THE MANAGEMENT

BRIGHT

SCHRAMM

BRANDT

The Dallas Cowboys long have been noted for their front office stability. President and General Manager Tex Schramm, Vice President for Personnel Development Gil Brandt and Coach Tom Landry have directed the Cowboys since the club's birth in 1960.

Last year the Cowboys began a new era of ownership when a group headed by Dallas businessman H. R. "Bum" Bright acquired the club from founder Clint Murchison, Jr. Bright serves as general partner of the limited partnership that oversees the Cowboys.

A Dallas native, Bright is senior partner of Bright and Company, a Dallas-based oil and gas production firm. He has extensive holdings in the banking industry and serves as chairman of the board of directors of Children's Medical Center in Dallas. He is a past chairman of the board of regents of Texas A&M University, his alma mater.

Schramm, managing partner of the ownership group, directs the day-to-day operation of the Cowboys. A journalism graduate of the University of Texas, Schramm joined the Los Angeles Rams as publicity director in 1947 after two years as a sports writer and sports editor at the Austin American-Statesman. In a 10-year career with the Rams he rose from publicity director, to assistant to the president, to general manager.

Schramm left the Rams in 1957 to join CBS as assistant director of sports. He put together the first network telecast of the Olympics, but, following those Winter Games of 1960 in Squaw Valley, Calif., Schramm returned to pro football upon being hired by Clint Murchison to run the new Dallas NFL franchise.

In the spring of 1977 Schramm received an honorary degree (Doctor of Humane Letters) from California Lutheran College. After the Cowboys won the Super Bowl that season Schramm was named NFL Executive of the Year by the Sporting News, and in 1978 he received the Bert Bell Award for outstanding executive leadership in the NFL.

Brandt directs the Cowboys' scouting operation and supervises the signing of all players. A Milwaukee native and graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Brandt was a baby photographer and part-time scout for the Rams under Schramm when his flair for discovering talent led to his being hired by the Cowboys.

COWBOYS CENTER

AT THE VALLEY RANCH

The Dallas Cowboys and Triland International announced plans on March 27, 1984 for the development of Cowboys Center, the most imaginative real estate project ever undertaken by a sports team.

Scheduled to open in October 1986, Cowboys Center will include the club's headquarters and training facility, Cowboys ShowPlace, a hotel-conference center, a country club, sports medicine clinic, retail and restaurant pavilion, ice arena and office park.

Cowboys Center will be located on 200 acres in Valley Ranch, a 2,500-acre, master-planned commercial and residential community in northwest Dallas County. Cowboys Center is a joint venture between Triland International of Dallas and the Dallas Cowboys Football Club. Triland Development, an affiliate of Triland International and developer of Valley Ranch, is the managing partner of the venture. Triland Development is responsible for the design, development and marketing of the project.

Here's a breakdown of the components of Cowboys Center:

COWBOYS HEADQUARTERS:

The Cowboys moved into their new headquarters upon returning from training camp this year. The complex includes two grass football fields, locker and training room facilities, meeting rooms, weight training areas, running trails, racquetball and basketball courts and a film lab. All coaching, scouting and administrative offices are located in the 80,000-square foot building, along with a ticket office, travel agency, retail merchandise outlet, Cowboys Cheerleaders rehearsal studio, offices for the Cowboys Weekly, a press room with a research library plus a variety of lounge areas.

COWBOYS SHOWPLACE:

Cowboys ShowPlace will offer an experience of sight, sound and touch celebrating the history of the team. There will be a variety of displays and other innovative gadgetry that will make the ShowPlace a must for all football fans.

HOTEL-CONFERENCE CENTER:

A 300-room hotel and executive conference center will provide state-of-the-art meeting and conference facilities.

COUNTRY CLUB:

Extensive golf facilities will highlight the country club, which also will include swimming, tennis, racquetball and running trails.

SPORTS MEDICINE CLINIC:

Cowboys Center offers a natural tie-in to the burgeoning sports medicine field. The sports medicine clinic will focus on the prevention, diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries.

RETAIL-RESTAURANT PAVILION:

Indoor and outdoor dining, specialty shops and a pedestrian bridge connecting this area to Cowboys headquarters will highlight the retail and restaurant area. The dining and shopping opportunities will add to the "city-within-a-city" concept.

ICE ARENA:

With more and more northerners moving to the Dallas area every year, the lack of ice skating facilities has become ever more pronounced. The ice arena will help fill the void, adding further to the wide range of experiences offered by Cowboys Center.

OFFICE PARK:

More than 90 acres of prime office sites will have access to the hotel and conference center, country club and retail-restaurant pavilion within Cowboys Center. Valley Ranch's residential area will give employers a potential work force of 25,000.

THE COACH

The longest-running show in professional sports — “Tom Landry Presents the Dallas Cowboys” — entered its 26th season in 1985.

Landry has been known to point out that he never has received a promotion during those 26 years, but it is an arrangement that has worked out well for all concerned.

The first 25 years gave Landry and the Cowboys a combined record of 243 victories, 141 losses and six ties. Those numbers placed the 61-year-old native Texan second only to George Halas among the National Football League's all-time winningest coaches.

Along the way, Landry has led the Cowboys to a record 19 consecutive winning seasons, the longest such active streak in pro sports and the third longest ever behind the New York Yankees' 39 straight from 1926 through 1964 and the Montreal Canadiens' 32 in a row (1952-83).

The Cowboys have made 17 trips to the NFL playoffs, including a league-record nine straight from 1975 through 1983. They've won 12 division championships and five NFC titles for a record five Super Bowl appearances.

Landry's team won world championships with victories over Miami in Super Bowl VI and Denver in Super Bowl XII.

The Cowboys haven't had a season in which they lost more games than they won since 1964, when the record was 5-8-1.

On Feb. 5 of that year, Landry had signed a 10-year contract, establishing himself as a master of good timing.

He also is recognized as an innovator. He introduced the "flex" defense and the multiple offense in the 1960s, revived and restructured the shotgun offense (or "spread" in Dallas terminology) in the 1970s and is in the forefront of "situation substitutions" on both offense and defense in the 1980s.

For Landry, a bomber pilot in World War II, the most important quality a coach must possess is leadership.

"Leadership is a matter of having people look at you and gain confidence," he says. "If you're in control, they're in control."

Thomas Wade Landry was born in Mission, Texas, on Sept. 11, 1924. He was an All-Regional fullback at Mission High School before enrolling at the University of Texas. Following one semester he joined the Air Corps and flew 30 B-17 missions with the Eighth Air Force in World War II.

In November 1945 he was discharged as a first lieutenant and returned to Texas where he became a star fullback and defensive back, earning All-Southwest Conference honors as a junior and co-captaining the Longhorns as a senior. With Landry's help Texas beat Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl and Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl.

Landry played for the New York Yankees of the All-America Conference in 1949 before joining the NFL's New York Giants the next year. He was a mainstay in the Giants' defensive secondary through 1955, the last two years as a player-coach. He earned All-Pro honors in 1954.

Following his retirement as a player in 1955, Tom served as the Giants' defensive coach through 1959. Giants Head Coach Jim Lee Howell called him "the best defensive coach in the business."

Coach Landry and wife Alicia, whom he met at Texas, have three children — Tom Jr., an attorney and oilman, Kitty and Lisa. Kitty and her husband, former Texas quarterback Eddie Phillips, have two children.

Landry is an inspirational leader to many because of his principles and achievements. Tom devotes much of his spare time to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and serves on the Board of Trustees of the National FCA.

In March 1984 Mission High School dedicated Tom Landry Stadium in honor of its native son. Tom also was named national chairman of the NFL Alumni Association's 1984 Youth of America Week, and he received the 1984 American Exemplar Medal from the Freedom Foundation.

Coach Landry was a national 1983 Horatio Alger Award winner for his inspirational rise to prominence. In 1981 the NFL Alumni Association presented him with its highest honor, the Order of the Leather Helmet, for distinguished service to football.

In 1980 California Lutheran College, home of the Cowboys' annual training camp, established the Landry Medal, awarded annually to a person who has distinguished himself in his profession and serves as an inspiration to American youth.

Landry earned a degree in business at Texas and one in industrial engineering from the University of Houston. He holds honorary degrees from California Lutheran College (Doctor of Humane Letters), John Brown University (Doctor of Humanities), Southwest Baptist College (Doctor of Laws) and Indiana Central University (Doctor of Laws). In 1978 he was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

THE COACHING STAFF

Jim Myers

Assistant Head Coach • Offensive Line

Jim Myers, the dean of the Cowboys' assistant coaching staff, has fielded quality offensive lines consistently for two decades. Myers has developed All-Pro and Pro Bowl players Ralph Neely, John Niland, Rayfield Wright, Blaine Nye, Herbert Scott and Pat Donovan.

In his 24th year with the Cowboys, Myers specializes in converting college defensive linemen into top NFL offensive linemen, including Nye, Donovan, John Fitzgerald, Kurt Petersen and Glen Titensor.

Myers joined the Cowboys in 1962. He was head coach at Iowa State in 1957 and head coach and athletic director at Texas A&M from 1958-61. In 1977 Tom Landry turned over some of his duties to his long-time aide, naming Jim to the newly created post of assistant head coach.

A native of Madison, W. Va. (11/12/21), Myers was an outstanding lineman at the University of Tennessee in 1941-42 and at Duke in the Marine Corps V-12 program in 1943.

Prior to becoming head coach at Iowa State, Myers served as an assistant at Wofford College, Vanderbilt and UCLA. In 1978 he received the Distinguished American Award from the East Tennessee Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. In 1985 he was named a Dallas Father of the Year.

Jim serves on the board of directors of the Dallas chapters of the Boys Clubs of America and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He also serves on the Dallas Father of the Year Council and is a former director of the Lovers Lane Methodist Church in Dallas.

Jim and wife Carclyn have three daughters — Susan, Kathy and Carol — and eight grandchildren.

Neill Armstrong Research and Development

Neill Armstrong studies and evaluates all players and teams in the NFL. His reports provide the basis for the formulation of the Cowboys' game plans. Neill joined the Cowboys in 1982. He took over the R&D position from Ermal Allen, who held it for 14 years until his retirement in 1984.

Armstrong compiled a 30-34 record in four seasons (1978-81) as head coach of the Chicago Bears before coming to Dallas. Before joining the Bears he was an assistant coach with the Minnesota Vikings for nine years, seven as defensive coordinator.

Armstrong led Edmonton to the Canadian Football League playoffs three times during a six-year reign as head coach from 1964-69. Neill began his professional coaching career with the Houston Oilers in 1962-63 following seven years (1955-61) as an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma State.

A native of Tishomingo, Okla. (3/9/26), Armstrong was an All-America receiver at Oklahoma State (then Oklahoma A&M) from 1943-46. He was the Philadelphia Eagles' No. 1 draft choice in 1947. He played on two NFL championship teams in five seasons (1947-51) with the Eagles. He was a two-time all-star in three years with the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1951, '53-54).

Neill and wife Jane have three children — Neill Jr., David and Gail — and four grandchildren.

Al Lavan Running Backs

Following eight years of coaching in college and the pros, Al Lavan became the Cowboys' running backs coach in 1980. Under Lavan the Cowboys' running game has remained one of the most feared in the NFL. Tony Dorsett, Ron Springs, Timmy Newsome and James Jones all matured under Lavan's tutelage.

Lavan coached running backs at Stanford in 1979 after two years at Georgia Tech handling receivers and running backs. He directed defensive backs and special teams for the Falcons in 1975 and '76.

Lavan began his coaching career in 1972 as receivers coach at his alma mater, Colorado State. He moved to Louisville to coach defensive backs in 1973 before being named receivers coach at Iowa State in 1974. The next season he returned to the Falcons as a coach.

A native of Pierce, Fla. (9/13/46), Lavan was a defensive back and place kicker at Colorado State and was drafted in the eighth round by Philadelphia in 1968. He played defensive back for the Eagles in 1968, then for Atlanta in 1969 and '70.

Al and wife Bessie have three children — Travis, Douglas and Maeleeke.

Alan Lowry Special Teams

Alan Lowry was named Cowboys special teams coach in 1982 after five seasons as defensive backfield coach of his alma mater, the University of Texas.

Lowry is one of the few football players in Southwest Conference history to earn All-Conference honors both as an offensive and defensive star. He was a defensive back at Texas in 1970 and '71 when the Longhorns won a national and two conference championships. Lowry was All-SWC in 1971.

In 1972 Lowry was switched to quarterback and earned conference honors again in leading Texas to a 10-1 season, including a come-from-behind victory over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl.

After receiving his degree in physical education, Lowry served as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech in 1974. He joined the Wyoming staff under Fred Akers in 1975, but resigned that post in the summer of 1976.

Lowry worked for the Cowboys' scouting department in the fall of 1972 before joining Akers' staff at Texas in December 1976.

Lowry is a native of Irving, Texas (11/21/50), home of Texas Stadium. Alan and wife Donna live in Dallas with daughter Marta Jean.

Dick Nolan Receivers

Veteran NFL coach Dick Nolan returned to the Cowboys in 1982 as receivers coach. Dick was a player-coach for the Cowboys in 1962 and the team's defensive coach from 1963-67.

Nolan left the Cowboys to become head coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 1968-75. His teams won the NFC West championship in 1970, '71 and '72. He was NFC coach of the year in 1970.

Nolan joined New Orleans as linebackers coach in 1977 and was head coach of the Saints from 1978-80. Dick was the defensive coordinator of the Oilers in 1981 before returning to Dallas.

Nolan and Tom Landry were defensive back teammates with the New York Giants in 1954 and '55 when Tom was a player-coach. Nolan also played under Landry in 1956, '57 and '59 when Tom was New York's defensive coach. Nolan played for the Chicago Cardinals in 1958 before returning to the Giants for the next three seasons.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa. (3/26/32), and raised in White Plains, N.Y., Nolan was a two-way star football player at the University of Maryland from 1951-53. He played offensive and defensive halfback on Maryland's 1953 national championship team.

Dick and wife Ann have six children — Richard Jr., Nancy, Michael, Kelly, Lisa and Jimmy — and two grandchildren.

Jim Shofner Quarterbacks

Jim Shofner returned to his hometown area in 1983 to become quarterbacks coach of the Cowboys.

A native of the Dallas suburb of Grapevine (12/18/35), Shofner was a star athlete at TCU in the mid-fifties and served as head coach of the Fort Worth school from 1974-76. His other coaching experience prior to joining the Cowboys was as an NFL assistant with Houston, Cleveland and San Francisco.

Jim starred in football and baseball at TCU from 1955-57. He turned down a professional baseball career with Detroit to join the Cleveland Browns where he played defensive back from 1958-63.

Shofner's coaching career began in 1964 as an aide at TCU. He became defensive backfield coach of the 49ers in 1967, but was re-assigned to coach quarterbacks and receivers in 1968 when Dick Nolan became the 49ers' head coach. Jim remained at San Francisco until 1973, leaving to return to TCU.

Shofner handled quarterbacks for the Browns from 1977-79. He served as the Oilers' offensive coordinator in 1981 and '82.

Jim and wife Nancy have two children — Mike and Elizabeth.

Gene Stallings Defensive Backfield

Gene Stallings has become noted for his ability to take free agents and low-round draft choices and develop them into a top-notch defensive backfield.

Stallings joined the Cowboys in 1972 following seven years (1965-72) as head coach of his alma mater, Texas A&M. He has presided over the development of four All-Pros — Cliff Harris, Charlie Waters, Everson Walls and Michael Downs. Harris, Walls and Downs all were free agents. Waters, a third-round draft choice, was a converted college quarterback and receiver.

Stallings was an All-Southwest Conference receiver at A&M under Paul "Bear" Bryant and a tri-captain on Bryant's undefeated 1956 team. Stallings served one year as a student-assistant coach before moving with Bryant to Alabama as an assistant. He remained there until returning to A&M as head coach in 1965.

Stallings helps direct the Stautner-Stallings Football Camp for Boys each June at Texas Stadium.

Gene was elected to the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1982. He received a 1982 national Boys Clubs Alumni of the Year Award and a 1983 Dallas Father of the Year Award.

Gene, a native of Paris, Texas (3/2/35), and wife Ruth Ann have five children — Anna Lee, Laurie, John Mark, Jacklyn and Martha Kate.

Ernie Stautner

Defensive Coordinator • Defensive Line

Under the direction of Pro Football Hall of Famer Ernie Stautner, the Cowboys consistently field excellent defenses and All-Pro defensive linemen like Bob Lilly, George Andrie, Harvey Martin, Randy White, Ed Jones and John Dutton.

The Cowboys' famed "Doomsday Defense" began to emerge shortly after Stautner's arrival as defensive line coach in 1966. Ernie also helped fashion "Doomsday II," which carried Dallas to its second Super Bowl title in 1977.

Stautner was an All-Pro defensive end and tackle with the Pittsburgh Steelers where he played for 15 years (1950-64) despite being relatively small at 6-0, 235 pounds. A veteran of nine Pro Bowls, he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, his first year of eligibility. In 1982 he was voted to the Steelers' 50th anniversary team.

Ernie was born in Cham, Bavaria (4/20/27), but grew up in Albany, N.Y. Following a World War II Marine Corps hitch (1943-46), he enrolled at Boston College and developed into a two-way star lineman.

Ernie and Gene Stallings direct the annual Stautner-Stallings Football Camp for Boys every June at Texas Stadium.

Ernie has three children — Joe, Terri and Carol.

Jerry Tubbs Linebackers

The only original Cowboys player still with the club is Jerry Tubbs, who came to Dallas in the 1960 expansion draft from the San Francisco 49ers.

Jerry was the Cowboys' first starting middle linebacker and one of four in club history. As a coach he developed his successors at the critical middle spot, Lee Roy Jordan, Bob Breunig and Eugene Lockhart. Tubbs, Jordan and Breunig all played in the Pro Bowl.

Tubbs played for the Cowboys for eight seasons (1961-67), serving as player-coach the last two. He was the Cowboys' first All-Pro and Pro Bowl linebacker (1962) and was known as one of the most aggressive players in the game.

Jerry has coached four Pro Bowl linebackers in Dallas — Jordan, Breunig, Chuck Howley and Thomas Henderson.

Born in Breckenridge, Texas (1/23/35), Jerry was an All-America center-linebacker for Bud Wilkinson's unbeaten Oklahoma teams from 1954-56. Tubbs was the Walter Camp Award winner in 1956 as the nation's outstanding player.

Earlier this year Sooners Illustrated magazine ranked Tubbs No. 4 on the list of the 10 all-time greatest Oklahoma football players.

Tubbs was drafted in the first round by the Chicago Cardinals in 1957 and also played for the 49ers before coming to Dallas.

Jerry and wife Marlene have two children — Alan and Kayla.

Bob Ward Conditioning

Dr. Bob Ward has Cowboys players enthusiastically participating in his innovative conditioning programs, which include weightlifting, aerobic conditioning, flexibility training and nutrition.

Working with computers and emphasizing futuristic concepts, Ward directs the Cowboys' voluntary offseason conditioning program, using biomechanics to devise individual programs for each player. He also supplies each player with a training program during the season.

Ward was track coach for 11 years at Fullerton College in California before joining the Cowboys in 1975.

A graduate of Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., Ward received his master's degree in physical education from the University of Washington and his doctorate from Indiana University.

Bob has trained extensively in the martial arts and taught Cowboys players various martial arts techniques that can be used in football. He is a member of Delta Force, a U.S. Army think-tank.

A native of Huntington Park, Calif. (7/4/33), Bob and wife Joyce have two children — Shannon and Erin.

DON COCHREN

KEN LOCKER

BUCK BUCHANAN

DON COCHREN, Trainer

Don Cochren joined the Cowboys in 1965 after experience in college, military and Canadian Football League training.

A graduate of Purdue, Cochren earned his physical therapy certificate at Pennsylvania. He was trainer at Case Institute (now Case-Western Reserve) in Cleveland for two years, with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL for four years and at the University of New Hampshire for one year before coming to Dallas. He also served as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force for two years.

Don was one of 28 trainers selected from colleges and professional sports teams to serve the United States team at the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, N.Y. In 1984 Don received the 25-year honor award from the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of Princeton, Ind. (2/6/32), Don and wife Jan have four children — Jan, Scott, Wendy and Chris.

KEN LOCKER, Assistant Trainer

Ken Locker works with Don Cochren and supervises the Cowboys' medical rehabilitation program. Locker came to the Cowboys in 1973 after four years as assistant trainer and interim head trainer at North Texas State University.

Locker received his master's degree in physical education from Texas Woman's University. He served two years as trainer of World Championship Tennis, traveling with the men's tour in 1975 and '76.

In 1982 Ken was trainer for NBC's "Survival of the Fittest" competition in New Zealand. He serves as group coordinator of the Dallas Blood Center and on the executive board of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Ken is a native of Seminole, Texas (7/23/51). He and wife Pam live in Rcanoke, Texas, with daughters Baylee Arrena and Berkley Anne.

BUCK BUCHANAN, Equipment Manager

William T. "Buck" Buchanan joined the Cowboys in 1973 after supervising athletic programs in the Air Force for 20 years.

SMSgt. Buchanan was a non-commissioned officer in charge of athletics and programs at the U.S. Air Force Academy Prep School in Colorado Springs for four years. He was awarded the Bronze Star for his performance during a 1968-69 tour of duty in Thailand.

Buck was born in Ballinger, Texas (5/24/33). He and wife Geraldine have two children — Bucky and Julie.

What To Look For In 1985

Cowboys winning their 20th league opener in the past 21 seasons. The club holds the NFL record of 17 straight opening-game victories from 1965-81.

Cowboys extending their NFL record of consecutive winning seasons to 20. The team's 19 straight winning seasons is the longest active streak in pro sports and third longest ever behind the New York Yankees' 39 straight winning seasons from 1926-64 and the Montreal Canadiens' 32 in a row from 1952-83.

Cowboys returning to the playoffs for the 10th time in the past 11 years and 18th time in the past 20 years. Their NFL record of nine consecutive playoff appearances was interrupted in 1984.

Cowboys improving their all-time Texas Stadium record of 90-23 (80 percent), including playoff games (1971-84).

Cowboys improving their NFC-best 35-14 (71.4 percent) record against the AFC in games against AFC Central foes Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Houston.

Tom Landry, the second winningest coach in NFL history, improving his career record of 243-141-6 (including playoffs) and staying ahead of Miami's Don Shula, whose career mark is 242-94-6. Landry and Shula trail only George Halas (325) in NFL victories.

Tony Dorsett becoming the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 10,000 career yards. Dorsett, the NFL's sixth all-time leading rusher, entered the 1985 season with 9,525 yards. He has rushed for 1,000 yards in seven of his eight NFL seasons. He has scored 69 touchdowns and needs seven more to tie Bob Hayes' club career record of 76.

Randy White earning All-Pro honors for the eighth year in a row to extend his club record and being named to the Pro Bowl for the ninth straight year to move within one of Mel Renfro's club record 10 consecutive Pro Bowl appearances.

Everson Walls becoming the first player to lead the NFL in interceptions three times. He led the league in 1981 with 11 and 1982 with seven.

Tony Hill breaking Drew Pearson's club record of catching passes in 58 straight regular-season games. Hill has caught at least one pass in 44 consecutive games in which he's played. Hill needs seven receptions to tie Bob Hayes for second place on the Cowboys' all-time list with 365 career catches.

Rafael Septien improving his consecutive-game scoring streak to the second longest in NFL history. Septien opens the season having scored in 118 games in a row, tied with Jim Turner for third longest streak ever behind Fred Cox' 151 and Garo Yepremian's 133. Septien also can move into the NFL's top 20 career scorers. He has 773 points. Pat Leahy is No. 20 with 780. Don Hutson is No. 19 with 823.

THE PLAYERS

RANDY WHITE

Vince Albritton ★ 36

LINEBACKER • WASHINGTON • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 213 • BORN: 7/23/62 • FA FOR '84

PRO: Albritton, who played safety, linebacker and cornerback for the Washington Huskies, made the Cowboys roster as a free agent strong safety in 1984. In fact, he was one of six '84 Dallas defensive backs who weren't drafted out of college. Albritton appeared in all 16 games on the special teams and as a valuable contributor to the club's 4-0 defense. "He's big and strong," says Tom Landry, "and there's a possibility he might become a linebacker. He has the size and he could put on some weight." GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0).

COLLEGE: Vince was named honorable mention All-West Coast and second team All-Pac 10 while at Washington. Playing strong safety his senior year, he led the Husky secondary in tackling, and played in the Japan Bowl after the 1983 season.

PERSONAL: A native of Oakland, Calif., Vince Denader Albritton attended McClymonds High School, where he concentrated mostly on baseball. He led the football team to the Oakland Athletic League title in his senior year when he intercepted a league-leading and school-record eight passes earning him All-OAL honors. He returned to Washington in the offseason to work toward his degree in speech communications.

Gary Allen ★ 31

WIDE RECEIVER • HAWAII • 4th YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 173 • BORN: 4/23/60 • FA FOR '83

PRO: After spending his first three years in the NFL as a running back and kick returner, Gary Allen will be used at wide receiver in 1985. "If he didn't have the good hands, he wouldn't have been able to catch all those punts," says Dick Nolan. "He can definitely catch the ball and he's got the athletic skills to be a very good receiver." Gary emerged as the steady performer the Cowboys were looking for in a return man in 1984. In only a year and a half with the team he has become the second leading punt returner in team history with a 9.5 average per return behind only Bob Hayes' 11.1 career average. As the only Cowboy to return punts last year Gary tied a team record with his 54 returns. He also led the team in kickoff returns with a 20.2 average. In '83 against Kansas City (11/20) he returned a punt 68 yards for a touchdown. It marked the first return of a non-blocked punt for a TD by the Cowboys since 1975 (Golden Richards) and the club's longest punt return since 1974 (98 yards by Dennis Morgan). A sixth-round draft choice by Houston in 1982, Allen was released on the final cut in 1983 by the Oilers. Dallas signed Allen (9/29/83) to replace running back Chuck McSwain, who was lost for the season with an injured finger. He became the No. 1 punt returner with six games remaining in 1983. As a rookie with the Oilers in '82, Allen shared kickoff return duties and backed up the running back position. Against the Giants (12/5) he caught two passes for 35 yards, including a 23-yard reception for a touchdown. GAMES/STARTS: 1982 (7/0-Hous.), 1983 (6/0), 1984 (16/0). Total — 29/0 (22/0-Dallas).

COLLEGE: Allen finished his career as the only University of Hawaii rusher to gain more than 3,000 career yards (3,451 and 19 TDs on 647 carries). He also caught 72 passes for 895 yards and five TDs. He left Hawaii with 20 school career and single-season records. As a senior he had five 100-yard rushing games, including 189 yards against San Diego State. He rushed for 202 yards on 24 attempts against Texas-El Paso in his sophomore year. Gary was a three-time All-Western Athletic Conference choice.

PERSONAL: Gary is a native of Baldwin Park, Calif., where he starred in football and track at Baldwin Park High School. He was a recreation major in college. Gary's brother Doug played wide receiver at Arizona State and was drafted in the fourth round this year by the New York Jets. His brother Todd is a strong safety at Mt. San Antonio College.

Dowe Aughtman ★ 76

GUARD • AUBURN • 2nd YEAR
 HT: 6-2 • WT: 259 • BORN: 1/28/61 • D-11 FOR '84

PRO: Dowe Aughtman joined the Cowboys as a longshot defensive tackle candidate after being drafted in the 11th round in 1984. The fact he ended up making the team, then finishing the season as a bright, young offensive guard prospect is a testament to Aughtman's greatest quality — his competitive nature. The Cowboys switched Aughtman to offense in September of his rookie year after injuries decimated the offensive line. "He had never played guard and he looked it in the beginning," Tom Landry says. "But the kid is a great competitor. He's very compact. He's a tough, hard-nosed guy. Usually that kind of personality is playing defense. Aughtman may develop and surprise us this summer." Dowe saw no game action at guard last year, but did play on special teams in seven games. "The thing that impressed me was his aggressiveness and desire," offensive line coach Jim Myers said. "He was running over people and knocking them down in practice. Guys started looking for him so they could get out of the way. He's the kind of player who will excel." GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (7/0).

COLLEGE: Aughtman was a two-time All-Southeastern Conference nose tackle at Auburn. A senior co-captain, he was described in the Auburn football guide as "a good ole country boy who likes to play football, ride around in a truck and chew tobacco."

PERSONAL: Lorenzo Dowe Aughtman and wife Brenda returned to Auburn in the offseason so Dowe could pursue his degree in education. Dowe attended T.R. Miller High School in his native Brewton, Ala. His hobbies are hunting deer and turkey. In college he listed his favorite NFL player as Randy White.

Brian Baldinger ★ 62

GUARD • DUKE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 261 • BORN: 1/7/59 • FA FOR '82

PRO: Baldinger, a rough, tough, enthusiastic player, was one of the Cowboys' pleasant surprises in 1984. A 1982 free agent from Duke, all of his previous pro playing experience was at guard or center when he suddenly became a tackle after Phil Pozderac was injured against Buffalo. Baldinger then started at tackle the next two weeks and more than held his own. Earlier in the season, Baldinger started crucial games against St. Louis and Washington at guard for the injured Kurt Petersen. "Brian is a big asset to us because he can play tackle, guard or center," Tom Landry says. "He's got size and speed and he's a good, tough competitor." GAMES/STARTS: 1982 (4/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/4). Total — 36/4.

COLLEGE: Baldinger was an All-Coastal Conference tight end at Nassau Community College on Long Island before transferring to Duke, where he switched to guard. Brian started 11 games his senior year and was considered the most improved player on the squad.

PERSONAL: Brian David Baldinger (BALL-ding-er) of Massapequa Park, N.Y., comes from an athletic family. His father Jim played at Navy and his brother Rich, who played at Wake Forest, was a 1982 New York Giants draft choice who later played with the Kansas City Chiefs. Brian participated in football, basketball and track at Massapequa High School and is one of the stars of the Cowboys' off-season basketball team. He received his Duke degree in psychology. Baldinger earned his residential real estate license during the off-season, was involved in owning thoroughbred horses and did community service for the suburban Lewisville YMCA.

Bill Bates ★ 40

SAFETY • TENNESSEE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 199 • BORN: 6/6/61 • FA FOR '83

PRO: Since arriving at training camp two years ago Bill Bates has taken full advantage of every opportunity. As a rookie free agent in 1983, Bill made an immediate impact with his fierce style and earned a spot on the team. When he was given the chance on special teams he reaped every special teams award available. In his only start at strong safety last year vs. Indianapolis (10/28), Bill had a team-high seven tackles, an interception, a sack, recovered a fumble, and knocked down a pass. With the club emphasizing the "4-0" in last year's final two games, Bill saw more playing time in his linebacker spot on the special pass defense, including a start at outside linebacker in place of Anthony Dickerson vs. Washington (12/9). He led the team in tackles with 10 in the season finale against Miami (12/17). "You can go to a game, not know anything about football, and still see Bill Bates," defensive backfield coach Gene Stallings says. "He'll trap somebody, make a tackle on a kickoff, knock somebody down. It's my contention that you don't have to look for good football players. They stick out." As special teams captain last year, Bill led one of the NFL's best kickoff and punt coverage units. He became the first NFC player to be named to the Pro Bowl in the newly created spot as non-returner on special teams. He was named second team All-Pro by College and Pro Football Newsweekly and All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly. For the second consecutive year he was named NFL special teams player of the year by the NFL Alumni Association. He also was named NFC special teams player of the year by the NFL Players Association and a USA Today players poll. Bill started the '84 season on injured reserve after injuring his hip in the Green Bay preseason game (8/4). On his first hit after returning from IR, Bill caused a fumble which led to a field goal against Chicago (9/30). Bill received his first pro start vs. Seattle (12/4/83) in place of injured Dextor Clinkscale. He also started the playoff game that year against the Rams (12/26) at strong safety and led the team in tackles. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (16/1), 1984 (12/2). Total — (28/3).

COLLEGE: Bates played both safety positions in four years as a starter at Tennessee. He was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference his junior and senior years. Bates was known as the Vols' hardest hitter, surest tackler and as a team leader. He intercepted nine passes and recovered six fumbles in his career.

PERSONAL: William Frederick Bates was born and raised in Knoxville, Tenn., where he excelled in football, basketball and as a sprinter on the track team at Farragut High School. He was all-state in football and basketball. The Cowboys' 1985 NFL Man of the Year nominee, Bill supports the United Way, the Dallas-area Boys Clubs, the Special Olympics in Tennessee, the United Children's Fund of Dallas and the Dallas Wednesday's Child Program benefitting orphans. He also serves as a spokesman for the Dallas-Fort Worth Ronald McDonald Houses. Bill married the former Denise Conrad of Nashville in June.

Dextor Clinkscale ★ 47

SAFETY • SOUTH CAROLINA STATE • 5th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 195 • BORN: 4/13/58 • FA FOR '80

PRO: An intelligent and instinctive football player, underrated Dextor Clinkscale earned the starting strong safety position in 1983 after two seasons as a pass-defense specialist and one on injured reserve. Last year Clinkscale finished third on the team in tackles and interceptions and tied for the club lead in fumbles recovered. He earned the Oak Farms MVP award in a victory over Chicago (9/30) after recording a QB trap, an interception and eight tackles. In 1983 Dextor led the team in fumbles recovered, finished fifth in tackles and scored a crucial touchdown in a victory over the Giants (9/18). With the Cowboys clinging to a 14-13 fourth-quarter lead, Clinkscale picked off a Scott Brunner pass and raced 68 yards for his first NFL touchdown. He had another interception against the Giants later in the year (10/30). In the season-opener at Washington (9/5), he had 12 tackles and a QB trap to earn a coaches' defensive game ball. In 1980 and '82 Clinkscale played safety on passing downs and made a big contribution each season in the playoffs. As a rookie he intercepted a pass against the Rams in a playoff victory (12/28/80). In a 1982 playoff victory over Tampa Bay (1/9/83) he intercepted one pass, batted down another and got his hands on three more. Clinkscale spent the 1981 season on COLLEGE: Clinkscale was a 1979 first-team Black College All-America safety and a three-time All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference pick at South Carolina State. He played in the 1980 Black College all-star game.

PERSONAL: A native of Greenville, S.C., (J.L. Mann High School), Frederick Dexter Clinkscale earned a college degree in business administration. His three brothers also attended college on football scholarships and earned their degrees.

Jim Cooper ★ 61

TACKLE • TEMPLE • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 274 • BORN: 9/28/55 • D-6 FOR '77

PRO: There is little doubt Jim Cooper, perhaps the Cowboys' most consistently solid offensive lineman, would just as soon forget the 1984 season. The night after the Cowboys lost their second straight to fall to 4-3 after a 4-1 start, Jim was at a Dallas restaurant with teammate Tom Rafferty and their wives. Cooper got up to leave the table, slipped on the hardwood floor, fell, broke his ankle and missed the rest of the season. The injury required surgery, but Cooper had a good off-season conditioning program and was looking forward to a fresh start in '85. Before being hurt, Cooper was in his sixth season as the Cowboys' starting right tackle. "You can count on Jim every game," says Tom Landry. "He'll perform very well." Cooper, who also has played guard and center for the Cowboys, very nearly didn't make the team as a rookie in 1977. He was released in training camp that year but was re-signed just before the opener and went on to play in every game to nail down his spot on the squad. GAMES/STARTS: 1977 (14/0), 1978 (14/2), 1979 (15/11), 1980 (15/15), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/15), 1984 (7/7). Total — 106/75.

COLLEGE: Cooper started for three years at Temple under Wayne

COOPER, Cont.

Hardin, Roger Staubach's coach at Navy. Jim played in the offensive and defensive lines before settling at offensive tackle.

PERSONAL: Philadelphia native James Albert Cooper and his wife Mary, a nurse, live in Richardson, Texas. They have two sons, James Ryan (6/6/79) and Sean Francis (6/8/84). In the off-season, Jim works for Grunnah and Swanson, a Dallas commercial real estate firm. Jim was voted the fan's Favorite Cowboy in 1983, an honor that traditionally goes to a player at one of the more visible positions.

Fred Cornwell ★ 85

TIGHT END • SOUTHERN CAL • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 233 • BORN: 8/7/61 • D-3 FOR '84

PRO: Billy Joe DuPree's retirement prior to last season left a need for a good backup tight end. Fred Cornwell filled that void well, developing into a consistent second tight end for blocking purposes and a dependable backup to Doug Cosbie. "Fred is tall and big. He should eventually develop into a good blocker," says Tom Landry. "He can play in our system and play well." Although he is known mainly for his blocking abilities, Fred stepped in for an injured Cosbie in the second half against St. Louis (10/7) and caught his first NFL pass and his first NFL touchdown. Cornwell saw most of his playing time on short yardage and goal line offenses. After injuring his back during pre-game warmups for the Philadelphia game (12/2), Fred missed both that game and the Washington game (12/9). He received his first professional start against Green Bay (9/23) as the second tight end. GAMES/STARTED: 1984 (14/1). Total — 14/1.

COLLEGE: Cornwell was an outstanding blocker and clutch pass receiver in three years as Southern Cal's starting tight end. He had his most productive year in 1983 with 22 catches for 236 yards and a touchdown. A senior co-captain in 1983, Cornwell earned second team All-Pac 10 honors. For his career he caught 34 passes for 343 yards and two touchdowns. Cornwell's biggest moment came in 1981 when he caught a seven-yard touchdown pass from John Mazur with two seconds left to give the No. 1 ranked Trojans a 24-21 victory over Oklahoma at the L.A. Coliseum.

PERSONAL: Born in Osborne, Kan., and raised in Saugus, Calif., Frederick Keith Cornwell starred in football, basketball and track (shot put) at Canyon High School. In the off-season Fred worked with the Special Olympics of Texas. He earned his degree in civil engineering at USC.

Doug Cosbie ★ 84

TIGHT END • SANTA CLARA • 7th YEAR
 HT: 6-6 • WT: 245 • BORN: 3/27/56 • D-3 FOR '79

PRO: "We have one of the best tight ends in football in Doug Cosbie," Tom Landry says. Cosbie had an excellent year last year and made the Pro Bowl for the second year in a row. A big target with excellent hands, Cosbie broke his own club record for receptions by a tight end last year with 60 catches. That total also led the team and was second among NFC tight ends to Philadelphia's John Spagnola, who had 65. In 1983 Cosbie broke by four Billy Joe DuPree's 1976 team record for catches by a tight end of 42. Doug also earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Cosbie took over the starting tight end position from DuPree in 1982 and led NFC tight ends with 30 catches. His four TD receptions led the team. In 1981, when Doug shared the position with DuPree as a play messenger, he tied Butch Johnson for the club lead in touchdown receptions with five. Four came at key moments of second-half comeback victories (Miami, at Philadelphia, Buffalo, Washington). He also caught a 21-yard TD pass to send Dallas ahead of San Francisco 27-21 in the fourth quarter of the NFC Championship Game (1/10/82). A Dallas newspaper once described Cosbie as "the consummate Cowboy — the diplomat, the hard worker, the willing learner, the unknown collegiate with the unlimited talent, the draft find." Doug was the fourth tight end selected in the 1979 draft after Kellen Winslow (San Diego), Dan Ross (Cincinnati) and Ronnie Lee (Miami). He was selected with a choice obtained in a trade with Seattle for Bill Gregory. GAMES/STARTS: 1979 (16/1), 1980 (16/0), 1981 (16/0), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16). Total — 89/42.

downs in four years at Santa Clara, three as a starter. In his senior year he served as a team captain and was voted the club's offensive MVP and honorable mention All-Pacific Coast. He also attended Holy Cross College in Worcester, Mass. and DeAnza Junior College in Cupertino, Calif.

PERSONAL: Douglas Durant Cosbie is a native of Mt. View, Calif., where he attended St. Francis High and played football, basketball and track. Doug was the 1984 Cowboys winner in a vote by fans of the Miller Lite Man of the Year Award, which recognizes the NFL's top citizen-athletes. Cosbie serves on the board of directors of the Paul Anderson Youth Homes in Roanoke, Texas, and the John Weber Ministries of Dallas. He also supports the Special Olympics for the handicapped, the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Dallas, the Campfire Girls, the American Heart Association, the Texas Attorney General's program on child support, and is honorary chairman of a fund raising golf tournament for Mt. St. Mary's Grammar School in California. Doug has a degree in marketing. He and wife Sherry live in McKinney, Texas, with son Matthew Douglas (9/19/80) and daughter Kari Kirrene (7/2/83).

Steve DeOssie ★ 55

LINEBACKER • BOSTON COLLEGE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 245 • BORN: 11/22/62 • D-4 FOR '84

PRO: "DeOssie improved as the season went on in 1984," said Tom Landry. "He's very bright, and as he plays in our system he'll become better and better because he'll know where to be all the time.

This is a quality that could make him a top linebacker." Appearing in all 16 games as a rookie, DeOssie made his most valuable contributions on the special teams and earned a game ball for those efforts against the Redskins in December. Nicknamed "Barney Rubble" by his teammates, Steve is a rough-and-tumble player whose enthusiasm is contagious. He adds to his value to the team by doubling as the Cowboys' snapper on punts. When injuries forced long-time starter Bob Breunig into early retirement, DeOssie became the backup middle linebacker behind fellow rookie Eugene Lockhart. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0).

COLLEGE: DeOssie was a four-year starter at middle linebacker for Boston College, earning All-East honors twice and being named second team AP All-America in 1983. A captain his senior year, Steve was the Eagles' leading tackler from 1981 through '83.

PERSONAL: Steven Leonard DeOssie and his wife Diana have three children — Nichole (5/24/83), and twins Zak and Christina (5/25/84). Steve was an All-State football, basketball and baseball player at Don Bosco High School in Roslindale, Mass. During the past off-season he worked with the Winter Special Olympics in New Mexico and the Big Brothers program in the Dallas area.

Anthony Dickerson ★ 51

LINEBACKER • SOUTHERN METHODIST • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 221 • BORN: 6/9/57 • FA FOR '80

PRO: In 1984 Anthony Dickerson didn't post the big numbers he had the year before, but he continued to make the big play when the opportunity arose. Due to the increased use of the 4-0 defense, Anthony saw less playing time last year. When he had the chance he continued a reputation that had started the year before. Against Indianapolis (10/28), he recovered a fumble on the eight-yard line to prevent a Colts touchdown. In the last two minutes vs. Green Bay (9/23), Dickerson intercepted a pass to set up a Cowboys TD. In 1983, his first season as the starting right linebacker, he turned in an outstanding year including several big plays. He led the club in solo tackles, finished second in total tackles and quarterback sacks, knocked down six passes, recovered three fumbles and forced two others. His biggest play came against New Orleans (9/25) when he sacked Ken Stabler in the end zone for a safety with 1:58 remaining to give Dallas a 21-20 victory. Dickerson's pressure on Scott Brunner caused Dexter Clinkscale's interception for the decisive touchdown in a victory over the Giants (9/18). Against the Raiders (10/23) Anthony had 11 tackles, two QB traps, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Despite a shoulder injury which plagued Anthony throughout preseason, he began '84 as the starting right linebacker. During his first three years Dickerson played regularly on passing downs because of his ability to cover running backs. A top special teams contributor, Dickerson was named the Cowboys' special teams captain in '81. "He surely has the big play qualities you look for in a linebacker," Tom Landry says. "He has great speed and is as quick as a cat." It's been an unlikely ascent for Dickerson, whose football career appeared finished in 1979. He left SMU after his junior year in '77 and signed with Calgary of the Canadian Football League. The Stampeders released him after 10 games in '78. Dickerson moved to Los Angeles and worked as a handyman at the Burbank Airport. Then he returned to his native Texas and was taking business courses at the University of

Tony Dorsett ★ 33

RUNNING BACK • PITTSBURGH • 9th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 185 • BORN: 4/7/54 • D-1 FOR '77

PRO: His place in NFL history already is assured, but Tony Dorsett gives no indication his show is ready to close. The Cowboys' all-time leading rusher and the sixth-leading rusher in NFL history, Dorsett began the 1985 season expecting to join yet another elite group of NFL performers, those who have rushed for 10,000 yards. Tony entered the season just 475 yards shy of becoming the sixth NFL rusher to gain 10,000 yards. He has scored 69 touchdowns, seven short of Bob Hayes' club record of 76. Last year Dorsett became the 15th NFL player to surpass 12,000 combined net yards gained. Amazingly durable, he has rushed for 1,000 yards in seven of eight NFL seasons and in 13 of the 14 years he has played running back, dating to his junior year of high school. Tony is the only NFL runner to gain 1,000 yards in each of his first five seasons. That streak was broken in 1982 by the players' strike, although counting his 266 playoff yards Dorsett's season total was 1,011 yards. In 1982 Dorsett captured his first NFC rushing title and established an unbreakable NFL record by racing 99 yards from scrimmage for a touchdown at Minnesota (1/3/83). He has led the team in rushing every year he's been with the club, eight in a row. He owns the Cowboys' top five season rushing performances, top eight single-game rushing efforts and the five longest runs from scrimmage, all 75 yards or longer. He's the NFL's second all-time leading playoff rusher with 1,325 yards in 16 games, trailing only Franco Harris' 1,556 in 19 games. He also owns team records for most career 100-yard games (41, Cowboys are 39-2 in these, 26-0 at Texas Stadium), most 100-yard games in a season (9), most consecutive 100-yard games (4), most rushing attempts in a career and season, most career rushing touchdowns and most yards gained in a playoff game (160 vs. Rams in 1980). He is also the Cowboys' fourth all-time leading receiver. A team captain in 1981, '82 and '84, Dorsett was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1978, '81, '82 and '83. In '81 he also earned consensus All-Pro honors and was named NFC player of the year by UPI, the Washington Touchdown Club and the Kansas City Committee of 101. The second player selected in the '77 draft following a trade with Seattle, Dorsett won consensus rookie of the year honors in helping Dallas win Super Bowl XII. GAMES/STARTS: 1977 (14/4), 1978 (16/15), 1979 (14/14), 1980 (15/15), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16). Total — 116/105.

COLLEGE: Dorsett crowned a brilliant collegiate career by winning the 1976 Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player. Dorsett rushed for an NCAA career-record 6,082 yards and 58 TDs and led Pitt to the 1976 national championship with a 12-0 record. He broke or tied 14 NCAA records, was a four-time All-America and the first player in NCAA history with four 1,000-yard seasons and three 1,500-yard seasons.

PERSONAL: Aliquippa, Pa., native (Hopewell High) Anthony Drew

DORSETT, Cont.

Dorsett is a member of the National Easter Seals Sports Council, served as 1980 chairman of the American Heart Association's Jump-Rope-a-Thon fund-raising program, and has promoted the United Way, United Negro College Fund, Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation seat belt program and the Dallas Civic Opera. In a 1979 Gallup Youth Survey of American teenagers' favorite sports personalities, Tony finished second to Roger Staubach. In 1981 Dorsett was named the best dressed man in sports by the Custom Tailors' Guild of New York. Tony is a partner in Southwestern Drilling Mud Company of Midland, Texas, and Dor-Watts, a burglar and fire alarm systems retail company in Dallas. Tony has a son, Anthony Drew Dorsett, Jr. (9/14/73).

Michael Downs ★ 26

SAFETY • RICE • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 204 • BORN: 6/9/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: Michael Downs enjoyed his finest season as a professional in 1984, earning All-Pro and All-NFC honors and, according to Tom Landry, "everybody thought he should have gone to the Pro Bowl."

The unheralded free agent from Rice started every game at free safety for the third straight year and led the secondary in tackles for the fourth year in a row. For the third time in four years Downs led the entire team in tackles, and for good measure was the Cowboys' top pass interceptor with seven. He also had 3½ quarterback traps, knocked down 13 passes, forced three fumbles and recovered two. Against New Orleans, as the Cowboys fought back from a 27-6 fourth-quarter deficit to win in overtime, Downs made nine tackles, intercepted two passes, batted down a pass, recovered a fumble and recovered a blocked punt. Says Landry, "Like playing middle linebacker, the more you play the safety position the more you see and the better you anticipate. As he gets more experience, Michael can only get better." Despite his slender frame, Downs has missed only one game as a pro, that coming in his rookie year when he was sidelined with a pulled hamstring. He has become one of the most durable and dependable performers in the Dallas lineup. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (15/15), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16). Total — 56/56.

COLLEGE: Despite being a three-year starter and a co-captain at Rice, Downs' play as a senior was hampered by a pinched nerve in his

Michael earned undergraduate degrees at Rice in business, political science and physical education. He owns an American Speedy Printing franchise in Dallas and has worked in youth marketing for the Dr Pepper Co. of Dallas. Michael and his wife Vanessa have a daughter, Carolynn (6/29/84).

John Dutton ★ 78

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • NEBRASKA • 12th YEAR
HT: 6-7 • WT: 268 • BORN: 2/6/51 • TRADE, BALT., '79

PRO: After six seasons as an All-Pro defensive end with the Baltimore Colts, John Dutton moved to Dallas and developed into a fine left tackle. John reported to 1984 training camp at 258 pounds—his lowest playing weight in 11 years—and performed well, playing mostly against the run. Against Philadelphia (12/2), John sacked Joe Pisarcik in the end zone for a safety and earned a defensive game ball from the coaches. He had his best game of the season vs. Green Bay (9/23) when he recorded seven tackles, 1½ sacks and knocked down a pass. Following the 1979 trade, Dutton was switched to left tackle and learned his new position while sharing it with starter Larry Cole. Cole retired after the '80 season and Dutton took command of the position in '81. "John came along very well in 1981 at tackle, and it was one of the keys to our defensive improvement," Tom Landry says. Dutton's absence from the NFC Championship Game in San Francisco because of a bruised thigh was considered a major blow to Dallas. Injuries hampered Dutton in 1982. He underwent surgery on his damaged thigh following that season and rebounded in '83 with a fine performance. The Cowboys obtained Dutton from Baltimore on the Oct. 9, 1979 trading deadline to help plug holes left by the retirements of Ed Jones and Jethro Pugh. Dallas gave up first and second-round draft choices to acquire the three-time Pro Bowl selection. A right end at Baltimore, Dutton played left end in '79 and was moved to tackle in 1980 when Too Tall returned from boxing. John scored his first NFL touchdown in '80, intercepting a Scott Brunner pass vs. the Giants (10/5) and returning it 38 yards. Chosen by the Colts in the first round of the '74 draft, the fifth pick overall (Too Tall was first), Dutton was a consensus all-rookie selection. In '75 he led the Colts in QB traps with a career-high 17, was selected to the Pro Bowl for the first of three straight years and was named to the AP and UPI All-NFC teams. The following season Dutton reached All-Pro status, leading his club in QB traps again and being named All-Pro by AP and All-AFC by UPI. He was named to the Pro Bowl and UPI's All-AFC team again in '77. Total — 149 (81/61-Dallas)

COLLEGE: A two-year starter and senior captain, Dutton was a consensus All-America in 1973. He played in two Orange Bowls and one Cotton Bowl with Nebraska. The Cornhuskers won the national championship in his sophomore season. John also threw the discus for the Nebraska track team.

PERSONAL: John Owen Dutton and wife Ginny live in Dallas with son Mason (8/4/79) and daughter Hayden Lee (8/21/83). They also own 80 acres in Lincoln, Neb. Ginny, a ballet dancer, studied under renowned Edward Villela. John attended Rapid City (S.D.) High School and attracted more scholarship offers for basketball than football. He has a degree in business administration.

Ron Fellows ★ 27

CORNERBACK • MISSOURI • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 180 • BORN: 11/7/58 • D-7A FOR '81

PRO: Ron Fellows won the starting right cornerback position last year after Dennis Thurman opened the spot by moving back to safety. A receiver in college, Fellows had been a regular on passing downs at right corner since the 11th game of his rookie year of 1981 and had become recognized as one of the top "extra" defensive backs in the league. "Ron Fellows is a very talented player," Tom Landry says. "He has great speed and good coverage ability. If he ends up making the play consistently, he can step up with the best of the cornerbacks." In 1983 Fellows made three of the year's biggest plays. His first career interception came late in the season-opener at Washington (9/5) to set up the winning touchdown in a dramatic comeback victory. Against New Orleans (9/25) he returned a blocked field goal 62 yards for a fourth-quarter touchdown to help Dallas rally to a 21-20 triumph, his first NFL TD and the Cowboys' first return of a FG attempt for a score in 19 years. The following week at Minnesota (10/2) he intercepted two passes, including one for a 58-yard go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter, and returned four kickoffs for 109 yards, including a 53-yarder, the Cowboys' longest since 1979. His total return yardage for the game was 188 yards. Ron tied a club record in '83 with 43 kickoff returns. He led the team in punt and kickoff returns in 1982. In a victory last year at St. Louis (11/11), Fellows returned a blocked field goal 29 yards to the 11 to set up a touchdown. Obtained with a draft choice from Tampa Bay for defensive end Dave Stalls, Fellows was converted to cornerback by the Cowboys after leading the University of Missouri in receiving in 1980. He played at Missouri with current teammates Howard Richards and Kurt Petersen. The leanest member of the team, Ron is called "Bird" by teammates. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/0), 1982 (9/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/16). Total — 57/16.

COLLEGE: Fellows played cornerback at Butler, Kan., Community College. He transferred to Missouri and became a receiver midway through his junior year of '79. In '80 he led the Tigers with 33 catches for 586 yards and four TDs. He was chosen Big Eight player of the week after catching six passes for 99 yards against Iowa State. Fellows was a hurdler in junior college.

PERSONAL: A native of South Bend, Ind., Ronald Lee Fellows studied elementary education at Missouri. He and wife Lillie live in Dallas and operate a fashion jewelry business.

Norm Granger ★ 28

RUNNING BACK • IOWA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-9 • WT: 220 • BORN: 9/14/61 • D-5B FOR '84

PRO: Granger appeared in 15 games as a rookie in 1984, mostly on special teams, and made a big play by recovering a fumble on punt coverage to set up a field goal in an early season victory over the Chicago Bears. Very similar in physical stature to Robert Newhouse, the Cowboys' No. 4 all-time rusher, Granger was projected as a backup to fullback Timmy Newsome in '85. "Norm is strictly a fullback who is a strong runner," says Tom Landry. "He has a lot of potential at that position." GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (15/0).

COLLEGE: Granger was a three-year starter at fullback for the Iowa Hawkeyes, and was the only player ever to captain the team for two years. As a freshman he led with Big Ten by averaging nearly 30 yards per kickoff return.

PERSONAL: A native of Newark, New Jersey, Norman Lance Granger was a high school All-America at Barringer High School. He gained 1,900 yards, scored 13 touchdowns and won the Newark Academic Scholar-Athlete Award his senior year. In the offseason he went back to Iowa to work toward his degree in recreational therapy.

Duriel Harris ★ 86

WIDE RECEIVER • NEW MEXICO STATE • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 188 • BORN: 11/27/54 • FA FOR '84

PRO: Needing an offensive spark for the '84 stretch drive, the Cowboys picked up Duriel Harris on waivers from the Cleveland Browns (11/14). Although Duriel caught only one pass — for nine yards vs. New England (11/22) — he possesses the speed and quickness to pose a threat to opposing defenses. After starting the first 11 games for the Browns last year, Duriel came to Dallas where he was the third wide receiver. Duriel had his best game of '84 while playing for the Browns when he caught eight passes for 136 yards against New England (10/7). Duriel was drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the third round of the 1976 draft. He went on to become the second leading receiver in Dolphin history, catching 266 passes for 4,510 yards, second only to Nat Moore. In 1979, he had the best game of his career with 10 catches for 180 yards against Green Bay (10/28). Duriel's best season came in 1981 when he caught 53 passes for 911 yards. Harris is best remembered for his role in the "hook and lateral" play in the 1981 playoff game against San Diego when he caught a pass from Don Strock and lateraled it to Tony Nathan, who ran 25 yards for a touchdown. A starter in Miami from 1978-82, Duriel was named the team's outstanding receiver from 1980-82. He was the NFL's best kickoff return man in 1976, leading the league with a 32.9 average. After eight seasons with Miami, Duriel was traded on 3/27/84 to the Browns for a fourth-round draft pick in 1985. He caught Bob Griese's last pass. While with the Dolphins Duriel played in two games against the Cowboycs, catching 10 passes for 196 yards, including a six-catch, 165-yard day at Texas Stadium in 1981. GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (12/2-Miami), 1977 (14/4-Miami), 1978 (16/15-Miami), 1979 (15/14-Miami), 1980 (12/3-Miami), 1981 (15/10-Miami), 1982 (9/8-Miami), 1983 (12/5-Miami). 1984 (16/11, 11/11-Clev.). Total — 121/72 (5/0-Dallas).

COLLEGE: At New Mexico State, Duriel was the "lonesome end" in the Aggies' wishbone offense. He still caught 89 passes for 1,562 yards (17.5 avg.) and 13 TDs in four years. He was an all-Missouri Valley selection as a senior. He also finished fifth in the nation in kickoff returns that year, including a 104-yard TD return against Tulsa. Duriel played tailback as a sophomore gaining 250 yards on 36 carries.

PERSONAL: Duriel LaDon Harris, Jr., was born and raised in Port Arthur, Texas, where he lived four houses away from Falcons RB Joe Washington. Duriel attended Stephen F. Austin High School. Duriel Harris, Sr., was a quarterback at Wiley College in Marshall, Texas, and is an assistant coach at Tulane University. During the offseason Duriel worked as a sales representative for Big State Freight Lines in Dallas. He also spent time working with his Arabian horse in McKinney, Tex.

MILLER NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The NFL Man of the Year program honors NFL players who have contributed as outstanding citizens of their communities as well as to their teams on the field. The program began in 1970, was discontinued from 1977-79 and was reactivated by the Miller Brewing Company in 1980. Miller has established an annual $52,000 scholarship fund to be distributed in the names of the leading vote-getters from each of the 28 NFL teams. Dallas Cowboys NFL Man of the Year winners have been:

1984 - Doug Cosbie
1983 - Danny White
1982 - Billy Joe DuPree
1981 - D. D. Lewis

1980 - Drew Pearson
1976 - Roger Staubach
1975 - Roger Staubach
1973 - Calvin Hill

Mike Hegman ★ 58

LINEBACKER • TENNESSEE STATE • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 228 • BORN: 1/17/53 • D-7 FOR '75

PRO: Unheralded Mike Hegman has given the Cowboys solid outside linebacking for the past five years. Last season was his best, including career highs of three interceptions and 3½ quarterback traps. He received game balls from the coaching staff following victories over the Eagles and Colts. Hegman, who started every game of the past three seasons, became the starting left, or strongside, linebacker in November 1979 when Thomas Henderson was released with four games left in the season. A specialist in stopping the run, Hegman won the starting job outright in 1980. He recovered a fumble in the end zone for a TD at Philadelphia (10/19) and had two interceptions against Seattle (11/27) that year. But Mike suffered a dislocated elbow in the playoff opener and missed the final two playoff games. Bad luck struck again in the 1981 season opener at Washington (9/6) when Hegman broke a bone in his right forearm and missed the next five games after having played in 77 straight. In '83 Mike returned a fumble nine yards for a touchdown to put Dallas ahead of the Raiders in the fourth quarter (10/23). "Mike's the kind of player who doesn't make many mistakes and he's got great football instincts," says linebackers coach Jerry Tubbs. The best evidence of those instincts came in Super Bowl XIII when Hegman swiped the ball from Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw and raced 37 yards for a second-quarter touchdown. GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/1), 1978 (16/3), 1979 (16/5), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (11/10), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16). Total — 128/76.

COLLEGE: Hegman transferred from Alabama A&M and made Tennessee State's football team as a walk-on. He played middle linebacker on State's 10-0 1973 team, led the club in tackles in '74 and played on the same defense with Ed "Too Tall" Jones.

Tony Hill ★ 80

WIDE RECEIVER • STANFORD • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 202 • BORN: 6/23/56 • D-3A FOR '77

PRO: Since becoming a starter in 1978, Tony Hill has established himself as one of the top receivers in the NFL. Despite missing five games due to injury in 1984, Hill caught 58 passes — two short of his career high — and led the team in receiving yardage for the seventh straight season with 864 yards. Projected over a 16-game schedule, Tony would have caught 84 passes for over 1,200 yards. Only injuries and the players' strike have kept Tony from consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. In '83 Tony missed four games due to an injured foot. Last year he injured his shoulder in the season opener against the Rams and was out for the next five games. Upon his return, he caught a career-high nine passes for 134 yards against Washington (10/14). He went on to five 100-yard games in '84, a career high. He has put together 22 100-yard games over his career. With 356 career receptions, Tony ranks only behind Drew Pearson (489) and Bob Hayes (365) on the all-time Cowboys receiving list. Hill and Hayes are the only Cowboys to compile back-to-back 1,000 yard seasons. A starter since 1977, the two-time Pro Bowler (1978-79) has caught a pass in a team-high 44 consecutive games, 14 short of Drew Pearson's team record of 58 straight games with a reception. "Tony is our big-play man," Tom Landry says. "He has that ability to make the key play. He threatens the defense because he has the excellent burst of speed to get under a ball that's deep. He's a very explosive player, the type that can turn a short play into a deep play in a hurry." In the season opener of 1983 at Washington (9/5) Tony caught touchdown passes of 75 and 51 yards to spark the Cowboys from a 23-3 halftime deficit to a 31-30 victory. Hill set a club playoff record with nine receptions in the 1983 NFC Wild Card loss to the Rams (12/26). He has made three especially memorable catches. In '79 his 22-yard quick screen with two minutes left beat Chicago (9/16) and an eight-yarder with 39 seconds remaining clinched the NFC East title for Dallas in a dramatic comeback victory over Washington (12/16). His 28-yard scoring catch with 45 seconds left lifted the Cowboys over St. Louis in 1980 (11/2). Hill was obtained with a draft choice acquired from Philadelphia in 1975 for former All-Pro guard John Niland. GAMES/STARTS: 1977 (14/0), 1978 (16/13), 1979 (16/15), 1980 (16/13), 1981 (16/9), 1982 (9/8), 1983 (12/9), 1984 (11/11). Total — 110/78.

T. HILL, Cont.

COLLEGE: Hill broke all of former 49ers All-Pro Gene Washington's receiving records at Stanford. Tony caught 140 passes in four years for 2,225 yards and 18 touchdowns, including 55 catches for 916 yards in 1975.

PERSONAL: Leroy Anthony Hill, Jr., serves as chairman of the Dallas chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. In 1981 he started the Tony Hill Sports Camp for underprivileged children in his Long Beach, Calif. hometown. Tony was a quarterback at Long Beach Polytechnic High School. In 1978 Long Beach honored Tony as its athlete of the year. Tony has a degree from Stanford in political science. Tony lives in Dallas with his wife Mildred and daughter Cassidy (10/6/83).

Gary Hogeboom ★ 14

QUARTERBACK • CENTRAL MICHIGAN • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 207 • BORN: 8/21/58 • D-5 FOR '80

PRO: If a Dutchman says, "Hogeboom met magtigh aarem," he is describing a "tall tree with strong limb." He's also providing a pretty accurate description of Gary Hogeboom, the Cowboys' tall, strong-armed quarterback. Hogeboom has been a focal point for the past two years of one of the NFL's hottest stories, his battle for the Cowboys' starting quarterback position with Danny White. After a four-year apprenticeship, Hogeboom received his first chance last year when Coach Tom Landry named him to open the season as the starter. The Cowboys posted a 6-4 record in Hogeboom's 10 starts, including three of the year's biggest victories, over the Los Angeles Rams, Chicago and St. Louis. Gary's debut was brilliant. In his first regular-season start, he completed a club-record 33 passes in 47 attempts for 343 yards and a touchdown in rallying the Cowboys to a 20-13 victory over the Rams on the road before a Monday night television audience. Hampered thereafter by his own lack of experience plus an injury-depleted receiving corps and offensive line, Hogeboom did not match his opening-night performance. Gary did not see action in the last four games of the year as White regained his starting job. "Gary had his first test at being the starter and leader," Landry says. "He performed pretty well, but he still has to learn quite a bit about what he can do in the passing game. He didn't produce the touchdowns and big plays we need to have, although I think he will in time. His number one objective is to be able to score, to take his team in when he gets inside the 20-yard line." The "quarterback controversy" first surfaced after the 1982 NFC Championship Game at Washington (1/23/83). Relieving a KO'd White with 19 seconds left in the first half, Hogeboom converted his first six third-down chances and finished with 14 completions in 29 attempts for 162 yards and two touchdowns, six yards to Drew Pearson and 23 to Butch Johnson. Hogeboom was impressive, despite the two interceptions that spoiled his bid at leading another Dallas comeback. Prior to that game, Hogeboom had thrown eight passes in a few mop-up appearances in three seasons. Gary was the ninth quarterback selected in the 1980 draft after Marc Wilson, Mark Malone, Gene Bradley, Eric Hipple, Rusty Lisch, Ed Luther, Paul McDonald and Bill Hurley. Hogeboom won the roster spot opened by Roger Staubach's retirement. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (1/0), 1981 (1/0), 1982 (4/0), 1983 (6/0), 1984 (16/10). Total — (28/10).

COLLEGE: Hogeboom led Central Michigan to its first conference championship and was named Mid-American Conference player of the year in 1979. He guided Central to a 19-2-1 record in two years as a starter and of his 28 career starts Central won 24. He passed for 3,088 yards (208-of-395, 53 percent) and 19 touchdowns, and he rushed for 957 yards and 16 TDs. He set the school career total offense record of 4,045 yards.

PERSONAL: Gary Keith Hogeboom (HOAG-ih-boom) lives in McKinney, Texas, with wife Kristi, daughter Heidi Jo (11/30/82) and son Jake (7/10/84). Gary attended Northview High School in his hometown of Grand Rapids, Mich. He is a partner in a real estate development company in Sachse, Texas, and also owns 20 thoroughbred race horses. He has helped promote the Special Olympics and Wish with Wings.

Carl Howard ★ 21

CORNERBACK • RUTGERS • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 188 • BORN: 9/20/61 • FA FOR 84

PRO: One of the major reasons for the Cowboys improvement in special teams coverage in '84 was the addition of rookie free agent Carl Howard. Carl earned a game ball for special teams play in both the Green Bay (9/23) and Indianapolis (10/28) games. He also saw some playing time as the third cornerback in the 4-0 pass defense. "Carl showed promise on the corner in his coverage ability," says Tom Landry. "He's a good hustler and good competitor." Against the Giants (11/4) Carl twisted his right knee covering a punt and missed the remainder of the season. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (10/0).

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at left cornerback for the Scarlet Knights, Howard began his collegiate career with Rutgers as a walk-on in 1980. The highlight of his career was when he picked up a blocked punt against Army and ran 12 yards for his only collegiate TD.

PERSONAL: A native of Irvington, N.J., Carl Delano Howard, Jr., competed in football, baseball and track at Irvington High School. In the offseason he returned to Rutgers where he earned his degree in economics.

John Hunt ★ 79

GUARD • FLORIDA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 256 • BORN: 11/6/62 • D-9A FOR '84

PRO: The rash of injuries that struck the Cowboys' offensive line last year had one side benefit. It gave youngsters such as John Hunt an opportunity to gain valuable experience. Hunt spent seven of the first 12 weeks of the season on injured reserve with a back injury and did not see action in the other five games. But in game 13, a Thanksgiving Day victory over New England, Hunt was pressed into service at right guard in the first half when starter Kurt Petersen injured an ankle. Hunt performed well the rest of the game, then started and played the entire game the next week, a win at Philadelphia, earning good grades for that performance, too. Hunt went on injured reserve after the fourth game. He returned to the active roster, replacing injured Howard Richards, prior to the 12th game. Hunt was drafted with a ninth-round choice obtained in 1983 from the Colts for kicker Raul Allegre. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (2/1).

COLLEGE: Hunt started the final 22 games of his Florida career at guard, earning second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors in his senior year of 1983. Hunt played most of his senior season with a broken hand, but was considered a big reason for Florida's improved running game in '83.

PERSONAL: John Hunt is a native of Orlando, Fla., where he played football and baseball at Edgewater High School. John returned to the University of Florida last offseason to pursue his degree in criminal justice.

Jim Jeffcoat ★ 77

DEFENSIVE END • ARIZONA STATE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 263 • BORN: 4/1/61 • D-1 FOR '83

PRO: Jeffcoat, the Cowboys' No. 1 draft choice in 1983, took over for retired Harvey Martin as the club's starting right defensive end in 1984 and it looks as if he's settling in for a long stay. "The thing that encouraged us a great deal in the defensive line last year was the progress of Jim Jeffcoat," said Tom Landry. "We thought he had that kind of potential when we drafted him No. 1 in 1983, and once he took over the position he seemed to get better as the season went on. By the end of the year he was making a lot of plays. He wasn't always playing the defenses perfectly, but he's a hustler, a competitor, and he keeps after the man with the ball. I see a bright future for him." By the end of the '84 campaign, Jeffcoat's 11½ quarterback traps were second on the club to Randy White's 12½. Jim's biggest play came against the New Orleans Saints when he recovered a White-induced fumble in the end zone for the touchdown that tied the score at 27 with 2:53 to play. The Cowboys, who had trailed 27-6 entering the fourth quarter, went on to win 30-27 in overtime. Against the Washington Redskins in the next-to-last game of the season, Jeffcoat sacked Joe Theismann 2½ times for 19 yards in losses and knocked down a pass. After appearing in all 16 games as a rookie, mostly on special teams, Jeffcoat was a 16-for-16 starter in 1984. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/16). Total — 32/16.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Arizona State, Jim earned All-Pac 10 and honorable mention All-America honors after anchoring the 1982 Sun Devil defense that led the nation. He was named outstanding defensive player in Arizona State's 1983 Fiesta Bowl victory over Oklahoma, making 16 tackles, causing a fumble and getting a QB sack.

PERSONAL: In addition to the normal off-season regimen of running and weightlifting, Jim is a faithful participant in an aerobic dancing class that meets at 6 a.m. One of six children, James Wilson Jeffcoat, Jr., is a Cliffwood, N.J., native who earned high school All-America honors at Matawan Regional High. He also lettered in wrestling. Jim, who graduated from Arizona State with a degree in communications, works with Special Olympics and the Make-a-Wish Foundation in Dallas.

boom, the first scoring reception of Jones' career. In 1981 Jones averaged a team-leading 5.3 yards per carry in his role as Tony Dorsett's backup. Jones' 59-yard TD run at Baltimore (12/6) was the club's second longest run from scrimmage that season. In the playoffs Jones was the Cowboys' second leading pass receiver with five catches for 32 yards. In his rookie season James made a sparkling debut when he picked up 45 yards on 10 carries in a season-opening win at Washington (9/8) with Dorsett sidelined periodically by leg cramps. But it was as a kick returner his first two years that Jones made his biggest contribution. In 1980 he set club season records for punt returns (54) and punt return yardage (548), breaking Butch Johnson's previous marks. James' 10.1-yard punt return average ranked fifth in the NFL and fourth in the NFC. His 22.5-yard kickoff return average was sixth in the NFC. Against the Redskins in '80 (11/23) he had a season-high 52-yard punt return to set up a touchdown in a 14-10 victory. Against Los Angeles in the NFC Wild Card Game (12/28) he had 153 yards in kick returns, including a dazzling 43-yard punt return in the first quarter that got the Cowboys rolling. Jones injured his knee in 1982 preseason. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (16/0), 1981 (16/0), 1982 (4/0), 1983 (1R), 1984 (9/0). Total — 45/0.

COLLEGE: Jones missed the final seven games of his senior year with a knee injury after leading Mississippi State in rushing his junior season with 687 yards (5.3 per carry). In his career Jones rushed for 1,416 yards (5.4 average) and 14 touchdowns, caught 29 passes for 274 yards and three touchdowns, completed 3-of-6 passes for 72 yards and two touchdowns and returned 24 kickoffs for a 21.3-yard average and one TD. He was Academic All-SEC as a junior.

PERSONAL: James Jones, Jr., is a native of Starkville, Miss. (Vicksburg High). He studied physical education at Mississippi State and hopes to become a football coach. James received the Cowboys' 1984 Ed Block Memorial Courage Award from the club's trainers. He and wife Johnalyn live in Carrollton, Texas.

Syd Kitson ★ 73

GUARD • WAKE FOREST • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 272 • BORN: 9/27/58 • FA FOR '84

PRO: The Cowboys signed Kitson in November of 1984, a month after the Green Bay Packers released him. He appeared in only one game for Dallas, but was expected to be in the thick of the wide-open battle for offensive line berths in '85 training camp. The Packers third-round draft choice in 1980, Syd was plagued by leg and neck injuries his first three seasons and missed the entire '82 campaign. He came back to start nine games in '83, and was the Pack's starting right guard for the first three games of the '84 season. GAMES/STARTS: Packers — 1980 (14/0), 1981 (1/0), 1983 (16/9), 1984 (8/3). Cowboys — 1984 (1/0). Total — 50/12.

COLLEGE: Kitson played tight end, tackle and guard at Wake Forest while earning his degree in economics.

PERSONAL: Sydney Kitson won seven letters in three sports at New Providence, N.J., High School. Syd and his wife, Diane, live in Winston-Salem, N.C., during the off-season.

Eugene Lockhart ★ 56

LINEBACKER • HOUSTON • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 234 • BORN: 4/2/61 • D-6A FOR '84

PRO: When Eugene Lockhart, a rookie sixth-round draft choice from Houston, arrived at the Cowboys' Thousand Oaks training camp last July he wanted to do one thing — hit. Eugene "The Hitting Machine" proved invaluable, first filling in for and later taking over for injured middle linebacker Bob Breunig. After an impressive preseason, Lockhart received his first professional start against Philadelphia (9/23). In that game he led the team in tackles and was voted the defensive MVP by the media. He started again the next week against Green Bay (9/30) and the last six games of the season after Breunig was put on injured reserve. Eugene averaged 10 tackles per start and led the Cowboys linebackers in tackles. He was named to the All-Rookie team by UPI, the Pro Football Writers Association, Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest. "Although he doesn't have the experience, or the know-how of the flex," says Tom Landry, "Eugene has the sense of being able to find the ball-carrier. He makes the right move at the point of attack to get in position to make the play. A lot of players can't do that." Although recognized more for his abilities to stop the run, Eugene recorded two quarterback traps against Washington (12/9). Against Philadelphia (12/2) he had a club season-high 17 tackles, the most by any Cowboys player since 1979. Eugene broke his thumb in practice before the first St. Louis game (10/7) forcing him to miss that game and play with a cast for several weeks. Lockhart intercepted his first NFL pass against Buffalo (11/18) and returned it 32 yards to set up a field goal. He was selected with a draft choice obtained from Chicago for tight end Jay Saldi. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (15/8).

COLLEGE: Lockhart, a two-year starter at outside linebacker, led Houston in 1983 with 134 tackles. A tri-captain, he earned All-South-

Steve Pelleur ★ 16

QUARTERBACK • WASHINGTON • 2nd Year
HT: 6-4 • WT: 208 • BORN: 7/29/62 • D-5A FOR '84

PRO: In Steven Pelleur the Cowboys have a promising backup quarterback who could develop into a star. Steve didn't see any playing time at quarterback during the regular season in '84, but when he was given his chance in preseason he impressed the coaches. In the fourth quarter vs. San Diego (8/11), Steve led the team 77 yards on 13 plays to a touchdown. He finished the preseason nine of 15, for 69 yards, one touchdown and one interception. You couldn't ask for more pressure than when Steve saw his first playing time in a regular season game. With Hogeboom hurt Steve had to hold for Rafael Septien's game-winning kick in overtime against New Orleans (10/21). He was drafted with a pick obtained from the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for Danny Spradlin. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (1/0).

COLLEGE: On his way to earning the PAC-10 offensive player of the year award in 1983, Steve set six school individual records, including season completion percentage (67.2) and most consecutive passes thrown without an interception (137). He also led Washington to a school total offense mark of 4,365 yards in '83. Pelleur completed more passes than any other QB in Husky history and finished as Washington's second all-time leading passer. He completed 436 of 755 passes for 4,603 yards and 30 touchdowns. He was All-PAC 10, All-West Coast, and honorable mention All-America in '83. As a sophomore he led the Huskies to the PAC-10 title and a 28-0 victory over Iowa in the Rose Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born in Yakima, Wash. and raised in Bellevue, Wash., Steve Carl Pelleur captained the football and basketball teams at Interlake High School. He was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete in 1979 when he earned all-state honors as a quarterback. During the offseason Steve returned to Washington to work toward his degree in building construction. Steve is involved with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Special Olympics. Steve's grandfather (Carl Gustafson), father (Arnie Pelleur) and brother (Scott) all played football at Washington State. Scott is a linebacker with the New Orleans Saints and a former Cowboys draft choice. His brother Arnie is a freshman linebacker at Stanford.

Kurt Petersen ★ 65

GUARD • MISSOURI • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 278 • BORN: 6/17/57 • D-4 FOR '80

PRO: Despite being a defensive lineman in college, Kurt Petersen has been a starting offensive guard in four of his five seasons with the Cowboys. The past two years Kurt was bothered by injuries which forced him to miss a handful of games, two in 1983 and three in 1984. He received a game ball from the coaching staff last year for his performance in a key victory at St. Louis (11/11) and earned one in 1983 against New Orleans (9/25). Pete started all nine games in 1982, earning a game ball for his play against Cleveland (11/25) and second-team All-Pro honors from the Newspaper Enterprise Association. Called "the Cowboys' blue-ribbon workhorse" by a Dallas newspaper, Petersen combines good size, quickness and intelligence with unusual strength. According to conditioning coach Bob Ward, Kurt is the strongest player overall on the team. Petersen spent his rookie year making the difficult switch from defensive to offensive lineman. The Cowboys had previous success in converting Pat Donovan, John Fitzgerald and Blaine Nye from college defensive linemen into successful NFL offensive linemen. The learning process was expected to continue in 1981, but a knee injury to center Robert Shaw in the second game forced the Cowboys to move right guard Tom Rafferty to center and Petersen into a starting role at right guard. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (16/0), 1981 (16/14), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (14/14), 1984 (13/13). Total — 68/50.

COLLEGE: A linebacker his junior year, Petersen was moved to defensive tackle his senior season to give Missouri more inside quickness. A senior co-captain, Kurt tied for the team lead in fumble recoveries with four.

PERSONAL: St. Louis native (Lutheran High School North) Kurt David Petersen has a degree in industrial engineering. Kurt is an outdoorsman who enjoys fishing, hunting, gardening and archery. Kurt, wife Karen and their daughter Aimee (12/20/84) live in Carrollton, Texas.

Kirk Phillips ★ 81

WIDE RECEIVER • TULSA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 202 • BORN: 7/31/60 • FA FOR '84

PRO: With the rash of injuries to the wide receiving corps in 1984, Kirk Phillips proved a valuable addition to the Cowboys roster. After Tony Hill injured his shoulder in the season opener against the Rams (9/3), Kirk caught his first NFL pass and was involved in two a starting job in only his second season, replacing retired All-Pro right guard Blaine Nye in 1977. Rafferty played two games that season at center for injured John Fitzgerald, a preview of things to come. In 1979 Rafferty won the Oak Farms MVP award in a playoff-clinching victory at Philadelphia (12/8). He shared his second career MVP award with Fitzgerald in 1980 in a season-opening victory at Washington (9/8). Tom earned game balls in 1982 against Cleveland (11/25) and in the playoffs against Tampa Bay (1/9/83). GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (13/0), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (16/16), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/15), 1984 (16/16). Total — 132/118.

COLLEGE: A four-year starting guard at Penn State, Rafferty earned All-America honors from the Football News and the Football Writers Association in 1975. The Cowboys rated him the top pulling guard in the 1976 draft.

PERSONAL: Thomas Michael Rafferty was born in Syracuse and raised in Fayetteville, N.Y., where he became a high school All-America lacrosse player in addition to starring in football and basketball at Fayetteville-Manlius High School. Tom works in the offseason for Jim Eidson and Associates, a Dallas real estate company. He received a degree in physical education from Penn State and is studying for his master's in business at the University of Dallas. Tom and wife Donna live in Dallas with son J. Michael (7/14/81) and daughter Rachel Elizabeth (3/6/84).

Mike Renfro ★ 82

WIDE RECEIVER • TEXAS CHRISTIAN • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 189 • BORN: 6/19/55 • TRADE, HOU., '84

PRO: Acquired from Houston for Butch Johnson in the spring of 1984, Renfro was expected to play a role as a "possession" receiver in special situations for the Cowboys. He performed beyond expectations, starting 11 games and catching 35 passes for 583 yards (a 16.7 average) and two touchdowns. For good measure, he threw a 49-yard scoring pass to Doug Donley in a 23-17 victory over the Eagles. "No one could have asked for more than Mike Renfro gave us last year," Tom Landry says. "He learned our system in a hurry, worked very hard and made a lot of key catches for us." In six seasons with the Oilers, Mike started 50 games and caught 160 passes for 2,183 yards and 11 touchdowns, but in 1984 with the Cowboys he had his best year statistically. Renfro's move to Dallas was something of a homecoming for him, since he was born and raised in the area and his father — former All-Pro wide receiver Ray Renfro — was an assistant coach for the Cowboys from 1968 through 1972. As a teenager, Mike was a Dallas ballboy.

COLLEGE: Renfro was a three-time All-Southwest Conference choice at TCU and ended his college career owning school records for career receptions (162), yards (2,739) and touchdowns (17). His 10 touchdown catches as a senior set a Southwest Conference record. Mike played at PERSONAL: Michael Ray Renfro was born and raised in Fort Worth, where he attended Arlington Heights High School. Mike has a degree in business management and works in the offseason for the Dugger Development real estate firm in Fort Worth. He lives in Fort Worth with his wife, Denise. Along with other Cowboys and former Cowboys, Mike is active in his support for the Happy Hill Farm Children's Home in Glen Rose, Texas.

Howard Richards ★ 70

GUARD-TACKLE • MISSOURI • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 262 • BORN: 8/7/59 • D-1 FOR '81

PRO: Last year was supposed to be the season Howard Richards took over a starting position and became the newest star on the Cowboys' offensive line. However, injuries turned 1984 into a year of frustration for the talented lineman. Howard battled a groin injury throughout training camp and found himself in a backup role when the season began. He took over the starting left tackle spot for the New Orleans game (10/21) after Phil Pozderac moved over to right tackle for the injured Jim Cooper. After starting four games, he injured his leg in his hometown of St. Louis (11/11) and missed the rest of the season. He underwent surgery to correct a torn tendon above his knee. Howard spent most of '82 and '83 at left guard, although he also played right guard and left tackle. "Howard Richards is a key player. I'm leaning now toward putting Howard at guard, leaving him there and letting him play to see how he develops. He has the speed to play guard," says Tom Landry. "He still has the opportunity to be the kind of player we thought he was when we drafted him in the first round." In '83 he spent most of the year shuttling plays with Herb Scott at left guard. He also shuttled

Chris Schultz ★ 66

TACKLE • ARIZONA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-8 • WT: 288 • BORN: 2/16/60 • D-7 FOR '83

PRO: Last year turned into a disappointing sophomore season for Chris Schultz. Chris injured his right knee in the first quarter of the Pittsburgh pre-season game (8/16) last year and was placed on injured reserve for the entire season. He spent the year rehabilitating his knee and appears to be ready for 1985. "Chris worked hard all year while he was on injured reserve," Tom Landry says. "The doctors feel he's strong and capable." Despite his limited experience, Chris has shown fine potential in practices and at training camp. He played only one year in college at offensive tackle and was drafted by the Cowboys in the seventh round mainly because of his physical characteristics. He possesses excellent size and quick feet, two of the key qualities necessary for success in the offensive line. Chris got into five games in '83 on special teams. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (5/0), 1984 (IR). Total — 5/0.

COLLEGE: After earning three letters as a defensive tackle, Schultz was switched to offense as a senior, won the starting left tackle position and performed well for the Wildcats. He was the strongest member of the Arizona team with a 365-pound bench press.

PERSONAL: Born in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, Christopher Schultz was raised in Burlington, where he lettered for four years in football and basketball at Aldershoot High School. He studied psychology at Arizona.

Victor Scott ★ 22

SAFETY • COLORADO • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 196 • BORN: 6/1/62 • D-2 FOR '84

PRO: Victor Scott is a talented young athlete who gives the Cowboys depth at cornerback and safety. The 40th player selected in the 1984 draft, Scott saw action in 16 games last year on special teams and as an extra defensive back on passing downs. His diving, fourth-quarter interception of a deflected pass at St. Louis (11/11), the first interception of his career, set up the winning touchdown in one of the Cowboys' biggest victories of the season. "I think Victor Scott will be a better safety than cornerback, but we still may have to play him at corner this year because of the depth situation," Tom Landry says. "How much he develops his potential is largely up to Vic Scott and how dedicated he is. I see him as a free safety eventually because he has the speed and aggressive tackling ability to play there." Scott returned an interception 30 yards for a touchdown against Houston in last year's preseason finale. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0).

COLLEGE: A two-time All-Big Eight selection and a 1983 second-team All-America, Scott set Colorado career records of 24 pass deflections and three interceptions returned for touchdowns in four years as a starting cornerback. He intercepted 10 passes and blocked four field goals and two extra point attempts in his career.

PERSONAL: Born in St. Louis, Mo., and raised in East St. Louis, Ill., Victor Ramone Scott starred in football, basketball and baseball at East St. Louis High School. In the offseason Victor and wife Wanda returned to the University of Colorado, where Victor took classes toward his degree in history. He also spoke at area grade schools.

Rafael Septien ★ 1

KICKER • SOUTHWEST LOUISIANA • 9th YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 179 • BORN: 12/12/53 • FA FOR '78

PRO: Entering his ninth season in the NFL, 31-year-old Rafael Septien had established himself as one of the most productive and consistent kickers in the game's history. The 1984 campaign was a typical one for the dapper native of Mexico City — 102 points on 23-of-29 field goal kicking (79.3 per cent) and 33-of-34 extra points. He kicked the second-longest field goal of his career, a 52-yarder at Los Angeles in a season-opening victory over the Rams, and provided the winning field goals against New England (four seconds remaining) and New Orleans (overtime). Inside the 40-yard line Rafael is amazing. His career field goal totals from 39 yards and closer are 110-of-123 for 89.4 per cent. His overall career field goal percentage of 70.5 ranks fourth in all-time field goal accuracy. Septien is the NFL record holder for field goal accuracy and consecutive field goals in the playoffs, having kicked 18-of-21 post-season field goal attempts (85.7), including 15 in a row from Super Bowl XIII to the 1982 NFC title game. Never having missed a game with an injury, Rafael has scored in 118 consecutive games to tie Jim Turner for third on the all-time NFL list in that department after being shut out in the first game of his rookie season with the Rams in 1977. Rafael, a 10th-round draft choice of the Saints in '77, was released in training camp and signed by the Rams. After being the NFL's top rookie kicker that year, he was released by the Rams after the final pre-season game of 1978. The Cowboys signed him immediately as a free agent. GAMES: 1977 (14-L.A. Rams), 1978 (16), 1979 (16), 1980 (16), 1981 (16), 1982 (9), 1983 (16), 1984 (16). Total — 119.

COLLEGE: Septien received All-Southland Conference honors his final two seasons at Southwest Louisiana and kicked nine field goals of more than 50 yards, including a 50-yarder on his first attempt. His long was 57 vs. Lamar in '74.

PERSONAL: Jose Rafael Septien Michel (rah-fay-EL sep-tee-EN) and wife Linda had their first child last year, Lance Remington Rafael Septien (10/8/84). A native of Mexico City and a graduate of Collegio Vista Hermosa High School there, Rafael's late father Carlos Septien was a member of two Mexican World Cup soccer teams. Rafael is president of Septien and Associates, a Dallas public relations firm, and has been working with McDonald's restaurants in a program benefiting Mexican-American youths.

Don Smerek ★ 60

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • NEVADA-RENO • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-7 • WT: 265 • BORN: 12/20/57 • FA FOR '80

PRO: Entering training camp last year, Don was the heir apparent to retired Harvey Martin's right end position. Due to Randy White's holdout, he was moved to White's right tackle position where he started all four preseason games. He played well, including a two-sack performance while playing less than a half vs. Green Bay (8/4). After White's return prior to the start of the regular season Smerek was never able to catch up at right end. Don spent the rest of the year playing left tackle in passing situations in place of John Dutton. "Don Smerek's season was hurt last year somewhat by circumstances," says Tom Landry. "He began the season with a shot at the starting right end position, but with Randy White not in training camp, we had no choice but to move Smerek to right tackle. He never got a chance to compete at right end, and I think this was a mental setback for him. He's a very tough, competitive defensive player. He's shown good ability as a pass rusher." It's been a remarkable comeback for Smerek, who spent most of his first two seasons on the injured list. After signing with Dallas as a free agent in 1980, Smerek fractured ribs in training camp and was on injured reserve all season. He made the active roster as a reserve defensive lineman in 1981 but injured a knee in the second game, underwent surgery and spent the rest of the year on injured reserve. He battled his way back onto the roster in 1982 and proved a valuable asset down the stretch and in the playoffs filling in for Dutton, who was injured. In '83 Don replaced Dutton on passing downs and finished fourth on the club in QB sacks with six. Smerek is one of the strongest Cowboys with a bench-press of 435 pounds. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (2/0), 1982 (7/0), 1983 (15/0), 1984 (16/0). Total — 40/0.

COLLEGE: Smerek was an All-Big Sky choice at defensive end following his senior season at Nevada-Reno.

PERSONAL: Donald Frederick Smerek was born in Waterford, Mich., and raised in Henderson, Nev., outside Las Vegas. Don was a football and basketball star at Basic High in Henderson. He received his degree from Nevada-Reno in physical education. In the offseason he works for Craig and Associates, a Dallas investment firm.

Ron Springs ★ 20

RUNNING BACK • OHIO STATE • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 225 • BORN: 11/4/56 • D-5C FOR '79

PRO: In multi-talented Ron Springs, the Cowboys have one of the NFL's top receiving threats out of the backfield. Ron followed his record-setting 1983 season by finishing fourth on the club in receptions last year with 46, including three long touchdown catches that contributed to three victories. He caught a 25-yard scoring toss from Gary Hogeboom to help beat Philadelphia (9/16) 23-17, a 26-yarder from Hogeboom for the winning touchdown in a 24-17 triumph at St. Louis (11/11) and a 57-yarder from Danny White to break open a close game at Philadelphia (12/2). Ron finished his sixth season as the Cowboys' seventh all-time leading rusher and receiver. In 1983 Springs led NFL running backs in receiving and set a club record of 73 catches, breaking Frank Clarke's 1964 team mark of 65. Springs also combined for more than 1,000 yards rushing and receiving for the first time in his career. Against Tampa Bay that season (10/9) he tied his club record for running backs by catching 11 passes for a career-high 126 yards, including a career-long 80-yard touchdown reception. Against the Raiders (10/23) he threw his second career TD pass, a 15-yarder to Danny White. Ron has combined for more than 100 yards rushing and receiving in a game nine times in his career, including a career-high four times in 1983 and once last year (114 vs. Philadelphia 9/16). His top moment in '82 came in a 24-10 victory at Washington (12/5) in which he broke a career-long 46-yard TD run in the closing minutes. In 1981 Springs combined for 984 yards rushing and receiving, scored a team-high 12 touchdowns and tied Tony Hill for the club lead in receptions with 46. He caught a 32-yard TD pass late in the fourth quarter for the winning score in a dramatic 28-27 comeback victory over Miami (10/25). Springs began his Cowboys career as a tailback behind Tony Dorsett, filling in well for an ailing Dorsett in three 1979 victories. In the season opener at St. Louis (9/2) Ron threw a 30-yard fourth-quarter TD pass to Tony Hill on his first NFL attempt. In the comeback victory over Washington (12/16) that won the NFC East title, Springs rushed for 79 yards and a TD, and caught six passes for 58 yards, including a 26-yard TD late in the fourth quarter. Ron also led the team in kickoff returns in '79. In order to get him into the lineup with Dorsett, Springs was switched to fullback in '80. He won the position in training camp, but twisted an ankle in the third game and didn't regain the position from Robert Newhouse until '81. GAMES/STARTS: 1979 (16/2), 1980 (15/6), 1981 (16/13), 1982 (9/8), 1983 (16/14), 1984 (16/12). Total — 88/55.

COLLEGE: Springs rushed for 1,800 yards and scored 25 touchdowns in 1976 at Coffeyville, Kan., Junior College and was named junior college player of the year. He led Ohio State in rushing and receiving as a junior with 1,166 yards on the ground and another 90 on 16 receptions. He had 585 yards rushing in an injury-marred senior year. Springs also ran sprint relays for the Buckeyes' track team.

PERSONAL: Ronald Edward Springs is a native of Williamsburg, Va., (Lafayette High), where they've named a street after him (Ron Springs Drive). Ron studied communications at Ohio State. He owns a home appliance rental company in Dallas called Rentex. He and wife Adriane live in Dallas.

Dennis Thurman ★ 32

SAFETY • SOUTHERN CAL • 8th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 179 • BORN: 4/13/56 • D-11 FOR '78

PRO: Perhaps the key man in the Cowboys' go-for-broke, attacking secondary is Dennis Thurman, a former 11th-round draft choice who was supposed to be too small and not quite fast enough to make it in the NFL. By the summer of '85, Tom Landry thought so much of Thurman's contributions he brought him to training camp 10 days ahead of the rest of the veterans to work with the rookie defensive backs. After starting at cornerback for three seasons, Dennis was listed behind All-

THURMAN, Cont.

Pro Michael Downs at free safety on the 1984 depth chart. But, with the Cowboys using six and seven defensive backs much of the time, Thurman saw just about as much action as he ever had. "There is so much situation substitution now," says Landry, "and that's where Dennis is very important. He's very knowledgeable, he's smart, he directs our third-down defenses and he does a great job at it. He's been willing to do whatever he can to help the team win and you can't say enough about the job he does." With it all, Thurman is a big-play man in the secondary. He ranks No. 5 on the Cowboys' all-time list of interceptors and is the third-leading pass interceptor in NFL playoff history. He intercepted three passes, including one for a touchdown, in a playoff victory over Green Bay in January of '83, and has scored a team-record three touchdowns on interceptions during the regular season. He led the team in interceptions in 1983 and tied Charlie Waters for that honor in '80. Thurman has served as the Cowboys' special teams captain and defensive captain and never missed a game in his first seven years as a pro. GAMES/STARTS: 1978 (16/0), 1979 (16/1), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/0). Totals — 105/58.

COLLEGE: Thurman intercepted passes in seven straight Southern Cal games en route to leading the nation in interception return yardage in 1976. He had 13 career interceptions, seven fumble recoveries and was a two-time consensus All-America safety. Dennis also started five games at flanker during his freshman and sophomore years.

PERSONAL: Dennis Lee Thurman was a football quarterback, basketball and baseball star at Santa Monica High School in his native Los Angeles. He was recruited by major league baseball teams and college basketball programs before accepting a college football scholarship, and went on to obtain a journalism degree at USC. Dennis, his wife Elsie and their daughter Chelsea (12/3/83) live in the Dallas suburb of Farmers Branch.

Glen Titensor ★ 63

GUARD • BRIGHAM YOUNG • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 261 • BORN: 2/21/58 • D-3 FOR '81

PRO: Glen Titensor quietly moved into the starting left guard position last year and performed consistently well the rest of the season. After starting the last three preseason games in place of injured Herb Scott at left guard, Glen started the first regular season game of his pro career at left guard in the opener against the Rams (9/3). He took over the starting left guard position before the St. Louis game (10/7) and stayed there for the remaining 11 games. "Glen came along extremely well last season in his first year as starter," says Tom Landry. "He was a bright spot on the offensive line last year. He shows great promise." Glen is following in the footsteps of several Cowboys — Blaine Nye, John Fitzgerald, Pat Donovan, and Kurt Petersen — who were defensive linemen in college and became top offensive linemen with the Cowboys. Titensor made the switch as a rookie and impressed his coaches with his rapid development. A versatile athlete with great quickness, Glen has worked at both center and guard. He played the second half at Minnesota and the entire game against Tampa Bay at center in '83 for Tom Rafferty, who had suffered a foot injury. Glen missed five of nine games in '82 due to a knee injury. He underwent surgery in November of '82 for cartilage repair, but returned a month later and was available for the playoffs. In his rookie season Titensor played briefly at left guard during the Tampa Bay playoff game (1/2/82) for Scott, who had sustained a minor injury. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/0), 1982 (3/0), 1983 (15/1), 1984 (15/12). Total — 49/13

COLLEGE: After spending two years at UCLA backing up All-America defensive tackle Manu Tuiasosopo, Titensor transferred to BYU and became a two-time All-Western Athletic Conference choice at defensive end. He also was an AP honorable mention All-America in '79 and '80. Glen was named BYU defensive player of the week five times in '79 and led the team with 13 sacks in '80.

PERSONAL: Glen Weston Titensor (TIGHT-en-sir), a native of Westminster, Calif., starred in football and track at Bolsa Grande High School in Garden Grove, Calif. Glen's hobby is making custom furniture. He has participated in the American Heart Association Jumpathon program and donated his time to the Handicapped Ski Association. Glen and wife Sherry live in Dallas.

Mark Tuinei ★ 71

CENTER • HAWAII • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 270 • BORN: 3/31/60 • FA FOR '83

PRO: With a strong need to develop offensive line depth, the Cowboys decided in the offseason to move Mark Tuinei from defensive lineman to offensive center. The Cowboys hope with Tuinei they will be able to duplicate the past success they have had in making such conversions. Mark is one of the team's strongest players and also possesses the quick feet and overall athletic ability necessary to succeed as an offensive lineman. Tuinei spent his first two seasons backing up the defensive end and tackle positions plus contributing on special teams and short-yardage defenses. He has played all four defensive line positions. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (10/0), 1984 (16/0). Total — 26/0.

COLLEGE: Tuinei played his first two collegiate seasons at UCLA. He started at defensive tackle his sophomore year, finishing fifth in tackles. He then transferred to Hawaii. He suffered through an injury-plagued senior year, playing in seven games, including five starts.

PERSONAL: Mark Pulemau Tuinei (TOO-ee-nay) was born in Ocean-side, Calif., and raised in Honolulu where he was an outstanding athlete at Punahou High School. Mark was Hawaii prep lineman of the year as a senior, a state shotput champion and an all-star basketball player. Mark's brother Tom was an All-WAC defensive tackle at Hawaii who played for the Detroit Lions in 1980 and now plays with Edmonton of the CFL. Mark and wife Ponalani live in Dallas.

Jimmie Turner ★ 57

LINEBACKER • PRESBYTERIAN • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 214 • BORN: 2/16/62 • FA FOR '84

PRO: The Cowboys released Turner on the last cut of the 1984 preseason after first signing him as a free agent, then brought him back for the final five games of the year when the linebacking corps was depleted by injuries. He saw all of his action on special teams, but was to compete at outside linebacker in '85 training camp. "You never know about a young kid like Jimmie," says Tom Landry. "Jerry Tubbs (linebackers coach) was impressed with him in camp, and he may turn out to be a good one." GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (5/0).

COLLEGE: Turner earned All-America honors as a defensive end at little Presbyterian College in Suwanee, Ga. He was a four-year starter and a three-time All-South Atlantic Conference performer who also ran sprints and threw the discus for the school's track team. Jimmie earned his degree in business administration.

PERSONAL: Jimmie Turner is a native of Vienna, Ga. He was a football, basketball and track star at Vienna High School.

Everson Walls ★ 24

CORNERBACK • GRAMBLING • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 194 • BORN: 12/28/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: Four years ago Everson Walls was a rookie free agent struggling to make an impression at the Cowboys' training camp. Now he's a certified star, with All-Pro and Pro Bowl credentials to bolster the claim. Improbable perhaps, but Walls has shown a knack for defying the odds. He was named to the Pro Bowl his first three seasons. He owns the Pro Bowl career record of four interceptions, two in each of his first two appearances. Walls was an All-Rookie choice in 1981, a consensus All-Pro in 1982, an Associated Press All-Pro in 1983 and an All-NFC selection by UPI in '84. The NFL Alumni Association named Everson the 1982 NFL defensive back of the year. Walls is the only player ever to lead the league in interceptions in each of his first two seasons and only the second player to lead the NFL two years in a row, Philadelphia's Bill Bradley being the first in 1971-72. Walls is one of just eight men who have led the NFL in interceptions twice. Nobody has led the league three times. "He's Superman," teammate Dennis Thurman says. "That's what we call him. There isn't a play he can't make." Since becoming a DB as a high school senior in Dallas, Walls has intercepted 59 passes in nine seasons. "Cubby," as he's known, became the starting left cornerback in the fifth game of the 1981 season. He finished with a team-record and league-leading 11 interceptions, breaking Mel Renfro's club mark and becoming the first rookie since Detroit's Lem Barney in 1967 to lead the NFL. He stole two more passes and recovered a fumble in the NFC Championship Game (1/10/82). He also became only the sixth free agent rookie to be voted to the Pro Bowl. Last year Everson was the youngest player named to the Cowboys' 25th anniversary all-time team. He had two interceptions and six passes defended vs. Green Bay (9/23) in '84, earning him Sports Illustrated's defensive player of the week honors. Walls has also led the club in passes defended the last four years with 101 (37 in '81, 17 in '82, 24 in '83, 23 in '84). Because of his obvious talent on pass defense, Cubby's superior tackling ability is often overlooked. He was second in solo tackles in each of his first two years and fifth the last two years. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/14), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16). Total — 57/55.

COLLEGE: Walls led the nation in 1980 with a Grambling-record 11 interceptions for 140 yards in 11 games. He was named first-team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference his senior year. In his junior year he picked off four passes for 91 yards and a touchdown.

PERSONAL: Dallas native Everson Collins "Cubby" Walls was a football, basketball and track star at Richardson Berkner High School. He grew up within two miles of the Cowboys' practice facility. He earned a degree in accounting from Grambling. Everson supports the Big Brothers of Arlington, Texas, and the American Heart Association. He, wife Shreill and daughter Charis (8/16/84) live in Dallas.

John Warren ★ 5

PUNTER • TENNESSEE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 205 • BORN: 11/8/60 • FA FOR '83

PRO: John Warren spent a whirlwind 1984 shuttling between two rather different jobs — delivering produce in Knoxville and punting in Dallas. The Cowboys released Warren before the final preseason game after he battled Jim Miller for the punting job. Miller was released a few weeks later and Danny White had his old punting job back. Warren was re-signed Oct. 27 so White could concentrate on playing quarterback. John punted in the next three games, but was released again on Nov. 12 when guard John Hunt was activated to bolster the injury-depleted offensive line. The Cowboys called Knoxville again to bring back Warren on Nov. 21 as backup insurance to White. But John did not see any further action. Warren opened the 1983 season as the replacement for White, who had held the punting job for seven years, since 1976. In the eighth game, however, against the Raiders (10/23), Warren suffered a freak knee injury while running downfield to cover one of his punts. He did not play the rest of the season. John is adept at lofting punts high and out of bounds inside the 20-yard line. He placed eight punts out of bounds inside the 20 in '83 and three last year. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (9/0), 1984 (3/0). Total — 12/0.

COLLEGE: Warren averaged 40.3 yards per kick as Tennessee's No. 1 punter his freshman and sophomore years. He backed up All-America Jimmy Colquitt his final two seasons and served as the Vols' "pooch" punter, called on to punt inside the 50. He averaged 37.2 yards per kick his final two seasons for a career average of 39.8 yards. He also played baseball (outfield-catcher) at Tennessee.

PERSONAL: John Sheppard Warren is a native of Jesup, Ga., where he starred in football and baseball at Wayne County High School. John was drafted out of high school by the Cincinnati Reds as a catcher-outfielder but accepted a football scholarship to Tennessee instead. John and wife Karen live in Knoxville, Tenn., in the offseason. John graduated from Tennessee with a degree in education.

Danny White ★ 11

QUARTERBACK • ARIZONA STATE • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 196 • BORN: 2/9/52 • D-3A FOR '74

PRO: After four years as the Cowboys' starting quarterback, White found himself backing up Gary Hogeboom for almost two-thirds of the 1984 season. But, he moved back in as No. 1 for the final four games of the year and went into training camp as the starter. "If you finish the season as a starter," said Tom Landry during the off-season, "you go into training camp as a starter. That's been our policy and we'll just have to see how it goes from there. Danny had a very difficult year in 1984. He was our No. 1 man for four years and it's pretty tough on a guy when somebody else takes his place. He had a tough mental situation to overcome and I think he performed well. He came back strong in the end. He still wasn't where he wanted to be, but at least he gained the confidence of the team and everybody felt he could win for them." Winning is what White always has done best. After posting a 32-4 record as a starter at Arizona State, Danny didn't miss a beat when he got his chance after Roger Staubach's retirement. Through 1984, the Cowboys were 48-21 (69.6 per cent) when White started at quarterback. Danny owns or shares 10 club passing records. After being drafted in the third round by Dallas in 1974 (as part of a trade with Houston that also produced Ed Jones for Tody Smith and Billy Parks), White signed with Memphis of the now-defunct World Football League and spent two seasons there before joining the Cowboys in 1976. Danny also is the Cowboys' all-time leading punter, and is a risk-taking type who has run for first downs 15 times in 19 attempts from punt formation. GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/0), 1978 (16/1), 1979 (16/0), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/15), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (14/6). Totals — 131/63.

COLLEGE: White finished his career as the NCAA's all-time leading passer, setting seven NCAA passing records. His passing and running placed him second in the nation in total offense in 1973. Danny played the infield for ASU's baseball team and was drafted by four major league teams. Both Danny and his father, Wilford "Whizzer" White, a former ASU All-America halfback who played for the Chicago Bears in 1951 and '52, are in the Arizona State Sports Hall of Fame. NOTE: Danny White's father is NOT U.S. Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White.

PERSONAL: Wilford Daniel White is a native of Mesa, Ariz., and graduated from Westwood High in that Phoenix suburb. Danny is chairman of the annual Danny White/Boy Scouts of America golf tourney, and does public service work in the Dallas area for any number of worthwhile causes. He was named a 1982 Dallas Father of the Year and the 1983 Miller Cowboys Man of the Year. Danny, wife Jo Lynn and their four children — Ryan (4/26/73), Geoffrey (1/4/76), Heather (9/3/78) and Reed (7/29/83) — live in Fairview, Texas, near Dallas.

Randy White ★ 54

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • MARYLAND • 11th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 272 • BORN: 1/15/53 • D-1A FOR '75

PRO: Much to the dismay of opposing coaches and linemen, All-Pro Randy White appears to be improving with age. Randy is coming off his best two years since he became a starting defensive tackle in 1977. Last year Randy led the Cowboys for the second straight year with 12½ sacks and was second on the team with 108 tackles. He also earned two coaches' game balls and was named defensive MVP by the media in the club's last five victories. In 1983 he also led the team in quarterback traps with 12½, earned three coaches' game balls and was the defensive MVP in six of the team's 12 wins. His 12½ sacks and 108 tackles in '84 were his highest totals since 1978. Randy has been named All-Pro a club record seven straight years, breaking the record he held with Hall of Famer Bob Lilly. "Randy is the premier defensive tackle in the business," says Tom Landry. "He's got such great intensity and competitiveness. We've never had a player and I've never seen a player, other than probably Ernie Stautner, who could match Randy's intensity from game to game. When Randy White lines up on you, he doesn't care whether you're All-Pro or whether you're a rookie. You're going to get the same treatment. That makes him unique in this game." Randy has started 76 straight games, the longest streak among active Cowboys players. He's missed one game in his career. The Cowboys' strongest player (he has bench-pressed 501 pounds), the one dubbed "Manster" (half man, half monster) by former teammate Charlie Waters, White immediately became one of the NFL's top defensive players in 1977 upon taking over the starting right tackle position following two seasons as a backup middle linebacker. Despite being consistently double-teamed, Randy has been named All-Pro for the past seven seasons (1978-84) and to the Pro Bowl the past eight (1977-84). In '77 Randy capped his first season as a starter by earning the co-MVP award for Super Bowl XII with Harvey Martin. In '78 White succeeded Martin as the Seagram's Seven Crowns of Sport defensive lineman of the year and also was voted NFC defensive player of the year by UPI and the Kansas City Committee of 101. In '81 Randy was named

International Trucks lineman of the year and in '82 the NFL Alumni Association chose White defensive lineman of the year. "Randy is a unique combination of extreme quickness, speed and strength," says Bob Lilly, who played the same right tackle position as White. Randy tied Martin for the club lead in QB traps in '78 with a career-high 16. That same year against Philadelphia (12/10) Randy tied a team record with four sacks. Randy had his first career interception in the 1981 Championship Game at San Francisco (1/10/82). GAMES/STARTS: 1975 (14/1), 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (15/14), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16). TOTAL: 146/118.

COLLEGE: A consensus All-America defensive end for the Terps in 1974, White won both the Outland Trophy and the Vince Lombardi Award as college football's top lineman that year. He was the second player selected in the 1975 draft with a choice obtained by the Cowboys from the New York Giants for quarterback Craig Morton. Atlanta selected quarterback Steve Bartkowski before the Cowboys took White.

PERSONAL: Randy Lee White was a football, basketball and baseball star at Thomas McKean High School in his hometown of Wilmington, Del. He is a fanatical bass fisherman. Randy, wife Vicci and daughter Jordan Leigh (5/6/79) live in Dallas. He also owns a 22-acre farm in Landenberg, Pa. Randy received the 1980 Field Scovell Award for athletic excellence from the Dallas All-Sports Association. He supports the Association of Blind Athletes, the United Way, the American Heart Association and the Dallas County Foster Parents Association. He also has done work with the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Dallas.

BROOKS

KEVIN BROOKS

• Defensive End •

Michigan

HT: 6-6 •

Wt: 270 •

Born: 2/9/63 •

D-1

Kevin Brooks began his career at Michigan as a 6-4, 215-pound linebacker before maturing into a defensive lineman with a rare combination of size and speed.

"He's a big, tall guy who's an excellent athlete," Coach Tom Landry says. "He has good speed and movement and he's very active. With those qualities, he's got great possibilities. He should be able to help us in situations right away. But he's extremely important to the future of the Cowboys."

THE ROOKIES

(1985 Draftees)

With three of four defensive line starters past the age of 30, the Cowboys were in need of young talent in the front four. In Brooks, they believe they acquired a player with Pro Bowl potential.

"When you can get a defensive lineman who has a chance to be a dominating player, you've got to take him," says Player Personnel Director Gil Brandt. "Kevin Brooks has great size and speed. He's a good athlete and a good person. He was a leader on his team. He has the potential to be a dominating player."

After spending his freshman year at outside linebacker, Brooks was switched to defensive tackle and became a three-year starter at that position.

Brooks started the first four games of 1982 before a knee injury versus Indiana sidelined him for four games. He returned to start against UCLA in the Rose Bowl and was Michigan's second leading tackler in the game with 10 stops. In '83 Brooks started every game at tackle and finished with 48 tackles, seventh best on the club. He had six stops for losses, including three quarterback traps.

Last season Brooks was Michigan's fourth-leading tackler with 69 stops. He led the Wolverines with 13 tackles for losses and six quarterback sacks.

A native of Detroit, Brooks was an All-America, All-State and team MVP in his senior year at MacKenzie High School. He was a member of the National Honor Society and received his school's scholar-athlete award. He studied pre-law at Michigan and graduated with a liberal arts degree. He left Michigan despite having another year of football eligibility.

JESSE PENN • Linebacker • Virginia Tech
Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 217 • Born: 9/6/62 • D-2

Jesse Penn is an exceptional athlete who roamed the Virginia Tech defense from the line of scrimmage to the secondary making sacks, tackles and interceptions. A two-year starter at standup defensive end, or "drop end" in Virginia Tech terminology, Penn excelled at pass coverage, finishing his career with eight interceptions, a school record for linemen.

An exciting performer who often came up with big plays, Penn was praised by his coaches for his nearly flawless technique. He started every game his last two seasons.

"We feel he can be a real top player for us," Tom Landry says. "He doesn't play like a standup defensive end. He plays like an outside linebacker. He can play the run pretty well and he's an excellent pass-catcher. (Linebackers coach) Jerry Tubbs had him ranked as the number one outside linebacker in the draft. I watched him on film and he can do everything a linebacker has to do. He's very fluid. He moves like a linebacker should move."

In 1984 Penn finished second on his team in interceptions with five and in pass breakups with eight. He recovered two fumbles, had five tackles for losses and two QB traps, and finished fifth in tackles with 65, including 35 solo stops. Penn capped his senior year with outstanding performances in the Independence Bowl against Air Force and in the Blue-Gray All-Star game.

As a junior Penn intercepted three passes, broke up nine others, had three sacks, three tackles for losses and finished fourth on the team in tackles with 70, including 39 solos.

Penn was raised in Martinsville, Va., where he starred in football and track at Martinsville High. He majored in communications at Virginia Tech.

CRAWFORD KER • Guard • Florida
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 293 • Born: 5/5/62 • D-3

The trend today is toward mammoth offensive linemen and Crawford Ker certainly fits the mold at 293 pounds. A Western Arizona Junior College All-America, Ker transferred to Florida and started 13 games at tackle, earning second-team All-Southeastern Conference and honorable mention All-America honors from Associated Press in 1984.

"He's a tough, competitive player," Tom Landry says. "Size is a big thing now in football. He's a big, powerful guy. We'll try him at guard because we feel with a guy this big, he'll be better at pass protecting on the inside than against the fast ends on the outside."

Ker holds the Florida bench press record of 515 pounds. He also has leg pressed 1,090 pounds.

"He's the type of guy who can immediately make you more effective on short-yardage and goal-line plays because he's extremely strong and powerful," Gil Brandt says. "He's also got tremendous speed for a guy that size."

Ker was a walk-on at Western Arizona JC, earned a scholarship, then became a JC All-America. At Florida in 1983 he was named the offensive player of the week versus Mississippi State by the coaching staff. He started last year at strong tackle opposite Lomas Brown, who was selected in this year's draft by Detroit with the sixth pick of the first round. Ker capped his college career with appearances in the East-West and Blue-Gray All-Star games.

Ker, whose father is from Scotland and was a guard at Buckingham Palace, moved from Philadelphia to Florida with his parents prior to his senior year of high school. He earned All-Conference football honors at Dunedin, Fla., High. He majored in physical education at Florida.

ROBERT LAVETTE • Running Back • Georgia Tech
Ht: 5-11 • Wt: 199 • Born: 9/8/63 • D-4

Robert Lavette finished his career as Georgia Tech's all-time leading rusher, receiver and scorer. In setting 19 school records in four seasons, Lavette rushed for 4,066 yards, No. 17 on the NCAA's all-time list.

Lavette caught 114 career passes for 862 yards and scored 46 touchdowns for 276 points. He had 18 100-yard games and accounted for 5,393 total yards, an average of 125.5 per game.

"He's the type of back you are looking for today in that he's a very good runner, he can catch the ball and he can block," Gil Brandt says. "And he always seems to make the big play. He's a big-play performer and that's important."

As a sophomore in 1982 Lavette rushed for a career-high 203 yards on 38 carries against No. 1-ranked Georgia, outgaining Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker by 40 yards. Last year Lavette finished ninth nationally in rushing with a 108.1 yards-per-game average.

At Cartersville, Ga., High School, Lavette gained 5,870 career yards and earned Georgia Class AA back of the year honors as a senior. He set nine career records, seven season marks and three single-game records. He studied management at Georgia Tech.

HERSCHEL WALKER • Running Back • Georgia
Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 224 • Born: 3/3/62 • D-5A

With their extra fifth-round draft choice, obtained from Houston last year in the Butch Johnson-for-Mike Renfro trade, the Cowboys selected former Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker.

Although currently playing for the USFL's New Jersey Generals, the Cowboys hold the NFL right to sign Walker for four years, plus a right of first refusal thereafter.

One of college football's all-time great runners, Walker set 10 NCAA records, 15 Southeastern Conference records and 30 University of Georgia marks in three seasons before joining the Generals in 1983. He has rushed for more than 1,000 yards in each of his three USFL seasons.

In 33 games at Georgia, Walker rushed for 5,259 yards, gaining an average of 159.4 yards a game. He averaged 5.3 yards-per-carry, scored 52 touchdowns, had 266 runs for first downs and 162 runs of more than 10 yards each. He was a three-time All-America and the 1982 winner of the Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding college football player.

In 1980 Walker rushed for 1,616 yards to break Tony Dorsett's NCAA freshman rushing record of 1,568. Herschel set the NCAA sophomore rushing mark of 1,891 yards. His 5,259 yards from 1980-82 is the NCAA record for rushing yards in three seasons. Walker had four 200-yard games in 1980 and 11 100-yard games in 1981.

A native of Wrightsville, Ga., Walker was named PARADE magazine's national high school back of the year after rushing for 3,167 yards and 45 touchdowns as a senior at Johnson County High in 1979. He rushed for 6,137 yards and 86 touchdowns in his high school career.

Walker also excelled in track as a sprinter in high school and college. He majored in criminology at Georgia.

MATT DARWIN • Center-Guard • Texas A&M
Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 265 • Born: 3/11/63 • D-5B

Matt Darwin was a versatile offensive lineman for Texas A&M, playing center, guard and tackle for the Aggies during his career. He was a freshman All-America selection in 1981 at tackle. He then moved to center, but also saw action at guard.

Darwin was A&M's top offensive lineman last year. His coaches said Darwin's opponents did not sack the quarterback or gain a tackle for a loss all season.

Cowboys offensive line coach Jim Myers coached Matt's father, Bill Darwin, in 1958 and '59 when Myers was head coach at A&M. A tackle, Bill Darwin also played under Bear Bryant at A&M in 1957.

Darwin starred at tight end for Houston's Klein High School. He is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and has worked extensively with children. Matt served as a counselor in the Texas A&M All-Sports Camp each summer on campus.

KURT PLOEGER • Defensive Tackle • Gustavus Adolphus

Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 259 • Born: 12/1/62 • D-6A

Kurt Ploeger (PLEW-ger) was a dominant player on the small college level. A hurdler on the track team at Gustavus Adolphus before deciding to concentrate on football, Ploeger was a two-time small college All-America.

In 1983 Ploeger had six sacks and five blocked passes en route to earning NAIA Division II All-America honors. Last season he led Gustavus Adolphus, located in St. Peter, Minn., in tackles with 113 (45 solos), had 11 sacks and blocked four passes. He was named to Kodak's Little All-America team and to Pizza Hut's NCAA Division III All-America squad. He was also a two-time unanimous All-MIAC (Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference) selection.

Ploeger graduated from LeSuer, Minn., High School and majored in business at Gustavus Adolphus.

MATT MORAN • Guard • Stanford

Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 266 • Born: 5/14/62 • D-6B

A two-time All-Pac 10 honorable mention choice, Matt Moran finished his college career with 35 consecutive starts, the final 33 at left guard. He started 43 of a possible 44 games in his career. Moran played left tackle his freshman year. He was selected to play in the 1984 Blue-Gray All-Star game.

A native of Fullerton, Calif., Moran was a star lineman at Servite High School. An economics major, Moran worked at the Los Angeles Rams training camp during summer months in college.

KARL POWE • Wide Receiver • Alabama State

Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 175 • Born: 1/17/62 • D-7A

Karl Powe (POE) chose to run track rather than participate in spring football practice and spent most of his career at Alabama State as a reserve wide receiver. Nevertheless, this gifted athlete turned in more than his share of big plays.

In three seasons Powe caught 40 passes for 817 yards and six touchdowns. He averaged an impressive 20.5 yards per catch. Powe led Alabama State in receiving in 1982 with 16 receptions for 319 yards and two touchdowns. He had a 61-yard touchdown catch and a 53-yard reception that season.

In '83 he caught eight passes for 184 yards, including TD receptions of 62 yards and 48 yards. Last year he caught 16 balls for 314 yards and two touchdowns. He also led the Southwestern Athletic Conference in kickoff returns with 11 for 300 yards, a 27.3 yard average, with a long gain of 45 yards. He was the fastest player on the Alabama State team.

Powe attended Blount High School in his native Mobile, Ala. Karl majored in criminal justice at Alabama State.

JIM HERRMANN • Defensive End • Brigham Young
Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 256 • Born: 10/20/62 • D-7B

Jim Herrmann grew from a 195-pound freshman into a 255-pound senior co-captain who helped lead BYU to its first national championship. Herrman was voted a first-team All-Western Athletic Conference and honorable mention All-America defensive end.

The Hartland, Wisc., native may have come to BYU as a 195-pounder, but he brought other impressive credentials — size 15½, triple E feet and a grandfather, John Smith, who was a Grantland Rice All-America lineman for the University of Pennsylvania in 1927.

A pass-rushing specialist who was a two-year starter at defensive end, Herrman set a school record in 1983 with 16 quarterback sacks. In 1984 BYU coaches selected Herrman as the defensive lineman of the game three times. He capped his career with appearances in the East-West Shrine and Japan Bowl All-Star games.

Born in Milwaukee, Wisc., Herrman played football, basketball, baseball and track at Arrowhead High in Hartland. He studied business at BYU.

LEON GONZALEZ • Wide Receiver • Bethune-Cookman
Ht: 5-10 • Wt: 162 • Born: 9/21/63 • D-8

Despite his diminutive stature, Leon "Speedy" Gonzalez posted impressive numbers the past two seasons, catching 99 passes for 1,659 yards and 15 touchdowns. He earned All-Mideastern Athletic Conference honors both years. Speedy caught 43 passes for 718 yards and six touchdowns as a junior. Last year he led the MEAC in receiving with 56 receptions for 941 yards and nine TDs. He also caught a career-long 80-yard touchdown pass. Gonzalez attended Ribault High School in Jacksonville, Fla.

SCOTT STRASBURGER • Linebacker • Nebraska
Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 220 • Born: 2/14/63 • D-9

Scott Strasburger excelled both on the field and in the classroom at Nebraska. He was a two-time Academic All-America and also won a National Football Hall of Fame scholarship for post-graduate studies in medicine. He started for two years at standup defensive end, earning consensus All-Big Eight honors in 1984. He is projected by the Cowboys as an outside linebacker.

Strasburger turned down an academic scholarship to Dartmouth College in order to walk on at Nebraska in 1981. He set a Nebraska record for linemen with seven pass breakups last year. He tied for the club lead in tackles for losses with 12 and led the team in yardage lost with 66. In 1982 he clinched a 28-24 win over Oklahoma, and the Big Eight title, by intercepting a pass and returning it 22 yards to the OU one in the final 30 seconds. He had 15 sacks in three seasons.

A graduate of Holdrege, Neb., High School, Scott spent the summer prior to his senior year at Nebraska interning in the Radiology Department at the University of Pennsylvania.

JOE JONES • Tight End • Virginia Tech
Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 250 • Born: 6/26/62 • D-10

Joe Jones broke into the starting lineup at Virginia Tech last year and established himself as an NFL prospect, leading Tech in receiving with 39 catches for 452 yards and one touchdown. He further impressed NFL scouts with a strong showing in the Senior Bowl.

Jones lettered his first three seasons at Tech, serving primarily as a backup tight end and special teams standout. He caught three passes for 40 yards in 1982, his only receptions prior to his senior year. Jones was a teammate of the Cowboys' second-round draft choice, Jesse Penn.

A physical education major, Jones was a top football, basketball and track performer at Forest Hill High in Windber, Pa.

NEAL DELLOCONO • Linebacker • UCLA
Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 219 • Born: 6/1/63 • D-11

Neal Dellocono was a three-year starter at outside linebacker, senior co-captain and one of UCLA's most honored players. He earned third-team All-America honors in 1984, following up an outstanding junior year in which he received All-Pac 10, All-Pacific Coast and honorable mention All-America accolades.

Among Dellocono's statistics last year were a team-leading nine quarterback traps and three fumbles caused. Neal started the final 35 games of his career. He received UCLA's defensive rookie of the year award following a fine freshman year in 1981.

Dellocono earned high school All-America acclaim at Catholic High in Baton Rouge, La., where he played running back, wide receiver and defensive back. In one game he rushed for 215 yards and four TDs. He also lettered in track, baseball and basketball. He majored in kinesiology at UCLA.

KARL JORDAN • Linebacker • Vanderbilt
Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 241 • Born: 1/12/63 • D-12

A starter at five different positions during his Vanderbilt career, Karl Jordan is projected as a middle linebacker prospect by the Cowboys. Jordan earned second-team All-SEC honors at defensive tackle last year after leading Vanderbilt in quarterback traps with 4½ and tackles for losses with 10 for 50 yards. He shared AP's SEC lineman of the week honors after helping Vanderbilt beat Alabama 30-21 last year.

An exceptionally strong player who has bench-pressed 435 pounds, Jordan started at offensive guard and offensive tackle his first two seasons before switching to defense. He started at defensive end, defensive tackle and middle linebacker.

Called "Chocolate Thunder" by teammates, Jordan is a native of Huntsville, Ala.

Other Cowboys With Pro Experience

CHRIS ARENDT, a 6-5, 250-pound defensive end from Duke, was signed as a free agent in 1984. Arendt developed a nerve disorder in his left elbow in training camp and spent the entire season on injured reserve. A native of Gettysburg, Pa. (5/31/61), Chris starred in football, basketball and track at New Oxford (Pa.) High School where he held the school shot put record and was named one of the top 40 football players in the state. Arendt was selected to the preseason All-ACC team for both his junior and senior seasons. He was originally signed out of college by the Denver Broncos in 1983. After being released by Denver in training camp, he was signed by the USFL Jacksonville Bulls and released before the season began.

TODD FOWLER, the Cowboys first-round choice in the 1984 supplemental draft of USFL players, joined the club after two seasons with the Houston Gamblers. A native of Van, Texas (6/9/62), Fowler was a second-team all-state tight end selection at Van High School where he was coached by his father. After leading his team to the state championship his senior year, Todd was named to the All-East Texas All-Decade Team as a strong safety. He spent two years at Henderson County Junior College in Athens, Texas playing strong safety and tight end. In his two years at Stephen F. Austin, he caught 48 passes for 469 yards. The 6-3, 218-pounder was moved to running back with the Gamblers where he set a USFL single-game rushing mark with 208 yards vs. Denver in 1984.

RON JENKINS, a 6-0, 183-pound wide receiver from Colorado State, was signed by Dallas as a free agent in 1984. He spent the entire '84 season on injured reserve after a bout with meningitis in training camp. A native of Denver, Colo. (2/28/61), Jenkins starred in football and track at Rancho Cotate High School in Rohnert Park, Calif. He attended Santa Rosa (Calif.) Junior College, competing in both track and football before enrolling in Colorado State. He caught 27 passes for 371 yards and two touchdowns his senior year, including a six-catch, 95-yard, 1-touchdown performance vs. Utah.

ED MARTIN, the Cowboys' seventh-round pick in 1984, signed with Dallas after a one-year stint with the L.A. Express of the USFL. The 6-3, 225-pound linebacker was a division 1-AA All-America and a two-time All-Missouri Valley pick at Indiana State. A defensive end for the Sycamores, Martin was second on the team with 105 tackles in '83 and led the team as a junior in '82 with 121. In '83 he was runnerup MVC defensive player of the year to Southern Illinois defensive back Terry Taylor, a first-round pick in '84 by Seattle. A native of Atlanta, Georgia (5/29/62) "Poncho" Martin attended Roosevelt (Georgia) High School for two years before moving to Evanston Township (Ill.) High School where he was an All-America his senior year. He was also a standout basketball player in high school.

MALCOLM MOORE, a 6-4, 200-pound wide receiver from Southern California, was drafted by Dallas in the second round of the 1984 supplemental draft of USFL players. After leaving USC, Moore played for the L.A. Express in 1984. He caught 37 passes for 598 yards and two touchdowns for the Trojans, including a 10-catch, 159-yard season in 1983. A native of Los Angeles (6/24/61), Moore was an All-America at San Fernando (Calif.) High School. His brothers Manfred (fullback) and Kenney (safety) also played at USC. Manfred was also a fullback with San Francisco, Tampa Bay and the Raiders.

DAVID PONDER, who was released on the final cut of 1984 preseason, re-signed with the Cowboys for the 1985 season. The 6-3, 248-pound defensive tackle started his final two years at Florida State. After going through the '82 season as the starting nose guard, Ponder was switched to tackle his senior season. He finished the '83 campaign with five quarterback sacks, second to Alphonso Carreker, who was Green Bay's 1984 first-round pick. A native of Dade City, Fla. (6/27/62), Ponder earned all-state football honors at Cairo High School.

JOHN PUZAR, a 6-6, 255-pound center from Long Beach State, was signed by Dallas after being waived by Seattle before the '84 season. An eighth-round pick by the Seahawks, Puzar was an honorable mention All-America and All-Pacific Coast Athletic Association selection in '83. A three-year starter for the 49ers, he anchored the line that allowed Todd Dillon to lead the nation in total offense in 1982. A native of Cupertino, Calif. (6/27/62), Puzar lettered in football and basketball at Cupertino High School. He attended DeAnza College in Cupertino for a year before transferring to Long Beach State.

MIKE REVELL, who was drafted by Dallas in the eighth round in 1984 and released in training camp, re-signed with the Cowboys in 1985. The 5-11, 199-pound running back led Bethune-Cookman in rushing in '83 with 414 yards and a 5.5 yard average. Nicknamed "Sweetback," Revell had his best game of his senior year against North Carolina A&T, rushing for 135 yards on 12 carries. A native of Brooksville, Fla. (1/23/62), Revell starred in basketball and track and was an all-state football pick at Hernando High School.

Ring of Honor

The Cowboys honor former players who made outstanding contributions to the club by inducting them into the Ring of Honor at Texas Stadium. Their names and the years they played are prominently displayed in silver on the wall below the press box at Texas Stadium. Members of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor:

BOB LILLY, defensive tackle, 1961-74. Nicknamed "Mr. Cowboy," Bob Lilly was the franchise's first draft choice in 1961, the first name in the Ring of Honor in 1975 and its first inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1979. A seven-time All-Pro, Lilly was named to a club-record 11 Pro Bowls. He was a two-time All-SWC pick and an All-America at Texas Christian University before being drafted by Dallas.

DON MEREDITH, quarterback, 1960-68. Don Meredith led the Cowboys to their first winning season and their first NFL Championship Game in 1966. Signed by Clint Murchison, Jr., before Dallas was granted its NFL franchise, "Dandy Don" played in two Pro Bowls and was named NFL player of the year in 1966. A two-time All-America at SMU, Don's name was added to the Cowboys' Ring of Honor in 1976.

DON PERKINS, running back, 1961-68. Don Perkins was the first Cowboys player to rush for more than 6,000 yards. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Perkins finished among the top ten NFL rushers in each of his eight seasons. He was named NFL rookie of the year in 1961 and All-Pro in 1962. Perkins was signed before Dallas was granted its NFL franchise. A three-time All-Skyline pick at New Mexico, he was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1976.

CHUCK HOWLEY, linebacker, 1961-72. When Chuck Howley retired in 1973, Tom Landry said "I don't know that I've seen anybody better at linebacker than Howley." A six-time All-Pro, Howley was the most valuable player in Super Bowl V. The Cowboys traded for Howley, who was drafted by Chicago in 1958. He was an All-America center at West Virginia. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Howley was added to the Ring of Honor in 1977.

MEL RENFRO, defensive back, 1964-77. Mel Renfro was named to the Pro Bowl his first ten seasons in the NFL. He is the club's all-time interceptor with 52 and kickoff returner with a 26.4-yard career average. Renfro was drafted in the second round in 1964 after a career as an All-America halfback and world class sprinter at Oregon. A five-time All-Pro, Renfro was inducted into the Cowboys' Ring of Honor in 1981.

ROGER STAUBACH, quarterback, 1969-79. Roger Staubach led the Cowboys to six NFC Championship Games, four Super Bowls and two Super Bowl titles. A great clutch performer, Staubach led Dallas to comeback victories 23 times, 14 in the last two minutes or overtime. A five-time Pro Bowler, he was drafted by Dallas in 1964 after winning the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award at the Naval Academy. Inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1983, Roger was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

"SILVER SEASON"

The NFL films production of "Silver Season — The 25th Year of the Dallas Cowboys" is available free of charge to groups wishing to show it. Produced and directed by Bob Ryan of NFL Films, the 30-minute, 16 mm sound and color movie is narrated by Gregg Oliver and includes highlights of the 1984 season. The film is sponsored by Eastman Kodak and may be obtained for group showings by calling the Cowboys' office at 214/369-8000.

Historical Highlights

NFL FRANCHISE — Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during the first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).

COWBOYS STOCKED — A player pool was set up in a league meeting at L.A., with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific U., in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).

FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME — The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 10-16 pre-season game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).

FIRST HOME GAME — In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club preseason game, the Cowboys led the world champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 62-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).

FIRST VICTORY — In a preseason game at Louisville, Ky., the Cowboys beat New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes of 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith) (August 27).

FIRST LEAGUE GAME — In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth-period Steeler rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).

STREAK SNAPPED — Dallas snaps a 10-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies launch training at new campsite — St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).

FIRST LEAGUE WIN — Scoring ten points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 (Sept. 17).

1962

TRAINING STARTS — Team begins training at new campsite — Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).

PENALTY HISTORY — For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were detected holding in the end zone on a 99-yd. TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

100-YARD FIRSTS — Cowboys Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth-quarter TDs in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter (Oct. 14).

SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY — The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).

CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE — The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).

HOWTON SETS RECORD — Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch against Washington (there). Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 3,000 yards (Sept. 29).

1964

LANDRY CONTRACT — With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a ten-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).

1965

FIRST SELLOUT — An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).

1966

PLAYOFF BOWL — After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).

MERGER — Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys GM Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, merging the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).

SCHRAMM ELEVATED — Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.

NEELY CASE SOLVED — Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth place picks in the 1967 draft (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

TEXAS STADIUM — On Dec. 23, owner Clint Murchison, Jr., formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.

SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP — Under the NFL's new format, the Cowboys easily won the Capitol Division and defeated Cleveland, Century Division winner, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl for the Eastern conference championship. However, on Dec. 31 in Green Bay, the Cowboys lost their second bid for an NFL title, falling to the Packers, 21-17, in the 13 degree below weather.

1968

WIN CAPITOL — For the second straight year the Cowboys won the Capitol Division, but for the first time in three years the Cowboys did not win the Eastern Championship, being upset at Cleveland, 31-20, on December 21st. Dallas won the Runner-Up Bowl over Minnesota, 17-13.

1969

TEXAS STADIUM — Ground was broken for Texas Stadium in suburban Irving on January 25, and on June 29 Bert Rose was named general manager of the stadium.

ORIGINALS RETIRE — An era ended for the Cowboys in July. On July 5th at a press conference in Dallas, quarterback Don Meredith, the last of the original Cowboys, announced his retirement. Then, on July 18th, the day the veterans were to report to training camp, all-time rushing great Don Perkins officially retired.

REPEAT CAPITOL WINS — Once again the Cowboys rolled to the Capitol Division Championship with an 11-2-1 season. However, the Cowboys failed to win the Eastern Championship when on Dec. 28, the Cowboys lost to Cleveland, 38-14, in the Cotton Bowl.

FIVE STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last five games to finish 10-4, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the fifth year in a row. They defeated Detroit, 5-0, in the opening round to get a shot at the National Conference championship.

FIRST NFC TITLE — The Cowboys captured the biggest prize of their 11-year history on Jan. 3 when they downed San Francisco, 17-10, for the NFC crown. A 16-13 loss to Baltimore in the Super Bowl Jan. 17 left Dallas with one major goal still unrealized.

TEXAS STADIUM — The Cowboys opened a new era in their sparkling Irving, Tex., home with a 44-21 victory over the New England Patriots on October 24. Duane Thomas scored the first touchdown in the new stadium, a 56-yard run just two minutes and 16 seconds after the opening kickoff. Attendance was 65,708.

SIX STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last seven games to finish 11-3, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the sixth year in a row. They defeated Minnesota, 20-12, in the opening round.

SECOND NFC TITLE — For the second consecutive year, the Cowboys met the San Francisco 49ers in the National Conference showdown. This time Dallas won, 14-3, to qualify for its second straight Super Bowl.

FIRST WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys downed the Miami Dolphins, 24-3, to win Super Bowl VI in New Orleans on Jan. 16. It was the 10th victory in a row for Dallas as Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

FIRST 1,000-YARD BACK — Calvin Hill became the first Dallas player to rush for 1,000 yards when he gained 111 on Dec. 9 against the Washington Redskins in Texas Stadium. Hill wound up with 1,036 yards for the season on a record 245 carries.

SEVEN STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys qualified for the NFL playoffs a record seventh consecutive year, their 10-4 record earning them the National Conference Wild Card berth. Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns in the last 1½ minutes to give the Cowboys a 30-28 victory at San Francisco in the first round. Then, at Washington on New Year's Eve, Dallas was foiled in its bid for a third straight NFL title when the Redskins won, 26-3.

100 VICTORIES — The Cowboys and Coach Tom Landry recorded their 100th victory with a 40-3 Texas Stadium win over the New Orleans Saints on Sept. 24. Landry, the only head coach the Cowboys have had, ended the season with a career mark of 108-80-6 to rank ninth on the list of the NFL's all-time winningest coaches.

EIGHT STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division title with a 10-4 record and broke their own NFL record by reaching the playoffs for the eighth year in a row. Dallas defeated Western Division champion Los Angeles in the first round, 27-16, but fell to Central Division winner Minnesota in the NFC Championship Game, 27-10.

1974

FIRST TOP DRAFT CHOICE — For the first time in their history, the Cowboys had the very first choice in the NFL college draft. The No. 1 pick came to Dallas from Houston in exchange for Tody Smith and Billy Parks. The Cowboys selected Ed "Too Tall" Jones, a 6-9, 260-pound defensive end from Tennessee State.

PLAYOFFS MISSED — The Cowboys' record-breaking string of eight straight years in the NFL playoffs was broken when the club's 8-6 record failed to qualify.

LILLY HONORED — "Mr. Cowboy" was honored on Bob Lilly Day at Texas Stadium at halftime of the Philadelphia game on Nov. 23. It was the first such recognition ever given to a Dallas player. Lilly never missed a game in 14 years with the Cowboys, earning All-Pro honors seven times at defensive tackle before retiring prior to the '75 season.

TEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys' 10-4 record earned them the NFC Wild Card berth in the playoffs. The composite record over 10 straight winning seasons was 101-37-2.

THIRD NFC TITLE — After shocking Minnesota in the first round, 17-14 on Roger Staubach's 50-yard "Hail Mary" pass to Drew Pearson, the Cowboys traveled to Los Angeles for the NFC showdown. Staubach threw four touchdown passes, three to Preston Pearson, and Dallas won, 37-7. Pittsburgh won Super Bowl X on Jan. 18 in Miami, 21-17.

MEREDITH, PERKINS HONORED — Former Cowboys greats Don Meredith and Don Perkins joined Bob Lilly in the "Ring of Honor" at Texas Stadium during halftime ceremonies at the New York Giants game on Nov. 7.

ELEVEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys won the NFC Eastern Division title with their 11-3 record, giving them their 11th straight winning season and 10th playoff berth in that period. A 14-12 first round loss to Los Angeles — the first time Dallas had lost in the first round under the current playoff setup — ended the season.

1977

HOWLEY HONORED — Former All-Pro linebacker Chuck Howley, a Cowboy from 1961 through 1973, became the fourth member of the Ring of Honor. Howley was honored during ceremonies at halftime of the Detroit Lions game on Oct. 30.

TWELVE STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Getting off to an 8-0 start, their best ever, the Cowboys rolled to a 12-2 record, the championship of the NFC East, and their 12th consecutive winning season. They opened their 11th visit to the playoffs in those 12 years with a 37-7 first-round victory over the Chicago Bears at Texas Stadium.

FOURTH NFC TITLE — Dallas crushed the Minnesota Vikings at Texas Stadium, 23-6, for National Conference crown No. 4 and the right to meet the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XII.

SECOND WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys stopped the Denver Broncos, 27-10, to win Super Bowl XII in New Orleans on January 15, 1978. In the process, Dallas tied Minnesota for most Super Bowl appearances (four) and Green Bay, Miami and Pittsburgh for most Super Bowl victories (two). Defensive linemen Harvey Martin and Randy White were named co-Most Valuable Players in the game.

THIRTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — After a mediocre 6-4 start, the Cowboys won six straight games to finish the expanded regular season with a 12-4 record and their 10th division crown. It marked the Cowboys' 13th consecutive winning season and 12th trip to the playoffs in that span. Dallas rallied to beat Atlanta 27-20 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium, sending the Cowboys to their seventh NFC championship game in the past nine years.

FIFTH NFC TITLE — Dallas shut out the Rams in Los Angeles 28-0 in the National Conference title game to advance to the Super Bowl a record fifth time, including three of the last four. In the first Super Bowl rematch, Pittsburgh edged the Cowboys 35-31 for the NFL championship on Jan. 21 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY — The Cowboys celebrated their 20th anniversary season at halftime of the St. Louis Cardinals game at Texas Stadium on Oct. 21. Stars from each of those 20 seasons plus Coach Tom Landry were introduced during the halftime ceremonies.

FOURTH STRAIGHT NFC EAST TITLE — Rallying from a mid-season slump, the Cowboys won their final three games to finish with an 11-5 record, their 11th division championship, including the past four NFC East titles, and 14th consecutive winning season. The Cowboys made their 13th trip to the playoffs in those 14 years, but were eliminated by Los Angeles 21-19 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium.

STAUBACH RETIRES — At a press conference at Texas Stadium on March 31, quarterback Roger Staubach announced his retirement after 11 record-breaking years with the Cowboys. Staubach held all major Cowboys passing records and was the all-time leading NFL passer.

LILLY ENTERS HALL OF FAME — Bob Lilly, a seven-time All-Pro defensive tackle in his 14-year career with the Cowboys from 1961-74, became the first Cowboys-only player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Enshrined along with Lilly on Aug. 2 at Canton, Ohio, were Herb Adderley, who played for the Cowboys from 1970-72, Jim Otto and Deacon Jones.

FIFTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Behind new starting quarterback Danny White, the Cowboys rolled to their 15th consecutive winning season with a surprising 12-4 record, tied for best in the league with Philadelphia and Atlanta. The Cowboys lost the NFC East title to Philadelphia on a tie-breaker, but entered the playoffs for the 14th time in 15 years, this time as a wild card team. The Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game and rallied past the Falcons at Atlanta 30-27 to advance to the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia. But the Cowboys lost 20-7 in their bid for a sixth Super Bowl appearance.

LANDRY'S 200th VICTORY — Tom Landry joined George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only coaches with 200 NFL victories when the Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 on Dec. 28 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game, raising Landry's record to 200-119-6, counting regular season and playoff games.

RENFRO HONORED — Former All-Pro defensive back Mel Renfro, the Cowboys' all-time leading pass interceptor, became the fifth member of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor. Renfro, who played for Dallas from 1964 through 1977, was honored during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Miami Dolphins game at Texas Stadium Oct. 25.

TWELFTH DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division Championship, their 12th division title since 1966, with a 12-4 record and tied Oakland's NFL mark of 16 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for the 15th time in that span, the Cowboys advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the ninth time in 12 years by routing Tampa Bay 38-0 at Texas Stadium. But for the second year in a row Dallas lost the conference title game. San Francisco scored a last-minute touchdown at Candlestick Park to edge the Cowboys 28-27 for a berth in Super Bowl XVI.

200TH REGULAR-SEASON VICTORY — The Cowboys beat Washington

24-10 at RFK Stadium on Dec. 5 for the club's and Coach Tom Landry's 200th regular-season victory.

SEVENTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys finished the strike-shortened regular season with a 6-3 record to establish an NFL record of 17 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for a record-tying eighth straight year and for the 16th time in 17 years, the Cowboys beat Tampa Bay 30-17 and Green Bay 37-26, both at Texas Stadium, to advance to the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. But again the Cowboys come up short, losing 31-17 at Washington.

STAUBACH HONORED — Former quarterback Roger Staubach, who led the Cowboys to four Super Bowls, became the sixth member of the Ring of Honor during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Tampa Bay game on Oct. 9.

NEW HEADQUARTERS — Ground was broken on Nov. 29 for the Cowboys' new headquarters and training facility at The Valley Ranch in northwest Dallas County.

EIGHTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys extended their NFL record to 18 consecutive winning seasons with a 12-4 finish. The club also set a league record with its ninth straight playoff appearance, qualifying as a wild card entry. The Los Angeles Rams eliminated the Cowboys from the playoffs, however, with a 24-17 upset victory at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game on Dec. 26.

SILVER SEASON — The Cowboys kicked off their 25th anniversary with a news conference at Texas Stadium on Jan. 27. Club President Tex Schramm announced the Cowboys would celebrate their 25th anniversary during 1984 under the theme "Silver Season."

CLUB SOLD — The sale of the Cowboys from the Murchison family to an 11-member limited partnership headed by Dallas businessman H. R. "Bum" Bright was approved by NFL owners on March 19 at the league's annual meeting in Honolulu. The sale was completed on May 18.

COWBOYS CENTER — The Cowboys and Triland International announced plans on March 27 for Cowboys Center, an innovative joint venture that will develop business opportunities in a conference center, Cowboys ShowPlace, athletic club, sports arena, office park, housing, and retail and restaurant outlets on 200 acres at The Valley Ranch, adjacent to the Cowboys' new headquarters.

NINETEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys defeated the Eagles 26-10 in Philadelphia to extend their NFL record to 19 consecutive winning seasons. The Cowboys finished 9-7 and missed the playoffs for the first time in 10 years and only the second time in 19 years.

1985

STAUBACH ENTERS HALL OF FAME — Roger Staubach, the master of the comeback victory during his 11-year career as a Cowboys quarterback, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. Enshrined with Staubach on Aug. 3 at Canton, Ohio, were Pete Rozelle, Joe Namath, O. J. Simpson and Frank Gatski. Staubach joined Bob Lilly as the only players who spent their entire career with the Cowboys to be elected to the Hall of Fame.

THE SIDELINE

Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders

When the Cowboys introduced the 'new' Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders at Texas Stadium in 1972, they wanted to have a bright new look on the playing field and add another form of entertainment for the football fan. Little did they know that they were starting something that one day would become what is now considered a phenomenon.

Those who participated in the Cheerleaders' formation couldn't have foreseen what would happen on a sunny January day in Miami four years later when, at Super Bowl X, the cheerleaders would capture the imagination of a nation. With a stroke of luck and a winning football team it all came together.

The phenomenon, however, has not been restricted to Texas Stadium and the television eye that has carried their image across the country. Armed Forces in remote outposts throughout the world, children and veterans in hospital wards plus state fair and college audiences have all experienced the joy of the D.C.C. Because of their freshness and smiles, their beauty and talent, these young women bring a touch of happiness to everyone they meet.

THE COWBOYS BAND

The 28-member Dallas Cowboys Band, a brass arrangement featuring a variety of musical sounds from country and western to rock 'n roll, again will be a central ingredient during Cowboys games at Texas Stadium in 1984. Under the direction of Bill Lively, associate vice president for development at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, the Cowboys Band is a vital part of all Texas Stadium pre-game, halftime and post-game activity. The Cowboys Band also is available for conventions, community concerts and other occasions.

Cowboys on Radio

The Cowboys again in 1985 will have the largest radio network in the National Football League as Texas State Network begins its fourth season broadcasting Cowboys games to America. With KRLD Radio of Dallas serving as the flagship station, TSN's Dallas Cowboys Network will be carried on 172 stations in 14 states. Play-by-play announcer Brad Sham is joined this year by analyst Dale Hansen. In addition, TSN will carry all Cowboys games in Spanish on 12 stations in four states via the Dallas Cowboys Spanish Radio Network with broadcasters Armando Quintero and Mario Montez.

GTE'S THE NAME. COMMUNICATION'S OUR GAME.

GTE'S TEAM AT TEXAS STADIUM.

GTE. THE FIRST STRING.

For days before the opening whistle, the GTE game plan is going strong. Our first-string players are installing and testing phones for the press box, coin and emergency phones for the fans, special circuits for the radio broadcast, sideline phones for the coaches and players, video and audio equipment for the television networks.

Thirteen years and a perfect record. GTE and the Dallas Cowboys. Because in all that time not one single second of Cowboy excitement has ever missed being broadcast from Texas Stadium to football fans across America. Because General Telephone is part of one of the world's leading telecommunications companies.

That's why we're pro's in Business Phone Systems, too. From small office systems to sophisticated datacom networks, GTE has the products, skills, and people to help you score in the competitive business game. High-speed satellite transmissions or a phone system that's expandable from 60 phones to 60,000 — we match your growth needs stride for stride.

We're in the Communications business to help your business. We'll huddle with you in choosing the right system. And our expert technicians will be on your team, giving you the best in service and attention through whole seasons of quality telecommunications.
