Cowboys Stadium Construction Timeline

FRONT OFFICE

In one of the most dramatic eras of ownership in professional sports, Jerry Jones' stewardship of the Dallas Cowboys has brought unprecedented results and success to one of the world's most popular sports entities.

Aside from being one of just two current owners to guide their franchises to at least three Super Bowl titles, Jones' efforts in the areas of sports marketing, promotion and the development of Cowboys Stadium have created a vivid imprint on the landscape of the NFL and the American sports culture.

Highlighted by Super Bowl victories following the 1992, 1993 and 1995 seasons, Jones became the first owner in NFL history to guide his team to three league championships in his first seven years of ownership. In 1995 Dallas also became the first team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four seasons while tying the then NFL record for most Super Bowl victories by an organization with five.

The first decade of Jones' ownership closed with eight playoff appearances, six division titles, four conference championship game appearances and three world crowns as the Cowboys were named the NFL's Team of the 1990s. Dallas closed the first decade of the new millennium with division titles in 2007 and 2009 while the 2009 club secured the 11th playoff appearance in Jones' 24 seasons of leadership.

Along with the success of the Dallas Cowboys on the field, Jones' vision and leadership provided the driving influence behind the concept, design and construction of Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas - a venue that is recognized internationally as perhaps the most spectacular and state-of-the-art sports stadium in the world.

Opened to the public in May of 2009, Cowboys Stadium's dramatic first season of operation resulted in the venue being named the Sports Facility of the Year by the Sports Business Journal in May of 2010. Along with that achievement for the team's new home, Jones was also named the 2009 Sports Executive of the Year by the SBJ.

The 100,000-plus seat Cowboys Stadium established the attendance record for an NFL regular season game as 105,121 witnessed the September 20, 2009 home opener, while the 108,713 who attended the NBA All-Star Game on February 14, 2010 became the largest crowd to witness a basketball game in the history of the sport.

In just over four years of operation, more than six million fans have attended events that included high school and collegiate football, major college basketball, professional bull riding, Motocross, world championship boxing and concerts that featured world renowned recording artists. Nearly two million other visitors have passed through the twelve-story high doors of the stadium for daily public tours of the venue.

With its architectural versatility and cutting edge media capabilities, Cowboys Stadium has become a visible beacon that has established North Texas as a major focal point on the sports and entertainment canvas of North America.

The brilliant home of the Cowboys has become a powerful catalyst in attracting a wide range of national and international events that will define the future of the region for generations to come. After already playing host to Super Bowl XLV in February of 2011, other top flight events for the future include the annual AT&T Cotton Bowl, the 2014 NCAA Final Four in men's basketball, the Texas A&M-Arkansas football Southwest Classic and the annual "Cowboys Classic" collegiate football series just to name a few.

Since he took over as general manager in 1989, the Cowboys have drafted 26 different players who have gone on to appear in a combined total of 100 Pro Bowls. Dallas has also signed 11 free agent players who have made 28 Pro Bowl appearances while representing the Dallas Cowboys. Since 1989 the Cowboys have made 134 trades, the most celebrated of which was the 1989 deal that sent Herschel Walker to the Minnesota Vikings and provided the personnel foundation for three league titles.

In selecting the on-the-field leadership for the Cowboys, Jones hired a pair of coaches who won three Super Bowls in Dallas: Jimmy Johnson (1992-1993) and Barry Switzer (1995). Chan Gailey followed with a division title and playoff appearances in 1998 and 1999. In 2003 Jones successfully recruited two-time Super Bowl winner Bill Parcells to Dallas, and Parcells directed the team to three winning seasons and two playoff trips in four years. In February of 2007, Jones added another successful NFL head coach in Wade Phillips, who guided the club to a pair of division titles in his first three years (2007 and 2009) and a playoff victory in 2009. In 2011 Jones named Jason Garrett as the team's eighth head coach after the former Cowboys quarterback guided the club to a 5-3 record as the interim coach in the second half of the 2010 season.

In the last 35 years, 36 different owners have entered the National Football League. Of that group, only Jerry Jones and Robert Kraft of New England have guided their franchises to more than two Super Bowl championships. Moreover, Jones joins Art Rooney, Jack Kent Cooke, Al Davis, Eddie DeBartolo and Kraft as the only men to have won at least three Super Bowls as NFL owners.

On the league front, he actively contributes his vision and enthusiasm to enhancing the NFL's status as the world's premier professional sports league by serving on a wide range of league committees. In 2011 he was very involved — as a member of the Management Council Executive Committee – in the labor negotiations that resulted in the most recent Collective Bargaining Agreement between the NFL and its players. In addition to the CEC, Jones is currently the Chairman of the NFL Network Committee, Chairman of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, and he is a member of the NFL

Broadcasting Committee, and the Health and Safety Advisory Committee. Jones also served on the committee that was charged with overseeing the search for a successor to retired NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue – a process that successfully landed current NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell in September of 2006. In addition, Jones has served two prior terms as a member of the NFL's Competition Committee as well as a stint on the Business Ventures Committee.

His contributions and innovations in the areas of marketing, corporate sponsorships, television, stadium management, stadium development, labor negotiations and community service have made a visible imprint on the ever evolving face of professional sports in America. Since becoming involved with the Cowboys, Jones' accomplishments have been recognized through his induction into the Boys and Girls Clubs of America Hall of Fame, the Texas Sports Hall of Fame (2007), the Texas Business Hall of Fame (2005), the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame (1999) and the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame (1998). In July of 2012. Jones was recognized as the Lifetime Achievement Award recipient by the Arkansas Sportscasters and Sportswriters Hall of Fame. In August of 2007, he served as the presenter for Michael Irvin's induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame - a recognition he was also named for by Emmitt Smith in Canton in August of 2010 and 2013 enshrinee Larry Allen.

As a co-captain of the 1964 National Championship Arkansas Razorbacks, Jones is one of a very small number of NFL owners who actually earned a significant level of success as a football player. He is the only man in the history of the National Football League to play for a collegiate national championship football team and own a Super Bowl winner. In addition, Jones and the legendary George Halas are the only two men to become NFL owners after playing in a major college football bowl game. His current ties to the college game include membership on the Board of Directors for the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

A man of varied interests who will not rest on yesterday's achievements - he is a dedicated businessman and family man - sharing a vivid enthusiasm for both. Although Jones and his family are very involved in numerous civic and charitable causes, the Joneses have left an indelible local and national impression on the philanthropic landscape with their love and dedication to The Salvation Army.

For the past 16 seasons, the Jones family has dedicated the Cowboys Thanksgiving Day halfitime show as a national showcase to kick off The Salvation Army's annual Red Kettle Drive. Through the donation of national television air-time, the event has created a holiday tradition, while helping to increase donations to The Salvation Army's annual fund raising efforts by hundreds of millions of dollars. Major George Hood of The Salvation Army states that "by presenting the National Kettle Kickoff on Thanksgiving Day, the Dallas Cowboys have helped The Army raise over one billion dollars in the past 16 years." Reba McEntire, Randy Travis, Clint Black, Jessica Simpson, Billy Gilman, Creed, LeAnn Rimes, Toby Keith, Destiny's Child, Sheryl Crow, Carrie Underwood, Kelly Clarkson, The Jonas Brothers, Daughtry, Keith Urban, Enrique Iglesias and Kenny Chesney have provided the entertainment for the holiday extravaganzas.

The Salvation Army points to the annual Cowboys kickoff event as one of the most effective, creative and important innovations that has been developed in the long and storied history of the organization.

The Joneses received the Evangeline Booth Award in 1999, one of The Army's highest national community service awards and have been selected for membership into the prestigious Salvation Army William Booth Society. Gene and Jerry were also named to the Army's National Advisory Board in April of 1998 shortly after being named the organization's Partners of the Year in 1997. In April of 2007, Gene and Jerry Jones served as the honorary chairpersons for The Salvation Army's National Advisory Organizations Conference (NAOC) that was held in Dallas.

For 10 years, Gene and Jerry Jones served as hosts and underwrote the costs for the Super Lunch, a fundraising event for The Salvation Army Irving Corps Community Center. In 1998 the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Center for Children opened in conjunction with The Army.

As part of the Jones Family and the Dallas Cowboys commitment to Arlington, Texas, the home of the club's stadium, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities will donate a total of $16.5 million to non-profit organizations serving youth in Arlington from 2009-2041.

In 2001 the Joneses were awarded the Chairman's Award by The Boys and Girls Clubs of America. In June of 2002, Gene and Jerry Jones were recognized as the recipients of the Children's Champion Award for Philanthropy that was presented by the Dallas for Children organization. In 2003 the Family Gateway organization of Dallas presented Gene and Jerry with the Annette G. Strauss Humanitarian Award. In April of 2005, Gene and Jerry were recipients of the Hope Award, the highest community service recognition awarded by the Lone Star Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. In 2010 the Jones Family and the Cowboys were selected by The Boys and Girls Clubs of America to receive the prestigious Chairman's Award that recognized the Cowboys long and dedicated history of supporting that organization.

The Jones family is very involved with several other community-related organizations, including Children's Medical Center of Dallas, Happy Hill Farm Academy/Home, the National Board for The Boys and Girls Clubs of America, the Kent Waldrep Paralysis Foundation, The Rise School of Dallas, The Family Place and The Family Gateway. In 2010 the Jones family endowed the North Texas Youth Education Town with a $1 million grant. Created as a lasting legacy of Super Bowl XLV, the North Texas YET will be administered by The Salvation Army and provide North Texas youth with education, mentoring, fitness and character enrichment programs.

Jerry (10/13/42) and Gene live in Dallas. They have three children, Stephen, Charlotte and Jerry, Jr., and nine grandchildren.

Stephen (6/21/64) is a graduate of the University of Arkansas and serves as the Cowboys Chief Operating Officer/Executive Vice President/Director of Player Personnel. Charlotte (7/26/66) is a Stanford graduate and serves as the Cowboys Executive Vice President/Chief Brand Officer/President of Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders. Jerry Jr. (9/27/69), a graduate of Georgetown University who earned his law degree from Southern Methodist University, is the Cowboys Executive Vice President/Chief Sales and Marketing Officer.

Jones graduated from Arkansas in 1965 with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration, and earned a Master of Arts degree from the University that same year.

Chronology Since 1989:

February 25, 1989 – Jones purchases the Dallas Cowboys and the lease to manage Texas Stadium from H.R. "Bum" Bright. Jerry Jones names Jimmy Johnson as the new head coach.

April 20, 1989 – Jones completes negotiations on Troy Aikman's contract – a six-year deal that is completed four days before Aikman is the top overall selection in the 1989 NFL Draft.

October 12, 1989 – Herschel Walker is traded to Minnesota for five players, six conditional draft choices and a 1992 first round draft choice. Among the players who actually came to Dallas as a result of the trade include Emmitt Smith, Russell Maryland, Kevin Smith and Darren Woodson.

August 10, 1990 – The Cowboys first-ever instate training camp concludes at St. Edward's University in Austin. Over 100,000 fans attend workouts, while more than 400 media credentials are issued. Austin officials estimate the camp brought an additional $3.2 million of income into the Austin area.

September 5, 1990 – The Cowboys trade Steve Walsh to the New Orleans Saints for a first and third round draft choice in 1991 and a conditional second round pick in 1992.

April 19, 1991 – A deal is made to bring the first overall selection in the 1991 NFL Draft to Dallas in exchange for a first and second round selection and three veteran players. Dallas selected Outland Trophy winner Russell Maryland with the top pick.

STEPHEN JONES CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER EXECUTIVE-VICE=PRESIDENT DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

With 24 years of NFL experience, Stephen Jones has established himself as one of the brightest and most versatile executives in professional sports. Recognized as Owner Jerry Jones' right-hand man, Stephen is the Cowboys Chief Operating Officer /Executive Vice President, as well as Player Personnel Director and President of Cowboys Stadium.

He oversees all elements of the scouting and player personnel departments for the Cowboys as well as all aspects of the stadium management operation. His work involves managing the organization's 400-plus employees, while also overseeing the club's salary cap and all major player contract concerns. He is also active in the recruitment - and management - of all major events that come to Cowboys Stadium. Jones' experience as a major college football player, and his years as one of the NFL's top executives, were instrumental in his recent appointment to the League's prestigious Competition Committee.

Jones spearheaded the club's new stadium efforts, overseeing every element of the development and construction of the venue while also working closely with local government, community and business leaders. He was directly responsible for the club's successful referendum campaign in the fall of 2004 that saw the City of Arlington agree to join forces with the Cowboys in building a new state-of-the-art stadium.

Opened to the public in May of 2009, Cowboys Stadium's dramatic first season of operation resulted in the venue being named the Sports Facility of the Year by the Sports Business Journal in May of

The 100,000-plus seat Cowboys Stadium established the attendance record for an NFL regular season game as 105,121 witnessed the September 20, 2009 home opener, while the 108,713 who attended the NBA All-Star Game on February 14, 2010 became the largest crowd to witness a basketball game in the history of the sport.

In just over three years of operation, more than six million fans have attended events that included high school and collegiate football, major college basketball, international soccer, professional bull riding, Motocross, world championship boxing and a handful of concerts that featured world renowned recording artists. Another two million visitors passed through the twelve-story high doors of the stadium for daily public tours of the venue.

With its architectural versatility and cutting edge media capabilities, Cowboys Stadium has become a visible beacon that has established North Texas as a major focal point on the sports and entertainment canvas of North America. The brilliant new home of the Cowboys has become a powerful catalyst in attracting a wide range of national and international events that will define the future of the region for generations to come. After already playing host to Super Bowl XLV in February of 2011, other top flight events for the future include the annual AT&T Cotton Bowl, the 2014 NCAA Final Four in men's basketball, the "Cowboys Classic" which features a marquee matchup of prominent schools at the beginning of each collegiate football season and Texas A&M-Arkansas football series just to name a few.

Prior to focusing much of his energy on the new venue in Arlington, Jones' stewardship of historic Texas Stadium left behind a legacy of facility management that maximized the use and visibility of the venue into a year-round destination for sporting, entertainment, community and corporate events on an unprecedented level. His vast experience in stadium management, design and development has landed him a standing appointment on the NFL's New Stadium Committee.

Jones played an integral role in the team's rise from a 1-15 record in 1989 to being the NFL's "Team of the Decade" with three Super Bowl titles in the 1990s. As he enters his 25th NFL season, Jones is a driving force behind the Cowboys push to return to the NFL's elite level of teams. His recent work has seen the club restock its roster with some of the game's top talent and the recent results have produced winning records in six of the last nine seasons - and division titles in 2007 and 2009.

Most recently he has negotiated contract agreements with a core group of veteran players with Pro Bowl experience. That group includes, Jason Witten, Tony Romo, DeMarcus Ware, Jay Ratliff and Miles Austin.

The last 11 draft classes (2002-2012) are proving to be the foundation for the future of the Cowboys with 12 starters and 13 All-Rookie Team members coming out of those selections. Those same drafts also produced 10 Pro Bowl players who have collectively combined for 35 all-star game appearances in Roy Williams (2002 draft), Andre Gurode (2002), Terence Newman (2003), Jason Witten (2003), DeMarcus Ware (2005), Marion Barber (2005), Jay Ratliff, Nick Folk (2007), Anthony Spencer (2007) and Mike Jenkins (2008).

In the ever-evolving strategy that dictates a team's competitiveness in the current collective bargaining agreement, Jones' performance in managing the Cowboys salary cap, and the club's activity in free agency, has played a prominent role in the team's ability to compete at the NFL's highest level. Most recently he has overseen the acquisition of veteran free agents such as Will Allen, Mackenzy Bernadeau, Brandon Carr, Justin Durant, Nate Livings, Kyle Orton and Lawrence Vickers.

Jones' involvement in shaping the Dallas roster under the salary cap was critical in allowing the Cowboys to maintain one of the NFL's most talented core group of players throughout the decade of the 1990s. His creativity and care taking of the Cowboys cap played a key role in the team's six division titles and four conference championship game appearances

During a historic two-year period of time, Jones was involved in signing five Cowboys stars who were considered the best players in the game at their respective positions. Between September of 1993 and September of 1995, Jones helped orchestrate contract agreements with running back Emmitt Smith, quarterback Troy Aikman, fullback Daryl Johnston, wide receiver Michael Irvin and cornerback Deion Sanders.

Jones has enjoyed a life-long association with the game of football. A four-year letterman as a linebacker and special teams standout at the University of Arkansas, Jones was a starter for the Razorbacks in the Orange Bowl Classic Game that followed the 1986 season. Prior to attending the University of Arkansas, Jones was an all-state quarterback and a three-year starter at Catholic High School in Little Rock, Arkansas.

He graduated from Arkansas in 1988 with a degree in chemical engineering, and immediately went to work in the oil and gas business for JMC Exploration as an engineer.

On Feb. 25, 1989, Jerry Jones purchased the Dallas Cowboys and installed Stephen into a key front office position as one-of-three vice presidents with the club.

Jones is a member and past president of the of the Dallas Chapter Young Presidents' Organization. He serves on the board of directors for the SMU Athletic Forum and Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He also serves on the board for the Dallas Citizens Council and the Baylor Health Care System Foundation. He is a former member of the NFL's Business Ventures Committee, and he is also a member of the board of directors for Legends Hospitality - the joint stadium catering venture involving the Dallas Cowboys and the New York Yankees organizations that Jones was instrumental in creat-

Jones (6/21/64) was born and reared in Little Rock. He is married to the former Karen Hickman of El Dorado, Arkansas, and the couple has three daughters and a son: Jessica, Jordan, Caroline and John Stephen.

Charlotte Jones Anderson, Dallas Cowboys Executive Vice President and Chief Brand Officer, oversees all strategies and applications surrounding the team's brand as it is presented to fans worldwide. Her two and a half decades of innovation and direction with the Cowboys have led to positions of leadership on national platforms that have established Anderson as one of the most influential executives among women in American sports.

In 2010 Anderson was selected to a three-year term as the first woman to serve as Chairman of The Salvation Army's National Advisory Board. Her background with The Army began in 1997 when she introduced a groundbreaking approach to fund-raising on the world-wide stage by focusing a Thanksgiving Day national television audience during the Dallas Cowboys halftime on the unique opportunity to kick off the Salvation Army's National Red Kettle Campaign. Anderson set the wheels in motion, helping The Army raise over 1.6 billion dollars and touch lives across the globe by combining the Dallas Cowboys and popular musical entertainers featured on network television during one of the most watched NFL games of the season annually.

NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell broke new ground in 2013 by selecting Anderson as the Chairman of the NFL Foundation, an appointment that made her the first woman to serve in this capacity for an NFL charitable institution and the first woman to represent club ownership as the leader of a major professional sports league foundation. In this role, she is responsible for spearheading the NFL efforts in youth football participation, health and safeth and community outraces.

Closer to home, her vision and direction guides the Cowboys in stadium design, fan engagement, entertainment, licensed apparel, cause marketing, and community service. Anderson also serves as President of the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities and the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Arlington Youth Foundation.

Anderson plays a prominent role in shaping the design, décor, sponsor integration and overall presentation of Cowboys Stadium, the state-of-the-art venue that opened in Arlington, Texas in 2009. The stadium's signature element is one of the most prominent public art collections, the Art Collection at Cowboys Stadium. Consisting of 50 pieces of contemporary art from an international array of curated artists, the collection is displayed on the walls and in the grand public spaces of the stadium.

Under her guidance, the venue has played host to some of the highest profile sports and entertainment events in the world – among those are Super Bowl XLV, the 2010 NBA All Star Game and the annual AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. As Chair of the North Texas Local Organizing Committee, Anderson will direct the group spearheading the region's efforts to host the 2014 NCAA Men's Final Four basketball championship at Cowboys Stadium.

Anderson is also President of the Dallas

Cowboys Cheerleaders and is responsible for supervising the fortunes and travels of what is considered to be the most prominent organization of its kind in the world. In the late 1990s, the Cowboys Cheerleaders surpassed the legendary Bob Hope in total number of USO visits made to U.S. military installations around the world.

Anderson's spirit of involvement in the local community extends far beyond the realm of professional football. Since coming to the Dallas-Ft. # JERRY JONES, JR. EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT CHIEF SALES AND MARKETING OFFICER

As Executive Vice President and Chief Sales and Marketing Officer, Jerry Jones, Jr. is a key member of the Dallas Cowboys front office, overseeing the club's entire sales and marketing efforts. Jones was instrumental in the design and planning of Cowboys Stadium, viewed as one of the world's truly unique sports and entertainment venues. In its first three years of operation, Cowboys Stadium has already played host to Super Bowl XLV, the 2010 NBA All Star Game, the AT&T Cotton Bowl, and numerous other major events on top of being the home of the Dallas Cowboys.

In his current role, Jones is the guiding force behind all of the club's sales and marketing efforts, both those directed at the team's loyal fans as well as its corporate partners. With the Cowboys unique vertical structure, Jones leads a team that is not only responsible for the sales and marketing of the club, but also its vast merchandising business as well as all digital and broadcast media.

Over the last few years, Jones guided the transition of 65,000 season ticket holders as well as over 300 suite owners from Texas Stadium to the club's new home. With a stadium capable of holding up to 100,000 fans, with eight club areas and 3.0 million square feet of space, this monumental effort required the expansion of the club's sales team to over 60 employees dedicated to personalized customer service. At the same time, Jones has also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the club's already sizable corporate sponsorship base. In recent years, Jones has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Miller Brewing, Ford, Bank of America, Pepsi and Dr Pepper as well as the addition of a new major member of the team, AT&T.

In both 2008 and 2009 these efforts were recognized by the Sports Business Journal when Jones was named to their 40 Under 40 List of executives under the age of 40 who are making the greatest contribution to their organization and the world of sports and entertainment.

On the broadcast front, Jones oversaw the 2006 move to bring the club's radio broadcast in-house. The move added English radio to the club's stable of English and Spanish television programming as well as the Spanish radio broadcast. Blue Star Media now originates over 30 hours a week of original television, radio and internet programming aired across the Dallas Cowboys Broadcasting Network in five states.

Jones has established a growing reputation at the league level as it relates to sales and marketing. In recent years he has been named to both the NFL's Marketing Executives Committee as well as the Internet Working Group Committee.

In 2001, to help further the Dallas Cowboys marketing and brand image initiatives, Jones became the President of Dallas Cowboys Merchandising, Ltd. (DCM), a company formed in 1996 to design, manufacture and distribute Dallas Cowboys merchandise throughout the world. To date, the Cowboys are still the only major league sports team to form such an entity, enabling their fans to have the unique opportunity to enjoy the authenticity of team merchandise and memorabilia, straight from the source. Under Jones's leadership, DCM and the Dallas Cowboys continue to thrive as one of the top teams in NFL sales over the past 20 years.

Today DCM mall stores have more than doubled to 35 retail locations throughout Texas and New Mexico, including the 15,000 square foot Pro Shop in Cowboys Stadium; the largest Pro Shop of any NFL team. In 2010, DCM moved into a new 400,000 square foot manufacturing and distribution

headquarters near DFW Airport

Jones took over as the club's Chief Marketing Officer in 2001 after first joining the club in 1996 as Vice President and General Counsel. He spent his early years negotiating rookie contracts, local radio and television broadcast rights fees and sponsorship agreements. He was also instrumental in launching the Dallas Cowboys official website, www.dallascowboys.com. The Cowboys website continues to be at the forefront of internet technology and has become one of the NFL's most comprehensive and innovative team pages. Following the 2005 season, the site won the NFL's award for best content which not only includes the quality of writing material, but also the video updates, video shows, and live internet broadcasts. To this day, www.dallascowboys.com receives more visits than any other team website in the NFL.

Jones, born Sept. 27, 1969, earned his law degree from Southern Methodist University in 1995. He completed his undergraduate coursework at Georgetown University, where he majored in political science and graduated with a BA in 1992. Jones and his wife, Lori, reside in Dallas, Texas with their children James and Mary Chambers.

Jason Garrett was named the eighth head coach in Dallas Cowboys history on January 5, 2011. Garrett, who played for or worked alongside five of his predecessors, became the first former Dallas Cowboys player to become the team's head coach.

Having literally grown up around successful head coaches in the NFL and in the Dallas Cowboys family, Garrett was a member of three Super Bowl winning teams in the 1990s during his seven seasons as a Cowboys quarterback. His father, Jim, was a personnel scout for the team for 21 years and served under every Super Bowl winning head coach and ownership regime in franchise history.

As a player in Dallas, Garrett learned under championship coaches Jimmy Johnson and Barry Switzer, while serving as a backup to Troy Aikman in offenses directed by Norv Turner and Ernie Zampese. He went on to play for the New York Giants, who reached Super Bowl XXXV, while playing for offensive coordinator Sean Payton. Garrett finished his playing days while studying under Jon Gruden in Tampa Bay and started his coaching career with the Miami Dolphins, where he worked under four-time collegiate national championship head coach, Nick Saban.

Garrett was elevated to the Cowboys top job after taking over as the team's interim head coach at the midpoint of the 2010 season. He went on to guide a Dallas team that had started the season with a 1-7 record to a 5-3 mark down the stretch. In the season's second half, three of the Cowboys five victories were against teams that posted 10 regular season wins, while the three Dallas defeats were decided by a combined total of seven points.

Garrett's second full year guiding the Dallas Cowboys produced the club's third-best all-time total net yardage figure as the 2012 squad racked up 5,994 yards. Additionally, Tony Romo threw for a club-record 4,903 gross yards as part of an offense that posted a club-best 4,729 net yards. Romo also set club marks for attempts (648) and completions (425), becoming the eighth different NFL quarterback to go at least 400-of-600 in a season. NFL quarterbacks achieved that mark 15 times in league history. Also benefitting from Dallas' offensive output was Dez Bryant, who finished the season with a team-leading and career-best 1,382 yards - fourth in team history - and 12 touchdowns - tied for fifth in club history. Jason Witten was also a recipient of the high-powered pass attack, racking up a league tight end record 110 catches (second in team history) and his fourth career 1,000-yard season (1,039).

In his first full year as head coach, Garrett guided the 2011 team to an 8-8 finish as the offense amassed 6,008 yards for the second-highest yardage output in franchise history. Romo returned to the helm and finished with one of his best statistical seasons, posting a career-best 102.5 quarter-back rating, good for third in the NFC, fourth in the NFL and second in team history. He eclipsed the 4,000-yard mark for the third time in his career and the third time in team history with 4,184 on the year

(third in club history). Romo's 66.28 completion percentage was also a career-best (second in team history), while his 31 touchdown passes (second), attempts (third) and completions (second) were all good for the second-most of his career at the time. Tight end Jason Witten led the team in receptions (79) - for the fifth straight season and sixth overall - and receiving yards (942) while finishing fourth with five touchdown receptions. In his second season, Dez Bryant finished second on the team in catches (63), receiving yards (928) and touchdowns (nine), while veteran Laurent Robinson led the team with 11 touchdown receptions on 54 catches for 858 yards. Rookie running back DeMarco Murray provided a mid-season spurt as he set a club rushing record with 253 rushing yards against St. Louis (10/23). Murray led the team with 167 carries for 897 yards and two touchdowns despite starting only seven games and missing the final three games after landing on Reserve/Injured with a broken ankle. With an offensive line in transition, rookie Tyron Smith emerged as a solid building block for the long term after starting all 16 games at right tackle and earning All-Rookie honors.

Garrett served as the chief play caller on offense since joining the staff as the offensive coordinator for Wade Phillips in 2007. In 2008 he was assigned the additional duties of being the club's assistant

head coach

Under Garrett, the Dallas offense has reached high levels of productivity in several categories, and the unit has finished among the NFL's top-10 in total offense in four of his six years at the helm: 2012 (6th), 2010 (10th), 2009 (2nd) and 2007 (2nd). From the start of the 2007 season, the club has averaged 24.1 points-per-game (seventh in the league over that span) and 370.7 total yards-per-outing (fourth in the league over that span). Since his arrival in 2007, not only has the team set single-season records in numerous offensive categories, but the club's cumulative numbers for total net yards (35,583) and gross passing yards (25,513) represent the best totals over a six-year span in the history of the organization while the club's 2,317 points scored over that span are third. Under Garrett's tutelage, eight different offensive players have earned 20 total trips to the Pro Bowl.

Although the 2010 club faced its share of chal-

Although the 2010 club faced its share of chalenges, the offense continued to put up big numbers, amassing 5,828 total yards for the seventh-highest yardage output in franchise history. Dallas also topped the 4,000 passing yard mark for the third time in four years with the third-most in club history (4,042). Romo started the season running the offense, but a fractured left clavicle suffered against the N.Y. Giants (10/25) led the way for Jon Kitna to take over. Before the injury, Romo completed 148-of-213 passes (69.5%) for 1,605 yards, 11 touch-downs and seven interceptions. At the time of his injury, he had a 94.9 quarterback rating that was sixth in the NFL and tops in the NFC. Witten also finished with 1,002 receiving yards and nine touch downs. His 1,002 yards marked his third career 1,000-yard season and his second consecutive, while his nine touchdowns tied a team tight end record. Miles Austin notched his second straight 1,000-yard season (1,041) to give the Cowboys their fifth time with two pass catchers topping 1,000 yards. Rookie wide receiver Bryant was well on his way to a record-breaking rookie season before fracturing his ankle at Indianapolis (12/5). Prior to his injury, Bryant collected 45 catches (second all-time among team rookies) for 564 yards (fifth) and six touchdown catches (tied for second). The club sent three offensive players to the Pro Bowl: Austin (second consecutive), Andre Gurode (fifth consecutive) and Witten (seventh consecutive).

En route to winning the 2009 NFC Eastern Division title, Dallas established club records for total offensive yards (6,390), net passing yards (4,287) and pass completions (347). Dallas ranked second in the NFL in yards-per-game (399.4), sixth in passing (267.9) and seventh in the league in rushing (131.4). Romo broke his previous single season records for completions (347) and passing yards (4,483), while Austin (1,320 receiving yards) and Witten (1,030) became just the fourth pair of Cowboys pass catchers to gain more than 1,000 yards in a season in team annals. On the ground, second-year running back Felix Jones eclipsed a 47-year old record for rushing yards-per-carry with a season average of 5.9.

The 2009 club led the NFL in average gain on first down plays (6.52), and five offensive players made trips to the Pro Bowl in South Florida: Witten, Davis, Gurode, Romo and Austin.

In 2008 Dallas finished the season 13th in the NFL in total offense with an average of 344.5 yardspergame. The team was ninth in the league in passing offense (236.8 yardspergame), and the team's total of 3,789 net yards passing was the fifth-highest in club history since the 16-game NFL regular season was implemented in 1978. Following the season, offensive linemen Davis, Gurode and Flozell Adams were selected to represent the Cowboys in the Pro Bowl along with Witten.

In 2007 Garrett directed a Dallas unit that produced one of the most explosive seasons in club history. Following the season in which the Cowboys won the NFC Eastern Division crown with a team-record tying 13 victories, head coach Wade Phillips added to Garrett's responsibilities by naming him the club's assistant head coach on January 17, 2008. Regarded as one of the bright young offensive minds in the league, Garrett was named Pro Football Weekly's NFL's Assistant Coach of the Year in March of 2008. The award, which is presented annually at the Ed Block Courage Awards Banquet in Baltimore, is selected by a vote of the Pro Football Writers of America.

Dallas finished the 2007 season second in the NFL in scoring (first in the NFC) with an average of 28.4 points-per-game. The 455 points scored in 2007 marked the second-highest figure in club history behind only the 1983 club (479 points). The Cowboys scored at least 20 points in 14 of its 16 games in 2007, marking the most 20-plus point games since the 1995 club also had 14. The 2007 offense also set a club record by scoring 24-points-or-more in the first 13 games of the season.

With a 16-game average of 365.7 yards-pergame, the Cowboys were third in the NFL (second in the NFC) in total offense. Dallas closed the 2007 season fourth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in passing with an average of 256.6 yards-pergame. In the rushing offense category, the Cowboys were 17th in the NFL (seventh in the NFC) with an average of 109.1 yards-pergame. The 5,851 yards in total offense by Dallas in 2007 marked the fifth-highest total yardage output in team history at the time. The Cowboys established a club record with 217 passing first downs in 2007, while also leading the NFL in average yards gained on first downs. Dallas picked up an average of 6.24 yards on first down plays, while New England (6.09) was second.

In his first full season as an NFL starter, Romo finished the campaign as the NFC's top rated passer (97.4), marking the third-highest single season passer rating in club history. With 36 touchdown passes in 2007, Romo established a Cowboys record for single season scoring tosses - eclipsing the mark of 29 set by Danny White in 1983. Romo also set what were then season club marks for completions (335) and passing yardage (4.211).

and passing yardage (4,211).

Terrell Owens closed the year second in the NFC in receiving yardage with 1,355 (fifth in the NFL), and he led the NFC in touchdown catches (third in the NFL) with a club-record 15 scoring receptions. Witten finished the year second among all NFL tight ends (first in the NFC) in both receptions (96) and yardage (1,145). Both totals represented club records for a Dallas tight end in a single season.

Barber's 4.8-yard rushing average was fifth among all NFL backs, and his 10 rushing touch-downs tied for fifth in the NFL. The one-two punch of Barber and Julius Jones combined for 1,563 yards on the ground and a combined average of 97.7 yards-per-game.

Garrett returned to Dallas in 2007 as the offensive coordinator after spending the previous two seasons tutoring the Miami Dolphins quarterbacks. Garrett, who was a backup quarterback to Troy Aikman in Dallas from 1993 to 1999, rejoined the Cowboys with a great understanding of the championship heritage of the organization. As a player in Dallas, he was a member of teams that won six division titles and three Super Bowl championships.

He entered the coaching profession in February of 2005 as the quarterbacks coach for Nick Saban's first Miami Dolphins club. While in Miami, Garrett capably handled the challenge of having to work with five different starting quarterbacks over the course of 32 regular season games. In 2005 Miami quarterbacks threw 22 touchdowns with just 16 interceptions. Their plus-six differential was the team's best since the 1998 season when they were a plusseven (23-16). In 2006 Garrett managed three starting quarterbacks for an offensive unit that produced four pass receivers who each had at least 55 receptions. It marked the first time in club history that four different receivers had at least 55 catches.

As a player, Garrett worked under highly successful offensive coordinators Norv Turner and Ernie Zampese in Dallas while providing sideline assistance to Aikman for the majority of his Hall of Fame career. After moving to New York in 2000, he helped guide starting quarterback Kerry Collins and the Giants to an NFC Championship and a Super Bowl berth while working along side Saints head coach Sean Payton, who was the team's offensive coordinator. Garrett also gained valuable experience in absorbing Jon Gruden's offensive philosophies during a stint with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the closing months of his playing career in 2004.

In his seven years as a player in Dallas, Garrett started nine of the 23 games in which he played. A key reserve player on three Super Bowl teams, he is best remembered for his Thanksgiving Day heroics in 1994. As the Cowboys third quarterback on the depth chart, he made his second career start against Green Bay after Aikman and backup quarterback Rodney Peete were felled with injuries in previous weeks. Garrett led Dallas to a thrilling 42-31 come-from-behind victory in which he directed the Cowboys to a club-record 36 second half points with six consecutive second half scoring drives. He finished the day with 311 passing yards on 15 completions with two touchdown tosses and was named the NFC's Offensive Player of the Week. He went on to start five games in 1998 and two games in 1999 to finish his days in Dallas with a 6-3 record as a starting quarterback.

Garrett served as the primary backup to Kerry Collins during the New York Giants run to the Super Bowl in 2000, and played the entire fourth quarter of the NFC Championship Game that year. He spent the next three seasons with the Giants (2000-03).

He concluded his career by splitting the 2004 season with Tampa Bay and Miami. Overall in his 12 NFL seasons, Garrett started nine of the 40 regular season games in which he played and completed 165-of-294 passes for 2,042 yards with 11 touchdowns and five interceptions.

As a senior at Princeton University in 1988, Garrett was named the Ivy League's Player of the Year and honorable mention All-American. He earned his degree in history in 1989, and moved on to the NFL as an undrafted rookie free agent with the New Orleans Saints developmental squad. After being released prior to the 1990 season, he spent the fall of 1990 as an assistant coach at Princeton. In 1991 Garrett moved on to play in the World League and the Canadian Football League before joining the Cowboys practice squad in 1992.

Garrett, who prepped at University School in Chagrin Falls, Ohio, followed in his family footsteps in 2005. His father, Jim, spent more than 30 years in the NFL as a coach and scout. His brother, John, is now the wide receivers coach with the Buccaneers Another brother, Judd, was a practice squad player for the 1993 Cowboys Super Bowl Championship club and is now with the Cowboys scouting department as the director of pro scouting.

The principle activity of the foundation is a one-day football camp and leadership forum for high school athletes, which is held each summer at Princeton University in conjunction with Play It Smart, a program administered by the National Football Foundation. The Dallas Cowboys announced Joe Baker as an assistant secondary coach on February 13, 2012. Baker arrived in Dallas after spending the previous three seasons (2009-11) as an assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He has 17 years of NFL coaching experience and three years at the collegiate level.

Baker worked closely with secondary coach Jerome Henderson in 2012 to integrate two new starting corners in first round draft choice Morris Claiborne and veteran free agent Brandon Carr. Carr led the team in interceptions with three - returning one for a touchdown - while Claiborne picked off one pass and had a fumble returned for a touchdown. In 2009 he was the defensive backs coach in Tampa Bay, and from 2010-11, Baker coached Buccaneers linebackers. Baker's 2009 defensive backfield helped Tampa Bay finish 10th in the league in pass defense as his unit accounted for 15 of the team's 19 interceptions. Safety Tanard Jackson and cornerback Aqib Talib tied for the team lead with five interceptions.

Prior to landing with the Buccaneers, Baker spent two seasons (2007-08) with the Denver Broncos, first as an offensive assistant, then as the club's linebackers coach. In his first season with Denver, Baker worked with a linebacking corps that was highlighted by D.J. Williams, who was making the transition to middle linebacker. Under Baker's tutelage, Williams finished the season second in the NFL with an AFC-best 141 tackles. Baker crossed over to the offensive side in 2008 as an offensive assistant and helped the unit finish second in the league in total offense (395.8 yards-per-game)

Baker was with the St. Louis Rams in 2006 (defensive quality control/linebackers) where he helped guide St. Louis to 32 takeaways - seventh in the league - with a league-best nine red zone take-aways. Baker spent 2005 with the Green Bay Packers (secondary/safeties) and worked with a defensive backfield that led the league in pass defense, allowing 165.7 yards-per-game - the club's lowest total in 27 seasons.

Baker spent five seasons (2000-04) coaching various defensive positions with the New Orleans Saints. In his time with the club. New Orleans was fifth in the league in takeaways (163) over the five seasons. He started with the Saints as an assistant defensive backfield/assistant special teams coach (2000-01), then was the team's secondary assistant (2002) and finally the secondary coach (2003-04).

Baker made his NFL coaching debut in 1995 as assistant special teams coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars, a position he held through the 1998 season. He first landed with the Jaguars in 1994 as the club's manager of football operations leading into its inaugural season.

In 1999 Baker returned to coach college ball at the University of Wisconsin as the school's outside linebackers/special teams coach. He coached running backs and wide receivers at Samford in 1993 after spending one season as the player personnel coordinator for the Birmingham Fire of the World League of American Football. Baker got his start coaching as a graduate assistant/defensive backs at East Stroudsburg University in 1991.

Baker played wide receiver four years (1987-1990) at Princeton University where he caught passes from Cowboys Head Coach Jason Garrett for two years (1987-88). He was part of Princeton's 1989 lvy League co-championship squad then earned his degree in history in 1991.

He is in his second stint as a strength coach in the NFL after spending one season (2006) with the N.Y. Jets in a similar capacity. He is no stranger to head strength and conditioning coach Mike Woicik's philosophy as Woicik ran the strength program in New Orleans for three of Bech's four seasons as a wide receiver.

Before landing in Dallas, Bech spent two and a half years training collegiate athletes for the NFL Combine at Athletes' Performance in Gulf Breeze, Fla. Prior to that, he was the Jacksonville Jaguars offseason speed consultant for two years (2007-08).

RICH BISACCIA SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR-

Yankton College

NFL: 12th Year • Cowboys: 1st Year

Rich Bisaccia was named the Dallas Cowboys special teams coordinator on Jan. 30, 2013. Bisaccia will begin his 31st season as a coach and 12th in the NFL.

Prior to arriving in Dallas, Bisaccia spent two seasons in San Diego with the Chargers. He was the club's special teams coach in 2011 before adding assistant head coach duties for the 2012 season.

From 2002-10 Bisaccia coached in Tampa Bay, orignally working with the special teams (2002-07), then adding the responsibilities of associate head coach and running backs (2008), before spending his last two seasons (2009-10) as the club's associate head coach/special teams. In addition to being a part of the Bucs Super Bowl XXXVII Championship team in his first season as an NFL coach, Bisaccia's charges earned three Pro Bowl selections, 13 NFC Player of the Week awards and four NFC Player of the Month awards through his tenure. Additionally, his units scored four touchdowns on kickoff returns, four on punt returns and blocked 18 kicks - 10 field goal attempts, five punts and three PAT tries. In 2009 the Buccaneers led the NFL with six blocked kicks while also leading the league in kickoff return average (26.3 yards-per-return) and ranked second in kickoff coverage, yielding just 19.1 yards-per-return.

Before hitting the pro ranks, Bisaccia spent 19 seasons coaching at the NCAA level. His most recent collegiate coaching stop was from 2000-01 when he was the assistant head coach/running backs/special teams at Mississippi. He was the school's running backs coach in his first season (1999). Bisaccia came to Mississippi after a five-year stint at Clemson as the school's running backs and special teams coach (1994-98). He coached the same units for two seasons at South Carolina (1992-93) after originally coming to the school as a graduate assistant in 1988, coaching tight ends and wide receivers. After one season in the graduate assistant role, he was a volunteer assistant for the school for three seasons, first working with defensive ends and special teams (1989-90) followed by tight ends and special teams (1989-90) followed by tight ends and special teams (1991). Bisaccia made his coaching debut in 1983 as the defensive backs/special teams coach at Wayne State then coached the school's quarterbacks and receivers from 1984-87.

Bisaccia played defensive back at Yankton College in South Dakota and is a native of Yonkers, NY. He and his wife, Jeanne, have three daughters

BEN BLOOM DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL LINEBACKERS Tufts NFL: 4th Year • Cowboys: 3rd Year

The Dallas Cowboys hired Ben Bloom during the 2011 offseason to serve as the club's defensive quality control coach and assist linebackers coach Matt Eberflus - whom Bloom worked with on the Cleveland Browns coaching staff in 2010.

Bloom continued to work closely with Eberflus and the linebackers in 2012. Both DeMarcus Ware and Anthony Spencer earned Pro Bowl berths as they each reached double-digit sacks, 11.5 and 11.0, respectively. Spencer also led the team in tackles with a career-best 106.

In his first season with the Cowboys, Bloom aided with the breakdown of opposing offensive film while also helping put together the team's weekly defensive playbook. In his role assisting Eberflus with the linebackers, Bloom worked with outside linebackers Ware and Spencer who accounted for 25.5 of the club's 42.0 sacks – Ware, 19.5 (second in the NFL) and Spencer, 6.0. Another one of Bloom's linebackers, Sean Lee, led the squad with 131 tackles as the second-year pro started 15 of the 16 games at middle linebacker. Spencer finished fourth on the tackle chart (74) and Ware sixth (67).

As a defensive assistant for the Browns in 2010, Bloom helped prepare the defense during practice and with the breakdown of film for upcoming opponents. He spent the 2009 season with the Browns as an assistant in team operations.

Prior to joining the Browns, Bloom served as an assistant defensive line coach at Harvard University during the 2008 season. He earned his master's degree in education from Tufts University, while serving as a graduate assistant defensive line coach there from 2005-07. Bloom also earned a bachelor's in history from Tufts where he was a three-year letter winner on the football team. He is a native of Wellesley, Mass.

The Dallas Cowboys brought in one of their own when they hired Chris Boniol leading up to the 2010 season to help kicker David Buehler transition into his full-time role as the club's place kicker. Boniol first came to Dallas as a rookie in 1994 as the club's placekicker and spent his first three NFL seasons with the club. In 2013 Boniol will continue to work with kicker Dan Bailey while assisting new special teams coordinator, Rich Bisaccia, with the special teams units.

In 2012 Boniol continued to work closely with the club's place kicker, Bailey, who picked up where he left off, finishing his second pro season converting 29-of-31 field goal tries for a 93.5 field goal percentage - good for second in club history.

As a second year coach in 2011, Boniol tutored rookie kicker Bailey, who responded well to the rigors of the NFL by establishing an NFL and club rookie record by connecting on 26 consecutive field goal tries. His 26 straight also tied Boniol for the second-longest field goal streak in franchise history. Along the way, Bailey was true on all six tries against Washington (9/26) to set a club rookie single-game record. He finished his rookie season with a selection to the Pro Football Writers of America All-Rookie team, connecting on 32-of-37 (86.5%) field goals. With kickoff specialist Buehler landing on Reserve/Injured at the midway point of the season, Bailey took over kickoff duties and finished the season with 24 touchbacks on 64 attempts.

In his first season as a pro coach, Boniol's mentorship of Buehler saw the second-year player finish 2010 converting 24-of-32 (75.0%) field goals and 42-of-44 PAT tries while also forcing 22 touchbacks. Buehler's .750 field goal percentage ranked sixth in Cowboys franchise history among Cowboy rookie or first-time kickers. Overall, his 114 points tied for fourth among the same group while his 22 touchbacks were third in a season in franchise history.

Boniol enjoyed a six-year pro career, playing for three different NFL teams. From 1994-96, Boniol converted 118-of-121 PATs and 81-of-93 (87.1%) of his field goals while helping the Cowboys to a Super Bowl XXX Championship. Boniol then played two seasons (1997-98) for Philadelphia and one (1999) with Chicago. Boniol enjoyed his finest season as a pro in 1995 as Dallas captured the Super Bowl XXX title. On the year, Boniol drilled 27-of-28 (96.4%) field goal attempts and 46-of-48 PATs to finish with 127 points – tying the fourth-most points in a season by a Cowboy. Boniol finished his pro career 128-of-163 (78.5%) on field goals and 183-of-189 on PATs for 567 total points.

Following his professional football career, Boniol returned to school and finished up his degree in general studies at Louisiana State University in 2001. In 2002 he began teaching high school math and coaching football in Lewisville, Texas. After two years, Boniol became a private football coach for high school and collegiate student-athletes. Boniol returned to teaching part time in 2008 where he remained until earning a spot on the Cowboys coaching staff leading up to the 2010 NFL season.

Boniol finished his collegiate career at Louisiana Tech third on the school's all-time scoring list. He attended Alexandria, La., High School and was the school's kicker while also playing catcher for the school's baseball team.

Boniol and his wife, Christine, have two sons, Gaige and Garin.

Dave Borgonzi began his NFL coaching career with the Dallas Cowboys during the 2011 season as an offensive/defensive assistant and will transition to focus on the offense in 2013 as an offensive assistant. As an assistant with the Cowboys, Borgonzi's primary duties consist of assisting with the weekly breakformer and southing reserving from the property. breakdowns and scouting reports of each opponent. He also assists with the scout teams during daily practices.

Before joining the Cowboys, Borgonzi spent five seasons in the college ranks, previously with Harvard University (2008-2010) and Syracuse (2006-07).

While at Harvard, Borgonzi served as an assistant defensive secondary coach and also helped with the school's recruiting efforts. In 2010 Harvard's defense ranked 16th nationally in total defense. In 2009 the Crimson ranked sixth nationally in pass efficiency defense while three players were named All-League and cornerback Matthew Hanson earned Rookie of the Year honors.

Prior to arriving in Cambridge, Borgonzi spent two seasons as a graduate assistant coach at Syracuse where he worked as the Orange's assistant defensive line coach while also assisting the program's recruiting and special teams efforts. While at Syracuse, Borgonzi obtained a master's degree in education.

Borgonzi was a three-year starter while an undergraduate at Amherst College. Named a team captain in his senior year, Borgonzi graduated with a degree in law, jurisprudence and social thought. He is married to Alyssa.

Gary Brown will begin his fifth year as an NFL coach as he begins his first year with the Dallas Cowboys after he became the running backs coach on February 8, 2013. Brown comes to Dallas after spending four seasons in the same capacity with the Cleveland Browns.

Brown will continue to develop starting running back DeMarco Murray, entering his third NFL season in 2013. Murray has been slowed in his first two NFL seasons due to injuries, but has shown his value as an every down back, rushing for 663 yards on 161 carries (4.1 avg.) and four touchdowns in 2012.

In 2012 Brown worked with rookie running back Trent Richardson, the third overall pick in the 2012 NFL Draft, marking the highest pick the team had ever used on a running back. Richardson finished the season with 1,317 yards from scrimmage, 950 rushing yards, 11 rushing touchdowns, 12 total touchdowns and 72 points, all Browns rookie records. In addition, his three 100-yard rushing performances tied a Browns rookie record. Richardson also finished second on the team with 51 receptions, which was the fifth-most by a Browns rookie.

The Browns started three different players at running back over the course of 2011. This included four starts by Chris Ogbonnaya, who began the season on Houston's practice squad. Ogbonnaya led the team in rushing five times on the year and finished with a 4.6-yard average (73-334) the highest figure for a Brown with more than 70 rushing attempts since Eric Metcalf put together a 4.7 mark (129-611) in 1993

In 2010 Brown oversaw a backfield led by Peyton Hillis, who joined Hall of Famers Jim Brown and Leroy Kelly as the only Browns to record 11-ormore rushing touchdowns in a single-season. Hillis rushed for 1,177 yards, a figure that ranked seventh in the AFC and 11th in the NFL.

In Brown's first season tutoring the team's running backs, Jerome Harrison led the club with 862 rushing yards, after he had amassed 448 yards in his first three NFL seasons combined. He rushed for 570 yards and five touchdowns on 113 carries (5.0) over the final four games, the second-highest total in the NFL over the final quarter of the season. His total included a Browns single-game record 286 yards at Kansas City (12/20), as he snapped Jim Brown's previous club mark of 237, which he reached twice. As a team, the Browns averaged 4.2-yards perrush-attempt in 2009 and 4.0 in 2010, marking the first time the club has averaged 4.0-or-better in consecutive seasons since 2002-03.

Prior to joining Cleveland, Brown spent six seasons coaching on the collegiate level. He spent the 2008 season as the running backs coach at Rutgers University, where he helped the Scarlet Knights to an 8-5 mark and a victory in the Papajohns.com Bowl. Under Brown's tutelage, the trio of Kordell Young, Jourdan Brooks and Joe Martinek combined for 1,474 rushing yards, a 4.9-yard average-per-attempt and 15 rushing touchdowns in 2008

Brown spent two seasons (2006-07) as offensive coordinator at Susquehanna University, where in 2007 sophomore running back Dave Paveletz produced the second-highest single-season rushing total in program history and was named first-team All-

Liberty League

Brown got his start in the coaching profession immediately following an eight-year NFL career as a player when he served as the offensive coordinator at Williamsport (Pa.) Area High School from 2000-02. He then broke into the college ranks as the running backs coach at Lycoming College (2003-05).

In addition to his collegiate positions, Brown also helped coach the running backs at New York Giants training camp in 2005, then worked with the Green Bay Packers in 2006 and Carolina Panthers in 2007 as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship

Brown enjoyed a four-year career at Penn State (1987-90), where as a sophomore, he led the Nittany Lions in rushing yards with 689 yards and six touchdowns on 136 carries (5.1 avg.)

A native of Williamsport, Pa., Brown played eight seasons in the NFL (1991-95, 1997-99) after being selected in the eighth round of the 1991 NFL Draft by the Houston Oilers. In his career, he played for the Oilers (1991-95), Chargers (1997) and Giants (1998-99). During that time he ran for 4,300 yards and 21 touchdowns on 1,023 carries and caught 84 passes for 631 yards and three scores in 99 games. He rushed for 1,000 yards twice, including 1,002 in 1993 and 1,063 yards in 1998. His feat in 1993 was accomplished while playing in just eight games.

Brown went on to earn his degree in sports administration from Lock Haven University in 2005. He and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Malena and Dorianna, and a son, Tre.

Gary Brown - Born July 1, 1969, Williamsport, Pa. Running back Penn State 1987-1990. Pro running back Houston Oilers 1991-95, San Diego Chargers 1997, New York Giants 1998-99. Bill Callahan joined the Dallas Cowboys on January 12, 2012 taking over the offensive line following the retirement of Hudson Houck. Callahan begins his 15th year in the NFL and second with the Cowboys after serving as the assistant head coach and offensive line coach for four years with the N.Y. Jets

In his first year in Dallas, the offensive line welcomed new faces along the interior of the line in guards, Mackenzy Bernadeau and Nate Livings, and center, Ryan Cook, while the tackles from 2011 swapped sides. Left tackle, Tyron Smith, continued to grow in his second season, while Doug Free struggled at right tackle and shared playing time with Jermey Parnell at the end of season. Expected starter at center, Phil Costa, played in only three games in an injury-riddled season. The Dallas Cowboys finished with 5,994 net yards, the thirdmost in a season in franchise history, and set a single-season club record 4,729 passing yards. In his four seasons with the Jets, ( coached three players along the offensive line to nine Pro Bowl appearances (Nick Mangold-4, Alan Faneca-2 and D'Brickashaw Ferguson-3) and one player to AP All-Pro honors (Nick Mangold - 2009, 2010).

Callahan followed up a N.Y. Jets club record-setting 2009 season by designing a scheme that recorded the club's fourth-best single-season rushing total (2,374) in 2010. The total was also the fourthmost in the NFL that season.

In 2010 Callahan developed second-year guard Matt Slauson into a full-time starter as the Jets rushed for 2,374 yards and 14 touchdowns on the season, while allowing only 28 sacks (tied for eighthfewest in the NFL).

The 2009 Jets team set a franchise record and led the NFL with 2,756 rushing yards. The Jets rushing attack recorded two 300-yard games, while registering 175-or-more yards seven times during the season.

In his first season with the Jets in 2008, the improved Jets running attack averaged 4.7 yardsper-carry, ninth in the NFL, and featured the AFC rushing champion, Pro Bowler Thomas Jones, who ran for 1,312 yards and scored a team-record 13 rushing touchdowns. The offensive line also improved in pass protection, limiting defenses to 30 sacks, down from 53 sacks allowed in 2007. Callahan joined the Jets in 2007 after he led Nebraska to a Big 12 Conference Championship game appearance (2006) and two bowl berths in four seasons (2003-06) while posting a 27-22 record.

Ale served as the head coach for the Oakland Raiders for two seasons (2002-03), logging a 15-17 regular-season record and a 2-1 postseason mark. In his first season as a head coach on any level, he led the Raiders to an 11-5 record, an AFC West title and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII. The trip to the Super Bowl made Callahan only the fourth first-year head coach to lead a team to the Super Bowl in NFL history.

Oakland led the NFL in passing and set team records for total offensive yards (6,237), first downs (366), first downs passing (226), passes attempted (619), passes completed (418), passing yards (4,689) and highest completion percentage (67.5) in 2002. His offense also ranked second in the NFL in points scored with 450 points (28.1 per-game). As a result of his accomplishments, he was named Coach of the Year by the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club and 2002 Rookie Coach of the Year by Football Digest.

In a three-season span, all with Callahan as either the offensive coordinator or head coach, the Raiders went from leading the NFL in rushing, with 154.4 yards-per-game in 2000, to leading the league in passing in 2002, averaging 293.1 yards-per-game. He directed an offense in 2000 that set a

Before joining the Raiders, Callahan coached the offensive line for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-97. His unit helped the Eagles rank second in the NFC in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in 1997. In 1996 the Eagles led the conference in passing, ranked second in rushing and led the NFC in total offense. In 1995 the Eagles placed fourth in the league in rushing.

Callahan started at quarterback for three seasons (1975-77) at Illinois Benedictine in Iisle, Ill., where he earned honorable-mention All-America honors in 1976 and 1977 and graduated with a BA in Physical Education in 1978. He was born in Chicago, where he attended Mendel Catholic High School. He and his wife, Valerie, have two daughters, Cathryn and Jacyn, and two sons, Brian and Daniel.

Derek Dooley begins his first season as the Dallas Cowboys wide receivers coach after being named to the position on February 4, 2013. Dooley comes to Dallas with 15-plus years of coaching experience, including six years as a head coach at the collegiate level and two years as an NFL assistant.

In Dallas, Dooley is re-united with head coach Jason Garrett after the two served on the same coaching staff with the Miami Dolphins from 2005-06.

In 2013, Dooley will hope to build off the success Dez Bryant had at the end of the 2012 season, as Bryant finished the year with career-high numbers in receptions (92), receiving yards (1,382) and receiving touchdowns (12). Miles Austin battled injuries throughout the 2012 season to finish third on the team in both catches (66) and yards (943), while his six receiving touchdowns were good for second.

Prior to joining the Dallas Cowboys, Dooley served as the head coach for the Tennessee Volunteers, where his club finished with a 15-21 record through his three seasons, earning a bowl berth in his first year. Dooley was named Tennessee's 22nd football coach in 2010 and his first two recruiting classes included the SEC's leading receiver in 2011 and a first-team All-SEC selecting tion, six Freshman All-Americans, and eight players who were named Freshman All-SEC.

Also during Dooley's tenure, quarterback Tyler Bray threw 69 touchdown passes and set the school record for highest completion percentage in a game. Wide receiver Justin Hunter also set a Tennessee freshman record with seven receiving touchdowns and averaged a team-best 25.9 yards-per-catch in 2010.

Before his arrival in Knoxville, Dooley served as the head coach at Louisiana Tech during the 2007-09 seasons and also doubled as the school's athletic director for the last two years of his tenure in Ruston. As the head coach of the football team, Dooley led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 mark in 2008, including the school's first postseason victory in 30 years at the Independence Bowl. Tech finished second in the WAC that season and played in a bowl game for only the third time since joining the major college ranks in 1989. For his efforts, the Louisiana Sports Writers' Association named him 2008 Coach of the Year.

Dooley first joined the professional ranks as the tight ends coach for the Miami Dolphins from 2005-06 under head coach Nick Saban. During his two years in Miami, Dooley oversaw the continued development of tight end Randy McMichael, who ended his Dolphins career as the team's all-time leader in receptions by a tight end.

Dooley followed Saban to the professional ranks after serving on his staff at LSU as the recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach from 2000-02 and then running backs coach and special teams coordinator from 2003-04. He helped the Tigers land No. 1 classes in 2001 and 2003. The Tigers won SEC championships both of those seasons, claimed the BCS national championship in 2003, and Saban promoted Dooley to assistant head coach for the 2004 campaign.

He began his coaching career in 1996 as a graduate assistant at Georgia under defensive coordinator Joe Kines. He then served from 1997-99 as wide receivers coach and co-recruiting coordinator at SMU, where Dooley helped the Mustangs to the school's only winning season over a 20-year stretch.

The youngest son of Georgia legend Vince Dooley, who coached the Bulldogs for 25 seasons and claimed six league titles and the 1980 national championship, Dooley never accepted the predetermined path to success. He played his college football at Virginia, turning down scholarship offers elsewhere to walk on and later earn his own scholarship from Cavaliers head coach George Welsh.

As a wide receiver, Dooley earned that scholarship after his second season and went on to help the Cavaliers to three bowl appearances and the 1989 Atlantic Coast Conference championship. In 1990, he was named first team Academic All-ACC and helped Virginia to a Sugar Bowl bid against Tennessee. During his playing career, Dooley caught 41 passes for 604 yards and three touchdowns and participated in the Senior Bowl following the 1990 season.

He graduated with a bachelor's degree in government and foreign affairs, and then went on to earn his law degree from the University of Georgia in 1994. Before embarking on his coaching career, Dooley practiced law at a private law firm in Atlanta for two years.

Dooley is married to Dr. Allison Jeffers Dooley, an OB/GYN and Fort Worth, Texas, native. They have two sons, John Taylor and Peyton and a daughter, Julianna.

In June of 2012, the Dooley's hosted the Big Orange Experience, an annual fundraising event for Variety, an organization that provides financial support for numerous children's charities. This past year the proceeds from the event funded the Dooley-Witten Learning Center at the Halls/Powell Boys and Girls Club of the Tennessee Valley, a project on which Dooley teamed up with former Vol and Dallas Cowboys All-Pro tight end Jason Witten.

Joined the Dallas Cowboys in 2013.

Matt Eberflus joined the Dallas Cowboys on January 26, 2011 as the club's linebackers coach. Eberflus, who enters his fifth season coaching in the NFL, returns for his third season with Dallas after spending the previous two seasons as the Cleveland Browns linebackers coach. He spent 17 years prior to that coaching in the collegiate ranks.

In 2013 he will work with new defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin as the defense switches from a 3-4 to a 4-3 defense.

Under Eberflus' guidance in 2012, the outside liebackers continued to excel, as both DeMarcus Ware and Anthony Spencer earned Pro Bowl berths. The duo became the fifth in club history to each reach double-digit sacks, Ware with a team-best 11.5 and Spencer with a career-high 11.0. Spencer led the team with a career-best 106 tackles, while Ware finished with 72 tackles, a team-best 33 pressures and five forced fumbles. The inside linebackers were shuffled throughout the year with both Sean Lee and Bruce Carter suffering season-ending injuries. Lee still managed 77 tackles, good for fourth on the team, prior to his injury and posted a career-high 21 tackles that tied Lee Roy Jordan (9/26/71) for the most tackles in a game in franchise history. Carter finished with 80 tackles, third on the team, and led the squad with nine tackles for loss. The 2011 season marked Eberflus' first year overseeing the Cowboys linebackers, inheriting a unit led by All-Pro Ware, who once again terrorized NFL quarterbacks with 19.5 sacks – good for second in the NFC and the NFL and tops amongst all linebackers in the league – en route to his sixth consecutive selection as a Pro Bowl starter. Eberflus also helped oversee the emergence of second-year linebacker Lee, who led the team with a career-best 131 tackles and tied for the team-lead with four interceptions, which were the most by an NFL linebacker in 2011. The overall production of the linebacker unit was seen on the final stats sheet, with five of Dallas' top 10-tacklers – and three of the top-five – coming from the position: Lee (first – 131), Spencer (fourth – 74), Keith Brooking (fifth – 72), Ware (sixth – 67) and Bradie James (ninth – 53).

In 2010 Eberflus led the charges of the Browns linebacking corps that had four of its starters (ILB Eric Barton, 12 starts; ILB Scott Fujita, nine starts; ILB Chris Gocong, 16 starts; OLB Matt Roth, 16 starts) finish in the top-10 in tackles. Additionally, linebacker David Bowens became the second player in Browns history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in a single game (at New Orleans,

In his first season with the Browns, Eberflus guided a unit through a solid season despite the loss of both starting inside linebackers due to injury by the season's midpoint. Under Eberflus' guidance, linebacker Bowens made a successful transition from an outside spot to the inside, finishing with a careerbest 71 tackles, with 5.5 sacks - the third-highest sack figure of his career. With the injuries to his inside starters, Eberflus worked third-year backer Jason Trusnik into a starting role. Trusnik, acquired five weeks into the season, went on to make the first 10 starts of his career and tallied 54 tackles and 2.5

Prior to entering the pro ranks, Eberflus coached at the University of Missouri (2001-08). He came to Missouri as the defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach in 2001 and became the associate head coach/defensive coordinator/safeties coach in 2006. While with Missouri, Eberflus guided the Tigers defense to the Big 12 North Division title in 2007 and 2008, compiling a 22-6 record over that span. Not being limited to his role with the defense, Eberflus helped recruit All-American quarterback Brad Smith and wide receiver Sean Coffey while also landing defensive back William Moore and linebacker Sean Weatherspoon.

Before arriving in Missouri, Eberflus spent nine years (1992-2000) at his alma mater, the University of Toledo. He served as a student assistant coach in 1992, then as a graduate assistant in 1993 before landing a full-time spot in 1994 as recruiting coordinator/outside linebackers coach. He held that position for two seasons before concentrating solely on the outside linebackers for two more seasons (1996-98). For his last two years at Toledo, Eberflus coached defensive backs. In his seven seasons as a full-timer, Toledo boasted a winning record each season, compiling a 56-22-2 record, including an 11-0-1 finish in 1995 and a 10-1 finish in 2000.

Eberflus was a four-year letterman and a threeyear starting linebacker at Toledo. He earned firstteam All-Conference honors as a junior and senior as he led the team in tackles both years. He also served as a team captain as a senior and took home the Nicholson Trophy for contributing the most towards the success of the team.

Eberflus earned his degree in education from Toledo in 1993 and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004.

Eberflus and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Grace and Giada.

The Dallas Cowboys added Jerome Henderson to their staff on January 12, 2012 as a secondary coach.

In 2013 he will be working with new defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin as the defense will be switching from a 3-4 to a 4-3 defense.

In his first season in Dallas, Henderson was tasked with integrating two new starting corners in first round draft choice Morris Claiborne and veteran free agent Brandon Carr. Carr led the team in interceptions with three - returning one for a touchdown-while Claiborne picked off one pass and had a fumble returned for a touchdown. Safety Gerald Sensabaugh manned the free safety position while the strong safety position was filled by committee all year after the loss of Barry Church (Achilles).

Henderson spent the previous three seasons as a secondary coach in Cleveland where his defensive backs recorded seven of the club's nine interceptions in 2011 and finished second in the NFL in passing defense.

He was instrumental in the development of cornerback Joe Haden and safety T.J. Ward, both of whom were consensus All-Rookie selections in 2010. Despite starting just seven games, Haden led the team with six interceptions, a figure that tied for fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL and was the second-highest figure among NFL rookies in 2010. Haden's total also tied the fourth-highest single-season figure by a Browns rookie and were the most since 2001. Ward started all 16 games, becoming the first Browns rookie defensive back to do that since Antonio Langham in 1994. In addition, Ward led the team with 105 tackles on defense, a figure that ranked first among all NFL rookies that year. He became the first rookie to lead the Browns in defensive tackles since 1999.

Prior to joining the Browns, Henderson spent three seasons as a member of the New York Jets staff. Under Henderson's guidance as defensive backs coach in 2008, cornerback Darrelle Revis earned a Pro Bowl berth after leading the team with five interceptions. In 2007 Henderson split duties as an assistant defensive backs coach and director of player development. He first joined the Jets in 2006 as the director of player development after serving as vice president of HomeBanc Mortgage Corp. in Raleigh, N.C. from 2002-05.

Henderson played eight seasons as a defensive back in the NFL after New England made him a second round draft choice in 1991. He played with the Patriots (1991-93, 1996), Buffalo (1993-94), Philadelphia (1995) and the Jets (1997-98) in his NFL career, during which time he appeared in 98 games with 34 starts. He recorded nine career interceptions. Henderson played in two Super Bowls, with the Bills in Super Bowl XXVIII and with New England in Super Bowl XXXII Henderson grew up in Statesville, N.C., and went on to play four years at Clemson University (1987-90). He and his wife, Traci, have three children, Jazmin and twins Taylor and Tyler.

Monte Kiffin makes his return to the NFL this season as the coordinator of the Cowboys defense after spending the past four seasons in the college ranks - Tennessee (2009) and Southern California (2010-12). Kiffin was announced as Dallas' defensive coordinator on January 11, 2013 and brings a total of 47 years worth of coaching experience to the Cowboys organization, with 26 of those spent in the NFL (1983-2008).

His most recent 13 years of NFL coaching were as the defensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1996-2008) where he was the architect of the famous Tampa 2 defense. Eleven of his Buccaneer defenses ranked among the top-10 in the NFL in scoring defense and total yardage. Kiffin played an integral role in the Bucs making seven trips to the NFL postseason, including a World Championship in Super Bowl XXXVII following the 2002 season. Along the way to the Super Bowl title, the Tampa Bay defense led the NFL in fewest total yards allowed per-game (252.8), points allowed per-game (252.8), points allowed per-game (252.8).

game (12.3) and interceptions (31).

Prior to his tenure in Tampa Bay, Kiffin spent time with six other NFL coaching staffs: Green Bay (1983), Buffalo (1984-85), Minnesota (1986-89 and 1991-94), the New York Jets (1990), and New Orleans (1995). Of his 26 previous years as an NFL assistant coach, Kiffin was a part of 13 teams that advanced to postseason play.

Before moving to the NFL, Kiffin spent 17 seasons at the college level. He started his career with an 11-year stint as an assistant at his alma mater, Nebraska (1966 to 1976). Kiffin was the defensive line coach from 1966 to 1972 under Bob Devaney, and he was elevated to the defensive coordinator post by Tom Osborne in 1973. He was a member of Cornhusker teams that played in nine bowl games and won national titles in 1970 and 1971.

Kiffin moved from Nebraska to Arkansas in 1977 where he coordinated defenses for head coach Lou Holtz for three years on teams that played in the Orange, Fiesta and Sugar Bowls. He then served as the head coach at North Carolina State for three seasons (1980-82), where he compiled a 16-17 record while compiling winning seasons in each of his last two years with the Wolfpack.

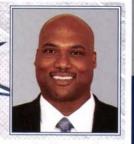

Kiffin was born on Feb. 29, 1940 and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Nebraska in 1963. He was a two-way tackle for the Cornhuskers and was a member of the 1964 team that played in the Orange Bowl.

Kiffin and his wife Robin have three children.

Leon Lett, a former Dallas Cowboys defensive lineman who won three Super Bowl titles and earned two Pro Bowl berths during his 10-year run with the club, has settled into the next phase of his NFL career as an assistant coach with the same organization that drafted him. Lett assisted the Cowboys during the 2011 training camp as a member of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program and was later hired on a full-time basis to assist with the team's defensive line as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach during the 2011 season.

Lett's work with the defensive line in 2012 saw

Jason Hatcher emerge as a full-time starter and produce his best season as a pro, establishing personal-bests in several categories. He also helped over-see the development of Sean Lissemore in the absence of Jay Ratliff (injuries).

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Lett's only previous experience as a coach came in 2010 when he served as the defensive line coach at the University of Louisiana at Monroe. He also served as a volunteer assistant at UNLV in 2009.

Drafted in the seventh round (173rd overall) of the 1991 NFL Draft, Lett became the first and only player ever selected by the Cowboys out of Emporia State to make the squad's final roster. Nicknamed "Big Cat" by his teammates for his agility, Lett com-piled 361 tackles, 22.5 sacks, 37 tackles for losses, 128 quarterback pressures, 26 pass breakups, eight forced fumbles, seven fumble recoveries and four blocked kicks while playing in 109 games with 73 starts during a 10-year career as a Cowboys player. He also appeared in 14 postseason contests with nine starts, including three Super Bowl victories. Lett concluded his playing career with the Denver Broncos in 2001 where he totaled 15 tackles in 12 games.

During his collegiate career, Lett was a big part of a defense that held opponents to 4.1 yards-perplay and 3.1 yards-per-carry during his two years at Emporia State. He finished second on the team in sacks (four) and earned All-NAIA District 10 honors despite missing three games due to a leg injury as a despite missing three games due to a leg injury as a senior. In his first season with the Hornets in 1989 after playing in junior college, Lett helped Emporia State to the Central States Intercollegiate Conference title and their first appearance in the NAIA Championship Game. He also earned honorable mention NAIA All-America, All-NAIA District 10 and ALL-CSIC honors after leading the team in passes defensed (10) and blocked kicks (two) and finishing second in tackles (83) and sacks (five) as a junior. In two previous seasons at Hinds (Miss.) Junior College, Lett recorded 141 tackles, 10 sacks, nine passes defensed and recovered three fumbles.

Lett returned to school to earn his college degree in university studies with concentrations on sociology and history from UNLV in 2009.

Lett has a daughter, Leondra Rachel.

Leon Lett - Born October 12, 1968, Mobile, Ala. College: Defensive tackle Hinds Community College 1987-88, Emporia State University 1989-90. Rod Marinelli joined the Dallas Cowboys on January 18, 2013 as the club's defensive line coach. In Dallas Marinelli will reunite with Monte Kiffin as he served as a defensive assistant (1996-2005 - defensive line) at Tampa Bay under Kiffin, the team's defensive coordinator. Marinelli comes to the Cowboys with 37 years of coaching experience, including 17 in the NFL.

Prior to arriving in Dallas, Marinelli was with the Chicago Bears for four seasons, serving as the club's assistant head coach/defensive line coach in 2009 followed by three seasons as the club's assistant head coach/defensive coordinator (2010-12). While serving as Chicago's defensive coordinator, Marinelli's unit over the previous three seasons forced the most fumbles (59), intercepted the thirdmost passes (65), scored the most touchdowns via interception (13) and allowed the fourth-fewest points (904) in the NFL. In the 2012 season alone, the Bears had four defensive players selected as starters in the Pro Bowl (CB Tim Jennings, DL Henry Melton, DE Julius Peppers and CB Charles Tillman) as the defense ranked first in takeaways (44), third in points allowed (277), fifth in total defense (315.6 yards-per-game) and eighth in rushing defense (101.7) and passing defense (213.9).

In 2011 Marinelli's charges earned four spots on the NFC's Pro Bowl roster as the club sent LB Lance Briggs, DE Peppers, CB Tillman and LB Brian Urlacher to mark the second straight season the Bears had at least three defenders represented in the all-star game. Chicago finished in the top-10 in six defensive categories, including second in defensive touchdown returns (six) and red zone takeaways (six) and fifth in overall takeaways (31) and against the run (96.4). The Bears pass rush saw Peppers notch 11.0 sacks for the season, including his 100th career takedown, and Melton earned a career-high seven sacks to tie for third in the NFL among defensive tackles.

Marinelli arrived in Chicago on Jan. 10, 2009 after spending three seasons (2006-08) as the Detroit Lions head coach. He spent his first 10 NFL seasons coaching the defensive line in Tampa Bay (1996-2005). In his last four seasons (2002-05) with the Bucs, Marinelli added the duties of assistant head coach.

Through his 10 years with Tampa Bay, the defensive line accounted for 328.5 sacks - tops in the league during that span among NFL lines. In 2002 Tampa Bay led the NFL in total defense (252.8) and points-per-game (12.3) en route to the club's Super Bowl XXXVII win. Tampa Bay's top-five single-season sack totals all came by defensive linemen under Marinelli's tutelage, and in 2000, Warren Sapp's 16.5 sacks established a franchise record and still stands as the third-most in the NFL among defensive tackles since sacks became official in 1982. Another of Marinelli's players, Simeon Rice, holds the club's next three single-season sack figures, totaling 15.5 (2002), 15.0 (2003) and 14.0 (2005). Rounding out the top-five on the Buccaneers single-season sack list is another one of Marinelli's charges, Marcus Jones, who racked up 13.0 in 2000. Additionally, Sapp holds the club's sixth and seventh spot with 12.5 (1999) and 12.0 (2004).

In 2000 Tampa Bay established a franchise record with 55.0 sacks, and Marinelli's defensive linemen accounted for 45.5. Through Marinelli's tenure with the Buccaneers, the defense earned the top-six single-season sack totals in franchise history, and from 1999-2003, Tampa's defenders set an NFL record as the club registered a sack in 69 consecutive games.

Before making the leap to the NFL coaching ranks, Marinelli was an assistant at the collegiate level for 20 years. He coached the defensive line at Southern California (1995), was assistant head coach/defensive line at Arizona State (1992-94) and was the defensive line coach at the University of California (1983-89) before adding the responsibilities of assistant head coach at the school (1990-91). He began his collegiate coaching career at Utah State in 1976 and spent six seasons as the school's defensive line coach (1976-81) before coaching the offensive line and special teams in 1982. His first coaching job was as an assistant at his alma mater, Rosemead, Calif., High School from 1973-75.

Marinelli was an offensive tackle, starting his career at Utah (1968) and finishing at California Lutheran (1970-72). His collegiate career was split by a tour of duty in Vietnam. He earned All-America honors at Cal-Lutheran in 1972.

Marinelli and his wife, Barbara, have two daughters, Christine and Gina, and four grandchildren.

Keith O'Quinn rejoined the Dallas Cowboys in 2010, but this time as a coach after previously serving as a pro scout with the team for three seasons. a quality control/offensive assistant coach in 2010, O'Quinn assisted the Cowboys offensive staff in breaking down film of upcoming opponents defenses and helping compose each week's play-books. In 2011-12 O'Quinn continued to prepare the weekly playbooks, but worked closely with the wide receivers and wide receivers coach Jimmy Robinson.

In 2009 O'Quinn left the Cowboys to become the director of pro personnel for the Cleveland Browns. While with the Browns, O'Quinn contributed to Cleveland's player acquisition process by managing pro scouting operations and evaluating players and rosters from the NFL and all other levels of professional football. His additional responsibilities included advance scouting, free agency preparation and tracking of player movement within the league.

From 2006-08 O'Quinn helped evaluate players around the NFL as well as other professional leagues while serving as a pro scout in the Cowboys scouting department.

Prior to joining the pro ranks, O'Quinn spent eight years as a high school and college coach. His last stint in that area was as the assistant football and head baseball coach at Kaufman, Texas, High School. Prior to that, he coached tight ends and special teams at Abilene Christian University from 2003-04. From 2000-03 O'Quinn served as tight ends and assistant offensive line coach at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas. While at HSU, the Cowboys compiled a 28-5 record and won two conference championships. He also worked as the team's academic supervisor.

In 1999 he worked as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach, as well as the head base-ball coach, at Bryan Adams High School in Dallas.

O'Quinn began his coaching career at Liberty Christian School in Argyle, Texas, serving as a defensive backs and wide receivers coach.

A native of San Antonio, O'Quinn attended James Madison High School and earned a Bachelor's of science degree from the University of North Texas, where he played strong safety. He went on to earn a master's degree in counseling and human development from Hardin-Simmons University.

O'Quinn and his wife, Reigan, have three children, Mysti, Brittney and Brock.

Keith O'Quinn – Born July 28, 1973, Pensacola, Fla. College: Safety University of North Texas 1991-96. No pro playing experience. College coach: Hardin-Simmons University 2000-02, Abilene Christian University 2003-04. Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 2010-12.

Wes Phillips joined the Dallas Cowboys in 2007 as the club's quality control/offensive assistant coach after coaching quarterbacks at the collegiate level for four years. In 2011 Phillips relinquished his role as a quality control coach and was the club's assistant offensive line coach in addition to continuing to assist the special teams under special teams coordinator Joe DeCamillis. In 2013 Phillips was named the tight ends coach where he inherits one of the best in the NFL in Jason Witten.

Phillips again dealt with a new offensive line in 2012 as the club parted ways with Kyle Kosier and welcomed in free agent guards Mackenzy Bernadeau and Nate Livings. Expected starter at center, Phil Costa, only played in three games in an injury-riddled season so the team made a late trade for veteran center Ryan Cook. Starting tackles from 2011 switched tackle spots with Doug Free moving to the right side and Tyron Smith to the left. Smith continued to improve in his second season, while Free struggled at right tackle and shared playing time with Jermey Parnell at the end of season. The Dallas Cowboys finished with 5,994 net yards, the thirdmost in a season in franchise history, and set a single-season club record 4,729 passing yards.

Phillips worked with a revamped offensive line in 2011 that saw new starters at four of the five positions. The only constant from 2010 was left tackle Free. Kosier, who manned the left guard spot for five seasons, moved to the right side. Taking over Kosier's former position was Dallas' 2011 seventh round draft choice Bill Nagy, who started four of the first five games before landing on Reserve/Injured with a broken ankle. At center was first-time starter Costa and at right tackle was Dallas' top draft choice Smith. Despite the changes, the Dallas offense racked up 6,008 total yards (second in team history) and 4,483 passing yards (second all-time). Behind the line, Tony Romo posted his third career 4,000-yard season and second 30-plus touchdown season while rookie running back DeMarco Murray established a single-game team rushing record with a 253-yard performance against St. Louis (10/23). In addition to his 253-yard game, the line blocked for Murray to record two more 100-yard games in the next three weeks while posting the club's greatest three, four and six-game rushing yards total.

three, four and six-game rushing yards total. As part of the offensive coaching staff in 2010, the offense amassed 5,828 total yards for the seventh-highest yardage output in franchise history while topping the 4,000 passing yard mark for the third time in four years with the third-most in club history (4,042).

In 2009 Phillips was part of a coaching staff whose offense set single-season club records that included 6,390 yards of total offense – marking the first time a Cowboys team topped 6,000 yards in a season in team history – and 4,287 passing yards. The offense as a whole finished second in the league in total offense, averaging 399.4 yards-per-game, with both the rushing game (seventh with 131.4 rushing yards-per-game) and passing game (fifth with 267.9 passing yards-per-game) finishing in the top-10 in the NFL. Phillips also continued assisting DeCamillis on special teams during practices and in games, including overseeing the unit at Washington (12/27) when DeCamillis had an emergency appendectomy that forced him to miss the game.

In his second season as an NFL coach in 2008, Phillips and the offensive coaching staff oversaw an offense that finished the season 13th in the NFL in total offense with 344.5 yards-per-game. The team was ninth in the league in passing offense (236.8 yards-per-game), and the team's total of 3,789 net yards passing was, at the time, the fifth-highest in club history since the 16-game NFL regular season was implemented in 1978.

In 2007, Phillips' first season as a Cowboys coach, the offense rounded out the season second in the NFL in scoring (first in the NFC) with an average of 28.4 points-per-game. With 365.7 yards-pergame, the Cowboys were third in the NFL (second in the NFC) in total offense, and with 256.6 yards-pergame, the team finished fourth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in passing. In total, the 5,851 yards of offense amassed was then the fifth-highest total vardage output in team history.

Before landing in Dallas, Phillips coached quarterbacks at Baylor in 2006 under offensive coordinator Lee Hays. His work with quarterback Shawn Bell paid dividends as Bell established school singleseason records despite missing the final three games with a knee injury.

Prior to his one-year stint at Baylor, Phillips spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at West Texas A&M University under Hays. The Buffaloes celrexas Adwin clinically direct hays. WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference with an 8-1 record, its first league title since 1986 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA D-II Playoffs for the first time in school history. Phillips was an assistant coach at WTAMU and helped the school lead the 2005 Division II ranks in passing offense, racking up 363.8 yards-per-game. He tutored guarterback Dalton Bell who was a finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which goes to the top Division II player.

Prior to joining the WTAMU staff, Phillips spent one season as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, UTEP, and played two seasons at quarterback for the San Diego Riptide of the af2

A three-year letterwinner at UTEP (1999-2001), Phillips was a member of the 2000 Miners team that shared the WAC title, posted the school's highest win total in more than a decade and played in the Humanitarian Bowl, Phillips left the collegiate ranks among the school's single-season leaders in both pass efficiency (ninth - 120.0 in 2001) and completion percentage (eighth - 55.6 in 2001).

Phillips received his degree in philosophy from UTEP in 2001. Phillips and his wife, Anna, were married on July 4, 2009 and have one daughter, lvy and a son, Mac.

The Dallas Cowboys named Frank Pollack assistant offensive line coach on February 2, 2013. In Dallas, Pollack will be re-united with offensive coordinator/offensive line coach, Bill Callahan, whom he played for at Northern Arizona (1987-88).

Pollack comes to Dallas after a one-year stint as the offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders finished eighth in passing offense in 2012 fourth in the AFC, and ranked sixth in the AFC in total offense.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Pollack spent five seasons with the Houston Texans as assistant offensive line coach. In 2011 Pollack helped coach a group that blocked for two running backs that gained over 900 rushing yards as the Texans set a franchise record with 153 rushing yards-per-game, good for second in the NFL. The line included second-team All-Pro left tackle Duane Brown and center Chris Myers, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth.

The 2010 offensive line group paved the way for a record-setting season, as the Texans ranked third in the NFL with a franchise-record 6,186 yards of offense and a team-record 290 points while blocking for the NFL's rushing (1,616 yards) and touchdown (18) champion, running back Arrian Foster.

In 2009 the line provided protection for the NFL's leading passer, Matt Schaub, who threw for 4,770 yards and 29 touchdowns. The 2008 line featured the same five starters for all 16 games, marking a first in Texans history. His first year with the Texans and coaching in the NFL came in 2007, as the line allowed just 22 sacks.

Before joining the professional ranks, Pollack began his coaching career at his alma mater, Northern Arizona, in 2005 as the co-offensive line coach. He was promoted to the offensive line coach in 2006, when the NAU offense led the conference in scoring (34.4) and passing (267.2) and finished second in rushing (137.9).

Pollack was a sixth round draft choice by the San Francisco 49ers in 1990. He played two years for the 49ers, 1990-91, before moving to Denver, where he played from 1992-93. He finished his playing career back with the 49ers from 1994-98, having played 90 career games and helping Francisco to a Super Bowl championship in 1994.

Pollack graduated from Northern Arizona with a degree in advertising in 1990. He was inducted into Northern Arizona's Hall of Fame in 2010.

He and his wife, Wendy, have three sons, Frankie, Carter and Wilson.

Kendall Smith makes his coaching debut in 2013 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Dallas Cowboys, Smith spent the previous two seasons training athletes to prepare for the NFL Combine at the World Wide Sports Center in Orlando, Fla., under Tom Shaw.

Prior to working with athletes, Smith himself trained at the facility for two years after a four-year career as a linebacker at Florida State (2007-10).

In his time at FSU, Smith played in all 53 games with starts in each of his final 27 games.

He came out of South Sumter High School in Bushnell, Fla., and was a PrepStar All-American and four-star prospect as the 45th ranked player in the nation by Rivals.com.

Kendall Smith - Born December 3, 1987, Bushnell, Fla. Linebacker Florida State 2007-2010. No pro playing experience. Pro coach: Joined the Dallas Cowboys in 2013.

Wade Wilson returned to the Dallas Cowboys organization as the quarterbacks coach in 2007 after spending three seasons with the Chicago Bears in the same capacity. A native Texan with football roots that go back to his high school and collegiate career as a quarterback, Wilson, recognized around the NFL as a solid teacher of young quarterbacks, will again handle the responsibility of working with one of the top NFL quarterbacks in Tony Romo. Dallas added a familiar quarterback to Wilson during the 2012 free agency period to serve as Romo's primary backup with the addition of Kyle Orton, whom Wilson coached as a rookie in Chicago.

Wilson coached as a rooke in Chicago.

Romo started all 16 games at quarterback for the fourth time in his career in 2012 and established single-season club records for passing yards (4,903), attempts (648) and completions (425). He was one-of-five NFL quarterbacks with 600-plus attempts and 425 completions in 2012 and one of the 15 to accomplish the feat in the history of the NFL. His 28 touchdown passes tied for fourth in team history, and, despite throwing a career-high tying 19 interceptions, Romo's 65.6 completion per-centage was fifth. Orton made his Cowboys debut late in the fourth quarter against Chicago (10/1) and finished nine-of-10 for 89 yards with one touchdown.

After losing Romo for most of the 2010 season, the quarterback returned to form in 2011 to produce one of his finest statistical seasons as a pro. Romo established a career-high mark with a 102.5 quarterback rating (second in team history), while his 31 touchdowns and 4,184 passing yards were the second-most of his career. Both his attempts (522) and completions (346) were good for the second-most of his career while both made the club record books attempts (third) and completions (second) - and his 66.28 completion percentage was a personal-best and second in team history. The 2011 season was not without challenges as injuries to Romo opened opportunities for both Jone Kitna and Stephen McGee. Kitna subbed for Romo (ribs) in the third quarter at San Francisco (9/18) and McGee entered the Philadelphia (12/24) game following the first offensive series after Romo suffered a bruised hand.

Wilson was challenged in 2010 as he had to prepare three different starting quarterbacks, with one making his first career start, and another seeing his first action since 2008. Romo started the season, but a fractured left clavicle suffered against the N.Y. Giants (10/25) led the way for Kitna to take the helm. Before the injury, Romo completed 148-of-213 passes (69.5%) for 1,605 yards, 11 touchdowns and seven interceptions. In his first action since 2008, Kitna completed 209-of-318 passes (65.7%) for 2,365 yards, 16 touchdowns and 12 interceptions before suffering an abdominal injury at Arizona (12/25). McGee took over for an injured Kitna at Arizona, before making the first start of his career at Philadelphia (1/2/11). On the day, he completed 11of 27 passes for 127 yards with one touchdown.

With the win at Philadelphia, McGee became just the 14th Dallas quarterback to win in his first career start as a Cowboy.

Romo had one of his best seasons under Wilson in 2009 as the quarterback showed great maturity and ball protection. Romo had a single-season career-low nine interceptions while setting then career-highs and club records in completions (347). attempts (550) and yards (4,483) and a then personal-best quarterback rating (97.6). Romo also earned his third Pro Bowl berth while setting a club record for 300-yard passing games in a season with eight. Wilson also worked with NFL veteran and Dallas newcomer, Kitna, who served as Romo's backup, while grooming fourth round draft choice McGee.

Wilson was charged with the task of preparing three different starting quarterbacks in 2008 Romo, Brad Johnson and Brooks Bollinger - with Romo missing three games due to a broken pinkie finger with Johnson filling in for two starts and Bollinger one start. Romo was unable to put up the same numbers as in Wilson's first year in 2007, but still managed to throw for 300-or-more yards in six games - good for the second-best total in club history. He also had six games with at least three touch-downs and finished with 26 touchdown passes on the year. Romo threw for 3,448 yards in 2008, marking the second consecutive year he topped 3,000 passing yards, becoming the first quarterback to do so since Troy Aikman had three (1995-97).

In his first season back with Dallas, Wilson's work with Romo allowed the first-time starter to rewrite club passing records. Under Wilson, Romo was the league's fifth-rated passer (97.4) – good for third in club annals. His 4,211 passing yards allowed the fifth-year veteran to become the first quarterback in club history to top 4,000 passing yards. Romo completed 335 passes which topped Danny White's single-season franchise record set in 1983 and shattered White's record of 29 passing touchdowns, fin-ishing with 36. Romo also became the first signal caller in franchise history to throw four touchdowns in back-to-back games. On the season, he logged four games with four-or-more touchdown passes, also establishing a club record. Among the many other accomplishments of the young starter, Romo finished 2007 with seven games of 300-or-more passing yards, another team record.

In 2006 Wilson's guidance helped steer fourth-year quarterback Rex Grossman in leading the Bears to an NFC title and a berth in the Super Bowl. Prior to the season, Grossman had started just seven games in three injury-riddled years. Grossman threw 23 touchdown passes in his first full year as a starter, while directing Chicago to a 13-3 regular season record.

Through Wilson's first two seasons in Chicago (2004-05), rookie guarterbacks started 20 of the team's 32 regular season games while posting a 13-7 record. Under Wilson in 2005, rookie Orton was the Bears starter and went on to win nine of his first 12 starts. He finished the year with 10 wins - the most for a rookie drafted in the fourth round or later since the common draft was instituted in 1967. His 10 wins were also the second-best for a rookie passer during that span, behind Ben Roethlisberger in 2004. His eight-game win streak was also the second-longest by a rookie passer in the NFL dating back to 1970. Wilson's first season in Chicago (2004) was marked by four starting quarterbacks each starting at least three games. Grossman began the season, but was lost for the year due to injury. Jonathan Quinn had the next three starts, but rookie Craig Krenzel took over for three games before an injury sidelined him for the season. Chad Hutchinson started the last five games.

Wilson made his coaching debut in Dallas in 2000 after 19 years as an NFL quarterback - including three years with Dallas (1995-97). Along with his playing experience. Wilson has overseen two of the most tumultuous seasons in Dallas quarterback history, coaching six different starting quarterbacks in his 32 games as the club's quarterback coach.

Wilson was forced to prepare four different starting quarterbacks during the 2001 season. It was the first time in club history four different players started at quarterback in the same season. Dallas opened the season with a rookie quarterback for just the third time in franchise history when Quincy Carter took the field against Tampa Bay. Injuries forced Carter from the lineup for eight of the next nine games. During that span, Anthony Wright earned three starts, Clint Stoerner led the club in two games and Ryan Leaf took the helm for three games in November. Carter returned to the lineup in December and guided the Cowboys to three wins in their final six games.

Wilson's first year on the job was just as hectic as four different quarterbacks saw action during the season, the first time in club history four different players saw action at quarterback in the same season. Troy Aikman started 11 games but missed five starts and parts of three other games with injuries. Randall Cunningham relieved Aikman on two occasions and started three other games in his place. His start at Washington (9/18) produced a 27-21 win for Dallas and gave Dave Campo his first win as a head coach and Wilson his first as an assistant. Stoerner, in his rookie year, saw action in one game before giv-ing way to newcomer Wright. A former Pro Bowler, Wilson joined the coaching ranks after a 19-year playing career. Only four other players in NFL history had played more seasons than Wilson. He was originally an eighth round draft choice (210th overall) of the Minnesota Vikings in 1981 and led them to three playoff appearances, including the 1987 NFC Championship Game, during his 11 years with the team. He also spent time with the Atlanta Falcons (1992), New Orleans Saints (1993-94), Dallas Cowboys (1995-97) and Oakland Raiders (1998-99). He served as Aikman's backup on the Cowboys Super Bowl XXX championship team in 1995.

Wilson completed his career with a 75.6 quarterback rating on 1,391-of-2,428 passing for 17,283 yards. His best statistical year was 1988 when he led the NFC with a 91.5 quarterback rating and completed 204-of-332 passes (61.4%) for 2,746 yards, 15 touchdowns and nine interceptions. During his three years in Dallas, Wilson threw for 585 yards, one touchdown and four interceptions on 58of-96 passing for a 63.9 rating. He earned one start (at Washington, 12/22/96) in his three-year stay in Dallas.

He was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at East Texas State University, where he earned NAIA All-America and Lone Star Conference MVP honors as a senior while leading the conference in passing and total offense. He played high school football at nearby Commerce, Texas, High School.

Charles Wade Wilson was born on February 1, 1959 in Commerce, Texas. He majored in business management at ETSU, and he has his real estate license and his SEC-series seven registration. Wilson has four children; Travis Wade, Hayden, and twins Coleton and Sophie.

Tom Ciskowski (sis-COW-ski) is the Dallas Cowboys Director of Scouting. He has headed up the scouting department's work for the NFL Draft since the 2008 sea-

In his first draft as the top scout in the 2008 NFL Draft, he helped the organization address two positions of concern in landing a pair of running backs and cornerbacks with Felix Jones and Mike Jenkins heading the list as two first round selections. The club also gained two additional picks in the 2009 NFL Draft through trades.

Despite trading out of the second round in 2009 to leave Dallas without a first day selection, Ciskowski's second draft saw the club select 12 players - the most selections the club made since the draft was shortened to seven rounds in 1994.

The team landed two players that they had high first round grades on in the 2010 NFL Draft in wide receiver Dez Bryant (24th overall) and linebacker

Sean Lee (55th overall).

In 2011 Dallas selected an offensive lineman, Tyron Smith, with the ninth pick in the draft, the fourth time in club history Dallas selected an offensive lineman in the first round. The Cowboys acquired an athletic linebacker in Bruce Carter (40th) and a do-it-all running back in DeMarco Murray (71st) in the second and third rounds.

The Cowboys were able to trade up in the first round of the 2012 NFL Draft to land arguably the best corner in the draft in Morris Claiborne with the sixth overall pick. The team did not have a second round choice due to the trade but added a big, athletic defensive end, Tyrone Crawford (81st), in the third round. On the final day of the draft the club added two linebackers, Kyle Wilber (113st) and Caleb McSurdy (222nd), a safety in Matt Johnson (135th), a wide receiver, Danny Coale (152nd) and tight end James Hanna (186th).

In 2013 Ciskowski guided a draft that should enable Dallas to build a foundation of young talent on the offense with the selection of center Travis Frederick (31st). In landing Frederick, Dallas traded out of the 18th spot and picked up the 74th pick. In the second round, a big, athletic pass-catching tight end was netted in Gavin Escobar (47th). Dallas' two picks in the third round were composed of wide receiver Terrance Williams (74th) and safety J.J. Wilcox (80th). In the fourth round, cornerback B.W. Webb (114th) was selected, followed by running back Joseph Randle (151st) in the fifth and line-backer DeVonte Holloman (185th) in the sixth.

PRO: Perhaps one of the biggest surprises league-wide in 2009 was the emergence of Miles Austin as a viable threat to any defense around the league. After his breakout performance from Week 5 in 2009 through the end of the season, Austin earned his spot as a starting receiver for the first time in his career in 2010 and signed a six-year contract extension prior to the first game of the season. Leading up to the 2009 season, Austin's progress had him slotted as the club's third wide receiver, but after his breakout game at Kansas City, he moved into the starting lineup. By season's end, he led the team with 1,320 yards and 11 touchdowns while finishing second with 81 catches to earn his first career Pro Bowl selection. After topping 1,000 yards for the first time in his career in 2009, Austin repeated the feat by finishing 2010 with a team-best 1,041 yards to earn his second straight trip to the Pro Bowl - as an injury replacement - and become the 10th rookie free agent in NFL history - first in Cowboys history - with multiple 1,000-yard seasons. His production was slowed in 2011 as he was hampered by a nagging hamstring injury suffered early in the season that kept him inactive for six games. In his 10 games played, Austin finished fourth on the team with 43 catches and 579 yards while finishing third with seven touchdowns. He recovered in 2012 to start 15 of the 16 games he played and finished second on the team in touchdown catches (six) and third in receptions (66) and yards (943). Along the way, Austin climbed the club's receiving charts, and coming into 2013, he is seventh in receiving yards (4,237), ninth in touchdowns (34) and 12th in receptions (277). Austin originally joined the club as one of just three rookie free agents to make the team out of training camp in 2006 and saw most of his time through his first four seasons as the club's kickoff returner. He first earned a roster spot as a kickoff returner and holds a 24.1 career average on returns - fourth all-time in team history. His 2,146 return yards are fifth in club history, and he is the only Cowboy to return a kickoff for a touchdown in the postseason.

BRUCE CARTER 54 OLINEBACKER 6-2 · 246 · 2/19/88 North Carolina . D2 for '11 (40th overall) NFL: 3rd Year . Cowboys: 3rd Year Games/Starts: 2012-11/11: Career-21/11 Postseason: 2012-0/0: Career-0/0

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys added a versatile athlete with a knack for finding the ball when they selected Bruce Carter in the second round (40th overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft. Carter, who started 44 of the 49 games he played at outside linebacker for North Carolina, had his progress slowed as a rookie as he was on the Non-Football Injury list from the beginning of training camp through October rehabbing an injury suffered as a senior. After being activated from the list, Carter went on to play in 10 games, learning the pro game from Dallas' corps of veteran linebackers. He saw most of his time as a rookie on special teams but worked into the line-backer rotation. In returning for his second pro season in 2012, Carter earned a spot as the starting middle linebacker opposite Sean Lee. He excelled in his role and was leading the team with 80 tackles and nine stops for losses before a dislocated elbow ended his season with five games left to play. He returns healthy in 2013 as the club makes the switch back to a 4-3 scheme

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys traded up eight spots in the 2012 NFL Draft in order to select the top defensive player available in Morris Claiborne. In Claiborne, Dallas got the 2011 Jim Thorpe Award winner who proved himself not only in man coverage, but also with his ability to handle kick return duties. His knack for intercepting passes should come as no surprise as Claiborne was recruited to play wide receiver. but moved to defensive back prior to his freshman season due to the recommendation of former teammate Patrick Peterson, who was taken by Arizona just one spot higher than Claiborne in the 2011 NFL Draft. As a rookie, Claiborne started all 15 games he played, missing one with a concussion, and was seventh on the team with 64 tackles. His eight pass breakups were good for third, his two fumble recoveries led the team and his lone interception tied for second PRO: The Cowboys drafted Doug Free in the fourth round (122nd overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft with the hopes of him developing into a key player on the offensive line. He spent the first three seasons of his career learning from some of the best in the NFL, including 12-year veteran Flozell Adams and former first round draft picks Marc Colombo and Leonard Davis. The 2010 season was a welcomed change for Free, and a surprise outcome for the Cowboys, as he became the club's starting left tackle following the release of Adams in the offseason. After consistency and dependability at the position for the better part of 12 years, Free stepped up to the challenge and was one of the top performers on the offense through the season, displaying the same consistency and dependability the club has expected from its blind-side protector. After starting seven games at right tackle in 2009 in place of an injured Colombo, Free started all 16 games at left tackle in 2010. He again manned the left tackle position in 2011, starting all 16 games and helping the club to it's second-best offensive vardage output in the history of the organization (6,008 yards). Free then made the move back to right tackle where he started all 16 games of the 2012 season, helping the club to its third-best offensive yardage output in team history (5,994) and its best passing yardage (4,729).

131), 100-yard receiver (Ogletree, 114) and a 300-yard passer (Romo, 307). Helped the offense control the clock for 33:37 and gain 312 yards while not allowing a sack at Carolina

- Helped block for Romo, who threw for a then career-high 437 yards third in team history on a club-record

The Titans managed a season-high six sacks, but the line blocked for Romo's then career-high 406 yards and Felix Jones topped 100 yards to mark the first time in team history a passer threw for 400 yards and a rusher topped 100

Was part of an offensive line against the N.Y. Giants (10/25) that had to adjust with three losses (Romo, fractured clavicle, Kyle Kosier, ankle, and Montrae Holland, groin). The line then allowed three sacks of Jon Kitna on 33 attempts as the quarterback threw for 187 yards and two touchdowns in the loss.

PRO: Sean Lee, selected in the second round (55th overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys, was chosen with intentions of becoming an inside force at linebacker for years to come. After Lee spent his rookie season learning behind solid veteran inside linebackers Keith Brooking and Bradie James, he became a full time starter on the inside in 2011. Lee was also charged with "quarterbacking" the defense in his role as a first-time starter and excelled in the spotlight. He paced the defense with 131 tackles - 52 more than the second place finisher - and tied for the team lead in tackles for losses (eight), interceptions (four) and fumble recoveries (two). Lee started all 15 games he played in his second season, missing one with a wrist injury. As he began his second season as the defensive signal caller in 2012, Lee was off on a torrid tackle total, posting double-digit figures through each of the first four games. He tied a 41-year club record after posting 21 stops at Seattle (9/16). Six weeks into the season, his 77 tackles were a club high, but that's where his total ended as a toe injury suffered at Carolina (10/21) slammed the brakes on his third season. After undergoing surgery to repair the injury and spending the end of the 2012 season and beginning of the 2013 off-season rehabbing, Lee will return to full health and look to pick up where he left off as the defense makes the switch back to the 4-3 alignment.

PRO: With their final selection of the 2010 NFL Draft, the Dallas Cowboys chose Sean Lissemore in the seventh round (234th overall). A versatile lineman that played defensive end and nose tackle in the Cowboys 3-4 scheme, Lissemore will bring the same high-motor playing intensity that fits well along a defensive line and should translate to a success in Dallas' return to the 4-3. For his work thus far through his career, Lissemore was rewarded at the beginning of the 2012 season with a three-year contract extension. Despite showing flashes of being able to produce in Dallas' defensive line rotation, Lissemore played in only two games as a rookie before injuring his ankle at Green Bay (11/7), forcing him to miss the next four games before being placed on the Reserve/Injured list on Dec. 4. He returned in 2011 as a key cog in Dallas' defensive line rotation. Lissemore played as a reserve lineman in all 16 games and finished with 39 tackles, a pair of sacks, two tackles for losses and five pressures. Lissemore again battled an ankle injury midway through 2012, missing six games, but did earn the first six starts of his short career through the second half of the season and recorded a career-best 43 tackles. PRO: DeMarco Murray arrived in Dallas with the club's third round selection (71st overall) of the 2011 NFL Draft. Through his first two NFL seasons, Murray regularly displayed his big-play ability with the threat to break one loose from anywhere on the field. After seeing spot action through the first five games of the 2011 season, Murray landed in team record books and NFL history when he filled in for Felix Jones (ankle) against St. Louis (10/23). His mark was set early in the game when he took his first carry of the game 91 yards for a touchdown to register the longest first career touchdown run since the NFL merger in 1970. By game's end, Murray had a club-record 253 rushing yards which was good for 10th in a game in league history and second by a rookie. His 91-yard touchdown run was the second-longest rush in team history, second only to Tony Dorsett's 99-yard run at Minnesota (1/3/83). Murray's yardage total didn't end there as he continued to rack up the yards over the course of the next four games. For his effort through the month of November -89 carries for 434 yards (4.9 avg.) and a touchdown - Murray became the fourth Cowboys rookie to earn Rookie of the Month honors. Unfortunately for Murray, his rookie season came to an end on Dec. 11 when he suffered a fractured right ankle and a high right ankle sprain in the first quarter. Despite missing the remainder of the game and the next three games, Murray finished the season with team rushing highs in carries (164), yards (897), average (5.5) and touchdowns (two). He returned as the starter in 2012 and was off to a good start through five games before a foot sprain sidelined him for six contests. He returned and finished the season as the club leader in carries (161), yards (663) and touchdowns (four). As he returns in 2013 in full health and as the club's starter, Murray will look to become Dallas' first 1,000-yard rusher since Julius Jones in 2006.

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys landed a quality and experienced veteran quarterback when they signed 2012 unrestricted free agent Kyle Orton to backup Tony Romo. Upon his arrival in Dallas, Orton reunited with Wade Wilson, who coached Orton for his first three pro seasons. Orton, originally drafted in the fourth round (106th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears, has started 69 of the 72 games he played and owns a 35-34 record. For his career, he has completed 1,293-of-2,214 passes for 14,621 yards with 81 touchdowns and 57 interceptions. Orton was thrust into the starting role as a rookie, and responded with nine wins in his first 12 games, finishing the season 10-5. His 10 wins as a rookie were the most by a rookie drafted in the fourth round-or-later since the common draft was instituted in 1967. His 10 wins that season were also the second-most by a rookie over that same span. Only Ben Roethlisberger - 13 wins in 2004 as a rookie - had more. In his first season with Dallas, Orton saw time in just one game for Dallas, late in the fourth quarter against Chicago (10/1). He went nine-of-10 for 89 yards and a touchdown. He will again spend the season as Romo's primary backup.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

PRO: In a matter of eight seasons, Jay Ratliff's pro career catapulted from backup contributor to Pro Bowl nose tackle with three selections as a starter in his four consecutive trips to the NFL's all-star game following superior performances from 2008-11. Now in his ninth season, the former seventh round draft choice looks to regain his dominance of offen-sive linemen after an injury rattled 2012 season allowed him to play in just six games. Ratliff is a versatile ath-lete who began his collegiate career as a tight end before playing two seasons as a defensive end and his final season as a defensive tackle. He is a tough, aggressive lineman who can collapse the pocket and knife into the backfield to flush out the quarterback. Ratliff made the most of his opportunity during the 2007 season after the team lost Jason Ferguson to injury in Week 1, allowing him to step in and start 14 games at nose tackle where his production led to a five-year extension on December 14, 2007. As the unquestioned starter at nose tackle in 2008, Ratliff's dominance at the position earned him his first selection to the Pro Bowl as a starter on the defensive line of the NFC squad, a feat he followed up with another dominating performance at the position in 2009 to earn his second consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl. He continued to impress in 2010 and 2011 as he earned his third and fourth consecutive Pro Bowl invites and third as a starter. He was again rewarded for his progress and dominance with his second five-year contract extension signed shortly before the 2011 season opener, keeping Ratiiff in Dallas through the 2017 season.

PRO BOWLS

PRO: In one of the more intriguing success stories in recent NFL history, Tony Romo ascended from the ranks of undrafted free agent - and three-year backup quarterback - to a record setting, three-time Pro Bowl selection for the Dallas Cowboys. With 93 career regular season starts under his belt, Romo has already re-written Cowboys passing records with his stellar and unique style of quarterback play. Elusive and instinctive in the pocket, he relies on a quick release, solid arm strength and excellent accuracy. His greatest asset may be his ability to see the field and find the open receiver - regardless of whether he is in a stationary position or eluding the pass rush. With a 55-38 regular season record as the Dallas starter, Romo led the Cowboys to 13 wins in 2007 - tying the franchise record for victories in a season in his first season as the full-time starter. Along the way, he set then single-season club marks for touch-down passes (36), completions (335), yardage (4,211) and 300-yard games (seven). He first set a Dallas mark for consecutive games with a touchdown pass with 17 straight between 2006 and 2007 only to up it to 20 (2009-11). His 2008 season was not as productive as 2007 after suffering a broken finger in his throwing hand at Arizona (10/12). Despite missing three games with the injury, Romo still threw for 300-or-more yards six times - second only to his seven from 2007 - while throwing for 3,448 yards - his second consecutive 3,000-plus yard season - to become the first quarterback with back-to-back 3,000-yard seasons since Troy Aikman (1995-97). Romo's third full season as a starter eclipsed his previous two as he became the first quarterback in club history to be on the field for every snap of the season. The 2009 season saw Romo set club records for attempts (550), completions (347), passing yards (4,483) and 300-yard games (eight) while throwing a career-low nine interceptions - tied for the fourth-fewest in a season in club history among quarterbacks with at least 300 attempts. He helped guide Dallas to an 11-5 record, the club's 17th NFC East Division title and Dallas' first playoff win since 1996. The 2009 season also saw Romo top 1,500 career attempts to make him eligible for career passing records. His season was cut short in 2010 as he suffered a broken left colarbone, which eventually landed him on Reserve/Injured on December 22, 2010. Before suffering the injury, R attempts, completions and passing yards. Signed by the Cowboys as an undrafted free agent in 2003, he made his first career start at the Carolina Panthers on Oct. 29, 2006, and, by December of that year, he became Dallas' first Pro Bowl quarterback since Aikman in 1996. Romo rose to prominence during a stretch in which six of his first 11 starts were nationally televised. In his first 10 regular season starts, he led the Cowboys to six victories and a playoff berth. He also led the NFL with 8.6 yards-per-pass attempt in 2006. His 95.1 quarterback rating as a first-time starter was the third-best in Cowboys history. He exceeded that mark with a 97.4 rating in 2007. After joining the Cowboys in 2003, Romo showed enough potential during training camp to become the third quarterback. He split fime with Drew Henson as the backup quarterback in 2004 but became the primary backup quarterback behind Drew Bledsoe throughout 2005. He also was the holder for field goals and extra points from 2004 to 2006 and volunteered to hold again in 2009. TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

SINGLE-GAME HIGHS

Tackles - 16 at Oakland, 9/9/07, at Minnesota, 12/2/07 and vs. Dallas, 12/9/07

PRO: For just the fourth time in team history, and first time since 1981, the Dallas Cowboys selected an offensive lineman in the first round of the draft when they picked Tyron Smith with the ninth overall pick in the 2011 NFL Draft. He also became the second-highest offensive lineman drafted in Cowboys history behind John Niland, who was selected fifth in the 1966 Draft. Smith, who started his collegiate career as a backup left tackle, eventually moved to the right side where he started the final 24 games in which he played at USC. In Smith, the Cowboys have a hard working, athletic lineman with good foot speed and the ability to stay on and finish blocks. Smith has proven himself as both an efficient run blocker and pass protector while demonstrating the ability to anchor a bull rusher and recover if he gets out of position. He stepped in and immediately took over the starting right tackle spot as a rookie, starting all 16 games he played. In his second season, Smith manned the blind side, moving to left tackle, after becoming the first rookie to start all 16 games along the offensive line since Rob Petitti in 2005 and the third overall to do so.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/28/11: Drafted in the first round (ninth overall) by Dallas. 2012:

· Made the move to left tackle and started all 15 games he played, missing one with an ankle injury.

· Helped the offense rack up 5,994 net yards - third in a season in team history - as Tony Romo threw for a career-high and club record 4,903 yards.

In the opener at the N.Y. Giants (9/5), made the start at left tackle for the first time in his career and helped block for a 100-yard rusher (DeMarco Murray, 131), 100-yard receiver (Kevin Ogletree, 114) and a 300yard passer (Romo, 307).

· Helped block for the first rushing touchdown of the season - 11-yard Murray run - in the home-opening win over Tampa Bay (9/23).

At Baltimore (10/14) helped block for 227 rushing yards, the most ever allowed by the Ravens, and the most for Dallas since rushing for 297 against St. Louis (10/23/11). Helped the offense control the clock for 33:37 and gain 312 yards while not allowing a sack at Carolina

Helped block for Romo, who threw for a then career-high 437 yards - third in team history - on a club-record

62 attempts with 36 completions - good for second in team history - against the N.Y. Giants (10/28). The offense gained 377 yards at Atlanta (11/4) while not turning the ball over for the first time on the season. Did not yield a turnover for the second consecutive week in the win at Philadelphia (11/11).

Suffered a left ankle injury in the second quarter and missed the remainder of the game against Cleveland (11/18)

Was active but did not play against (ankle) Washington (11/22), but returned to the starting lineup against Philadelphia (12/2) to block for Romo to throw for three touchdowns, completed 81.5% of his passes and finished with a 150.5 rating

Helped the offense convert 11-of-19 (57.9%) third down chances in the win at Cincinnati (12/9) before providing time for Romo to throw for his eighth 300-yard game of the season (328 yards) in the overtime win against Pittsburgh (12/16).

. Helped Romo throw for 416 yards - his third 400-yard game of the season - and four touchdowns in the overtime loss to New Orleans (12/23).

Made his NFL debut at right tackle and helped Romo throw for 342 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 23of-36 passes.

Along with fellow 2011 draft choice Bill Nagy, it was the first time in franchise history a Cowboys team started two rookies on the offensive line in the season opener. The pair also became the seventh and eighth rookie linemen to ever start a season opener and the first since Rob Pettiti in 2005. Overall, they were the 38th and 39th rookies to start an opener for Dallas.

Allowed time for Romo to throw for 345 yards and two touchdowns - his 20th straight game with a scoring toss and 28th career 300-yard game - in the overtime win at San Francisco (9/18).

In the home-opening win over Washington (9/26), helped block for 125 rushing yards, including a career-best 115 yards by Felix Jones.

Aided the offense in racking up 434 yards of offense - the club's second 400-yard game of the season against Detroit (10/2)

Blocked for Romo's 30th career 300-yard performance as the offense gained 377 yards of offense at New England (10/16).

PHILLIP TANNER 34 - RUNNING BACK 5-10 · 208 · 8/8/88 Middle Tennessee State . FA for '11 NFL: 3rd Year . Cowboys: 3rd Year Games/Starts: 2012-14/0: Career-23/0 Postseason: 2012-0/0: Career-0/0

PRO: Phillip Tanner arrived at Cowboys 2011 training camp as a rookie free agent looking to turn heads. He did just that through the preseason to become one-of-four undrafted free agents to make Dallas' 2011 active roster out of camp. He finished the season as a reserve running back, rushing for 76 yards and a touchdown on 22 carries while adding three special teams tackles. He returned in 2012 to play in 14 games, and while he just about matched his rushing output from his rookie season, Tanner excelled on special teams coverage units, placing sixth on the team with nine tackles. He comes into 2013 hoping to again earn a spot in Dallas' running back rotation.

PRO: When the Cowboys chose DeMarcus Ware with the 11th overall pick in the 2005 NFL Draft, they were looking for an explosive playmaker on defense. Through eight pro seasons, Ware has emerged as one of the most dominating defensive players in league history and has been named a starter to the NFC Pro Bowl squad in each of the previous seven seasons. He owns the top-four single-season sack figures by a club linebacker, has started 127-of-128 games in his career and has logged a club-record 26 multiple-sack games. Ware posted double-digit sack numbers for each of the past seven seasons and led the league in 2010 with 15.5. Along with his NFL-best 20.0 in 2008, Ware is only the fifth league defender to finish a season atop the sack list in multiple seasons. He is also just the fifth player with seven-or-more 10-plus sack seasons since sacks became official in 1982. In 2008 he opened the season with a sack in seven straight games, and, with the three consecutive he had at the end of the 2007 season, he tied Simon Fletcher for the longest streak in league history (10) since sacks became official. Ware led the Cowboys with a then club linebacker record 11.5 sacks in 2006, becoming the first Cowboy to record 10-or-more sacks in a season since Tony Tolbert (12.0 in 1996). He upped that total in 2007 to establish a then-club linebacker record with 14.0 sacks while also becoming the first Cowboy to log back-to-back double-digit sack seasons since Charles Haley (12.5 - 1994, 10.5 - 1995). With registering a double-digit sack total again in 2009, Ware became the third Cowboy defender - first since 1971 - with three consecutive 10-plus sack seasons. As a rookie, Ware tied Greg Ellis for the team lead with eight sacks, becoming just the second rookie in club history to lead or tie for the team lead in sacks since Jimmie Jones in 1990. Ware is the first player in franchise history to lead or tie for the team lead in sacks through each of his first eight seasons with the team, and since entering the league in 2005, no player has more sacks than his 111.0. In 2011 Ware barely missed becoming the first ever league defender to reach 20.0 sacks in multiple seasons, finishing second in the league with 19.5. Despite coming short of 20 sacks on the season, Ware is paired up with Mark Gastineau as the only two men in league history with two seasons of 19-or-more sacks. Ware played through injuries the second half of the 2012 season, but still led the team and topped 10.0 sacks for the season, finishing with 11.5. Along with Anthony Spencer's 11.0, Ware and Spencer became the fifth sack duo in team history to each notch at least 10 sacks each in the same season.

PRO: Through 10 NFL seasons, Jason Witten has emerged as one of the top tight ends in NFL history and one of the most prolific pass catchers in Cowboys history. He is Dallas' all time receptions leader, surpassing Michael Irvin (750) in 2012, and is third in NFL history among tight ends with 806 - just nine behind Shannon Sharpe for second. His 8,948 yards is second in Cowboys history and third in NFL tight ends history. He appeared in seven consecutive Pro Bowl games for the most Pro Bowl appearances by a Cowboys tight end, a streak that ended following the 2011 season. He added his eighth Pro Bowl appearance following a record-breaking 2012 season in which he established a league tight end record with 110 catches - just one behind the club record - and notched his fourth 1,000-yard season (1,039) - tied with Tony Gonzalez for the most by a tight end in league history and second in team history behind Irvin's seven. He managed to accomplish all this despite being slowed through the first part of the season after suffering a lacerated spleen during the first preseason game. His 110 catches led the club for the sixth straight, seventh overall season, and were aided by a club and tight end single-game record 18 catches. For his work on and off the field, Witten was honored with the Walter Payton Man of the Year Award. He is also tied with Gonzalez for the most 90-catch, 1,000-yard seasons (4) in NFL tight end history. Despite missing out on the Pro Bowl in 2011, Witten led the team for the fifth straight, sixth overall, season with 79 catches and a team-best 942 yards with five touchdowns. The 2010 season was no different for the perennial Pro Bowler. En route to his seventh straight all-star appearance, Witten led the team in receptions for the fourth straight season with 94 catches while notching his third career 1,000-yard season to become just the fourth tight end in league history with three career 1,000-yard years. He is also just the second league tight end to post three-or-more 90plus catch, 1,000-yard seasons. Through his career, he has strung together nine straight seasons with at least 50 and 60 catches and six straight with at least 70 and 80. He became the first tight end in franchise history - 13th in league history - to top 1,000 yards in a season with his first 1,000-yard effort in 2007. Of his 806 career receptions, 445 have gone for first downs, including 154 on third down. ## 2013 DRAFT PICKS

COLLEGE: After trading down to get the 31st (from 18th) and 74th overall picks in the 2013 NFL Draft, the Dallas Cowboys feel they invested in the foundation of the offensive line for years to come when they selected center Travis Frederick in the first round of the 2013 NFL Draft. Frederick displayed position flex through his collegiate and prep career, earning starts at both center and guard while at Wisconsin and playing offensive and defensive tackle while at Big Foot High School in Walworth, Wisc. Frederick will look to step in as the starting center for Dallas as a rookie and shore up the spot for the future.

COLLEGE: Looking to further evolve the offense, the Dallas Cowboys added another weapon to their arsenal with the second round selection (47th overall) of tight end Gavin Escobar in the 2013 NFL Draft. ### Monday Night Football (43-31)

The Cowboys will be making their 75th appearance on Monday Night Football during the 2013 season at Chicago (12/9). The majority of the Cowboys MNF games were played on ABC Monday Night Football from 1970-2005 when they appeared on the prime time telecast 67 times posting a 39-28 record including a 17-11 record at home and a 22-17 mark on the road. Only Miami, with 78 games, has appeared on MNF more. The 43 MNF wins by the Cowboys are the most in league history. ESPN landed the telecast in 2006, and since then, the Cowboys have appeared seven times on MNF with a 4-3 record. The week after playing on MNF, the Cowboys are 32-29 (five times the Cowboys final game of the season was on a Monday night and seven times they followed with a bye). Here are the Cowboys Monday Night Football results:

★ TROY AIKMAN ★ Quarterback, 1989-2000 INDUCTED - 2006

In 12 NFL seasons. Troy Aikman became one of the game's great quarterbacks. As just the third player in NFL history to lead a team to three Super Bowl victories, Aikman rewrote virtually every passing record in Cowboys history. He closed his career with 94 regular season wins, including 90 in the decade of the 1990s - mak-J ing him the winningest starting quarterback of any decade in NFL history (Joe Montana held the record with 86 wins in the 1980s).

Along with that mark, Aikman held or was tied for 47 Dallas passing records, including the club's career records for attempts (4,715), completions (2,898), passing yards (32,942), touchdowns (165) and completion percentage (61.5% – third best in NFL history at the time of his retirement). He also posted a club-high 13 regular season 300-yard passing games during his career.

Along the way to these marks, Aikman guided Dallas from the cellar of 1-15 in 1989 to six NFC East titles (1992-96 and 1998), four NFC Championship Games (1992-95) and three Super Bowl titles (XXVII, XXVIII and XXX). He was one of the game's most accurate passers, completing at least 60 percent of his passes in 98of 165 career games. In the postseason, he reached the 60% completion mark in 12-of 16 games. He completed 70 percent or more of his passes 42 times in his career, with Dallas posting a 37-5 record in those games, and he produced the top six single-season completion percentages in club history.

With his passing accuracy, Aikman was able to establish a club-record with a career interception rate of 2.99%. Although not known for his fleet feet, Aikman successfully ran for a first down 49-of-72 times on third or fourth down during career. That ability to avoid the sack also allowed him to post the highest career pass attempts per sack ratio (19.2) in team history. Despite winning just one of his first 15 NFL starts, Aikman went on to start a club-record 180 games (165 regular season) at quarterback and post a 105-75 (.583) record, which includes an impeccable 11-4 mark in the postseason – 3-0 in the Super Bowl.

For his career, Aikman led the Cowboys from behind 16 times in the fourth quarter, including six times in the final two minutes. Another six times, he led the team to wins after the score was tied in the fourth quarter. Five of his game-winning drives came in overtime.

In the postseason Aikman truly shined. His four 300-yard passing days were the third best total in NFL history, and he holds the club records for postseason pass attempts (502), completions (320), yards (3,849), and completion percentage (63.7%). In addition, Aikman's 23 career postseason passing touchdowns was just one shy of Staubach's club record of 24

The first overall choice in the 1989 draft out of UCLA, Aikman completed 64.8 percent of his passes for 5,298 yards and 41 touchdowns while throwing only 17 interceptions in two seasons as the starter. He finished his career as the third rated passer in NCAA history. The All-America led the Bruins to a 20-4 record, including wins in the 1987 Aloha Bowl and the 1989 Cotton Bowl. He transferred to UCLA - where he received his degree in sociology in June, 2009 - after two seasons at Oklahoma (1984-85).

Aikman was born Nov. 21, 1966 in West Covina, Calif.

73 ★ LARRY ALLEN ★ Guard/Tackle, 1994-2005 INDUCTED – 2013

As a member of the NFL's All-Decade team for the 1990s and 2000s, Larry Allen was widely recognized as one of the NFL's premier offensive linemen, and he established himself as one of the most decorated offensive players in Dallas Cowboys and NFL history.

In 14 NFL seasons since being drafted in the second round out of Sonoma

State, Allen was named to more Pro Bowls (10) than any other offensive player in Cowboys history. He also earned another Pro Bowl berth in 2006 while finishing his career with the San Francisco 49ers, bringing his Pro Bowl total to 11 selections. He was also named All-Pro seven times, st times at guard (1995-97, 1999-01) and once at tackle (1998). With his Pro Bowl selection at tackle in 1998, he became just the third play-joining Bruce Matthews (guard/center) and Chris Hinton (guard/tackle).

An ankle injury in the second week of the 2002 season limited Allen to five games and snapped his seven-year string of trips to the Pro Bowl, the fourth-longest streak in club history and the standard for Pro Bowl selections by a Dallas offensive lineman. Allen fully recovered from his injury and earned his eighth Pro Bowl selection in 2003, tying Emmitt Smith as the only Dallas offensive player to be selected to eight Pro Bowls. In 2004, he earned his ninth trip to Hawaii. Allen is tied with Mel Renfro (10) for the second-most Pro Bowl selections by a Cowboy, with both players trailing Bob Lilly (11).

er in league history to be selected to the Pro Bowl at more than one offensive line position during his career.

He played all but one position along the offensive line in his 12 seasons in Dallas, moving between right tackle (1994), right guard (1995-97), left tackle (1997-98) and left guard (1999-03). During his illustrious career in Dallas, Allen was a member of an offensive unit that posted the four lowest sacks allowed totals in club history with 18 in 1995, 19 in 1996 and 1998, and 20 in 1994. He also played a very important part in Smith's race toward the all-time NFL rushing mark, having blocked for eight of Smith's 11 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Smith gained 11,463 of his 17,162 career yards with Dallas after Allen joined the Cowboys in 1994 and was a pivotal member of the Super Bowl XXX Champion team in 1995.

With a career-best bench press of 700 pounds and a squat lift of 900 pounds, Allen is also considered to be the strongest man to ever play professional football. After missing most of 2002 with a sprained left ankle that required surgery to remove bone spurs, Allen went on to start 48 straight games before signing and playing for two seasons (2006-07) with San Francisco where he started the final 27 games of his career, Allen started 197-of-203 career games played.

ALLEN'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 11-time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ 7-time All Pro
- ★ Super Bowl XXX title
- 2 NFC Championships
- * 4 Division Titles
- ★ 1990s and 2000s member of NFL's All-Decade Teams
- Blocked for eight of Emmitt Smith's 11 1,000-yard seasons

Larry Allen became the second Cowboys offensive lineman selected to both the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Ring of Honor at Cowboys Stadium. He joined Rayfield Wright as the only two.

★ TONY DORSETT ★Running Back, 1977-87 INDUCTED - 1994

Tony Dorsett arrived in Dallas in 1977 via a draft-day deal the Cowboys swung with the Seattle Seahawks for the sole intention of selecting the Heisman Trophy winner from the University of Pittsburgh. Then Cowboys president and General Manager Tex Schramm paid what seemed like a bundle for the right to draft Dorsett: one firstround, and three second-round choices. As his 11-career turned out in Dallas, a steal of a deal for an eventual Pro Football Hall of Fame player.

The Dorsett deal paid dividends in his very first year with the Cowboys, the four-time All-American picked up where he left off in college, rushing for 1,007 yards to earn NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and set the rushing bar for rookie running backs in Dallas.

"A lot of the people said I wouldn't last in this league," Dorsett said in 1987. "I was the skinny little kid from Aliquippa, Pa., who wasn't supposed to make it."

Dorsett did make it, in fact he became one of the greatest running backs in NFL history. On Sept. 26, 1988 while playing his final NFL season with the Denver Broncos, Dorsett moved into second place on the NFL all-time rushing list with 12,306 rushing yards, and eventually finished his career with 12,739 yards. At the time, Dorsett trailed only Walter Payton when he retired after suffering a knee injury the following summer, but now ranks eighth behind Emmitt Smith, Payton, Barry Sanders, Curtis Martin, LaDainian Tomlinson, Jerome Bettis and Eric Dickerson.

By the time Dorsett completed his 12-year career, he had collected a victory in Super Bowl XII, four Pro Bowl selections, one All-Pro honor and three All-NFC selections.

One of the most notable moments of Dorsett's career came on Jan. 2, 1983, before a Monday Night Football television audience playing against the Minnesota Vikings. Dorsett received a handoff from quarterback Danny White and proceeded to run 99-yards for a touchdown, thus recording an unbreakable NFL record. Dorsett's greatest season came in 1981 when he rushed for 1,646 yards, a franchise record at the time, a total that now ranks third to only Emmitt Smith's two, 1,700-yard seasons.

"When he came to us, we hadn't had a strong running attack for about three years," Hall of Fame quarterback Roger Staubach once said. "Tony Dorsett is one of the greatest backs in NFL history."

Dorsett was the Heisman Trophy winner in 1976 and was the first Pitt football player to have his jersey retired. Dorsett left Pitt as a four-time All-American and four-time 1,000-yard rusher. His final collegiate highlight was a 27-3 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to claim the national title.

In 1994 Dorsett became the ninth Cowboys player inducted into the Ring of Honor, and that same year he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

He was born April 7, 1954, in Rochester, Pa.

22 ★ BOB HAYES ★ Wide Receiver, 1965-74 INDUCTED – 2009

In his 10 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, "Bullet" Bob Hayes revolutionized the wide receiver position and the way defenses would play in the NFL. He began his 11-year NFL career after winning two olympic gold medals at the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo, Japan. He tied the world record (10.06 seconds) in the 100-meter dash and claimed his second gold medal running the anchor leg of the 400-meter relay to earn the title of "The World's Fastest Human." He arrived in Dallas in similar fashion to become – and remain – the only rookie in franchise history to ever lead the team in receptions (46), receiving yards (1,003) and a rookie club record of 12 touchdown catches. His 12 touchdown receptions as a rookie are currently tied for fourth in league history. His speed and threat of being able to go long forced teams to install the zone defense to corral Haves.

Hayes finished his Cowboys career with 365 catches (seventh), for 7,295 yards (fifth) and 71 touchdowns (first). In club record books, Hayes still holds team receiving marks for most points in a game (24, tied), most touchdowns in a game (four, tied), most receptions by a rookie, season (46), most receptions by a rookie, game (eight, tied), yards, game (246), longest reception (95t), highest career receiving average (20.0), highest single-season receiving average (26.1), touchdowns in a season (71), touchdowns in a season by a rookie (12) and touchdowns in a game (four, tied).

Hayes was also a threat as a punt returner, returning 104 punts (fourth in team history) for 1,158 yards (fourth) and three touchdowns (tied for second). His 11.1 yard-per-return average is second in team record books only to Deion Sanders (13.3).

Hayes was a three-time Pro Bowl selection and became just the third rookie in club history (Don Perkins – 1961 and Mel Renfro – 1964) to be named to the Pro Bowl. He also earned All-Pro selections four times (1965-68) and was inducted into the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor in a halftime celebration against San Diego on Sept. 23, 2001.

Hayes split his time between football and track and field at Florida A&M where he became famous as the "World's Fastest Human." In 1963 he set the world record (9.1 seconds) in the 100-yard dash, a record that stood for 11 years.

Hayes was born December 20, 1942.

★ MICHAEL IRVIN ★ Wide Receiver, 1988-99 INDUCTED - 2007

Despite having his career cut short due to a spine injury, Michael Irvin left the NFL following the 1999 season owning or tied for 20 Cowboys receiving records. Those marks included career receptions (750), yardage (11,904) and 100-yard receiving games (47). During his illustrious career, Irvin also etched his name in the NFL record books. In league history, only Jerry Rice (12) and Steve Largent (8) had recorded more 1,000-yard receiving seasons than the seven produced by Irvin at the time of his retirement, His 11 100-yard receiving games during the 1995 season is still the NFL standard, as is the seven consecutive 100-yard games he produced that same year. Irvin's 47 career 100-yard receiving games still stands as the third-most in NFL history, behind Rice (65) and Don Maynard (50), and the Cowboys posted a 36-11 record when Irvin topped the 100-yard mark. In the 1990s, Irvin's consistent ability to achieve at the highest level established his place among the game's elite receivers. He finished his career tied with Charlie Joiner for tenth in NFL history on the all-time reception list, and he was ninth in league history in receiving yardage.

Irvin was selected to five Pro Bowls between 1991-98, giving him two more Pro Bowl appearances than any other wide receiver in club history. He is one of only two Cowboys players (Jason Witten 2007-11) to top 75 catches in five straight seasons (1991-1995), and his reception and yardage totals for six of the years between 1991-98 represent six of the top nine single-season performances in club history: 1997 (75 receptions for 1,180 yards); 1995 (111 for 1,603); 1994 (79 for 1,241), 1993 (88 for 1,330), 1992 (78 for 1,396) and 1991 (93 for 1,523). Irvin also stands alone as the club record holder in terms of most consecutive seasons leading the team in receptions (eight, 1991-98) and most total seasons leading the club in receptions (eight). He led or tied for the team lead in catches in 85 of his last 130 regular season games. Including playoff games, he had a catch of 20-yards-or-more in 121 of the 175 NFL games he played. Irvin's career receiving average of 15.9 is the fourth highest in team history, and he is second on the club's all-time receiving touchdown list with 65 - trailing only Bob Hayes (71).

Of his 750 career regular season catches, 95 went for 20-29 yards, 38 for 30-39, 18 for 40-49, 10 for 50-59 and nine for 60 yards-or-more. After entering the League in 1988, he started 147-of-159 regular season games (163-of-175 including playoffs). Irvin did not miss a start due to injury after the 1990 season, when he was overcoming a 1989 knee injury. Always a clutch performer, he became Troy Aikman's go-to-guy on third or fourth down and prospered, leading the team in catches on third or fourth down for first downs in '92 (22), '93 (16), '94 (20), '95 (27), '97 (23) and '98 (16). He had 165 first down catches on third or fourth down in his last 121 games and 185 after returning from the knee injury in 1990.

His performance in the postseason was every bit as impressive as his consistent play throughout the regular season. His six career 100-yard receiving days in the postseason are two shy of the NFL mark of eight by Jerry Rice. Irvin's 87 postseason receptions place him second in NFL playoff history behind Rice (151) and 1,315 postseason receiving yards also ranks second in league annals behind Rice (2,245). Irvin was the 11th overall choice in 1988 draft out of Miami, Florida, where in just three seasons as a starter he set career records for catches (143), receiving yards (2,423) and touchdown receptions (26).

Irvin was born March 3, 1966.

★ TOM LANDRY ★ Head Coach, 1960-88 INDUCTED - 1990

Tom Landry paced the sidelines as the "only head coach" in Dallas Cowboys history for 29 years in his trademark fedora. By the time Landry's coaching career ended following the 1988 season, he had compiled a 270-178-6 record, the third most wins in NFL history.

That distinguished career was good enough for Landry to gain entry into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990 and the Cowboys Ring of Honor in 1993, thanks to leading the Cowboys to two Super Bowl titles, five Super Bowl appearances, five NFC Championships, 13 division titles and an incredible 20 consecutive winning seasons.

This team has always played for me." Landry said. "That was the key to why I continued coaching. If they wouldn't play for me, I would have been out a long time ago. They always played hard and tried hard.

Landry's head coaching career did not start out very smoothly, coming over from the N.Y. Giants staff to take over the expansion Cowboys in 1960. That first year ended with an 0-11-1 in 1960, the tie coming against Landry's former team the Giants, preventing the Cowboys from going winless. The Cowboys went on to suffer through losing seasons in the first five years, before going 7-7 in 1965.

But from that point on, Landry turned the franchise into "America's Team," the Cowboys reeling off 20 consecutive winning seasons from 1966-85, one of the longest winning streaks in all of professional sports.

As a player-coach with the Giants before coming to the Cowboys, Landry helped to develop what would eventually become a base defense in the NFL, the 4-3. It was innovations like this that caught the attention of Cowboys owner Clint Murchison Jr. and president Tex Schramm when it came time to select the franchise's first head coach.

As head coach of the Cowboys, Landry introduced more innovations to the game, including offensive motion. Very seldom did the Cowboys run a play from the formation they initially lined up in after breaking the huddle. Landry brought back the shotgun formation, popularized situational substitutions and concocted the Walking the sidelines characteristically stoic, Landry was always thinking a couple of plays ahead and what the long-term effects of each play he called might be. He coached football as if it were a chess match, positioning his team in the best way to win in the end. And in the end, no one coached with more success for a longer period of time than Landry. That success was the impetus for Landry's induction into Pro Football Hall of Fame less than two years after he coached his last game.

The legendary coach, born Sept. 11, 1924, in Mission, Texas, died Feb. 12, 2000 of leukemia.

74 ★ BOB LILLY ★ Defensive Tackle, 1961-74 INDUCTED – 1980

Before earning the nickname "Mr. Cowboy," Bob Lilly was the first player ever drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1961. So it is fitting that Lilly not only became the first Cowboys player inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1975, but also became the franchise's first player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980.

During the course of 14 seasons with the Cowboys, Lilly was named Rookie of the Year in 1961, was selected to the Pro Bowl a club-record 11-times – 10 consecutive selections between 1964-74 – was named to the All-Pro team seven times and played in two Super Bowls, including the club's very first Super Bowl victory, 24-3 over Miami in Super Bowl VI.

As the foundation of the famed "Doomsday Defense," Lilly's intensity was readily apparent in an infamous scene after the Cowboys Super Bowl V loss to the Baltimore Colts when he ripped his helmet off and hurled it into the air. The following year, the Lilly-led Cowboys defense held Miami to only a field goal in Super Bowl VI, the fewest points every given up in Super Bowl history.

"The competition is what I love," Lilly once said. "That makes me a lot more intense. Personalities don't enter into it at all. My objective is to get the man with the ball. Nobody better get in my way."

Lilly is the Cowboys all-time leader in consecutive games played at 196, is tied for second with 14 seasons played and second all-time with 194 games started. Lilly led the Cowboys in sacks three consecutive years, beginning with his rookie season.

"A man like that comes along once in a lifetime," late Cowboys head coach Tom Landry said in 1972. "He is something a little bit more than great. Nobody is better than Bob Lilly."

Lilly was a two-time All-American defensive end at Texas Christian University and a two-time all-Southwest Conference team selection.

He was born July 26, 1939, in Olney, Texas.

Bob Lilly was the first Cowboys player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980.

MEL RENFRO ★ Defensive Back, 1964-77 INDUCTED – 1996

Mel Renfro first came to the Cowboys a highly-acclaimed running back out of the University of Oregon. But Cowboys head coach Tom Landry saw Renfro as a defensive back when they selected him in the second round of the 1964 draft.

And what a defensive back he was during his 14-year career, becoming arguably the best safety-cornerback to ever play for the Cowboys, and one of the best to ever play in the NFL. His 52 career interceptions and 26.4-yard career kickoff-return average still stand as team records, both a tribute to his running ability.

The NFL certainly got to know Renfro in a hurry, having been elected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first 10 seasons in the NFL – the first six at free safety and the final four at cornerback. His 10 Pro Bowl appearances is second to only Bob Lilly's 11 for the Cowboys.

On top of his 10 Pro Bowls, Renfro was a four-time All-Pro, playing in four Super Bowls and eight NFC Championships. He became the fifth member of the exclusive Ring of Honor in 1981, and was finally elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996 in his 14th year of eligibility.

Renfro's 14 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys ties him for second in club history, just one shy of the record

While at Oregon, Renfro led the team in rushing three consecutive years and was a two-time All-American. Despite coming to the NFL as an acclaimed runner, Renfro only ran the ball eight times during his career, all in 1966. Landry saw a free safety first, Renfro spending his first six seasons at safety and the final eight at corner.

In the middle of Renfro's All-Pro 1969 season, Landry was uncharacteristically complimentary toward one of his players, calling him "the best in the league at free safety."

But the Cowboys certainly figured out a way to capitalize on Renfro's running ability, having him return punts and kickoffs early in his career. He led the NFL in kickoff and punt returns his rookie season, and had seven interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. Renfro still is tied for the franchise lead with two career touchdown returns, and his 30-yard kick-off return average in 1965 still remains as the single-season high.

But it was interceptions Renfro was best known for during his career. In his first six years at free safety, Renfro totaled 30 interceptions. His interception totals declined somewhat when Landry moved him to cornerback for good in 1970. The decline had more to do with quarterbacks' reluctance to throw his way than any diminishing skills or quickness. His 626 interception return yards still stands as a career record for the Cowboys.

That 1971 Pro Bowl possibly was the greatest indication of Renfro's all-round ability. Not only did he play cornerback, but be also returned two punts for touchdowns, leading the NFC to a 27-6 win and earning the game's Most Valuable Player award.

He was born Dec. 30, 1941, in Houston, Texas.

21 * DEION SANDERS * Cornerback, 1995-99 INDUCTED - 2011

On Sept. 9 1995, the Dallas Cowboys made the biggest free agent move in the franchise's history by signing Deion Sanders to a long term contract. In doing so, Dallas was able to secure the services of one of the most talented cornerbacks in the history of the NFL. His stardom in the NFL was apparent from his first career game when he returned a punt 68 yards for a touchdown. More of that spectacular play continued throughout his 14-season, 188-game career. Sanders, who spent time with five tinued throughout his 14-season, 188-game career. Sanders, who spent time with five different NFL teams, scored a total of six touchdowns on punt returns, three on kickoff returns, and returned nine interceptions for scores. The multi-faceted athlete also returned one fumble for a touchdown and had 60 receptions for 784 yards and three touchdowns with the Falcons (1989-1993), San Francisco 49ers (1994), Dallas Cowboys (1995-99), Washington Redskins (2000) and Baltimore Ravens (2004-05). In all, he recorded 53 interceptions including five with the Ravens when he returned to the field after a three-year retirement.

Sanders was an extremely gifted and versatile athlete, who was also a Major League Baseball player. As a baseball player, Sanders spent time with the New York Yankees (1989-90), Atlanta Braves (1991-94), Cincinnati Reds (1994-95, 1997, 2001) and San Francisco Giants (1995). He is the only man in professional sports to play in both a World Series (batting at a .533 World Series clip with Atlanta in 1992) and in the Super Bowl (with victorious San Francisco and Dallas teams following the 1994 and 1995 seasons). To further validate his versatility, Sanders is the only man in NFL history who has recorded both a pass reception – a 47-yarder, the longest completion of the game in Super Bowl XXX – and an interception – returned for 15 yards in Super Bowl XXIX – in Super Bowl action. After helping the Cowboys win Super Bowl XXX, Sanders announced on Feb. 20, 1996 that he would play football exclusively for the entire 1996 season. As a result, Sanders started 16 regular season games at cornerback and another eight at wide receiver – becoming the first two-way starter in the NFL since the Philadelphia Eagles Chuck Bednank, who retired in 1962. At the completion of the 1996 football season, Sanders returned to baseball, signing with the Reds, and led the league in stolen bases (56) in the 1997 season before returning to football on a full-time basis in September.

He was selected to eight Pro Bowls, and became a member of the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s as both a cornerback and a punt returner, leading the NFL in punt returns in 1998. He also led the NFC in kickoffs in 1992 and interceptions in 1991 and 1993. He was named first-team All-Pro nine times at cornerback in addition to receiving All-NFL acclaim by some media outlets as a kick returner in 1992 and as a punt returner in 1998. Sanders won two Super Bowls during his career. He started at right cornerback for the 49ers in their 49-26 victory over the San Diego Chargers in Super Bowl XXIX and at left cornerback in the Cowboys 27-17 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XXX.

His 23 career touchdowns (including playoffs) have been scored in the following manner: interceptions (nine), pass receptions (three), rushes (one), kickoff returns (three), punt returns (six) and fumble recoveries (one). Sanders holds the NFL record for career touchdowns scored on any type of return with 18. Perhaps the one statistic that supports Sanders' status as one of the game's greatest playmakers is his 25.1-yard career interception average on 53 career thefts (1,331 yards), ranking him sixth all-time. He retired second all-time in interception return yardage (1,331) and tied for second for most interceptions returned for a touchdown in a career (nine) and a season (three). His career-high 303 yards gained on interception returns with the 49ers in 1994 was third best ever in the NFL at the time of his retirement. He also returned three picks for touchdowns (74, 93, 90 yards) that season to become the first player ever to have two 90-yard interception returns for touchdowns in the same season. He was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

Sanders was originally drafted by Atlanta in the first round (fifth overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft out of Florida

State, just behind Troy Aikman (first overall selection in 1989).

★ TEX SCHRAMM ★ Cowboys President and General Manager 1959-1989 INDUCTED – 1991

Texas Earnest Schramm Jr., better known as "Tex," rose to Professional Football Hall of Fame status during his 29 seasons as president and general manager of the Dallas Cowboys, turning a 1960 expansion franchise in Dallas into one of the most successful franchises in NFL history.

With Schramm overseeing the birth and growth of the Cowboys organization, the team reached five Super Bowls, winning two, made 18 playoff appearances and compiled an NFL-record 20 consecutive winning seasons, one of the longest such streaks in all of professional sports.

Schramm was an NFL pioneer and innovator. Under his watch, the Dallas Cowboys were always on the cutting edge with revolutionary ideas and visions. He was instrumental in creating the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, the first of their kind in professional football, developing the Cowboys Ring of Honor and bringing an annual Cowboys Thanksgiving Day game to the nation.

Schramm's work was not just focused on the Dallas Cowboys, as his tireless efforts changed the face of the entire NFL. He was a driving force behind the development and implementation of instant replay, giving the head referee a microphone for penalty announcements, shortening the play-clock and helping to develop the wild-card playoff system.

A tough negotiator, Schramm was the engineer in building the Cowboys foundation from the ground up. His tough stance in labor negotiations was also evident in his support for using replacement players during the 1987 NFL strike. After just three weeks, the move proved successful and the players returned to work. The benefits of this would be apparent in future years as lasting labor peace was reached with the NFL Players Association in 1992 and has continued since.

His position as chairman of the NFL Competition Committee from 1966 to 1988 aided his innovative efforts. Schramm's impact on the league was widespread, and probably his most cherished legacy since the one-time TV-executive at CBS who first came up with the idea of televising the Winter Olympics in 1960 from Squaw Valley was such a firm believer in preserving and making history.

One of Schramm's most significant accomplishments in the NFL was coordinating the merger of the established NFL and the fledging American Football League in 1966, holding what amounted to as secret meetings with Kansas City Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt at the insistence of NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

The merger of the two warring leagues led to what became known as the Super Bowl, and when the leagues combined in 1970, the most powerful sports league in the world.

After Schramm departed the Cowboys in 1989 when Jerry Jones bought the club, he went international, becoming president of the upstart World League of American Football, later to become know as NFL Europe. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991.

He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991.

"I'm not one of the great athletes like the men behind me," a jubilant Schramm said during his Hall of Fame induction speech. "But I'm thrilled to be standing in front of them. Many of the men in here were my heroes.

To be rubbing shoulders with them, it's beyond my comprehension."

In all, Schramm spent 44 years of his life in professional football, starting as a sportswriter for the Austin American-Statesman in 1947 — a natural step for the California-born Schramm who earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Texas. Schramm spent 10 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (1947-56), where Schramm first came in contact with Rozelle, who Schramm hired to be the Rams public relations director in 1952. Schramm then spent a brief period (1957-59) at CBS before being hired by Clint Murchison in 1959 to oversee the startup of the Dallas expansion franchise.

Schramm was born on June 2, 1920, in San Gabriel, Calif.

TEX SCHRAMM'S NFL LEGACY

During Schramm's 25 years as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee, the NFL implemented the following:

Year Contribution

1970 Moved the official game time to the scoreboard clock

1972 Moved the hash marks toward the center of the field to aid offense

1974 Implemented stricter pass defense rules to influence scoring

1974 Moved goalposts from the goal line to the end line for safety and to help offensive play

1974 Developed the sudden-death overtime concept for breaking ties

1975 Gave the referee a microphone to announce calls to the crowd and TV audiences

1977 Made defensive linemen's head slaps illegal

1979 Implemented the in-the-grasp rule to protect quarterbacks

1986 Instituted Instant Replay to aid officials

Enabled Quarterbacks to stop the clock by throwing the ball directly into the ground

22 * EMMITT SMITH * Running Back, 1990-2002 INDUCTED - 2010

In 15 seasons - 13 with Dallas - Emmitt Smith made an impact on the NFL that few players can match at any position or in any era. As the NFL's all-time leading rusher, Smith also won four NFL rushing titles, three Super Bowl titles and a league (1993) and Super Bowl (XXVIII) MVP award. He was selected to the Pro Bowl eight times, and on the club's offense, only Larry Allen (10) was selected to more in club history. Among NFL running backs, only Barry Sanders (10) was selected more times. With 975 rushing yards in 2002, Smith became just the seventh player in NFL history to carry the title of all-time rushing leader, taking that designation from Walter Payton.

After 13 seasons in Dallas, Smith had 17,162 career rushing yards, and he moved past Payton's 16,726 career yard mark in Week Eight of the 2002 season against Seattle. Smith finished his pro career with 18,355 yards and is also the NFL's career rushing touchdowns leader (164), and second in league annals in total touchdowns (175), trailing Jerry Rice by 33. The first player in NFL history to post five straight seasons with over 1,400 vards rushing, Smith, Jim Brown and LaDainian Tomlinson are the only players with seven straight 10-touchdown seasons to start their career. With 1,021 yards rushing in 2001, Smith became the first player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in 11 consecutive seasons and the first to post 11 1,000-yard rushing seasons in a career.

Smith holds the NFL record for career rushing attempts with 4,409, passing Payton (3,838) in Week Three of the 2002 season. With an NFL record 25 rushing touchdowns in 1995, Smith scored 100 career touchdowns in just six seasons, originally the fastest anyone in league history had reached that mark. Smith also tied Brown's NFL record by scoring 100 touchdowns in just 93 career games. Since Smith's accomplishment, Tomlinson reached the feat in 89 games. His 25 career scores against the Arizona Cardinals is tied for the third-best total by a player against an opponent since 1970, followed by his 24 scores against Washington and the N.Y Giants.

His value to the Cowboys success can be seen in the club's 99-26 mark (91-24 in regular season) when he carried the ball 20-or-more times a game and 64-19 record (57-19 in regular season) when he rushed for 100 yards. The century mark became a big number in Smith's career, having rushed for 100 yards in 155-of-326 games dating back to high school, including 83-of-218 games with Dallas, including playoffs. In NFL annals, Smith's 78 regular season 100-yard rushing games is a record. Included in Smith's club-record 76 100-yard rushing games are 11 of the top 15 performances in team history and 18 days with over 150 yards (the fourth highest total of 150-yard games in NFL history). Smith rushed for over 100-yards against 22 of the 32 NFL teams.

In addition, he rushed for 2,466 yards against the Philadelphia Eagles in his 15-year career, his best output against any single opponent. That total ranks second since 1970 for running backs against one team.

Smith also has the third and fourth best totals in that category.

One reason Smith was such a workhorse in the Dallas offense over the years was his ability to answer the bell at game time, having started 216-of-218 career games - including playoffs. While in Dallas, he missed just four career games due to injury, and it was that durability that enabled Smith to lead the Cowboys in rushing in 178 of his 201 career regular season games. The lack of decline in Smith's game is also evidenced by the fact that he had rushed for 5,928 yards from 1998-2002 - the fifth highest yardage total in the NFL over that time span. His 41 rushing touchdowns during his last five years in Dallas was the third-best figure in the league.

Not limited to rushing and scoring, Smith is fourth on the Cowboys all-time reception list with 486 career catches, trailing Drew Pearson (489) by three receptions. Smith is one of only six NFL players who have amassed over 9,000 career-rushing yards and 500 career receptions. He is second on the NFL's yards from scrimmage list and fourth on the NFL's all-time combined yardage list with 20,174 yards.

Smith was born on May 15, 1969 in Pensacola, Fla.

1 2 * ROGER STAUBACH * Quarterback, 1969-79 INDUCTED - 1985

Good things come to those who wait, and certainly the Dallas Cowboys patience in the mid-60's was supremely rewarded, landing one of the best players in franchise history because they were willing to wait for Roger Staubach to fulfill his military commitment.

commitment.

For those five years of patience, the Cowboys landed the guy who became better know as "Roger The Dodger" over the next 11 years when he was selected to six Pro Bowls – including five consecutively – and was named the NFL Players Association Most Valuable Player in 1971. Staubach led the NFL in passing four times and was selected to the All-NFC team four times.

"He is one of the finest to ever play the game," Green Bay Packers Quarterback Bart Starr once said of Staubach. "I think if I had some of that Staubach competitiveness, I'd have been much better."

Staubach, the 1963 Heisman Trophy winner, was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1964 from the Naval Academy, but did not join the team until 1969 due to his Navy commitment. Former president and general manager Tex Schramm signed Staubach to a futures contract in a hotel room in 1964, actually scribbling out the details on a legal-sized tablet that would have Staubach paid annually to participate in training camp practices when he had enough leave built up.

The 1963 Heisman Trophy winner showed up in Dallas as a 27-year-old rookie, but in those 11 seasons still managed to carve out the franchise's all-time leading quarterback rating of 83.42 and became a four-time NFL passing champion. But Staubach almost became better known for his scrambling ability, and to this day ranks 11th on the Cowboys all-time rushing list with 2,264 yards.

Staubach owns the second-most passing yards in club history, 22,700, and his 3,586 in 1979 still ranks as the sixth most passing yards in a single season for the Cowboys. He also still leads the club with a career average of 7.67 yards-per-attempt.

Staubach also become known as "Captain Comeback" for his 23 fourth-quarter come-from-behind victories in regular season and playoff games, including 14 in the final two minutes or overtime. Never was this more apparent than in a 1975 playoff game against the Minnesota Vikings when Staubach connected with wide receiver Drew Pearson on a desperation 50-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs.

"You could never defeat Roger mentally or physically," late Cowboys head coach Tom Landry said in 1983. "He was like that in a game, in practice or in the business world."

Staubach ended his Cowboys career with four Super Bowl appearances, including wins in Super Bowls VI and XII. In Super Bowl VI, Staubach was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Following the 1979 season, Staubach retired, fearing the after-effects of recurring concussions.

In 1983, Staubach became the sixth member of the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor and two years later was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

He was born Feb. 5, 1942, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

★ RANDY WHITE ★ Defensive Tackle, 1975-88 INDUCTED - 1994

Randy White came to the Cowboys from the University of Maryland as the No. 2 pick in the 1975 NFL Draft. Before his career was over, 14 years later, he would become known as the "Manster" - half man, half defensive monster - setting numerous franchise records as the heart-and-soul of the famed "Doomsday Defense."

White struggled in his first two years with the Cowboys when then head coach

Tom Landry moved White from his familiar defensive tackle position to linebacker. But, after Landry moved White back to right tackle in 1977. White became one of the NFL's most dominating defensive linemen and a coveted co-Super Bowl MVP.

"Coming out of college a lot was expected of me," White said. "But I never did feel comfortable playing linebacker. Those first two years I was fighting for my life out there. Then they switched me to defensive tackle, where I was a lot more comfortable and from there my career took off."

White played 14 seasons, tying him for second all-time in franchise history, and he set a franchise record with eight All-Pro selections. White also was selected to nine Pro Bowls, ranking third in franchise history for Pro Bowl appearances. White's 16 sacks in 1978 rank third in franchise history for a single season, and he still remains third all-time in career tackles with 1,104 and second with 701 career solo tackles.

"His performances range anywhere from spectacular to spectacular," Landry once said. "He could out-match anybody's intensity from game to game."

In his career, White played in six NFC Championship Games and three Super Bowls, claiming victory in Super Bowl XII and co-MVP honors with teammate Harvey Martin. Even more astounding, White only missed one game in his 14-year career.

In 1994, White was inducted into the Ring of Honor with teammate Tony Dorsett, the same year he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

"Any honor I receive is a reflection on the great teammates and coaches I had in my career," White said. "There's a real special group of guys with the Cowboys, and to be a part of that was a great honor." He was born Jan. 15, 1953, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

7 ★ RAYFIELD WRIGHT ★ Offensive Tackle, 1967-79 INDUCTED – 2006

Only nine players have played football for the Dallas Cowboys longer than Rayfield Wright, and only five players in the history of the Cowboys organization have been to more Pro Bowls than Wright's six.

After playing tight end, tackle and defensive end during his first three NFL seasons, Wright settled in at right tackle in 1970. Before undergoing knee surgery that forced him to miss most of the 1977 season, Wright was acknowledged as the NFL's premier offensive tackle. Wright was selected to six straight Pro Bowls (1971-76) as a tackle while earning All-Pro honors four times and earning recognition on the NFL's all-decade team for the 1970s.

During each of his 13 seasons, the Cowboys offense ranked in the top six in the NFL for total offense, including leading the league five times. Behind his blocking, Calvin Hill became the first 1,000 yard rusher in team history when he ran for 1,036 yards in 1972. All totaled, Dallas had a running back clear the 1,000 yard barrier five times during his tenure. Also behind his blocking, Roger Staubach became the first quarterback in franchise history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in a season when he totaled 3,190 passing yards in 1978, the year Wright returned from his knee surgery.

In his 13-year NFL career with the Dallas Cowboys, Wright was a key contributor to teams that had 13 straight winning seasons, made 12 playoff trips and won 10 division titles. He also played in eight conference championship games and won five NFC Championships (1970, 1971, 1975, 1977, 1978) and two Super Bowls (VI and XII). He was part of a team that had a 74.1% winning percentage in the regular season (137-48-1) and a 60.0% winning percentage in the post season (15-10).

During his 13 seasons, Wright was a participant in five Super Bowls, claiming the ultimate prize twice. Only one other player in NFL history has appeared in more Super Bowls than Wright, he is one of only 13 players in NFL history, and the only offensive tackle, to have played in five Super Bowls.

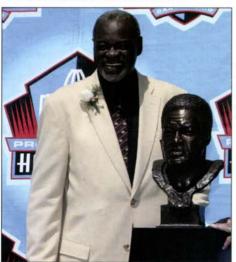

During Wright's career, the Cowboys were the only team to play in five Super Bowls in one calendar decade – or in any ten year period of time – advancing to the Super Bowl following the 1970, 1971 1975, 1977 and 1978 seasons.

Rayfield Wright was inducted into the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor on October 10, 2004, joining Bob Lilly, Don Meredith, Don Perkins, Chuck Howley, Mel Renfro, Roger Staubach, Lee Roy Jordan, Randy White, Tony Dorsett, Tom Landry, Bob Hayes, Tex Schramm and Cliff Harris. Troy Aikman, Michael Irvin and Emmitt Smith were inducted in 2005.

He was born August 23, 1945, in Griffin, Ga.

SIDELINES

Home to the Dallas Cowboys

The Dallas Cowboys called both the Cotton Bowl and Texas Stadium home for 49 years. In 2009 the Cowboys moved into their newest home, Cowboys Stadium, a state-of-the-art facility in Arlington, Texas.

Cotton Bowl

The original Fair Park football stadium was built in 1921 and seated 15,000. That wooden structure was razed in 1930 and construction began on what is now the Cotton Bowl. The original seating capacity of the stadium was 46,200 and built at a cost of $328,000. In January 1936, Fair Park Stadium was officially renamed The Cotton Bowl in recognition of the fact that more cotton was raised within 200 miles of Dallas than any other town in America. In that era, Dallas was regarded as the largest interior spot cotton market in the world. Later additions of upper decks on each side increased capacity to 75,504 by the time the Cowboys arrived in 1960. From 1960 into the 1971 season, the Cowboys called the Cotton Bowl home, posting a 45-33-4 record, including a 2-2 mark in postseason. Until 2009, the largest home crowd in club history was the 80,259 that packed into the Cotton Bowl on Nov. 24, 1966 to watch the Cowboys defeat the Cleveland Browns 26-14 in the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game in Dallas.

Texas Stadium

Texas Stadium, a football facility built at a cost of $35 million in 1971, was the home of the Dallas Cowboys for 38 seasons and hosted its final game on Dec. 20, 2008 - a 33-24 win by the Baltimore Ravens. The Cowboys opened their facility on Oct. 24, 1971 with a 44-21 victory over New England. From that time, the Cowboys posted a 213-100 record (.681) overall, including a 16-6 (.727) mark postseason, at home. Located in the Dallas suburb of Irving, Texas Stadium had a seating capacity of 65,581 and featured 381 luxury suites, three sports bars, 52 concession stands, 40 specialty stands, 86 restrooms, 115 drinking fountains and 130 acres of parking. Texas Stadium's most unique feature was the partial roof which covered fans from inclement weather, but left the game outdoors. The Cowboys incorporated the design feature in their new home which also includes a retractable roof.

Cowboys Stadium

The 2009 season rang in a new era for the Dallas Cowboys as the club moved to its new home in Arlington, Texas to kickoff the 2009 season. Officially opened on May 27, 2009 in a ribbon cutting ceremony, Cowboys Stadium hosted the first Cowboys game on Aug. 21 - a preseason contest against the Tennessee Titans. The first regular season Cowboys game was on Sunday night September 20 against the N.Y. Giants, and the game set an NFL attendance record at 105,121.

Not only is the stadium home to the Dallas Cowboys, but Cowboys Stadium played host to Super Bowl XLV on February 6, 2011, the first Super Bowl in the region. In addition, this venue is home to the annual AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic, as well as annual college football games, including the "Cowboys Classic" which helps kick off the college football season with two major universities each year. On Jan. 12, 2015 Cowboys Stadium will host the first ever National Championship Game for the NCAA football playoff era. Cowboys Stadium will also be part of the rotation for a yearly college football playoff semifinal game. Additionally, the stadium hosted the 2013 NCAA Men's Basketball South Regional semifinal and final games and will be the home of the 2014 NCAA Final Four.

On Nov. 2, 2004 the voters of Arlington approved a public-private partnership with the Dallas Cowboys to build a state-of-the-art, retractable roof stadium in Arlington, Texas. Located in the heart of Arlington's entertainment district, construction on the new stadium began in April 2006 and was completed early in the summer of 2009.

The largest NFL stadium ever built is designed to enhance the international Cowboys brand with its modern progressive architecture while incorporating elements of the Texas Stadium Cowboys heritage such as the shape of the roof's opening, the Ring of Honor and Tom Landry statue.

The 3.0 million square-foot stadium has a capacity of up to 100,000. The stadium features signature monumental arches, an expansive retractable roof, massive glass retractable end zone doors, a distinguishing canted glass wall, and the world's largest center-hung video board.

"The challenge for us with this new stadium was to innovate, but at the same time never forget to acknowledge tradition," said Jerry Jones, owner and president, Dallas Cowboys. "This new stadium embodies the spirit of the Dallas Cowboys and that starts with the familiar 'hole in the roof.' What we have designed is a building we believe is both architecturally significant and also reflects the emotion and competition that goes on inside."

The stadium is designed by HKS Architects, ranked one of the top-five sport/stadium designers in the world.

Key Design Highlights

★ Monumental Arches – The stadium features two monumental arches, soaring 292 feet above the playing field, which support a retractable roof. As the longest single span roof structure in the world, each boxed arch is 17 feet wide by 35 feet deep. Weighing 3,255 tons each, these impressive structures span a quarter mile (1,290 feet) in length. As one of the first components to be constructed, the arches form a striking silhouette on the Arlington landscape as sunlight reflects against the metallic surface during the day.

★ Retractable Roof – Designed to be open or closed, depending on weather conditions, the expansive retractable roof is the largest of its kind in the world and measures approximately 661,000 square feet. When closed, the roof encompasses 104 million cubic feet of volume, making it the largest enclosed NFL stadium. The retractable roof is designed specifically to emulate the opening at Texas Stadium, which was recognized around the world, and allows views inward and outward. Each panel can open or close in 10 minutes. The entire playing field can be seen from directly above.

★ Retractable Doors – The stadium features the largest retractable end zone doors in the world. Each has a five-leaf, clear, retractable opening measuring 120 feet high by 180 feet wide. The five 38-foot panels take only six minutes to open or close. By using clear glass for the door panels, spectators experience panoramic vistas from within the seating bowl and when circulating through the stadium concourses. Moreover, the operability provides air circulation during game-day and non-game-day events.

★ Center-Hung Videoboard — Within the seating bowl, Cowboys fans are provided with a oneof-a-kind feature unlike any other in the world, a center-hung video board. Hanging 90 feet above the field from the roof structure, the innovative video center spans between the 20-yard lines and features four individual boards — two facing the sidelines and two facing the end zones. The sideline boards measure 160 feet wide by 72 feet tall while those facing the end zones measure 53 feet by 30 feet.

All four boards are angled toward the stands for optimal viewing. The stunning combination of these boards immerses spectators with video imagery, creating a premium on upper level seats and presenting the game in a way never before experienced.

★ Canted Glass Wall — One of the most compelling architectural features of the stadium design is the canted glass exterior wall. The 86-foot high glass, curain-wall surface slopes outwardly at a 14 degree angle to create a luminescent glow day or night. A fritted glass system transitions up the elevation to create a dynamic, ever-changing aesthetic depending on the time of day. At night, a series of internal lights gently wash the glass wall to create a glow across the facade.

★ Suites – The design includes over 300 suites that have been decentralized and are in eight locations distributed across five separate levels of the stadium. The most unique are the field-level sideline suites for up-close and personal viewing of the games.

Design Statistics

Total Square Footage: 3.0 million square feet. The entire Statue of Liberty and its base could fit into the stadium with the roof closed. The stadium is also the world's largest column-free room. The American Airlines Center in Dallas could fit entirely into the stadium at field level.

Interior Cubic Volume: 104 million cubic feet. (By comparison, Reliant Stadium in Houston measures 90 million cubic feet.) Cowboys Stadium is the largest enclosed stadium (in cubic feet) in the NFL.

Seating Capacity: With ticketed areas in the end zone plazas and platforms, capacity can reach over 100,000.

Suites: There are over 300 suites in eight different locations on five separate levels of the stadium. Field-level suites are available on the sidelines as well as in the end zones for up-close and personal viewing of the games. The Hall of Fame level suites are 20 rows from the field, making them the closest elevated suites in the NFL.

Domed Roof: At 661,000 square feet, the stadium is the largest domed structure in the world.

Retractable Roof: The open roof design that was a unique feature of Texas Stadium was carried over into the design of the new stadium, with the improvement of a new retractable feature, revealing an opening that measures 256 feet wide and 410 feet long. Two bi-parting mechanized roof panels are driven by a rack-and-pinion drive system consisting of 64 7.5 HP electric motors, making it the first of its kind in the world. The open/close time is 12 minutes.

Arches: The roof is supported by two 35-feet deep and 17-feet wide boxed arch trusses. Each truss spans nearly a quarter mile (1,290 feet) making the roof the longest clear-span structure in the world. The arches are more than twice the length of the Gateway Arch in St. Louis.

Glass Retractable Door: Each end zone features a five-leaf clear glass retractable door measuring 120 feet high and 180 feet wide, making it the tallest moveable glass wall in the world.

Parking: It is estimated that between parking owned or under control of the Dallas Cowboys as well as the entrepreneurial lots in and around the stadium area, that there are as many as 30,000 parking spaces available to fans on game day.

As the largest NFL venue ever built, the stadium boasts the most spectacular column-free room in the world, stretching a quarter-mile in length. Encasing 3.0 million square feet, the majestic scale of the stadium measures twice the distance of the St. Louis Gateway arch. In addition, the Statue of Liberty can stand completely inside the room structure. The length of the arches spans the same distance as the height of the Empire State Building. The magnitude of the stadium's size and scale places it on the world's stage of iconic structures.

What Fans Need to Know

Access

One of the great assets Arlington has is accessibility to the entire metroplex. There are 14 approaches from major highways into Cowboys Stadium in Arlington. From a regional standpoint, the stadium is one of the most accessible venues ever planned.

Parking

It is estimated that between parking under control of the Cowboys, as well as entrepreneurial lots around the stadium, there are as many as 30,000 parking spaces available to fans on game day.

Plaza Area and Open End Zones

The stadium design incorporates two open end zones with glass retractable doors measuring 120 feet high and 180 feet wide, making them the tallest glass retractable doors in the world. The plazas outside these doors, one in each end zone – along with the three party decks in each end zone – create over 420,000 square feet of entertainment space (approximately 10 acres). Media boards and large-screen monitors add entertainment to the area, and create a festival atmosphere, making these areas a great space for people to gather before, during and after events to socialize. The field is 50 feet below ground level, so fans entering on the plaza level will have a panoramic view over the field. The end zone area has the flexibility to convert from standing-room only to seating, based on specific event needs.

Video Boards

There are approximately 3,000 televisions in the building. The most unique being the four board cluster that is suspended 90 feet directly over the center of the playing surface. The board runs from the 20-yard line to the 20-yard line – measuring 160 feet in length and 72 feet in height – making it the largest center-hung video board installation in the world, setting a Guiness Book World Record. The center video board allows fans on all levels to view the game in crisp, clear images during the game. This creates a premium on the value of the upper-level seats and makes the game more exciting for all fans.

Amenities and Restrooms

The stadium features 824 concession points of sale as well as more than 1,700 toilets. Some of the restrooms are reversible based on the needs of the event.

Ring of Honor

The Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor is a featured part of the new stadium. The Ring's members are forever honored on the wall surrounding the field, emblazoned with the same letters and numbers that originally hung proudly at Texas Stadium.

Dallas Cowboys Pro Shop and Stadium Tours

Stadium Tours allow fans to peek inside the home of the Dallas Cowboys year round. There are two different tour options for an in-depth, behind the scenes look at all the wonders, including the Cowboys Locker room, the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders locker room, and a chance to step on the same field that Tony Romo, Jason Witten and DeMarcus Ware take on opponents any given Sunday. For more information on Cowboys Stadium Tours contact 817-892-8688 or check the web at www.CowboysStadiumTours.com You may also purchase tickets through Ticketmaster - 1-800-745-3000. Unlike most private collections, this one is accessible to massive crowds. It is there to be seen, week after week, season after season, by tourists just passing through and by regulars who return again and again. The collection consists of 53 works of art by 38 established and emerging artists. The works in the collection are united by their boldness, vigor, and resolve. They not only hold their own in a crowd, but have the power to transform massive public spaces into impossible-to-mistake locations where visitors from all over the world come together. Introduced at Texas Stadium in 1972 to add glamour, excitement and entertainment value to the NFL game-day experience, the Dallas Cowboys

Cheerleaders quickly became an American icon, creating an interna-tional phenomenon that was quickly replicated throughout the NFL. Their image and style continues to have a tremendous impact on sports entertainment, but while they are often imitated, no other organization has been able to achieve their prominence or popularity. The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders are recognized around the world as an elite performance group, and their star spangled uniforms are one of the most well-known symbols of pop culture.

During the 70s, their national popularity generated such a sensation that two made-for-tv movies were developed about the squad and achieved top ratings. Today the Cheerleaders regularly make guest appearances on national television shows such as the "Oprah Winfrey Show," "American Idol," "The View," "The Today Show," "Saturday Night Live" and "David Letterman," and have competed for the benefit of charity on "1 versus 100," "Are You Smarter Than A Fifth Grader," and "Identity." For the past 20 years, they have also produced their own "The Making of the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders Swimsuit Calendar" television special for national network distribution. They are currently in the sighth reason of the bighty roted CMT. "The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders."

The Cheerleaders are of course a regular feature on the sidelines of Cowboys Stadium, but they also are an ongoing demand at festivals, sporting events and corporate conventions around the country and frequently appear on national magazines covers, television commercials and Hollywood films. They are featured in four published calendars, three swimsuit issues and a sideline calendar, as well as a swimsuit magazine special in The Dallas Cowboys Star Magazine. Their appearances are not just limited to stages, but also include philanthropic and civic events throughout the year with annual visits to hospitals, nursing homes and schools and participation in telethons and fundraising events across the United States.

The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders are truly extraordinary women chosen to exemplify the high standards of the Dallas Cowboys Football Club and to proudly represent their hometowns, their country and young women everywhere.

The Dallas Cowboys introduced the Rhythm and Blue in 2009, a high-energy hip-hop dance team and drum corps. Rhythm and Blue brings an innovative, unique and exciting element to the Cowboys legendary game-day entertainment line-up. Audiences have been entertained by the talented group of men and women upon entering the plazas of Cowboys Stadium before each game. After every Cowboys score during the game, the Rhythm and Blue dancers dazzle fans with thunderous celebration dance performances from their elevated placement on platforms in the west end zone. The Rhythm and Blue Dancers, presented by Miller Lite, were conceptualized under Cowboys Executive Vice President/Chief Brand Officer/President of Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders Charlotte Anderson and Dallas Cowbovs Cheerleaders Director Kelli Finglass, and is the first of its kind in the National Football League.

The Dallas Cowboys Rhythm and Blue is a two-part entertainment entity consisting of a percussion troop drum line to provide the rhythm and the dance team to provide the spirit of Dallas Cowboys true blue. The performances are electrifying with their unique blend of cutting edge music and drum cadences. The dance teams' dynamic routines feature breakdancing and hip-hop based movement requiring both strong musicality and level of dance ability and are already proving to be a fan favorite. Since the short time of their inception, the dance team has been requested to appear at both charity and corporate appearances in the DFW metroplex, Texas, New Mexico, Las Vegas, Nevada and Panama City, Panama.

Jenny Durbin Smith Director/Choreographer

Jenny Durbin Smith lends her expertise and award winning choreography as director and choreographer for the team. Smith has been choreographing for 12 years for teams such as the Dallas Cowbovs Cheerleaders, Dallas Mavericks Dancers, Dallas Desperados Dancers, The "Groovement Crew" and numerous college, high school and studio competition teams. She has also lent her skills to several national television commercials, television shows, touring stage shows and promotions such as 'America's Got Talent', Mary Kay, Hasbro, MTV's 'TRL,' Harrah's Casinos and Monday Night Football. Smith uses her extensive hip-hop dance experience and unique coaching style to influence the style of the innovative Rhythm and Blue.

The official one-piece uniform of the Rhythm and Blue Dancers was created by Robert Best, acclaimed designer for Barbie. The uniform is a sophisticated long-sleeved unit body garment that glistens in silver and blue. Jenny Durbin Smith and Terra Watson created the official two-piece uniform. The uniforms evoke a stylish and hip Cowboy image while keeping the tradition and excellence of America's Team.

The Dallas Cowboys are long-heralded for their innovation, prestige and merit in game-day entertainment and were challenged with providing more entertainment to cover every area of Cowboys Stadium...the result is your much anticipated Dallas Cowboys Rhythm and Blue!

Community Outreach and the Dallas Cowboys

Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities

For the past 24 years, Jerry Jones and his family have owned and operated the Dallas Cowboys with a management style that places just as much emphasis on community leadership as it does on the goal of winning the Super Bowl. With the Cowboys organization having enjoyed immense and unprecedented success, the Jones family feels a very strong obligation to take the visibility, energy and celebrity of the world's most powerful sports franchise and channel those dynamic forces toward the Bigger purpose of making a difference. Recognized as one of the world's most generous families, the Joneses enlist the talents, skills and resources of all of the Cowboys players, coaches, cheerleaders and every member of the organization to provide a unique and cutting edge approach to community outreach.

"Any personal contact with an individual member of our organization can provide help for thousands of people in need," says Jones. "The star on the helmet can move mountains."

THE MISSION. In the area of community service, our organization's mission is built upon an overall philosophy of helping those who don't have the strength, the resources or the means to help themselves, with a primary focus on our partnership with The Salvation Army.

THE SALVATION ARMY

The Dallas Cowboys primary community focus is rooted in the Jones family's longstanding passion for and commitment to The Salvation Army. Since 2010, Cowboys Chief Brand Officer Charlotte Jones Anderson has served as chair of The Salvation Army's National Advisory Board - the first woman to ever hold that distinguished title. Gene and Jerry Jones serve on both The Salvation Army's National Advisory Board and the Dallas County Board. (For a full history of the Jones family's partnership with The Salvation Army, visit The Army and The Star page on DallasCowboys.com/community.)

2012 Red Kettle Campaign

For the past 16 years, the Jones family has dedicated the Cowboys annual Thanksgiving Day halftime performance as a national showcase to kick off The Salvation Army's iconic Red Kettle Campaign. Under the direction of Charlotte Jones Anderson, the Cowboys have produced the annual halftime event and welcomed nationally renowned entertainers from across the musical spectrum. Since the first Red Kettle Kickoff in 1997, the Cowboys have helped the Army raise over $1.75 billion, reaching over 500 million people in need. The 2012 Red Kettle Kickoff featuring Kenny Chesney raised a record $1.48 million alone.

Early Thanksgiving with the Cowboys

The week before Thanksgiving, Gene Jones and Charlotte Jones Anderson lead a group of players, cheerleaders, mascot Rowdy and players' and coaches' wives to serve an early Thanksgiving meal to families receiving assistance from The Salvation Army. For the first time in 2012, the Cowboys, in partnership with Albertsons Market and UnitedHealthcare, served two Salvation Army locations, with veteran players and wives at the Carr P. Collins Center in Dallas and rookie players and cheerleaders at the Mabee Social Services Center in Fort Worth.

Angel Tree

Every year the entire Cowboys organization is invited to support The Salvation Army's Angel Tree Program wherein players, coaches, executives and staff supply toys and necessities for hundreds of Angels in need. The program, which makes Christmas brighter for more than 54,000 children and special needs senior citizens in the DFW Metroplex alone, is truly a joint effort for the Cowboys - from Cowboys rookie players loading the big red bags onto the Army trucks to Cowboys employees helping distribute them to the Angels' families.

The Salvation Army YET Center

Thanks to a $1 million matching donation from the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Arlington Youth Foundation in concurrence with a donation from the NFL, construction officially began on The Salvation Army's Youth Education Town (YET Center) in Arlington in 2012. The center, which is the legacy project of Super Bowl XLV, will provide educational, athletic and arts programs and countless other services to hundreds of Arlington youth and their families upon its opening in fall 2013. Cowboys Hall of Fame running back Emmitt Smith serves as the YET Advisory Board's chairman.

Diaster Relief

When disaster strikes, The Salvation Army is often the first on the scene to offer food, shelter, clothing, spiritual comfort and more. The Cowboys are proud to have assisted the Army in their relief efforts in the DFW Metroplex and beyond, most recently after deadly tornadoes struck two nearby towns in Texas - Granbury and Cleburne - as well as Moore, Oklahoma. The Cowboys partnered with CBS 11 and Albertsons Market to take donations through phone banks and at the grocer's registers, raising thousands of dollars in record time. The organization also contributed to the Army's relief efforts after tragedy struck West.

nization also contributed to the Army's relief efforts after tragedy struck West, Texas in April 2013. When a fertilizer plant explosion devastated an entire city killing 15 citizens and injuring 160, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities donated $100,000 to The Army's relief efforts.

Dallas Cowboys Play 60 Team

The Cowboys work with The Salvation Army each year to select 11 deserving youth football players for the Dallas Cowboys Play 60 Team. The 11 team members are chosen based on their demonstration of the Army's five core values both on and off the field: Passion, Compassion, Bravery, Uplifting Spirit and Trustworthiness. Defensive end DeMarcus Ware and Cowboys Play 60 partner Kinect for XBOX 360 honored the 2012 Play 60 Team with a special recognition ceremony at Valley Ranch. The youth were additionally invited to represent youth football players across the country in the nationally televised Thanksgiving Day game both during pregame festivities and in the half-time performance featuring Kenny Chesney.

DALLAS COWBOYS-NFL PLAY 60

Since 2007, the Dallas Cowboys have partnered with the NFL to promote Play 60, a national youth health and wellness campaign focused on ending childhood obesity by encouraging kids to eat nutritiously and be active at least 60 minutes of every day. (For full information on the Cowboys Play 60 programs, visit the Play 60 page at http://DallasCowboys.com/community/youth.html.)

Play 60 Challenge

The Cowboys teamed up with the American Heart Association and Reliant Energy this past fall to kick off the 2012 Play 60 Challenge - a six week program wherein students are challenged to document their 60 minutes of physical activity each day and teachers are given ideas to incorporate physical activity in the classroom. Joined by Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders and mascot Rowdy, corner back Brandon Carr visited Larson Elementary School in Grand Prairie, Texas and spoke to students on the importance of good nutrition and exercise. Carr also ran a group of 5th graders in a few Play 60 Challenge in-class exercises.

Fuel Up to Play 60

Fuel Up to Play 60 is a free nutrition and physical activity program that empowers students to take charge of their health by making small, everyday changes within their schools. Created by the NFL and the National Dairy Council, in collaboration with the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the program includes grant opportunities for schools, a Playbook with strategies for healthy eating and physical activity, a student ambassador program and more. Linebacker Sean Lee serves as the Cowboys team spokesman for Fuel Up.

Play 60 FITNESSGRAM

The Cowboys team up with The Cooper Institute - a worldwide leader in preventative medicine research to provide North Texas schools and community organizations with Play 60 FITNESSGRAM testing kits. Developed in 1982 by The Cooper Institute, FIT-NESSGRAM is the premiere assessment tool in measuring student fitness and nutrition levels. In May 2013, the Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club visited Valley Ranch Elementary School in Irving, Texas to congratulate students on the completion of their FIT-NESSGRAM testing and encourage them to continue making healthy choices during their summer holiday.

Hometown Huddle Play 60 Football Clinic

Since 1999, the Cowboys have partnered with the NFL to support the United Way through a nationwide day of community service called Hometown Huddle. During the 2012 Hometown Huddle event, the Cowboys hosted a Play 60 Football Clinic for stu-dents at Short Elementary School in Arlington, Texas. Team dietician and Fuel Up to Play 60 nutritionist Amy Goodson spoke to students on the importance of healthy eating before hitting the field for drills with Cowboys players. Also during the event, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities pre-sented two $2,500 grants to the YMCA of Arlington and Dallas's Central Elementary for the continuation of their health improvement programs.

Play 60 Super School

Play 60 Super School is a contest launched during the NFL's Back to Football month. Schools compete by submitting essays describing how they will encourage teachers and students to show their Cowbovs pride, incorporate football in their lesson plans and implement the Play 60 philosophy and programming into their academic year. A winning school is selected from each NFL team market and awarded a $10,000 grant to improve health and wellness programming and equipment. Tight end Jason Witten congratulated the Cowboys 2012 Play 60 Super School - Swift Elementary School in Arlington, Texas - with a pep rally, check presentation and outdoor fitness clinic for a few lucky students. Cowboys Play 60 partner XBOX Kinect for 360 also provided Swift Elementary with a congratulatory $10,000 grant. For information on the 2013 Super School contest, visit NFLrush.com/backtofootball.

Play 60 Fitness Zones

With support from partner GlaxoSmithKline, the Cowboys opened two new Dallas Cowboys Play 60 Fitness Zones in 2012 - one at The Salvation Army in Fort Worth and one at Williams Preparatory School in Dallas. The zones, which are intended to give youth a safe space to play they may not otherwise have, come fully loaded with fitness equipment made specifically for adolescent users and Kinect for XBOX 360 interactive gaming systems designed to get kids up and moving.

In what has become tradition, the campers were divided into eight teams for a round-robin tournament and coached by Cowboys players, while Cowboys coaches served as the tournament's officials. At the day's end, participants heard from head coach Jason Garrett and several Cowboys players on their personal stories of hard work and the road to success.

Partnership with USA Football

The Cowboys are proud to support USA Football - the official youth football development partner of the NFL and its 32 teams - through numerous initiatives. In April 2013, the North Texas Leadership Forum was hosted at the team's Valley Ranch training facility wherein local youth football league leaders and coaches were invited to network, swap best practices and learn about USA Football's latest efforts to make football a safer game, most notably through the Heads Up Football program. In April 2013, the NFL Foundation announced its $1.5 million commitment to support Heads Up, and that former Cowboy Tony Casillas will represent the Cowboys and the NFL as a Heads Up ambassador in the 2013 season. Visit USAFootball.com/HeadsUp to learn more.

Gatorade Junior Training Camp

Dallas Cowboys Gatorade Junior Training Camp is a complimentary grassroots football instruction clinic for students, both boys and girls, ages 7 to 14. A Cowboys staff member, mascot Rowdy and volunteers run students through a variety of drills on site at their schools and promote the Play 60 philosophy of getting 60 minutes of physical activity in each day. The Cowboys hosted camps for nearly 8,000 children in the 2012-13 academic year. Visit the Youth Programs page on DallasCowboys.com to schedule a camp for your school.

Coach of the Week

Over the last 18 years, the Cowboys have provided nearly 200 grants totaling more than $250,000 to local high school football programs through the Dallas Cowboys Coach of the Week initiative. In 2012, the team partnered with the Texas Army National Guard to honor 10 North Texas high school football coaches during a pregame ceremony at Cowboys Stadium. In recognition of their positive impact on their teams, schools and community, the honorees also received a $2,000 grant from Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities for their respective football programs.

YOUTH OUTREACH

Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club presented by UnitedHealthcare

The Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club is an annual outreach initiative designed to introduce the team's newest members to the importance of giving back to the North Texas community. Presented by UnitedHealthcare, the 2012 Rookie Club made numerous community appearances, including at Martin Luther King, Jr. Child-CareGroup Center in Dallas for a "Healthy Halloween" event with eight classrooms of preschoolers, most of whom come from families living below the poverty level.

Holiday Hospital Visits

Under the guidance of Gene Jones, who serves on the board of trustees for Children's Medical Center of Dallas, the entire Cowboys team has conducted annual Christmas visits to local children's hospitals for the past 24 years. During the 2012 visits to four area hospitals, Cowboys players and cheerleaders delivered "game socks" loaded with Cowboys goodies and toys provided by the team and the UnitedHealthcare Community Foundation to nearly 800 children seeking treatment over the holiday season.

Happy Hill Farm Academy Home

The Cowboys continue to play a large role in raising annual operating funds for Happy Hill Farm Academy Home - a home and school for at-risk youth in Granbury, Texas. Home of the Dallas Cowboys Courage House, Happy Hill Farm is the beneficiary of the Cowboys annual Kickoff Luncheon, as well as the Dallas Cowboys Family Cookbook presented by the Dallas Cowboys Women's Association.

Make-A-Wish

Since 1992, the Cowboys have partnered with the Make-A-Wish Foundation of North Texas to grant nearly 190 wishes of youth from 39 different states. # BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

Breast Cancer Awareness Month Game

The Cowboys were proud to join long-time partner Susan G. Komen for the Cure in kicking off the 2012 National Breast Cancer Awareness Month on October 1 at Cowboys Stadium during ESPN's Monday Night Football national telecast. More than 500 breast cancer survivors and co-survivors took the field during halftime to form two giant pink ribbons, while Cowboys Stadium, players, cheerleaders, coaches and referees also sported pink gear in support of the cause. Fittingly, October 1 also marked the opening of the Victoria's Secret PINK store in Cowboys Stadium - the first at a professional sports stadium or venue.

Additional game day activation included the honoring of Cowboys own ticket office employee Roxanne Martinez. Martinez, who had recently shared her story of overcoming breast cancer with Dallas Cowboys Star Magazine, was surprised on the field with congratulatory roses presented by Susan G. Komen for the Cure founder Nancy Brinker.

Partnership with Susan G. Komen for the Cure

In 2010, the Cowboys expanded its longtime partnership with Susan G. Komen for the Cure through a commitment of $1 million annually in promotional assets, including PSAs shown on game days featuring Komen founder Nancy Brinker, Jerry Jones and Cowboys coaches and players. The deal also marked the launch of the "iPromise" campaign, highlighted by the creation of a cobranded "iPromise" merchandise line, proceeds from which go directly towards breast cancer research.

The Cowboys also support the Komen Race for the Cure each year by underwriting the registration costs of all full-time Cowboys employees courtesy of Gene and Jerry full-time Cowboys employees courtesy of Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities. In 2012, more than 200 employees, family and friends joined the Dallas Cowboys Race for the Cure corporate team in the charity's annual 5K run/walk.

MILITARY SUPPORT

Salute to Service

The Cowboys partnered with the NFL once again to activate the annual Salute to Service campaign. During a November home game sponsored by USAA, the team honored all men and women of the military both past and present with a special flag and anthem presentation, a USAA pregame reception for military members hosted by leg-endary Cowhovs guarterback Roger Staubach and a Congressional Medal of Honor recognition ceremony at halftime. Cowboys players showed their support by wearing the logos of all five branches of the military - Army, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard and Air Force - on the back of their helmets. Additionally, for every point scored during each of its 32 teams' Salute to Service games, the NFL donated $100 to each of its non-profit partners - USO, the Pat Tillman Foundation and Wounded Warrior Project totaling $432,6000.

In conjunction with the November Salute to Service game, the Cowboys hosted soldiers from the U.S. Army's 1st Calvary Division's 4th Brigade Combat Team out of Fort Hood, Texas at their Valley Ranch training facility where they met the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, visited with Cowboys players and watched practice. It was one of the group's last stops in North Texas before deployment to Eastern Afghanistan for Operation Enduring Freedom.

Visiting Troops at Training Camp

Upon their arrival in Oxnard, California for summer training camp 2012, the team held a special autograph and meet and greet session with soldiers and their families of the Naval Base Ventura County at Point Mugu. During the team's stay in Oxnard, the soldiers' children were also invited to participate in special Camp Cowboys youth football clinics and the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders Camp DCC.

Before returning to Texas for the start of the 2012 NFL season, the Cowboys paid a visit to the U.S. Navy SEALs training center near San Diego. Players had the chance to hear from the SEALs on accountability, mental toughness and team building - lessons and philosophies they took back with them to Dallas as inspiration.

Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders USO Tours

Dallas The world famous Cowbovs Cheerleaders organization is completely subsidized by the club for the primary purpose of spreading goodwill on a local, national and international platform. Aside from their obvious game day presence and numerous local community appearances, the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders have now made more USO visits to troops stationed overseas than the leg-endary Bob Hope. More than 240 cheerleaders have participated in visits to 49 different countries since the first tour on Christmas Day 1979.

In December 2012, the cheerleaders embarked on a landmark 75th USO tour. During the visit, the girls performed five shows, signed autographs and visited with troops stationed around the Persian Gulf.

HISPANIC OUTREACH

The Cowboys long history of supporting Hispanic outreach initiatives starts at the very top of the organization. In November 2002, Jerry Jones' appreciation for Hispanic culture earned him the title of "Honorary Mariachi" at the Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza in San Antonio, Texas. The event's organizers selected Jones because of his love of Latin culture, his contributions to education and the diverse fan base he represents as owner of the Cowboys.

Hispanic Heritage Month at Cowboys Stadium

Since 2006, the Cowboys have dedicated one home game annually to celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month and the rich culture and contributions of their many loyal Hispanic fans. With help from partners Miller Lite and Telemundo, the atmosphere of the 2012 Hispanic Heritage Month game was enriched with elements of Hispanic culture, including performances from Ballet Folklorico and mariachi groups from the Dallas and San Antonio areas as well as plaza presentations from local Telemundo personalities.

NFL Hispanic Heritage Leadership Award

As part of Hispanic Heritage Month, each NFL team selects a local recipient for the NFL Hispanic Heritage Leadership Award. During the Cowboys Hispanic Heritage Month dedicated game, the team joined Telemundo in honoring local Hispanic businessman Luis Spinola. As part of his recognition, Spinola was presented a $3,000 grant to the charity of his choice, the Regional Hispanic Contractors Association Training and Safety Foundation, on behalf of Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities. To learn more about the Hispanic Heritage Leadership Award or to nominate a candidate, visit Telemundo.com.

Scoring for Education

Through the "Scoring for Education" campaign, the Cowboys, Miller Lite and the Adelante! U.S. Educational Leadership Fund supported educational programming and resources for Hispanic youth by working to develop the next generation of Latino leadership. In 2012, former Cowboy Tony Casillas spoke at Adelante! workshops aimed at equipping Latino parents with the tools needed to ensure their children have opportunities for higher education.

Futbol Americano

With assistance from UnitedHealthcare volunteers, the Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club hosted a Futbol Americano Play 60 Clinic for the predominantly Hispanic students of John Haley Elementary in Irving, Texas as part of the team's Hispanic Heritage Month celebration. #### Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year - Jason Witten

Over Super Bowl weekend in February 2013, Cowboys tight end Jason Witten was named the 2012 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year - one of the league's most respected honors, recognizing a player's excellence both on and off the field. Since becoming a Cowboy in 2003, Witten has been actively involved in the Cowboys Play 60 efforts in addition to the deeply personal work he does helping youth affected by domestic violence through his Jason Witten SCORE Foundation. The announcement of Witten as Man of the Year came one day after he also received the Bart Starr Award - an award recognizing an NFL player for his character and leadership at home, on the field and in the community.

The event featured gourmet food from 15 local restaurants, a silent and live auction and entertainment from the band Emerald City. #### Community Quarterback Award

Since its inception in 2000, the Dallas Cowboys Community Quarterback Award has recognized more than a dozen North Texas individuals for their above and beyond volunteerism while providing nearly a quarter-million dollars in grants to the nonprofit organizations they serve. In a special press conference at Valley Ranch, the Cowboys announced Lizzie Cochran the 2012 Community Quarterback Award winner and during a special pregame ceremony on the field at Cowboys Stadium, presented her with a $10,000 grant for her charity, The Miracle Players Foundation. Two runners-up were given $2,500 grants for their nominating charities, and seven finalists were granted $500.

Dallas Cowboys Women's Association

The Dallas Cowboys Women's Association - an organization of Cowboys players', coaches' and executives' wives - works as a program of Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities to support many Dallas-area nonprofit organizations like Susan G. Komen for the Cure, the American Heart Association, Texas Scottish Rite Hospital and more.
