WELCOME HOME!

We'd like to welcome everyone back to the ballpark for what we hope is a very special summer here at the Jersey Shore. As we open the 2021 season, we are grateful to everyone that supported the BlueClaws over the 614 days we've gone since our last home game. It's been awhile, but we are thrilled to be back!

The last year has brought some major changes to the BlueClaws organization, all for the better. Of course, as you've heard, we've re-branded to the Jersey Shore BlueClaws. For the last two decades, the BlueClaws have been a top regional attraction, drawing fans from all across the Jersey Shore. We are pleased to recognize that support, and honored to usher in this new era of BlueClaws baseball!

Additionally, throughout the summer, we will celebrate 20 seasons here at the Shore. It's been a magical ride, with 7.7 million of you having joined us along the way. Here's to the next two decades!

This season also marks our first as a High-A affiliate. We are grateful to our long-time partners, the Phillies, for entrusting us with the next generation of big league players. We know that you'll be excited to watch the highest level of baseball we've been able to showcase here at the Jersey Shore.

Lastly, we are thankful for our partners at RWJBarnabas Health, for their doctors, nurses, and support staff, and first responders everywhere, for the dedication and heroism they've shown in leading us through the last 14 months. Without them, we might not be here tonight, ready to safely enjoy a ballgame with friends and family.

It's time to play ball!
Welcome home.

Yours In Fun,

JERSEY SHORE SAFE

MASK POLICY

Per updated CDC and New Jersey guidance, masks are no longer required in outdoor spaces at FirstEnergy Park. They are, however, required in the team store.

BAG POLICY

Bags are not permitted inside the ballpark. The only exceptions are soft sided clutches/purses/wallets under 4" x 7" and medical or childcare bags under 12" x 16" x 6".

SIGNAGE AND MESSAGING

Fans will be reminded to stay at least 6-feet from others not in their party or those seated at different pods within the ballpark.

ENTRANCE PROCEDURES

Gates will now open 95 minutes prior to first pitch (for example, 5:30 pm for a 7:05 pm game) to help spread out entry times. Ticket takers will wear masks and gloves and sit behind plexiglass. Fans will line up in a social-distanced manner along the plazas. Ticket holders with Early Entrance will enter through the First Base Gate only beginning 2 hours and 5 minutes before the game (5:00 for a 7:05 pm game)..

JERSEY SHORE SAFE

MOBILE TICKETING

Fans are encouraged to utilize the mobile ticketing options provided by our ticketing partner, TicketReturn. Fans can access their tickets via email or their TicketReturn account, or safely email or text tickets to others as needed.

MOBILE CONCESSIONS

The BlueClaws will provide mobile concession ordering for fans for the first time this year. Fans will be instructed to access a QR code in the park, or visit a page on BlueClaws.com that will enable them to order food and drink through their phone. Three pickup locations will be available inside the ballpark.

GENERAL PROCEDURES

Members of the BlueClaws Clean Team will roam the ballpark to sanitize areas throughout the game. After each game, the stadium will undergo a significant clean with state-of-the-art cleaning supplies. Fans can be confident that each time they enter the ballpark, they will be stepping into a freshly sanitized facility.

HAND SANITIZING STATIONS

Hand sanitizing stations will be set-up throughout the concourse as well as the Luxury Suite Level for fans to use as needed throughout the game. Fans will be encouraged through in-park messaging such as signage and PA-reads to wash their hands frequently throughout their time inside the ballpark.

FOOD & BEVERAGE FOOTPRINT

The BlueClaws are blessed with an expansive facility with a 360-degree concourse. As such, we will be utilizing the space that we have to best serve the variety of food and drink options available to fans and thus limiting lines at the concession stands in the process.

FOOD VENDORS

In addition to mobile ordering detailed above, fans will have the opportunity to order from masked vendors who will roam the seating bowl and the ballpark with food and drink options for fans, once again limiting the need for fans to move about the ballpark in order to obtain food and drink.

RESTROOMS

The BlueClaws have four Men's Rooms, four Women's Rooms, and two Family Restrooms on the concourse level. Each will be sanitized throughout each game. Additionally, every-other urinal will be blocked off to further encourage social distancing within each restroom.

ADDITIONAL AREAS

Other areas throughout the ballpark such as the Jersey Shore BlueClaws Team Store will be sanitized throughout the game. Game pieces from the Boardwalk area (such as rings from Ring Toss or darts from Balloon Darts) and Mini Golf Course (clubs and balls) will be sanitized thoroughly between uses. Staff members will be wearing masks and gloves as well.

SAFETY IS OUR PRIORITY!

The BlueClaws are greatly appreciative of everyone's cooperation as we work together to provide a safe environment to enjoy Jersey Shore BlueClaws baseball!

HOMERUN TASTE

NOTE #1 – GOING, GOING, GONE

The BlueClaws had hit four home runs in a game seven times between 2012 and 2019, but all seven games occurred on the road – five in homer-happy Greensboro. Then, the June 4th weekend arrived. The BlueClaws hit four home runs on Friday, June 4th and five on Sunday, June 6th.

The five home runs in the June 6th series finale against Brooklyn – by Jose Tortolero, Hunter Hearn, Jhailyn Ortiz, Logan O'Hoppe, and Nate Fassnacht – tied a franchise record set twice previously, both times on the road and most recently 2014 in Asheville. The BlueClaws have already hit 19 home runs at FirstEnergy Park, only 10 fewer than they hit in all of 2019.

NOTE #2 – JUMPING JHAILYN

Jhailyn Ortiz entered the season with 48 career minor league home runs, but did not hit one over the first 20 games of the season. Since May 27th, however, the slugger from the Dominican Republic has smashed five, including a mammoth blast on June 4th that went a Trackman-estimated 460 feet. Ortiz went 15-42 from May 25th through June 8th.

NOTE #3 - ADAM RECORDS FIRST WIN

Congratulations to BlueClaws RHP Mike Adams, who earned his first win on June 5th. The right-hander from Holy Spirit High School in Absecon threw a scoreless ninth before the BlueClaws rallied for three runs in the bottom of the ninth inning. Adams went to Wagner then pitched for the Rockland Boulders in 2016. After working at Baseball Performance Center in Pleasantville and as a part-time scout for the Brewers, he hit 98 mph in a workout and signed with the Phillies in January.

SHINING WITH THE BLUECLAWS

Noah Skirrow's phone rang at 8:58 am, two minutes before the Major League Baseball kickoff period for teams to speak to undrafted free agents last June.

"My clock says 9:00 am, we're good to go," he heard on the other end of the line. It was the Phillies and they were ready to talk.

The MLB Draft was a lot different last year. Sliced to just five rounds because of the pandemic, hundreds of quality players were left undrafted, seeking employment with one of the 30 Major League clubs. Noah Skirrow, from Liberty University, was one of those players.

While disappointed not to be drafted, it was still an opportunity for Skirrow to sit down, work through the process, and pick the spot where he could develop best as opposed to being told where he was going based on the team that picked him.

"My phone died three times. It was chaos, teams calling to check in every hour to see where I'm at and who I wanted to talk to and trying to make a decision."

He heard presentations from various clubs, and began to narrow down his options.

"A big thing for me was the ability to start and continue as a starter. I didn't want to go somewhere and get thrown into the pen right away. I just kind of looked at the track record of the organization, where they're at from a pitching prospect standpoint, the depth of the organization, and had some conversations with people in the organization."

SKIRROW'S PHONE RANG.

IT WAS JOE GIRARDI.

"I was kind of shocked that he called in the first place and knew my name and everything about me," Skirrow said. "I remember that he said he hoped I'd sign with the Phillies and one day he'd be able to have me on his club. I didn't expect anything like that but it was definitely a nice gesture."

Skirrow gave up just two earned runs in 15.1 innings with Jersey Shore over his first five games, striking out 22 hitters and walking just seven. On two different occasions, he's thrown four scoreless innings allowing one or no hits.

It's been a long and adventurous year for Skirrow, who found out his collegiate season at Liberty was stopped at a rest stop heading from West Virginia to Ohio State. Now, the bus rides are a bit shorter in High-A East, but the stakes are higher. The Canadian is working his way towards the big leagues.

As the process was playing out, Skirrow's phone rang with a Philadelphia number. It was Joe Girardi.

MEET THE NEW HIGH-A EASTERN LEAGUE

20TH ANNIVERSARY FEATURE OPENING NIGHT 2001

April 11, 2001 was a day that will live in Jersey Shore history - the day of the first BlueClaws home game. This year, the BlueClaws will celebrate their 20th anniversary season, but it really all traces to April 11th and what turned into a rain-shortened game against the Hickory Crawdads (Pirates).

Parking lots opened at 4:30 and on-field festivities began at 5:30 pm. Included were remarks from State Senator Robert Singer and Ray Coles from the Lakewood Development Corporation (presently the Mayor of Lakewood). Included in the pre-game festivities was the "Ceremonial First Pour" from the Coors Light RAT Trap in centerfield with representatives of Shore Point Distributing and 95.9 WRAT.

In the photo above, BlueClaws manager Greg Legg shakes hands with Crawdads manager Pete Macakanin. The two would later be re-united within in the Phillies organization. "I've seen him over the years as you run across people in baseball," said Mackanin said of Legg. "Certainly every time I do see him I bring up that picture."

Mackanin recalled coming into Lakewood with the Crawdads to open the Jersey Shore's new ballpark. "I remember seeing a beautiful minor league facility. It was really fun to have a game there. It was beautiful. One thing that was lacking was a urinal in the visitor's dugout. If someone had to go to the bathroom they had to go through the stands to get to the clubhouse [the tunnel was not ready for the first homestand]. You always look forward to playing somewhere you've never been before. It's fun to see something like Lakewood."

Tina Kaye sang the National Anthem at 6:24 pm with both teams lined up on the baselines behind her. Doves were released and there was a scheduled flyover from the New Jersey Air Guard from McGuire Air Force Base.

Just after 6:35 pm, Ryan Carter, a left-hander from UCLA, threw the first pitch in GPU Energy Park (later FirstEnergy Park) history.

Geoff Brown was the BlueClaws General Manager from November of 1999 through January of 2013 and in a summer interview recalled the build-up to Opening Night and the various ups and downs leading into the big day.

“A month or so out, we realized in the concessions stands there weren’t any pass through windows. You have your prep area in the back and the service area in the front but there was only one door. There were supposed to be three or four pass through windows so we had to go back in and knock holes in the walls,” he said.

“I remember the night before, late, we were putting together those standing tables in the picnic area. They had just arrived and we were putting those together around midnight,” he said. “The other thing I remember, and I recommended this because it went so well, we did a stadium flush. We brought in the morning DJ of 94.3 the Point and he came in with a bunch of listeners. We had a listener at every single toilet and flush at the same time. We wanted to make sure the plumbing would work with a full ballpark. I don’t know what would have happened if it didn’t!”

Members of the press as well as the ballpark construction team recalled the first game as well.

Kevin Williams, WOBM / Townsquare Media - “Anyone who was anyone at the jersey Shore was there that night. Every elected official, it was really a big deal. You would have hoped for a nicer night but you know what the weather could be like. If it wasn’t the home opener, it never would have been played...I had four tickets behind home plate in the first row. My kids were young at the time and they were all pepped up to go to the BlueClaws. My daughter, who was 10, she would come and sit, ask me for money and I’d see herein the seventh inning. I’d like to think that for a lot of those special moments, especially in the early years, I was there.” (You can listen to our interview with Kevin here.)

Dan Cichalski, Asbury Park Press - “I know it was a crowded press box. In addition to me, we had a columnist or two and a news reporter. I don’t know how early I got there but it must have been so early. You never would have expected a crowd like that for 50 degrees and drizzly. But 7,500 people weren’t going to let the people miss the first game in BlueClaws history.” Thomas DeBartolo, Monmouth Ocean County Building Trades - “We all went to the game, seeing the first game there. My family came and pointed out all the stuff that we worked on and had done. Normally you build a building and walk away from it and never go back. Every time I go back, I tell my wife ad nauseum that I put that up and I hung that. You keep coming back to the facility and seeing the stuff I worked on brings back good memories...I have fond memories of the job because we had good guys working on it. It went very smoothly. I thought at the time it was a little crazy to put a baseball stadium in Lakewood, and didn’t think it would catch on. But they’re always doing something over there. On my end, I’m very proud that I worked on the job and enjoy going back every year.”

Bill Morros, Epic Management - “I remember roaming around and hanging out with Ray Coles and working our way through the luxury boxes and drinking a beer at every stop! I was lucky that the project got assigned to me. I’m a big baseball fan and it was satisfying to be able to be involved working on something that you enjoy watching as a fan.” ♦
