THE MANAGEMENT

MURCHISON/SCHRAMM

The scene was the dressing room of the World Champion Dallas Cowboys just after Super Bowl VI. Chairman of the Board Clint W. Murchison Jr. was asked to comment on his team's first NFL title.

"This," smiled Murchison, "is the successful culmination of our 12-year plan."

Anyone familiar with the trials and tribulations of the Cowboys from the winless first season in 1960 to the near misses of the middle and late '60s to this happy January afternoon in 1972 had to recognize the irony in Murchison's statement.

Prior to Super Bowl VI, perhaps no team had been so near and yet so far so many times. But Murchison and Texas E. Schramm, the President and General Manager of the Cowboys, never wavered in their belief that the big prize eventually would come to Dallas.

Schramm controls the day-to-day operations of the club. Working closely with him are Al Ward, Vice President for Administration, and Gil Brandt, Vice President for Personnel Development.

Brandt is one of the "original Cowboys," and was the team's first talent scout. Ward joined the organization as public relations director in 1966 and became assistant general manager the next year. Both were named vice presidents following the 1970 season.

Schramm holds a BA degree in Journalism from the University of Texas, acquired between 1939 and 1947 with time-out for a four-year hitch in the Air Transport Command where he made Captain.

While still in school, Schramm was a member of the sports staff of the Austin American Statesman and later sports editor.

In 1947 he joined the Los Angeles Rams as publicity director, and in a 10-year career there, rose to general manager.

He left the Rams to join Columbia Broadcasting System as Assistant Director of Sports in 1957 and was there until summoned by Murchison and Bedford Wynne to guide the Cowboys.

One of his major assets is to be a sound judge of men. It was Schramm who brought Pete Rozelle into pro football as publicity man for the Rams.

Aside from the development of the Cowboys, perhaps his major achievements have been his work with scouting systems, both with the Rams and Cowboys, and the merger of the NFL and AFL.

It was Schramm and Lamar Hunt, owner of the Kansas City Chiefs, who handled preliminary negotiations for the merger.

THE COACH

When the players carried him off the field after Super Bowl VI, The Great Stone Face broke into a broad grin. It was a moment for which the Dallas Cowboys and their fans had been waiting for 12 long years.

Actually, contrary to what you may have read or heard, it was not the first Tom Landry smile in history. It only seemed that way to outside observers, as season after season the cool, disciplined approach of the Cowboys coach took his team so close to the summit.

Dick Nolan, the San Francisco 49ers coach who was Landry's teammate on the New York Giants and an assistant of his at Dallas, perhaps put it into perspective recently when he described Landry the player.

"As a defensive back," said Nolan of Landry, "he wasn't that fast, and you'd look at him and think you could beat him.

"But you'd get there and you'd end up fighting for your doggone life. He could knock your head off."

So it wasn't Landry the robot who maintained that apparently unshakable composure through all those years of disappointment. It was Landry the competitor. He wouldn't allow himself the luxury of celebrating until the pinnacle had been reached.

"Even as a player," said Nolan, "he was a very brilliant guy, very exacting. He always knew exactly what he could do."

Typically, Landry has decided the Cowboys will not rest on their laurels. One World Championship is fine. Two would be that much better.

"We need to make every game the ultimate of the moment," he said as he looked ahead to the 1972 season. "You can't keep a team all stirred up through 14 games plus the playoffs, but we have to recognize that the teams we play will make us prove we're World Champions. Every week is Super Bowl week when you play as champion."

It has been a difficult road for Landry and his Cowboys. The first year, 1960, they did not win a game. They didn't break even until 1965 brought a 7-7 finish. From 1966 through 1971 they won 63, lost 19 and tied two, but not until Jan. 16, 1972, did they end a season on a happy note.

Through it all, Landry remained the same.

"I can remember times when Tom would tell me this or that would happen," said Nolan. "To me, it might not be logical at the time. But nine times out of 10 it would happen. Sometimes it was almost, well, spooky."

Lee Roy Jordan was a super player at Alabama. The Cowboys drafted him No. 1 in 1963, but many predicted he was too small to be a middle linebacker in the pros. He is entering his 10th season as a Dallas starter.

"The thing that bothered me was all the stories I had heard about the pros being so complicated," says Jordan. "I was afraid that I'd never learn everything a pro linebacker has to know.

"But I found out that Coach Landry is so thorough that my job is actually easier in the pros."

Tight end Billy Truax joined the Cowboys in 1971 after seven seasons with the Los Angeles Rams. In his last five years as a regular with the Rams he caught 174 passes. In '71 with the Cowboys, playing on a bad leg and alternating with Mike Ditka, Truax caught 15 passes. And then he made this statement:

"Tom Landry is the greatest man I've ever met. He is undoubtedly the foremost authority on football. Landry is far and away the best coach in football today."

Landry's patience is mentioned often by his players, especially those with small college backgrounds.

"The Cowboys worked with me on and off season," says Jethro Pugh, an 11th-round draft choice from Elizabeth City State in 1965. "A team couldn't have had more patience."

"Coach Landry talked with me when I first arrived in camp," said Rayfield Wright of Fort Valley State, a seventh-round selection in 1967. "He told me that I had the ability to play for the Cowboys, despite the fact I came from a small school. That helped my confidence a lot.

"And then, the patience that was shown me made all the difference. I was always aggressive, but I had a lot to learn."

Says Landry, "We'll never give up on a player until we're convinced he can't do the job."

All these Landry qualities came together in 1971 to produce a champion. And, it was a year in which one of the least publicized facets of his personality — his sly sense of humor — began to become more evident.

On the team plane from New York after a late-season victory over the Giants, Landry was told by reporters that a bomb threat had been telephoned to the press box during the game. He was asked what he would have done if the press box had, in fact, gone up in a puff of smoke.

"We would have had 30 seconds of silent prayer," said Landry. "And then we would have continued, with enthusiasm."

Landry's Dallas record of 88-72-6 put him 11th on the NFL coaches' all-time victory list heading into the 1972 season. He was fifth in victories among active coaches, trailing only Paul Brown (126), Weeb Ewbank (119), Hank Stram (104) and Don Shula (91).

Tom was born in Mission, Tex., on Sept. 11, 1924. He was an All-Regional fullback at Mission High before enrolling at the University of Texas.

After one semester at Texas, Landry went into the Air Corps and flew 30 missions over Germany as a B-17 pilot for the Eighth Air Force.

Following his discharge in November of 1945, Tom returned to Texas where he earned All-Southwest Conference honors as a junior and co-captained the Longhorns as a senior. Those Texas teams defeated Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl and Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl.

Landry joined the old New York Yankees of the All-America Conference in 1949, moving to the New York Giants in 1950. He was a mainstay in the Giants' defensive backfield through 1955, the last two years as a player-coach. He was named to the All-Pro team in 1954.

Retiring as a player following the 1955 season, Tom was the Giants' defensive coach through 1959. New York Head Coach Jim Lee Howell called him "the best defensive coach in the business."

Tom, who received an industrial engineering degree from the University of Houston in 1952, lived in Houston during the off-season before joining the Cowboys. He and his wife Alicia have three children — Tom Jr., 22; Kitty, 19, and Lisa, 14.

Tom devotes much of his spare time to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He is first vice president of the National FCA and serves as Chairman of the Board of the Dallas FCA chapter. He also is on the Board of Governors of Highland Park Methodist Church in Dallas and Dallas Town North YMCA.

ERMAL ALLEN Special Assistant

Ermal teams with Sid Gillman in the Cowboys' new Research and Development Department, studying and evaluating all the players and teams in the NFL.

Ermal and his wife Allie have a son, two daughters and two grandchildren.

BOBBY FRANKLIN Special Teams Coach

Bobby takes over kicking game responsibilities for the Cowboys this year after four seasons as defensive backfield coach. He's also in charge of the exchange of scouting films with other clubs.

Bobby married the former JoAn Hannaford following the 1971 season.

SID GILLMAN Special Assistant

The sixth winningest NFL coach of all time (114 victories in 16 seasons at Los Angeles and San Diego), Gillman joined the Cowboys early in 1972 to team with Ermal Allen in the Research and Development Department.

Sid is a native of Minneapolis (10/26/11) who played varsity football as an end at Ohio State. He was an assistant coach at Ohio State, Denison, Miami of Ohio and Army and a head coach at Miami of Ohio and Cincinnati before being named head coach of the Los Angeles Rams in 1955.

He moved to San Diego in 1960 and his team won the AFL title in 1963. His record with the Chargers was 86-54-6.

Sid and his wife Esther have three married daughters, one son and seven grandchildren.

JIM MYERS
Offensive Line Coach

Jim and Ermal Allen are the senior members of Tom Landry's staff, both coming to the Cowboys in 1962. His work with the offensive line has resulted in All-Pro honors for tackles Rayfield Wright and Ralph Neely and guard John Niland.

Myers, who will celebrate his 51st birthday when the Cowboys meet the St. Louis Cardinals on Nov. 12, is a Madison, W. Va., native who was a standout lineman at both Tennessee (1941 and 1942) and Duke (in the Marine V-12 program in 1943). He attained the rank of captain in the Marine Corps.

Jim was an assistant coach at Wofford College, Vanderbilt and UCLA and head coach at Iowa State and Texas A&M before joining the Cowboys.

Jim and his wife Carolyn have three daughters and four grandchildren.

DAN REEVES
Offensive Backfield Coach

Dan announced his retirement as a player after the '71 season, ending a seven-year career that had numerous high points despite his constant battles with knee injuries.

A player-coach the past two seasons, Reeves may be the youngest full-time assistant in the NFL in 1972. He was born on Jan. 19, 1944.

Dan is a native of Rome, Ga., who quarterbacked South Carolina for three years. He signed with the Cowboys as a free agent in 1965 and became a running back who moved to fifth on the list of all-time Dallas rushing leaders.

Dan and his wife Pam have two daughters and a son.

Pass Offense Coach

Ray is in his fifth year of directing the Cowboys pass offense, and his efforts helped Dallas become the NFC's No. 1 passing team in 1971.

A six-time All-Pro running back and receiver with the Cleveland Browns, Renfro had coaching stints with the Washington Redskins and Detroit Lions before moving to Dallas in 1968.

A Whitesboro, Tex., native (11/7/30), Ray was a small college All-American at North Texas State before beginning his 12-year career with the Browns.

Ray and his wife Sandra have three teen-age sons.

GENE STALLINGS Defensive Backfield Coach

Gene is the latest addition to the Cowboys on-field coaching staff, taking over defensive backfield responsibilities after seven seasons as head coach at Texas A&M.

The 37-year-old Stallings (3/2/35) grew up in Paris, Tex., and was an All-Southwest Conference end at Texas A&M. He was a tri-captain of Bear Bryant's undefeated 1956 team.

Gene served one season as a student assistant at A&M, then moved with Bryant to Alabama where he was assistant head coach before returning to his alma mater in 1965.

Gene and his wife Ruth Ann have four daughters and a son.

ERNIE STAUTNER Defense Coach

Stautner's defense ranked No. 1 in the NFL against the rush in 1971, a familiar position for the Cowboys since Ernie arrived on the scene in 1966. The Cowboys led their league or conference in rushing defense five of the past six years.

Stautner is the only Pro Football Hall of Famer in the Dallas organization. He was voted into the Hall in 1970 immediately after becoming eligible for consideration. Ernie played 15 years with the Pittsburgh Steelers as a 235-pound defensive tackle and appeared in nine Pro Bowl games.

Ernie played football at Boston College after a 1943-46 hitch in the Marine Corps. He is a native of Calm, Bavaria (4/2/25), but grew up in Albany, N. Y.

Ernie and his wife Helen have a son and two daughters.

JERRY TUBBS Linebacker Coach

An original Cowboy, Jerry played middle linebacker in Dallas for eight years before becoming a full-time coach in 1968. He was a teammate of all three of his current linebackers — Chuck Howley, Lee Roy Jordan and Dave Edwards.

Born in Breckenridge, Tex., on Jan. 23, 1935, Jerry was an All-America center-linebacker for the 1954-55-56 Oklahoma teams that never lost a game. He received the Walter Camp Award as the nation's outstanding player following his senior season.

Tubbs was drafted No. 1 by the Chicago Cardinals and also played for the San Francisco 49ers before coming to Dallas in 1960.

Jerry and his wife Marlene have a son and a daughter.

DICK MANSPERGER — Player Personnel Director

Mansperger is in his seventh season with the Cowboys and his second as director of the team's scouting operations.

The 39-year-old bachelor is a 1958 graduate of Arizona State, where he played for current Green Bay Packers Coach Dan Devine. Dick was head coach for two years at Palo Verde Junior College in Blythe, Calif. He followed that with assistant coaching stints at West Texas, Arizona State, UCLA and Iowa before joining the Cowboys.

A keen judge of talent, Dick's recruiting coups in college included the signing of Mel Farr and Gary Belbin at UCLA and Jerry Smith at Arizona State.

DON COCHREN — Trainer

Don joined the Cowboys in 1965 after gaining several years of experience in both the college and pro ranks.

A graduate of Purdue who gained his physical therapy certificate at Pennsylvania, the 40-year-old Cochren spent two years as trainer at Case Institute in Cleveland and four years as trainer of the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League. He also put in two years as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force.

Don and his wife Imogene have two daughters and two sons.

LARRY GARDNER — Trainer

Larry came to Dallas with Don Cochren in 1965, making this the eighth NFL season for the Cowboys' training team.

Gardner, 33, is a graduate of McNeese State and the Hermann Hospital School of Physical Therapy in Houston. He spent two years on the University of California staff, with time out for a six-month tour of Army duty, then spent a year as football trainer at Stanford.

Larry currently is serving his second full term as president of the Professional Football Trainers.

Larry and his wife Carol have one daughter and one son.

JACK ESKRIDGE — Equipment Manager

Jack, a former college and professional basketball standout, has been with the Cowboys since their inception.

The 46-year-old Kansas City, Kan., native played basketball at Kansas in 1946-47-48 and with the Chicago Stags and Indianapolis Jets of the NBA in 1949-50. He also coached five years in Iowa and Kansas high schools and five years at Kansas.

Jack set a Kansas U. basketball record with 30 points in one half. He has two sons and two daughters.

THE PLAYERS

Herb Adderley • 26

CORNERBACK • MICHIGAN STATE • 12th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 200 • BORN: 6/8/39 • (D-1 FOR '61)

PRO: If you were listing National Football League players who deserve to be classified as "winners," you would have to include the name Herb Adderley pretty near the top. In 11 NFL seasons, Adderley has played in four Super Bowls — more than any other man. Someone got out an adding machine last winter and deduced that Herb had collected more than $100,000 in playoff money since beginning his pro career in 1961. He has come to expect success. "In the first Super Bowl game (when he was with Green Bay in 1966) I was nervous," said Herb. "In the second one I relaxed and picked off a pass. Last year (after joining Dallas in a trade) I was totally relaxed. This year I was afraid I was too relaxed. I went to sleep on the bus going out to the stadium." Adderley led the Cowboys in interceptions in 1971, stealing six enemy passes and moving to fourth on the list of active NFC interceptors. "If I can see the football and feel something happening ahead of time," says Herb, "I go for it." And then, with the ideal attitude for a cornerback, he adds, "If I miss and the guy gets loose, it's just one of those things." Adderley doesn't miss often. Bart Starr called him "the best cornerback who ever played the game," and Herb works hard to live up to that evaluation. "Pride in performance," he says, "that's something I've always had. When people leave the stadium I want them to say they've just watched one of the best cornerbacks they've ever seen in their lives."

COLLEGE: An All-Big Ten halfback and tri-captain at Michigan State in 1960, Herb capped his college career with appearances in the East-West Shrine, Hula Bowl, All-American and College All-Star games. He was the Packers' No. 1 draft choice in 1961.

PERSONAL: Herb, his wife Barbara and their daughter Toni (2/12/68) make their off-season home in Herb's native Philadelphia.

HT: 6-0 • WT: 180 • BORN: 8/3/40 • (D-2 FOR '62)

PRO: When Lance Alworth, the leading active pass receiver in the National Conference and No. 4 in the all-time NFL rankings, joined the Cowboys prior to the 1971 season he had some adjustments to make. In nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers he had averaged more than 50 catches and 1,000 yards a year. He set records that may never be equalled in becoming an all-time AFL All-Star. But with the Cowboys, Lance knew some things would be different. "The Cowboys are not a team where one or two individuals really count," he said. "I've had a lot of individual things happen to me, and that's all fine and great. You enjoy that for the recognition. Still, the fact remains that the name of the game is win." With Alworth, the Cowboys won their first World Championship. "I haven't received near as much double coverage," said Bob Hayes late in the year. "They have to respect Alworth. He's out there like a mine ready to go off at any time." While he was settling into the unfamiliar role of co-star, Lance began to hone his blocking skills. By mid-season Tom Landry was calling him "as good a blocker as any flanker we've had." And on that subject, Alworth summed up the kind of player he has become. "In San Diego," he says, "I used to walk around the house mumbling, 'Watch it, catch it, tuck it, run it.' In Dallas, I growl at the cat, make faces in the mirror and kick the trash can. Blocking is something you have to make yourself do. I'm not a Mean Joe Greene, but I'm a mean gnat."

COLLEGE: Alworth was an All-America tailback at Arkansas. A three-time academic All-American, he passed up a bonus offer from the New York Yankees to play football and run track at Arkansas.

PERSONAL: Born in Houston, Lance won 15 letters at Brookhaven, Miss., High School. He and his wife Marilyn now make their year-round home in Dallas. Their children are Lance Jr. (2/21/61), Gregory (9/29/62), Kelly Ann (7/11/63) and Bradley (6/14/66).

George Andrie • 66

DEFENSIVE END • MARQUETTE • 11th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 250 • BORN: 4/20/40 • (D-6 FOR '62)

PRO: Andrie divided time with second-year man Pat Toomay through much of the 1971 season, but when the Cowboys got down to the playoffs Coach Tom Landry went all the way with the old pro. The move paid off, spectacularly so when George intercepted a John Brodie pass to set up the first touchdown in the Cowboys' 14-3 NFC Championship victory over San Francisco. In the Super Bowl, Andrie was an integral part of the Dallas defense that limited Miami's NFL-leading rushing attack to 80 yards. A starter since almost the outset of his Cowboys career, George has played in four Pro Bowls. In the 1970 game he was named the East's Most Valuable Lineman.

COLLEGE: When Marquette dropped football prior to George's senior season, his hopes for a pro career dimmed. But the Cowboys' files on him were kept up to date, and he was their sixth pick in the 1962 draft.

PERSONAL: Andrie and Ron Santo of the Chicago Cubs teamed to win the Astrojet Golf Classic at Phoenix in 1970, and George is a consistently high finisher in that tournament. George, his wife Mary Lou and their four children — George (8/26/64), Michael (10/5/65), Margaret (8/22/69) and Deborah (11/23/70) — live in Dallas where he is a salesman for Phil Ross Real Estate.

HT: 6-5 • WT: 250 • BORN: 6/13/48 • (D-2 FOR '70)

PRO: Asher missed the entire 1971 season when an old knee injury required surgery during training camp. He apparently recovered fully with intensive off-season work, and was considered a contender for a starting job in '72. "He has all the factors to be a great one," is the Cowboys' evaluation of Asher.

COLLEGE: A three-year regular at Vanderbilt, Bob made the NEA All-America team.

PERSONAL: Asher is a native of Falls Church, Va., who lettered in football, basketball, track and tennis in high school. A bachelor, Bob's home now is Dallas.

Lee Roy Caffey • 60

LINEBACKER • TEXAS A&M • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 240 • BORN: 6/3/41 • (D-7 FOR '63)

PRO: Caffey joined the Cowboys in 1971 in a trade with the Chicago Bears and wound up playing in his third Super Bowl. Lee Roy spent seven years with the Green Bay Packers, playing in two Super Bowls and three NFL championship games. An All-Pro outside linebacker in 1966, he provided the Cowboys with valuable experience and depth through the 1971 stretch run. Caffey was a seventh-round draft choice of Philadelphia in 1963 and spent a year with the Eagles before being traded to Green Bay.

COLLEGE: Caffey and Dallas kicker Mike Clark were teammates at Texas A&M and both went from college to the Philadelphia Eagles.

PERSONAL: Lee Roy, his wife Dana Lou and their children Lee Ann (1/29/62), Jennifer Kay (9/7/66) and Bradley Craig (5/27/70) live in Dallas. He has ranching interests near his hometown of Thorndale, Tex.

Mike Clark • 83

KICKER • TEXAS A&M • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 205 • BORN: 11/7/40 • (FA FOR '63)

PRO: Both the Cowboys and Mike Clark were having their problems half-way through the 1971 season. Dallas had a 4-3 record and Clark had just missed field goal attempts of 21, 42 and 29 yards in a 23-19 loss to the Chicago Bears. Coach Tom Landry then made some changes, and one of them was benching Clark in favor of rookie Toni Fritsch. Fritsch performed well in two games, but suffered an injury and Clark again was called upon. He was up to the challenge, and his kicking helped the Cowboys to the title. "I was down mentally for about two days," says Clark. "It was the first time in nine years anything like that had happened to me. I spent a lot of time by myself. Then I decided it wasn't the end of the world, that I had to fight back. I stayed late after practice to prove to myself I could kick, and then I stopped worrying about it." Mike is No. 5 among active NFC scorers.

COLLEGE: Mike had never tried to kick a field goal until he went to Texas A&M, but became the regular kicker on the freshman team when the No. 1 man was knocked out breaking up a wedge on a kickoff.

PERSONAL: Clark's hobby is flying, and he owns his own bi-plane. He's also a member of the Confederate Air Force, a group made up mostly of men who flew propeller-driven fighters and bombers in World War II. Mike, his wife Darlene and their two sons, Michael Kyle (10/13/67) and James Kristopher (10/4/71), live in Dallas where he is sales manager for All Sport, a distributor of recreational vehicles.

Larry Cole • 63

DEFENSIVE END • HAWAII • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 250 • BORN: 11/15/46 • (D-16 FOR '68)

PRO: When Larry recovered a Miami fumble in the Super Bowl, Cowboy fans felt they were seeing an old, familiar rerun. Cole recovered four fumbles during the regular season to lead the team, and in four pro seasons he's covered eight enemy bobbles. "He can make the big play," says Defense Coach Ernie Stautner. "He just has a nose for the ball, something you can't teach." Cole's biggest plays have come against the Washington Redskins. He's scored three touchdowns against them, two on pass interceptions and one on a fumble recovery. Larry came to the Cowboys as a 16th-round draft choice in 1968, quickly caught the coaches' attention and became an "instant starter" when Willie Townes was injured. Cole has been a regular ever since. "Larry wants terribly to be good," says Tom Landry, "and he gets the very most out of his ability. He has the instincts of a defensive lineman."

COLLEGE: Larry was spotted by the Cowboys at the University of Hawaii, where he transferred after first attending the Air Force Academy.

PERSONAL: Larry, his wife Linda and their son Michael Anthony (11/3/70) live in Dallas where he is a sales and leasing agent for Vantage Co., commercial real estate developers. Larry also owns a degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Minnesota. He is a native of Granite Falls, Minn.

TIGHT END • PITTSBURGH • 12th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 213 • BORN: 10/18/39 • (D-1 FOR '61)

PRO: Let Ditka tell the story of his 1971 season: "I felt better mentally and physically, and my body was just as solid and trim as it was in the early '60s at Chicago. I wanted to go to the Super Bowl, win that game and be an integral part in playing the game. I could care less about being All-Pro. I've been there. The Super Bowl victory is the reward, not All-Pro. I scored our first touchdown in pre-season and our last touchdown in the Super Bowl. A great way to begin and end a season." Ditka, alternating on each play with Billy Truax, caught 30 passes in '71, his biggest production since 1966. Suddenly a career that was fading is burning brightly again. "I have never met a player who had more desire than Mike Ditka," says Richie Petitbon, the Redskins' safety. After 11 years in the NFL, four of them All-Pro, they still know Mike is around.

COLLEGE: Selected to 11 All-America teams in 1960, his senior year at Pittsburgh, Mike was a star at both offensive and defensive end. He also played some college basketball where he earned the nickname "The Hammer."

PERSONAL: A native of Aliquippa, Pa., Ditka makes his home in Dallas with his wife Marge and their four children — Michael (8/21/61), Mark (12/15/62), Megan (11/1/64) and Matthew (12/22/66). Mike and Dave Edwards are owners of the popular Sportspage Club in Dallas.

Dave Edwards • 52

LINEBACKER • AUBURN • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 225 • BORN: 12/14/39 • (FA FOR '62)

PRO: Edwards plays strongside linebacker for the Cowboys, battling the opponent's tight end on most plays. The Dallas coaches say he's one of the top players at that difficult, unpublicized position. "It's phenomenal how steady Dave has been the last couple of years," says Cowboys Linebacker Coach Jerry Tubbs, "the way he's done his job week after week. He might not get a lot of ink, but you ask the tight ends around the league how tough he is and they'll tell you." Baltimore running back Norm Bulaich tells of a collision spearheaded by Edwards: "Dallas has a great set of linebackers. I remember running against them on the goal line and they knocked my head down into my stomach." Perhaps the highest compliment paid Edwards comes from Defense Coach Ernie Stautner: "The best thing you can say about Edwards is that he's a pro. He plays hurt and he still does an outstanding job. That's what a pro is."

COLLEGE: An All-Southeastern Conference end at Auburn in 1961, Dave was overlooked in the draft and signed with the Cowboys as a free agent.

PERSONAL: Born in Columbia, Ala., Dave grew up in Abbeville, Ala. He and his wife Gail live in Dallas with their sons Chris (4/11/69) and Michael (10/6/70). Edwards teams with Mike Ditka in ownership of the Sportspage Club in Dallas.

PRO: After spending the 1970 season on the taxi squad, Fitzgerald made the 40-man roster in 1971 and saw action at both center and guard. He also has played tackle and is considered a valuable part of the Cowboys' future by Tom Landry and his staff.

COLLEGE: Fitzgerald was a standout lineman at the alma mater of Dallas Defense Coach Ernie Stautner — Boston College. That's also the school attended by Bill Thomas, the Cowboys' No. 1 draft choice in '72.

PERSONAL: John and his wife Sue make their off-season home in Sturbridge, Mass., not far from his hometown of Southbridge, Mass.

Toni Fritsch • 15

KICKER

2nd YEAR

HT: 5-7 • WT: 185 • BORN: 7/10/45 • (FA FOR '71)

PRO: Fritsch, a professional soccer player in Vienna, Austria, since his teen-age days, was signed by the Cowboys in the spring of 1971. He was activated for two games before being sidelined by a leg injury, kicking the winning field goal with less than two minutes left in a 16-13 victory over St. Louis and kicking two field goals in a 20-7 win over Philadelphia. "I have soccer in my little finger," he said when he arrived in training camp. "I was six or seven years old when I touched the ball. American football I have never played." After becoming the Dallas fans' darling with his mid-season kicking exploits, he said, "Every time I am on the field I say, 'I am the best.' You cannot make every kick, but you must believe you can. If you don't think so, better you should stay home."

PERSONAL: Toni, his wife Sonja and their children Hans (9/11/65) and Melissa Alexandra (6/15/72) have moved to Dallas although he retains business interests in Vienna. Toni was a star on the Austrian National and Rapid soccer teams, but had never kicked an American football until a Cowboy scouting delegation approached him early in 1971.

Walt Garrison • 32

RUNNING BACK • OKLAHOMA STATE • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 205 • BORN: 7/23/44 • (D-5 FOR '66)

PRO: The Cowboys' No. 3 all-time rusher, Garrison was the team's leading pass receiver in 1971. No matter what the situation, he always seems to find a way to help the Dallas cause.

"Walt Garrison is always reliable," says San Francisco 49ers Coach Dick Nolan. "He's a 110 per cent player and always will be." Garrison spent the first three years of his career playing behind Don Perkins, became the starting fullback in 1969 and gained 818 yards. Then along came Duane Thomas, and since that time Coach Tom Landry has been juggling Garrison, Thomas and Calvin Hill at the two running back positions. Walt started the first 11 games in '71 before a deep leg bruise sidelined him against the New York Jets. Typically, Garrison described the injury with wry humor. "Let's see," he said. "If I was standing on a map of the United States, facing Canada, then it would be on the north side of my east leg." Thomas and Hill combined for more than 260 yards running and receiving against the Jets, and scored five touchdowns in a 52-10 victory. "I noticed the offense was lacking something out there," said Garrison, who spent the day on the bench. But Walt was ready when Hill was hurt in the NFC Championship showdown against the 49ers. He rushed for 52 yards, then came back two weeks later to rush for 74 and catch two passes in Super Bowl VI. All in a day's work for the running back Cowboys' Trainer Larry Gardner calls, "the toughest man I ever saw."

COLLEGE: Walt was a two-time All-Big Eight selection at Oklahoma State. He played in the East-West and Senior Bowl games, and signed with the Cowboys when they included a horse trailer as part of his bonus. "I probably wouldn't be here now if it hadn't been for that horse trailer," he says.

PERSONAL: A real-life cowboy, Garrison rides the professional circuit in the off-season as a calf roper and bulldogger. He also spends much of his time as a working cowboy on his father-in-law's ranch near his hometown of Lewisville, Tex. Walt, his wife Pam and their son Phillip Martin (6/5/69) live in Dallas.

Cornell Green • 34

SAFETY • UTAH STATE • 11th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 208 • BORN: 2/10/40 • (FA FOR '62)

PRO: It took Cornell Green the basketball player five seasons to make the NFL Pro Bowl as a cornerback. It took Cornell Green the cornerback two seasons to make the Pro Bowl as a strong safety. Switching an all-star cornerback to safety was a move Tom Landry was able to make when the Cowboys acquired Herb Adderley prior to the 1970 season. Making an All-America basketball player into a pro football star was something Landry had to do in the Cowboys' talent-hungry early years. "Basketball was no hindrance," says Green, who played the game at Utah State. "You come into the league and everybody has it all to learn anyway, whether they know it or not." When he moved to strong safety in '70, after four All-Pro seasons at cornerback, Cornell quickly decided he liked the new position. "I have somebody to talk to now," he said, "the other safety. Used to be when I played cornerback, I only had the wide receiver to talk to. And sometimes he wouldn't talk to me." Green firmly established himself in 1971, capping his season with some spectacular saves in the Super Bowl and another trip to the Pro Bowl. "I think strong safety is Cornell's position now," said Landry. "I think he'll play several more years for us." There's another facet of Green's value to the Cowboys that is sometimes overlooked — his durability. He's never missed a game for Dallas, playing in 140 in a row.

COLLEGE: Skipping collegiate football to concentrate on basketball at Utah State, Cornell averaged more than 20 points a game in his three varsity seasons and was an All-American as a sophomore in 1960. He was a three-time All-Skyline Conference selection.

PERSONAL: For the second straight off-season, Cornell worked in the Cowboys scouting department and in club-community relations. Green was born in Oklahoma City, growing up in Richmond, Calif., where he was an all-star basketball and football player in high school. One of his four brothers, Pumpsie, was a major league baseball player. Cornell and his wife Betty have two sons, Randy (9/11/62) and Ronnie (3/7/67).

Bill Gregory • 77

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • WISCONSIN • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 255 • BORN: 2/14/49 • (D-3 FOR '71)

PRO: Coach Tom Landry considered Gregory a "tremendous addition" to the 1971 Cowboys. When Jethro Pugh was sidelined with an appendix flareup the night before the Thanksgiving Day game with the Los Angeles Rams, Gregory stepped in and did the job in victories over the Rams and New York Jets until Pugh could return. Gregory teams with Tody Smith and Pat Toomay to give the Cowboys a trio of fine young defensive line prospects.

COLLEGE: Gregory was Wisconsin's football captain for two seasons and an All-Big Ten selection in 1970.

PERSONAL: Bill, a native of LeMarque, Tex., now lives in Dallas with his wife Bonnie.

Cliff Harris • 43

SAFETY • OUACHITA • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 184 • BORN: 11/12/48 • (FA FOR '70)

PRO: The pride of Arkadelphia, Ark., continued to impress people in 1971, leading the Cowboys in kickoff and punt returns and regaining the starting free safety job he lost the year before when military duty interrupted his rookie season. Harris was the NFL's fourth-leading kickoff returner, and described his hazardous job thusly: "I aim at something on the other end of the field — like a flag or a red cushion in the end zone seats — and set my course for it. Then I pick a hole, depending on the way my blocks fall. Of course, the blocking is the main thing. If I don't get it, I'm easy raw meat." "At safety," says Assistant Coach Bobby Franklin, "Cliff just has the knack of going for the ball. You can't teach that to anybody."

COLLEGE: Cliff played at little Ouachita (WASH-e-taw) Baptist College in Arkadelphia, where the Cowboys spotted him in some game movies and signed him as a free agent.

PERSONAL: A native of Fayetteville, Ark., Cliff and his wife Linda now make their home in Dallas.

Bob Hayes • 22

WIDE RECEIVER • FLORIDA A&M • 8th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 185 • BORN: 12/20/42 • (D-7, Future, '63)

PRO: In 1971, Hayes had what has become a typical season for him. Double-teamed much of the time, he caught 35 passes for 840 yards (a 24.0 average) and eight touchdowns. Meanwhile, Roger Staubach was finding his other receivers open and led the NFL in passing. Says defensive back John Dockery of the Jets, "When that Hayes heads for your area, you'd better move like lightning or he'll make a fool out of you." With 72 career touchdowns, Hayes ranks eighth among active scorers in the NFC. The only non-kicker ranking above him is teammate Lance Alworth, who in three more seasons has scored 85 touchdowns. Hayes is the Cowboys' all-time leader in receiving, punt returning and scoring. The former Olympic champion, looking back on the days when he set world sprint records, says, "I'm faster now than I was then (9.1 in the 100). A sprinter doesn't reach his peak until he's 30." "Our receiving corps is built primarily around Bob," says Tom Landry. "He puts a lot of strain on the defense, forcing them to double or adjust to him. He is the key." Says Roger Staubach, "The guy is simply fantastic."

COLLEGE: The 1972 season holds unusual significance for Bob. Eight years ago this fall he won two gold medals in the Tokyo Olympics. "It was like the whole world was happy I had won," Hayes remembers. "It was beautiful. I guarantee you, there's no thrill quite like winning for your country." Bob mixed football with track at Florida A&M and his college coach, Jake Gaither, says: "What a lot of people don't know is that football was Bobby's first love. I don't think he'd have gone out for track if it meant giving up football."

PERSONAL: Bob, born in Jacksonville, Fla., and his wife Alta-mease have one daughter, Adrienne LaRori (12/31/68). They live in Dallas, where Bob is a sales representative for Braniff International.

Calvin Hill • 35

RUNNING BACK • YALE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 227 • BORN: 1/2/47 • (D-1 FOR '69)

PRO: A knee injury kept Hill out of the lineup for half the 1971 season, making his statistical summary quite remarkable — 468 rushing yards, 19 pass receptions for another 244 yards, and a total of 11 touchdowns. Calvin hurt the knee against the New York Giants in the fourth game of the season and didn't return to the lineup until game No. 12 against the New York Jets. Off-season surgery repaired cartilage damage. When Hill is healthy, he is as dangerous as a runner as there is in the NFL. After only three seasons the big Ivy Leaguer ranks fourth among all-time Dallas rushers. "He keeps driving," says John Zook, the Atlanta defensive end. "You have to get fierce with him or he'll tear loose." Hill is equally dangerous as a receiver, according to teammate Chuck Howley. "He's the most difficult back I've ever had to cover," said the veteran linebacker after a few scrimmages against the Cowboys offense. "He's traveling a lot faster than he looks — he sort of lazies at you, and all of a sudden he's on you. He can move." Calvin tied a Dallas record in the opening game of the '71 season when he scored four touchdowns against Buffalo. "He's so big and fast," said Tom Landry, "sometimes it looks like he's stopped and he'll fall another four or five yards." A fierce competitor, Hill is noted for his reckless running style. "I hate to lose," he says. "It kills me. Since I was six years old I've only been on two teams that didn't win a championship."

COLLEGE: During Hill's three years at Yale, the team posted 4-5, 8-1 and 8-0-1 records as he accounted for more than 2,600 yards total offense. He also competed in track, long jumping 25-1½ and triple jumping 51-5¼.

PERSONAL: Calvin and his wife Janet, a schoolteacher, live in Hill's native Baltimore area during the off-season. He works in Bethlehem Steel's Industrial Relations Department and also devotes a good deal of time to working with youth. "The superficial attraction football players have for young people opens doors for communication," Calvin says. "We hope that when they get to know us better, they will find different, deeper reasons for admiration."

Chuck Howley • 54

LINEBACKER • WEST VIRGINIA • 14th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 225 • BORN: 6/28/36 • (D-1 FOR '58)

PRO: The 1971 season was Chuck Howley's "lucky 13th," as he played on the first World Championship team of a long and distinguished career. As usual, he came up with the big plays in the big games, including a spectacular interception and 41-yard return against Miami in the Super Bowl. The year before, in the 16-13 Super Bowl loss to Baltimore, he became the first member of a losing team to be named the game's Most Valuable Player. "Howley seems to be ageless," says Tom Landry. "You would expect him to fall off because of his age, but he keeps having better and better years." Chuck intercepted five passes in '71, his second best total ever, recovered three fumbles for the second year in a row and played in his sixth Pro Bowl. Quiet and reserved off the field, Howley offers this interesting look at the emotions of a 13-year NFL veteran: "I'm going through now what every old pro does. Most all the players I came into the league with are gone. I just don't have a lot in common with the youngsters we have now, so I don't socialize. Still, I think they need me on the field. I feel tremendously a part of this team. I think they know I'm a part of the team, whether we socialize or not. I prove it by what I do on the field."

COLLEGE: Howley lettered in football, track, swimming and gymnastics at West Virginia. He was an All-America center in 1957 and a three-time All-Southern Conference choice as a guard, center and linebacker. He ran the 100 in 10.1 and was the conference one-meter diving champion.

PERSONAL: Chuck, a native of Wheeling, W. Va., lives in Dallas with his wife Nancy and their children Scott (8/16/62) and Robin (5/17/66). Howley operates his own dry cleaning center and uniform rental service.

Lee Roy Jordan • 55

LINEBACKER • ALABAMA • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 221 • BORN: 4/27/41 • (D-1 FOR '63)

PRO: "I'm not a mean player," Jordan says, "I like to think I'm aggressive. If I take a fair shot at a man it reflects my dedication. I try to hit him as hard as I can because he would do the same to me. That's what this game is about — hitting." The veteran middle linebacker completes a decade in the NFL this year despite being the smallest man at his position in the league. He makes up for his size with unrelenting aggressiveness. "If Jordan weighed as much as Dick Butkus," says Defense Coach Ernie Stautner, "they'd have to outlaw him from football." Jordan recovered three fumbles in 1971 and intercepted two passes to move into sixth place (ahead of Linebacker Coach Jerry Tubbs) on the list of all-time Dallas interception leaders.

COLLEGE: Jordan was named the nation's outstanding lineman his senior year at Alabama, capping his All-America season by making 31 tackles against Oklahoma in the 1963 Orange Bowl. While Alabama was preparing for a big game in '62, Coach Bear Bryant was asked about a flashy running back on the opposing team. "If he stays in bounds," said Bryant, "Lee Roy will get him."

PERSONAL: One of seven children, Lee Roy was born in Excel, Ala., where he starred as a high school fullback. Lee Roy is associated with Apollo Properties in Dallas. He and his wife, the former Mary "Biddy" Banks of Tuscaloosa, have two sons — David (12/8/65) and Patrick Lee (5/23/68).

D. D. Lewis • 50

LINEBACKER • MISSISSIPPI STATE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 225 • BORN: 10/16/45 • (D-6 FOR '68)

PRO: As captain of the Cowboys' special teams, Dwight Douglas Lewis sets an example for the members of the squad whose job it is to set up Dallas kick returns or ruin the other teams' kick return efforts. "He makes more tough plays on those kicking teams than anybody you'll see," says Assistant Coach Bobby Franklin. "You have to go with abandon on those teams," says Lewis. "You have to have wild people. I have to admit it scares me a little." D. D.'s goal, of course, is to become a regular at linebacker for the Cowboys. He is confident he'll reach that goal. "I just think by staying in Dallas I'll be a starting linebacker on a championship team."

COLLEGE: Twice an All-Southeastern Conference choice, D. D. was Defensive Player of the Year in the conference and an NEA All-American as a senior. He played in the Senior Bowl, Blue-Gray and College All-Star games.

PERSONAL: Asked if he was named after Generals Eisenhower and MacArthur, D. D. replied, "I don't think that's what my mother had in mind. I had 13 brothers and sisters, and we were running out of names. It was either Dwight Douglas or go to numbers." D. D., his wife Margaret and their daughter Christi (10/17/69) lived in Starkville, Miss., during the past off-season. He's a native of Knoxville, Tenn.

Tony Liscio • 64

TACKLE • TULSA • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 255 • BORN: 7/2/40 • (D-3 FOR '63)

PRO: "The whole key to the season was Tony Liscio's ability to step in and play the way he did," said Tom Landry after Super Bowl VI. After eight years with the Cowboys, Liscio went to San Diego in the spring of '71 as part of the Lance Alworth deal. San Diego traded him to Miami just before the season started, and he decided to retire and return to his Dallas home. Nine games into the season the Cowboys suddenly found themselves without a healthy left tackle, and Landry put in an emergency call to Liscio. After three days' practice he started against the Washington Redskins and was a fixture in the Dallas offensive line the rest of the year. "Funny," says Liscio, "I was listening to the game one week and playing the next. I had accepted the fact I was out of football. I had become a fan." Back and leg injuries prompted Tony's original decision to retire, and there was some doubt he would return in '72.

COLLEGE: A three-year regular as an offensive and defensive tackle at Tulsa, Liscio twice earned All-Missouri Valley Conference honors and captained the football team his senior year.

PERSONAL: Tony, a native of Pittsburgh, lives in Dallas with his wife Annette and their children Tony II (4/26/64), Michele (3/8/66) and Michael (9/2/69). He is associated with Equitable Real Estate in Dallas.

Bob Lilly • 74

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • TEXAS CHRISTIAN • 12th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 260 • BORN: 7/26/39 • (D-1 FOR '61)

PRO: Perhaps the best way to understand what Lilly means to the Cowboys is to listen to what opponents have to say about him. For instance — Baltimore guard Glenn Ressler: "He is awesome in what he does to people. He is maybe the best tackle who ever played." Minnesota guard Ed White: "If he has any weaknesses, I don't know what they are." Miami guard Bob Kuechenberg: "Lilly is the best. He has exceptional speed and quickness. It's hard to believe a man that big can be that fast." Tom Landry, a man not given to idle praise, pulls out all the stops when he talks about Lilly. "If there's any one person who really exemplifies the Dallas Cowboys," says Landry, "it's Lilly. He leads us in everything we do. There won't be another Bob Lilly in my time. You're observing a man who will become a legend." An All-Pro seven times and a Pro Bowler nine times, Lilly has never missed a game for the Cowboys, playing in 154 in a row. Landry continually refers to Bob's enthusiasm for the game when asked the secret to the big man's success. Lilly himself spelled that out pretty well last year when he said, "I've loved football since I was in the ninth grade, thin, underweight and uncoordinated. I got beat up pretty good in those days. I loved it in high school when I wasn't any good. I loved it in college when I started to make progress. I love the competition and my teammates. That's what makes the game. People who don't play, don't understand."

COLLEGE: Lilly was an All-American and a two-time All-Southwest Conference selection at Texas Christian in nearby Fort Worth.

PERSONAL: Born in Throckmorton, Tex., Bob lived there until his family moved to Pendleton, Ore., for his senior year in high school. At Pendleton, Bob made All-State teams in football and basketball. Active in several Texas business ventures, Lilly lives in Dallas year-round. His children are Bob Jr. (7/19/62), Katharine (4/22/64) and Christienne (7/21/65).

Dave Manders • 51

CENTER • MICHIGAN STATE • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 250 • BORN: 2/20/41 • (FA FOR '62)

PRO: If anyone ever needs a perfect example of persistency paying off, Dave Manders is it. Signed as a free agent in 1962, he became discouraged and left training camp. Dave played semi-pro football for two years, then came back to the Cowboys and made the 1964 team. He was a starter in 1965 and a Pro Bowler in 1966. Then he injured a knee, missed all of the 1967 season and spent most of '68 and '69 on the bench. Manders regained his starting job in 1970 and was a key part of the '71 World Championship drive. Through it all, he kept his sense of humor. "Somebody once asked my wife who played center for the Dallas Cowboys," he says. "She came and asked me." Cowboys Special Assistant Ermal Allen says, "When we're trying to tell if a player is really putting out, we compare him with Manders. We know Manders is always giving 100 per cent."

COLLEGE: Manders and Herb Adderley were teammates at Michigan State, where Dave was an honorable mention All-American as a senior.

PERSONAL: Dave, born in Milwaukee, lives in Dallas with his wife Betty and their children Mark (10/18/62), Mike (6/18/65) and Catherine Elizabeth (10/3/69). He is an account executive for Radio Station KBOX.

Craig Morton • 14

QUARTERBACK • CALIFORNIA • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 214 • BORN: 2/5/43 • (D-1 FOR '65)

PRO: Morton, a two-year starter, gained added respect in 1971 for the way he handled himself after Roger Staubach was named the Cowboys' No. 1 quarterback at mid-season. "The team comes first," Craig said. "I come second. There's no way I'm going to say or do anything that might disrupt our team." He kept his word, and a delicate situation proved no handicap as the Cowboys marched to their first World Championship. Staubach was shaken up in the Super Bowl, and it looked for a time as if he might have to leave the game. Tom Landry was asked afterwards if he had been worried. "No," was the quick reply. "You're never worried when you have a guy like Craig Morton ready to come in for you." Morton's passing arm, after operations following the '69 and '70 seasons, appeared to have regained full strength in '71. "It's something when a guy can come back off two operations," says Staubach. "But it's really something when he can come back off two operations involving his arm. I don't think people realize what a tremendous amount Craig has gone through. If I'd had the problems he's had, I'd be a cook on a ship somewhere." Morton started only four games in 1971, but still wound up as the No. 7 passer in the NFC and No. 10 in the entire NFL. Looking ahead to '72, he said, "I'll be ready to play, and if I'm in there I'll win for the Cowboys. I haven't relaxed studying. I'm really just learning what this game is all about."

COLLEGE: An All-American at California in 1964, Morton was the nation's No. 2 NCAA passer that year. He turned down a baseball bonus to play pro football.

PERSONAL: Craig was raised in Campbell, Calif., where he was an All-State high school player in football, basketball and baseball and was offered major college scholarships in all three sports. A bachelor, he lives in Dallas.

Ralph Neely • 73

TACKLE • OKLAHOMA • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 265 • BORN: 9/12/43 • (D-2 FOR '65)

PRO: Neely's chance to taste victory in the Super Bowl for the first time was ruined at mid-season when he suffered a broken leg in a motorcycle accident. The four-time All-Pro was sidelined the rest of the season. "I don't ride motorcycles any more," Neely says. "I learned. I'm like the mule — hit me upside the head with a two-by-four and I get the message. I sold that bike four hours after I got out of the hospital." Neely spent the off-season getting his injured leg back into shape, the regimen including many sets of tennis. The Cowboys fervently hoped for a full recovery by the big lineman who rates as one of the NFL's premier tackles. He made the switch from right tackle to left tackle in 1970, and was beginning to feel at home in his new position when he was injured. "Some tackles are weightlifting fanatics," says Neely. "I'm a fanatic on technique. I want to be perfect."

COLLEGE: A two-time All-American at Oklahoma, Neely lettered three years and started all 20 games as a junior and senior.

PERSONAL: Ralph was born in Little Rock, Ark., but grew up in Farmington, N. M., where he starred as a high school football and basketball player. Ralph, his wife Diane and their children, Dale (12/31/66) and Dedra Ann (6/23/69), live in Dallas where he is active in oil and real estate investments.

John Niland • 76

GUARD • IOWA • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 245 • BORN: 2/29/44 • (D-1 FOR '66)

PRO: Niland enjoyed his second All-Pro season in 1971 and played in his fourth Pro Bowl. "My job is to hit the guy across the line on every play and drive him back as far as I can," he says. "It's that simple." Actually, Niland's approach is somewhat more cerebral than that. He prepares for a game as thoroughly as any player at any position, and his ability to communicate his thoughts has made him unusually well-known for an offensive lineman. He described the Dallas line's Super Bowl performance like this: "The music was there many times. It was all there, coming together. But it wasn't always perfect. Someday it will be and that will be the time to retire." The Wisconsin Football Writers Association presented Niland the Forrest Gregg Award for being the NFL's outstanding offensive lineman in '71.

COLLEGE: A three-year regular at Iowa, Niland was an All-American in his second year of playing guard after working at full-back as a sophomore. He played in the East-West and Hula bowls and the College All-Star game. John also was the university weightlifting champ at Iowa.

PERSONAL: John was born in Quincy, Mass., and grew up in Amityville, L. I. He contributes the money he makes from speaking engagements to a scholarship fund that benefits college students from Amityville and other towns. "My parents were good to me but we didn't have much," says John. "The scholarships are just a little monetary way of doing what I can. I wish a Sam Huff or a Rosey Brown had talked to me when I was young. Athletes have no idea how important they are as heroes." John and his wife Iree live in Dallas where he is active in the real estate and public relations fields.

Blaine Nye • 61

GUARD • STANFORD • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 251 • BORN: 3/29/46 • (D-5 FOR '68)

PRO: After two seasons as the Cowboys' starting right guard, Nye appears set for a solid career in the Dallas line. "He doesn't get as much publicity as the Wrights and Nilands and Neelys," says Tom Landry, "but we think he is a solid football player and very important to our success." Much of the Cowboys' record rushing yardage in Super Bowl VI was gained behind the blocking of Nye and right tackle Rayfield Wright. It was quite a day for a young man who had his doubts about making it in the NFL. "After a couple of weeks of my rookie year I think they were about ready to ship me out," Nye says. "But they kept me around and I got my feet on the ground and stuck."

COLLEGE: Blaine was an offensive lineman as a sophomore at Stanford, but was moved to the defensive line for his junior and senior years.

PERSONAL: A physics major, Blaine has a Masters Degree in that field from the University of Washington. He, his wife Annabelle and their children Melissa Madeline (2/6/68) and Blaine (12/21/69) make their off-season home in Menlo Park, Calif.

Jethro Pugh • 75

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • ELIZABETH CITY STATE • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 260 • BORN: 7/3/44 • (D-11 FOR '65)

PRO: Playing alongside Bob Lilly for eight years is not the best way in the world to receive a great deal of personal attention, but Pugh nevertheless is beginning to come into his own. "He's a great complement to Lilly," says Defense Coach Ernie Stautner. "He gives Bob more freedom, because no one man can block Jethro now." Pugh led the team in quarterback traps in 1971 with 17, despite the fact he missed two games with an attack of "interval appendicitis." The appendix was removed following the season, and Jethro was looking forward to establishing himself as one of the top defensive tackles in the league. "With experience, you play with a lot more confidence," he says. "There are only so many blocks they can use. After you've seen them all you get to the point where you can react without having to think about it." Tom Landry sees a bright future for Pugh. "He has been very good in the past few years," says Landry, "and now he seems to have gotten over the injury problems that bothered him in the past. He may come on to have an exceptional year."

COLLEGE: Pugh went to Elizabeth City State without a scholarship, but earned one after his freshman season and was an all-conference tackle for two years. He also was his team's Most Valuable Lineman as a senior.

PERSONAL: Jethro, a native of Windsor, N. C., lives in Dallas with his wife Beverly and their children Jethro III (10/20/68) and Jethrolyn Jo (3/3/71). Jethro is active in community affairs and also is associated with Pepsi-Cola during the off-season.

Gloster Richardson • 31

WIDE RECEIVER • JACKSON STATE • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 200 • BORN: 7/18/42 • (D-7 FOR '65)

PRO: "I've learned from experience," says Richardson, "when you get sent into the game you'd better be ready to produce." In 1971 Richardson produced when he was called on, just as he had in four seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs. Gloster caught just eight passes for the Cowboys, but three of them were touchdowns and he averaged 21.3 yards a catch — second only to Bob Hayes in the Dallas statistics. Richardson was being counted on to play another key role in '72, going to training camp as the only experienced wide receiver behind Hayes and Lance Alworth.

COLLEGE: Gloster was a two-time all-conference selection as a wide receiver for Jackson State.

PERSONAL: Gloster, his wife Betty and their daughter Glasetta (7/18/67) live in Chicago during the off-season. Gloster's brothers Willie and Tom have NFL experience and two other brothers played at Jackson State.

Mel Renfro • 20

CORNERBACK • OREGON • 9TH YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 190 • BORN: 12/30/41 • (D-2 FOR '64)

PRO: Renfro made it eight-for-eight last season — eight years in the NFL, eight years in the Pro Bowl. He also was named All-Pro for the fourth time, but it was his first time at cornerback after three previous awards as a safety. "During the six years I was a free safety," Mel says, "I almost always was beat up after a game and sore for a couple of days later. Since I was switched to the corner in 1970, there have been Sundays when I go to the dressing room feeling like I haven't played at all. Still, cornerback is more difficult than free safety because it's almost always man-to-man. It's you and him all day." Renfro's most celebrated "you and him" confrontation came in Super Bowl VI, where he was matched up against Miami's Paul Warfield and The Play suggested by President Nixon. Warfield caught four passes for 39 yards, and Mel could relax. "You have to have nerves of steel at cornerback," he says. "You have to accept defeat. You're not going to shut your man out. You just have to forget it when you get beat and say, 'I'll get him the next time.'"

COLLEGE: One of Oregon's greatest athletes, Mel was an All-American at halfback and a trackman with bests of 9.6 in the 100, 13.8 in the high hurdles and 25-11 $\frac{3}{4}$ in the long jump. He played in the 1964 College All-Star game.

PERSONAL: The prematurely balding Renfro bought a toupee after the Super Bowl, and many of his teammates literally didn't recognize him. Even Tom Landry was impressed. "If I thought I could get a toupee as good as Mel's," Landry said, "I might go for it." Mel was born in Houston, grew up in Portland and now makes his off-season home near the Cowboys' training camp in Thousand Oaks, Calif. He and his wife Patricia have three children, Mel Jr. (1/25/64), Tony (3/29/65) and Cindy (3/14/68).

Tody Smith • 85

DEFENSIVE END • SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 245 • BORN: 12/24/48 • (D-1 FOR '71)

PRO: Smith missed most of 1971 training camp before signing and spent the first seven games of the season on the Cowboys taxi squad. But when he joined the 40-man roster he quickly convinced the Dallas coaches of his NFL future. After the season, Tom Landry said, "If Tody can gain sufficient experience quickly enough, he could challenge for a starting job in 1972." Smith had off-season surgery on a knee he injured while playing basketball, but was expected to be ready to go in plenty of time for the '72 campaign.

COLLEGE: An All-American at USC as a junior, Tody played only four games as a senior due to an ankle injury. The Cowboys felt the disappointing senior season was the only reason Smith was available when Dallas drafted 25th in the first round of the '71 player selections.

PERSONAL: Tody, a bachelor, lives in Marina Del Rey, Calif., in the off-season. He is the younger brother of the Baltimore Colts' Bubba Smith, and both played high school football for their dad, W. R. Smith, at Charlton-Pollard in Beaumont, Tex.

Tom Stincic • 56

LINEBACKER • MICHIGAN • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 230 • BORN: 11/24/46 • (D-3 FOR '69)

PRO: Injuries and illness plagued Stincic throughout the 1971 season, but he remained the No. 1 backup man to Lee Roy Jordan at middle linebacker. Tom is the biggest Dallas linebacker and one of the fastest. He also impressed the coaches by being one of the most determined participants in the Cowboys' off-season conditioning program in '72.

COLLEGE: Stincic was an All-Big Ten selection his last two years at Michigan, and captained the football team his second season.

PERSONAL: Tom married Carol Ann Simon of Scottsdale, Ariz., during the off-season. They make their home in Dallas.

Roger Staubach • 12

QUARTERBACK • NAVY • 4th YEAR
 HT: 6-3 • WT: 197 • BORN: 2/5/42 • (D-10, Future, '64)

PRO: "I believe very strongly each time I step on the field that we're going to win, one way or another," says Roger Staubach. At mid-season, 1971, the Cowboys were struggling with a 4-3 record. Tom Landry named Staubach his No. 1 quarterback and Dallas didn't lose again. In his first three seasons the Navy veteran started 17 games and the Cowboys won 16 of them. The lone exception was at St. Louis in 1970 when he left in the second quarter with Dallas behind 6-0 and the Cowboys went on to lose 20-7. In '71 he wound up as the No. 1 quarterback in the NFL, won the Bert Bell Award as the league's top player and was named the Most Valuable Player in the Super Bowl. "Roger Staubach just isn't a guy you tell he can't do something," says Mike Ditka. "There's no such word as can't to him. You tell him that, or figure he can't, and he'll go right out and prove you wrong." Says Landry, "Roger is learning every time he steps on the field. But he has great confidence in himself. He makes things happen." Staubach's running ability pulled the Cowboys out of many holes in '71, but scrambling is not considered an ideal trait for an NFL quarterback. "It's the wrong thing to go in there and think run," Staubach says. "I really want to stay in the pocket and control things. At times, though, running is a necessity, and if it's there I will take it."

COLLEGE: Staubach won the Heisman Trophy and the Maxwell Award as a junior at Navy, despite a shoulder injury that nearly required surgery early in the season. He also lettered in basketball and baseball, and captained the 1965 College All-Star squad.

PERSONAL: Roger's four-year hitch in the Navy, ending in 1969, included one year as a port officer in Vietnam. He's a native of Cincinnati who now lives in Dallas with his wife Marianne and their daughters Jennifer (6/21/66), Michelle (5/23/68) and Stephanie Marie (6/25/69). Roger is a real estate salesman for the Henry S. Miller Co. in Dallas and a member of the national advisory staff of Aurora Plastics. He also is very active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and is honorary national co-chairman of the National Hemophilia Society. He was named Sports Father of the Year in 1972.

Don Talbert • 72

TACKLE • TEXAS • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 255 • BORN: 3/1/40 • (D-8, Future, '61)

PRO: Talbert returned for his third tour of duty with the Cowboys in 1971, coming to Dallas in a trade with the New Orleans Saints. He was drafted as a future in 1961, played his rookie year with the Cowboys in '62, then spent two years in military service before returning for the 1965 season. He went to Atlanta in the '66 expansion draft and started for the Falcons and Saints before coming back to Dallas. He became the Cowboys' starting left tackle in the eighth game of the '71 season, after Ralph Neely was injured, but then suffered an ankle injury that limited him to spot duty through the Super Bowl.

COLLEGE: An All-America tackle at Texas, Talbert captained the 1961 Longhorn squad. He was named the Southwest Conference's outstanding lineman his senior season.

PERSONAL: Don is a bachelor who makes his year-round home in Dallas. His brother, Diron, is an ex-Texas Longhorn who now plays for the Washington Redskins. Two other brothers, Charles and Paul, also played football at Texas. Don was a football and basketball star in high school at Texas City.

Duane Thomas • 33

RUNNING BACK • WEST TEXAS STATE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 205 • BORN: 6/21/47 • (D-1 FOR '70)

PRO: Thomas wasn't activated until the fourth game in '71, then led the Cowboys in rushing for the second straight season. He scored 11 touchdowns running and two receiving, and topped off his year with a touchdown and a game-leading 95 yards rushing in the Super Bowl. He accomplished all that despite being shuttled between halfback and fullback depending upon the injury status of Calvin Hill and Walt Garrison. "He did his job better than anybody else," said teammate Billy Truax. "He really wants to prove he's the best runner in football," says Craig Morton. "Concentration — that's why he never messes up any plays." Says Duane, "I try to concentrate on just what I'm doing right then when I'm running. I don't worry about what I should have done the previous play." According to Miami's Mercury Morris, a teammate of Duane's at West Texas State, "This guy has the potential to be another Jim Brown and Gale Sayers combined." Thomas combines excellent speed (4.6 in the 40) and agility with power. "You can't get him by just putting a shoulder on him," says St. Louis linebacker Larry Stallings. "You've got to grab and hold and wrestle him to the ground." In just two seasons Duane moved to sixth among all-time Dallas rushing leaders. He owns or shares four team records.

COLLEGE: In three years at West Texas, Duane rushed for 2,378 yards and a 6.0 average. His blocking paved the way for much of the yardage gained by West Texas teammate Mercury Morris.

PERSONAL: Duane is a former Dallas Lincoln High School football and track star who makes his home in Dallas.

CORNERBACK • BISHOP COLLEGE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 193 • BORN: 11/4/47 • (D-2 FOR '71)

PRO: Thomas' professional debut came in the eighth game of the 1971 season when he moved up from the taxi squad to start in place of the injured Herb Adderley. He performed well in a 16-13 victory over St. Louis. Three weeks later he returned the opening kickoff 89 yards for a touchdown against the Los Angeles Rams. Nine days after that he returned the opening kickoff 101 yards for a touchdown against the New York Jets. "I still can't believe it," Ike says. "Every time I get a kick I'm thinking touchdown, but I never dreamed two like that in two games."

COLLEGE: An NAIA all-district cornerback at Bishop, Thomas started his collegiate days as a quarterback.

HT: 6-5 • WT: 247 • BORN: 5/17/48 • (D-6 FOR '70)

PRO: A slender 230 pounds when he reported to the Cowboys in 1970, Toomay has built himself up to NFL size. He alternated with George Andrie at right defensive end through much of the 1971 season and teams with Tody Smith and Bill Gregory to give Dallas young players who, according to Tom Landry, "can step into our lineup eventually and maintain the excellent quality we have displayed in our defensive line in the past."

COLLEGE: Toomay was a three-year letterman at Vanderbilt and a teammate of Dallas offensive tackle Bob Asher. Pat played in the Blue-Gray game.

PERSONAL: A high school All-America quarterback at Thomas Edison in Alexandria, Va., Pat became a lineman in college. "I had two problems," he says. "I couldn't throw long, and I couldn't throw short." Pat and his wife Becky live in Dallas.

Billy Truax • 87

TIGHT END • LOUISIANA STATE • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 235 • BORN: 7/15/43 • (D-2 FOR '64)

PRO: Despite being hobbled all season by leg injuries, Truax played the full year alternating with Mike Ditka as one of the Cowboys' "messenger" tight ends. "As slow as I am these days," said Billy, considering the sprint from Coach Landry to the huddle, "the only thing that's keeping me on the team is my memory." Off-season surgery repaired the damage, and Truax was expected to return to the form that made him one of the league's premier tight ends during seven seasons with the Los Angeles Rams. In the five years prior to his joining the Cowboys, Billy averaged 35 catches a season. He caught only 15 in 1971, but his two clutch receptions against the San Francisco 49ers helped clinch it for Dallas in the NFC Championship game. "The Dallas fans haven't seen the real Billy Truax yet," he said after the season. "I'm hoping I can make a much better showing in '72." Even when playing hurt, Billy is one of the most dependable pass catchers in the business. "He just doesn't drop the ball," says ex-Rams teammate Jack Pardee, "not even in practice."

COLLEGE: Truax captained the LSU football team as a 20-year-old senior and earned All-Southeastern Conference honors. He played in the Senior and All-American bowls.

PERSONAL: Billy, his wife Nancy and their children Kimberly (5/26/65), Rick (8/9/67) and Christopher (4/2/69) now live year-round in Dallas. He was born in Gulfport, Miss., and was a four-sport athlete at Holy Cross High School in New Orleans.

HT: 5-10 • WT: 188 • BORN: 12/28/47 • (D-13 FOR '70)

PRO: A knee injury kept Washington sidelined for most of 1971, but the Cowboys still believe he can develop into an outstanding cornerback. As a rookie in 1970, Mark returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown against the Washington Redskins, intercepted a pass and recovered a fumble — all while seeing only limited duty.

COLLEGE: Mark was co-captain of the Morgan State football team as a senior. He intercepted six passes his senior year and had a career total of 15 interceptions.

PERSONAL: Mark, a native of Chicago, lives in Dallas with his wife Linda. He spent the past off-season working for the City of Dallas as a laboratory chemist studying the feasibility of recycling waste water for further use.

Charlie Waters • 41

SAFETY • CLEMSON • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 193 • BORN: 9/10/48 • (D-3 FOR '70)

PRO: The third year of the Charlie Waters-Cliff Harris battle was expected to continue in 1972 as the two best friends resumed their duel for the starting free safety job. Waters took over from Harris in 1970 when Cliff was called to active duty in the Army, and Charlie led the team in interceptions. Harris regained his position early in the '71 season and Waters had to content himself with returning punts and kickoffs and helping out on the specialty teams. "Harris was the starter last year and did a good job," said Tom Landry, "but I know Waters isn't going to be happy sitting on the bench." Charlie was a quarterback and receiver in college, but during the '70 draft Scout Red Hickey said to Landry, "Tom, I'd take this boy and tell him to start backpedaling. He's a good athlete and he can play defense."

COLLEGE: Waters became Clemson's No. 3 all-time passcatcher in just 15 games as a receiver, grabbing 68 for 1,165 yards.

PERSONAL: Charlie and his wife Mary Ann live in Dallas, where he is a partner in an 800-acre motorcycle camp called On Any Sunday. Waters was an eight-letter athlete (football, baseball and basketball) in high school at North Augusta, S. C.

Claxton Welch • 42

RUNNING BACK • OREGON • 4th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 203 • BORN: 7/3/47 • (D-9 FOR '69)

PRO: With running backs like Walt Garrison, Calvin Hill and Duane Thomas ahead of him, Welch doesn't get many opportunities to show what he can do. But he's always ready when called upon. "There just isn't time for them to mess with a guy who can't produce when the opportunity, no matter how small, presents itself," he says. "I prepare for every game just like I was going to start." Claxton had his busiest year in 1971, carrying 14 times for 51 yards and a touchdown, and his special team efforts paid off in a safety against the Chicago Bears.

COLLEGE: Welch was bothered by injuries at Oregon, but still rushed for 525 yards in only six games his senior year.

PERSONAL: Claxton grew up in Portland, Ore., where he now makes his off-season home. He was a high school All-Stater in football and basketball.

Ron Widby • 10

PUNTER • TENNESSEE • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 210 • BORN: 3/9/45 • (D-4 FOR '67)

PRO: Widby's four years with the Cowboys set a team longevity record for punters as he came up with another consistent performance in 1971. Ron averaged 41.6 yards per kick to rank third in the NFC and eighth in the NFL with his second best season-long showing for Dallas. His long punt was 59 yards, but that didn't come close to the 84-yarder he booted as a rookie in 1968. "One day our equipment manager, Jack Eskridge, gave me a tip," says Ron. "He said Sam Baker used to say that anybody could kick with the wind, but that it was a real pro who learned how to kick against it. Ever since then, I have practiced every day only against the wind."

COLLEGE: Widby was the NCAA punting champion as a senior at Tennessee, where he also was an All-America basketball player.

PERSONAL: Ron played a year of professional basketball, with

New Orleans of the ABA in 1967, and is a two-handicap golfer. He and his wife Joan and their sons Ronald Scott (11/5/68) and Michael Craig (5/20/71) live in Dallas where Ron sells advertising for Mac Percival Advertising Specialties (Percival is the Chicago Bears place-kicker).

Rayfield Wright • 70

TACKLE • FORT VALLEY STATE • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 255 • BORN: 8/23/45 • (D-7 FOR '67)

PRO: Wright emerged in 1971 as one of the very best offensive tackles in the NFL, making All-Pro for the first time and playing in the Pro Bowl. After only two years as the Cowboys' starting right tackle Rayfield has, according to fellow lineman Ralph Neely, "gone out of sight." Neely adds, "There's nobody can touch him, and I've studied all the offensive tackles in our time." Miami defensive end Jim Riley says, "Rayfield Wright is the best offensive lineman I faced all year. Maybe the best I've ever played against." For three years, Wright was shuffled from tackle to tight end to defensive end and back to tackle. In 1970 he reached the point where a place had to be found for him, and Neely was moved to left tackle after four All-Pro years at the position that now belongs to Wright. "Rayfield is as good as you want to talk about," says Offensive Line Coach Jim Myers. "He is excellent, just excellent. If there's an offensive tackle in the league as good, I don't know about him. Rayfield is a great leader (offensive co-captain), an excellent young man, just everything." Wright is known for his positive attitude. "I feel I'm one of the top tackles," he says. "I'm not trying to brag, I just have a lot of confidence in myself. I want people to notice me as one of the best."

COLLEGE: Wright was a track, football and basketball letterman at Fort Valley State in Georgia, making All-Conference in the latter two sports. He played several positions on the football team, including defensive back. In track, he ran a 50 flat 440.

PERSONAL: Rayfield was born in Griffin, Ga., and now makes his home in Dallas with his wife Andrea and their son LaRay Adrian (3/25/72). Rayfield spent the off-season in a management training program with the National Bank of Commerce in Dallas.

THE ROOKIES

AMMAN

BABINECZ

AMMAN, RICHARD • Defensive End • Florida State
Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 234 • Born: 9/21/50 • D-10 for '72

Amman was a two-year starter for Florida State at defensive tackle, but was to be tried at defensive end in the Cowboys' camp. He impressed scouts with his speed, and was thought to have the frame to put on muscle for NFL competition. "Attitude, strength, hustle, size," were listed as Amman's major assets.

BABINECZ, JOHN • Linebacker • Villanova
Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 222 • Born: 7/27/50 • D-2B for '72

The Cowboys hoped Babinecz (pronounced Babi-NEZ) would be able to provide depth for their veteran corps of linebackers, and eventually move into a starting job. "He's a great competitor," said Cowboys Scout Red Hickey. "He's aggressive and tough, and he will pay the price to win." Babinecz spent much of his spare time in college working with crippled children in the Philadelphia area.

BATEMAN, MARV • Punter-Kicker • Utah
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 213 • Born: 4/5/50 • D-3B for '72

Bateman led the nation in punting in both 1970 and 1971, averaging 48.1 yards per kick in '71. He also was a placekicker at Utah, hitting six of eight extra point attempts and four of 10 field goal tries in '71. He can punt left-footed as well as right-footed. "Left-footed I kick 35 to 40 yards," said Bateman.

BOLDEN, CHARLES • Defensive Back • Iowa
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 195 • Born: 1/19/49 • D-6 for '72

Bolden was something of a "sleeper" selection by the Cowboys. He played at Iowa for a couple of years, but was a member of the semi-pro Quad Cities team in 1971. Still, the scouts believed his size and 4.5-4.6 speed made him a good prospect as a defensive back.

COLEMAN, RALPH • Linebacker • North Carolina A&T
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 216 • Born: 8/31/50 • D-8 for '72

Speed and agility were considered Coleman's biggest assets at North Carolina A&T. Probably the fastest linebacker drafted by the Cowboys, his big play ability was noted by the scouts. Coleman's college coach, Hornsby Howell, assists the Cowboys each summer in training camp at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks.

FUGETT, JEAN • Tight End • Amherst
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 219 • Born: 12/16/51 • D-13 for '72

Fugett was the leading receiver and scorer for Amherst in 1971,

BATEMAN*COLEMAN*KEARNEY*KELLER*LEONARD

catching 39 passes for 635 yards and nine touchdowns and earning Little All-America honors. He was one of, if not the, youngest players in NFL camps in '72 — just 20 when he reported to the Cowboys.

HARRIS, JIMMY • Wide Receiver • Ohio State
Ht: 5-10 • Wt: 180 • Born: 4/18/50 • D-12 for '72

Harris' sprinter speed (9.4 in the 100, 6.1 in the 60) convinced the Cowboys to draft him despite his modest football statistics at Ohio State where he caught nine passes for 200 yards in 1971.

KEARNEY, TIM • Linebacker • Northern Michigan
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 225 • Born: 11/5/50 • D-4A for '72

A three-year starter at Northern Michigan, Kearney hails from the same Kingsford, Mich., high school that sent Dave Manders to Michigan State and ultimately to the Cowboys. Kearney (pronounced KAR-ney) earned second team Little All-America honors in college. His aggressiveness was noted by Cowboys scouts. "He misses tackles sometimes trying to kill the ball carrier," read one report.

KELLER, MIKE • Linebacker • Michigan
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 221 • Born: 12/13/49 • D-3A for '72

A defensive end at Michigan, Keller was to be given a shot at linebacker for the Cowboys. His size and speed made him well-suited for the latter position in the pros. Scouts praised Keller for "very good quickness, agility, balance, coordination and body control." Mike was a three-year college regular and a two-time All-Big Ten choice.

LEONARD, LONNIE • Tackle • North Carolina A&T
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 244 • Born: 4/28/49 • D-11 for '72

Leonard was the Cowboys' second 1972 pick from his Greensboro, N. C., school, and the Cowboys liked his size and quickness. He was the only interior offensive lineman drafted by Dallas in '72.

LONGMIRE, SCOOTER • Quarterback • Utah
Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 205 • Born: 4/21/49 • D-16 for '72

Longmire was the only quarterback drafted by the Cowboys in 1972. Redshirted for a year after transferring from Michigan State, he passed for more than 1,700 yards and 14 touchdowns in two seasons at Utah. Longmire was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds after setting records in baseball and football in high school at Tracy, Calif.

McKEE, CHARLES • Wide Receiver • Arizona
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 199 • Born: 2/2/50 • D-2C for '72

A big pass catcher with 4.6 speed, McKee's scouting report read,

McKEE

NEWHOUSE

B. THOMAS

WEST

"Great hands, makes everything look easy, very dangerous bomb threat, smart and can learn." McKee led Arizona in receiving and scoring in '71 with 43 receptions for 854 yards and five touchdowns, and had a career total of 24 touchdown receptions.

NEWHOUSE, ROBERT • Running Back • Houston
Hr: 5-10 • Wt: 202 • Born: 1/9/50 • D-2A for '72

"Based on pure running ability, we felt Newhouse was probably the best back in the draft," said the Cowboys' Red Hickey. "When it came to a choice between him and (No. 1 pick) Bill Thomas, we went with the big back, but we were mighty happy when Newhouse was still there in the second round." Newhouse rushed for 2,961 yards in his career at Houston, a 6.4 average, and scored 19 touchdowns. Asked if his height were a handicap, he replied, "I'm not going to grow an inch, but maybe I can play a little bigger than I am."

THOMAS, BILL • Running Back • Boston College
Hr: 6-2 • Wt: 225 • Born: 8/7/49 • D-1 for '72

"He's another big back like Duane Thomas and Calvin Hill," said Tom Landry. "He has comparable speed (4.6 in the 40) and he's strong." Thomas was bothered by injuries at Boston College, primarily a dislocated shoulder that sidelined him for all but four games of his junior season. His statistics were not overwhelming (598 rushing yards for a 5.0 average as a senior, 931 and 4.5 for his career), but the Cowboys felt his potential was worth a No. 1 pick.

WEST, ROBERT • Wide Receiver • San Diego State
Hr: 6-4 • Wt: 218 • Born: 10/3/50 • D-4B for '72

"When this fellow grabs the ball and turns upfield," said Red Hickey, "that secondary better be loose. He can really motor." West caught only 11 passes in 1971 for 265 yards (a 24.1 average) and two touchdowns, but his size and 4.6 speed convinced the Cowboys he was worth a closer look.

ZAPIEC, CHARLES • Linebacker • Penn State
Hr: 6-2 • Wt: 222 • Born: 7/1/49 • D-4C for '72

An offensive guard for two seasons at Penn State, Zapiec switched to linebacker in his senior year and that's where the Cowboys intended to use him. "We are always saying we want players who think in terms of 'we and us' rather than 'I and me,'" said Penn State Coach Joe Paterno. "That fits Zapiec perfectly." Zapiec (pronounced ZAY-peck) was a science major in college and a frequent member of the athletic honor roll.

Divisional Playoff

BLOOMINGTON, Minn., Dec. 25 — The teams with the two best records in the NFL, Dallas and Minnesota, met on the Vikings' turf on Christmas Day and the opportunistic Cowboys qualified for the National Conference title game with a 20-12 victory.

Minnesota was a team that had capitalized on opponents' mistakes all year in building an 11-3 record. But this time the Cowboys recovered a Viking fumble and intercepted four passes en route to their eighth straight victory.

Mike Clark kicked a 26-yard field goal 9:06 into the game for a 3-0 Cowboys lead. At halftime it was 6-3, Dallas, and the Cowboys put it away with two touchdowns in the third quarter.

First, Duane Thomas, the game's leading rusher with 66 yards in 21 carries, followed John Niland's block for a 13-yard scoring run. Then Roger Staubach, who completed 10 of 14 passes for 99 yards with no interceptions, found Bob Hayes in the back of the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass.

National Conference Finals

DALLAS, Jan. 2 — A big play by an old pro provided the key as the Cowboys stopped the San Francisco 49ers, 14-3, to bring the NFC championship to Dallas for the second straight year.

Defensive end George Andrie, a 10-year veteran, intercepted a second-quarter John Brodie pass at the 49ers' nine-yard line and rumbled to the two. Calvin Hill scored on his second thrust from there and a scoreless tie suddenly became a 7-0 Dallas advantage.

A 20-yard field goal by Bruce Gossett in the third quarter cut the Cowboys' lead to 7-3.

Roger Staubach then directed an 80-yard, 14-play drive culminating in Duane Thomas' two-yard touchdown run with 5:43 elapsed in the final period. That made it 14-3, and the Dallas "Doomsday Defense" kept things under control the rest of the way. The Cowboys headed for Super Bowl VI in New Orleans to meet the Miami Dolphins.

Super Bowl VI

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 16 — The Cowboys never took the pressure off the Miami Dolphins in a 24-3 triumph that marked the first World Championship for the 12-year-old team from Dallas.

A rushing attack that piled up 252 yards complemented two touchdown passes by Roger Staubach — the game's MVP — as the Cowboys won their 10th straight game. Duane Thomas ran for 95 yards in 19 carries and Walt Garrison picked up 74 yards in 14 rushes.

Just as he did in Super Bowl V, Mike Clark got the Cowboys started with a field goal. But this one, from nine yards out late in the first quarter, gave Dallas a lead it never relinquished.

Staubach's seven-yard scoring pass to Lance Alworth put the Cowboys on top at halftime, 10-3. Duane Thomas scored on a three-yard run in the third period and Staubach connected with Mike Ditka on a seven-yard touchdown pass in the last quarter to wrap it up.

The Dallas defense, led by Bob Lilly up front, Chuck Howley at linebacker and Mel Renfro in the secondary, limited Miami to 185 yards total offense. The Dolphins' league-leading running attack was held to 80 yards.

Historical Highlights

NFL FRANCHISE—Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during their first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).

COWBOYS STOCKED—A player pool was set up in a league meeting at L.A., with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).

TRAINING STARTS—Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific U., in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).

FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME—The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 10-16 pre-season game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).

FIRST HOME GAME—In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club pre-season game, the Cowboys led the World Champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 71-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).

FIRST VICTORY—In a pre-season game at Louisville, Ky., the Cowboys beat New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes of 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith). (August 27).

FIRST LEAGUE GAME—In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth period Steeler rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).

STREAK SNAPPED—Dallas snaps a 10-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).

TRAINING STARTS—Rookies launch training at new campsite—St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).

FIRST LEAGUE WIN—Scoring ten points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 (Sept. 17).

1962

TRAINING STARTS—Team begins training at new campsite—Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).

PENALTY HISTORY—For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were detected holding in the end zone on a 99-TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

100-YARD FIRSTS—Cowboys Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth quarter TD's in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter (Oct. 14).

SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY—The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).

CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE—The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).

HOWTON SETS RECORD—Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch against Washington (there). Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 8,000 yards (Sept. 29).

1964

LANDRY CONTRACT—With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a ten-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).

1965

NEELY AWARDED TO COWBOYS—A U.S. District Court Judge ruled the contract of Oklahoma tackle Ralph Neely with Houston invalid. Neely had signed with Houston before the Gator Bowl game; Dallas signed Neely on Jan. 1 (June 22).

FIRST SELLOUT—An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).

1966

PLAYOFF BOWL—After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).

NEELY DECISION REVERSED—U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Denver reverses District Court decision, awards tackle Ralph Neely to Houston (May 18).

MERGER—Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys GM Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, merging the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).

SCHRAMM ELEVATED—Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.

NEELY CASE SOLVED—Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth place picks in the 1967 draft (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP—The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

TEXAS STADIUM—On Dec. 23, owner Clint Murchison, Jr., formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.

SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP—Under the NFL's new format, the Cowboys easily won the Capitol Division and defeated Cleveland, Century Division winner, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl for the Eastern conference championship. However, on Dec. 31 in Green Bay, the Cowboys lost their second bid for an NFL title, falling to the Packers, 21-17, in the 13 degree below weather.

TEXAS STADIUM — On December 26th, the Tecon Corporation bid of $17,964,000.00 was accepted by the Irving City Council and it was full speed ahead.

WIN CAPITOL — For the second straight year the Cowboys won the Capitol Division, but for the first time in three years the Cowboys did not win the Eastern Championship, being upset at Cleveland, 31-20, on December 21st. Dallas won the Runner-Up Bowl over Minnesota, 17-13.

1969

TEXAS STADIUM — On June 29th, Bert Rose was named general manager of Texas Stadium.

ORIGINALS RETIRE — An era ended for the Cowboys in July. On July 5th at a press conference in Dallas, quarterback Don Meredith, the last of the original Cowboys, announced his retirement. Then, on July 18th, the day the veterans were to report to training camp, all-time rushing great Don Perkins officially retired.

REPEAT CAPITOL WINS — Once again the Cowboys rolled to the Capitol Division Championship with an 11-2-1 season. However, the Cowboys failed to win the Eastern Championship when on Dec. 28, the Cowboys lost to Cleveland, 38-14, in the Cotton Bowl.

TEXAS STADIUM — Work continued on Texas Stadium, with the 65,000-seat "open-air" domed structure to be ready for the 1971 season.

FIVE STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last five games to finish 10-4, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the fifth year in a row. They defeated Detroit, 5-0, in the opening round to get a shot at the National Conference championship.

FIRST NFC TITLE — The Cowboys captured the biggest prize of their 11-year history on Jan. 3 when they downed San Francisco, 17-10, for the NFC crown. A 16-13 loss to Baltimore in the Super Bowl Jan. 17 left Dallas with one major goal still unrealized.

TEXAS STADIUM — The Cowboys opened a new era in their sparkling Irving, Tex., home with a 44-21 victory over the New England Patriots. Duane Thomas scored the first touchdown in the new stadium, a 56-yard run just two minutes and 16 seconds after the opening kickoff. Attendance was 65,708.

SIX STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last seven games to finish 11-3, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the sixth year in a row. They defeated Minnesota, 20-12, in the opening round.

SECOND NFC TITLE — For the second consecutive year, the Cowboys met the San Francisco 49ers in the National Conference showdown. This time Dallas won, 14-3, to qualify for its second straight Super Bowl.

FIRST WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys downed the Miami Dolphins, 24-3, to win Super Bowl VI in New Orleans on Jan. 16. It was the 10th victory in a row for Dallas as Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.
