341 AND COUNTING

- The league's longest-tenured stadium, Lambeau Field is hosting its 62nd season of football in 2018. For the victory over Dallas in the Divisional round of the 2014 playoffs, Packers fans set a new Lambeau Field paid-attendance record (79,704).
- Across American professional sports, only Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914) have longer tenures.

THE LAMBEAU ADVANTAGE

The crown jewel of the National Football League, Lambeau Field has long been known as one of the tougher venues to play in, particularly during the harsh Wisconsin winter.

- Re-establishing home-field advantage after a 4-4 mark in 2008 was one of the goals of 2009, and with the Packers finishing 6-2 at home, they accomplished that goal. Green Bay followed that up with a 7-1 mark at Lambeau Field in 2010, a perfect 8-0 record in 2011, the first undefeated home mark since 2002, and a 7-1 mark in 2012. The Packers were one of two teams to finish undefeated at home during the 2014 regular season (Denver).
- Green Bay is 5-1-1 at home this season with a .786 winning percentage that ranks No. 8 in the NFL.
- Since Ron Wolf and Mike Holmgren began the revitalization of the franchise in 1992, Green Bay owns the best home record in the NFL. A look at the top regular-season home W-L records since the '92 season:

3. Baltimore	58-21-0	.734

IN THE FREE-AGENCY ERA

Talk of unrestricted free agency in the early '90s led many to forecast tough times for the small-town Green Bay Packers.

- However, Green Bay has remained among the most successful teams since the advent of free agency in 1993. The Packers have won 10 or more games 15 times since '93 and captured 10 division crowns.
- A look at the most successful teams in the free-agency era:

Team	W-L Since '93	Pct.	Playoff Berths

- ▶ The Packers' first road contest was at the Redskins, marking Green Bay's first September visit to Washington.
- ▶ The Packers returned home to take on the Buffalo Bills in Week 4. It was the second-coldest September game (49 degrees at kickoff) at Lambeau Field (since 1959) behind only the contest between the Packers and Washington Redskins on Sept. 24, 2001 (46 degrees).
- ▶ In Week 5, they traveled to Detroit to play the Lions.
- ▶ In Week 6, Green Bay hosted the San Francisco 49ers on Monday Night Football. It was the fifth time in the last six seasons the Packers have played at Lambeau Field on MNF. - ▶ November finished with a trip to play the Vikings on Sunday night, marking the sixth straight season that the teams met in a prime-time game.
- ▶ Green Bay opened the final month of the regular season against Arizona, only the second time the Cardinals played at Lambeau Field in December (Dec. 21, 1969).

Tie Game

Green Bay 29, Minnesota 29, Sept. 16, 2018

GREEN BAY 24, CHICAGO 23

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Sept. 9, 2018. Attendance: 78,282. Time: 3:07. Weather: 62° F. Humidity: 65 percent. Wind: E 10 mph GAME 1

GREEN BAY WRs (AP) — Aaron Rodgers heard the applause after walking out of the stadium tunnel and back on to the field. The team doctor had checked out his left knee after the Green Bay Packers quarterback was carried off the field in the second quarter. Rodgers, it seemed, had avoided a major injury. He was good to go. The adrenaline kicked in.

The hobbling wide-time NFL MVP threw three touchdown passes in the second half after returning from injury, and the Green Bay Packers overcame a 20-point deficit for a thrilling 24-23 win over the Chicago Bears on Sunday night.

Rodgers connected with receiver Randall Cobb for a catch-and-run on the secondary for a 75-yard touchdown and the go-ahead score with 2:13 left in the game.

Nick Perry saved the Bears' Mitchell Trubisky on fourth-and-10 with 58 seconds to complete the comeback.

Sunday marked the first time in franchise history that the Packers won after trailing by 17-plus points entering the fourth quarter, according to the Elias Sports Bureau.

The Packers posted the second-largest comeback in franchise history at Lambeau Field, behind only a rally from 21 points down to beat New Orleans on Sept. 17, 1989.

For Rodgers, this was special. And especially because how awful the Packers played in the first half.

A Chicago offense featuring newly acquired star linebacker Khalil Mack dominated until the third quarter. Mack had a 27-yard interception return for a touchdown against backup quarterback Desmond Haizer in the second quarter.

A gimpy Rodgers returned in the second half and finally figured out the Bears. He also found Davante Adams and Jeronimo Allison for touchdowns passes. He finished 20 of 30 for 286 yards, including 17 of 23 for 273 yards in the second half.

It was Rodgers' first regular-season home game since Sept. 28 against the Bears. He was limited to seven games in 2017 because of a collarbone injury.

Mack nearly stole the show. He also stripped the ball for a turnover in the red zone off Kizer in the second quarter. Mack made an immediate impact in his first game since the Bears acquired the premier pass rusher in a blockbuster deal with the Oakland Raiders.

The Bears led 20-0 at one point and their defense dominated until the second half. Then Rodgers returned, and the Packers' defense held the Bears in check.

Trubisky was 23 of 35 for 171 yards. He also ran for 32 yards on seven carries, including a 2-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Vikings kicker Daniel Carlson missed two field goals in overtime, including one from 35 yards as time expired, and Minnesota had to settle for a 29-29 tie with the Green Bay Packers after rallying from a late 13-point deficit on Sunday.
The rookie's final attempt went to the right of the uprights. Just like his kick from 49 earlier in overtime, Carlson also missed from 48 in the second quarter.
Packers kicker Mason Crosby matched a career high with five field goals, but his potential game-winner from 52 went wide left as time expired in regulation.
The result at Lambeau Field overshadowed memorable performances from both quarterbacks.
Green Bay QB Aaron Rodgers played with a brace on his injured left knee and threw for 281 yards and a 9-yard touchdown pass to Devante Adams. But a miscalculated handoff with 5:17 left in overtime cost the Packers a chance at another long field-goal attempt. Rodgers recovered the fumble on second-and-1 at the 37, and he was sacked on third down to push Green Bay back to the 47.
Minnesota's Kirk Cousins threw for 425 yards and four touchdowns, including three in the fourth quarter. He also threw an interception to Ha Ha Clinton-Dix after the ball bounced off the hands of Aaron Treadwell with 2:13 left.
Everything seemed to go the Vikings' way in the fourth, when they rallied from a 20-7 deficit. Until that point, the Packers had put together the kind of complete performance needed to support Rodgers, who got hurt in Green Bay's opening victory against Chicago.
Facing double coverage, Adam Thielen still caught a 22-yard touchdown pass from Cousins with 31 seconds left on a drive that included a roughing-the-passer penalty on Clay Matthews. Stefan Diggs caught a 2-point conversion pass to tie it at 29.
The penalty negated an interception by Jairé Alexander with 1:45 left that would have allowed the Packers to run out the clock. Referee Tony Corrae said the call was not related to the new helmet-to-helmet rule.
Rodgers, who finished 30 of 42, didn't have his typical mobility that allows him to buy time for receivers. But he was able to move around enough to scramble out of trouble on occasion, operating out of shotgun or pistol formations also brought Rodgers more time.
The Packers (1-0-1), though, could have used more touchdowns from the offense. They did get one on special teams after Gerommo Allison blocked a punt that was recovered by Josh Jackson in the end zone for a touchdown.
Thielen had 12 catches for 131 yards for Minnesota (1-0-1), while Diggs had nine catches for 128 yards and two scores.

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — Things have not gone all that well for Aaron Rodgers and Co. so far, and as the Packers (1-1-1) fail to the Redskins (2-1) on a rainy afternoon.

That was certainly the case in a 31-17 loss at the Washington Redskins on Sunday, when Green Bay fell behind 14-0 and trailed 28-10 at halftime after giving up TD drives of 74, 75, 79 and 98 yards.

Among McCarthy's ailments were his team's 11 penalties for 115 yards - including three for pass interference on one drive - and the most-discussed among those flags was linebacker Clay Matthews' for roughing the passer after he sacked Alex Smith late in the third quarter.

A week after gaining 20 yards on 11 attempts, Adrian Peterson went for 120 yards on 19 runs with a pair of 2-yard TDs.

Smith went 12 for 20 for 220 yards. He also had his streak of 156 consecutive passes without an interception, the longest active run in the league, and in the second quarter, Safety Ha Ha Clinton-Dix made the pick when Jordan Reed went one way and Smith threw another. Rodgers, who was 27 for 44 for 265 yards passing with two touchdowns - of 64 yards to Gerontimo Allison and 2 yards to Davante Adams - said he expects to start against Buffalo after again dealing with an injured left knee, which he hurt in Week 1. He wore a bulky brace on his left knee against Washington, and he came up hobbling a bit after some plays, while he moved around in the pocket or scrambled for a gain.

Green Bay's receivers had problems with drops, plus Randall Cobb was stripped of the ball by Fabian Moreau - Josh Norman recovered the fumble - after a completion with about 5½ minutes remaining in the fourth quarter.

The Packers' ground game was limited to 15 carries for 87 yards by running backs.

GAME 4

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — This is more like it for the Green Bay Packers.

The offense built a big lead as quarterback Aaron Rodgers quieted through another game with a brace on his injured left knee. The defense had seven sacks and pitched a shutout for the first time in eight seasons.

They put together their most complete game of the year in a 22-0 win over the Buffalo Bills (1-3) on Sunday. It was just the edge that the Packers (2-1-1) needed with Rodgers not necessarily playing at his best. He was 22 of 40 for 298 yards with one touchdown. Green Bay had decisive edges in total offense (423-145) and first downs (22-11).

Rodgers also threw an interception off a deflected pass and tumbled the ball away on a sack early in the fourth quarter. The offense wasn't as productive in the second half after a last start.

Bills rookie quarterback Josh Allen accounted for three turnovers, including two interceptions and a fumble late in the fourth quarter that stood on review. He was 16 of 33 for 151 yards.

Buffalo did manage to force Rodgers to throw his first interception of the year.

But a 16-0 lead at the half was more than enough cushion against Buffalo's feeble offense. Even the return of running back LeSean McCoy, who missed a game because of a rib injury, didn't help the Bills.

Rodgers and Jimmy Graham connected on their first touchdown pass of the year. Signed in the offseason as a free agent, the athletic tight end made his first official Lambeau Leap and finished with 21 yards on three catches.

RB Aaron Jones added 65 yards and a score on 11 carries for the Packers.

A physical defense for Green Bay held the Bills to eight punts and three turnovers on their first 11 drives. Allen was sacked seven times, three by Kyler Fackrell.

DETROIT 31 GREEN BAY 23

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions took advantage of some mistakes they forced Green Bay to make and were fortunate some breaks simply went their way.

Matthew Stafford, who was 14 of 26 for 183 yards, threw two touchdown passes and LeGarrette Blount ran for two scores, lifting the Lions to a 31-23 win over the Packers on Sunday.

Detroit (2-3) earned a win it desperately needed under first-year coach Matt Patricia, going into its bye week.

Green Bay (2-2-1) had a rough day because veteran Mason Crosby had the worst game of his life and two-time NFL MVP Aaron Rodgers lost two fumbles for just the third time in his 14-year career.

Crosby missed a career-high four field goals in one game and failed to make an extra point to boot. He connected on a field goal with two seconds left, but that wasn't of much consolation after his poor performance.

Detroit recovered an onside kick to seal the win, preventing Rodgers from getting another chance at a Hail Mary in Detroit like the one he threw in 2015.

The Lions built a big lead in the first half: Blount had a pair of 1-yard TD runs in the first quarter and Stafford's 8-yard pass to Marvin Jones late in the second quarter put Detroit up, 24-0.

Rodgers, missing injured receivers Randall Cobb and Aaroniso Allison, threw short TDs to rookie Marquez Valdes-Scantling and Lance Kendricks in the third to pull the Packers within 10 points.

Stafford answered with a 5-yard TD pass to Kenny Golladay early in the fourth quarter to give Detroit a 31-14 lead.

Rodgers connected with Davante Adams on a 12-yard throw for a third TD pass, but Crosby hit the left upright on the extra point to let the Lions keep an 11-point lead midway through the fourth quarter.

Rodgers was 32 of 52 for 442 yards — the second-highest total of his career — with three TD passes.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Aaron Rodgers can't lead a game-winning drive if he never gets the ball. That was the whole idea when Los Angeles Rams kicker Matt Gay forced a fumble from Green Bay's Ty Montgomery on a late kickoff return. That was also Todd Gurley's thought moments later when he stopped running with a clear path to the end zone, keeping Rodgers stuck on the sideline in the unbeaten Rams' eighth victory.

Greg Zuerlein hit a 34-yard field goal with 2:05 left before Wilson forced and recovered Montgomery's fumble on the ensuing kickoff, and Gurley's prudent decision to go down wrapped up the Rams' 29-27 victory over the Green Bay Packers on Sunday.

Jared Goff passed for 295 yards and three touchdowns while the Rams (8-0) were sternly tested by the Packers (3-3-1).

Both teams rallied from 10-point deficits to take a lead in front of a rollicking, bipartisan Coliseum crowd, but the Rams extended their best start since 1969 by capitalizing on two crushing special-teams mistakes by Green Bay.

Rodgers threw for 286 yards, but he didn't get a snap in the final 5:20.

Marquez Valdes-Scantling caught a 40-yard touchdown pass from Rodgers with 8:50 left to put the Packers ahead 27-26, but Goff and Gurley drove the Rams into range for Zuerlein's second field goal of the fourth quarter after a 25-yard punt by JK Scott.

Montgomery then coughed up his return, and Wilson pounced on the ball. Packers coach Mike McCarthy said the return man was supposed to take a touchback.

In the final minute, Gurley ran 17 yards for a key first down and stopped before reaching the end zone, allowing the Rams to run out the clock.

Just Reynolds caught two touchdown passes for Los Angeles. Gurley had 114 yards rushing and 81 yards receiving, and he scored a touchdown in his franchise-record-tying 11th consecutive game on a 30-yard pass in the third quarter.

The Rams faced their largest deficit of the remarkable season when they trailed 10-0 early in the second quarter, but they calmly turned it into a 23-13 lead late in the third.

Rodgers answered with two touchdown drives to grab a one-point lead for Green Bay in the fourth quarter, but Goff countered his fallop Cal product and childhood hero after Aaron Donald sacked Rodgers on third down to stop the Packers' next drive.

Both teams had loud contingents of fans at the Coliseum, where Green Bay won the first Super Bowl in 1967. The Packers were greeted by a raucy bunch of California Greshams in Green Bay's first trip to Los Angeles since the NFL returned in 2016.

After Reynolds scored on a 19-yard grab late in the third, the Packers responded with Aaron Jones' 33-yard TD draw run up the middle with 13 seconds left.

MINNESOTA 24 GREEN BAY 17

U.S. Bank Stadium, Sunday, Nov. 25, 2018. Attendance: 66,872. Time: 3:07. Weather: Indoors.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Once Kirk Cousins and the Minnesota Vikings took the lead on Green Bay, they played with a fierce refusal to let it go.

They held onto the ball with the same determination. Cousins bounced back from his worst game of the season with 342 passing yards and three touchdowns without a fumble or an interception, and the Vikings overcame some early gaffes to outlast the depleted Packers for a 24-17 victory on Sunday night. Completing 29 of his 38 attempts, Cousins found Dalvin Cook, Stefon Diggs and Adam Thielen for scores. Diggs and Thielen had eight receptions apiece.

Sheldon Richardson had two sacks to lead the defense's game-long stifling of Aaron Rodgers, and the Vikings (6-4-1) pushed the Packers (4-6-1) further back in the NFC wild card race.

Rodgers threw a touchdown pass to Davante Adams and Aaron Jones scored on a short run for a 14-7 lead early in the second quarter, but the Packers fell to 0-6 on the road this season and 1-5-1 against the Vikings in their last seven meetings. Their final seven possessions produced only one field goal, with five punts and one turnover on downs.

With Randall Cobb out (hamstring) for a sixth game this season and rookies Equanimeous St. Brown (elbow) and Trevor Davis (hamstring) forced out in the second half, Rodgers didn't have much to work with down the field. Left guard Lane Taylor (quadriceps) departed in the third quarter and left tackle David Bakhtiari (knee) was sidelined briefly in the second half, leaving the protection shaky at best. Rodgers finished 17 for 28 for 198 yards, without a turnover.

The Packers failed to move the chains on eight of 10 third downs. Jones was stuffed on fourth-and-inches by Harrison Smith, Danielle Hunter and Eric Kendricks midway through the third quarter, giving the Vikings the ball at the Green Bay 44. That set up a 37-yard field goal by Dan Bailey for Minnesota's first lead of the game.

ARIZONA 20, GREEN BAY 7

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Dec. 2, 2018.

Attendance: 77,234. Time: 3:10. Weather: 34° F. Humidity: 92 percent. Wind: N-N-E 20 mph. GAME 12

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Arizona Cardinals pulled off an upset at Lambeau Field that was so much a stunner that the Green Bay Packers fired coach Mike McCarthy after the game.

Zane Gonzalez kicked a 44-yard field goal with 1:41 left. Green Bay's Mason Crosby missed a 49-yard attempt as time expired and the Cardinals braved windy conditions to hold on for a 20-7 victory on Sunday.

The Packers' (4-7-1) announced McCarthy's dismissal amid the postgame availabilities with the media. Team president Mark Murphy made the move after Green Bay took another debilitating hit to its fading playoff hopes.

For McCarthy, a tenure highlighted by a Super Bowl win in the 2010 season ends with a loss to Arizona (9-9).

Cardinals rookie Josh Rosen struggled for much of the afternoon, but hit Larry Fitzgerald for a sliding 32-yard completion on third-and-23 to help set up Gonzalez's winning kick.

Crosby pushed his kick wide right, with the flags stop Lambeau blowing in toward the field at the time of the play. Green Bay's playoff hopes took another significant blow.

Gonzalez just joined the team this week after Phil Dawson was placed on injured reserve. The Cardinals had a patchwork offensive line, which didn't hold well for what had been the league's worst offense coming into the day.

Green Bay has lost three straight and five of six.

Aaron Rodgers was 37 of 50 for 233 yards and a touchdown. A couple throws looked off especially in the first half, and receivers had a few drops.

The offense regained some swagger after Rodgers orchestrated a 95-yard drive that led to Aaron Jones' 8-yard touchdown run with 5:26 left, tying it at 17. Davante Adams tipped the sideline for a 19-yard catch to extend that drive.

But too many missed opportunities and drops caught up with the Packers in the end. They struggled on third down, going 3 for 14 in the continuation of a season-long theme.

Rookie Chase Edmonds ran for two touchdowns for Arizona. Rosen was 11 of 26 for 149 yards, making just enough plays in front of a makeshift offensive line.

Rosen's 32-yard completion to Fitzgerald sapped momentum from the Packers after Arizona was pushed back to its own 12. Dean Lowry sacked Rosen on first down, and Rosen threw an incomplete on second-and-18 following a botched snap.

A 16-yard completion to Adams with 13:42 left in the second quarter gave Rodgers the team record for attempts without an interception. Hall of Fame Bart Starr set the previous mark of 294 from 1964-65.

GAME 14

CHICAGO — The Chicago Bears clinched the NFC North and helped knock Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers out of playoff contention. Mitchell Trubisky threw for two touchdowns. Eddie Jackson ended Rodgers' NFL-record streak without an interception and Chicago clinched the division with a 24-17 victory over the Packers on Sunday. The Bears (10-4) secured their first playoff appearance since the 2010 team won the NFC North. And they did it with a rare victory over their heated rivals. Chicago had dropped nine of 10 against Green Bay (5-8-1). But the Bears secured their first trip to the playoffs in eight years with their seventh win in eight games. The loss, coupled with Minnesota's 41-17 victory over Miami, keeps the Packers out of the postseason for the second year in a row.

Trubisky gave the Bears a 21-14 lead early in the fourth quarter with a 13-yard pass to Trey Burton in the left side of the end zone. After stopping the Packers, Tarik Cohen returned a punt 44 yards to the 15. But he stepped out of bounds a yard short on a third-and-5 at the 10 when he easily could have gotten the first down.

That forced the Bears to settle for a field goal by Cody Parkey, making it 24-14 with 6:43 remaining. The Packers then drove to the 9, but on third down, Jackson picked off Rodgers, ending his streak at 402 passes. The throw over the middle was intended for Jimmy Graham near the goal line, but the ball got tipped to Jackson. Mason Crosby kicked a field goal in the closing seconds to make it a seven-point game. But Chicago recovered the onside kick. The Packers are 1-1 since offensive coordinator Joe Philbin replaced fired coach Mike McCarthy on an interim basis. Khalil Mack had 2½ sacks and Leonard Floyd added two. Trubisky was 20 of 28 for 235 yards with a 120.4 rating. Cohen caught a touchdown pass. Jordan Howard ran for a TD, and the Bears improved to 7-1 at home for the first time since 2005. Rodgers said his groin tightened on him at the end of the first half. He finished 29 of 42 for 274 yards with his second interception of the season and failed to throw a touchdown for the first time this year. Davante Adams had eight receptions for 119 yards. The Packers fell to 0-7 on the road with their ninth straight loss away from home, and their eight-game win streak at Soldier Field, counting the postseason, came to an end.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP)—Aaron Rodgers refused to sit this one out, even with the playoffs out of the question. A banged-up Rodgers threw over the New York Jets on Sunday.

The win was the Packers' first on the road this season. Rodgers' first on the road this season was on Sunday, when he led the Packers to a 27-17 victory over the Jets in the season opener. Rodgers' first on the road this season was on Sunday, when he led the Packers to a 27-17 victory over the Jets in the season opener.

And this one was all on Rodgers' shoulders. Adams and Vicki Kuhn, and also on of two scores. The first since the 2016 season. That's despite a groin issue that nagged him last week, and a knee ailment that has bothered him all season. Rodgers was in on being, and believed it proved something.

The Packers battled, erasing a 19-point fourth-quarter deficit and improving to 2-1 under interim coach Joe Philbin, who replaced the fired Mike McCarthy earlier in the season.

The Jets for the Jets (4-11) overstacked a dazzling performance by rookie quarterback Sam Darnold, who threw for a career-high 341 yards — but never got a chance with the ball in overtime. Darnold was 24 of 35 passing with TDs to Robby Anderson, Chris Herndon and Elijah McMillan, who also ran for a score.

The Jets were done by the Packers' defense, which held the Jets to 172 yards. Head coach Todd Bowles was critical of the officiating crew, saying some of the calls against the Jets were questionable.

Over the Packers' on the OT was, and selected to receive Rodgers' look over — as he has so many times throughout the career.

On third-and-10, Rodgers threw a 23-yard pass to Adams, who caught it and ran for a first down. Rodgers' pass was intercepted by Darnold, who threw a 33-yard pass to Adams, who caught it and ran for a first down.

That all came after Rodgers went over a pile and reached past the goal line for a go-ahead 1-yard touchdown with 1:33 left in regulation, giving Green Bay its first lead. Rodgers' initial 2-point conversion was intercepted by Darnold, who threw a 33-yard pass to Adams, who caught it and ran for a first down.

Andre Roberts was the ensuing kicker 51 yards to tie the game. The Jets' defense held the Packers to 172 yards, but Roberts was called for defensive holding. Rodgers then ran it in to make it 38-35, finishing a kickoff 99 yards for the first time in his career. The Jets' defense held the Packers to 172 yards, but Roberts was called for defensive holding.
