TRAINING CAMP PRACTICE BEGINS IN GREEN BAY

After going through testing and a strength and conditioning ramp-up period, the Packers will hold their first practice of the 2020 training camp today. This year's camp is different than any other camp in numerous ways.

- ▶ 2020 marks the 12th summer that Green Bay will practice at Nitschke Field, just a short walk or ride away from the team facility. But due to safety protocols and precautions, the Packers' traditional mode of transportation to and from practice, children's bicycles, will not be happening this year.
- ▶ Due to the fluid situation, practices will be announced as camp proceeds.
- ▶ Also due to safety concerns, Green Bay will not have any fans at training camp and only a limited number of media are allowed at each practice.
- ▶ All media availability will continue to be conducted via Zoom.
- ▶ The NFL has canceled all preseason games. To give the players some experience of playing on Lambeau Field, the Packers are scheduled to practice in the stadium a few times during camp, dates TBD.
- ▶ Green Bay has also announced that it will not have fans at the first two regular-season games at Lambeau Field.

ST. NORBERT AND THE PACKERS

- ▶ This year will also see the end of a streak that started under Packers coach Scooter McLean in 1958. Due to NFL rules, the players will not stay in dorms at St. Norbert College. It brings a pause to a 62-year streak, which was the longest continual use of any training-camp facility by an NFL team.
- ▶ St. Norbert, founded in 1898 by Abbot Bernard Pennings, borders the Fox River, enrolls around 2,000 students, and was a 6.62-mile commute that took an estimated 11 minutes each way.
- ▶ While the Packers used their own practice and team-meeting facilities at Lambeau Field during training camp, the college served as housing headquarters.

FOOTBALL-STAFF CHANGES

Throughout the offseason, the Packers explored various avenues to improve the coaching staff, personnel staff and medical staff, including bringing in new people and also promoting some from the 2019 staff.

► Back in May, Head Coach Matt LaFleur established a minority coaching fellowship, a yearlong, full-time position for young and aspiring minority coaches. The first hire for the fellowship is former NFL wide receiver Ruvell Martin (first name pronounced ROO-vell). Martin, who will work with the offense and assist with the wide receivers during his yearlong fellowship, played in the NFL for seven seasons for the Green Bay Packers (2006-08), St. Louis Rams (2009), Seattle Seahawks (2010) and Buffalo Bills (2011-12). He saw action in 82 regular-season games with nine starts and registered 76 receptions for 1,129 yards (14.9 avg.) and seven touchdowns. Martin also played in two postseason contests with one start for the Seahawks, recording two catches for 28 yards (14.0 avg.). He originally was signed as an undrafted free agent out of Saginaw Valley State in 2004 by the San Diego Chargers.

► Jerry Gray, who is entering his 33rd season in the NFL (nine as a player and 23 as a coach) was added as the defensive backs coach. He joins the Packers after spending the previous six years coaching defensive backs for the Minnesota Vikings, where he tutored All-Pro CB Xavier Rhodes and S Harrison Smith. From 2014-19, Gray's defensive backfield was part of a unit that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in opponent passer rating (84.7, No. 7 in the NFL) and points per game allowed (19.3, No. 2 in the league). They also allowed only 123 passing touchdowns, the third fewest in the NFL since 2014. Gray has contributed to a top-10 scoring defense seven times during his coaching career, including this past season when Minnesota ranked No. 6 in the NFL in points per game allowed (18.9). He was a defensive coordinator twice in the NFL, first with the Buffalo Bills (2001-05) and then the Tennessee Titans (2011-13). Gray also coached defensive backs for the Seattle Seahawks (2010), Washington Redskins (2006-09) and Titans (1999-2000). Prior to coaching, he played cornerback, making four Pro Bowls (1986-89) and earning second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press two times (1986 and 1989).

► Luke Getsy, who coached the quarterbacks in 2019, added passing game coordinator to his duties. He returned to the Packers last season after spending the 2018 season as the offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach for Mississippi State. In 2019, Getsy helped QB Aaron Rodgers earn his eighth career Pro Bowl selection after registering his seventh season with 4,000-plus passing yards, 25-plus passing TDs and 10 or fewer interceptions, the most by an NFL player since 1920, according to pro-football-reference.com. He worked as the wide receivers coach for Green Bay in 2016-17 after originally joining the Packers in 2014 as the offensive quality control coach.

► Jason Vrable was promoted to wide receivers coach. He enters his eighth season as an assistant coach in the NFL and second with the Packers. He joined Green Bay last season as an offensive assistant after working in the same position for the New York Jets in 2017-18. Prior to his time with New York, Vrable spent four seasons with the Buffalo Bills, working as an offensive quality control coach from 2013-15 and then as an assistant quarterbacks coach in 2016. After Week 3 of the 2016 season when Anthony Lynn was promoted to offensive coordinator, Vrable added the duties of interim running backs coach.

► Butch Barry enters his 18th season coaching in college or the NFL and joins the Packers as a senior analyst. In 2019, he served as the offensive line coach at the University of Miami (Fla.). From 2015-18, the Sturgeon Bay, Wis., native was the assistant offensive line coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In three of his four seasons, Tampa Bay finished in the top 10 in total offense, including a No. 3 ranking in 2018 (415.5 yards per game). Prior to his time in Tampa, Barry coached for five seasons at Central Michigan, spending his first four years (2010-13) as the tight ends coach and his final season (2014) as the offensive line coach. It was his second stint as a coach for Central Michigan, having worked as a graduate assistant (2002-03) after playing on the offensive line for the Chippewas.

► Connor Lewis enters his fifth season with Green Bay and was promoted to offensive quality control coach. He originally joined the Packers in 2016 as a football technology analyst intern before being elevated to football technology analyst in 2017. Over the past four seasons, he has assisted the offensive coaching staff in data analysis, playing rules and game management. Prior to joining Green Bay, Lewis was an independent consultant for the Oakland Raiders (2015) and worked in the football analytics and information department for the New York Giants (2014).

► Brandian Ross (first name pronounced Brandon), who spent the last two years as a college scout covering the Midlands region for Green Bay, will now scout the Southwest region. He joined the Packers' personnel department in 2017 as a scouting intern and then was a scouting assistant before being promoted to college scout in May 2018. The former defensive back originally signed with Green Bay as an undrafted free agent in 2011 and spent time on the Packers' practice squad during the 2011-12 seasons. From 2012-15, Ross played in 45 games with 24 starts for the Oakland Raiders, San Diego Chargers and Miami Dolphins.

► Demetri Goodson, was promoted to college scout covering the Midlands region after spending last season as a scouting intern for the Packers. He was originally drafted by Green Bay in the sixth round (No. 197 overall) of the 2014 NFL Draft out of Baylor. In four seasons with the Packers, Goodson played in 26 regular-season games with three starts and appeared in two postseason contests. The former basketball player at Gonzaga (2008-11) also spent some time on the New Orleans Saints' roster in 2018.

► The Packers named Dr. Chris Carr director of performance psychology and team behavioral health clinician. Carr, who has worked as a consultant for the Packers since 2018, joins the team after working as a sports and performance psychologist at St. Vincent Sports Performance in Indianapolis since 2006. During his time at SVSP, Carr coordinated training, supervision, research and applied practice in sport and performance psychology. He also provided individual counseling and consultation services. Carr has worked as a consultant for numerous professional organizations including the Packers, Indiana Pacers (2011-2020), Indiana Fever (2001-13), Oklahoma City Thunder (2008-2011), Kansas City Royals (1999-2005), Columbus Crew (1996-2000), Tasman Motorsports (1996-98) and the Arizona Cardinals (1994-95).

OFFSEASON ADDITIONS

Packers General Manager Brian Gutekunst and his staff made numerous moves to strengthen the roster this offseason including signing:

- ▶ LB Christian Kirksey, who played in 73 games with 54 starts for the Cleveland Browns over six seasons (2014-19) and registered 463 tackles (288 solo), 11½ sacks, two interceptions, 17 passes defended, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. The former three-time defensive captain (2017-19) registered the most solo tackles (171) and the second-most tackles (281) in the NFL from 2016-17 (Seattle LB Bobby Wagner, 300), according to Sportradar. He was the only player in the NFL to rank in the top five in the league in tackles in both 2016 and 2017 (Sportradar).
- ▶ Gutekunst also added to both lines, signing Wisconsin native T Rick Wagner, who appeared in 102 games with 87 starts during his first seven years in the NFL, playing for the Baltimore Ravens for four seasons (2013-16) and the Detroit Lions for three seasons (2017-19), and also DL Treyvon Hester, who played for the Raiders in 2017 (14 games, one start), the Philadelphia Eagles in 2018 (12 games, one start) and the Washington Redskins in 2019 (15 games).
- ▶ The search for talent went north of the border as well, as the Packers signed WR Reggie Begelton, who played for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League for the past three seasons. In 2019, he recorded 102 receptions for 1,444 yards (14.2 avg.) and 10 TDs, ranking in the top five in the CFL in each category.

MEET THE DRAFT PICKS

Training-camp storylines always hover around new players and just how they figure into the depth chart. The Packers added to an already talented roster with a nine-man draft class.

- ▶ QB Jordan Love was selected by the Packers with the 26th overall selection in the first round out of Utah State, a pick obtained from the Miami Dolphins in exchange for Green Bay's first-round pick (No. 30 overall) and its fourth-round selection (No. 136). He finished his career ranked No. 2 in school history in passing yards (8,600), completions (689) and attempts (1,125), tied for No. 2 in TD passes (60) and No. 3 in completion percentage (61.2) despite playing just three seasons. Love also set school career records for total offense (9,003 yards), 300-yard passing games (12) and completions of 80-plus yards (four). The Bakersfield, Calif. native earned honorable mention All-Mountain West recognition as a junior in 2019 after setting a single-season school record with 293 completions and posting 3,402 passing yards, the second most in a season in school history.
- ▶ The Packers selected RB AJ Dillon out of Boston College in the second round (No. 62 overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft. The three-time All-ACC first-team selection finished his career as Boston College's all-time leader in rushing yards (4,238), rushing TDs (38) and all-purpose yards (4,618). Dillon was one of only two FBS players (Wisconsin RB Jonathan Taylor) to finish in the top 15 in the country in rushing yards per game each of the last three seasons (2017-19). He registered 14 career 150-yard rushing games, the most by any ACC player over the last 20 seasons (Lamar Jackson, 13; Dalvin Cook, 12). Despite playing just three seasons, Dillon finished his career ranked No. 4 in ACC history in rushing yards. He posted the fourth-best (1,685 yards in 2019) and the fifth-best (1,589 in 2017) single-season rushing totals in school history.
- ▶ TE Josiah Deguara (duh-gwa-rah) became the highest-drafted player from the University of Cincinnati since Chiefs TE Travis Kelce in 2013 (No. 61 overall) when the Packers selected him in the third round (No. 94 overall). He registered 92 career receptions, the most in school history by a tight end, with 77 of those catches coming in his final two seasons. Deguara posted 1,117 receiving yards, joining Brent Celek (1,135 yards) as the only tight ends in school history to post 1,000-plus receiving yards. He earned first-team All-American Conference honors as a senior and second-team All-AAC accolades as a junior. Deguara led the Bearcats with 39 receptions for 504 yards (12.9 avg.) and seven TDs in 2019. His 504 receiving yards were the second most in a season by a TE in school annals, trailing only Kelce's 722 yards in 2012.

- ▶ In the fifth round (No. 175 overall), the Packers selected LB Kamal (kuh-MALL) Martin out of the University of Minnesota. Dating back to 2000, he is one of only of six Big Ten players to register at least three interceptions (four), three forced fumbles (four), three fumble recoveries (three) and three sacks (3½), according to sports-reference.com. Martin also recorded 177 tackles (106 solo), 13 tackles for a loss and nine passes defended in his career. The former high school quarterback from Burnsville, Minn. was named All-Big Ten honorable mention by the coaches and the media despite missing five games due to injury and won the Gary Tinsley Award as a senior, given to the player who best embraced Tinsley's underdog persona.
- ▶ G Jon Runyan was selected by Green Bay in the sixth round (No. 192 overall) out of the University of Michigan, the first of three offensive linemen drafted by the Packers in the round. He earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from the conference's coaches as both a junior and a senior, also taking home first-team recognition from the media as a senior in 2019. Runyan was a two-time recipient (2018-19) of the Hugh R. Radar Award as the University of Michigan's top offensive lineman and was named to the watch list for the Outland Trophy in 2019. His father, Jon, was an All-Big Ten selection at Michigan in 1995 and went on to play 14 seasons in the NFL as an offensive tackle (1996-2009).
- ▶ C Jake Hanson became the fifth center from the University of Oregon to be picked in the NFL draft when Green Bay selected him in the sixth round (No. 208 overall). He started 49 games at center over four years at Oregon, earning second-team All-Pacific-12 honors from The Associated Press his final two seasons and honorable mention from the conference's coaches all four seasons. As a senior, Hanson started all 12 games and committed just one penalty for a team that ranked No. 16 in the country in scoring offense (35.4 ppg). The California native did not allow a sack over his first three seasons while starting 37 games and playing 2,738 snaps.
- ▶ Rounding out the trio of offensive linemen selected by the Packers in the sixth round was University of Indiana G Simon Stepaniak (step-uh-nack) with the 209th overall pick. He appeared in 41 career games with 31 starts, opening 30 contests at right guard and one at left guard. In 2019, Stepaniak was selected as a team captain and earned third-team All-Big Ten honors from the media in after helping the Hoosiers set a single-season school record with 3,931 passing yards, an average of 302.4 yards per game that ranked No. 15 in the nation. Also in 2019, the Hoosiers posted 5,626 total yards and 413 points, ranking No. 3 in school history in both categories.
- ▶ With the first of two picks in the seventh round, Green Bay selected S Vernon Scott from TCU (No. 236 overall), marking the second consecutive year that the Packers drafted a player from the school in the seventh round (LB Ty Summers, No. 226 overall). Scott saw action in 46 games with 12 starts in four seasons for the Horned Frogs and posted 88 tackles (58 solo), two tackles for a loss, a sack, two interceptions, a fumble recovery, two forced fumbles and 12 passes defended. As a senior in 2019, he started all 10 games he played in and ranked No. 4 on the team with 44 tackles (29 solo) and No. 3 with eight passes defended.
- ▶ Green Bay's final selection in the draft was LB Jonathan Garvin out of the University of Miami (Fla.) in the seventh round (No. 242 overall), a pick obtained from Baltimore in 2018 in exchange for RB Ty Montgomery. Garvin appeared in 38 games with 24 starts at defensive end during his three seasons at Miami, recording 106 tackles (46 solo), 29 tackles for a loss, 12½ sacks, four fumble recoveries, four forced fumbles and five passes defended. He played in 12 games with 11 starts as a junior in 2019 and posted 37 tackles (21 solo), nine tackles for a loss, five sacks and two forced fumbles.

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The Green Bay Packers' 2020 NFL regular-season schedule is highlighted by five prime-time contests (subject to flexible scheduling) on the original schedule for the seventh straight year (2014-20).

- ▶ The Packers will open the season at the Minnesota Vikings for the first time in team history, marking the third straight year that Green Bay will face a divisional foe in Week 1, which last happened in 1996-98 when the Packers were in the NFC Central. The last time the two teams met in Week 1 was in 2008 on Monday Night Football at Lambeau Field.
- ▶ For the third consecutive year, Green Bay will open the season with two NFC North games as they host the Detroit Lions in Week 2. It is the earliest the Lions have visited Green Bay since 2003 (Week 2).
- ▶ In Week 3, Green Bay travels to New Orleans to face the Saints in a Sunday night contest, marking the third straight prime-time meeting at the Saints (2008 on MNF, 2014 on SNF). The winning team has scored 34-plus points in seven of the last nine matchups.
- ▶ The Packers will have another night game in Week 4, this time against the Atlanta Falcons, marking the second time in three years (2018) that Green Bay has a MNF contest going into its bye.
- ▶ After the third Week 5 bye (1995, 2009) for the Packers, they will play their only set of back-to-back road games, the fewest in a season for Green Bay since 2013 (zero).
- ▶ The Packers make their first trip to Tampa since a 20-3 win in 2014 to take on the Buccaneers in Week 6 and then head to Houston to face the Texans in Week 7. It is the fifth matchup between the Packers and Texans, with Green Bay holding a 3-1 lead, including a 2-0 mark in Houston.
- ▶ Green Bay returns home and to an NFC North opponent in Week 8 when it hosts the Vikings, marking the first time since 2009 that Minnesota and Green Bay will square off twice by Week 8.
- ▶ The Packers then face a long trip on a short turnaround, traveling west to take on the San Francisco 49ers on a Thursday night in Week 9. It is the first-ever Thursday meeting between the teams.
- ▶ The Packers next take on two AFC South teams, hosting the Jacksonville Jaguars in Week 10 and visiting the Indianapolis Colts in Week 11. The Packers are 4-2 all-time against the Jaguars, including wins in both of the last two matchups (2012 in Green Bay and 2016 in Jacksonville), while Green Bay is looking for its first regular-season win in Indianapolis, having lost the previous four games at the Colts.
- ▶ Green Bay will then return to Lambeau Field, finishing the regular season with four of its last six games at home for the first time since 1977.
- ▶ The matchup against Chicago in Week 12 on a Sunday night at Lambeau Field marks the 15th consecutive regular season that the Packers and Bears have squared off in primetime. It also will be the third and final home game in November, the most for Green Bay in the month of November since 2014.
- ▶ The Packers stay at home to face the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 13. It is the Eagles' first visit to Lambeau Field in the month of December. In the last six meetings in Green Bay, four have been decided by seven points or less.
- ▶ In Week 14, Green Bay goes to Detroit to face the Lions. The Packers swept the season series last season for the ninth time in the last 16 years.

- ▶ Week 15 brings a game against the Carolina Panthers that will take place on either Saturday or Sunday. The date and time will be determined at least four weeks in advance of the game. Five of the last six matchups between the teams have been decided by eight points or less, including a 24-16 victory by Green Bay last season at Lambeau Field. The Packers have a 5-2 mark at home vs. Carolina, scoring 30-plus points in five of those games.
- ▶ Green Bay's last regular-season home game is slated for a Sunday night versus the Tennessee Titans in Week 16, the second-ever prime-time game against the Titans (MNF in 2004). It is one of two prime-time contests in 2020 for Green Bay against teams that played in the conference championship games last season (San Francisco).
- ▶ For the fourth time in the last five years, Green Bay will end the regular season on the road, traveling to Chicago to take on the Bears. It is the first time since 2013 that the Packers will close out the regular season at Chicago and marks only the second regular-season meeting between the teams at Soldier Field in the month of January (2004 season).

2020 OPPONENTS

The Packers' 2020 schedule includes seven games against teams that made the playoffs and finished the regular season with a winning record in 2019, including five games versus teams who registered 10-plus wins.

- ▶ During training camp, “Twitter/blogging” is allowed during practices, but the Packers would ask that members of the media utilizing the technology adhere to a few simple guidelines. Please note that this policy is for training-camp practices only and does change during the regular season.
- ▶ NO entries about specific schemes, personnel groupings or anything that might be related in any way to game planning. If you have ANY questions about this, please ask a member of the Packers’ communications staff before posting.
- ▶ NO entries regarding “football communications,” including specific exchanges between coaches and players that might be overheard. Acknowledgement that the conversation occurred is acceptable, but we ask that the details of the conversation be withheld.
- ▶ NO detailed speculation as to the potential nature or severity of an injury until Head Coach Matt LaFleur has addressed it following practice. Once again, acknowledging that an injury occurred and providing general details (i.e., ‘Right leg...’ or ‘Left wrist...’) is permitted, but anything beyond that would be purely speculative and possibly inaccurate.
- ▶ The team would like to continue to keep training-camp practices open to those wishing to utilize blogs and/or Twitter, but such a policy is contingent upon media adhering to the guidelines above. If there are ANY questions regarding what is or is not acceptable, please contact a member of the Packers’ communications department.

PRIVATE TEAM COMMUNICATION

- ▶ The Packers ask all media, print and electronic, to refrain from reporting or recording any team communication meant solely for the team.
- ▶ This includes the post-practice team huddle, in which LaFleur addresses his players. It also includes mid-practice and/or post-practice communication between any coach and his players, especially conversations of a reprimanding, negative nature.
- ▶ In general, reporting that the conversation took place is acceptable, just not the details of those conversations. Details are not to be relayed to the public either directly (through firsthand hearing), or indirectly (through interviews, even if the subject answers the question).
- ▶ If media has any question as to whether communication should be kept private, please contact the communications department before writing or airing such conversations.

INJURY-FOOTAGE POLICY

- ▶ Again this season, the Packers respectfully ask all photographers (video and still) to follow guidelines related to shooting injured players.
- ▶ Photographers are asked to avoid filming, photographing, printing and/or airing any shots of any injury situation, while the injury occurs, while trainers attend to/treat the injured player, and while the player is leaving the field, either on his own or with aid. This includes minor injuries.
- ▶ The team will allow shots of players after they’ve been treated. For instance, cameras are allowed to shoot a player on the sideline with ice on his knee, after trainers have left.
- ▶ However, cameras are not allowed to film a player on crutches, either on the field or in the locker room.
- ▶ If outlets choose not to respect this policy — or any other policy — the team will have no choice but to consider limiting access to the field.

ONLINE-CONTENT POLICY

- ▶ According to the 2020 NFL non-game online-content policy, accredited organizations may distribute online non-game audio and video content, including press conferences, training camp, practice and/or interviews at NFL venues or events, acquired as a result of credentialed access (“Game Information”) to games or club/league facilities provided that such distribution: is 90 seconds maximum per day (180 seconds in two-team markets – 90 seconds per team) which includes postings on the accredited organization’s or credential bearer’s social-media accounts; is not posted or streamed live or in real time in any form or media; may not be “archived” (i.e., made available for on-demand public access) for more than 24 hours after posting; appears in an editorial context only (no sponsorship, merchandising or advertising integrated with or around the content including digital advertising); and is accompanied by links back to NFL.com and to the club website.
- ▶ The 90-second limit does not include video/audio material that is composed entirely of a credentialed media employee providing commentary or analysis (“talking head” reporting), including pregame or postgame stand-up material shot on the field or at another facility location.
- ▶ While a game is in progress, any forms of accounts of the game must be sufficiently time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., score updates with detail given only in quarterly game updates, fewer than 10 photographs during the game) so that the accredited organization’s game coverage cannot be used as a substitute for, or otherwise approximate, authorized play-by-play accounts.
- ▶ The Packers have their own social-media and online-content policies for practice reporting, which will be communicated by the communications staff for both training camp and the regular season. Members of the media are encouraged to contact the communications staff with any questions.

INJURY INFORMATION

- ▶ All injury information will be issued by Head Coach Matt LaFleur. Please do not address injury questions to another coach or staff member.
