THE COACHES

Tom Landry • Babe Dimancheff • Brad Ecklund • Tom Dahms

TOM LANDRY — Head Coach

A native of Texas and a National Football League player and coach of long standing, Tom Landry was a natural choice to coach Dallas' entry in the strongest league in the history of football.

Among Landry's major accomplishments in the Cowboys' first season was a 31-31 tie with his old team, the New York Giants. The Cowboys also held the world champion Philadelphia Eagles to a 27-25 victory, their narrowest winning margin of the entire season.

Born 37 years ago in Mission, Texas, Landry entered the University of Texas in the fall of 1942. His first tenure there was short-lived, however, as he left after one semester to enter the Army Air Corps. He flew 30 combat missions as a B-17 pilot with the Eighth Air Force.

After his discharge in November of 1945, Landry returned to the University of Texas and played football three years. He was a mainstay on the Longhorn team that whipped Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl, 27-7, and Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl, 41-28.

Landry met his wife, Alicia, at Texas and they were married in January 1949, four months before he received a bachelor of business administration degree. They have three children—Tom, Jr., age 11; Kitty, 8; and Lisa, 3.

In 1949 Landry joined the old New York Yankees of the All-America Conference as offensive and defensive halfback. When the two leagues merged, he began a 10-year association with the New York Giants. He was an active player from 1950 through '53 and a player-coach in 1954 and '55. In 1956 he became full-time defensive coach and the Giants won the world championship. In the years Landry was their defensive coach, the Giants fashioned a 33-14-1 record in league play.

The Landrys have been Dallas residents since 1957.

BORIS (BABE) DIMANCHEFF — Backfield Coach

Babe Dimancheff is well into his second decade of National Football League duty. He played for seven years and has coached for four.

A native of Indianapolis, Indiana, and a graduate of Purdue, Babe, now 39, began his professional playing career in 1945 as a half-back with the Boston Yanks. He was with the Chicago Cardinals from 1947 through 1950 and was a regular on their championship team of 1947 and '48. He closed out his playing career with the Chicago Bears in 1952.

In 1951 Dimancheff became backfield coach at Butler University, which he had attended before military service in World War II interrupted his college work. He went on to Purdue University in 1953. He coached football at Hamtramck, Michigan, in 1954-56, before joining the Pittsburgh Steelers coaching staff in 1957.

At Purdue, Babe was captain of the 1944 team and was chosen All-America, All-Big Ten, All-Midwest, Most Valuable Player at Purdue and Most Valuable Player in the Big Nine Conference.

He graduated from Purdue in 1945 with a bachelor of science degree and is married to the former Hilda Hine, also a native of Indianapolis.

TOM DAHMS — Defensive Line Coach

Tom Dahms, 34, an All-America tackle at San Diego State College is a veteran of seven years as a player in the NFL.

His early playing and coaching was primarily on the West Coast. He was born in San Diego, attended high school and college there and was line coach at the San Diego Naval Training Center.

When Tom broke into pro football in 1951, it was just up the Pacific Coast a few miles with the Los Angeles Rams. He also played with the Chicago Cardinals and the San Francisco 49ers.

Dahms returned to San Diego after his pro playing days to become athletic director of San Diego Junior High. After one year on that job he took over as line coach at the University of Virginia for one season before joining the Cowboys last year.

BRAD ECKLUND — Offensive Line Coach

A native of Los Angeles, Brad Ecklund came to the Cowboys last year from a line-coaching post at the University of Oregon.

Ecklund, 39, lived in Portland and Milwaukee, Oregon, and attended the University of Oregon one year before entering the Marine Corps in 1941 and serving until 1945.

He played at Oregon from 1946 through 1948, during which time he played in the Cotton Bowl. After finishing college, Brad joined the New York Yankees of the All-America Conference and remained with them the two years they were in the NFL. He was all-pro center in 1950 and 1951 and got his first taste of pro football in Dallas when the club moved to Texas for the 1952 season.

After his playing career ended, Ecklund began coaching in Oregon high schools. His Gresham teams were in the state finals two of his three years there and were league champions all three years. Then he went to Roseberg High School for one year where his team was runner-up to the league champs. For the two years before joining the Cowboys in 1960, he coached at the University of Oregon.

CLINT HOUY — Trainer

A native of Fredericksburg, Texas, Clint Houy has an extensive background as an athletic trainer despite being only 27 years old.

"Pee Wee" Houy started as a student assistant at the University of Texas, where he received his bachelor of science degree in 1955.

His first job was at the Air Force Academy when it opened for the first time in 1955. He fulfilled his military obligation while serving as athletic trainer there and was with the Air Force team that played a scoreless tie with TCU in the 1959 Cotton Bowl game.

With the Ottawa Rough Riders in the Canadian professional league in 1959, Houy returned to his native state to become the Cowboys trainer in 1960.

JACK ESKRIDGE — Equipment Manager

A basketball player who holds one Kansas University scoring record that even Wilt Chamberlain never bettered, Jack Eskridge has been in most every phase of athletics since graduating from high school in Independence, Mo.

The 39-year-old Kansas City, Kan., native played pro basketball for two seasons (1949-50) with the Chicago Stags and Indianapolis Jets of the NBA after playing at Kansas in 1946-47-48. He also coached five years in Iowa and Kansas high schools and five years at Kansas University.

Chamberlain, the Jayhawks' great scorer while Eskridge was an assistant there, never bettered Eskridge's record of 30 points in one half.

"But he came awfully close the night he had 57 in one game," Eskridge recalled. "He had 29 one half and 28 the other."

GIL BRANDT — Player Scouting Director

A native of Milwaukee, Gil Brandt is another 27-year-old who has managed to crowd a maximum of experience into a few years.

This is his seventh season of professional football talent hunting, his fourth year at it on a full-time basis.

After his graduation from the University of Wisconsin in 1954, Gil scouted on a part-time basis for the Los Angeles Rams from 1955 through '57.

In 1958 he became a full-time scout for the San Francisco 49ers and remained with them until joining the Cowboys staff in the winter of 1960.

A Look at the 1961 Season

By TOM LANDRY

Head Coach, Dallas Cowboys

The Eastern Conference should produce one of the most exciting and evenly-matched races in the 42-year history of the National Football League.

After analyzing last season with other members of the Cowboys coaching staff, I feel that the Cowboys came very close to winning several games last season. A bit more experience in one spot, a bit deeper in personnel in another and we could have turned half a dozen defeats into victories.

Time was our big enemy last season. We've had time to jell now and we've received some outstanding help in off-season trades and through participating in the player draft last winter for the first time.

Of course, the other Eastern Conference teams haven't been standing pat over the winter. The Philadelphia Eagles are the world champions and they're still the team to beat; Cleveland has the best running attack in the league and its No. 1 passer in Milt Plum; St. Louis is a big favorite with a lot of folks because of its devastating running game; the Washington Redskins expect great things from a number of rookies this season and expect continued improvement from Quarterback Ralph Guglielmi; the New York Giants have been top contenders for four years and there's no reason to expect them to slow down now; and Pittsburgh, which beat both Cleveland and Philadelphia last season, will be tough as long as Bobby Layne and Tom Tracy are around.

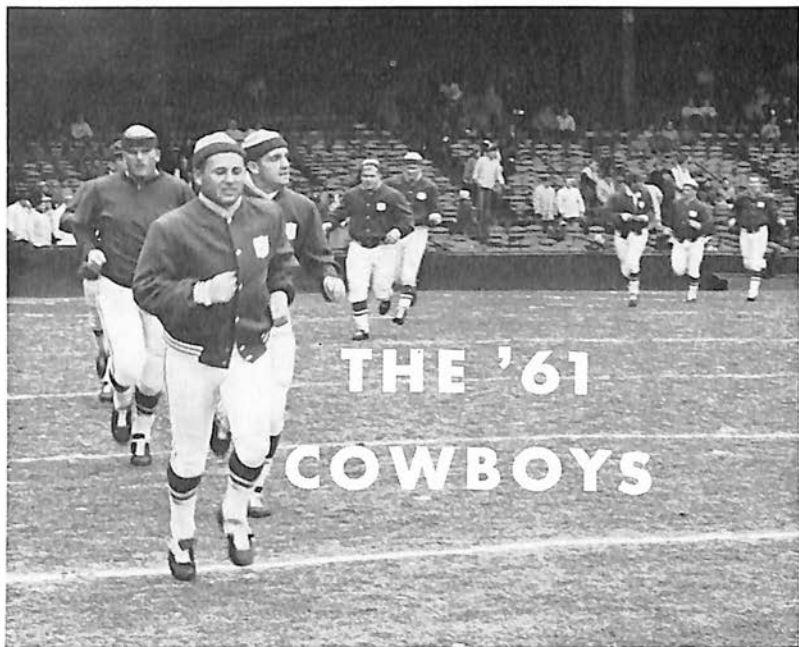

And now for the Cowboys.

We can't help but be improved in many ways. Our running will be improved with the availability of such players as Don Perkins and Amos Marsh. Our passing was good in 1960 and should be even better now that Eddie LeBaron has had time to familiarize himself with his receivers and our system and now that Don Meredith has progressed to the point where he may be able to practically split time with Eddie.

Our defense showed a lot of promise in late season last year and it should be much better this year with that added experience, plus the fact that such outstanding prospects as Dick Moegle and Bob Lilly will be in our defensive unit. Linebacking appears to be especially promising with Jerry Tubbs back from his finest season in 1960, and with Chuck Howley joining us from the Bears.

Like most others, I expect the Eagles, the Browns and the Cardinals to be as tough as any team in either conference. But I think you can expect any of the other Eastern Conference teams to be equally as tough on any given day — and that includes the Cowboys.

LAYNE

1960 Record — Won 5, Lost 6, Tied 1; All-Time Record — Won 120, Lost 181, Tied 13.

Coaching Staff — Buddy Parker (fifth year), Walter Kiesling, Dick Plasman, Thurman McGraw, Art Lewis, Ken Stillely, Jack Butler, Chuck Cherundolo.

Buddy Parker says, "I feel the Browns finished the 1960 season with the best balanced club in the East and I feel the St. Louis Cardinals have great potential, providing Sam Etcheverry has the year everyone expects . . . you look at the personnel of the other five clubs, including the Steelers, and you gulp and you hope for 'a little bit of luck.' Luck is a big factor in the NFL today . . . the league now is a messful of equals. There are enough good players on any team to give you a good battle and beat you every week. And a weak team can blossom into a very strong team in the course of a season. Take Dallas for example. Last year it was generally conceded their road would be rough. It was, but the team still came mighty close to winning six games. I can speak from experience — we just beat them in the final seconds."

VAN BROCKLIN

McELHENNY

Coaching Staff — Norman Van Brocklin (first year), Harry Gilmer, Darrel Brewster, Stan West, Walt Yowarsky.

Norm Van Brocklin says, "We'll build our attack around a pair of hard-running halfbacks and an experienced quarterback. George Shaw (obtained from the Giants) will be our quarterback. He can throw the ball as well as anybody. All he needs is a little confidence and I think that will come when he knows he's got the job as our No. 1 quarterback. Hugh McElhenny (from the 49ers) and Tommy Mason (the No. 1 draft choice from Tulane) are strong, agile runners. And we may have a sleeper in Paul Winslow (from the Packers) . . .

"We won't have the offensive ends and fullbacks and we won't have the depth that some other NFL clubs have, but I think our offensive and defensive lines will be surprisingly good and we'll have a better-than-expected secondary."

(Note — the Vikings have first rights to all players put out on waivers and may turn up with several more key performers as other clubs cut down to the 36-player limit. Unlike the Cowboys in their inaugural season last year, the Vikings were also able to participate in the player draft. They signed their top four choices and 13 of the first 17 eligible to sign this year.)

P. BROWN

J. BROWN

1960 Record — Won 8, Lost 4, Tied 1; All-time Record — Won 152, Lost 43, Tied 6.

Coaching Staff — Paul Brown (16th year), Paul Bixler, Fritz Heisler, Howard Brinker, Ed Ulinski, Richard Evans.

Paul Brown says, "We had a young and growing team last season, with many of our rookies sure to come of age now that they've had a year of experience. With the addition of several outstanding prospects from last year's college teams — boys like Bob Crespino and Johnny Brewer — we're looking to the 1961 season with optimism. We could go into this season with essentially the same offensive and defensive units and be a definite title threat. But we won't be complacent. If some of these rookies come through and take a job away from a veteran, we'll be just that much stronger . . . Tag Anderson (Georgia Tech) and Crespino are top-rated youngsters at offensive and flanking backs. We had four men playing that position at various times last year; there's room for improvement here."

Coaching Staff — Al Sherman (first year), Harland Svare, Ed Kolman, Ken Kavanaugh, Don Heinrich, Andy Robustelli, Jim Patton.

Al Sherman says, "I feel that our ball club has the potential to be a winner. Last year injuries hit Frank Gifford (now retired), Alex Webster, Kyle Rote, Darrell Dess and Charlie Conerly . . . we shouldn't have that much bad luck two years in a row . . . I was counting on Gifford primarily as a receiver in 1961, not as a runner. We had to find another pass-catcher with downfield speed and we think we found him in Del Shofner (acquired in a trade with the Rams) . . . Erich Barnes will help offset the loss of Linden Crow (now with the Rams) in the defensive secondary. We gave up a lot of long-gainers last season, but Barnes will help tighten things up there . . . Cleveland looks like the toughest in the Eastern Division, but don't overlook those young St. Louis Cardinals. The Eagles, even without Van Brocklin, are going to be right up there. And so will the Steelers, if they can tighten their pass defense."

MCDONALD

1960 Record — Won 11, Lost 2; All-Time Record — Won 141, Lost 169, Tied 13.

Coaching Staff — Nick Skorich (first year), Jerry Williams, Charles Gauer, Lauri Niemi.

Nick Skorich says, "We have three of the best pass receivers in pro football in Tommy McDonald, Pete Retzlaff and Bobby Walston. Our running attack should improve with such ball-carriers as Clarence Peaks, Ted Dean, Billy Barnes, Theron Sapp and Tim Brown . . . We'll need offensive line replacements for Gerry Huth (a guard) and Bill Lapham (reserve center) . . . Our defensive line, a much improved group in 1960, returns intact and our overall defense should improve with the addition of linebackers Monte Lee (Texas) and Charles Strange (LSU) . . . We expect Chuck Bednarik to play only one way in 1961, but which way remains to be seen . . . I know these Eagles and with their spirit, there's no telling how far they'll go. There will be a carry-over of the winning spirit of last season. I look forward to '61 with a feeling of pride and great anticipation. We're going to hand out a few surprises to the experts already writing us off."

CROW

1960 Record — Won 6, Lost 5, Tied 1; All-Time Record — Won 166, Lost 251, Tied 25.

Coaching Staff — Frank (Pop) Ivy (fourth year), Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, Ray Willsey.

Pop Ivy says, "The Cardinals have as good a chance as any team in the Eastern Conference. We are cognizant of the fact that we haven't beaten the Browns in four years; that we've beaten Philadelphia only once and have beaten New York and Pittsburgh only twice each in the same four years. The four teams mentioned figure to be in the thick of things for the Eastern title, and the Cardinals play the Giants, Browns and Eagles twice during the first half of the 14-game season, so our chances should be pretty well established after the first seven games. Losing John Crow through at least the first half of the season is a tremendous blow to our attack. . . We'll have to improve considerably in personnel and play execution to take up the slack."

WASHINGTON REDSKINS

Nov. 19th in Dallas

Dec. 17th in Washington

Ninth and H Sts., N.W.
Washington, D.C.

President — George P. Marshall

Publicity — Dave Slattery

Office Phone District 7-6140

Colors — Burgundy and Old Gold

Washington Stadium 50,000 Cap.

1960 Record — Won 1, Lost 9, Tied 2; All-Time Record — Won 136, Lost 128, Tied 12.

Coaching Staff — Bill McPeak (first year), Torgy Torgeson, Abe Gibson, Ted Marchibroda, Tim Temerario.

Bill McPeak says, "I am a born optimist — maybe that's why I expect the Redskins to jell this year. However, I do have some tangible reasons . . . This year the Redskins will operate exclusively from a three-end offense. I believe this is the finest attack in football and the Redskins can easily be adapted to it . . . I think our offensive line is strong — the switch of veteran end Bill Anderson from a flanking position to a tight end slot will aid Bill and the team. I believe we have two of the best young passing quarterbacks in football in Norman Snead and George Izo. They should be able to take full advantage of our offense — which is primarily designed for passing. Our running attack should be stronger than last year. Sam Horner is the key. He and Dick James give us a fine one-two halfback punch and fullback is set with Don Bosseler and Jim Cunningham . . . Defensively, I rate the Redskins line the equal of any in the NFL . . . I wouldn't dare rate the Eastern Conference — we all face quite a problem in dethroning the Eagles."

The kids' Cowboys Club has free membership and entitles youngsters to newsletters, free admission to certain practice sessions and other activities. The adult Cowboys Club memberships are $2 per family. Its features include a Stadium Club where members can relax with snacks and refreshments before and after games, in-season luncheons, admission to certain practice sessions and trips to out-of-town games.

Season tickets to the Cowboys' seven home National Football League games sell for $32.20. All season tickets are reserved and when someone purchases a season ticket, he has the right to claim the same seat in future seasons. He also retains an option on that seat for the Salesmanship Club's pre-season game and championship playoffs. Single-game reserved seat tickets sell for $4.60, general admission tickets for $2.75 and student tickets for $1.00.

The Cowboys' Free Football for Kids Program allows up to five children 14 years of age or younger to accompany each adult who buys a $2.75 general admission ticket.

HALFTIME SHOWS

This is the schedule for halftime activities at the Cowboys' 1961 home games:

Steelers Game—Sept. 17

Music Day with the Cowboys will feature four outstanding high school bands from the Dallas-Fort Worth area — Brewer of Fort Worth, Irving, Mexia and Plano. Each band will give a four-minute demonstration of precision drilling and at the finish the bands will serenade in mass formation.

Vikings Game—Sept. 24

The Cowboys offer a salute to the Rose Capital of the World — Tyler, Texas. Taking part in the activities will be the Tyler Junior College band, the Apache Belles drill team from Tyler Junior College, the 1961 Rose Queen's Court and the Tyler Clown Club. The latter is a group of Tyler men whose routines are similar to those of circus clowns.

Giants Game—Oct. 15

Circus Day with the Cowboys will include acts by professional circus performers with the Gil Gray International Circus and by amateurs from Dallas. This will include floats, elephants, horses and ponies. Also on hand will be the 30-member Oglewanagi Indian Dancers, the state champion Indian dance group from Mexia, Texas

Eagles Game—Oct. 22

Appearing for the second straight year with the Cowboys will be the Galveston Ball High School band and Tornettes, a 100-member drill team. This group will also appear at the 1962 Sugar Bowl game in New Orleans for the second time.

Cardinals Game—Nov. 5

A Salute to the Armed Forces is the theme of this show. High school and college bands and military drill teams will perform precision drills and feature military music.

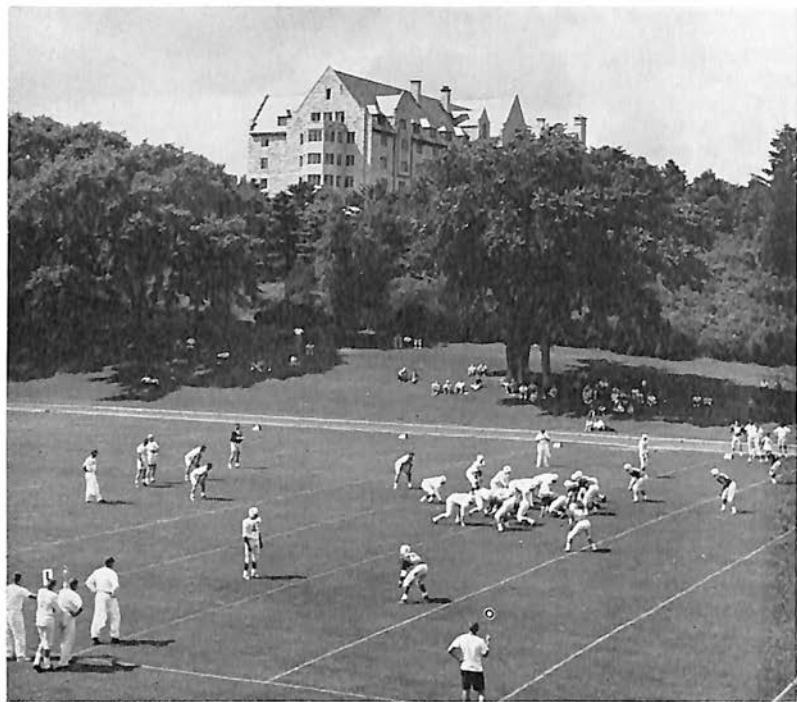

Redskins Game—Nov. 19

The area finals of the Pass, Punt and Kick contest will be staged on the Cotton Bowl turf. The Dallas winners' distances will be measured against other area winners to determine national champions. The Arlington State College and Arlington High School bands will also perform.

Browns Game—Dec. 3

The Kermit and Odessa High School bands, two of the nation's outstanding aggregations, will present a Salute to High School Bands Across the Country. These two West Texas bands are recognized throughout the U.S. The Kermit band has been invited to participate in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade this year.

Jim Skinner of Dallas is director of halftime activities at all Cowboys home games.

COWBOYS PRE-SEASON

The Dallas Cowboys ushered in their second season in the National Football League by training at St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn., and also ushered the Minnesota Vikings into existence by playing them in the Vikings' first game in history.

Results of the Cowboys' pre-season games in 1961:

COWBOYS 38, VIKINGS 13

At Sioux Falls, S.D.—Don Meredith and Eddie LeBaron riddled Vikings defense for 241 yards and three touchdowns passing. L.G. Dupre gained 48 yards on eight carries. Frank Clarke caught four passes for 54 yards and two touchdowns.

PACKERS 30, COWBOYS 7

At Dallas — Jim Taylor rushed for 112 yards, Bart Starr completed 14 of 24 passes for 188 yards and one touchdown as the Western Conference champions won easily in the Cowboys first Cotton Bowl appearance of the year. The Cowboys touchdown came on an 80-yard pass from Eddie LeBaron to Frank Clarke. Clarke caught six for 140 yards.

GIANTS 28, COWBOYS 10

At Albuquerque, New Mexico — Eddie LeBaron quarterbacked the Cowboys the entire game as Don Meredith sat out with a sore arm. LeBaron hit 13 of 27 for 171 yards, but Giants held Cowboys to 134 yards rushing. Rookie Bob Gaiters rushed seven times for 32 yards and caught three passes for 41 to pace Giants attack.

COWBOYS 35, COLTS 24

At Norman, Okla. — Don Meredith and Amos Marsh starred in big stunner of pre-season schedule. Meredith hit 15 of 26 for 224 yards and four touchdowns. Marsh gained 41 yards on six carries, caught four passes for 93 yards. Cowboys intercepted four Johnny Unitas passes, two by Tom Franckhauser.

49ERS 24, COWBOYS 10

At Sacramento, Calif. — The Cowboys looked down the barrel of the 49ers' shotgun offense without the services of three defensive starters. The 49ers took the advantage in the second period after intercepting a pass when the Cowboys drove inside their 10-yard line. The Cowboys suited out only four defensive backs as Tom Franckhauser and Jimmy Harris were injured. Linebacker Jerry Tubbs also missed the game.

THE COWBOY

The Dallas Cowboys' 1961 game programs feature the cattlemen and cowboys who contributed to the colorful history of the Southwest area which the Cowboys represent in the National Football League.

The cover of each program through the '61 season will be a portrait of a famous Texas cattleman or cowboy—such men as Charles Goodnight, the Pitchfork Kid, Scandalous John Selman, Texas Ranger Capt. Tom Hickman. Inside the program, a page will be devoted to a biography of the individual with some earthy anecdotes about his life and adventures.

Two leaders in their respective fields, Texas Historian Frank X. Tolbert and Sports Cartoonist Bill McClanahan, combine their talents to bring this touch of Texas history to Cowboys fans.

Tolbert is the author of several books of fact and fiction on the days of the old West. His down-to-earth column, "Tolbert's Texas," is a favorite of readers of the Dallas Morning News. He is also the author of the story "Melody Jones," which was made into a very successful motion picture several years ago.

McClanahan's sports cartoons appear regularly in the Dallas News and his work has adorned athletic publications across the country for many years.

The Cowboys are making these eight program-cover drawings (the seven league games and the pre-season Salesmanship Club game) available at the end of the season for $1.00 a set. The printing will be removed to make them suitable for framing, since they carry historical significance for the people of Texas.
