IN MEMORY OF Ken King

Ken M. King joined the Calgary Flames as President and CEO in the spring of 2001, and over the course of 20 years, he built a strong and vibrant sports and entertainment organization. His relentless focus on customer service and the fan experience enabled the Flames to survive the challenges they faced early in Ken's tenure, and created the foundation for a successful sports entity. This entity now includes the NHL Calgary Flames, WHL Calgary Hitmen, the AHL Stockton Heat, the NLL Calgary Roughnecks and a controlling interest in the CFL Calgary Stampeders. His leadership and passion were also integral to the negotiations for the new Calgary Event Centre.

In the larger community, Ken's love for the city was evident in the many community boards he volunteered his time to and the many causes he put his energy behind, especially the Calgary Flames Foundation. Ken worked incredibly hard to ensure the organization had a positive impact: from his vision for Flames Health Training Camp events, to a partnership with the Alberta Children's Hospital that opened southern Alberta's first youth hospice, to his commitment to amateur sports groups, to his leadership in the REACH! campaign for innovative healthcare equipment.

Ken had an amazing ability to attract and retain high-performing executives — people who are as passionate about Calgary and its sports teams as he was. Ken wasn't just a leader, he was a mentor and friend.

We are grateful for the time we spent with him professionally and personally. Ken taught us that when your family calls, you answer. We can all take our own lessons from Ken to heart, and for that, he has our everlasting respect. His impact on our community will not be forgotten.

COORDINATOR

MEDIA PROTOCOLS FOR THE 2021 SEASON AT SCOTIABANK SADDLEDOME

Media who will be attending games and practices at the Scotiabank Saddledome this season will need to make a member of the communications staff aware of their attendance 24 hours in advance of each day event. A master list will be made for each on-ice day for approved media and all media will be checked-in upon arrival. Media check-in will be available one hour prior to practice and two hours prior to games. Media who arrive late may not be allowed entry into the building. There will be no same day depart and return access except for game days, media will check-in for both the morning skate and the evening game.

Media are to enter through the TELUS Club Entrance (5th Street SE) for security screening and temperature check*. Parking will be available in Lot A. Prior to entering the Saddledome all media MUST complete the screening questionnaire online by clicking on the link below or scanning the QR code posted at the entrance. Media are required to wear a mask during their time in the Scotiabank Saddledome. As per the NHL protocol, "acceptable face coverings include medical grade masks or 3-layer cloth coverings (or at least two cloth layers with a filter)." If they don't have a mask, one will be provided. Hand sanitizer and bottled water will also be available.

<https://waiver.smartwaiver.com/e/5GlayVQDARVYWMgYDnVjRC/>

*If media have symptoms, have had exposure to someone with symptoms of COVID-19, or if they have a temperature, they will not be admitted entry to the facility and: (a) will need to follow up with their own physician for care, and (b) shall require a letter from their physician providing written medical clearance before they may be admitted into the Scotiabank Saddledome.

After entry into the building, signs will direct you to sections 212 and 213 of the second bowl to where you will be assigned a seat. These seats will be a minimum of six-feet apart from each other. Media are asked to please remain in their assigned seat during the duration of the on-ice sessions. Washrooms will be made available to media on the concourse outside of sections 213 and 216.

Media with cameras will be directed to a designated camera station upon entering the second bowl. Be cautious of other media members around you and maintain a six-foot distance between yourself and the next camera. B-roll opportunities will be available. Camera operators and photographers are also required to wear masks at all times while inside the Scotiabank Saddledome. Live streaming or filming of the practice in its entirety will not be permitted, and no filming of games.

At the conclusion of the on-ice portions, media are encouraged to continue their work from home due to limited space and access at the Scotiabank Saddledome. If this is not doable, a work area with tables will be provided on the concourse with no more than two media members at one table.

Media will have no in-person interaction with players, coaches or hockey operations staff the season. The communications team will facilitate post on-ice availabilities via ZOOM. We ask you to join the ZOOM availabilities from your phone or computer from your assigned seat in the media work area or from home. At the conclusion of all ZOOM sessions, the building will be cleared for cleaning.

All media will need to notify the Flames communications staff for each day they are attending. Please email your attendance notification to skelso@calgaryflames.com

The Flames ask that all media in attendance continue to follow basic Covid-19 protocol and ensure you are using hand sanitizer, wearing your mask, continuing to follow social distancing rules, and respecting those around you while inside the Scotiabank Saddledome. The sections provided to media will be sanitized and disinfected daily.

The Flames, Management, and staff appreciate your cooperation and look forward to seeing you at the Scotiabank Saddledome this season. pre-recorded message.

HISTORY OF THE FRANCHISE

During some of the most unique times in our history, the Calgary Flames continue their journey representing the city of Calgary with the 2020-21 NHL season.

It all started in May 1980, when Nelson Skalbania and a group of Calgary entrepreneurs consisting of Daryl and B.J. Seaman, Harley Hotchkiss, Norm Green, Ralph Scurfield, and Norman Kwong announced the acquisition of the Atlanta Flames and declared their intention to relocate the franchise to Alberta. Calgarians lined up to support their new team. For the first time in NHL history, 755 standing-room season tickets were sold, generating a capacity crowd at the Stampede Corral for the Flames' inaugural game on October 9, 1980.

Since that first season, the Flames have amassed an impressive record of achievements. The team has claimed two Smythe Division championships (1985-86, 1988-89), two Clarence Campbell Conference titles (1985-86, 1988-89), three Pacific Division titles (1993-94, 1994-95, 2018-19), two Presidents' Trophies (1987-88, 1988-89), and has advanced to the Stanley Cup Final three times (1986, 1989, 2004).

After falling to the Montreal Canadiens in five games in 1986, the Flames defeated the Habs to claim the Stanley Cup in a thrilling six-game series in 1989, the only visiting team ever to win the Cup on Montreal Forum ice. In 2004, Calgary eliminated three of the top teams in the League to reach the final, losing to the Tampa Bay Lightning in the last game of a seven-game series. Calgary fans rallied behind their team by sporting red Flames jerseys, launching the phenomenon known as the "C of Red" that remains a hallmark of Flames home games to this day.

The legacy of some of the great players who donned that red jersey can still be seen with the collection of retired jerseys including recently honoured Jarome Iginla (#12) whose number joined Lanny McDonald (#9) and Mike Vernon (#30) and "Forever a Flame" inductees Al MacInnis (#2) and Joe Nieuwendyk (#25). Iginla furthered his iconic status being inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame this past year.

Sadly in this past season the organization lost one of its most recognizable executives with the passing of Ken King. His legacy was established with more than a decade of work as the team's president and CEO and eventual vice-chair of the Calgary Sports and Entertainment Corporation.

While COVID reared its head just prior to the end of the season which brought on the unprecedented pause in play, the 2019-20 season had its share of highlights the team could be proud of, including: sending three players, captain Mark Giordano, Matthew Tkachuk and David Rittich to the 2020 NHL All-Star game in St. Louis and winning their playoff qualifying round versus the Winnipeg Jets in August.

The Flames' commitment to sports at both the junior and professional levels has led to their increasing involvement not just in hockey, but also in other sports. In 1997, the team purchased the Western Hockey League Calgary Hitmen, an affiliation that continues today under the banner of the Calgary Sports and Entertainment Corporation (CSEC). Launched in 2012, CSEC is the parent company for five sports franchises: the Calgary Flames, Calgary Hitmen, Calgary Roughnecks (NLL), Calgary Stampede (CFL), and Stockton Heat (AHL). Since 2017, CSEC is also a proud partner and supporter of the ECHL's Kansas City Mavericks.

The Calgary Flames Foundation continues as the charitable arm of the club. This past year, it was able to distribute more than $4.3 million in support of education, health and medical research, and amateur and grassroots sports, adding to its more than $40 million injected into southern Alberta communities since its inception in 1983. In March of 2020, the Calgary Flames Foundation launched the COVID-19 Community Support Program donating $2.5 million to benefit organizations responding to essential needs during the pandemic in food mobilization, grassroots sport delivery, family support services and vulnerable populations. In addition to the community support provided by the Foundation, the Flames Alumni, founded in 1993, is one of the oldest and most active chapters in professional hockey. Over the course of their history, they have helped thousands in need and have raised millions of dollars for charities in southern Alberta.

While the team looks forward, it announced a step back prior to the start of the season. The club opted to go "full retro" and return to its inaugural branding including its original styled home and away jerseys. Further it announced the return of the fan favourite jersey design featuring the flaming horse head, known to fans as 'Blasty', would be featured in the upcoming reverse retro alternate jersey program. With the current development of a new event centre for Calgary (completion in 2024), CSEC has partnered to create a year-round, modern, exciting and vibrant gathering place to attract people from all over the world, to celebrate everything that is Calgary.

For more than four decades, the Calgary Flames have been electrifying hockey fans in southern Alberta. In that time, not only has the team established itself as a successful NHL franchise, but it has grown into a vital and integral part of our community. From their on-ice victories to their off-ice charitable endeavours, the Flames are one of the premier professional sports organizations in North America.

N. MURRAY EDWARDS

N. Murray Edwards is owner of Edco Financial Holdings Ltd., a merchant banker since 1988. He is a leading investor in, and managing director and chairman of, numerous publicly traded companies including Canadian Natural Resources Limited, and Ensign Energy Services Inc. Today, these companies employ over 25,000 individuals. He is also a chairman, director and co-owner of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club.

Mr. Edwards graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Saskatchewan with Great Distinction and a Bachelor of Laws with Honours from the University of Toronto. After moving to Calgary in 1983, he became a lawyer and later a Partner with Burnet, Duckworth & Palmer, a Calgary-based law firm.

ALVIN G. LIBIN

Alvin G. Libin is a native Calgarian with business interests in real estate, oil and gas and financial services. Mr. Libin is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Balmon Investments Ltd., a private management services and investment company. He has a strong commitment to the City of Calgary and to the Province of Alberta and has provided leadership in various volunteer positions.

In 2003, Mr. Libin and his wife Mona, through The Alvin and Mona Libin Foundation, established The Libin Cardiovascular Institute of Alberta in partnership with the University of Calgary and Alberta Health Services. Its mission is to provide world-class cardiovascular health care, education and research for southern Alberta. Mr. Libin is an Officer of the Order of Canada and holds an Honorary Doctors of Laws degree from the University of Calgary. He was inducted into the Alberta Order of Excellence in 2004.

CALGARY FLAMES OWNERSHIP GROUP

ALLAN P. MARKIN

Allan Markin is a native Calgarian and longtime philanthropist. He is a 1968 graduate of the University of Alberta with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemical Engineering. He became an owner of the Calgary Flames hockey club in 1994.

In 1989, together with Murray Edwards, Allan founded Canadian Natural Resources Limited. As Chairman, Allan was instrumental in growing the company from a small operation of six employees with limited capital to the largest oil and gas producer in Canada and one of the most successful operators in the world. Allan supported Canadian Natural's progressive and innovative corporate commitment to a health and wellness system for employees, which later evolved into the Pure North S'Energy Foundation.

A passionate advocate for better health, Allan stepped down as Chairman of Canadian Natural Resources Limited in 2012 to focus his energy on the wellness program he had founded at Pure North. Pure North is an innovative wellness program focused on the prevention of chronic disease. Together they strive to educate the population on the importance of optimized nutrition and prevention.

Mr. Markin is the founding funder of APPLE Schools, a charitable organization established in 2007 under his leadership to make children in Alberta healthier. He currently serves as a member and a trusted advisor on the board of directors and has helped the project diversify its funding base to include government and corporate contributions. Mr. Markin's leadership has helped APPLE Schools to expand to 75 schools across British Columbia, Alberta, Northwest Territories, and Manitoba, helping over 21,000 students in urban and rural areas, including First Nations communities. The success of the award-winning project is demonstrated by over 10 years of research stating that APPLE Schools increases physical activity levels, improves healthy eating habits and mental health, and reduces obesity and chronic disease in a cost effective manner.

In recognition of his tremendous support of education, Allan has received honorary degrees from the Universities of Alberta, Calgary, Lethbridge and St. Francis Xavier. Mr. Markin is a Founder of St. Mary's University and was bestowed an honorary fellowship from St. Mary's University in 2004 and the Order of Excellence in 2019. In accepting The Fraser Institute's T. Patrick Boyle Founder Award in 2010, Allan spoke of individual value and personal responsibility.

The Mayor of the City of Calgary bestowed him with the Citizen of the Year award for 2004 and he received the Alberta Centennial Medal in 2005. In July 2008, Mr. Markin was appointed as an Officer of the Order of Canada by the Governor General. He received The Alberta Order of Excellence in October 2008. In the fall of 2009, he was inducted into the Calgary Business Hall of Fame. In March 2012, Allan was recognized as the Canadian Business Leader of the Year Award by the Alberta School of Business of the University of Alberta. In the summer of 2012 Allan was presented with the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal.

Although diversified, his main philanthropic objective is to enhance education tied to health and wellness.

CALGARY FLAMES OWNERSHIP GROUP

Trimac is one of the largest providers of bulk trucking services in North America and also provides complementary logistics services, including transload facility operations, distribution management, and freight brokerage.

Jeff has been with the Trimac Group of Companies since August 1983. He became President of Trimac Corporation in 1990 and was Chief Executive Officer from 1994 to 2015. Prior to joining Trimac in 1983, Mr. McCaig practiced law in Calgary, first as an associate of MacKimmie Matthews, then through Jeffrey J. McCaig Professional Corporation, focusing on corporate financing and securities. He continues to be a member of the Law Society of Alberta.

In addition to being a Director and chairing the Boards of the Trimac group of companies, Mr. McCaig is a Director of MEG Energy, a Canadian oil sands company and a Director of Grayhawk Investments Strategies Inc., an investment management company. He is also a Director and Chairman of Bantrel Company, an engineering and construction company and a Director and Co-owner of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club. He also serves as Chairman of the Calgary Flames Foundation.

He obtained his undergraduate degree in Economics from Harvard; his law degree from Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto, Canada; and his Master of Science in Management degree from Stanford University.

Jeff is married with three grown children and resides in Calgary, Alberta.

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

JOHN BEAN

John Bean joined Calgary Sports and Entertainment Corporation (CSEC) in January 2010 in the role of Senior Vice President, Finance and Administration and CFO. Bean was named the Chief Operating Officer of CSEC in September 2013, President in July of 2018 and President and CEO in July 2019.

In his role as President and CEO, Bean is responsible for all aspects of operations for all five teams owned by CSEC including the Calgary Flames of the National Hockey League (NHL), the Stockton Heat of the American Hockey League (AHL), the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League (CFL), the Calgary Roughnecks of the National Lacrosse League (NLL) and the Calgary Hitmen of the Western Hockey League (WHL).

In the summer of 2013, Bean led the restoration and recovery of the Scotiabank Saddledome which was significantly impacted by the floods of 2013. In less than 70 days the entire event level of the Saddledome was stripped down to the concrete and rebuilt in time for the 2013/2014 NHL hockey season.

Mr. Bean is the Lead Governor on the CFL Board of Governors and is a Governor on the WHL Board of Governors and an Alternate Governor on the NHL Board of Governors. In addition, Mr. Bean is a member of the Board of Directors and Treasurer for the Calgary Flames Foundation.

Prior to joining CSEC, Bean, a Chartered Accountant, held a variety of senior executive roles in the oil and gas services industry including Vice President, Finance with CCS Corporation Ltd. and Chief Financial Officer with Hazco Environmental Services Ltd.

Bean was born and raised in Saskatoon and attended the University of Saskatchewan. He and his wife Rhonda moved to Calgary in 1988 where they have raised two children.

HOCKEY CLUB PERSONNEL

BRAD TRELIVING - GENERAL MANAGER

Brad joined the Calgary Flames organization on April 28, 2014 and is now in his seventh season as the Flames General Manager. In his position with Calgary, he is responsible for all team personnel decisions, both players and staff; manage the amateur and pro scouting staffs; as well as other administrative duties required of the general manager. He is also responsible for all player personnel assignments with Flames' minor league affiliates.

Treliving served as the Vice President of Hockey Operations & Assistant General Manager with the Phoenix Coyotes for seven seasons prior to coming to Calgary. With Phoenix, Treliving worked on the day-to-day administration of the Coyotes' hockey operations. Treliving also served as General Manager of the club's American Hockey League affiliate, the Portland Pirates.

Prior to his role with the Coyotes, Treliving served as the President of the Central Hockey League (CHL) for seven years. During his tenure, he guided the CHL to remarkable growth and development including numerous successful expansion franchises. In 1996 Treliving co-founded the Western Professional Hockey League (WPHL) and served as the league's Vice President and Director of Hockey Operations for five seasons. The native of Penticton, BC played an integral role in the merger of the WPHL and the CHL in May 2001 upon which he began his tenure as President of the league.

Prior to his front office career, Treliving played five seasons of professional hockey from 1990-91 to 1994-95 in the IHL, the AHL and the ECHL. A defenseman, Treliving registered 17 goals and 85 assists for 102 points and 811 penalty minutes in 243 games in the ECHL. As a junior, the Penticton, BC native, played in both the BCJHL and two years in the WHL.

Treliving and his wife Julie have two daughters, Ryann and Reese, and reside in Calgary.

HOCKEY CLUB PERSONNEL

DON MALONEY - SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Don Maloney, a native of Lindsay, Ontario, enters his fourth season as Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations with the Flames.

Maloney originally joined the Flames in 2016 as a Pro Scout following nine seasons as Executive Vice President, General Manager and Alternate Governor of the Arizona Coyotes. In nine seasons as the Coyotes general manager, Maloney led the team to three postseason appearances and ranks first all-time in Coyotes franchise history in wins by a general manager.

Maloney received the inaugural NHL General Manager of the Year Award following the 2009-10 season after steering the Coyotes through a turbulent off-season and charting the course for the most successful regular season in franchise history.

Prior to joining the Coyotes in 2007, he spent the previous 10 seasons as a member of the New York Rangers' front office, most recently serving as the team's Vice President of Player Personnel and Assistant General Manager.

Maloney also served as Assistant General Manager for Team Canada squads that won gold medals at the 2003 and 2004 IIHF World Championship in Finland and Czech Republic, respectively.

Maloney's first front office position in the NHL was Assistant General Manager of the New York Islanders following his retirement as a player with the club on Jan. 17, 1991. Maloney later served as General Manager from Aug. 17, 1992 to Dec. 2, 1995.

Maloney also served as Eastern Professional Scout for the San Jose Sharks during the 1996-97 season prior to joining the Rangers' front office.

The Rangers selected Maloney in the second round (26th overall) of the 1987 NHL Entry Draft. As a player, he registered 214 goals, 350 assists and 564 points and 815 penalty minutes in 765 regular season games over 13 NHL seasons with the Rangers, Hartford Whalers and Islanders. He also collected 22 goals, 35 assists and 57 points in 94 career Stanley Cup playoff games.

Maloney played in the NHL All-Star Game in 1983 and 1984. He was named Most Valuable Player of the 1984 All-Star Game.

Maloney received the Rangers' "Players Player" Award as voted by teammates on three occasions (1979-80, 1980-81, and 1986-87). He also won the Rangers' "Crumb Bum" Award for service to New York youngsters in 1984 and the team's Good Guy Award in 1981 for cooperation with the media.

HOCKEY CLUB PERSONNEL

CRAIG CONROY - ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Conroy is in his seventh season as the Flames Assistant General Manager after three seasons as the Special Assistant to General Manager. He started his illustrious career at Clarkson University in his hometown of Potsdam, NY, before being drafted by the Montreal Canadiens in the 6th round (123rd overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft. He finished his four years at Clarkson followed by three years split between Montreal and Fredericton.

At the start of the 1996 season, Conroy was traded to the St. Louis Blues where he spent the next five years of his career before being traded to the Calgary Flames in March of 2001. During the 2001-02 season, he scored a career high 75 points, helping Jarome Iginla reach the 50 goal plateau for the first time in his career. Conroy continued to produce offensively and was a major contributor in the teams' 2004 Stanley Cup Playoffs run.

After signing with Los Angeles during the summer of 2004, Craig returned to the Flames on January 30, 2007. During his career, he amassed a total of 1009 games with 507 of those games being played in a Flames uniform. On October 28th, 2010, he celebrated his 1000th career game in front of the hometown fans at the Scotiabank Saddledome before retiring from the NHL in February of 2011 after 17 seasons spent with Montreal, St. Louis, Los Angeles and Calgary. During his career he recorded 542 points including 182 goals while notching another 30 points in 81 playoff games.

Craig and his wife Jessie have three daughters; Taylor, Sophia and Sydney.

BRAD PASCALL - ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Brad joined the Calgary Flames organization as Assistant General Manager on June 6, 2014 after serving as the Vice-President of Hockey Operations/Men's National Teams with Hockey Canada since 2010. He brings an abundance of building winning teams and developing players through his international hockey experience and gold medal successes at Hockey Canada. During his 18 years at Hockey Canada, he also served as Hockey Canada's Senior Director of Men's National Teams from 2006 to 2010 and held the title of Senior Director of Communications from 1998 to 2009.

Among his achievements, he played an instrumental role, as part of the management group with Steve Yzerman, for Canada's gold medal Men's Olympic Team at the 2014 Olympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia. Four years earlier, he collected gold with the Men's Olympic Team at the 2010 Olympic Winter Games in Vancouver. He has also been the lead member of hockey operations and Assistant General Manager for Canada at the IIHF World Championship in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 and directed and led Canada's National Junior Team as the team's General Manager to gold medals at the 2007, 2008 and 2009 IIHF World Junior Championships and a silver medal in 2010. Brad's gold medal collection as the head of team hockey operations also includes the Canada/Russia Super Series in the summer of 2007 and with Canada's National Men's Summer Under-18 Team at the 2006, 2012, 2013 and 2014 Ivan Hlinka events featuring Canada's best Under 18 players.

Prior to advancing to the lead position with hockey operations, he led the communications and media relations for Canada's national teams at the 2002 and 2006 Olympic Winter Games, the 2004 World Cup of Hockey, eight IIHF World Championships (1998, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2008), four IIHF World Junior Championships (1999, 2003, 2005, 2006) and two IIHF World Women's Championships (2000, 2004) and was Coordinator of Media Relations for Canada at the 1996 World Cup of Hockey.

Drafted by the Buffalo Sabres in the fifth round (103rd overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft, Pascall played two seasons in the AHL with Rochester and two seasons in the ECHL with South Carolina and Birmingham after four seasons (1988-92) at the University of North Dakota. He and his wife, Cassie and daughter Brooke make Calgary their home year round.

CHRIS SNOW - ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Chris Snow is in his fifteenth NHL season and tenth with the Calgary Flames. Snow began with the club in 2011 as director of hockey analysis. In his current role as Assistant General Manager, Chris works closely with general manager Brad Treliving on all hockey-related matters with an emphasis on utilizing data to inform decision making across hockey operations. Under Snow's direction the Flames have built out a hockey research and development department that supports several aspects of the Flames' hockey operation, including player identification, player performance and game strategy. Additionally, Chris is involved in all player contract research and negotiation.

He previously worked as director of hockey operations for the Minnesota Wild between 2006 and 2010. Before entering team management, Chris worked as an NHL and MLB beat writer, covering the Minnesota Wild for the Minneapolis Star Tribune and the Boston Red Sox for the Boston Globe.

A native of Melrose, Massachusetts, Chris earned degrees in journalism and policy studies at Syracuse University. Chris and with his wife, Kelsie, have a son, Cohen, and daughter, Willa.

MIKE BURKE - DIRECTOR, HOCKEY ADMINISTRATION

The 2020-21 NHL season represents Mike Burke's thirty-eighth year with the Calgary Flames. Since the start of the 1994-95 campaign, when Burke moved to the hockey department and was promoted to his current position, he has been responsible for the administration of the hockey club. He works closely with General Manager Brad Treliving in managing many facets of the Flames hockey operations. Burke's vast experience in hockey-related issues has made him a valuable part of the hockey staff. His main responsibilities include salary cap management, scheduling, contract research, analysis and negotiation, player assignments, preparation of salary arbitrations, liaison between the NHL and the Flames regarding all aspects of hockey administration, monitoring collective bargaining issues and helping coordinate the day-to-day operations of the Club.

Prior to his current appointment, Burke was responsible for the Club's media relations and communications. A graduate of the Public Relations program at Mount Royal College, Burke began his sports administration career with the Saskatoon Blades (WHL) in 1980 before serving two seasons as General Manager of a minor-pro team in the Montreal Expos' organization. He has often worked with the NHL in both NHL All-Star Games and NHL Stanley Cup Final events. In 1996, Burke was added as a member of Team Canada's hockey operation staff for the World Cup of Hockey tournament.

A native of Plato, Saskatchewan, Burke has two boys Keaton and Reid.

GEOFF WARD - HEAD COACH

Geoff Ward was named as the Flames 20th Head Coach on September 14, 2020 after being named the interim Head Coach in November of 2019. He led the Flames to a 25-15-3 record and earned a berth into the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs. The Flames eliminated the Winnipeg Jets 3-1 in the Qualifying Round before bowing out to the eventual Western Conference Champion Dallas Stars 4-2.

Ward joined the Flames in the 2018-19 season as an associate coach after spending three seasons with the New Jersey Devils as their assistant coach.

Ward, a native of Waterloo, Ontario, brings a decade of NHL coaching experience to the Flames. Prior to his last three years with New Jersey, he served as the Boston Bruins assistant coach for seven seasons including winning the Stanley Cup in 2011 and another finals appearance in 2013.

He started his coaching career as an assistant at the University of Waterloo in 1989 and remained there for three years. In 1993-94, he guided the Waterloo Siskins to a MWJHL championship. In 1994-95 he signed on as the head coach of the OHL's Kitchener Rangers for four seasons and finished his OHL coaching career as the head coach with the Guelph Storm in 1998-99. Following that, he spent one year coaching in the East Coast League as the head coach of Arkansas in 1999-00. He moved on to the AHL as an assistant in Hamilton and later became the head coach guiding them to the Calder Cup Finals in 2002-03 and was named as the Louis A.R. Pieri AHL coach of the year. He finished his AHL coaching career as head coach of the Edmonton Roadrunners in 2004-05 after the team moved from Toronto. He has also been a head coach in Germany on three separate occasions (2000-01, 2006-07 and 2014-15) including winning the DEL Championship and being named coach of the year with Adler Mannheim in 2014-15 before returning to the NHL.

MARTIN GELINAS - ASSISTANT COACH

Martin Gelinas is in his ninth season as an assistant coach with the Calgary Flames. Prior to joining the Flames, Gelinas served as the Director of Player Development for the Nashville Predators, joining the staff following his retirement as a player in 2009.

In his 19-year NHL career, Gelinas played in 1,273 games (62nd all-time at the start of this season) and scored 660 points. He played the 2002-03 and 2004-05 seasons with the Flames, and tied an NHL record by scoring three playoff series-clinching goals in the same year – including two in overtime – during the Flames' 2004 Stanley Cup run (and joining Ken Linseman in the record book in the process). "The Eliminator," as Gelinas was known, is one just a handful of players to have reached the Stanley Cup Finals with four different teams; the left-winger won a Stanley Cup in 1990 as a member of the Edmonton Oilers and also played in the NHL Finals in 1994 and 2002. He also played two professional seasons in Switzerland (2004-05 and 2008-09).

A native of Shawinigan, Quebec, Gelinas made a splash in 1987-88 with the Hull Olympiques of the QMJHL with a 63-goal, 131-point campaign. He was named CHL Rookie of the Year in the process and selected seventh overall by the Los Angeles Kings in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft. But Gelinas never suited up for the Kings. Two months after the draft, on August 9, 1988, he was included in the celebrated "Gretzky Trade" that sent Gelinas, Kings center Jimmy Carson, the team's first round picks in the 1989, 1991 and 1993 entry drafts, and a reported $15 million cash to Edmonton in exchange for Wayne Gretzky, Mike Krushelnyski and Marty McSorley.

Gelinas played six games for the Oilers in 1988 before being re-joining the Olympiques. In his first full NHL season in 1989-90, Gelinas had 25 points in 46 games, and won the Stanley Cup as Edmonton defeated the Boston Bruins in five games. Along with Joe Murphy and Adam Graves, he helped make up the popular Oilers' forward line known as "The Kid Line." Gelinas was the last player from the 1980s Oilers' dynasty active in the NHL.

He was traded to the Quebec Nordiques during the 1993 NHL Entry Draft and played 31 games for Quebec before being claimed on waivers by the Vancouver Canucks. Gelinas was a major factor in Vancouver's 1994 postseason run losing in seven games in the Stanley Cup Finals to the New York Rangers. He and goaltender Kirk McLean were traded to the Carolina Hurricanes on January 3, 1998, where he spent five seasons before joining the Calgary Flames. He went on to play a year in Switzerland during the 2004-05 season before signing with the Florida Panthers for the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons. He concluded his NHL career in 2007-08 as a member of the Nashville Predators, where his season was cut short by a knee injury. He was Nashville's Masterton Trophy nominee that year.

Gelinas and his family have lived in Calgary since 2002. He and his wife, Jane, have three children: a son, Matthew, and daughters Cameron and Morgan.

RYAN HUSKA - ASSISTANT COACH

Huska enters his third season on the Flames coaching staff as an assistant coach after four seasons as head coach of the Flames affiliate in Stockton and Adirondack. A native of Trail, BC, Huska has been coaching for 16 years after a nine year playing career in the WHL, IHL and AHL, including one NHL game with the Chicago Blackhawks.

The 44-year-old Huska was originally drafted by Chicago in the third round of the 1993 NHL Draft. He played four years with the Western Hockey League's Kamloops Blazers where he won three Memorial Cups in 1992, 1994 and 1995. After his junior career, he spent three seasons with the IHL's Indianapolis Ice, one year with the AHL's Lowell Lock Monsters and concluded his playing career in the AHL with Springfield in 1999-00 accumulating over 300 professional games. He started his coaching career back in the WHL as an assistant for the Kelowna Rockets from 2002-07 before being named the head coach from 2007-14 where he won his fourth Memorial Cup in 2004. He was named as the Flames AHL affiliate head coach in Adirondack in 2014-15 before the team moved to its current location in Stockton where he was the bench boss for the three seasons. Internationally Huska has twice been an assistant coach with Team Canada at the IIHF World Junior Championship capturing silver and bronze medals.

Ryan Huska and his wife Denise have one son Luke and daughters, Hanna and Olivia.

Sigalet was recently named as the Director of Goaltending and in his position will oversee all goaltending related responsibilities. Specifically, Sigalet will focus on NHL drafting, professional goaltending procurement and all goaltender development within the organization. He is entering his seventh season with the Flames after spending three seasons as the goaltending coach with Calgary's AHL affiliate in Abbotsford. Prior to that, Sigalet was the goaltending coach with the Everett Silvertips (WHL) for two seasons.

Jordan was originally drafted from Victoria (BCHL) by the Boston Bruins in the 2001 NHL Entry Draft and played one game and backed up 10 games for the Bruins during the 2005-06 season. He spent four years at Bowling Green University (CCHA) where he was a CCHA All-Star (2003 and 2004), won the Terry Flanagan Award for perseverance, team captain his senior year and was a top 10 Hobey Baker Finalist in addition to being nominated for an ESPY in the "Comeback Player of the Year" category. He spent three seasons with the Providence Bruins, Boston's AHL affiliate and was the recipient of the Fred Hunt Memorial Trophy before concluding his playing career in Vienna, Austria in 2009.

Jordan and his wife Lindsay have three sons: Jaxon, Maddox and Knox and their daughter Sloane.

JASON LABARBERA - GOALTENDING COACH

Jason LaBarbera has joined the Flames as the Goaltending Coach after serving as Assistant Coach/Goalie Coach with the Calgary Hitmen (WHL) for the past four seasons. In his role, LaBarbera will oversee the day-to-day duties with the Flames netminders. The Burnaby, BC native completed a 16 year professional playing career in 2016 spending time with the New York Rangers, Los Angeles, Vancouver, Phoenix, Edmonton and Anaheim. In addition to his playing career, LaBarbera has served as the Goalie Coach for Canada's National Teams including U-18 team the past two seasons and with Team Canada U-20 which won gold at the 2020 IIHF World Junior Championship and is overseeing the goalies with Team Canada at the 2021 World Junior Championship.

JAROME IGINLA - INDUCTED 2020 - PLAYER 1996-2017

With a birth certificate that reads JAROME ARTHUR-LEIGH ADEKUNLE TIG JUNIOR ELVIS IGINLA, Jarome was born on July 1, 1977 in Edmonton, Alberta and raised in St. Albert, just north of the Alberta capital. Jarome's father was from Nigeria and his mother from Oregon, although the family had settled in the Edmonton area. As a player of mixed heritage, Iginla was occasionally faced with racism, but was inspired by the black players in the NHL, including Claude Vilgrain, Tony McKegney and Grant Fuhr, saying, "There are definitely more black players in the NHL today, and I know what it meant to me, so I'd love to be a role model to other young black kids." Like Fuhr, Iginla played goal in his first seasons of minor hockey but was later moved to forward.

As a Junior, Jarome won two Memorial Cup championship teams with the Kamloops Blazers (1994 and 1995), was recipient of the George Parsons Trophy as the Memorial Cup tournament's Most Sportsmanlike Player in 1995, and was named the Western Hockey League's Player of the Year in 1995-96 after scoring 63 goals and 136 points.

The Dallas Stars used their first selection to choose Iginla at the 1995 NHL Entry Draft, but before he had pulled on a Dallas jersey, he was traded to the Calgary Flames in a December 1995 deal that saw Joe Nieuwendyk move to Dallas.

Jarome made his NHL debut during the 1996 Stanley Cup playoffs. By the start of the 1996-97 season, he had earned a fulltime spot with the Flames and after leading all first-year players in scoring with 50 points, he was named to the NHL All-Rookie Team and finished second in voting for the Calder Memorial Trophy as the NHL's best rookie.

Iginla was into his 16th season in Calgary when he was traded to the Pittsburgh Penguins. During his career with the Flames, Iginla had 11 seasons with 30 or more goals, including four with 40+ goals and two 50-goal seasons. He won the Maurice 'Rocket' Richard Trophy for leading the NHL in goals scored with 52 in 2001-02 and won it a second time, tied with Ilya Kovalchuk and Rick Nash, with 41 in 2003-04. His career season was 2001-02 when his 52 goals were paired with 44 assists for a league-best 96 points, good for the Art Ross Trophy. He was also awarded the Lester B. Pearson Award (now renamed the Ted Lindsay Award) as the most valuable player as selected by the players. Jarome was a First Team All-Star three times and was voted onto the Second Team once. He served as the team's captain from 2006 until he was traded, and was the recipient of the Mark Messier Leadership Award in 2008-09. Jarome also won the King Clancy Memorial Trophy in 2004, an award given to the player "who best exemplifies leadership qualities on and off the ice and who has made a significant humanitarian contribution to his community." Iginla is the Calgary Flames' all-time leader in goals, points and games played, and is second in career assists. His number 12 was retired by the Flames during a ceremony on March 2, 2019.

As the 2012-13 season began to slip away, the Flames traded Iginla to Pittsburgh, who hoped to utilize Iginla's experience and productivity to return to the Stanley Cup Final, but were thwarted by Boston.

It was the Bruins that signed Iginla as a free agent prior to the 2013-14 season, and in his sole season with Boston, he again delivered a 30-goal campaign. Following the season, he joined the Colorado Avalanche and had seasons of 29 and 22 goals. During the 2016-17 season, Jarome was traded to the Los Angeles Kings for a fourth-round draft pick. He retired at the conclusion of that season.

Jarome Iginla's career consisted of 1,554 regular season games, in which he scored 625 times and assisted on 675 more for a total of 1,300 points. In post-season play, he competed in 87 games, scored 37 goals and 31 assists for a total of 68 points.

Iginla also played for Canada at several international tournaments. He led the 1996 World Junior Ice Hockey Championship in scoring on the way to winning a gold medal. He was named an All-Star and the tournament's Top Forward. In 1997, Jarome joined Team Canada at the World Championships in Finland and contributed to a gold medal. He has been a member of Team Canada at three Olympics, winning gold in 2002 in Salt Lake City and 2010 in Vancouver.

In recognition of a truly spectacular career, Jarome Iginla was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2020.

MARTIN ST. LOUIS - INDUCTED 2018 - PLAYER 1998-2000

Born in Laval, Quebec, St. Louis was recruited by the University of Vermont Catamounts, and in his freshman season (1993-94), he was named to the East Coast Athletic Conference (ECAC)'s All-Rookie Team. The next season, he was named to the ECAC First All-Star Team and was an NCAA All-American for the first of three straight seasons. He was a finalist for the Hobey Baker Award as the best college hockey player in the United States. Martin retired as Vermont's all-time leading scorer with 267 points. He was named to the ECAC's all-decade team of the 1990s.

Undrafted by an NHL team, St. Louis earned a try-out with the Ottawa Senators in 1997 but was not signed at the time, but by February 1998, the Calgary Flames signed the outstanding young forward. After being assigned to the Flames' American Hockey League affiliate in Saint John, he scored 26 points in 25 regular season games, and followed that with 20 points in 20 post-season games. That earned St. Louis elevation to the parent Flames for the 1998-99 NHL season. Although he started the season with Calgary, he was sent back to the AHL after 13 games. He re-joined the NHL Flames part way through the 1999-2000 season and picked up three goals and 18 points in 56 games.

After signing with the Tampa Bay Lightning, Martin won the Art Ross Trophy as the NHL's leading regular season scorer and finished with 94 points in 2003-04. He added the league's two Most Valuable Player awards, having his name added to both the Hart Trophy and the Pearson Award, as well as being named to the NHL's First All-Star Team. His 24 points in 23 playoff games helped the Lightning win the franchise's first Stanley Cup championship.

St. Louis enjoyed his most productive season offensively in 2006-07. He finished with career highs in goals (43) and points (102) and added the Lady Byng Trophy as the league's most gentlemanly player. The next season, his 99 points placed him second in league scoring, and again, he was the recipient of the Lady Byng. He took home the award a third time in 2012-13.

Prior to the 2013-14 season Martin was named captain of the Lightning, but in March 2014, St. Louis waived his no-trade clause for a deal to the New York Rangers.

He played his final NHL season in 2014-15, retiring that summer. He played 1,134 regular season games through his 16 NHL seasons, scoring 391 goals and adding 642 assists for 1,033 points. In playoff action, he scored 42 goals, 48 assists and 90 points in 107 games.

Martin took home a gold medal from the 2004 World Cup, silver medals from the 2008 and 2009 World Championships and played in the 2006 and 2014 Winter Olympic Games, earning a gold medal in the latter tournament. The University of Vermont retired his number 8 in 2016 and the Tampa Bay Lightning retired his number 26 in January 2017.

SERGEI MAKAROV - INDUCTED 2016 - PLAYER 1989-93

Born on June 1, 1958 in Chelyabinsk, USSR, Makarov first gained prominence by starring for Russia and winning gold at the 1977 and 1978 World Junior Championships. The skilled winger also participated in 11 World Championships, capturing gold eight times; the 1984 and 1987 Canada Cups; three Olympic tournaments where he twice took home the gold medal; four NHL tours by the Red Army; and the 1987 Rendez-vous series against the NHL All-Stars.

During this time, he was often teamed with Vladimir Krutov and Igor Larionov on the feared "KLM Line," arguably the world's best unit at that time. Sergei won the Izvestia Trophy nine times as the top scorer in the Soviet league.

Originally drafted 241st overall by the Calgary Flames in 1983, Makarov was one of the first Soviet stars to join the NHL when he made his debut in 1989-90. Oddly enough, his first duty with his new club took place in the USSR during the Friendship Tour which saw the Flames play several Soviet clubs as part of their exhibition season. When the NHL season began, the veteran sniper had little difficulty adjusting. He recorded 86 points (24 goals and 62 assists) and was presented with the Calder Trophy as the league's best rookie.

Makarov continued to produce points with the Flames for three more years, accumulating 94 goals and 198 assists for 292 points in 297 games, before being traded to the Hartford Whalers in June 1993. A few days later, he was sent to the San Jose Sharks where he was reunited with Igor Larionov to start the 1993-94 season. He sat out the 1995-96 season then signed as a free agent with the Dallas Stars, but played just four games in 1996-97 before joining Fribourg Gotteron of the Swiss League to complete the season.

Sergei Makarov scored 134 goals and 250 assists for 384 points in 424 regular season NHL games, and added 12 goals and 11 assists in 34 playoff games. In 519 games in the Soviet Championship League, he recorded 322 goals, 388 assists for 710 points. In 2001, Sergei was inducted into the IIHF Hall of Fame and in 2008, he was named to the IIHF All Centennial Team.

PHIL HOUSLEY - INDUCTED 2015 - PLAYER 1994-96, 1998-2001

Drafted in the first round, 6th overall, in the 1982 NHL Draft by the Buffalo Sabres, Phil Housley moved directly to the NHL at age 18 and was runner-up for the Calder Memorial Trophy as the NHL's top rookie in 1983. After eight seasons with the Sabres, the native of Saint Paul, Minnesota played three years with the Winnipeg Jets and another with the St. Louis Blues before being acquired by the Calgary Flames on July 4, 1994. In his first of two stints with the Flames, Housley recorded 24 goals and 95 points in 102 games split over two seasons. He rejoined Calgary to start the 1998-99 season and recorded 26 goals and 143 points over his next 226 games with the Flames. Housley's last season as a member of the Flames ended in 2000-01, and he finished his career in 2002-03 as a member of the Toronto Maple Leafs. In all, Housley scored 50 of his 338 career goals and 238 of his 1,232 points with the Flames, and represented Calgary at the 2000 NHL All-Star Game, one of seven career appearances.

DOUG GILMOUR - INDUCTED 2011 - PLAYER, 1988-92

On June 28, 2011, it was announced that Douglas Robert Gilmour would be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame. He was born June 25, 1963 in Kingston, Ontario, and had a 20-year NHL career.

In 1980-81, his first year with the Cornwall Royals (OHL), Gilmour was 5'9" and 150 pounds. After an early injury curtailed his effectiveness in Cornwall's 1981 Memorial Cup championship, he returned to score 46 goals and 119 points in 1981-82.

Cornwall repeated as Memorial Cup champions and Gilmour, who had been passed over in his first year of draft eligibility, was selected by the St. Louis Blues in the seventh round, 134th overall. He was returned to junior hockey by the Blues for the 1982-83 season and set the OHL on fire with 70 goals and 177 points, capturing the Eddie Powers Trophy as the OHL's leading scorer. He set a record with a 55 consecutive game scoring streak and was named the league's most valuable player.

St. Louis signed him and he joined the team two weeks before the 1983-84 season. The Blues' captain at the time, Brian Sutter, nicknamed Gilmour 'Killer' for his intensity.

After three full seasons hovering around 50 points, Gilmour began to play a more open game and during the 1986 playoffs, he had 21 points in 19 games when the Blues came within a game of advancing to the Stanley Cup Final. The next season, 1986-87, he finished the regular schedule with a career-high 42 goals and 105 points and was selected to represent Team Canada at the 1987 Canada Cup. He scored two important goals in the series against the Soviet Union and was instrumental in Canada's victory at the tournament.

After another solid season in St. Louis, Gilmour was traded to the Calgary Flames at the beginning of the 1988-89 campaign. In Calgary, Gilmour continued his strong play in the playoffs, adding 22 points in 22 games as the Flames won the Stanley Cup in 1989. Gilmour scored the series-winning goal in Game Six of the Final against Montreal. Halfway through the 1991-92 season he was traded to the Toronto Maple Leafs in a blockbuster deal involving 10 players; the largest trade in league history. Gilmour set a Leafs franchise record with 127 points in his first full season with Toronto in 1992-93. He became only the second Leaf after Darryl Sittler to register over 100 points in a season and also led the team to within a game of the Stanley Cup Final, placing second in playoff scoring and leading the league with 25 assists. Gilmour placed second to Mario Lemieux in the race for the Hart Trophy as the league's most valuable player but won the Selke Trophy as the top defensive forward, a remarkable achievement for a player with such offensive numbers.

Gilmour had 111 points the next season, earning his second consecutive spot in the All-Star Game. He once again led the Leafs to the semi-finals in the playoffs. Gilmour was named the team captain in 1994-95 before the lockout-shortened season and remained a popular player in Toronto even as the team began to struggle. When the Leafs went into rebuilding mode midway through the 1996-97 season, Gilmour was sent to the New Jersey Devils. He spent one full season with the defence-oriented Devils and was signed as a free agent by the Chicago Blackhawks in the summer of 1998.

In the spring of 2000, he was traded to the Buffalo Sabres, then signed on as a free agent with the Montreal Canadiens in October 2001 and went on to play parts of two seasons with the Habs before he was dealt back to Toronto at the trade deadline in 2003.

He officially announced his retirement on September 8, 2003. Gilmour registered 1,414 points on the strength of 450 goals and 964 assists in 1,474 regular season games. He added 188 points (60 goals and 128 assists) in 182 playoff games.

On January 31, 2009, Gilmour became the 17th player to be honoured by the Toronto Maple Leafs when his number 93 was raised to the rafters of the Air Canada Centre.

JOE NIEUWENDYK - INDUCTED 2011 - PLAYER, 1986-95

On June 28, 2011, it was announced that Joe Nieuwendyk would be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame. Born in Oshawa, Ontario on September 10, 1966, and then raised in neighbouring Whitby, Joe Nieuwendyk played college hockey at Cornell University in New York State. Nieuwendyk spent three years on the Ivy League school's team and was twice named to the ECAC's First All-Star Team (1986 and 1987). He was also selected as an All-American in both years.

In 1985, after Nieuwendyk's freshman year at Cornell, the Calgary Flames were sufficiently impressed to draft him in the second round, 27th overall. In his first full season as a Flame (1987-88), the young centre scored 51 goals and 92 points, becoming only the second NHL player after Mike Bossy to score 50 goals in his rookie season. Nieuwendyk's totals also included an eye-popping 31 power-play goals and 8 game-winners, and he was rewarded with the Calder Trophy as the league's top rookie.

In Nieuwendyk's second season with the Flames he won the Stanley Cup, again scoring 51 goals. In 1991, he was named captain of the Flames. When knee problems prevented Nieuwendyk from playing early in the 1995-96 season, the Flames found few takers on the trade market. Finally, in December 1995, the Flames traded Nieuwendyk to the Dallas Stars for Jarome Iginla and Corey Millen.

Nieuwendyk missed most of the 1998 playoff due to a knee injury. However, in 1999, his health and luck returned as Nieuwendyk scored 6 game-winning goals in the playoffs to lead the Stars to victory over the Buffalo Sabres in the Stanley Cup Finals. That spring, he was recipient of the Conn Smythe Trophy as the playoff MVP.

Nieuwendyk went on to play parts of two more seasons with the Stars before he was traded to the New Jersey Devils. Following his arrival in New Jersey, Nieuwendyk reached numerous milestones, including the 500-goal plateau, 500 assists and 1,000 points.

In 2003, Nieuwendyk earned his third career Stanley Cup ring despite missing the Devils' Final due to injury. Later that summer he signed as a free agent with the Toronto Maple Leafs where he suited up for one season before opting to move on to the Florida Panthers in the summer of 2005.

Nieuwendyk's first season with the Florida Panthers saw the centre tally 56 points in 65 games, however, the club failed to qualify for the playoffs that spring. Due to chronic back problems, Nieuwendyk retired three months into his second season with the Panthers.

Joe Nieuwendyk left the NHL as one of the most respected players of his time, collecting 564 goals and 562 assists for 1,126 points through 1,257 regular season games. In playoff action, he added 66 goals and 50 assists for 116 points in 158 games.

Besides three Stanley Cup championships, Nieuwendyk won the Calder Trophy in 1988, the King Clancy Trophy (for dedication to his community) in 1995 and the Conn Smythe Trophy in 1999.

On the international stage, Nieuwendyk represented Canada at the 1986 World Junior Championships, at the 1990 World Championships, and is a two-time member of Canada's Winter Olympic team (1998 and 2002).

DARYL K. "DOC" SEAMAN - INDUCTED 2010 - OWNER, 1980-2009

On June 22, 2010, it was announced that Daryl K. "Doc" Seaman, a founding owner of the Calgary Flames, would be inducted into the Builder Category in the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Doc Seaman was born in Rouleau, Saskatchewan. He became one of Alberta's most successful oilmen and industrialists through his company, Bow Valley Industries, along with many other ventures. He and his brothers, B.J. and Don Seaman, were among the first wave of adventurous oilmen who pioneered the industry after the Second World War. Doc Seaman's war record was itself remarkable; he flew 82 successful combat missions out of North Africa as a sub-hunting pilot, earning a Government of France citation for bravery.

An original Calgary Flames owner, Doc Seaman followed the team passionately. Besides bringing the Flames to Calgary, he was a key player in building the Saddledome and bringing the 1988 Olympic Winter Games to Calgary.

A true hockey fan, Doc Seaman joined a small group of visionaries to save Canadian hockey from mediocrity at a time when the European game was becoming dominant. Canada's five straight junior hockey gold medal wins have their roots in Project 75, now called the Seaman Hotchkiss Hockey Foundation. He was a strong supporter of Hockey Canada's grassroots development program.

Among his numerous awards and achievements, Doc Seaman was the founding governor of the Hockey Canada Foundation in 1979; named an Officer, Order of Canada in 1993; elected to the Alberta Sports Hall of Fame in 2007; and received the Alberta Order of Excellence in 2008.

Doc Seaman became the second member of the Flames ownership group to be elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame. Harley N. Hotchkiss received the honour as a member of the Class of 2006. Daryl K. "Doc" Seaman passed away on Sunday, January 11, 2009, at the age of 86.

AL MACINNIS - INDUCTED 2007 - PLAYER, 1981-94

On November 12, 2007, Al MacInnis became the 10th member in the history of the Calgary Flames organization to be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Born Allan MacInnis on July 11, 1963, in Port Hood, Nova Scotia, he played junior hockey for the Kitchener Rangers beginning in 1980-81. During the summer of 1981, MacInnis was drafted in the first round, 15th overall, by the Flames. Although he played a handful of games for the Flames in both 1981-82 and 1982-83, MacInnis continued his junior career, which included a Memorial Cup championship in 1982.

After spending the early part of the 1983-84 season with the CHL's Colorado Flames, MacInnis became a full-time member of the Calgary Flames blue line later that season, playing 51 games and scoring 11 goals and 34 assists for 45 points.

MacInnis spent 13 seasons with Calgary before moving to St. Louis, but left Alberta having evolved into one of the most effective defencemen in the NHL. While with the Flames, he played in eight All-Star Games, but more importantly, was a key component of a Stanley Cup championship for Calgary in 1989, the first in franchise history. For his contributions in the playoffs that spring, including 7 goals and 24 assists in 22 games, MacInnis was awarded the Conn Smythe Trophy. In 803 games played, MacInnis recorded 822 points as a member of the Flames. He also holds the career franchise record for assists (609).

HARLEY N. HOTCHKISS - INDUCTED 2006 - OWNER, 1980-2011

On June 28, 2006, Flames co-owner Harley Hotchkiss received the prestigious honour of election to the Hockey Hall of Fame. Hotchkiss, the youngest of six children, was raised on a farm near Tillsonburg, Ontario. He spent his winters on the pond playing hockey, emulating his beloved Toronto Maple Leafs. His idol was Syl Apps. In addition to dreaming of playing in the NHL, the young Hotchkiss also planned a second career in the business world, just in case. The game of hockey was the beneficiary of Harley's practical side as he used his business success to ensure the growth and development of hockey in Canada.

An original member of the Flames ownership group, Harley Hotchkiss was among the group of local businessmen who introduced the National Hockey League to the City of Calgary in the spring of 1980. The pinnacle of their storied history occurred in 1989 when the Flames captured the Stanley Cup. Of his numerous contributions to the game, one of his most notable efforts and role on behalf of the NHL were to find a resolution to the NHL labour dispute that forced the cancellation of the 2004-05 season. Hotchkiss served six two-year terms as chairman of the NHL Board of Governors.

Harley Hotchkiss was an avid supporter of Hockey Canada and through his efforts the Flames continue to make annual financial contributions to Hockey Canada for the development and growth of the game. With the investment in bringing the NHL to Calgary, the purchase of the Flames funded the creation of the Centre of Excellence that offered coaching clinics, research in hockey development and sports injuries as well as athletic scholarships to Canadian universities. The introduction of Project 75, now known as the Seaman Hotchkiss Hockey Foundation, contributed over $8 million that is distributed by Hockey Canada to benefit the game throughout the country.

His involvement in hockey reached from the grassroots to the top branch. As a young college athlete at Michigan State University, Harley Hotchkiss was a member of the 1950 Spartans varsity hockey club. His generosity for other like-minded hockey people was continuously demonstrated through his contributions for the construction of hockey arenas throughout Canada including Fox Valley, Saskatchewan, and Aylmer, Ontario. Harley Hotchkiss passed away on Wednesday, June 22, 2011.

PETER MAHER - INDUCTED 2006 - PLAY-BY-PLAY

Calgary Flames play-by-play man Peter Maher was honoured by the Hockey Hall of Fame as the winner of the 2006 Foster Hewitt Memorial Award. Maher was the voice of the Flames from 1981 until his retirement following the 2013-14 season. A native of Campbellton, New Brunswick, Maher's success as a hockey play-by-play voice led to his induction into the New Brunswick Sports Hall of Fame in 1996. Maher has also called World Championship games, six NHL All-Star games, and the Stanley Cup Finals in 1980, 1986, 1989 and 2004.

The award, named in honour of the late Foster Hewitt, is presented in recognition of members of the radio and television industry who have made outstanding contributions to their profession and to the game of hockey.

CLIFF FLETCHER - INDUCTED 2004 - GENERAL MANAGER, 1972-91

After an outstanding 48-year career that continues in the NHL, Cliff Fletcher was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame as a Builder in 2004. Fletcher began his hockey career in 1956 with the Montreal Canadiens organization, starting as a scout under Sam Pollock. He joined the St. Louis Blues, eventually earning the role of Assistant General Manager, and helped manoeuvre the Blues into the Stanley Cup Final during the first three years of the franchise's existence. Fletcher was hired as the inaugural General Manager of the Atlanta Flames. He helped orchestrate the franchise's subsequent move from Atlanta to Calgary in time for the 1980-81 season. During Fletcher's regime with the Flames, his teams made the playoffs 16 straight seasons and finished first in their division in 1987-88, 1988-89 and 1989-90. In 1988-89, the Calgary Flames won the Stanley Cup.

Lured to Toronto in 1991, Fletcher spent six seasons as chief operating officer, president and general manager of the Maple Leafs. He was named the 1993 Executive of the Year by The Hockey News. As a team, Toronto improved by an incredible 32 points from 67 points in 1991-92 to a franchise-high 99 points in 1992-93. Following two seasons with the Tampa Bay Lightning as senior advisor to the General Manager, Fletcher was hired by the Phoenix Coyotes as executive vice-president and general manager. He is currently a senior advisor for the Toronto Maple Leafs.

GRANT FUHR - INDUCTED 2003 - PLAYER, 1999-2000, GOALTENDING CONSULTANT, 2000-02

Following a career that saw him attain over 400 NHL wins and amass five Stanley Cup championships, fittingly, Grant Fuhr was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. Although all five Cups (1984, 1985, 1987, 1988, 1990) were collected while backstopping the Edmonton Oilers, Fuhr completed his career as a member of the Calgary Flames.

On October 22, 1999, the Flames defeated the Florida Panthers and Fuhr attained his 400th career win and became only the sixth goaltender in NHL history to reach that milestone. Fuhr's accomplishments include six All-Star Game appearances, Vezina Trophy (1987), Jennings Trophy (1994) and two Canada Cup titles (1984 and 1987).

JOE MULLEN - INDUCTED 2000 - PLAYER, 1985-90

In 345 career games with Calgary (1985-86 to 1989-90), Mullen recorded 388 points (190 G, 198 A). In 17 NHL seasons (1979-80 to 1996-97) with St. Louis, Calgary, Pittsburgh and Boston, the three-time Stanley Cup winner recorded 1,063 points (502 G, 561 A) in 1,062 games.

Mullen played in three NHL All-Star games (1989, 1990 and 1994). He has won the Lady Byng Trophy (1987, 1989), NHL First All-Star Team (1989), NHL +/- Leader (1989), and the Lester Patrick Trophy (1995).

MICHEL GOULET - INDUCTED 1998 - SCOUT, 2010-16

Michel Goulet, a native of Peribonka, Quebec, played 1,089 regular season NHL games scoring 548 goals, 604 assists for 1,152 points and 825 penalty minutes. He started his pro career with the Birmingham Bulls in the World Hockey Association in 1978-79. Following the NHL/WHA merger, Goulet was declared eligible for the 1979 Entry Draft and was selected by the Quebec Nordiques. He spent 11 seasons with the Nordiques before being traded to the Chicago Blackhawks during the 1989-90 season. Goulet was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1998, alongside former teammate Peter Stastny.

Goulet's number 16 was retired by the Nordiques before a large crowd at le Colisée de Québec where he enjoyed his most productive years. Goulet won two Stanley Cups with the Colorado Avalanche in 1996 and 2001 as director of player personnel.

GUY LAPOINTE - INDUCTED 1993 - ASSISTANT COACH & SCOUT, 1990-99

Lapointe played 16 seasons in the NHL with the Montreal Canadiens, St. Louis Blues and Boston Bruins. One of the great players in the history of the game, Lapointe captured six Stanley Cup championships with the Canadiens (1971, 1973, 1976, 1977, 1978 and 1979). Lapointe, along with teammates Serge Savard and Larry Robinson, formed one of the top defence corps in the NHL. In 884 career games, Lapointe recorded 622 points (171 G, 451 A).

LANNY MCDONALD - INDUCTED 1992 - PLAYER, 1981-89, MANAGEMENT, 1989-2003

On September 21, 1992, Lanny McDonald became the first Calgary Flames player to be inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame. McDonald finished his NHL career with 500 goals, 506 assists and 1,006 points in 1,111 games—all milestone achievements. He played 492 career games with the Flames recording 406 points (215 G, 191 A). McDonald won the Bill Masterton Trophy (1982-83), the King Clancy Memorial Trophy (1987-88) and was named NHL Man-of-the-Year in 1988-89. He still holds the Flames record for most goals in a season (66 G, 1982-83) and scored the go-ahead goal in Calgary's Stanley Cup clinching win at Montreal in 1989.

BOB JOHNSON - INDUCTED 1992 - HEAD COACH, 1982-87

Robert "Badger Bob" Johnson was one of hockey's greatest boosters both in Calgary and throughout North America. He led Calgary to the franchise's first 40-win season in 1984-85 and posted a Flames coaching record of 193-155-52 in 400 games. Johnson posted a career coaching record of 234-188-58 with Calgary (1982-83 to 1986-87) and Pittsburgh (1990-91). He led the Penguins to a Stanley Cup championship in 1991. "It's a great day for hockey" is a remark hockey fans will always remember.

GLENN HALL - INDUCTED 1975 - GOALTENDING CONSULTANT, 1988-2000

During his 18 seasons in the NHL, Glenn "Mr. Goalie" Hall posted a 2.51 GAA and was consistently recognized as a top goaltender, being selected to the All-Star Team 11 times. Hall led the NHL in shutouts for six seasons, including his rookie campaign when he won the Calder Trophy and had 84 regular season career shutouts. Hall still holds the record for most consecutive games by a goaltender, with 502, and appeared in 906 league games. He captured three Vezina Trophies, the Conn Smythe Trophy, one Stanley Cup and 13 All-Star Game appearances. In 1988 the Chicago Blackhawks retired Hall's jersey.

MARK MESSIER LEADERSHIP AWARD

Mark Giordano was named the 2020 recipient of the Mark Messier Leadership Award

The Mark Messier NHL Leadership Award has been awarded since 2006-07. It is given “to the player who exemplifies great leadership qualities to his team, on and off the ice during the regular season.”

Suggestions for nominees are solicited from fans, clubs and NHL personnel, but the selection of the three finalists and the ultimate winner is made by Messier, a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame and one of the finest leaders in NHL history. The six-time Stanley Cup champion is one of three players to have been captain of three teams (Edmonton Oilers, New York Rangers, Vancouver Canucks) and is the only player in NHL history to be captain of two teams that won the Stanley Cup (Oilers in 1990; Rangers in 1994).

TEAM AWARDS

THE J.R. McCAIG MEMORIAL AWARD

This award honours two Calgary Flames personnel, a player and staff member, who best exemplify Mr. McCaig's enduring virtues of respect, courtesy and compassion for all individuals he encountered both in his professional and everyday life.

The 2019-20 J.R. McCaig Memorial Award recipients were Milan Lucic and Deidra Campagna.

Removing Barriers

Making hockey more accessible to families in Calgary and surrounding areas.

flames evenstrength program
CALGARY FLAMES FOUNDATION

FLAMES EVENSTRENGTH PROGRAM

Flames EvenStrength Program (FESP) in partnership with Hockey Calgary and KidSport Calgary helps to alleviate the cost of playing hockey for children in our community facing financial barriers to participating in organized sports.

Access to hockey in Calgary and area has never been better. If you want to play, we want to help make it happen. Financial barriers with respect to registration and equipment costs should not keep youth from getting into the game this season.

CALGARY FLAMES SPORTS BANK

Calgary Flames Sports Bank's primary goal is to gather, recycle and redistribute equipment at no cost to kids who would otherwise be denied the opportunity to participate in sports. Calgary Flames Sports Bank opened in August of 2014 to provide no cost gently used equipment to qualified families across Southern Alberta. Calgary Flames Sports Bank is here to help eliminate the cost barrier specific to equipment for families in need.

CALGARY FLAMES COMMUNITY HOUSE LEAGUE

This house league provides recreational players the opportunity to play organized hockey that is affordable, fun and safe with only a moderate time commitment, allowing for participation in other social, academic or recreational activities.

It also provides players with limited skills and knowledge an introduction to the game in a less intimidating format. One game and one practice a week and no fundraising requirements.

EVERY KID EVERY COMMUNITY— HOCKEY ALBERTA FOUNDATION

A community grant program helping to provide every child in Alberta with the opportunity to play hockey.

HEROS

The premise of HEROS is to use the game of hockey as a catalyst to attract vulnerable children and youth to a program offering support for education, self-esteem building, and life skills training. HEROS works with local schools to determine the kids who will benefit most from the program.

Youth from Calgary high-need communities, who are faced with significant social and/or emotional challenges and who struggle at home, at school, or in the community, are all eligible to participate in HEROS.

SUPER HEROS

Super HEROS launched last season with support from the Flames Foundation. Super HEROS program is a free program that provides an adapted on-ice curriculum for boys and girls with cognitive and physical challenges aged 7-17.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Since its creation in 1983, the Calgary Flames Foundation has served as the charitable arm of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club, offering much-needed funding to varied and far-reaching charities. Continuously evolving over its years in operation, the Calgary Flames Foundation now provides millions of dollars in contributions to these key pillars: amateur and grassroots sports, health and wellness and education. In keeping with the original mandate of the ownership group, the Calgary Flames Foundation strives to bring positive change to the lives of thousands of southern Albertans.

READING...GIVE IT A SHOT!

Entering its 24th season, the Reading...Give It a Shot! program promotes the importance of literacy for Grades 4, 5 and 6 students and rewards them with Flames-themed hockey cards for every 100 minutes of reading.

Alongside the Calgary Educational Partnership Foundation (CEPF), the schools that participate in the program are entered into a draw to receive a visit from Flames players. Players do school visits where they answer questions from the students and speak about the positive effects of literacy.

Harvey the Hound also promotes literacy to younger students eager to participate in the program, with his own set of collectable cards that students from kindergarten through Grade 3 can collect for achieving their own reading goals.

Over 26,000 students participated last season in both programs.

For more information or to get your school involved, please visit www.cepfoundation.com

WHEELCHAIR HOCKEY

Going into its 40th year, Calgary Flames players will once again go up against the mighty Townsend Tigers of the Alberta Children's Hospital in a game of wheelchair hockey. Despite the players' immense talent on the ice, the Flames have yet to defeat the Tigers in what has become a staple in the Calgary sports calendar. Following the game, the players sign autographs for the champions.

The Flames versus Tigers tradition began in 1981 and despite their defeats in the gym, the Flames are still winners at the Alberta Children's Hospital. The Calgary Flames Foundation and the Rotary Clubs of Calgary teamed up to donate $2.5 million to help build Alberta's first hospice facility for children. Right next door to the Alberta Children's Hospital, Rotary/Flames House helps families who are in need of respite and palliative care.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY VISIT TO THE ALBERTA CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Around the holiday season, the Calgary Flames make their annual visit to the Alberta Children's Hospital visiting young patients, along with distributing toys and signing autographs. The players also participate in an arts and crafts activity with a group of children from the hospital as well as make individual room visits.

PUMPKIN CARVING

Every Halloween, Calgary Flames players and their significant others team up with families at the Ronald McDonald House to take part in carving pumpkins.

Ronald McDonald House® Southern Alberta provides a home away from home for out-of-town families with sick children receiving medical attention in a Calgary hospital.

CALGARY FLAMES HEALTH TRAINING CAMP

Five years ago the Calgary Flames Foundation created the Flames Health Training Camp. This event provides free health assessments from local physicians and technicians as well as access to health and wellness and informative details about local sports groups.

FLAMES/YMCA GRADE 6 PROGRAM

All Calgary Grade 6 students can head to any YMCA to sign up for a free 13-month membership courtesy of the Calgary Flames Foundation. You'll also receive a free intro Flames package. Register at any YMCA location.

FLAMES@SCHOOL

Teachers and parents—we want your kids to work out and eat right! Head to flamesatschool.com for information and material that you can use at home or in the classroom to help kids develop a healthier lifestyle.

All content is exclusive Flames material that you cannot get anywhere else!

FLAMES FUTURE GOALS

Students are able to engage with a web-based course that leverages hockey to teach foundational Math and Science concepts. This no-cost resource covers topics such as rates and ratios, states of matter, force and energy, and careers in STEM.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON HOW TO PARTICIPATE, PLEASE VISIT THE CALGARY FLAMES FOUNDATION AT: CALGARYFLAMESFOUNDATION.COM

PLAYER PROGRAMS

Through active community and player relations, the Calgary Flames endeavour to develop and implement impactful and high profile community relations programs while establishing relationships with schools, youth sports, minor hockey and other charitable foundations. While the Flames team programs continue to give back to the community, many Flames players also have personal commitments to charities and initiatives, with the Flames Foundation matching each player's donations up to $25,000. The players listed below have taken on additional personal commitments.

MIKAEL BACKLUND—THE ALS SOCIETY OF ALBERTA

Mikael Backlund continues to align himself with the ALS Society of Alberta, an organization near to Backlund and his wife Frida's hearts. In partnership with KPMG, Backlund will donate $200 for every point earned this season to the ALS Society of Alberta and will act as a spokesperson for the organization, attend events and promote their cause. Each month, Mikael and Frida will invite two families who are dealing with ALS to a Flames home game where they will receive lower bowl seats along with a post-game meet and greet with Mikael. Backlund also has a close relationship with both the Kids Cancer Care Foundation of Alberta and Special Olympics Calgary and will continue to support them by attending various events, donating tickets along with participating in Special Olympics floor hockey practices.

MARK GIORDANO—TEAM GIORDANO

Mark Giordano and his wife Lauren continue to partner with the Calgary Board of Education and Education Matters on their Team Giordano community program. The initiative provides resources to low-income Calgary schools to assist in meeting student needs and support personal student development. The funding supports the purchase of new computers, floor hockey equipment, school supplies, wellness and activity spaces, and more. As a way to help students create and achieve their own goals, every student in each Team Giordano school is encouraged and provided support to create goals around Mark's "5 G's" which he and Laura believe are the keys to success in all walks of life. Now in its seventh season, Team Giordano in partnership with the Calgary Italian Open, has donated over $600,000 to Calgary schools, impacting the lives of over 1,900 students per year.

PLAYER PROGRAMS

SEAN MONAHAN

— RONALD McDONALD HOUSE CHARITIES SOUTHERN ALBERTA

Sean Monahan is the official ambassador to Ronald McDonald House Charities® Southern Alberta. As an ambassador, Monahan will donate tickets and make regular visits to the house. Along with the tickets, the selected child and their family will have the opportunity to meet Sean following the game. Monahan has donated over $40,000 to the House.

— BIG BROTHERS AND BIG SISTERS

Over the past two seasons, in partnership with Qualico and the Flames Foundation, Sean Monahan donates $250 per goal as part of his “Big Goal Program”. Over $43,500 has been donated to Big Brothers Big Sisters of Calgary since the start of his program.

SAM BENNETT — BROWN BAGGING FOR CALGARY'S KIDS

Calgary Flames forward Sam Bennett, in partnership with Brown Bagging for Calgary's Kids (BB4CK) and the Calgary Flames Foundation, has launched a unique community initiative to ensure every student in Calgary has a lunch at school. The sixth-year Flame set on a mission to raise awareness and funds for 25,000 lunches to help feed Calgary's kids who would otherwise go without. Bennett proudly aligned with BB4CK as an official ambassador of the charity and alongside the Calgary Flames Foundation, donated $20,000 to the cause to help feed over 4,400 children in 224 schools every school day.

MATTHEW TKACHUK— ALBERTA CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Matthew Tkachuk has partnered with the Alberta Children's Hospital to make appearances all season long with families and youth staying at the hospital. He also donates tickets to youth and families staying at the hospital and makes special appearances at hospital events and fundraisers during the season. Tkachuk is also our ambassador for the NHL's Hockey Fights Cancer Awareness month.

ZAC RINALDO—MENTAL HEALTH CHARITIES

Zac Rinaldo is aligned with mental health charities in Canada to promote mental wellbeing for people of all ages.

Proudly supporting every goal on and off the ice.

Helping kids succeed on the ice means helping them succeed everywhere.

2019-20

During the pandemic shortened season, the Flames finished third in the Pacific Division and defeated the Winnipeg Jets in a Qualifying Round 3-1 before falling to the Dallas Stars in the Western Conference Quarter-Finals 4-2. Matthew Tkachuk and David Rittich made their NHL All-Star debuts while Mark Giordano made his third appearance. Calgary played Winnipeg in the Heritage Classic in Regina marking the second time the Flames participated in an outdoor game. It was announced that Flames legend Jarome Iginla will be inducted as a first ballot Hockey Hall of Famer.
