Knights Fans,

What a pleasure it is to welcome you to the nationally-renowned Truist Field – home of the Charlotte Knights – the Triple-A affiliate of the Chicago White Sox.

We've all been through a lot in the past 14 months, but we're excited to have our Charlotte Knights back to open their season. This winter, the Knights extended their affiliation with the Chicago White Sox through 2030 and became members of the new Triple-A East League which has 20 teams in the East and Midwest. With familiar opponents like Durham, Gwinnett, and Norfolk, and new ones in Jacksonville, Memphis, and Nashville we're excited to see our team compete for the Southeast Division title of the new league.

In all, the Knights are slated to play a 120-game schedule – 60 of them here at Truist Field. Our staff has planned several engaging promotions for the season ahead. Friday Night Fireworks, Thirsty Thursday, Bark in the Ballpark, and many other new and traditional events are planned for this spring and summer. To go along with the great baseball and entertainment, you can enjoy your favorite ballpark food and drinks along with some delicious new items.

Thank you for attending today and for your tremendous support throughout this past year. We truly appreciate it and look forward to sharing Knights Baseball with you once again. Go Knights!

Sincerely,

Don Beaver

BRIAN CHRISTOPHER GOODWIN

Charlotte Knights - Outfielder

FIRST PITCH GAME PROGRAM: MAJOR LEAGUE KNIGHTS

Brian Goodwin knows how to make a first impression.

The veteran outfielder made his White Sox debut in a 15-2 rout of the Tigers on June 12 and, batting second in the lineup, doubled in a run in the first inning and hit a three-run homer in the second against Tigers right-hander Jose Urena.

Goodwin became the third Sox player to reach base three or more times and drive in four runs in his first game with the team. The other two are George Metkovich in 1949 and Al Zarilla in 1951. Goodwin collected his fifth RBI on a groundout in the eighth inning.

"It felt good, first game give the fans and teammates something to see," said Goodwin, 30, a .250/.317/.455 career hitter in five seasons with four teams. He was released by the Pirates on May 3.

ROAD TRIP REPORT

CATCHING UP WITH THE KNIGHTS

PRESENTED BY

WRITTEN BY: TOMMY VIOLA

Your Charlotte Knights are back home this week to open a six-game series against the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp (Triple-A affiliate of the Miami Marlins) at Truist Field from Tuesday, June 15th to Sunday, June 20th.

The team returns home to the Queen City after wrapping up a six-game road trip against the Durham Bulls (Triple-A affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays) from Durham Bulls Athletic Park.

WINS IN TWO OF FINAL THREE GAMES

The Knights went 2-4 in the series, but closed out the series on a high note winning two of the final three games. After dropping the first three games of the series, the Knights won Friday's game by a score of 5-4 and Sunday's game by a score of 1-0. The impressive pitching performances on Friday and Sunday were keys to Charlotte's victories on the road trip...

THE WRIGHT STUFF

by TOMMY VIOLA

Not only is Mike Wright back in the states after a memorable 2020 season pitching in Korea, but he's back near his hometown. And, to top it all off, he's shining on the mound.

The start of the 2021 campaign has been terrific for Wright, who grew up in Scotland County, NC, about two hours from Charlotte. Through his first six starts of the season, the North Carolina native has been one of the top pitchers in Triple-A this year. And, he has come up big when his team has needed a victory.

Last season, Wright helped guide the NC Dinos of the Korean Baseball Organization (KBO) to the franchise's first Championship...
