JERRY JONES

Owner, President, and General Manager

In one of the most dramatic eras of ownership in professional sports, Jerry Jones' stewardship of the Dallas Cowboys has brought unprecedented results and success to one of the world's most popular sports entities. Aside from being one of only four current owners to guide their franchises to at least three Super Bowl titles, Jones is also one of the most active figures in the area of service to the leadership of the NFL. His contributions are visible on a daily basis with his participation on a wide range of committees that assist in maintaining the NFL's current level of success and stature.

Highlighted by Super Bowl victories following the 1992, 1993 and 1995 seasons, Jones became the first owner in NFL history to guide his team to three league championships in his first seven years of ownership. In 1995, Dallas also became the first team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in four seasons while tying the NFL record for most Super Bowl victories by an organization with five.

By 1999, the first decade of Jones's ownership closed with eight playoff appearances, six division titles, four conference championship game appearances and three world crowns. Dallas closed the millennium as the NFL's "Team of the Decade" for the 1990s. In 2007, the Cowboys added their seventh division crown and advanced to their 10th playoff appearance under Jones's leadership.

Although his stewardship of the organization has brought championships and a generous compliment of the game's brightest stars to the region, the future success of the team and its new stadium provide the driving inspiration for the entire Jones Family. The new Dallas Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas will serve as the beacon that will help North Texas stake its claim as a major focal point on the sporting and entertainment landscapes of this country.

Scheduled to open for the 2009 NFL season, the state of the art home of the Cowboys will serve as a powerful catalyst to attract a wide range of national and international events that will vividly help define the future of the region for generations to come. That process is already underway as the Cowboys and North Texas will play host to Super Bowl XLV in Arlington following the 2010 NFL season.

Since he took over as general manager in 1989, the Cowboys have drafted 23 different players who have gone on to appear in a combined total of 80 Pro Bowls. Dallas has also signed nine free agent players who have made 21 Pro Bowl appearances while representing the Dallas Cowboys. Since 1989, the Cowboys have made 120 trades, the most celebrated of which was the 1989 deal that sent Herschel Walker to the Minnesota Vikings and provided the personnel foundation for three league titles.

In selecting the on-the-field leadership for the Cowboys, Jones hired a pair of coaches who won three Super Bowls in Dallas: Jimmy Johnson (1992-1993) and Barry Switzer (1995). Chan Gailey followed with a division title and playoff appearances in 1998 and 1999. In 2003, Jones successfully recruited two-time Super Bowl winner Bill Parcells to Dallas, and Parcells directed the team to three winning seasons and two playoff trips in four seasons. In February of 2007, Jones added another successful NFL head coach in Wade Phillips, who in his first season, guided the Cowboys to a club-record tying 13-3 regular season record and the organization's 20th division title.

In the last 30 years, 32 different owners have entered the National Football League. Of that group, only Jerry Jones and Robert Kraft of New England have guided their franchises to more than two Super Bowl championships. Moreover, Jones joins Art Rooney, Jack Kent Cooke, Al Davis, Eddie DeBartolo and Kraft as the only men to have won at least three Super Bowls as NFL owners.

On the league front, he actively contributes his vision and enthusiasm to enhancing the NFL's status as the world's premier professional sports league by serving on a wide range of league committees. Jones is currently the Chairman of the NFL Network Broadcast Committee, and he is a member of the Management Council Executive Committee, the Special Committee on League Economics and the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee. Jones also served on the committee that was charged with overseeing the search for a successor to retired NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue – a search that successfully landed current NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell in September of 2006. In addition, Jones has served two prior terms as a member of the NFL's Competition Committee as well as a stint on the Business Ventures Committee.

His contributions and innovations in the areas of marketing, corporate sponsorships, television, stadium management, stadium development and community service have made a visible imprint on the ever evolving face of professional sports in America. Since becoming involved with the Cowboys, Jones's accomplishments have been recognized through his induction into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame (2007), the Texas Business Hall of Fame (2005), the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame (1999) and the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame (1998). In August of 2007, he also served as the presenter for Michael Irvin's induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

As a co-captain of the 1964 National Championship Arkansas Razorbacks, Jones is one of a very small number of NFL owners who actually earned a significant level of success as a football player. He is the only man in the history of the National Football League to play for a collegiate national championship football team and own a Super Bowl winner. A man of varied interests who will not rest on yesterday's achievements, he is a dedicated businessman and family man – sharing a vivid enthusiasm for both.

Although Jones and his family are very involved in numerous civic and charitable causes, the Joneses have left an indelible local and national impression on the philanthropic landscape with their love and dedication to The Salvation Army.

For the past 11 seasons, the Jones family has dedicated the Cowboys Thanksgiving Day halftime show as a national showcase to kick off The Salvation Army's annual Red Kettle Drive. Through the donation of national television air-time, the event has created a new holiday tradition, while helping to increase donations to The Salvation Army's annual fund raising efforts by hundreds of millions of dollars. Major George Hood of The Salvation Army states that "by presenting the National Kettle Kickoff on Thanksgiving Day, the Dallas Cowboys have helped the Army raise over one billion dollars in the past 11 years." Reba McEntire, Randy Travis, Clint Black, Jessica Simpson, Billy Gilman, Creed, LeAnn Rimes, Toby Keith, Destiny's Child, Sheryl Crow, Carrie Underwood and Kelly Clarkson have provided the entertainment for the last 11 holiday extravaganzas.

The Salvation Army points to the annual Cowboys kickoff event as one of the most effective, creative and important innovations that has been developed in the long and storied history of the organization.

The Joneses received the Evangeline Booth Award in 1999, one of the Army's highest national community service awards and have been selected for membership into the prestigious Salvation Army William Booth Society. Gene and Jerry were also named to the Army's National Advisory Board in April of 1998 shortly after being named the organization's Partners of the Year in 1997. In April of 2007, Gene and Jerry Jones served as the honorary chairpersons for the Salvation Army's National Advisory Organizations Conference (NAOC) that was held in Dallas.

For 10 years, Gene and Jerry Jones served as hosts and underwrote the costs for the Super Lunch, a fundraising event for The Salvation Army Irving Corps Community Center. In 1998, the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Center for Children opened in conjunction with The Army.

As part of the Jones Family and the Dallas Cowboys commitment to Arlington, Texas, the future home of the club's new stadium, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities will donate $16.5 million to non-profit organizations serving youth in Arlington over the next 33 years.

In 2001, the Joneses were awarded the Chairman's Award by The Boys and Girls Clubs of America. In June of 2002, Gene and Jerry Jones were recognized as the recipients of the Children's Champion Award for Philanthropy that was presented by the Dallas for Children organization. In 2003, the Family Gateway organization of Dallas presented Gene and Jerry with the Annette G. Strauss Humanitarian Award. In April of 2005, Gene and Jerry were recipients of the Hope Award, the highest community service recognition awarded by the Lone Star Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

The Jones family is very involved with several other community-related organizations, including Children's Medical Center of Dallas, Happy Hill Farm Academy/Home, the National Board for The Boys and Girls Clubs of America, the Kent Waldrep Paralysis Foundation, The Rise School of Dallas, The Family Place and The Family Gateway.

Jerry (10/13/42) and Gene live in Dallas. They have three children, Stephen, Charlotte and Jerry, Jr., and nine grandchildren.

Stephen (6/21/64) is a graduate of the University of Arkansas and serves as the Cowboys Chief Operating Officer/Executive Vice President/ Director of Player Personnel. Charlotte (7/26/66) is a Stanford graduate and serves as the Cowboys Vice President/Director of Charities and Special Events. Jerry Jr. (9/27/69), a graduate of Georgetown University who earned his law degree from Southern Methodist University, is the Cowboys Chief Sales and Marketing Officer/Executive Vice President.

Chronology Since 1989:

February 25, 1989 – Jones purchases the Dallas Cowboys and the lease to manage Texas Stadium from H.R. "Bum" Bright. Jerry Jones names Jimmy Johnson as the new head coach.

April 20, 1989 – Jones completes negotiations on Troy Aikman's contract – a six-year deal that is completed four days before Aikman is the top overall selection in the 1989 NFL Draft.

October 12, 1989 – Herschel Walker is traded to Minnesota for five players, six conditional draft choices and a 1992 first round draft choice. Among the players who actually came to Dallas as a result of the trade include Emmitt Smith, Russell Maryland, Kevin Smith and Darren Woodson.

August 10, 1990 – The Cowboys first-ever in-state training camp concludes at St. Edward's University in Austin. Over 100,000 fans attend workouts, while more than 400 media credentials are issued in the three-plus weeks of work. Austin officials estimate the camp brought an additional $3.2 million of income into the Austin area.

September 5, 1990 – The Cowboys trade Steve Walsh to the New Orleans Saints for a first and third round draft choice in 1991 and a conditional second round pick in 1992.

April 19, 1991 – A deal is made to bring the first overall selection in the 1991 NFL Draft to Dallas in exchange for a first and second round selection and three veteran players. Dallas selected Outland Trophy winner Russell Maryland with the top pick.

April 21-22, 1991 – In an unprecedented action among NFL clubs, the Cowboys sign their top three draft choices on draft day. The team also drafts a club record 17 players.

July 16, 1991 – The Cowboys open training camp in Austin with all 17 of their draft choices under contract. Dallas concludes its second training camp at St. Edward's University with over 75,000 fans attending the Cowboys practices.

November 24, 1991 – The Cowboys end the Redskins 1991 undefeated streak at 11 games with a 24-21 victory at RFK Stadium.

December 15, 1991 – Dallas defeats Philadelphia, 25-13, at Veterans Stadium to secure a wild card playoff spot. The victory marks the team's first trip to the playoffs since 1985.

December 22, 1991 – Dallas closes the 1991 season with a 31-27 win over Atlanta, marking the team's best record (11-5) since 1983.

January 5, 1992 – Dallas defeats Chicago by a 17-13 score in an opening round playoff game at Soldier Field. The victory marks the Cowboys first playoff win since 1982, and the first playoff win on the road since 1980.

May 1, 1992 – Jerry Jones is appointed to the NFL's Competition Committee by Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. Jones becomes the first owner to serve on the prestigious committee since the death of Cincinnati's Paul Brown.

December 21, 1992 – Before a national television audience on ABC's Monday Night Football, the Cowboys defeat the Atlanta Falcons (41-17) at the Georgia Dome to claim the NFC Eastern Division Championship. The victory marks the Cowboys first divisional title since 1985. It is the 14th divisional title in club history.

December 23, 1992 – Six players from the Cowboys offense are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. The six players establish a Dallas Cowboys record for most offensive players selected to the Pro Bowl.

December 27, 1992 – Dallas defeats Chicago by a 27-14 score at Texas Stadium. The victory is the 13th of the year for Dallas, establishing a new club record for victories in a season. Emmitt Smith finishes the season with 1,713 rushing yards, enabling him to become the first player to win back-to-back NFL rushing titles since Eric Dickerson (1983-84).

December, 1992 – The Cowboys set a team record for road attendance by averaging 72,523 fans-per-road game. The team also played before a sold-out stadium in all 16 regular season games.

January 10, 1993 – In their first home playoff game since 1983, Dallas hands NFC East rival Philadelphia a 34-10 defeat in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game.

January 17, 1993 – In their first NFC Championship Game since 1982, the Cowboys defeat the San Francisco 49ers by a 30-20 score at Candlestick Park. The victory sends Dallas to Super Bowl XXVII in Pasadena, marking the Cowboys first Super Bowl trip since 1978.

January 31, 1993 – While making a NFL record sixth Super Bowl appearance, the Cowboys defeat Buffalo 52-17 in Super Bowl XXVII at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Troy Aikman was named the game's MVP after throwing four touchdown passes. The Super Bowl crowd of 98,374 becomes the largest crowd to ever witness a Cowboys game. The game was witnessed by 133.4 million television viewers, making Super Bowl XXVII the most watched event in television history.

March 5, 1993 – The Super Bowl Champion Dallas Cowboys become the first athletic team to visit the White House under President Bill Clinton's administration. The visit to the White House is the first in club history.

December 28, 1993 – An NFC record 11 Dallas players are selected to the Pro Bowl. That group includes a club record eight offensive selections (seven Pro Bowl starters).

January 2, 1994 – The Cowboys defeat the N.Y. Giants 16-13 in overtime at the Meadowlands. The victory clinches the Cowboys second straight NFC East title and the 15th division crown in club history.

January 2, 1994 – Emmitt Smith finishes the season with 1,486 yards to earn his third straight NFL rushing crown. He becomes just the fourth man in NFL history to win three consecutive rushing titles. He is also named Associated Press NFL Player of the Year, the first Cowboy so honored.

January 23, 1994 – Dallas defeats San Francisco 38-21 in the NFC Championship Game at Texas Stadium. The victory gives the Cowboys an NFL-record seventh conference championship in the first conference title game to be played at Texas Stadium since Jan. 1, 1978.

January 30, 1994 – Dallas becomes one of just three NFL teams to win four Super Bowls by defeating Buffalo (30-13) in Super Bowl XXVIII at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The victory enables the Cowboys to become the only franchise in NFL history to win more than one Super Bowl under two different owners. The game featured two rushing touchdowns by Super Bowl MVP Emmitt Smith.

March 30, 1994 – Barry Switzer is named the new head coach of the Dallas Cowboys – and the third head coach in team history. Switzer replaces Jimmy Johnson, who stepped down as the Cowboys head coach the previous day. December, 1994 – For the second straight season, the Cowboys send a club and NFC record 11 players to the Pro Bowl.

January, 1995 – The Cowboys set a Texas Stadium record for home attendance with an average crowd of 64,579, the first time Dallas has averaged over 64,000 fans-per-game at Texas Stadium. The previous record was 63,943 set in 1981.

January 15, 1995 – The Cowboys play in their third NFC Championship Game of the decade. The Cowboys are the only NFL team to play in multiple conference championship games in each decade of the team's existence. December 24, 1995 – Dallas wraps up its fourth straight NFC Eastern Division title – a feat no other NFC East team had accomplished other than the Cowboys teams from 1976 to 1979.

December 25, 1995 – Emmitt Smith closes the season with a team record 1,773 rushing yards and an NFL record 25 rushing touchdowns. Smith led the NFL in rushing for the fourth time in five years, becoming just the fifth player in NFL history to win at least four rushing titles.

December, 1995 – Ten Cowboys are selected to the NFC Pro Bowl squad. Since 1993, Dallas has earned 32 Pro Bowl selections – the most ever by one team over a three-year period.

January 14, 1996 – The Cowboys win an NFL record eighth conference championship game by defeating the Green Bay Packers 38-27 at Texas Stadium. The victory marked the Cowboys third NFC title in four years.

January 28, 1996 – Dallas becomes the first team in NFL history to win three Super Bowls in a four-year period by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 27-17 in Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, Ariz. The game is witnessed by 138.4 million television viewers, making Super Bowl XXX the most watched event in television history. The victory enables Dallas to earn its fifth Super Bowl title – joining the San Francisco 49ers as the second NFL franchise to win five Super Bowls. The Cowboys have appeared in an NFL record eight Super Bowls. Dallas also became the first NFL franchise to win Super Bowls with three different head coaches.

December 15, 1996 – The Cowboys clinch a fifth straight division title with a 12-6 win over the New England Patriots at Texas Stadium. The championship enables the Cowboys to become the first team in NFL history to win five straight NFC Eastern Division crowns.

January 5, 1997 – Dallas closes the postseason with a divisional playoff loss at Carolina. The loss marks the first time since the 1991 season that the Cowboys were unable to reach the NFC title game.

December, 1997 – The Cowboys close the 1997 season with a 6-10 record, marking the team's first non-playoff season since 1990.

February 12, 1998 – Jerry Jones names Chan Gailey as the fourth head coach in the history of the Dallas Cowboys franchise. Gailey, who had previously served as the Pittsburgh Steelers offensive coordinator, replaces Barry Switzer, who resigned from his position on January 9.

July 15, 1998 – The Cowboys open training camp at Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls, Texas. Attendance figures for the four-week camp exceed 100,000.

November 8, 1998 – With 163 yards on 29 carries in a 16-6 win over the New York Giants, Emmitt Smith becomes the Dallas Cowboys all-time leading rusher. Smith's performance against New York pushes him past Tony Dorsett (12,036) and into the Cowboys top spot.

December 20, 1998 – After a one-year absence from postseason play, the Cowboys clinch their sixth NFC Eastern Division title in the last seven years with a 13-9 win over Philadelphia at Texas Stadium. The 1998 division crown is the 19th division championship (15th NFC East title) in the club's 39-year history.

December 27, 1998 – After scoring a first-half touchdown on a one-yard run against the Redskins at Texas Stadium, Emmitt Smith becomes the NFL's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns, moving ahead of Marcus Allen (123). Smith would later add a 26-yard touchdown run in the second quarter to bring his league record total to 125 by season's end. The Cowboys closed the year with a 23-7 victory over Washington and a 10-6 record, enabling Dallas to become the first team in the history of the NFC East to post an 8-0 record in division play.

December 24, 1999 – The Dallas Cowboys NFL-record of consecutive games in front of sold out stadiums came to an end in a Christmas Eve game against the New Orleans Saints in the Louisiana Superdome. The streak, which included home and away games, came to a halt after 160 games. It began on Dec. 23, 1990 at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium and included 79 straight sell-outs at Texas Stadium (including playoffs) and 81 straight sell-outs on the road (including playoffs).

January 2, 2000 – The Cowboys close the century as the NFL's most successful team in the decade of the 1990s. From 1990 to 1999, Dallas qualified for the playoffs eight times, won six division titles, made four trips to the conference championship game and won three Super Bowls. The 1999 season ends with an 8-8 regular season record and a wild card playoff loss at Minnesota on Jan. 9, 2000.

January 26, 2000 – Jerry Jones names Cowboys defensive coordinator Dave Campo as the fifth head coach in franchise history. Campo spent the previous 11 seasons as an assistant coach in Dallas and was the defensive coordinator for the 1995 team that won Super Bowl XXX.

August 27, 2001 – Dallas defeats Oakland in a preseason American Bowl game in Mexico City that marks the Cowboys ninth international game. With stops in England (2), Japan (2), Mexico (4) and Canada (1), the Cowboys have played more international games than any other team in the NFL.

October 27, 2002 – In a 17-14 loss to the Seattle Seahawks at Texas Stadium, Emmitt Smith moved past Walter Payton to become the all-time NFL rushing leader. Smith finished the 2002 season, and his Dallas Cowboys career, with 17,162 yards, 436 more than Payton's previous career mark of 16,726.

January 2, 2003 – Jerry Jones names Bill Parcells as the sixth head coach in Dallas Cowboys franchise history. Parcells, a two-time Super Bowl winner with the New York Giants, replaces Dave Campo.

December 21, 2003 – The Cowboys topped the N.Y. Giants to record their 10th win of the season, securing a wild card berth in the playoffs. It was the club's 27th postseason appearance, extending their NFL record. It was also the 24th season in franchise history that the club had posted at least 10 wins, also a league record.

November 2, 2004 – With 55% of the vote, the citizens of Arlington, Texas overwhelming support a stadium referendum at the polls. The public-private partnership between the City of Arlington and the Dallas Cowboys will fund a retractable roof stadium with capacity for up to 90,000 people in the heart of Arlington's entertainment district. With over $400 million committed by the team and stadium users, it will be the largest private investment in a stadium in NFL history, and the stadium will give North Texas the ability to bring major events like the Super Bowl and the NCAA Final Four to the region.

September 19, 2005 – Troy Aikman, Michael Irvin and Emmitt Smith, the cornerstone players of the three-time Super Bowl Champion Cowboys teams of the 1990's became the 15th, 16th and 17th members of the club's Ring of Honor. The trio finished their Cowboys career holding almost every major passing, receiving and rushing record while helping the organization become the NFL's Team of the Decade for the '90s. A record crowd of 65,207 fans pack Texas Stadium to witness the halftime event during the Monday Night Football match-up against division rival Washington.

December 24, 2005 – With a 24-20 win at Carolina, the Cowboys clinch the 29th winning season in the franchise's 46 years in operation. Dallas finished the year 9-7.

January 1, 2006 – The Cowboys played in front of 63,131 fans in the regular season finale at Texas Stadium on Jan. 1, 2006, pushing the club's all-time home attendance figure past the 20 million mark. Dating back to the 1960 franchise opener at the Cotton Bowl, 20,002,761 fans have now seen the Dallas Cowboys in person at the Cotton Bowl and Texas Stadium.

April 10, 2006 – Ground was broken on the new Dallas Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. The state-of-the art venue is scheduled for completion by the start of the 2009 NFL season and will accommodate between 80,000 and 100,000 fans.

August 5, 2006 – Three-time Super Bowl Champion quarterback Troy Aikman and six-time Pro Bowl tackle Rayfield Wright become the eighth and ninth former Cowboys to be enshrined in the Pro

Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Aikman, the MVP of Super Bowl XXVII and the winningest quarterback of the 1990's is selected in his first year of eligibility. Wright, a member of the NFL's 1970s All-Decade team and two Super Bowl winning teams in Dallas is selected in his first year as a senior's committee nominee.

December 16, 2006 – With a 38-28 win over the Atlanta Falcons in the Georgia Dome, the Cowboys secured a playoff berth en route to a 9-7 regular season record and a second place finish in the NFC East. The victory marked the organization's 28th postseason appearance, extending their NFL record.

February 8, 2007 – Jerry Jones announced the appointment of Wade Phillips as the seventh head coach in Dallas Cowboys history. Phillips, who brought a previous 45-35 record as an NFL head coach to the club, replaced Bill Parcells who announced his retirement from coaching on January 22, 2007.

May 22, 2007 – At NFL owners' meetings in Nashville, Tennessee, North Texas was selected to host Super Bowl XLV. The game will be played at the Cowboys new stadium in Arlington, Texas, on February 6, 2011. The first Super Bowl to be presented in North Texas was awarded on the fourth ballot of a vote by the NFL ownership.

August 4, 2007 – Michael Irvin, a member of six divisional winners and three Super Bowl championship teams with the Cowboys of the 1990s, becomes the 10th former Dallas Cowboys player to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Irvin, the Cowboys career leader in receptions and yardage, is presented by team owner Jerry Jones for induction at the ceremony in Canton, Ohio.

December 9, 2007 – With a 28-27 win at Detroit, the Cowboys clinched the NFC Eastern Division title for the first time since 1998. The win gave Dallas its 20th division championship (16th NFC East). Dallas closed the season with an NFC-best 13-3 record, tying the club mark for regular season victories that was set in 1992.

February 10, 2008 – A record 13 Dallas Cowboys participated in the Pro Bowl in Hawaii. Representing the club on offense were starters Tony Romo (QB), Terrell Owens (WR), Flozell Adams (LT), Andre Gurode (C), Leonard Davis (RG) and Jason Witten (TE). Marion Barber (RB) was a reserve for the NFC offense. On the defensive side, DeMarcus Ware (LB) and Ken Hamlin (FS) were starters while Roy Williams (SS), Terence Newman (CB) and Greg Ellis (LB) were reserves. Rookie placekicker Nick Folk was also selected.

Stephen Jones, Jerry and Gene Jones, Charlotte Jones Anderson, and Jerry Jones, Jr.

STEPHEN JONES

Chief Operating Officer, Executive Vice President, Director of Player Personnel

With 19 years of NFL experience, Stephen Jones has established himself as one of the brightest and most versatile young executives in professional sports. Recognized as Owner Jerry Jones's right-hand man, Stephen is currently the Cowboys Chief Operating Officer, Executive Vice President, and Director of Player Personnel as well as President of Texas Stadium.

Jones is spearheading the club's new stadium efforts, overseeing the in-house development team while working directly with local government, community and business leaders. He was directly responsible for the club's successful referendum campaign in the fall of 2004 that saw the City of Arlington agree to join forces with the Cowboys in building a new state-of-the-art stadium that will open at the start of the 2009 season.

The new Dallas Cowboys Stadium in Arlington will serve as the beacon that will help North Texas stake its claim as a major focal point on the sporting and entertainment landscapes of this country. The state-of-the-art home of the Cowboys will serve as a powerful catalyst to attract a wide range of national and international events that will vividly help define the future of the region for generations to come.

That process is already underway as the Cowboys and North Texas will play host to Super Bowl XLV in Arlington following the 2010 NFL season. The new stadium has also become the home to the AT&T Cotton Bowl as well as a long-term site for the future of the Arkansas-Texas A&M football game – a series that will resume on an annual basis in Arlington starting in 2009.

As his stadium management duties are currently centered on every aspect of the new stadium in Arlington, Jones' stewardship of Texas Stadium will draw to a close following the Cowboys 2009 season. His efforts with historic Texas Stadium will leave behind a legacy of facility management that maximized the use and visibility of the venue into a year-round destination for sporting, entertainment, community and corporate events on an unprecedented level. His vast experience in stadium management, design and development has landed him a standing appointment on the NFL's New Stadium Committee.

On a day-to-day basis, he oversees the operations of the Dallas Cowboys and the team's current and future stadium venues. His work involves managing the organization's 300 employees, including the coordination of the Cowboys entire Player Personnel Department, overseeing the salary cap and all major player contract concerns.

Jones played an integral role in the team's rise from a 1-15 record in 1989 to being the NFL's "Team of the Decade" with three Super Bowl titles in the 1990s. As he enters his 19th NFL season, Jones is a driving force behind the Cowboys resurgence as one of the elite level teams in the NFL. His recent work has seen the club restock its roster with some of the game's top young talent, and the recent results have produced winning records in three of the last four seasons and a pair of playoff appearances over that same span.

Jones was the key negotiator in the work that brought All-Pro wide receiver Terrell Owens to the Cowboys in March of 2006. He also took the lead in negotiating the contracts for other recent free agents such as offensive linemen Leonard Davis and Kyle Kosier and safety Ken Hamlin.

Over a one week span in the spring of 2005, Jones was instrumental in the distribution of $30 million in signing bonus money to quarterback Drew Bledsoe, defensive tackle Jason Ferguson, cornerback Anthony Henry and guard Marco Rivera. The signing of Ferguson, Henry and Rivera all took place in one day, March 3, the biggest signing day in club history.

The re-working of the Cowboys roster began in earnest in February, 2003 when, over a two-week span, Jones helped orchestrate the signing of tackle Flozell Adams to a long-term contract, the acquisition via trade and signing of wide receiver Terry Glenn from Green Bay and the unrestricted free agent signing of linebacker Al Singleton. Adams has since earned four Pro Bowl berths following the 2003, 2004, 2006 and 2007 seasons.

The last six draft classes (2002-2007) are proving to be the foundation for the future of the Cowboys with 13 current starters and nine All-Rookie Team members coming out of those selections. Those same drafts also produced seven Pro Bowl players who have collectively combined for 16 all-star game appearances in Roy Williams (2002 draft), Andre Gurode (2002), Terence Newman (2003), Jason Witten (2003), DeMarcus Ware (2005), Marion Barber (2005) and Nick Folk (2007).

In the ever evolving strategy that dictates a team's competitiveness in the current collective bargaining agreement, Jones's performance in managing the Cowboys salary cap has played a prominent role in the team's ability to compete at the NFL's highest level.

Jones's involvement in shaping the Dallas roster under the salary cap was critical in allowing the Cowboys to maintain one of the NFL's most talented core groups of players throughout the decade of the 1990s. His creativity and care taking of the Cowboys cap played a key role in the team's six division titles and four conference championship game appearances.

During a historic two-year period of time, Jones was involved in signing five Cowboys stars that were considered the best players in the game at their respective positions. Between September of 1993 and September of 1995, Jones helped orchestrate contract agreements with running back Emmitt Smith, quarterback Troy Aikman, fullback Daryl Johnston, wide receiver Michael Irvin and cornerback Deion Sanders.

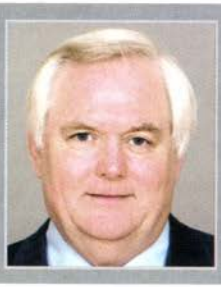
Jones has enjoyed a life-long association with the game of football. A four-year letterman as a linebacker and special teams standout at the University of Arkansas, Jones was a starter for the Razorbacks in the Orange Bowl Classic Game that followed the 1986 season. Prior to attending the University of Arkansas, Jones was an all-state quarterback and a three-year starter at Catholic High School in Little Rock, AR.

He graduated from Arkansas in 1988 with a degree in chemical engineering, and immediately went to work in the oil and gas business for JMC Exploration as an engineer.

On Feb. 25, 1989, Jerry Jones purchased the Dallas Cowboys and installed Stephen into a key front office position as one of three vice presidents with the club.

Jones is a member and past president of the Dallas Chapter of the Young Presidents' Organization. He serves on the board of directors for the SMU Athletic Forum, Cotton Bowl Athletic Association, Episcopal School of Dallas and Circle Ten Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Jones is also a member of the Dallas Citizens Council.

Jones (6/21/64) was born and reared in Little Rock. He is married to the former Karen Hickman of El Dorado, Ark., and the couple has three daughters and a son: Jessica (8/24/92), Jordan (10/8/93), Caroline (4/4/97) and John Stephen (4/19/99).



WADE PHILLPS

Head Coach

Wade Phillips was named the seventh coach in Dallas Cowboys history on February 8, 2007. A native Texan with a rich appreciation for the game of football in his home state, Phillips is the only head coach in franchise history to assume the Cowboys top job with previous coaching experience on the high school, collegiate and professional levels in the Lone Star State. Phillips has 31 years of NFL coaching experience – including six full seasons as a head coach and 20 years as a defensive coordinator.

In his six-plus years as a head coach, Phillips has produced a 61-42 regular season record and has guided his teams to four playoff appearances. He has had only one non-winning season as a head coach. His .592 career winning percentage in the regular season is sixth-best among active NFL head coaches with five-or-more years of head coaching experience entering the 2008 season. He trails Tony Dungy (.661), Mike Holmgren (.613), Bill Belichick (.611), Andy Reid (.611) and Mike Shanahan (.605) on the list of winningest active NFL head coaches in the regular season.

Phillips has a wealth of NFL experience both as a defensive coordinator and head coach. One of his trademarks has been the ability to immediately improve the teams he has worked with from his very first day on the job. The last seven times he has taken over as a head coach or defensive coordinator, his new team has reached the playoffs in his first season. Only once in those seven transitions has Phillips taken over a club that was coming off a winning record. Although he is noted as a very successful and innovative defensive mind, Phillips's teams have produced offensive units that finished the season ranked among the NFL's top-10 in five of his six full seasons as a head coach.

Phillips's results in his first year in Dallas exceeded all expectations while establishing several key milestones. The 2007 Cowboys tied the club record for regular season victories with a 13-3 mark en route to winning the NFC Eastern Division crown – the 20th division title in team history. While posting the first 12-1 record ever for a Cowboys team to start a season, the 2007 Dallas club closed the year with the NFL's third ranked offense and the ninth ranked defensive unit.

Under Phillips's guidance, the 2007 team also sent a franchise and league record 13 players to the Pro Bowl. That group included six players who made the Pro Bowl for the first time in their NFL careers: running back Marion Barber, guard Leonard Davis, linebacker Greg Ellis, kicker Nick Folk, safety Ken Hamlin, and cornerback Terence Newman.

A proven winner in the NFL, Phillips understands what it takes to be successful. Over the past 19 years as a head coach or coordinator, he has been a part of only four teams that have had non-winning records. During that time he has worked with a defense that ranked in the NFL's top-10 nine times. In seven of the last nine years he has worked with a defense that ranked in the top-10 against the run.

Prior to his arrival in Dallas, Phillips served as the defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers (2004-2006). After implementing his 3-4 defensive scheme, Phillips directed a unit that improved each season, moving from 18th in the NFL in total defense in his first season to 13th in 2005 and then 10th in 2006. His 2005 unit was the NFL's stingiest against the run with a league leading average of 84.3 yards-per-game allowed on the ground. In his first year in San Diego, the Chargers were even stingier, allowing just 81.7 rushing yards-per-game to rank third in the league.

The Chargers aggressive defense also cranked out a league-high 61 sacks in 2006, the second-most in club history. It was the second straight year the defense had shown improvement in that category, going from 29 sacks in 2004 to 46 sacks in 2005 to the breakout year in 2006. Two-time Pro Bowl linebacker Shawne Merriman was the leader of that group, topping the NFL with 17 sacks that year.

When the Chargers won the AFC West and qualified for the playoffs in 2004 on the heels of a 4-12 season in 2003, Phillips kept his streak intact of helping to turn teams with non-winning records into playoff participants the following year.

At the end of his two-year term (2002-03) as defensive coordinator in Atlanta, he served as the interim head coach for the Falcons final three games of the 2003 season after Dan Reeves was released from his contract on December 10. Phillips posted a record of 2-1 as Atlanta's head coach, highlighted by a 30-28 victory at Tampa Bay that knocked the defending Super Bowl champions out of playoff contention.

Phillips's defense in Atlanta in 2002 mastered the big play. The team finished with 47 sacks, second-most in team history and tied for fourth in the NFL. They also had 39 takeaways – second in the league – including 24 interceptions – fourth in the league.

During the 1998-2000 seasons as head coach in Buffalo, the Bills compiled a regular season record of 29-19. Phillips took the reigns after a disappointing 6-10 finish in 1997 and reversed the team's fortunes by leading it to a 10-6 record and the playoffs in 1998. It was the most successful campaign of any first-year head coach in Bills history. His 1999 team led the NFL in total defense, went 11-5 and earned another trip to the postseason. The Bills finished 8-8 in 2002 – his last season in Buffalo. The Bills were 16-9 under Phillips in his three years at the helm after the start of November.

In three seasons in Buffalo (1995-97) before he became head coach, he delivered solid returns as defensive coordinator. In 1996, Buffalo's defense allowed a league-low 22 touchdown passes and 3.4 yards-per-carry, while ranking fourth in sacks (48) and second in yards-per-play (4.3) and opponent completion percentage (.520). As the defensive coordinator and head coach with the Bills, Phillips guided the stellar careers of future Pro Football Hall of Famers Bruce Smith and Thurman Thomas.

Phillips was named Denver's head coach on January 25, 1993 after serving as defensive coordinator the previous four seasons. In his first year as head coach, (1993) future Hall of Fame quarterback John Elway enjoyed the finest season of his career to that point with career-high figures for completions (348), percentage (.632), yardage (4,030) and his lowest single-season interception total (10). Phillips led the 1993 Broncos to a playoff berth, but injuries decimated the club the following season which resulted in a 7-9 record – Phillips only season with a losing record in five years as a head coach. Phillips was released by the club soon after the season finale and joined Buffalo as defensive coordinator shortly thereafter. The Broncos safety tandem of Steve Atwater and Dennis Smith combined for a total of eight Pro Bowl selections under Phillips's watch in Denver, while defensive end Karl Mecklenburg earned four trips to Hawaii.

Phillips's extensive coaching career also included stopovers at Philadelphia from 1986-88 as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach as well as defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints from 1981-85 – his first coordinator position. During his stint with the Eagles, Phillips mentored the development of one of the NFL's most dominant defenses of the era, a unit that was led by Reggie White who was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

Phillips's professional coaching career began in Houston in 1976 as the linebackers coach under his father, longtime NFL coach Bum Phillips. While working along side the elder Phillips, the Oilers introduced the 3-4 defense to the NFL. After a year as the linebackers coach in 1976, Phillips moved to handling the defensive line responsibilities from 1977 to 1980. Hall of Fame defensive end Elvin Bethea was a three time Pro Bowl selection while working with Phillips, while linebacker Robert Brazile earned four of his seven consecutive Pro Bowl selections from 1977 to 1980.

Phillips began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Houston, in 1969 as a graduate assistant. He then coached at Orange, Texas, High School from 1970-72. In 1973, he joined the Oklahoma State University staff coaching linebackers for two seasons. Phillips was then hired to coach the defensive line at Kansas State in 1975, his last season coaching in the college ranks.

Wade Phillips was born June 21, 1947 in Orange, Texas. He was a three-year starter at linebacker for the University of Houston from 1966-68 after a standout career at Port Neches-Groves High School in Port Neches, Texas. Phillips and wife Laurie have one son, Wesley, who is an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys, and a daughter, Tracy, who is a professional actress, dancer and choreographer in Hollywood, California.

DAVE CAMPO

Secondary
Central Connecticut State
NFL: 20th Year • Cowboys: 15th Year

The hiring of Dave Campo as secondary coach for the Cowboys on January 29, 2008 marked the return of one of the most talented and loyal coaches in the history of the Cowboys organization.

As an assistant coach with the Cowboys in the 1990s, Campo played a key role in the development of Dallas teams that made eight playoff trips, won six division titles and claimed three Super Bowl titles. He worked his way up to the head coaching position for the Cowboys, a post he held for three seasons from 2000 to 2002, before moving on to assistant coaching stops with the Cleveland Browns and Jacksonville Jaguars.

Entering his 15th year of service to the Dallas Cowboys, Campo's coaching tenure with the organization is exceeded by only six other men in club history.

Prior to moving back to Dallas, Campo spent three seasons (2005-2007) as the secondary coach and assistant head coach for Jack Del Rio's defense in Jacksonville. In each of his three years in Jacksonville, Campo's secondary either set – or exceeded – club records for interceptions. The 2007 and 2006 teams both registered 20 interceptions after the 2005 club set the then club standard with 19 interceptions.

In his final season with the Jags, Campo helped guide the club to an 11-5 record and a wild card berth. Jacksonville defeated Pittsburgh in an opening round road win before bowing out to the eventual undefeated AFC Champion Patriots in Foxborough. Campo's 2007 secondary ranked 15th overall in pass defense while the defensive unit as a whole finished the year 11th in the NFL by allowing an average of 313.8 yards-per-game. The Jacksonville secondary's 20 interceptions contributed to a defensive group that ranked sixth in the NFL in total take-aways with 30 for the year.

Under Campo, Rashean Mathis became the first Jaguars cornerback to be voted to the Pro Bowl as he tied for third in the NFL with a team-record eight interceptions in 2006. The Jaguars had two-plus interceptions in seven-of-16 games in 2006.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Campo served as the defensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns for two seasons (2003-2004). The Browns 2003 defense ranked 15th in the NFL, marking the club's best overall defensive finish since the 1994 Cleveland unit was seventh. The Browns were also third in the NFL in red zone touchdown percentage while recording at least one quarterback sack in 15 of their 16 games in 2003.

Before joining the Browns, Campo spent the previous 14 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, including 11 seasons as an assistant and the last three as head coach from 2000 to 2002. During his tenure in Dallas, he helped the team win consecutive Super Bowl championships in 1992 and 1993 and again in 1995. As head coach, his teams compiled a 15-33 record as many of the cornerstone stars from the 1990s championship clubs were ending their careers or nearing retirement.

In Campo's first two seasons as head coach, the Cowboys defense finished third in the NFL in passing defense and fourth in total defense in 2001. From 2001 to 2002, the Dallas defense ranked among the NFL's elite, allowing teams to average 3.7 yards-per-rush and allowing only 22 rushing touchdowns in 32 games.

In four of the five years that Campo directed the Dallas defense as coordinator (1995-1999), the Cowboys finished the year among the NFL's top-10 units, including a pair of top-three finishes. En route to the Super Bowl title in 1995, Campo's defense ranked ninth in the NFL. That was followed by units that ranked third in 1996, second in 1997, 18th in 1998 and ninth in 1999. As the coordinator of the Cowboys defense, Campo helped guide the careers of some of the 1990s most dynamic defensive players – including Pro Bowlers Charles Haley, Darren Woodson, Deion Sanders, Tony Tolbert, Leon Lett, Russell Maryland and Dexter Coakley.

Prior to becoming defensive coordinator in 1995, Campo directed a secondary that had grown into one of the team's deepest and most productive units. His 1994 squad led the NFL in pass defense and tied for fourth in the NFL with 22 interceptions. All-Pro strong safety Woodson became the first Dallas defensive back to earn a starting Pro Bowl berth since Everson Walls (1985). The 1994 secondary led the NFL, allowing just 172.0 yards-per-game through the air. The 1994 defense was also tops in the NFL in total defense (269.6 yards-per-game). Despite having no Pro Bowl defensive players on the 1992 Super Bowl Championship squad, the Dallas defense led in the NFL in total defense (245.8 yards-per-game), while Campo's secondary finished the year fifth in passing defense (168.1).

Campo was hired by Dallas as an original member of Jimmy Johnson's first Cowboys staff in 1989. Prior to joining the NFL, he was the secondary coach for Johnson at the University of Miami for two seasons (1987-88). At Miami he helped the Hurricanes to a two-year record of 23-1 and the 1987 National Championship. Safety Bennie Blades was the 1987 Jim Thorpe Award winner before being selected with the third pick in the NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions.

Campo began his coaching career at his alma mater, Central Connecticut State, where he spent the 1971-72 seasons. He then moved to the University of Albany (1973), Bridgeport (1974), the University of Pittsburgh (1975), Washington State (1976), Boise State (1977-79), Oregon State (1980), Weber State (1981-82), Iowa State (1983) and Syracuse (1984-86). In addition to starring at defensive back in college, Campo twice earned All-East honors at shortstop at Central Connecticut State.

Campo has hosted an annual golf tournament in Hartford, CT. to raise money for Focus on Kids, a charity that supplies eyeglasses for underprivileged children. He attended Robert E. Fitch High in Groton, Conn. He and his wife, Kay, have six children: Angie, Eric, Beckie, Tommy, Shelbie and Michael.

Dave Campo – Born July 18, 1947, Groton, Conn. Defensive back Central Connecticut State 1967-70. No pro playing experience. College coach: Central Connecticut State 1971-72, Albany 1973, Bridgeport 1974, Pittsburgh 1975, Washington State 1976, Boise State 1977-79, Oregon State 1980, Weber State 1981-82, Iowa State 1983, Syracuse 1984-86, Miami 1987-88, Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 1989-2002 (head coach 2000-02), Cleveland Browns 2003-04, Jacksonville Jaguars 2005-07, re-joined Dallas Cowboys in 2008.

JASON GARRETT

Assistant Head Coach, Offensive Coordinator

Princeton University

NFL: 4th Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

In his first season as an NFL offensive coordinator, Jason Garrett directed a 2007 Dallas unit that produced one of the most explosive seasons in club history. Following the season in which the Cowboys won the NFC Eastern Division crown with a team-record-tying 13 victories, head coach Wade Phillips added to Garrett's responsibilities by naming him the club's assistant head coach on January 17, 2008. Regarded as one of the bright young offensive minds in the league, Garrett was named Pro Football Weekly's NFL's Assistant Coach of the Year in March of 2008. The award, which is presented annually at the Ed Block Courage Awards Banquet in Baltimore, is selected by a vote of the Pro Football Writers of America.

Dallas finished the 2007 season second in the NFL in scoring (first in the NFC) with an average of 28.4 points-per-game. The 455 points scored last year marked the second-highest figure in club history behind only the 1983 club (479 points). The Cowboys scored at least 20 points in 14 of its 16 games in 2007, marking the most 20-plus point games since the 1995 club also had 14. The 2007 offense also set a club record by scoring 24-points-or-more in the first 13 games of the season.

With a 16-game average of 365.7 yards-per-game, the Cowboys were third in the NFL (second in the NFC) in total offense. Dallas closed the 2007 season fourth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in passing with an average of 256.6 yards-per-game. In the rushing offense category, the Cowboys were 17th in the NFL (seventh in the NFC) with an average of 109.1 yards-per-game.

The 5,851 yards in total offense by Dallas in 2007 marked the fifth-highest total yardage output in team history, and the unit fell just 117 yards short of the club record of 5,968 yards set in 1979. The Cowboys established a club record with 217 passing first downs in 2007, while they also led the NFL in average yards gained on first downs. Dallas picked up an average of 6.24 yards on first down plays, while New England (6.09) was second.

Along the way, the team sent seven offensive players to the Pro Bowl in Hawaii for just the fourth time in club history. The Dallas all-star contingent included quarterback Tony Romo, tackle Flozell Adams, guard Leonard Davis, center Andre Gurode, tight end Jason Witten, wide receiver Terrell Owens and running back Marion Barber.

In his first full season as an NFL starter, Romo finished the campaign as the NFC's top rated passer (97.4), marking the third-highest single-season passer rating in club history. With 36 touchdown passes in 2007, Romo established a Cowboys record for single-season scoring tosses – eclipsing the mark of 29 set by Danny White in 1983. Romo also set season club marks for completions (335) and passing yardage (4,211).

Owens closed the year second in the NFC in receiving yardage with 1,355 (fifth in the NFL), and he led the NFC in touchdown catches (third in the NFL) with a club record 15 scoring receptions.

Witten finished the year second among all NFL tight ends (first in the NFC) in both receptions (96) and yardage (1,145). Both totals represented club records for a Dallas tight end in a single-season.

Barber's 4.8-yard rushing average was fifth-best among all NFL backs, and his 10 rushing touchdowns tied for fifth best in the NFL. The one-two punch of Barber and Julius Jones combined for 1,563 yards on the ground and a combined average of 97.7 yards-per-game.

Garrett returned to Dallas in 2007 as the offensive coordinator after spending the previous two seasons tutoring the Miami Dolphins quarterbacks. Garrett, who was a back-up quarterback to Troy Aikman in Dallas from 1993 to 1999, rejoined the Cowboys with a great understanding of the championship heritage of the organization. As a player in Dallas, he was a member of teams that won six division titles and three Super Bowl championships.

As a player, Garrett worked under highly successful offensive coordinators Norv Turner and Ernie Zampese in Dallas while providing sideline assistance to Aikman for the majority of his Hall of Fame career. After moving to New York in 2000, he helped guide starting quarterback Kerry Collins and the Giants to an NFC Championship and a Super Bowl berth while working along side current Saints head coach Sean Payton, who was the team's offensive coordinator. Garrett also gained valuable experience in absorbing Head Coach Jon Gruden's offensive philosophies during a stint with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the closing months of his playing career in 2004.

He entered the coaching profession in February of 2005 as the quarterbacks coach for Nick Saban's first Miami Dolphins club. While in Miami, Garrett capably handled the challenge of having to work with five different starting quarterbacks over the course of 32 regular season games. In 2005 Miami quarterbacks threw 22 touchdowns with just 16 interceptions. Their plus-six differential was the team's best since the 1998 season when they were a plus-seven (23-16). In 2006 Garrett managed three starting quarterbacks for an offensive unit that produced four pass receivers who each had at least 55 receptions. It marked the first time in club history that four different receivers had at least 55 catches.

In his seven years as a player in Dallas, Garrett started nine of the 23 games in which he played. A key reserve player on two Super Bowl teams, he is best remembered for his Thanksgiving Day heroics in 1994. As the Cowboys third quarterback on the depth chart, he made his second career start against Green Bay after Aikman and backup quarterback Rodney Peete were felled with injuries in previous weeks. Garrett led Dallas to a thrilling 42-31 come-from-behind victory in which he directed the Cowboys to a club record 36 second half points with six consecutive second half scoring drives. He finished the day with 311 passing yards on 15 completions with two touchdown tosses and was named the NFC's Offensive Player of the Week. He went on to start five games in 1998 and two games in 1999 to finish his days in Dallas with a 6-3 record as a starting quarterback.

Garrett served as the primary backup to Kerry Collins during the New York Giants run to the Super Bowl in 2000, and played the entire fourth quarter of the NFC Championship Game that year. He spent the next three seasons with the Giants (2000-03).

He concluded his career by splitting the 2004 season with Tampa Bay and Miami. Overall in his 12 NFL seasons, Garrett started nine of the 40 regular season games in which he played and completed 165-of-294 passes for 2,042 yards with 11 touchdowns and five interceptions.

As a senior at Princeton University in 1988, Garrett was named the Ivy League's Player of the Year and honorable mention All American. He earned his degree in history in 1989, and moved on to the NFL as an undrafted rookie free agent with the Saints developmental squad. After being released prior to the 1990 season, he spent the fall of 1990 as an assistant coach at Princeton. In 1991 Garrett moved on to play in the World League and the Canadian Football League before joining the Cowboys practice squad in 1992.

Garrett, who prepped at University School in Chagrin Falls, Ohio, followed in his family footsteps in 2005. His father, Jim, spent more than 30 years in the NFL as a coach and scout. His brother, John, is now the tight ends coach with the Cowboys. Another brother, Judd, was a practice squad player for the 1993 Cowboys Super Bowl Championship club and is now with the Cowboys scouting department as the assistant director of pro scouting. His third brother, Jim, is the offensive coordinator for University School, a prep school in Ohio.

Jason and his wife, Brill, founded their charitable foundation, Jason Garrett Starfish Charities, in 1997 with the goal of enriching the lives of young people. The principle activity of the foundation is a one-day football camp and leadership forum for high school athletes that is held each summer at Princeton University in conjunction with Play It Smart, a program administered by the National Football Foundation.

Garrett resides in Dallas with his wife.

Jason Garrett – Born March 28, 1966, Abington, Pa. Quarterback Princeton 1987-88. Pro quarterback San Antonio Riders (World League) 1991, Ottawa RoughRiders (CFL) 1991, Dallas Cowboys 1993-99, New York Giants 2000-03, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Miami Dolphins 2004. College coach: Princeton 1990. Pro coach: Miami Dolphins 2005-06, Dallas Cowboys 2007.

JOHN GARRETT

Tight Ends

Princeton University
NFL: 14th Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

John Garrett returned to the NFL in February of 2007 after a three-year collegiate coaching stint at the University of Virginia under head coach Al Groh. While helping to continue the dramatic production of perennial Pro Bowl tight end Jason Witten in Dallas, Garrett also nurtured the depth and talent at the Cowboys tight end position into a unit that is one of the NFL's most productive and complete. He will be charged with breaking in Dallas's second round draft pick Martellus Bennett and introducing Bennett to the rigors of the NFL.

The trio of Witten, Anthony Fasano and Tony Curtis combined to form one of the most solid position groups on the Dallas roster in 2007 with each player making key individual contributions throughout the course of the season.

While earning a trip to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl in 2007, Witten finished the year second among all NFL tight ends (first in the NFC) in both receptions (96) and receiving yardage (1,145). Both totals represented club records for a Dallas tight end in a single season, and his reception total was the second-highest by any Dallas player, at any position, in team history. Among players at all positions in 2007, Witten was 10th in the NFL in receptions and seventh in receiving yardage. The 2007 season marked Witten's first career 1,000-yard receiving year and the first ever by a Dallas tight end. His career-high 15 receptions at Detroit also established a club record for catches in a game – while tying Kellen Winslow's NFL single-game mark for tight ends.

Fasano continued his development as a formidable blocker in the running game and a solid compliment to Witten in the two tight end set. He finished his second NFL season seventh on the club in receptions with 14 catches for 143 yards. Curtis also carved out a productive role in the short yardage offense and registered three receptions on the year – all of which resulted in Dallas touchdowns.

Garrett served as the Virginia wide receivers coach in all three of his seasons with the Cavaliers, and in 2006, he was handed the additional responsibilities of being Groh's assistant head coach. Prior to entering the collegiate ranks in 2004, Garrett had spent the previous 12 years in professional football, working both on the coaching and player personnel sides for three different NFL clubs.

In 2003 he was a scout for the Cincinnati Bengals after spending the previous two seasons (2001-2002) as a Bengals offensive assistant coach, working mostly with the tight ends.

In 1999 and 2000 Garrett was the quarterbacks coach in Arizona and was charged with the responsibility of guiding the development of Cardinals quarterback Jake Plummer. Plummer passed for over 5,000 yards in his two years under Garrett, and, by the end of the 2000 season, he became the fastest Cardinals quarterback to reach the 10,000 career passing yard milestone in club history.

Garrett's first tour of duty in Cincinnati was spent exclusively as a member of the Bengals coaching staff from 1995 to 1998. He was the club's wide receivers coach in 1996 and was an offensive assistant who worked regularly with the receivers during the other three seasons.

Garrett's post-playing football career began as a pro personnel assistant for Sam Wyche's Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1992 to 1994. In addition to his personnel duties with the Bucs, Garrett prepared for his coaching career by providing on-field coaching assistance with the receivers during the week while assisting the defensive staff in the press box on game days.

After an outstanding Ivy League career as a wide receiver at both Columbia and Princeton, Garrett earned a degree in history from Princeton in 1988. He spent time in the Dallas Cowboys training camp in 1988, before earning a roster spot with the Bengals in 1989. He spent seven weeks on the Buffalo Bills practice squad in 1991 after becoming one of the leading receivers for the San Antonio Riders of the World League of American Football the previous spring.

Garrett is a product of a football family that has enjoyed a long association with the National Football League. His father, Jim, spent more than 30 years as either a scout or assistant coach in the NFL, and 21 of those years were as a member of the Dallas Cowboys scouting staff. Garrett's brother Jason enjoyed an 11-year career as a back-up quarterback in the NFL including the 1993-99 seasons with the Cowboys and is now the assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys. His brother Judd was a practice squad player for the Cowboys 1993 Super Bowl Championship club, and is now part of the Cowboys scouting department as the assistant director of pro scouting. His third brother, Jim, is the offensive coordinator for University School, a prep school in Ohio.

Garrett graduated from the University School in Cleveland, Ohio in 1983. He and his wife Honor have four children – son John Morgan (5/20/95) and daughters Honor (9/13/96), Olivia (10/23/98) and Caroline (9/7/01).

TODD GRANTHAM

Defensive Line

Virginia Tech
NFL: 10th Year • Cowboys: 1st Year

Todd Grantham comes to Dallas in 2008 as the team's defensive line coach after helping the Cleveland Browns integrate the 3-4 defensive scheme from 2005-07 as the team's defensive coordinator. He inherits a Cowboys defensive line, unit that in 2007, produced 12.5 sacks, 18 tackles for losses and 58 quarterback pressures.

Grantham spent the previous three seasons as defensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns, and in total, has compiled nine years of professional experience with three years as a coordinator for Cleveland (2005-07) and six years as a defensive line coach for both the Houston Texans (2002-04) and Indianapolis Colts (1999-01). He also possesses nine additional years of coaching experience from the collegiate level.

In 2007 Cleveland surfaced as one of the most improved teams in the NFL by compiling a 10-6 record after posting a 4-12 mark in 2006. Under Grantham's watch, the 2007 Browns secondary tandem of cornerback Leigh Bodden and safety Sean Jones recorded a combined total 11 interceptions.

Bodden's six tied for fifth in the league, while Jones's five tied for ninth. Bodden also tied for third in the league with three fumble recoveries.

Grantham's defensive unit ranked 15th in the NFL in pass defense (202.6 yards-per-game) during the 2006 season, despite his secondary being decimated with injuries (defensive backs Daylon McCutcheon, Gary Baxter and Bodden). His secondary witnessed the emergence of safety Jones and defensive back Daven Holly, who tied for the team lead with five interceptions each.

In his first season with the Browns in 2005, Grantham led a defensive unit that converted to a 3-4 defensive scheme and finished first in the AFC in red zone defense (44.0 touchdown percentage), fourth in the NFL in pass defense (179.2 yards-per-game), 11th in points allowed (17.7 points-per-game) and tied for 16th in total defense (316.8 yards-per-game).

Prior to joining the Browns, Grantham served as the defensive line coach for the Houston Texans. In 2004 Grantham's line worked in a 3-4 scheme and, the Texans defense ranked 13th in the NFL against the run and had a streak of seven consecutive games without allowing a rushing score (10/10/04 - 11/28/04).

In 2003 Grantham's defensive line unit was devastated by injuries, as nose tackle Seth Payne suffered a season ending knee injury in Week 2 and Pro Bowl defensive end Gary Walker played in just four games due to shoulder and toe injuries. Despite the injuries, Grantham was able to mix and match his defensive linemen effectively as defensive tackle Jerry Deloach collected a career-high 109 tackles and nose tackle Steve Martin racked up 92 stops in only 14 games. In 2002 Grantham's three starters (Walker, Payne, Deloach) all produced career-high numbers in tackles and Walker earned his second Pro Bowl invitation after racking up 115 tackles and 6.5 sacks.

Grantham arrived in Houston in 2002 after spending the previous three seasons in the same capacity for the Indianapolis Colts. Grantham's charges registered 96 sacks over three seasons, helping the Colts post a 29-19 record and advance to the playoffs twice. Indianapolis's 10-win improvement from 1998 to 1999 marked the greatest one-season turnaround in league history. In 1999 and 2000 the Colts posted 56 sacks, the highest two-year total for the club since it moved to Indianapolis.

Prior to his stint in Indianapolis, Grantham served three seasons as the defensive line coach at Michigan State (1996-98). He added the title of assistant head coach in his final season in East Lansing in 1998. Michigan State ranked 19th in total defense in 1996 and 13th in 1997, making consecutive bowl trips.

Grantham also spent six seasons (1990-95) at his alma mater, Virginia Tech, the final two as defensive line coach. In 1995 the Hokies ranked first nationally in rushing defense, fifth in scoring defense and 10th in total defense. Virginia Tech racked up 50 sacks en route to the Big East title and a Sugar Bowl triumph over Texas in 1995. Grantham coached defensive ends and inside linebackers from 1990-91 and defensive tackles from 1992-93.

Grantham played guard and tackle for the Hokies from 1984-88. He earned second-team All-South and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. He earned a bachelor's degree in sports management. Grantham and his wife, Paige, have a son, Corbin, and a daughter, Olivia.

REGGIE HERRING

Linebackers
Florida State
NFL: 3rd Year • Cowboys: 1st Year

Reggie Herring was added to the coaching staff as linebackers coach on February 9, 2008. He inherits a strong linebacker group, including two Pro Bowlers – DeMarcus Ware and Greg Ellis – who set career-highs in sacks last season with 14.0 and 12.5, respectively. In addition to Ware and Ellis, Herring will help continue the development of Bradie James who led the team in tackles the last three seasons. Herring will also be aided by the signing of All-Pro Zach Thomas in addition to Kevin Burnett and two former first round selections Bobby Carpenter (2006) and Anthony Spencer (2007) to round out a solid linebacker corps in Dallas.

Herring was most recently named the defensive coordinator at Texas A&M on January 4, 2008 under Mike Sherman. Before joining the Aggies, Herring spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Arkansas. Herring served as the interim head coach for the Razorbacks in the 2008 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. While guiding the defensive effort in Fayetteville, the Razorbacks won the 2006 Southeastern Conference Western Division and played in two bowl games, the Cotton (2008) and the Capital One (2007).

His 2006 defensive squad ranked 33rd in rushing defense (114.6), 18th in pass efficiency defense (107.8) and 24th in scoring defense (18.3). In 2006 Herring was named as one-of-five finalists for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach. He was also named the Master

Coach Survey National Defensive Coordinator of the Week following Arkansas' 31-14 victory over Tennessee that same season.

Before going to Arkansas, Herring was the defensive coordinator at North Carolina State in 2004. The Wolfpack defense led the country in total defense allowing only 221.4 yards-per-game after ranking 89th the previous season. North Carolina State also led the country in pass efficiency defense (91.8), was second in total pass defense (119.0), 13th in rushing defense (102.4) and 25th in scoring defense (19.8).

Herring spent two years in the NFL (2002-03) with the Houston Texans as the linebackers coach under head coach Dom Capers. In 2003 Texans linebacker Jamie Sharper led the NFL with 164 tackles.

From 1994-2001, he served as the linebackers coach and in 1997, he added the title of defensive coordinator at Clemson under head coaches Tommy West and Tommy Bowden. In 2000 he coached Butkus Award finalist Keith Adams who ended the year as the NCAA's leading tackler. Herring was part of seven bowl teams at Clemson, four in the Peach Bowl, two in the Gator and one in the Humanitarian.

Herring's first coordinator experience came at TCU under head coach Pat Sullivan in 1992 and 1993.

Herring coached linebackers under head coach Pat Dye at Auburn from 1986-91. During those six years, the Tigers won three SEC Championships and made five bowl appearances including two trips to the Sugar Bowl and one each to the Citrus, Peach and Hall of Fame bowls.

Herring began his coaching career in 1981 as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State under head coach Jimmy Johnson. Johnson promoted Herring to a full-time position coaching linebackers in 1982. He remained on the staff of Johnson and Pat Jones through the 1985 season. The Cowboys made four bowl trips during that time, two to the Peach and one each to the Independence and the Bluebonnet.

A Florida State Hall of Fame selection in 1989, Herring was a three-year starting linebacker for head coach Bobby Bowden from 1978-80. He led the Seminoles in tackles all three years and is still the third-leading tackler in FSU history. He played in three bowl games, the Tangerine and the Orange as a junior and senior. The final two seasons the Seminoles finished in the top 10 posting records of 11-1 in 1979 and 10-2 in 1980. Herring was a team captain his senior season.

Herring is married to the former Lisa Ward of Griffin, Georgia. The couple has a daughter, Caroline, and a son, Adam, who is a freshman linebacker at Auburn.

HUDSON HOUCK

Offensive Line
USC
NFL: 26th Year • Cowboys: 10th Year

With 25 years of NFL experience, Hudson Houck returns to Dallas in 2008 as one of the most experienced and respected offensive line coaches in the NFL. In his previous tour of duty with the Cowboys (1993-2001), Houck was a productive member of a coaching staff that helped bring Super Bowl titles to Dallas following the 1993 and 1995 seasons.

Much in the same manner that he tutored an all-star cast of offensive linemen in Dallas in the mid-1990s, Houck will again oversee a group that is considered one of the league's most talented and complete. All five starters return from last year's club that helped produce a 13-3 record. That group includes Pro Bowlers Flozell Adams, Andre Gurode and Leonard Davis.

In addition to being reunited with Adams, a player Dallas drafted in 1998 while Houck was the Cowboys offensive line coach, he is also serving on the same coaching staff with Wade Phillips for the second time as both men were assistant coaches under Marty Schottenheimer in San Diego in 2004.

Hired by Dallas on January 18, 2008, Houck spent the previous three seasons in a rebuilding process as the offensive line coach for the Miami Dolphins.

In 2005 and 2006 he directed a Dolphins line that helped produce a team rushing average of 4.0-or-better in both seasons, marking the first time since the 1986 and 1987 campaigns that Miami had topped the 4.0-yard plateau in consecutive years. Immediately after taking charge of the line in 2005, Houck produced a unit that ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks allowed with 26 – a figure that was half the total permitted by the club in the season before his arrival.

With the Chargers in 2004, Houck helped to revitalize an offensive line which featured five new starters from the previous year. The Chargers ranked 10th in the NFL in total offense, and sixth on the ground, as they rushed for 136.6 yards-per-contest. LaDainian Tomlinson ran for more than 1,300 yards in each of Houck's three years there, including more than 1,600 in his first two. The Chargers line permitted just 21 sacks in 2004, the fourth-lowest total in the NFL and the eighth-fewest in that franchise's 45-year history. Overall in Houck's three seasons with the Chargers, the offensive line allowed an average of only 24.6 sacks-per-season. Their total of 74 sacks over a three-year period was the fourth-lowest in the NFL over this stretch.

During his previous nine-year stint as the offensive line coach in Dallas, Houck was a part of Cowboys teams that won five division titles, advanced to three NFC Championship Games and captured world championships in 1993 and 1995. From 1994 to 1997 Houck also held the additional responsibilities of being the Cowboys assistant head coach.

Under Houck's guidance from 1993 to 2001, the Cowboys line permitted a total of only 203 sacks, the lowest figure in the NFL during that time. They yielded less than 20 sacks three times and less than 30 on six occasions. Under Houck, six different Dallas offensive linemen made a total of 22 trips to the Pro Bowl. That group included Larry Allen (7 trips), Nate Newton (5), Erik Williams (4), Ray Donaldson (2), Mark Stepnoski (2) and Mark Tuinei (2). The unit helped Emmitt Smith to a pair of NFL rushing titles over this nine-year stretch as he ran for more than 1,000 yards each time.

Prior to his time with the Cowboys, Houck spent one year (1992) tutoring the offensive line with the Seattle Seahawks when Chris Warren rushed for 1,017 yards – the first time in his career that he reached the 1,000-yard mark. That came on the heels of another successful nine-year run with the Los Angeles Rams from 1983-91. Over that time with the Rams, there were seven different individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons and four individual league rushing titles, including an NFL-record 2,105 yards by Eric Dickerson in 1984. Over that stretch, five different Rams offensive linemen were voted to a combined 21 Pro Bowls, including Jackie Slater (7 trips), Doug Smith (6), Kent Hill (3), Dennis Harrah (3) and Tom Newberry (2). In the final three years of Houck's tenure with the Rams, quarterback Jim Everett passed for more yards than any other signal caller over this span, and he also did not miss a start from 1988-91.

Overall in his 25 years as an NFL assistant, Houck's lines have paved the way for 20 individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons. The running backs who benefitted from the blocking, who also have compiled six NFL rushing titles, consist of Smith (Dallas, 9), Dickerson (Rams, 4), Tomlinson (San Diego, 3), Greg Bell (Rams, 2), Ronnie Brown (Miami, 1), Warren (Seattle, 1) and Charles White (Rams, 1).

Before embarking on his NFL coaching career, Houck tutored the offensive line at his alma mater, USC, from 1976-82. During this time, he helped send numerous Trojans to the NFL including Marvin Powell, Pat Howell, Brad Budde, Anthony Muñoz, Keith Van Horne, Chris Foote, Roy Foster, Bruce Matthews, Don Mosebar and Tony Slaton, among others. This group helped lead the way for Heisman Trophy-winning running backs White and Marcus Allen, in addition to another USC great Bell, an NFL first-round draft choice in 1977.

Houck was a center at USC from 1962-64 and was part of the Trojans 1962 national championship squad. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Crescenta Valley (Calif.) High School in 1966. After serving two years in the United States Army, Houck returned for one season at Crescenta. He then moved on to coach the freshmen team at USC from 1970-71 before becoming Stanford's offensive line coach in 1972, a position he held for four seasons. In his first year with the Cardinals, he also was the freshman coach.

A Los Angeles native, Houck attended Eagle Rock High School in Los Angeles. He has a son, Troy. His wife Elsie, has two children, Scott and Holly.

JOE JURASZEK

(jer-AH-sick)

Strength and Conditioning

New Mexico

NFL: 12th Year • Cowboys: 12th Year

Joe Juraszek joined the Cowboys staff as the strength and conditioning coach in February, 1997 and implemented a hands-on approach that stresses strength development, cardiovascular conditioning, flexibility and speed work. His ability to tailor workout programs to individual player needs based on the player's input and workout history has earned him the respect and admiration of the players and the coaching staff.

The rapport Juraszek has developed with the players is evident in the number of participants in his offseason conditioning program each spring. The impact of this intensive program can be seen on the field with the successes of seasoned veterans and in the continued development and contributions from younger players like Chris Canty, Terence Newman, DeMarcus Ware and Jason Witten.

Along with overseeing the strength and conditioning program for the team, Juraszek works with the Cowboys medical staff implementing rehabilitation programs for injured players. His work within these rehab programs has allowed players to return to the field quickly and, usually, stronger. He spent much of the 2005 season and all of the 2006 offseason working closely with Marc Colombo, who returned to start and anchor the right side of the offensive line throughout the 2006 and 2007 seasons. He also worked with Flozell Adams and Kevin Burnett to help them overcome injuries and be ready to go for September. He worked closely with linebacker Greg Ellis in the 2007 offseason to allow him to return to the playing field a year after suffering a ruptured Achilles tendon and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. In addition, he spent the entire 2007 season working with wide receiver Terry Glenn, who underwent two knee surgeries prior to the start of the season. Despite missing 15 regular season games, Glenn was able to take the field in the season finale and the club's Divisional Playoff Game.

Juraszek came to Dallas after serving as the University of Oklahoma strength coach from 1993-96. He joined the Sooners after serving as the strength coach at Texas Tech University from 1987-92. He was a graduate assistant then a full-time assistant strength coach for Oklahoma from 1981-86.

He attended the University of New Mexico from 1976-81, where he played linebacker and defensive end for the Lobos while earning bachelor's degrees in Physical Education/Health and Economics. He added a master's degree while serving as a graduate assistant strength coach at Oklahoma.

In 2001 Juraszek was a panel member for the "Get & Stay Fit" Family First Town Meeting hosted by WFAA-TV, Dallas's ABC affiliate. He joined Dr. Kenneth Cooper, founder and president of the Cooper Fitness Center and Clinic in Dallas, and Dr. Joel Steinberg, Medical Director of Children's Medical Center of Dallas, in providing advice on exercise training, preventative health tips and the latest facts on dieting.

A native of Chicago, Ill., Juraszek and his wife, Camille, have a daughter, Nikki Jo (7/25/90), and a son, J.D. (9/9/92).

Joe Juraszek – Born June 8, 1958, Chicago, Ill. Linebacker/Defensive End New Mexico 1976-80. No pro playing experience. College coach: Oklahoma 1981-86, 1993-96, Texas Tech 1987-92. Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 1997-2007.

BRETT MAXIE

Assistant Secondary

Texas Southern
NFL: 10th Year • Cowboys: 1st Year

Brett Maxie enters his first season with Dallas looking to continue an already standout NFL career as both a coach in his 10th season, and as a former player who spent 13 years in the league. He was previously with the Miami Dolphins in 2007 where he served as a secondary coach with an emphasis on the safeties.

In his only season with Miami, Maxie helped oversee a defense that finished fourth in the NFL in passing defense as the Dolphins limited opponents to 188.7 passing yards-per-game. While under his watch, Maxie's defensive backs also recorded nine of the team's 14 interceptions during the 2007 season.

As defensive backs coach with the Atlanta Falcons for three seasons (2004-06), he oversaw the development of cornerback DeAngelo Hall, a first-round draft choice in 2004, who totaled 10 interceptions in two seasons (2005-06) and was selected to the NFC Pro Bowl during both of those seasons. In Maxie's first year with the Falcons, the defense recorded a club-record five defensive touchdowns, four of which came via interceptions.

Prior to his tenure in Atlanta, Maxie spent five seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including 1999-2001 as the team's assistant secondary coach and 2002-03 as secondary coach. In those final two years, safety Tony Parrish collected 16 interceptions, the highest total in the NFL over that stretch. The total included nine in 2003 which tied for the highest figure in the NFL. Maxie got his start as an NFL assistant in 1998 when he served as defensive backs/defensive quality control coach with the Carolina Panthers, under Dom Capers, Maxie's former secondary coach when he played for New Orleans (1986-91).

Maxie's coaching tenure followed a 13-year playing career which started as an undrafted college free agent with New Orleans in 1985. In his career, he played with the Saints (1985-93), Atlanta (1994), Carolina (1995-96) and San Francisco (1997). He appeared in 153 regular season games, including 104 starts, and recorded 23 career interceptions, three of which he returned for touchdowns. Maxie also played for the Panthers while Capers was the head coach.

A native of Dallas, Texas, Maxie played collegiately at Texas Southern, where he earned his degree in biology. Maxie and his wife, Angela, have two sons, Brett and Adam, and two daughters, Maya and Olivia.

Brett Maxie – Born January 13, 1962, Dallas, Texas. Safety Texas Southern 1982-84. Pro: Safety New Orleans Saints 1985-93, Atlanta Falcons 1994, Carolina Panthers 1995-96, San Francisco 49ers 1997. Pro coach: Carolina Panthers 1998, San Francisco 49ers 1999-2003, Atlanta Falcons 2004-06, Miami Dolphins 2007, joined Dallas Cowboys in 2008.

DAT NGUYEN

Assistant Linebacker/ Defensive Assistant
Texas A&M
NFL: 2nd Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

As one of the most popular Dallas Cowboys players in recent years, Dat Nguyen brought his vast knowledge of the defensive game to the Dallas coaching staff in 2007 after just one year removed from the playing field. Nguyen, who distinguished himself as one of the most dedicated and determined players to play for both the Dallas Cowboys and the Texas A&M Aggies, will again assist with the linebackers as well as handle the defensive quality control for the Cowboys in 2008.

In his first season as a coach, Nguyen assisted a group of linebackers that posted 32.5 of the clubs 46.0 total sacks on the year. In addition, DeMarcus Ware finished with a single-season career-best and club linebacker record 14.0 sacks while Greg Ellis added a single-season career-best 12.5 sacks in just 13 games played. Dallas's pass rushing linebacker duo also became just the second in club history to produce 10-or-more sacks each. Following the season, Ware earned his second consecutive selection as a Pro Bowl starter and Ellis his first career selection.

A seven-year NFL veteran, Nguyen was originally drafted in the third round (85th overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft by Dallas. He made a vivid impact on the team from the very beginning of his career, leading the Cowboys in special teams tackles as a rookie and becoming Dallas' starting middle linebacker in his second season.

Nagging injuries forced Nguyen into a premature retirement in 2005, as he closed his NFL career with 665 total tackles, six sacks and seven interceptions. The first NFL player of Vietnamese heritage, Nguyen led the team in tackles in three of his final five seasons as a Cowboy, and he was the first Dallas player to lead the club in tackles in consecutive years (2003 and 2004) since Ken Norton Jr. (1992 and 1993).

He finished his senior season with a career-high 147 tackles, becoming the first player in school history to lead Texas A&M in tackles four straight seasons. Following that stellar season, he received All-America honors as well the Lombardi Trophy and the Chuck Bednarik Award. He closed his collegiate career with A&M records for consecutive starts (51), tackles (517) and tackles-per-game (10.7). Nguyen graduated from Texas A&M with a degree in agricultural development in August 1998 and took postgraduate classes during his senior football season. As a player with the Cowboys, he took on an active volunteer role in the Dallas community. While becoming a very popular and productive role model in the Asian community, Nguyen has served a wide range of charitable organizations in both Dallas and Tarrant Counties.

Dat and his wife, Becky, have two daughters, Aubrey Mai and Remi Linh.

Dat Nguyen – Born September 25, 1975, Ft. Chaffee, Ark. Linebacker Texas A&M 1995-1998. Pro: Linebacker Dallas Cowboys 1999-2005. Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 2007.

SKIP PEETE

Running Backs
Kansas
NFL: 11th Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

Skip Peete arrived in Dallas on Feb. 15, 2007 to coach the club's running backs after spending nine seasons in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders. In his first season in Dallas, Peete's running back tandem of Marion Barber and Julius Jones teamed for 1,563 yards and 12 touchdowns on 368 carries. They were one of just three running back pairs in the league to each have 150-or-more carries and 550-or-more rushing yards. Under Peete's watch, Barber emerged as an all-around threat after spending the first two seasons of his career primarily as a third down and short yardage back. Barber set career numbers with 204 carries for 975 yards to go with his 10 touchdowns and earned his first career Pro Bowl selection despite seeing time as a reserve through the entire regular season. In Barber's lone start of the season – the Divisional Playoff Game – he rushed for a career-best 129 yards and a touchdown on a career-best 27 carries.

In 2006 Peete's work with the Raiders running backs allowed fourth-year man Justin Fargas to rush for his then single-season career-best yardage total (659). The prior season saw LaMont Jordan reach 1,025 yards – the first 1,000-yard season of his career. Jordan also rushed for nine touchdowns, a single-season personal best. Jordan added 70 receptions for 563 yards and two touchdowns.

Peete's running back corps helped the Raiders lead the NFL in total offense, win the 2002 AFC Championship and move on to Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego. Under Peete the Raiders led the NFL in rushing in 2000 at almost 155 yards-per-game. Tyrone Wheatley led the 2000 team with 1,046 yards on the ground.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Peete spent two seasons at UCLA, helping coach Skip Hicks to consecutive 1,000-yard and 20-plus touchdown seasons. He was the wide receivers coach at Rutgers (1995) and Michigan State (1993-94). At Michigan State he coached Derrick Mason and Muhsin Muhammad. Peete was on the University of Pittsburgh coaching staff from 1988-92. While with the Panthers, he coached the running backs (1991-92) and mentored future New York Jets rusher Curtis Martin. Peete worked with Pitt's wide receivers (1989-90) after serving one season as a graduate assistant in 1988.

The Phoenix native began his collegiate playing career at the University of Arizona before transferring to Kansas. While at Kansas, Peete was an All-Big Eight wide receiver in 1985 and was voted team captain as a senior in 1986. In 1987 Peete was a wide receiver and played on special teams for the N.Y. Jets. His father Willie is a longtime college and NFL coach and was also a member of the Chicago Bears pro player personnel department. His brother, Rodney, is a former NFL quarterback who played 16 seasons including the 1994 season with the Cowboys. He is currently one of the hosts on Fox Sports Net's "The Best Damn Sports Show Period." He and his wife, Rebeca, have twins, a boy and a girl.

Skip Peete – Born January 30, 1963, Phoenix, Ariz. College: Wide receiver University of Arizona 1981-82, University of Kansas 1984-85. Pro: Wide receiver New York Jets 1987. College Coach: University of Pittsburgh 1988-92, Michigan State 1993-94, Rutgers University 1995, UCLA 1996-97. Pro Coach: Oakland Raiders 1998-2006, Dallas Cowboys 2007.

WES PHILLIPS

Quality Control/ Offensive Assistant

Texas El Paso

NFL: 2nd Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

Wes Phillips joined the Dallas Cowboys in 2007 as the club's quality control/offensive assistant coach after coaching quarterbacks at the collegiate level for four years. In 2008 Phillips will continue in his role of breaking down film of upcoming opponents' defenses, composing each week's playbooks while also running the scout team in practices.

Before landing in Dallas, Phillips coached the quarterbacks in 2006 at Baylor under offensive coordinator Lee Hays. His work with quarterback Shawn Bell paid dividends as Bell threw for career-highs in attempts (383), completions (241), yards (2,582) and touchdowns (19) before his season was cut short with a season-ending knee injury. Despite missing the final three games of the 2006 campaign, Bell's passing numbers established school single-season records.

Prior to his one-year stint at Baylor, Phillips spent two seasons as the quarterbacks coach at West Texas A&M University under Hays. The Buffaloes celebrated their most successful season in almost 55 years in 2005, finishing 10-2 to post their first winning season since 1998, and the program's first 10-win season since 1950. WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference with an 8-1 record, its first league title since 1986 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA D-II Playoffs for the first time in school history.

Phillips was an assistant coach at WTAMU and helped the school lead the 2005 Division II ranks in passing offense, racking up 363.8 yards-per-game. He tutored quarterback Dalton Bell who was a finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which goes to the top Division II player. Bell completed 68.5 percent of his passes for 3,799 yards and 30 touchdowns with 13 interceptions on 454 attempts. He finished third nationally in total offensive yards (349.2) and established school and conference single-season records for total offense (3,843) and passing yards (3,799).

Prior to joining the WTAMU staff, Phillips spent one season as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, UTEP, and played two seasons at quarterback for the San Diego Riptide of the af2.

A three-year letterwinner at UTEP (1999-2001), Phillips was a member of the 2000 Miners team that shared the WAC title, posted the school's highest win total in more than a decade and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. Phillips still ranks among the school's single-season leaders in both pass efficiency (ninth – 120.0 in 2001) and completion percentage (eighth – 55.6 in 2001).

Phillips received his degree in philosophy from UTEP in 2001.

Wes Phillips – Born February 17, 1979, Houston, Texas. College: Quarterback UTEP 1997-2001. Pro: Quarterback San Diego Riptide (af2) 2002-03. College coach: UTEP 2003, West Texas A&M 2004-05, Baylor 2006. Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 2007.

BRUCE READ

Special Teams

Portland State

NFL: 7th Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

Bruce Read enters his seventh professional season and his second with the Dallas Cowboys as the special teams coach. He was hired by Cowboys head coach Wade Phillips on February 22, 2007.

In Read's first season in Dallas, the Cowboys drafted kicker Nick Folk who went on to beat out veteran kicker Martin Gramatica and earn his first Pro Bowl selection. Folk finished the year with 131 points, setting a club rookie record. His 131 points was also good for fourth in the league among kickers. Return man Miles Austin finished the year ninth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in kickoff returns with an average of 25.5 on 24 attempts. The special teams unit also turned in a touchdown as Chris Canty blocked a Minnesota (10/21) field goal attempt that Patrick Watkins picked up and returned 48 yards for the score.

Read spent three years (2004-06) serving as the special teams coordinator at Oregon State. His 2006 unit was among the best in Beavers history as Sammie Stroughter set the school record with three punt returns for touchdowns and Alexis Serna – a Lou Groza recipient – set a school record with 106 consecutive made extra point attempts.

No stranger to the NFC East, Read spent the 2002 and 2003 seasons as the special teams coach for the New York Giants. In 2003 the Giants special teams units produced improved numbers in six-of-eight special teams statistical categories.

Read also served as the special teams coach for the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2001. The Chargers led the NFL in 2001 with a kickoff return average of 26.0 yards, 4.4 yards more than the NFL average that season. The team also had the NFL's best starting average field position (33.1-yard line) following a kickoff. The Chargers finished seventh in the league in net average on punt coverage. San Diego did not allow a special teams touchdown while their special teams units scored four times. Punter Darren Bennett earned a trip to the Pro Bowl in 2000, leading the NFL with a 46.2-yard gross average. The team did not have a punt blocked in Read's three seasons with the Chargers. In 1999 Read's first year in San Diego, the Chargers led the league in net punting average (38.7).

Read served as special teams coach at Oregon State from 1997-98, his first tenure with the Beavers, where the special teams blocked 15 kicks (eight field goal or PAT attempts and seven punts) under his guidance. In 1998 OSU ranked second in the Pac-10 in field goal percentage (.654) connecting on 17-of-26 attempts.

Read began his coaching career in 1985 at the University of Montana and was named the special teams coach in 1987 where he remained for 10 years. During his tenure, the Grizzlies broke 20 special teams records as a team along with 11 individual kicking game records.

Read attended the Oregon Institute of Technology in 1981 and 1982 before finishing his college education at Portland State, earning a bachelor's degree in social science in 1986.

Read and his wife, Christina, have two sons, Justin (7/12/86) and Joshua (8/2/92).

Bruce Read – Born January 21, 1962, Santa Rosa, Calif. No pro playing experience. College coach: Montana 1985-96, Oregon State 1997-98 and 2004-06. Pro coach: San Diego Chargers 1999-2001, New York Giants 2002-03, Dallas Cowboys 2007.

RAY SHERMAN

Wide Receivers

Fresno State

NFL: 21st Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

Ray Sherman begins his 35th year in coaching, his 21st as an NFL assistant and his second with the Dallas Cowboys. In 2007 – his first year in Dallas – Sherman was expecting to work with one of the league's most productive receiving combinations in Terry Glenn and Terrell Owens. Instead, Sherman was charged with the task of working in first time starter Patrick Crayton after Glenn underwent two knee surgeries prior to the start of the season. Under Sherman's tutelage, Owens had one of the most productive seasons of his career and one of the best in team history. Owens set a club record for touchdowns in a season (15), breaking Frank Clarke's mark of 14 set in 1962. On the year, Owens had six 100-yard games – tying the second most in a season in his career and tying the third-most by a receiver in team history. He also topped 1,000 yards for the second consecutive season and the eighth time of his career. Sherman's work with Crayton allowed him to set career-bests with 50 catches for 697 yards and seven touchdowns. Along the way, Crayton had his best game as a pro, catching seven passes for 184 yards and two touchdowns against St. Louis (9/30). The absence of Glenn also allowed Sherman to work in second-year receivers Miles Austin and Sam Hurd. While the two saw most of their action in three and four receiver formations, Hurd earned two starts and collected his first career touchdown catch.

Before landing in Dallas, Sherman spent two seasons (2005-06) coaching the Tennessee Titans receivers. Despite working with a rookie quarterback in Vince Young in 2006, Sherman's top receivers (Drew Bennett and Bobby Wade) enjoyed their best single-season averages for yards-per-catch (Bennett – 16.0 and Wade – 14.0), while second-year receiver Brandon Jones bettered his rookie numbers with 27 receptions for 384 yards (14.2 avg.) and four touchdowns.

In his first year with the Titans (2005), Sherman mentored a trio of rookie draft picks – Brandon Jones, Courtney Roby and Roydell Williams – along with veteran Drew Bennett in the lead receiver role. The three rookie receivers, along with rookie tight end Bo Scaife became the first quartet of rookie pass catchers to each collect at least 20 receptions since the 1968 Buffalo Bills (Max Anderson, Gary McDermott, Haven Moses, and Richard Trapp). Each of Sherman's three rookie receivers earned starting nods at some point during the season.

Before landing in Tennessee, Sherman spent five seasons (2000-04) as the wide receivers coach for the Green Bay Packers. During his run in Green Bay, Sherman helped develop a corps of young receivers – Javon Walker, Donald Driver and Robert Ferguson – into elite receivers with Driver (2002, 2006 and 2007) and Ferguson (2005) earning trips to the Pro Bowl. In 2004 Driver and Walker ranked second in the NFL for yards by a receiver combination (2,590) and Walker was third in the league with 1,382 yards with 12 touchdowns in just his third NFL season. In 2002 the Packers led the league with 29 touchdown receptions.

Prior to coaching in Green Bay, Sherman was the offensive coordinator for the Minnesota Vikings (1999) and Pittsburgh Steelers (1998). The Vikings offense ranked third in the league in total offense and had the fifth best passing attack in the league. While with the Steelers, Sherman's offense featured a running attack that finished seventh in the league. Sherman was the quarterbacks coach (1995-97) for the Vikings before guiding the offense in Pittsburgh. Minnesota quarterback Warren Moon led the NFL in completions (377) and matched a career-high in touchdowns (33) under Sherman's tutelage. From 1996-97 Sherman oversaw the maturation of Brad Johnson into a starter as he ranked in the top-five in the league each season in passer rating. Before his first stint in Minnesota, Sherman coordinated Pete Carroll's offense in 1994 – Carroll's only season as the N.Y. Jets head coach.

Sherman spent three seasons (1991-93) with the San Francisco 49ers, first as their running backs coach (1991) then as the receivers coach (1992-93). Under Sherman's guidance, Jerry Rice had one of the best seasons of his career in 1993, recording 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns en route to earning AP Offensive Player of the Year honors. Sherman followed Jerry Glanville to the Atlanta Falcons and spent one season (1990) as the Falcons assistant head coach/offense. He helped the Falcons finish 10th in the league in scoring and total offense after finishing in the bottom third the previous season.

Sherman made his NFL coaching debut under Glanville with the Houston Oilers as the team's running backs coach (1988). In his second season in Houston, he coached the club's receivers.

After playing wide receiver and defensive back at Fresno State, Sherman began a 14-year collegiate coaching career. He began as a graduate assistant at San Jose State (1974), then coached defensive backs at California (1975), tight ends at Michigan State (1976-77), running backs at Wake Forest (1978-80), running backs/slot backs at California (1981), running backs at Purdue (1982-85) and wide receivers at Georgia (1986-87).

Sherman and his wife Yvette have two children, Erica (15) and Alana (eight). His first child, Ray II, passed away in 2003.

Ray Sherman – Born November 27, 1951, Berkeley, Calif. Wide receiver/defensive back Fresno State. College coach: San Jose State 1974, University of California 1975 and 1981, Michigan State 1976-77, Wake Forest 1978-80, Purdue 1982-85, University of Georgia 1986-87. Pro coach: Houston Oilers 1988-89, Atlanta Falcons 1990, San Francisco 49ers 1991-93, New York Jets 1994, Minnesota Vikings 1995-97 and 1999, Pittsburgh Steelers 1998, Green Bay Packers 2000-04, Tennessee Titans 2005-06, Dallas Cowboys 2007.

BRIAN STEWART

Defensive Coordinator

Northern Arizona
NFL: 7th Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year

On February 28, 2007, Wade Phillips put the final piece of his original coaching staff design in place for the Dallas Cowboys by bringing Brian Stewart to the staff after Stewart turned in a productive three-year stint as the secondary coach with the San Diego Chargers. While in San Diego, Stewart worked directly under the Cowboys head coach and became very familiar with the "Phillips 3-4" scheme.

In his inaugural season as an NFL coordinator, Stewart guided a Dallas defense that finished the season ninth in the NFL (fourth in the NFC) in total defense after allowing an average of 307.6 yards-per-game. Dallas was sixth in the NFL in defense against the run (third in the NFC) as the Cowboys allowed an average of 94.6 yards-per-game on the ground. The 2007 club was 13th in the NFL (fourth in the NFC) in pass defense with an average of 213.1 yards-per-game allowed through the air.

In 2007 the Cowboys allowed just seven of their 16 opponents to rush for more than 100 yards. Only one individual runner – Washington's Clinton Portis (104 yards) in the last game of the year – topped the 100-yard barrier against Dallas in 2007. The 2007 club also finished the year with 46 sacks, marking the team's highest sack total since the 1994 team had 47.

Along the way, the Cowboys tied the club record for regular season victories (13), while winning the team's first division title since 1998. In 2007 Stewart guided the fortunes of five defensive players who earned selections to the Pro Bowl. That figure represented the most defensive Pro Bowl selections by a Dallas team since the 1978 club also sent five to the all-star game. The 2007 Dallas contingent included DeMarcus Ware, Roy Williams and three players who made their first ever trips to Hawaii in Greg Ellis, Ken Hamlin and Terence Newman.

In his final season with the Chargers in 2006, the team registered a 14-2 record and earned the AFC Western Division crown. The 2006 Chargers ranked third in the NFL in average gain-per-opponents' passing play (5.36 yards), while closing the season seventh in the NFL in scoring defense (18.9 points-per-game) and second in sacks-per-passing play. The San Diego secondary also provided the coverage that helped the Charger's defense lead the league in total sacks with 61.

Under Stewart's guidance in 2006, cornerback Quentin Jammer tied his career-high single-season performance with a team-leading four interceptions, while fellow corner Drayton Florence added three interceptions and safety Clinton Hart had another three. San Diego finished the year 10th in overall defense (301.6 yards-per-game) and 13th in the NFL in passing yardage (200.8).

While working along side Phillips for his entire three-year tenure in San Diego, Stewart's presence on the Chargers secondary helped the club make a dramatic – and immediate – improvement in its pass defense. In the season prior to his arrival (2003), San Diego allowed 36 touchdown passes. In Stewart's first two seasons on the job (2004 and 2005), the Chargers allowed a combined total of 38 opponents' scoring passes.

Stewart's first NFL coaching opportunity came with the expansion Houston Texans in 2002 where he assumed the role of assistant defensive backs coach for two years under head coach Dom Capers. He originally found his way to the NFL through the League's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, working at training camps with both the Seattle Seahawks and Washington Redskins.

Prior to joining the NFL, Stewart spent one season (2001) as the defensive backs coach at Syracuse University where he worked with former SU head coach and former Dallas Cowboys linebackers coach Paul Pasqualoni. The 2001 Orangemen finished 10-3 and forced the second-most turnovers in the Big East Conference.

As an assistant at Missouri, from 1999-2000, he mentored two-time All-Big 12 free safety Julian Jones, who led the conference in 1999 with six interceptions. Stewart coached defensive backs for San Jose State University from 1997-98. In 1996 he served as a defensive graduate assistant at Missouri. Stewart also coached tight ends and special teams at Northern Arizona University in 1995.

He began his collegiate coaching career as an offensive assistant at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, working with the wide receivers in 1993 and running backs in 1994.

Stewart played both cornerback and free safety in college. He began his collegiate career at Northern Arizona University, then transferred to Santa Monica City College for two seasons before graduating from Northern Arizona with a degree in criminal justice.

Stewart conducts a free one-day football camp for kids 7-18 in his hometown and hosts ASR – a sports retreat for minority coaches and administrators.

Stewart attended Nogales High School in La Puente, Calif. He and his wife, Kimberly, have two daughters, Leila (9/11/01) and Mya (11/7/07).

WADE WILSON

Quarterbacks
East Texas State
NFL: 8th Year • Cowboys: 5th Year

Wade Wilson returned to the Dallas Cowboys organization as the quarterbacks coach in 2007 after spending the previous three seasons with the Chicago Bears in the same capacity. A native Texan with football roots that go back to his high school and collegiate career as a quarterback, Wilson, recognized around the NFL as a solid teacher of young quarterbacks, will again handle the responsibility of continuing to develop Tony Romo into the quarterback of the future for the Cowboys.

In his first season back with Dallas, Wilson's work with Romo allowed the first-time starter to rewrite club passing records. Under Wilson, Romo was the league's fifth-rated passer (97.4) – good for third in club annals. His 4,211 passing yards allowed the fifth-year veteran to become the first quarterback in club history to top 4,000 passing yards. Romo completed 335 passes which topped Danny White's single-season franchise record set in 1983 and shattered White's record of 29 passing touchdowns, finishing with 36. Romo also became the first signal caller in franchise history to throw four touchdowns in back-to-back games. On the season, he logged four games with four-or-more touchdown passes, also establishing a club record. Among the many other accomplishments of the young starter, Romo finished 2007 with seven games of 300-or-more passing yards, another team record.

In 2006 Wilson's guidance helped steer fourth-year quarterback Rex Grossman in leading the Bears to an NFC title and a berth in the Super Bowl. Prior to the season, Grossman had started just seven games in three injury riddled years. Grossman threw 23 touchdown passes in his first full year as a starter, while directing Chicago to a 13-3 regular season record.

Through Wilson's first two seasons in Chicago (2004-05), rookie quarterbacks started 20 of the team's 32 regular season games while posting a 13-7 record. Under Wilson in 2005, rookie Kyle Orton was named the Bears starter late in the preseason. Orton went on to win nine of his first 12 starts in 2005 and finished the year with 10 wins – the most for a rookie drafted in the fourth round or later since the common draft was instituted in 1967. His 10 wins were also the second-best for a rookie passer during that span, behind Ben Roethlisberger in 2004. His eight-game win streak was also the second-longest by a rookie passer in the NFL dating back to 1970.

Wilson's first season in Chicago (2004) was marked by four starting quarterbacks each starting at least three games. Grossman began the season as the starter, but was lost for the year due to injury. Veteran Jonathan Quinn was called on for the next three starts, but rookie Craig Krenzel was installed as the starter for three games before an injury sidelined him for the season. Chad Hutchinson started the last five games. This marked the second time in Wilson's career he had to prep four different quarterbacks in a season.

Wilson made his coaching debut in Dallas in 2000 after 19 years as an NFL quarterback – including three years with Dallas (1995-97). Along with his playing experience, Wilson has overseen two of the most tumultuous seasons in Dallas quarterback history, coaching six different starting quarterbacks in his 32 games as the club's quarterback coach.

Wilson was forced to call on all his knowledge and experience as he helped prepare four different starting quarterbacks for action during the 2001 season. It was the first time in club history four different players started at quarterback in the same season. The Cowboys opened the season with a rookie quarterback for just the third time in franchise history when Quincy Carter took the field against Tampa Bay. That game began the Cowboys quarterback carousel, as injuries forced Carter from the lineup for eight of the next nine games. During that span, Anthony Wright earned three starts – including a win at Washington – Clint Stoerner led the club in two games – including a win over Arizona – and Ryan Leaf took the helm for three games in November. Carter returned to the lineup in December and guided the Cowboys to three wins in their final six games.

Wilson's first year on the job was just as hectic as four different quarterbacks saw action during the season, the first time in club history four different players saw action at quarterback in the same season. Troy Aikman started 11 games but was forced to miss five starts and parts of three other games with injuries. Randall Cunningham relieved Aikman on two occasions and started three other games in his place. Cunningham's start at Washington (9/18) produced a 27-21 win for Dallas and gave Dave Campo his first win as a head coach and Wilson his first as an assistant. Stoerner, in his rookie year, saw action in one game early in the year in place of Cunningham, before giving way to newcomer Wright. Wright earned the starting nod in the final two games of the season against the N.Y. Giants (12/17) and Tennessee (12/25).

A former Pro Bowler, Wilson joined the coaching ranks after a 19-year playing career. Only four other players in NFL history had played more seasons than Wilson. He was originally an eighth-round draft choice (210th overall) of the Minnesota Vikings in 1981 and led them to three playoff appearances, including the 1987 NFC Championship Game, during his 11 years with the team. He also spent time with the Atlanta Falcons (1992), New Orleans Saints (1993-94), Dallas Cowboys (1995-97) and Oakland Raiders (1998-99). He served as Aikman's backup on the Cowboys Super Bowl XXX championship team in 1995.

Wilson completed his career with a 75.6 quarterback rating on 1,391-of-2,428 passing for 17,283 yards. His best statistical year was 1988 when he led the NFC with a 91.5 quarterback rating and completed 204-of-332 passes (61.4%) for 2,746 yards, 15 touchdowns and nine interceptions. His 61.4% completion rate led the NFL that season. During his three years in Dallas, Wilson threw for 585 yards, one touchdown and four interceptions on 58-of-96 passing for a 63.9 rating. He earned one start (at Washington, 12/22/96) in his three-year stay in Dallas.

He was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at East Texas State University, where he earned NAIA All-America and Lone Star Conference MVP honors as a senior while leading the conference in passing and total offense. He completed 338-of-668 passes for 4,414 yards and 32 touchdowns during his four years with the Lions. He played high school football at near-by Commerce, Texas, High School.

Charles Wade Wilson majored in business management at ETSU, and he has his real estate license and his SEC-series seven registration. Wilson has four children; Travis Wade, Hayden, and twins Coleton and Sophie.

Wade Wilson – Born February 1, 1959, Commerce, Texas. Quarterback East Texas State 1977-80. Pro: Quarterback Minnesota 1981-91, Atlanta 1992, New Orleans 1993-94, Dallas 1995-97, Oakland 1998-99. Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 2000-02, Chicago Bears, 2004-06, re-joined the Dallas Cowboys 2007.

TONY OLLISON

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Tony Ollison, in his ninth year with the Cowboys strength and conditioning department, joined the club in the spring of 2000. He works closely with strength coach Joe Juraszek implementing player workout programs. In the Cowboys offseason, Ollison heads up the strength and conditioning program for the Dallas Desperados of the Arena Football League.

Ollison was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Arkansas from 1998 until coming to Dallas. He started his career in the weight room as a volunteer at Arkansas in 1993. He was a graduate assistant in the University of Tennessee weight room in 1994 before serving as the Volunteers assistant strength and conditioning coach from 1995-97 while finishing his master's in sports administration.

Ollison played defensive end for Arkansas (1986-90), totaling 63 career tackles despite missing all but one game his senior season. He played on two Southwest Conference championship teams while earning his degree in communications. He signed as a free agent with the Indianapolis Colts in 1991 and was drafted by the San Antonio Riders of the World League in 1992.

Ollison and his wife, Sherry, have two sons, Kobe and Kasey and a daughter, Sydney.

TOM CISKOWSKI

Director of College and Pro Scouting

Tom Ciskowski was named the Director of College and Pro Scouting in 2008, and in his first draft as the top scout in the 2008 NFL Draft, he helped the organization address two positions of concern in landing a pair running backs and cornerbacks with Felix Jones and Mike Jenkins heading the list as two first-round selections. The club also gained two additional picks in the 2009 NFL Draft through trades.

Ciskowski, who originally joined the Cowboys scouting department in 1992, finished his seventh season as the club's Assistant Director of College Scouting in 2007. Ciskowski observed first-hand the top college prospects in the land and also helped organize the club's entire college scouting operation. In his first season with the Cowboys, he served as a scout administered by the BLESTO Scouting Combine. Ciskowski became an area scout in 1993, working in the west for five years before moving to the southeast from 1998-2000.

Before becoming a scout, Ciskowski spent 15 years in the coaching ranks, the first two (1977-78) as an assistant at Pawhuska, Okla., High School. In 1979 he moved into the college coaching ranks, becoming the defensive backfield coach at East Central University in Ada, Okla. While at ECU, he earned his masters degree in athletic administration. The following year, he moved to Arizona State University, working with the defensive line as a graduate assistant for the 1980-81 seasons.

In 1982 Ciskowski moved to Oklahoma State, joining the staff as an assistant to former Dallas offensive line coach Tony Wise, before becoming the offensive line and tight end coach at Wichita State in 1984. After that season, Ciskowski joined the University of Miami as a volunteer assistant, working with former Dallas defensive coordinator Butch Davis and the defensive line.

From 1986-89, Ciskowski worked with the offensive and defensive lines, first at New Mexico State for two seasons, and then at UNLV for two more. Before coming to Dallas, he coached the defensive line at College of the Sequoias in Visilia, Calif., from 1990-91. Thirteen of the team's players went on from the junior college to play Division I football in 1992.

A native of Medford, Okla., Ciskowski attended Medford High School and earned his bachelor's degree from Cameron University, where he also played football. He and wife, Jan, live in Coppell, Texas, with sons, Jeremy and Joshua, and daughter Julianna.

TODD WILLIAMS

Assistant Director of Player Personnel

Todd Williams is in his 14th season with the Dallas Cowboys, his seventh season as the club's Assistant Director of Player Personnel. In this capacity, he is the assistant to Stephen Jones, the club's Executive Vice President of Player Personnel. Williams is primarily responsible for keeping Jones informed on the daily operations of the club. He is also responsible for monitoring the Cowboys salary cap and negotiating most rookie contracts, including many of Dallas's draft choices. In addition, he coordinates and schedules free agent tryouts for the team.

Williams originally joined the Dallas Cowboys organization as an intern in the operations department during the 1995 training camp in Austin, Texas. He then served as an administration and marketing intern through the 1995 season. He was hired as a player personnel assistant in 1996, working closely with the personnel department in processing contracts and coordinating travel plans for free agent tryouts. He was promoted to Assistant Director of Player Personnel in 2001.

Williams was a sports management major at the University of Tennessee, where he played tight end for the Vols football team from 1992-94. Prior to Tennessee, he played for Northeast Oklahoma A&M Junior College, helping guide the team to the 1991 National JUCO Championship.

Williams is married to Cyndi Comeaux Williams. He has two children, Kyle and Kamryn, and one stepson, Gauge Doisher.

CHRIS HALL

College Scouting Coordinator

Chris Hall enters his 19th season with the Cowboys, currently serving as the club's college scouting coordinator, a position he assumed in 2001. In that capacity, he is charged with the day-to-day operation and organization of the scouting department, including the creation and sorting of player information for the NFL Draft, maintaining the college scouting database and organizing the post-draft free agent signing period. He has also assisted the National Scouting Service for the last 15 years in the operation and execution of the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis, Ind.

Hall originally joined the Cowboys scouting department in 1990 as a scouting assistant, where he was responsible for processing player reports, organizing film and working closely with the college scouts in managing and scheduling projects. Prior to joining the Cowboys, Hall worked in the athletic offices at Southern Methodist University.

Hall graduated from Southern Methodist in 1990 with a degree in advertising. He currently resides in Coppell, Texas, with his wife, Susan, and two daughters, Izabella and Victoria.

DREW FABIANICH

(FAY-bee-on-itch)
National Scout

Drew Fabianich joined the Cowboys Scouting Department in 2003 as a scout administered by the BLESTO Scouting Combine. He served as the Cowboys midwest area scout from 2004-2007, before becoming a national scout for the club in 2008.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Fabianich spent 17 years as a high school and college coach. Most recently, he spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at W.T. White High School in Dallas, Texas (1999-2001). From 1996-99, he was the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Northeast Louisiana University. Prior to that, he was the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee-Martin (1993-1996).

Fabianich served as the defensive ends/special teams defense coach from 1991-1993 at the University of Tennessee. In 1989 he worked as a graduate assistant/defensive ends and special teams defense coach at Baylor. He started his coaching career in 1984 at Mesa State College and spent five seasons there as a quarterbacks and receivers coach/passing game coordinator.

Fabianich lettered as a quarterback at Mesa State College and participated in the 1982 NAIA National Championship Game before a spinal injury in 1983 ended his career. A two-year starter at Longmont, Colo., High School, Fabianich passed for over 2,500 yards and participated in the Colorado high school all-star game.

He graduated with a degree in kinesiology from Mesa State College in Colorado in 1988 and went on to Baylor University to work on his master's degree in sports administration. Fabianich was born on April 12, 1964 in Massillon, Ohio. He has two children, Ashleigh and Dominic. He and his wife, the former Christina Rinken, have one son, Markus (10/26/06).

WALTER JULIFF

National Scout

Walter Juliff enters his 24th season as an NFL scout and 21st year with the Cowboys. Juliff served as the Cowboys southeast area scout from 2001-2007 before becoming a national scout for the club in 2008. He served as Assistant Director of College and Pro Scouting for the club from 1995-2000 after spending the previous eight years as a national and area scout. He was also responsible for signing college free agents from 1992-2000.

Before becoming a full-time scout, Juliff spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at the University of Texas. He was also an assistant with the Kerrville Tivy football and track teams in 1980, the Abilene Cooper High School football and baseball teams in 1981 and the Houston-Kingwood High School football and baseball teams in 1982.

Juliff began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Angelo State, where he spent two seasons. In 1978 the Rams went undefeated and won the NAIA national championship, then lost in the national semifinals the next year. A native of San Angelo, Texas (6/22/56), Juliff starred in football and as a hurdler in track at Central High School.

Juliff, who lives in Austin, Texas, earned his bachelor's degree from Angelo State University, where he also ran track, and his M.B.A. from Texas. He and former Cowboys quarterback Jerry Rhome are cousins.

BILL DEKRAKER

Midwest Area Scout

Bill Dekraker enters his first season as the midwest area scout for the Dallas Cowboys and 13th in the NFL after eight seasons as a scout with the Arizona Cardinals. At Arizona, Dekraker was responsible for both the east and west regions of the country. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he spent three seasons as a scout for the Carolina Panthers where he worked on draft preparation, attended workouts and updated a new pro personnel computer program.

Dekraker worked at Indiana University as a recruiting assistant where he took part in organizing recruiting visits and working with professional scouts before joining the Panthers.

He began his NFL career in the Washington Redskins scouting department from 1995-97. His responsibilities in Washington included reviewing videos of draft prospects, charting plays during games, assisting with film breakdown and coordinating training camp.

Dekraker graduated from Old Dominion in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in sports management. He worked with the Hampton Road Sharks minor league football team, the NHL's Washington Capitals and in the promotions department of the Bowie Baysox, a minor league affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles. He also coached football at Catholic High School in Virginia Beach, Va.

He resides in Manassas, Va., with his wife, Mariela, and their sons, William and Tyler.

SAM GARZA

Southwest Area Scout

After nine years in the coaching realm, Sam Garza entered the personnel arena as a pro scout with the Cowboys in 2005 and worked three seasons as a pro scout. In 2008 he moved over to the college scouting department becoming the southwest area scout. As a pro scout, he worked closely with then Assistant Director of Pro Scouting Brian Gaine, in evaluating players around the NFL and NFL Europe, as well as the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League.

Garza came to Dallas after serving as the running backs and quarterbacks coach for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL in 2004. Prior to returning to Canada, he was the quarterbacks coach at the University of Texas – El Paso for four years (2000-2003). In 1998 Garza was the receivers coach for Saskatchewan before being promoted to quarterbacks/receivers coach in 1999. He began his coaching career at his alma mater as UTEP's defensive graduate assistant in 1996 before moving to wide receivers coach in 1997.

Garza was an eighth round draft choice of the Seattle Seahawks in 1987 as a quarterback, but actually spent the season with the St. Louis Cardinals, seeing action in two games. He then spent seven years playing in the CFL – six with Winnipeg (1989-94) and one with Ottawa (1995).

Collegiately, Garza was one of the most prolific passers in UTEP history where he still ranks second in completions (483) and completion percentage (59.1%), third in attempts (817), passing yards (6,130) and touchdown passes (35) on all-time Miner passing charts.

A native of Corpus Christi, Texas, Garza (7/10/65) received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from UTEP in 1995. He and wife Barbara have three sons, Callen, Shane and Jack, and a daughter, Hailey.

MITCH LaPOINT

Southeast Area Scout

Mitch LaPoint joined the Cowboys college scouting department in 2005 and served as the team's west area scout for three seasons before moving to the southeast area in 2008. LaPoint spent the previous seven years (1998-2004) working in the Kansas City Chiefs player personnel department. From 2002-04, he served as the club's midwest area scout and football operations coordinator. As part of his operations responsibilities, he coordinated the Chiefs training camp at the University of Wisconsin – River Falls.

From 1999-2001, LaPoint was an assistant in the scouting department, a position he was promoted to after spending 1998 as an intern.

The Lawrence, Kan., native received his bachelor's degree in sports management from the University of Kansas in 1998. LaPoint, born Feb. 25, 1976, and his wife, Jenny, reside in Flower Mound, Texas.

HENRY SROKA

West Area Scout

Henry Sroka joined the Cowboys in 1999 after 18 years as a college coach and served as their southwest area for the 2006-07 seasons before moving to the west area scout in 2008. In 2003 he became the club's midwest area scout after four years of working for Dallas as a scout administered by the BLESTO Scouting Combine. Sroka first gained NFL experience during a coaching fellowship with the Detroit Lions during training camps in 1991-94.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Sroka spent the 1998 season as defensive backs coach at the University of Redlands. From 1988-97, he coached running backs under former Dallas scout Jim Hess at New Mexico State University and was part of the school's first winning season in 14 years when the team posted a 6-5 mark in 1992. Prior to that, Sroka was the strength and conditioning coach, kicking coach and defensive backs coach at Wichita State University from 1985-87. He served as a graduate assistant coach at Arizona State from 1981-85, where he worked with the Sun Devils kickers and running backs.

Sroka graduated from St. Mary's College in California in 1978 and went on to earn a masters degree from Arizona State. He was a running back and kicker for St. Mary's, where he was awarded the Albert Rahill Award for team loyalty. Prior to playing for St. Mary's, Sroka was a running back and kicker for the College of San Mateo.

He was born Oct 11, 1953 in Mexico City, Mexico. Sroka and his wife, Linn, are the parents of daughter, Maria del Pilar, and sons, Dominic and Mikael.

JOHN WOJCIECHOWSKI

Notheast Area Scout

John Wojciechowski joined the Cowboys scouting department in 2003 and serves as the team's northeast area scout. Prior to coming to Dallas, Wojciechowski spent five years scouting for the Jacksonville Jaguars, joining their staff as the southeast regional scout for the BLESTO scouting organization. Wojciechowski was promoted by the Jaguars to midwest area scout in 2001.

Before becoming a full time scout, Wojciechowski served as a player personnel assistant for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1996-98. In Pittsburgh he evaluated both college and pro talent and did quality control work for the special teams units.

Wojciechowski was an All-Conference defensive end and a first-team All-America non-scholarship Division I-AA player at Duquesne from 1992-95. He was on teams that won a conference championship and a bowl game during his time with the Dukes. He also played baseball at Duquesne.

Wojciechowski received a degree in business administration at Duquesne. He was born Jan. 4, 1974 in Pittsburgh, where he currently resides with his wife, Tami, and their son, Holt.

JUDD GARRETT

Assistant Director of Pro Scouting

Judd Garrett was added to the Cowboys scouting department in the spring of 2008 as the Assistant Director of Pro Scouting. Garrett has spent the past 12 years in various roles in the NFL. He will work closely with Tom Ciskowski, the Director of College and Pro Scouting, and be in charge of evaluating players and rosters from the NFL and other professional football teams. Garrett will also be responsible for advance scouting, free agency preparation and tracking player movements within the league.

Prior to arriving in Dallas, Garrett spent two years as the tight ends coach with the St. Louis Rams. From 2000-2005 he worked for the Miami Dolphins in a variety of capacities, but mainly as an offensive assistant. He served as the offensive quality control coach for the Dolphins from 2001-2005, but concentrated on quarterbacks in 2003 and the wide receivers in 2004. In 2001 he was an offensive assistant with Miami.

Garrett made his NFL coaching debut in 1997 with the New Orleans Saints as an offensive assistant. He spent three seasons with the Saints.

He coached one season (1996) at University School in Chagrin Falls, Ohio as an assistant coach.

Garrett played running back at Princeton from 1987-89, earning Ivy League Player of the Year and Division I-AA All-America honors as a senior. He was selected in the 12th round of the 1990 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles but was released and worked as an assistant coach at Princeton for the 1990 season.

Garrett spent two seasons, 1991-92, with the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football, where, in his first season, he led the league in receptions (71) and was an All-League pick at running back. His 71 receptions stood as a league record until 2000. In 1993 Garrett made the Dallas Cowboys practice squad before playing two years in the Canadian Football League with the Las Vegas Posse in 1994 and the San Antonio Texans in 1995.

Garrett continues the family tradition of football and the Cowboys organization joining his older brothers, John and Jason, as part of the Cowboys organization. John is in his second season with the team as the tight ends coach, while Jason was named the Assistant Head Coach after his first season as offensive coordinator for the Cowboys. Jim, his third brother, is the offensive coordinator for University School, a prep school in Ohio. His father, Jim, retired after the 2003 season with more than 30 years as an NFL assistant and scout, and 21 of those years as a member of the Dallas Cowboys scouting department.

Judd Garrett has two sons, Calvin and Campbell, and two daughters, Frances and Kassity.

WILL McCLAY

Pro Scout

Will McClay is in his sixth season working in the Cowboys Pro Personnel Department, where he spends the summer and fall evaluating players on other NFL rosters, as well as players in the Arena Football League.

McClay is also the head coach of the Cowboys AFL team – the Dallas Desperados – a position he has held for the past five seasons (2004-08). In 2007 the Desperados finished with the league's best record at 15-1 and as the Eastern Division Champions for the second consecutive season. From 2002-03 he served as the Desperados defensive coordinator.

Prior to joining the Cowboys and Desperados, McClay was the Assistant Director of Pro Scouting for the Jacksonville Jaguars. In his only season (2001) with the Jaguars, he was charged with scouting NFL teams Jacksonville did not play and advance scouting work. Before joining the Jaguars, he served as the Player Personnel Director of the XFL's Orlando Rage, as well as a consultant and scout, in the spring of 2001. The Rage finished the season 8-2 before falling in the first round of the playoffs.

Prior to moving into the personnel side of professional football, McClay spent 11 seasons in the AFL as a player and coach. He served as defensive coordinator and Director of Player Personnel for the Grand Rapids Rampage in 1998. He added the title of assistant head coach in 1999, when the Rampage improved to an 8-6 record after posting a 3-11 campaign the previous season. In 1997 he was the defensive coordinator and Director of Player Personnel for the Anaheim Piranhas after serving as the defensive coordinator for the Milwaukee Mustangs in 1995 and the Florida Bobcats in 1996. McClay was the secondary and special teams coach of the Detroit Drive in 1993, helping the team reach the ArenaBowl. From 1989-92 he was a wide receiver/defensive back for the Drive, helping lead them to three ArenaBowl titles in four appearances.

McClay was a four-year letterman and team captain as a defensive back at Rice University (1985-88), starting every game of his collegiate career. He graduated in 1990 with a degree in political science. McClay was born Oct. 13, 1966 in Memphis, Tenn. He and his wife, Kim, have two sons, Bailey and Gabriel.

KEITH O'QUINN

Pro Scout

Keith O'Quinn, entering his third season with the Cowboys Pro Scouting Department, is involved in the process of evaluating players around the NFL, as well as the Canadian Football League and the Arena Football League.

O'Quinn comes to Dallas after spending eight years as a high school and college coach. Most recently, he served as an assistant football and head baseball coach at Kaufman High school in Kaufman, Texas. Prior to that, he coached tight ends and special teams at Abilene Christian University in the 2003-2004 seasons. From 2000-2003, O'Quinn served as tight ends and assistant offensive line coach at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas. While at HSU, the Cowboys compiled a 28-5 record and won two conference championships. He also worked as the team's academic supervisor. In 1999 he worked as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach as well as the head baseball coach at Bryan Adams High School in Dallas, Texas. O'Quinn began his coaching career at Liberty Christian School in Argyle, Texas, serving as a defensive backs and wide receivers coach.

A native of San Antonio, Texas, O'Quinn attended James Madison High School and earned a Bachelors of Science Degree from the University of North Texas, where he played strong safety and was coached on special teams by former Director of Scouting, Jeff Ireland. He went on to earn a masters degree in counseling and human development from Hardin-Simmons University.

O'Quinn currently resides in Dallas with his wife, Reigan, and their children, Mysti (13), Brittney (6), and Brock (4).

JIM MAURER

Head Athletic Trainer

Jim Maurer is entering his 19th season as a Dallas Cowboys athletic trainer, serving the last 13 years as the club's head athletic trainer.

Maurer took over responsibility of the athletic training department in 1996 after serving as a Cowboys assistant athletic trainer for six years. He served as a graduate assistant with Dallas for two seasons prior to being hired full-time in 1990.

Maurer was elected to the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) Executive Board as the NFC head athletic trainer representative in 1999. He was re-elected to the same position for a fourth term in 2007. Following the 2002 season, Maurer and his staff were recognized as the NFL athletic training staff of the year by their peers. Named in honor of Ed Block – a former Baltimore Colts head athletic trainer – the award is given annually to the athletic training staff that exemplifies courage, compassion, commitment and community.

A Dallas native (3/8/65), Maurer earned a degree in physical education in 1988 from Southern Methodist University, where he worked with the football and swim teams.

Maurer worked as a summer assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1987, after spending the summer of 1986 with the Cowboys in the same capacity.

Maurer and his wife, Rosanne, live in Dallas, Texas, with their sons, Nicholas and Benjamin.

BRITT BROWN

Associate Athletic Trainer

Britt Brown enters his 17th year as an athletic trainer in the NFL and his 13th as a member of the Cowboys athletic training staff. Brown supervises the Cowboys medical rehabilitation program and assists with treatment programs.

In 2007 his rehabilitation program was instrumental in the return of linebacker Greg Ellis and wide receiver Terry Glenn. Ellis returned from a ruptured Achilles tendon suffered in the 2006 season to play in 14 games last season and earn his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Glenn returned to the field for the final two games of the year after undergoing two knee surgeries prior to the start of the season.

Before coming to Dallas, Brown spent four years (1992-95) with the Miami Dolphins as an assistant athletic trainer. Brown currently serves as the Program Coordinator for the NFL/Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) Ethnic Minority Scholarship. Following the 2002 season, Brown and the Cowboys athletic training staff were recognized as the NFL athletic training staff of the year by their peers. Named in honor of Ed Block – a former Baltimore Colts head athletic trainer – the award is given annually to the athletic training staff that exemplifies courage, compassion, commitment and community.

Before joining the Dolphins, Brown was the head basketball athletic trainer and assistant football athletic trainer at Southern Methodist University from 1989-92, where he also coordinated travel for the Mustangs basketball team. While earning a degree in secondary education/biology with an emphasis in athletic training (1982-87) and a master's degree in physical education/exercise physiology (1988-89) from Texas Christian University, he worked with the Horned Frogs football and baseball teams as a student athletic trainer. Brown worked as a part-time assistant athletic trainer for the Cowboys in 1986 and 1987 while attending TCU.

A native of Lampasas, Texas (7/6/64), the fastest growing county in Texas, Brown and his wife, Laura, live in Double Oak, Texas, with their son, Chase, and daughters, Sydney and Payton.

GREG GAITHER

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Greg Gaither enters his eighth season as a full-time member of the Cowboys athletic training staff after originally serving a two-year stint with the club as a graduate assistant (1997-98). He assists with coordinating player rehabilitation and treatment programs while overseeing all medical records.

Following the 2002 season, Gaither and the rest of the Cowboys athletic training staff were recognized as the NFL athletic training staff of the year by their peers. Named in honor of Ed Block – a former Baltimore Colts head athletic trainer – the award is given annually to the athletic training staff that exemplifies courage, compassion, commitment and community.

Gaither returned to the Cowboys after two years on the athletic training staff at Kansas State University. He originally joined the Wildcats in the summer of 1999 as a graduate assistant working in both football and baseball. In 2000 he was promoted to a full-time role as assistant athletic trainer.

A native of Dallas, Texas (10/22/73), Gaither graduated from Southern Methodist University with a bachelor's degree, and received his master's degree from Kansas State University. Gaither and his wife, Leah, reside in Dallas, Texas, with their son, Grayson and daughter Haley.

ROBERT BLACKWELL

Video Director

Robert Blackwell is entering his 27th year in the Cowboys video department, his 19th as the team's video director. In charge of taping and editing Cowboys practices and games, Blackwell is also responsible for editing opponents' tapes. He oversaw the change from videotape to digital imaging for Dallas's coaching staff in 2000. In his role with the club, Blackwell is responsible for entering and coordinating opponent and Cowboys offensive and defensive game data. He also builds and distributes opponents scouting reports and video breakdowns.

A native of Garland, Texas (12/1/50), Blackwell earned his degree in communications from Stephen F. Austin, and later shot game films for Southern Methodist University's basketball and football teams (1979-84).

He and wife Diana have two children, Nathaniel and Lora Ann.

STEPHEN GAGLIARDINO

Assistant Video Director

Stephen Gagliardino became the club's assistant video director in the spring of 2003 after spending the 2002 season as the department's graduate assistant. He is responsible for shooting team practices and games, as well as logging and digitizing game files for the coaching staff.

Gagliardino joined the Cowboys after spending the 2001-02 seasons in NFL Europe, where he handled the coaching video for the Scottish Claymores. He began his NFL career in 1995 as a ball boy with the Philadelphia Eagles when he was 16 years old, working training camp and game days at Veterans Stadium. He did that for four seasons before moving over to the Eagles video department in 1999, where he worked full-time as an intern for three seasons (1999-2001) while finishing college and working in NFL Europe.

Gagliardino (11/10/78) is a native of Newark, Del.

MIKE McCORD

Equipment Manager

Mike McCord enters his 19th season with the Cowboys, his 17th in the equipment department and his 15th as the equipment manager.

McCord originally joined the Cowboys in 1989 as the assistant ticket manager, spending two years in that capacity before moving to the football operations department in 1991. Before coming to Dallas, McCord spent two-and-a-half years with the University of Texas athletic department, one-and-a-half years as a part-time student assistant before receiving his B.B.A. and then one year as a full-time intern.

A native of Clovis, N.M. (11/6/64), McCord graduated from Roosevelt High School in San Antonio, Texas, and spent two years attending Southwest Texas State before transferring to the University of Texas. He and his wife, Jan, live in Flower Mound, Texas, with their daughter, Megan, and son, Brock.

BUCKY BUCHANAN

Assistant Equipment Manager

William Andrew "Bucky" Buchanan is entering his 14th year as the Cowboys assistant equipment manager. Buchanan officially joined the Cowboys in 1994 after spending many weekends and summers in the equipment room helping his father, "Buck" Buchanan, the Cowboys equipment manager from 1973-93.

Before coming to the Cowboys, Buchanan spent one-and-a-half years with Willis Medical in Richardson, Texas, and 10 years with the Skaggs Alpha Beta grocery store chain.

A native of Plano, Texas, Buchanan (6/9/61) graduated from Plano High School. He has two sons – Thomas II and Brett.

MIKE KUROWSKI

Assistant Equipment Manager

Mike Kurowski joined the Cowboys equipment staff in 2001. Kurowski came to Dallas after serving as an equipment manager for the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL in the spring of 2001. Prior to his work in the pro ranks, he spent three years (1997-2000) as an equipment manager for the Oklahoma State University football team. Kurowski interned with the Miami Dolphins at their 1999 training camp while still in school.

A native of Dallas, Texas, Kurowski (9/2/77) graduated from Oklahoma State with a degree in marketing. Kurowski and his wife, Valerie, have a son, Garyt, born August 31, 2007, and reside in Frisco, Texas.

STEVE MANGUS

Equipment Room Staff

Steve Mangus works as an assistant in the Dallas Cowboys equipment room. He has been associated with the Cowboys organization since 1998, when he began assisting in the visitor's locker room during Cowboys home games at Texas Stadium. He also completed three seasonal internships with the club, working in the team's training camp equipment room during the summers of 2000-02.

During the NFL offseason, Mangus works as an equipment manager with the Dallas Desperados of the Arena Football League. Mangus began working with the Desperados during the team's inaugural season in 2002, overseeing the visitor's locker room at home games before being hired to the Desperados staff as the equipment manager in 2003.

Prior to joining the Desperados, Mangus spent time as an assistant equipment manager at the University of North Texas, where he also served as a student equipment manager from 2000-02.

Mangus graduated from North Texas with a degree in business administration. Mangus, his wife, Dana, and their daughter, Macie, live in Flower Mound, Texas.

Tight Ends Coach John Garrett shares techniques and drills with more than 650 youth and middle school coaches as part of the Dallas Cowboys annual Youth Coaches Clinic – a one-day teaching seminar held at Texas Stadium and underwritten by Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities.

Tackle

PRO: While earning selections to the Pro Bowl in four of the past five seasons as a left tackle, Flozell Adams is regarded as one of the NFL's most productive and powerful offensive linemen. Adams joins Rayfield Wright (six selections), Pat Donovan (four) and Erik Williams (four) as the only tackles in club history to make four-or-more appearances in the Pro Bowl. Adams signed a six-year contract with Dallas in the offseason of 2008, virtually ensuring that he will finish his career with the team. He is the anchor of one of the biggest and most talented offensive lines in the NFL as two of his line mates, center Andre Gurode and right guard Leonard Davis, were also named to the Pro Bowl in 2007. Adams has been a fixture on the Dallas line since his rookie season of 1998, and he has 151 career starts in his 155 games played – including playoffs. A very effective pass protector for two-time Pro Bowl quarterback Tony Romo, Adams has also been a dominant run blocker throughout his career. A Dallas back has rushed for over 100 yards 43 times in Adams's 151 career starts. The 2006 season was a come-back year for Adams, who missed the final 10 games in 2005 after suffering a torn ACL in his right knee in Week 6. His dedication and perseverance in returning to Pro Bowl status after the injury prompted his teammates to select him as the club's 2006 Ed Block Courage Award recipient. Prior to the injury, Adams had compiled 107 straight starts, including 102 at left tackle and five at right guard. The streak, which began in 1999, was the longest active streak on the club and, at the time of his injury, the 12th-longest active streak in the NFL. From 1998 to 2002, he played a key role in helping Emmitt Smith nail down the NFL's all-time leading rusher title as Smith gained 5,928 yards in five seasons while playing behind Adams. An exceptional athlete for a man of his size, Adams has blocked a club-record four extra points in his career, and he has also blocked three field goal attempts.

- Named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad – his fourth Pro Bowl in the past five seasons as one-of-13 Cowboys selected – setting a team and NFL record.
- A second team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press.
- Played a key role in one of the most prolific offensive seasons in club history while helping the team to a club record-tying 13 victories and the first NFC East title for Dallas since 1998.
- The Dallas offense finished the season second in the NFL in scoring (first in the NFC) with an average of 28.4 points-per-game. The 455 points scored marked the second-most in club history behind only the 1983 team (479 points).
- With an average of 365.7 yards-per-game, the Cowboys were third in the NFL (second in the NFC) in total offense.
- Dallas ranked fourth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in passing with an average of 256.6 yards-per-game.
- In the rushing offense category, the Cowboys were 17th in the NFL (seventh in the NFC) with an average of 109.1 yards-per-game.
- In the win over the N.Y. Giants on opening night (9/9), the line allowed just one sack on 24 pass plays and the running game picked up 142 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries (4.7 avg.). The offense scored six touchdowns – which tied for the fourth-most in club history in a season opener as they racked up 478 total yards – the most in a non-overtime game since 1996.
- At Chicago (9/23) helped the offense put up 431 total yards as the Cowboys produced a 100-yard rusher (Barber), 100-yard receiver (Owens) and a 300-yard passer (Romo) for the first time in a game since an overtime win at Washington (9/12/99).
- In the win over St. Louis (9/30), the line allowed just one sack as Romo completed 21-of-33 passes for 339 yards. The running game gained 171 yards as the offense racked up 502 total yards for the first time since the Washington overtime win (9/12/99).
- At Buffalo (10/8) did not allow a sack on 50 pass plays as Romo threw for 309 yards and two scores.
- Against Minnesota (10/21) helped give Romo the time to complete 28-of-32 first half passes and 31 completions in the game for a single-game career-high.
- At Philadelphia (11/4) the line did not allow a sack on 25 pass plays as Romo completed 80.0% (20-of-25) of his throws for 324 yards and three touchdowns.
- In the win over Washington (11/18), the offense allowed only one sack on 32 pass attempts with Romo completing 22 passes for 293 yards and four touchdowns. It was the first time in team history a quarterback threw for four touchdowns in back-to-back weeks.

LEGEND

Team Logo – Pro Bowl
Super Bowl Trophy – Super Bowl Appearance

- In the Thanksgiving Day win over the N.Y. Jets (11/22), helped provide the holes for the second 100-yard rusher of the season – Barber (103) – as the running game picked up a season-high 174 yards.
- Against Green Bay (11/29) the line did not allow a sack for the third time in 2007 as Romo completed 19-of-30 passes for 414 yards and four touchdowns. It was the fifth time the offense amassed 400-or-more yards in the season and the sixth 300-yard passing game of the year for Romo.
- At Detroit (12/9) the Dallas offense racked up 368 total yards as Romo compiled his seventh 300-yard game of the season – and a 110.4 passer rating – his seventh consecutive game with a passer rating above 100.0.
- In the playoff loss to the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08) the line led a season-long 20-play, 90-yard drive for a touchdown in the second quarter that consumed 10:28, marking the longest time of possession on any drive in 2007. The line also provided holes for Barber – who finished with a career-high 129 yards on 27 carries (4.8 avg.).

- Returned from a 2005 season-ending right knee ACL surgery and made his third Pro Bowl in four seasons as an injury replacement for the Saints Jammal Brown.
- The Cowboys scored 425 points (26.6 per-game), the fourth-most in the NFL in 2006, and the most by the Cowboys since the Super Bowl season of 1995. Was also the fourth-best scoring output by the Cowboys since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.
- Helped Dallas return to the postseason with a 9-7 record before the season ended with a wild card loss at Seattle (1/6/07).
- Blocking helped the Cowboys produce two 1,000-yard receivers (Terrell Owens and Terry Glenn) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Julius Jones) for just the second time in team history.
- His start in the season-opening loss at Jacksonville (9/10) was his first since October 16, 2005.
- In the win at Tennessee (10/1), helped Dallas rush for 217 yards and three touchdowns, the team's best running performance since December 14, 2003 (222 yards).
- Helped Jones rush for more than 100 yards in three consecutive games at Tennessee (10/1), at Philadelphia (10/8) and against Houston (10/15).
- Was the anchor of the line for Romo's first career start, a 35-14 win at Carolina (10/29) in which Romo was sacked just twice in 38 pass plays while throwing for 270 yards.
- Dallas also ran for 156 yards (4.1 per-carry) against the Panthers while controlling the ball for a season-best 38:16 and gaining 414 total yards.
- In the win at Arizona (11/12) the line did not allow a sack in 29 pass plays, and Romo threw for 308 yards, his first career 300-yard passing game. Adams lined up across from the Cardinals Bertrand Berry, who recorded just one tackle.
- In the win over previously undefeated Indianapolis (11/19), the line gave Romo the time to complete 19-of-23 passes (82.6%) for 226 yards with just one sack. Limited Dwight Freeney to two tackles and one sack.
- In the Thanksgiving Day victory over Tampa Bay (11/23), the line allowed one sack on 30 pass plays, and the offense gained a season-high 435 total yards – 306 passing and 137 rushing. Romo tied the club record with five passing touchdowns in the game.
- In the last-minute win at the N.Y. Giants (12/3), the Dallas line allowed just one sack in 35 pass plays, and the Cowboys gained 257 passing yards and 110 rushing yards. Helped hold Osi Umenyiora to no tackles and no sacks.
- In the Sunday night loss to New Orleans (12/10), helped open the hole that allowed Jones's 77-yard touchdown, which tied the fifth-longest run in club history.

- Returned to Pro Bowl form as one of the league's top left tackles before he tore his right ACL and ended his season in the Week 6 win over the N.Y. Giants (10/19).
- Prior to the injury, Dallas was 4-2, ranked seventh in total offense (373.2 yards-per-game) and had allowed just 13 sacks (2.2 per-game) in six games.
- Dallas finished the year ranked 13th in total offense (325.1 yards-per-game) and allowed 36 sacks in the games that followed the injury (3.6 per-game).
- Started his seventh consecutive season opener at left tackle in the win at San Diego (9/11), helping Dallas score 28 points and gain 301 yards of total offense.
- In a Monday night loss to Washington (9/19), was part of a Dallas line that did not allow a sack in 36 pass plays, marking the first time the Cowboys hadn't allowed a sack since Dec. 8, 2002, against San Francisco.
- In the win at San Francisco (9/25), the line allowed just two sacks in 40 pass plays, and the Cowboys gained 443 yards of total offense. Quarterback Drew Bledsoe's 363 passing yards – with two touchdowns – was the eighth-best performance in club history.
- In a key division win over Philadelphia (10/9), did not allow a sack and helped the Cowboys gain a season-high 456 yards of total offense, the most since they gained 541 yards at Washington (9/12/99).
- Suffered his season-ending injury in the third quarter of an overtime win against the N.Y. Giants (10/16). Underwent successful surgery to repair the right ACL on October 25.
- Prior to the injury, Adams had made 107 straight starts, including 102 at left tackle.

- Followed the most productive year of his career with another solid performance and earned a reserve spot on the NFC Pro Bowl roster.
- Over the final seven games of the season, the offensive line helped rookie Julius Jones rush for 803 yards (114.7 yards per-game).
- In the season opening loss at Minnesota (9/12), the Cowboys gained 423 total yards, including 352 passing yards by Vinny Testaverde with just one sack in 52 pass plays.
- The following week against Cleveland (9/19), Dallas gained a season-high 441 total yards, including 322 passing yards from Testaverde, who was sacked only once in 36 pass plays. Testaverde became just the second Cowboys quarterback to throw for more than 300 yards in back-to-back games.
- Against Chicago (11/25) on Thanksgiving Day, was part of an offensive line that helped Jones rush for 150 yards, tying what was then the second-best mark ever by a Cowboys rookie running back. Adams also recovered a third-quarter fumble by R.W. McQuarters following an interception.

- In the 43-39 win on Monday Night Football at Seattle (12/6), helped Jones rush for 198 yards, the third-best rushing day in club history and the second-best by a Cowboys rookie. Jones also became the first Dallas running back to record back-to-back 100-yard rushing games since December 2001.
- In the last game of the season, at the N.Y. Giants (1/2/05), the offensive line helped Jones rush for 149 yards on 29 carries (5.1 yards-per-carry) and helped Testaverde record a season-high 109.2 quarterback rating after completing 23-of-30 passes (76.7%).

- Signed a five-year contract in the offseason and went on to enjoy the most productive season of his career.
- Under new head coach Bill Parcells, became a starter on the offensive line for the NFC Pro Bowl team, while helping Dallas return to the playoffs as a wild card for the first time since 1999.
- Helped Dallas's total offense jump from 30th in 2002 to 15th in 2003, with an increase of almost 50 yards-per-game. That improvement helped the club post a 10-6 record after three straight 5-11 seasons.
- The line helped the Cowboys gain 403 yards of total offense in each of their first two games – against Atlanta (9/7) and at the N.Y. Giants (9/15). That marked the first back-to-back 400-yard games for Dallas since 1998.
- Adams's pass blocking against the Giants gave Quincy Carter time to throw for a career-high 321 yards.
- His run blocking was a key in a win at the N.Y. Jets (9/28), against whom Dallas rushed 41 times for 202 yards (4.9 per-carry) and a touchdown.
- In the loss at Tampa Bay (10/26), limited Bucs defensive end Simeon Rice to two tackles and no sacks as the club gained 400 yards of total offense, including 208 on the ground.
- In a 21-14 win over Washington (11/2), blocked his second career extra point when he batted down the Redskins first attempt.
- Blocked his second extra point of the season at New England (11/16) when he batted Adam Vinatieri's attempt in the second quarter. That block made Adams the first player in club history with two blocked PATs in the same season.
- The line allowed just one sack for no yards in 45 pass plays in a victory over Carolina (11/23).
- In the Thanksgiving loss to Miami (11/27), blocked his third extra point of the season.
- At Washington (12/14) part of a line that helped Troy Hambrick rush for 189 yards, at the time the third-best single-game performance in club history.

2002:
- In a season plagued by injuries on the offensive line, Adams was the only Cowboys offensive lineman to start and finish every game.
- Missed most of training camp with a hyperextended right knee (Aug. 6) but returned to the starting lineup for the opener at Houston (9/8) and helped Dallas rush for 155 yards.
- After reshuffling the line at defending NFC Champion St. Louis (9/29), anchored a unit that allowed two sacks in 38 pass plays in the last-second victory.
- Was the only Dallas offensive lineman to start and play the entire game against Carolina (10/13), and the Cowboys had 148 yards and 14 points in the fourth quarter to nab a 14-13 win.
- In the loss to Seattle (10/27), played a key role in NFL history; Smith ran for 109 yards on 24 carries (4.5 yards-per-carry) and became the league's all-time leading rusher with an 11-yard run in the fourth quarter. It was Smith's first 100-yard game of the season, and his record-breaking run came on Adams's (left) side of the line.
- In the win over Jacksonville (11/24), provided time for Chad Hutchinson to throw for 301 yards as the team gained a season-high 405 yards of total offense.
- In the Thanksgiving Day victory over Washington (11/28), helped lead the way for a season-high 211 rushing yards, including a season-best 144 yards by Smith, who went over 17,000 career rushing yards and recorded his fourth consecutive 100-yard day against the Redskins.
- Also blocked his fourth career kick when he batted James Tuthill's field goal attempt in the second quarter of the Redskins win.

2001:
- Key part of a line that helped Dallas finish third in the NFL in rushing with 136.5 yards-per-game.
- Dallas gained 2,184 rushing yards, the second-best total by the Cowboys in the previous 20 years (2,201 yards in 1995).
- Line allowed just 34 sacks in 447 pass plays and held opponents to two sacks-or-less in 10 games.
- In the loss to San Diego (9/23), the line helped Smith gain 85 yards on 17 carries (5.0 yards-per-carry) and pass Barry Sanders for second on the NFL's all-time rushing list.
- Blocked his first career PAT at Philadelphia (9/30).
- In a 9-7 win over Washington (10/15), helped lead Smith to his first 100-yard rushing game of the season (107 yards) and helped Dallas gain 211 rushing yards.
- In a loss at Atlanta (11/11/), helped the team rush for 207 yards (6.3 yards-per-carry), including 127 yards from Troy Hambrick and 85 yards from Michael Wiley.
- Aided Smith in gaining a season-high 128 yards at Arizona (12/23), and the offensive line allowed just one sack in 30 pass plays.
- In the upset win over San Francisco (12/30), the line led the way to 186 rushing yards, including 126 by Smith, and limited the 49ers to one sack. Carter threw for a season-high 241 yards.

2000:
- In his second season as the Cowboys starting left tackle, was part of an offensive line that allowed 35 sacks in 480 pass plays. In six games, opponents were held to one sack-or-less.
- Helped Smith rush for 1,203 yards and surpass 1,000 yards for the 10th consecutive season.
- Adams's work allowed the Cowboys to average 4.2 rushing yards-per-carry for the year. Only four NFC clubs rushed for more yards-per-carry in 2000.

- Helped lead Smith to his first 100-yard rushing game of the season at Carolina (10/1) when Smith gained 132 yards on 24 carries (5.5 yards-per-carry).
- In 48-7 win over Arizona (10/22), helped the Cowboys rush for 200 yards, including 112 by Smith, while allowing one sack.
- Aided Smith in rushing for over 100 yards the next two weeks: against Jacksonville (10/29) and at Philadelphia (11/5).
- Against Washington (12/10) Smith topped 100 yards for the sixth time on the season (150) as the team tallied 242 yards on the ground, the most rushing yards by Dallas since it had 271 yards at Philadelphia (10/31/93).

1999:

- In his first full season at left tackle, was the only Dallas offensive lineman to start all 16 regular season games.
- The line allowed just 24 sacks in 531 pass plays, the second-fewest sacks allowed in the NFL in 1999.
- Helped Smith record 1,397 rushing yards, his most since 1995, and nine 100-yard rushing games, the second-most of his career in one season.
- Earned first NFL start at left tackle in overtime win at Washington (9/12), and helped the Cowboys gain 541 yards of total offense, their most since Sept. 15, 1985.
- Helped Smith gain 109 yards in a win over Atlanta (9/20), marking just the third time in 29 games that the Falcons allowed a 100-yard rusher.
- In the win over Green Bay (11/14), blocked a Ryan Longwell field goal, becoming the first Dallas offensive player to block a field goal since Doug Cosbie did it against St. Louis (10/21/79).
- In the Thanksgiving Day win over Miami (11/25), blocked a 47-yard field goal attempt by Olindo Mare in the second quarter, tying the club record of two blocked field goals in a season. Became the 11th player in club history to accomplish that feat and the first since Leon Lett in 1994.

- Earned All-Rookie honors and played a key role on a line that allowed just 19 sacks, the fewest in the NFL.
- Forced into extended work as a rookie because of knee injuries to right guard Everett McIver. Started 10 games in place of McIver and earned 12 total starts – the most ever by a Dallas rookie offensive lineman.
- Made NFL debut against Arizona (9/6) and was used as a third tight end on short yardage situations before taking over for the final three quarters at right tackle after starter Erik Williams was ejected.
- In opener, helped Dallas gain 444 yards of total offense against the Cardinals, including 188 rushing yards; both totals were the team's highest since 1996.
- In place of the injured McIver (10/4), made his first career start at right guard against Carolina (10/11), helping the Cowboys to 428 yards of total offense.
- In his first five starts at right guard, helped Smith record four 100-yard rushing games, including a season-high 163 yards on 29 carries (5.6 yards-per-carry) against the N.Y. Giants (11/8).
- Started the final five regular season games at right guard and made his first postseason start against Arizona (1/2/99) in the playoff loss at Texas Stadium.

COLLEGE:

- Was named the 1997 Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year by the conference's head coaches.
- One of just four offensive linemen in 1997 who were semifinalists for the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award.
- Moved from right tackle to left tackle and picked up All-America honors as a senior.
- A three-year starter at Michigan State, helped lead the Spartans to three straight bowl games for only the second time in school history.
- Started the final 28 games of his career at tackle. In 34 career starts, helped a Spartan running back rush for at least 100 yards 21 times.
- Anchored a line that produced a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his three seasons as a starter.

Fullback

PRO: Deon Anderson took over as the Cowboys starting fullback in only his third career game, making the most of an opportunity that was made possible when Oliver Hoyte went down with a neck injury. Anderson remained the starter until tearing his right rotator cuff during the eighth game of the season. He is expected to make a full recovery from his injury and reclaim his role as the team's starting fullback in 2008.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

11/5/07: Placed on Reserve/Injured with a torn right rotator cuff.
4/29/07: Drafted in the sixth round (195th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Played in eight games with four starts to record six receptions for 55 yards, 10 special teams tackles and a kickoff return for 10 yards.
- Placed on the Reserve/Injured list on November 5 with a torn right rotator cuff that he suffered at Philadelphia (11/4).
- Saw time in all four preseason games as the team's third fullback while also playing on special teams to make two special teams tackles – tops among Cowboys rookies and second overall in the preseason.
- Made his NFL debut on special teams in the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/9) and recorded a special teams tackle.
- Posted a special teams stop at Miami (9/16).
- Made his first NFL start at fullback for an injured Hoyte (neck) at Chicago (9/23) and tallied three special teams tackles.
- At Buffalo (10/8) recorded his first NFL reception in his second career start at fullback and finished the game with four receptions for 39 yards.
- Returned his first kickoff for 10 yards against New England (10/14) while also serving as the lead blocker against the Patriots.
- In his fourth start of the season at Philadelphia (11/4), helped the ground game round out 110 yards while also contributing two special teams stops.

COLLEGE:

- Was a standout special teams player and a valuable fullback at Connecticut, where he led the team in special teams tackles in each of his four seasons.
- Finished his career with 40 special teams tackles and had only three fumbles on 162 touches (114 rushes and 48 catches) with four rushing touchdowns.
- Named the team's Most Valuable Player after his senior season, after starting nine of 11 games he played.
- Missed the season finale against Louisville with a pinched nerve, the only game he missed in his four-year career at Connecticut.
- Missed the 2005 season, but was re-admitted to Connecticut in the spring of 2006 on the condition that he pay his own way.
- Had 11 special teams tackles in his sophomore and junior seasons.

PERSONAL:

- Deon Terry Anderson earned All-New England and All-Conference honors in football and was named the team's MVP and Defensive Player of the Year after his senior season at Avon, Conn. Old Farms Prep School in 2001.

- Played at Hope High School in Providence, R.I., where he was a standout in football, track, and wrestling earlier in his prep career.
- Was an All-American wrestler, earning state and New England titles as a junior.
- Finished fourth in the shot put in the New England Finals.
- Was a psychology major at Connecticut.
- 2007 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- 2008 Taste of the NFL: The Ultimate Dallas Cowboys Tailgate Party benefiting the North Texas Food Bank.

Wide Receiver

PRO: As was one of just three rookie free agents who made the team out of training camp in 2006, Miles Austin has seen a majority of his playing time on special teams units. He took over as kick returner when Tyson Thompson (ankle) went down for the season in 2006 and again for Thompson in 2007. In 2006 Austin averaged 26.0 yards-per-kickoff return, the second-best average by a rookie in club history. He finished ninth in the NFL in kickoff return average (25.5) on 24 attempts in 2007. He will need to continue to excel as a returner and improve as a wide receiver to earn more playing time this season.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

5/1/06: Signed with Dallas as a rookie free agent.

2007:
- Served as the club's leading kick returner finishing third in the NFC (ninth in the NFL) with a 25.5 average on 24 attempts for 612 yards.
- Recorded his first career reception against the N.Y. Jets (11/22).
- Posted season and career-highs with six kickoff returns for 166 yards against Green Bay (11/29).
- Had a regular season career-long 60-yard kickoff return at Detroit (12/9) to finish the game with three returns for 112 yards and a 37.3 average.

- Finished his rookie season with 29 kickoff returns for 753 yards for a 26.0 kickoff return average – the second-best by a rookie in club history.
- Played his first NFL game against Houston in Week 5 (10/15), when he made two tackles on special teams.
- Had a season-high 29.6-yard average on five returns against New Orleans (12/10), including a season-high 37-yard return.
- Returned three kickoffs for 136 yards at Seattle in the Wild Card Playoff Game (1/6/07), the second-most in team playoff history. Set team playoff records for kickoff return average (45.3 yards) and longest kickoff return (93 yards – the first kickoff return for a touchdown in team playoff history).

COLLEGE:
- Finished his career at Monmouth University as the school's all-time leader in touchdown receptions (33), receptions (150) and yards (2,867).
- In eight games as a senior, had 51 catches for 1,101 yards and a team-record 14 touchdowns.
- In his sophomore and junior seasons, led the team in catches, yards and touchdowns, catching a then team-record 12 touchdowns as a sophomore.

PERSONAL:
- Miles Austin was a two-year letterman at Garfield, N.J., High School, where he played wide receiver and defensive back.
- As a senior, recorded 75 tackles and 10 interceptions.

- Also played basketball, finishing with 1,028 career points, and was a member of the track and field team, for which he recorded the second-longest javelin throw in Bergen County history (214'8").
- 2006 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- 2007 – 2008 Taste of the NFL: The Ultimate Dallas Cowboys Tailgate Party benefiting North Texas Food Bank.
- 2007 Cowboys NFL Draft Day Fan Appreciation Party.
- Annual Holiday Hospital Visits.

Nose Tackle

PRO: Remi Ayodele provided the Cowboys with depth at the nose tackle position after the early season loss of Jason Ferguson in 2007. Ayodele was allocated to NFL Europe in the spring of 2007 and had 15 tackles, one sack and one pass breakup with the Frankfurt Galaxy.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

9/1/07: Released then quickly re-signed and on Cowboys roster for three months before landing on the team's practice squad.
2/12/07: Allocated to NFL Europe.
11/7/06: Signed to Dallas's practice squad.
7/26/06: Signed with Baltimore but was released before the start of the season.
5/9/06: Signed as a rookie free agent with New England but was waived June 16.

2007 (Dallas):
- Played in seven games recording five tackles and forcing one fumble.
- Was inactive for five games and on the practice squad for the last four games of the season.

2006 (Dallas/Baltimore):
- Spent a couple of weeks on the Cowboys practice squad after remaining out of football after his release from Baltimore.

COLLEGE:
- As a senior at Oklahoma, started six games and finished the year with 11 tackles, six tackles for a loss, one sack and one fumble recovery.
- In two years at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M, helped the team go 21-3, posting 50 tackles, three sacks and recovered one fumble.
- In 2003 led the Golden Norsemen to a second straight conference championship, a bowl title and a second-place national ranking.

PERSONAL:
- Remilekun Ayodele's brother, Akin, plays linebacker for the Miami Dolphins, but played for the Cowboys for two seasons (2006-07).
- Remi was a sociology major at Oklahoma.
- Annual Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.

Running Back

PRO: Marion Barber shed the label as a third down and short yardage back in 2007 after leading the team in all rushing categories – 204 carries for 975 yards and 10 touchdowns – despite not starting a game during the regular season. His hard work and bruising running style was noticed around the league as Barber was selected to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. Since his arrival in Dallas in 2005, Barber has racked up 29 rushing touchdowns, good for seventh in team history. He scored 16 total touchdowns in 2006, leading the team, tying for the NFC lead, and tying for third in the NFL. Barber had the most total touchdowns by a Cowboys running back since Emmitt Smith had 25 in 1995. His 14 rushing touchdowns were the most in the NFC and the third-most in the NFL behind LaDainian Tomlinson (28) and Larry Johnson (17). They were also the most rushing touchdowns by a Dallas running back since Smith set the club record of 25 in 1995. Barber played right away as a rookie in 2005 and finished fifth among rookies in the NFL in rushing with 538 yards. He enters the 2008 season slotted as the starter for the first time in his pro career. In the 2007 offseason, Barber signed a six-year contract extension through 2014.

PRO BOWLS
07

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

5/20/08: Signed a six-year contract extension with Dallas through 2014.
4/24/05: Drafted in the fourth round (109th overall) by Dallas.

2007:
- Led the team with career-highs for carries (204), rushing yards (975) and touchdowns (10 – second-most in his career) despite serving as a reserve through the regular season.
- Earned his first career Pro Bowl selection.
- Had at least one rushing touchdown in each of the first four games of the season – his second-career four-game streak.
- Tied for third in the league with a 4.8 yard-per-carry average and tied for third among nonkickers with 72 points.
- Recorded his seventh career multi-touchdown game at Miami (9/16) then his second career 100-yard game with 102 yards at Chicago (9/23).
- Had his third career 100-yard game with 103 against the N.Y. Jets (11/22).
- Logged his 10th career multi-touchdown game and his first career three-touchdown performance (two rushing, one receiving) at Detroit (12/9).
- Rushed for 110 yards – his fourth career 100-yard game – at Carolina (12/22).

- Earned his first start of the season and first career postseason start against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08) and rushed for a career-high 129 yards on a career-high tying 27 carries.

2006:

- Finished with four multiple rushing touchdown games on the season.
- Scored his first touchdown of the season with a one-yard rush on fourth down against Washington (9/17) on Sunday night.
- Became the first Cowboys running back to score a touchdown in four straight games since 2000, when Smith did it in five straight games, with a rushing touchdown against Houston (10/15).
- Had two fourth quarter touchdowns – his third multiple-touchdown game of his career - to help seal the win at Carolina (10/29) then did it again with two more in the fourth quarter against previously undefeated Indianapolis (11/19).
- Rushed for a season-high 83 yards on a season-high 16 carries along with adding the first two receiving touchdowns of his career on Thanksgiving Day against Tampa Bay (11/23). It was the first time a Dallas back recorded two touchdown catches in a game since Preston Pearson against Chicago (10/24/76).

- Finished second on the team – fifth in the NFL among rookies – with 538 rushing yards while his five rushing touchdowns ranked fourth in the league among rookies.
- Made his NFL debut returning kickoffs at San Diego (9/11) and averaged 19.3 yards on three kickoffs.
- Was the third-down back at Oakland (10/2) and got the first two carries of his career.
- Earned his first NFL start against Arizona (10/30) and led the team with 127 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries. It was the first 100-yard rushing game of the season for Dallas, and the two touchdowns were the first of Barber's career.
- Scored two touchdowns against Detroit (11/20), his second two-touchdown game of the season and his third consecutive game with a touchdown.

COLLEGE:

- Gained 3,276 yards on 575 carries (5.7 yards-per-carry) and scored 35 touchdowns for Minnesota.
- Finished third in school history in career rushing yards (3,276) and 100-yard rushing games (14).
- Totaled 4,495 all-purpose yards and 35 rushing touchdowns, both ranked second in school history.
- Played just three years, having missed all but two games of his sophomore season before receiving a redshirt because of a chronic hamstring injury.
- As a junior earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors after rushing for 1,269 yards and 11 touchdowns.
- After recovering from a hamstring injury from a year earlier, rushed for 1,196 yards and 17 touchdowns to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors as a redshirt sophomore.
- Tied or broke several school records, including the records for rushing touchdowns in a season (17) and 100-yard rushing games (seven) in a season.
- Led the conference and finished seventh in the nation in punt-return average (14.5 yards-per-return).
- Was limited to two games with hamstring problems as a sophomore and earned an additional year of eligibility.
- As a true freshman, twice topped 100 rushing yards.
- Was the recipient of the Sheldon Douglas Endowed Scholarship at Minnesota.

PERSONAL:

- Marion Sylvester Barber was a SuperPrep and PrepStar All-Midwest and consensus all-state selection as a senior running back and defensive back at Wayzata, Minn., High School, rushing for 1,778 yards and 18 touchdowns and had 10 interceptions.
- Was an honorable mention all-conference center fielder for the Wayzata baseball team.
- The son of Marion Barber Jr., who rushed for 3,235 yards and scored 34 touchdowns for the Golden Gophers (1977-80) before embarking on a seven-year (1983-88) NFL career with the N.Y. Jets.
- Majored in business marketing at Minnesota.

MARTELLUS BENNETT

6-6 • 265 • 3/10/87
Texas A&M • D-2 for '08 (61st overall)
NFL: Rookie • Cowboys: Rookie

Tight End

COLLEGE: Martellus Bennett combines excellent size, strength and quickness providing the Cowboys with a complimentary tight end to Jason Witten that will be a threat as both a mid-range receiver and a blocker. He holds the Texas A&M school record with at least one reception in 29 consecutive games, topping the previous mark of 26 straight games by Terrence Murphy (2001-04). Bennett finished his career with 105 receptions, 1,246 receiving yards and 10 touchdowns. His 105 receptions tied the school career record for tight ends, matching a figure first set by Rod Bernstine (1983-86), and his 1,246 yards receiving yards rank 15th overall. His receiving yardage total set an Aggie tight end career-record, surpassing the old mark of 1,181 yards by Richard Osborne (1972-75). Bennett's 10 touchdown catches tied Terrence Murphy (2001-04) and Jamaar Taylor (2001-03) for eighth on the Aggies career-record chart and are the most ever by an A&M tight end.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/26/08: Drafted in the second round (61st overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- In 12 games of action with six starts as a junior, led the team with a career-high 49 receptions for 587 yards (12.0 avg.) and four touchdowns.
- His 49 grabs ranked second to Rod Bernstine (65 in 1986) on the school season-record list for tight ends and tied Barney Harris (1968) for ninth on the school's overall season-record list.
- Earned second-team All-Big 12 Conference choice by the San Antonio Express-News and Fort Worth Star-Telegram and honorable mention from the league's coaches and Associated Press.
- Thirty of his 49 receptions were good for first downs, as he helped convert 13-of-29 third-down throws and three-of-three on fourth-down.
- Had 23 catches for longer than 10 yards, including seven for more than 20 yards each.
- Caught five passes inside the red zone and had key catches that set up 13 touchdown drives and six others that ended with field goals.
- In addition to playing tight end, also saw action on the defensive line.
- Had a season-high 98 receiving yards on six receptions against Louisiana-Monroe.
- Recorded a career and season-high eight receptions for 91 yards against Kansas.
- Posted the second-multiple touchdown game of his career at Missouri on four catches for 63 yards.

- Started all 13 games as a sophomore, ranking second on the team with 38 receptions for 497 yards (13.1 avg.) and three touchdowns.
- Semifinalist for the John Mackey Award, given to the nation's top tight end and earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors from the Dallas Morning News, adding second-team accolades from the Houston Chronicle, Associated Press, San Antonio Express-News, Fort Worth Star-Telegram, Austin American-Statesman and the league's coaches.
- Recorded a season-high six receptions for 67 yards at Kansas.
- Had a career-high 133 receiving yards at Baylor on five catches along with two touchdowns – the first multiple-touchdown game of his career.
- Tied his season-high of six receptions against Nebraska for 67 yards.

2005:

- Played in 11 games as a true freshman, starting in five contests and had 18 catches for 162 yards (9.0 avg.) and three touchdowns.
- Earned Freshman All-American honors from The Sporting News and was an All-Big 12 Conference honorable mention by the league's coaches.
- Posted season-highs in catches (four) and receiving yards (39) at Colorado.
- Recorded the first touchdown of his career on a 14-yard reception against Oklahoma State. Finished with three catches for 34 yards.

PERSONAL:

- Martellus Demond Bennett attended Alief, Texas, Taylor High School where he was a three-year starter at tight end.
- Consensus prep All-America selection, a two-time all-district and all-Greater Houston choice at tight end, a member of Dave Campbell's Texas Football Super Team and a finalist for the Houston Touchdown Club Offensive Player of the Year.
- Earned first-team Class 5A all-state honors from the Texas Sports Writers Association after hauling in a team-high 42 catches for 487 yards and six touchdowns as a senior in 2004.
- Also played basketball, picking up all-Greater Houston accolades in 2004-05 and averaged 23 points and 8.2 rebounds-per-game as a senior.
- Lettered twice for the Texas A&M basketball team, appearing in 26 games as a reserve forward during the 2005-06 season, averaging 1.9 points, shooting 12-of-46 from the field and 25-of-41 from the free throw line. Dished out 12 assists and had 40 rebounds.
- Played in four games during the 2006-07 season before leaving the team in January.
- Was a communications major at Texas A&M.
- Older brother, Michael Jr., was his teammate and played along the defensive line at Taylor High School and Texas A&M (2005-07).

Guard

PRO: With another opportunity to land a young, big, versatile offensive lineman, the Cowboys claimed Joe Berger off waivers from Miami on Nov. 24, 2006. Although Berger has not seen much playing time in his NFL career, he is an intelligent, versatile lineman with the ability to play several positions along the offensive line which provides Dallas with added depth in a position group that sent three players to the Pro Bowl in 2008.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/27/07: Signed a one-year contract with Dallas.
11/24/06: Signed with Dallas.
11/23/06: Waived by Miami.
9/4/05: Waived by Carolina.
4/24/05: Drafted in the sixth round (207th overall) by Carolina.

2007:

- Was on the active roster for three games and was inactive for the remaining 13 and the club's Divisional Playoff Game.
- Active but did not play at Chicago (9/23) and at Carolina (12/22).
- Saw his only action of the season in the fourth quarter in place of Leonard Davis at right guard in the season finale at Washington (12/30).

2006 (Miami/Dallas):

- Was inactive for 11 games with Miami and five games with Dallas.

2005 (Carolina/Miami):

- Released by the Panthers at the end of camp and signed with the club's practice squad.
- After signing with the Dolphins on Sept. 7 off Carolina's practice squad, was inactive for the first 11 games.
- Played in the last three games as a reserve lineman for the Dolphins.

COLLEGE:

- Was a walk-on at Michigan Tech and started 28 games at right tackle in his four-year collegiate career.
- A first-team All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference pick in each of his final two years.
- Following his senior campaign, played in the Division II All-Star Cactus Bowl, where he earned the Jim Langer Award as the top offensive lineman.
- Was just the third player from Michigan Tech to be selected in the NFL Draft.

PERSONAL:

- Joseph Berger was an All-Western Waterways Activities Conference selection as a senior at Newaygo, Mich., High School.
- In two seasons of football, posted 238 tackles and an interception.
- Was the team captain as a senior and was an academic all-state honorable mention.
- Has a degree in mechanical engineering from Michigan Tech.
- Has one son, Gavin.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital visit.
- Annual team Kick Off Luncheon benefiting Happy Hill Farm.

Defensive End

PRO: A fine athlete with size, Stephen Bowen is rapidly developing into a solid spot player at the defensive end position. He uses his intelligence and technique to give Dallas a serious pass rushing threat off the bench. He also has the versatility to play at nose tackle. Although he was a season-long back-up to Chris Canty at right end last year, Bowen finished second among all Dallas defensive linemen in quarterback pressures with nine. He originally made the Cowboys practice squad as an undrafted free agent out of Hofstra in 2006 and moved to the active roster at the mid-way point of his rookie season. He spent all of last year as a key contributor in pass rushing situations.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

1/31/08: Signed a one-year contract with Dallas.
4/13/07: Signed a one-year contract with Dallas.
11/7/06: Signed to the Cowboys active roster.
9/3/06: Signed to the Cowboys practice squad.
5/1/06: Signed with Dallas as a rookie free agent.

2007:

- In his first full NFL season, tied for fourth on the team with nine quarterback pressures (tied for second among defensive linemen).
- Worked into the defensive line rotation as a back up to Canty at right end.
- His 23 tackles were good for fifth on the team among defensive linemen.
- Recorded his first tackle of the year in the win at Chicago (9/23). Also tied his season-high total for quarterback pressures against the Bears with two.
- In the win over Washington (11/18), had three tackles.
- In the win over Green Bay (11/29), his quarterback pressure led to an interception by Ken Hamlin.
- Recorded a season-high four tackles - tied for fourth on the team – while tying his season-high with two quarterback pressures in the loss to Philadelphia (12/16).

2006:

- Earned a spot on the Cowboys practice squad after training camp and was elevated to the team's active roster after eight games, on November 7.
- Was inactive for his first seven games on the active roster.
- Made his NFL debut in the season-ending loss to Detroit (12/31).
- Recorded his first career sack, dropping John Kitna for a six-yard loss, to go along with one other tackle in the loss to the Lions.
- Was inactive for the playoff loss at Seattle (1/6/07).

COLLEGE:

- A two year starter at Hofstra, finished his career with 168 tackles, 11.5 sacks and one interception - which he returned for a touchdown.
- As a senior, had 11 tackles for a loss and two passes defensed.
- As a junior, had a career-high nine tackles at New Hampshire and had eight stops in two other games.
- Finished his junior year with a career-high 68 tackles.
- Played in all 12 games as a sophomore, recording 49 stops, three sacks and one fumble recovery.

PERSONAL:

- Stephen Alexander Bowen attended Half Hollow Hills West High School in Dix, N.Y.
- Was a standout performer in both football and basketball.
- As a senior, recorded 235 rushing yards and four touchdowns to go along with 330 receiving yards and five touchdowns. Also had 97 tackles on defense.
- He and his wife, Tiffany, were married on March 1, 2008.
- 2006 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.

2006:

- Played in every game on special teams and as DeMarcus Ware's backup at linebacker and finished second on the team with 16 special teams tackles with 23 stops on defense.
- Had three tackles at Carolina (10/29), at Arizona (11/12) and at the N.Y. Giants (12/3) for season-highs.
- Had one of the best defensive plays of the year in the win over previously unbeaten Indianapolis (11/19), intercepting Peyton Manning and returning it 39 yards for a touchdown – his first career score – to tie the score at seven.
- Made his postseason debut in the Wild Card Playoff Game at Seattle (1/6/07), tying for the team lead with three special teams stops.

- Played mostly on special teams and finished the season with 11 tackles, tying him for fourth on the team.
- Was inactive for the first two games of the season after having arthroscopic surgery on Sept. 8 to repair cartilage damage in his left knee.
- Saw his first NFL action on special teams at San Francisco (9/25).
- Recorded two tackles and his first career sack as Ware's backup at outside linebacker and added a stop on special teams against Kansas City (12/11).
- Led the team with three special teams tackles at Carolina (12/24).
- Placed on injured reserve Dec. 29 after tearing his right ACL during practice Dec. 28.

COLLEGE:

- Was a two-time All-Southeastern Conference selection at Tennessee.
- In 2003, he and offensive tackle Michael Munoz became the first juniors to serve as team captains since 1944. In 2004, they became the first two-time captains since J.G. Lowe in 1924-25.
- As a senior, earned All-America and first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors and was a semifinalist for the Butkus Award and the Bronko Nagurski Award, posting a career-high 120 tackles, six stops for a loss, a sack and an interception.

CHRIS CANTY

6-7 • 304 • 11/10/82
Virginia • D-4b for '05 (132nd overall)
NFL: 4th Year • Cowboys: 4th Year
Games/Starts: 2007-16/16; Career-48/34;
Postseason- 2007-1/1; Career-2/2.

Defensive End

PRO: Chris Canty emerged as perhaps the biggest surprise of the Cowboys 2005 draft class after entering his senior season as a potential first-round draft choice. Canty fell to the fourth round because of a knee injury suffered during his senior season and a detached retina in his left eye suffered in the spring before the draft. He has played in all 50 games since arriving in Dallas and has started all 16 regular season games the past two seasons. As a rookie, Canty led all Dallas defensive linemen with 43 tackles. After splitting time with Greg Ellis at defensive end in his rookie season, Canty started all 16 games at defensive end following Ellis's move to linebacker in 2006 and once again in 2007.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

6/11/08: Signed his restricted free agent tender offer – a one-year contract.
4/24/05: Drafted in the fourth round (132nd overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and finished third on the team with 3.5 sacks, tied for third with four tackles for losses and 10th with a career-best 46 tackles.
- Recorded his first sack of the season at Miami (9/16) on the game's final play.
- Blocked his first career field goal that was returned by Patrick Watkins 68 yards for a touchdown against Minnesota (10/21).

- Had a season-best and career-high tying six tackles and a sack at the N.Y. Giants (11/11).
- Tied his season-high with six stops at Detroit (12/9).
- In the Divisional Playoff Game against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08), had three tackles, a pressure and a sack.

2006:

- Started at defensive end in all 16 regular season games and the team's lone playoff game.
- Recorded his first sack of the season and added three tackles at Tennessee (10/1).
- On Christmas Day against Philadelphia (12/25), tied his career-high with six tackles.
- In the wild card game at Seattle (1/6/07), was third on the team with a postseason career-high seven tackles along with a tackle for a loss and a pass breakup.

2005:

- Spent the spring and summer rehabilitating his knee and recovering from the detached retina and was back on the field one week into training camp.
- Through the season, split time with Greg Ellis at right defensive end and led all Dallas defensive linemen with 43 tackles, was second on the team with five tackles for a loss and was tied for fourth with 2.5 sacks.
- Recorded his first NFL tackle and quarterback pressure in the season opener at San Diego (9/11).
- Against Washington (9/19), notched his first career sack.
- Had a season and career-high six tackles at Oakland (10/2).
- Led all linemen with three tackles and added his second sack of the season against Denver (11/24).
- At the N.Y. Giants (12/4), made his first NFL start, replacing Ellis at right end, and recorded four tackles.
- Started again the next week against Kansas City (12/11) and led all defensive linemen with five tackles despite suffering a sprained ankle during the game.

COLLEGE:

- Was a two-time second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection and led all conference defensive linemen in tackles as a sophomore and junior.
- His senior campaign ended in the fourth game of the season, when he tore his left anterior cruciate ligament, medial collateral ligament and posterior cruciate ligament.
- Had 30 tackles, seven stops for a loss, a sack and a forced fumble prior to the injury.
- As a junior, was named second-team All-ACC, Lineman of the Year in Virginia and recipient of the Ned McDonald Award as Virginia's Most Outstanding Defensive Player, recording a career-high 104 tackles, 12 stops for a loss, 12 pressures and four sacks.
- Became only the second down lineman in school history to record more than 100 tackles in a season and earned All-ACC Academic honors.
- Despite missing three games because of an injury, finished his sophomore season with 86 tackles, four stops for a loss, four pass deflections, three pressures, three fumble recoveries and two sacks while starting eight-of-11 games.
- Played 12 games as a reserve defensive end in 2001 after redshirting his first year at Virginia.
- Started one game and recorded 23 tackles, three pressures, two passes defensed and a tackle for a loss.

PERSONAL:

- Christopher Lee Canty played football only during his junior and senior years at Latin School in Charlotte, N.C.
- Earned all-state honors as a senior tight end and defensive end after recording 20 catches for 400 yards and 89 tackles and seven sacks.
- Finished his prep career with 161 tackles, 12 sacks and two fumble recoveries.
- Was also a two-year letterman and all-conference honoree on the basketball team.
- Received his bachelor's degree in African-American studies in May 2004 and did graduate course work in secondary education during his final football season at Virginia.
- Canty's mother, Shirley, is an ordained Methodist minister.
- 2005 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- 2006-2008 The Stars of Texas...Racing Against the Odds for American Diabetes Association.
- 2007 & 2008 Dallas Cowboys Draft Day/Fan Appreciation Party.
- 2007 Dallas Cowboys Early Thanksgiving Day Meal at The Salvation Army.
- 2008 Taste of the NFL: The Ultimate Dallas Cowboys Tailgate Party for the North Texas Food Bank.
- Hosts the Chris Canty Football Camp in his hometown of Charlotte, N.C.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Annual Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- Annual team Kick Off Luncheon and Cowboys Cookbook benefiting Happy Hill Farm.

Linebacker

PRO: The Cowboys selected Bobby Carpenter with their first pick in the 2006 NFL Draft, giving them a tough, athletic linebacker who can play inside and outside linebacker in the 3-4 scheme. Carpenter has the size and speed to be an effective run stopper and pass rusher while also displaying the ability to cover backs or tight ends in the passing game. His playing time has been limited in his first two seasons in the deep Dallas linebacking corps, but a midseason injury to Greg Ellis in 2006 accelerated Carpenter's development, and he was a solid contributor on the outside by season's end. He also surfaced as a strong special teams performer finishing second on the team in 2007 and tied for eighth in 2006. Carpenter came to Dallas as one of the most accomplished players from Ohio State in recent years. He is the son of former NFL running back Rob Carpenter, who played for the N.Y. Giants (1983-85) under former Cowboys head coach Bill Parcells, who drafted Bobby.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/29/06: Drafted in the first round (18th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Played in 16 games – mostly on special teams – finishing second on the team with 21 special teams tackles and two stops on defense.
- Tied for the team lead with two special teams stops against the N.Y. Giants (9/9).
- Led the team with four special teams tackles at Chicago (9/23).

- Against Minnesota (10/21), delivered a key block to free Patrick Watkins on his 68-yard block field goal return for a touchdown on special teams. Assisted on one tackle on defense.
- Led the team with a season-high five special teams tackles against Philadelphia (12/16).
- Posted one stop on defense and two more on special teams at Washington (12/30).
- Saw action on special teams and downed a Mat McBriar punt at the three-yard line and recorded one tackle in the playoff loss to the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08).

2006:

- Spent most of his rookie year learning both the outside and inside linebacker positions in the Cowboys 3-4 scheme and playing on special teams.
- A season-ending injury to outside linebacker Greg Ellis forced him into the lineup late in the season, where he made one regular season start and finished with 11 tackles.
- Inactive for the season-opener at Jacksonville (9/10).
- Played his first regular season game against Washington (9/17) in a limited role as part of the Dallas nickel defense and on special teams.
- Recorded his first professional tackle on special teams at Washington (11/5).
- In the win at Arizona (11/12), recorded a special teams tackle and played strongside linebacker late in the game after Ellis sustained his season-ending injury.
- Split time with Al Singleton at strongside linebacker and recorded his first career defensive tackle against Indianapolis (11/19).
- Again split time with Singleton in the Thanksgiving Day victory over Tampa Bay (11/23), recording one defensive tackle at strongside linebacker and one special teams stop.
- At Atlanta (12/16) recorded his first career sacks, splitting a third-quarter sack of Michael Vick with DeMarcus Ware and getting his first solo sack on the next possession.
- Had a regular season single-game high three tackles and added a special teams tackle against Philadelphia (12/25).
- Earned his first NFL start at outside linebacker in the season-ending loss to Detroit (12/31) and had two tackles and a pass breakup.
- In the wild card loss at Seattle (1/6/07), made his second start and had his best game as a professional, recording a season-high five tackles, a tackle for a loss and deflecting three passes.

COLLEGE:

- Finished his Ohio State career 10th on the school's all-time sacks list with 14.5 along with 191 career tackles, 23.5 tackles for a loss and three interceptions.
- As a member of one of the best linebacking corps in college that season, helped Ohio State lead the nation in rushing defense and finish fifth in total defense and scoring defense.
- Earned All-Big Ten Conference second-team honors for the second consecutive year after posting 49 tackles, a career-high eight sacks, 10.5 tackles for a loss and three pass deflections as a senior.
- The Buckeyes finished 10-2 and earned a berth in the Fiesta Bowl, where they defeated Notre Dame.
- As a junior, was an All-Big Ten Conference second-team selection after posting a career-high 93 stops, two sacks and 6.5 tackles for a loss. He also intercepted three passes and had three pass deflections.
- Played in every game, including four starts at strongside linebacker, and recorded 37 tackles, 4.5 sacks and 6.5 tackles for a loss as a sophomore.
- The Buckeyes went 11-2, including a win over Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl.
- In 2002, played in every game as a special teams player and reserve linebacker. The Buckeyes went 14-0 and won the national championship by beating Miami in the Fiesta Bowl.

PERSONAL:

- Robert Joseph Carpenter attended Lancaster, Ohio, High School, where he played football for his father.
- Was a first-team All-Ohio choice as a senior, and Rivals.com rated him the 13th-best outside linebacker in the country.
- Finished his high school career with 128 tackles and 12 tackles for a loss.
- As a member of the Lancaster swim team, advanced to the district finals in the 50- and 100-meter freestyle.
- Graduated with a degree in business from Ohio State.
- Participated in the NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program, attending the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University in the spring of 2008.
- He and wife, Cortney, were married March 15, 2008.
- 2006 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- 2007 Taste of the NFL: The Ultimate Dallas Cowboys Tailgate Party for North Texas Food Bank.
- 2007 Dallas Cowboys Draft Day/ Fan Appreciation Party.
- 2007 Cowboy Wives Christmas Party for The Family Place.
- 2008 Poker for Pets for SPCA of Texas.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Annual team Kick Off Luncheon and Cowboys Cookbook benefiting Happy Hill Farm.
- Annual Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.

Running Back

COLLEGE: Tashard Choice was the second running back drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the 2008 NFL Draft when he was selected in the fourth round (122nd overall). Choice will team with veteran Pro Bowler Marion Barber and Dallas's 2008 first round selection Felix Jones to bolster the Cowboys running game. Choice adds another game-breaking talent to the Dallas backfield after leading the ACC in rushing through his final two collegiate seasons, becoming the first player to accomplish that feat since Thomas Jones (Virginia, 1998-99). In that same span, he became the first Georgia Tech back to have consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, rushing for 1,473 yards as a junior and 1,379 as a senior. He finished his collegiate career as the school's record holder with 18 100-yard games, was third with 28 rushing touchdowns and fourth with 3,465 rushing yards. He started his collegiate campaign at Oklahoma and redshirted his first year (2003). He was Adrian Peterson's backup in 2004 before transferring to Georgia Tech for the 2005 year. Choice started 27 of the 38 games he played at Tech. He not only will be called upon out of the backfield, but will have to demonstrate to Dallas coaches an ability to play on special teams units.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/27/08: Drafted in the fourth round (122nd overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- All-America honorable mention by The NFL Draft Report and Sports Illustrated and a Doak Walker Award candidate.
- Earned first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors from the league's coaches and media, leading the team and conference – ranked 18th in the nation – with 1,379 yards and 10 touchdowns on 261 carries.
- Became the first player to lead the conference in rushing in consecutive seasons since Virginia's Jones (1998 and 1999).
- Added 14 receptions for 107 yards and completed one pass for a 17-yard touchdown against North Carolina.
- Missed a game and a half after suffering a right knee sprain that required surgery, but returned to start the final four games of the season.
- Had a string of 341 consecutive carries (from 2006-07) without a fumble snapped when he lost the ball against Maryland.
- Rushed for 100 yards-or-more in seven contests and had three two-touchdown games.
- Opened his final campaign against Notre Dame with a then game-best 196 rushing yards, only to top it against Miami with 204.

2006:

- Was an academic All-ACC first-team selection and added All-ACC second-team honors after leading the conference and ranking 13th in the nation with 1,473 rushing yards – the second-best single-season total in school history.
- Had 12 touchdowns and averaged 5.0 yards-per-rush on a school record 297 attempts.
- Set a school record with nine 100-yard performances on the season, including a string of seven consecutive games with at least 100 rushing yards to close out the season.
- Started all 14 games in his first season as Tech's starting tailback.
- Tacked on 12 receptions for 98 yards to total 1,571 all-purpose yards.
- Finished the season with a then career-high 169 rushing yards on 27 carries against West Virginia in the Toyota Gator Bowl to be named to the All-Bowl team by ESPN.com.
- Also added four catches for 32 yards in the bowl game to record a career-best 201 all-purpose yards.

2005:

- After transferring from the University of Oklahoma, was eligible to play after the NCAA granted a waiver of the residency requirement.

- Was Georgia Tech's second-leading rusher in his first season, finishing with 513 yards while tying for the team lead with six touchdowns as a reserve running back.
- Added 14 catches for 76 yards.
- Rushed for a season-best 107 yards and two touchdowns in a win over Duke.
- Logged his first start in the Yellow Jackets win over third-ranked Miami and finished with 84 yards on a season-high 29 carries.

Tackle

PRO: Marc Colombo is a big, strong lineman with playing experience at both tackle positions who provides Dallas with consistency and dependability after starting all 16 regular season games the last two seasons. After becoming the Bears first round selection (29th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft, he was limited to seven career starts at left tackle and played as a reserve right tackle in 11 other games in three seasons with the Bears. He suffered a serious knee injury toward the end of his rookie season, then spent all of 2003 and most of 2004 rehabilitating the injury. He entered the 2006 season as healthy as ever, starting all 16 games for the first time in his career. He also provides Dallas with an able body on special teams, having blocked two field goal attempts in his career. Colombo will continue to solidify the right side of the line as he enters the final year of his contract with Dallas.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

3/9/07: Signed a two-year contract extension with Dallas.
11/2/05: Signed with Dallas as a free agent.
9/13/05: Waived by Chicago.
11/8/04: Activated from Reserve/PUP to the active roster.
8/13/03: Placed on Reserve/PUP for the entire season.
11/26/02: Placed on Reserve/Injured after suffering a dislocated patella and femoral nerve damage at St. Louis (11/18).
4/20/02: Drafted in the first round (29th overall) by Chicago.

- Started every game at right tackle for the second consecutive year.
- Played a key role in one of the most prolific offensive seasons in club history while helping the team to a club record-tying 13 victories and the first NFC East title for Dallas since 1998.
- The Dallas offense finished the season second in the NFL in scoring (first in the NFC) with an average of 28.4 points-per-game. The 455 points scored marked the second-most in club history behind only the 1983 team (479 points).
- With an average of 365.7 yards-per-game, the Cowboys were third in the NFL (second in the NFC) in total offense.
- Dallas ranked fourth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in passing with an average of 256.6 yards-per-game.

- In the rushing offense category, the Cowboys were 17th in the NFL (seventh in the NFC) with an average of 109.1 yards-per-game.
- Offense gained 478 total yards and scored six touchdowns – which tied for the fourth-most in a season opener in club history against the N.Y. Giants (9/9) as Romo threw for a season-high 336 yards.
- The line blocked for a 100-yard rusher (Barber), 100-yard receiver (Owens) and a 300-yard passer (Romo) at Chicago (9/23) for the first time since at Washington (9/12/99).
- The offense put up a season-high 502 (336 passing and 171 rushing) total yards against St. Louis (9/30) – the most since the overtime game at Washington (9/12/99).
- Offense put together a 14-play drive – tying the longest drive of the season – to open the game against Minnesota (10/21) and Romo completed a single-game career-high 31 first half completions.
- Romo finished with a season-high 141.7 passer rating and a season-high 80.0 completion percentage at Philadelphia (11/4) completing 20-of-25 passes for 324 yards.
- Romo threw four touchdown passes at the N.Y. Giants (11/11) and against Washington (11/18) to become the first quarterback in team history to throw four touchdowns in back-to-back games.
- The running game picked up a season-high 174 yards against the N.Y. Jets (11/22) as Barber rushed for 103 yards.
- The Dallas offense racked up 368 total yards as Romo finished with 302 passing yards – seventh 300-yard game of the season – and a 110.4 passer rating – his seventh consecutive game with a passer rating over 100.0.
- The offensive unit had a season-long 20-play, 90-yard drive for a touchdown in the second quarter that consumed 10:28, marking the longest time of possession on any drive this season. Also provided holes for Barber who rushed for a career-high 129 yards.

2006:

- Earned the starting right tackle position after training camp battle and started every game in one of the Cowboys most productive and efficient offensive seasons ever.
- The Cowboys offense scored 425 points (26.6 points-per-game), the fourth-most in the NFL.
- Dallas was second in the NFL in third-down efficiency (48.8%), the club's highest rating in that category since 1980.
- Dallas also averaged 360.8 yards-per-game in total offense, the fifth-most in the NFL and the most for the Cowboys since the 1995 season.
- Started in the season opener at Jacksonville (9/10) for the first time since the final game of the 2004 season.
- At Tennessee (10/1), the Cowboys rushed for a season-high 217 yards and three touchdowns, their best showing since December 14, 2003 (222 yards).
- Dallas quarterbacks combined to throw for a season-high 310 yards against the N.Y. Giants (10/23).
- Romo took over as the starter at Carolina (10/29) and the offense gained 414 total yards and controlled the clock for a season-best 38:16.
- At Arizona (11/12), the offensive line did not allow a sack, and Romo threw for 308 yards, his first 300-yard passing game.
- The offense gained a season-high 435 total yards (306 passing and 137 rushing) against Tampa Bay (11/23) and picked up a season-high 27 first downs, including 18 through the air, their most passing first downs since 1998. Romo also tied the club record with five passing touchdowns.
- Against Detroit (12/31), the line allowed Romo to throw for a season-high 321 yards and two touchdowns.

2005 (Chicago/Dallas):

- Returned to the Bears and played in the season opener at Washington (9/11) but was released the next week.
- Was out of football until signing with Dallas on Nov. 1.
- Inactive his first three games with Dallas.
- Played on special teams at the N.Y. Giants (12/4), against Kansas City (12/11), at Washington (12/18) and against St. Louis (1/1/06).

2004 (Chicago):

- Started the season on the reserve/PUP list while rehabilitating his knee injury.
- Moved to the Bears active roster in Week 10 and played in eight games, starting two at left tackle.
- At Tennessee (11/14), played in his first game since Nov. 18, 2002, and blocked a 52-yard field goal attempt, his second career blocked field goal.
- Started his first game of the season at Detroit (12/26) and helped the Bears gain 124 yards on 25 carries (5.0 yards-per-carry).

2003 (Chicago):

- Spent the entire 2003 season rehabilitating his knee injury.

2002 (Chicago):

- Played as a reserve the first five weeks of the season before becoming the starting left tackle in Week 6.
- Made his NFL debut in the season opener against Minnesota (9/8), subbing at right tackle for an injured James Williams.
- Blocked his first kick – a 28-yard field goal attempt – against Green Bay (10/7).
- Made his first career start, at left tackle, at Detroit (10/20) and started the next five games.
- Suffered a dislocated left patella and femoral nerve damage at St. Louis (11/18).
- Placed on Reserve/Injured list for the final five games of the season.

COLLEGE:

- Did not allow a sack in 20 games – his final two years at Boston College.
- In each of his four collegiate seasons, helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher.
- Earned All-Big East Conference honors playing both tackle positions as a senior as part of a line that helped the offense gain 4,361 yards, including over 1,000 rushing yards.
- Started all 12 games for the NCAA's 21st-ranked rushing attack and the Big East's third-ranked offense as a junior.

Guard

PRO: Prior to the 2007 season, Leonard Davis joined Dallas as the highest profile free agent acquisition on the offensive line in club history. During the 2007 season, he exceeded all expectations and earned his first career Pro Bowl selection. Davis established himself as one of the most physically dominant offensive guards in the NFL and became an integral part of one of the league's biggest and most productive units. His massive size and natural strength make him a powerful force as a run blocker, and his pass blocking ability helped quarterback Tony Romo re-write the Dallas record book.

PRO BOWL

Davis came to his native state of Texas after spending six seasons with the Arizona Cardinals. One of the most heralded offensive linemen to come out of the University of Texas, Davis was the second pick in the 2001 NFL Draft after the Falcons chose Michael Vick with the first pick. Davis's physical presence on the front will allow Dallas to line up with perhaps the NFL's most massive offensive lines again in 2008 as his four other starting teammates return. He joins tackles Flozell Adams (6-7, 340) and Marc Colombo (6-8, 318), center

Andre Gurode (6-4, 318) and guard Kyle Kosier (6-5, 305). Other than Kosier, a seventh-round pick in 2002, the offensive line is comprised of first or second round picks: Colombo went in the first round in 2002, Adams went in the second round in 1998, and Gurode was drafted in the second round in 2002. Davis has started 107 games in eight seasons and is expected to be a solid contributor at guard or tackle for several more seasons in Dallas. He played guard in his first three years in the NFL and switched to left tackle in Arizona in 2004.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

3/5/07: Signed as an unrestricted free agent from Arizona with Dallas.
12/31/04: Placed on Reserve/Injured with a left knee injury.
4/21/01: Drafted in the first round (2nd overall) by Arizona.

2007:

- Earned his first Pro Bowl selection after starting all 16 games at right guard, and joined his fellow line mates Adams and Gurode on the NFC offensive front.
- Was one of 13 Cowboys selected – setting a team and NFL record.
- Was also a second-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press.
- Played a key role in one of the most prolific offensive seasons in club history, while helping the team to a club record-tying 13 victories and the first NFC East title for Dallas since 1998.
- The Dallas offense finished the 2007 season second in the NFL in scoring (first in the NFC) with an average of 28.4 points-per-game. The 455 points scored marked the second-most in club history behind only the 1983 team (479 points).
- With an average of 365.7 yards-per-game, the Cowboys were third in the NFL (second in the NFC) in total offense.
- Dallas ranked fourth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in passing with an average of 256.6 yards-per-game.
- In the rushing offense category, the Cowboys were 17th in the NFL (seventh in the NFC) with an average of 109.1 yards-per-game.
- In the win over the N.Y. Giants on opening night (9/9), the line allowed just one sack on 24 pass plays and the running game picked up 142 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries (4.7 avg.). The offense scored six touchdowns – which tied for the fourth-most in club history in a season opener as they racked up 478 total yards – the most in a non-overtime game since 1996.
- Helped the line put up 431 total yards at Chicago (9/23) as the Cowboys produced a 100-yard rusher (Barber), 100-yard receiver (Owens) and a 300-yard passer (Romo) for the first time in a game since an overtime win at Washington (9/12/99).
- In the win over St. Louis (9/30), the line allowed just one sack as Romo completed 21-of-33 passes for 339 yards. The running game gained 171 yards as the offense racked up 502 total yards for the first time since the Washington overtime win (9/12/99).
- Against Minnesota (10/21), helped give Romo the time to complete 28-of-32 first half passes and 31 completions in the game for a single-game career-high.
- In the win over Washington (11/18), the offense allowed only one sack on 32 pass attempts with Romo completing 22 passes for 293 yards and four touchdowns. It was the first time in team history a quarterback threw for four touchdowns in back-to-back weeks.
- In the Thanksgiving Day win over the N.Y. Jets (11/22), helped provide the holes for the second 100-yard rusher of the season – Barber (103) – as the running game picked up a season-high 174 yards.
- Against Green Bay (11/29), did not allow a sack for the third time in 2007 as Romo completed 19-of-30 passes for 414 yards and four touchdowns. It was the fifth time the offense amassed 400-or-more yards in the season and the sixth 300-yard passing game of the year for Romo.
- At Detroit (12/9), the Dallas offense racked up 368 total yards as Romo his seventh 300-yard game of the season – and a 110.4 passer rating – his seventh consecutive game with a passer rating above 100.0.
- In the playoff loss to the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08), the line led a season-long 20-play, 90-yard drive for a touchdown in the second quarter that consumed 10:28, marking the longest time of possession on any drive in 2007. The line also provided holes for Barber – who finished with a career-high 129 yards on 27 carries (4.8 avg.).

2006 (Arizona):

- Started 16 regular season games at left tackle for the Arizona Cardinals.
- Was the leader of a unit that helped Edgerrin James become the first 1,000-yard rusher for Arizona since Adrian Murrell in 1998.
- Helped James produce the Cardinals first individual 100-yard rushing game since 2004 when he ran for 115 yards at St. Louis (12/3).
- Then helped James rush for 115 yards the following week in a 27-21 win over Seattle (12/10). The Cardinals line did not allow a sack of quarterback Matt Leinart.
- Two weeks later, James gained 105 yards in a 26-20 win at San Francisco (12/24).

2005 (Arizona):

- Started the first 15 games at left tackle before a knee injury forced him to miss the final game of the season at Indianapolis (1/1/06).
- His blocking helped Cardinals quarterback Kurt Warner complete a club record 64.5 percent of his 375 pass attempts.
- The Cardinals finished with the NFL's best passing offense for the first time in club history with 277.3 yards-per-game and ranked eighth in the NFL in total offense with 348.4 yards-per-game.

2004 (Arizona):

- Made a successful switch to left tackle after playing guard his first three years in the NFL.
- Started 15 games at left tackle in 2004 under first-year Cardinals head coach Dennis Green.
- Arizona went 6-10, including 5-3 at home, giving the Cardinals a winning record at home for the first time since 1998.
- Helped the NFL's all-time leading rusher, Emmitt Smith, rush for 937 yards and nine touchdowns in his final season. Smith finished his career with 18,355 rushing yards.

- Left the game against Seattle (12/26) with a knee injury and was placed on the injured reserve list on December, 31.
- Missed the final game of the year, a win over Tampa Bay (1/2/05).

2003 (Arizona):

- Missed the preseason after breaking a bone in his right hand during training camp.
- Started the regular season at right guard in Detroit (9/7), marking the first time he had played right guard since the 2001 season finale at Washington (1/6/02).
- Left the game against the Lions in the first half with a right ankle sprain and did not return.
- Despite limited practice time, returned to fulltime duty in the Cardinals home-opening loss to Seattle (9/14).
- Was inactive the following two weeks, against Green Bay (9/21) and at St. Louis (9/28) due to the injury.
- Blocking helped rookie Anquan Boldin set a rookie record for receptions with 101. Boldin also had 1,377 receiving yards.

2002 (Arizona):

- A preseason injury to starting right tackle Anthony Clement forced Davis to move to right tackle for the first time in his NFL career.
- Made first pro start at right tackle in the season opener at Washington (9/8).
- While playing tackle and his regular position, right guard, helped Marcel Shipp rush for 834 yards and 4.4 yards-per-carry.
- Cardinals averaged 4.4 yards-per-carry and 113.9 yards-per-game on the ground.
- Sprained his left knee in a loss to San Francisco (12/21) and did not finish the game.
- After the season, underwent an arthroscopic procedure on the knee (1/16/03).

2001 (Arizona):

- As a rookie, started 16 regular season games at right guard.
- Was a consensus All-Rookie selection despite suffering from back spasms late in the season.
- Cardinals offensive line allowed just 29 sacks, the second-fewest in a 16-game season in Cardinals history. The 1978 Cardinals, which featured three Pro Bowlers – center Tom Banks, tackle Dan Dierdorf, and guard Bob Young – allowed 22 sacks.
- With solid protection, quarterback Jake Plummer threw for 3,653 yards and 18 touchdowns, his most touchdown passes in a season as a Cardinal.

COLLEGE:

- As the second overall selection in the 2001 NFL Draft, was the highest University of Texas Longhorn player chosen since Kenneth Sims went first in 1982.
- Following his senior year, was a first-team All-America selection at left tackle by the Walter Camp Foundation, The Football Writers Association, and The Sporting News.
- A consensus All-Big 12 Conference first-team selection, was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, given to the top lineman in college football.
- As a senior, helped the Longhorns finish 12th in the nation following a 9-3 season and a berth in the Holiday Bowl.
- Texas ranked eighth in the nation in scoring in 2000 with 38.6 points-per-game and 14th in the nation in total offense with 439.0 yards-per-game.
- Began his collegiate career as a defensive lineman and moved to the offensive line after his freshman year.

PERSONAL:

- Signing with the Cowboys allowed Leonard Barnett Davis to relocate to the NFL town closest to his home in Wortham, Texas, which is 70 miles southeast of Dallas.
- In a town of just over 1,000 residents, attended Wortham High School, which had fewer than 150 students.
- Was a first-team all-state selection on offense and defense at Wortham.
- Was honored as a Parade magazine and USA Today first-team All-America after his senior season.
- Also lettered in track and basketball.
- Finished fourth in the shot put and fifth in the discus at the Texas Class 1A finals as a senior. He was third in the shot put and fifth in the discus at the state finals as a junior.
- In basketball, averaged 10.0 points and 10.0 rebounds-per-game and led Wortham to the Texas Class 1A hoops title.
- Always the biggest player on his high school teams, was 6-3, 305 pounds in seventh grade.
- His older half-brother, Charles, began his NFL career with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1974, then played for the St. Louis Cardinals (1975-79) and the USFL's Houston Gamblers (1980).
- Has 21 half-brothers and half-sisters.
- Before Leonard was born, his father, L.A. Davis, had 11 children from a previous marriage, and his mother, Sammie Lee, had 10 children from a previous marriage.
- Davis and his wife, Amanda, have two daughters, Meeya and Mariya.
- Was a youth and community services major at Texas.

Linebacker

PRO: A team leader and a truly inspirational player, Greg Ellis has been a pillar of consistency and production for the Cowboys in his 10 seasons as an NFL player. Whether it be overcoming the adversity of a serious injury or making a position switch in the later stages of his career, Ellis has always responded. Since being picked in the first round (8th overall) of the 1998 NFL Draft, Ellis has started 140 of the Cowboys 146 games and has missed just 12 games because of injury. He has returned to the field after two very severe injuries in his career, and has bounced back to be a highly productive player in the seasons following both setbacks. In 2007 he was named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year after returning from a ruptured Achilles injury that ended his 2006 season at Arizona (11/12/06). In 2007 while playing in just 13 games, he responded with his first Pro Bowl selection and a career-high 12.5 sacks. He led the team or tied for the team lead in sacks from 2001 to 2005, tying Jethro Pugh's club record (1968-72) for most consecutive seasons as the team leader in sacks. Ellis has led the Cowboys in sacks six times, one short of Harvey Martin's team record. He has also led the Cowboys defensive linemen in tackles six times. His career totals include 69 sacks, 182 quarterback pressures, and 51 deflected passes. Ellis was the Cowboys highest draft pick since Russell Maryland (first overall) in 1991. After starting 16 regular season games as a rookie, he missed the final three games in 1999 after fracturing his left tibia and fibula. He underwent surgery to have a titanium rod inserted into his leg, and after rehabilitation, he came back healthy for the start of the 2000 season. He led the club's defensive linemen with a then career-high 77 tackles, and his teammates named him the recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award for overcoming his injuries. Ellis has since emerged as a team leader and was named a team captain by his teammates in 2005 and 2006. He led the team in sacks in 2005, when the team made the transition from the 4-3 to the 3-4 scheme. Ellis's all-around talent makes him one of the league's most complete pass rushers off the edge.

PRO BOWL

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

11/15/06: Placed on Reserve/Injured with a torn left Achilles tendon.
9/27/03: Signed a seven-year contract with Dallas through 2009.
12/15/99: Placed on Reserve/Injured with a fractured tibia and fibula in his left leg.
4/18/98: Drafted in the first round (8th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- After fully recovering from a ruptured Achilles injury that cut his 2006 season short, responded with another productive year that saw him earn his first career Pro Bowl selection after 10 seasons.
- Was one of 13 Cowboys selected to the NFC squad – setting a team and NFL record.
- Named the NFL Comeback Player of the Year after returning to game action in Week 4 against St. Louis (9/30).
- Finished second on the team with a career-high 12.5 sacks, and was third on the club with 13 quarterback pressures.
- Second in the league among linebackers with 12.5 sacks and tied for sixth overall in the NFL (tied for fourth in the NFC). His total was also second-best by a Dallas linebacker in club history.
- Was inactive for the first four games of the year while returning to full strength from the injury.
- Returned to action against St. Louis (9/30) in the nickel defense as a pass rusher and recorded two quarterback pressures and 1.5 sacks. Helped hold the Rams offense to 187 total yards of offense and no points.
- Again used as a situational player against New England (10/14), sacked Tom Brady early in the second quarter – forcing a fumble that was recovered by Jason Hatcher who returned it 27 yards for a touchdown.
- Made his first start of the season against Minnesota (10/21) and recorded two sacks, five tackles and two quarterback pressures.

- Recorded three tackles, one quarterback pressure and one sack in his second start of the season at Philadelphia (11/4).
- In the 31-20 win at the N.Y. Giants (11/11), had three tackles, sacked Eli Manning and forced a fumble on the Giants final series of the game. The outing marked his fourth consecutive game with a sack and fifth game of the year with a sack.
- On Thanksgiving Day against the N.Y. Jets (11/22), enjoyed his best game of the year – recording a season-high six tackles, two quarterback pressures and two sacks for his 16th career multiple-sack game.
- Against Green Bay (11/29), provided steady pressure recording three tackles, one tackle for a loss, two quarterback pressures and two sacks – his 17th career multiple-sack game.
- At Detroit (12/9), recorded four tackles, one pressure, one pass breakup, a sack and forced a fumble.
- At Carolina (12/22), added two tackles, one quarterback pressure and one sack which forced a Carolina field goal.

- Although he had never played linebacker in the NFL, moved from down lineman to strong outside linebacker in the 3-4 scheme.
- Remained very productive at the new position and was tied for the team lead with 4.5 sacks and three tackles for a loss before suffering a season-ending injury to his left Achilles tendon in Week 9 at Arizona (11/12). Had surgery November 14 and was placed on injured reserve the next day.
- In the season-opener at Jacksonville (9/10), was second on the team with a season-high seven tackles with a tackle for a loss and a quarterback pressure that led to an interception.
- In the home-opening win over Washington (9/17), recorded four tackles and led the team with 1.5 sacks.
- In the win at Tennessee (10/1), had five tackles, including one on quarterback Vince Young that led to a five-yard loss and forced a fumble.
- In a loss at Philadelphia (10/8), finished second on the team with six tackles, including a tackle for a loss on a screen pass. Had one sack, which forced quarterback Donovan McNabb to fumble. DeMarcus Ware recovered the fumble and returned it 69 yards for a touchdown to give Dallas a 14-10 lead in the second quarter.
- In the home win over Houston (10/15), made his third career interception by diving for a pass that had been tipped by Bradie James. Ellis handed the ball off to Terence Newman, who returned it 12 yards to the Houston 23-yard line. The Cowboys then scored when Drew Bledsoe threw a touchdown pass to Terrell Owens.
- In a Sunday night win at Carolina (10/29), led the team with a season-high two sacks, forcing a fumble on the second sack. Jay Ratliff recovered the fumble at the Carolina 19-yard line to set up the Cowboys final touchdown of the night. Also had four tackles and helped limit Carolina to 204 total yards, including 70 in the second half.
- Posted three tackles before tearing the Achilles in his left leg in the third quarter at Arizona (11/12).

- Despite the move to the 3-4 defense, tied rookie linebacker Ware, for the team lead with eight sacks and led the team with 21 quarterback pressures from his defensive end position.
- Had at least half a sack in nine-of-16 games and tied for the team lead with two fumble recoveries. Led the team in sacks for the fifth straight season.
- Ellis and Ware finished the season tied for 11th in the NFC in sacks. Ellis also knocked down five passes, the most by a Dallas defensive lineman and the fifth-most on the team.
- In the season opening win at San Diego (9/11), recorded half a sack and a season-high four quarterback pressures.
- In the win at San Francisco (9/25), had a sack, his third straight game with at least a half-sack, and three quarterback pressures.
- In the overtime win over the N.Y. Giants (10/16), recorded three quarterback pressures and a sack, and quarterback Manning went 14-for-30 passing (46.7 percent). Recovered a Manning fumble at the Dallas 30-yard line in the fourth quarter and returned it 37 yards to set up the Cowboys final field goal in regulation.
- Had his only multi-sack game of the season with 1.5 sacks against Arizona (10/30). Also had two tackles, three quarterback pressures and a pass deflection.
- In the Monday night win at Philadelphia (11/14), Dallas was clinging to a 21-20 lead with 2:27 left in the game on third-and-15, when he forced a fumble on his sixth sack of the year (the 50th of his career), but the fumble was recovered by Philadelphia.
- In the win over Detroit (11/20), forced a fumble on his seventh sack of the season, and Dat Nguyen recovered the fumble with 4:17 left in the game to seal the win.
- In the Thanksgiving Day overtime loss to Denver (11/24), recorded a sack in his fourth consecutive game, and his eighth of the season. Also had two tackles, batted down a third down pass attempt and had a pressure.
- Second tackle of the Broncos game (11/24) was the 500th of his career.
- In the loss at the N.Y. Giants (12/4), did not start the game for the first time in his career, ending a string of 121 consecutive starts. Also had a four-game sack streak stopped against the Giants although he had three quarterback pressures.

2004:

- Registered the most sacks (nine) and pass breakups (12) of his career while turning in his third-best season for quarterback pressures (22).
- Had the most pass breakups by a Dallas defensive lineman since Ed 'Too Tall' Jones had 14 in 1988.
- Only Newman had more pass breakups on the team (13), and among NFL defensive linemen, only Miami's Jason Taylor had more (15).
- His nine sacks ranked 12th in the NFC and tenth among NFC defensive ends, and he led the team in sacks for the fourth straight season.
- Had a sack in seven games, including three multi-sack games, and led Dallas defensive linemen with 63 tackles.
- In the home-opening win over Cleveland (9/19), led the team with seven tackles and had five quarterback pressures, including one that led to a safety. Also had one sack and a tackle for a loss.
- Registered two sacks, three tackles, and a quarterback pressure in the win at Washington (9/27).

- In the loss to the N.Y. Giants (10/10), had two sacks, six tackles, four quarterback pressures and two tipped passes.
- Added his sixth sack of the year in the loss to Pittsburgh (10/17), then failed to record a sack for the first time in five games at Green Bay (10/24), which allowed just 12 sacks of Brett Favre all season.
- In the Thanksgiving Day victory over Chicago (11/25), tied for second on the team with five tackles and added 1.5 sacks and two quarterback pressures.
- Recorded two tackles, a quarterback pressure and his career-best ninth pass breakup at Seattle (12/6).
- In the loss at Philadelphia (12/19), blocked an extra point and set up the Cowboys only touchdown with a sack and a forced fumble. He also had five tackles, including one for a loss, a pass breakup, and three quarterback pressures.

2003:

- Helped Dallas return to the playoffs for the first time since 1999 and finish the year with the league's top-ranked defense. The Cowboys allowed only 253.5 yards-per-game, including just 89.1 rushing yards (third in the NFL) and 164.4 passing yards (first in the NFL).
- Led the team in sacks for the third straight year with eight, the most by a Cowboy since Tony Tolbert had 12 in 1996.
- Closed the year with 48 tackles, 19 pressures, eight pass breakups, four tackles for a loss, and four forced fumbles.
- In the Cowboys come-from-behind overtime victory at the N.Y. Giants (9/15), finished second on the team with five tackles, had a career-high three pass breakups, and added four quarterback pressures and half a sack. Also forced a Tiki Barber fumble and forced Kerry Collins to throw an interception to Al Singleton, who returned it 41 yards for a touchdown.
- Recorded his fourth sack of the season at New England (11/16) and his fifth sack at Philadelphia (12/7).
- Against the N.Y. Giants (12/21), registered two sacks – his first multi-sack game of the season – tied his season-high with four pressures, and forced a fumble.
- In the wild card loss at Carolina (1/3/04), led all defensive linemen with five tackles, including one for a loss, and had the team's only sack.

2002:

- Led all linemen and was fourth on the team with a career-high 87 tackles, topping his previous best of 83 from 2001.
- Also led the team and tied for 16th in the NFC with 7.5 sacks.
- Added a team and a career-high 30 quarterback pressures, topping his previous best of 26 from 2001.
- Opened the season with a bang, recording at least half a sack in each of the first four games.
- In a win over Tennessee (9/15), tied his career-high of two sacks and tied for the team lead among linemen with six tackles. Also led the team with three quarterback pressures.
- At Philadelphia (9/22), had two sacks for his second straight game and tied his career-high with six quarterback pressures. It was the first time a Cowboy had consecutive multi-sack games since Tony Tolbert in Weeks 5-6 in 1996.
- In a last minute win at St. Louis (9/29), made two crucial plays. On the Rams final drive, had the Cowboys only sack of the day on third-and-three at the Dallas 25-yard line. The Rams were forced to attempt a 49-yard field goal, which hit the right upright. Dallas got the ball back and kicked the game-winning field goal. In the first quarter, ended a Rams drive with his second career interception, – Dallas then scored its only touchdown of the day. Finished with three tackles, a sack, two quarterback pressures and an interception.
- Headaches resulting from a concussion in the Arizona (10/20) game forced him to miss a loss at Detroit (11/3).
- Against Jacksonville (11/24), led the team with a season-high 10 tackles and recorded his first sack since Week 4. Added five quarterback pressures and a tackle for a loss.
- Against San Francisco (12/8), tied for the team lead among defensive linemen with eight tackles and recorded the team's only sack of the game.

2001:

- Started 16 regular season games and led Dallas with six sacks, 26 quarterback pressures, and four forced fumbles.
- His 83 tackles were most among the team's defensive linemen and fourth-most on the team, and his seven tackles for a loss were third-most on the team.
- Helped the Cowboys finish fourth in the NFL with 287.4 yards allowed-per-game, and they ranked third in the NFL with 180.6 passing yards allowed-per-game.
- In the season-opening loss to Tampa Bay (9/9), led Dallas defensive linemen with nine tackles and had one of Dallas's two sacks.
- At Philadelphia (9/30), had a career-high six quarterback pressures and two pass deflections.
- In the Monday night win over Washington (10/15), posted five tackles and his second sack of the year and helped limit the Redskins to 226 total yards. His biggest play of the game came with 2:39 left, when he recovered a Stephen Davis fumble at the Cowboys 33-yard line to set up a drive that resulted in the game-winning field goal.
- Had seven tackles in the win over Arizona (10/28) and eight tackles at the N.Y. Giants (11/4), leading all defensive linemen in both games. Also logged his third sack of the season against the Giants and forced a fumble on the play.
- In Atlanta (11/11), was second on the team with seven tackles, and had two sacks for his first multi-sack game of the season.
- In the win over the N.Y. Giants (12/9), recorded his sixth sack of the year, a fourth quarter takedown of Kerry Collins that also forced a fumble.
- In the Cowboys upset win over playoff-bound San Francisco (12/30), posted three tackles and two quarterback pressures and recovered a fumble.

2000:

- After holding down the left end position for the Dallas defensive line for two years, Ellis switched to the right side in 2000 to take pressure off his injured left leg.

- Responded to the position switch by leading all defensive linemen with 77 tackles and tied for the team lead with seven tackles for a loss and two fumble recoveries.
- Finished second on the team with 13 quarterback pressures.
- After rehabilitating his fractured leg in the offseason and being eased onto the field in camp, returned full-time for the final two preseason games.
- In the season opener against Philadelphia (9/3), led all defensive linemen with eight tackles and had a tackle for a loss.
- At Washington (9/18), recorded his first sack of the season on the game's final play to preserve the Cowboys Monday night win. Also recovered a Redskins fumble in the second quarter to set up a Dallas touchdown.
- Registered a career-high 11 tackles against San Francisco (9/24), the most tackles by a Dallas defensive lineman since Chad Hennings had 11 against the Giants on Dec. 21, 1997.
- Against Jacksonville (10/29), faced perennial All-Pro Tony Boselli and registered five tackles, a tackle for a loss, and a quarterback pressure. Also forced Boselli into two illegal procedure penalties.
- Recorded the first blocked field goal of his career against the Jags when he got his hand on a 49-yard attempt by Mike Hollis in the fourth quarter.

1999:

- Despite missing the final three regular season games because of a fractured left tibia and fibula, led the team with 7.5 sacks.
- Before the injury, was eighth in the NFC in sacks and was tied for the team lead with 17 quarterback pressures.
- Finished the season with 59 tackles, four pass breakups, and two forced fumbles.
- Set the tone for the season in the first game, recording five tackles and a career-best two sacks in the overtime win at Washington (9/12). The first sack came with the Redskins at the Dallas four-yard line and forced a fumble, which George Teague recovered. The second sack came on third-and-three on the Redskins first possession in overtime and forced them to punt. Dallas then drove 95 yards for the game-winning score.
- The next week against Atlanta (9/20) on Monday Night Football, had six tackles and recorded his first career interception when he picked off Danny Kanell and raced 87 yards for a touchdown.
- The play against the Falcons was the longest touchdown return by a defensive lineman in club history until Ellis topped himself against Arizona (10/3), recovering a Cardinal fumble by quarterback Jake Plummer and rumbling 98 yards for a touchdown, the longest fumble return in Cowboys history.
- Became the first Cowboys defensive player since Ray Horton in 1991 (vs. the Giants on Sept. 29 and at Green Bay on Oct. 6) to score a touchdown in back-to-back weeks.
- At Minnesota (11/8), recorded a career-high two sacks in a game for the second time in 1999 and led all defensive linemen with five tackles.
- Against Green Bay (11/14), helped limit Favre to a 57.1 quarterback rating and the Packers to 40 rushing yards. Finished with three tackles and a team-high three quarterback pressures.
- Tallied a season-high eight tackles at Arizona (11/21) to finish second on the team and added a sack and three quarterback pressures.
- Recorded his final sack of the season at New England (12/5) and added four tackles.
- His season came to an abrupt end the next week against Philadelphia (12/12) when he fractured the tibia and fibula in his left leg in the first quarter.
- Underwent surgery the night of the injury and had a titanium rod inserted into the leg.
- Was placed on injured reserve on December 15. He also underwent surgery Feb. 10, 2000, to have a bone chip removed from his right wrist.

1998:

- Became the first Cowboys rookie to start a season opener at defensive end since Bob Lilly in 1961. Earned first NFL start against Arizona (9/6).
- Led the team with 22 quarterback pressures and led all defensive linemen with 63 tackles.
- Also had five tackles for a loss, five passes defensed, and three sacks.
- Since the league began tracking tackles in 1979, was the first Cowboys rookie to lead the team's defensive linemen in tackles.
- First big game came in a win at the N.Y. Giants (9/21) where he posted three tackles, two quarterback pressures and picked up his first career forced fumble.
- Recorded his first career sack and had three tackles against Oakland (9/27).
- Registered a season-high nine tackles and added 1.5 sacks against Carolina (10/11).
- Against Minnesota (11/26) on Thanksgiving Day, led all defensive linemen with four tackles and added two quarterback pressures and two passes defensed.
- Added six tackles and his first career fumble recovery at New Orleans (12/6). Led all defensive linemen with seven tackles and four quarterback pressures against Philadelphia (12/20).
- In his first playoff game, against Arizona (1/2/99), led all defensive linemen with eight tackles.

COLLEGE:

- With 32.5 career sacks, left North Carolina as the school's all-time sack leader.
- As a senior, earned All-America honors, was a finalist for the Lombardi Award, and was an All-ACC selection for the third straight season after posting 87 tackles, nine sacks, and 32 quarterback pressures.
- As a junior, was named second-team All-America by The Sporting News and first-team All-ACC after making 62 tackles, a school-record 38 quarterback pressures, and 12.5 sacks, the second-most sacks in a season in school history behind Lawrence Taylor's 16 in 1979.
- In 1995, became the first Tar Heel sophomore to be named first-team All-ACC since Reuben Davis in 1985. Was also named honorable mention All-America by UPI after making 71 tackles and seven sacks.
- As a backup defensive end during his redshirt freshman year, ranked second on the team with four sacks.

PERSONAL:

- Gregory Lemont Ellis was an all-state selection as a tight end and defensive end at East Wake High School in Wendell, N.C.

- During his high school career, had five interceptions and returned all of them for touchdowns and blocked four punts and returned two of them for touchdowns.
- Was selected to play basketball in the North Carolina East/West Shrine Game.
- The Greensboro News and Observer voted him the Male High School Athlete of the Year in 1993.
- Received his degree in communications studies at UNC, where he was also a member of the junior varsity basketball team as a sophomore.
- Ellis's wife, Tangie, was his high school sweetheart. The couple has a daughter, Tyann (1/17/00), and son, Germiah Gregory (5/29/03).

Kicker

PRO: In a rare draft day move for the Cowboys organization, Dallas selected placekicker Nick Folk with a sixth round choice (178th overall) in 2007. Since the NFL Draft was reduced to seven rounds in 1994, the Cowboys had never spent a draft choice on a punter or a placekicker. Within a few short months, Folk went from a novelty to the Cowboys first ever rookie Pro Bowl kicker. Folk became only the third placekicker in club history to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Efren Herrera (1977) and Rafael Septien (1981). He also became the first Dallas rookie at any position to earn a trip to Hawaii since Emmitt Smith in 1990. After taking the job in training camp from veteran Martin Gramatica, Folk never looked back as he provided clutch field goals through his rookie campaign. He now teams with 2006 Pro Bowl punter Mat McBriar to give Dallas one of the best placekicker-punter combinations in the NFL. Folk's story-book first season in the NFL was punctuated by kicking a game winning 53-yard field goal as time expired to beat Buffalo after a previously successful try was wiped off the board by a Bills timeout.

PRO BOWL

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/29/07: Drafted in the sixth round (178th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Selected to the Pro Bowl following the 2007 season – the first Cowboys rookie to be selected since Emmitt Smith in 1990. Is also the only rookie kicker in franchise history to earn a Pro Bowl trip and only the third kicker in club annals to go to the Pro Bowl.
- Was one of 13 Cowboys selected to go to Hawaii – setting a team and NFL record.
- Named to the All-Rookie team as placekicker by the Pro Football Writers.
- Named to the All-NFC Team by the Pro Football Writers.
- Finished fourth in the NFL in scoring among kickers (second in the NFC) with 131 points. Was also second in the NFL among rookie kickers.
- Established a club rookie record with 131 points which was also the third-most by any player in team history.
- Hit on all 53 of his PATs for the year and was 26-of-31 on three pointers.
- In his NFL debut against the N.Y. Giants (9/9), hit on all six PATs and a 31-yard field goal for his first NFL three pointer in the 45-35 win.
- At Miami (9/16), hit a 47-yard field goal and registered his first career touchback on a kickoff.
- Connected on all four of his extra points and was two-of-three on field goals – with one blocked field goal attempt at Chicago (9/23).
- At Buffalo (10/8), made the game-winning field goal as time expired with a career-long 53-yarder to give Dallas a 25-24 win on Monday Night Football. Folk earned the opportunity to make that kick after executing an onside kick that was recovered by Tony Curtis. He was four-of-four on field goals on the night (47, 29, 37, and 53) and hit his only PAT.
- Was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his effort at Buffalo.

- Against the N.Y. Jets (11/22) connected on four extra points and two field goals from 46 and 27 yards.
- In the big win over Green Bay (11/29), was a perfect seven-of-seven on kicks – three field goals (26, 51, and 25) and four PATs.
- At Carolina (12/22) hit both of his field goal attempts (42 and 23 yards) and added one tackle.

COLLEGE:

- Finished his career at the University of Arizona by hitting on 30-of-47 field goals, including a long of 53 yards. Was 79-of-81 on extra points.
- Also had 96 punts for 4,242 yards (44.2 yards-per-punt), including a long of 61 yards.
- As a senior in 2006, earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors after hitting on 15-of-20 field goal attempts, including a long of 52 yards.
- Was perfect from 29 yards or closer, four-of-five from 30-39 yards, and five-of-nine from 40-49 yards as a senior.
- Made his only field goal attempt from 50-plus yards, and only one of his kicks was blocked.
- Had 10 touchbacks, seven fair catches on punts and 24 punts downed inside the 20-yard line.
- Earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors as a junior, making 31-of-33 PATs and seven-of-11 field goals (63.6 percent).
- Made a 51-yard field goal against Purdue, the longest of his junior season.
- Took over as punter and handled kickoffs after the seventh game and finished with a league-best 44.7-yard average on 22 punts – landing eight inside the 20 with two touchbacks.
- Had a career-best 61-yard punt against Washington.
- Won the starting kicking job as a sophomore for the Wildcats.
- Earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention after making eight-of-13 field goal attempts and all 18 of his PATs.
- Made a career-long 53-yard field goal against Arizona State in the final game of his sophomore season.
- As a redshirt freshman, played in 10 games and took over as the placekicker in the last four.
- Was named to the honorable mention Pac-10 All-Academic team and received the team's Undergraduate Academics Award for the best grade point average and classroom excellence. Also received the 2002 and 2003 Academic Champion Award.

PERSONAL:

- Nicholas Folk attended Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks, Calif.
- Was named to the All-California Interscholastic Federation Southern Section second-team as a placekicker and to the first-team as a punter.
- Finished his prep career by hitting five-of-nine field goal attempts, including a long of 52 yards.
- Lettered four years in football and soccer.
- Was named to All-Mission League Academic Team and won the Scholar-Athlete Award.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- 2007 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- 2008 Poker for Pets for SPCA of Texas.
- 2008 Dallas Cowboys Draft Day/Fan Appreciation Party.
- 2008 Guest Reader at Fort Worth (Texas) Elementary School.

NFL: 2nd Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year
Games/Starts: 2007-1/0; Career-0/0;
Postseason-0/0.

Tackle

PRO: The Cowboys drafted Doug Free in the fourth round (122nd overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft with the hopes of him developing into a key player on the offensive line. He spent his rookie season learning from some of the best in the NFL, including 10-year veteran Flozell Adams and former first-round draft picks Marc Colombo and Leonard Davis.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/29/07: Drafted in the fourth round (122nd overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Started at left tackle for Adams in the first preseason game against the Colts.
- Suffered a knee sprain during the Indianapolis game and missed the rest of the preseason rehabbing.
- Inactive for the first 15 games of the season.
- Made his NFL debut at Washington (12/30) at right tackle during the fourth quarter.
- Was inactive in the Divisional Playoff Game against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08).

COLLEGE:

- Started all 49 games at Northern Illinois and was a semifinalist for the Draddy Award – which recognizes academic success, football performance, and exemplary community service.
- Earned first-team All-Mid American Conference and Academic All-MAC honors as a senior, and was a member of the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award Watch List and earned CBSSportsLine.com 'Halfway All American' honors.
- Started 13 games for the Huskies, helping them go 7-6 and play in the Poinsettia Bowl against Texas Christian as a senior.
- Started 12 games at left tackle and earned first-team All-Mid American Conference honors. Helped the team gain 206.7 rushing yards-per-game, which ranked 16th in the nation, and 441.1 total yards-per-game.
- Was also nominated for MAC All-Academic honors and CoSIDA District V All-Academic honors after earning a 3.24 grade point average in industrial technology.
- Earned Sophomore All-American third-team honors from College Sports Report and was named second-team All-Mid American Conference by the league's coaches.
- Started 12 games at left tackle, helping the team gain 438.8 total yards-per-game. Played a season-high 99 snaps against Eastern Michigan.
- Following his redshirt season, was named to the Freshman All-America third-team by The Sporting News. Started all 12 games, including the first two at right tackle, the next nine at left tackle, and the last game at tight end.

PERSONAL:

- Douglas Free lettered three times in football at Lincoln High School in Manitowoc, Wisc., where he was an honor roll student.
- Was a team captain as a senior and was named defensive lineman of the year. Also earned first-team All-

Fox Valley Conference honors on offense and defense, first-team Herald Times Reporter All-Area honors, and Milwaukee Journal Sentinel all-state honors.
- As a defensive tackle in 2002, led the team to a 7-3 record and a playoff berth, recording 64 tackles, eight sacks, seven blocked kicks, six forced fumbles, five pass deflections, and two fumble recoveries.
- Also had six receptions for 141 yards and a touchdown as a tight end.
- 2007 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- 2008 Poker for Pets for SPCA of Texas.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.

TERRY GLENN

83

Wide Receiver

5-11 • 195 • 7/23/74
Ohio State • Trade (GB) for '03
NFL: 13th Year • Cowboys: 6th Year
Games/Starts: 2007-1/0; Career-137/128;
Postseason: 2007-1/0; Career-9/8.

PRO: An explosive, fluid playmaker, Terry Glenn has been a deep threat in the Cowboys offense since he came to Dallas in a trade with Green Bay before the 2003 season. Since his arrival, he has averaged 16.0 yards-per-catch, and 150 of his 208 catches have picked up a first down. When healthy, he and Terrell Owens form a dangerous one-two punch and one of the NFL's most accomplished pair of starting receivers. Heading into the 2008 season, Glenn and Owens have combined for 1,472 receptions, 21,893 receiving yards and 173 touchdown receptions. In 2008 Glenn will be looking to bounce back from a knee injury that kept him on the sidelines for 15 games last year. The physical status of the 13-year NFL veteran could have a major impact in improving upon an offensive unit that was – in 2007 – one of the most prolific in club history. In 2006 Glenn and Owens became just the second pair of Dallas wide receivers to top 1,000 receiving yards in the same season, joining Tony Hill and Drew Pearson, who did it in 1979. Glenn's 70 receptions in 2006 were the third-most of his career. He has gained over 1,000 receiving yards in two of the last three years, making him the fifth receiver in club history to record multiple 1,000-yard seasons. In 2005 Glenn led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 18.3 yards-per-reception. He also topped 500 career receptions and tied a personal record with four 100-yard receiving games. In 2003 his first season with Dallas, Glenn led the Cowboys with 754 receiving yards and five touchdown receptions. His second season in Dallas began just as well, but a sprained foot in Week 6 ended his season. Before the injury, Glenn averaged 16.7 yards-per-reception. The Cowboys acquired Glenn from Green Bay for a sixth-round draft pick on February 28, 2003. The trade reunited Glenn with former head coach Bill Parcells, who was New England's head coach when the Patriots chose Glenn with the seventh pick in the 1996 NFL Draft. Glenn earned All-Rookie honors after catching an NFL rookie record 90 passes. While working with quarterback Drew Bledsoe in New England, Glenn recorded the fifth-most receptions and fourth-most receiving yards in Patriots history. During his 12-year career, he has recorded 593 receptions for 8,823 yards and 44 touchdowns. He also has 23 100-yard receiving games, including six games of 148 yards-or-more.

1996 PRO BOWL '99

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

2/28/03: Traded from Green Bay to Dallas.
3/11/02: Traded to Green Bay and signed a five-year contract with Green Bay.
1/10/02: Suspended for remainder of postseason by New England.
10/14/01: Suspended lifted by New England.
8/16/01: Suspended by New England for entire season.
8/3/01: Suspended by New England for four weeks.
11/8/00: Signed a six-year extension with New England.
4/20/96: Drafted in the first round (7th round) by New England.

2007:

- Endured a frustrating season in which he was never able to fully recover from a training camp knee injury.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on August 1 to remove loose cartilage in his right knee, causing him to miss most of training camp and all of the preseason.
- Returned to practice on September 5, but suffered a setback and then underwent a second arthroscopic surgery on Sept.13.

Center

Games/Starts: 2007-14/14; Career-90/74; Postseason: 2007-1/1; Career-3/3.

PRO: After an outstanding career at Colorado, Andre Gurode was selected by the Cowboys in the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft. He has started 77-of-93 games at center and guard, and he hit his stride in 2006, when he started every game and made his first career Pro Bowl as a center. He duplicated that feat in 2007 and earned the starting nod for the NFC team – joining fellow linemates Flozell Adams and Leonard Davis as starters for the NFC. With his size, great natural strength, and athleticism, Gurode is expected to be a key part of the Dallas offensive line for many years. In 2007 he helped the Cowboys offense enjoy one of the most prolific seasons in club history. Gurode played a key role in 2007 in helping Dallas produce Pro Bowl players at running back (Marion Barber), quarterback (Tony Romo), wide receiver (Terrell Owens) and tight end (Jason Witten). As a rookie in 2002, Gurode made six starts at center, and then had 39 starts at right guard over the next 56 games, including the postseason. From 2002 to 2004, he made 42 regular season starts, the second-most by a Dallas offensive lineman. Since the start of the 2006 season he has been a fixture as one of the top centers in the NFL. The Cowboys took Gurode with the 37th pick in the 2002 NFL Draft, the highest pick the team has used to draft an offensive lineman since 1981, when Howard Richards was selected with the 25th pick. Gurode is a part of a starting offensive line that will once again be among the NFL's biggest and best in 2008. He joins Adams (6-7, 340), Marc Colombo (6-8, 318), Davis (6-6, 353), and Kyle Kosier (6-5, 305). Other than Kosier, a seventh-round pick in 2002, the offensive line comprises first- or second-round picks: Colombo went in the first round in 2002, Adams went in the second round in 1998, and Davis went in the first round in 2001.

PRO BOWLS

06 07

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

2/20/07: Re-negotiated contract signed through 2012 with Dallas.
3/11/06: Signed a one-year contract with Dallas.
4/20/02: Drafted in the second round (37th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad – his second Pro Bowl selection in as many years. Was one of 13 Cowboys selected – setting a team and NFL record.
- Was also the All-Pro center as selected by The Sporting News.
- Played a key role in one of the most prolific offensive seasons in club history, while helping the team to a club record-tying 13 victories and the first NFC East title for Dallas since 1998.
- The Dallas offense finished the 2007 season second in the NFL in scoring (first in the NFC) with an average of 28.4 points-per-game. The 455 points scored marked the second-most in club history behind only the 1983 team (479 points).
- With an average of 365.7 yards-per-game, the Cowboys were third in the NFL (second in the NFC) in total offense.
- Dallas ranked fourth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in passing with an average of 256.6 yards-per-game.
- In the rushing offense category, the Cowboys were 17th in the NFL (seventh in the NFC) with an average of 109.1 yards-per-game.
- In the win over the N.Y. Giants (9/9), the line allowed just one sack on 24 pass plays and the running game picked up 142 yards and a touchdown on 30 carries (4.7 avg.). The offense scored six touchdowns – which tied for the fourth-most in club history in a season opener as they racked up 478 total yards – the most in a non-overtime game since 1996.
- At Chicago (9/23), helped the line put up 431 total yards as the Cowboys produced a 100-yard rusher (Barber), 100-yard receiver (Owens) and a 300-yard passer (Romo) for the first time in a game since overtime win at Washington (9/12/99).
- In the win over St. Louis (9/30), the line allowed just one sack as Romo completed 21-of-33 passes for 339 yards. The running game gained 171 yards as the offense racked up 502 total yards for the first time since the Washington overtime win (9/12/99).
- Against Minnesota (10/21), helped give Romo the time to complete 28-of-32 first half passes and 31 completions in the game for a single-game career-high.
- At Philadelphia (11/4), the line did not allow a sack on 25 pass plays as Romo completed 80.0% (20-of-25) of his throws for 324 yards and three touchdowns.
- In the win over Washington (11/18), the offense allowed only one sack on 32 pass attempts with Romo completing 22 passes for 293 yards and four touchdowns. It was the first time in team history a quarterback threw for four touchdowns in back-to-back weeks.
- In the Thanksgiving Day win over the N.Y. Jets (11/22), helped provide the holes for the second 100-yard rusher of the season – Barber (103) – as the running game picked up a season-high 174 yards.
- Against Green Bay (11/29), the line did not allow a sack for the third time in 2007 as Romo completed 19-of-30 passes for 414 yards and four touchdowns. It was the fifth time the offense amassed 400-or-more yards in the season and the sixth 300-yard passing game of the year for Romo.
- At Detroit (12/9), the Dallas offense racked up 368 total yards as Romo compiled his seventh 300-yard game of the season – and a 110.4 passer rating – his seventh consecutive game with a passer rating above 100.0.
- In the playoff loss to the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08), the line led a season-long 20-play, 90-yard drive for a touchdown in the second quarter that consumed 10:28, marking the longest time of possession on any drive in 2007. The line also provided holes for Barber – who finished with a career-high 129 yards on 27 carries (4.8 avg.).

- Was the starting center in 16 regular season games and made the Pro Bowl as a replacement player when Chicago's Olin Kreutz pulled out with an injury.
- Became the fourth center in club history to make the Pro Bowl, joining Dave Manders (one Pro Bowl), Mark Stepnoski (three), and Ray Donaldson (two).
- Played a prominent role in one of the Cowboys most productive and efficient offensive seasons. The offense scored 425 points, the fourth-most in the NFL and the most by the Cowboys since 1995.
- Dallas was second in the NFL with 48.8 percent third down efficiency, the club's highest rating in that category since 1980.
- Dallas also averaged 360.8 total yards-per-game, the fifth-most in the NFL in 2006 and the most by the Cowboys since 1995.
- The Cowboys also had two 1,000-yard receivers (Terrell Owens and Terry Glenn) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Julius Jones) in the same season for the second time in team history.

- In the season opener at Jacksonville (9/10), started at center for the first time since Oct. 27, 2002.
- Did not allow a sack, and helped Dallas rush for 138 yards and a touchdown against Washington (9/17).
- In the win at Tennessee (10/1), helped Dallas rush for 217 yards and three touchdowns, the team's most rushing yards in a game since December 14, 2003, when it had 222 yards. The Cowboys also passed for 179 yards and two touchdowns and didn't allow a sack.
- Midway through the third quarter of the Titans game (10/1), suffered several facial lacerations when Titans defensive tackle Albert Haynesworth stepped on him. Gurode did not return and received several stitches to repair the cuts.
- Returned to the lineup the following week at Philadelphia (10/8), and for the second straight week, the line helped Jones rush for 100 yards.
- In the win over Houston (10/15), helped the Cowboys rush for 170 yards on 37 carries (4.6 yards-per-carry), including 106 by Jones.
- At Carolina (10/29), Romo was sacked just twice in 38 pass plays in his first NFL start. He also threw for 270 yards. The Cowboys rushed for 156 yards (4.1 yards-per-carry) and controlled the clock for a season-best 38:16. They finished with 414 total yards, picked up 27 first downs, and scored 35 points.
- In the Thanksgiving Day victory over Tampa Bay (11/23), limited the Bucs to one sack on 30 pass plays and helped the offense gain a season-high 435 total yards – 306 passing and 137 rushing. Romo tied the club record with five passing touchdowns in the game.
- In the thrilling win at the N.Y. Giants (12/3), the line allowed one sack in 35 pass plays.
- In the playoff-clinching win at Atlanta (12/16), helped Dallas control the ball for 33:21, gain 352 yards, and score 31 offensive points.

2005:

- Played most of the season in a rotation with starting center Al Johnson, but an injury to Marco Rivera made him the starting right guard for the final two games.
- In the season-opening win at San Diego (9/11), played center in the third and early fourth quarter, including the third quarter touchdown drive.
- Rotated at center in the win at San Francisco (9/25), helping the Cowboys gain 443 total yards. Bledsoe passed for 363 yards, the eighth-most in club history.
- In the following week's loss at Oakland (10/2), took over at center in the second quarter and stayed in the lineup until the final drive of the game. Was on the field for all three Dallas scoring drives against the Raiders.
- Again rotated with Johnson in the win over Kansas City (12/11), helping Bledsoe pass for 332 yards and three touchdowns.
- At Washington (12/1), replaced Rivera at right guard on the final drive after Rivera suffered a strained neck.
- Made his first start of the season, in place of Rivera, at Carolina (12/24). Helped running back Jones run for 194 yards, the fourth-best performance in club history.

2004:

- Started 13 of the 14 games he played at right guard, helping Vinny Testaverde throw for what was then the third-most yards in a season in club history (3,532).
- Sprained his left knee in the third quarter of the opener at Minnesota (9/12). Did not return to the game but helped the Cowboys finish with 423 total yards, their best showing since they gained 437 total yards (1/2/00).
- Missed the next two weeks and returned to the starting lineup in the home loss to the N.Y. Giants (10/10).
- In the win over Detroit (10/31), the line helped running back Eddie George rush for 99 yards, his top rushing total of the season.
- In the Thanksgiving Day win over Chicago (11/25), sprained his left knee on the second play of the game and did not return.
- Returned to the lineup in the Monday night win at Seattle (12/6), helping Jones rush for 198 yards, the third-best rushing day in club history and the second-best by a Dallas rookie.

2003:

- After making the switch from center to guard midway through the 2002 season, was the Cowboys starting right guard for nearly all of 2003.
- The team returned to the playoffs as a wild card for the first time since 1999.
- At the N.Y. Giants (9/15), was part of a line that gave Quincy Carter time to throw for a career-high 321 yards in a come-from-behind, overtime victory.
- Dallas rushed for 202 yards on 41 carries (4.9 yards-per-carry) at the N.Y. Jets (9/28).
- Against Arizona (10/5), sprained his ankle in the third quarter but helped the Cowboys gain 365 total yards and control the clock for 36:28.
- Against Washington (11/2), Dallas gained 400 total yards, including 208 rushing yards, and allowed only one sack in 34 pass plays.
- The line allowed one sack for zero yards against Carolina (11/23), and helped hold defensive tackle Kris Jenkins without a tackle.
- Did not start at Philadelphia (12/7), and only saw limited action on special teams.
- Returned to right guard at Washington (12/14) and, despite straining his groin late in the third quarter, helped lead Troy Hambrick to 189 rushing yards, the fourth-best rushing performance in club history.

2002:

- Became the first Cowboys rookie to start the season at center since Mark Stepnoski in 1989. In his NFL debut at Houston (9/8), helped the team rush for 155 yards.
- Suffered a sprained toe on his left foot in practice October 2 that forced him to miss two games – against the N.Y. Giants (10/6) and Carolina (10/13).
- Returned to the lineup at Arizona (10/20) and helped Dallas rush for 148 yards.
- Was the starting center against Seattle (10/27) when Emmitt Smith broke Walter Payton's record for most career rushing yards. Smith rushed for 109 yards, his first 100-yard rushing game of the season.
- Started at right guard at Detroit (11/3).
- Against Jacksonville (11/24), gave quarterback Chad Hutchinson time to throw for 301 yards, and the Cowboys rushed for 118 yards. Their 405 net yards was a season high. Helped limit Jaguars defensive tackles John Henderson and Marcus Stroud to two tackles and no sacks.

- Suffered a strained groin in the Thanksgiving Day win over Washington (11/28), and did not finish the game.
- Despite bruising his jaw in the second quarter against San Francisco (12/8), returned to action and helped hold the 49ers without a sack in 28 pass plays.

COLLEGE:
- As a senior at Colorado, earned All-America honors after starting every game at right guard. Was also a unanimous All-Big 12 selection.
- For his career, allowed just 7.5 sacks in 2,653 plays over three-plus years as a starter for the Buffaloes.
- Started his first two and a half seasons at center before moving to guard in the middle of his junior year.
- As a junior, earned All-Big 12 honors and the John Mack Award, which the coaches award to CU's most outstanding offensive player.
- Earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors as a sophomore and helped the Buffaloes go 7-5 and defeat Boston College in the Insight.com Bowl.
- As a freshman, tore cartilage in his right knee the second week of the season and missed the next six games. Returned to start the final three regular season games and the 51-43 win over Oregon in the Aloha Bowl.

Safety

PRO: Ken Hamlin is an experienced performer in the secondary who is adept at calling the defensive signals and getting the defensive backs properly aligned before the snap. Hamlin teams up with Roy Williams to form one of the NFL's hardest-hitting tandems at safety. After arriving in Dallas via free agency leading up to the 2007 season, Hamlin logged his first 100-tackle season and finished second on the defense with five interceptions to earn his first career Pro Bowl selection. Hamlin has started 68 of the 70 regular season games he has played in four-and-a-half years as an NFL starting safety.

PRO BOWL 07

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

2/21/08: Designated the franchise player.
3/23/07: Signed with Dallas as an unrestricted free agent.
11/1/05: Placed on the reserve/non-football injury list.
4/26/03: Drafted in the second round (42nd overall) by Seattle.

2007:

- Earned his first Pro Bowl selection, being named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad and was one-of-13 Cowboys selected – setting a team and NFL record.
- Started all 16 games at free safety recording 102 tackles (third on the team) – his first career 100-tackle season – five interceptions (second on the team and tied for ninth in the league) and a single-season career-best 14 pass breakups.
- Made his Cowboys debut against the N.Y. Giants (9/9) recording nine tackles and one pass breakup.
- Had his first interception of the season at Miami (9/16) to setup a Dallas score and added seven tackles.
- Ended a scoring threat against St. Louis (9/30) by intercepting Marc Bulger in the end zone and added seven stops.
- Led the team with a career-high 13 tackles with one pass deflection against New England (10/14).
- Had his third pick of the year at Philadelphia (11/4) that led to a Dallas touchdown while also adding two tackles and a pass defensed.
- Recorded back-to-back games with an interception for the second time in his career at the N.Y. Giants (11/11) and posted eight tackles and two pass breakups.
- First career tackle for a loss against the N.Y. Jets (11/22) along with five tackles and a pass breakup.
- Established a single-season career-high with his fifth interception of the season against Green Bay (11/29) that led to a Dallas touchdown and 13-3 lead.

2006 (Seattle):

- Started 16 games and finished second on the Seahawks with 96 tackles while also adding three interceptions, 11 pass deflections, and one forced fumble, helping the Seahawks go 9-7 and win the NFC West.
- Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Month in September.
- Recorded eight tackles against Arizona (9/17) and logged his first sack of the year, forcing a Kurt Warner fumble on the play.
- Helped the Seahawks jump to a 21-0 lead in the first quarter over the N.Y. Giants (9/24), when he tied a career-high with two interceptions, both of which led to touchdowns.
- Led the team with seven solo tackles and posted his second sack of the season – and the fourth of his career – at St. Louis (10/15).
- Tied a then career-best with a team-high 11 tackles at Kansas City (10/29).
- Recorded his third interception of the season – eighth of his career – along with five tackles at St. Louis (11/12).
- Led the team with a then career-best 12 tackles for the third time in the season at San Francisco (11/19).
- At Denver (12/3), led the team in tackles for the fourth time, recording seven.
- Had four tackles in the Seahawks wild card win over Dallas (1/6/07).
- In the Divisional Playoff loss at Chicago (1/14/07), recorded a postseason career-high five tackles.

2005 (Seattle):

- Started the first six games of the season before suffering off-field head injuries, and recorded 26 tackles.
- Was placed on the Reserve/Non-Football Injury list Nov. 1 and missed the rest of the season.

2004 (Seattle):

- Started 16 regular season games for Seattle and finished third on the team with 79 tackles.
- Was fourth on the team with a career-high four interceptions, which ranked 10th in the NFC.
- In a 34-0 win over San Francisco (9/26), helped preserve the shutout with a fourth-quarter interception in the end zone to mark the 49ers first shutout loss in 421 games.
- Recorded his first two-interception game with five tackles at Buffalo (11/28).
- Posted a then career-high 10 tackles along with his first career sack, three passes defensed, and a forced fumble in a 24-21 win over Arizona (12/26).
- Notched his second career sack against Atlanta (1/2/05).
- Had his first career postseason interception in the Seahawks playoff loss to St. Louis (1/8/06).

2003 (Seattle):

- Started 14-of-16 games making Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie Team.
- Finished second on team with 96 tackles and was third on the team with 10 passes defensed, while also adding two special teams tackles.
- In his first career start against New Orleans (9/7), recorded five tackles and garnered national attention after knocking off Donte' Stallworth's helmet on a hit over the middle.
- Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors at Arizona (9/14), when he finished second on the team with eight tackles and contributed to four of the team's six takeaways. On the first play of the game, he forced a fumble that set up Seattle's first score before deflecting a pass that was intercepted by Reggie Tongue on the next series. On the next possession, he hit Anquan Boldin, forcing the ball in the air so it could be intercepted by Chad Brown and late in the fourth quarter, he intercepted his first career pass, deep in Seahawks territory, to preserve the shutout.
- Had a season-high 11 tackles in a loss at Green Bay (10/5).
- Did not start the team's playoff game at Green Bay (1/4/04) but played at safety and on special teams.

COLLEGE:

- Entered the NFL after his junior season at Arkansas where he was considered the Razorbacks best defensive back since Steve Atwater (1985-88).
- Played in 36 games finishing with 381 tackles (221 solo), breaking the school record of 367 tackles by Cliff Powell (1967-69). Also forced eight fumbles, recovered five fumbles, deflected 28 passes, and intercepted nine.
- Nominated in 2002 for the Bronko Nagurski Award, given to the best defensive player in the nation.
- Became the first player in school history to record more than 100 tackles in a season three times.
- Named a first-team All-America by The NFL Draft Report and The Sporting News and nominated for the Jim Thorpe Award after his junior season.
- Posted a career-high 22 tackles against Troy State – only Powell (24) and Ronnie Caveness (23) had more tackles in a game for the Razorbacks.
- Named a second-team All-America by The NFL Draft Report and also made first-team All-Southeastern Conference as a sophomore.

- As a freshman, he was named an All-America by The Sporting News and Football News and also named to the SEC Coaches Freshman All-SEC team.
- Became the first freshman and only the second defensive back to lead Arkansas in tackles, posting 104 tackles (57 solo).

PERSONAL:

- Ken Hamlin attended Fraysay High School in Memphis, Tenn.
- Was the Class 3A Player of the Year as a senior in 1999, when he gained 2,327 all-purpose yards and rushed for 1,276 yards and 16 touchdowns and added 380 receiving yards. He also recorded 136 tackles (96 solo) and eight interceptions as a safety.
- Also lettered in track and baseball.
- Member of the school's National Honor Society and the senior class vice president.
- Majored in business education at Arkansas.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- Happy Hill Farm Kickoff Luncheon and Cookbook.

Defensive End

PRO: Jason Hatcher continues to adjust and learn the nuances of playing defense after playing just over two seasons at defensive end in college. He is still a raw talent that has filled in nicely in the defensive line rotation over the past two seasons and has shown his ability as a pass rusher when called upon. He is a physical player that adds size to the defensive line and should continue to improve with more experience and knowledge of the game.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/29/06: Drafted in the third round (92nd overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Played in all 16 games in the defensive line rotation recording 35 tackles, two sacks, three tackles for a loss, nine quarterback pressures and one forced fumble.
- Recorded his first sack of the season at Buffalo (10/8) along with three tackles, two pressures and a tackle for loss.
- Had his first career fumble recovery which he returned 27 yards for a touchdown following a Greg Ellis sack and forced a fumble of Tom Brady against New England (10/14). Also added one tackle for loss.
- Forced a fumble that was recovered by Bradie James that led to a field goal against Minnesota (10/21). Also had two tackles.
- Recorded a season-high and career-best seven tackles and one sack at Washington (12/30).

2006:

- Played in 14 games as a rookie, missing two with an ankle sprain, and recorded 13 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one tackle for a loss, and seven quarterback pressures.
- In his NFL debut at Jacksonville (9/10), played mainly on third downs on the defensive line.
- Recorded his first defensive statistic against Washington (9/17), splitting a sack with Ellis on the final play of the game and added two quarterback pressures.
- Suffered a sprained ankle in the first half against Houston (10/15) causing him to miss the next two games.
- Recorded two quarterback pressures against Indianapolis (11/19) and helped limit the Colts to a season-low 14 points.
- Had his first solo sack – a 10-yard takedown of Bruce Gradkowski – and two tackles against Tampa Bay (11/23).
- Posted a second quarter sack of Michael Vick on third down and added two tackles at Atlanta (12/16).
- Against Philadelphia (12/25) had a season-high three tackles.
- In his postseason debut at Seattle (1/6/07) recorded one quarterback pressure.

COLLEGE:

- Finished his career at Grambling with 111 tackles, 31.5 tackles for a loss, and 18.5 sacks.
- Also had three passes defensed, 14 quarterback pressures, and three blocked kicks.
- Recorded 65 tackles, including a season-high eight stops in three different games in his senior year.
- Played his first full season at defensive end as a junior and finished the year with 33 tackles, 10 tackles for a loss and five sacks.
- Also blocked two kicks and broke up one pass.
- As a sophomore, started at tight end and caught one pass for 14 yards and a two-point conversion before moving to defensive end midway through the year.
- Finished the season with 13 tackles, three sacks and one pass breakup.
- Granted a medical redshirt after rupturing his right anterior cruciate ligament in 2002.
- Was ineligible as a true freshman because of NCAA academic requirements.

PERSONAL:

- Jason Dewayne Hatcher attended Jena, La., High School, where he lettered in football and basketball.
- As a senior, helped his team go 10-3 and earned all-state honors after catching 28 passes for 1,028 yards as a tight end.
- Against Belle Chase, he caught six passes for 211 yards.
- Majored in physical education at Grambling and hopes to become a head football coach.
- He and his wife, Natasha, have two sons, DiCarlos (12/17/99) and Jason, Jr., (12/21/06) and a daughter, Tamia (5/14/03).
- 2006 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- 2008 Dallas Cowboys Draft Day/Fan Appreciation Party.
- Jason Hatcher Youth Football Camp for kids ages 7-18 in his hometown of Jena, La.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- Happy Hill Farm Kickoff Luncheon and Cookbook.

ANTHONY HENRY

42

6-1 • 207 • 11/3/76
South Florida • UFA (Cle.) for '05
NFL: 8th Year • Cowboys: 4th Year
Games/Starts: 2007-13/10; Career-102/75;
Postseason: 2007-1/1; Career-3/2.

Cornerback

PRO: Anthony Henry was a key signing in the opening hours of free agency March 3, 2005. A big, physical player, he joins Terence Newman as one of the NFL's more accomplished and talented pair of corners. Henry is one of the league's more physical players at the corner position, and he is a solid run stopping tackler averaging over 50 tackles-per-season as a starting NFL cornerback. He also has a knack for being around the ball and making plays when the ball is in the air. Sure hands and solid instincts have allowed him to amass 28 career interceptions over the past seven NFL seasons for an average of four picks-per-year and has six games of two-or-more interceptions. When healthy in 2007, Henry enjoyed one of the most productive seasons of his career. He led the Cowboys with six interceptions and registered a pair of picks in back-to-back games against Miami and Chicago. Before coming to Dallas, he was a three-year starter for the Cleveland Browns after being drafted in the fourth round (97th overall) in the 2001 NFL Draft. As a rookie, Henry ranked first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL with a club record-tying 10 interceptions. He is one of nine players since 1985 to record 10 interceptions in a season. Henry became the first player in Browns history to have three interceptions in a game twice in a season. He did it against Detroit on Sept. 23, 2001, and at Baltimore on Nov. 18, 2001. He tied a franchise record with a 97-yard interception return for a touchdown against Jacksonville on Dec. 16, 2001. He was a starter for the Browns for the next three seasons, and their pass defense finished in the top-10 in the NFL in 2003 and 2004.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

3/3/05: Signed with Dallas as an unrestricted free agent.
4/22/01: Drafted in the fourth round (97th overall) by Cleveland.

2007:

- Led the team with six interceptions – tied for fifth in the NFL and third in the NFC.
- Also tied for the team lead with 15 pass breakups.
- Played a key role in a defense that ranked ninth in the NFL (fourth in the NFC) in total defense, allowing an average of 307.6 yards-per-game.
- Became the 30th player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to record back-to-back multiple-interception games after picking off a pair against Miami and Chicago in consecutive weeks.
- Opened the season with seven tackles against the N.Y. Giants (9/9).
- At Miami (9/16), picked up his first two interceptions of the year, marking the fifth multiple-interception game of his career and his first as a Cowboy. Also led the team with four pass breakups and was third on the team with six tackles.

- In the Sunday night win at Chicago (9/23), collected another two interceptions – returning one theft 28 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter that put the game out of reach. It marked the third interception return for a score of his career.
- Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 3) for his play at Chicago.
- Against St. Louis (9/30), suffered a high right ankle sprain late in the first quarter and did not return.
- The injury forced him to miss games at Buffalo (10/8), against New England (10/14) and against Minnesota (10/21).
- Worked his way back onto the field in spot situations at Philadelphia (11/4), and responded with his fifth interception of the year – picking off a Donovan McNabb pass late in the fourth quarter.
- Continued in a reserve role in the nickel in victories at the N.Y. Giants (11/11) and against Washington (11/18).
- Returned to a starting assignment in the Thanksgiving Day win over the N.Y. Jets (11/22), but played primarily in the nickel.
- The division clinching win at Detroit (12/9) marked Henry's return to playing every down since the injury against St. Louis. Tied for third on the team with a season-high eight tackles.
- Against Philadelphia (12/16), finished second on the team with seven tackles – all solo – with one pass breakup.
- At Carolina (12/22), recorded his sixth interception of the season and the 28th of his career.
- In the playoff loss to the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08), led the team with seven tackles.

2006:

- Led all Dallas defensive backs in tackles and finished third on the team with a career-high 90 stops.
- Also led the team with a career-high 23 passes defensed, the most by a Cowboy since Everson Walls had 23 in 1984.
- Tied for third on the team with two interceptions.
- In the season-opening loss at Jacksonville (9/10), led the team with eight tackles and had a team-high three passes defensed.
- In the win at Tennessee (10/1), had four tackles and broke up two passes as the Titans wide receivers were limited to five receptions for 31 yards in quarterback Vince Young's first NFL start.
- In the win over Houston (10/15), was second on the team with eight tackles, tying what was then a season high. Also recorded his first interception of the season, a third-quarter pick of David Carr that set up a Dallas touchdown drive.
- Tied his career-high with five passes defensed against the Texans.
- In the Monday night loss to the N.Y. Giants (10/23), led the team with a season-high nine tackles and broke up two passes.
- In the Christmas Day loss to Philadelphia (12/25), tied for second on the team with seven tackles and had a first quarter interception, which he returned 37 yards to the Eagles 32-yard line for the Cowboys only takeaway of the game.

2005:

- In his first year with the Cowboys, was one of the NFC's top cornerbacks through the first eight games of the season.
- Injured his right groin toward the end of a Week 8 win over Arizona, and the injury affected his play for the rest of the year.
- Before the injury, led the team with 42 tackles (39 solo), three interceptions, and 11 pass breakups.
- The groin injury led to a lower abdominal strain, and Henry spent the second half of the season losing playing time and fighting to return to action.
- In his first game as a Cowboy, a win at San Diego (9/11), had career-highs of 13 tackles and five passes defensed. Also notched his 18th career interception, which led to a touchdown drive in the second quarter. One of his deflected passes came on first-and-goal with the Chargers looking to score the winning touchdown in the final minute.
- In a 16-13 overtime win over the N.Y. Giants (10/16), earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after leading the team with six tackles and two passes defensed. Ended a third quarter drive on the Dallas one-yard line when he intercepted a pass by Eli Manning. On the next drive, forced a Plaxico Burress fumble, which was recovered by Jason Ferguson. Helped limit the Giants to one-of-11 on third down conversions and their fewest points of the season.
- In the win over Arizona (10/30), tied for second on the team with seven tackles and had his third interception of the season, returning it 58 yards for a touchdown. It was the first defensive touchdown by the Cowboys since Oct. 19, 2003, and Henry's second career interception return for a touchdown.
- The performance against the Cardinals was overshadowed by the right groin injury he suffered on the final series of the game.
- Missed the Monday night win at Philadelphia (11/14) but returned in a limited role in the nickel package against Detroit (11/20).
- Missed the next two games, against Denver (11/24) and at the N.Y. Giants (12/4), but returned to the starting lineup against Kansas City (12/11).

2004 (Cleveland):

- Started 14-of-15 games for the Browns and led the team with four interceptions and 11 passes defensed.
- His then career-high 85 tackles ranked fourth on the team, and he twice had a career-high eight tackles in a game, at Baltimore (11/7) and at Cincinnati (11/28).
- Helped the Browns allow just 181.3 passing yards-per-game, good for fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL.
- Had four tackles and his first interception of the season in the opener against Baltimore (9/12). Early in the fourth quarter, intercepted a pass from quarterback Kyle Boller at the Cleveland seven-yard line to end the Ravens scoring threat.
- At Dallas (9/19), recorded seven tackles and intercepted a Vinny Testaverde pass intended for Terry Glenn and returned it 51 yards to the Dallas 22-yard line.
- Missed the N.Y. Giants (9/26) game with vertigo.

- Intercepted his third pass of the season against Cincinnati (10/17), a third quarter pick of Carson Palmer at the Browns nine-yard line.
- Tied his career-high of eight tackles at Baltimore (11/7).
- Matched his career-high of eight tackles at Cincinnati (11/28) and recorded his fourth interception of the season, picking off a first quarter pass by Palmer that was intended for Chad Johnson. He returned it 32 yards to the Bengals seven-yard line, setting up a Browns touchdown.

2003 (Cleveland):

- Emerged as the starting left corner and played in 14 games with 13 starts.
- Registered 56 tackles and one interception, and a team-high 12 passes defensed.
- Along with right corner Daylon McCutcheon, contained many of the NFL's top wide receivers, and the Browns allowed only 177.9 passing yards-per-game, which ranked fifth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL.
- Had a then career-high eight tackles at San Francisco (9/21) and recorded his only interception of the season in the Browns 13-12 win.
- At Pittsburgh (10/5), helped limit the Steelers receiving duo of Hines Ward and Plaxico Burress to three receptions for 74 yards. The Browns forced three turnovers – two interceptions and one fumble – made three sacks, and limited the Steelers to 208 yards, including 60 rushing yards.
- A knee injury forced Henry to play corner in the nickel defense at Denver (12/14), and he missed the final two weeks of the season.

2002 (Cleveland):

- Played in 16 regular season games, appearing in nickel and dime packages and filling in for injured teammates.
- Started 10 games, including six at right corner, where he filled in for the injured McCutcheon, and two at left corner, where he filled in for the injured Corey Fuller.
- Finished with 69 tackles and led the club with 12 passes defensed.
- Had two interceptions and two forced fumbles.
- A standout special teams player, posted 11 tackles and blocked a field goal.
- At Pittsburgh (9/29), had six tackles, forced a fumble, and led the club with three special teams tackles.
- Made his first start of the season, replacing the injured Fuller (hamstring) against Baltimore (10/6), and recorded six tackles.
- At Tampa Bay (10/13), had a season-high seven tackles and teamed with Alvin McKinley to deflect a 45-yard field goal attempt by Martin Gramatica.
- Replaced McCutcheon at right cornerback against Houston (10/20) and posted six tackles and a team-high four special teams tackles.
- Had two interceptions at New Orleans (11/24).
- In the AFC Wild Card Game at Pittsburgh (1/5/03), played as a reserve in the nickel package and notched three tackles and had a team-high three passes defensed.

2001 (Cleveland):

- Had a breakout rookie season after being chosen in the fourth round of the draft.
- Ranked first in the AFC and tied for first in the NFL with 10 interceptions.
- Became the first rookie to lead the NFL in interceptions since 1995, when Vikings safety Orlando Thomas had nine.
- His 10 interceptions tied the club record set by Thom Darden in 1978, and set a club rookie record, eclipsing Bobby Franklin's eight in 1960.
- Also had 177 interception return yards.
- Played in 16 regular season games, including two starts, had 44 tackles and ranked second on the team with 10 passes defensed.
- Became the first Browns player to have three interceptions in a game twice in a season (against Detroit on Sept. 23 and at Baltimore on Nov. 18).
- Also added 10 special teams tackles.
- Played at corner in the nickel package in his NFL debut against Seattle (9/9).
- In the Browns 24-14 win over Detroit (9/23), his second NFL game, tied Bobby Franklin's club rookie record with three interceptions and returned them for 58 yards. Franklin set his record Dec. 11, 1960, against Chicago.
- Against Baltimore (10/21), had a season-high seven tackles and added his fourth interception of the season, intercepting Elvis Grbac and returning it 22 yards in a 24-14 win.
- After making three interceptions and two tackles at Baltimore (11/18), was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week. He became the first player since Cincinnati's David Fulcher in 1989 to have three interceptions in a game twice in a season, and the first NFL rookie to do it since Bobby Ply of the 1962 Dallas Texans.
- When the Browns opened in the nickel defense at New England (12/9), made his first NFL start and responded with six tackles.
- Started at right cornerback against Jacksonville (12/16) and matched his season-high with seven tackles. Also had two interceptions, including one he returned 97 yards for a touchdown, tying a franchise record for the longest interception return in club history.
- In the regular season finale at Pittsburgh (1/6/02), recorded his 10th interception of the year.

COLLEGE:

- A four-year starter for the University of South Florida, played free safety his first three years before playing cornerback his senior year.
- The late Andre Waters, a former Philadelphia Eagles safety, was his position coach at USF.
- Finished his career with 256 tackles, nine tackles for a loss, six fumble recoveries, and 22 passes defensed.
- Also had 10 career interceptions for 126 return yards, breaking the school record.
- As a senior, started all year at cornerback but also played at free safety and receiver. Finished with 40 tackles and tied the school's single-season record of five interceptions and 88 return yards. Also had a team-high eight passes defensed and caught one pass for eight yards.

- As a junior, started eight-of-nine games at free safety and finished fourth on the team with 62 tackles. Also intercepted three passes and recovered two fumbles.
- As a sophomore, started all year at free safety but also played quarterback for one series against Valparaiso. Ranked third on the team with 79 tackles.
- As a freshman, earned second-team All-Independent honors at free safety, recording 73 tackles, two fumble recoveries, and two interceptions.
- Did not play in 1996 because of NCAA Proposition 48 and still had a year of eligibility in 2000 upon his graduation.
- In the 2001 NFL Draft, was one of three South Florida players drafted consecutively with the first three picks of the fourth round: guard Kenyatta Jones (New England-96th), Henry (97th), and kicker Bill Gramatica (Arizona-98th).

SAM HURD

6-2 • 205 • 4/24/85
Northern Illinois • FA for '06
NFL: 3rd Year • Cowboys: 3rd Year
Games/Starts: 2007-16/2; Career-31/4;
Postseason: 2007-1/0; Career-2/0.

Wide Receiver

PRO: Sam Hurd took full advantage of training camp injuries to Patrick Crayton, Terry Glenn and Terrell Owens and impressed coaches enough to earn a spot on the active roster as a rookie free agent in 2006. He earned two starts in multiple receiver sets but spent most of his rookie season on special teams. He returned in 2007 and was the club's third receiver through the season after Glenn underwent two knee surgeries in the pre-season. Hurd will continue developing into a receiving threat in his third season while also providing Dallas special teams units with a consistent and capable coverage man.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

5/1/06: Signed with Dallas as a rookie free agent.

2007:

- Again aided by injuries to the receiving corps, played in all 16 games with two starts as the team's full-time third receiver.
- Finished the year with 19 catches for 314 yards – both career-highs – and his first career touchdown reception.
- Was also sixth on Dallas's coverage units with 15 tackles.
- Had his first career touchdown on a career-long 51-yard catch in the season-opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/9).
- Helped Dallas remain undefeated with a tipped ball on an onside kick that was recovered by Tony Curtis leading to the game-winning field goal at Buffalo (10/8).
- Started at receiver in place of Crayton (ankle) and had a catch for eight yards against the N.Y. Jets (12/22).
- Had a season-best three catches at Carolina (12/22).
- In the season finale at Washington (12/30), led the team with a season-best 64 yards on a season-high tying three catches.

2006:

- One of just three rookie free agents to make the roster out of training camp and played in 15 games with two starts.
- Saw most of his action on special teams, finishing third with 16 tackles.
- Made his NFL debut on Sunday night against Washington (9/17).
- Logged his first career reception against Houston (10/15) on a 33-yard pass from Tony Romo.
- Following the Sunday night win at Carolina (10/29), earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors after forcing and recovering a fumble on a kickoff return to set Dallas up at the Panthers 14-yard line.
- With Glenn nursing an injured quad, made his first career start at Arizona (11/12) and responded with 42 yards on four receptions, including two for first downs.
- At the N.Y. Giants (12/3), recovered a fumble by Mathias Kiwanuka following an interception of Romo to set Dallas up to score its first touchdown of the game.

- Made his second career start against New Orleans (12/10) when the club opened in a four-receiver set.

COLLEGE:

- Finished his career at Northern Illinois in the top-five in three receiving categories: second in career receiving yards (2,322), third in career receiving touchdowns (21), and tied for fifth in career receptions (143).
- Broke the single-game school record with 266 receiving yards against Central Michigan.
- After his senior season in 2005, was named Honorable Mention SportsIllustrated.com All-America and first-team coaches All-Mid American Conference.
- Started all 12 games and recorded 65 catches for 1,074 yards and 13 touchdowns.
- As a junior, played in 10 games and finished with 27 receptions for 298 yards and three touchdowns.
- Played in 12 games, including seven starts, and had 29 catches for 438 yards and two touchdowns as a sophomore.
- Played in 12 games as a true freshman in 2002, including two starts, and finished with 22 catches for 512 yards and three touchdowns.

PERSONAL:

- Samuel George Hurd earned several accolades after his prep career at Brackenridge High School in San Antonio, Texas, where he was a three-sport letterman – three years in basketball and two in track.
- As a senior, had 60 receptions for 1,639 yards and 23 touchdowns.
- Was a pre-communications major at Northern Illinois.
- 2006 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- Dallas Cowboys Early Thanksgiving Day Meal at The Salvation Army.
- Dallas Cowboys Youth Football Camps.
- 2008 Sam Hurd Charity Celebrity Weekend benefiting San Antonio Kids Exchange, Davis Scott YMCA, The Autism Society of Greater San Antonio and the Boys & Girls Clubs of San Antonio.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- Happy Hill Farm Kickoff Luncheon and Cookbook.

BRADIE JAMES

6-2 • 245 • 1/17/81
Louisiana State • D-4 for '03 (103rd overall)
NFL: 6th Year • Cowboys: 6th Year
Games/Starts: 2007-16/16; Career-78/50;
Postseason: 2007-1/1; Career-3/2.

Linebacker

PRO: While developing into one of the NFL's most productive middle linebackers, Bradie James has also become a leader for the Dallas Cowboys – both on the field and in the locker room. Selected as a defensive captain by his teammates in 2007, James was a key performer in a defense that helped Dallas tie the club record for regular season victories (13), while bringing home its first division title since 1998. James enters his fourth season as the starting strongside inside linebacker in the 3-4 scheme after having led the Cowboys in tackles for the past three years. In 2008 he will be teamed with seasoned veteran Zach Thomas to form one of the NFL's top tandems at the middle linebacker position. His size, strength and instincts make him one of the more devastating tacklers in the NFL, and he has averaged 123.7 tackles-per-season since taking over as a starter. Drafted in the fourth round of the 2003 NFL Draft, he backed up Pro Bowl outside linebacker Dexter Coakley in the 4-3 scheme in his first two seasons and showed solid playmaking ability as a standout special teams performer in 2003 and 2004. James should be a key figure for many years in one of the NFL's most promising and productive defenses. He is a dedicated professional who understands and embraces his leadership role on the team.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

9/20/06: Signed a five-year contract extension with Dallas through 2011.
4/2/03: Drafted in the third round (103rd overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Elected by his teammates as the defensive captain for the 2007 season.
- Was the team leader in tackles for the third straight year, posting 130 stops and producing his third straight season of at least 100 tackles.
- Finished with seven double-digit tackle games and led or tied for the team lead in tackles eight times.
- Tied for fourth on the team with a career-high three sacks.
- Helped the defensive unit finish the season ninth in the NFL (fourth in the NFC) in total defense after allowing an average of 307.6 yards-per-game.
- The club was also sixth in the NFL in defense against the run (third in the NFC) as the Cowboys allowed an average of 94.6 yards-per-game on the ground.
- Opened the season by leading the team in tackles (10) in the Sunday night win over the N.Y. Giants (9/9).
- At Miami (9/16), led the team with eight tackles and recorded his first sack since at Philadelphia (11/4/05).
- At Chicago (9/23), led the team in tackles with 11 stops.
- Against St. Louis (9/30), was the team leader in tackles (11) for the third straight week as the Rams offense was held to 187 total yards and no points.
- In the last second win at Buffalo (10/8), tied for the team lead in tackles with nine stops and added a quarterback pressure as the defense held the Bills offense without a touchdown.
- Against Minnesota (10/21), led the team with 11 tackles and added his second sack of the season. Also had a fumble recovery that was forced by Jason Hatcher and led to a field goal and a 10-point Dallas lead.
- At Philadelphia (11/4), had five solo stops (one for a loss of five-yards) and recovered a fumble on the opening drive.
- Tied for the team lead in tackles with a season-high 12 stops in the win at the N.Y. Giants (11/11).
- With four stops in the win over Green Bay (11/29), surpassed 100 tackles for the season – marking his third consecutive 100-tackle season.
- Against Philadelphia (12/16), picked up his third sack of the season, setting a single-season career-best.
- Registered his 400th career tackle in the win at Carolina (12/22).

- Was the team leader in tackles for the second straight year with a career-high 132 tackles.
- Had at least 10 tackles in seven games and led the team or tied for the team lead in tackles nine times.
- Ranked fourth on the team (first among linebackers) with nine pass breakups.
- In the home-opening win over Washington (9/17), tied for the team lead with six tackles and broke up a pass while helping limit the Redskins to one field goal.
- In the 45-14 win at Tennessee (10/1), had his first career interception and returned it 15 yards for his first career touchdown. Also had six tackles, a tackle for a loss and forced a fumble that the Titans recovered.
- Led the team with 11 tackles in the 34-6 win over Houston (10/15). Also broke up a pass, which Greg Ellis intercepted, setting up a Dallas touchdown drive.
- In the Monday night loss to the N.Y. Giants (10/23), had five tackles and recovered his first career fumble.
- At Carolina (10/29), led the team with 11 tackles, as the Panthers were held to 204 total yards, including just 50 rushing yards by DeShaun Foster.
- At Arizona (11/12), recorded a season-high 13 tackles to lead the team in tackles for the fourth time in 2006. Also deflected two passes.
- In the victory over previously undefeated Indianapolis (11/19), tied for the team lead with seven tackles and recovered a fumble when Peyton Manning was sacked by Jay Ratliff. Also had two tackles for a loss. In the first quarter, he tackled Marvin Harrison and forced a fumble, which Ratliff recovered. Helped limit the Colts to a season-low 14 points.

- In the Thanksgiving Day win over Tampa Bay (11/23), had a team-high 12 tackles.
- In the wild card loss at Seattle (1/6/07), led Dallas with 12 tackles and helped limit Shaun Alexander to 69 yards on 24 carries (2.9 yards-per-carry).

2005:
- Enjoyed a breakout year, making the transition from special teams player to starting middle linebacker to lead the Cowboys with 109 tackles.
- Led the team in tackles in seven of the 16 regular season games and finished third with four tackles for a loss.
- Also registered the first 2.5 sacks of his career, which ranked fourth on the club.
- In the season opener at San Diego (9/11), made his first start at inside linebacker in the 3-4 scheme and recorded five tackles and a quarterback pressure.
- In the win over Philadelphia (10/9), led the team with five tackles and broke up a pass in the end zone. The Eagles were limited to 129 total yards, including 19 rushing yards, the fourth-lowest rushing total ever by a Dallas opponent.
- In the last-minute loss at Seattle (10/23), recorded his first career sack, a seven-yard trap of Matt Hasselbeck that ended a Seahawks drive in the second quarter. Also tipped a pass that turned into a Terence Newman interception in Seattle's opening drive.
- In the Monday night win at Philadelphia (11/14), led the team with a career-high 15 tackles, the highest single-game total of the season by a Cowboy. Also added a sack in the red zone in the fourth quarter, forcing the Eagles to kick a field goal. On the game's pivotal play, Roy Williams intercepted Donovan McNabb, and James blocked McNabb to clear a path for Williams to score a touchdown.
- In the win over Detroit (11/20), had eight tackles to lead the team for the second straight week.
- At the N.Y. Giants (12/4), led the team with 10 tackles, his second game of the season with at least 10 tackles, and also had a tackle for a loss.
- At Washington (12/18), led the team with 12 tackles, his second-best total in a game in 2005 and his third game in six weeks with at least 10 tackles.

2004:
- Continued to showcase his defensive abilities while being primarily used as a solid and productive special teams performer.
- Also split some time at weakside linebacker with Coakley.
- Finished the year with 38 tackles, two quarterback pressures, and a pass deflection.
- Led the team with a career-high 24 special teams stops, the most by a Cowboy since Charlie Williams had 26 in 1997.
- Helped limit opponents to a league-low 17.5 yards-per-kickoff return.
- In the season opener at Minnesota (9/12), split time with Coakley and finished second on the team with a season-high eight tackles.
- Against Cleveland (9/19), logged three special teams tackles and helped limit the Browns to a 7.0-yard average on three kickoff returns.
- Made his first NFL start at Green Bay (10/24) when the Packers opened in a two-tight end formation and finished the game with seven tackles.
- Made his second career start at Baltimore (11/21) and posted three tackles. Also tied for the team lead with three special teams stops against the Ravens.
- Against Chicago (11/25) on Thanksgiving Day, had three special teams tackles and helped limit the Bears to a 15.5-yard average on four kickoff returns.
- In Dallas's come-from-behind victory in a Monday night game at Seattle (12/6), was second on the team with three special teams stops and deflected his first career pass.

2003:
- As a rookie, was a backup linebacker and became a prominent special teams player.
- Finished fourth on the team with 16 special teams tackles.
- Inactive the first two games of the year.
- Made NFL debut at the N.Y. Jets (9/28) and had two special teams tackles.
- At Detroit (10/19), played on defense for the first time and recorded a fourth quarter tackle.
- Against Carolina (11/23), forced a fumble on the opening kickoff, which Roy Williams recovered and returned to the Panthers 18-yard line. Dallas kicked a field goal and went on to win, 24-20.
- At Washington (12/14), led the team with three special teams stops, including one on a Redskins fake punt.

COLLEGE:
- A two-time All-SEC selection as a linebacker at LSU.
- After his senior year in college, was named a National Scholar Athlete by the National Football Foundation and was a member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll. Was also a member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll.
- Finished second on the school's all-time tackle list with 418 career stops, including 33 tackles for a loss.
- Also had 29 quarterback pressures, 14 sacks, eight pass deflections, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions.

Cornerback

COLLEGE: The Dallas Cowboys grabbed one of the nation's premier shutdown cornerbacks when they drafted Mike Jenkins with their second pick in the first round (25th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft. Jenkins will be another key piece to the Cowboys defensive backfield and will team with a pair of experienced veterans in Pro Bowler Terence Newman and Anthony Henry. Jenkins started 40 of the 48 games he played at South Florida and racked up 133 tackles with six for losses, five forced fumbles and 41 pass breakups with six interceptions. He left USF atop the record books with 47 career passes defensed and seventh in school history with six interceptions. At the end of his collegiate career, Jenkins burst onto the scene as a dangerous kickoff return man, taking the first kickoff of his senior year 100 yards for a touchdown to set a school mark.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/26/08: Drafted in the first round (25th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Was a first-team All-America selection by the American Football Coaches Association and second-team by Rivals.com.
- Earned All-Big East first-team honors and was invited to play in the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine Game.
- Was a finalist for the Thorpe Award, finishing with career-highs in tackles (41), interceptions (three) and tackles for losses (four) to go along with 12 pass breakups.
- Started all 13 games at right cornerback and was part of a secondary that was eighth in the nation in pass efficiency defense and 34th in pass defense (212.1 yards-per-game).
- Took over kickoff return duties late in the season and returned his first kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown – against Cincinnati – to tie a Big East record and set a USF single-game record with 192 kickoff return yards.
- Opened the season against Elon College with four pass deflections, four solo tackles and a pair of stops behind the line of scrimmage.
- Notched a season-best six tackles, including one for a loss, with an interception against Central Florida.

2006:

- Started 12 of the 13 games he played, missing a start in the bowl game, and led the team with a career-high 15 pass breakups.
- Added 27 tackles, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery to be ranked the 19th-best cornerback in the nation by The Sporting News.
- Returned two kickoffs for 27 yards.
- Had season-bests with four tackles and three breakups in a win at Central Florida.
- Had three breakups in the Papajohns.com Bowl win over East Carolina.

2005:

- Was a second-team All-Big East selection, starting all 12 games at right cornerback.
- Had 38 tackles, two interceptions – in back-to-back wins – two forced fumbles and five pass breakups.
- Part of a secondary that helped the defense rank sixth in the nation in pass defense (165.4 yards-per-game).
- Added a punt return for 27 yards.
- Logged a season-high six tackles at Pittsburgh and against Cincinnati.
- Closed the season with a tackle and a deflection against North Carolina State in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

2004:

- Played in 10-of-11 games with three starts at left cornerback but was slowed through the season by an ankle injury.
- Spent most of his time at cornerback with spot duty at safety, finishing with 27 tackles, nine pass breakups and two forced fumbles.
- Blocked and recovered his first career punt in the season opener against Tennessee Tech.
- Logged a season-best five tackles at Cincinnati.

PERSONAL:

- Was a standout safety, earning SuperPrep All-America honors as a senior at Bradenton, Fla., Southeast High School.
- In 2002, named first-team Class 3A All-State and selected by the Sarasota Herald Tribune as its Defensive Player of the Year after recording 42 tackles, two interceptions, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, two blocked punts and two blocked field goals
- Also played running back and led the team with 859 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2002.
- Born in Newenburg, Germany.
- Has a son, Mekhi.

Quarterback

PRO: The Cowboys acquired a veteran quarterback with playoff and Super Bowl experience when they signed Brad Johnson on March 6, 2007. An efficient passer, Johnson gave the Cowboys a viable backup in 2007 who also helped Tony Romo settle into the role as the club's full time starter while also working with rookie free agent Richard Bartel. Johnson is again slated as the backup coming into the 2008 season, as his 61.8 completion percentage ranks sixth in NFL history among quarterbacks with over 3,000 career attempts. He is tied with Jim Plunkett and Daryle Lamonica for 52nd on the NFL's all-time touchdown passing list. Through the 2006 season, Johnson's teams were 71-51 when he started (.582 winning percentage), and he didn't throw an interception in 48 of those starts. He also holds the league record for consecutive seasons with a completion percentage over 60.0 (11). Johnson made the Pro Bowl in 1999 and 2002, and he has led Minnesota, Tampa Bay, and Washington to the playoffs as the starting quarterback. He led Tampa Bay to its first Super Bowl appearance and title in 2002. He was a ninth-round pick (227th overall) by the Vikings in the 1992 NFL Draft.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

3/6/07: Signed a three-year contract with Dallas as a free agent.
2/28/07: Released by Minnesota.
3/16/05: Signed by Minnesota.
3/1/05: Released by Tampa Bay.
3/5/01: Signed a five-year contract with Tampa Bay as a free agent.
2/15/99: Traded to Washington by Minnesota.
1/7/96: Re-signed by Minnesota.
4/27/92: Drafted in the ninth-round (227th overall) by the Minnesota Vikings.

2007:

- Played in all 16 regular season games and the club's Divisional Playoff Game as the backup quarterback and holder on field goals and PATs, seeing limited action under center in just five games.
- His first action at quarterback was at Chicago (9/23) on the final three plays.
- Saw extended action through the second half in the season finale at Washington (12/30) and recorded all of his season passing stats, completing seven-of-11 passes for 79 yards.

2006 (Minnesota):

- Started 14 of the 15 games he played in with the Vikings and extended his NFL record for consecutive seasons with a completion percentage over 60.0 to 11, finishing with a 61.5 percent completion rate.
- In nine of his 14 starts, completed over 60 percent of his passes while also moving into a tie with Plunkett and Lamonica for 50th place in NFL history with 165 touchdown passes.
- Had a season-high with 44 attempts at Buffalo (10/1), then had a season-high 76.5 percent completion rate against Detroit (10/8).
- Completed a season-best 27 passes and had season highs in yards (271), touchdowns (three), and passer rating (108.9) against Arizona (11/26).

2005 (Minnesota):

- Served as Daunte Culpepper's backup, but he took over as the starter after Culpepper injured his knee at Carolina (10/30).
- Led the team to a 7-2 record and completed 184-of-294 passes for 1,885 yards, 12 touchdowns, and four interceptions for the season.
- Had a league-low interception percentage of 1.4.
- Became the 51st player in league history to top 25,000 career passing yards, and he ended the season third in the conference with an 88.9 passer rating.
- Posted a passer rating over 100 in five of his nine starts, and the Vikings went 4-1 in those games.
- Threw an 80-yard touchdown pass to Koren Robinson on the Vikings opening play at Detroit (12/4), the second-longest pass play of his career and the seventh-longest in Vikings history.
- Moved into sixth in Vikings history with 56 career passing touchdowns and 22 wins as a starting quarterback.
- Made his 100th career start against Detroit (11/6).

2004 (Tampa Bay):

- Started the first four games of the season with Tampa Bay and completed 65-of-103 passes for 674 yards, three touchdowns and three interceptions.
- Threw for 309 yards, the 16th 300-yard passing game of his career, at Oakland (9/26).
- Was the emergency quarterback at New Orleans (10/10), then served as the backup the next four games before moving back to the third quarterback for six games.

2003 (Tampa Bay):

- Threw a career-high 26 touchdown passes, breaking his own team record, and set team records with 3,811 passing yards, 570 attempts, 354 completions – league best – and 3,844 total yards.
- Started 16 regular season games for the third time in his career and the second time with the Bucs.

- Tied the team record with four 300-yard passing games and set the team record with 160 consecutive pass attempts without a sack.
- Threw a touchdown pass in a team-record 11 consecutive games to start the season and set a team record with 18 consecutive completions, spanning the game at Philadelphia (9/8) through the game against Carolina (9/14).
- Had a team-record and career-best 61 attempts against the Panthers.
- Johnson accounted for 26 of the team's 32 offensive touchdowns and did not miss an offensive snap because of an injury during the season.
- Played his 100th career game in a start at Washington (10/12) and was 22-of-30 passing for 268 yards and four touchdowns with a 140.0 passer rating to win NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors. Teammate Simeon Rice won Defensive Player of the Week honors, marking the first time Buccaneers won both honors in the same week.

2002 (Tampa Bay):

- Led the Buccaneers to the Super Bowl XXXVII title in the franchise's first Super Bowl appearance.
- Started 13 regular season games and all three playoff games and became the first Bucs quarterback to lead the NFC in passer rating, posting a 92.9 rating, which was also a team-record and a career-high.
- Passed for over 3,000 yards for the fourth time in six seasons and set team records for touchdown passes (22), completion percentage (62.3), and lowest interception percentage (1.3).
- Became the first player in team history to be named NFC Offensive Player of the Week twice in a season.
- En route to his second Pro Bowl selection, set a club record with 187 consecutive passes without an interception, a stretch that began against Chicago (12/16/01) and ended at Cincinnati (9/29/02).
- Tied for the fewest interceptions among qualified passers in the NFC with six and did not throw an interception in November, attempting 126 consecutive passes before throwing one at New Orleans (12/1) in the beginning of the fourth quarter.
- Threw for 250-or-more yards eight times and completed over 70 percent of his passes four times.
- On his sixth pass of the game against St. Louis (9/23), set the team record for consecutive passes without an interception when he made his 153rd attempt dating to Dec. 16, 2001, against Chicago. That streak was snapped two passes later when Brian Simmons intercepted his pass.
- Threw five touchdown passes against Minnesota (11/3) to tie Steve DeBerg's club record for a game.
- Logged his 100th career touchdown pass in the Vikings game.
- After missing two games with a back contusion, returned in the NFC Divisional Playoff game against San Francisco (1/12/03) to set a career playoff high with two touchdown passes.
- In the NFC Championship game at Philadelphia (1/19/03), threw for a club playoff record 259 yards, including a career playoff-best 71-yard pass.

2001 (Tampa Bay):

- Established single-season team passing records with 3,406 yards, 340 completions, and 540 attempts.
- Completed at least 50 percent of his passes in 13 of the 16 games, set a single-game club record with 40 completions and tied the club record with 56 attempts against Chicago (11/18).
- Had a season-best 399 passing yards against the Bears.
- Threw 50-or-more passes in three games: at Tennessee (10/14), against Chicago (11/18) and against Detroit (12/9).

2000 (Washington):

- Started 11 of the 12 games he played in for the Redskins.
- Finished second in the NFL and first in the NFC with a 65.5 percent completion rate on third down.
- Had a career-best 145.8 quarterback rating at the N.Y. Giants (9/24), completing 14-of-20 passes for 289 yards and two touchdowns.
- Strained his left medial collateral ligament in the middle of the fourth quarter against Tennessee (10/30) and did not play the next three games.

1999 (Washington):

- Started 16 games in the regular season for the first time in his career and two in the playoffs.
- Earned a Pro Bowl selection after throwing for a career-best 4,005 yards and setting then career-bests in all passing categories.
- His 316 completions set a team record, topping Joe Theismann's mark of 293 in 1981, and his 4,005 passing yards were second in team history.
- In his first start as a Redskin, threw for a then career-high 382 yards against Dallas (9/12).
- Led the Redskins back from a 21-0 deficit – the biggest come-from-behind win in franchise history – to Carolina (10/3), completing 20-of-33 passes for 337 yards and a career-high-tying four touchdowns to earn NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the second time in three weeks.
- Passed for a franchise record 471 yards at San Francisco (12/26), completing 32-of-47 passes with two touchdowns, and also rushed for a touchdown.

1998 (Minnesota):

- Returned as Minnesota's starting quarterback after suffering a season-ending neck injury in 1997, but he started only two games because of injuries.
- Helped the Vikings set an NFL record with 556 points.
- Started the first two games of the season, completing 33-of-56 passes for 397 yards, five touchdowns, and three interceptions, but he fractured his leg at St. Louis (9/13).
- In the season-opening win against Tampa Bay (9/6), threw four touchdowns, including two to wide receiver Randy Moss, the first two touchdown receptions of Moss's career.
- Returned to the sidelines as Minnesota's emergency quarterback at Tampa Bay (11/1).

1997 (Minnesota):

- Started 13 games before suffering a season-ending neck injury against Green Bay (12/1).
- Despite missing three games, tied for third in the NFC with 20 touchdown passes, was fourth in the NFC with an 84.5 passer rating, and fifth in the NFC with 3,036 passing yards.

- Completed 275-of-452 passes and had a career-long streak of 109 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, from Oct. 12 to Nov. 9.
- Set a team record with 15 consecutive games with a touchdown pass.
- Threw for a season-best 334 yards against Tampa Bay (9/14).
- In a 21-14 win over Carolina (10/12), became the only player in NFL history to throw a touchdown pass to himself when he caught his deflected pass and ran for a three-yard touchdown. The play won an ESPY award for the NFL Play of the Year, and it also won the Fan's Choice Award.
- Led the Vikings to three fourth quarter come-from-behind wins at Chicago (9/7), at Arizona (10/5) and against Chicago (11/9).

1996 (Minnesota):

- Made his debut as the Vikings starting quarterback and started eight of the 12 regular season games he played and the wild card game at Dallas (12/28).
- Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors twice and finished the season third in the NFL with an 89.4 passer rating.
- Tied for third in the NFC with 17 touchdown passes, and his 62.7 completion rate was then the second-highest in Vikings history and fourth in the league.
- In the season opener against Detroit (9/1), replaced an injured Warren Moon and threw his first career touchdown pass, hitting Cris Carter with 1:06 left to lead Minnesota to a 17-13 win.
- Made his first career start the next week at Atlanta (9/8) and earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, completing a career-long 82-yard touchdown pass to Jake Reed at Oakland (11/17).
- Had a then career-high four touchdown passes against Arizona (12/1) in a 41-17 win. He logged a 152.4 quarterback rating against the Cardinals and earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week.
- Made his playoff debut in a wild card game at Dallas (12/28) and completed 15-of-27 passes for 208 yards, one touchdown, and two interceptions.

1995 (Minnesota):

- Played for the London Monarchs of the World League and finished the spring leading the league with 194 completions, was second with 2,227 yards and 13 touchdowns.
- Saw time in five games for the Vikings.
- Made his season debut at Pittsburgh (9/24), and completed his only pass for 36 yards.

1994 (Minnesota):

- Served as the backup to Moon and played in four games, the first of which came at Chicago (9/18) late in the fourth quarter. Completed all three of his passes, and led Minnesota to its final touchdown in the 42-14 win.

1993 (Minnesota):

- Was the Vikings third quarterback for the first 10 games then was inactive for the final six.

1992 (Minnesota):

- Was inactive for 15 games and dressed but did not play against Washington (10/25).

COLLEGE:

- Started one season and lettered four times at Florida State.
- As a senior in 1991, played in nine games, including one start, and finished 37-of-61 passing for 462 yards and five touchdowns.
- As a junior in 1990, began the season as the Seminoles starting quarterback but was replaced by Casey Weldon in the sixth game and finished the year with a career-high 1,136 yards with eight touchdowns, completing 109-of-163 passes.
- Saw limited time as a sophomore in 1989, completing seven-of-12 passes for 67 yards.
- As a redshirt freshman, played in every game as the team's holder and played in two games at quarterback.
- Also played two seasons for the Seminoles basketball team, starting 11 games as a freshman in 1987.

PERSONAL:

- James Brad Johnson was an All-America quarterback at Owen High School in Black Mountain, N.C.
- Was also an all-state basketball player on a team that featured former NBA center Brad Daugherty.
- Following the Super Bowl XXXVII win in 2002, the football field at Owen High School was renamed Brad Johnson Field, and he was honored with a pep rally and parade through his hometown.
- His wife, Nikki, was a standout volleyball player at the University of South Florida, and the couple has two sons, Max and Jake.
- Has been active with community outreach programs and charitable organizations, including Easter Seals, Ronald McDonald House, Muscular Dystrophy Association, Children's Miracle Network, Gillette Children's Hospital, Toys for Tots, and the United Way Hometown Huddle.
- Hosts a golf tournament fundraiser for the Ronald McDonald House in Tallahassee, Fla., and works with the Eblen Foundation in Asheville, N.C.
- Wrote "Play With Passion", a book published in 2004 that focuses on setting goals and overcoming obstacles.
- Also hosts the annual Brad Johnson Football Camp for youths aged 8-18.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- Happy Hill Farm Kickoff Luncheon and Cookbook.

Nose Tackle

PRO: After losing veteran nose tackle Jason Ferguson to a torn right biceps in the 2007 season-opener against the N.Y. Giants, the Dallas Cowboys were looking for an experienced defensive tackle to fill his shoes when they signed Terry "Tank" Johnson on Sept. 18. Johnson was placed on the club's Reserve/Suspended list Sept. 19 while serving a league mandated suspension for violating the league's personal conduct policy before being reinstated on Nov. 5. Johnson, who was originally drafted in the second round (47th overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears, spent three seasons in Chicago before arriving in Dallas.

2006

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

11/5/07: Reinstated and signed to Dallas's active roster.
9/18/07: Signed by Dallas.
6/25/07: Released by Chicago.
6/4/07: Suspended eight games for violating the NFL's personal conduct policy.
12/19/06: Suspended one game for conduct detrimental to the team.
4/24/04: Selected in the second round (47th overall) of the NFL Draft by Chicago.

2007:

- Spent the offseason with the Chicago Bears but was released June 25 after violating the team's conduct policy and was out of football until signing with Dallas on Sept. 18.
- Signed with Dallas on Sept. 18 and was moved to the Reserve/Suspended list, serving a league mandated suspension.
- Signed to Dallas's active roster Nov. 5.
- Made his Cowboys debut as a reserve nose tackle at the N.Y. Giants (11/11) and finished with three tackles and a sack.
- Logged his first start as a Cowboy in the season finale at Washington (12/30) and tied his season-high with three stops along with a forced fumble.
- In the Divisional Playoff Game against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08) logged a tackle and a sack.

2006 (Chicago):

- Finished his third season with a career-high 38 tackles, starting a career-high 10 games.
- Posted 3.5 sacks and two tackles for losses while forcing his first career fumble.
- Forced a fumble that led to the game's opening touchdown for Chicago against Detroit (9/17) while also adding a sack against the Lions.
- Logged his first start of the season against Seattle (10/1) and notched four tackles.
- Had back-to-back four-tackle games at the N.Y. Jets (11/19) – with a half sack – and at New England (11/26).
- Against Minnesota (12/3) recorded a season-high seven tackles along with two sacks.
- Was inactive against Tampa Bay (12/17) and served a team suspension at Detroit (12/24).
- In Chicago's Divisional Playoff win against Seattle (1/14/07), posted five tackles and a sack before adding two tackles in the NFC Championship Game against New Orleans (1/21/07).

- Had five tackles, one tackle for a loss and a half sack in Super Bowl XLI.

2005 (Chicago):

- Had career-highs in sacks (five – good for fourth on the Bears defense), tackles for losses (four) and pass breakups (four) to go along with his 37 tackles.
- Played all 16 games for the second consecutive season and started four games.
- Logged a career-high eight tackles, his first two sacks of the season – his first career multiple-sack game – a tackle for a loss and a pass deflection against Baltimore (10/23).
- Added four tackles, one for a loss and a sack the next week at Detroit (10/30).
- Had six tackles and a sack against Atlanta (12/18) before adding three tackles and a sack on Christmas Day at Green Bay (12/25).
- Had three tackles and two stops for losses in the NFC Divisional Playoff loss against Carolina (1/15/06).

2004 (Chicago):

- Played in all 16 games with one start as a rookie.
- Finished his first pro season with 26 tackles and a half sack.
- Made his NFL debut in the season-opener against Detroit (9/12) but did not record a tackle.
- Had his first two career tackles at Green Bay (9/19) before earning his first career start at Minnesota (9/26).
- Posted his first career half-sack against Philadelphia (10/3).
- Had season-highs with four tackles against Washington (10/17) and again against Minnesota (12/5).

COLLEGE:

- Earned second-team All-Pac 10 selection as a senior, playing both defensive end and tackle for the Huskies.
- Closed out his collegiate career with a defensive touchdown in each of his final three years – highlighted by a 38-yard interception return of a Chris Simms pass in the 2002 Holiday Bowl.
- Started 23 of the 35 games played for the Huskies and finished with 64 tackles – 43 solo – 15 sacks, 29 tackles for losses, two forced fumbles, a pair of pass breakups, a fumble recovery and an interception.
- As a junior, logged 11 starts at defensive tackle and posted 25 tackles, five sacks, 9.5 tackles for losses and an interception.
- Saw time in 11 games as a reserve on defense after making the switch from tight end during the fall of his sophomore year.
- Finished his first season on defense with four tackles and a tackle for a loss.
- Did not play as a partial qualifier as a freshman.

PERSONAL:

- Terry "Tank" Johnson was a two-time all-city and all-region standout at McClintock High School in Tempe, Ariz.
- Finished his prep career with 21 catches for 211 yards and four touchdowns as a tight end and posted 47 tackles with three sacks and three forced fumbles on defense as a senior.
- Was a SuperPrep All-America selection as the 13th rated tight end on its national list.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.

Cornerback

PRO: Adam Jones possesses a multi-purpose talent with a distinctive combination of speed, quickness and play-making ability. Before his partial reinstatement into the NFL on June 2, 2008, Jones missed the entire 2007 NFL season serving a league suspension for off-the-field issues. He spent his first three seasons as part of the Titans organization after becoming their first round selection and first defensive player taken off the board in the 2005 NFL Draft. As a rookie, Jones and fellow rookie cornerback Reynaldo Hill represented the only rookie duo to start 10 games-or-more in the NFL at cornerback. Jones totaled 53 tackles, one quarterback pressure, two tackles for loss, 11 passes defensed and one special teams tackle. The explosive return man was fourth in the league (third among rookies) with a 26.2-yard average on kickoff returns and ranked 10th in the NFL and first among all rookies with a 9.4-yard average on punt returns. Jones had a breakthrough season in 2006, producing big plays on a weekly basis. He started 15 contests and set career-highs with 67 tackles, one sack, four interceptions, one interception return for a touchdown, 14 passes defensed (second on team) and one forced fumble. Jones led the NFL in punt returns totaling 34 returns for 440 yards (12.9 avg.) and tied for a league-high with three punt return touchdowns – tying a Titans franchise record set by Billy "White Shoes" Johnson in 1975 – and was the first Titans player to lead the NFL in punt return average (12.9) since Johnson in 1977. He also posted the longest punt return (90t) in franchise history at Philadelphia (11/19). On kickoff returns, Jones ranked sixth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL totaling 20 returns for 521 yards (26.1 avg.) and was a part of a kickoff return unit that totaled 1,835 return yards, which set a Titans record, breaking the old record of 1,721 kickoff return yards in 1981.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

6/2/08: Partially reinstated by the league.
4/23/08: Traded from Tennessee to Dallas and signed a four-year contract.
4/10/07: Suspended for one-year by the league.
11/1/06: Suspended one-game by the Titans.
4/23/05: Drafted in the first-round (6th overall) by Tennessee.

2007 (Tennessee):

- Missed the entire season serving a league mandated suspension.

2006 (Tennessee):

- Played in 15 games with 15 starts and set career-highs with 67 tackles, one sack, four interceptions, one interception return for a touchdown, 14 passes defensed (second on team) and one forced fumble.
- As a return specialist, led the NFL in punt returns, totaling, 34 returns for 440 yards (12.9 avg.) and tied for a league-high with three punt return touchdowns – which also tied a franchise record set by Johnson (1975).
- On kickoff returns, ranked sixth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL, totaling 20 returns for 521 yards (26.1 avg.) and was part of a kickoff return unit that totaled 1,835 return yards, which set a franchise record, breaking the old record of 1,721 kickoff return yards in 1981.
- Also hauled in two receptions for 31 yards (long of 17) and rushed for eight yards on two carries (long of seven).
- Against Houston (10/29), tied a career-high with eight tackles while posting his first career interception and one pass breakup. Intercepted the first pass of his career when he picked off Sage Rosenfels and returned it 21 yards in the third quarter. Posted his second career punt return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter when he returned a career-long 53-yarder for a score.
- Returned three punts for 99 yards (career-long of 90t) and posted his second punt return for a touchdown of the season and third of his career at Philadelphia (11/19). His record breaking 90-yard punt return for a touchdown surpassed the previous franchise mark of 87 yards set by Johnson against Cleveland (10/17/77).
- Against the N.Y. Giants (11/26), recorded four tackles, a career-high two interceptions and three pass breakups. While also returning two punts for 25 yards and rushing once for seven yards. Picked off Eli Manning two times, sparking the Titans to a 21-point fourth quarter comeback.
- Registered five tackles, one interception for a touchdown – an 83-yarder for his first career interception return for a touchdown – and three pass breakups (tied career-high) against Jacksonville (12/3). Added one kickoff return for 70 yards and one reception for 14 yards.
- At Buffalo (12/24), tied his career-high with eight tackles and returned five kickoffs for 127 yards.
- Had 259 total return yards against New England (12/31) which was the highest total in 2006. Returned two punts for 101 yards (long of 81) with one touchdown and seven kickoffs for 158 yards (long of 47). His 81-yard punt return for a touchdown was his third punt return for score of the season, tying a franchise record set by Johnson in 1975.

2005 (Tennessee):

- Played in 15 games with 13 starts as a rookie at right cornerback and handled the team's punt return and kickoff return duties on special teams.
- Totaled 53 tackles, two tackles for loss and a team-high 12 passes defensed.
- Finished fifth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL for punt returns, totaling 29 returns for 272 yards (9.4 avg.) and one touchdown.
- Returned 43 kickoffs for 1,127 yards (26.2 avg.), which placed him fourth in the AFC and fourth in the NFL among kickoff return leaders.
- Named to the 2005 PFWA All-Rookie Team as a punt returner.
- Posted three tackles and returned four kickoffs for 109 yards at St. Louis (9/25).
- At Houston (10/9), recorded six tackles and returned four kickoffs for 145 yards.
- Recorded six tackles and returned six kickoffs for 196 yards, which included a career long 85-yard return against Jacksonville (11/20).
- At Indianapolis (12/4), broke up one pass and returned six kickoffs for 171 yards.
- Selected as AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after posting a then career-long 52-yard punt return for his first career touchdown against Houston (12/11). Also recorded a career-high eight tackles with one pass defensed.

COLLEGE:

- At West Virginia, played in 36 games with 22 starts before declaring for the NFL Draft after his junior year.
- Collected eight interceptions, 22 pass deflections, 201 tackles, two sacks, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.
- Also thrived as a return specialist for the Mountaineers, collecting 1,475 yards and one touchdown on 59 kickoff returns (25.0 avg.) as well as 404 yards and one touchdown on 37 punt returns (10.9 avg.).
- Ranked second on the school's career kickoff return yardage list behind Shawn Terry (1,747 yds).
- As a junior, named first-team All-America by NFL Draft Report and College Football News, was first-team All-Big East as a cornerback and returner, and was named Big East Special Teams Player of the Year.
- Started every game as a junior and led the team with 76 tackles, including two sacks, and added three interceptions and seven passes defensed. On special teams, recorded 26 kickoff returns for 608 yards and returned 21 punts for 306 yards and one touchdown.
- Named second-team All-Big East after starting 10 games as a sophomore and recording career-highs with 89 tackles and four interceptions, including one for touchdown. Also tallied six tackles for loss, 14 passes defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.
- Ranked 16th in the nation with 33 kickoff returns for 867 yards (26.3 avg.) and one touchdown and added 98 yards on 16 punt returns.
- As freshman, played in 11 games and totaled 36 tackles, one interception, one forced fumble and one pass breakup.

PERSONAL:

- Adam Jones attended Westlake High School in Atlanta, Ga., where he was named Conference Player of the Year, played in the Georgia-Florida all-star game and won Atlanta Journal-Constitution Class 4A all-state honors after totaling 120 tackles, six interceptions and 1,850 rushing yards as senior.

- Won two state championships during his prep career.
- Earned All-America honors in basketball and ran track (100 and 4 x 100).
- In 2005, Westlake Lake High School totaled the most NFL players from one high school. Jones joined fellow Westlake alumnus, Keith Adams, Ian Allen, Keyaron Fox, Sean Jones, and Anthony Mitchell for a total of six Westlake NFL players.
- Majored in special education and was a member of the Athletic Director's Academic Honor Roll at West Virginia.
- Has one daughter, Zaniyah, born February 22, 2006.
- While in Tennessee, committed a monetary donation following his rookie contract to the 100 Club of Nashville, which supports families of police, firefighters and emergency workers financially, who lost their lives in the line of duty.
- During the 2005 season, Pearl Cohn High School in Nashville was struck by tragedy when a member of the football team was killed in a car accident and several other players were injured. Jones visited the school and provided inspiration to the somber football team, as well as continued to reach out to the student-athletes making weekly visits to the high school.

Running Back

COLLEGE: Felix Jones was selected by the Dallas Cowboys with the team's first pick in the first round (22nd overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft to add another versatile weapon to the club's offensive arsenal. Jones, who is slated to complement Marion Barber in a two-running back system, is no stranger to teaming up with a headliner in the backfield, having spent three seasons at the University of Arkansas as part of a one-two punch with fellow 2008 first round draft choice Darren McFadden of the Oakland Raiders. Jones is a threat to catch the ball out of the backfield while also providing the Cowboys with a proven return specialist, leaving college as the NCAA's ninth ranked kickoff returner with a career average of 28.2 yards-per-return. From the backfield, Jones averaged 7.7 yards-per-carry, second only to Glen Davis (Army – 8.26 avg. 1943-46). He joined Davis, Mike Rozier (Nebraska – 7.16 avg.) and Reggie Bush (USC – 7.3) as the only backs to average over 7.0 yards-per-carry with a minimum of 350 attempts. The duo of Jones and McFadden amassed 2,992 rushing yards in 2007, behind only Barry Sanders (2,628) and Gerald Hudson (2,369) in 1998 and Bush (1,740) and LenDale White (1,302) in 2005. The tandem also joined Barber and Lawrence Maroney of Minnesota (2003-04) as the only running back pairs in the last 30 years to gain over 1,000 yards each in a season more than once in a career. Jones became the first true freshman in school history to earn first-team All-American honors (as a kickoff returner), when College Football News named him to its postseason team. Jones closed out his collegiate career with 2,956 yards and 20 touchdowns on 386 carries, shattering school and SEC career-records by averaging 7.66 yards-per-rushing attempt, as he started 11 of the 38 games he appeared in. In just three years at Arkansas, Jones amassed 5,099 career all-purpose yards, joining McFadden (5,881) as the only players in school history to crack 5,000 career all-purpose yards.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/26/08: Drafted in the first round (22nd overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Earned All-America first-team honors as a kickoff returner from The NFL Draft Report, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Rivals.com, adding third-team recognition as an all-purpose back by the Associated Press and honorable mention from College Football News.
- Consensus All-Southeastern Conference first-team pick as a kickoff returner, adding second-team accolades from the league's coaches as a running back.
- Started three-of-13 games as a junior, ranking fifth in the SEC with an average of 89.4 rushing yards-per-game as part of the nation's fourth-ranked rushing attack (286.5).
- Named SEC Special Teams Player of the Year, averaging 29.6 yards-per-kickoff return (22 returns for a school record 652 yards) with two touchdowns.
- Finished second in the SEC (22nd in the nation) with 1,990 all-purpose yards (third-most in school history), averaging 153.1 per-game.
- Was the nation's fourth-leading kickoff returner, averaging 29.6 yards-per-return.
- Ranked second on the team with 1,162 yards – tied with Ben Cowins (1976) for ninth in school annals – on 133 carries (8.7 avg.) and 11 touchdowns with six games over 100 rushing yards and was second with 16 catches for 176 yards.
- Finished second in NCAA annals behind Chuck Weatherspoon of Houston (9.6 avg.) and established a school and SEC mark with his 8.7 yard-per-carry average.
- Gained at least 10 yards on 30 of his carries, including 17 for 20 yards-or-longer.
- With 166 rushing yards against South Carolina, teamed with McFadden (321) for 487 yards rushing, setting an NCAA single-game record by a tandem, topping the old mark of 476 yards by Tony Sands (396) and Chip Hilleary (80) of Kansas against Missouri in 1991.

2006:

- Was an All-SEC first-team selection as a sophomore, adding second-team accolades from the league's coaches and Associated Press as he became only the eighth running back in school history to rush for more than 1,000 yards when he earned 1,168 yards – good for eighth in school record books – on 154 carries (7.6 avg.) with six touchdowns for an offense that finished fourth in the nation averaging 228.5 rushing yards-per-game.
- Finished fourth on the squad with 15 catches for 107 yards (7.1 avg.) and three scores.
- Returned 23 kickoffs for 554 yards (24.1 avg.) and a touchdown to rank third in school history for kickoff return yards in a season.
- The kickoff return for a touchdown was his second career 100-plus yard return for a score to make him only one-of-two Razorbacks (Boyd Cypert) and one-of-two SEC players (John Avery, Mississippi) to have two 100-yard returns for touchdowns in a career.
- Ranked 22nd nationally, third in the SEC, with 1,829 all-purpose yards (fourth-most in school history), to finish second to McFadden's 2,058 from 2006 on UA's all-time list.
- Teamed with McFadden (1,168 rushing yards) to become just the third running back pair in SEC history and 38th in NCAA history to each rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.
- Along with McFadden, formed the second-most potent rushing tandem in the nation, averaging 201.1 yards-per-game.
- His total of 1,829 all-purpose yardage broke the previous UA record and ranked second on the UA single-season list only to McFadden's (2,058 yards) in the same season.

2005:

- Became the first freshman in school history to earn first-team All-America honors when CollegeFootballNews.com named him to its team as a kickoff return specialist.
- Second-team All-SEC pick by the league's coaches.
- Finished second in the nation with a 31.9-yard kickoff return average, racking up 543 yards and one touchdown on 17 returns to earn SEC All-Freshman honors as a kickoff returner.
- His average was tops in the NCAA after regular season play, was more than six yards better than his nearest rival in the SEC statistical rankings and almost seven yards better than the previous school record.
- His 543 total kickoff return yards were the third-most in a single season in school history.
- Rushed for 626 yards and three touchdowns on 99 attempts (6.3 avg.), finishing second on the team, 10th in the SEC, in rushing with an average of 56.9 yards-per-game.
- Tied teammate McFadden for the conference title with 6.3 yards-per-attempt.
- Became just the second player in school history to record two 100-yard rushing games as a freshman.
- Finished fifth in the league, 63rd in the nation, with 116.4 all-purpose yards-per-game.
- Added eight receptions for 100 yards and earned 11 yards on one punt return.
- Had a season-high 137 rushing yards against Missouri State in his first collegiate game to become the first freshman back in school history to rush for 100 yards in his debut.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Booker T. Washington High School in Tulsa, Okla., and was named the Tulsa World Player of the Year following his senior season, rushing for 2,282 yards and 48 touchdowns on 205 carries (11.1 avg.).
- Led his squad to a 13-1 record and a state runner-up finish, rushing for 166 yards and three touchdowns in the 5A state championship game.

- Sidelined with a broken ankle early in his junior season, but still managed to rack up 800 yards rushing and 20 touchdowns.
- Rivals.com ranked him as the 19th-best athlete in the nation and the fourth-best overall player in Oklahoma.
- Majored in kinesiology at Arkansas with an emphasis on teaching.

Guard

Games/Starts: 2007-16/16; Career-95/72; Postseason: 2007-1/0; Career-4/2.

PRO: Kyle Kosier has experience at multiple positions along the offensive line and stepped in right away at left guard to replace Larry Allen in 2006. Kosier started all 16 regular season games and both playoff games though the past two seasons. He has played in 95 games in six years, including 72 starts. He should solidify the interior of the Cowboys offensive line for the next few years.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

3/11/06: Signed with Dallas as an unrestricted free agent through 2010.
4/19/05: Signed with Detroit as a restricted free agent.
4/21/02: Drafted in the seventh round (248th overall) by San Francisco.

- Started every game at left guard for the second consecutive year.
- Played a key role in one of the most prolific offensive seasons in club history while helping the team to a club record-tying 13 victories and the first NFC East title for Dallas since 1998.
- The Dallas offense finished the season second in the NFL in scoring (first in the NFC) with an average of 28.4 points-per-game. The 455 points scored marked the second-most in club history behind only the 1983 team (479 points).
- With an average of 365.7 yards-per-game, the Cowboys were third in the NFL (second in the NFC) in total offense.
- Dallas ranked fourth in the NFL (third in the NFC) in passing with an average of 256.6 yards-per-game.
- In the rushing offense category, the Cowboys were 17th in the NFL (seventh in the NFC) with an average of 109.1 yards-per-game.
- Offense gained 478 total yards and scored six touchdowns – which tied for the fourth most in a season opener in club history as Romo threw for a season-high 336 yards against the N.Y. Giants (9/9).
- The line blocked for a 100-yard rusher (Barber), 100-yard receiver (Owens) and a 300-yard passer (Romo) at Chicago (9/23) for the first time since at Washington (9/12/99).
- The offense put up a season-high 502 total yards (336 passing and 171 rushing) – the most since the overtime game at Washington (9/12/99) – against St. Louis (9/30).
- Offense put together a 14-play drive – tying the longest drive of the season – to open the game against Minnesota (10/21), and Romo completed a single-game career-high 31 first half completions.
- Romo finished with a season-high 141.7 passer rating and a season-high 80.0 completion percentage at Philadelphia (11/4), completing 20-of-25 passes for 324 yards.
- Romo threw four touchdown passes at the N.Y. Giants (11/11) and against Washington (11/18) to become the first quarterback in team history to throw four touchdowns in back-to-back games.
- The running game picked up a season-high 174 yards against the N.Y. Jets (11/22) as Barber rushed for 103 yards.
- The Dallas offense racked up 368 total yards as Romo finished with 302 passing yards – seventh 300-yard game of the season – and a 110.4 passer rating – his seventh consecutive game with a passer rating over 100.0 at Detroit (12/9).

- In the Divisional Playoff loss against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08), the offensive unit had a season-long 20 play, 90-yard drive for a touchdown in the second quarter that consumed 10:28, marking the longest time of possession on any drive this season.
- The line also provided holes for Barber who rushed for a career-high 129 yards.

2006:

- Played left guard for an offensive line that had the same starters in every regular season game.
- The Cowboys offense scored 425 points (26.6 points-per-game), the fourth-most in the NFL and the team's most since 1995.
- Dallas was second in the NFL in third down efficiency (48.8%), club's highest rating since 1980.
- Dallas also averaged 360.8 yards-per-game in total offense, the fifth-most in the NFL and the most for the Cowboys since the 1995 season.
- At Tennessee (10/1) the Cowboys rushed for 217 yards and three touchdowns, their most rushing yards since December 14, 2003, when they rushed for 222 yards.
- Julius Jones rushed for over 100 yards at Philadelphia (10/8) and against the Texans (10/15), giving him three straight 100-yard games.
- Dallas threw for a season-high 310 net yards against the N.Y. Giants.
- Romo made his first start at Carolina (10/29) as the Cowboys gained 414 total yards and controlled the clock for a season-best 38:16.
- At Arizona (11/12), the line did not allow a sack and gave Romo time to throw for 308 yards, his first career 300-yard passing game.
- The line limited the Bucs to one sack on 30 pass plays as the Cowboys gained a season-high 435 total yards – 306 passing and 137 rushing.
- Dallas also picked up a season-high 27 first downs, including 18 through the air, their most passing first downs since 1998, and Romo tied the club record with five passing touchdowns against Tampa Bay (11/23).
- At Atlanta (12/16), helped Dallas control the ball for 33:21, gain 352 yards, and score 31 offensive points.
- The line played a key role in the Cowboys 11-play, 80-yard touchdown drive late in the fourth quarter, which lasted 6:32 to put the game away.
- Against Detroit (12/31), the line gave Romo time to throw for a season-high 321 yards and two touchdowns.

2005 (Detroit):

- Played in 16 regular season games at left guard, including 11 starts.
- Moved into the starting lineup against Cleveland (10/23), helping the offense gain 329 yards – the second-most by the Lions in 2005.
- At Minnesota (11/6), Joey Harrington completed 28-of-48 passes for 263 yards, the most passing yards by the team in 2005.
- Helped the Lions gain a season-high 383 yards against Arizona (11/13), including 157 rushing yards and 226 passing yards.

2004 (San Francisco):

- Started 16 regular season games, including six at right guard and 10 at left guard.
- In his third start at left guard, helped San Francisco gain 448 yards against Arizona (10/10).

2003 (San Francisco):

- Played in 16 regular season games, including 12 starts.
- Showed his versatility by playing right tackle, left guard, and right guard through the season.
- Against Chicago (9/7), played right tackle and helped hold the Bears without a sack.
- Played right tackle the following week at St. Louis (9/14), and the 49ers gained 390 total yards.
- Moving to starting left guard, helped the offense gain 325 yards against the Lions (10/5).
- Against Tampa Bay (10/19), played left guard, and the 49ers rushed for a season-high 212 yards.

Games/Starts: 2007-11/2; Career-26/2; Postseason-0/0.

Tackle

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys signed veteran free agent Cory Lekkerkerker in hopes that he can provide experienced depth as he battles for a roster spot. Lekkerkerker has played two seasons in the NFL and spent part of another on a practice squad continuing to develop as a player in the NFL. He looks to gain valuable insight from Pro Bowl left tackle Flozell Adams and starter Marc Colombo in his attempt at a roster spot in Dallas this season.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

5/14/08: Signed by the Dallas Cowboys.
2/29/08: Declared a free agent.
9/2/07: Signed by the Miami Dolphins.
9/1/07: Released by the Chargers.
3/3/07: Re-signed a one-year contract with San Diego.
11/5/05: Signed to the Chargers active roster.
9/3/05: Released from the Chargers and signed to their practice squad (9/5).
4/29/05: Signed a two-year contract as a free agent with the San Diego Chargers.

2007 (Miami):

- Played in 11 games with two starts at left guard for the Dolphins.
- Played the first three games of the season before dressing but not playing the next two weeks.
- Returned to action the next week, and over the course of the next six weeks, played in three games and did not see any playing time in the other three.
- Made first career start at Buffalo (12/9) at left tackle.
- Earned second start the following week against Baltimore (12/16) in the Dolphins first and only win of the season – 22-16 in overtime.
- Saw action in the final two games of the season.

2006 (San Diego):

- Saw action in 15 games along the offensive line.
- In the season opener at Oakland (9/11), lined up at tight end in a goal line formation on a fourth-and-goal one-yard touchdown run by LaDainian Tomlinson – the first Chargers score of the game.
- Played at left tackle against Tennessee (9/17) providing key blocks for a 73-yard Michael Turner run and a 14-yard touchdown run by quarterback Charlie Whitehurst.
- Did not play at Baltimore (10/1).
- Took over for Shane Olivea in the second quarter at San Francisco (10/15) after Olivea suffered a mild knee injury.
- Played mainly on special teams and goal line situations the rest of the season and in the AFC Playoff game.

2005 (San Diego):

- Spent the first eight weeks of the season on the practice squad.
- Moved to the active roster Week 9 and dressed but did not play.
- Was inactive for the rest of the season.

COLLEGE:

- Named first-team All-Great West Conference at California Davis in 2004.
- Earned team's Jim Ferrier Award in 2003 as the outstanding transfer of the year.
- Started every game in 2003 and 2004 after redshirting in 2002.
- Played two years at Chaffey College and earned second-team All-Foothill Conference in 2001.

PERSONAL:

- Cory Lekkerkerker was born in Upland, Calif., and played high school football at Damien High School in LaVerne, Calif.
- Named first-team All-Sierra Foothill League honors as a senior.
- Played high school football with his older brother, Brad, who was a former tackle with the Oakland Raiders.
- Earned a degree in economics from Cal Davis.

Tackle

PRO: The Cowboys scouts and coaches liked James Marten's potential at right tackle and chose him in the third round (67th overall) of the 2007 NFL Draft. His experience at left tackle and right tackle should help him in his bid to be a long-term contributor to the Cowboys offensive line. At 6-7, 315 pounds, he fits the mold of the Cowboys big offensive linemen, and his large frame should allow him to add to his weight. Like most offensive linemen out of Boston College in recent years, Marten can play several positions on the line. In Dallas, he began at tackle, where the team hopes to take advantage of his long wingspan and drive blocking ability. Marten joins Boston College alumnus Marc Colombo, who is the Cowboys starting right tackle.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/28/07: Drafted in the third round (67th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Earned several snaps with the first unit during the preseason, seeing time in all four games.
- Inactive for all 16 regular season games and the Divisional Playoff Game against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08).

COLLEGE:

- Was a tackle as a freshman and a left guard as a sophomore and junior.
- Following the 2006 graduation of Jeremy Trueblood, who is now a Tampa Bay Buccaneer, Marten took over as the left tackle in his senior season.
- Started his last 38 games at Boston College, including the first 25 at left guard and the last 13 at left tackle. Had 222 career knockdowns/key blocks.
- After moving from left guard to left tackle as a senior, started 13 games and earned second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors. The Eagles scored 26.0 points-per-game and ranked second in the conference with 354.1 yards-per-game.
- Had 10 blocks that resulted in touchdowns and was the leader of an offensive line that allowed just 22 sacks in 482 passing plays.
- Allowed only 1.5 sacks and no quarterback pressures, helping Boston College go 10-3, including a win over Navy in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.
- As a fourth-year junior, started all 12 games at left guard and earned second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors.
- Allowed only 1.5 sacks and three quarterback pressures and made 71 knockdowns and helped the offense lead the ACC with 387.7 yards-per-game and 25.8 points-per-game.
- The offensive line ranked 12th in the nation with 15 sacks allowed (1.25 per-game).
- As a sophomore, started all 12 games at left guard and helped three Eagles running backs rush for 100 or more yards in a game.
- The Eagles offense finished with 4,625 yards, or 385.4 yards-per-game.
- As a second-year freshman, played in all 13 games, helping quarterback Paul Peterson pass for 2,594 yards.
- Made his first collegiate start at right tackle against Colorado State in the San Francisco Bowl.
- Redshirted as a true freshman in 2002.

PERSONAL:

- James Marten attended Brebeuf Jesuit High School in Indianapolis, Ind., where he earned 2001 All-Midwest honors from SuperPrep and PrepStar.
- A two-time all-state Class 3A and all-county choice, was also named to the Indiana Football Coaches' Top-50 in 2001 and was a member of the North-South All-Star team.
- A team captain in football, also competed on the basketball team and track and field team.
- In 2000, helped the basketball team win the Indiana State Class 3A title in 2000.
- In track, competed in the discus and was a team captain as a senior.
- Earned his bachelor's degree in finance and marketing from the Carroll School of Management at Boston College in May 2006 and is pursuing a master's degree in administrative studies at the Woods College of Advancing Studies.
- Was the 2005-06 recipient of the John F. Walsh Family Football Scholarship.
- Participated in the NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program, attending the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the spring of 2008.
- 2007 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- 2008 Poker for Pets for SPCA of Texas.
- 2008 Dallas Cowboys Draft Day/Fan Appreciation Party.

PRO: An undrafted rookie free agent in 2003, Mat McBriar has become one of the NFL's premier punters in just four seasons. He has six of the club's top-10 single-game highs for gross average and the second-best single-game net average. With his selection to the Pro Bowl following the 2006 season, McBriar became just the third Cowboys punter to make the NFL's all-star game, joining Sam Baker in 1963 and Ron Widby in 1971. He narrowly missed a trip to the Pro Bowl following 2007, as he was selected as a reserve for the NFC squad. His Pro Bowl season was highlighted by a 48.2-yard gross punting average, tied for fifth-best in NFL history. He broke Baker's team record of 45.4 yards-per-punt, set in 1962, and became the first punter to average over 48 yards-per-punt since Yale Lary of the Lions in 1963. Coming into the 2008 season, McBriar has 275 consecutive regular season punts without being blocked, the second-longest streak in club history behind Danny White's 341.

PRO BOWL

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

3/1/07: Signed a contract extension.
2/13/06: Re-signed with Dallas.
1/5/04: Signed to the Dallas active roster.
9/01/03: Released by Seattle.
8/22/03: Traded to Seattle for a 2004 conditional pick.
4/28/03: Signed with Denver.

2007:

- Finished fourth in the NFL with a 47.1 gross average and seventh with a 38.5 net average.
- Had a season-best gross average of 56.5 yards in the win at Buffalo (10/8).
- With a 53.8 average on five punts against New England (10/14), had the third-best single-game average in club history.
- Posted the fourth-best gross average in club history the next week against Minnesota (10/21) with a 53.3-yard average.
- Also had a net average of 50.5 against the Vikings, the second-best single-game net average in franchise history.
- Against Green Bay (11/29), logged his 254th consecutive punt without a block, surpassing John Jett for the second-longest streak in club history.
- Had a season-high with seven punts against Philadelphia (12/16) and again at Washington (12/30).
- Averaged 47.3 yards in the Divisional Playoff Game against the N.Y. Giants – good for the second-highest gross average in club playoff history.
- Also had three punts downed inside the Giants 20-yard line which tied for the second-most punts downed inside the 20-yard line in Dallas postseason history.

2006:

- Earned his first career trip to the Pro Bowl after posting an NFL-best 48.2-yard gross punting average, tying Sammy Baugh's 1942 average for the fifth-best in NFL history.
- Trailed only Sammy Baugh's 51.4 in 1940, Yale Lary's 48.9 in 1963, Baugh's 48.7 in 1941, and Lary's 48.4 in 1961.
- Set a club record, breaking the previous mark of 45.4, set by Baker in 1962.
- Was fourth in the league with a 38.6-yard net average, also the fourth-best ever by a Dallas punter – the best average by a Dallas punter since Baker's 40.6 in 1963.
- Became just the third Cowboys punter to make the Pro Bowl, joining Baker in 1963 and Widby in 1971.
- Also a second-team All-Pro choice by The Associated Press and a first-team All-NFC pick by the Pro Football Writers.
- Twenty-seven of his 56 punts in 2006 went 50-or-more yards, including seven that went 60-or-more yards.
- Had 15 of his punts downed inside the opponents 20-yard line, and his 75-yard punt against Houston (10/15) was the longest in the NFL in 2006.
- Set a then career-high with a 53.2-yard average on five punts in the season opener at Jacksonville (9/10).
- Set a club record in the win over Houston (10/15) with a 56.8-yard average on four punts – 47, 75, 56, and 49 yards – and had a career-high 46.0 net average.
- His 75-yard punt went out of bounds at the Houston two-yard line and was tied for the second-longest punt in club history.
- Notched a season-high 58.0-yard gross average and tied his season-high with a 46.0-yard net average on two punts.
- Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week after posting a 46.7-yard average on three punts, including two inside the 20-yard line in the win over Indianapolis (11/19).
- Averaged 48.4 yards on five punts in his postseason debut at Seattle (1/6/07) – the highest punting average in a playoff game in team history.
- Had a 62-yard punt in the fourth quarter, the second-longest punt in Cowboys postseason history.

2005:

- Finished his second season in Dallas with a 42.5-yard average on 81 punts, which ranked eighth in the NFC and 20th in the NFL.
- His 37.1-yard net average was fourth-best in the NFC, 12th-best in the NFL, and the best by a Dallas punter since 1993, marking the fourth time since 1969 that a Dallas punter had a net average over 37 yards.
- Eighteen of his 81 punts were downed without a return, the second-best total in the NFL and tied for second in the NFC – fifth in the NFL – with 28 punts downed inside the 20-yard line, tying Mike Saxon for the second-best total in club history.
- Had a 48.2-yard average on six punts and a 40.0-yard net average with three punts that landed at or inside the Redskins 10-yard line in the home opener against Washington (9/19).
- Tied a career-high with nine punts at Seattle (10/23), and five were downed inside the Seahawks 20-yard line, a team record.
- Against Arizona (10/30), had a 53.3-yard average on three punts – 55, 53, and 52 yards along with his first special teams tackle of the season.
- Tied his career-high with nine punts for a 42.7-yard average at Philadelphia (11/14).
- All three of his punts landed inside the 20-yard line against Detroit (11/20).
- Had a season-high 42.0-yard net average on five punts against Denver (11/24).
- At Carolina (12/24), averaged a season-best 48.6 yards on seven punts, including one for a season-long 63 yards.

2004:

- Played in all 16 games in his first pro season, finishing with a 42.4-yard gross average on 75 punts and a 35.1-yard net average.
- Twenty-two of his punts were downed inside the 20-yard line and his 42.4-yard gross average was the highest by a Cowboys punter since 2000, when Micah Knorr posted a 42.8-yard average.
- Made his NFL debut in the season opener at Minnesota (9/12) and averaged 32.7 yards on three punts, including two that were downed inside the 20-yard line.
- Two of his three punts against Cleveland (9/19) were downed inside the 20, including one at the one-yard line, which led to a safety when the Browns were called for holding in the end zone.
- On four punts against Pittsburgh (10/17), averaged a career-high 50.3 yards with a then career-high 45.0-yard net average, marking the best gross and net average by a Dallas punter since Oct. 24, 1999, when Toby Gowin had a 53.3-yard gross average and a 45.3-yard net average.
- Punted seven times for a 44.1-yard average against Philadelphia (11/15), including a 57-yard punt and a career-long 68-yard punt, the longest since Gowin's 72-yard punt against Chicago on Sept. 28, 1997.
- Had a career-high nine punts against Chicago (11/25) on Thanksgiving Day, averaging 43.1 yards-per-punt with four consecutive punts of 50-or-more yards in the first and second quarters.
- Against New Orleans (12/12), had his first career special teams tackle.
- Added his second career special teams tackle against Washington (12/26), preventing a touchdown by forcing Antonio Brown out of bounds at the Cowboys 23-yard line.

2003:

- Signed with the Denver Broncos as a rookie free agent and had six punts for a 41.5-yard average in the preseason.
- Was traded to Seattle on Aug. 22 for a conditional draft pick and averaged 44.8 yards on five punts in his lone preseason game with Seattle.
- Was released Aug. 31 and spent the fall out of football.
- Signed to the Cowboys practice squad Dec. 24.

COLLEGE:

- Punted three years at Hawaii, averaging 42.2 yards on 131 career punts, including 32 that were downed inside the 20-yard line.
- Earned All-Western Athletic Conference honors as a senior after averaging 44.8 yards on 48 punts (2,148 yards) with 12 downed inside the 20-yard line.
- As a junior, earned second-team All-WAC honors after averaging 43.4 yards on 40 punts, with 10 that were downed inside the 20-yard line.
- Began his college football career in 2000, punting 43 times for 1,647 yards (38.3 yards-per-punt), including 10 punts that were downed inside the 20.
- Attended Deakin University in Australia for three semesters before moving to Hawaii.

PERSONAL:

- Matthew James McBriar graduated from Brighton Grammar School in Melbourne, Australia, in 1997 and earned full color (lettered) four times in football and rowing.
- Credits former San Diego Chargers punter Darren Bennett for helping him pursue a college football career. Bennett introduced him to Hawaii head coach June Jones. McBriar later stayed with Bennett in San Diego after being released by Seattle in 2003.
- Is the second Australian to play for the Cowboys, joining former punter/kicker Colin Ridgway (1965), and just the fourth Australian to play in the NFL, joining Bennett, Ridgway, and defensive tackle Colin Scotts, who played for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1987.
- He and his wife, Erin, were married February 15, 2008.
- MDA Muscle Team Bash.
- Taste of the NFL: The Ultimate Dallas Cowboys Tailgate Party for North Texas Food Bank.
- Dallas Cowboys Draft Day/Fan Appreciation Party.
- 2008 Poker for Pets for SPCA of Texas.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- Happy Hill Farm Kickoff Luncheon and Cookbook.

Tackle

Games/Starts: 2007-16/0; Career-17/0; Postseason: 2007-1/0; Career-2/0.

PRO: Pat McQuistan has been a valuable tackle with the flexibility to play both the right and left side. He will continue to learn from some of the best in the league in Pro Bowler, Flozell Adams and Marc Colombo after seeing time in all 16 games as a reserve lineman and on special teams in 2007.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/30/06: Drafted in seventh-round (211th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Saw action in every game – mainly on special teams.
- Played at right tackle in place of Colombo on the team's final drive against St. Louis (9/30).
- Relieved Adams at left tackle on the final drive against the N.Y. Jets (11/22).
- Recorded his first NFL kickoff return for 12 yards against Philadelphia (12/16).
- Played at left tackle for the fourth quarter at Washington (12/30).

2006:

- Made the active roster out of training camp as a backup tackle to Adams.
- Had two starts in the preseason when Adams was out with a bruised calf.
- Inactive the first 15 games of the regular season.
- Made his NFL debut against Detroit (12/31), playing mostly on special teams.
- Played on special teams in the wild card game at Seattle (1/6/07).

COLLEGE:

- Played in all 11 games in 2005 at Weber State, helping the Wildcats go 6-5 after they went 1-10 in 2004 as the offense averaged 381.2 yards-per-game and finished with 2,466 passing yards and 1,727 rushing yards.
- In his first season at Weber State, played in 10 games at tackle and guard.
- Enrolled at Weber State during the summer and sat out the 2003 season as an academic redshirt.
- Originally signed to play at Weber State in February 2002 along with his brother, Paul, but was declared academically ineligible.
- Enrolled at Edmonds Community College and played baseball for one season.

PERSONAL:

- Patrick Shawn McQuistan attended Lebanon, Ore., High School.
- Earned second-team All-Valley League honors as a defensive lineman and honorable mention All-Valley League as an offensive lineman and punter as a senior.
- Was a business major at Weber State.
- Twin brother, Paul, was selected in the third round (69th overall) by the Oakland Raiders in the 2006 NFL Draft.
- Paul and Pat are the youngest of seven children. Their brother David is in the Air Force.
- He and his wife, Amy, were married in July of 2007.
- 2006 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- Taste of the NFL: The Ultimate Dallas Cowboys Tailgate Party for North Texas Food Bank.
- 2008 Poker for Pets for SPCA of Texas.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- Happy Hill Farm Kickoff Luncheon and Cookbook.

Cornerback

PRO: After being regarded as one of the game's top corners for his first four years in the NFL, Terence Newman earned his first Pro Bowl selection following the 2007 season. He signed a six-year extension on May 20 that will keep him in Dallas until 2014. Blessed with speed that made him an indoor and outdoor All-American sprinter in college, Newman has been a consistent performer since becoming Dallas's first round draft choice in 2003. He earned All-Rookie honors after tying for the league lead among rookies in interceptions. In his second season, Newman became the first player since Everson Walls in 1981-82 to lead the team outright in interceptions in consecutive seasons. He enjoyed another productive season in 2005 where he solidified his reputation as a shutdown corner. He was rarely challenged in the passing game in 2006, and in 2007, he proved he could overcome injury for the first time in his career – turning in the Pro Bowl performance – after missing the season's first two games with a foot injury. A solid playmaker and an anchor in the secondary, Newman is one of three first round draft picks at the corner position for Dallas – joining Adam Jones (2005) and Mike Jenkins (2008). He also has dangerous punt returning ability when called upon. Newman has a career average of 8.2 yards on 36 punt returns with a 56-yard touchdown return to his credit. Thanksgiving Day has become a special holiday for Newman as he has recorded at least one turnover (three interceptions and one fumble recovery) in four of his five career turkey day outings.

07

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

5/20/08: Signed a six-year contract extension with Dallas.
4/26/03: Drafted in the first round (5th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Despite missing the first two games of the year while recovering from a foot injury, earned first Pro Bowl selection in his fifth NFL season.
- Was one-of-13 Cowboys selected to the Pro Bowl – setting a team and NFL record.
- Finished the year third on the team with four interceptions to go along with 15 pass breakups (tied for the team lead).
- His 62 tackles were seventh-best on a defense that closed the year ninth in the NFL (fourth in the NFC), allowing an average of 307.6 yards-per-game.
- Missed the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/9) and the following week's game at Miami (9/16) while recovering from a foot injury. The opener marked the first game he had missed in his five-year NFL career.
- Returned to on-field action in the win at Chicago (9/23) where he was used only in nickel passing situations.
- Did not start in the win over St. Louis (9/30), but was forced into full-time action after Anthony Henry suffered a high ankle sprain in the first quarter and responded with five tackles.
- In his first start of the season in place of Henry (ankle) at Buffalo (10/8), picked off his first pass of the season and returned it 70 yards while also contributing five tackles and one pass defensed.
- In the loss to New England (10/14), had a season-high nine tackles and forced one fumble in his second start of the year.
- In the win at Philadelphia (11/4), tied for the team lead in tackles with eight stops and also knocked down one pass.
- In the win over Washington (11/18), had a team-high three pass breakups – one of which was an interception that stopped a late Redskins drive for the potential go-ahead touchdown.
- In the Thanksgiving Day win over the N.Y. Jets (11/22), registered his third big-play interception of the year by taking a Jets pass 50 yards for a score that brought the Dallas lead to 21-0 in the second quarter. It was the 15th interception of his career and the first he had returned for a touchdown.
- In the win over Green Bay (11/29) tied for second on the team in tackles (five stops) while breaking up two passes and recording his fourth interception of the year (his third consecutive game with a pick) on the play in which Brett Favre was injured.
- Sat out the season-ending loss at Washington (12/30), resting a knee injury that occurred at Carolina (12/22).

2006:

- Ranked sixth on the team with 66 tackles and third on the team with 12 passes defensed. Also added one interception.
- Also surfaced as a dangerous punt returner, ranking fifth in the NFC and 12th in the NFL with a 10.1-yard average on 20 returns.
- In the home-opening win over Washington (9/17), gained 40 yards on three punt returns (13.3 yards-per-return).
- At Tennessee (10/1), posted two punt returns for 21 yards, including a season-best 20-yarder, to set up short touchdown drives of 55 and 44 yards.
- In the Monday night loss to the N.Y. Giants (10/23), had his only interception of the season, picking off Eli Manning in the end zone. Also finished second on the team with a season-high eight tackles.
- In the win over previously undefeated Indianapolis (11/19), recorded three tackles, including one for a loss on a pass play, and broke up a pass. Helped limit the Colts to a season-low 14 points.

- In the Thanksgiving Day win over Tampa Bay (11/23), had a 24-yard punt return to set up Dallas's first touchdown.
- In the playoff-clinching win at Atlanta (12/16), registered five tackles and had a career-high four pass breakups.
- Against Detroit (12/31), scored his first career touchdown, returning a punt 56 yards to give the Cowboys a 21-20 lead in the third quarter. It was the longest punt return of his career and the first punt return for a touchdown by a Cowboy since Nov. 22, 2001, when Reggie Swinton returned one 65 yards against Denver.

- The most productive of his three NFL seasons to date, finishing third on the team with 70 tackles, leading the team with a career-high 15 passes defensed and tying for second with three interceptions.
- Was fifth on the team with three tackles for a loss.
- In the season-opening win at San Diego (9/11), had five tackles and a season-high two tackles for a loss, both on pass plays.
- In the Monday night loss to Washington (9/19), intercepted his fifth career pass against the Redskins in five career games.
- In the win at San Francisco (9/25), was second on the team with six tackles and also broke up two passes. One of the pass breakups came on the 49ers final play, and Dat Nguyen intercepted it to seal the Cowboys 34-31 win.
- In the loss at Oakland (10/2), made the defensive play of the game, catching Randy Moss from behind at the Dallas seven-yard line to save a touchdown and force a Raiders field goal.
- In the win over Philadelphia (10/9), added his second career sack.
- At Seattle (10/23), was second on the team with six tackles. Also broke up two passes and intercepted quarterback Matt Hasselbeck at the Dallas seven-yard line on the Seahawks opening drive.
- In the victory over Detroit (11/20), was second on the team with a season-high seven tackles along with a pass deflection.
- In the overtime loss to Denver (11/24) on Thanksgiving Day, had four tackles and two takeaways that led to two Dallas touchdowns. His second quarter interception was the first off quarterback Jake Plummer in 230 pass attempts. His fourth quarter fumble recovery at the Broncos 10-yard line set up the tying touchdown.
- At Carolina (12/24), limited wide receiver Steve Smith to one catch for 18 yards before Smith was ejected midway through the third quarter. Finished with three tackles and two passes defensed, giving him a career-high 15 for the season.

2004:

- Led the team with four interceptions, becoming the first player since Everson Walls in 1981-82 to lead the team outright in interceptions in consecutive seasons.
- Posted a team-high 13 pass deflections and ranked fourth on the team with 66 tackles in his second NFL season.
- Against Cleveland (9/19), had his first interception of the season and helped limit the Browns to 66 net passing yards. Also returned his first career punt, a seven-yard return in the third quarter.
- Led the team with a career-high 13 tackles against Pittsburgh (10/17).
- Had a season-high two pass breakups against Detroit (10/31) and two pass breakups and four tackles at Cincinnati (11/7).
- Registered his first career tackle for a loss against Philadelphia (11/15) and his first career forced fumble at Baltimore (11/21).
- On Thanksgiving Day against Chicago (11/25), had his second interception, picking off Jonathan Quinn in the fourth quarter and returning it 11 yards to the Bears 42-yard line to set up the Cowboys final touchdown.
- At Seattle (12/6), recorded eight tackles, broke up a pass and forced a fumble in the second quarter.
- At Philadelphia (12/19), posted two tackles, broke up two passes and picked off his third pass of the season. Limited wide receiver Terrell Owens to two catches for 24 yards.
- Had three tackles and his fourth interception of the season against Washington (12/26), helping limit the Redskins to 149 passing yards.

2003:

- Became just the third rookie cornerback in club history to start a season opener against Arizona (9/7).
- Finished the season with four interceptions, which was first on the team, tied for 10th in the NFC and tied for first among NFL rookies.
- Was also second on the team with 14 passes defensed.
- Was fifth on the team with 80 tackles, becoming the fifth Cowboys cornerback to record 80-or-more tackles since 1979, when the team began tracking tackles. Also finished second on the team with six tackles for a loss.
- Helped the defense jump from 18th in the league in 2002 to first after it allowed 75 fewer yards-per-game.
- Dallas was the only team in the league that allowed a completion percentage below 50.0.
- At the N.Y. Giants (9/15), intercepted his first career pass, picking off a second quarter pass intended for tight end Jeremy Shockey at the Cowboys 20-yard line. He also broke up a season-high three passes.
- Against Arizona (10/5), logged his first career sack when he ran Jeff Blake out of bounds on a scramble.
- Was second on the team with seven tackles and helped limit quarterback Jake Delhomme to nine-of-24 passing (37.5 percent) in the Cowboys 24-20 win over Carolina (11/23).
- Recorded a season-high eight tackles against Miami (11/27) on Thanksgiving Day. Also recovered a Ricky Williams fumble at the Dallas 28-yard line.
- Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors at Washington (12/14), after tying a team record with three interceptions, becoming the fourth Cowboys player and first rookie to have three interceptions in a game. The first interception came at the Dallas seven-yard line. He returned the second interception 25 yards, to the Redskins nine-yard line, to set up a Dallas touchdown. The third interception led to a Dallas field goal.
- Posted five tackles at Carolina (1/3/04) in his postseason debut.

COLLEGE:

- A consensus All-America selection as a senior cornerback at Kansas State and an honorable mention All-America kickoff returner.

- Became the first player in school history to win the Jim Thorpe Award and was a finalist for the Bronco Nagurski Award.
- Was an All-Big 12 Conference first-team choice and Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in 2002, when he became the second player in school history to score a touchdown on a kickoff and punt return in the same season.
- In 48 collegiate games, posted 133 tackles, 10 interceptions, 32 pass deflections, and two forced fumbles.
- Also gained 834 yards with one touchdown on 32 kickoff returns (26.1 yards-per-return) and 417 yards with three touchdowns on 27 punt returns (15.4 yards-per-return).

Cornerback

PRO: In an effort to add a young cornerback with NFL experience, the Dallas Cowboys claimed Evan Oglesby off waivers from the Baltimore Ravens on Sept. 2, 2007. Oglesby is a fast cornerback that has tremendous potential on defense while also contributing on special teams coverage units with the ability to return kickoffs and punts. He is expected to compete for a roster spot at an overcrowded cornerback position in 2008.

Wide Receiver

PRO: One of the most prolific receivers in league history, Terrell Owens' second season in Dallas was better than his first. After landing in Dallas in 2006 to lead the team with 85 receptions, 1,180 receiving yards, and an NFL-best 13 touchdown catches, he returned in 2007 to set a franchise record with 15 touchdown catches on 81 catches (second on the team) with a team-best 1,355 yards. Owens enters the 2008 season ninth with 882 career catches, 10th with 13,070 and third with 129 receiving touchdowns, trailing Cris Carter by just one for second – Jerry Rice is at the top of the charts with 197. Owens is also averaging 75.5 yards-per-game, the sixth-most in NFL history, and he has caught at least one pass in 167 consecutive regular season games, the second-longest active streak in the NFL (Marvin Harrison – 175). His last game without a catch was Oct. 14, 1996, at Green Bay. With eight seasons with at least 1,000 receiving yards and six seasons with at least 80 receptions, Owens' career has been filled with memorable single-game performances and milestones. On Dec. 17, 2000, Owens set an NFL record with 20 receptions against Chicago, breaking Tom Fears's 50-year-old record of 18. In 2004 Owens played for the Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX just seven weeks after having ankle surgery. He had nine receptions for 122 yards. Owens is the second player in NFL history to finish seven seasons with 13-or-more touchdown receptions, joining Jerry Rice, who did it eight times. Owens also has 29 games with multiple touchdown receptions, tied with Cris Carter and trailing only Jerry Rice (44) for the league lead. With 45 career 100-yard receiving games, he is tied with Torry Holt for third among active players, behind Harrison (59) and Randy Moss (46). He has led his team in receiving yards in each of the last seven seasons, and on Dec. 31, 2006, he became the 17th player in NFL history to record 800 career receptions. He did it in his 158th career game, the third-fastest in NFL history, behind Harrison (131) and Rice (154). He enters 2008 just 18 catches shy of 900 and could become just the eighth receiver to top that mark. A six-time Pro Bowler (2000-04, 2007) and six-time All-Pro selection (1998, 2000-02, 2004, 2007), Owens has been a durable player throughout his career, missing only nine games because of an injury.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

6/3/08: Signed a three-year extension with Dallas.
3/18/06: Signed with Dallas.
3/14/06: Released by Philadelphia.
12/03/05: Team suspension lifted.
11/9/05: Suspended by team.
3/16/03: Acquired by Philadelphia in a three-way trade with Baltimore and San Francisco.
6/4/99: Re-signed with San Francisco.
4/20/96: Drafted in the third round (98th overall) by San Francisco.

2007:

- Selected as a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad – his sixth career selection and first as a Cowboy – one of a league record 13 Cowboys selected.
- Named to the All-NFL Team by the Pro Football Writers after finishing third in the league with a team-record 15 receiving touchdowns, leading the NFC – fifth in the NFL – in scoring among nonkickers (90 points) and second in the NFC – fifth in the league – with 1,355 receiving yards.
- His 1,355 receiving yards was his eighth career 1,000-yard season and good for the third-most in his career.
- Became the fourth player in club history to catch at least 80 passes in a season, joining Michael Irvin (1991,'93,'95), Raghib Ismail (1999) and Jason Witten (2006,07).
- In the season opener against the N.Y. Giants (9/9), led the team with two touchdown catches on three receptions for 87 yards, all in the second half, for a 29.0-yard average – the third-highest of his career.
- Recorded his 40th career 100-yard game with a team-high 145 yards at Chicago (9/23).
- With three receptions against St. Louis (9/30), passed Steve Largent (819) for 13th place on the NFL's all-time receiving yards list.
- Added a team-high six catches to move into 12th place on the all-time receptions list and moved into 13th place on the receiving yards list against New England (10/14).
- In the win at Philadelphia (11/4), had his best day as a Cowboy, catching 10 passes for 174 yards – his 42nd career 100-yard game – and a touchdown – his 120th career score, becoming just the fourth receiver to reach that milestone.
- Moved into 10th place on the club's all-time receiving touchdowns list with two scores – his second multi-touchdown game of the season and 28th of his career – at the N.Y. Giants (11/11).
- Tied Bob Hayes for the club record of receiving touchdowns in a game with four at Washington (11/18). The four touchdowns set a career-high and gave him his 29th career multi-touchdown game, tying Cris Carter for the second-most in NFL history.
- Also led the team with 173 receiving yards, his fourth consecutive game with 100 yards which was good for the second-longest streak in club history.

- On Thanksgiving Day against the N.Y. Jets (11/22), moved into ninth place on the all-time receptions list and 10th on the all-time receiving yards list with six catches for 65 yards and a touchdown – his sixth consecutive game with a receiving touchdown, tying the second-longest streak in team history and of his career.
- Logged his sixth 100-yard game of the season with 156 yards against Green Bay (11/29), tying the second-most 100-yard games in a season in team history and in his career.
- Also against the Packers, added a touchdown for the seventh consecutive game, tying Clarke and Hayes for the longest streak in club history.
- Caught his 15th touchdown of the season at Carolina (12/22) to establish a club record before leaving the game late in the second quarter with a high ankle sprain.
- Was inactive at Washington (12/30) with the sprain, but returned for the Divisional Playoff Game against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08) to catch four passes for 49 yards and a touchdown.

2006:

- Signed with Dallas on March 18 and led the NFL with 13 touchdown receptions with a team-high 85 catches (sixth in the NFC, 13th in the NFL) and 1,180 receiving yards (fifth in the NFC, ninth in the NFL).
- Tied Hayes's 1966 mark for second-most touchdown receptions in a season in team history, one shy of Clarke's club record of 14 in 1962.
- Marked his sixth season with 13-or-more touchdown receptions.
- Along with wide receiver Terry Glenn (1,047 yards), the Cowboys had two 1,000-yard wide receivers in the same season for just the second time in club history. In 1979, Tony Hill (1,062 yards) and Drew Pearson (1,026 yards) accomplished the feat.
- Became the fourth player in club history with at least 80 receptions in a season.
- Recorded his seventh career 1,000-yard receiving season and the 19th in Cowboys history.
- Was the ninth Dallas receiver to have 1,000 receiving yards in a season, joining Clarke (1 season), Hayes (2), Lance Rentzel (1), Pearson (2), Hill (3), Irvin (7), Ismail (1), and Glenn (1).
- Led the team with six catches for 80 yards and a touchdown in his Dallas debut at Jacksonville (9/10).
- Fractured the fourth metacarpal in his right hand in the fourth quarter of the win over Washington (9/17).
- Underwent surgery Sept. 18 to insert a plate and screws in the hand and returned to practice following the bye Sept. 28 and did not miss a game.
- Against Houston (10/15), tied a career-best with three touchdown catches – his 25th game with multiple touchdown receptions, the fourth-most in NFL history, his fourth game with three and the 13th time in Dallas history a receiver had three touchdowns in a single game.
- With six catches against the N.Y. Giants (10/23), reached 744 career receptions, passing Andre Rison for 21st all-time. Also reached 10,910 receiving yards, passing Gary Clark (10,856) and Keenan McCardell (10,909) for 17th all-time.
- Had his first 100-yard game as a Cowboy – the 37th of his career – with 107 yards in Tony Romo's first career start at Carolina (10/29).
- Against the Panthers, moved past Irvin and Charlie Joiner (750 receptions) for 19th all-time in receptions and became the 17th player in NFL history to record 11,000 receiving yards.
- Moved past James Lofton for 18th all-time on the NFL's career receptions list at Arizona (11/12).
- Against previously undefeated Indianapolis (11/19), had four receptions for 70 yards to move past Marshall Faulk (767 career receptions) for 17th all-time with 769.
- On Thanksgiving Day against Tampa Bay (11/23), led the team with eight receptions and tied a season-high with 107 receiving yards, his second 100-yard game of the season and the 38th of his career. Also logged his 109th career touchdown reception.
- Had his second multi-touchdown game of the season in the playoff-clinching win at Atlanta (12/16).
- Tied for the team lead with six receptions for a season-high 117 yards, including a season-long 56-yard touchdown to mark his third 100-yard receiving game of the season and the 39th of his career.

2005 (Philadelphia):

- Through the first seven games of the season, ranked third in the NFL with 47 receptions and 763 receiving yards and was tied for second with six touchdown receptions, but was suspended by the team for the remainder of the season.
- Had four 100-yard receiving games and scored in five of the seven games.
- With 112 yards in the season opener at Atlanta (9/12) and 143 yards against San Francisco (9/18), became the first Eagle since Harold Jackson (1972) to start the season with two consecutive 100-yard receiving games.
- Against the 49ers, became the 24th player in NFL history to reach 10,000 receiving yards.
- Set season-highs for receptions (11) and receiving yards (171) – both his highest totals as an Eagle – with a touchdown at Kansas City (10/2).
- Notched his 100th career touchdown reception against San Diego (10/23).
- Caught three passes for 154 yards and a touchdown in his final game as an Eagle at Denver (10/30).
- Served a team suspension the remainder of the season as a gameday inactive.

2004 (Philadelphia):

- Acquired by Philadelphia in a three-team trade with San Francisco and Baltimore.
- Selected to his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl along with earning first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, and Football Digest.
- Finished with 77 catches for 1,200 yards and 14 touchdown receptions, the third-most in the NFL in 2004 and the most in team history.
- Had a career-best seven 100-yard games, including five straight – both were Philadelphia records.
- In his Eagles debut against the N.Y. Giants (9/12), tied a career-high with three touchdown receptions – at the time, only two other players in NFL history had scored three touchdowns in their first game with a new team: Bobby Mitchell, Washington in 1962, and Anthony Allen, Washington in 1987.
- Logged 107 yards and a touchdown at Detroit (9/26), beginning a string of five straight games with over 100 receiving yards.
- Tied his season-high with eight receptions for 110 yards and a touchdown, his fourth consecutive game with a touchdown reception, at Chicago (10/3).

- At Cleveland (10/24), caught four passes for 109 yards and two touchdowns, marking the first time in his career that he recorded four straight 100-yard games.
- Set an Eagles record by posting his fifth consecutive 100-yard receiving game, gaining 101 yards on eight receptions against Baltimore (10/31).
- Became the first player to post a touchdown reception in seven straight Monday Night Football games with three touchdowns at Dallas (11/15).
- Tied a season-high with eight receptions, set a season-high with 161 receiving yards – his career-best seventh 100-yard game of the season – and scored a touchdown against Green Bay (12/5).
- Suffered a fractured ankle in the third quarter of the game against Dallas (12/19) and missed the final two regular season games, the Eagles Divisional Playoff Game against Minnesota (1/16/05) and the NFC Championship Game against Atlanta (1/23/05).
- Returned for Super Bowl XXXIX against New England (2/6/05) and had nine receptions for 122 yards.

2003 (San Francisco):

- Earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl selection after posting 80 receptions for 1,102 yards and nine touchdowns, finishing second to Rice in five 49ers career records: total touchdowns (83), receptions (592), receiving yards (8,572), receiving touchdowns (81), and 100-yard receiving games (25).

CATCH A DREAM Foundation

www.terrellowens.com

MISSION: The Terrell Owens Catch A Dream Foundation is a non-profit organization created to help underprivileged families and children. The foundation's goal is to help eliminate the lack of basic daily needs from households by providing the necessary resources that children need by identifying the problem, creating a solution and following through with effective action. The Terrell Owens Catch A Dream Foundation prepares America's youth and their families for success by ensuring they are provided with food, clothing, shelter, and equipped with the proper resources and tools to help them "Catch Their Dream" and become all they can be.

Center

PRO: Cory Procter was signed by the Cowboys from the Detroit Lions practice squad Nov. 30, 2005 because of his ability to play both center and guard as well as provide youth and depth along the offensive line.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/23/08: Signed a one-year contract with Dallas.
5/1/07: Signed a one-year contract with Dallas.
11/30/05: Signed with Dallas.
4/28/05: Signed as a free agent with Detroit and placed on their practice squad.

2007:

- Saw action in all 16 games, mainly on special teams, with two starts in place of Andre Gurode (knee).
- Came in at center on the final drive for Gurode against St. Louis (9/30).
- Played at right guard for Leonard Davis on the final drive against the N.Y. Jets (11/22).
- Played most of the second half at center in place of Gurode (knee) against Philadelphia (12/16).
- Made his first career NFL start at Carolina (12/22) in place of Gurode (knee), and helped the line block for a 100-yard rusher (Marion Barber) for the third time of the year, and did not allow a sack of Tony Romo in 42 passing attempts.
- Made his second consecutive start at center in place of Gurode (knee) as the offense struggled – gaining only 147 total yards.
- Saw action on special teams in his postseason debut against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08).

2006:

- Made the active roster but was inactive for all 17 games.

2005 (Detroit/Dallas):

- Was inactive for his first three games with the Cowboys.
- Activated for the final two games of the season but did not play.
- Began the season on the Detroit Lions practice squad.

COLLEGE:

- Had 47 starts at Montana, including 42 consecutive.
- Earned first-team All-Big Sky Conference, Division I-AA All-America honors and the winner of Montana's Paul Weskamp Award, given annually to the team's outstanding offensive lineman as a senior.

Nose Tackle

PRO: Jay Ratliff is a versatile athlete who began his collegiate career as a tight end before playing two seasons as a defensive end and his final season as a defensive tackle. His strong work ethic helped him succeed at each position. He is a tough, aggressive lineman who can collapse the pocket and knife into the backfield to flush out the quarterback. Ratliff made the most of his opportunity last season with the loss of Jason Ferguson in Week 1 stepping in and starting 14 games at nose tackle to secure his place along the defensive front for several more years to come after signing a five-year extension in December.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

12/14/07: Signed a five-year contract extension with Dallas through 2012.
11/1/05: Placed on Reserve/Injured with a high right ankle sprain.
4/24/05: Drafted in the seventh-round (224th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Played in 15 games with 14 starts and finished with 28 tackles, three sacks (tied for fourth on the team), four tackles for a loss (tied for third) and 15 quarterback pressures (second).
- Stepped in at nose tackle after Ferguson left the game in the first quarter with a torn right biceps against the N.Y. Giants (9/9) and recorded three tackles and a sack.
- Recorded two tackles, a pass breakup and recovered a fumble that led to a Dallas score at Miami (9/16).
- Posted a season-high four tackles at Buffalo (10/8), shared a sack with DeMarcus Ware and recovered a fumble as the Bills offense was held without a touchdown.
- At Philadelphia (11/4), recorded a tackle for a loss, two pass breakups and a season-high three pressures.
- Had two tackles, one pressure, one tackle for a loss and one sack against Philadelphia (12/16).
- Split a sack with Ware, had two tackles and one pressure at Carolina (12/22).
- Inactive with a knee injury at Washington (12/30).
- In his first postseason start against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08), recorded two tackles.

2006:

- Played 16 games as part of the defensive line rotation, recording 17 tackles, four sacks – tied for third on the team – seven quarterback pressures – tied for the team lead – one pass breakup and one forced fumble.
- Led the team with three fumble recoveries – which tied for second in the NFL – and became the first Cowboy to recover three fumbles in a season since Deion Sanders and Broderick Thomas in 1996.
- At Jacksonville (9/10), recorded the club's first sack of the season with a takedown of Byron Leftwich.
- Had his second sack with a fourth quarter takedown of Mark Brunell on fourth down against Washington (9/17).
- Posted his first career tackle at Tennessee (10/1) before making three tackles and his third sack of the season at Philadelphia (10/8).
- Recovered a Jake Delhomme fumble at Carolina (10/29) that led to the Cowboys final touchdown of the game.
- Had one tackle and recovered a fumble at Arizona (11/12).
- Recovered a fumble by Marvin Harrison on the Colts first possession and sacked Peyton Manning to force a fumble, which Manning recovered on their next possession, finishing with two tackles and a quarterback pressure against Indianapolis (11/19).
- Posted a season-high four tackles against New Orleans (12/10).
- Against Philadelphia (12/25), had one quarterback pressure before injuring his shoulder in the second quarter but returned later in the game.
- Missed the regular season finale against Detroit (12/31) because of the shoulder injury.
- Returned in the wild card loss at Seattle (1/6/07) and had one tackle.

2005:

- Played in four games with one start before being placed on Reserve/Injured.
- Made his NFL debut at Oakland (10/2) as part of the rotation for the defensive line and shared a sack with linebacker Scott Shanle.
- Earned his first career start the next week against Philadelphia (10/9) when the Cowboys opened in their nickel package, and led all linemen with three tackles and shared a sack with defensive end Greg Ellis.
- Suffered a high right ankle sprain and did not return against Arizona (10/30).
- Was placed on injured reserve Nov. 1.

COLLEGE:

- Moved from defensive end to defensive tackle in his senior season and started all 13 games tying his career-high with 37 tackles while also adding four tackles for a loss and a sack.
- Tied his career-high with seven tackles at Alabama to earn SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors.
- Helped the Tigers finish 13-0 by defeating Virginia Tech in the Sugar Bowl, in which he made three tackles. Auburn finished 2004 second behind USC in the final Associated Press poll.
- Played in nine games as a junior reserve defensive end, making seven tackles, including one for a loss.

- Before his sophomore year, moved from tight end to defensive end during spring drills and started eight-of-12 games and tied a career-high with 37 tackles, including a career-high 10 tackles for a loss. He also had two forced fumbles and a sack.
- As a freshman tight end, played in all 12 games, with one start, and had three catches for 38 yards.

PERSONAL:

- Jeremiah Jerome Ratliff earned all-state and honorable mention All-USA Today honors after catching 46 passes for 701 yards and seven touchdowns as a senior at Lowndes County High School in Valdosta, Ga.
- Finished his prep career as one of the top-rated tight ends in the southeast. Also lettered in track and basketball for Lowndes, averaging 18 points and 18 rebounds per-game as a junior.
- Majored in health administration at Auburn.
- He and his wife have one daughter (5/13/05).
- 2005 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- 2007-2008 Dallas Cowboys Draft Day/Fan Appreciation Party.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- Happy Hill Farm Kickoff Luncheon and Cookbook.

Linebacker

PRO: With the availability of veteran linebacker Greg Ellis (heel) in question leading up to the 2007 season opener, the Dallas Cowboys claimed Justin Rogers off waivers from the New England Patriots on Sept. 2, 2007. Rogers provided depth at linebacker while seeing full-time action on Dallas' special teams units through the entire season. He returned to Texas where he played college ball at Southern Methodist University and attended Commerce High School in Greenville, Texas.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

9/2/07: Claimed off waivers (New England) by Dallas.
9/1/07: Waived by New England.
4/29/07: Drafted in the sixth round (180th overall) by New England.

2007:

- Played in four preseason games for the Patriots and logged 11 tackles and two sacks before his release on the final cut date.
- Arrived in Dallas prior to the season opener and played in all 16 games for the Cowboys, mainly on special teams.
- Finished fifth on the squad – tops among club rookies – with 16 special teams tackles. Also added three tackles on defense.
- Made his Cowboys and NFL debut on special teams in the season-opening win against the N.Y. Giants (9/9).
- Recorded his first career special teams tackle the next week at Miami (9/16).
- Saw action on defense, spelling DeMarcus Ware, against New England (10/14), and notched his first career defensive stop.
- Led the team with two special teams tackles in the Divisional Playoff Game against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08).

COLLEGE:

- Started 33 of the 43 games he played at SMU and tallied 184 tackles – 32 for losses – 19.5 sacks, five forced fumbles and a blocked kick.
- His 19.5 sacks ranked second in school history.
- As a senior in 2006, earned first-team All-Conference USA honors, leading the team with 9.5 sacks along with 59 tackles and 15 tackles for losses.
- In 2005 as a junior, shared team Defensive MVP honors with a conference-best seven sacks along with 64 tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles.
- As a sophomore in 2004, started nine games and finished with 27 tackles, 5.5 for loss with a team-high tying 2.5 sacks.
- As a redshirt freshman in 2003, played defensive end in all 12 games with two starts and recorded 34 tackles.

PERSONAL:

- Justin Bullock Rogers was a two-time all-district first-team selection at Commerce High School.
- Was a key part in helping the school bring home state championships in 1999 and 2001.
- Also competed for the school's basketball and track teams and was an all-district selection in baseball.
- 2007 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- Happy Hill Farm Kickoff Luncheon and Cookbook.

Quarterback

PRO BOWLS
06 07

PRO: In one of the more intriguing success stories in recent NFL history, Tony Romo ascended from the ranks of undrafted free agent – and three-year back-up quarterback – to a record setting, two-time Pro Bowl selection for the Dallas Cowboys. With just 26 career regular season starts under his belt, Romo is well on his way to re-writing the Dallas record books with his stellar and unique style of quarterbacking play. Elusive and instinctive in the pocket, he relies on a very quick release, solid arm strength and excellent accuracy. His greatest asset may be his ability to see the field and find the open receiver – regardless of whether he is in a stationary position or eluding the pass rush. With a 19-7 regular season record as the Dallas starter, Romo led the Cowboys to 13 wins in 2007 – tying the franchise record for victories in a season. Along the way, he set single-season club marks for touchdown passes (36), completions (335), yardage (4,211) and 300-yard games (seven). He also set a Dallas mark for consecutive games with a touchdown pass with 17 straight between 2006 and 2007. For his career, Romo has completed 555-of-857 attempts for a 64.8% completion rate and a passer rating of 96.6. He has thrown 55 career scoring passes against only 32 interceptions. Signed by the Cowboys as an undrafted free agent in 2003, he made his first career start October 29, 2006, and, by December of that year, became Dallas's first Pro Bowl quarterback since Troy Aikman in 1996. Romo rose to prominence during a stretch in which six of his first 11 starts were nationally televised. In his first 10 regular season starts, he led the Cowboys to six victories and a playoff berth. He also led the NFL with 8.6 yards-per-pass attempt in 2006. His 95.1 quarterback rating as a first-time starter was the third-best in Cowboys history. He exceeded that mark with a 97.4 rating last year. After joining the Cowboys in 2003, Romo showed enough potential during training camp to become the third quarterback. He split time with Drew Henson as the backup quarterback in 2004 but became the backup quarterback behind Drew Bledsoe throughout 2005. He also was the holder for field goals and extra points from 2004 to 2006.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

10/30/07: Signed a seven-year contract with Dallas through 2013.
8/31/06: Signed a one-year contract with Dallas.
5/20/05: Signed a one-year contract with Dallas.
5/1/03: Signed as a rookie free agent with Dallas.

2007:

- In his first full season as a starter, turned in the most prolific year by any Dallas quarterback in club history and led Dallas to a club-record-tying 13-3 record.
- Earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection and was the NFC's starting signal caller in Hawaii.
- Finished the 2007 season as the NFC's top rated passer (fifth in the NFL) with a rating of 97.4, the third-best single-season rating in club history.
- Established Dallas single-season records for touchdown passes (36), passing yardage (4,211), completions (335), 300-yard games (seven), and his completion percentage of 64.4% was the sixth-highest single-season mark in team history.
- Led the NFC in touchdown passes (second in the NFL) and yards-per-attempt (8.10 – also second in the NFL). Was second in the conference in yards (third in the NFL) and third in the NFC in completion percentage (ninth in the NFL).
- Dating back to 2006, set a club record for throwing at least one touchdown pass in 17 consecutive games.
- In the season-opening win over the N.Y. Giants (9/9), turned in perhaps his most complete outing as a pro to date. Completed 15-of-24 passes for a career-high 345 yards and four touchdowns with one interception. His 345 passing yards allowed him to become the third Dallas quarterback (Don Meredith – 1963 and Vinny Testaverde – 2004) to throw 300-or-more yards in consecutive games (had 321 yards in the 2006 season-finale against Detroit). Each one of his 15 completions went for at least 10 yards and his yards-per-attempt average of 14.38 was the third-highest single-game average by a Dallas signal caller in club history. Also added his first career rushing touchdown on a nine-yard keeper.
- At Chicago (9/23), not only notched the then second-most passing yards in his career (329), but also helped Dallas achieve a 3-0 record to start the season for the first time since 1999. Hit on 22-of-35 passes for 329 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Romo's performance enabled him to reach 3,501 career passing yards – joining Kurt Warner (3,559) and Marc Bulger (3,534) – as the only Super Bowl era quarterbacks to pass for more than 3,500 yards in their first 13 career starts.
- In completing 21-of-33 passes for 339 yards and three touchdowns against the Rams (9/30), became the 10th Dallas Cowboys quarterback to surpass the 4,000 career passing yardage barrier. His 59-yard touchdown ball to Patrick Crayton marked the longest completion of Romo's career. The performance marked his second-highest passing yardage total for a single game and the sixth 300-yard outing of his career. Also tied the club record for 300-yard games in a season with three. Two of his biggest plays in the game came in running situations – the first play involved a shotgun snap that sailed over his head and led to a long retreat and scramble for a four-yard gain and a first down, on third down, putting Dallas in position for Romo to run 15 yards for a touchdown with 11 seconds remaining in the first half – giving Dallas a 14-7 lead at the intermission.

- At Buffalo (10/8), battled back from a turnover-plagued game in which he threw a career-high five interceptions along with one fumble to finish the game strong against the Bills and lead the team to victory on a last-chance drive to set up the winning field goal. In going 29-of-50 for 309 yards and two touchdowns, notched his third-consecutive 300-yard passing game, giving him the longest streak amongst Cowboys passers all-time, while also allowing him to become the franchise's all-time leader in 300-yard games in a season with four. His two touchdowns (32) helped him overtake Drew Bledsoe (30) for seventh place in team history for career touchdown passes.
- In the first half of the victory over Minnesota (10/21), completed 28-of-32 passing attempts (87.5%) for 231 yards and one touchdown and finished the day with 31 completions on 39 attempts for 277 yards and a rating of 104.8. His 31 completions established a then single-game career-high. Reached 370 career completions moving past Eddie LeBaron (359) for ninth place in team record books. His 277 passing yards enabled Romo to raise his career total to 4,887 and move past Bledsoe (4,803) for the ninth-most passing yards in club history.
- By completing 20-of-25 passes for 324 yards in the win at Philadelphia (11/4), racked up a completion percentage of 80.0%, marking the best single-game completion percentage of the season – second-best of his career. Also threw three touchdown passes with one interception. Was his eighth career 300-yard day (third-most in club history) and fifth of the season. Also became the ninth quarterback in franchise history to reach 5,000 career passing yards.
- In the 31-20 win at the N.Y. Giants (11/11), completed 20-of-28 passes (71.4%) for 247 yards and four touchdowns. Was the third time in his career that he has thrown at least four touchdown passes (the second time this season) in a game. His 20 completions moved him into eighth place on the Cowboys all-time completions list with 410.
- Against Washington (11/18), completed 22-of-32 passes for 293 yards and four touchdowns to Owens with one sack and one interception. Marked the sixth time in his career where he has had at least three touchdown passes in a game – the second time he has had four-or-more. Became the first quarterback in team history to throw four touchdowns in back-to-back games.
- With two touchdown passes in the Thanksgiving Day win over the N.Y. Jets (11/22), tied White's single-season club mark of 29 for scoring passes that was set in 1983. For the afternoon, completed 21-of-28 passes (75.0%) for 195 yards, the two scores and an interception.
- In completing 19-of-30 passes for 309 yards and four touchdowns against Green Bay (11/29), raised his season-total for touchdown passes to 33 and broke White's previous club mark of 29 (1983). His four touchdown passes also gave him the Dallas single-season record for games with at least four touchdown passes (four) – previous mark was held by Meredith (three) in 1966.
- At Detroit (12/9), completed 35-of-44 passing attempts for 302 yards and a pair of touchdowns to spark Dallas's last-minute come-from-behind 28-27 victory that clinched the club's first division title since 1998. While trailing 27-21 with 2:15 remaining in the game – and no time outs remaining – led Dallas on an 11-play, 78-yard scoring drive that culminated in a 16-yard touchdown pass to Witten that provided the final margin of victory with just 0:18 remaining in the game. Completed eight-of-10 passes on the game-winning scoring drive. Established a team record for consecutive games of throwing at least one touchdown pass (17) – Aikman (16) in 1993-94. Raised his club record of 300-yard games in a season to seven, tying White for the second-most 300-yard career passing games with 10. Moved ahead of Pelluer (6,555) into sixth place on the Cowboys all-time passing yardage list with 6,557 career yards. Logged his seventh consecutive game with a passer rating above 100.0 – marking the fifth-longest streak since the passer rating system was implemented in 1973. His 35 completions were a single-game career-best and set a club record.
- Against Philadelphia (12/16), experienced his worst career passer rating as a starter and completed 13-of-36 passes for 214 yards with three interceptions. Also ended a club record streak of 17 straight games in which he had thrown at least one touchdown pass.
- At Carolina (12/22), completed 28-of-42 passes for 257 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Set a Cowboys record for passing yardage in a single season with 4,125 – eclipsing the previous mark of 3,980 that was held by White (1983). The 10-yard touchdown pass to Owens raised Romo's single-season record for touchdown passes to 36.
- At Washington (12/30), saw action only in the first half and through the first drive of the third quarter. Completed seven-of-16 passing attempts for 86 yards and one interception and was relieved by Brad Johnson after the opening drive of the second half.
- In the playoff loss to the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08), Romo's second career postseason game, completed 18-of-36 passes for 201 yards, one touchdown and an interception.

2006:

- After completing 69.6 percent of his passes in four preseason games, Romo's storybook regular season in 2006 had a familiar beginning – on the bench as the backup quarterback to Bledsoe.
- His role changed at halftime of the sixth game, a Monday night loss to the N.Y. Giants (10/23) at Texas Stadium. Romo replaced Bledsoe as the starter in the third quarter, beginning a whirlwind journey that ended with a Pro Bowl selection December 19.
- Became the sixth Cowboys quarterback to make the Pro Bowl, and the first since Troy Aikman in 1996.
- His 95.1 quarterback rating was the third-highest in club history, behind Roger Staubach's 104.8 in 1971 and Aikman's 99.0 in 1993. It also ranked fifth in the NFL and third in the NFC.
- In his 10 regular season starts, completed 204-of-310 passing attempts (65.8 percent) for 2,641 yards and 16 touchdowns with 10 interceptions for a 96.2 rating.
- The Cowboys went 6-4 in the regular season when Romo started.
- Became the first Dallas starting quarterback to throw for more than 220 yards in his first eight career starts, a streak that was snapped in the loss to Philadelphia (12/25).
- Closed the year first in the NFL with 8.6 yards-per-passing attempt.
- Finished second in the NFL with a 65.28 percent completion rate and a 5.6 touchdown percentage rate.

- His completion percentage was the third-best in club history, behind Troy Aikman's 69.13 percent in 1993 and Aikman's 65.29 percent in 1991.
- Also threw for more than 250 yards in three consecutive games in 2006, becoming the first Cowboys quarterback to accomplish that feat since Aikman did it in the first four games of the 1993 season.
- Behind Romo's emergence, the Cowboys had one of the most productive and efficient offensive seasons in club history scoring 425 points (26.6 points-per-game), the fourth-most in the NFL, the most by the Cowboys since 1995, and the fourth-most by the Cowboys since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.
- Dallas was second in the NFL with a 48.8 percent third down efficiency, the club's highest rating since 1980.
- Dallas averaged 360.8 total yards-per-game, the fifth-most in the NFL in 2006 and the most by the Cowboys since 1995.
- The Cowboys produced two 1,000-yard receivers (Owens and Terry Glenn) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Julius Jones) in the same season for just the second time in team history.
- Before his first start in 2006, saw significant action in the fourth quarter of the win against Houston (10/15). Completed his first career pass attempt to Sam Hurd for a 33-yard gain. His second pass resulted in a two-yard touchdown by Owens.
- Replaced Bledsoe to start the second half in the Monday night loss to the N.Y. Giants (10/23) and completed 14-of-25 passes for 227 yards, two touchdowns, and three interceptions. His second passing touchdown was a 53-yard pass to Crayton, the Cowboys second-longest completion of the season.
- In the nationally televised Sunday night win at Carolina (10/29), made his first start and led the team to a 35-14 victory. Went 24-of-36 passing for 270 yards, one touchdown, one interception and was sacked twice with an 86.6 quarterback rating. Became the 13th quarterback in Dallas history to earn a victory in his starting debut. His 270 passing yards were the second-most by a Cowboys quarterback who won his first start.
- In his second career start, at Washington (11/5), was 24-of-36 passing for 284 yards with no interceptions and threw for two touchdowns for the third week in a row.
- In the 27-10 win at Arizona (11/12), was named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after posting a 126.8 quarterback rating. Completed 20-of-29 passes for 308 yards and two touchdowns. Was the first 300-yard game of Romo's career. Extended his streak of consecutive passes without an interception to 94 attempts and also threw a touchdown for the fourth consecutive game. In the second half, was 10-of-10 passing for 144 yards and a touchdown.
- In the 21-14 win over previously undefeated Indianapolis (11/19), threw for 226 yards and completed 19-of-23 passes, an 82.6 percent completion rate, the third-best in club history. A first quarter interception snapped his streak of consecutive passing attempts without an interception at 98.
- In the Thanksgiving Day win over Tampa Bay (11/23), completed 22-of-29 passes for 306 yards and a club record-tying five touchdowns. Posted a quarterback rating of 148.9 and was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for the second time in three games. Became the first Dallas quarterback to throw five touchdown passes since Aikman at Washington (9/12/99) and just the ninth time in club history. From the second quarter to the fourth, Romo completed 13 consecutive passes, tying the second-longest streak in club history (14-Pelluer and Randall Cunningham).
- In November, Romo's first full month as an NFL starter, helped Dallas go 3-1 and was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Month. Completed 85-of-117 passes (72.6 percent) for 1,124 yards, nine touchdowns, and one interception and had a quarterback rating of 124.7 for the month.
- In the last-minute win at the N.Y. Giants (12/3), completed 20-of-34 passes for 257 yards with two interceptions. With 1:06 left in the game and the score tied, 20-20, directed a six-play drive highlighted by a 42-yard completion to Witten. That set Dallas up for the game-winning, 46-yard field goal by Martin Gramatica with six seconds remaining. Led Dallas on three scoring drives in the second half and each of them came after the Giants scored to tie the game.
- In the Sunday night game against New Orleans (12/10), lost his first home game as a Cowboys starter. Completed 16-of-33 passes for 249 yards and one touchdown with two interceptions.
- In the playoff-clinching win at Atlanta (12/16), completed 22-of-29 passes (75.9 percent) for 278 yards and two touchdowns. Was sacked three times and threw one interception with a quarterback rating of 113.9.
- Against Detroit (12/31), completed 23-of-32 passes (71.9 percent) for a then career-high 321 yards, two touchdowns, and one interception for a quarterback rating of 111.6. His 56-yard touchdown pass to Owens was the longest completion of Romo's career and the longest reception of the season for Owens.
- In the playoff loss at Seattle (1/6/07), completed 17-of-29 passes (58.6 percent) for 189 yards and one touchdown for an 89.6 quarterback rating. His first career postseason touchdown pass was a 13-yarder that gave Dallas a 10-6 lead with 11 seconds left in the first half. Guided Dallas on an eight-play, 70-yard drive in the game's final minutes to set up a potential game-winning field goal. He bobbled the snap, however, and was tackled just short of the end zone.

2005:

- Beat out Drew Henson in training camp to be the backup quarterback.
- In the preseason, completed 23-of-37 passes for 273 yards and one touchdown.
- Played in 16 regular season games, serving as the team's holder for place kicks.
- Against Philadelphia (10/16), took a knee on the final drive of the game to run out the clock.

2004:

- Was locked in a training camp battle for the backup quarterback job with Henson.
- After completing 24-of-39 passes for 250 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions in the preseason. Started the season as the backup quarterback and held the role for the first six games.
- Took over as the holder for PATs and field goals in the season opener at Minnesota (9/12).
- Became the club's full-time holder the following week against Cleveland (9/19).
- For seven games, beginning with the game against Detroit (10/31), was the team's third quarterback.
- Returned to the backup role at Philadelphia (12/19) and against Washington (12/26), but did not play with the offense.
- Closed the season at the N.Y. Giants (1/2/05) as the third quarterback.

2003:

- Signed with the Cowboys as a rookie free agent on May 1.
- Spent the entire season as the club's third quarterback.
- In the preseason, completed nine-of-17 passes for 134 yards, one touchdown, and one interception.
- Was one of four rookie free agents to make the full-time roster following training camp.

ORLANDO SCANDRICK

5-10 • 192 • 2/10/87
Boise State • D5-'08 (143rd overall)
NFL: Rookie • Cowboys: Rookie

Cornerback

COLLEGE: The Dallas Cowboys addressed a position of need and added a defensive back that not only can help the defense, but is also a standout special teamer when they moved up in the fifth round to grab Orlando Scandrick with the 143rd overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft. In Scandrick, the Cowboys acquired a natural leader as he was called upon in his final season at Boise State to lead the secondary, helping the squad improve from the 45th ranked defense in 2006 to 26th in 2007. He is also a standout on special teams, leaving the collegiate ranks with a school record seven blocked kicks, including the school's single-season record with four blocked kicks in 2007. Scandrick started 38 of the 39 games he played and recorded 152 tackles, 3.5 sacks, 12.5 tackles for losses with five forced fumbles.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/27/08: Drafted in the fifth round (143rd overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- As a junior, started all 13 games at left cornerback and finished with 50 tackles – three behind the line – and two forced fumbles.
- Added two interceptions and seven pass deflections.
- Gained 54 yards on two punt returns and 78 yards on four kickoff returns.
- Also on special teams, set a school record with four blocked kicks.
- Logged a career-best 10 tackles against Wyoming.

2006:

- Started all 13 games and finished the season fourth in tackles (52) along with 6.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, six pass breakups, two forced fumbles and an interception.
- Tied a then career-high with six tackles against Oklahoma in the Broncos 43-42 Fiesta Bowl win.
- Also had six tackles against Sacramento State and Fresno State.

2005:

- Named a second-team Freshman All-America by Scout.com and honorable mention Freshman All-America by The Sporting News, starting 12 of the school's 13 games as a true freshman.
- Named WAC Special Teams Player of the Week after returning a blocked field goal for a touchdown and a blocked extra point for a two-point conversion against Hawaii.
- Finished the year seventh on the team with 50 tackles to go along with three tackles for loss, one sack, 11 pass deflections, a forced fumble and an interception he returned for a 50-yard touchdown.
- Had a then career-high six tackles two times – against Nevada and at Hawaii.

PERSONAL:

- Was a standout two-way player at Los Alamitos, Calif., High School, playing wide receiver and defensive back.
- Also returned kicks and was named to the first-team Long Beach Dream Team and first-team All-Sunset League.
- Caught 52 passes for 832 yards and 12 touchdowns with 54 tackles and three interceptions and 22 kick-off returns for 1,024 yards and a touchdown as a senior.

Defensive End

PRO: The Dallas Cowboys liked Marcus Spears's combination of size and speed coming out of college and took him in the first round (20th overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft. After recording 4.5 sacks in his first three seasons, he will be counted on to continue to be a disruptive force at the line of scrimmage for Dallas's defensive attack.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/23/05: Drafted in the first round (20th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and finished with 28 tackles, two sacks and five tackles for losses – good for second on the team.
- Posted a solid outing against St. Louis (9/30), finishing with two tackles, a pressure, a half sack and two tackles for losses.
- Logged a season-best four tackles against New England (10/14).
- Split a sack of Donovan McNabb with DeMarcus Ware on the first play from scrimmage against Philadelphia (11/4). Forced his first career fumble on the play that was recovered by Bradie James.
- Notched his 100th career tackle, finishing with three at the N.Y. Giants (11/11).
- At Washington (12/30), had three tackles, one tackle for a loss, a forced fumble and a sack.

2006:

- For the second consecutive year, injured his knee in training camp and missed part of the preseason but returned to play in three exhibition games.
- Started all 16 regular season games and finished with 48 tackles, including 31 solo tackles.
- Added one sack, three quarterback pressures, two tackles for a loss, and three pass deflections.
- In the season opener in Jacksonville (9/10), had two tackles, including one for a loss, as the Cowboys held the Jaguars to 2.4 yards-per-carry.
- Recorded his only sack of the season, taking down Mark Brunell in the first quarter in the Sunday night game against the Redskins (9/17).
- Led all defensive linemen with four tackles against Tennessee (10/1) in Titans quarterback Vince Young's first start.
- Helped limit the Panthers (10/29) to 204 total yards, including 76 rushing yards in a Sunday night road win.
- Helped limit previously undefeated Indianapolis (11/19) to a season-low 14 points, posting three tackles, including one for loss.
- Posted a season-high six tackles in a home loss to New Orleans (12/10) and four tackles in a win at Atlanta (12/16), where the Cowboys sacked Michael Vick four times.
- In his postseason debut, had one tackle and led the team with two quarterback pressures at Seattle (1/6/07).

2005:

- Suffered a right knee and ankle sprain while also straining his calf in a training camp practice to miss the first three preseason games.
- Began his rookie season as a reserve but became a starter in Week 7 and, by season's end, earned All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly after tallying 35 tackles, (12th on the team, third among the team's linemen and rookies) and six quarterback pressures (fourth on the team).
- Also added 1.5 sacks and a pass defensed.
- Made his NFL debut at San Diego (9/11) in the defensive line rotation, but did not record a tackle.
- Split his first career sack with Greg Ellis and added his first career tackle against Washington (9/19).
- Led all defensive linemen with four tackles at San Francisco (9/25).
- Helped limit Philadelphia (10/9) to 129 yards, including 19 rushing yards, the fourth-lowest rushing total the team has ever allowed.
- Made his first NFL start at Seattle (10/23) and had three tackles and a batted pass, helping limit Shaun Alexander, the NFL's leading rusher in 2005, to 61 yards on 21 carries (2.9 yards-per-carry).
- Named the full-time starter the next week against Arizona (10/30) and led all linemen with four tackles while helping the Cardinals to 213 total yards, including 71 rushing yards.
- At Philadelphia (11/14), recorded a season-high seven tackles – good for first among linemen and second on the team).
- Recovered a Trent Green fumble at the Cowboys 15-yard line and ran 59 yards – longest ever by a Dallas rookie and the eighth-longest in team history – to the Chiefs 26-yard line to setup a Dallas touchdown, giving Dallas a 17-14 halftime lead against Kansas City (12/11).
- In the season finale against St. Louis (1/1/06), recorded two tackles and the first solo sack of his career.

COLLEGE:

- Finished his career at LSU with 34.5 tackles for a loss and 19.0 sacks, the fifth-most in school history.
- Had a career year as a senior, earning first-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation and American Football Coaches Association, second-team All-America honors from Sports Illustrated, first-team All-SEC honors and a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award and Lombardi Award.

- Tied his career-high in tackles (49) and set career highs in tackles for a loss (17) and sacks (nine – the fourth most in LSU history) and added 21 quarterback pressures on a defense that finished third in the country in total defense in 2004.
- Had 49 tackles, 23 quarterback pressures, 13 tackles for a loss, six sacks, and six passes defensed to earn first-team All-SEC honors during LSU's national championship season in 2003.
- Returned an interception 20 yards for a touchdown to give the Tigers a 21-7 lead en route to a 21-14 win over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl to claim the national title.
- As a sophomore, transitioned into a full-time defensive player, totaling 46 tackles, 16 quarterback pressures, 3.5 tackles for a loss and three sacks.
- Played at tight end, fullback and defensive end as a freshman, recording two catches for 20 yards earning freshman All-SEC honors as a tight end. Had eight tackles, a sack and a tackle for a loss on defense.

PERSONAL:

- Marcus Raishon Spears was one of the mostly highly touted two-sport athletes in the country following his senior season at Southern University Lab High School in Baton Rouge, La.
- Rated the top tight end prospect in America and the third-best overall prospect after earning consensus All-America honors.
- Became the first Louisiana player since 1991 to be named first-team 1A all-state on offense and defense as a senior.
- Finished his senior season with 28 catches for 435 yards and three touchdowns and 245 rushing yards and six touchdowns. Also made 22 tackles for a loss, 11.5 sacks and four fumble recoveries.
- Was also one of the nation's top basketball prospects.
- At LSU, majored in communication studies and was actively involved in community service.

ANTHONY SPENCER

6-3 • 255 • 1/23/84
Purdue • D1 for '07 (26th overall)
NFL: 2nd Year • Cowboys: 2nd Year
Games/Starts: 2007-16/6; Career-16/6;
Postseason: 2007-1/0; Career-1/0.

Linebacker

PRO: With Cowboys head coach Wade Phillips's emphasis on athletic pass rushers, Anthony Spencer was a solid choice as the 26th pick in the first round of the 2007 NFL Draft. He is strong enough to bull rush opposing linemen, fast enough to offer a change of pace and provides the Cowboys with another pass rushing option behind Pro Bowlers DeMarcus Ware and Greg Ellis.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/28/07: Drafted in the first-round (26th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Started the first six games – to become the fourth rookie linebacker to start a season-opener (Lee Roy Jordan-1963, Robert Jones-1992, Ware-2005) – and played in all 16 games at linebacker.
- Finished with 27 tackles, three sacks (tied for fourth on the team), three tackles for loss and 11 special teams tackles.
- Made his NFL debut as the starter at outside linebacker in place of Ellis against the N.Y Giants (9/9) and tied for the team lead in quarterback pressures with two and added four tackles.
- Recorded the first sack of his career along with two tackles, one tackle for a loss and one special teams stop at Chicago (9/23).
- Posted a career-high eight tackles and one tackle for a loss at Buffalo (10/8).
- Had his second sack of the year along with one tackle, one pass breakup and two stops on special teams at the N.Y. Giants (11/11).
- Against Philadelphia (12/16), recorded two tackles a sack, one pressure, forced one fumble and two special teams tackles.

- In his postseason debut against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08) posted one tackle and a stop on special teams.

COLLEGE:

- Started 36-of-47 games at Purdue, recording 155 tackles (106 solos), two fumble recoveries, 13 pass deflections and a blocked kick.
- Ranked fifth in school history with 21 sacks and ranked seventh with 44 tackles for a loss. His 11 forced fumbles ranked second in school history.
- Earned first-team All-American honors from The NFL Draft Report, second-team honors from Rivals.com and the Walter Camp Football Foundation, third-team honors from The Associated Press and honorable mention from Pro Football Weekly.
- Was a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award, given to the top defensive end in the nation, and a quarterfinalist for the Lott Trophy, given to the defensive impact player of the year.
- Earned first-team All-Big Ten Conference honors from the league's coaches and media and was named Big Ten Player of the Week in back-to-back games, against Notre Dame and Minnesota.
- Defensive co-captain as a senior at strongside defensive end, ranking second on the team with a career-high 93 tackles (69 solos) and led the team with 10.5 sacks, which ranked seventh in school history.
- Also added 26.5 tackles for a loss, which ranked first in the Big Ten – second in the nation, second in school history and fifth in Big Ten history. Also had five quarterback pressures, one blocked kick, six pass deflections, five forced fumbles, and one fumble recovery.
- Started all 11 games at strongside defensive end as a junior and posted 23 tackles (16 solos), three sacks, 7.5 tackles for a loss, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and one pass deflection.
- As a sophomore, was named to Ted Hendricks Award watch list and went on to earn All-Big Ten Conference honorable mention from the league's coaches and media and started every game at strongside defensive end and tied for the conference lead with three forced fumbles along with 33 tackles (18 solos), 7.5 sacks, 9.5 tackles for a loss and deflected six passes.
- Appeared in 10 games as a reserve defensive end but mostly played on special teams as a redshirt freshman and finished with six tackles. Played in just one of the first four games because of a foot injury he suffered in spring camp. Was redshirted as a true freshman.

PERSONAL:

- Anthony E. Spencer, II, was a three-year starter at nose guard and fullback at Bishop Luers High School in Fort Wayne, Ind.
- Was a two-time all-state selection and three-time all-area and all-conference selection. Named the Indianapolis Star's Defensive Lineman of the Year as a senior, when his team won the Class 2A state championship.
- Posted 65 tackles, 24 tackles for a loss, seven sacks, seven fumble recoveries and one interception. As a fullback, rushed for more than 600 yards and 13 touchdowns, averaging 9.1 yards-per-carry. Closed his career as the school's recordholder with 73 tackles for a loss and 27 sacks.
- Also lettered twice in basketball.
- Majored in African-American studies at Purdue and minored in law society.
- 2007 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.
- Happy Hill Farm Kickoff Luncheon and Cookbook.

Wide Receiver

PRO: A versatile athlete, Isaiah Stanback played quarterback in college but moved to wide receiver in the NFL. The Cowboys drafted him in the fourth round of the 2007 NFL Draft with the hope that he will become the next Hines Ward or Antwaan Randle El. His rookie season served as a "redshirt" year for Stanback as he adjusted to the everyday role as a wide receiver. He is expected to make a bigger contribution to the offense in 2008 with a year under his belt at the position.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/29/07: Drafted in the fourth round (103rd overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Appeared in two games on special teams and at receiver, totaling three kickoff returns for 78 yards (26.0 avg.).
- Played in three preseason games to record three receptions for 39 yards.
- Made his NFL debut at Philadelphia (11/4) as a kick returner and returned three kickoffs for 78 yards with a long return of 35 yards.
- Saw his first action at wide receiver late in the game against the N.Y. Jets (11/22) while also playing special teams.
- Was inactive for the rest of the season including the team's Divisional Playoff Game against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08).

COLLEGE:

- Began his collegiate career at Washington as a receiver in his freshman season but went on to become one of the most prolific quarterbacks in school history.
- Ranked 11th in school history with 3,868 career yards, second with 14.38 career yards-per-completion, third among quarterbacks with 794 career rushing yards and fourth with 126.0 total offensive yards-per-game.
- Finished sixth with 7.4 career yards-per-pass attempt, sixth among quarterbacks with 234 career rushing attempts and 10th with 4,662 career offensive yards.
- In the spring of his junior year, competed in track and placed fifth in the 100 meters at the Pac-10 Finals.
- Also finished sixth in the West Regional Meet at BYU, missing an NCAA Championship berth by .02 seconds.
- Three of his times rank in the school's all-time top 10: 10.48 in the 100 meters (ranks eighth), 40.07 in the 4x100 (seventh), and 6.80 in the indoor 60 meters (eighth).
- Senior season ended after seven games when he had surgery on his sprained right foot on Oct. 17. Before the injury, was 101-of-189 passing for 1,325 yards with 10 touchdowns and three interceptions.

PRO: A seven-time Pro Bowl selection with the Miami Dolphins, Zach Thomas returns to his home state of Texas as one of the most productive and accomplished NFL linebackers of his era. Thomas brings unquestionable work ethic, intelligence and leadership to the Dallas locker room.

Signed as a free agent by Dallas on February 28, 2008, the former Texas Tech All-American will assume a familiar role as a starting middle linebacker in Dallas after starting 168 games in 12 seasons with Miami. His 168 career starts are the most ever by a Dolphins defensive player and the fourth-most by any player in Miami club history. Thomas has recorded a staggering total of 1,866 career tackles, including 1,244 solo stops. He reached the 100-tackle plateau in each his first 11 NFL seasons and led the Dolphins in tackles in 10 of his 12 seasons. His tackle totals from seven of his 12 NFL seasons (1996, 1998, 2001-05) all rank among the top-10 figures in Dolphins history. Although he missed 11 games in 2007, Thomas has been remarkably durable throughout his career, having missed a total of just 24 games due to injury. He has recorded double-figure tackles 39 times in his last 52 regular season games. An extremely versatile and instinctive player, Thomas is the Dolphins career leader in interceptions among linebackers with 17 – fifth-most by active NFL linebackers – and he has returned a Dolphins club record four of those thefts for touchdowns. His four interception returns for touchdowns are tied with many others for fourth place all-time in NFL history among linebackers. Ranking ahead of him in third place is Jack Pardee with five interception returns for touchdowns, and tied for first place are Bobby Bell and Derrick Brooks with six touchdown returns each. Among active NFL linebackers, Thomas's four interception returns for touchdowns are tied for second along with Teddy Bruschi and behind Brooks. Thomas was originally a fifth round draft choice (154th overall) by then Miami head coach Jimmy Johnson.

- Was a first-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press and Sports Illustrated and a second-team pick by Football Digest.
- Started all 15 games in which he played at middle linebacker and led the team with 184 tackles (113 solo), marking the eighth straight year that he reached the 100-tackle plateau and the seventh time that he topped the team's tackle chart.
- Also came up with one sack, three interceptions, two fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and 10 passes defensed, which ranked third on the club.
- Along with linebacker Junior Seau, served as a co-captain on defense.
- Recorded double-digit tackle totals on 12 occasions, and either led or shared the team lead in tackles 12 times.
- In a Monday night game against San Diego (10/27) in Tempe, Ariz., tallied nine tackles while also picking off a Brees pass as the Dolphins held the Chargers to 250 yards of total offense in a 26-10 win.
- Registered a regular season career-high 22 tackles the following week against Indianapolis (11/2), but sustained a groin injury in the game and was inactive the next week at Tennessee (11/9).
- In his first game back following the injury against Baltimore (11/16), posted 10 tackles while also recovering a Jamal Lewis fumble at the Ravens 33-yard line in overtime, leading to Olindo Mare's game-winning field goal four plays later as the Dolphins came away with a 9-6 victory.
- On Thanksgiving Day at Dallas (11/27), recorded eight tackles, a sack and an interception of a Quincy Carter pass (the 14th of his career).
- Against Philadelphia (12/15), had 12 tackles and picked up the 15th interception of his career (Donovan McNabb), as he became the Dolphins all-time leader among linebackers for interceptions.

2002 (Miami):

- Was selected as a starter for the AFC Pro Bowl squad, the fourth straight time that he was chosen to the Pro Bowl and his second time as a starter.
- Was a first-team All-Pro selection by the Associated Press and a first-team All-AFC choice by Pro Football Weekly.
- Started all 16 games at middle linebacker and served as a captain with cornerback Sam Madison and defensive end Jason Taylor.

- Led the team in tackles for the sixth time in his seven seasons and set a career-high for tackles as he posted 195 total stops (124 solo), surpassing his previous best of 180, achieved in both 1996 and 2001.
- His tackle total also marked the second-highest single-season total in franchise history, trailing only the 217 tackles that Steve Towle accumulated in 1976.
- Recorded double-digit tackle figures in 13 games, including a string of 11 in a row from Weeks 4 through 14. Led the team in tackles on 13 occasions as well.
- Tallied a team-high 10 tackles at Kansas City (9/29), marking the first of a stretch of 11 straight games in which he accounted for double-digit tackle totals.
- Recorded 17 tackles in the Sunday night contest at the N.Y. Jets (11/10) as the Dolphins held New York to just 97 rushing yards and a 3.0-yard average.
- Played in the 100th regular season game of his NFL career in the 30-3 victory over San Diego (11/24) and collected 11 tackles in that game as the Dolphins held the Chargers to just 144 yards of total offense, the lowest output by a Dolphins opponent in 2002.
- Had his only interception of the year as he picked off a Brees pass in that Chargers game.
- Posted a season-high 21 tackles in the season-finale at New England (12/29) while also coming up with a pass defensed and his only fumble recovery of the year.
- His tackle total in that game marked a career-best to that point and surpassed his previous single-game regular season best of 19 tackles, which he attained at Buffalo (11/1/98).

2001 (Miami):

- Was selected as a reserve for the AFC Pro Bowl squad – although he was not able to play. It marked his third consecutive selection.

Linebacker

COLLEGE: With the emphasis on finding another athletic pass rusher, the Dallas Cowboys selected Erik Walden in the sixth round (167th overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft. Walden will hope to follow in the footsteps of previous college defensive ends that have made the successful conversion to pro linebacker. His transition will be aided by Pro Bowlers DeMarcus Ware and Greg Ellis as well as last year's first round choice, Anthony Spencer, who have all flourished as linebackers in Wade Phillips's 3-4 defense.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/27/08: Drafted in the sixth round (167th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- As a senior, was voted a first team All-Sun Belt selection by the league's coaches and media.
- Played in 10 games and earned nine starts recording 46 stops with 8.5 tackles for loss, two sacks, an interception, two pass breakups and a safety.
- Registered four tackles, including one for lost yardage, against Florida Atlantic.
- Added six stops, including two for lost yardage, and a forced fumble against Western Kentucky.
- Did not play against Florida International or Virginia due to a toe injury and returned against Memphis but did not have a tackle.
- Recorded three tackles for loss, a sack, his first career interception and a safety at North Texas.
- Had a career-high 12 tackles, including two for loss of yards, at Louisiana-Monroe.
- Registered a personal-best 11 solo tackles against Louisiana-Lafayette.

2006:

- Played in 13 games and posted a career-best 48 tackles including a school record 11.5 sacks (ranked 10th nationally).
- Also had three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and 14.5 tackles for loss.
- Named First Team All-Sun Belt Conference.
- Was presented the Dr. James E. Walker Junior Academic award at the spring game.
- Recorded a sack, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble in 44 snaps against Florida International University to earn a "winning performance" from the coaching staff.
- Registered four tackles, including two quarterback sacks, in 35 plays against Tennessee Tech to earn a "winning performance."
- Became the all-time sack leader at Middle Tennessee with two against Arkansas State and finished the game with a then personal-best seven tackles.
- Had six tackles, including 3.5 tackles for losses and a career-best 2.5 sacks against Troy.
- Led the Blue Raiders against Central Michigan in the Motor City Bowl with six tackles and two quarterback sacks.

2005:

- Played in all 11 games, including eight as a starter (five at defensive end and three at linebacker), on his way to 33 tackles, three sacks, 8.5 tackles for loss, two pass breakups, and a forced fumble.

- Had a season-high five stops, including four solos, at home against Akron.
- Had six total tackles and a quarterback sack against Louisiana-Lafayette.
- Came up with four tackles, a quarterback sack and a pass breakup in the win over Arkansas State.
- Earned his first career start at linebacker in place of the injured Dennis Burke and responded with six stops.

2004:

- Played in 10 games with four starts, registering a team-high six sacks and tying for the lead with 8.5 tackles for loss.
- Also tallied 25 total stops with one forced fumble.
- Notched three solo tackles in opener at Akron.
- Totaled three tackles, 2.5 for loss and two sacks against Idaho.
- The next week had two more sacks and three total stops against Utah State.
- Logged four tackles at New Mexico State.
- Tallied a season-high six stops, two for loss, one sack and a forced fumble against Louisiana-Monroe.

2003:

- Sat out the year due to NCAA academic guidelines.

PERSONAL:

- Erik Walden earned first team Associated Press all-state honors after guiding Dublin, Ga., High School to a 14-1 record and a spot in the state title game in 2002.
- Was a Macon Telegraph first-team All-Middle Georgia selection while also being tabbed the Courier-Herald Heart of Georgia Defensive Player of the Year.
- Ended his senior year with 97 total tackles and a school record 19 quarterback sacks.
- Also tallied 11 tackles for loss, recovered two fumbles and had one interception.
- As a running back, averaged 6.6 yards-per-carry and scored eight touchdowns while registering 16 receptions for four more scores.
- Finished with 837 yards of total offense.
- Lettered in football, basketball and track.
- Earned his degree in physical education from Middle Tennessee State.

PRO BOWLS

PRO: When the Cowboys chose DeMarcus Ware with the 11th overall pick in the 2005 NFL Draft, they were looking for an explosive playmaker on defense. Through three seasons, Ware has emerged as one of the most dominating defensive players in the league. He has been named a starter to the NFC Pro Bowl squad in each of the two previous seasons. He has the first, third and fifth-highest sack figures by a club linebacker, has started each of the 50 games in his career and logged six multiple-sack games. After a promising rookie season, Ware led the Cowboys with a then club linebacker record 11.5 sacks in 2006, becoming the first Cowboy to record 10-or-more sacks in a season since Tony Tolbert, who had 12.0 in 1996. He upped that total in 2007 to establish a club linebacker record with 14.0 sacks while also becoming the first Cowboy to log back-to-back double-digit sack seasons since Charles Haley (12.5 – 1994, 10.5 – 1995). As a rookie, Ware tied Greg Ellis for the team lead with eight sacks, becoming just the second rookie in club history to lead or tie for the team lead in sacks since Jimmie Jones in 1990. Ware is the first player in franchise history to lead or tie for the team lead through each of his first three seasons with the team.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/23/05: Drafted in the first round (11th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- One of an NFL record 13 Cowboys in the Pro Bowl – his second consecutive selection as a starter.

- Was a First-Team All-Pro by the Associated Press and named to the All-NFL Team by the Pro Football Writers.
- Was second in the league – first among linebackers – with a club linebacker record 14.0 sacks – the most by a Dallas defender since Jim Jeffcoat had 14.0 in 1986.
- With his 11.5 sacks in 2006 and the 14.0 in 2007, was the first Dallas defender to have back-to-back double-digit sack totals since Haley (12.5 in 1994 and 10.5 in 1995).
- Along with Ellis's 12.5 sacks, the duo became Dallas's first pass rushing tandem to record 10-or-more sacks each in a season since Ed Jones (13.0) and Jeffcoat (12.0) in 1985.
- Also led the team in quarterback pressures (27), tackles for losses (eight) and forced fumbles (four) while finishing fifth with 80 tackles.
- Had a breakout game at Chicago (9/23), recording his third career multiple-sack game with the first two sacks of the season while also leading the team with three quarterback pressures.
- Had six tackles, three pressures, a pass deflection that led to a Terence Newman interception and 1.5 sacks – one with a forced fumble – at Buffalo (10/8).
- Logged his fourth consecutive game with a sack – tying the longest streak of his career – with a takedown of Tom Brady against New England (10/14).
- Had a career-high 10 tackles in the Patriots game.
- Tied for the team lead with eight tackles while tallying his fifth career multi-sack game with 1.5 at Philadelphia (11/4).
- Tied his career-best with 10 tackles to go along with his eighth sack of the season at the N.Y. Giants (11/11).
- Notched his fourth multi-sack game of the season with two at Carolina (12/22).
- In the Divisional Playoff loss to the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08), finished with four tackles, a pressure and a sack.

2006:

- Finished his second season with 11.5 sacks, the most ever by a Cowboys linebacker, breaking Anthony Dickerson's record of 10.5 in 1983.
- Named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and was also named second-team All-Pro by The Associated Press and first-team All-NFC by The Pro Football Writers Association.
- Became the first Cowboy to have 10-or-more sacks in a season since defensive end Tony Tolbert had 12.0 in 1996.
- Became the only player in Cowboys history to have led or tied for the team lead in sacks in each of his first two pro seasons while also becoming the first Cowboy since Roy Williams in 2002 and the first linebacker since Dexter Coakley in 2001 to score two defensive touchdowns in a season.
- Finished fifth on the team with 82 tackles, and led the team with five tackles for a loss and five forced fumbles while finishing fourth on the team with four quarterback pressures.
- Recorded his first sack of the season in the Cowboys win over Washington (9/17), dropping Mark Brunell for an 11-yard loss in the second quarter. Also had four tackles as the Cowboys held the Redskins to just three points.
- At Philadelphia (10/8), had his first career fumble recovery, catching a Donovan McNabb fumble following a Ellis sack and returning it 69 yards for his first NFL touchdown. The 69-yard return was the seventh-longest in club history. It was also the team's longest defensive touchdown return by a non-defensive back since 1999, when Ellis returned a fumble 98 yards for a touchdown against Arizona.
- Against the N.Y. Giants (10/23), recorded a season-high eight tackles and his third sack of the season along with forcing a Tiki Barber fumble just before halftime which was recovered by Bradie James.
- Had three sacks, three forced fumbles and five tackles at Carolina (10/29).
- In a loss to Washington (11/5), tied for the team lead with six tackles, all solo, while adding his first career pass breakup and his fourth sack of the season.
- Notched his fifth sack in Arizona (11/12), forcing his second fumble of the season on the play.
- Added his sixth sack of the year against Indianapolis (11/19) and also forced a fumble as the Colts suffered their first loss of the season and were held to a season-low 14 points.
- Had seven more tackles in a loss to New Orleans (12/10) and posted the team's only sack of the game.
- Logged his first career interception, picking off a Michael Vick pass and outrunning him for a 41-yard touchdown – his second of the season – at Atlanta (12/16).
- Also had six tackles, forced a fumble and split a sack with Bobby Carpenter.
- Tied a career-high with three sacks in the season finale against Detroit (12/31) and finished the game with eight tackles.
- In his playoff debut in Seattle (1/6/07), had one tackle for a loss.

2005:

- In tying Ellis with a team-best eight sacks, Ware joined Howley (1961) and Jones (1990) as the only rookies to lead or tie for the team lead in sacks.
- The eight sacks were good for second in the league among rookies and third among club rookies behind Willie Townes (1966) and Martin (1973), who had nine sacks.
- Added 65 tackles (fifth on the team and first among club rookies) with a club-best 11 tackles for a loss, 19 quarterback pressures (second on the team) and tied for the team lead with three forced fumbles.
- Posted 41 tackles, four sacks, seven tackles for a loss, three forced fumbles and 10 quarterback pressures through the final eight games of the season.
- Made his NFL debut in the season opener at San Diego (9/11), and posted three tackles, a tackle for a loss and a quarterback pressure.
- Recorded his first career sack at San Francisco (9/25) when he took down Tim Rattay.
- Against the N.Y. Giants (10/16), recorded a sack for the fourth straight game, the longest streak on the team since 2004 when Ellis did it from Week 2 to Week 5.
- Against Arizona (10/30), posted four tackles and three quarterback pressures, including one that led to Anthony Henry's interception and 58-yard return for a touchdown.
- Earned NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month honors in October after recording 16 tackles, three sacks and seven quarterback pressures to help Dallas go 3-2.

- At the N.Y. Giants (12/4), finished second on the team with seven tackles along with two tackles for a loss and a season-high four pressures, one of which led to an Aaron Glenn interception in the end zone.
- Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week and the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week for his play at Carolina (12/24), when he tied Randy White's rookie record with three sacks. He forced a fumble on all three sacks, becoming the first Cowboy to force three fumbles in a game since 1984, when records were first kept. Was also second on the team with a career-high eight tackles and had a tackle for a loss.
- Against St. Louis (1/1/06), recorded his eighth sack of the season, tying the team high, and the Rams were held to 253 total yards.

COLLEGE:

- As a senior, earned third-team All-America, All-Sun Belt, and Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year honors, finishing with 53 tackles, 29 pressures, 19 tackles for a loss, a career-high 10.5 sacks and four forced fumbles to lead Troy to its first bowl appearance.
- Finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award, which is given annually to the top defensive end in college football.
- As a junior, started every game at left defensive end and logged 62 tackles, a career-high 32 pressures, 16 tackles for a loss, six sacks and a career-high five forced fumbles to earn first-team All-Independent honors from ESPN and College Football News.
- Began his sophomore season as a reserve but moved into the starting lineup at left end the second week of the season and finished with a career-high 72 tackles, a career-high 20 tackles for a loss, 13 pressures and nine sacks.
- As a true freshman, played in eight games as a reserve defensive end and tallied 14 tackles, three tackles for a loss and two sacks.

PERSONAL:

- DeMarcus Ware played football only during his junior and senior seasons at Auburn, Ala., High School.
- Earned all-area honors as a senior, posting 55 tackles and seven sacks while also earning most valuable linebacker, wide receiver and leadership honors from the team.
- Also a member of the basketball, baseball and track teams.

Safety

PRO: Patrick Watkins is an athletic, instinctive safety from Florida State who has displayed good range and a nose for the ball in his first two seasons. He is a strong contributor on special teams as he continues to establish himself in the defensive secondary rotation.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

4/30/06: Drafted in the fifth round (138th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Played in 14 regular season games and led the team with 25 special teams tackles along with 30 tackles and one interception on defense.
- Led the team with three special teams tackles at Miami (9/16) and added a season-high five stops on defense.
- Recorded his first career tackle for a loss and one tackle at Buffalo (10/8).
- Led the team with a season-high five stops on special teams against New England (10/14) and had another stop on defense.
- Had his first career touchdown against Minnesota (10/21) with a 68-yard touchdown return on a blocked field goal by Chris Canty. It marked the second-longest return of a field goal attempt in club history (94 by Jerry Norton – 12/9/62).
- Had one tackle and an interception at the N.Y. Giants (11/11) to end their final drive along with two special teams tackles.
- Suffered an ankle injury on punt coverage against Philadelphia (12/16) and did not return. Missed the next two games with the ankle injury.
- Played mainly on special teams and tied for the team lead with two stops in the Divisional Playoff Game against the N.Y. Giants (1/13/08).

2006:

- Played in 14 regular season games, including nine starts, and started the wild card playoff game.
- Finished the season with three interceptions (second among rookies in the NFL) and second on the team behind Roy Williams. Had 49 tackles (eighth on the team) and tops among team rookies.
- At Jacksonville (9/10), became the sixth Cowboys rookie to start a season opener at free safety, the first since Michael Downs in 1981 and finished the game second on the team with a season-high seven tackles.
- Tied for the team lead with six tackles and forced a fumble against Washington (9/17).
- Returned a Vince Young fumble 53 yards to set up the Cowboys final touchdown of the game at Tennessee (10/1) and added seven tackles to lead the team and tie his season high.
- Was inactive the next two games as Keith Davis took over as the starter for the next six games.
- Returned to action at Arizona (11/12) in a reserve role and had his first career interception, a third quarter pick of Matt Leinart.
- Against Tampa Bay (11/23), added one tackle and also posted his first two special teams tackles.
- Returned to the starting lineup at Atlanta (12/16) and intercepted Matt Schaub at the end of the game and finished with four tackles.
- Had his third interception of the year against Detroit (12/31) adding five tackles and two special team stops.
- In his postseason debut at Seattle (1/6/07), had three tackles as the starting free safety.

COLLEGE:

- Finished his collegiate career with 13 interceptions and played in 49 consecutive games at Florida State.
- As a senior, played in all 13 games, including 10 starts, and finished third on the team with 77 tackles, tied for the team lead with three interceptions and earned honorable-mention All-ACC honors. Helped lead his team to the Orange Bowl, where they lost to third-ranked Penn State, 26-23, in overtime.
- Started all 12 games as a junior and helped lead the Seminoles to a 10-3 record and a victory over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl. Finished with four interceptions (tied for second in the ACC with teammate Antonio Cromartie) and was second on the team with a career-high 10 pass breakups. Added 56 tackles (second among team defensive backs) and tied for the team lead with two fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles.
- As a sophomore, played in all 13 games and helped lead the Seminoles to a 10-3 record and a berth in the Orange Bowl against Miami. Tied for the team lead with a then single-season career-high three interceptions and tied for fifth in the ACC in interceptions-per-game. Ranked third on the team with eight pass breakups and fifth on the team with 62 tackles.
- Played in 11-of-14 games, including the Sugar Bowl loss to Georgia as a freshman with 10 tackles.

PERSONAL:

- Patrick Watkins attended Lincoln High School in Tallahassee, Fla., where he was a first-team All-America selection by the USA Today, an All-America selection by Parade magazine, and the top-rated prep safety in the nation by TheInsiders.com and Max Emfinger.
- As a senior, notched 140 tackles, six interceptions and two fumble recoveries. He also had six kickoff returns for touchdowns.
- Was a social science major at Florida State.
- 2006 Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club.

- Dallas Cowboys Thanksgiving Day Meal at The Salvation Army.
- Annual team Holiday Hospital Visits.
- Salvation Army Angel Tree Christmas Program.

Safety

PRO: The eighth overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft, Roy Williams has made the last five Pro Bowls, joining three other Cowboys safeties who made five-or-more Pro Bowls: Cliff Harris (six), Mel Renfro (five at safety, five at cornerback), and Darren Woodson (five). Since his rookie season, Williams has started 93 of his 95 regular season games. His 92 consecutive starts, including playoffs, was the longest active streak on the team when it ended against the N.Y Jets (11/22/07) as the team opened with three cornerbacks. He earned All-Rookie honors in 2002, when he tied for the NFL lead among rookies with five interceptions, and then earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in his second season. He also made the Pro Bowl following the 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007 seasons. A ferocious run stopper and a big playmaker against the pass, Williams sees more time playing closer to the line of scrimmage in Wade Phillips's 3-4 scheme. He has led the club in interceptions twice, in 2002 and 2006, and has returned three of his 19 career interceptions for touchdowns. He is currently tied for 13th in club history in career interceptions. He is one touchdown shy of the club record of four interception returns for a touchdown, which is held by Dennis Thurman and Dexter Coakley. He has also 6.5 career sacks. A sound tackler who has a nose for the ball, Williams has a knack for making the big hit and stopping runners without yielding additional yards.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

12/17/07: Placed on Reserve/Suspended for one game.
8/2/06: Signed a four-year contract extension with Dallas through 2010.
4/20/02: Drafted in the first round (8th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Named to his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl at the strong safety position. Was one of 13 Cowboys selected – setting a team and NFL record.
- Second on the team with 115 tackles – his third season with at least 100 tackles.
- Fourth on the team with two interceptions and fifth on the club with five passes defensed.
- At Miami (9/16), recorded a fourth quarter interception that allowed Dallas to run out the clock. Also added five tackles – including his 500th career stop.
- At Chicago (9/23), registered his second interception of the season with another fourth quarter pick – marking his second consecutive game with an interception for the first time since his rookie season in 2002 when he picked off passes in three straight games. Also added six tackles, two pass deflections and a fumble recovery.
- At Buffalo (10/8), tied for the team lead with nine tackles.
- Against New England (10/14), tied for second on the team with a then season-high nine tackles.
- Against Minnesota (10/21), recorded eight tackles – second on the team – with one pass breakup as the Vikings were held to two-of-12 (17%) on third downs, 72 passing yards and zero points in the second half.
- At the N.Y. Giants (11/11), tied for the team lead with a season-high 12 tackles.
- Against Washington (11/18), led the team with 11 tackles and added one stop on special teams.
- On Thanksgiving Day against the N.Y. Jets (11/22), had his streak of consecutive starts end at 92 as the team opened with three cornerbacks.
- In the division clinching win at Detroit (12/9), led the team with 11 tackles and had a pass breakup.
- Against Philadelphia (12/16), led the team for the second consecutive week with nine tackles (seven solos).
- Missed the win at Carolina (12/22) while on the Reserve/Suspended list due to a league suspension for a horse-collar tackle against Philadelphia (12/16).
- Returned to action at Washington (12/30) and recorded eight tackles (second on the team).

2006:

- Earned fourth straight Pro Bowl selection, after leading the team with five interceptions, which tied a career-high and tied for 10th in the NFL.
- Also had two fumble recoveries and finished with a team-high seven of the Cowboys 31 takeaways.
- Ranked second on the team with 17 pass breakups and fourth on the team with 86 tackles.
- From 2002-06, one of five defensive backs (Ronde Barber, Brian Dawkins, Rodney Harrison and Deshea Townsend) to post three seasons of at least two sacks and two interceptions in the same season.
- In the season-opening loss at Jacksonville (9/10) recorded five tackles and his first interception of the year.
- In the home-opening victory over Washington (9/17), posted four tackles, a tackle for a loss, two pass breakups and his second interception of the season. The interception came at the Dallas one-yard line in the third quarter with Dallas leading, 17-10.
- In the 45-14 win at Tennessee (10/1), tied for the team lead with seven tackles. Titans wide receivers were limited to five receptions for 31 yards, and Tennessee gained only 151 passing yards. Also made one special teams tackle and forced a fumble on kickoff coverage that was recovered by Tennessee.
- In the loss at Philadelphia (10/8), led the team with seven tackles. Also recovered an Eagles fumble on the game's opening drive and broke up a pass.
- In the win over Houston (10/15), was third on the team with seven tackles and had two pass breakups. Also recovered a fumble on kickoff coverage that set up a fourth quarter field goal.
- Posted his third interception of the year in the Sunday night win at Carolina (10/29), picking off a Jake Delhomme pass at the Carolina 32-yard line with 4:47 left and Dallas leading 21-14. The theft set up a Marion Barber touchdown run which gave Dallas a 28-14 lead.
- In the win over previously undefeated Indianapolis (11/19), intercepted Peyton Manning at the Dallas one-yard line on third-and-goal in the second quarter. The interception was Williams's fourth of the season and the 16th of his career.
- In the Thanksgiving Day win over Tampa Bay (11/23), registered his fifth interception of the season, tying his career high from 2002. The Bucs were held to 110 passing yards, the lowest passing total Dallas allowed for the season.
- In the playoff-clinching win at Atlanta (12/16), tied for second on the team with six tackles as the Falcons were limited to seven second-half points.
- In the season-ending loss to Detroit (12/31), was second on the team with a season-high 10 tackles and tied a career-high with three pass breakups.
- In the playoff loss at Seattle (1/6/07), was fourth on the team with six tackles. His fourth quarter interception set up Dallas at its 43-yard line and led to a 29-yard Martin Gramatica field goal, which gave Dallas a 20-13 lead with 10 minutes remaining.

2005:

- Was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl after starting all 16 games and finishing the year ranked second on the club in tackles with 82 stops.
- Tied for the team lead in forced fumbles with three.
- Also tied for third on the team with three interceptions and eight passes defensed.
- Was one of just three defensive backs in the NFL – along with Dawkins and Al Harris – to record more than two sacks and two interceptions.
- Among defensive backs, was seventh in the NFC and 12th in the NFL with 2.5 sacks, which tied him for fourth on the team.
- In the season-opening win at San Diego (9/11), recorded five tackles and a half sack – his first sack since 2003. Helped limit LaDainian Tomlinson to 72 rushing yards.
- In the Monday night loss to Washington (9/19), had a sack, two tackles and a pass breakup to go along with a forced fumble on Ladell Betts just before halftime that Keith Davis recovered.
- In a key divisional win over Philadelphia (10/9), had a sack, two tackles and a tackle for a loss. Dallas limited the Eagles top-ranked offense to 129 total yards, including just 110 passing yards.
- In the overtime victory over the N.Y. Giants (10/16), posted five tackles, a pass defensed and a special teams tackle. Made his biggest play of the game with 1:26 left in regulation when he tackled Brandon Jacobs at the goal line and forced a fumble that he also recovered.
- In the last-minute loss at Seattle (10/23), intercepted his first pass of the season – the 10th of his career – and added five tackles. His fourth quarter theft of Matt Hasselbeck came at the Seattle 24-yard line, setting up a Dallas field goal.
- In the win over Arizona (10/30), led the team with a season-high nine tackles, including one for a loss, and a pass breakup. The Cardinals were limited to 213 total yards, including just 142 net passing yards, the second-lowest passing total allowed by Dallas on the season.
- In the Monday night win at Philadelphia (11/14), scored the winning touchdown on a 46-yard interception return, giving the Cowboys a 21-20 lead with 2:43 left in the game. It was his second interception of the season and his third career interception return for a touchdown. Also added six tackles.
- In the overtime loss to Denver (11/24) on Thanksgiving Day, led the Cowboys with eight tackles and forced a fumble at the Broncos 10-yard line – which Terence Newman recovered – to set up Dallas's game-tying fourth quarter touchdown.
- In a come-from-behind win at Carolina (12/24), had one interception and two pass breakups. The fourth-quarter interception of Jake Delhomme stopped a Panthers drive at the Dallas eight-yard line. Williams suffered a sprained ankle when he was tackled on the play and saw limited action the rest of the game.

2004:

- Earned his second straight Pro Bowl trip after starting all 16 games.
- Finished the year second on the team with 106 tackles, marking the second time in three seasons he recorded 100-or-more tackles.
- Had two interceptions and led the team with five tackles for a loss (-15 yards).
- Was also third on the team with nine passes defensed.
- In the home-opening win over Cleveland (9/19), tied for the team lead with six tackles, helping limit quarterback Jeff Garcia to eight-of-28 passing for 66 net yards. Browns starting receivers were limited to four catches for 50 yards.
- In the 21-18 Monday night win at Washington (9/27), had a career-high 14 tackles and two pass deflections. His last tackle of the night, which came at the Dallas 21-yard line, prevented Redskins receiver Rod Gardner from going out of the bounds to stop the clock.
- In the win over Detroit (10/31), led the team with 10 tackles and adding one pass breakup.
- In the Thanksgiving Day victory over Chicago (11/25), posted four tackles and a pressure as the Bears were limited to 49 rushing yards on 20 carries (2.5 yards-per-carry) and 140 total yards, the lowest total allowed by Dallas since Sept. 8, 1996.
- In the Cowboys come-from-behind Monday night victory at Seattle (12/6), recorded seven tackles and forced his first fumble of the season. The fumble occurred when Williams tackled Shaun Alexander in the third quarter for no gain. Dat Nguyen recovered it and ran nine yards to the Seattle 21-yard line. Two plays later, Julius Jones ran 10 yards up the middle for a touchdown, giving Dallas a 26-14 lead.
- Recorded his first interception of the season in the loss against New Orleans (12/12), picking off Aaron Brooks on the opening drive of the second half. His 20-yard return to the Saints 42-yard line set up a drive that resulted in a field goal.
- At Philadelphia (12/19), was third on the team with seven tackles and tied his career-high with three pass breakups. Also had an interception, which he returned 33 yards to the Eagles 46-yard line.

- Followed his outstanding rookie season with an even better sophomore year as he was a major force on the NFL's top-ranked defense, earning All-Pro honors from The Associated Press and The Sporting News.
- Made the Pro Bowl as the starting free safety after finishing fourth on the team with 86 tackles and second with six tackles for a loss.
- Was one-of-10 defensive backs in the NFL with two-or-more sacks (2.0) and interceptions (two).
- Led the team with nine special teams tackles.
- Against Atlanta (9/7), recorded five tackles, a forced fumble, a sack and a quarterback pressure.
- At the N.Y. Jets (9/28), forced a Curtis Martin fumble at the Cowboys 11-yard line in the second quarter, and the ball rolled into the end zone where it was recovered by Darren Woodson.
- Had his first interception of the year against Arizona (10/5), a fourth quarter pick on the Cardinals final drive of the game. His biggest hit of the day came in the second quarter, when he tackled Emmitt Smith for no gain and ended Smith's day with a fractured left shoulder blade.
- In the 23-21 win over Philadelphia (10/12), had his first sack of the season and finished with six tackles. Late in the game, broke up a goal line pass to Todd Pinkston to prevent a touchdown.
- Against Washington (11/2), had five tackles, two quarterback pressures and his second sack of the season.
- In the Cowboys 24-20 win over Carolina (11/23), had three tackles and his second interception of the season, which he returned 30 yards to the Panthers 11-yard line, setting up a Dallas touchdown. Also recovered a fumble on the game's opening kickoff to set Dallas up for its first points of the game.

- Made his postseason debut at Carolina (1/3/04) and finished third on the team with eight tackles and forced a fumble.

2002:
- Started all 16 games as a rookie and earned NFL All-Rookie honors.
- Finished the year second on the team with 127 tackles, tops in the NFL among rookies and the second-most by a Dallas rookie since Dexter Coakley (136 in 1997).
- Tied teammate Derek Ross and Baltimore safety Ed Reed for the NFL lead among rookies with five interceptions.
- His five interceptions were a team-high and were the most by a Dallas safety since Woodson had five in 1996.
- Was the Cowboys leading scorer on defense, returning two of his interceptions for touchdowns.
- Tied for the team lead with three forced fumbles – ninth in the NFL – and two fumble recoveries – fourth in the NFL.
- One of just 10 defensive backs in the NFL to record multiple sacks (2.0) and interceptions (five).
- Had a forced fumble and a fumble recovery on special teams and finished third on the team with nine pass breakups.
- At Houston (9/8), became the first Cowboys rookie to start the season at safety since Ron Francis in 1987. Posted four tackles and a quarterback pressure in his NFL debut.
- At Philadelphia (9/22), recorded 11 tackles, two tackles for a loss and a fumble recovery.
- In the 13-10 win at St. Louis (9/29), led Dallas with a then career-high 13 tackles and also forced a Marshall Faulk fumble and broke up a Jamie Martin pass. His pressure of quarterback Kurt Warner resulted in a first quarter interception by Greg Ellis and knocked Warner out of the game.
- In a loss to N.Y. Giants (10/6), registered his first career sack, a takedown of Kerry Collins that resulted in a five-yard loss.
- At Indianapolis (11/17), posted 10 tackles and his first career interception – a theft of Peyton Manning at the Cowboys 10-yard line.
- In win over Jacksonville (11/24), had eight tackles, two pass deflections, a forced fumble at the goal line and a diving interception on the sideline that thwarted a deep pass to wide receiver Jimmy Smith.
- In Thanksgiving Day win over Washington (11/28), returned an interception five yards for a touchdown, cutting Dallas's deficit to 20-17 in the third quarter. The play marked his third straight game with an interception, making Williams the first Cowboy to accomplish that feat since James Washington did it from Week 4 to Week 6 in 1994. Michael Downs in 1981 was the last Dallas rookie to accomplish the feat.
- In loss to San Francisco (12/8), tied a season-high with a team-high 13 tackles. Also tied for the team lead with three special teams tackles, including a hit on a kickoff return that forced a fumble by Jimmy Williams – setting up a Dallas field goal.
- At Washington (12/29), recorded seven tackles and accounted for two Redskins turnovers. With 0:56 left in the first half, had his fifth interception of the season and returned it 85 yards for a touchdown to tie the score at 7-7. It was the eighth-longest interception return in club history and the second-longest by a rookie. In the third quarter, the Cowboys Tony Dixon forced a fumble by Derrius Thompson at the Dallas 11-yard line and Williams recovered it.

Tight End

PRO BOWLS

'04 '05 '06 '07

PRO: Through five seasons, Jason Witten has emerged as one of the top tight ends in the NFL and one of the most prolific pass catching tight ends in Cowboys history. He has appeared in four consecutive Pro Bowl games and now trails only Jay Novacek (five) for the most Pro Bowl appearances by a Cowboys tight end. After a 2007 season that saw Witten establish a club tight end record with 96 catches while also becoming the first tight end in franchise history – 13th in league history – to top 1,000 yards in a season, Witten now owns the top spot for career receiving yards among club tight ends (sixth among all Dallas pass catchers) in club record books – 3,983 yards entering the 2008 season. For his career, Witten has caught 348 passes which is atop the charts for Cowboys tight ends and good for seventh among all Dallas pass catchers. His 96 catches last year tied the third-most ever by a tight end in the league and were the most by an NFC tight end. His reception total from 2007 allowed him to become just the eighth tight end in league history, first in Cowboys history, to put together four consecutive seasons with at least 60 catches. Witten already has four of the Cowboys top-five reception totals in a season by a tight end, including his team tight end record 96 catches in 2007. His 87 catches in 2004 rank second, his 66 in 2005 rank fourth and his 64 catches in 2006 are tied for fourth with Doug Cosbie (1985). Witten also has four of the top-six receiving yard totals in a season by a club tight end, including his tight end record of 1,145 from 2007. His 980 in 2004 are second while his 757 (2005) are fifth and the 754 (2006) are sixth. Witten actually began his collegiate career at the University of Tennessee as a defensive end, but he switched to tight end as a freshman. In three years, he quickly became one of the best tight ends in college football and left school after his junior season. As the Cowboys third round pick in 2004 (69th overall), Witten got off to a slow start as a rookie, catching just eight passes in his first eight games before turning things around in the second half of the season, when he tallied 27 receptions. He finished the season with 35 receptions for 347 yards and one touchdown. His career took off in 2004 when he became quarterback Vinny Testaverde's go-to receiver. That trend has continued through each of the following seasons. Of his 348 career receptions, 198 have gone for first downs, including 69 on third or fourth down. A model of durability, Witten has appeared in 82 of a possible 83 games, missing just one game after breaking his jaw against Arizona (10/5/03) and undergoing surgery to have three plates put in on Oct. 6, 2003.

TRANSACTION SUMMARY:

7/22/06: Signed a six-year contract extension with Dallas through 2012.
4/26/03: Drafted in the third round (69th overall) by Dallas.

2007:

- Put together the most prolific pass catching season by a tight end in club history, establishing franchise tight end records for catches (96 – third in the NFC, first among tight ends, 10th in the NFL, second among tight ends), receiving yards (1,145 – 14th in the league, second among tight ends) and a career-high seven touchdowns.
- Named to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl – the second-most by a tight end in club history (Novacek, five) as one of a league record 13 Cowboys to play in the all-star game.
- Also earned All-NFL Team honors by the Pro Football Writers.
- Became the eighth tight end in league history to record at least 60 catches in four consecutive seasons.
- Opened the season against the N.Y. Giants (9/9) with one of the best days of his career, catching six passes for 116 yards (second-most of his career and the sixth-best by a tight end) and one touchdown.
- Added six catches for 90 yards and a touchdown at Chicago (9/23) to pass 3,000 career receiving yards, the fourth tight end in franchise history to accomplish that feat, joining Cosbie (3,728), Novacek (3,576) and Billy Joe DuPree (3,565).
- Became the club's third all-time leading tight end in receptions, passing DuPree (267) with six catches against St. Louis (9/30).
- Led the team with nine catches for 103 yards and a touchdown at Buffalo (10/8). The 103 yards tied Cosbie for the 13th-highest yardage output by a tight end in club history while the touchdown was his third consecutive game with a score – the longest streak of his career.
- Led the team with a then single-game high 10 catches for 86 yards against Minnesota (10/21).
- Had a career-long 53-yard reception at Philadelphia (11/4) along with three receptions for 77 yards and one score.
- Against the N.Y. Jets (11/22) on Thanksgiving Day, finished with four catches for 54 yards and a touchdown to move into seventh place – second among tight ends – on the club's all-time receiving yards list.
- With six catches against Green Bay (11/29) recorded his 65th catch of the season, marking the fourth consecutive season with 60-or-more catches to become the eighth tight end in NFL history – first in team history – to accomplish that feat.
- Had a career-day at Detroit (12/9) catching a single-game career-high and team record 15 passes for a career-high 138 yards (second-most by a tight end in club history) and the game-winning touchdown.

- The Lions game marked his third 100-yard day of the season and fifth of his career and his touchdown catch was his seventh of the season to establish a career-high.
- Added 113 yards on eight catches against Philadelphia (12/16) to become the first tight end in franchise history to record back-to-back 100-yard games.
- The Eagles game allowed him to surpass 1,000 receiving yards on the season to establish a career-high and mark the first time in team history – 13th time in NFL history – a tight end topped 1,000 yards in a season.

2006:

- Continued his emergence as one of the NFL's elite tight ends, earning his third consecutive Pro Bowl appearance after ranking second in the NFC, sixth in the NFL among tight ends with 64 catches and 754 yards.
- Became the first tight end in Cowboys history to have at least 60 receptions in three consecutive seasons, and one of just 10 tight ends in NFL history to accomplish that feat – Novacek (1992, 1995) and Cosbie (1984, 1985) are the only other Cowboys tight ends to record at least 60 receptions.
- Recorded his 200th career catch with four catches for 51 yards against Philadelphia (10/8).
- Logged a season-high seven catches for 80 yards and a touchdown in a Sunday night win at Carolina (10/29), Tony Romo's first career start.
- Had 73 receiving yards against the N.Y. Giants, including a then career-long 42-yard reception in the final minute, setting up Martin Gramatica's winning field goal.
- In his second career playoff game, had a team-high 57 receiving yards – including a 32-yard catch on fourth-and-two to setup a touchdown before halftime – on three catches at Seattle (1/6/07).

2005:

- Became the first Dallas tight end to have at least 65 receptions in consecutive seasons and was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl to become the fourth tight end to have made multiple Pro Bowl appearance – Novacek (five), Cosbie (three) and DuPree (three).
- Among tight ends, finished third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL with 66 receptions; fourth in the NFC and seventh in the NFL with 757 receiving yards; and fourth in the NFC and tied for sixth in the NFL with six touchdown receptions, tying a career high.
- Led the team with six receptions for 85 yards and a touchdown at San Francisco (9/25) as each of his receptions went for a first down.
- At Oakland (10/2), led the team with five catches for 49 yards, and four of his catches went for a first down, including three on third down.
- Had five catches for 56 yards – including a 26-yard catch in overtime to extend a drive that resulted in the game-winning field goal – and a touchdown against the N.Y. Giants (10/16).
- Against Arizona (10/30), was second on the team with five catches for a game-high 71 yards, including a season-long 34-yard catch.
- Tied a career-high with nine catches for 82 yards and a touchdown against Denver (11/24).
- Had just one catch at the N.Y. Giants (12/4) that marked his 50th catch of the season.
- Posted a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown on seven catches against Kansas City (12/11).
- Finished the season with four catches for 50 yards and a touchdown against St. Louis (1/1/06).

2004:

- In just his second pro season, became the first Dallas tight end to make the Pro Bowl since Novacek in 1995 after leading the team – tied for seventh in the NFC and 11th in the NFL – with 87 receptions and a then career-high six touchdown catches.
- The 87 catches ranked first in the NFC and second in the NFL among tight ends.
- Joined Cosbie as the only tight ends to lead Dallas in receptions in a season.
- Was second on the team with 980 receiving yards – 12th in the NFC, 27th in the league, first among NFC tight ends and second among league tight ends – just one fewer than team leader Keyshawn Johnson.
- Scored his first touchdown of the season on a 10-yard catch at Washington (9/27), helping the Cowboys win 21-18.
- Led the team with five receptions for 35 yards against the N.Y. Giants (10/10).
- At Green Bay (10/24), led the team with eight catches for 112 yards and a touchdown to mark the first 100-yard receiving game by a Dallas tight end since Novacek had 104 yards against Green Bay in the playoffs on Jan. 8, 1995.
- Had a career-long 42-yard touchdown catch against the Packers to mark the longest by a Dallas tight end since Cosbie's 61-yard touchdown catch at the Giants on Oct. 30, 1983.
- Set a then career-high with nine catches – the most by a Dallas tight end since Novacek had 11 against Green Bay (1/8/95) – for 84 yards and a touchdown against Detroit (10/31).
- Averaged a season-high 16.2 yards-per-catch at Cincinnati (11/7) and led the team with six receptions for 97 yards, including catches of 18, 25 and 33 yards.
- Set career-highs against Philadelphia (11/17) for receiving yards (133 – the second-most by a Dallas tight end, behind Cosbie's 159 yards at Detroit on Sept. 15, 1985) and touchdowns (two – the first multiple-touchdown game by a Dallas tight end since Jackie Harris had two against San Francisco on Sept. 24, 2000) and tied a career high with nine receptions.
- Recovered an onside kick at the Cowboys 43-yard line that set up the winning touchdown drive in a come-from-behind win at Seattle (12/6).
- Against New Orleans (12/12), led the team with four receptions for 59 yards.
- Moved past Cosbie's club record for receiving yards in a season (793 yards) on his first catch, and his second catch moved him past Novacek's club record for receptions in a season by a tight end (68 receptions), finishing the game with a team-high six catches for 66 yards.
- In the season finale at the N.Y. Giants (1/2/05), led the team with eight catches for 77 yards and a touchdown.

2003:

- Finished his rookie season with 35 receptions – tied for 18th in the NFL among tight ends, fourth among rookies and tops among rookie tight ends.
- Eighteen of his catches went for a first down, including nine on third down.
- Made his NFL debut and first start in the season opener against Atlanta (9/7), when the Cowboys opened with two tight ends.

- Logged his first career catch – a 13-yarder – against the Falcons.
- Tied for the team lead with four catches for 41 yards before suffering a fractured jaw in the fourth quarter against Arizona (10/5).
- Underwent surgery to have three plates inserted in his jaw Oct. 6 and was inactive against Philadelphia (10/12) and returned to action at Detroit (10/19).
- In the Cowboys 24-20 win over eventual NFC Champion Carolina (11/23), tied for the team lead with six receptions for 49 yards, including a 13-yard reception on third-and-eight with 1:47 left to seal the win.
- On Thanksgiving Day against Miami (11/27), posted season-highs of eight receptions and 58 yards – it was the most receptions in a game by a Dallas tight end since Eric Bjornson had eight at San Francisco (11/10/96). It also tied for the second-most receptions in a game by a Dallas receiver in 2003.
- Blocking at Washington (12/14) helped Troy Hambrick rush for 189 yards, the third-most in club history.
- Had one catch against the N.Y. Giants (12/21), a season-long 36-yard reception that resulted in his first career touchdown – the longest reception by a club tight end since Cosbie's 61-yard scoring catch at the N.Y. Giants on Oct. 30, 1983 – to give Dallas a 10-3 lead in a game Dallas won 19-3 to clinch a playoff berth.
- Had his first career special teams tackle in the season finale at New Orleans (12/28).
- In the wild card playoff game at Carolina (1/3/04), tied for second on the team with four receptions for 30 yards.

COLLEGE:

- Left Tennessee after his junior season but still finished third all-time among the school's tight ends with 68 career receptions and fourth all time with 797 receiving yards.
- As a junior, set single-season school records for a tight end in receptions (39) and receiving yards (493) with five touchdowns.
- Selected as a consensus All-Southeastern Conference pick after leading the conference's tight ends in receptions and receiving yards while also being an Academic All-SEC pick.
- Played in every game as a sophomore, including three starts, and finished third on the team with 28 receptions for 293 yards (10.5 yards-per-catch) and two touchdowns.
- Because of a shortage of players, was moved from defensive end to tight end as a freshman and backed up John Finlayson and played in 11 games, with two starts.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Elizabethton, Tenn., High School, where he was a consensus All-America selection at linebacker by PrepStar, Parade, Gridiron Greats, USA Today, Blue Chip Illustrated, and Street and Smith.
- As a senior, selected as the USA Today Player of the Year for Tennessee, the East Tennessee Player of the Year, Region Defensive Player of the Year and runner-up for the Mr. Football award after recording 163 tackles, nine sacks, two interceptions, two blocked kicks, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.
- Also played tight end, adding 26 receptions for 345 yards and 14 touchdowns.

The 2007 Season At A Glance

Dallas 45, N.Y. Giants 35

Texas Stadium, September 9, 2007
Attendance: 63,031

The Dallas Cowboys opened the 2007 season with a 45-35 win over the N.Y. Giants. New York struck first when Eli Manning hooked up with Plaxico Burress on a 60-yard scoring pass (fumbled snap on PAT). The Cowboys managed a 31-yard Nick Folk field goal on their first drive. Dallas forced a turnover on downs on New York's next drive, but was forced to punt on its next possession.

New York punted to open the second quarter before Marion Barber rushed for an 18-yard touchdown on a fourth-and-one, giving Dallas a 10-6 lead. Jacques Reeves intercepted Manning's pass on third-and-seven which led to a 12-yard Jason Witten scoring catch. New York answered with 0:21 remaining before halftime when Manning hooked up with Burress for a four-yard touchdown. Tyson Thompson fumbled the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by Kevin Dockery at the Dallas 26-yard line. After a shot at the end zone, Lawrence Tynes drilled a 44-yard field goal to cut the Giants deficit to 17-16 at halftime.

Dallas extended their lead to 27-16 early in the second half when Tony Romo hit Terrell Owens for a 22-yard touchdown. Tynes connected on a 48-yard field goal for the Giants to cut their deficit to 24-19. The two teams traded punts before Romo rushed in from nine yards to give Dallas a 31-19 lead.

The Giants opened the final frame with a 24-yard Tynes field goal. Three plays later, Romo hit Owens for a 47-yard touchdown for a 38-22 lead. New York then drove 80 yards to decrease the Dallas advantage to 38-28 (missed two-point conversion) on a nine-yard Derrick Ward touchdown catch. Gibril Wilson stepped in front of Romo's next pass intended for Owens. New York capitalized when Manning hit Burress in the end zone from 10 yards out. Romo then led Dallas to its final margin of victory 45-35, hitting Sam Hurd for a 51-yard touchdown pass. New York's final attempt to cut into the Dallas lead was thwarted when it was forced to turn the ball over on downs. Dallas took over and ran out the clock.

Dallas 37, Miami 20

Dolphin Stadium, September 16, 2007
Attendance: 71,615

The Dallas Cowboys improved to 2-0 on the heels of a 37-20 win at Miami. Dallas was forced to punt after three plays to open the game and were down 3-0 early after Miami took 12 plays 44 yards to set up a 37-yard Jay Feely field goal. The Cowboys tied the game with a 26-yard Nick Folk field goal to end the first quarter.

Two plays later, Trent Green was intercepted by Anthony Henry, but Dallas was unable to capitalize, punting nine plays later. Dallas forced its own three-and-out and took 12 plays 75 yards to take a 10-3 lead with a one-yard Marion Barber touchdown run. Feely connected on a 45-yard field goal before the half expired.

The Dolphins started the third frame with an 18-yard Marty Booker touchdown catch from Green. Dallas punted on their first drive of the second half, then forced a Miami punt. The Cowboys upped their advantage to 17-13 on Tony Curtis's first career catch – a two-yard scoring reception from Tony Romo. Green was picked off by Ken Hamlin on the Dolphins next drive, allowing the Cowboys to take a 20-13 lead after Folk's 28-yard field goal. Green fumbled the snap two plays later and Dallas took possession after Jay Ratliff covered up the loose ball.

Folk gave the Cowboys a 23-13 lead on a 47-yard field goal to close out a nine-play drive. Henry stepped in front of another Green pass, setting up the Cowboys at the Miami 39-yard line. Romo hooked up with Terrell Owens for a 34-yard scoring pass on fourth-and-five before Green hooked up with Derek Hagan three plays later for a 21-yard strike to cut Miami's deficit to 30-20. Barber added his second touchdown of the game, taking the handoff 40 yards to the endzone. Green was picked off by Roy Williams two plays later, and Dallas turned the ball over on downs trying to run out the clock. Miami tried to cut into the Dallas lead, but Green was sacked by Chris Canty as time expired.

Dallas 34, Chicago 10

Soldier Field, September 23, 2007
Attendance: 62,099

The Dallas Cowboys improved to 3-0 for the first time since 1999, handing the Chicago Bears a 34-10 loss. The teams traded punts to open the game. Chicago struck first with a 20-yard Robbie Gould field goal. Tony Romo was picked off by Adam Archuleta on the Cowboys final drive of the first quarter.

Dallas returned the favor as Rex Grossman was intercepted by Anthony Henry to open the second quarter, but the Cowboys were forced to punt after three plays. The Dallas defense returned the favor, forcing a Chicago punt after three plays. The Cowboys then went 57 yards in seven plays to set up a 30-yard Nick Folk field goal. Chicago was forced to punt again and Dallas had an opportunity to take the lead, but Folk's 23-yard field goal attempt was blocked. Archuleta returned it 48 yards to the Cowboys 46-yard line. Chicago was unable to convert as Gould's fourth-down pass on a fake field goal attempt fell incomplete. The teams went into the locker room at half time tied at 3-3.

The Cowboys struck quickly in the third frame after Romo hooked up with Jason Witten for a three-yard touchdown toss. The Bears responded, taking six plays to tie the game at 10-10 with a one-yard Cedric Benson touchdown rush. Dallas upped its lead to 17-10 when Romo hit Marion Barber on a short pass that Barber took to the end zone for a 10-yard score. Remi Ayodele forced a Benson fumble two plays later that was recovered by Roy Williams.

Dallas turned the fumble into points with a 44-yard Folk field goal, taking a 20-10 lead to start the final period. Henry then stepped in front of another Grossman pass, taking this one 28 yards for a touchdown and a 27-10 Dallas lead. Dallas forced another Chicago punt, then tacked on their final touchdown with a one-yard Barber touchdown run. On Chicago's next play from scrimmage, Williams stepped in front of a Grossman pass. Dallas punted three plays later then the clock expired after two plays.

Dallas 35, St. Louis 7

Texas Stadium, September 30, 2007
Attendance: 62,866

The Dallas Cowboys improved to 4-0 for the first time since 1995 with a 35-7 win over the St. Louis Rams. The first quarter was uneventful for both teams as Dallas and St. Louis combined for six punts (three each) and an interception – Tony Romo was picked off by Oshiomogho Atogwe to end the first quarter.

St. Louis strung together a seven-play, 31-yard drive following the interception but was unable to capitalize on the turnover when Jeff Wilkins's 28-yard field goal attempt missed wide right. The Cowboys turned the miss into points after Julius Jones scampered in from two yards out to close an eight-play, 80-yard drive. The Rams were forced to punt on their next possession and returned the favor when Dallas was held to a three-and-out. St. Louis tied the game at 7-7 when Mat McBriar's 56-yard punt was fielded by Dante Hall and returned 85 yards for a touchdown. Romo then led the Cowboys on a 12-play, 83-yard drive that gave Dallas a 14-7 lead at the end of the first half with a 15-yard Romo touchdown scramble on third-and-10.

St. Louis punted to open the third frame before Dallas extended its advantage to 21-7 on the heels of a 59-yard Romo-to-Patrick Crayton touchdown pass. The Dallas defense forced another Rams punt which allowed Dallas to up its lead to 28-7 with a 37-yard Romo scoring toss to Crayton. Ken Hamlin stepped in front of a Marc Bulger pass in the end zone on the Rams next possession. The Cowboys capitalized on the turnover five plays later when Jason Witten caught a 17-yard Romo touchdown pass.

Gus Frerotte replaced Bulger at quarterback late in the third period and the Rams were forced to punt to open the final quarter. The teams then traded punts on the next two possessions before Dallas ran out the clock to preserve the 35-7 win.

Dallas 25, Buffalo 24

Ralph Wilson Stadium, October 8, 2007
Attendance: 71,575

The Cowboys improved to 5-0 for the first time since 1983 – sixth overall. The Cowboys defense forced a fourth-and-five, but punter Brian Moorman rushed 10 yards for a first down on a fake punt. The defense held, forcing a Moorman punt three plays later. The Cowboys suffered their first turnover of the game when Tony Romo was picked off by George Wilson who returned it 25 yards for a touchdown. Romo was intercepted by Angelo Crowell on the next possession. The Cowboys defense held Buffalo on fourth-and-one, but were forced to punt. Buffalo was forced to punt on its next possession to close out the first quarter.

Romo found Witten for a 22-yard touchdown to open the second. The Bills took a 10-7 lead with a 24-yard Rian Lindell field goal. Romo was picked off by Chris Kelsay, who batted the ball into the end zone and snagged it for another interception return for a touchdown. Jabari Greer picked Romo off for Dallas's fourth interception of the half. The Cowboys defense forced a punt, and Romo moved the Cowboys into field goal range – Nick Folk hit a 47-yarder to cut the Dallas deficit to 17-10 at the end of the half.

The Cowboys opened the third with a 29-yard Folk field goal. Terrence McGee returned the ensuing kickoff 103 yards for a touchdown to extend Buffalo's lead to 24-13. The teams traded punts to close out the quarter.

Dallas nipped into the Buffalo lead with a 37-yard Folk field goal to open the final quarter. Buffalo punted on their next possession before Kyle Williams recovered a Romo fumble. Buffalo drove to the Dallas 11-yard line before DeMarcus Ware tipped a Trent Edwards pass that Terence Newman intercepted and returned 70 yards. Romo was picked off for the fifth time – this time by John DiGiorgio. Buffalo then punted. Romo hit Patrick Crayton on a four-yard touchdown, but Dallas missed the two-point try. Folk's onside kick attempt was recovered by Tony Curtis. Romo moved Dallas to the Bills 34-yard line with two pass completions. Folk drilled a 53-yard field goal as time expired.

New England 48, Dallas 27

Texas Stadium, October 14, 2007
Attendance: 63,984

The Dallas Cowboys dropped their first game of the season 48-27 to the New England Patriots. Dallas went three-and-out on its first possession before New England drove 74 yards in 14 plays to take a 7-0 lead on a six-yard Tom Brady-to-Randy Moss touchdown toss. The Cowboys punted two more times around a Patriots punt before New England struck again when Wes Welker hauled in a 35-yard scoring toss from Brady.

The Cowboys got on the board on a 38-yard Nick Folk field goal to open the second quarter, cutting the Patriots lead to 14-3. On New England's ensuing possession, Greg Ellis sacked Brady and forced the ball loose in the process. Jason Hatcher scooped up the loose ball and returned it 29 yards for a touchdown to pull Dallas to 14-10. The Patriots answered back 12 plays later when Welker caught a 12-yard Brady scoring toss. The Cowboys responded with an eight-play, 84-yard drive that culminated with a 12-yard Tony Romo-to-Terrell Owens touchdown toss to close out the first half.

The Patriots punted to open the third period, then Dallas claimed its first lead of the game – 24-21 – on the heels of an eight-yard Patrick Crayton touchdown catch from Romo. Brady then hit Kyle Brady for a one-yard score to regain the lead for New England. The Cowboys punted before Stephen Gostkowski extended the Patriots lead to 31-24 with a 45-yard field goal.

Dallas punted to open the fourth quarter then Brady hit Donte' Stallworth for a 69-yard touchdown pass – Brady's fifth of the game. Dallas nipped into the lead with a 23-yard field goal five minutes into the final frame. Gostkowski answered with a 22-yard field goal to give the Patriots a 41-27 lead. Romo was picked off by Junior Seau on Dallas's next play from scrimmage. New England added a rushing touchdown with a one-yard Kyle Eckel touchdown rush to close out the scoring.

Dallas 24, Minnesota 14

Texas Stadium, October 21, 2007
Attendance: 63,432

The Dallas Cowboys improved their record to 6-1 going into the bye week with a 24-14 win over the Minneosta Vikings. Dallas opened the game with a 14-play, 80-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard Tony Romo touchdown toss to Terrell Owens. Minnesota responded on its first drive, taking 11 plays to tie the game with a 20-yard Adrian Peterson touchdown run.

The teams traded punts to open the second period before Romo fumbled the ball on a Kenechi Udeze sack. Kevin Williams recovered the fumble for Minnesota, but the Vikings offense was unable to capitalize on the turnover after they were forced to punt. Romo then hit Patrick Crayton, but Antoine Winfield forced the ball loose. Bel Leber recovered the loose ball then pitched it to Cedric Griffin, who returned it for a touchdown and a 14-7 Vikings lead. Dallas attempted a 50-yard Nick Folk field goal at the end of the half but the kick missed wide left.

A Dallas punt was sandwiched between two Minnesota punts to open the second half before Dallas managed a five-play, 36-yard drive that was capped by a one-yard Marion Barber touchdown rush. The Vikings were held to a 48-yard Ryan Longwell field goal that was blocked by Chris Canty. Patrick Watkins recovered the block and returned it 68 yards for a touchdown and a 21-14 Dallas advantage.

The Vikings punted to start the final quarter and Dallas followed suit. Jason Hatcher forced a Peterson fumble on Minnesota's next play from scrimmage. Bradie James recovered the loose ball for Dallas, and the Cowboys extended their advantage to 24-14 on a 45-yard Folk field goal. Minnesota punted twice and the Cowboys turned the ball over on downs before Minnesota's final attempt to cut into the Dallas lead was stopped as time expired.

Dallas 38, Philadelphia 17

Lincoln Financial Field, November 4, 2007
Attendance: 67,688

The Dallas Cowboys upped their record to 7-1 with a 38-17 win over the Philadelphia Eagles. The Dallas defense started quickly when Marcus Spears and DeMarcus Ware split a sack of Donovan McNabb on the first play of the game. On the play, Spears forced a McNabb fumble that was recovered by Bradie James at the Eagles 37-yard line. The Cowboys scored six plays later after Julius Jones pushed his way in from two yards out. Philadelphia responded with an eight-play, 75-yard drive, ending with a three-yard Brian Westbrook scoring run. The Cowboys came right back with a 72-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard Tony Curtis touchdown grab from Tony Romo.

The second frame opened with two Eagles punts sandwiched around a Cowboys punt. Romo was then picked off by Lito Sheppard the first play after the two-minute warning. Three plays later, Dallas returned the favor when Ken Hamlin stepped in front of a McNabb pass. The Cowboys took over at Philadelphia's 14-yard line, and upped their lead to 27-7 on a five-yard Marion Barber touchdown run.

To start the second half, Romo found Terrell Owens on a 45-yard scoring toss to cap off a four-play drive. The Eagles then drove 53 yards in 10 plays and pulled within 28-10 on a 36-yard David Akers field goal. Romo struck again, this time hitting Jason Witten for a 20-yard touchdown to close out a six-play, 78-yard drive. Philadelphia was then forced to punt to end the third period.

The Cowboys upped their advantage to 38-10 on the first drive of the final quarter after Nick Folk drilled a 22-yard field goal. Philadelphia responded 13 plays later when McNabb hit Hank Baskett for a 10-yard score. Dallas then punted three plays later, but Philadelphia's attempt to cut into the Dallas lead was thwarted when Anthony Henry stepped in front of a McNabb pass intended for Reggie Brown. The Cowboys then took a knee on four consecutive plays to end the game.

Dallas 31, N.Y. Giants 20

Giants Stadium, November 11, 2007
Attendance: 78,964

The Dallas Cowboys upped their record to 8-1 with a 31-20 win at the N.Y. Giants. Dallas opened the game with a seven-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 15-yard Tony Romo-to-Tony Curtis touchdown toss. The Giants responded eight plays later when Eli Manning hooked up with Jeremy Shockey for an eight-yard score. Dallas punted before Ken Hamlin intercepted Eli Manning to close out the first quarter.

Dallas upped its advantage to 10-7 on the first play of the second period after the turnover with a 44-yard Nick Folk field goal. The Giants were forced to punt before Romo was picked off by Gibril Wilson. New York capitalized on the turnover and took a 14-10 lead following an 11-play drive that culminated with a one-yard Reuben Droughns touchdown rush. The Cowboys were forced to punt three plays later, but returned the favor on New York's ensuing drive. Dallas regained the lead after Romo hooked up with Patrick Crayton on a 20-yard touchdown throw. New York tied the score just before the half on a 40-yard Lawrence Tynes field goal.

The Giants punted after three plays to start the second half before the Cowboys took a 24-17 lead following Romo's 25-yard scoring toss to Terrell Owens.

New York drove 75 yards in 16 plays and opened the fourth quarter scoring with a 26-yard Tynes field goal. The Cowboys upped their lead to 31-20 when Romo hooked up with Owens on a 50-yard touchdown pass. A Dallas punt was sandwiched between a New York punt and a turnover on downs. Dallas kept the clock running, but was forced to punt seven plays later. The Giants attempt to cut into Dallas's lead was thwarted by a Patrick Watkins interception of a Manning pass as time expired.

Dallas 28, Washington 23

Texas Stadium, November 18, 2007
Attendance: 63,706

The Dallas Cowboys upped their record to 9-1 with a 28-23 win over the Washington Redskins. The Cowboys were held to a 51-yard Nick Folk field goal attempt that was wide right on the game's first possession. Washington took a 7-0 lead after Jason Campbell hooked up with Chris Cooley for a 19-yard touchdown. Tony Romo's pass attempt for Terrell Owens was picked off by London Fletcher on Dallas's next possession. Washington was unable to capitalize on the turnover, punting three plays later. The Cowboys then punted to end the first quarter.

Shaun Suisham attempted a 49-yard field goal that was wide left to open the second period. Dallas then drove 60 yards in 13 plays to tie the score with a four-yard Romo-to-Owens scoring pass. The Redskins took a 10-7 lead into halftime after Suisham hit a 45-yard field goal as time expired.

DeMarcus Ware sacked and forced a Campbell fumble on Washington's opening drive of the second half. The Cowboys did not capitalize on the turnover, punting after three plays. Washington was forced to punt before the Cowboys took a 14-10 lead after Romo hit Owens for a 31-yard touchdown. Suisham cut the Dallas lead to 14-13 with a 39-yard field goal at the end of the period.

The Cowboys extended their lead to 21-13 early in the final frame when Romo found Owens for a 46-yard touchdown toss. The Redskins answered five plays later with a 44-yard Suisham field goal to cut their deficit to 21-16. Romo then hooked up with Owens for the fourth time – this one from 52 yards out – to give the Cowboys a 28-23 lead. Campbell constructed a 12-play, 74-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard Santana Moss touchdown catch from Campbell. Dallas was then forced to punt after three plays. As the Redskins drove for the go-ahead touchdown, Terence Newman stepped in front of Campbell's pass intended for Antwan Randle-El. In an attempt to run out the clock, the Cowboys ran three straight times, but were forced to punt. The Redskins took over with 0:34 remaining and their attempt at a last-minute touchdown was thwarted as Owens knocked down Campbell's Hail Mary pass.

Dallas 34, N.Y. Jets 3

Attendance: 63,315

The Dallas Cowboys defeated the N.Y. Jets 34-3 on Thanksgiving Day to improve to 10-1 on the season for the first time in team history. The Cowboys took the opening kickoff and a quick 7-0 lead on a Marion Barber seven-yard touchdown run. The kickoff coverage unit forced a Leon Washington fumble recovered by Courtney Brown to set Dallas up at the Jets 35. Tony Romo overthrew Terrell Owens on the next play and was intercepted by Kerry Rhodes. The teams traded punts to end the first quarter.

The Cowboys scored to open the second quarter with a Romo-to-Jason Witten 25-yard touchdown toss and a 14-0 lead. Each team punted again before Terence Newman stepped in front of a Kellen Clemens pass and returned the theft 50-yards for his first NFL interception return for a touchdown. The Jets got on the board at the end of the half with a 40-yard Mike Nugent field goal.

Nick Folk and the Cowboys added three points in the third quarter with a 46-yard field goal to stake a 24-3 advantage.

Folk connected from 27 yards out to start the fourth period. After the defense forced a punt – Romo found Owens for a 22-yard touchdown and a 34-3 lead. Romo tied Danny White's club record 29 touchdown passes in a single-season with two scoring tosses in the game. Owens's touchdown reception gave him 13 on the year which tied his season total from last season and tied the second-most touchdowns in a single-season in club history – trailing Frank Clarke's record (14) set in 1962.

Dallas 37, Green Bay 27

Texas Stadium, November 29, 2007
Attendance: 64,167

The Dallas Cowboys earned a playoff berth with a 37-27 win over the Green Bay Packers. The Packers struck first as Mason Crosby netted a 47-yard field goal. Dallas countered with a 26-yard Nick Folk field goal. After a Packers punt, Folk hit a 51-yarder to give Dallas a 6-3 edge. Tony Romo hit Patrick Crayton for a three-yard touchdown reception after Ken Hamlin picked off a Brett Favre pass. The Packers quickly answered when Ryan Grant ripped off a 62-yard touchdown run to cut the lead to 13-10 as the first quarter came to a close.

To open the second quarter, Romo found Anthony Fasano open for his first career touchdown reception from 26 yards out, giving Dallas a 20-10. Terence Newman picked off a Favre pass that led to a 10-yard Terrell Owens touchdown grab from Romo, putting Dallas up 27-10. Aaron Rodgers took the field in place of an injured Favre and led Green Bay to a late second quarter touchdown, connecting with Greg Jennings for an 11-yard touchdown pass before the half.

The Packers chipped away at the Dallas lead, as Grant scored on a one-yard touchdown plunge to cut the deficit to 27-24.

Romo hooked up with Crayton from four yards out to nudge Dallas to a 34-24 lead in the fourth quarter. Green Bay's Crosby converted a 52-yard field goal, but Dallas sealed the game with Folk's third field goal of the day – this from 25 yards. Romo's three-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter established a team record for touchdown passes in a season, snapping a tie with Danny White who held the previous club record of 29 from 1983.

Dallas 28, Detroit 27

Ford Field, December 9, 2007
Attendance: 62,759

The Dallas Cowboys clinched their 16th NFC East title with a 28-27 win over the Detroit Lions.

The Cowboys took the opening drive to the Lions 32-yard line, setting up a 50-yard Nick Folk field goal attempt that missed wide left. Detroit got on the scoreboard first as T.J. Duckett ran for a 32-yard touchdown. The Lions upped their lead to 10-0 on a 19-yard Jason Hanson field goal.

Dallas answered on the ensuing drive when Marion Barber broke free for a 20-yard touchdown run cutting Dallas's deficit to 10-7. The Lions scored on consecutive possessions as Hanson netted another field goal – this time from 36 yards – followed by a two-yard Kevin Jones run to build Detroit's lead to 20-7. With less than two minutes remaining in the first half, the Cowboys offense drove 65 yards in seven plays and capitalized on the drive when Tony Romo lofted an eight-yard pass to Barber to trim the lead to 20-14 heading into halftime.

Jones scored his second touchdown of the day in the third quarter, upping Detroit's lead to 27-14 to provide the only scoring of the quarter.

Barber countered with his third touchdown of the day – a one-yard rushing plunge – that cut the Lions lead to six points, 27-21, in the fourth quarter. A 35-yard field goal attempt by Hanson sailed wide right on the Lions next drive, giving way for the Cowboys attempt to take their first lead of the day. Jason Witten fumbled at the Lions one-yard line, giving the ball back to the Lions with 5:47 remaining. The Dallas defense forced Detroit to punt, and Romo led the Cowboys on an 11-play, 83-yard drive that ended with a game-winning touchdown pass to Witten from 16 yards out with :18 seconds remaining.

Philadelphia 10, Dallas 6

Texas Stadium, December 16, 2007
Attendance: 63,777

The Dallas Cowboys dropped to 12-2 after a 10-6 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles. Dallas still managed to clinch a first round bye in the playoffs with a loss by the Seattle Seahawks. After a scoreless first quarter, the Cowboys put the first points on the board in the second quarter when Nick Folk connected on a 33-yard field goal. Philadelphia countered in the waning minutes of the first half as Donovan McNabb drove the Eagles down to the Dallas one-yard line and hit Reggie Brown for a touchdown to put Philadelphia up 7-3 heading into halftime.

Folk would help trim the Eagles lead to 7-6 after hitting his second field goal of the day – a 23-yarder – to provide the only scoring by either team in the third quarter.

Philadelphia answered to open the fourth quarter, as David Akers connected on a 21-yard field goal to extend the Eagles lead to 10-6. Following the Eagles score, both teams traded two punts each until Dallas reclaimed the ball with 7:43 remaining in the game. After starting the drive from their own 12-yard line, Tony Romo led the Cowboys to their own 42-yard line where Romo hit Jason Witten for four yards on a fourth-and-two to give Dallas a fresh set of downs. However, on the next two plays Romo was sacked and then threw an interception to Brian Dawkins, allowing Philadelphia to reclaim possession with 2:50 remaining. After a successful 29-yard pass by McNabb to Brent Celek on third-and-nine, Brian Westbrook ran 24 yards on the next play and stopped at the one-yard line as the Eagles ran out the clock for the final 10-6 margin.

Dallas 20, Carolina 13

Bank of America Stadium
December 22, 2007, Attendance: 73,860

The Dallas Cowboys claimed their team-record tying 13th win of the season with a 20-13 victory at the Carolina Panthers.

Dallas took the opening possession 39 yards before being forced to punt. Carolina then punted five plays later. Tony Romo led Dallas on a 13-play, 70-yard drive that was capped off by a 10-yard Terrell Owens touchdown catch. The Dallas defense forced a three-and-out to end the first quater.

Dallas was forced to punt to open the second quarter before a Carolina punt. The Cowboys extended their lead to 14-0 when Marion Barber rushed in from five yards out to cap off an eight-play, 75-yard drive. Matt Moore got the Panthers on the board with an 11-yard scoring toss to Steve Smith that closed out a three-play, 63-yard drive. Romo drove the Cowboys into field goal range which allowed Nick Folk to convert a 42-yard try, upping Dallas's lead to 17-7. Moore was picked off by Anthony Henry two plays later, setting Dallas up at midfield with 1:32 remaining. The Cowboys were unable to capitalize on the turnover as time expired in the half.

Carolina took the opening possession of the third period 36 yards in 12 plays to set up a 37-yard John Kasay field goal, cutting the Panthers deficit to 17-10. Dallas was forced to punt then returned the favor to close out the third frame.

Romo was picked off by Thomas Davis to start the final quarter. The Panthers were unable to add any points following the turnover, punting three plays later. The Cowboys upped their lead to 20-10 on the heels of a 23-yard Folk field goal. The teams once again traded punts before Carolina tacked on a 25-yard Kasay field goal after driving 60 yards in nine plays. Dallas then ran out the clock on its ensuing possession.

Washington 27, Dallas 6

FedEx Field, December 30, 2007
Attendance: 90,910

The Dallas Cowboys closed out the season with a 27-6 loss at the Washington Redskins. The Redskins moved the opening possession to the Dallas 37-yard line before having to punt. The Cowboys were held to a three-and-out before Washington got on the board with a 23-yard Clinton Portis touchdown run to cap off a five-play, 73-yard drive. Tony Romo was intercepted by Shawn Springs on Dallas's next offensive play. Washington was unable to capitalize on the turnover after DeMarcus Ware forced a Portis fumble that was recovered by Bradie James. Dallas then punted three plays later.

The Redskins upped their lead to 10-0 on a 46-yard Shaun Suisham field goal to open the second frame. The Cowboys drove to the Washington 10-yard line before a 28-yard Nick Folk field goal attempt sailed wide right. Ware sacked Todd Collins two plays later and forced a fumble that was recovered by Tank Johnson. Dallas got on the board four plays later after Folk drilled a 37-yard field goal. The two teams traded punts before Suisham split the uprights with a 21-yard field goal to give the Redskins a 13-3 lead at the end of the half.

The Cowboys were forced to punt to start the third period before Washington increased its advantage to 20-3 after Portis rushed in from one yard out to cap off a 12-play, 63-yard drive. Dallas was then forced to punt on its final possession of the quarter.

The Redskins punted on the first play of the final frame before Dallas was forced to punt on another three-and-out series. Collins then hit Santana Moss two plays later on a 42-yard touchdown throw to give the Redskins a 27-3 lead. Dallas answered seven plays later with a 30-yard Folk field goal. A Redskins punt was sandwiched between two Dallas punts before Washington took over with 1:25 remaining only to run out the clock to preserve the 27-6 win.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game

N. Y. Giants 21, Dallas 17

Texas Stadium, January 13, 2008
Attendance: 63,660

The Dallas Cowboys saw their season come to a close with a 21-17 loss to the N.Y. Giants in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game. The Giants took an early lead on their opening drive when Eli Manning hit Amani Toomer on a 13-yard toss that Toomer turned into a 52-yard touchdown catch-and-run. Dallas punted on its first possession before forcing a New York punt.

The Cowboys tied the game on the first play of the second quarter with a five-yard Tony Romo-to-Terrell Owens touchdown toss that capped off a nine-play, 96-yard drive. The Giants were forced to punt on their next possession before Dallas took a 14-7 lead. Marion Barber closed out a 20-play, 90-yard drive that ate 10:28 of the second quarter with a one-yard scoring plunge. The Giants regained possession with 0:47 remaining in the half and drove to the Dallas four-yard line – aided by a 15-yard face mask penalty – to knot the game at 14-14 with a four-yard Toomer scoring catch from Manning.

Romo guided the Cowboys on a 14-play, 62-yard drive to open the second quarter that was capped off by a 34-yard Nick Folk field goal. New York managed a first down before punting. Dallas was forced to punt after four plays. R.W. McQuarters returned the Dallas punt 25 yards to the Cowboys 37-yard line.

McQuarters's return helped setup a Brandon Jacobs one-yard touchdown run to open the final frame. The teams then each punted two times before Dallas took over at the Giants 48-yard line with 1:50 remaining. On a last-ditch effort to score the game-winning touchdown with 0:16 left, Romo's pass intended for Terry Glenn in the end zone was intercepted by McQuarters. Manning then took a knee to run out the clock.

Cowboys in the Hall of Fame

Ten members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, have been elected based on their accomplishments with the Cowboys – Bob Lilly in 1980, Roger Staubach in 1985, Tom Landry in 1990, Tex Schramm in 1991, Tony Dorsett and Randy White in 1994, Mel Renfro in 1996 and Troy Aikman and Rayfield Wright in 2006 and Michael Irvin in 2007. In addition, six other players with ties to the Cowboys have also been enshrined in Canton: Herb Adderley, Lance Alworth, Mike Ditka, Forrest Gregg, Tommy McDonald, and Jackie Smith.

8 ★ TROY AIKMAN ★
Quarterback, 1989-2000
INDUCTED – 2006

In 12 NFL seasons, Troy Aikman became one of the game's great quarterbacks. As just the third player in NFL history to lead a team to three Super Bowl victories, Aikman rewrote virtually every passing record in Cowboys' history. He closed his career with 94 regular season wins, including 90 in the decade of the 1990s – making him the winningest starting quarterback of any decade in NFL history (Joe Montana held the record with 86 wins in the 1980s).

Along with that mark, Aikman holds or is tied for 47 Dallas passing records, including the club's career records for attempts (4,715), completions (2,898), passing yards (32,942), touchdowns (165) and completion percentage (61.5% – third best in NFL history at the time of his retirement). He also posted a club-high 13 regular season 300-yard passing games during his career.

Along the way to these marks, Aikman guided Dallas from the cellar of 1-15 in 1989 to six NFC East titles (1992-96 and 1998), four NFC Championship Games (1992-95) and three Super Bowl titles (XXVII, XXVIII and XXX). He was one of the game's most accurate passers, completing at least 60 percent of his passes in 98-of-165 career games. In the postseason, he reached the 60% completion mark in 12-of-16 games. He completed 70 percent or more of his passes 42 times in his career, with Dallas posting a 37-5 record in those games, and he produced the top six single-season completion percentages in club history.

With his passing accuracy, Aikman was able to establish a club-record with a career interception rate of 2.99%. Although not known for his fleet feet, Aikman successfully ran for a first down 49-of-72 times on third or fourth down during career. That ability to avoid the sack also allowed him to post the highest career pass attempts per sack ratio (19.2) in team history. Despite winning just one of his first 15 NFL starts, Aikman went on to start a club-record 180 games (165 regular season) at quarterback and post a 105-75 (.583) record, which includes an impeccable 11-4 mark in the postseason – 3-0 in the Super Bowl.

For his career, Aikman led the Cowboys from behind 16 times in the fourth quarter, including six times in the final two minutes. Another six times, he led the team to wins after the score was tied in the fourth quarter. Five of his game-winning drives came in overtime.

In the postseason Aikman truly shined. His four 300-yard passing days were the third best total in NFL history, and he holds the club records for postseason pass attempts (502), completions (320), yards (3,849), and completion percentage (63.7%). In addition, Aikman's 23 career postseason passing touchdowns was just one shy of Staubach's club record of 24.

The first overall choice in the 1989 draft out of UCLA, Aikman completed 64.8 percent of his passes for 5,298 yards and 41 touchdowns while throwing only 17 interceptions in two seasons as the starter. He finished his career as the third rated passer in NCAA history. The All-America led the Bruins to a 20-4 record, including wins in the 1987 Aloha Bowl and the 1989 Cotton Bowl. He transferred to UCLA after two seasons at Oklahoma (1984-85).

Aikman was born Nov. 21, 1966 in West Covina, Calif.

AIKMAN'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 6-Time Pro Bowl
- ★ MVP of Super Bowl XXVII
- ★ Super Bowl XXVII, XXVIII and XXX titles
- ★ 3 NFC Titles
- ★ 6 NFC East Titles
- ★ 1997 NFL Man of the Year
- ★ Holds or is tied for 47 club passing records
- ★ UCLA Hall of Fame

33 ★ TONY DORSETT ★
Running Back, 1977-87
INDUCTED – 1994

Tony Dorsett arrived in Dallas in 1977 via a draft-day deal the Cowboys swung with the Seattle Seahawks for the sole intention of selecting the Heisman Trophy winner from the University of Pittsburgh. Then Cowboys president and General Manager Tex Schramm paid what seemed like a bundle for the right to draft Dorsett: One first-round, and three second-round choices. As his 11-career turned out in Dallas, a steal of a deal for an eventual Pro Football Hall of Fame player.

The Dorsett deal paid dividends in his very first year with the Cowboys, the four-time All-American picking up where he left off in college, rushing for 1,007 yards to earn NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors and set the rushing bar for rookie running backs in Dallas.

"A lot of the people said I wouldn't last in this league," Dorsett said in 1987. "I was the skinny little kid from Aliquippa, Pa., who wasn't supposed to make it."

Dorsett did make it, in fact he became one of the greatest running backs in NFL history. On Sept. 26, 1988 while playing his final NFL season with the Denver Broncos, Dorsett moved into second place on the NFL all-time rushing list with 12,306 rushing yards, and eventually finished his career with 12,739 yards. At the time, Dorsett trailed only Walter Payton when he retired after suffering a knee injury the following summer, but now ranks fifth behind Payton, Emmitt Smith, Barry Sanders and Eric Dickerson.

By the time Dorsett completed his 12-year career, he had collected a victory in Super Bowl XII, four Pro Bowl selections, one All-Pro honor and three All-NFC selections.

One of the most notable moments of Dorsett's career came on Jan. 2, 1983, before a Monday Night Football television audience playing against the Minnesota Vikings. Dorsett received a handoff from quarterback Danny White and proceeded to run 99-yards for a touchdown, thus recording an unbreakable NFL record. Dorsett's greatest season came in 1981 when he rushed for 1,646 yards, a franchise record at the time, a total that now ranks third to only Emmitt Smith's two, 1,700-yard seasons.

"When he came to us, we hadn't had a strong running attack for about three years," Hall of Fame quarterback Roger Staubach once said. "Tony Dorsett is one of the greatest backs in NFL history."

Dorsett was the Heisman Trophy winner in 1976 and was the first Pitt football player to have his jersey retired. Dorsett left Pitt as a four-time All-American and four-time 1,000-yard rusher. His final collegiate highlight was a 27-3 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to claim the national title.

In 1994 Dorsett became the ninth Cowboys player inducted into the Ring of Honor, and that same year he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

He was born April 7, 1954, in Rochester, Pa.

88 ★ MICHAEL IRVIN ★
Wide Receiver, 1988-99
INDUCTED – 2007

Despite having his career cut short due to a spine injury, Michael Irvin left the NFL following the 1999 season owning or tied for 20 Cowboys receiving records. Those marks included career receptions (750), yardage (11,904) and 100-yard receiving games (47). During his illustrious career, Irvin also etched his name in the NFL record books. In league history, only Jerry Rice (12) and Steve Largent (8) had recorded more 1,000-yard receiving seasons than the seven produced by Irvin at the time of his retirement. His 11 100-yard receiving games during the 1995 season is still the NFL standard, as is the seven consecutive 100-yard games he produced that same year. Irvin's 47 career 100-yard receiving games still stands as the third most in NFL history, behind Rice (65) and Don Maynard (50), and the Cowboys posted a 36-11 record when Irvin topped the 100-yard mark. In the 1990s, Irvin's consistent ability to achieve at the highest level established his place among the game's elite receivers. He finished his career tied with Charlie Joiner for tenth in NFL history on the all-time reception list, and he was ninth in league history in receiving yardage.

Irvin was selected to five Pro Bowls between 1991-98, giving him two more Pro Bowl appearances than any other wide receiver in club history. He is the only Cowboys player to top 75 catches in five straight seasons (1991-1995), and his reception and yardage totals for six of the years between 1991-98 represent six of the top nine single-season performances in club history: 1997 (75 receptions for 1,180 yards); 1995 (111 for 1,603); 1994 (79 for 1,241), 1993 (88 for 1,330), 1992 (78 for 1,396) and 1991 (93 for 1,523). Irvin also stands alone as the club record holder in terms of most consecutive seasons leading the team in receptions (eight, 1991-98) and most total seasons leading the club in receptions (eight). He led or tied for the team lead in catches in 85 of his last 130 regular season games. Including playoff games, he had a catch of 20-yards-or-more in 121 of the 175 NFL games he played. Irvin's career receiving average of 15.9 is the fourth highest in team history, and he is second on the club's all-time receiving touchdown list with 65 - trailing only Bob Hayes (71).

Of his 750 career regular season catches, 95 went for 20-29 yards, 38 for 30-39, 18 for 40-49, 10 for 50-59 and nine for 60 yards-or-more. After entering the League in 1988, he started 147-of-159 regular season games (163-of-175 including playoffs). Irvin did not miss a start due to injury after the 1990 season, when he was overcoming a 1989 knee injury. Always a clutch performer, he became Troy Aikman's go-to-guy on third or fourth down and prospered, leading the team in catches on third or fourth down for first downs in '92 (22), '93 (16), '94 (20), '95 (27), '97 (23) and '98 (16). He had 165 first down catches on third or fourth down in his last 121 games and 185 after returning from the knee injury in 1990.

His performance in the postseason was every bit as impressive as his consistent play throughout the regular season. His six career 100-yard receiving days in the postseason are two shy of the NFL mark of eight by Jerry Rice. Irvin's 87 postseason receptions place him second in NFL playoff history behind Rice (151) and his 1,315 postseason receiving yards also ranks second in league annals behind Rice (2,245).

Irvin was the 11th overall choice in 1988 draft out of Miami, Florida, where in just three seasons as a starter he set career records for catches (143), receiving yards (2,423) and touchdown receptions (26).

Irvin was born March 3, 1966.

IRVIN'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 5-Time Pro Bowler
- ★ Super Bowl XXVII, XXVIII and XXX titles
- ★ 3 NFC Titles
- ★ 6 NFC East Titles
- ★ Holds or ties for 20 club receiving records
- ★ 1991 NFL Alumni Wide Receiver of the Year
- ★ 1992 Pro Bowl Most Valuable Player
- ★ Set an NFL record with 11 100-yard receiving games in 1995

★ TOM LANDRY ★
Head Coach, 1960-88
INDUCTED – 1990

Tom Landry paced the sidelines as the "only head coach" in Dallas Cowboys history for 29 years in his trademark fedora. By the time Landry's coaching career ended following the 1988 season, he had compiled a 270-178-6 record, the third most wins in NFL history.

That distinguished career was good enough for Landry to gain entry into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990 and the Cowboys Ring of Honor in 1993, thanks to leading the Cowboys to two Super Bowl titles, five Super Bowl appearances, five NFC Championships, 13 division titles and an incredible 20 consecutive winning seasons.

"This team has always played for me," Landry said. "That was the key to why I continued coaching. If they wouldn't play for me, I would have been out a long time ago. They always played hard and tried hard."

Landry's head coaching career did not start out very smoothly, coming over from the N.Y. Giants staff to take over the expansion Cowboys in 1960. That first year ended with an 0-11-1 in 1960, the tie coming against Landry's former team the Giants, preventing the Cowboys from going winless. The Cowboys went on to suffer through losing seasons in the first five years, before going 7-7 in 1965.

But from that point on, Landry turned the franchise into "America's Team," the Cowboys reeling off 20 consecutive winning seasons from 1966-85, one of the longest winning streaks in all of professional sports.

As a player-coach with the Giants before coming to the Cowboys, Landry helped to develop what would eventually become a base defense in the NFL, the 4-3. It was innovations like this that caught the attention of Cowboys owner Clint Murchison Jr. and president Tex Schramm when it came time to select the franchise's first head coach.

As head coach of the Cowboys, Landry introduced more innovations to the game, including offensive motion. Very seldom did the Cowboys run a play from the formation they initially lined up in after breaking the huddle. Landry brought back the shotgun formation, popularized situational substitutions and concocted the "Flex" defense.

Walking the sidelines characteristically stoic, Landry was always thinking a couple of plays ahead and what the long-term effects of each play he called might be. He coached football as if it were a chess match, positioning his team in the best way to win in the end. And in the end, no one coached with more success for a longer period of time than Landry. That success was the impetus for Landry's induction into Pro Football Hall of Fame less than two years after he coached his last game.

The legendary coach, born Sept. 11, 1924, in Mission, Texas, died Feb. 12, 2000 of leukemia.

LANDRY'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 20 Consecutive Winning Seasons (1966-85)
- ★ Super Bowl VI and XII Titles
- ★ 2 NFL Championship game appearances
- ★ 5 NFC Titles
- ★ 13 Divisional Titles
- ★ 1966 NFL Coach of the Year

74 ★ BOB LILLY ★
Defensive Tackle, 1961-74
INDUCTED – 1980

Before earning the nickname "Mr. Cowboy," Bob Lilly was the first player ever drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1961. So it is fitting that Lilly not only became the first Cowboys player inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1975, but also became the franchise's first player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980.

During the course of 14 seasons with the Cowboys, Lilly was named Rookie of the Year in 1961, was selected to the Pro Bowl a club-record 11-times – 10 consecutive selections between 1964-74 – was named to the All-Pro team seven times and played in two Super Bowls, including the club's very first Super Bowl victory, 24-3 over Miami in Super Bowl VI.

As the foundation of the famed "Doomsday Defense," Lilly's intensity was readily apparent in an infamous scene after the Cowboys Super Bowl V loss to the Baltimore Colts when he ripped his helmet off and hurled it into the air. The following year, the Lilly-led Cowboys defense held Miami to only a field goal in Super Bowl VI, the fewest points every given up in Super Bowl history.

"The competition is what I love," Lilly once said. "That makes me a lot more intense. Personalities don't enter into it at all. My objective is to get the man with the ball. Nobody better get in my way."

Lilly is the Cowboys' all-time leader in consecutive games played at 196, is tied for second with 14 seasons played and second all-time with 194 games started. Lilly led the Cowboys in sacks three consecutive years, beginning with his rookie season.

"A man like that comes along once in a lifetime," late Cowboys head coach Tom Landry said in 1972. "He is something a little bit more than great. Nobody is better than Bob Lilly."

Lilly was a two-time All-American defensive end at Texas Christian University and a two-time all-Southwest Conference team selection.

He was born July 26, 1939, in Olney, Texas.

LILLY'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 11-Time Pro Bowl (Franchise Record)
- ★ 7-Time All-Pro
- ★ NFL 75th Anniversary Team
- ★ AFL-NFL 25-year Anniversary Team
- ★ National Football Foundation Hall of Fame
- ★ Super Bowl VI Title

- ★ College Football Hall of Fame

Bob Lilly was the first Cowboys player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980.

20 ★ MEL RENFRO ★
Defensive Back, 1964-77
INDUCTED – 1996

Mel Renfro first came to the Cowboys a highly-acclaimed running back out of the University of Oregon. But Cowboys head coach Tom Landry saw Renfro as a defensive back when they selected him in the second round of the 1964 draft.

And what a defensive back he was, becoming arguably the best safety-cornerback during his 14-year career to ever play for the Cowboys, and one of the best to ever play in the NFL. His 52 career interceptions and 26.4-yard career kickoff-return average still stand as team records, both a tribute to his running ability.

The NFL certainly got to know Renfro in a hurry, having been elected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first 10 seasons in the NFL – the first six at free safety and the final four at cornerback. His 10 Pro Bowl appearances is second to only Bob Lilly's 11 for the Cowboys.

On top of his 10 Pro Bowls, Renfro was a four-time All-Pro, playing in four Super Bowls and eight NFC Championships. He became the fifth member of the exclusive Ring of Honor in 1981, and was finally elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996 in his 14th year of eligibility.

Renfro's 14 seasons with the Dallas Cowboys ties him for second in club history, just one shy of the record.

While at Oregon, Renfro led the team in rushing three consecutive years and was a two-time All-American. Despite coming to the NFL as an acclaimed runner, Renfro only ran the ball eight times during his career, all in 1966. Landry saw a free safety first, Renfro spending his first six seasons at safety and the final eight at corner.

In the middle of Renfro's All-Pro 1969 season, Landry was uncharacteristically complimentary toward one of his players, calling him "the best in the league at free safety."

But the Cowboys certainly figured out a way to capitalize on Renfro's running ability, having him return punts and kickoffs early in his career. He led the NFL in kickoff and punt returns his rookie season, and had seven interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. Renfro still is tied for the franchise lead with two career touchdown returns, and his 30-yard kick-off return average in 1965 still remains as the single-season high.

But it was interceptions Renfro was best known for during his career. In his first six years at free safety, Renfro totaled 30 interceptions. His interception totals declined somewhat when Landry moved him to cornerback for good in 1970. The decline had more to do with quarterbacks' reluctance to throw his way than any diminishing skills or quickness. His 626 interception return yards still stands as a career record for the Cowboys.

That 1971 Pro Bowl possibly was the greatest indication of Renfro's all-round ability. Not only did he play cornerback, but be also returned two punts for touchdowns, leading the NFC to a 27-6 win and earning the game's Most Valuable Player award.

He was born Dec. 30, 1941, in Houston, Texas.

RENFRO'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 4-Time All-Pro
- ★ 10-Time Pro Bowl
- ★ 3-Time All-NFC
- ★ Cowboys Career Record 52 interceptions
- ★ Cowboys Career Record 26.4-yard kickoff-return average
- ★ Cowboys Career Record 626 interception return yards

★ TEX SCHRAMM ★
Cowboys President and General Manager
1959-1989
INDUCTED – 1991

Texas Earnest Schramm Jr., better known as "Tex," rose to Professional Football Hall of Fame status during his 29 seasons as president and general manager of the Dallas Cowboys, turning a 1960 expansion franchise in Dallas into one of the most successful franchises in NFL history.

With Schramm overseeing the birth and growth of the Cowboys organization, the team reached five Super Bowls, winning two, made 18 playoff appearances and compiled an NFL-record 20 consecutive winning seasons, one of the longest such streaks in all of professional sports.

Schramm was an NFL pioneer and innovator. Under his watch, the Dallas Cowboys were always on the cutting edge with revolutionary ideas and visions. He was instrumental in creating the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, the first of their kind in professional football, developing the Cowboys' Ring of Honor and bringing an annual Cowboys Thanksgiving Day game to the nation.

Schramm's work was not just focused on the Dallas Cowboys, as his tireless efforts changed the face of the entire NFL. He was a driving force behind the development and implementation of instant replay, giving the head referee a microphone for penalty announcements, shortening the play-clock and helping to develop the wild-card playoff system.

A tough negotiator, Schramm was the engineer in building the Cowboys foundation from the ground up. His tough stance in labor negotiations was also evident in his support for using replacement players during the 1987 NFL strike. After just three weeks, the move proved successful and the players returned to work. The benefits of this would be apparent in future years as lasting labor peace was reached with the NFL Players Association in 1992 and has continued since.

His position as chairman of the NFL Competition Committee from 1966 to 1988 aided his innovative efforts. Schramm's impact on the league was widespread, and probably his most cherished legacy since the one-time TV-executive at CBS who first came up with the idea of televising the Winter Olympics in 1960 from Squaw Valley was such a firm believer in preserving and making history.

One of Schramm's most significant accomplishments in the NFL was coordinating the merger of the established NFL and the fledging American Football League in 1966, holding what amounted to as secret meetings with Kansas City Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt at the insistence of NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

The merger of the two warring leagues led to what became known as the Super Bowl, and when the leagues combined in 1970, the most powerful sports league in the world.

After Schramm departed the Cowboys in 1989 when Jerry Jones bought the club, he went international, becoming president of the upstart World League of American Football, later to become know as NFL Europe. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991.

"I'm not one of the great athletes like the men behind me," a jubilant Schramm said during his Hall of Fame induction speech. "But I'm thrilled to be standing in front of them. Many of the men in here were my heroes. To be rubbing shoulders with them, it's beyond my comprehension."

In all, Schramm spent 44 years of his life in professional football, starting as a sportswriter for the Austin American-Statesman in 1947 – a natural step for the California-born Schramm who earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Texas. Schramm spent 10 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (1947-56), where Schramm first came in contact with Rozelle, who Schramm hired to be the Rams public relations director in 1952. Schramm then spent a brief period (1957-59) at CBS before being hired by Clint Murchison in 1959 to oversee the startup of the Dallas expansion franchise.

Schramm was born on June 2, 1920, in San Gabriel, Calif.

TEX SCHRAMM'S NFL LEGACY

During Schramm's 25 years as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee, the NFL implemented the following:

Year	Contribution
1970	Moved the official game time to the scoreboard clock
1972	Moved the hash marks toward the center of the field to aid offense
1974	Implemented stricter pass defense rules to influence scoring
1974	Moved goalposts from the goal line to the end line for safety and to help offensive play
1974	Developed the sudden-death overtime concept for breaking ties
1975	Gave the referee a microphone to announce calls to the crowd and TV audiences
1977	Made defensive linemen's head slaps illegal
1979	Implemented the in-the-grasp rule to protect quarterbacks
1986	Instituted Instant Replay to aid officials

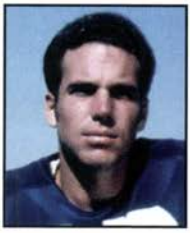
★ ROGER STAUBACH ★ 12
Quarterback, 1969-79
INDUCTED – 1985



Good things come to those who wait, and certainly the Dallas Cowboys patience in the mid-60's was supremely rewarded, landing one of the best players in franchise history because they were willing to wait for Roger Staubach to fulfill his military commitment.

For that five years of patience, the Cowboys landed the guy who became better know as "Roger The Dodger" over the next 11 years when he was selected to six Pro Bowls – including five consecutively – and was named the NFL Players Association Most Valuable Player in 1971. Staubach led the NFL in passing four times and was selected to the All-NFC team four times.

"He is one of the finest to ever play the game," Green Bay Packers Quarterback Bart Starr once said of Staubach. "I think if I had some of that Staubach competitiveness, I'd have been much better."

Staubach, the 1963 Heisman Trophy winner, was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in 1964 from the Naval Academy, but did not join the team until 1969 due to his Navy commitment. Former president and general manager Tex Schramm signed Staubach to a futures contract in a hotel room in 1964, actually scribbling out the details on a legal-sized tablet that would have Staubach paid annually to participate in training camp practices when he had enough leave built up.

The 1963 Heisman Trophy winner showed up in Dallas as a 27-year-old rookie, but in those 11 seasons still managed to carve out the franchise's all-time leading quarterback rating of 83.42 and became a four-time NFL passing champion. But Staubach almost became better known for his scrambling ability, and to this day ranks eighth on the Cowboys' all-time rushing list with 2,264 yards.

Staubach owns the second-most passing yards in club history, 22,700, and his 3,586 in 1979 still ranks as the second most passing yards in a single season for the Cowboys. He also still leads the club with a career average of 7.67 yards per attempt, and his three 300-yard passing performances in 1979 has him tied for the single-season lead with Don Meredith and Danny White.

Staubach also become known as "Captain Comeback" for his 23 fourth-quarter come-from-behind victories in regular season and playoff games, including 14 in the final two minutes or overtime. Never was this more apparent than in a 1975 playoff game against the Minnesota Vikings when Staubach connected with wide receiver Drew Pearson on a desperation 50-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs.

"You could never defeat Roger mentally or physically," late Cowboys head coach Tom Landry said in 1983. "He was like that in a game, in practice, or in the business world."

Staubach ended his Cowboys career with four Super Bowl appearances, including wins in Super Bowls VI and XII. In Super Bowl VI, Staubach was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Following the 1979 season, Staubach retired, fearing the after-effects of recurring concussions.

In 1983, Staubach became the sixth member of the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor and two years later was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

He was born Feb. 5, 1942, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

★ RANDY WHITE ★
Defensive Tackle, 1975-88

54

Randy White came to the Cowboys from the University of Maryland as the No. 2 pick in the 1975 NFL Draft. Before his career was over, 14 years later, he would become known as the "Manster" – half man, half defensive monster – setting numerous franchise records as the heart-and-soul of the famed "Doomsday Defense".

White struggled in his first two years with the Cowboys when then head coach Tom Landry moved White from his familiar defensive tackle position to linebacker. But, after Landry moved White back to right tackle in 1977, White became one of the NFL's most dominating defensive linemen and a coveted co-Super Bowl MVP.

"Coming out of college a lot was expected of me," White said. "But I never did feel comfortable playing linebacker. Those first two years I was fighting for my life out there. Then they switched me to defensive tackle, where I was a lot more comfortable and from there my career took off."

White played 14 seasons, tying him for second all-time in franchise history, and he set a franchise record with eight All-Pro selections. White also was selected to nine Pro Bowls, ranking third in franchise history for Pro Bowl appearances. White's 16 sacks in 1978 rank third in franchise history for a single season, and he still remains third all-time in career tackles with 1,104 and second with 701 career solo tackles.

"His performances range anywhere from spectacular to spectacular," Landry once said. "He could outmatch anybody's intensity from game to game."

In his career, White played in six NFC Championship Games and three Super Bowls, claiming victory in Super Bowl XII and co-MVP honors with teammate Harvey Martin. Even more astounding, White only missed one game in his 14-year career.

In 1994, White was inducted into the Ring of Honor with teammate Tony Dorsett, the same year he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

"Any honor I receive is a reflection on the great teammates and coaches I had in my career," White said. "There's a real special group of guys with the Cowboys, and to be a part of that was a great honor."

He was born Jan. 15, 1953, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

WHITE'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 9-Time Pro Bowl
- ★ 8-Time All-Pro
- ★ Co-MVP Super Bowl XII
- ★ 1978 Defensive Player of the Year
- ★ 1982 NFL Defensive Lineman of the Year
- ★ Super Bowl XII Title

★ RAYFIELD WRIGHT ★ 70
Offensive Tackle, 1967-79
INDUCTED – 2006

Only nine players have played football for the Dallas Cowboys longer than Rayfield Wright, and only five players in the history of the Cowboys organization have been to more Pro Bowls than Wright's six.

After playing tight end, tackle and defensive end during his first three NFL seasons, Wright settled in at right tackle in 1970. Before undergoing knee surgery that forced him to miss most of the 1977 season, Wright was acknowledged as the NFL's premier offensive tackle. Wright was selected to six straight Pro Bowls (1971-76) as a tackle while earning All-Pro honors four times and earning recognition on the NFL's all-decade team for the 1970's.

During each of his 13 seasons, the Cowboys offense ranked in the top six in the NFL for total offense, including leading the league five times. Behind his blocking, Calvin Hill became the first 1,000 yard rusher in team history when he ran for 1,036 yards in 1972. All totaled, Dallas had a running back clear the 1,000 yard barrier five times during his tenure. Also behind his blocking, Roger Staubach became the first quarterback in franchise history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in a season when he totaled 3,190 passing yards in 1978, the year Wright returned from his knee surgery.

In his 13-year NFL career with the Dallas Cowboys, Wright was a key contributor to teams that had 13 straight winning seasons, made 12 playoff trips and won 10 division titles. He also played in eight conference championship games and won five NFC Championships (1970, 1971, 1975, 1977, 1978) and two Super Bowls (VI and XII). He was part of a team that had a 74.1% winning percentage in the regular season (137-48-1) and a 60.0% winning percentage in the post season (15-10).

During his 13 seasons, Wright was a participant in five Super Bowls, claiming the ultimate prize twice. Only one other player in NFL history has appeared in more Super Bowls than Wright, he is one of only 13 players in NFL history, and the only offensive tackle, to have played in five Super Bowls.

During Wright's career, the Cowboys were the only team to play in five Super Bowls in one calendar decade – or in any ten year period of time – advancing to the Super Bowl following the 1970, 1971 1975, 1977 and 1978 seasons.

Rayfield Wright was inducted into the Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor on October 10, 2004, joining Bob Lilly, Don Meredith, Don Perkins, Chuck Howley, Mel Renfro, Roger Staubach, Lee Roy Jordan, Randy White, Tony Dorsett, Tom Landry, Bob Hayes, Tex Schramm and Cliff Harris. Troy Aikman, Michael Irvin and Emmitt Smith were inducted in 2005.

He was born August 23, 1945, in Griffin, Ga.

WRIGHT'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- ★ 6-time Pro Bowl selection
- ★ 4-time All Pro
- ★ Super Bowl VI and XII titles
- ★ 5 NFC Championships
- ★ 10 Division Titles
- ★ 1970's member of NFL's All-Decade Team

Rayfield Wright became the first Cowboys offensive lineman selected to both the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Ring of Honor at Texas Stadium.*

Ring of Honor

The Cowboys honor those who made outstanding contributions to the club by inducting them into the Ring of Honor at Texas Stadium. Their names and the years of service are prominently displayed in silver on the wall above the Cowboys' bench at Texas Stadium. Members of the Cowboys Ring of Honor:

★ TROY AIKMAN ★
Quarterback, 1989-2000

Troy Aikman joined the Cowboys as the first overall pick in the 1989 NFL Draft out of UCLA. After guiding the franchise to three Super Bowl titles, Aikman retired holding or tied for 47 club passing records, including career attempts (4,715), completions (2,898), passing yards (32,942), touchdowns (165) and completion percentage (61.5%). He is the winningest quarterback of any decade, having finished his career with 94 regular season wins in the 90s. Aikman was a six-time Pro Bowler and the MVP of Super Bowl XXVII. He was inducted into the Ring of Honor with Emmitt Smith and Michael Irvin on Monday Sept. 19, 2005 at halftime of the Cowboys-Redskins game. Aikman was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

★ TONY DORSETT ★
Running Back, 1977-87

Tony Dorsett finished his career as the second leading rusher in NFL history and played in five NFC Championship Games, two Super Bowls and four Pro Bowls. After guiding the University of Pittsburgh to the 1976 national title and claiming the Heisman Trophy, Dorsett captured rookie of the year honors in 1977. He also holds the NFL record with a 99-yard touchdown run. Inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1994, Dorsett was also elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994. Dorsett was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys-Arizona game on Oct. 9, 1994.

★ CLIFF HARRIS ★
Safety, 1970-79

Nicknamed "Captain Crash," Cliff Harris went undrafted in 1970 out of tiny Ouachita Baptist in Arkansas, but he eventually found the starting lineup as a rookie and went on to start nine consecutive years. He was named to six Pro Bowls and four All-NFL teams, and he was a member of two Super Bowl winning teams. Harris was at his best in the postseason, finishing his career with six interceptions in 21 playoff games. Harris was a member of the 1970s NFL all-decade team. Harris was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys-N.Y. Giants game on Oct. 10, 2004.

★ BOB HAYES ★
Wide Receiver, 1965-74

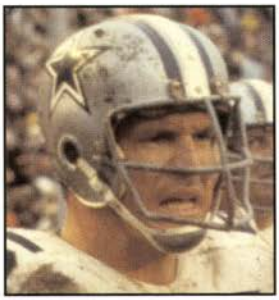
Bob Hayes led the Cowboys in receptions three times and accumulated 365 receptions for 7,295 receiving yards during his 10-year career. His 71 career touchdown receptions remains the Cowboys club record. Hayes also registered remarkable career numbers for average yards-per-catch (20.0) and average yards-per-punt return (11.1). He was a three-time Pro Bowl selection and four-time All-Pro. One of the greatest sprinters in the history of track and field, Hayes joined the Cowboys with the title of "World's Fastest Human" after winning the Olympic gold medal in the 100 meters in Tokyo in 1964. Hayes was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against San Diego on Sept 23, 2001.

★ CHUCK HOWLEY ★
Linebacker, 1961-73

When Chuck Howley retired in 1973, Tom Landry said "I don't know that I've seen anybody better at linebacker than Howley." A six-time All-Pro, Howley was the most valuable player in Super Bowl V. The Cowboys traded for Howley, who was drafted by Chicago in 1958. He was an All-America center at West Virginia. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Howley was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against Detroit, Oct. 30, 1977.

★ MICHAEL IRVIN ★
Wide Receiver, 1988-99

Michael "The Playmaker" Irvin helped lead the Dallas Cowboys to six division titles and three Super Bowl rings before a spinal injury cut his playing career short. Irvin was the team's top receiver for eight consecutive seasons and retired as the Cowboys all-time leader in receptions (750), receiving yards (11,904), playoff receptions (87) and playoff receiving yards (1,315). As a five-time Pro Bowl selection, between 1991-98, Irvin has two more appearances than any other receiver in club history. Irvin was inducted into the Ring of Honor with Emmitt Smith and Troy Aikman on Monday Sept. 19, 2005 at halftime of the Cowboys-Redskins game.



★ LEE ROY JORDAN ★
Linebacker, 1963-76

The inspirational leader of the Cowboys first championship teams was Lee Roy Jordan. The Cowboys first-round draft choice in 1963 following an All-America career at Alabama, Jordan anchored the "Doomsday Defense" from his middle linebacker position for 14 years. He was named to the Pro Bowl five times and All-Pro twice. Jordan was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against Arizona on Oct. 29, 1989.

★ TOM LANDRY ★
Head Coach, 1960-88

The first head coach of the Cowboys, Tom Landry led Dallas to two Super Bowl wins and five NFC titles in his 29 years at the Cowboys helm. He compiled a career record of 270-178-6, the third most wins in NFL history, and was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1990. Landry was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against N.Y. Giants on Nov. 7, 1993.

★ BOB LILLY ★
Defensive Tackle, 1961-74

Nicknamed "Mr. Cowboy," Bob Lilly was the franchise's first draft choice in 1961, the first name in the Ring of Honor in 1975 and its first inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1980. A seven-time All-Pro, Lilly was named to a club-record 11 Pro Bowls. He was a two-time All-SWC pick and an All-America at Texas Christian University before being drafted by Dallas. Lilly was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against Philadelphia on Nov. 23, 1975.

★ DON MEREDITH ★
Quarterback, 1960-68

Don Meredith led the Cowboys to their first winning season and their first NFL Championship Game in 1966. Signed by Clint Murchison, Jr. before Dallas was granted its NFL franchise, "Dandy Don" played in two Pro Bowls and was named NFL Player of the Year in 1966. A two-time All-America at SMU, Meredith was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against N.Y. Giants on Nov. 7, 1976.

★ DON PERKINS ★
Running Back, 1961-68

Don Perkins was the first Cowboys player to rush for more than 6,000 yards. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Perkins finished among the top 10 NFL rushers in each of his eight seasons. He was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 1961 and All-Pro in 1962. Perkins was signed before Dallas was granted its NFL franchise. A three-time All-Skyline pick at New Mexico, Perkins was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against N.Y. Giants on Nov. 7, 1976.

★ MEL RENFRO ★
Defensive Back, 1964-77

Mel Renfro was named to the Pro Bowl his first 10 seasons in the NFL. He is the club's all-time interceptor with 52 and kickoff returner with a 26.4-yard career average. Renfro was drafted in the second round in 1964 after a career as an All-America halfback and world class sprinter at Oregon. A five-time All-Pro, Renfro was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against Miami, Oct. 25, 1981. In 1996 Renfro was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

★ TEX SCHRAMM ★
President and General Manager, 1960-1989

Texas Earnest Schramm Jr., served 29 seasons as president and general manager of the Cowboys, turning a 1960 expansion team into one of the most successful franchises in NFL history. Under Schramm, the team reached five Super Bowls, winning two, made 18 playoff appearances and compiled an NFL-record 20 consecutive winning seasons. Schramm was instrumental in creating the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, developing the Cowboys Ring of Honor and bringing an annual Cowboys Thanksgiving Day game to the nation. Schramm, as chairman of the NFL Competition Committee from 1966 to 1988, was a driving force behind the development of instant replay, giving the head referee a microphone for penalty announcements and developing the wild-card playoff system. One of Schramm's most significant accomplishments was coordinating the merger of the NFL and the American Football League in 1966. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1991. Schramm was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys game against Philadelphia on Oct. 12, 2003.

★ EMMITT SMITH ★
Running Back, 1990-2002

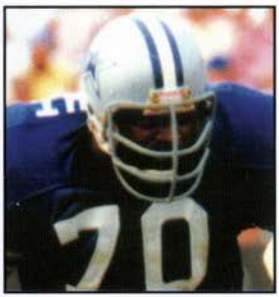
Emmitt Smith retired as the NFL's all-time rushing leader with 18,355 yards and scored more rushing touchdowns (164) than any other player in NFL history. Smith was selected to the Pro Bowl eight times, won four NFL rushing titles ('91, '92, '93 and '95), three Super Bowl titles, and a league (1993) and Super Bowl (XXVIII) MVP award. Smith broke Walter Payton's NFL rushing record at Texas Stadium on Oct. 27, 2002 on an 11-yard run in the fourth quarter against the Seattle Seahawks. Smith was inducted into the Ring of Honor with Troy Aikman and Michael Irvin on Monday Sept. 19, 2005 at halftime of the Cowboys-Redskins game.

★ ROGER STAUBACH ★
Quarterback, 1969-79

Roger Staubach led the Cowboys to six NFC Championship Games, four Super Bowls and two Super Bowl titles. A great clutch performer, Staubach led Dallas to comeback victories 23 times, 14 in the last two minutes or overtime. A five-time Pro Bowler, he was drafted by Dallas in 1964 after winning the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award at the Naval Academy. Staubach was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against Tampa Bay, Oct. 9, 1983. Roger was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

★ RANDY WHITE ★
Defensive Tackle, 1975-88

A nine-time Pro Bowler during his 14 years with Dallas, Randy White established a club-record with eight straight All-Pro selections. White was co-MVP (with teammate Harvey Martin) in the Cowboys Super Bowl XII victory over Denver. A consensus All-America defensive end for Maryland in 1974, White won both the Outland Trophy and the Vince Lombardi Awards. White was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys against Arizona on Oct. 9, 1994. Randy was also elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1994.



★ RAYFIELD WRIGHT ★
Tackle, 1967-79

Rayfield Wright is the only offensive lineman in the Ring of Honor. A seventh-round draft choice, Wright made the conversion from tight end to tackle and became the Cowboys most decorated offensive lineman of the 1970s. During his 13-year career, the "Big Cat" was selected to the Pro Bowl six times, named All-Pro on four occasions and was on two Super Bowl-winning teams in the 1970s. He was the leader of Dallas offensive line units that produced the club's first five 1,000-yard individual rushing seasons. Wright was inducted into the Ring of Honor at halftime of the Cowboys-N.Y. Giants game on Oct. 10, 2004. Wright was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

Historical Highlights

1960

LANDRY HIRED – Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne sign N.Y. Giants defensive assistant Tom Landry to a personal services contract on Dec. 27, 1959, with the intention of naming him head coach once they are awarded an expansion franchise by the NFL.

NFL FRANCHISE – Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during the first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).

COWBOYS STOCKED – A player pool was set up in the league meeting in Los Angeles, with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).

TRAINING STARTS – Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific University in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).

FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME – The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 16-10 preseason game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).

FIRST HOME GAME – In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club preseason game, the Cowboys led the world champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 62-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).

FIRST VICTORY – In a preseason game at Louisville, KY, the Cowboys beat the New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes for 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith) (August 27).

FIRST LEAGUE GAME – In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth-period Steelers rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).

STREAK SNAPPED – Dallas snaps a 10-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).

TRAINING STARTS – Rookies launch training at new campsite – St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).

FIRST LEAGUE WIN – Scoring 10 points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 spectators (Sept. 17).

1962

TRAINING STARTS – Team begins training at new campsite – Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).

PENALTY HISTORY – For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were holding in the end zone on a 99-yd. TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

100-YARD FIRSTS – Cowboys Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth-quarter TDs in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter (Oct. 14).

1963

SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY – The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).

CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE – The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).

HOWTON SETS RECORD – Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch at Washington. Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 8,000 yards (Sept. 29).

1964

LANDRY CONTRACT – With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a 10-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).

1965

FIRST SELLOUT – An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).

1966

PLAYOFF BOWL – After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).

MERGER – Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys General Manager Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, merging the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).

SCHRAMM ELEVATED – Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by Owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.

NEELY CASE SOLVED – Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth round picks in the 1967 draft (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP – The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

TEXAS STADIUM – On Dec. 23, Owner Clint Murchison, Jr., formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.

FOURTH STRAIGHT NFC EAST TITLE – The Cowboys won their final three regular season games to finish with an 11-5 record, their 11th division championship, including the past four NFC East titles, and 14th consecutive winning season. The Cowboys made their 13th trip to the playoffs in those 14 years, but were eliminated by Los Angeles 21-19 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium.

STAUBACH RETIRES – At a press conference at Texas Stadium on March 31, quarterback Roger Staubach announced his retirement after 11 record-breaking years with the Cowboys. Staubach held all major Cowboys' passing records and was the all-time leading NFL passer.

LILLY ENTERS HALL OF FAME – Bob Lilly, a seven-time All-Pro defensive tackle in his 14-year career with the Cowboys from 1961-74, became the first Cowboys' player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Enshrined along with Lilly on Aug. 2 at Canton, Ohio, were Herb Adderley, who played for the Cowboys from 1970-71, Jim Otto and Deacon Jones.

FIFTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS – Behind new starting quarterback Danny White, the Cowboys rolled to their 15th consecutive winning season with a surprising 12-4 record, tied for best in the league with Philadelphia and Atlanta. The Cowboys lost the NFC East title to Philadelphia on a tie-breaker, but entered the playoffs for the 14th time in 15 years, this time as a wild card team. The Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game and rallied past the Falcons at Atlanta 30-27 to advance to the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia. But the Cowboys lost 20-7 in their bid for a sixth Super Bowl appearance.

LANDRY'S 200TH VICTORY – Tom Landry joined George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only coaches with 200 NFL victories when the Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 on Dec. 28 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game, raising Landry's record to 200-119-6, counting regular season and playoff games.

RENFRO HONORED – Former All-Pro defensive back Mel Renfro, the Cowboys' all-time leading pass interceptor, became the fifth member of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor. Renfro, who played for Dallas from 1964 through 1977, was honored during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Miami Dolphins game at Texas Stadium on Oct. 25.

TWELFTH DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP – The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division Championship, their 12th division title since 1966, with a 12-4 record and tied Oakland's NFL mark of 16 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for the 15th time in that span, the Cowboys advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the ninth time in 12 years by routing Tampa Bay 38-0 at Texas Stadium. But for the second year in a row Dallas lost the conference title game. San Francisco scored a last-minute touchdown at Candlestick Park to edge the Cowboys 28-27 for a berth in Super Bowl XVI.

200TH REGULAR-SEASON VICTORY – The Cowboys beat Washington 24-10 at RFK Stadium on Dec. 5 for the club's and Coach Tom Landry's 200th regular season victory.

SEVENTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS – The Cowboys finished the strike-shortened regular season 6-3 to establish an NFL record of 17 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for a record-tying eighth straight year and for the 16th time in 17 years, the Cowboys beat Tampa Bay 30-17 and Green Bay 37-26, both at Texas Stadium, to advance to the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. But again the Cowboys come up short, losing 31-17 at Washington.

Harris and Wright were honored during a ceremony at halftime of the N.Y. Giants game on Oct. 10.

ARLINGTON TEXAS AND THE DALLAS COWBOYS – With 55% of the vote, the citizens of Arlington, Texas, overwhelming support a stadium referendum at the polls on Nov. 2. The public-private partnership between the City of Arlington and the Dallas Cowboys will fund a retractable roof stadium with capacity for up to 90,000 people in the heart of Arlington's entertainment district. With over $400 million committed by the team and stadium users, it will be the largest private investment in a stadium in NFL history, and the stadium will give North Texas the ability to bring major events like the Super Bowl and the NCAA Final Four to the region.

SMITH AND WOODSON RETIRE – Within one month's time, the NFL's all-time leading rusher and the Cowboys all-time leading tackler walk away from the game of football for the final time. At a December 29 press conference, Darren Woodson announced his retirement after 12 seasons with the Cowboys. Woodson departed with the club record for career tackles with 1,350. Just a few weeks later on February 3, 2005 at a press conference in Jacksonville, Florida, at Super Bowl XXXIX, Emmitt Smith announced his retirement after 13 seasons with the Cowboys and two with the Arizona Cardinals. In 15 NFL seasons he amassed league records with 18,355 rushing yards, 164 rushing touchdowns and 78 100-yard rushing games.

TRIPLETS HONORED – Troy Aikman, Michael Irvin and Emmitt Smith, the cornerstone players of the three-time Super Bowl Champion Cowboys' teams of the 1990's became the 15th, 16th and 17th members of the club's Ring of Honor. The trio finished their Cowboys career holding almost every major passing, receiving and rushing record while helping the team become the NFL's Team of the Decade for the '90s. A record crowd of 65,207 fans pack Texas Stadium to witness the halftime event during the Monday Night Football match-up against division rival Washington on Sept. 19.

29TH WINNING SEASON – With a 24-20 win at Carolina, the Cowboys clinch the 29th winning season in the franchise's 46 years in operation. Dallas finished the year 9-7.

20 MILLION FANS – The Cowboys played in front of 63,131 fans in the regular season finale at Texas Stadium on Jan. 1, 2006, pushing the club's all-time home attendance figure past the 20 million mark. Dating back to the 1960 franchise opener at the Cotton Bowl, 20,002,761 fans have now seen the Dallas Cowboys live at the Cotton Bowl and Texas Stadium.

AIKMAN AND WRIGHT ENTER HALL OF FAME – Three time Super Bowl Champion quarterback Troy Aikman and six-time Pro Bowl tackle Rayfield Wright become the eighth and ninth former Cowboys to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Aikman, the MVP of Super Bowl XXVII and the winningest quarterback of the 1990's is selected in his first year of eligibility. Wright, a member of the NFL's 1970s All-Decade team and two Super Bowl winning teams in Dallas is selected in his first year as a senior's committee nominee. Enshrinement ceremonies were scheduled for Aug. 5, 2006 in Canton, Ohio.

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS ON NEW COWBOYS STADIUM – On April 10, 2006, ground was broken on the new Dallas Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. The state-of-the art venue is scheduled for completion by the start of the 2009 NFL season and will accommodate between 80,000 and 100,000 fans.

30th WINNING SEASON AND 28th PLAYOFF APPEARANCE – A victory over the Atlanta Falcons in the Georgia Dome on Dec. 16 wrapped up the Cowboys place in the NFL playoffs for the 28th time while securing the club's 30th winning season (9-7).

PHILLIPS HIRED AS SEVENTH HEAD COACH – On Feb. 8, Jerry Jones announced the appointment of Wade Phillips as the seventh head coach in Dallas Cowboys history. Phillips, who brought a previous 45-35 record as an NFL head coach to the club, replaced Bill Parcells who announced his retirement from coaching on Jan. 22.

SUPER BOWL AWARDED TO NORTH TEXAS AND COWBOYS NEW STADIUM – On May 22, at NFL owners' meetings in Nashville, North Texas was selected to host Super Bowl XLV. The game will be played at the Cowboys new stadium in Arlington, Texas on February 6, 2011. The first Super Bowl to be presented in North Texas was awarded on the fourth ballot of a vote by the NFL ownership.

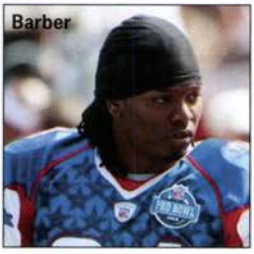
IRVIN ENTERS HALL OF FAME – Michael Irvin, a member of six divisional winners and three Super Bowl championship teams with the Cowboys of the 1990s, became the 10th former Dallas Cowboys player to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Irvin, the Cowboys career leader in receptions and yardage, chose team owner Jerry Jones to present him for induction at the ceremony in Canton, Ohio on Aug. 4, 2007.

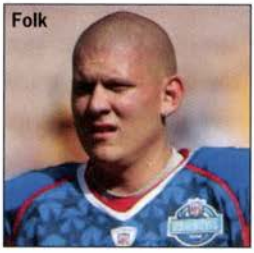
COWBOYS WIN NFC EASTERN DIVISION – With a 28-27 win at Detroit (Dec. 9), the Cowboys clinched the NFC Eastern Division title for the first time since 1998. The win gave Dallas its 20th division championship (16th NFC East). Dallas closed the season with an NFC-best 13-3 record, tying the club mark for regular season victories that was set in 1992.

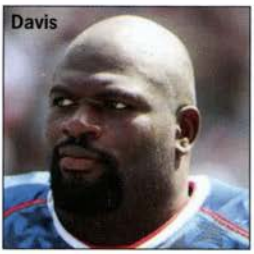
2008

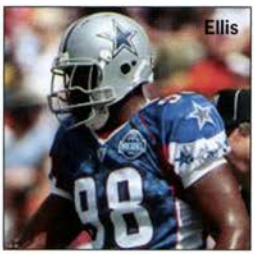
PRO BOWL COWBOYS – A record 13 Dallas Cowboys participated in the Pro Bowl in Hawaii (Feb. 10). Representing the club on offense were starters Tony Romo (QB), Terrell Owens (WR), Flozell Adams (LT), Andre Gurode (C), Leonard Davis (RG) and Jason Witten (TE). Marion Barber (RB) was a reserve for the NFC offense. On the defensive side, DeMarcus Ware (LB) and Ken Hamlin (FS) were starters while Roy Williams (SS), Terence Newman (CB) and Greg Ellis (LB) were reserves. Rookie placekicker Nick Folk was also selected.

Of the 13 players selected to the Pro Bowl, six made the trip to Hawaii for the first time.









Cowboys Attendance Records

The Cowboys played in the Cotton Bowl (capacity 72,132 in 1970) from 1960 until Texas Stadium was opened on Oct. 24, 1971 against New England. In 1985 seats were removed from Texas Stadium to make room for 118 Crown Suites.

Cowboys During the Week

The Dallas Cowboys have a tradition of showing up on the football schedule just about any day of the week. Besides the annual Thanksgiving Day games, the Cowboys have also played on Christmas Day. Besides Sundays, the Cowboys have shown up on Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Mondays. When it comes to prime time, the Cowboys are also front and center on Sunday and Monday nights.

(All Games Regular Season Only Unless Indicated)

Thanksgiving Day Games (25-14-1)

Since 1966, the Cowboys have been a fixture on Thanksgiving Day, having hosted the annual contest for 41 of the last 43 years. In 1975 and 1977, the St. Louis Cardinals played host to the game in place of Dallas. In 1978, the game returned to Dallas for good. The Cowboys have posted a 25-14-1 record in the holiday classic and a 26-14 mark the following week. Here are the Cowboys annual Thanksgiving Day results:

Monday Night Football (40-29)

The Cowboys will be making their 70th appearance on Monday Night Football during the 2008 season. The majority of the Cowboys MNF games were played on ABC Monday Night Football from 1970-2005 when they appeared on the prime time telecast 67 times posting a 39-28 record including a 17-11 record at home and a 22-17 mark on the road. Only Miami, with 71 games, has appeared on MNF more. The 40 MNF wins by the Cowboys are the most in league history. ESPN landed the telecast in 2006 and since then the Cowboys have appeared twice on MNF with a 1-1 record. The week after playing on MNF, the Cowboys are 31-27 (five times the Cowboys final game of the season was on a Monday night and six times they followed with a bye). Here are the Cowboys Monday Night Football results:

THE

Home to the Dallas Cowboys

The Dallas Cowboys have called both the Cotton Bowl and Texas Stadium home over the last 48 years. In 2009, the club's 50th year of operation, the Cowboys will move into its newest home, a state-of-the-art facility in Arlington, Texas.

Cotton Bowl

The original Fair Park football stadium was built in 1921 and seated 15,000. That wooden structure was razed in 1930 and construction began on what is now the Cotton Bowl. The original seating capacity of the stadium was 46,200 and built at a cost of $328,000. In January, 1936, Fair Park Stadium was officially renamed The Cotton Bowl in recognition of the fact that more cotton was raised within 200 miles of Dallas than any other town in America. In that era, Dallas was regarded as the largest interior spot cotton market in the world. Later additions of upper decks on each side increased capacity to 75,504 by the time the Cowboys arrived in 1960. From 1960 into the 1971 season, the Cowboys called the Cotton Bowl home, posting a 45-33-4 record, including a 2-2 mark in postseason. The largest home crowd in club history is still the 80,259 that packed into the Cotton Bowl on Nov. 24, 1966 to watch the Cowboys defeat the Cleveland Browns 26-14, in the inaugural Thanksgiving Day game in Dallas.

Texas Stadium

The current home of Cowboys football is Texas Stadium, a football facility built at a cost of $35 million in 1971. The Cowboys opened their facility on Oct. 24, 1971 with a 44-21 victory over New England. Since then, the Cowboys have posted a 207-97 record (.681) overall, including a 16-6 (.727) mark in postseason, at home. Located in the Dallas suburb of Irving, Texas Stadium has a seating capacity of 65,581 and features two Daktronics color replay screens, 381 luxury suites, three sports bars, 52 concession stands, 40 specialty stands, 86 restrooms, 115 drinking fountains and 130 acres of parking. Texas Stadium's most unique feature is the partial roof which covers fans from inclement weather, but leaves the game outdoors. Texas Stadium also boasts the luxurious Stadium Club, one of Dallas's premier locations for private parties, banquets and convention gatherings.

The Corral, outside Gate 8, features food, beverage, entertainment and large screen televisions for fan hospitality before, during and after all Cowboys home games and special events.

Complete banquet, catering and special event services are available for private groups at Texas Stadium. Information on hosting an event can be obtained by calling 972-785-4000.

Tours of Texas Stadium are available hourly Monday through Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., and Sundays, when no events are scheduled, from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Call 972-785-4780 for more information.

The Cowboys souvenir shop, The Pro Shop, is also open daily on the grounds outside the stadium at Gate 8.

Arlington, Texas

On Nov. 2, 2004 the voters of Arlington approved a public-private partnership with the Dallas Cowboys to build a state-of-the-art, retractable roof stadium in Arlington, Texas. Located in the heart of Arlington's entertainment district, construction on the new stadium began in April, 2006 and will be completed by the summer of 2009.

The new Dallas Cowboys Stadium, located in Arlington, Texas, will open for the 2009 NFL season and play host to Super Bowl XLV on February 6, 2011. In addition, this venue will be home to the annual AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic, as well as the 2009 and 2010 Big XII championship games, annual football games between the University of Arkansas and Texas A&M University and an Arizona State and Notre Dame football game in 2013.

The largest NFL stadium ever built is designed to enhance the international Cowboys brand with its modern progressive architecture while incorporating elements of the Texas Stadium Cowboys heritage such as the shape of the roof's opening and the Ring of Honor.

The 3.0 million square-foot stadium will have a capacity of up to 100,000. The stadium features signature monumental arches, an expansive retractable roof, massive glass retractable end zone doors, a distinguishing canted glass wall, and the world's largest center-hung video board.

"The challenge for us with this new stadium was to innovate, but at the same time never forget to acknowledge tradition," said Jerry Jones, owner and president, Dallas Cowboys. "This new stadium embodies the spirit of the Dallas Cowboys and that starts with the familiar 'hole in the roof'. What we have designed is a building we believe is both architecturally significant and also reflects the emotion and competition that goes on inside."

The stadium is designed by HKS Architects, ranked one of the top-five sport/stadium designers in the world.

Key Design Highlights

★ Monumental Arches – The stadium features two monumental arches, soaring 292 feet above the playing field, which support a retractable roof. As the longest single span roof structure in the world, each boxed arch is 17 feet wide by 35 feet deep. Weighing 3,255 tons each, these impressive structures spans a quarter mile (1,290 feet) in length. As one of the first components to be constructed, the arches form a striking silhouette on the Arlington landscape as sunlight reflects against the metallic surface during the day and a tailored lighting system reflects the form at night.

★ Retractable Roof – Designed to be open or closed, depending on weather conditions, the expansive retractable roof is the largest of its kind in the world and measures approximately 661,000 square feet. When closed, the roof encompasses 104 million cubic feet of volume, making it the largest enclosed NFL stadium. The retractable roof is designed specifically to emulate the current Texas Stadium opening which is recognized around the world and allow views inward and outward. Each panel can open or close in 12 minutes. The entire playing field can be seen from directly above.

★ Retractable Doors – The stadium features the largest retractable end zone doors in the world. Each has a five-leaf, clear, retractable opening measuring 120 feet high by 180 feet wide. The five 38-foot panels take only 18 minutes to open or close. By using clear glass for the door panels, spectators experience panoramic vistas from within the seating bowl and when circulating through the stadium concourses. Moreover, the operability provides air circulation during game-day and non-game-day events.

★ Center-Hung Videoboard – Within the seating bowl, Cowboys fans will be provided with a one-of-a-kind feature unlike any other in the world, a center-hung video board. Hanging less than 100 feet above the field from the roof structure, the innovative video center spans between the 20-yard lines and features four individual boards – two facing the sidelines and two facing the end zones. The sideline boards measure 160 feet wide by 72 feet tall while those facing the end zones measure 53 feet by 30 feet. All four boards are angled toward the stands for optimal viewing. The stunning combination of these boards will immerse spectators with video imagery, creating a premium on upper level seats and presenting the game in a way never before experienced.

★ Canted Glass Wall – One of the most compelling architectural features of the stadium design is the canted glass exterior wall. The 86-foot high glass, curtain-wall surface slopes outwardly at a 14 degree angle to create a luminescent glow day or night. A fritted glass system transitions up the elevation to create a dynamic, ever-changing aesthetic depending on the time of day. At night, a series of internal lights gently wash the glass wall to create a glow across the facade.

★ Suites – The design includes 300 suites that have been decentralized and are in eight locations distributed across five separate levels of the stadium. The most unique will be the field-level sideline suites for up-close and personal viewing of the games.

New Stadium Construction – Spring of 2008

Design Statistics

Total Square Footage: 3.0 million square feet. The entire Statue of Liberty and its base could fit into the stadium with the roof closed. The stadium is also the world's largest column-free room. The American Airlines Center in Dallas could fit entirely into the new stadium at field level.

Interior Cubic Volume: 104 million cubic feet. (By comparison, Reliant Stadium in Houston measures 90 million cubic feet.) The Dallas Cowboys stadium will be the largest enclosed stadium (in cubic feet) in the NFL.

Seating Capacity: A capacity of up to 100,000, along with ticketed areas in the end zone plazas can increase capacity to over 100,000.

Suites: There will be 300 suites in eight different locations on five separate levels of the stadium. Field-level suites will be available on the sidelines as well as in the end zones for up-close and personal viewing of the games. The Hall of Fame level suites will be 20 rows from the field, making them the closest elevated suites in the NFL.

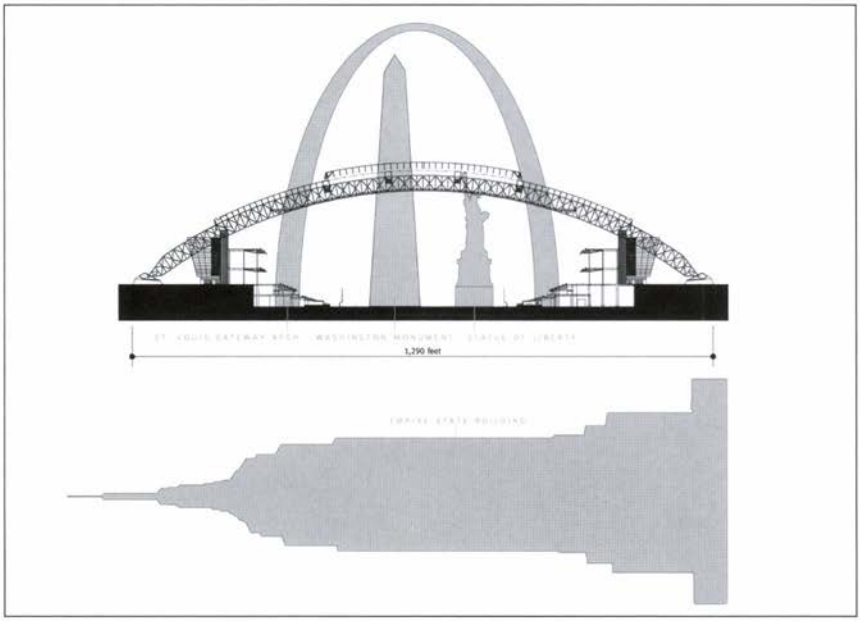
Domed Roof: At 661,000 square feet, the stadium will be the largest domed structure in the world.

Retractable Roof: The open roof design that was a unique feature of Texas Stadium will be carried over into the design of the new stadium, with the improvement of a new retractable feature, revealing an opening that measures 256 feet wide and 410 feet long. Two bi-parting mechanized roof panels will be driven by a rack-and-pinion drive system consisting of 64 7.5 HP electric motors, making it the first of its kind in the world. The open/close time is 12 minutes.

Arches: The roof is supported by two 35-feet deep and 17-feet wide boxed arch trusses. Each truss spans nearly a quarter mile (1,290) feet making the roof the longest clear-span structure in the world. The arches are more than twice the length of the Gateway Arch in St. Louis.

Glass Retractable Door: Each end zone features a five-leaf clear glass retractable door measuring 120 feet high and 180 feet wide, making it the tallest moveable glass wall in the world.

Parking: It is estimated that between parking owned or under control of the Dallas Cowboys as well as the entrepreneurial lots in and around the stadium area, that there will be as many as 30,000 parking spaces available to fans on game day.



As the largest NFL venue ever built, the new stadium boasts the most spectacular column-free room in the world, stretching a quarter-mile in length. Encasing 3.0 million square feet, the majestic scale of the stadium measures twice the distance of the St. Louis Gateway arch. In addition, the Statue of Liberty can stand completely inside the room structure. The magnitude of the stadium's size and scale will place it on the world's stage of iconic structures.

What Fans Need to Know

Access

One of the great assets Arlington has is accessibility to the entire metroplex. There will be 14 approaches from major highways into the new stadium in Arlington, compared with three at Texas Stadium. From a regional standpoint the new stadium will be one of the most accessible venues ever planned. The Arlington Entertainment District and the I-30 corridor are the beneficiary of approximately $1 billion in improvements to the area highways that will directly benefit the new stadium. This infrastructure investment will provide new and improved access to the venue with additional exits and lanes.

Parking

It is estimated that between parking under control of the Cowboys as well as entrepreneurial lots around the stadium, there will be as many as 30,000 parking spaces available to fans on game day.

Plaza Area and Open End Zones

The stadium design incorporates two open end zones with glass retractable doors measuring 120 feet high and 180 feet wide, making them the tallest glass retractable doors in the world. The plazas outside these doors, one in each end zone – along with the three party decks in each end zone – create over 420,000 square feet of entertainment space (approximately 10 acres). Media boards and large-screen monitors add entertainment to the area, and create a festival atmosphere, making these areas a great space for people to gather before, during and after events to socialize. The field is 50 feet below ground level, so fans entering on the plaza level will have a panoramic view over the field. The end zone area will have the flexibility to convert from standing-room only to seating, based on specific event needs.

Video Boards

There will be a number of video boards in this facility. The most unique being the four board cluster that will be suspended less than 100 feet directly over the center of the playing surface. The board will run from the 20-yard line to the 20-yard line – measuring 160 feet in length and 72 feet in height – making it the largest video board installation in the world. The video center will allow fans on all levels to view the game in crisp, clear images during the game. This will create a premium on the value of the upper-level seats and make the game more exciting for all fans.

Amenities and Restrooms

The stadium features 824 concession points of sale as well as more than 1,700 toilets. Some of the restrooms will be reversible based on the needs of the event.

Ring of Honor

The Dallas Cowboys Ring of Honor will be a featured part the new stadium. Plans are being made to ensure the Ring's members are similarly honored in the new facility.

Dallas Cowboys Hall of Fame and Pro Shop

The club is fortunate to have a great history and tradition which will be on display at the Dallas Cowboys new Hall of Fame. Plans include many new and innovative ways to display that history in an interactive, hands-on environment. With the ability to incorporate technology in many different ways, fans will be able to immerse themselves in Dallas Cowboys history. The Hall of Fame will be open to the public year round as well as be available for special events and gatherings. Adjacent to the Hall of Fame is a Dallas Cowboys Pro Shop.

Cowboys Summer Training Camp

The Dallas Cowboys will open their 49th training camp on July 24 at the Marriott Residence Inn at River Ridge in Oxnard, Calif. The entire squad will open the 2008 training camp on Thursday, July 24. The first practice session will take place on Friday afternoon, July 25. Camp is set to break on Tuesday, Aug. 12.

The Cowboys most recently held training camp in Oxnard from 2004-06.

The Dallas Cowboys plan to return to the Alamodome in San Antonio for training camp in 2009.

Dallas Cowboys Training Camp is one of the annual highlights for Dallas Cowboys fans. It offers a rare opportunity for Cowboys fans from all over the United States to get an "up close and personal look" at their favorite team with all practice sessions free and open to the public.

Training Camp History

June 3, 1960 – The newly formed Dallas Cowboys franchise announced that it will train at Pacific University in Forest Grove, Oregon. Rookies reported on July 9.

May 24, 1961 – Due to its proximity to their first exhibition game against Minnesota in Minneapolis, the Dallas Cowboys move training camp to St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. Camp opened on July 9.

June 8, 1962 – The Dallas Cowboys move their training camp site to the campus of Northern Michigan College on the shores of Lake Superior in Marquette, Mich. Rookies reported on July 13.

July 12, 1963 – Because the team played three of its first four preseason games on the west coast, the Dallas Cowboys moved training camp to California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. This camp, which was the first of 27 at CLC, opened on July 12.

Dec. 6, 1989 – For the first time in the 30-year history of the team, the Dallas Cowboys trained in Texas as the club announced its 1990 training camp would be held at St. Edward's University in Austin, Texas. This camp, the first of eight at St. Ed's, opened on July 22.

Feb. 17, 1998 – The Cowboys begin a four-year stay at Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls, Texas, with their 1998 camp. The first camp at Midwestern State University opened on July 16. In 2001, the Cowboys split camp between Midwestern State and the Residence Inn in Oxnard, Calif., spending two weeks at each location.

May 17, 2002 – The Cowboys continue their commitment to fans in the state of Texas by announcing the 2002 training camp will take place at the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas. The camp, which ran for four weeks, opened on July 26. The Cowboys returned to the Alamodome again in 2003.

Oct. 24, 2003 – The Cowboys announce a return to California for training camp. For the 2004-06 seasons, the Cowboys conduct their entire training camp in Oxnard, Calif. at the Residence Inn at River Ridge, using practice fields provided by The City of Oxnard. The Cowboys opened their first returned camp on July 30, 2004.

May 4, 2006 - The Dallas Cowboys announce a five-year commitment to once again call the City of San Antonio its summer home beginning in 2007. The Alamodome, which played host to Cowboys training camps in 2002 and 2003 will again be the site for the team's summer practice sessions.

Introduced at Texas Stadium in 1972 to add glamour, excitement and entertainment value to the NFL game day experience, the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders quickly became an American icon, creating an international phenomenon that was quickly replicated throughout the NFL. Their image and style continues to have a tremendous impact on sports entertainment, but while they are often imitated, no other organization has been able to achieve their prominence or popularity. The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders are recognized around the world as an elite performance group and their star spangled uniforms are one of the most well-known symbols of pop culture.

During the 70's, their national popularity generated such a sensation that two made-for-tv movies were developed about the squad and achieved top ratings. Today the Cheerleaders regularly make guest appearances on national television shows such as "The View," "The Today Show," "Saturday Night Live" and "David Letterman", and have competed for the benefit of charity on "1 versus 100", "Are You Smarter Than A Fifth Grader", and "Identity". For the past 15 years, they have also produced their own "The Making of the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders Swimsuit Calendar" television special for national network distribution. They are currently in the fourth season of the highly rated CMT "The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders – Making the Squad" series that captures the entire DCC audition process and training camp.

The Cheerleaders are of course a regular feature on the sidelines of Texas Stadium, but they also are an ongoing demand at festivals, sporting events, and corporate conventions around the country and frequently appear on national magazines covers, television commercials and Hollywood films. Their appearances are not just limited to stages, but also include philanthropic and civic events throughout the year with annual visits to hospitals, nursing homes and schools and participation in telethons and fundraising events across the United States.

Kelli McGonagill Finglass
Director

The DCC Show Group has proudly entertained U.S. military personnel around the world since 1979 – making more international tours with the USO than any other entertainment group. They bring their own special brand of goodwill and gratitude to the men and women in the military, traveling to locations as diverse as Iraq, Bosnia, Kosovo, Cuba, Korea and the Persian Gulf. Their annual trips have become a special tradition for both the troops and the Cheerleaders. So special, in fact, that the USO presented the squad with both the first-ever "Spirit of Hope Award" and with the "USO's 50th Anniversary Award" in recognition of their distinguished service to American troops. They were also honored with induction into the Veteran of Foreign Wars Hall of Fame in 2002.

Judy Trammell
Choreographer

The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders are truly extraordinary women chosen to exemplify the high standards of the Dallas Cowboys Football Club and to proudly represent their hometowns, their country and young women everywhere.

Cowboys on Radio

Cumulus Media's Sportsradio 1310 the Ticket and 93.3 The Bone are the flagship stations of The Dallas Cowboys Radio Network. In 2008, every game will be simulcast on 1310 AM and in stereo on 93.3 FM.

Brad Sham returns for his 30th season in the Dallas Cowboys radio booth. Beloved by Cowboys fans, Sham's award winning play-by-play has provided the soundtrack to many of the most memorable moments in Dallas Cowboys history. Brad is re-joined in the booth by former Cowboys quarterback Babe Laufenberg, who enters his 16th season as the Network's full-time color analyst. A fixture on the sideline, veteran reporter Kristi Scales provides instant updates from the field.

The pre-game and halftime shows are anchored by the Ticket's Bob Sturm, with key contributions from former Cowboys Super Bowl MVP Larry Brown and long-time Cowboys beat reporter Mickey Spagnola. The Ticket's Norm Hitzges provides informed reaction in the post-game call-in show.

Cowboys on Television

Dallas Cowboys Broadcasting Network

The Dallas Cowboys Broadcasting Network is the television production and syndication unit of the Dallas Cowboys Football Club. Now in its 17th year, the Dallas Cowboys Broadcasting Network produces and distributes some of the most-watched programs in the region – Dallas Cowboys preseason games, weekly programs and specials throughout the year. These programs are televised in Dallas/Fort Worth and over 25 other markets throughout Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

The Cowboys weekly shows during the preseason and regular season keep Dallas Cowboys fans abreast of the latest Cowboys stories making news and of key issues in the National Football League:

"Cowboys Special Edition with Jerry Jones"

Cowboys owner/general manager Jerry Jones discusses the hottest topics with different members of the media. The show airs Saturdays at 10:30 p.m. from July 19, 2008 through the postseason on KTVT/CBS11 in Dallas/Fort Worth and at locally scheduled times throughout the Dallas Cowboys syndicated network.

"Cowboys Huddle"

Coach Wade Phillips gives fans an inside look at the team on Cowboys Huddle. With regularly scheduled visits from Cowboys players and coaches, fans will be able to get a fresh perspective of the team. The show will air Sundays at 10:00 a.m. from Sept. 7, 2008 through the postseason on KTVT/CBS11 in Dallas/Fort Worth and at locally scheduled times throughout the Dallas Cowboys syndicated network.

Dallas Cowboys Postgame Show

Brad Sham and Babe Laufenberg bring you the only show from inside the Cowboys locker room after each game. Player interviews, game highlights and comments from Wade Phillips can be seen Sunday nights at 11:00 p.m. after each and every game on KTVT/CBS11 in Dallas/Fort Worth and at locally scheduled times throughout the Dallas Cowboys syndicated network.

Cadena de Plata

With its beginnings in 1995, Cadena de Plata Television, the official voice of the Vaqueros de Dallas en Español, has been a precursor in engaging the growing Spanish-speaking fan of the NFL and the Silver and Blue in the United States. Broadcasting on Telemundo-39 in Dallas/Fort Worth and throughout it's growing affiliate base stretching across Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma, Cowboys fans who like their coverage in Spanish can participate in preseason game telecasts. Along with these preseason Spanish language game telecasts, Cadena de Plata produces four (4) one-hour specials throughout the Cowboys season.

Community Outreach and the Dallas Cowboys

GENE AND JERRY JONES
FAMILY CHARITIES

THE JERRY JONES FAMILY AND THE DALLAS COWBOYS

For the past 19 years, Jerry Jones and his family have owned and operated the Dallas Cowboys with a management style that places just as much emphasis on community leadership as it does on the goal of winning the Super Bowl. The dominant theme which underscores the Cowboys role in the community is to maximize the visibility, energy and celebrity of the world's most recognizable sports franchise and use those dynamic forces as a powerful means to help others.

The results on the field have brought championships to Dallas. The results away from the field have touched the lives of thousands.

THE MISSION

"In the area of community service, our organization's mission is built upon an overall philosophy of helping those who don't have the strength, the resources or the means to help themselves," says Jones. "As a sports entity that has enjoyed unprecedented success and recognition for more than four decades, we feel a very strong obligation to transfer that championship tradition and the magic that it creates toward the bigger purpose of making a difference."

Jones enlists the talents, skills and resources of his entire family, all of the Cowboys players, and every member of the organization to provide a cutting edge approach to community outreach. "Any personal contact with an individual member of our organization can provide help for hundreds of people in need," adds Jones. "The star on the helmet can move mountains."

THE ARMY AND THE STAR

The Jones family's dynamic association with The Salvation Army is a visible example of the creative and innovative manner in which the Cowboys can make a difference in the world.

For the past 11 seasons, the Jones family has dedicated the Cowboys annual Thanksgiving Day halftime show as a national showcase to kickoff The Salvation Army's annual Kettle Drive. The team's association with network television has spawned a donation of $20 million worth of airtime to present nationally televised entertainment extravaganzas that have created a new holiday tradition.

Under the direction of Charlotte Jones Anderson, the Cowboys have produced the annual halftime event and welcomed nationally renowned entertainers Reba McEntire, Randy Travis, Clint Black, Billy Gilman & Jessica Simpson, Creed, LeAnn Rimes, Toby Keith, Destiny's Child, Sheryl Crow, Carrie Underwood and Kelly Clarkson to highlight each of the Kettle Kickoff celebrations since 1997. The efforts have helped raise one billion dollars for the Army, while reaching over 450 million people nationwide.

In April of 2007, Gene and Jerry Jones were the Honorary Chairs and their daughter, Charlotte Anderson chaired the National Advisory Organizations Conference (NAOC) for The Salvation Army. The International Conference hosted in Dallas, Texas provided delegates with valuable tools and ideas to implement in their hometowns as they heard from a host of remarkable speakers including Jerry Jones, Jim Collins - author of Good to Great and were honored with a special appearance by The First Lady, Laura Bush. They were also treated to a celebration at Texas Stadium with Dallas Cowboys players, cheerleaders and live entertainment.

On the local Salvation Army front, The Gene and Jerry Jones Family Center for Children opened in November of 1998 in conjunction with the Army. The center offers low-income families affordable child-care programs that meet the needs of quality care and intellectual development. For 10 years, Gene and Jerry Jones served as host and underwrote the costs for the Super Lunch, a fundraising event for The Salvation Army Irving Corps Community Center and its special projects including the Family Center for Children. That event helped raise over $1.2 million.

Gene and Jerry are members of The Salvation Army's Dallas County Board and the National

Cowboys Early Thanksgiving Day Meal for The Salvation Army – Gene Jones

Advisory Board, respectively. The family was presented the Army's Partner of the Year Award in 1997 and in 1999 received the Evangeline Booth Award, one of the Army's highest national community service awards. Annually, the Cowboys organization supports the Army's Corporate Angel Tree Program, helping those in need during the holiday season. Individuals in the organization, including front office staff, coaches and players adopt "angels" to provide clothing and toys to underprivileged families.

The week before Thanksgiving, Gene Jones leads a group of Dallas Cowboys players and cheerleaders to serve an "early" Thanksgiving meal to 300 families receiving assistance from The Salvation Army Carr P. Collins Social Service Center.

MAGIC BY ASSOCIATION

Maximizing the "magic" of the Dallas Cowboys celebrity, and using that influence to assist others through community service, is the backbone of the organization's mission away from the field of competition. Each year, the team fulfills thousands of requests for ticket packages and autographed memorabilia items that can produce proceeds that range from $100 to tens of thousands of dollars per donation. Non-profit player appearances for charity and "Make-A-Wish" visits are a staple item for every Cowboys player. In addition, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities is the active philanthropic arm of the organization that annually makes significant contributions to organizations on both the local and national levels. In April of 1999, Gene and Jerry Jones made a $1 million gift to the Library of Congress for the purpose of promoting education on the national and international levels. In their continuing desire to enhance education and support young people in the community, the Jones family served as the underwriting sponsor for The Dallas Cowboys/Gene and Jerry Jones Family – Dallas Morning News All-State Scholar-Athlete Team in 2001. The program honored and provided scholarships for 12 college-bound student-athletes from across the State of Texas who distinguished themselves through academic and athletic excellence.

A wide variety of charitable efforts highlight the Jones family's continued activity in the local community. Some of those programs and events include support of The Rise School of Dallas, a unique school for children with down syndrome; a record setting celebrity roast of Jerry Jones for St. Philips School in Dallas, a facility where the team had previously funded a new playground; the Ticket Art Program, which featured the artwork of regional children's hospital patients on the 1997 Dallas Cowboys season tickets and raised money for the children's respective hospitals; the Cystic Fibrosis Sports Challenge hosted at Texas Stadium; support of the 2001-2007 Dallas Mayor's Summer Reading Programs; the MDA Fill the Boot fundraising campaign in 2004 hosted at Texas Stadium with the Irving and Dallas firefighters collecting donations; in 1998-99, the "Be Cool, Go To School" program, which rewarded Dallas elementary schools who boasted the best attendance with a visit from a Cowboys player and team mascot Rowdy, in 2005 and 2006 support of Heart of a Champion, an in-school character education program and over the last four years participation in the Taste of the NFL: The Ultimate Dallas Cowboys Tailgate Party benefiting the North Texas Food Bank and hosted with Kent Rathbun of Abacus restaurant in Dallas, Texas and co-chaired by Cowboys Pro Bowl Linebacker DeMarcus Ware and Defensive End Marcus Spears (2006-2008). Each year the event raises money to provide hundreds of thousands of meals to hungry children in North Texas.

Jerry Jones's passion for helping those who have been hit with adversity has inspired him to enlist the assistance of his players on several goodwill missions that have touched the hearts of those in need. The organization's presence in these areas often extends far beyond the boundaries of the Dallas-Fort Worth area. In the spring of 1997, Jones joined Cowboys Troy Aikman, Herschel Walker and Charles Haley on a relief trip to the tornado-ravaged state of Arkansas. Three years earlier, the entire World Champion Cowboys team went to the Oklahoma City bombing site within two weeks of the tragedy. Immediately following Hurricane Katrina that devastated the Louisiana and Mississippi coast, the team joined forces with Papa John's Pizza and served pizza and other food items to thousands of evacuee's who where brought to Reunion Arena in Dallas. In conjunction with the NFL Disaster Relief Fund, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities presented The United Way of Metropolitan Dallas $100,000 to support continued Hurricane Katrina and Rita relief efforts in the Dallas area. The team also joined forces with The Salvation Army and the Dallas and Irving Fire Departments to collect cash donations on game day at Texas Stadium. For years, Gene and Jerry Jones have been avid supporters of the Susan G. Komen Foundation and Race for the Cure for Breast Cancer. The Cowboys annually support and participate in the Komen Dallas Race for the Cure. In 1999, the Dallas Cowboys honored the Komen Foundation and 450 breast cancer survivors in a special halftime tribute at Texas Stadium.

The Cowboys are also very active in raising a large portion of the annual funds for the Happy Hill Farm Academy and Home. The Dallas Cowboys Family Cookbook and the team's annual Kickoff Luncheon serve as major revenue producers for the local academy that houses and educates abused and neglected children. The academy is also home to the Dallas Cowboys Ed Block Courage House.

Under the enthusiastic guidance of Gene Jones, who serves as a member of the board of trustees for Children's Medical Center of Dallas, the entire Cowboys team has conducted annual Christmas visits to local children's hospitals in each of the past 19 years. The holiday visitation program, which involves not only every player, but also the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, now extends to five different hospitals throughout Dallas and Ft. Worth.

Dallas Cowboys/Bank of America Habitat for Humanity – Terence Newman and Leonard Davis

For eight years, the Cowboys underwrote and produced the "Dallas Cowboys Let Us Play! Sports Camp for Girls," a three-day camp for inner-city girls ages 12 to 15 which encouraged involvement in athletics with a focus on building character and self-esteem. From 1998-2002 and again in 2004-2008 Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities has underwritten a free coaching clinic for more than 650 regional youth-league and middle school coaches who spend a day at Texas Stadium with the entire Cowboys coaching staff and have lunch with Cowboys Owner Jerry Jones.

The Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club, launched in 2001, is a program designed to introduce rookie team members to the importance of community service. Over the last seven years, rookie players have participated in monthly charity visits during the season to various non-profit organizations serving children and adults. Visits have included time with The Salvation Army, Children's Medical Center Dallas, Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Dallas, the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas, ChildCareGroup, The Brady Center/Catholic Charities, Meals on Wheels, the Irving Public Library, Arlington All Stars Childcare Center and Kid's Café at The Voice of Hope Ministries.

POWERFUL PARTNERSHIP WITH THE NFL

Cowboys/NFL Play 60 PSA Campaign Announcement – Jason Witten, youth from Boys & Girls Clubs

Through national public service announcements, local promotional events and their association with the NFL, the Cowboys are responsible for $1 million in annual support of the United Way each year. In 2003 and again in 2006, Pro Bowl Safety Roy Williams was selected to serve as the Cowboys' NFL United Way spokesman in the league's nationally televised PSA campaign. Pro Bowl Tight End Jason Witten and the youth football camp he annually hosts for 1000 children in his hometown of Elizabethton, Tenn. was the focus of a NFL United Way PSA in 2007.

The inaugural NFL United Way Hometown Huddle took place in 1999 when the Dallas Cowboys and NFL players nationwide showed support in their communities. The second Annual Hometown Huddle in 2000 involved the Dallas Cowboys secondary serving lunch to the homeless and visiting with children at The Salvation Army's Carr P. Collins Social Service Center. In 2001 and 2002, the team hosted the Hometown Huddle event at their training facility, inviting 100 boys and girls to participate in a junior training camp. Playing Bingo with over 100 senior citizens was the game of choice for the 2003 Hometown Huddle event hosted by the Cowboys and the United Way of Metropolitan Dallas at the Brady Center. In 2004, the Cowboys along with the United Way served up an early Thanksgiving Day feast for 300 deserving men and women at The Salvation Army a week before the holiday. In 2005, a dozen players and cheerleaders spent time preparing and distributing meals to clients served by Meals on Wheels. The Cowboys hosted two Hometown Huddle events in 2007 during Hispanic Heritage month; at the first, in Dallas County, players and cheerleaders helped refurbish the courtyard and greenhouse at a high school located in an predominantly Hispanic neighborhood; the second was in Arlington, Texas at the All Stars Childcare Center where players and cheerleaders conducted exercise activities with pre-school age children to emphasize the importance of an active and healthy lifestyle in an effort to help reduce childhood obesity.

The NFL and its member clubs celebrated Hispanic Heritage Month in Sept. 15 - Oct. 15, 2006. The Cowboys designated Sunday, Oct. 15th at Texas Stadium as Hispanic Heritage Day as the team played host to the Houston Texans. The game day celebration included a special presentation of the National Anthem from 2005 Grammy winners and San Angelo, Texas natives Los Lonely Boys and a half-time extravaganza featuring Paul DeAnda, a 16 year-old from Corpus Christi, Texas. El Mariachi Bonito Tech-Alitan, Ballet Folkorico Del Cielo and Ballet Folkorico St. Philips Guadalupano from San Antonio, Texas welcomed fans at Texas Stadium, a special presentation of the Colors – including flags from Latin American countries – took place during pregame ceremonies and His Excellency Enrique Hubbard Urrea/Consul General of Mexcio and The Honorable Ricardo M. Bowen/Honorary Consul General of Ecuador attended the game as the Cowboys guests. Additionally, the Cowboys kicked off the cultural observance on September 10th with the 28th Annual Fiestas Patria Festival at Texas Stadium. Presented by Univision Radio Dallas, it is the largest free outdoor Hispanic music festival in Texas. The Dallas Cowboys Rookie Club recognized Hispanic Heritage Month with a visit to the Irving Public Library for a puppet show celebrating the Hispanic culture. The team also focused their annual United Way Hometown Huddle events in the Hispanic communities in Dallas and Arlington, Texas. The Cowboys organization hosted a similar Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration in 2007 on September 30th when the team played host to the St. Louis Rams. The Cowboys long history of supporting the Hispanic culture starts at the very top of the organization. In November 2002, Jerry Jones's appreciation for the Hispanic culture earned him the title of "Honorary Mariachi" at the Mariachi Vargas Extravaganza that took place in San Antonio, Texas. The event's organizers selected Jones because of his love of the Latin culture, his contributions to education and the diverse fan base that he represents as the owner of the Cowboys. During the three years prior to Jones's recognition, the award was presented to someone who had made significant contributions to the mariachi industry – making Jones the first person who was not affiliated with the music industry to receive this unique award.

In addition, the Cowboys and the entire NFL have formed a partnership that designates over $1.5 million of annual support to the development of youth football programs throughout the country. Local

U.S. Army/Dallas Cowboys Coach of the Week Program

Cowboys' youth football initiatives include the NFL Dallas Cowboys Flag Football leagues; NFL Punt, Pass and Kick competitions; Dallas Cowboys Gatorade Junior Training Camps at area elementary schools; the NFL Dallas Cowboys Junior Player Development with The Salvation Army (2005-2007); the Dallas Cowboys Coaches Clinic for 650 youth and middle school football coaches; the Dallas Cowboys High School Coach of the Week and Coach of the Year program to honor area football coaches and award grants to high school football programs; Texas high school football playoff games and Pee Wee football games at Texas Stadium and Dallas Cowboys Youth Football Camps. In conjunction with the league initiatives and the community football field program, the Cowboys have made possible four new or refurbished football fields in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area including: a $50,000 grant to the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Dallas's Grand Prairie location; a $100,000 grant in 2002 to Pierce Football Field, located in Joppa, one of Dallas' most impoverished neighborhoods; a $100,000 grant in 1999 to the St. Philip's School and Community Center in South Dallas to help fund a new $750,000 recreation center that will include a football field; and in 1998, the Cowboys presented Dallas Moorland YMCA with the funding to build new football fields to support their growing youth football program.

In an effort to battle childhood obesity, the NFL and the Cowboys have adopted NFL Play 60 which in Dallas includes an in-school program – What Moves U – with the American Heart Association, a PSA campaign with Jason Witten – Cowboys Play 60 – with the Ad Council and a refurbished gymnasium with new sports equipment – Dallas Cowboys Fitness Zone – with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Arlington. As part of the Cowboys' commitment to Arlington, Texas - future home of the club's new stadium - Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities will donate $16.5 million over 33 years to the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Arlington Youth Foundation. The foundation is dedicated to enhancing the quality of life of the youth of the City of Arlington by funding programs and facilities dedicated to sports, recreation and education while working to foster the growth and empowerment of the community through matching funds.

In 2005, Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities and the National Football League hosted the Dallas Cowboys JUNIOR Community Quarterback Award – a league-wide volunteer recognition and award program for students ages 13-21. The program recognized student-initiated service projects focusing on community betterment and awarded those students who exemplified leadership, dedication and a commitment to improving the communities they live in with grants to fund their continued volunteer efforts. In 2000-2004, 2006 and 2007 the club hosted the Dallas Cowboys Community Quarterback Award, a league-wide volunteer recognition program that donates nearly $1 million each year to community organizations served by outstanding volunteers. Award recipients received a $10,000 grant from the Gene and Jerry Jones Family Charities donated to their charity which has included St. Philip's School & Community Center, Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children, Dallas CAN! Academy, Children's Medical Center Dallas, MDA Dallas, Assist the Officer Foundation and Bridges To Life.

AMBASSADORS OF GOOD CHEER

The world famous Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders organization is completely subsidized by the club for the primary purpose of providing goodwill and a sense of caring on a local, national and international platform. Aside from their obvious presence on game days and their diligent work in local hospitals and homes for the elderly, the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders have now made more U.S.O. visits to U.S. military troops stationed oversees than the legendary Bob Hope.

A FAMILY PASSION

The operation of the Dallas Cowboys is a very visible family passion for Gene and Jerry Jones and their three children. Jerry Jones serves as the club's owner, president and general manager, while Stephen Jones - Chief Operating Officer/Executive Vice President/Director of Player Personnel, Charlotte Jones Anderson - Vice President/Director of Charities and Special Events and Jerry Jones, Jr. - Chief Sales and Marketing Officer/Vice President/General Counsel are all actively involved with the daily management of the club. Their shared dedication to community involvement has been a family source of pride for several years, and it extends far beyond the realm of the athletic world.

In the spring of 1998, the Jones' hosted a celebrity fundraiser at their home with Lauren Bacall as the featured guest. On that one evening, for the benefit of Southern Methodist University's Meadows Foundation, the family helped produce the single largest fund raising event in University history. As a result of her efforts, the University established the Gene Jones Scholarship in her honor. More recently, the Jones Family has hosted fundraising affairs for the John G. Tower Center Medal of Freedom with President George H. W. Bush and the Dallas Center for Performing Arts with Beverly Sills.

The Lone Star Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society recognized Gene and Jerry Jones as community champions in the area of philanthropy at its annual Dinner of Champions during the 2005 offseason. The honorees impact the lives of men, women and children through their service to the community and were awarded the Hope Award, the highest honor bestowed on an individual by the National MS Society in recognition of civic and community service. The dinner chairman for the 2005 was Bruce Hardy, General Manager of Texas Stadium.

Family Gateway, a Dallas community outreach organization, recognized the work of Gene and Jerry Jones in the spring of 2003 with the Annette G. Strauss Humanitarian Award. The award is given annually to recognize those who are dedicated to enhancing the well being of others, who champion causes for the betterment of individuals and by example, encourage people to do the same. In June of 2002, the Joneses were recognized as the recipients of the Children's Champion Award for Philanthropy that was presented by the Dallas for Children organization.

Gene Jones is also a member of the executive board for the Meadows School for the Arts at Southern Methodist University, the board of directors for the John G. Tower Center for Political Studies at SMU, the executive board for the Dallas Center for Performing Arts Foundation, the advisory board for Family Gateway and the Children's Medical Center Trustees. She has previously served on the advisory board for the March of Dimes, the executive board of TACA and the executive board of the Mental Health Center. She has also been a member of the Associates of the Dallas Museum of Art.

Holiday Hospital Visit – Andre Gurode

Jerry Jones has a lifetime association with the Boys and Girls Clubs of America. In 2001, the Joneses were awarded the Chairman's Award by The Boys and Girls Clubs of America. This award is given to recognize individuals who made a positive difference in people's lives – particularly in the lives of children. The Chairman's Dinner, chaired by daughter, Charlotte Anderson, raised $1.9 million for The Boys and Girls Clubs. Jerry Jones currently serves as a national trustee for the Southwest region of the organization and was previously named the Man of the Year by the Boys and Girls Clubs of Little Rock, Arkansas.

Dallas Cowboys Banking

Make every day game day.™

Introducing a financial services suite offering exclusive benefits just for you. Only from Bank of America—the Official Bank of the Dallas Cowboys.

Personal Checking

Open a Dallas Cowboys personal checking account and express your Cowboys pride every day with checks and Check Cards featuring the Dallas Cowboys logo.* And get automatic savings when you enroll in Keep the Change® – where each Check Card purchase is rounded up to the next dollar and the difference is transferred to your savings account. Earn a 100% match on your savings for the first three months, and 10% thereafter, paid annually, up to $250 a year.☆

Credit Card

Show your pride another way. Apply for a Cowboys Extra Points™ credit card and earn points on everyday purchases for exclusive Cowboys Extra Points™ rewards. Redeem your points for unique merchandise like signed memorabilia, or for one-of-a-kind experiences like a VIP Tour of Texas Stadium and tickets to an away game. All with no annual fee.◆

To apply for Dallas Cowboys Banking products, visit bankofamerica.com/cowboys or your neighborhood Bank of America banking center today.

Bank of America

Official Bank of the Dallas Cowboys

*Standard check order fees apply.

☆ Upon enrollment, we will round up your MasterCard® Check Card purchases to the nearest dollar and transfer the difference from your checking account to your Bank of America savings account. We will match your Keep the Change savings at 100% for the first three months and, for Dallas Cowboys™ customers, 10% thereafter. The maximum total match is $250 per year. Matching funds are paid yearly after the anniversary of enrollment on accounts still open and enrolled. We will only match Keep the Change transfers on up to five checking accounts per depositor (including joint depositors) or up to five checking accounts per household, whichever is less. Eligible savings accounts include, but are not limited to, Regular Savings (or Market Rate Savings in WA and ID) that requires a minimum opening balance of $25 ($1 in WA and ID) and pays a variable Annual Percentage Yield (APY) that was 0.20% as of 6/16/2008. Money Market savings accounts are also eligible. Fees may reduce earnings. The promotional matching funds will be reported to the IRS on form 1099. Patent pending. EKTC.4.21.08
