HISTORY OF THE FRANCHISE

The Calgary Flames are proud to celebrate their 40th season with the 2019-20 NHL season.

It started in May 1980, when Nelson Skalbania and a group of Calgary entrepreneurs consisting of Daryl and B.J. Seaman, Harley Hotchkiss, Norm Green, Ralph Scurfield, and Norman Kwong announced the acquisition of the Atlanta Flames and declared their intention to relocate the franchise to Alberta. Calgarians lined up to support their new team. For the first time in NHL history, 755 standing-room season tickets were sold, generating a capacity crowd at the Stampede Corral for the Flames' inaugural game on October 9, 1980.

Since that first season, the Flames have amassed an impressive record of achievements. The team has claimed two Smythe Division championships (1985-86, 1988-89), two Clarence Campbell Conference titles (1985-86, 1988-89), three Pacific Division titles (1993-94, 1994-95, 2018-19), two Presidents' Trophies (1987-88, 1988-89), and has advanced to the Stanley Cup Final three times (1986, 1989, 2004).

After falling to the Montreal Canadiens in five games in 1986, the Flames defeated the Habs to claim the Stanley Cup in a thrilling six-game series in 1989, the only visiting team ever to win the Cup on Montreal Forum ice. In 2004, Calgary eliminated three of the top teams in the League to reach the final, losing to the Tampa Bay Lightning in the last game of a seven-game series. Calgary fans rallied behind their team by sporting red Flames jerseys, launching the phenomenon known as the "C of Red" that remains a hallmark of Flames home games to this day.

On March 2, 2019, former captain Jarome Iginla had his #12 raised to the rafters, becoming only the third Flames player to have his jersey number retired by the organization. Two players from the team's historic 1989 playoff run—Lanny McDonald (#9) and Mike Vernon (#30)—have also had their numbers retired, while two others—Al MacInnis (#2) and Joe Nieuwendyk (#25)—have been a "Forever a Flame" honouree.

Current team captain Mark Giordano was recognized this past season when he was awarded the James Norris Memorial Trophy as the NHL's top defenceman. Giordano is the first Flame in franchise history to receive the award.

Off the ice, the accolades have come as well. Two Calgary legends were honoured by the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2006, when Flames co-owner Harley Hotchkiss was inducted in the Builder Category and broadcaster Peter Maher received the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award. Co-owner Daryl "Doc" Seaman was posthumously inducted into the Hall as a Builder in 2010.

In 1983, the team launched the Calgary Flames Foundation as the charitable arm of the club. Since its inception, the Foundation and its partners have raised millions of dollars for education, health and medical research, and amateur and grassroots sports. This past year alone, the Foundation distributed over $3.8 million to annual projects and southern Alberta charities.

The Flames' commitment to sports at both the junior and professional levels has led to their increasing involvement not just in hockey, but also in other sports. In 1997, the team purchased the Western Hockey League Calgary Hitmen, an affiliation that continues today under the banner of the Calgary Sports and Entertainment Corporation (CSEC). Launched in 2012, CSEC is the parent company for five sports franchises: the Calgary Flames, Calgary Hitmen, Calgary Roughnecks (NLL), Calgary Stampede (CFL), and Stockton Heat (AHL). Since 2017, CSEC is also a proud partner and supporter of the ECHL's Kansas City Mavericks.

Looking forward, the Flames' 40th season promises to be one to remember. In August, the team unveiled their 40th logo, featuring retro red and yellow colours and the white flaming "C" from 1980. The logo will grace centre ice at the Scotiabank Saddledome for the entire season. Also this year, the Flames will participate in their second NHL outdoor game, visiting the Winnipeg Jets on October 26 for the Heritage Classic at Mosaic Stadium in Regina.

For four decades, the Calgary Flames have been electrifying hockey fans in southern Alberta. In that time, not only has the team established itself as a successful NHL franchise, but it has grown into a vital and integral part of our community. From their on-ice victories to their off-ice charitable endeavours, the Flames are one of the premier professional sports organizations in North America.

MARTIN GELINÁS - ASSISTANT COACH

Martin Gelinás is in his eighth season as an assistant coach with the Calgary Flames. Prior to joining the Flames, Gelinás served as the Director of Player Development for the Nashville Predators, joining the staff following his retirement as a player in 2009.

In his 19-year NHL career, Gelinás played in 1,273 games (74th all-time at the start of this season) and scored 660 points. He played the 2002-03 and 2004-05 seasons with the Flames, and tied an NHL record by scoring three playoff series-clinching goals in the same year – including two in overtime – during the Flames' 2004 Stanley Cup run (and joining Ken Linseman in the record book in the process). "The Eliminator," as Gelinás was known, is one of just a handful of players to have reached the Stanley Cup Finals with four different teams; the left-winger won a Stanley Cup in 1990 as a member of the Edmonton Oilers and also played in the NHL Finals in 1994 and 2002. He also played two professional seasons in Switzerland (2004-05 and 2008-09).

A native of Shawinigan, Quebec, Gelinás made a splash in 1987-88 with the Hull Olympiques of the QMJHL with a 63-goal, 131-point campaign. He was named CHL Rookie of the Year in the process and selected seventh overall by the Los Angeles Kings in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft. But Gelinás never suited up for the Kings. Two months after the draft, on August 9, 1988, he was included in the celebrated "Gretzky Trade" that sent Gelinás, Kings centre Jimmy Carson, the team's first round picks in the 1989, 1991 and 1993 entry drafts, and a reported $15 million cash to Edmonton in exchange for Wayne Gretzky, Mike Krushelnyski and Marty McSorley.

Gelinás played six games for the Oilers in 1988 before being re-joining the Olympiques. In his first full NHL season in 1989-90, Gelinás had 25 points in 46 games, and won the Stanley Cup as Edmonton defeated the Boston Bruins in five games. Along with Joe Murphy and Adam Graves, he helped make up the popular Oilers' forward line known as "The Kid Line." Gelinás was the last player from the 1980s Oilers' dynasty active in the NHL.

He was traded to the Quebec Nordiques during the 1993 NHL Entry Draft and played 31 games for Quebec before being claimed on waivers by the Vancouver Canucks. Gelinás was a major factor in Vancouver's 1994 postseason run losing in seven games in the Stanley Cup Finals to the New York Rangers. He and goaltender Kirk McLean were traded to the Carolina Hurricanes on January 3, 1998, where he spent five seasons before joining the Calgary Flames. He went on to play a year in Switzerland during the 2004-05 season before signing with the Florida Panthers for the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons. He concluded his NHL career in 2007-08 as a member of the Nashville Predators, where his season was cut short by a knee injury. He was Nashville's Masterton Trophy nominee that year.

Gelinás and his family have lived in Calgary since 2002. He and his wife Jane, have three children: a son, Matthew and daughters, Cameron and Morgan.

MARTIN ST. LOUIS - INDUCTED 2018 - PLAYER 1998-2000

Born in Laval, Quebec, St. Louis was recruited by the University of Vermont Catamounts, and in his freshman season (1993-94), he was named to the East Coast Athletic Conference (ECAC)'s All-Rookie Team. The next season, he was named to the ECAC First All-Star Team and was an NCAA All-American for the first of three straight seasons. He was a finalist for the Hobey Baker Award as the best college hockey player in the United States. Martin retired as Vermont's all-time leading scorer with 267 points. He was named to the ECAC's all-decade team of the 1990s.

Undrafted by an NHL team, St. Louis earned a try-out with the Ottawa Senators in 1997 but was not signed at the time, but by February 1998, the Calgary Flames signed the outstanding young forward. After being assigned to the Flames' American Hockey League affiliate in Saint John, he scored 26 points in 25 regular season games, and followed that with 20 points in 20 post-season games. That earned St. Louis elevation to the parent Flames for the 1998-99 NHL season. Although he started the season with Calgary, he was sent back to the AHL after 13 games. He re-joined the NHL Flames part way through the 1999-2000 season and picked up three goals and 18 points in 56 games.

After signing with the Tampa Bay Lightning, Martin won the Art Ross Trophy as the NHL's leading regular season scorer and finished with 94 points in 2003-04. He added the league's two Most Valuable Player awards, having his name added to both the Hart Trophy and the Pearson Award, as well as being named to the NHL's First All-Star Team. His 24 points in 23 playoff games helped the Lightning win the franchise's first Stanley Cup championship.

St. Louis enjoyed his most productive season offensively in 2006-07. He finished with career highs in goals (43) and points (102) and added the Lady Byng Trophy as the league's most gentlemanly player. The next season, his 99 points placed him second in league scoring, and again, he was the recipient of the Lady Byng. He took home the award a third time in 2012-13.

Prior to the 2013-14 season Martin was named captain of the Lightning, but in March 2014, St. Louis waived his no-trade clause for a deal to the New York Rangers.

He played his final NHL season in 2014-15, retiring that summer. He played 1,134 regular season games through his 16 NHL seasons, scoring 391 goals and adding 642 assists for 1,033 points. In playoff action, he scored 42 goals, 48 assists and 90 points in 107 games.

Martin took home a gold medal from the 2004 World Cup, silver medals from the 2008 and 2009 World Championships and played in the 2006 and 2014 Winter Olympic Games, earning a gold medal in the latter tournament. The University of Vermont retired his number 8 in 2016 and the Tampa Bay Lightning retired his number 26 in January 2017.

SERGEI MAKAROV - INDUCTED 2016 - PLAYER 1989-93

Born on June 1, 1958 in Chelyabinsk, USSR, Makarov first gained prominence by starring for Russia and winning gold at the 1977 and 1978 World Junior Championships. The skilled winger also participated in 11 World Championships, capturing gold eight times; the 1984 and 1987 Canada Cups; three Olympic tournaments where he twice took home the gold medal; four NHL tours by the Red Army; and the 1987 Rendez-vous series against the NHL All-Stars.

During this time, he was often teamed with Vladimir Krutov and Igor Larionov on the feared "KLM Line," arguably the world's best unit at that time. Sergei won the Izvestia Trophy nine times as the top scorer in the Soviet league.

Originally drafted 241st overall by the Calgary Flames in 1983, Makarov was one of the first Soviet stars to join the NHL when he made his debut in 1989-90. Oddly enough, his first duty with his new club took place in the USSR during the Friendship Tour which saw the Flames play several Soviet clubs as part of their exhibition season. When the NHL season began, the veteran sniper had little difficulty adjusting. He recorded 86 points (24 goals and 62 assists) and was presented with the Calder Trophy as the league's best rookie.

Makarov continued to produce points with the Flames for three more years, accumulating 94 goals and 198 assists for 292 points in 297 games, before being traded to the Hartford Whalers in June 1993. A few days later, he was sent to the San Jose Sharks where he was reunited with Igor Larionov to start the 1993-94 season. He sat out the 1995-96 season then signed as a free agent with the Dallas Stars, but played just four games in 1996-97 before joining Fribourg Gotteron of the Swiss League to complete the season.

Sergei Makarov scored 134 goals and 250 assists for 384 points in 424 regular season NHL games, and added 12 goals and 11 assists in 34 playoff games. In 519 games in the Soviet Championship League, he recorded 322 goals, 388 assists for 710 points. In 2001, Sergei was inducted into the IIHF Hall of Fame and in 2008, he was named to the IIHF All Centennial Team.

PHIL HOUSLEY - INDUCTED 2015 - PLAYER 1994-96, 1998-2001

Drafted in the first round, 6th overall, in the 1982 NHL Draft by the Buffalo Sabres, Phil Housley moved directly to the NHL at age 18 and was runner-up for the Calder Memorial Trophy as the NHL's top rookie in 1983. After eight seasons with the Sabres, the native of Saint Paul, Minnesota played three years with the Winnipeg Jets and another with the St. Louis Blues before being acquired by the Calgary Flames on July 4, 1994. In his first of two stints with the Flames, Housley recorded 24 goals and 95 points in 102 games split over two seasons. He rejoined Calgary to start the 1998-99 season and recorded 26 goals and 143 points over his next 226 games with the Flames. Housley's last season as a member of the Flames ended in 2000-01, and he finished his career in 2002-03 as a member of the Toronto Maple Leafs. In all, Housley scored 50 of his 338 career goals and 238 of his 1,232 points with the Flames, and represented Calgary at the 2000 NHL All-Star Game, one of seven career appearances.

DOUG GILMOUR - INDUCTED 2011 - PLAYER, 1988-92

On June 28, 2011, it was announced that Douglas Robert Gilmour would be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame. He was born June 25, 1963 in Kingston, Ontario, and had a 20-year NHL career.

In 1980-81, his first year with the Cornwall Royals (OHL), Gilmour was 5'9" and 150 pounds. After an early injury curtailed his effectiveness in Cornwall's 1981 Memorial Cup championship, he returned to score 46 goals and 119 points in 1981-82.

Cornwall repeated as Memorial Cup champions and Gilmour, who had been passed over in his first year of draft eligibility, was selected by the St. Louis Blues in the seventh round, 134th overall. He was returned to junior hockey by the Blues for the 1982-83 season and set the OHL on fire with 70 goals and 177 points, capturing the Eddie Powers Trophy as the OHL's leading scorer. He set a record with a 55 consecutive game scoring streak and was named the league's most valuable player.

St. Louis signed him and he joined the team two weeks before the 1983-84 season. The Blues' captain at the time, Brian Sutter, nicknamed Gilmour 'Killer' for his intensity.

After three full seasons hovering around 50 points, Gilmour began to play a more open game and during the 1986 playoffs, he had 21 points in 19 games when the Blues came within a game of advancing to the Stanley Cup Final. The next season, 1986-87, he finished the regular schedule with a career-high 42 goals and 105 points and was selected to represent Team Canada at the 1987 Canada Cup. He scored two important goals in the series against the Soviet Union and was instrumental in Canada's victory at the tournament.

After another solid season in St. Louis, Gilmour was traded to the Calgary Flames at the beginning of the 1988-89 campaign. In Calgary, Gilmour continued his strong play in the playoffs, adding 22 points in 22 games as the Flames won the Stanley Cup in 1989. Gilmour scored the series-winning goal in Game Six of the Final against Montreal. Halfway through the 1991-92 season he was traded to the Toronto Maple Leafs in a blockbuster deal involving 10 players; the largest trade in league history.

Gilmour set a Leafs franchise record with 127 points in his first full season with Toronto in 1992-93. He became only the second Leaf after Darryl Sittler to register over 100 points in a season and also led the team to within a game of the Stanley Cup Final, placing second in playoff scoring and leading the league with 25 assists. Gilmour placed second to Mario Lemieux in the race for the Hart Trophy as the league's most valuable player but won the Selke Trophy as the top defensive forward, a remarkable achievement for a player with such offensive numbers.

Gilmour had 111 points the next season, earning his second consecutive spot in the All-Star Game. He once again led the Leafs to the semi-finals in the playoffs. Gilmour was named the team captain in 1994-95 before the lockout-shortened season and remained a popular player in Toronto even as the team began to struggle. When the Leafs went into rebuilding mode midway through the 1996-97 season, Gilmour was sent to the New Jersey Devils. He spent one full season with the defence-oriented Devils and was signed as a free agent by the Chicago Blackhawks in the summer of 1998.

In the spring of 2000, he was traded to the Buffalo Sabres, then signed on as a free agent with the Montreal Canadiens in October 2001 and went on to play parts of two seasons with the Habs before he was dealt back to Toronto at the trade deadline in 2003.

He officially announced his retirement on September 8, 2003. Gilmour registered 1,414 points on the strength of 450 goals and 964 assists in 1,474 regular season games. He added 188 points (60 goals and 128 assists) in 182 playoff games.

On January 31, 2009, Gilmour became the 17th player to be honoured by the Toronto Maple Leafs when his number 93 was raised to the rafters of the Air Canada Centre.

JOE NIEUWENDYK - INDUCTED 2011 - PLAYER, 1986-95

On June 28, 2011, it was announced that Joe Nieuwendyk would be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame. Born in Oshawa, Ontario on September 10, 1966, and then raised in neighbouring Whitby, Joe Nieuwendyk played college hockey at Cornell University in New York State. Nieuwendyk spent three years on the Ivy League school's team and was twice named to the ECAC's First All-Star Team (1986 and 1987). He was also selected as an All-American in both years.

In 1985, after Nieuwendyk's freshman year at Cornell, the Calgary Flames were sufficiently impressed to draft him in the second round, 27th overall. In his first full season as a Flame (1987-88), the young centre scored 51 goals and 92 points, becoming only the second NHL player after Mike Bossy to score 50 goals in his rookie season. Nieuwendyk's totals also included an eye-popping 31 power-play goals and 8 game-winners, and he was rewarded with the Calder Trophy as the league's top rookie.

In Nieuwendyk's second season with the Flames he won the Stanley Cup, again scoring 51 goals. In 1991, he was named captain of the Flames. When knee problems prevented Nieuwendyk from playing early in the 1995-96 season, the Flames found few takers on the trade market. Finally, in December 1995, the Flames traded Nieuwendyk to the Dallas Stars for Jarome Iginla and Corey Millen.

Nieuwendyk missed most of the 1998 playoff due to a knee injury. However, in 1999, his health and luck returned as Nieuwendyk scored 6 game-winning goals in the playoffs to lead the Stars to victory over the Buffalo Sabres in the Stanley Cup Finals. That spring, he was recipient of the Conn Smythe Trophy as the playoff MVP.

Nieuwendyk went on to play parts of two more seasons with the Stars before he was traded to the New Jersey Devils. Following his arrival in New Jersey, Nieuwendyk reached numerous milestones, including the 500-goal plateau, 500 assists and 1,000 points.

In 2003, Nieuwendyk earned his third career Stanley Cup ring despite missing the Devils' Final due to injury. Later that summer he signed as a free agent with the Toronto Maple Leafs where he suited up for one season before opting to move on to the Florida Panthers in the summer of 2005.

Nieuwendyk's first season with the Florida Panthers saw the centre tally 56 points in 65 games, however, the club failed to qualify for the playoffs that spring. Due to chronic back problems, Nieuwendyk retired three months into his second season with the Panthers.

Joe Nieuwendyk left the NHL as one of the most respected players of his time, collecting 564 goals and 562 assists for 1,126 points through 1,257 regular season games. In playoff action, he added 66 goals and 50 assists for 116 points in 158 games.

Besides three Stanley Cup championships, Nieuwendyk won the Calder Trophy in 1988, the King Clancy Trophy (for dedication to his community) in 1995 and the Conn Smythe Trophy in 1999.

On the international stage, Nieuwendyk represented Canada at the 1986 World Junior Championships, at the 1990 World Championships, and is a two-time member of Canada's Winter Olympic team (1998 and 2002).

DARYL K. "DOC" SEAMAN - INDUCTED 2010 - OWNER, 1980-2009

On June 22, 2010, it was announced that Daryl K. "Doc" Seaman, a founding owner of the Calgary Flames, would be inducted into the Builder Category in the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Doc Seaman was born in Rouleau, Saskatchewan. He became one of Alberta's most successful oilmen and industrialists through his company, Bow Valley Industries, along with many other ventures. He and his brothers, B.J. and Don Seaman, were among the first wave of adventurous oilmen who pioneered the industry after the Second World War. Doc Seaman's war record was itself remarkable; he flew 82 successful combat missions out of North Africa as a sub-hunting pilot, earning a Government of France citation for bravery.

An original Calgary Flames owner, Doc Seaman followed the team passionately. Besides bringing the Flames to Calgary, he was a key player in building the Saddledome and bringing the 1988 Olympic Winter Games to Calgary.

A true hockey fan, Doc Seaman joined a small group of visionaries to save Canadian hockey from mediocrity at a time when the European game was becoming dominant. Canada's five straight junior hockey gold medal wins have their roots in Project 75, now called the Seaman Hotchkiss Hockey Foundation. He was a strong supporter of Hockey Canada's grassroots development program.

Among his numerous awards and achievements, Doc Seaman was the founding governor of the Hockey Canada Foundation in 1979; named an Officer, Order of Canada in 1993; elected to the Alberta Sports Hall of Fame in 2007; and received the Alberta Order of Excellence in 2008.

Doc Seaman became the second member of the Flames ownership group to be elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame. Harley N. Hotchkiss received the honour as a member of the Class of 2006. Daryl K. "Doc" Seaman passed away on Sunday, January 11, 2009, at the age of 86.

AL MACINNIS - INDUCTED 2007 - PLAYER, 1981-94

On November 12, 2007, Al MacInnis became the 10th member in the history of the Calgary Flames organization to be honoured with induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame.

Born Allan MacInnis on July 11, 1963, in Port Hood, Nova Scotia, he played junior hockey for the Kitchener Rangers beginning in 1980-81. During the summer of 1981, MacInnis was drafted in the first round, 15th overall, by the Flames. Although he played a handful of games for the Flames in both 1981-82 and 1982-83, MacInnis continued his junior career, which included a Memorial Cup championship in 1982.

After spending the early part of the 1983-84 season with the CHL's Colorado Flames, MacInnis became a full-time member of the Calgary Flames blue line later that season, playing 51 games and scoring 11 goals and 34 assists for 45 points.

MacInnis spent 13 seasons with Calgary before moving to St. Louis, but left Alberta having evolved into one of the most effective defencemen in the NHL. While with the Flames, he played in eight All-Star Games, but more importantly, was a key component of a Stanley Cup championship for Calgary in 1989, the first in franchise history. For his contributions in the playoffs that spring, including 7 goals and 24 assists in 22 games, MacInnis was awarded the Conn Smythe Trophy. In 803 games played, MacInnis recorded 822 points as a member of the Flames. He also holds the career franchise record for assists (609).

HARLEY N. HOTCHKISS - INDUCTED 2006 - OWNER, 1980-2011

On June 28, 2006, Flames co-owner Harley Hotchkiss received the prestigious honour of election to the Hockey Hall of Fame. Hotchkiss, the youngest of six children, was raised on a farm near Tillsonburg, Ontario. He spent his winters on the pond playing hockey, emulating his beloved Toronto Maple Leafs. His idol was Syl Apps. In addition to dreaming of playing in the NHL, the young Hotchkiss also planned a second career in the business world, just in case. The game of hockey was the beneficiary of Harley's practical side as he used his business success to ensure the growth and development of hockey in Canada.

An original member of the Flames ownership group, Harley Hotchkiss was among the group of local businessmen who introduced the National Hockey League to the City of Calgary in the spring of 1980. The pinnacle of their storied history occurred in 1989 when the Flames captured the Stanley Cup. Of his numerous contributions to the game, one of his most notable efforts and role on behalf of the NHL were to find a resolution to the NHL labour dispute that forced the cancellation of the 2004-05 season. Hotchkiss served six two-year terms as chairman of the NHL Board of Governors.

Harley Hotchkiss was an avid supporter of Hockey Canada and through his efforts the Flames continue to make annual financial contributions to Hockey Canada for the development and growth of the game. With the investment in bringing the NHL to Calgary, the purchase of the Flames funded the creation of the Centre of Excellence that offered coaching clinics, research in hockey development and sports injuries as well as athletic scholarships to Canadian universities. The introduction of Project 75, now known as the Seaman Hotchkiss Hockey Foundation, contributed over $8 million that is distributed by Hockey Canada to benefit the game throughout the country.

His involvement in hockey reached from the grassroots to the top branch. As a young college athlete at Michigan State University, Harley Hotchkiss was a member of the 1950 Spartans varsity hockey club. His generosity for other like-minded hockey people was continuously demonstrated through his contributions for the construction of hockey arenas throughout Canada including Fox Valley, Saskatchewan, and Aylmer, Ontario. Harley Hotchkiss passed away on Wednesday, June 22, 2011.

IN CALGARY AND SURROUNDING AREAS.

CALGARY FLAMES FOUNDATION

FLAMES EVENSTRENGTH PROGRAM

Flames EvenStrength Program (FESP) in partnership with Hockey Calgary and KidSport Calgary helps to alleviate the cost of playing hockey for children in our community facing financial barriers to participating in organized sports.

Access to hockey in Calgary and area has never been better. If you want to play, we want to help make it happen. Financial barriers with respect to registration and equipment costs should not keep youth from getting into the game this season.

COMRIE'S SPORTS EQUIPMENT BANK

Comrie's Sports Equipment Bank's primary goal is to gather, recycle and redistribute equipment at no cost to kids who would otherwise be denied the opportunity to participate in sports. Comrie's Sports Equipment Bank opened in August of 2014 to provide no cost gently used equipment to qualified families across Southern Alberta. Comrie's is here to help eliminate the cost barrier specific to equipment for families in need.

CALGARY FLAMES COMMUNITY HOUSE LEAGUE

This house league provides recreational players the opportunity to play organized hockey that is affordable, fun and safe with only a moderate time commitment, allowing for participation in other social, academic or recreational activities.

It also provides players with limited skills and knowledge an introduction to the game in a less intimidating format. One game and one practice a week and no fundraising requirements.

CALGARY FLAMES NOVICE PROGRAM

Launched in 2015, the Flames Foundation Novice Hockey Program with Hockey Calgary helps alleviate costs associated with playing minor hockey for the novice age category.

HEROS

The premise of HEROS is to use the game of hockey as a catalyst to attract vulnerable children and youth to a program offering support for education, self-esteem building, and life skills training. HEROS works with local schools to determine the kids who will benefit most from the program.

Children from Calgary high-need communities who are in grade four or five, who are faced with significant social and/or emotional challenges and who struggle at home, at school, or in the community, are all eligible to participate in HEROS.

SUPER HEROS

Super HEROS launched last season with support from the Flames Foundation. Super HEROS program is a free program that provides an adapted on-ice curriculum for boys and girls with cognitive and physical challenges aged 7-17.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Since its creation in 1983, the Calgary Flames Foundation has served as the charitable arm of the Calgary Flames Hockey Club, offering much-needed funding to varied and far-reaching charities. Continuously evolving over its years in operation, the Flames Foundation now provides millions of dollars in contributions to these key pillars: amateur and grassroots sports, health and wellness and education. In keeping with the original mandate of the ownership group, the Calgary Flames Foundation strives to bring positive change to the lives of thousands of southern Albertans.

READING...GIVE IT A SHOT!

Entering its 23rd season, the Reading...Give It a Shot! program promotes the importance of literacy for Grades 4, 5 and 6 students and rewards them with Flames-themed hockey cards for every 100 minutes of reading.

Alongside the Calgary Educational Partnership Foundation (CEPF), the schools that participate in the program are entered into a draw to receive a visit from Flames players. Players do school visits where they answer questions from the students and speak about the positive effects of literacy.

Harvey the Hound also promotes literacy to younger students eager to participate in the program, with his own set of collectable cards that students from kindergarten through Grade 3 can collect for achieving their own reading goals.

Over 26,000 students participated last season in both programs.

For more information or to get your school involved, please visit www.cepfoundation.com

WHEELCHAIR HOCKEY

Going into its 40th year, Calgary Flames players will once again go up against the mighty Townsend Tigers of the Alberta Children's Hospital in a game of wheelchair hockey. Despite the players' immense talent on the ice, the Flames have yet to defeat the Tigers in what has become a staple in the Calgary sports calendar. Following the game, the players sign autographs for the champions.

The Flames versus Tigers tradition began in 1981 and despite their defeats in the gym, the Flames are still winners at the Alberta Children's Hospital. The Calgary Flames Foundation and the Rotary Clubs of Calgary teamed up to donate $2.5 million to help build Alberta's first hospice facility for children. Right next door to the Alberta Children's Hospital, Rotary/Flames House helps families who are in need of respite and palliative care.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY VISIT TO THE ALBERTA CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Around the holiday season, the Calgary Flames make their annual visit to the Alberta Children's Hospital visiting young patients, along with distributing toys and signing autographs. The players also participate in an arts and crafts activity with a group of children from the hospital as well as make individual room visits.

PUMPKIN CARVING

Every Halloween, Calgary Flames players and their significant others team up with families at the Ronald McDonald House to take part in carving pumpkins.

Ronald McDonald House® Southern Alberta provides a home away from home for out-of-town families with sick children receiving medical attention in a Calgary hospital.

CALGARY FLAMES HEALTH TRAINING CAMP

Five years ago the Calgary Flames Foundation created the Flames Health Training Camp. This event provides free health assessments from local physicians and technicians as well as access to health and wellness and informative details about local sports groups.

FLAMES/YMCA GRADE 6 PROGRAM

All Grade 6 students can head to any YMCA to sign up for a free membership courtesy of the Calgary Flames Foundation. You'll also receive a free intro Flames package. Register at any YMCA location.

FLAMES@SCHOOL

Teachers and parents—we want your kids to work out and eat right! Head to flamesatschool.com for information and material that you can use at home or in the classroom to help kids develop a healthier lifestyle.

All content is exclusive Flames material that you cannot get anywhere else!

FLAMES FUTURE GOALS

Students are able to engage with a web-based course that leverages hockey to teach foundational Math and Science concepts. This no-cost resource covers topics such as rates and ratios, states of matter, force and energy, and careers in STEM.

For more information on how to participate, please visit the Calgary Flames Foundation at: CalgaryFlamesFoundation.com

PLAYER PROGRAMS

Through active community and player relations, the Calgary Flames endeavour to develop and implement impactful and high profile community relations programs while establishing relationships with schools, youth sports, minor hockey and other charitable foundations. While the Flames team programs continue to give back to the community, many Flames players also have personal commitments to charities and initiatives, with the Flames Foundation matching each player's donations up to $25,000. The players listed below have taken on additional personal commitments.

T.J. BRODIE – SKATE IN STRIDES

T.J. Brodie continues to grow his Skate In Strides program alongside CARSTAR Collision and Glass Service in support of Cystic Fibrosis (CF) Canada. Known for his effortless skating, Brodie has created custom made skate guards and a Skate In Strides branded Calgary Flames hat with all proceeds being matched by Brodie and the Calgary Flames Foundation in support of Brodie's cousin who has CF. Now in its sixth season, hats and skate guards are sold at Calgary Flames FanAttic stores, CARSTAR Calgary locations and online at flamesport.com. Since its inception in 2014, Brodie's Skate In Strides initiative has raised over $200,000 in support of Cystic Fibrosis Canada. Brodie continues to also donate his time to CF by appearing at the Wrapping for a Cure event at Market Mall where shoppers have the opportunity to have their Christmas presents wrapped in exchange for making a donation to Cystic Fibrosis Canada.

MIKAEL BACKLUND – THE ALS SOCIETY OF ALBERTA

Mikael Backlund continues to align himself with the ALS Society of Alberta, an organization near to Backlund and his girlfriend Frida's hearts. In partnership with KPMG, Backlund will donate $200 for every point earned this season to the ALS Society of Alberta and will act as a spokesperson for the organization, attend events and promote their cause. Each month, Mikael and Frida will invite two families who are dealing with ALS to a Flames home game where they will receive lower bowl seats along with a post-game meet and greet with Mikael. Backlund also has a close relationship with both the Kids Cancer Care Foundation of Alberta and Special Olympics Calgary and will continue to support them by attending various events, donating tickets along with participating in Special Olympics floor hockey practices.

MARK GIORDANO – TEAM GIORDANO

Mark Giordano and his wife Lauren continue to partner with the Calgary Board of Education on their Team Giordano community program. The initiative provides resources to four low-income Calgary schools to assist in meeting student needs and support personal student development. The funding supports the purchase of new computers, floor hockey equipment, school supplies and each child's own journal together with a program that provides students mentorship opportunities developed and supported by Mark and Lauren. As a way to help students create and achieve their own goals, every student in each Team Giordano school is encouraged and provided support to complete the Gio Journal describing the "5 G's" Mark believes are the keys to success in all walks of life. Now in its sixth season, Team Giordano in partnership with Pizza 73 and the Calgary Italian Open, has donated over half a million dollars to its four schools, impacting the lives of 1,900 students.

SEAN MONAHAN – RONALD McDONALD HOUSE CHARITIES SOUTHERN ALBERTA

Sean Monahan is the official ambassador to Ronald McDonald House Charities® Southern Alberta. As an ambassador, Monahan will donate tickets and make regular visits to the house. Along with the tickets, the selected child and their family will have the opportunity to meet Sean following the game. This season Monahan donated $20,000 to the House.

PLAYER PROGRAMS

TRAVIS HAMONIC – D-PARTNER PROGRAM, THE NORTHERN PROJECT AND CHARLIE'S CHILDREN

Travis Hamonic continues his efforts off the ice in supporting children who have lost a parent unexpectedly through "Hamonic's D-Partner" program. Hamonic invites a child or families who have lost a parent unexpectedly, to attend a game. As his guest, they watch the action from Hamonic's personal seats. Following the game, the guest(s) meet Hamonic, take pictures, and receive autographs and a Flames dressing room tour.

Prior to the start of the 2017-18 season, the native of St. Malo, Manitoba expanded his philanthropy by creating The Northern Project, a program that sees Indigenous children from the Canadian territories visit Calgary for a weekend on an all-expenses paid trip courtesy of the Hamonic's. Being Métis himself, Travis holds his roots very close to his heart and through this, provides children and their families an opportunity they otherwise may not be able to experience. On three separate occasions this season, the Hamonic's hosted a deserving child and their parent, with total expenses paid from Northern Canada.

At the beginning of the 2018-19 season Travis and his wife announced a new initiative titled Charlie's Children. With support from partners like the Calgary Flames Foundation, Women In Need Society and West Coast Kids, the program provides financial help to new families struggling with costs associated with preparing for a child.

AUSTIN CZARNIK – HEROS HOCKEY

Austin Czarnik represents the Calgary Flames as their Hockey is for Everyone (HIFE) Ambassador. As an NHL and NHLPA initiative, through various platforms, Austin will reach out to underrepresented communities in Calgary and surrounding area. This includes being a part of Hockey Education Reaching Out Society (HEROS) which is a volunteer-driven charity that uses the game of ice hockey to teach life-skills and empower marginalized youth.

SAM BENNETT – BROWN BAGGING FOR CALGARY'S KIDS

Calgary Flames forward Sam Bennett, in partnership with Brown Bagging for Calgary's Kids (BB4CK) and the Calgary Flames Foundation, has launched a unique community initiative to ensure every student in Calgary has a lunch at school. The fifth-year Flame set on a mission to raise awareness and funds for 25,000 lunches to help feed Calgary's kids who would otherwise go without. Bennett proudly aligned with BB4CK as an official ambassador of the charity and alongside the Calgary Flames Foundation, donated $20,000 to the cause to help feed over 4,400 children in 224 schools every school day.

JOHNNY GAUDREAU – KIDSPORT CALGARY

Gaudreau initiated a partnership with KidSport Calgary in 2017 donating $1,000 for every goal scored to KidSport Calgary. The donation is matched by the Flames Foundation, resulting in a $61,000 donation last season. Along with the donation, in partnership with Remington Development Corporation, the five-time All-Star hosts children from low-income families in a suite at select home games this season that will include the opportunity to meet Gaudreau after the game.

MATTHEW TKACHUK – ALBERTA CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Tkachuk has partnered with the Alberta Children's Hospital to make appearances all season long with families and youth staying at the hospital. Tkachuk also donates tickets to youth and families staying at the hospital and makes special appearances at hospital events and fundraisers during the season.

THE JAMES NORRIS MEMORIAL TROPHY

Mark Giordano was named the 2019 recipient of the James Norris Memorial Trophy, which is an annual award given “to the defence player who demonstrates throughout the season the greatest all-round ability in the position.” The winner is selected in a poll of the Professional Hockey Writers’ Association. He is the franchise’s first ever recipient of the James Norris Memorial Trophy.

The trophy was presented to the NHL in 1953 by the four children of the late James E. Norris in memory of their father, owner-president of the Detroit Red Wings from 1932 to 1952. The first winner was Red Kelly of the Red Wings in 1954.

The voting is conducted at the end of the regular season, and each voter ranks the top five candidates on a 10-7-5-3-1 points system. Three finalists are named and the trophy is presented at the NHL Awards after the conclusion of the Stanley Cup Playoffs.
