SEASON REVIEW

POSTSEASON BOUND

The Rays clinched the AL East title for the first time in 10 years and third time in club history (2010, 2008)...the Rays made the postseason for a second straight season and sixth time in club history...this is the second time the Rays made the postseason in back-to-back seasons (2010-11).

- ◆ The Rays clinched a postseason spot on Sep 17, won the AL East on Sep 23 and secured the No. 1 seed on Sep 26...this is the second time in club history the Rays finished with the best record in the AL, following 2010 (96-66)...the Rays ended the season having held sole possession of the AL's No. 1 seed for 10 consecutive days and for 22 of 29 days beginning on Aug 30.
- ◆ The Rays have reached the postseason six times since 2008, an achievement topped by only three clubs—the Dodgers (10), Yankees (9) and Cardinals (8)—and matched by four others (Athletics, Braves, Cubs, Red Sox)...the Rays are seeking their sixth trip to the Division Series since 2008, a feat matched by only the Dodgers (seeking a 10th), Cardinals (seeking eighth), Yankees (seeking eighth) and Red Sox (6).
- ◆ The Rays and Diamondbacks are the majors' youngest franchises, joining the league in 1998, and each have been to the postseason six times in their first 23 seasons (26.1 pct.)...only the Yankees, who have gone in 56 of 118 seasons (47.5 pct.), have reached the postseason at a higher rate...the only franchise with more postseason appearances in their first 23 seasons of existence was the Royals (7)...the Rays and Diamondbacks have matched or exceeded the number of postseason appearances of five older franchises: the Nationals/Expos (six in 52 seasons), Padres (six in 52), Rockies (five in 28), Mariners (four in 44) and Marlins (three in 28).

HOW THEY GOT HERE

The Rays went 40-20 (.667), finishing the season with the best winning pct. in club history, ahead of their 97-65 (.599) mark in 2008...albeit in a shortened season, the Rays won two-thirds of their games—a benchmark reached by only seven other teams in the last 50 seasons: 2020 Dodgers (.717), 2018 Red Sox (.667), 2001 Mariners (.716), 1998 Yankees (.704), 1995 Indians (.694), 1986 Mets (.667) and 1975 Reds (.667)...five of the past six reached the World Series, and four of those six won it.

- ◆ Over the past 10 full-length seasons (2010-19), seven teams won at least 40 of their first 60 games as the Rays (and Dodgers) just did...all seven of them finished with at least 100 wins and three of them won the World Series: 2018 Red Sox, 2017 Astros and 2016 Cubs.
- ◆ The Rays won their last 4 games, went 9-2 in their last 11 games and 12-4 in their last 16 games to finish the season at a season-high 20 games over .500...the Rays went 21-9 in their last 30 games, 28-11 in their last 39 games and 34-12 in their last 46 games after a 6-8 start.
- ◆ The Rays went 21-9 (.700) against teams that finished .500 or better, best in the majors.
- ◆ The Rays only lost once in their last 16 series (11-1-4) beginning on Aug 4...the Rays only had two losing streaks all season: July 29–Aug 2 (5) and Sep 7-10 (3)...aside from that, they didn't lose back-to-back games on any other occasion.
- ◆ The Rays trailed in 40 of their 60 games but had 20 come-from-behind wins, most in the AL and 2nd in the majors behind the Padres (22).

BEASTS OF THE EAST

The Rays won the AL East by 7 games over the Yankees, matching the Athletics for the largest cushion for a division winner in 2020...prior to this season, the largest divisional lead in franchise history was 6 games through May 23, 2010.

- ◆ The Rays went 27-13 (.675) against the AL East, the best intradivision winning pct. in club history...the Rays won the season series against all four AL East teams for the second time (2010).
- ◆ The Rays were a season-high 4.5 GB of the Yankees through Aug 5, but after that the Rays went 35-13 and the Yankees went 24-25.
- ◆ The Rays claimed sole possession of first place in the AL East on Aug 22 and ended the season on a run of 37 consecutive days alone in first.

ABOUT THE OFFENSE

The Rays averaged 4.82 R/G, their highest since 2010 (4.95)...they finished among AL leaders with 197 XBH (2nd), 105 2B (2nd), 12 3B (tied for 1st), 243 BB (2nd) and 48 SB (4th)...the Rays led the AL in runs as late as the end of play on Sep 2.

- From Aug 12 through season's end, the Rays ranked 3rd in the AL with 66 HR behind the White Sox (73) and Blue Jays (72)—they were tied for 25th in the majors and ranked 13th in the AL with 14 HR through Aug 11...the Rays hit multiple homers in 22 of their last 42 games, after doing it only twice in their first 18 games.
- The Rays had 18 different players with a homer, most in the majors...the Rays were held without a homer 19 times but went 14-5 (.737) in those games, the highest winning pct. since the 1906 Cubs went 99-34 (.744) in homerless games... their 14 wins without the benefit of a homer were the most in the majors, ahead of the Indians (11) and Nationals (11).
- The Rays offense struck out a major-league-most 608 times, ahead of the Brewers (582)... this included double-digit strikeouts in seven consecutive games to end the season and 18 of their last 25 games beginning on Aug 31.
- The Rays were successful on 84.2 pct. of their stolen base attempts, 4th in the majors and a club record over 2010 (.785)...from Aug 23 through the end of the season, the Rays led the majors with 38 SB, ahead of the Royals (31), and were caught only six times over that stretch.
- The Rays were one of three teams (Brewers, Reds) without a sacrifice bunt...prior to 2020, no team ever went all season without one.
- The Rays hit .244 (117-for-480) with RISP, 8th-lowest in the majors, and an AL-low .207 (52-for-251) from Aug 24 through season's end.
- The Rays used 59 different batting orders in 60 games, and the only one they used twice had two players at different defensive positions.
- On Sep 11 vs. BOS, the Rays were the first team in modern baseball history (since 1900) to start nine left-handed batters, according to the Elias Sports Bureau...the official Rays lineup card from that game was donated to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y.

PITCHING PROPERLY

The Rays ranked 3rd in the majors with a 3.56 ERA behind the Dodgers (3.02) and Indians (3.29)... this was the second consecutive season the Rays finished among the majors' top three in ERA, and fourth straight season they finished among the top ten...beginning on Aug 18, the Rays lowered their season ERA from 4.28 to 3.56, improving their major league rank from 16th to 3rd in the process.

- No Rays pitcher qualified for the ERA leaderboard...Tyler Glasnow led the club with 57.1 IP... the Rays, Braves and Dodgers all won their divisions without a qualifying pitcher...prior to this season, the only teams in major league history to win a division without a qualifying pitcher were the 2018 Dodgers (won NL pennant) and 2017 Astros (won World Series).
- The Rays ranked 7th in the majors and 3rd in the AL in starter ERA (3.77)...they ranked 3rd in the majors in bullpen ERA (3.37) behind the Athletics (2.72) and Dodgers (2.74)...the Rays bullpen ranked 3rd in the majors with 269.2 IP.
- Rays starters completed 6 IP only nine times, tied with the Tigers and Red Sox—two teams that finished 23-35 and 24-36, respectively—for fewest in the majors.
- The Rays used 12 starting pitchers, tied for 4th in the majors behind the Red Sox (16), Braves (14) and Marlins (13)...this tied 2018 for the most in franchise history through 60 games.
- The Rays used an opener to start seven times, including four times in the last 13 games, and went 6-1 (.857) when doing so...including post-season, since the debut of the opener on May 19, 2018 at LAA, the Rays have used one 106 times and have gone 65-41 (.613) in those games.
- On July 27 vs. ATL, Rays pitchers recorded 19 SO, setting a franchise record for a 9-inning game...the Rays finished one shy of tying the major league record for a 9-inning game.

SAVE SAVVY

The Rays had 12 pitchers with a save, tying the major league record set by the 1973 Rangers... saves became an official stat in 1969, but even when retroactively applied the only other teams to have 12 pitchers with one were the 1961 A's and 1959 A's...the Rays had a 12th pitcher record a save in their 53rd game, while the 1973 Rangers had their 12th pitcher get one in their 148th game.

- The 1973 Rangers went 57-105 (.352) in their second year in Arlington, moving after 11 seasons as the Washington Senators (1961-71)...they used 12 pitchers to record 27 saves, and were credited a save in 16.7 pct. of their games...the 2020 Rays used 12 pitchers to record 23 saves and had one in 38.3 pct. of their games.

CLOSE SHAVES

The Rays played 33 games decided by 2 runs (or fewer), tied with the Astros and Blue Jays for most

KING OF THE ROAD

The Rays went 20-11 (.645) on the road, best in the AL and 2nd in the majors behind the Dodgers (22-8)...their 47 HR on the road ranked 4th in the majors and 2nd in the AL...the Rays went 0-5 on their first trip to Atlanta (0-2) and Baltimore (0-3) but after that were 20-6 (.769) on the road, best in the majors from Aug 10 through season's end.

- ♦ After being swept by the Orioles, the Rays went 15-3 (.833) against the AL East on the road.
- ♦ The Rays went 9-3 in the state of New York this season, going 5-1 at Yankee Stadium, 2-1 at Sahlen Field and 2-1 at Citi Field.
- ♦ The Rays went 9-1 from Aug 10-20 on their season-high 10-game road trip to Boston (4-0), Buffalo (2-1) and New York (3-0)...the 9-1 road trip tied April 12-22, 2010 at BAL/BOS/CWS for the best 3-city trip in franchise history... according to Stats LLC, the Rays became the fifth team in major league history to sweep series of 3 games (or more) at both Fenway Park and Yankee Stadium on the same road trip, joining the 1990 Athletics, 1971 Athletics, 1965 Orioles and 1953 White Sox.
- ♦ The Rays swept the Red Sox from Aug 10-13, outscoring them, 42-22...in the sweep, the Rays set single-series franchise records with 42 runs, 59 hits and 24 XBH...the 42 runs tied the 1978 Yankees for the most by a visiting team in a 4-game series at Fenway Park.
- ♦ Over the last two seasons, the Rays are 68-44 (.607) on the road, 3rd in the majors over that stretch behind the Dodgers and Twins.

DOMESWEET DOME

The Rays went 20-9 (.690) at home, 5th in the majors...they won in walk-off fashion four times, tied for 2nd in the majors behind the Athletics (6)... the Rays went 6-0-4 in home series and are 11-0-4 in home series dating back to Aug 30, 2019.

- ♦ The Rays are 35-11 (.761) in their last 46 home games since Aug 21, 2019, the best home winning pct. in the majors over that stretch.

- ♦ The Rays haven't lost back-to-back home games since Aug 19-20, 2019 vs. SEA.

NO EXCUSES

Excluding the COVID-19 Related IL, 15 different players totaled 16 stints on the injured list...this included three from their season-opening starting rotation (Chirinos, Morton, Yarbrough), seven of their planned Opening Day bullpen (Alvarado, Anderson, Beeks, Drake, Kittredge, Poche, Roe) and four starting position players (Choi, Diaz, Meadows, Zunino)...the Rays injured list peaked at 13 players on Sep 1 at NYY, tying the single-game club record...from Aug 9-Sep 1, their injured list grew from four to 13 players—and they went a major-league-best 18-4 (.818) over that stretch.

SHORTENED SEASONS

As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, first pitch on Opening Day (July 24 vs. TOR) came 134 days, 2 hours and 7 minutes after the final out was recorded in the club's last game against an opponent (Grapefruit League game on March 12 vs. PHI)...their Opening Day took place 288 days after their 2019 season ended in the Division Series.

- ♦ Major League Baseball announced an abbreviated 60-game format for the 2020 season on June 23 and released the modified schedule on July 6...MLB designed the 2020 schedule to include 40 games within the division and 20 interleague games against the corresponding geographical division.
- ♦ Major League Baseball officially opened the season on July 23, ending a stretch of 266 days without a regular season or postseason game... this was the longest drought in major league history, according to Stats LLC, passing the 256 days between games in 1994-95 (players' strike).
- ♦ In modern baseball history (since 1901), there have been six other seasons shortened for a variety of reasons...these came in 1918 (World War I), 1919 (World War I, Spanish Flu), 1972 (players' strike), 1981 (players' strike), 1994 (players' strike) and 1995 (players' strike).

2020 SEASON

- ◆ Has been sidelined since Sep 13 with a left hamstring strain...was eligible to be reinstated from the injured list on Sep 23.
- ◆ Began the season as a switch-hitter but last batted right-handed on Aug 14 at TOR, then abandoned the switch-hitting experiment.
- ◆ Hit .300/.404/.500 (12-for-40) with 5 2B, 1 HR and 6 RBI in his last 13 games (11 starts).
- ◆ Went 5-for-7 with 2 2B, 2 HR and 4 RBI against Gerrit Cole...both his homers as a left-handed batter came off Cole, and was the only player in the majors to homer off him twice...has 3 HR against Cole dating back to Aug 28, 2019 at HOU.
- ◆ Made his fourth Opening Day roster and third straight, but did not start vs. Hyun Jin Ryu.
- ◆ On July 26 vs. TOR, batted right-handed for the first time in his major league career and homered in his second at-bat from that side, coming in the 6th inning off Anthony Kay.
- ◆ Prior to the homer off Kay as a right-handed batter, Choi had hit 36 HR in his career—the most of any player before hitting a home run from the opposite side since Stats LLC data is available (1974)...Choi logged 861 PA as a left-handed batter before his first plate appearance as a right-handed batter—3rd-most of any player since 1974 before "switching sides" behind CHC Javier Báez (2,394 PA as a righty, first hit lefty on Aug 8, 2019 at CIN against a position player pitching) and TEX Geno Petralli (1,898 PA as a lefty, first hit righty on July 24, 1992 at BAL).
- ◆ According to MLB.com's Sarah Langs, Choi's 861 PA batting lefty were the most from one side of the plate before hitting a homer from the other side since CLE Hal Trosky in 1935.

- ◆ His homer as a righty featured a 109.9 mph exit velocity and estimated distance of 429 feet, according to StatCast—a combination he never reached as a left-handed hitter.
- ◆ Is the only Korean-born player to homer from both sides of the plate.
- ◆ As a result of his right-handed homer, reporter Jeff Passan said on Baseball Tonight: "Ji-Man Choi is the most interesting man in baseball."
- ◆ On Aug 31 at NYY, reached base in all 5 PA, tying a career high...recorded 3 hits, including a 2-run homer off Gerrit Cole in the 1st inning.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

- ◆ 2019: Grounded out in the 9th inning as a pinch-hitter in the AL Wild Card Game at OAK...started at first base for all 5 games of the ALDS against the Astros and finished with 7 BB in 22 PA...his 7 BB were the most in a Division Series since SF Barry Bonds (8) in 2003.
- ◆ In Game 3 of the ALDS vs. HOU, hit a 3rd-inning solo homer off Zack Greinke.

- His 5-game winning streak is the longest for a Rays pitcher to begin a major league career, breaking a tie with Adam Kolarek (2017-19), Jake Faria (2017), Jeremy Hellickson (2010), Tim Corcoran (2006) and James Shields (2006).
- Became the second Rays rookie to finish a season with 5 wins (or more) and no losses, joining Jalen Beeks (5-0) in 2018.
- Was the third Rays pitcher to start and win each of his first three major league apps, joining Jake Faria in 2017 and Jeremy Hellickson 2010...this streak ended when he received no decision in his fourth outing, a start on Sep 10 vs. BOS.

- On Sep 27 vs. PHI, started the regular season finale and did not allow a run in a career-high 6 IP...was the first Rays rookie to make a scoreless start of 6 IP (or more) since Brendan McKay's major league debut on June 29, 2019 vs. TEX.

- Went 1-1 with a 4.22 ERA (21.1-IP, 10-ER) in 5 starts after being reinstated, stretching out to 94 and 93 pitches in his last 2 starts.
- Was the club's nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award, which recognizes the player who best represents the game through extraordinary character, community involvement, philanthropy and positive contributions, both on and off the field...this was his third nomination, following 2014 (with PIT) and 2018 (with HOU).
- Opponents hit .313 (10-for-32) against him with RISP, a season after he held them to a major-league-low .179 avg. (27-for-151) with RISP.
- Twice hit a batter with the bases loaded (Aug 9 vs. NYY, Sep 19 at BAL) and has done that three times in two seasons with the Rays, compared to once in his first 11 major league seasons.
- Used his curveball for 32.7 pct. of his pitches, compared to 37.3 pct. in 2019—the highest rate in the majors (min. 100 IP)...57.4 pct. - Has tallied 121 HBP in 1,439.1 IP, most of any active pitcher...next on this list is Johnny Cueto, with 107 HBP in 1,919.2 IP.
- Made his eighth active Opening Day roster, in addition to starting the season on the injured list in 2009, 2012, 2013 and 2015.
- On July 24 vs. TOR, allowed 6 runs in his first career Opening Day start...at 36 years and 255 days, became the oldest Opening Day starter in franchise history by over five years, passing Tanyon Sturtze (31.172) in 2002...became the fourth pitcher since 1978 to make his first Opening Day start at 36 years, 255 days or older, joining TOR R.A. Dickey in 2013, SEA Jamie Moyer in 2000 and TOR David Wells in 2000.
- Was the oldest pitcher in the majors to make an Opening Day start since NYM Bartolo Colon (41.317) in 2015, and the oldest in the AL since TOR R.A. Dickey (39.153) in 2014...he held this distinction for less than three hours, until 37-year-old HOU Justin Verlander (37.155) started later that night vs. SEA.
- On Sep 19 at BAL, recorded his first road win since Sep 13, 2019 at LAA...his only run allowed in 5 IP came in a 33-pitch 1st inning, when he hit Chance Sisco on an 0-2 pitch with 2 outs.
- On Sep 25 vs. PHI, faced his former team in his final start of the regular season and recorded a season-high 8 SO.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

- 2019: Went 2-0 with a 0.90 ERA (10-IP, 1-ER) in two postseason starts.
- Yielded an unearned run in 5 IP in the AL Wild Card Game at OAK...with the win, became the first pitcher in major league history to record the win in three "winner take all" playoff games.

- ◆ Defeated his former team in Game 3 of the ALDS, helping the Rays avoid elimination...his only run allowed to the Astros in 5 IP was a solo homer to José Altuve...his 9 SO tied Matt Garza in Game 7 of the 2008 ALCS vs. BOS for the most by a Rays pitcher in a postseason game.
- ◆ His four career wins in potential elimination games are tied for the most in major league history...he joined DET/HOU Justin Verlander, ATL John Smoltz, PHI/ARI/BOS Curt Schilling, SEA/ARI Randy Johnson and CIN Clay Carroll.
- ◆ 2018: Started Game 4 of the ALCS against the Red Sox and did not factor in the decision of an 8-6 loss...yielded 3 runs in 2.1 IP.
- ◆ 2017: Went 2-1 with a 4.24 ERA (23.1-IP, 11-ER) in 5 apps (4 starts) as the Astros won their first World Series in franchise history...went 1-0 with a 1.74 ERA (10.1-IP, 2-ER) in 2 apps (1 start) in the World Series...was on the mound for the final out in Game 7.

- ◆ Became the fifth pitcher in major league history to record the win in Game 7 of the World Series after throwing 4 IP (or more) in relief, and first in 59 years...joined NYY Bob Turley in 1958, NYY Joe Page in 1947, PIT Ray Kremer in 1925 and WAS-AL Walter Johnson in 1924.
- ◆ 2013: Started and took the loss in Game 4 of the NLDS against the Cardinals...did not allow a run through 5 IP before yielding a 2-run homer to Carlos Beltrán in the 6th inning.

2020 SEASON

- Spent the entire season on the active roster, taking over as the primary starting catcher while Mike Zunino was sidelined with an oblique strain...appeared in 38 games with 27 starts.
- Made his second consecutive Opening Day roster as a backup catcher.
- Threw out 31.6 pct. (6 of 19) of attempted base stealers, up from 11.8 pct. (2 of 17) in 2019.
- Ended the season hitless in his last 11 AB...hit .071 (2-for-28) from Sep 6 through season's end.
- Hit .240 (6-for-25) with RISP, but all 6 hits came in his first 15 AB in these situations.
- On Aug 7 vs. NYY, while celebrating his 28th birthday, hit a pinch-hit sacrifice fly in the 8th inning to give the Rays a 1-0 lead, and they went on to win by the same score...became the 13th player since Baseball Reference data is available (1901) to record the only RBI of a 1-0 win on his birthday...he was only the second player to do that in the last 22 seasons (since 1999), joining CLE José Ramírez, who hit a 10th-inning walk-off single on Sep 17, 2016 vs. DET (24th birthday).
- This was the second straight season he played a key role in a win on his birthday...caught Triple-A Durham's 9-inning no-hitter and went 1-for-3 with 1 2B and 1 BB at the plate in 2019.
- On Aug 9 vs. NYY, entered as a defensive replacement in the 9th inning and recorded his first hit of the season in the bottom half, a 2-out walk-off single off Zack Britton...was his first hit since May 4, 2019 at BAL, going 0-for-14 in between, and the first walk-off hit of his career... became the third catcher in franchise history with a walk-off hit against the Yankees, following Travis d'Arnaud (homer) on July 6, 2019 and Dioner Navarro (homer) on Sep 25, 2007.

- On Aug 26 vs. BAL, hit a go-ahead homer off Mychal Givens in the 8th inning...was his second career homer, following Aug 10, 2018 at TOR...was the third time in his last 13 games he gave the Rays a lead in the 8th inning (or later).
- On Sep 4 vs. MIA, recorded the first bases-loaded hit of his career, on a go-ahead, 3-run double in the 4th inning...the next night, tied a career high with 3 hits, including a RBI double in the 5th and 2-run single in the 9th...became the fourth Rays catcher with 3 RBI (or more) in back-to-back games, following Travis d'Arnaud in 2019, Curt Casali in 2015 and Mike Difelice in 1998.

2020 SEASON

- Totaled 11 apps (9 starts), with his first 8 apps coming from the starting rotation.
- Missed a start while on the 10-day IL for left groin tightness, from Aug 29–Sep 6.
- Allowed 2 runs (or fewer) in seven of his 11 apps, including four scoreless outings, but yielded 4 runs (or more) in his other 4 apps.
- Ended the season winless in his last 17 starts, going 0-7 with a 4.72 ERA (89.2-IP, 47-ER) during that stretch...this tied the longest winless streak for a traditional starter in franchise history, joining Jason Hammel from April 11, 2006–Aug 28, 2007...his last win as a starter was Aug 11, 2019 at SEA...has received 1 run (or fewer) of support in 10 of 17 starts during this drought.
- His only win came in his first app in relief...in his career, is 23-5 with a 3.63 ERA (183.2-IP, 74-ER) in 48 apps out of the bullpen and 5-11 with a 4.30 ERA (161-IP, 77-ER) in 29 starts.
- Since 2018, leads the majors with 23 relief wins, ahead of SD Craig Stammen (20)...his 183.2 IP out of the bullpen since then ranks 3rd behind OAK Yusmeiro Petit (197.2) and Stammen (185).
- Threw first-pitch strikes to 67.2 pct. of batters faced, and 68.4 pct. of his pitches were strikes, the 4th- and 5th-highest rates in the majors (min. 50 IP)...averaged 15.0 pitches per inning, 6th in the majors and 4th in the AL (min. 50 IP).
- Yielded 2 BB (or fewer) in 10 of 11 apps...his start with 3 BB (July 30 at ATL) ended a run of 2 BB (or fewer) in 39 straight apps (16 starts).
- Batters had an avg. exit velocity of 82.6 mph, according to StatCast, 2nd-lowest in the majors (min. 50 batted balls)...the only pitcher ahead of him was MIL Alex Claudio (81.7).

- Over the last two seasons, has thrown his cutter for 36.5 pct. of his pitches, according to StatCast, 3rd-highest in the majors (min. 2,000 pitches).
- Made his third straight Opening Day roster, first as a regular member of the starting rotation.
- On July 30 at ATL, yielded 2 hits and became the first Rays pitcher to take the loss in an outing of 6 IP (or more) and 2 hits (or fewer) since Tyler Glasnow on Aug 31, 2018 at CLE.
- On Sep 8 at WAS, returned from a minimum 10-day stint on the injured list but lasted 2.2 IP, his shortest outing since April 12, 2019 at TOR (2 IP, relief) and the shortest start of his career.
- On Sep 15 vs. WAS, pitched in relief for the first time since Aug 6, 2019 vs. TOR...followed opener John Curtiss and his only run allowed in 5.2 IP was a RBI groundout in the 6th inning...marked his first win since Aug 11, 2019 at SEA.
- On Sep 20 at BAL, went 7 IP and faced the first batter of the 8th inning, becoming the first Rays starter to pitch into the 8th since he did so on Aug 11, 2019 at SEA (8.2 IP)...three of his 5 hits allowed came within his first 4 BF, including a 2-run single by Renato Núñez.

POSTSEASON HISTORY

- 2019: Made three scoreless relief apps in the ALDS against the Astros, recording the win in a bullpen game in Game 4 vs. HOU...stranded an inherited runner with a Josh Reddick lineup to end the 2nd inning...pitched a perfect 3rd, then went single, flyout, double in the 4th and was replaced...was the beneficiary of a well-executed relay on a Yordan Álvarez double, with an 8-6-2 putout of José Altuve.

RAYS IN THE COMMUNITY

RAYS BASEBALL FOUNDATION

Official Charity of the Tampa Bay Rays

THE TAMPA BAY RAYS ARE COMMITTED TO BEING A STRONG COMMUNITY PARTNER AND ENERGIZING OUR COMMUNITY THROUGH THE MAGIC OF RAYS BASEBALL.

The Rays Baseball Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization and the official charity of the Rays, is dedicated to improving the lives of those in need within our community, focusing primarily on education, youth development, wellness and social responsibility. Key contributors to the foundation include Rays owners, players, corporate partners, fans and employees.

COVID-19 RELIEF

In response to the COVID-19 crisis, the Rays Baseball Foundation and Rowdies Soccer Fund has donated $1.4 million and counting in financial support to nonprofit organizations throughout Tampa Bay, with 81 agencies receiving funding. This includes $275,000 through the COVID-19 Relief Grant Program, $110,000 in Community Fund Grants and $405,000 in Community Partnership Grants. Over 4.1 million meals were donated to Feeding Tampa Bay, with 11,890 households served through Feeding Tampa Bay's mega mobile pantry hosted in Tropicana Field's parking lots. 170 meals were provided to Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tampa Bay's St. Pete East House, while Rays concessions partner, Levy, donated $190,000 of food and beverage items to local organizations.

Additionally, the Rays established a fund of $1 million for Tropicana Field gameday staff who were impacted by the changes to the 2020 season due to the coronavirus pandemic.

For more information on Rays COVID-19 relief efforts, visit raysbaseball.com/teamingup.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

The Rays committed $100,000 annually to support causes that fight systemic racism within our country. With the goal of amplifying the important, ongoing work done by those on the front lines of this effort, the Rays launched a social justice microsite, highlighting the Racial Equity Grant Program, BIPOC businesses in Tampa Bay, educational resources ranging from museums to print and digital media, and local social justice and community development organizations.

The inaugural Rays Equity Grants were awarded to the following organizations:

- ♦ CDC of Tampa
- ♦ Equal Justice Initiative's Remembrance Project
- ♦ League of Women Voters of the St. Petersburg Area
- ♦ NAACP Hillsborough County Branch
- ♦ Pinellas County Urban League
- ♦ People Empowering & Restoring Communities

For more information and links to these organization's sites, visit raysbaseball.com/socialjustice.

VOTING INITIATIVE

Ahead of the November 2020 elections, the Rays launched raysbaseball.com/elections as a comprehensive guide for fans and the electorate. The page aims to bring awareness to important dates and deadlines and provide information about various aspects of the voting process including voter registration, vote-by-mail and early voting, with links to nonpartisan, educational resources. The Rays also offered Tropicana Field to the Pinellas County Supervisor of Elections for use in any capacity to increase access to voting during an election period complicated by COVID-19, and the facility was deemed a vote-by-mail ballot drop-off site throughout early voting. Additionally, a Racial Equity Grant was awarded by the Rays Baseball Foundation to the League of Women Voters of the St. Petersburg Area for its work to increase voting access in the underrepresented neighborhoods surrounding Tropicana Field, including a get-out-the-vote campaign entitled Roll to the Polls which encourages mail-in ballot drop-off by all modes of transportation ahead of Election Day.

PROGRAMS

HOME RUN CLUB

In 2010, the Big Game James Club was started by James and Ryane Shields. The club, later to be named the Home Run Club in 2013, consists of a donated suite for foster children and their families. Even though founders James and Ryane Shields are no longer members of the Rays organization, their legacy of advocating for children in foster care lives on. The club continues to offer a sense of stability and belonging to hundreds of foster children. Each season, over 500 foster children have become club members. Two participating organizations have hosted events resulting in numerous adoptions for local foster children.

RAYS JERSEY PROGRAM

Since 2014, the Rays Jersey Program, presented by Suncoast Credit Union and the Rays, has outfitted more than 70,000 Tampa Bay area tee-ball players and coaches with Fanatics jerseys and caps. The program covers more than 80 different leagues in nine area counties and has saved the leagues more than $1 million in equipment costs. As a result of these savings, officials from some of the participating leagues have noted that they have the ability to pass these savings along to participant families. They have also been able to repair their scoreboards, provide upgrades to dugouts, add fencing for fields, purchase additional equipment and grounds crew supplies and repair concession stands and other areas of their facilities.

READING WITH THE RAYS

Since 2006, the Rays Baseball Foundation has teamed up with Suncoast Credit Union for the summer reading program Reading with the Rays—Read Your Way to the Ballpark. Reading with the Rays encourages kids to avoid summer reading loss by participating in a fun and interactive reading program over the summer months. More than 300,000 Tampa Bay area students from nine surrounding counties have participated since its inception. The program is made possible through a partnership with Suncoast Credit Union, Tampa Bay Times Newspaper in Education, the Rays and public library systems in Charlotte, Citrus, Hernando, Hillsborough, Manatee, Pasco, Pinellas, Polk and Sarasota counties.

SOUTH ST. PETERSBURG NEIGHBORHOOD INITIATIVE

The Rays launched the South St. Petersburg Neighborhood Initiative in response to the tragic 2009 shooting death of 8-year-old Paris

Whitehead in South St. Petersburg, an underserved community that borders Tropicana Field. This program benefits the following organizations and initiatives:

- ◆ Academy Prep Center of St. Petersburg
- ◆ Boys & Girls Clubs of the Suncoast
- ◆ Burg Baseball
- ◆ Campbell Park Elementary
  - Field Days
  - Food Pantry
  - Great American Teach In
  - Mentoring
  - Rays Room
- ◆ Feeding Tampa Bay Mobile Pantry
- ◆ Field Renovations

TEAM SMILE

Since 2018, the Rays have partnered with Team Smile, an advocacy group that partners dental professionals with professional athletic organizations to provide life-changing dental care to underserved children in their communities. In 2018-19, the Rays hosted more than 400 children from the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Suncoast and local foster care groups for a free dental day at Tropicana Field. The children received dental work completely free of charge, including X-rays, screening and educational material on how to protect their teeth. The value of care provided totaled almost $170,000.

The Rays, in partnership with United Concordia Dental, provided hundreds of local area children with dental hygiene kits in 2020.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Since 2008, the Rays Baseball Foundation has teamed up with local partners to provide more than $2 million in college scholarships to students participating in the Take Stock in Children program in Hillsborough, Manatee, Pasco, Pinellas and Sarasota counties. The foundation also funds the Academy Prep Centers for Education Scholarships in Tampa, St. Petersburg and Lakeland, the St. Petersburg College Foundation First Generation Scholars, Barry Jones Memorial Scholarship and the Don Zimmer Memorial Scholarship.

GRANTS

COMMUNITY FUND GRANT PROGRAM

The Rays Community Fund Grant Program provides assistance to local nonprofits in the Tampa Bay region. These grants help enhance and support current programs offered by community-based nonprofit organizations. The foundation has invested more than $1.7 million in over 300 local nonprofits through this program.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

The Rays Baseball Foundation is proud to maintain long-standing partnerships with key community organizations throughout Tampa Bay. The foundation provides grants each year to established community partners in support of existing programs that serve our region.

EMPLOYEE COMMUNITY OUTREACH TEAM (ECOT)

The Rays Employee Community Outreach Team (ECOT) was established in 2008 to provide invaluable volunteer hours to community service agencies that enhance or improve the quality of life in the communities they serve. In total, Rays employees have logged more than 38,500 volunteer hours to support nonprofits in the Tampa Bay region.

IN-KIND DONATIONS

Each year, the Rays donate thousands of tickets, suites, experiences and autographed memorabilia to assist organizations in our nine neighboring counties to raise funds for their respective causes.

PLAY BALL

The goal of Rays Play Ball is to celebrate youth baseball and softball while simultaneously encouraging participation in all forms of the game. The Rays do this through support of Rays RBI Tampa and Burg Baseball, the Rays Jersey Program, field renovations and many Play Ball events, like Play Ball Day and Play Ball Weekend.

On July 27, 2019, the Rays hosted the first-ever Baseball Magic Clinic. Almost 100 children from Buddy Baseball and the Miracle League of Pinellas County completed various stations, receiving instruction on hitting, pitching and fielding.

PLAYER & RAYS WIVES PROGRAMS

TUESDAY'S CHAMPION

Before every Tuesday home game at Tropicana Field, the Rays host a child from the Make-A-Wish Foundation or Children's Dream Fund at the ballpark as a part of a special program called "Tuesday's Champion." The kids, accompanied by their families, are invited to participate in a VIP experience which includes being on the field during batting practice, where they can meet and interact with Rays players and coaches. They are then treated to dinner in the Rays Club before taking the field and throwing out the ceremonial first pitch. Along with these experiences, they are also given a personalized jersey and a bat to commemorate the experience. The children selected for the program are battling life-threatening illnesses and occasionally come straight from the hospital for this special experience.

While Tuesday's Champions were unable to visit Tropicana Field in 2020, Rays players and coaches supported critically ill children through a virtual "Rays OFF the Runway" event, benefiting the Children's Dream Fund. The event, which would have typically been a fashion show featuring Rays players and coaches with their significant other, was reimaged into a new opportunity for the dream children and fans to meet the Rays in a virtual setting. Over 700 viewers tuned in and over $37,000 was raised to make dreams come true for children with life-threatening illnesses.

KIERMAIER'S KIDS

In 2019, with a $25,000 donation to the Children's Dream Fund, Kevin Kiermaier and his wife, Marisa, fulfilled the dreams of six children—"Kiermaier's Kids"—who are living with life-threatening illnesses. The Kiermaier's Kids' dreams included meeting Mickey Mouse, visiting Disney World to meet the princesses, setting sail on a Disney cruise, attending a Queen concert, a full car makeover and a new, fully equipped tool shed.

LOWE'S HOME RUNS FOR HOPE

For every home run Rays infielder Brandon Lowe hits, he and his wife, Madison, will donate $100 to the Crisis Center of Tampa Bay. The Rays Baseball Foundation will also contribute $100 per home run in support of Lowe's "Home Runs for Hope" campaign. The Crisis Center of Tampa Bay provides a range of services to ensure that no one in the community has to face a crisis alone. It is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year as the community gateway to help. People who are struggling with a variety of crisis situations including sexual assault or abuse, domestic violence, financial distress, substance abuse, medical emergency, suicidal thoughts and other emotional or situational problems can connect to hope and healing.

RAYS WIVES

Throughout the season, the Rays Wives support the community through various initiatives. In 2020, the Rays Wives supported the Children's Dream Fund, Girls on the Run Greater Tampa Bay and Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tampa Bay.

CATWALK RUNDOWN

The four catwalks located above the playing surface at Tropicana Field are labeled the A-, B-, C- and D-rings, with the lowest being the D-ring. Any fair ball that hits the lower two catwalks (C, D) is a home run. A fair ball that hits one of the top two catwalks (A, B) is in play. Any fair ball that stays on one of the top two catwalks is a ground-rule double. A foul ball that hits one of the catwalks is a dead ball.

- ♦ The D-ring ranges from 59 feet above the playing surface in CF to 121 feet behind home plate.
- ♦ The C-ring ranges from 99 feet in CF to 146 feet behind home plate.
- ♦ The B-ring ranges from 142 feet in CF to 173 feet behind home plate.
- ♦ The A-ring ranges from 181 feet in CF to 194 feet behind home plate.

In 23 seasons, 180 fair balls have hit catwalks: C-ring (96), B (41), D (37), A (6). This includes two during the relocated Rangers-Astros series in 2017 due to the devastation caused by Hurricane Harvey. Not included in that total is one fair ball that struck the roof, off the bat of MIN Miguel Sanó on Aug 7, 2016.

Three fair balls have hit catwalks in the postseason: Evan Longoria homered off the C-ring in Game 1 of the 2008 ALDS vs. CWS (Javier Vázquez), B.J. Upton homered off the C-ring in Game 6 of the 2008 ALCS vs. BOS (Josh Beckett) and Willy Adames homered off the D-ring in Game 4 of the 2019 ALDS vs. HOU (Justin Verlander).

Seven times in Tropicana Field history, a fair ball has hit a catwalk and not come down: TEX Joey Gallo, June 30, 2019 (D-ring); TB Avisail García, April 18, 2019 vs. BAL (D-ring); TB John Jaso, Sep 17, 2015 vs. BAL (C-ring); BOS David Ortiz, Sep 17, 2008 (D-ring); BOS Jason Bay, Sep 15, 2008 (C-ring); Carlos Peña, May 26, 2008 vs. TEX (B-ring); and José Canseco, May 2, 1999 vs. DET (B-ring).

Evan Longoria is the all-time leader in fair balls off the catwalk (11) and catwalk home runs (8). Álex Rodríguez and David Ortiz hit the catwalks five times, most of any visiting players. Carlos Peña hit the catwalks five times in 2007, most by any player in one season. All told, 39 different Rays have hit balls off the catwalks in the regular season: Evan Longoria (10), Jonny Gomes (8), Carlos Peña (8), Greg Vaughn (6), Fred McGriff (4), Steven Souza Jr. (3), José Canseco (3), Ben Grieve (3), Willy Adames (2), Curt Casali (2), Carl Crawford (2), Vinny Castilla (2), Avisail García (2), Travis Lee (2), Rocco Baldelli (1), Tim Beckham (1), Corey Dickerson (1), Logan Forsythe (1), Nick Franklin (1), Aubrey Huff (1), John Jaso (1), Matt Joyce (1), Pete LaForest (1), Brandon Lowe (1), Brendan McKay (1), Brad Miller (1), Logan Morrison (1), Eduardo Perez (1), Tommy Pham (1), Sean Rodriguez (1), Jared Sandberg (1), Kelly Shoppach (1), Grady Sizemore (1), Paul Sorrento (1), Bubba Trammell (1), B.J.
