS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL COUNSEL AND CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

Suzie Thomas joined the Houston Texans and The McNair Group in March 2000. She oversees the legal, human resources and business administration functions for both groups and holds positions with various other entities in The McNair Group.

Thomas previously served as general counsel and vice president of human resources of Corporate Brand Foods America, Inc., a meat processing business that was subsequently purchased by Tyson Foods. Prior to CBFA, Thomas spent 16 years at Weatherford International, Inc., an international energy service and manufacturing company, the last 12 years as senior vice president and general counsel. She started her legal career as an associate attorney at Baker Botts L.L.P. in Houston.

Thomas earned her law degree from the University of Houston's Bates College of Law and her undergraduate degree in Spanish from the University of Texas. She is a member of the State Bar of Texas and also serves on the Board of Directors of Child Advocates, Inc.

Thomas resides in Houston.

JOHN SCHRIEVER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, TICKETING AND EVENT SERVICES

John Schriever is in his 17th year with the Texans and his 32nd in the professional sports industry. Schriever has been part of the sales and service of more than 41 million tickets to sporting events during his career. He started with the Texans in July 2000 as director of ticket operations and was promoted to vice president, ticketing and event management in July 2003, and senior vice president, ticketing and event services in June 2011. Schriever oversees all aspects of ticketing and event services for the Texans and Lone Star Sports and Entertainment.

Schriever began his sports business career with the Texas Rangers Baseball Club in 1984 as a season ticket sales intern. He became a full-time staff member in the spring of 1985 and was promoted to director of ticket operations prior to the 1989 season. The Rangers underwent a variety of changes during Schriever's 12-year tenure with the franchise: the team was purchased by an ownership group headed by George W. Bush, acquired pitcher Nolan Ryan, closed Arlington Stadium, opened The Ballpark in Arlington and hosted the 1995 Major League Baseball All-Star Game.

During the summer of 1996, Schriever worked with the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games at the Summer Olympics. He worked in ticketing as a customer service manager at Fulton County Stadium and Olympic Stadium.

Following the Olympic Games, Schriever joined the Texas Motor Speedway in Ft. Worth as director of tickets. He was part of the management staff that opened the Speedway in the spring of 1997 to a debut crowd of more than 200,000 for its inaugural Winston Cup race.

Schriever is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University, where he earned a degree in business management. He and his wife, Dana, have two children, Nicholas, who attends the University of Texas, and Sarah, who attends Texas A&M University.

JENNIFER DABKOWSKI

VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Jennifer Davenport Dabkowski joined the Houston Texans in December 2010. As vice president of marketing and community development, Dabkowski administers and monitors usage of the Texans brand and all related advertising, creative and design work. She also oversees all gameday entertainment, community development, the Houston Texans Foundation, youth football initiatives, targeted fan development, merchandise sales and regional brand growth, including broadcast partnerships.

Since joining the Texans, Dabkowski has helped the organization earn the AMA Crystal Award for Best Special Event Marketing (2016), AMA Crystal Award for Best Social Responsibility Campaign (2015), AMA Houston Marketer of the Year (2014), and more.

Dabkowski came to the Texans from the NBA's Houston Rockets and Toyota Center, where she served as marketing manager from May 2006 to November 2010. With the Rockets, Dabkowski oversaw advertising, grassroots promotions, fan development and non-sports publicity, as well as all aspects of marketing for third party events and concerts at Toyota Center. Prior to her time with the Rockets, Dabkowski was the marketing director for 96.7 KISS FM (KHFI) and AM 1300 The Zone (KVET AM) at Clear Channel Radio in Austin, Texas.

Dabkowski is also a member of the YMCA of Greater Houston Board of Directors, a lead executive for the Super Bowl LI Host Committee, a graduate of the Center for Houston's Future Leadership Forum, and a member of the Discovery Green Conservancy Marketing Committee. She is also a founding board member of Houston's Women In Sports and Events (WISE) chapter.

A native of Crosby, Texas, Dabkowski graduated from Stephen F. Austin State University. She resides in Houston with her husband, John Dabkowski.

GREG GRISSOM

VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

Greg Grissom was named Houston Texans Vice President, Corporate Development in April 2012 but has been a part of the team's business operations staff since the inaugural 2002 season. He first joined the Texans as a corporate sales manager before being promoted to director of corporate development in 2006, and senior director of corporate development in May 2011.

Grissom oversees the Texans' corporate partnerships, sales of all related media properties and partnership marketing services. Since 2012, the Texans franchise has seen landmark expansion from HoustonTexans.com to Texans Radio and Texans TV digital platforms, creating a wealth of new opportunities for sponsors and fans of the team.

He has over two decades of experience in sports sponsorship sales, planning, execution and event marketing. Before joining the Texans, Grissom worked for Enron Corp. as a sports marketing specialist and spent more than four years with the Houston Astros as an account services manager and later as the club's promotions coordinator.

Grissom represents the Texans on the Board of Directors of the Houston Food Bank. A native of Austin, he attended Baylor University. He lives in Houston with his wife, Jamie, and their daughter, Campbell, and son, Sam.

MARILAN LOGAN

VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF ACCOUNTING OFFICER

Marilan Logan is in her 17th year with the Houston Texans and serves as the franchise's vice president and chief accounting officer, managing all aspects of financial matters for the Texans and Lone Star Sports & Entertainment organizations. Logan joined the Texans as the team's controller in February 2000 and was promoted to vice president and controller in April 2007 before assuming her current position in September 2011.

Logan came to the Texans after serving as controller/treasurer for the Houston Aeros Hockey Club, Aerodromes Ice Rinks, and the Houston Aeros Foundation for two seasons.

Prior to joining the Houston Aeros, Logan was the controller for the Houston Oilers (now Tennessee Titans) from 1978-97. Her responsibilities included accounting for player contracts, maintaining the club's financial records and aiding club management with special projects. Prior to the Oilers, she was a cost accounting specialist for Reed Tool Company.

Marilan and her husband, Rick, have a daughter, Sandy; two sons, Jeff and Roy; and two grandsons, Kyle and Todd. The couple resides in Humble.

CHRIS OLSEN

VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Chris Olsen is in his 10th season with the Texans and seventh as the team's vice president of football administration. Olsen's primary responsibility with the Texans is to work closely with Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Rick Smith on negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap.

Prior to joining the Texans' staff, Olsen spent 13 years working at the National Football League office in New York. Olsen served as the Manager of Labor Operations with the NFL Management Council from 1999-2006. He was responsible for reviewing and analyzing player contracts to ensure teams were in compliance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and salary cap, and also provided assistance to club executives pertaining to player-related areas of the CBA. He also served as a League liaison to the NFL Players Association regarding player contract matters, while working as a national game representative and instant replay communicator.

Olsen began his tenure with the NFL in 1994 as an analyst in the player personnel department. He was promoted to coordinator in 1998 and became responsible for all facets of the player petition process on special eligibility for the NFL Draft (underclassman prospects), including coordinating player evaluations for the College Advisory Committee. He produced annual reports for the Competition Committee and reviewed player contracts to ensure their compliance with the NFL's Constitution and By-Laws.

Olsen began working in professional sports during his senior year in college with the Springfield Indians Hockey Club of the AHL in 1989-90, where he served as a public relations/marketing intern. After spending a brief time working for Ark-Asset Management Company, a financial services firm in New York City, he continued his sports career in 1992 while in graduate school by serving as a public relations/marketing intern for the Hartford Whalers of the NHL. Prior to joining the NFL, he worked for the New Jersey State Golf Association.

Olsen is a native of Little Silver, N.J. He earned his degree in business administration from Western New England University in 1990 and earned a master's degree in sports management from Springfield College in 1997. Olsen and his wife, Kim, reside in Houston.

JEFF SCHMITZ

VICE PRESIDENT, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Jeff Schmitz is entering his 15th season with the Texans. Schmitz was promoted to vice president of information technology in 2013 after serving as senior director and director of information technology from 2008-12.

Schmitz, who joined the McNair group in March 1997, held positions in the treasury and accounting departments before moving into the IT department as manager of information technology in 2001.

Schmitz is responsible for leading all facets of technology for the Houston Texans and The McNair Group, including infrastructure, information systems, development, information security and support. During his tenure, Schmitz led teams responsible for stadium infrastructure design, data center design, voice and data service, unified communication, information security, compliance and software implementations.

Schmitz earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in accounting from Pittsburg State University in Kansas. He lives in Missouri City with his wife, Leslie, and their daughters, Courtney and Hannah.

MARC VANDERMEER

VICE PRESIDENT, BROADCASTING & PLAY-BY-PLAY VOICE

Marc Vandermeer has been a team fixture since it began play in 2002, calling every snap the Houston Texans have ever taken as the team's play-by-play announcer. Vandermeer officially joined the Texans as the director of radio broadcasting in June 2012 and was promoted to senior director of broadcasting in June 2013 before being named vice president of broadcasting in 2016.

In his role, Vandermeer serves as the "Voice of the Texans" and oversees the programs and content on HoustonTexans.com, Texans Radio on the flagship station KILT SportsRadio 610 AM and Texans television programming on ABC-13/KTRK and Fox Sports Southwest. Since the Texans began play, Vandermeer is the only current team employee to attend every single game in franchise history. Vandermeer was also co-host of the morning drive show for SportsRadio 610 until May 2012.

Vandermeer came to the Texans following a successful three-year run as the play-by-play voice for the Miami Hurricanes on 560 WQAM. He called the action for the Miami Hurricanes' football and baseball national championship teams in 2001, hosted the athletic program's weekly show, Hurricane Hotline, and filled in on the WQAM Morning Show.

From 1995-99, Vandermeer was the play-by-play voice for the UMass Minutemen and served as the UMass Radio Network Director for WHMP AM/FM. He was promoted to station manager his final year with WHMP.

Vandermeer has called NCAA Basketball Tournament games for Westwood One Radio and was the play-by-play voice for Central Michigan University from 1992-95. He also serves on the Junior Achievement Board of Directors.

The Boston University alumnus and his wife, Corinne, have two sons, 10-year old Luke, and Liam, who was born in January of 2013.

GREG WATSON

VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

Greg Watson joined The McNair Group and the Houston Texans in November 1999 after working as an international finance associate in the energy industry. In his current position as vice president of finance, Watson is involved in all aspects of the team's debt and equity financing activities, long-range financial forecasting and special project analyses.

His other responsibilities include all aspects of deal execution for The McNair Group private equity investments.

Watson earned his Bachelor of Arts in political science from Vanderbilt University and his MBA with a focus on finance and entrepreneurship from the University of Texas. He and his wife, Cathy, both native Houstonians, live in Houston with their children, Claire, William and Gardner.

DOUG WEST

VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Doug West is in his 21st season in the NFL and his 10th with the Texans. West was named vice president of football operations in April 2014.

West, who previously served as director of football operations starting in September 2010, oversees team travel, training camp and game day operations, which include all aspects dealing directly on the field with the game, Texans and the visiting team.

On game day, West is responsible for overseeing the sideline communication equipment as well as instant replay equipment. He serves as the team liaison with the NFL, the officials and the visiting team; he also handles catering in all Texans areas.

West oversees the team practice facility and Texans areas in NRG Stadium, including scheduling, cleaning and maintenance. He is responsible for maintaining the day-to-day football operations budget as well as planning for future large expenditures and projects.

West joined the Texans as football operations manager in August 2007, overseeing team travel planning and lodging throughout the year. Prior to joining the Texans, West worked with Reebok as an NFL glove and footwear specialist, beginning in 2004. From 1993-2003, West was the head equipment manager for the Denver Broncos, where he worked with Executive Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager Rick Smith.

West was the head equipment manager from 1988-90 at the University of Northern Colorado before taking on the same role for the Birmingham Fire of the World League of American Football from 1991-92 under Head Coach Chan Gailey.

West earned a bachelor's degree in social sciences from Colorado State in 1988, where he was a student equipment manager for the football team for three years. He has three sons, Gunnar, Griffin and Graham, and a stepdaughter, Grace. He and his wife, Stacy, reside in Houston.

COACHING STAFF

BILL O'BRIEN

HEAD COACH
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 8TH NFL SEASON

In his first two seasons as head coach (2014-15), Bill O'Brien led the Houston Texans to consecutive 9-7 records and an AFC South Division Championship in 2015, the team's first since 2012. O'Brien's 18 career victories are the most by any head coach in franchise history through their first two years.

In 2015, Houston became the only NFL team since 1950 to make the playoffs with four different starting quarterbacks winning a game during the regular season. QB Brian Hoyer led the way with a 5-4 record in nine starts and set single-season career highs in passer rating (91.4), completion percentage (60.7) and passing touchdowns (19).

Under O'Brien, WR DeAndre Hopkins became the third-youngest player in NFL history to reach 200 receptions and 3,000 receiving yards for his career. In 2015, he earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl after posting career highs with 111 receptions for 1,521 yards and a franchise-record 11 receiving touchdowns. His receiving totals ranked among the best in the NFL, as he finished third in catches and yards and tied for seventh in touchdowns.

On the ground, the Texans averaged 108.2 rushing yards per game for the season and 135.1 yards over the final seven weeks. After RB Arian Foster was placed on Injured Reserve on Oct. 27, RB Alfred Blue stepped in to lead the team with a career-high 698 rushing yards, to go along with three 100-yard rushing games.

The Texans received strong contributions from their defense again in 2015 after finishing third in the NFL in total yards (310.2) and passing yards (210.4) allowed per game, fifth in opponent completion percentage (59.0) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). Houston set franchise single-season records for sacks (45.0) and opponent third down percentage (28.5%), which was also the lowest mark by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7%). The Texans allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six). DE J.J. Watt won his third Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year award after leading the league with 17.5 sacks, 50 quarterback hits and 29 tackles for loss.

O'Brien led the Texans to a 9-7 record in his first year as the franchise's head coach in 2014. Houston's seven-win improvement from 2013 led the NFL and made the Texans the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a season in which it won two or less games. The Texans just missed the playoffs as the last team out in the AFC and O'Brien finished second in NFL AP Coach of the Year voting to Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Bruce Arians.

O'Brien earned his first victory as head coach of the Texans with a 17-6 season-opening win against Washington at NRG Stadium, ending Houston's 14-game losing streak in the process. Houston went 5-2 following an open date in Week 10, with three different starting quarterbacks leading the Texans to wins down the stretch. The Texans also led the NFL in takeaways with a franchise-record 34 and became just the third team in the last 20 years to lead the league in takeaways after finishing last the year before.

On offense, the Texans ran the ball a league-high 51.9 percent of the time and posted an AFC-best eight individual 100-yard rushing performances in 2014. Houston's 135.1 yards rushing per game ranked fifth in the NFL and was the second-highest mark in franchise history. Foster, who earned his fourth Pro Bowl honor, eclipsed the 100-yard mark in seven of the 13 games he played in as he rushed for 1,246 yards and scored 13 total touchdowns.

Due to injuries, quarterbacks Ryan Fitzpatrick, Ryan Mallett and Case Keenum each started at least two games under center for the Texans and combined to lead the team to wins in five of the last seven games. Hopkins had a breakout season, setting then-career highs with 76 receptions for 1,210 yards and six touchdowns in O'Brien's system.

O'Brien was named the third head coach in Texans franchise history on Jan. 3, 2014. He brought 21 years of collegiate and NFL coaching experience to the Bayou City, along with a tireless work ethic, relentless tenacity, exceptional football acumen and a well-earned reputation for succeeding against all odds.

The former Penn State head coach and New England Patriots offensive coordinator has ascended steadily throughout his coaching career, capitalizing on every earned opportunity at each successive stop with the same drive that brought him to Houston. Prior to joining the Texans, O'Brien spent two years leading Penn State through one of the greatest periods of strife any major college program has endured, garnering national and conference coach-of-the-year awards in the process. In the five years prior to his tenure at Penn State, O'Brien helped lead the New England Patriots to a pair of Super Bowl berths, first as an offensive assistant in 2007 and then again in 2011 as offensive coordinator.

The Brown University alum took on one of the tallest tasks in college football history when he was named head coach at Penn State on Jan. 6, 2012. In addition to replacing Joe Paterno, the all-time winningest head coach in NCAA Football Bowl Division history, O'Brien had to guide PSU through heavy scholarship reductions, a four-year postseason ban, an open transfer policy and the public aftermath of a devastating scandal that threatened the football program's storied existence.

O'Brien led the Texans to an AFC South Division Championship in 2015, the team's first since 2012.

Odds of success were low, by all counts. O'Brien defied them.

Penn State won eight of its final 10 games to finish the 2012 season with an 8-4 record. O'Brien, who also served as offensive coordinator for the Nittany Lions, was named the Bear Bryant,

BILL O'BRIEN

Maxwell Football Club and ESPN National Coach of the Year after winning more games than any other first-year head coach in the program's previous 125 seasons. He was also named the Big Ten Conference's Dave McClain Coach of the Year by media and the Hayes-Schembechler Coach of the Year by coaches.

O'Brien directed a fast-paced unit in 2012 that averaged 437.0 yards per game in conference play to lead the Big Ten. His offense also produced the conference's top rusher (Zach Zwinak), receiver (Allen Robinson) and passer (Matt McGloin). McGloin set nine school records and Robinson set the single-season receptions mark with 77. The Nittany Lions were 7-5 in 2013 and had upset wins against 18th-ranked Michigan and 14th-ranked Wisconsin.

A member of the Patriots' coaching staff from 2007-11, O'Brien rose from offensive assistant to wide receivers coach in 2008 and then quarterbacks coach from 2009-10 prior to being named offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2011. The Patriots earned the top seed in the AFC with a 13-3 record and advanced to Super Bowl XLVI with O'Brien coordinating the offense in 2011. New England led the AFC in scoring with 32.1 points per game, and was second in the NFL in total offense (428.0 yards per game) and passing (317.8). QB Tom Brady threw for a career-high 5,235 yards (second in NFL) and 39 touchdowns. WR Wes Welker led the NFL with 122 receptions and set a career-high with 1,569 yards. Welker and TE Rob Gronkowski, who set career bests with 90 receptions for 1,327 yards, led the AFC in receiving yardage. Gronkowski also led the NFL with 17 touchdown receptions, a record for an NFL tight end, and was second with 18 overall scores.

In O'Brien's second season as quarterbacks coach with the Patriots in 2010, Brady was selected the first unanimous AP NFL MVP after leading the team to an NFL-best 14-2 mark. Brady led the AFC in attempts (1,668), completions (1,096), touchdown passes (103), interception percentage (1.7) and passer rating (104.0) and ranked second in the conference in passing yards (13,533) while O'Brien was his position coach from 2009-11.

O'Brien began his coaching career at Brown in 1993 as a tight ends coach before serving as inside linebackers coach in 1994. He joined George O'Leary's Georgia Tech staff in 1995 as a graduate assistant, helping the Yellow Jackets to bowl appearances in each of his last six seasons. Working with offensive coordinator Ralph Friedgen, O'Brien coached running backs from 1998-2000 before being promoted to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2001 and assistant head coach in 2002.

O'Brien joined Friedgen's staff at Maryland in 2003 as running backs coach. Following two years in College Park, O'Brien served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Duke from 2005-06.

Born in Dorchester, Mass., O'Brien grew up in Andover and graduated from St. John's Preparatory School in Danvers. O'Brien went on to play linebacker and defensive end at Brown from 1990-92. He graduated with a double concentration in political science and organizational behavioral management in 1992.

O'Brien and his wife, Colleen, have two sons: Jack, 14, and Michael, 11.

ROMEO CRENNEL

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 34TH NFL SEASON

Romeo Crennel is in his third season as the defensive coordinator with the Houston Texans. It is Crennel's 34th year coaching in the NFL, including spending the last 14 seasons as either a head coach or defensive coordinator.

From 2014-15, Crennel's unit ranked fourth in the NFL in points allowed per game (19.4) and fifth in net yards (329.2) and net passing yards (226.8) allowed per game. Houston also ranked first in third down defense (31.3%), third in opponent completion percentage (58.8) and tied for fifth in interceptions (34).

Last season, Houston finished third in the league in net yards (310.2) and net passing yards allowed per game (210.4), fifth in opponent completion percentage (59.0) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). The Texans, who won their first AFC South Division Championship since 2012, also set franchise single-season records for sacks (45.0) and third down percentage (28.5). That percentage led the NFL in 2015 and was the lowest single-season mark by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7).

The Texans allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six games). On the season, the Texans did not allow the opposing team to score a touchdown in four of their games.

Texans DE J.J. Watt became the second player in NFL history to win Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year in back-to-back years under Crennel in 2015, to go along with being named to the Pro Bowl, AP NFL All-Pro First Team and PFWA All-NFL team. Watt led the NFL in sacks (17.5), tackles for loss (29) and quarterback hits (50) for the second straight year. Watt and OLB Whitney Mercilus (12.0 sacks) combined for the most sacks by any pair of teammates in franchise history (29.5).

Texans ILB Brian Cushing enjoyed one of the best years of his career, totaling 110 tackles, while CB Jonathan Joseph set a career-high with 22 passes defensed. The Texans defense also got major contributions from their rookie class with CB Kevin Johnson (nine passes defensed) and ILB Benardrick McKinney (58 tackles) playing key roles under Crennel in their first year in the league.

In 2014, the Texans defense made huge improvements and set multiple franchise records. The team posted a 4-1 record after Thanksgiving, leading the league in opponent completion percentage (49.2), third-down defense (22.6%) and rushing touchdowns allowed (0), while allowing 260.1 net yards and 16.2 points per game in that time.

For the season, Houston became just the third team in the last 20 years to lead the league in takeaways, with a franchise-record 34, after finishing last the year before (11 in 2013). The Texans also set a franchise record for points off turnovers and had 11 players record interceptions. They led the NFL with 35 points scored against opposing offenses and set a team record with five defensive touchdowns.

Watt had one of the best seasons ever for a defensive player in 2014 and became the most decorated player in franchise history, earning All-Pro, Pro Bowl and numerous player of the year honors, including the distinction of being the first-ever unanimous selection as NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Watt recorded five total touchdowns (three on offense), six takeaways, 20.5 sacks, a safety, and league bests of 50 quarterback hits and 29 tackles for loss.

In Romeo Crennel's first two years (2014-15) with the Texans, Houston led the NFL with a 31.3% opponent third down percentage.

Crennel was named Texans defensive coordinator on Feb. 5, 2014. He brought with him a longstanding track record of success, including appearing in six Super Bowls and winning five of them (New York Giants – XXI and XXV, New England Patriots – XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX). Additionally, he has been a part of 14 playoff seasons with six conference titles and 10 division titles.

Crennel came to Houston following a three-year stint with the Kansas City Chiefs (2010-12) where he served as defensive coordinator (2010-11), interim head coach (2011) and head coach (2012). In that time, his defense ranked 12th overall in the NFL (340.0 net yards per game) and sixth in pass defense (214.0 net yards per game). Under Crennel's guidance in 2012, the Chiefs sent six players to the Pro Bowl, with four of them on the defensive side of the ball. The Chiefs' six Pro Bowlers were the most the team had sent to the annual all-star game since the 2005 season and the four defensive players were the most making the trip since the 1995 season.

Prior to Kansas City, Crennel spent four seasons as head coach of the Cleveland Browns (2005-08) in his second turn with the organization. In 2007, he led Cleveland to a 10-6 record, the club's best mark since finishing 11-5 in 1994. The Browns won a franchise-record seven consecutive home games in 2007 as six players were selected to the Pro Bowl.

From 2001-04, Crennel served as defensive coordinator with the New England Patriots, where he helped the team win three Super Bowl titles. This was his second go-around with the organization and, during his four seasons in New England, the Patriots registered a 48-16 (.750) regular season record and a 9-0 postseason mark. The Patriots registered 89 interceptions during his tenure, the second-highest total over that span behind only Tampa Bay (95). Crennel's defensive unit also returned an NFL-high 14 interceptions for touchdowns from 2001-04.

In 2004, the Patriots defense tied for second in the NFL, allowing only 16.3 points per game. Crennel's unit ranked third with 45.0 sacks, sixth against the run (98.3 yards per game) and ninth in total defense (310.8 net yards per game). The Patriots allowed a mere 45 rushing yards in their Super Bowl XXXIX victory versus Philadelphia.

Crennel was named the NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America following the 2003 season. He led a Patriots defensive unit that allowed a league-low 14.9 points per game, the best single-season mark in team history. Further, the defense did not allow an opponent to score a touchdown on 62 consecutive possessions over a five-game home span. New England led the NFL with 29 interceptions and six defensive touchdowns in the regular season, as the Patriots marched to an eventual win versus Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

The Patriots ranked sixth in the NFL in 2001, surrendering just 17.0 points per game. During a five-game winning streak to conclude the regular season, New England allowed only one touchdown and seven field goals. St. Louis averaged an NFL-high 31.4 points per game in 2001, but Crennel's unit limited the Rams to just 17 points in New England's Super Bowl XXXVI victory.

Prior to a one-year stint as Cleveland's defensive coordinator/defensive line coach in 2000, Crennel spent three seasons as the defensive line coach with the New York Jets (1997-99). His defense never allowed more than 20.0 points per game in any of his three seasons with that squad. The Jets ranked second in the NFL by allowing 16.6 points per game in 1998 as New York advanced to the AFC Championship Game for the first time since 1982.

Before joining the Jets, Crennel served as the defensive line coach for four campaigns in New England (1993-96). The Patriots defense allowed 12.8 points per game during the final five contests of the 1996 season, helping to propel the club to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI.

Crennel began his NFL coaching career with a 12-year period with the New York Giants (1981-92), serving as the defensive line coach (1990-92), special teams coach (1983-89) and special teams/defensive assistant coach (1981-82). During his tenure with the Giants, the club qualified for the playoffs six times, claiming wins in Super Bowls XXI and XXV. While with the Giants, Crennel worked with multiple Super Bowl-winning head coaches in Bill Parcells, Bill Belichick and Tom Coughlin.

Crennel began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 1970 at his alma mater, Western Kentucky, before enjoying a four-season stint (1971-74) as the school's defensive line coach. From there, Crennel began his longtime association with Parcells at Texas Tech (1975-77) where Parcells served as defensive coordinator. He also spent two years at Mississippi (1978-79) coaching the defensive ends. Crennel concluded his collegiate coaching career with a one-year stop at Georgia Tech (1980).

A four-year starter on the defensive line for Western Kentucky, Crennel was elected captain as a senior. A rash of injuries during his senior season forced him to switch to offensive tackle where he earned team MVP honors. He attended Fort Knox High School in Fort Knox, Ky., and Central High School in Amherst, Va. His brother, Carl, entered the NFL as a ninth-round draft choice (209th overall) of Pittsburgh in 1970, playing one season with the Steelers before enjoying an 11-year career in the Canadian Football League. Crennel and his wife Rosemary have three daughters, Lisa Tulley, Tiffany Strokes and Kristine Cullinane. The Crennels have eight grandchildren.

GEORGE GODSEY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 6TH NFL SEASON

George Godsey is in his second season as offensive coordinator with the Houston Texans after serving as quarterbacks coach in 2014.

In Godsey's first season as offensive coordinator in 2015, Houston won the AFC South Division Championship and became the only NFL team since 1950 to make the playoffs with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game. QB Brian Hoyer led the way with a 5-4 record in nine starts and set single-season career highs in passer rating (91.4), completion percentage (60.7) and passing touchdowns (19).

WR DeAndre Hopkins earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl after posting career highs with 111 receptions for 1,521 yards and a franchise-record 11 receiving touchdowns. His receiving totals ranked among the best in the NFL, as he finished third in both catches and yards and tied for seventh in touchdowns. On the ground, the Texans averaged 108.2 rushing yards per game for the season and 135.1 yards over the final seven weeks. After RB Arian Foster was placed on Injured Reserve on Oct. 27, RB Alfred Blue stepped in to lead the team with a career-high 698 rushing yards to go along with three 100-yard rushing games.

In 2014, the Texans put together a late season surge and got consistent play from the quarterback position despite numerous injuries. Ryan Fitzpatrick, Ryan Mallett and Case Keenum each started at least two games under center for Houston and combined to lead the team to wins in five of the last seven games. Additionally, Fitzpatrick posted the highest passer rating in his 11-year career (95.3) in 12 games played under Godsey.

Godsey came to the Texans after three years with the New England Patriots, first as offensive assistant in 2011 and then as tight ends coach for two seasons. In 2011, Godsey coached on the same staff as Texans Head Coach Bill O'Brien who was the Patriots offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach that season.

In Godsey's first season with the Patriots as offensive assistant in 2011, the team earned the top seed in the AFC with a 13-3 record and advanced to Super Bowl XLVI. New England led the AFC in scoring and ranked third in the NFL with 32.1 points per game. They also ranked second in the NFL in total offense (428.0 yards per game). For two seasons, Godsey guided the tight ends, including Rob Gronkowski who earned a spot in the Pro Bowl following the 2012 season with his team-leading 11 touchdowns in 11 games played. In 2013, Gronkowski, who played just seven games due to injuries, averaged a career-high 84.6 yards per game.

Prior to joining the Patriots, Godsey spent the previous seven seasons (2004-10) at Central Florida under Head Coach George O'Leary, who O'Brien coached with at Georgia Tech from 1995-01.

Godsey was the running backs coach in 2009-10 and the quarterbacks coach from 2005-08 after originally joining the staff as a graduate assistant in 2004. During his tenure at UCF, Godsey and the Knights won two Conference USA titles as well as recording the team's first 11-win season in school history in 2010 and first bowl victory that season with a 10-6 win over Georgia in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

In Godsey's final season as running backs coach at UCF in 2010, the team finished with 36 rushing touchdowns to lead Conference USA. The previous season, the Knights rushed for 20 touchdowns, tying for their second-highest total in a decade at the time, after rushing for eight scores the year before. As quarterbacks coach for UCF, Godsey was pivotal in the development of Kyle Isreal and Steven Moffett, who finished seventh and sixth, respectively, in passing efficiency in school history.

Godsey played quarterback at Georgia Tech from 1998-01, where he first crossed paths with O'Brien, the running backs coach from 1998-00 and offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2001. Godsey set the school record for career completion percentage (63.3) and ranks second in career passing efficiency rating (143.64). Godsey later went on to play one season in the Arena Football League with the Tampa Bay Storm and was part of the 2003 team that won the Arena Bowl title.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Godsey was born on Jan. 1, 1979 and hails from a strong football family. His father played football for Bear Bryant at Alabama, his older brother played at the Air Force Academy, and his younger brother suited up at both quarterback and tight end for Notre Dame.

In George Godsey's first season as offensive coordinator in 2015, Houston became the only NFL team since 1950 to make the playoffs with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game.

LARRY IZZO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
1ST SEASON WITH TEXANS / 6TH NFL SEASON

Larry Izzo enters his first season as special teams coordinator for the Houston Texans.

Izzo joins the Texans staff after spending five seasons (2011-15) as the New York Giants assistant special teams coach, where he was a part of the team's Super Bowl XLVI victory. In 2015, the Giants finished second in the Dallas Morning News' annual comprehensive ranking of the league's special teams. The unit ranked fifth in opponent kickoff return average (20.3) and tied for first in field goal percentage (93.8). New York was also seventh in the NFL in punt return average (10.2) and 10th in kickoff return average (24.9).

The Giants' kickoff team allowed an average return of just 18.3 yards in 2014, which ranked second in the NFL, and their opponents' drives following a kickoff started on average at the 20.9-yard line, which was eighth in the NFL.

In 2013, the Giants' kickoff team ranked ninth in the NFL, allowing an average return of 21.8 yards.

In 2012, the special teams made significant contributions to the Giants' winning season and finished seventh in the Dallas Morning News' annual ranking. The Giants led the NFL with five special teams takeaways and their average drive start following a kickoff was at the 25.2-yard line, which led the NFL. The Giants also averaged 26.2 yards-per-kickoff return, which placed them seventh in the NFL. K Lawrence Tynes made 33-of-39 field goal attempts and all 46 of his extra point tries for 145 points, which were both the second-highest totals in Giants history.

In 2011, Izzo's first season with the Giants, he won his fourth Super Bowl ring and first as a coach. He also helped develop a group of rookies who quickly became outstanding special teams players, including Mark Herzlich, Spencer Paysinger, Tyler Sash and Jacquian Williams. The Giants' punt and kickoff coverage teams were solid all season and did not allow a touchdown in 2011.

In his 14-year NFL career (1996-2009), Izzo played for three teams, including the Miami Dolphins (1996-2000), New England Patriots (2001-08) and New York Jets (2009). He was a three-time Super Bowl champion with New England (2001, 2003 and 2004) and a three-time Pro Bowler (2000, 2002 and 2004). He was also credited with 275 special teams tackles in 200 regular season games and 23 more in 21 postseason games. Izzo never played on a team with a losing record and his teams participated in the playoffs nine times, reaching five AFC Championship Games and four Super Bowls. His teammates selected him as a special teams captain nine times, including eight with the Patriots.

Izzo, who is considered one of the best special teams players in NFL history, began his career in 1996 as an undrafted free agent with the Miami Dolphins. He made such a rapid and positive impact that in the preseason, Head Coach Jimmy Johnson said only two players were guaranteed to make the team – future Hall of Fame QB Dan Marino and Izzo. In just his second NFL game, he blocked a Jeff Feagles punt. As a rookie, Izzo played in all 16 games and finished second on the team with 10 special teams tackles. He was voted the special teams alternate for the AFC Pro Bowl team and was an all-rookie selection by Pro Football Weekly.

Izzo spent the 1997 season on Injured Reserve after tearing an Achilles tendon in training camp. He returned the following year to play 13 games, register 21 special teams tackles and be Miami's recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award. Izzo played in all 16 games – plus his first two postseason games – in 1999, when he led the team with a career-high 33 special teams tackles and was elected the Dolphins' special teams captain. In 2000, his final season in Miami, Izzo earned his first Pro Bowl selection after finishing with a team-high 31 special teams tackles.

In his first season with the Patriots in 2001, Izzo was voted special teams captain for the first of eight consecutive seasons. He led the unit with 22 tackles and helped New England defeat St. Louis in Super Bowl XXXVI. The following year, Izzo was voted to the Pro Bowl for the second time after leading the Patriots with 20 special teams tackles. He was also named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after collecting six tackles in a game against Kansas City. In 2003 and 2004, Izzo led New England with 31 and 28 special teams tackles, respectively, to help the Patriots win two more Super Bowls. He was a member of the AFC Pro Bowl team in 2004, when he was also an All-Pro selection. Izzo missed only one game from 2000-08 and is a member of the Patriots' All-2000's team.

Izzo joined the Jets prior to the 2009 season. He was credited with 18 special teams tackles before going on Injured Reserve with a neck injury on Dec. 10.

Izzo, who is from Fort Belvoir, Va., was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Rice University, where he played linebacker and finished fourth in school history with 301 tackles, including a record 46 for losses. As a senior captain, he had 121 tackles and was named a consensus first-team All-Southwest Conference selection. In 2002, Izzo graduated from Rice with a degree in business.

At McCullough High School in Houston, Izzo played safety and running back. The Houston Chronicle named him the two-way player of the year as a senior after he tallied 131 tackles and two interceptions on defense and contributed 1,081 yards rushing on offense.

In 2005, Izzo and Warrick Dunn participated in an NFL-sponsored USO tour to visit troops stationed overseas. They began their trip at Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan, where they helped open the Pat Tillman USO Center, then spent time with troops in Baghdad, Kuwait and Qatar.

The 41-year-old Izzo and his wife, Mara, have a son, Boston.

JIM BERNHARDT

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL RESEARCH
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 3RD NFL SEASON

Jim Bernhardt is in his third season as the Director of Football Research with the Houston Texans. In his position, Bernhardt takes on an advisory role to Head Coach Bill O'Brien, assisting in all aspects of game preparation, management, and review both on and off the field.

In 2015, the Texans earned their first AFC South Division Championship since 2012 and became the first NFL team since 1950 to earn a trip to the postseason with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game.

On defense, the Texans finished third in the NFL in yards allowed per game (310.2), third in pass yards per game (210.4), fifth in opponent completion percentage (59.0) and seventh in points per game (19.6). The Texans also set the franchise single-season record for sacks (45.0) and third down defense (28.5%) in 2015.

In 2014, Houston recorded a seven-win improvement, which led the NFL and made them the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a season in which it won two or less games. The Texans defense led the NFL in takeaways with a franchise-record 34 and became just the third team in the last 20 years to lead the league in takeaways after finishing last the year before.

On offense, the Texans ran the ball a league-high 51.9 percent of the time and posted an AFC-best eight individual 100-yard rushing performances in 2014. Houston's 135.1 yards rushing per game ranked fifth in the NFL and was the second-highest mark in franchise history.

Bernhardt came to Houston from Penn State where he served in a similar role under O'Brien as special assistant to the head coach and director of football research. As a chief advisor to O'Brien, Bernhardt reviewed, evaluated and advised on the entire Penn State football program, including practice, game management and planning, compliance, recruiting and football administration.

Prior to his time at Penn State, Bernhardt served as recruiting coordinator and running backs coach at the University of Central Florida from 2005-07 and director of football operations in 2004. In 2005, the Golden Knights won their first Conference USA Eastern Division title and earned a berth in the university's first bowl game, the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl, against Nevada. In that matchup, RB Kevin Smith set a Hawaii Bowl record with 202 yards rushing and three touchdowns.

In 2007, Smith had one of the most prolific seasons in NCAA history for a running back, rushing for 2,567 yards and 29 touchdowns. His rushing total landed him second on the NCAA all-time single-season rushing list, only behind Barry Sanders' 1988 season. In his three seasons at UCF under Bernhardt, Smith finished as the Golden Knights' all-time leading rusher and 2007 Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year.

Bernhardt began his coaching career in 1988-89 as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Hofstra University, where they had nationally-ranked defenses and qualified for the NCAA playoffs both seasons he was there. In 1990, Bernhardt became the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Brown University, where he coached O'Brien for three seasons before transitioning to the role of offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 1993.

In addition to coaching the collegiate ranks, Bernhardt also coached at the high school level for 17 years, accumulating a .620 winning percentage despite never inheriting a program with a winning record prior to his arrival. Bernhardt garnered Coach of the Year honors four times at four different schools over the course of his coaching career.

A graduate of Long Island University, C.W. Post Campus with a degree in physical education, Bernhardt is also a three-time published writer in the Scholastic Coach magazine and a noted clinic speaker. Bernhardt and his wife, Catherine, have been married for 28 years and have three sons, Jake, Jesse and Jared.

SHANE BOWEN

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT
1ST SEASON WITH TEXANS / 1ST NFL SEASON

Shane Bowen enters his first season as defensive assistant for the Houston Texans in 2016.

Before joining the Texans, Bowen worked as linebackers coach at Kennesaw State University for three years (2013-15). The 2015 season was the football team's first as a Division I program, where it played in the Big South Conference and went 6-5.

Bowen spent the 2012 season as a defensive graduate assistant at Ohio State where his responsibilities included directing defensive film breakdown and scouting reports, monitoring student-athletes' academic performances, classroom attendance and study hall sessions, recruiting and camps. On the field, Bowen assisted in coaching the defensive line, a unit that produced two First Team All-Big Ten selections and the conference's Defensive Player of the Year, current Texans OLB John Simon. The Buckeyes concluded the year with a 12-0 mark and ranked No. 3 nationally.

Bowen began his coaching career as a student assistant at Georgia Tech after an injury ended his playing career during his junior season. He finished the year assisting with the linebackers before being named an offensive graduate assistant in 2010. He held that position for two years before leaving for Ohio State.

Bowen was a three-year letter winner at Georgia Tech where he played outside linebacker. He started 10 games at the position and had a streak of 38 consecutive games played before an injury sidelined him for the remainder of his junior season. He helped the Yellow Jackets win Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) Coastal Division Championships in 2006 and 2008. The team also played in three consecutive bowl games, participating in the 2007 Gator Bowl, 2007 Humanitarian Bowl and 2008 Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Bowen, named to the Dean's List three times while at Georgia Tech, earned a Bachelor of Science degree in business management in 2009, and a master's degree in workforce development and education in 2014. He is a native of Pickerington, Ohio.

JOHN BUTLER

SECONDARY

3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 3RD NFL SEASON

John Butler is in his third season as secondary coach with the Houston Texans.

During his first two seasons in Houston (2014-15), Butler helped the Texans rank third in the NFL in opponent completion percentage (58.8), fifth in net passing yards allowed per game (226.8), fourth in points allowed per game (19.4) and tied for fifth in interceptions (34). Houston also ranked first in the league in third down defense with a 31.3 opponent conversion percentage during that span.

Last season, the Texans defense finished third in the NFL in net yards allowed per game (310.2), third in net passing yards allowed per game (210.4) and tied for seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). The Texans also allowed the fifth-lowest opponent completion percentage (59.0) in the league.

Butler's unit helped the Texans finish tied for third in passes defensed with 90 in 2015 and surrendered just 6.09 net passing yards per attempt, tied for third-best in the NFL. The Texans led the NFL in third down defense, as opponents converted only 28.5% (61-of-214) of their opportunities. That percentage is the lowest single-season mark in franchise history by 4.5% and the lowest opponent third down percentage by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7%).

Houston won its first AFC South Division Championship since 2012 and only allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and is tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six times).

Veteran CB Johnathan Joseph set a single-season career-high with 22 passes defensed, while starting all 16 games for the second straight year. Rookie CB Kevin Johnson ranked third on the team and fourth among NFL rookies with nine passes defensed. Butler also played a key role in Andre Hal's transition from corner to safety in 2015. Hal led the team with four interceptions, which tied for the second-highest single-season total by a safety in Texans history. As a unit, Houston safeties combined for eight of the team's 14 interceptions in 2015, including a career-high two from Eddie Pleasant.

In 2014, Butler's first year, Houston led the NFL in takeaways with a franchise-record 34 and became just the third team in the last 20 years to lead the league in takeaways after finishing last the year before. The Texans also set a franchise record for points off turnovers and had 11 players record interceptions in 2014.

Houston's secondary was involved in 22 of the team's 34 takeaways in 2014 and had seven players with either a forced fumble, fumble recovery or interception. The group accounted for nine forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, 16 interceptions and three interceptions returned for touchdowns. Cornerbacks Kareem Jackson and Johnathan Joseph led the way as the duo combined for five interceptions, 20 passes defensed, five tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Houston ranked third in the NFL in third down defense as teams converted 33.9 percent of the time. Houston's defense was also first in the NFL in red zone scoring efficiency as opposing teams only scored a touchdown on 47.8 percent of their trips inside the 20-yard line.

Prior to the Texans, Butler spent two seasons at Penn State with Head Coach Bill O'Brien, where he held the role of secondary coach in 2012 and defensive coordinator in 2013. In his first season working with the secondary, Butler helped Penn State rank second in the Big Ten and 16th nationally in scoring defense. Four defensive players at Penn State went on to be drafted in the NFL in 2013 and 2014.

Butler served as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at South Carolina in 2011, helping the Gamecocks win a school-record 11 games in 2011 and earn their first top-10 finish. He worked with current Texans S Antonio Allen, who was the only SEC player to rank in the league's top 10 in tackles, interceptions, forced fumbles and fumble recoveries.

Butler spent four seasons (2007-10) as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at the University of Minnesota. Two linebackers received all-conference recognition in 2009. As special teams coordinator, Butler presided over one of the best units in the Big Ten during his tenure in Minneapolis. The Gophers averaged better than 22 yards-per-kickoff return in three of his four seasons and held their opponents to less than 20 yards-per-return in two seasons.

Butler served as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Harvard from 2003-06. While at Harvard, his special teams units annually ranked among the best in the Ivy League, scoring seven total special teams touchdowns during his tenure, including a 2004 season in which the Crimson registered five special teams scores. In 2004, Harvard won the Ivy League title with a 10-0 record and ranked 12th in the nation.

Butler was safeties coach and special teams coordinator at Southwest Texas State from 2001-02. He also spent two seasons (1999-2000) at Midwestern State, where he served as the team's defensive coordinator while mentoring the linebackers and safeties. The 2000 team posted a 7-4 record, the first winning ledger in school history.

In 1997 and 1998, he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Texas under John Mackovic and Mack Brown.

Born in Philadelphia, the 1995 graduate of Catholic University broke into the coaching ranks as the secondary coach after his senior year of playing. Butler took over as the defensive coordinator in 1996 and the team finished in the top 25 in Division III in total defense that season.

As an undergrad, Butler was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Catholic, where he was part of the biggest turnaround in Division III history. The team went 1-9 in his junior season but rebounded with an 8-2 mark in his senior campaign. He was also a two-year letterwinner in basketball and part of the school's 1992-93 NCAA Tournament team.

Butler and his wife, Carmen, have one son, Manny.

DOUG COLMAN

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 3RD NFL SEASON

Doug Colman is in his third season as assistant special teams coach with the Houston Texans. He also assists Mike Vrabel with the linebackers.

Last season, Colman helped LB Brian Peters finish tied for the NFL lead with a career-high 17 special teams tackles, despite playing only 12 games. Additionally, LS Jon Weeks made his first Pro Bowl appearance after handling snapping duties on every field goal, punt and extra point for the Texans, who won their first AFC South Division Championship since 2012. Veteran P Shane Lechler climbed up to second all-time in career punting yards (60,748), third in punts inside the 20-yard line (407) and fourth in punts (1,280) in NFL history.

In 2014, Colman worked with K Randy Bullock, who had the most successful year of his career, and Lechler, who posted the third-highest single-season yards per punt average in franchise history (46.3).

Colman came to the Texans after two seasons as the linebackers coach at Coastal Carolina as well as coordinating aspects of the special teams. His presence was immediately felt as Quinn Backus was named the two-time Big South Defensive Player of the Year (2012-13), leading the league in tackles both times and breaking his own single-season record with 144 tackles. Backus finished fourth in the FCS for tackles in 2012 and followed that up by finishing second in 2013. He also recorded four interceptions and scored two touchdowns in 2013, returning an interception and a blocked field goal for scores that season.

Colman's efforts at Coastal Carolina also extended to Mike McClure, who was twice named All-Big South Second Team and LaDarius Hawthorne, who earned the 2013 Big South Special Teams Player of the Year award after blocking three field goals, forcing two fumbles, recovering one fumble and registering five tackles on special teams in 2013.

Under Colman's tutelage at Tulane, LB Trent Mackey was a two-time All-Conference-USA selection, earning the Green Wave's only first-team selection to the all-league team in 2011. He logged 145 tackles (third in the FBS) in 12 games in 2011, including 14 tackles for loss, and ranked fourth nationally with 12.08 stops per game. In 2010, Mackey led the team in tackles, ranking 17th in the nation, with an average of 10.88 tackles per game, and was voted the Louisiana Football Newcomer of the Year.

Prior to Tulane, Colman spent two seasons at his alma mater, Nebraska, as the defensive quality control coach and was a part of back-to-back Big 12 North Championships in 2008 (co-champions) and 2009. The Cornhuskers also participated in the 2008 Gator Bowl and 2009 Holiday Bowl.

Before Nebraska, Colman was an assistant coach for linebackers and special teams for the Amsterdam Admirals in NFL Europe during the 2007 campaign.

From 2003-07, Colman was the head football coach and physical education teacher for Absegami High School in Galloway, N.J. During his time there, he led the team to a 40-14 overall record and three straight conference championships (2004-06), the school's only conference titles. He also led the school to four consecutive New Jersey state playoff appearances (2003-06) and the 2006 state championship in the New Jersey South Group IV, the school's only football state title. The team also finished as a 2005 state finalist.

Colman was recognized for his team's success by being named the 2004 and 2005 Cape Atlantic League Conference Coach of the Year, the 2004 National Football Foundation New Jersey Chapter Coach of the Year and the 2003 Press All-Area Coach of the Year. One of the highlights of his prep coaching career came in 2006 when he served as the head coach for the Adam Taliaferro New Jersey All-Star game.

Colman began his coaching career in the prep game in 2001 at his high school alma mater, Ocean City (N.J.) High School, where he was a freshman football coach. Following a one-year stint at Ocean City, he spent the 2002 campaign as the assistant football coach and physical education teacher at Oakcrest High School in Mays Landing, N.J.

Colman played linebacker for the University of Nebraska and its famed Blackshirt Defense from 1991-95. He was a part of five Big 8 Conference championships and back-to-back national titles in 1994 and 1995. Nebraska finished 25-0 during his final two seasons and went 23-0-1 in league play during his four-year career. In each of his four years, Nebraska played for the national championship, facing Miami (Fla.) in the 1992 and 1995 Orange Bowls, Florida State in the 1994 Orange Bowl and Florida in the 1996 Fiesta Bowl.

Following his collegiate career, Colman was selected in the sixth round (171st overall pick) of the 1996 NFL Draft by the New York Giants. He spent five seasons in the NFL (1996-2000), playing a total of 64 games for the Giants, Tennessee Titans (including Super Bowl XXXIV) and Cleveland Browns. While with the Titans in 1999, Colman was a part of the Music City Miracle during the end of a Wild Card Playoff game against the Buffalo Bills.

Colman starred at Ocean City High School, where he is a member of the Hall of Fame. A native of Ventnor, N.J., Colman received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Nebraska in 2001. Colman and his wife, Colleen, have five children: Logan Marie, Sarah, Matthew, Grace and Anna. Colman's father, Wayne, played nine seasons in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints and Philadelphia Eagles.

MIKE DEVLIN

OFFENSIVE LINE
2ND SEASON WITH TEXANS / 15TH NFL SEASON

Mike Devlin enters his second season with the Houston Texans in 2016, serving as the team's offensive line coach.

In 2015, the Texans started nine different offensive line combinations throughout the season and allowed 36.0 sacks, which was the sixth-lowest total in the AFC. From Weeks 2-6, Houston allowed only 1.0 sack in each of the five games, which was the second-longest streak of games with one-or-fewer sacks allowed in team history. The line blocked for four different starting quarterbacks, led by Brian Hoyer, who posted career highs in passing touchdowns (19), passer rating (91.4) and completion percentage (60.7). The offensive line also paved the way for RB Alfred Blue to set a career-high with three 100-yard rushing games.

Devlin came to Houston from the New York Jets, where he spent nine seasons (2006-14) coaching the offensive line and tight ends.

The Jets offensive line had a strong showing during the 2014 season, paving the way for a running attack that ranked first in the AFC and third in the NFL, averaging 142.5 yards per game on the ground. A key contributor to the line's success was veteran C Nick Mangold who was selected to his sixth Pro Bowl.

Devlin's offensive line integrated two new starters in the 2013 season. Despite the changes, the Jets finished the season sixth in the league in rushing, gaining 134.9 yards per game on the ground including four 100-yard rushing efforts. Mangold earned his fifth Pro Bowl selection while LT D'Brickashaw Ferguson became the first Jets player to begin his career with 125 consecutive starts.

In 2012, his final season as tight ends coach, Devlin helped TE Jeff Cumberland bounce back from a season-ending Achilles injury the previous year to achieve then-career highs with 29 receptions, 359 yards receiving and three touchdowns.

Under Devlin's direction, Jets TE Dustin Keller led the team in receptions for two consecutive seasons, catching 65 passes in 2011 and 55 passes in 2010. It marked the first time a tight end had led the Jets in receptions during a season since Mickey Shuler in 1985.

Devlin joined the Jets after two seasons as the offensive line coach at the University of Toledo (2004-05). In 2005, his line paved the way for the 11th-ranked offense in the country (459.2 yards/game) as T Nick Kaczur developed into a third-round draft pick (2005) of the New England Patriots.

Devlin began his coaching career as the offensive quality control coach with the Arizona Cardinals in 2000 before being promoted to assistant offensive line coach in 2001.

Selected in the fifth round of the 1993 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills, Devlin went on to play in 101 regular season games over seven years in the NFL, from 1993-95 with the Bills and from 1996-99 with the Cardinals. He appeared in Super Bowl XXVIII with Buffalo.

Devlin earned All-America honors at the University of Iowa and was a semifinalist for the Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman in 1992. He was named Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year in that same year, in addition to being tabbed Big Ten MVP by the Chicago Tribune.

Devlin and his wife, Julie, have started multiple charities, including The Devlin Football Camp, The John S. Devlin Golf Tournament and Devlin's Helping Hands. The Devlin Football Camp provides kids with an opportunity to work with NFL coaches and players at a low cost, while raising money and giving assistance to local youth programs, high school programs and various charitable organizations. The Devlin Golf Tournament and silent auction raises money for the Coach John S. Devlin Jr. Bloomsburg Football Scholarship Fund, which is given to an underprivileged high school player every year and named after Devlin's father.

The Devlins have four children: sons Zachary and Matthew and daughters Hallie and Carlie.

TIM KELLY

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL / ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 3RD NFL SEASON

Tim Kelly is in his third season as offensive quality control coach with the Houston Texans. He also assists Mike Devlin with the offensive line.

In 2015, Houston earned its first AFC South Division Championship since 2012 and became the first NFL team since 1950 to earn a trip to the postseason with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game.

In 2014, the Texans ranked fifth in the NFL in rushing yards per game (135.1) and eighth in average time of possession (30:53). QB Ryan Fitzpatrick started 12 games and posted single-season career highs in passer rating (95.3) and completion percentage (63.1).

Kelly came to Houston from Penn State, where he served as a graduate assistant under Head Coach Bill O'Brien, having held the same position at Ball State in 2011.

Before he went to Ball State, Kelly was the defensive coordinator, defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Minnesota State-Moorhead for the 2010 season.

Kelly spent the 2008-09 seasons at Illinois-Wesleyan, where he was the defensive line coach for the 2009 CCIW Championship team that ranked ninth among all defenses at the NCAA Division-III level. He also coached two first-team all-conference selections.

Kelly played defensive tackle at Eastern Illinois, starting all 48 games in his collegiate career and serving as the team's captain in 2007. He was named to the Capital One Academic All-District V Team in 2006 and 2007.

A native of Chicago Heights, Ill., Kelly starred at Marian Catholic High School where he is a member of the East Suburban Catholic Conference Hall of Fame. He received his bachelor's degree in sports administration from Eastern Illinois in 2008 and his master's degree in sports management from Illinois State in 2010.

Kelly and his wife, Katie, have one daughter, Norah.

WILL LAWING

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 3RD NFL SEASON

Will Lawing is in his third season as defensive quality control coach with the Houston Texans.

During his first two years in Houston (2014-15), the Texans ranked fourth in the NFL in points allowed per game (19.4), fifth in net yards allowed per game (329.2) and fifth in net passing yards allowed per game (226.8). Houston also ranked first in the NFL in third down defense (31.3%), third in opponent completion percentage (58.8) and tied for fifth in interceptions (34).

Last season, Houston finished third in net yards (310.2) and net passing yards (210.4) allowed per game, fifth in opponent completion percentage (59.0) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). The Texans also set franchise single-season records for sacks (45.0) and opponent third down percentage (28.5%) in 2015. That percentage led the league in 2015 and was the lowest mark by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7%).

Houston won its first AFC South Division Championship since 2012 and only allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and is tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six times). On the season, the Texans didn't allow the opposing team to score a touchdown in four of their games.

In 2014, the Texans led the NFL in takeaways with a franchise-record 34 and became just the third team in the last 20 years to lead the league in takeaways after finishing last the year before. They also led the NFL with 35 points scored against opposing offenses and set a franchise record with five defensive touchdowns.

Lawing came to Houston from Penn State, where he served as a graduate assistant under Head Coach Bill O'Brien for the 2013 season.

Prior to Penn State, Lawing spent four seasons with Juniata College as the program's offensive coordinator (2011-12), passing game coordinator (2010) and tight ends coach (2009). In addition to his coaching duties, Lawing was also Juniata's recruiting coordinator.

A 2008 graduate of the University of North Carolina with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science, Lawing was a four-year member of the UNC football team.

CHARLES LONDON

RUNNING BACKS
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 7TH NFL SEASON

Charles London is in his third season as running backs coach with the Houston Texans and seventh year overall coaching in the NFL.

Last season, Houston ranked fifth in the AFC in rushing yards per game (108.2). The Texans topped 100 rushing yards in six of the last seven games of the season, as their 135.1-yard rushing average from Weeks 11-17 ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL. RB Alfred Blue led the team with a career-high 698 rushing yards and eclipsed the 100-yard mark on the ground in three contests. Veteran RB Arian Foster started only four games before being placed on Injured Reserve on Oct. 27.

In 2014, the Texans ran the ball a league-high 51.9 percent of the time and posted an AFC-best eight individual 100-yard rushing performances. Houston also rushed for 100 yards or more in 13-of-16 regular season games during London's first season. The Texans' 135.1 yards rushing per game ranked fifth in the NFL and was the second-highest mark in franchise history. Foster, who earned his fourth Pro Bowl honor, rushed for 1,246 yards, scored 13 total touchdowns and eclipsed the 100-yard mark in seven of the 13 games he played in.

London also played a big role in the development of Blue. During his first season, the sixth-round pick out of LSU posted the highest single-game rushing total by a rookie in the NFL in 2014 and tied a franchise rookie record with 156 yards rushing on a team-record 36 carries against Cleveland in Week 11. Blue became the third rookie running back drafted in the sixth round or later in NFL history to rush for 150-plus yards on 35-plus carries.

Prior to the Texans, London spent two seasons (2012-13) at Penn State as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator for Head Coach Bill O'Brien. London was instrumental in the progression of RB Zach Zwinak, who rushed for 1,989 yards from 2012-13, good for the third-most rushing yards by a running back in the Big Ten in that time. Zwinak's 12 rushing touchdowns in 2013 tied for the fourth-most rushing scores in the conference.

In 2011, London served as offensive assistant and quality control coach for the Tennessee Titans. He helped lead the Titans to a three-win improvement from 6-10 to 9-7, narrowly missing the playoffs due to a tiebreaker. That season, the Titans passing offense improved 13 spots to 12th in the NFL (245.2 yards per game) from 25th (194.2 yards per game).

London spent the 2010 season as a pro scout for the Philadelphia Eagles, helping them gain a playoff berth. Before Philadelphia, he worked three years as an offensive assistant with the Chicago Bears (2007-09). His first year with the Bears was as a quality control coach on offense and his final two years were as offensive assistant/assistant wide receivers coach.

London also has three years of coaching experience at his alma mater, Duke (2004-06). He started as a graduate assistant in his first two years and was the running backs coach in his final year. During the summer of 2005, as part of the NFL's Minority Internship program, he did a coaching internship with the New England Patriots.

Prior to entering the coaching world, London gained experience as an events manager for Disney's Wide World of Sports from 1998-99, stadium assistant manager for the Cleveland Browns from 1999-2001 and director of stadium operations for Gillette Stadium from 2001-04.

As a player at Duke (1994-96), London saw action in 34 games at running back over three years for the Blue Devils and also lettered as a sprinter for the track team. Duke's 1994 team earned a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl. He also earned the football team's Trinity Teammate Award and Carmen Falcone Award for excellence in athletics and academics in 1996 and the College Football Hall of Fame Foundation Award in 1997. Additionally, he was a member of the ACC Honor Roll in 1996-97. London earned an undergraduate degree in political science from Duke in 1997 and a graduate degree in humanities in 2006.

ANTHONY MIDGET

ASSISTANT SECONDARY
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 3RD NFL SEASON

Anthony Midget is in his third season as assistant secondary coach with the Houston Texans.

During his first two seasons in Houston (2014-15), Midget helped the Texans rank third in the NFL in opponent completion percentage (58.8), fifth in net passing yards allowed per game (226.8), fourth in points allowed per game (19.4) and tied for fifth in interceptions (34). Houston also ranked first in the league in third down defense with a 31.3 conversion percentage during that span.

Last season, the Texans defense finished third in the NFL in net yards (310.2) and net passing yards (210.4) allowed per game, tied for third in passes defensed (90) and tied for seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). The Texans also allowed the fifth-lowest opponent completion percentage (59.0) in the league.

The Texans led the NFL in third down defense, as opponents converted only 28.5% (61-of-214) of their opportunities. That percentage is the lowest single-season mark in franchise history by 4.5% and the lowest opponent third down percentage by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7%).

Houston won its first AFC South Division Championship since 2012 and only allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and is tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six times). On the season, the Texans didn't allow the opposing team to score a touchdown in four of their games.

In 2014, the Texans secondary was involved in 22 of Houston's 34 takeaways and had seven players with either a forced fumble, fumble recovery or interception. The group accounted for nine forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, 16 interceptions and three interceptions returned for touchdowns. As a team, the Texans set a franchise record with 11 different players recording interceptions, four interception returns for touchdowns, and an NFL-best 483 yards on interception returns.

Prior to the Texans, Midget spent one season at Penn State where he held the role of safeties coach for Head Coach Bill O'Brien in 2013. In his one year, Penn State's pass defense efficiency ranked fifth in the Big Ten and the secondary joined Ohio State as the only two teams to have three players rank in the top 20 of passes defensed in the conference.

From 2008-12, Midget first served as secondary coach and special teams coordinator (2008-11) before becoming defensive coordinator (2012) at Georgia State. In his tenure, he worked with kick returner Albert Wilson, who led the Colonial Athletic Association with a 25.9 kickoff return average en route to being selected CAA Co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2012. Midget was also instrumental in the development of P Lain Vance, who was a third-team All-American in 2010.

Midget joined the collegiate coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at Virginia Tech, his alma mater, helping the Hokies win the 2007 Atlantic Coast Conference title. He began his coaching career at Lake Worth (Fla.) High School, where he served as an assistant coach for four seasons (2003-06).

Midget was a four-year letterman and a three-year starter at cornerback at Virginia Tech. As a senior in 1999, he earned third-team All-American honors and first-team All-Big East honors, helping the Hokies reach the BCS Championship game. He also was named to the Big East All-Academic team and the Athletic Director's Honor Roll. Midget was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the fifth round (134th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft.

Midget and his wife, Tresica, have two daughters, Anaiya and Kaylin.

PAT O'HARA

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
2ND SEASON WITH TEXANS / 2ND NFL SEASON

Pat O'Hara enters his second season with the Houston Texans in 2015, serving as an offensive assistant coach.

In 2015, Houston earned its first AFC South Division Championship since 2012 and became the first NFL team since 1950 to earn a trip to the postseason with four different starting quarterbacks winning at least one regular season game.

O'Hara's professional playing career spanned over 16 years playing quarterback in the NFL, the World League and the AFL. He spent the last 10 years coaching in the Arena Football League including stints as a head coach for the Tri-Cities Fever (AF2, 2009), Orlando Predators (2010-11) and New Orleans Voo-Doo (2012-14). Before joining the Texans, O'Hara served as the director of player personnel for the Jacksonville Sharks in the AFL. He began his AFL career as a quarterback for Orlando in 1995 and he helped his teams win three of the five ArenaBowls he played in.

While still a quarterback with the Predators in 1996, O'Hara began his coaching career as the quarterbacks coach at Point Loma High School in California. Two years later, he became the quarterbacks coach for New Smyrna Beach High School in Florida and was eventually named offensive coordinator at Olympia High School in 2001. O'Hara got his first AFL job as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Storm in 2005 and held the unique position of a player-coach. Eventually, O'Hara retired as a player in 2007 and landed his first head coaching job with the Los Angeles Avengers (AFL) in 2009.

O'Hara attended USC where he played quarterback for the Trojans under Head Coach Larry Smith. After Heisman Trophy candidate Rodney Peete left in 1989, O'Hara was expected to take over as USC's starting quarterback until a gruesome knee injury ended his junior season just 10 days before the first game.

O'Hara's arm was impressive enough that he was still drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 10th round of the 1991 NFL Draft. Following the 1991 season, O'Hara was allocated to the World League of American Football's Ohio Glory. He then spent the 1992 and 1993 seasons with the San Diego Chargers before heading to the Washington Redskins training camp in 1994.

In 1995, O'Hara signed with the Orlando Predators and began his AFL playing career. He played in Orlando for six seasons and helped lead the Predators to wins in ArenaBowls XII and XIV. He then joined the Toronto Phantoms in 2001 and the Tampa Bay Storm in 2003 where he led the Storm to a win in ArenaBowl XVII.

O'Hara has worked as a television football analyst for Bright House Sports Network covering Florida High School football. He has also served as the color analyst for the UCF IMG Radio Network covering UCF Football.

O'Hara has also done consulting work, coordinating and choreographing football action scenes in movies. Some of his credits include "The Longest Yard," "Invincible," "We Are Marshall" and "The Game Plan". He also has coached actors such as Adam Sandler, Mark Wahlberg and Dwayne Johnson to better help them portray their characters. In addition, O'Hara has appeared in several movies including The Waterboy, Any Given Sunday, and The Game Plan.

O'Hara attended Santa Monica High School, where during his junior and senior seasons he threw at least one touchdown pass a game. He was a two-time Los Angeles Times All-Westside selection and the "Westside Back of the Year" in 1984 and 1985. As a junior in 1984, O'Hara passed for nearly 2,000 yards and 23 touchdowns. During his senior season, he passed for nearly 2,000 yards and 21 touchdowns in 10 games which earned him "Bay League Player of the Year" honors and selection to the Long Beach Press-Telegram's "Best in the West" team.

O'Hara graduated from USC with a degree in public administration in 1991.

JOHN PERRY

TIGHT ENDS
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 3RD NFL SEASON

John Perry is in his third season as tight ends coach with the Houston Texans.

From 2014-15, Texans tight ends Ryan Griffin, C.J. Fiedorowicz and Garrett Graham combined for 73 receptions for 764 yards and seven touchdowns. The group also helped block for Houston to rank fifth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL with 121.6 rushing yards per game over the past two seasons. Griffin missed seven games due to injury in 2015 but scored a career-high two receiving touchdowns.

Before joining the Texans, Perry was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Delaware, where he mentored Trent Hurley, who led all Colonial Athletic Association quarterbacks in passing rating (155.2) and ranked among the league leaders with 2,207 passing yards and 22 touchdowns. Delaware's offense ranked second in the CAA in scoring offense (32.8 points per game), third in passing offense (240.0 yards per game), and fourth in passing efficiency offense (143.84).

Prior to Delaware, Perry served as head coach at NCAA Division II Merrimack for five seasons (2008-12) where he led the squad to a record of 29-21 and the 2009 Northeast-10 title. During his tenure, Merrimack produced six All-Americans and two Northeast-10 Conference Players of the Year.

Perry's up-tempo, high-scoring offense was one of the best in the league for all five of his seasons on campus, as Merrimack won its first-ever Northeast-10 Championship in 2009. The team ranked second in the nation in total offense in 2012 at 525.8 yards per game and also finished in the top 10 nationally in that category in 2009 (fourth), 2010 (ninth), and 2011 (seventh).

Perry also helped elevate the program to new heights, guiding former All-American LB Shawn Loiseau to the NFL, becoming the first Merrimack alum to sign an NFL contract with Houston in 2012.

Perry began his coaching career as running backs coach at Northeastern in 1993 and later served as receivers coach at Brown (1994-96). He also had stops as receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at New Hampshire (1997-98), offensive coordinator at Dartmouth (1999-2004), associate head coach and quarterbacks coach at Georgetown (2005), offensive coordinator at Hofstra (2006) and associate head coach and quarterbacks coach at New Hampshire (2007). He coached numerous All-Americans and NFL signees along the way, including QB Ricky Santos.

A 1992 graduate of New Hampshire, Perry enjoyed a standout career as a football and basketball player for the Wildcats. He was a four-year starter in football, served as team captain as a senior, and was a two-time All-Yankee Conference selection while setting several receiving records.

Perry and his wife, Jen, have three children, Caitlin, John, and Elizabeth.

SEAN RYAN

WIDE RECEIVERS
1ST SEASON WITH TEXANS / 10TH NFL SEASON

Sean Ryan enters his first season with the Houston Texans as wide receivers coach. He spent the previous nine years (2007-15) with the New York Giants, serving as an offensive quality control (2007-09), wide receivers (2010-11, 2014-15) and quarterbacks (2012-13) coach.

Under Ryan last season, Giants wide receivers combined for 211 receptions for 2,855 yards and 26 touchdowns. Odell Beckham Jr. was named to the Pro Bowl for the second straight year after tying a franchise single-season record with 13 receiving touchdowns. He finished with the second-most receptions (96) and receiving yards (1,450) in a season in team history. In addition, Rueben Randle set a single-season career-high with eight receiving touchdowns.

In 2014, Ryan was instrumental in the rapid development of Beckham, who became the first Giants player selected as the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year in the 58-year history of the award. In just 12 games, Beckham caught 91 passes for 1,305 yards and 12 touchdowns, all franchise rookie records. He was the first wide receiver in NFL history to reach 1,000 yards after missing the season's first three games and he sat out the first four with a hamstring injury. Beckham also set NFL records for most catches and yards in the first 12 games to start a career. His 91 receptions are tied with Denver's Eddie Royal (2008) for the second-highest total in NFL history for a rookie.

Randle made big strides under Ryan in 2014, as he caught at least one pass in every game and finished second on the team with career-high totals of 71 receptions for 938 yards. He also scored three touchdowns.

Ryan was the Giants' quarterbacks coach in 2012-13. In his first season working with Ryan, Eli Manning was selected to play in his third Pro Bowl after completing 321-of-536 passes for 3,948 yards, 26 touchdowns, 15 interceptions and a passer rating of 87.2. He threw a then-career-high five touchdown passes in the 2012 season-ending victory over Philadelphia.

The Giants' wide receivers were very productive in their first two seasons under Ryan (2010-11). In 2011, the unit helped the Giants set a franchise record with 4,734 net passing yards. Victor Cruz, who did not have a career reception entering the season, caught 82 passes for a franchise-record 1,536 yards and nine touchdowns. Hakeem Nicks caught 76 passes for a career-high 1,192 yards and seven touchdowns. Under Ryan, Cruz and Nicks became the first receivers in team history to have more than 1,000 yards in the same season.

The wide receivers played impressively in 2010, their first season with Ryan as their position coach. Nicks led the Giants with 79 receptions for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns, despite missing three games because of injury. Mario Manningham added 60 receptions for 944 yards and nine touchdowns as he and Nicks became the first pair of Giants with at least nine touchdown catches in a season since 1967.

Ryan joined the Giants' coaching staff in 2007 and served his first three seasons with the team as the offensive quality control coach.

In 2006, Ryan was the recruiting coordinator, running backs coach and head coach of the junior varsity at Harvard University.

Prior to his year at Harvard, Ryan was as an assistant coach at Columbia University for three seasons (2003-05). In 2003 and 2004, he was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. The following season, he coached the quarterbacks.

Before coaching at Columbia, Ryan spent two years (2001-02) as a graduate assistant at Boston College, where he worked primarily with the wide receivers. The Eagles won bowl games in each of those seasons, beating Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl and Toledo in the 2002 Motor City Bowl.

Ryan was the running backs coach at Colgate University in 2000, a graduate assistant at the University at Albany in 1998-99 and the quarterbacks coach at Siena for a season.

Ryan played defensive back and outside linebacker at Hamilton College, where he graduated in 1994 with a degree in American studies. He also earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Albany.

A native of Hudson Falls, N.Y., Ryan was a standout football, basketball and baseball player at Hudson Falls High School.

MIKE VRABEL

LINEBACKERS

Mike Vrabel is in his third season as linebackers coach with the Houston Texans.

In his first two seasons (2014-15), the Texans defense ranked fourth in the NFL in points allowed per game (19.4) and fifth in net yards (329.2) and net passing yards (226.8) allowed per game. Houston also ranked first in the NFL in third down defense (31.3%), third in opponent completion percentage (58.8) and tied for fifth in interceptions (34) since 2014.

Last season, the Texans defense finished third in the NFL in net yards (310.2) and net passing yards (210.4) allowed per game and tied for seventh in points allowed per game (19.6). Houston, which won its first AFC South Division Championship since 2012, also set the franchise single-season (45.0) and single-game (8.0) records for sacks in 2015. The linebackers combined for 22.5 of the team's sacks.

The Texans finished first in the league in opponent third down percentage (28.5), which was the lowest single-season mark in franchise history. It was also the lowest opponent third down percentage by any NFL team since the 2003 Tennessee Titans (27.7).

Houston allowed six points or less five times in 2015, which led the NFL and tied for the most such games in a season since the 1991 New Orleans Saints (six games). On the season, the Texans didn't allow the opposing team to score a touchdown in four of their games.

Veteran ILB Brian Cushing led the position group and topped 100 tackles in a season for the third time in his career. His 110 total tackles in 2015 were the third-highest mark of his career and his highest since posting 114 stops in 2011. OLB Whitney Mercilus enjoyed the best year of his career as he set personal highs in sacks (12.0), tackles (50), tackles for loss (14) and fumble recoveries (two). OLB John Simon also posted a career year with 49 tackles (36 solo), 11 quarterback hits, 5.0 sacks and three tackles for loss.

The Texans received major contributions from their young linebackers in 2015. Rookie ILB Benardrick McKinney appeared in 14 games, making 11 starts, and recorded 58 tackles (35 solo), seven tackles for loss, 1.0 sack and two quarterback hits. Second-year OLB Jadeveon Clowney notched career highs of 40 tackles (27 solo), 4.5 sacks, eight tackles for loss, eight quarterback hits, six passes defensed and one forced fumble in 13 games played (nine starts).

In 2014, the Texans saw their linebackers make significant improvements under Vrabel. Cushing led the way with 72 tackles, nine quarterback hits, a sack and a forced fumble in 14 games played. Additionally, in his third year in the league, Mercilus recorded then-career highs of 50 tackles and nine tackles for loss, while tying a career-best with two forced fumbles.

Under Vrabel, ILB Mike Mohamed put together the best year of his career, setting career highs with 59 tackles, an interception, six passes defensed, a quarterback hit and two tackles for loss.

Vrabel came to Houston from Ohio State, where he served as defensive line coach for the 2012-13 seasons after starting his coaching career as linebackers coach for the Buckeyes in 2011.

In 2012, Vrabel coached four Ohio State defensive linemen who were either drafted into the NFL or signed free agent contracts. Johnathan Hankins was a second-round draft pick of the New York Giants and current Texan John Simon was a fourth-round pick of the Baltimore Ravens after a senior season where he was named the Big Ten's Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Lineman of the Year.

In 2012, Vrabel was named the ESPN.com Big Ten Recruiter of the Year. His talents as a recruiter also earned him a national top-25 recruiter honor in 2013 from Rivals.com.

The Akron, Ohio, native embarked on what would become a distinguished NFL career with three teams following his Ohio State playing days. It was a professional career that saw him be a part of the New England Patriots' dynamic run of three Super Bowls in four years (2001, 2003, 2004). In 2007, he was named to the Pro Bowl and a month later was named All-Pro.

On top of these accomplishments, Vrabel's professional career included 14 seasons and a total of 206 games (140 starts) played with Pittsburgh (1997-2000), New England (2001-08) and Kansas City (2009-10). He registered career totals of 722 tackles (496 solo), 57.0 sacks, 42 passes defensed, 11 interceptions (one returned for a touchdown), 20 forced fumbles, nine fumble recoveries and 12 touchdowns receiving (as a tight end), including two in Super Bowls.

Selected in the third round (91st overall) of the 1997 NFL Draft by Pittsburgh, Vrabel spent four years with the Steelers, eight seasons with the Patriots and his last two years with Kansas City.

Vrabel, who graduated with a degree from Ohio State in exercise science, was a dominant performer for the Buckeyes, while earning back-to-back All-American honors and twice being named Big Ten Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year (1995 and 1996). He was the first to win the lineman award two times.

Vrabel attended Walsh Jesuit High School in Akron, Ohio. He and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of two sons, Tyler and Carter.

ANTHONY WEAVER

DEFENSIVE LINE
1ST SEASON WITH TEXANS / 5TH NFL SEASON

Anthony Weaver enters his first season as defensive line coach for the Houston Texans in 2016.

Weaver spent the previous two years (2014-15) in the same role with the Cleveland Browns where he helped develop multiple players. Weaver worked with Browns DE Desmond Bryant, who led the team in sacks with a career-high 6.0 in 2015 after finishing second on the team with 5.0 in 2014. Bryant had only recorded 5.0-or-more sacks in a season once before. Additionally, Weaver helped with the development of Browns rookie first-round pick DT Danny Shelton and undrafted rookie DT Jamie Meder.

In 2014, the Browns defensive line was plagued by injuries with starters Phil Taylor (11 games missed), Armonty Bryant (11 games missed) and John Hughes (nine games missed) missing significant action, which forced the team into 10 different starting lineup combinations. Despite being hindered by injuries, Weaver's unit contributed to a defense that led the league in opposing quarterback passer rating (74.1) and finished tied for fourth in the NFL in takeaways (29).

In 2013, Weaver served as the defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills, where his defensive linemen accounted for 47.0 of the Bills' 57.0 sacks, a franchise record and the second-most in the NFL in 2013. Buffalo was the only team to have three players record double-digit sacks, including DE Mario Williams leading the team and finishing fourth in the NFL with 13.0. DT Kyle Williams registered a career-high 10.5 sacks and DE Jerry Hughes added 10.0. DT Marcell Dareus posted a career-best 7.5 sacks and was selected to the Pro Bowl along with M.Williams and K.Williams.

Prior to Buffalo, Weaver spent the 2012 season as the assistant defensive line coach with the New York Jets. He also spent a season (2011) as the linebackers coach at North Texas after beginning his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at Florida in 2010.

Before his coaching career, Weaver played seven seasons (2002-08) as a defensive end in the NFL, including four with the Baltimore Ravens (2002-05) and three with the Texans at the end of his career (2006-08). After being drafted in the second round by the Ravens in 2002, Weaver appeared in 103 career regular season games (98 starts) and recorded 260 tackles, 15.5 sacks, three interceptions, five forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries.

A native of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., Weaver was a four-year starter at Notre Dame and earned All-American honors as a standout college player.

Weaver and his wife, Kristin, have a son, Anthony Weaver Jr.

CRAIG FITZGERALD

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING
3RD SEASON WITH TEXANS / 3RD NFL SEASON

Craig Fitzgerald is in his third season as head strength and conditioning coach with the Houston Texans.

In 2015, Houston earned its first AFC South Division Championship since 2012. In Fitzgerald's first year in 2014, the Texans led the NFL with a seven-win improvement from 2013 and became the sixth team since 1978 to post a winning season following a year in which it won two-or-less games.

Fitzgerald served as Penn State's director of strength and conditioning from 2012-13 after spending the previous three seasons (2009-11) overseeing the University of South Carolina strength & conditioning program for football.

Prior to his time at South Carolina, Fitzgerald held the title of director of strength and conditioning at Harvard, where the football team won back-to-back Ivy League titles over his final two years. While at Harvard, he oversaw the training of all 41 NCAA teams, the largest number in the country.

From 2000-05, Fitzgerald served as the assistant director of strength and conditioning at his alma mater, the University of Maryland, where he directed the training for men's basketball, men's lacrosse, women's volleyball, and wrestling, while assisting with the training for football.

He began his professional career at The Catholic University of America as its first director of strength and conditioning from 1997-99. He then logged a six-month stint as a graduate assistant at Arizona State University before returning to his alma mater.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Fitzgerald holds a double degree in political science and history from Maryland, graduating in 1997. He was a three-time letterwinner (1994-96) for the Terrapin football team.

Fitzgerald is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through both the National Strength & Conditioning Association (NSCA) and the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa).

In May 2010, Fitzgerald earned the certification of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the CSCCa, the highest honor given in the strength and conditioning coaching profession.

Fitzgerald and his wife, Mary, have three sons, Mac, Joe and Luke.

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING
2ND SEASON WITH TEXANS / 2ND NFL SEASON

Brian Bell enters his second season as assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Houston Texans.

Last season, the Texans earned their first AFC South Division Championship since 2012.

Bell worked on Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Craig Fitzgerald's staff at Penn State from 2012-13. Prior to accepting his position with the Texans, Bell was co-owner of the Athletic Factory, a sports performance center in Bowie, Md. From 2011-12, Bell served as the head football strength and conditioning coach at his high school alma mater, DeMatha Catholic, in Hyattsville, Md.

Bell was a tight end and fullback at Kent State from 2002-06. In 2007, Bell signed with the Washington Redskins as an undrafted free agent and played on the team's practice squad.

Bell and his wife Crystal have one daughter, Logan.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

BRIAN GAINE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Brian Gaine enters his third season with the Houston Texans and second as director of player personnel. Gaine, who is in his 18th season in the NFL, provides a supervisory and leadership role to both the pro and college scouting departments and the Texans player evaluation process, while directing the team's pro personnel operation.

He served as the club's director of pro personnel in 2014, where he supervised all pro player evaluation, the advance scouting process, free agency and the monitoring of player transactional movement in all professional leagues.

From 2008-13, Gaine worked in various leadership roles in the player personnel department for the Miami Dolphins. From June 2012 to January 2014, he served as the assistant general manager, working directly with team management overseeing player personnel operations and the player evaluation process at both the collegiate and professional levels.

From April 2011 to June 2012, he functioned as the Dolphins' director of player personnel, providing supervision of both the pro and college scouting departments. Gaine began his career with the Dolphins as the assistant director of player personnel in January 2008, and held that position until March 2011. In that role, Gaine was responsible for directing the pro scouting operation, including player evaluations on all levels of professional football, advance scouting, free agency and tracking player movement, while also participating in the evaluation process of collegiate prospects in preparation for the NFL Draft.

Prior to his arrival in Miami, Gaine spent the previous three seasons as the Dallas Cowboys' assistant director of pro scouting (2005-07), where he worked with former Dolphins Executive Vice President and Hall of Famer Bill Parcells (2005-06). Gaine contributed to the Cowboys' evaluation process by managing the pro scouting department and evaluating players and rosters from the NFL and all levels of pro football. His additional responsibilities included advance scouting, free agency preparation, tracking pro player transactions and directing the development of the Cowboys pro scouting database.

Gaine went to Dallas after spending six years (1999-2004) in the New York Jets' scouting department. He served as the assistant director of pro scouting in 2004 and was a pro scout from 2001-03. In 2000, Gaine was the Jets' manager of pro player development/NFC, and he began his personnel career as a scouting assistant in the Jets' college scouting department in 1999.

Prior to joining the Jets in a front office capacity, Gaine served as a member of the team's practice squad in 1996, followed by a season with the New York Giants practice squad in 1997. He then signed and spent the 1998 offseason with the Kansas City Chiefs, but was waived prior to the start of training camp.

Gaine attended the University of Maine from 1991-95 where he played tight end. He served as the Black Bears' captain his senior season and earned his degree in public administration. Gaine grew up in Pearl River, N.Y., and attended Don Bosco Prep High School in Ramsey, N.J. He and his wife, Tricia, have a daughter, Kelsey, and sons, Ryan, Connor and Liam.

LARRY WRIGHT JR.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Larry Wright Jr. enters his seventh season with the Houston Texans and third as assistant director of pro personnel. He is responsible for evaluating players on the Texans roster, other NFL rosters and street free agents as well as players in the Arena Football League and Canadian Football League. He also works on advance scouting of Texans opponents.

Wright was first hired by the Texans in May 2010. From 2007-09, Wright was assistant director of pro personnel with the Jacksonville Jaguars after serving as a pro scout with the team from 2004-07. He began his NFL career as a scouting assistant with Jacksonville in 2003. Wright spent 2009 coaching running backs at West Monroe (La.) High School.

Wright was the head coach at Ringgold (La.) High School from 2001-02, and was a graduate assistant at Grambling State University in 2000, where he coached running backs while earning his master's degree in sports administration. In the summer of 2000, he was a scouting intern with the Baltimore Ravens and a volunteer strength and conditioning coach for the Grambling basketball team.

Wright earned a degree in sociology at Louisiana Tech, where he was a three-year letterman and team captain in his senior season. He and his wife, Vincincia, have two daughters and one son, Victoria, Lauryn, and Larry III.

JON CARR

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Jon Carr is in his 10th season with the Houston Texans and second as the director of college scouting. He spent eight years as a college scout and three as a national scout before taking over as director in 2015. Prior to joining the Texans, Carr coached wide receivers at the University of Toledo from 2005-06 and helped the Rockets win the 2005 GMAC Bowl.

Before joining Toledo's staff, Carr was offensive coordinator at Eastern Illinois from 2003-04. He began his collegiate coaching career at Tennessee State in 1997, working with tight ends, wide receivers and quarterbacks and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000. In 2001, Carr's offense ranked third in I-AA (NCAA FCS) passing (302 yards per game), sixth in total offense (465 yards per game) and 14th in scoring (35.4 points per game). He also participated in the 2006 NCAA Expert Coach's Academy in Miami and the NFL Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business in 2012.

During the summer of 2002, Carr was a member of the Oakland Raiders' preseason coaching staff as part of the NFL's Minority Internship Program. He has also worked with the National Football League Properties as the program coordinator for Chicago and Detroit summer youth inner-city football camps.

Carr was a quarterback at Southeast Missouri State from 1987-89 before he transferred to Purdue, where he earned a degree in law and society in 1991.

Carr has one son, Corbyn, and he and his wife, Shenikwa, are parents of two girls, Kennedy and Kayla.

ROB KISIEL

NATIONAL SCOUT

Rob Kisiel re-joined the Houston Texans in 2012 as a college scout after spending five years as the director of operations for BLESTO. He previously worked in the Texans personnel department for seven years as a scouting administrator (2000-01), college scout (2002-03) and pro scout (2004-07).

Kisiel was tabbed as BLESTO's director of operations in 2007, replacing legendary scout Jack Butler and helping lead the scouting service's move to Jacksonville, Fla. from Pittsburgh, Pa.

Kisiel first came to the Texans after serving as the draft room coordinator for the Washington Redskins from August 1999 through April 2000. He got his start in the NFL as a training camp intern from 1995-97 with the Redskins before serving as a scouting intern with the team from July 1998 until June 1999. In addition, Kisiel interned for the World League's London Monarchs during the 1997 season and was a labor relations intern at the NFL Management Council in 1999.

Kisiel grew up in Clearwater, Fla. He earned his bachelor's degree in business communications from Florida State, where he served as a student assistant for Head Coach Bobby Bowden in the football office for four years.

MIKE MARTIN

NATIONAL SCOUT

Mike Martin is in his 10th season with the Houston Texans. He was hired by the Texans in the spring of 2007 as a college scout after spending the previous four seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers personnel department.

Martin joined the Buccaneers as a pro personnel assistant in 2003 before becoming a pro scout in 2004. He spent his last two seasons in Tampa Bay as the southeast region and national combine scout. Martin started his NFL career as an intern with the Tennessee Titans in 2002.

Martin was a four-year letterman at Vanderbilt University (1999-2002), playing defensive back and on special teams. He was also a finalist for the 2003 Male SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Martin graduated cum laude from Vanderbilt in 2002 with a bachelor's degree of science in human and organizational developmental studies. He also earned his master's degree in organizational leadership in 2003.

He and wife, Cari, reside in Houston with their son, Maddon, and daughter, Malone.

TOLU LASAKI

PRO SCOUT

Tolu Lasaki enters his second season with the Houston Texans as a pro scout.

Lasaki is responsible for tracking and evaluating players around the NFL and other professional leagues. He also does advance scouting of Texans opponents, assists with the team's free agent workouts, and does college cross-evaluations for the NFL Draft.

Before joining the Texans, Lasaki worked with the Baltimore Ravens from 2009-15 as a player personnel assistant. He worked in both pro and college scouting, and was a part of the staff that won Super Bowl XLVII.

From 2005-08, Lasaki worked as a graduate assistant coach at Southern Methodist University. He earned his Master of Business Administration from SMU in 2006.

Prior to SMU, Lasaki spent two seasons as the cornerbacks coach for the Colorado School of Mines (2002-04), where he also played cornerback and graduated with a degree in engineering. As a four-year letterman at CSM, Lasaki earned all-conference honors and was the team's Defensive Player of the Year in 2001.

Born just outside of Denver, Lasaki now lives in Houston.

CHRIS BLANCO

PLAYER PERSONNEL SCOUT

Chris Blanco enters his fifth season with the Houston Texans and third as a player personnel scout. Blanco had worked as the interim pro scout from February to May 2014 after serving as the pro personnel intern since June 2012. He is responsible for evaluating players on NFL rosters, free agents and collegiate prospects across the country.

Blanco was a two-year starter as a cornerback at Dartmouth College from 2003-07 where he earned his degree in sociology. In addition to playing football for the Big Green, Blanco was also a member of the Dartmouth boxing team.

Blanco is also a graduate of the University of Iowa College of Law, where he was the co-founder and co-president of the Sports Law Society and served as a recruiting intern for the Hawkeyes football team.

Blanco, a native of La Mirada, Calif., resides in Houston.

RYAN CAVANAUGH

COLLEGE SCOUT

Ryan Cavanaugh was hired by the Houston Texans in the spring of 2009 as an area scout and covers the Northeast and Midwest for Houston.

Cavanaugh spent eight seasons with the Indianapolis Colts' scouting department, including six as an area scout. He joined the Colts organization in January 2001 after spending the 2000 minicamp and training camp in the club's operations department. He graduated from Appalachian State in December 2000 with a bachelor's degree in commercial recreation management.

Cavanaugh was born in Raleigh, N.C. He is married to the former Melissa Anne Searls of Greensboro, N.C., where they reside with their daughters, Mallory Anne and Samantha Lee.

MOZIQUE McCURTIS

COLLEGE SCOUT

Mozique McCurtis is in his first season as a college scout for the Houston Texans, covering the Southwest region and cross-checking the West Coast. He worked for the Texans as a player personnel scout from 2012-14 after serving as a pro scouting assistant for the Texans from 2010-11. This will be McCurtis' seventh season with the team.

Prior to joining the Texans in 2010, McCurtis was a pro scouting assistant for the Seattle Seahawks.

McCurtis was a three-year letterman as a defensive back at the University of Southern California, where he helped the team win three conference titles and two Rose Bowl titles while playing for current Seattle Seahawks Head Coach Pete Carroll. He graduated from USC in 2008 with a degree in history.

McCurtis, a San Diego native, resides in Austin, Texas.

FRANTZY JOURDAIN

COLLEGE SCOUT

Frantzy Jourdain joins the Houston Texans in 2016 as a college scout. This will be his 14th season in the NFL.

Jourdain spent the last 13 years with the Patriots personnel department with 11 years as an area scout. He was originally hired by New England as a player personnel assistant in 2003.

Jourdain spent the 2002 season as the secondary coach and co-special teams coordinator at Duquesne University, a season during which the Dukes led Division I-AA in interceptions, scoring defense and fewest total yards allowed per game.

Jourdain attended the University of Rhode Island (1993-97), where he was a three-year starter for the Rams at running back and strong safety. He also attended North Carolina Central University, where he coached running backs and worked on a master's degree in criminology from 1998-2000.

NATHAN TROTT

COLLEGE SCOUT

Nathan Trott is in his 10th year with the Houston Texans and eighth as a college scout covering the West Coast region. Trott previously served as the pro scouting intern for the Texans during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

Trott grew up around the game with his father, Bob Trott, being a long-time coach in both the NFL and college ranks. Nathan served as an intern with the Cleveland Browns during the summers of 2005 and 2006, assisting in youth development, the equipment room and coaching.

Trott played football at Midway High School in Waco, Texas and earned second-team all-district honors. He was also named to the Central Texas Top 25 list and earned Special Teams MVP as a senior. Trott went on to play cornerback for Elon University from 2003-07, where he earned his degree in sports management.

Orginally from Fayetteville, Ark. when his father was the defensive coordinator of the Razorbacks, Trott resides in Phoenix.

SETH TURNER

COLLEGE SCOUT

Seth Turner joined the Houston Texans as a college scout in July 2015. This will be his 17th season in the NFL and 15th as a college scout.

Turner served as a scout for the New York Jets for one season before joining the Texans, where he was responsible for the Midwest area of the country.

Prior to his time in New York, Turner spent 14 seasons with the Buccaneers, where he was also responsible for scouting the Midwest region after spending four seasons as Tampa Bay's national combine scout. During his time with the Buccaneers, Turner was a part of five playoff appearances, three division titles and one Super Bowl championship.

Turner joined the Buccaneers in July of 2000 as an intern in the college and pro scouting department. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Turner was an intern for the NFL's player personnel department, as well as a summer intern for the Buffalo Bills' player personnel staff in 1999.

Turner graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education from Baker University in Kansas in 1997 and then earned a master's degree in sports management in 1999 from Indiana State. He was a four-year letterman at linebacker and defensive end at Baker.

Turner, a native of Lansing, Kan., lives in Columbia, Mo., with his wife, Ariana, and their three children: sons, Graham and Heath, and daughter, Belén.

MATT JANSEN

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Matt Jansen enters his second season as the college scouting coordinator for the Houston Texans.

Jansen works with Director of College Scouting Jon Carr and Director of Player Personnel Brian Gaine on the day-to-day operations of the college scouting department, which includes preparing for College All-Star Games, the NFL Combine and the NFL Draft. Jansen also evaluates college players, visits schools to see prospects, and attends pro days across the country. He organizes the Texans' local workout with top college prospects from the Houston area and schedules the team's college player visits during the month of April.

From 2013 to 2014, Jansen served as a player personnel assistant with the Baltimore Ravens. In Baltimore, he had responsibilities in both pro personnel and college scouting. As a player personnel assistant, he worked on scouting advances of upcoming opponents and evaluated street free agents. He also scouted pro teams, evaluated players on other rosters, and kept track of any player movement throughout the league.

While with the Ravens, Jansen also visited schools to evaluate college prospects, organized the local area workout for top college players, and attended numerous pro days.

Jansen started with the Texans as a college scouting intern in 2011 under current New York Jets General Manager and former Texans College Scouting Director Mike Maccagnan. Jansen was in Houston for two division championship years (2011, 2012) doing various projects in both college scouting and pro personnel, along with weekly special teams evaluations and game recaps of the Texans roster. Additionally, Jansen maintained quality control of the Texans scouting database, and made point of attack tapes on college prospects for review in draft meetings.

Jansen is a 2011 graduate of Texas Tech University with a degree in exercise and sports sciences. Jansen did a Football Operations training camp internship with the Texans in the summer of 2008. While at Texas Tech, he also spent five seasons as a student-coach, working with the Red Raiders defensive staff. In those five years, Texas Tech compiled a 45-20 record, including four bowl game victories, a share of the 2008 Big 12 South Division Championship, and three victories over top 10 teams.

Jansen is from Cypress, Texas, graduating from Langham Creek High School in 2006. He currently lives in Houston.

GEOFF KAPLAN

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE / HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Geoff Kaplan is in his eighth season as the Houston Texans director of sports medicine/head athletic trainer after spending the previous 14 seasons with the Tennessee Titans/Houston Oilers as an assistant athletic trainer. The 2016 season marks Kaplan's 24th in the NFL.

Kaplan and his staff were recognized by the Pro Football Athletic Trainers Society as the 2013 Athletic Training Staff of the Year, an annual award voted on by all NFL athletic trainers. It was the second time Kaplan has won the award, first doing so following the 2000 season as a member of the Tennessee Titans training staff.

Kaplan joined the Houston Oilers full-time in 1995 after serving as a season-long intern in 1994. Prior to joining the Oilers, Kaplan was a season-long intern with the Green Bay Packers in 1993.

A native of Parsippany, N.J., Kaplan earned his degree in physical therapy and a certificate in athletic training from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He continued his education by becoming a certified strength and conditioning specialist in 1997 and completed his master's degree from Tennessee State University in the summer of 2003.

In 2005, Kaplan was certified as a clinical specialist in sports physical therapy by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists. Kaplan frequently lectures on a variety of sports medicine topics, including the rehabilitation of athletic injuries, to local and national organizations, hospitals and universities.

Kaplan has continued to advance his education, becoming certified in Graston soft tissue mobilization (2009) and Functional Dry Needling (2013).

Geoff and his wife, Shelly, have two sons, Everett and Sawyer. They reside in Missouri City, Texas.

ROLAND RAMIREZ

REHABILITATION COORDINATOR / ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Roland Ramirez is in his ninth season as the rehabilitation coordinator/assistant athletic trainer for the Houston Texans. Before joining the Texans, he held the same position with the Atlanta Falcons during the 2007 season, and served as a contract athletic trainer for the Tennessee Titans during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. Ramirez also served as an assistant athletic trainer for the Nashville Kats Arena Football team (AFL) during the 2006 season.

Last season, Ramirez won the 2016 AFC Tim Davey Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year Award, which is presented annually at the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society meeting at the NFL Combine in Indianapolis. The recipient is nominated by the membership and selected by a committee that includes past recipients. This award is emblematic of the commitment, dedication and high level of integrity that Tim Davey, an employee of the New York Jets and the NFL for 33 years (1969-2002), brought to the profession of athletic training and is representative of his level of service which he dedicated to his surrounding community.

In 2013, Ramirez and the Texans sports medicine staff were recognized by the Pro Football Athletic Trainers Society as the Athletic Training Staff of the Year, an annual award voted on by all NFL athletic trainers.

Prior to entering the ranks of the NFL, Ramirez worked as a physical therapist in an orthopedic and sports medicine clinic while completing his graduate work in athletic training. He earned a dual master's degree in physical therapy and athletic training from the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in 2004 and 2005, respectively. Ramirez completed his undergraduate work at Texas Tech, where he played football from 1998-99.

As a graduate student, Ramirez served as an athletic trainer for the baseball teams at Wayland Baptist University and Lubbock Christian University. He also worked with the Texas Tech football team during the 2004 season, and served as a strength and conditioning coaching intern prior to the 2004 season.

Ramirez is board certified as a clinical specialist in sports physical therapy by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists. He also holds a certification as a strength and conditioning specialist and is a member of the NATA, APTA, NSCA, and PFATS.

Ramirez and his wife, Misty, live in Missouri City, Texas with their two children, Kade and Tessa.

TRAVIS TURNER

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Travis Turner is in his second season as assistant athletic trainer for the Houston Texans after serving as an intern for the previous two years (2013-14).

Turner assists Director of Sports Medicine/Head Athletic Trainer Geoff Kaplan with all athletic training operations, including rehab, assessment, taping and treatment of athletic injuries. Turner also supervises the staff's numerous interns, manages inventory and orders new supplies.

In 2013, Turner and the Texans sports medicine staff were recognized by the Pro Football Athletic Trainers Society as the Athletic Training Staff of the Year, an annual award voted on by all NFL athletic trainers.

Before joining the Texans in 2013, Turner was an intern with the St. Louis Rams during the 2012 season and a graduate assistant at West Virginia University from 2010-12. In 2012, he was named Most Outstanding Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer for his work with the Mountaineers. He started as a graduate assistant at HealthWorks Rehab and Fitness from 2010-12.

Turner earned a degree in athletic training as a student at Texas Lutheran University (2006-10). In 2015, he was recognized as a distinguished young alumni by TLU. He later earned a master's degree in athletic training from WVU.

Turner, a native of La Vernia, Texas, lives in Houston and is the son of Frank and Nancy Turner. He has two brothers, Dustin and Chance.

JEREMY BAXTER

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeremy Baxter joins the Houston Texans in 2016 as an assistant athletic trainer, where he works with Director of Sports Medicine/Head Athletic Trainer Geoff Kaplan.

Before joining the Texans, Baxter worked as a physical therapist and athletic trainer at Northwestern University (2012-16). He also worked as an assistant instructor for Kinetacore Physical Therapy Education (2012-16) and a physical therapist at OrthoSport Physical Therapy (2010-12). He started as a student athletic trainer at the University of Oklahoma (2002-05).

In 2012, Baxter was certified as a clinical specialist in sports physical therapy by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists. He is also a certified athletic trainer by the National Athletic Trainer's Association and a certified CPR/AED specialist by the American Heart Association.

Baxter earned his master's degree in athletic training from the Texas Tech Health Sciences Center in 2010. He graduated from the University of Oklahoma with a bachelor's degree in health studies (2006) and then a master's degree in physical therapy (2008) from the OU Health Sciences Center.

Orginally from Norman, Okla., Baxter now lives in Houston.

ERIK KOREM

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS SCIENCE

Erik Korem joins the Houston Texans in 2016 as the director of sports science. His role is designed to further advance the team's player development and performance model.

Before joining the Texans, Korem served as the high performance coach at the University of Kentucky (2013-16), where he oversaw the program's player development model. Korem also worked as director of sports science and football operations at Florida State University (2010-12) and as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Mississippi State (2007-09).

Korem started as head strength and conditioning coach at Fort Valley State in 2006 before spending two years at the University of the Pacific, where he served as the director of athletic performance (2006-07).

Korem played college football at Texas A&M, where he earned his bachelor's degree in applied exercise physiology. He also earned a master's degree in exercise science at the University of Arkansas and served as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant from 2004 to 2006.

Currently, Korem is working on his PhD in biomechanics and exercise science, where he is researching how sleep is associated with the performance of football players. His expected graduation date is in the spring of 2017.

Korem has also served on the Nike Performance Council since 2014 and has been a Track and Field Coach/Consultant for numerous International Champions in the sprint events. He was the strength and conditioning coach and sports scientist for 11 years for Veronica Campbell-Brown, who was a two-time Olympic gold medalist in the 200m. Korem was also a featured speaker at the Sloan MIT Sports Analytics Conference in 2015.

Originally from Dallas, Korem and his wife, Hayle, now live in Houston with their two sons, Cooper and Connor.

STEVE SMITH

SPORTS PERFORMANCE COORDINATOR / NUTRITIONIST

Steve Smith is in his third season with the Houston Texans, where he serves as the sports performance coordinator and team nutritionist. In his role, Smith assists Director of Sports Science Erik Korem in performance monitoring and intervention while also managing the nutrition needs for the team.

Smith previously worked as a performance dietitian for the IMG Performance Institute in Bradenton, Fla. and served as the team chef and dietitian for the Oklahoma City Thunder of the NBA. Smith has also spent time as a performance dietitian for the Army's 5th Special Forces Group.

Smith is a registered dietitian nutritionist licensed in the state of Texas and a certified specialist in sports dietetics. He graduated from Johnson & Wales University with a Bachelor of Science in culinary arts and played Division I soccer at Appalachian State University.

Originally from Plano, Texas, Smith now lives in Katy with his wife, daughter and two dogs.

TIM BROG

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

Tim Brog is in his second season as the director of video operations for the Houston Texans after serving as the assistant director of video operations for the previous four years.

He began his tenure as an intern with the Texans in July 2008. Brog was then hired as a video operations assistant in June 2009 before becoming assistant director in August 2011. The 2016 season will mark Brog's ninth year with the team.

Prior to joining the Texans, Brog was the video coordinator for the Grand Rapids Rampage of the Arena Football League in his home state of Michigan during the 2008 season.

Brog is a graduate of Grand Valley State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in broadcasting in 2008. While a student, Brog worked for the sports department at WOOD-TV 8 in Grand Rapids, Mich., filming high school and college athletic events.

Brog is from Middleville, Mich., and graduated from Thornapple Kellogg High School. He is married to Bianca Brog and resides in Houston.

DUSTIN KADRI

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

Dustin Kadri is in his second season as assistant director of video operations for the Houston Texans. Kadri is primarily responsible for importing practice and game film into the team's video system.

Prior to joining the Texans, Kadri was a support manager and developer for DVSport. From 2011-13, Kadri was the director of video operations for the University of Southern Mississippi football team.

Kadri spent one year as a video intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers (2009) and one year with the Arizona Cardinals (2010). With both teams, he was responsible for importing practice film and managed the still-shot machine on game days.

Kadri graduated from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio with a bachelor's degree in management and organizations. Originally from Crooksville, Ohio, he currently resides in Houston.

TY LYNCH

VIDEO OPERATIONS ASSISTANT

Ty Lynch is in his second season as video operations assistant with the Houston Texans. He assists coaches, players and staff in all aspects of video operations, including filming, editing, and updating equipment. Lynch also works closely with college scouts during the NFL Draft to help with their video needs.

Lynch served as a video operations intern with the Texans from 2012-15. He also worked as a football operations training camp intern in July 2012.

Lynch attended Concord University on a football scholarship and earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with an emphasis in marketing. He was a three-year starter for the Concord football team and served as team captain during his last season.

Lynch was born in Woodbridge, Va., where he was a three-year starter and captain for the Hylton High School football team. Lynch also won a District Championship in wrestling his senior year. He is currently engaged to Sydney Smith.

MIKE PARSON

DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT SERVICES

Mike Parson is in his second season as director of equipment services for the Houston Texans. He handles all equipment needs for the organization and team.

Parson joined the Texans equipment staff in 2008 after several internships with the New Orleans Saints and five years of experience at the collegiate level. He was promoted to director after serving seven years as an equipment assistant in Houston.

Parson worked minicamps and training camps for the Saints in 2001-02 and worked the full season with the team in 2005. That year, the staff overcame extraordinary challenges in the forced evacuation from New Orleans due to Hurricane Katrina. After departing New Orleans, the club's base of operations moved three times, including a last stop at a high school baseball stadium in San Antonio. The staff was awarded the Whitey Zimmerman Memorial Award, given annually to the NFL equipment staff that exceeds the usual demands of the position with excellent service.

Parson was the equipment manager for four years at the University of New Orleans, where he oversaw the equipment operations for the entire athletic department. He was also equipment manager for Benedict College during the 2003 season.

Parson, a 2003 graduate of Mississippi State University with a bachelor's degree in physical education, was born in Vicksburg, Miss., and resides in Houston.

RYAN GOWENS

EQUIPMENT SERVICES COORDINATOR

Ryan Gowens is in his second season as equipment services coordinator with the Houston Texans. This will be his ninth year in the NFL.

Gowens works with Director of Equipment Services Mike Parson to fit and order equipment for all Texans coaches and players. He also helps manage team equipment during practices and road games.

Before joining the Texans, Gowens worked seven years as an assistant equipment manager with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2005-06 & 2010-15). In 2007, he served as head equipment manager at Murray State.

Gowens was an assistant football equipment manager and the head baseball equipment manager at Texas A&M from 2008-10. He obtained a degree in business management and served as a student manager in College Station from 1999-2005.

Originally from Austin, Texas, Gowens lives in Sugar Land, Texas with his wife, Tiffany, who was a three-time All-American swimmer at Texas A&M. They have been married over 10 years and have a two-year-old daughter, Quinn.

KYLE KAMAU

EQUIPMENT SERVICES ASSISTANT

Kyle Kamau is in his second season as equipment services assistant with the Houston Texans. He is in charge of fitting and maintaining the players' helmets and shoulder pads as well as facilitating team practices by setting up drills and spotting balls.

Kamau also served as an equipment staff intern for the Texans in 2012. From 2013-14, Kamau was an assistant equipment manager for the Philadelphia Eagles for two seasons.

Kamau graduated from the University of Hawai'i at Manoa where he studied sociology. As a student at Hawai'i, he served as the football team's equipment manager.

Originally from El Cajon, Calif., Kamau and his wife, Nicki, currently live in Pearland, Texas. He has one brother, Brad, and his parents are Keoki and Barbara. Keoki was an athletic trainer in the NFL for 18 years with the Washington Redskins and San Diego Chargers.

EMMETT BAYLOR III

DIRECTOR OF SECURITY

Emmett Baylor III is in his fifth season as director of security for the Houston Texans. Baylor is responsible for directing and overseeing all security matters throughout the organization with an emphasis on football operations front office staff, players and personnel.

Baylor joined the Texans in 2012 after serving 10 years with the Federal Air Marshal Service where he was assigned to the Detroit Field Office, serving as a Federal Air Marshal, Acting Supervisory Federal Air Marshal, and back-up Supervisor. Baylor was promoted to Supervisory Federal Air Marshal in October 2004 and held the positions of Squad Supervisory Federal Air Marshal, Administrative Supervisory Federal Air Marshal, Airport Supervisory Federal Air Marshal and Recruiting Supervisory Federal Air Marshal. In February 2006, Baylor served as the TSA Event Manager for Super Bowl XL, held in Detroit. He was promoted to Assistant Supervisory Air Marshal in Charge (ASAC) in March 2007.

Assigned to the Houston Field Office, he then oversaw the management of the Operations Section, the Training Section, the Airport Liaison Section, the Administrative Section, the Visible Intermodal Protect–ion and Response (VIPR) Teams and seven Federal Air Marshal Squads.

Prior to joining the Federal Air Marshal Service, Baylor began his professional career with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF). He accepted an appointment as a Special Agent in 1987 and conducted criminal and background investigations, undercover assignments and participated in surveillance operations. During his tenure with ATF, Baylor was a member of the Special Response Team (SRT), which conducted high-risk operations such as search and arrest warrants. Baylor also served as a recruiter for ATF.

After serving six years with ATF, Baylor was appointed to the position of Second Deputy Chief with the Detroit Police Department, serving as the commanding officer of the Community Policing Division. He was responsible for the operations of the Police Athletic League (PAL), the Police Reserves, the Chaplain Corps, the Crime Prevention Section, the Junior Police Cadets and the Mini-station Administration. Additionally, he was the grant administrator for the Department's federally funded community policing programs. He remained with the Detroit Police Department until July 1997.

In October 1997, Baylor began working in the private sector with Pinkerton Security (now Securitas). He worked in a number of Security Specialist positions with increasing responsibility for the security and fire operations at General Motors assembly plants and office complexes. The last two years of his tenure with Pinkerton were spent as an Executive Protection Specialist, providing personal protection for GM executives while traveling or attending public functions. Additionally, Baylor conducted electronic countermeasure surveillance at board meetings and other meetings where proprietary information was being discussed.

Baylor holds a Bachelor of Criminal Justice degree from Florida A&M University, is a graduate of Northwestern University, School of Police Staff and Command and has successfully completed the TSA Senior Leadership Development Program.

He currently resides in Manvel, Texas with his wife, Lynn, and son, Emmett IV.

SEAN WASHINGTON

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Sean Washington is in his 10th season with the Houston Texans as the director of player engagement.

Washington is responsible for supporting players and their families with making a smooth transition from college to the NFL. He strives to raise players' awareness, increase their education, and keep them thinking proactively. He also assists players in thinking things through with club-level and NFL-mandated life skill programs and professional development opportunities. Washington serves as a key resource for players to minimize their off-the-field distractions and is the central figure in providing any support service.

Prior to joining the Texans, Washington worked for a decade with high school students, mentoring, teaching and coaching around the Houston area. Washington previously coached at Burbank Middle School, Sam Houston High School, Angleton High School and Alief Elsik High School. Additionally, he served as the Texas Sports Development Academy youth camp director.

Washington played defensive back for the New Orleans Saints in 1994 as an undrafted free agent and then played in the World Bowl with the Amsterdam Admirals in 1995.

Washington, a Houston native, attended Waltrip High School and earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Rice University in 1994. He was an All-Southwest Conference cornerback from 1991-93 and a member of the Sporting News All-American team in 1993 with the Owls.

He resides in Richmond, Texas with his wife, Eanisha, and his two sons, Lake and Cruz.

JASON LOWREY

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Jason Lowrey is in his third season as director of football operations and seventh season overall with the Houston Texans.

In his role, Lowrey oversees all aspects of team travel, including the planning, lodging and transportation needs of the organization. He is responsible for maintaining the day-to-day football operations budget and assists the Texans coaching staff in the coaches' booth on game days.

Lowrey joined the Texans in August 2010 as the football operations manager after running his own local business. Lowrey served on active and reserve duty in the military as a Navy corpsman from 1992-2004.

A native of Kerville, Texas, Lowrey has two daughters, Ella and Aubree. He and his wife, Dana, reside in Richmond, Texas.

KHALIL REED

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS MANAGER

Khalil Reed is entering his ninth season overall with the Houston Texans and first as football operations manager. Reed spent the previous six seasons as the team's security and player engagement manager. This will mark his 10th season overall in the NFL.

Reed assists Director of Security Emmett Baylor and Director of Player Engagement Sean Washington in promoting high standards of professionalism while being actively involved in the off-the-field development of each Houston Texans player. Among his many responsibilities, Reed promotes security and player development initiatives with players, spouses, coaches, club executives and local police agencies. He also serves as a co-facilitator and manager for club level programming, such as the Rookie Offseason Development program, the Rookie Success program, the Professional Development program and the newly implemented Rookie Transition Program.

In his new role as operations manager, Reed will assist in the day-to-day operations of the team and will serve as the team's travel coordinator for all road games. He will oversee all aspects of team travel, including the planning, lodging and transportation needs of the organization.

Before joining the Texans, Reed was an events and operations summer intern with the Cleveland Browns in 2006. He also served as a media relations student assistant at Liberty University from 2004-07, where he earned his bachelor's degree in sports management.

A native of Jersey City, N.J., Reed resides in Houston with his fiancée, Phylicia Fields.

KEVIN KRAJCOVIC

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION COORDINATOR

Kevin Krajcovic enters his second season as the football administration coordinator for the Houston Texans. He spent the prior six seasons as a football administration analyst with the team after serving as an intern for two years.

Krajcovic assists Vice President of Football Administration Chris Olsen on negotiating player contracts and managing the Texans salary cap.

Krajcovic graduated from Ohio University with two master's degrees in sports administration and business administration while earning his bachelor's degree in sports sciences.

Krajcovic, a Cleveland native, resides in Houston with his fiancée, Rachel.

RUSSELL JOYNER

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Russell Joyner is in his sixth season with the Houston Texans and serves as the director of football information systems.

Joyner is responsible for designing, developing, and supporting information systems for the Texans personnel department, football administration and coaching staff. He was promoted to this role in February 2012 after serving as a football administration developer.

Before joining the Texans, Joyner served as a programmer analyst with the Atlanta Falcons (2007-10) and a support specialist with Virtual Systems (2005-07).

Originally from Lufkin, Texas, Joyner earned his Bachelor of Science degree in business computer information systems from the University of North Texas. He also played two seasons of collegiate tennis at Henderson State University.

Joyner and his wife, Dusti, currently live in Missouri City, Texas with their two girls, Taylor and Sadie.

MICHAEL DORE

FOOTBALL APPLICATIONS PROGRAMMER

Michael Dore is in his second season as a football applications programmer with the Houston Texans. He assists Director of Football Information Systems Russell Joyner in building, maintaining and enhancing football-related applications utilized by the football operations staff.

Before joining the Texans, Dore performed analytics and programming in the healthcare industry for two years. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Notre Dame and majored in science-business.

Originally from Orlando, Fla., Dore currently lives in Houston.

STUDYING THE HUMAN BODY AT ITS PEAK, TO TREAT IT WHEN IT'S NOT. THAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PRACTICING MEDICINE AND LEADING IT.

As team doctors for professional athletes and performers, Houston Methodist provides expert care to those who push their bodies to the limits. We're using advanced therapies to get Houston Texans players back on the field faster. With the Houston Astros, we're pioneering less-invasive treatments for shoulder injuries. And by using innovative healing techniques, we're more effectively treating stress fractures for Houston Ballet's dancers. Experience we then use to treat everyday athletes with the same elite level of care.

WEEK 1 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 1: Houston 20 vs. Kansas City 27

71,776 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Sept. 13, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans fell to the Kansas City Chiefs 27-20 in the season opener at home.

After trailing by as many as 21, the Texans rallied back to within one score late in the game.

Two early turnovers, which included a fumble after a strip sack and an interception, proved costly for Brian Hoyer. The Chiefs capitalized on both, scoring 14 points and taking a 27-9 lead going into the locker room at halftime.

Ryan Mallett entered the game midway through fourth quarter, adding a touchdown and two-point conversion on his first series. He finished 8-of-14 for 98 yards, one touchdown, and a 102.7 passer rating.

The Texans were led on defense by J.J. Watt, who had nine tackles, six tackles for loss, three quarterback hits and two sacks. DeAndre Hopkins caught 9 passes for 98 yards. He scored both Texans touchdowns and the two-point conversion. Nate Washington added six catches for 105 yards.

The Chiefs took an early 14-0 lead on two touchdown passes from Alex Smith to tight end Travis Kelce. The first score came two plays after Hoyer's pass was intercepted by rookie cornerback Marcus Peters, deep in Texans territory.

Hoyer and the Texans offense picked up steam late in the first quarter, moving the ball 80 yards in eight plays. Hoyer's first touchdown as a Texan was to Hopkins on a 4-yard pass in the right corner of the endzone. Randy Bullock failed to convert the extra point attempt. The Texans trailed 14-6 with 0:46 left in the first quarter.

The Chiefs added two field goals from 27 and 48 yards, respectively, to extend their lead 20-6.

Hoyer's second turnover came with 5:09 left in the second quarter, as the Chiefs recovered a strip sack at the Houston 7-yard line. One play later, Kansas City found the endzone when Jamaal Charles scored on a short touchdown pass.

Hoyer orchestrated an 11-play, 64-yard scoring drive before the half, but the Texans had to settle for a field goal.

After a scoreless third quarter for both teams, Mallett entered the game with 6:10 left in the fourth quarter. On his first series, Mallett threw an 8-yard touchdown pass to Hopkins after a 7-play, 59-yard drive. He also successfully converted the ensuing two-point play to Hopkins to cut the Chiefs lead to 10.

Bullock added his second field goal of the day after Mallett's second series in the game, a 47-yard kick. The Texans pulled within one score, down just 27-20 with 1:23 left in the game.

The Texans attempted an onside kick, but the Chiefs recovered and then ran out the clock.

WEEK 2: Houston 17 at Carolina 24

73,254 • Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, N.C. • Sept. 20, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

In their first road game of 2015, the Texans fell to Carolina 24-17 in a matchup that came down to the final seconds of regulation.

Dropped passes and a sluggish first half plagued the Texans offense in QB Ryan Mallett's first start of the season. Mallett finished the game 27-of-58 for 244 yards and added two touchdowns (one passing, one rushing) while throwing one interception.

The Texans offensive line was forced to reshuffle as starting left tackle Duane Brown was inactive. The unit then lost right tackle Jeff Adams to a knee injury during the game.

The defense held the Panthers to 10 points in the first half, but struggled to contain QB Cam Newton, who tossed two touchdowns and rushed for 76 yards and a score. S Rahim Moore nabbed the first takeaway of the season with an interception of Newton.

Houston's defense forced two three-and-outs to start the game. K Randy Bullock's 43-yard field goal in the first quarter put the first points on the board, giving the Texans a 3-0 lead.

Newton's 25-yard touchdown pass to Ted Ginn, Jr. gave the Panthers their first lead of the game early in the second quarter. A 28-yard field goal extended their lead on Carolina's following offensive series.

Moore's interception in the red zone kept the Panthers from adding to their lead in the second quarter. Moore returned the pick 17 yards and fumbled, but ILB Justin Tuggle recovered. The Texans took over at their own 22-yard line but were unable to convert the turnover into points.

Head Coach Bill O'Brien's squad trailed 10-3 at halftime.

Mallett and the Texans offense came out firing in the second half. He was 7-of-7 on his first touchdown drive of the day. The 13-play, 80-yard drive was capped by a Mallett-to-Garrett Graham strike at the back of the endzone. The 7-yard score featured Graham's one-handed catch, and tied the contest at 10-all.

Carolina fired back with its own 80-yard drive, punctuated by a two-yard leap into the endzone by Newton. The Panthers regained the lead 17-10.

Mallett's first interception in the fourth quarter, by A.J. Klein, led to Carolina points. One play after the Klein pick, Newton threw a 36-yard touchdown pass to Corey Brown. The Panthers took their biggest lead of the day, 24-10, with 8:53 left in the game.

Mallett bounced back on the next drive, throwing a 48-yard deep pass to WR Nate Washington to move into scoring range. On fourth-and-goal, Mallett's six-yard run brought the Texans within one score. Houston trailed 24-17 after the 7-play, 80-yard drive. The Panthers attempted a 53-yard field goal with 2:48 left in the game. DE Jared Crick blocked the attempt to give Houston possession on its 43-yard line.

The Texans moved the ball down to the Carolina 20-yard line during their final drive of the game but came up short on fourth down.

WEEK 3 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 3: Houston 19 vs. Tampa Bay 9

71,718 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Sept. 27, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Houston Texans picked up their first win of 2015 with a 19-9 victory over Tampa Bay.

Both Alfred Blue and DeAndre Hopkins had 100-yard performances as the Texans put up over 400 yards of offense. Ryan Mallett was 24-of-39 for 228 yards, with one touchdown and one interception in his second start of the year.

The Texans aimed for a faster start to Week 3 and accomplished it with an early 7-0 lead. Hopkins led the receivers with eight catches for 101 yards and a score.

Injuries continued to plague the offensive line. Already without starting left tackle Duane Brown, right guard Brandon Brooks left in the second quarter with an ankle injury and did not return. The reshuffled unit still paved the way for 187 yards rushing on the day.

Blue rumbled for 139 yards and a touchdown. It was the second 100-yard rushing performance for Blue in his career.

The Texans defense added one takeway with an interception of Jameis Winston and held Tampa Bay to just one third-down conversion on 12 attempts.

Tampa Bay's first score of the day was a 58-yard field goal in the second quarter. Kyle Brindza missed two subsequent field goals from 32 and 33 yards, as well as an extra point attempt.

The Buccaneers got on the scoreboard late in the first half. Following a Mallett interception, Tampa Bay took over at the Houston 26-yard line. Two plays later, Charles Sims scored on a 32-yard catch-and-run from Winston. Tampa Bay missed the ensuing extra point as they took a 9-7 lead with 3:51 remaining in the first half.

Late in the second quarter, Bullock missed a 43-yard field goal when his kick hit the right upright. The Texans trailed 9-7 at halftime.

Winston threw his first interception of the day just four plays into the third quarter. Quintin Demps picked off the pass, intended for Mike Evans, to set up the Texans scoring drive. Bullock added a 39-yard field goal as Houston regained a 10-9 lead with 12:37 left in the third quarter.

Mallett led the Texans on a fourth-quarter scoring drive that began with a 30-yard completion to Hopkins. Blue scored his first touchdown of the season on a 20-yard run to cap off a five-play, 80-yard drive. Bullock's extra point attempt was wide right, and Houston led 16-9 with 9:14 left in the game.

Later, the Texans took up 6:52 of the fourth quarter with a 14-play, 76-yard scoring drive. Bullock added a 19-yard field goal as Houston won 19-9.

The Texans improve to 1-2 on the season and will travel to Atlanta in Week 4.

WEEK 4 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 4: Houston 21 at Atlanta 48

69,904 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga. • Oct. 4, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans fell, 48-21, to the Atlanta Falcons after trailing by as many as 42 points at the Georgia Dome. Despite RB Arian Foster's return to the starting lineup, the Texans offense struggled mightily until later in the third quarter, when QB Brian Hoyer entered the game. Houston scored 21 straight points in the fourth quarter when Hoyer led the team on three consecutive scoring drives.

QB Ryan Mallett completed 12-of-27 for 150 yards and one interception before his exit. Hoyer was 17-of-30 for 232 yards and threw touchdown passes to TE C.J. Fiedorowicz and WR Cecil Shorts III. WR DeAndre Hopkins led the receivers with nine catches for 157 yards.

DEs J.J. Watt and Jared Crick each had a sack on Falcons QB Matt Ryan. The Texans defense also had three passes defensed, courtesy of OLB Jadeveon Clowney and a pair from Watt.

Three first-half turnovers resulted in three Atlanta touchdowns. The Falcons scored 28 unanswered points before halftime while the Texans got within scoring range just once, but K Nick Novak missed the 53-yard field goal.

Houston's defense could not contain Falcons RB Devonta Freeman, who found the endzone three times. Ryan was 19-of-27 for 256 yards and one touchdown. Ryan left the game early in the fourth quarter after Atlanta pulled out to a 35-point lead. QB Sean Renfree finished the remainder of the game under center for the Falcons.

Mallett's first pass of the game was a 15-yard completion to Foster but three plays later, a batted ball resulted in an interception. The Falcons took an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter when Freeman scored on a 16-yard touchdown run.

Freeman's second touchdown of the day, on a 23-yard run, came early in the second quarter, giving Atlanta a 14-0 lead with 14:39 left in the second quarter.

Minutes later, a Foster fumble resulted in a defensive touchdown and Ryan added his first touchdown pass of the day on a pass to WR Leonard Hankerson. Houston quickly fell into a 28-0 hole by halftime.

The Texans didn't fare much better in the third quarter. Atlanta added two more offensive touchdowns in the third quarter and Mallett exited the game soon after.

Hoyer, who entered the game with 2:56 left in the third quarter, threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Fiedorowicz on his first series to put Houston on the scoreboard. Hoyer's deep 42-yard pass to Shorts had Houston at the goal line on the following drive. RB Chris Polk added the second touchdown of the day, and his first as a Texan, on the touchdown run that capped off a 10-play, 75-yard drive. The Texans chipped away at the Falcons' lead, down 42-14 with 9:09 left in the game.

Hoyer connected with Shorts for his second touchdown pass of the day with 3:01 left in the game. With just 0:01 remaining, the Texans were in the red zone looking to score again, but Atlanta forced a fumble on Shorts and scored on an 84-yard return.

With the loss, the Texans fall to 1-3 and will face the Indianapolis Colts on Thursday night.

WEEK 5 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 5: Houston 20 vs. Indianapolis 27

71,732 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Oct. 8, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

In a game that featured both teams playing their backup quarterbacks for a majority of the contest, the Texans fell, 27-20, to Indianapolis. Matt Hasselbeck started for Andrew Luck while Brian Hoyer entered the game for Ryan Mallett in the second quarter.

In the Texans first AFC South contest of the season, rookie receiver Jaelen Strong snared a pair of touchdowns on his first two career NFL catches.

The Texans put up 444 yards of total offense but also committed 13 penalties for 125 yards. Six of the Colts' 22 first downs came as a result of Houston penalties.

Mallett started the Thursday night matchup, but Hoyer finished the game. Hoyer entered when Mallett was shaken up on a hit that resulted in a roughing penalty on the Colts.

Hoyer was 24-of-31 for 312 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and a passer rating of 116.6. RB Arian Foster rushed for 41 yards on 19 carries. WR DeAndre Hopkins had his third-straight 100-yard game, catching 11 passes for 169 yards.

Mallett was 7-of-10 for 50 yards and one interception. On the Texans' opening drive, Mallett moved the offense 61 yards in 14 plays, but his pass to Foster was intercepted in the red zone. Indianapolis capitalized, scoring first on a 48-yard field goal by K Adam Viniateri.

WR Andre Johnson's return to NRG Stadium was punctuated by two touchdown catches as a Colt. He caught his first one in the first quarter, a four-yard pass from Hasselbeck, to extend the Colts' lead to 10.

Hoyer entered the game 6:49 left in the second quarter and promptly led the Texans on two consecutive scoring drives. K Nick Novak kicked his first field goal as a Texan, a 36-yard attempt, to get Houston on the board.

As time expired in the half, Hoyer's 42-yard Hail Mary pass was caught by Strong for a touchdown. It was his first career NFL catch and it capped off a 9-play, 95-yard scoring drive. The Texans headed into the locker room down just 13-10.

On the Colts' first possession after the break, RB Frank Gore ran three yards for a score as the Colts took a 20-10 lead.

Both Strong and Johnson added their second touchdown catches of the night in the second half. The Houston rookie caught an 11-yard pass all alone in the left corner of the end zone in the third quarter to end a 10-play, 90-yard drive. Johnson, meanwhile, scored early in the fourth quarter on a two-yard touchdown pass.

Hoyer threw his first interception on his final pass of the night. It occurred at the two-minute warning on third-and-2.

The Texans fell to 1-4 on the season. Houston will head to Florida for their next two games against Jacksonville and Miami in Weeks 6 and 7.

WEEK 6 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 6: Houston 31 at Jacksonville 20

58,085 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla. • Oct. 18, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans scored 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to revive their spirits and season en route to 31-20 win over Jacksonville. Houston's defense had three interceptions on the day.

WR DeAndre Hopkins had his fourth-consecutive game with over 100 yards receiving and caught two touchdown passes from QB Brian Hoyer. Hopkins finished the game with 10 catches for 148 yards. WR Cecil Shorts III returned to Jacksonville for the first time as a Texan and added 63 yards on four receptions.

Hoyer, in his second start of 2015, was 24-of-36 for 293 yards, throwing three touchdowns. He also amassed a 119.3 passer rating. RB Arian Foster had 112 yards from scrimmage (53 rushing, 59 receiving) and one touchdown.

Second-year S Andre Hal picked up his first two career interceptions, one leading to a Texans score. He first picked off QB Blake Bortles at the goal line, ending a Jaguars scoring drive with 0:17 left in the first half. His second was returned for a touchdown in the fourth quarter to extend the Texans' lead to 17 points.

Foster scored his first touchdown of the season on a 14-yard catch and run from Hoyer late in the first quarter. The 99-yard scoring drive tied a Texans franchise record (2010 against Baltimore).

The Jaguars tied the game with a touchdown drive of their own on their next possession. Blake Bortles found WR Allen Robinson on a two-yard touchdown pass.

K Nick Novak added a 41-yard field goal with 6:38 left in the second quarter. It gave the Texans 10-7 lead that lasted until nearly the end of the third quarter. Jacksonville took their first lead of the day with just five seconds left in the third quarter, after Bortles connected with TE Julius Thomas on a 29-yard touchdown catch. The Jaguars, who took possession at mid-field after a failed fourth down attempt by the Texans, moved the ball 52 yards in four plays and led 14-10.

The fourth quarter was all Houston as Hopkins found the endzone twice and eclipsed 100 yards receiving. Hal's 31-yard interception return for a touchdown gave the Texans a 31-14 lead. CB A.J. Bouye intercepted Bortles for the third time of the day with 1:09 left in the game.

The Texans improve to 2-4 on the season and will travel to Miami in Week 7 to face the Dolphins.

WEEK 7 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 7: Houston 26 at Miami 44

65,251 • Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, Fla. • Oct. 25, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans fell 44-26 to the Miami Dolphins after trailing by as many as 41 points.

Despite scoring four touchdowns and holding the Dolphins to just a field goal in the second half, it wasn't enough to keep the Texans' undefeated streak against Miami intact.

Arian Foster finished the game with 59 yards rushing, 66 yards receiving and a pair of touchdowns both through the air and on the ground. He left the game in the fourth quarter with an Achilles injury and did not return.

Brian Hoyer completed 23-of-49 passes for 273 yards, throwing for three touchdowns and one interception. Nate Washington, who returned to the lineup after being inactive for Weeks 5 and 6 with a hamstring injury, led the receivers with nine catches for 127 yards receiving and two touchdowns.

The Dolphins scored six unanswered touchdowns against Houston. Ryan Tannehill threw three touchdown passes, two to Jarvis Landry, in the first quarter alone.

The Texans didn't fare much better in the second quarter. Dolphins running back Lamar Miller added a pair of a touchdowns and the Miami defense converted its first turnover into points. On Houston's first offensive series of the second quarter, Hoyer's pass to C.J. Fiedorowicz bounced out of his hands and into the hands of safety Reshad Jones, who returned it 23 yards for a score.

After halftime, the Texans picked up their first takeway of the game. Defensive tackle Brandon Dunn forced a fumble on Dolphins running back Damien Williams. Johnathan Joseph recovered and the Texans took over at the Miami 31-yard line. Four plays later, Hoyer connected with Foster in the endzone on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Nick Novak missed the extra point attempt, but Houston was on the scoreboard 41-6 with 8:28 left in the third quarter.

Foster rushed for the team's second touchdown of the day after an eight-play, 82-yard scoring drive. The two-yard run was his first rushing score of the 2015 season. Houston chipped away at the deficit, down 41-13 with 1:45 left in the third quarter.

Miami's lone score was a 53-yard field goal in the fourth quarter while Nate Washington added two more touchdowns for Houston, on a 27-yard pass and a 5-yarder.

Jadeveon Clowney recorded the first sack of his career in the second quarter, while J.J. Watt sacked Tannehill twice.

The Texans fall to 2-5 on the season and will host the Tennessee Titans in Week 8.

WEEK 8 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 8: Houston 20 vs. Tennessee 6

71,630 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Nov. 1, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

It was a busy day for the Texans defense, who forced three turnovers and sacked Zach Mettenberger seven times in the 20-6 win over Tennessee.

Houston held the Titans to just two field goals on the day. Kicker Ryan Succop kicked a 35-yarder on Tennessee's first offensive series. The Titans wouldn't score again until the third quarter, when he added a 44-yard field goal.

J.J. Watt had 2.5 sacks, including one that led to a fumble. Whitney Mercilus had a career-high 3.5 sacks. The Texans tied a franchise single-game record with 7.0 sacks, something they hadn't done since Nov. 27, 2011 against Jacksonville. Kevin Johnson picked up the first interception of his NFL career in the fourth quarter.

Brian Hoyer was 23-of-35 for 235 yards, two touchdowns, and had a passer rating of 103.9. He became the first quarterback in team history to throw two or more touchdowns in five consecutive games. DeAndre Hopkins had eight catches for 94 yards and a touchdown.

Hopkins scored in the second quarter on a 21-yard catch to give the Texans an early 7-3 lead with 14:04 left in the second quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, safety Kurtis Drummond forced a fumble, recovered by Eddie Pleasant. Houston regained possession and added a 38-yard field goal to gain a 10-3 lead heading into halftime.

Nate Washington scored against his former team on a 42-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter. Hoyer led the team on a six-play, 80-yard drive that took just 2:16 off the clock.

Watt's strip sack on Mettenberger resulted in fumble recovery by Jared Crick. Four plays later, Nick Novak's 24-yard field goal gave the Texans a 20-6 lead with 12:37 left in the game.

Jadeveon Clowney started but left in the first half with a back injury. Left tackle Duane Brown did not play in the second half due to a concussion. Derek Newton took over for Brown while Chris Clark filled in at right tackle.

With the win, the Texans improve to 3-5 on the season heading into their Week 9 bye. Houston will return in primetime action in Week 10 when they head to Cincinnati to face the Bengals on Monday Night Football.

WEEK 10 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 10: Houston 10 at Cincinnati 6

61,381 • Paul Brown Stadium • Cincinnati, Ohio • Nov. 16, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans handed Cincinnati its first loss of the season, defeating the Bengals 10-6 in a primetime game on the road.

It was a Monday Night Football matchup that almost seemed too scripted to be true but had a storybook ending. There was deja vu everywhere.

QB T.J. Yates entered the game late in the third quarter and led the team on a touchdown drive in the same endzone he connected with Kevin Walter in 2011.

CB Johnathan Joseph picked off Andy Dalton, just like he did in his previous three meetings against his former team.

The Texans defense held the top-scoring Bengals offense to just two field goals through two quarters and scoreless in the second half. Dalton, ranked second in the league in passer rating (111.0) going into Monday night's game, finished 22-of-38 for 197 yards and one interception.

The Bengals were ahead of Houston 6-3 at halftime but the second half was dominated by the Texans defense. Romeo Crennel's unit added two takeaways, including one to seal the win.

With 10:09 left in the third quarter, Joseph intercepted Dalton's pass, intended for Marvin Jones. Joseph juggled and made a miraculous catch. The Texans offense regained possession at the Houston 29-yard line.

QB Brian Hoyer exited the game after the ensuing offensive series and headed to the locker room to be evaluated for a concussion. Hoyer was 12-of-22 for 123 yards and one interception, which was on a Hail Mary pass to end the first half.

Enter Yates.

Yates promptly led the Texans on a nine-play, 79-yard drive that ended in a 22-yard touchdown pass to WR DeAndre Hopkins. The catch gave Houston its first lead of the game. Hopkins led the receivers with five catches for 57 yards and that touchdown.

The Bengals drove down the field with less than one minute remaining, but S Quintin Demps forced a fumble on a catch by A.J. Green. Demps also recovered the fumble and Houston took over at the 22-yard line. The Texans ended the game in victory formation. Houston improves to 4-5 on the season and now have a two-game home stretch against the Jets and the Saints.

WEEK 11 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 11: Houston 24 vs. New York Jets 17

71,718 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Nov. 22, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans had a short week, but looked as fresh as ever as they picked up a 24-17 win over the New York Jets. With direct snaps, Wildcat formations and creative play-calling, Bill O'Brien's game plan helped boost Houston to their third-straight win of the 2015 season.

Houston's offense was effective putting up 367 net yards. T.J. Yates, in his first start under O'Brien, was 16-of-34 for 229 yards and two touchdowns.

DeAndre Hopkins led all receivers with 118 yards receiving and two touchdowns. Cecil Shorts III, who lined up under center for several direct snaps in the game, also threw a touchdown pass in the win.

The Texans defense forced two key turnovers late in the game, with interceptions by Eddie Pleasant and Andre Hal, while limiting the Jets to just a field goal in the first half. J.J. Watt led the defense with eight tackles, five for a loss, five quarterback hits, and two sacks on former teammate Ryan Fitzpatrick.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Texans took an early 3-0 lead with a 20-yard field goal by Nick Novak. The Jets soon tied the score taking advantage of a Houston turnover. Yates fumbled early in the second quarter, leading to a 40-yard field goal by former Texan Randy Bullock.

The Texans offense gained momentum soon after following a 61-yard touchdown pass to Hopkins with 3:04 left in the second quarter, giving Houston a 10-3 lead heading into halftime.

The Jets ended the Texans defensive streak with 11:23 left in the third quarter when Fitzpatrick connected with Brandon Marshall on a 21-yard touchdown pass. A long defensive pass interference call on Houston earlier on the drive helped move the ball 44 yards down the field. The Texans and the Jets were tied 10-10.

Houston pulled away with back-to-back touchdowns in the third quarter. Shorts put his passing skills on display as he threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Alfred Blue. Shorts contributed 56 yards of offense on the scoring drive that gave the Texans a 17-10 lead with 7:51 left in the third quarter.

Hopkins caught his second touchdown of the day on the very next offensive series. His 20-yard reception capped off a six-play, 63-yard drive to give Houston its biggest lead of the day, up 24-10 with 3:24 left in the third quarter.

The Jets fired back, driving 73 yards down the field, scoring on a six-yard touchdown scramble by Fitzpatrick to cut Houston's lead to just seven.

Fitzpatrick and the Jets attempted to score again but two late picks thwarted their comeback. With 2:53 left in the game, Fitzpatrick's pass, intended for Devin Smith, was intercepted by Pleasant. On the very next drive, Hal picked off Fitzpatrick with 1:52 left in the game. Houston regained possession in the red zone and finished off the game in victory formation.

With the win, the Texans improve to 5-5 on the season and will host New Orleans next Sunday.

WEEK 12 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12: Houston 24 vs. New Orleans 6

71,778 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Nov. 29, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans won their fourth consecutive game on Sunday, defeating the New Orleans Saints 24-6 in front of 71,778 fans at NRG Stadium.

Brian Hoyer's return to the lineup was a ceremonious one, as he suited up for his first start after suffering a concussion on Nov. 16 at Cincinnati. Hoyer was 21-of-27 for 205 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and a 107.6 passer rating. Hoyer's perfect first quarter included completing 9-of-9 passes and throwing a touchdown pass on both drives to give Houston an early 14-0 lead.

The Texans run game put up 167 yards with Alfred Blue leading the way. Blue had 16 carries for 77 yards and a touchdown. Jonathan Grimes, Chris Polk, rookie Akeem Hunt, and Cecil Shorts III each added to the Texans total on the ground.

Houston's defense kept Drew Brees and the Saints offense without a touchdown in the win. New Orleans had its only scores come from two field goals, one a 57-yarder, in the second quarter. Brees was 25-of-44 yards, one interception, and a 61.6 passer rating on the day. J.J. Watt had two sacks and reached a league-high 13.5 for the year.

Hoyer's first touchdown came on a 10-yard pass to tight end Ryan Griffin to cap off an 11-play, 70-yard drive. The Texans offense didn't slow down, adding a three-yard touchdown catch by Shorts on their next possession.

A touchdown early in the third quarter extended the Texans lead. Penalties on the Saints and a 37-yard catch by Griffin moved the ball into red zone territory. For the second week in a row, Blue found the endzone following an eight-yard score.

Nick Novak added a 34-yard field goal on the very next drive as the Texans took a 24-6 lead heading into the fourth quarter.

Kareem Jackson also returned for his first start after missing four games with an ankle injury. Jackson intercepted Brees early in the fourth quarter and returned it 50 yards to mid-field. Jackson's pick occurred at the Houston goal-line, as the Saints were looking to score their first touchdown of the day.

With the win, the Texans improve to 6-5 on the year and head to Buffalo to face the Bills next Sunday.

WEEK 13 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 13: Houston 21 at Buffalo 30

68,544 • Ralph Wilson Stadium • Orchard Park, N.Y. • Dec. 6, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans' four-game win streak ended on Sunday as they fell 30-21 to the Buffalo Bills. Despite three touchdown passes by Brian Hoyer, Houston was unable to come away with the victory.

Hoyer was 26-of-43 for 293 yards and threw three touchdowns, compiling a 94.4 passer rating. The Texans offense put up 401 yards was also 3-of-3 in red zone.

Early mistakes and penalties hurt the Texans, who were flagged 10 times for 89 yards on the game. After a slow start in the first half where they allowed 204 yards, Houston's defense gained steam after halftime keeping the Bills scoreless until the fourth quarter. Jadeveon Clowney had three tackles, two for a loss, one quarterback hit and a sack in the game.

Bills quarterback Tyrod Taylor completed 11-of-21 for 211 yards. Taylor accounted for every Buffalo score, as he threw three touchdown passes and rushed for another. LeSean McCoy keyed the Bills rushing attack, gaining 112 yards on 21 carries.

DeAndre Hopkins also gained steam in the fourth quarter, after recording just one catch in the first half. Hopkins scored on a 19-yard touchdown reception and finished the game with five grabs for 88 yards. Cecil Shorts III led all Texans receivers with six catches for 91 yards.

The Bills took an early 7-0 lead after Tyrod Taylor threw a three-yard touchdown pass to Sammy Watkins on Buffalo's first possession.

Houston responded with an 11-play, 80-yard drive. Chris Polk rushed for 20 yards on the scoring drive that ended in an 8-yard touchdown pass from Brian Hoyer to Ryan Griffin. Nick Novak missed the extra point attempt.

Taylor's 8-yard touchdown run gave the Bills a 14-6 lead at the start of the second quarter.

Hoyer added a 14-yard scramble and a keeper on third-and-1 to set up the Texans second scoring drive. One play later, Chris Polk caught an 11-yard touchdown pass. The Texans trailed 14-13 with 3:57 left in the second quarter.

Momentum shifted when Taylor threw a deep 53-yard pass to Watkins to start the ensuing drive. The Bills took a 21-13 lead heading into halftime, following a two-yard touchdown pass to Robert Woods.

The Texans emerged in the second half with momentum of their own. Charles James II downed the first two Shane Lechler punts of the third quarter inside the Houston 10-yard line. Buffalo's only scoring opportunity in the third-quarter was on a missed 50-yard field goal.

Hopkins scored on a 19-yard touchdown reception with 9:12 left in the fourth quarter. Hoyer threw two deep passes to Hopkins for 23 and 29 yards on the six-play, 83-yard drive. The two-point conversion to Jonathan Grimes was successful, tying the game at 21.

Taylor threw his third touchdown of the day with less than two minutes left in the fourth quarter. A 40-yard pass to tight end Charles Clay gave the Bills a 27-21 lead as Dan Carpenter missed the extra point attempt.

The Texans received the ball with 1:53 remaining, but were unable to score and turned it over on downs. Carpenter added a 36-yard field goal just two plays later to give Houston the ball with 0:37 left in the game.

With the loss, the Texans fall to 6-6 and will host the New England Patriots next Sunday night.

WEEK 14 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 14: Houston 6 vs. New England 27

71,908 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Dec. 13, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

Houston hoped to gain a lead in the AFC South division race, but lost to the New England Patriots, 27-6, in their Sunday night matchup.

The Texans offense struggled as Houston was limited to a pair of field goals and converted just 3-of-14 of its third downs.

Brian Hoyer was sacked five times in the loss. After the fifth sack, Hoyer exited the game and headed to the locker room to be evaluated for a concussion. Hoyer finished the night 11-of-22 for 155 yards.

T.J. Yates entered the game late in the fourth quarter for the injured Hoyer. Yates was 1-of-2 for 4 yards on the Texans last offensive series of the game. DeAndre Hopkins led all Texans receivers with 3 catches for 52 yards receiving. Those 52 yards vaulted Hopkins to a single-season career high in that category, surpassing his 1,210 mark last season.

Jadeveon Clowney sacked Tom Brady twice for his first career multi-sack game. Whitney Mercilus also added a sack bringing his total to 7.5 on the year, a new single-season career high (2013, 7.0).

Brady was 22-of-30 for 225 yards and two touchdowns. Rob Gronkowski, who returned to action for his first time since Nov. 29., caught four passes for 86 yards and hauled in a touchdown.

The Texans special teams forced a fumble punt return by Keshawn Martin in the third quarter. John Simon recovered the muffed punt at the New England 21-yard line, but Houston was unable to convert the turnover into points.

Wearing their battle red uniforms, the Texans defense held Tom Brady and the Patriots to a three-and-out on their first series. Brady bounced back on the next drive, connecting with Martin on a two-yard touchdown pass, giving New England an early 7-0 lead.

The Texans offense scored two field goals on back-to-back drives in the first half. Nick Novak's attempts from 37 and 45 yards were good, and ending up being the only points the Texans would score.

Brady would lead the Patriots on two more scoring drives in the second quarter. Stephen Gostkowski added a 43-yard field goal. Gronkowski caught a one-yard touchdown to give the Patriots a 17-6 lead heading into halftime.

The Patriots scored 10 unanswered points in the second half.

A fourth sack on Hoyer resulted in a fumble at the Houston seven-yard line. The turnover set up New England's third touchdown of the night. James White's two-yard run extended the Patriots' lead 27-6 with 12:04 left in the game.

Houston drops to 6-7 on the season and heads to Indianapolis to face the (6-7) Colts next Sunday at Lucas Oil Stadium.

WEEK 15: Houston 16 at Indianapolis 10

66,083 • Lucas Oil Stadium • Indianapolis, Ind. • Dec. 20, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

It wasn't pretty, but the Texans winless streak in Indianapolis finally came to an end.

For the first time in franchise history, the Texans defeated the Colts 16-10 in Indianapolis. T.J. Yates started the game, but Brandon Weeden finished it after Yates exited with a knee injury in the first half.

Weeden was 11-of-18 for 105 yards and a 95.8 passer rating. Jaelen Strong scored the lone touchdown of the game and the third of his rookie season. All of Strong's touchdowns this year have come against the Colts.

DeAndre Hopkins led all receivers with eight catches for 94 yards while Alfred Blue rushed for 107 yards on 20 carries. Nick Novak missed a field goal attempt from 57 yards, but successfully made kicks from 22, 46, and 32 yards.

The Texans defense forced two turnovers as Matt Hasselbeck was 17-of-30 for 147 yards and one interception. Charlie Whitehurst entered the game for a series when Hasselbeck exited with a back injury. Whitney Mercilus, John Simon, and rookie Benardrick McKinney each had a sack in the win.

In a pivotal AFC South matchup, both Houston and Indianapolis had their starting quarterbacks ruled out earlier in the week. Both backups also exited the game with injuries, although Hasselbeck did return to finish for Indianapolis.

The Texans committed two turnovers on their first two series of the game. Yates threw his first interception of the year on the opening drive. Alfred Blue fumbled on the next series and the Colts capitalized. Matt Hasselbeck threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Donte Montcrief to give Indianapolis an early 7-0 lead. In the first half, the Texans defense worked on a short field, with the Colts starting three drives in Houston territory. The Colts added a field goal to extend their lead to 10-0.

Yates suffered a knee injury after a scramble deep in Colts territory and didn't return. Weeden took over and led the offense on its first scoring drive of the game right before the half which ended in a 22-yard field goal.

Indianapolis led 10-3 at halftime.

The Texans defense kept the Colts scoreless in the second half, forcing four punts and two turnovers.

Houston's offense also scored 13 unanswered points with Weeden under center.

Novak added his second field goal of the day, a 46-yard kick bringing Houston within four at 10-6 with 2:42 left in the third quarter.

On the next possession, Weeden orchestrated a 10-play, 90-yard drive. Strong's eight-yard TD reception gave Houston its first lead of the day. The Texans were up 13-10 with 10:36 left in the game.

Hasselbeck briefly exited the game after a hit by Whitney Mercilus and was replaced by Whitehurst. Hasselbeck returned with just over three minutes remaining but his final two drives ended in turnovers. On the second play of the drive, Johnathan Joseph forced a fumble on a catch by Griff Whalen. Kareem Jackson recovered the fumble and the Texans took over at the Indianapolis 21-yard line. Novak added his third field goal of the day, a 32-yarder, adding to Houston's lead.

A.J. Bouye intercepted Hasselbeck on the very next drive. Weeden and the Texans offense finished the game in victory formation.

Houston gains sole possession of the AFC South with a 7-7 record as the Colts drop to 6-8. The Texans next travel to Tennessee to face the Titans in Week 16.

WEEK 16: Houston 34 at Tennessee 6

62,153 • Nissan Stadium • Nashville, Tenn. • Dec. 27, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans defeated their second division rival in as many weeks with a 34-6 win at Tennessee.

In his first start as a Texan, Brandon Weeden was 15-of-24 for 200 yards, with three touchdowns (two passing, one rushing) and a 116.7 passer rating. The Texans were without starter Brian Hoyer for a second-consecutive week, but had Weeden and newly signed B.J. Daniels, who also took snaps at quarterback.

The Texans had an early 7-0 lead after Kareem Jackson forced a fumble on the Titans opening drive and safety Quintin Demps returned it 33 yards for a touchdown. Houston forced four turnovers.

The Texans defense kept the Titans scoreless until under two minutes left in the game. That late score was the first touchdown Romeo Crennel's unit had given up in five quarters.

J.J. Watt had the lone sack of the day on Zach Mettenberger, who was 27-of-51 for 234 yards, one touchdown, one interception, and a 63.7 passer rating. Tre McBride caught the one-yard touchdown pass with 1:31 left in the game.

DeAndre Hopkins caught seven passes for 117 yards, and one touchdown in his sixth 100-yard game of 2015. Hopkins scored on a 15-yard touchdown catch early in the third quarter. On the very next drive, Nate Washington also caught a touchdown pass on a 13-yard pass from Weeden. Houston's running backs, led by Alfred Blue, combined for 128 yards rushing in the win.

The Texans scored a season-high 34 points in the victory and improve to 8-7 on the season. Houston will host the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2015 regular season finale on Sunday.

WEEK 17: Houston 30 vs. Jacksonville 6

71,899 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Jan. 3, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans locked up their third AFC South division title and a postseason berth with a 30-6 win over the Jaguars in the 2015 regular season finale. Houston's defense held Jacksonville without a touchdown, while forcing four turnovers and sacking Blake Bortles seven times in the win.

For the first time in franchise history, two players had three sacks each in a single game as J.J. Watt and Whitney Mercilus wreaked havoc as a duo. Watt, who played without a cast for the first time in a month, had three sacks (17.5 on the season), a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, and two passes defensed. Mercilus ended his 2015 regular season campaign with a career-high 12 sacks after adding 3.5 sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

Andre Hal and Kareem Jackson both had interceptions, with Jackson returning his 27-yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter to seal the win.

Houston took an early 10-0 lead as Jonathan Grimes found the endzone for the first time this season. Grimes scored two touchdowns, one rushing and one receiving. Brian Hoyer returned in his first start since suffering a concussion on Dec. 13 against New England. He completed 25-of-40 for 249 yards, one touchdown, and one interception. Nick Novak kicked 3-of-4 field goals from 28 yards and two from 51, missing a kick from 50 yards.

Alfred Blue rushed for 102 yards on 21 carries for his third 100-yard performance this year. DeAndre Hopkins led the receivers with seven catches for 89 yards.

The win wasn't without its share of injuries. Eight-year veteran and All-Pro Duane Brown injured his left knee and was carted off the field in the first quarter. Brown, who did not return, was replaced by Chris Clark at left tackle. Nate Washington also injured his hip and did not return in the second half.

With the win, the Texans finish the season with a 9-7 record and earn their first playoff appearance since 2012. Houston will host the Kansas City Chiefs in the AFC Wild Card game.

AFC WILD CARD GAME SUMMARY

AFC WILD CARD GAME: Houston 0 vs. Kansas City 30

71,800 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Jan. 9, 2016

GAME SUMMARY

Houston's 2015 postseason came to an end after a lopsided 30-0 finish in Saturday's AFC Wild Card matchup against the Kansas City Chiefs. The Texans had four turnovers in the first half, and J.J. Watt exited the game in the second half with a groin injury.

Brian Hoyer finished the game 15-of-34 for 136 yards, four interceptions and a fumble on a strip sack.

Whitney Mercilus, recently named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December, sacked Alex Smith three times on the day. Brian Cushing led the defense with 13 tackles (9 solo), a pass defensed, and recorded his first-career interception in the first quarter. Houston rushed for 114 yards with Alfred Blue leading the way with 99 yards on 17 carries. DeAndre Hopkins caught six passes for 69 yards, leading the receivers in his first postseason appearance.

The Texans found themselves in 7-0 hole before the offense ever took the field Saturday. On the opening kickoff, Knile Davis scored on a 106-yard return.

It didn't get easier as Hoyer and the Texans offense struggled in the first half. Despite four turnovers on the offensive end, the Texans defense allowed just two field goals, both from 49 yards, and allowed just 1-of-6 on third down conversions.

Watt exited the game with 7:28 left in the third quarter, suffering a groin injury. He would not return. The Chiefs scored two touchdowns in the second half on a pass to Chris Conley and a five-yard run by Spencer Ware.

Hoyer threw his fourth and final interception deep in Houston territory with just over six minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. Four plays later, Santos added a 33-yard field goal and the Chiefs extended their lead to 30-0.

TEXANS KICKOFF

NRG STADIUM

The Texans have sold out 143 consecutive games at NRG Stadium. The world's second-largest indoor HD video boards were installed in 2013 at NRG Stadium. In addition to hosting Super Bowl LI in 2017, the stadium has played host to the Texas Bowl since 2006, the 2007 East-West Shrine Game, the 2011 & 2016 NCAA Men's Final Four, Super Bowl XXXVIII, Wrestlemania XXV, the 2016 Copa America Centenario Tournament and Rodeo Houston among other large-scale events.

The city of Houston has always been on the cutting edge of stadium development. Houston first introduced the Astrodome, which opened in 1965 as the world's first domed stadium. The trend continued in 2002 with the debut of NRG Stadium.

The first NFL stadium with a retractable roof, NRG Stadium (formerly known as Reliant Stadium) opened for business on Aug. 24, 2002, as the Texans hosted the Miami Dolphins in a preseason game. Houston's regular-season debut against the Dallas Cowboys on Sept. 8 was nationally televised on ESPN. The Texans stunned the Cowboys 19-10 before a raucous crowd, unveiling a gameday atmosphere that would become a staple throughout the Texans' inaugural campaign.

In 2013, the world's second-largest indoor high-definition video boards were installed at the north and south ends of the stadium. The Mitsubishi Electric Diamond Vision System boards are 14,549 square feet apiece and have a display resolution of 1,000 x 5,280 pixels in HD 1080i format.

Counting preseason games, the Texans have played to 143 consecutive sellouts. They set a team record in 2015 with 574,159 fans during the regular season, an average of 71,769 per game. The Texans' largest crowd through 14 seasons was 71,908 for their Sunday Night Football matchup with the New England Patriots on Dec. 13, 2015, the largest non-Super Bowl football crowd in the city's history.

Speaking of the Super Bowl, the world's biggest sports spectacle will take place in NRG Stadium for a second time in February 2017. The city of Houston was awarded Super Bowl LI following a vote by NFL owners in May 2013. The Super Bowl returned to Houston for the first time in 30 years in 2004 as NRG Stadium hosted a memorable Super Bowl XXXVIII between the New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers. The Patriots won 32-29 on Adam Vinatieri's 41-yard field goal with four seconds remaining before a crowd of 71,525. The event also featured elaborate pregame and halftime shows featuring the likes of Aerosmith, Beyoncé, Kid Rock, P. Diddy, Nelly, Toby Keith and Willie Nelson.

NRG Stadium has hosted numerous college football games, including the Texas Bowl since 2006, three Houston Bowls, the 2002 and 2005 Big 12 Championship Games, the 2007 East-West Shrine Game, the Bayou Bucket (Rice vs. Houston) and the third annual AdvoCare Texas Kickoff featuring Texas A&M and Arizona State in 2015. NRG Stadium housed the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament Sweet 16 in 2008 and 2010 and hosted the Final Four in 2011 and 2016.

NRG Stadium has also become one of the nation's leading soccer venues. The U.S. Men's National Soccer Team hosted Mexico in May 2003 in the two teams' first match since their 2002 World Cup meeting. In 2005, NRG Stadium hosted the championship matches of the Mexican League's InterLiga qualification competition. The stadium hosted another U.S. vs. Mexico match, a Mexico vs. Belize World Cup qualifier (2008) and hosted matches in the CONCACAF Gold Cup (2005, 2007 and 2009), as well as the Gold Cup semifinals (2011) and MLS All-Star Game (2010) featuring Manchester United. In July 2015, NRG Stadium hosted Mexico vs. Honduras as part of the 2015 Mexican National Team U.S. Tour. This summer, NRG hosted three matches in the 2016 Copa America Centenario Tournament.

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo continued to play to a packed house in 2016, boasting such acts as The Band Perry, Jason Aldean, Jason Derulo, Miranda Lambert, Pitbull, Darius Rucker, Keith Urban and Kid Rock. NRG Stadium has also played host to concerts by Beyonce, U2, The Rolling Stones, Metallica, One Direction, Ariana Grande, George Strait and Kenny Chesney, and premier events including WrestleMania XXV, Disney on Ice, the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Ground broke on NRG Stadium on March 9, 2000. The stadium, covering 1.9 million square feet, features 44,000 seats on the sideline. There are 8,400 club seats and 195 suites, along with 10 party suites on the 300 level.

With the innovation of the retractable roof, Houston returned to outdoor NFL action in 2002 for the first time since Super Bowl VIII at Rice Stadium in 1974. The roof is made of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass fabric and takes 10 minutes to open and close. When it opens, the roof splits at the 50-yard line and docks in the end zones.

NRG Stadium features an open view of the playing field from the main concourse and on the club level. The main concourse is 40 feet wide, which makes it one of the largest in the NFL. Each concession stand has multiple televisions that enable Texans fans to stay on top of the action.

The Texans' front office is located on the south end of the stadium, enabling the club's day-to-day operations to be under one roof. Players report to the stadium to take part in film sessions, practice, treatment and training. The 10,000-square-foot weight room is among the largest in the league. The players can also take advantage of a three-lane lap pool.

Texans Head Coach Bill O'Brien conducts his postgame press conferences in the team's media auditorium on the ground level. The stadium's press box is located on the eighth level of the stadium's west side, flanking Kirby Drive.

Across the street, the Houston Methodist Training Center features three outdoor grass practice fields. One field is lit for night sessions during training camp. The Houston Methodist Training Center also features an indoor practice field outfitted with FieldTurf. The air-supported structure offers the team a seamless transition from outdoor to indoor practice in case of inclement weather. The state-of-the-art facility also doubles as the team's training camp headquarters.

VIDEO BOARD QUICK FACTS

- When they were installed in 2013, they were the largest in-stadium HD video displays in the world and the widest display in professional sports.
- Image area is 52.49' (H) x 277.17' (W), totaling 14,549 square feet of display surface compared to 2,592 square feet of display surface on the old, standard definition boards that were used from 2002-12. That is a 561 percent increase in area.
- Display resolution of 1,000 x 5,280 pixels in HD 1080i format with 4.4 trillion colors and 960 Hz refresh rate for jitter-free HD images.
- Manufactured by Mitsubishi Electric's Diamond Vision Systems Division (Cowboy Stadium; Yankee Stadium; Lambeau Field; Fenway Park; Century Link Field).
- Second-largest end zone video display in the NFL.
- Wider than the wing span of a 747 plane and equal to roughly 3,050 40" LCD displays.

VIDEO BOARD FEATURES

- Texans fans experienced High Definition video images in 2013 for the first time in NRG Stadium thanks to the video displays. The old video boards displayed standard definition images.
- Replays are further enhanced thanks to an additional slow-motion instant replay machine from EVS that captures four additional camera angles and the capability of network television replay footage to be shown.
- The 277-foot wide displays are the second-largest in the NFL or MLB. The portion of the displays that show game action are larger than all but four video boards in the NFL at 115 feet wide and 52.5 feet tall.
- A digital clock and down & distance have replaced the matrix displays that served the same purpose.
- In-game statistics are presented on the videoboard displays, as are out-of-town scores and fantasy football updates.
- All of the space on the displays is digital and can be changed out with graphics to enhance fan experience.

MARC VANDERMEER @TEXANSVOICE

VICE PRESIDENT, BROADCASTING & PLAY-BY-PLAY VOICE

Marc Vandermeer (@TexansVoice) has been a team fixture since it began play in 2002, calling every snap the Houston Texans have ever taken as the team's play-by-play announcer. Vandermeer officially joined the Texans as the director of radio broadcasting in June 2012 and was promoted to senior director of broadcasting in June 2013 before being named vice president of broadcasting in 2016.

In his role, Vandermeer serves as the "Voice of the Texans" and oversees the programs and content on HoustonTexans.com, Texans Radio on the flagship station KILT SportsRadio 610 AM and Texans television programming on ABC-13/KTRK and Fox Sports Southwest. Since the Texans began play, Vandermeer is the only current team employee to attend every single game in franchise history. Vandermeer was also co-host of the morning drive show for SportsRadio 610 until May 2012.

Vandermeer came to the Texans following a successful three-year run as the play-by-play voice for the Miami Hurricanes on 560 WQAM. He called the action for the Miami Hurricanes' football and baseball national championship teams in 2001, hosted the athletic program's weekly show, Hurricane Hotline, and filled in on the WQAM Morning Show.

From 1995-99, Vandermeer was the play-by-play voice for the UMass Minutemen and served as the UMass Radio Network Director for WHMP AM/FM. He was promoted to station manager his final year with WHMP.

Vandermeer has called NCAA Basketball Tournament games for Westwood One Radio and was the play-by-play voice for Central Michigan University from 1992-95. He also serves on the Junior Achievement Board of Directors.

The Boston University alumnus and his wife, Corinne, have two sons, 10-year old Luke, and Liam, who was born in January of 2013.

DREW DOUGHERTY @DOUGHERTYDREW

TEXANS TV HOST, SENIOR INTEGRATED MEDIA MANAGER

Drew Dougherty (@DoughertyDrew) is the host of Texans TV and the team's senior integrated media manager. Dougherty is the on-air talent for video on the team's website and can be heard and seen on all team-related shows. The 2016 season will be his eighth with the team.

On Saturday evenings at 6:30 p.m. in the fall, Dougherty hosts 'Texans Extra Points', which can be seen locally on ABC-13/KTRK. In the offseason at 11 p.m. on the same channel, he is the host of 'Texans 360'. Additionally, he is the co-host of the 'Texans Huddle' 30-minute show on Fox Sports Southwest.

He also interviews players and coaches on Texans TV on the team's website. Gamedays at NRG Stadium are busy, as he is on the videoboards hosting the pre- and postgame shows, as well as all in-game score updates and community features. Home and away, he can be seen live on Fox Sports Southwest's 'Texans Countdown to Kickoff' pregame shows. On a weekly basis, he answers fan questions in his offbeat web segment, which is called "Dear Drew".

In addition to his duties in front of the camera in English, Dougherty also hosts a weekly segment in Spanish called "Puntos Extra" with "La voz de los Texans" Enrique Vasquez.

From 2005 to 2009, Dougherty was the sports director at FOX34 and Telemundo46 in Lubbock. He was one of just a handful of journalists nationwide who broadcasted in both English and Spanish on a daily basis. He also hosted a few weekly coaches shows for the Texas Tech football, baseball and women's basketball teams, including Red Raider Sports with Mike Leach. Dougherty handled the TV play-by-play duties when the Lady Raiders and the baseball team were on the air, and he also was the play-by-play voice for the Tech Red vs. Black spring football games, as well as the ASCO West Texas High School Football All-Star games each June.

Dougherty's start in television began at Texas Cable News in Dallas. During his four years at TXCN, he produced Ford Sports Talk and Cadillac's Texas Legends in Sports. The latter show featured in-depth profiles of Bum Phillips, Darrell Royal, Ty Murray, Mary Lou Retton, Nolan Ryan and Don Meredith, to name a few. He also filled in as an anchor for the nightly, half-hour long Chevy SportsDay as well as the weekend sportscasts.

He triple-majored in Spanish, Latin American studies and print journalism at Southern Methodist University and also wrote for The Daily Campus and the Park Cities People during his time in college.

Dougherty grew up in Houston rooting for the Oilers, Astros and Rockets, and graduated from Strake Jesuit College Preparatory. Drew and his wife Vita are the proud parents of Marie, Robert and Oliver. The family lives in Spring Branch with their dogs, Angel and Randy.

DEEPI SIDHU @DEEPSLANT

INTEGRATED MEDIA MANAGER & TEXANS INSIDER

As the Texans Insider, Deepi Sidhu (@DeepSlant) is a co-host on Texans Radio, Texans TV, and daily contributor to HoustonTexans.com.

Sidhu, a co-host and associate producer on 'Texans Late Night,' will co-host the newest addition to the Texans TV lineup. 'Texans Buzz' premieres on Saturday nights this fall on ABC-13/KTRK following the late local news. With a background in radio, Sidhu also assists on the programming and production side for all of the offseason and in-season Texans radio shows, which air on SportsRadio 610.

Prior to joining the Texans organization, Sidhu worked for the flagship station, SportsRadio 610. She wrote for CBS Houston and SportsRadio 610 websites, covering local professional and college sports. From the age of 15, Sidhu has been involved in radio broadcasting. She also had a weekly radio show on KPFT Houston, GenerAsian Radio, which she co-hosted and produced for 11 years. Sidhu has also been a freelance writer for multiple outlets including CNN.com, and CNN's Headline News site, HLN.com.

Sidhu graduated from Purdue University with a bachelor's in electrical engineering and then attained her Master of Business Administration from the University of Houston in 2002.

Born and raised in Indianapolis, Sidhu has resided in Houston for the past 20 years. She and her husband, Sham, live in Bellaire and have three sons ages 12, 9, and 6.

JOHN HARRIS @JHARRISFOOTBALL

INTEGRATED MEDIA MANAGER

John Harris (@jharrisfootball) joined the organization as a football analyst and sideline reporter in April 2014 and was hired full-time in April 2015. In addition to his sideline duties on game day, he writes articles for HoustonTexans.com and contributes to Texans Radio and Texans TV on a regular basis.

Harris has spent his time around the game as a coach's son, player, coach, writer, radio host, television guest and all-around football historian. He provides a perspective not many can - a thorough understanding of X's and O's with the ability to communicate that love and understanding to readers and listeners.

After graduating as valedictorian and three-sport star at Lamar Consolidated High School in Rosenberg, Texas, Harris played four years at Brown University, earning the 1993 Eugene C. Swift Award for determination, hard work and courage. He earned two varsity letters in his time at Brown and played on the same defense as Texans Head Coach Bill O'Brien. Harris also added a master's degree in accounting from the University of Virginia in 2002.

In 1994, Harris started his coaching career at the Episcopal School of Jacksonville (Fla.). In 1998, at the age of 26, Harris took over as the head coach of the school's varsity program. In three short years, he led them to the FHSAA playoffs for the first time in the 35-year history of the school. As such, he was voted District 6 Coach of the Year in 2000 after the team finished with the school's best record in 11 years.

While coaching, Harris also started his radio career as a college football expert on SportsRadio 610 in Houston. He provided analysis for the morning show for three years and eventually did so on the "John and Lance Morning Show" starting in 2002. He was a fixture on Thursday mornings for the next five years, discussing college football and the NFL Draft. Over the past 18 years, Harris has done numerous guest radio appearances throughout the country, from Portland, Ore. to Miami, Fla., not to mention guest spots on local and national television as well.

In 2007, Harris returned to Houston to start his full-time radio career, co-hosting the Sean and John show on 1560 The Game. He then transitioned to national radio, hosting the Overnight Takeover for the next three years. As a writer, his work has been featured on the front pages of YahooSports.com, FoxSports.com and collegefootballnews.com. In addition to his Texans duties, he also provides NFL draft analysis for the Washington Post and football analysis for TexAgs.com and TexAgs radio.

Harris has been a member of the Executive Leadership Team for the Paul Bear Bryant College Coach of the Year Award for the past 10 seasons.

He is married to Paige and the couple lives in Houston with their children Jack (16) and Maye (14).

TEXANS TV

Kevin Kugler
Play-By-Play

Spencer Tillman
Analyst/Host

Drew Dougherty
Preseason Sideline

ABC-13/KTRK-TV is the official television home of the Houston Texans and the flagship station of the Houston Texans Television Network. Beginning his third season as preseason TV play-by-play announcer for the Texans is Kevin Kugler. Kugler is the national voice of Westwood One's NFL Sunday Night Football broadcasts and does TV work for the Big Ten Network. Additionally, John Sadak will handle play-by-play duties for the Texans' first two preseason games in 2016. Sadak called NFL games for Westwood One last season and has done numerous college games for ESPN, FOX and CBS Sports.

Former San Francisco 49er and Houston Oiler, Spencer Tillman, is back as color commentator. On the sideline, Drew Dougherty of Texans TV and HoustonTexans.com, is in his third season with the preseason broadcast crew.

Two in-house produced programs air weekly during the season and one during the offseason on KTRK. "Texans Extra Points" is a team-produced version of the longtime KTRK program "Extra Points" and will air Saturdays at 6:30 p.m.

"Texans Buzz" will air Saturdays at 11 p.m. and features, among many guests, 'Voice of the Texans' Marc Vandermeer and Deepi Sidhu of HoustonTexans.com.

ABC-13's Eyewitness News Sports Director Greg Bailey will continue to host "Houston Texans: Inside the Game" Sundays at 10:35 p.m. with Spencer Tillman. The show features interviews with Texans players, one-on-one interviews with Texans Head Coach Bill O'Brien and a recap of each Texans game.

"Texans Game Day" airs each Sunday morning at 8:30 a.m. on KPRC Local 2 with Sports Director Randy McIlvoy and a conversation with Head Coach Bill O'Brien.

FOX SPORTS SOUTHWEST

Drew Dougherty, along with Marc Vandermeer, is the host of five Texans shows on Fox Sports Southwest. Texans Huddle airs Thursdays at 6 p.m. and Talking Texans airs Fridays at 6 p.m. The cable network is also home to the Texans TV pregame show "Texans Countdown Live" from 10-11 a.m., and postgame show "Texans Wrap Live" on Sundays. Weekly shows on Fox Sports Southwest also include "Texans Weekly" Fridays at 6 p.m. and the Bill O'Brien Press Conference on Mondays.

Fox Sports Southwest is a regional cable sports network that operates in all or parts of Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Arkansas. The network operates out of the Dallas-Fort Worth suburb of Irving and also in Houston, the operations center for all Fox Sports Net channels in the central part of the United States.

Fox Sports Southwest originally began as Home Sports Entertainment (HSE) in 1983, serving as the cable television home of professional and collegiate sports teams throughout Texas and surrounding states. In the mid-1990s, HSE became a part of the Prime Sports Networks, thus becoming Prime Sports Southwest. In 1996, the network became Fox Sports (Net) Southwest, upon News Corporation's purchase of the Prime Networks and its merger with the SportsChannel networks.

TEXANS SPANISH-LANGUAGE RADIO

ESPN Deportes Houston 1180 AM kicks off its third season as the flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Houston Texans and is the home of "The Texans Show" on Tuesdays at 6 p.m. CT during the season.

Enrique Vasquez is in his 15th season on the Texans Spanish radio broadcast and will serve as the play-by-play for the third straight season. Vasquez had served on the broadcast as color commentator since the team's inaugural season in 2002.

Vasquez began his career in sports radio and television in 1992 as a color analyst on the Houston Oilers Spanish Radio broadcast where he remained through the 1995 season. He has handled play-by-play duties for Fox Sports Americas on the network's international coverage of the NFL game of the week as well as Super Bowl XXXI and XXXII.

From 1998-2001, Vasquez served as play-by-play announcer on the Dallas Cowboys Spanish radio broadcast, on select preseason game broadcasts as well as color commentator during the 2000 and 2001 seasons. He is also a regular contributor on HoustonTexans.com in both English and Spanish.

John Harris
Sideline Reporter

The Houston Texans and CBS Radio Houston reached a multi-year agreement in October 2011 to ensure SportsRadio 610 and 100.3 KILT-FM remained the radio home of the Houston Texans through the 2021 NFL season and the home of Texans Radio ancillary programming. SportsRadio 610 AM and 100.3 KILT-FM have been the flagship stations of the Houston Texans since the team entered play in 2002.

Texans Radio broadcasts three-hour pregame and postgame shows on SportsRadio 610 before and after every Texans game. The Texans Radio Network broadcast team of Marc Vandermeer and Andre Ware will continue to provide play-by-play and game analysis as they have done for the past 14 years. John Harris begins his third season handling sideline reporting duties, contributing to various Texans Radio and TV shows and writing for HoustonTexans.com. Harris also contributes to TheSidelineView.com and has previously hosted national shows for Yahoo! Sports Radio.

Texans fans are guaranteed more than 15 hours of dedicated Houston Texans programming every week during football season, including in excess of five hours on Mondays as part of "Texans Monday" and a two-hour "Texans Live" show every weeknight from 6-8 p.m. on SportsRadio 610, and streaming online at TexansRadio.com and via the Texans app for a variety of mobile devices.

Texans Radio on Sports Radio 610 is the best place to find team information on the airwaves. Exclusive shows with Head Coach Bill O'Brien (Mondays) and a player (Tuesdays) have drawn record ratings. Texans Radio also broadcasts a 60-minute condensed version of every game on Tuesdays from 8-9 p.m. on SportsRadio 610 called "Texans Replay." Starting this season, "Texans All Access" will air from 6-7 p.m. on weekdays throughout the offseason and 6-8 p.m. on weekdays throughout the regular season.

Texans Radio also exclusively airs Houston Texans NFL Draft coverage, with 16 hours of live on-site coverage from NRG Stadium throughout the draft, and of Houston Texans Training Camp, with daily live broadcasts from the Houston Methodist Training Center throughout training camp.
