GENERAL MOTORS PLACE

Owned by Vancouver Canucks Limited Partnership, General Motors Place is home to the Vancouver Canucks of the National Hockey League. It is one of the most active and versatile entertainment venues in North America, having welcomed more than 16.5 million visitors through its doors since opening in September 1995.

General Motors Place introduced a multi-million dollar enhancement to its scoring and video display systems in the fall of 2006, featuring state-of-the-art Daktronics high resolution ProStar® LED video screens and an accompanying ribbon board extending 950 feet in circumference around the arena's 300-level seating. The main video display system comprises four video screens, flanked by four additional LED displays, centred between two large circular displays suspended above and below the system. Supporting the video display is a premier Bose sound system. The building also features highly-skilled in-house production, lighting and rigging crews and outstanding broadcast capabilities.

General Motors Place is acclaimed for its comfortable seating and superior sightlines. In addition to a premium Club seating section, the building offers added privacy and comfort with its suite services. Eighty-eight executive suites are available on an annual lease, with each suite having the capacity for 20 guests per game or event. Additionally, 12 hospitality suites accommodate large or small groups on a per-event basis. Premium dining facilities operated by Aramark include the Brewhouse Grill and the Captains Club. The building also boasts Rickard's Brew House for in-house production of premium beer.

The Canucks Team Store is the official retailer of the Vancouver Canucks and one of the biggest retail spaces in the NHL with a 3,500 square foot main store and eight additional locations throughout General Motors Place. Each location boasts a variety of merchandise for the whole family, including exclusive Canucks items and game night promotions.

AQUILINI INVESTMENT GROUP INC.

Family owned and operated, the Aquilini Investment Group of Vancouver is one of British Columbia's most diversified local enterprises. Founded more than 50 years ago by Luigi Aquilini, an immigrant to Canada from Brescia, Italy, the firm has a diversified national real estate portfolio that includes commercial properties, office buildings, hotels, golf courses, restaurants, and cranberry and blueberry farms. The family also develops commercial and residential properties for sale nationwide.

In 2004, the family purchased 50 per cent of the Vancouver Canucks, General Motors Place and their parent organization, Orca Bay Sports and Entertainment. In 2006, they returned the team to 100 per cent local ownership when they bought the balance of the organization.

While day-to-day operations of the firm have passed to his sons, Francesco, Roberto and Paolo, Luigi Aquilini continues to play an active and mentoring role in the organization he created.

Committed to the communities where they live and do business, the Aquilini family has been significantly involved in a number of worthwhile community projects, including chairing and funding the Italian Gardens at Vancouver's Hastings Park, helping to create a 100 hectare nature conservancy named for the family in British Columbia's Fraser Valley and donating funds to the "Juvenile Diabetes Research Fund" to help foster research for a cure.

Together, Francesco, Roberto and Paolo, and their families, are also active corporate and community fundraisers for the Canucks for Kids Fund, the signature charity of the Vancouver Canucks.

DAVID NONIS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER AND ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Born: May 25, 1966

Birthplace: Burnaby, BC

Residence: Vancouver, BC

Family: Wife, Susan; Son, Nicholas

David Nonis, 41, became the ninth General Manager in Vancouver Canucks history on May 6, 2004 when he was promoted from Senior Vice President, Director of Hockey Operations. Nonis is the youngest and only GM in franchise history to be born and raised in the Vancouver area. A native of the Vancouver suburb of Burnaby, B.C., Nonis attended Parkcrest Elementary and Burnaby North High School and played minor and junior hockey for the Burnaby Bluehawks.

Under the leadership of Nonis and Assistant General Manager, Steve Tambellini, the Vancouver Canucks hired Head Coach and 2007 Jack Adams Award winner, Alain Vigneault, while adding more than ten new players to the roster in 2006-07 to produce the best season in franchise history. The club set new single-season records for points (105) and wins (49), and captured the Northwest Division title for the fifth time in the history of the franchise.

Over the past nine seasons, Nonis has established long-term agreements with Vancouver's core players while forecasting the team's budget and payroll to help re-stabilize the NHL club's economic and long-term viability in Vancouver.

Nonis served six seasons as Senior Vice-President, Director of Hockey Operations, where he was the club's chief negotiator of player contracts and was responsible for Vancouver's minor league affiliate agreement with the Manitoba Moose of the AHL. Prior to joining the Canucks as Senior Vice President, Director of Hockey Operations in 1998, Nonis served as the National Hockey League's Manager of Hockey Operations for four seasons. In his role with the NHL, Nonis gained a vast knowledge of the Collective Bargaining Agreement and helped finalize sections of the document when the previous edition was drafted prior to the 1994-95 season. He also worked with the league's arbitration team, which included assisting teams in preparation for arbitration, researching salaries and interpreting contract language.

Nonis originally broke into the NHL with the Canucks in 1990. In his first years with the team he was primarily responsible for corporate contracts, computer scouting and team services.

Nonis played for the Burnaby Bluehawks of the British Columbia Junior Hockey League from 1982 to 1984. He then played for the University of Maine where he served as captain for two seasons, leading his team to back-to-back NCAA championship tournaments and graduated with a B.A. in 1988. Nonis played one season professionally in Denmark, then returned to Maine in 1989 to serve as Graduate Assistant under Head Coach Shawn Walsh. Nonis earned an MBA from the University of Maine in 1990.

Vigneault joined Vancouver from the club's AHL affiliate, the Manitoba Moose, where he led the team to within one game of the conference finals. In the 2005-06 season, his first season as Head Coach with the Moose, Vigneault guided the club to a 44-24-7 record.

Prior to joining the Moose, Vigneault spent 10 seasons as Head Coach in the QMJHL with Trois-Rivieres, Hull, Beauport and PEI. RICK BOWNESS*ASSOCIATE COACH*Born: January 25, 1955Birthplace: Moncton, NBResidence: Vancouver, BCFamily: Wife, Judy; Sons, Ricky & Ryan; Daughter, Kristen

Rick Bowness, 52, enters his second season as Vancouver Canucks Assistant Coach and 18th NHL season in a coaching capacity. Bowness joined the Canucks from the Phoenix Coyotes where he served as Assistant Coach for the last six years; Bowness assumed head coaching duties on an interim basis in 2003-04. Prior to joining the Coyotes, Bowness was a member of the New York Islanders coaching staff for three seasons.

The Moncton, New Brunswick native has held the position of Head Coach for five NHL teams: the Winnipeg Jets (1988-89), Boston Bruins (1991-92), Ottawa Senators (1992-96), New York Islanders (1996-98) and Phoenix Coyotes (2003-04). In addition to his NHL coaching experience, Bowness was also a player/coach for the Sherbrooke Jets (1982-83), Head Coach and General Manager of his hometown Moncton Hawks (1987) and Head Coach of the Maine Mariners (1989-91) of the AHL.

Prior to his coaching career, Bowness played seven seasons (1975-82) in the NHL as a right wing with Atlanta, Detroit, St. Louis and Winnipeg. He saw action in 173 games, recording 55 points (18-37-55) and 191 penalty minutes. Bowness was originally drafted by the Atlanta Flames in the second round, 26th overall, of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft.

Bowness began his career in coaching with the American Hockey League's Sherbrooke Jets as a player/coach during the 1982-83 season. He served the next four seasons (1983-84 to 1986-87) as an Assistant Coach for the Winnipeg Jets before returning to his hometown in 1987 as the Coach and General Manager of the Moncton Hawks, the Jets' AHL developmental team. In February 1989, Bowness had his first NHL head coaching stint when he took over as interim Head Coach of the Jets for the final 28 games (8-17-3) of the 1988-89 season.

The following season, Bowness joined the Boston Bruins organization, coaching the AHL's Maine Mariners for two seasons before assuming the head coaching duties for the Bruins in 1991-92. Bowness coached the Bruins to a 36-32-12 record in 1991-92, his best season as a Head Coach. In his only year with Boston, he led the Bruins to the Prince of Wales (Eastern Conference) Finals, losing 4-0 to the eventual Stanley Cup Champion Pittsburgh Penguins.

Bowness was then named the first Head Coach of the Ottawa Senators on June 15, 1992. In three and a half seasons (1992-93 to 1995-96) with the expansion franchise, Bowness finished with a record of 39-178-18. Despite the tough times, Bowness was highly regarded for his positive style and was credited for the development of many of the Senators' young stars. Bowness remained behind the Senators' bench until November 20, 1995, becoming only the second coach in NHL history to head an expansion team through its first three seasons.

He was then hired by the Islanders on December 30, 1995 and worked two seasons as an Associate Coach. Bowness took over the head coaching duties of the Islanders on January 23, 1997 and led the club to a 16-18-3 record. The following year, in his first full season as the Islanders' Head Coach, he guided the team to a 22-32-9 record in 63 games before being replaced on March 11, 1998. Bowness was instrumental in the development of many of the Islanders young players.

Rick and his wife Judy have three children: Ricky, Ryan and Kristen. Rick's son Ryan was drafted by the Columbus Blue Jackets in the 8th round (236th overall) of the 2001 Entry Draft.

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Born: January 28, 1958

Birthplace: Glendon, AB

Residence: West Vancouver, B.C.

Family: Wife, Jennifer; Son, Spencer; Daughters, Jilian and Natalie

Stan Smyl, 49, has spent his entire professional hockey career with the Canucks organization, first as a player for 13 years, then as a coach for 13 years and now in his current role as Director, Player Development. Smyl has shown a great ability over the years to develop young Canucks prospects into proven NHL players. Current Canuck Matt Cooke, along with NHL veterans Bryan Allen, Jarkko Ruutu and Brent Sopel all played for minor league teams coached by Smyl. Smyl is responsible for working with drafted and entry-level players as well as pro scouting assignments.

Smyl retired as a player on July 3, 1991 and was hired as a Canucks Assistant Coach on the same day. He served in the assistant capacity until June 18, 1999, when he was named Head Coach of Vancouver's top affiliate, the Syracuse Crunch (AHL). The 2000-01 season saw Smyl and the Canucks minor league team move to Kansas City (IHL), then to Manitoba (AHL) where Smyl was Head Coach for four seasons.

Often described as the "heart and soul" of the Canucks during his playing career, Smyl made his skeptics eat their words by establishing team records for games played (896), goals (262), assists (411) and points (673). This combined with a feisty, hard-nosed style of play saw him lead Vancouver in goals (31), assists (47), points (78) and penalty minutes (204) in the 1979-80 season.

Three times named Canucks MVP, Smyl served the longest term as team captain (1982-90). He received a most prestigious honour on Nov. 3, 1991 when the Canucks retired his jersey No. 12, raising it to the rafters in the old Pacific Coliseum.

TAKING THE CANUCKS BY STORM: THE LEGACY OF NORM JEWISON

Following the 2006-07 season, the most illustrious Vancouver Canuck in history, Norm Jewison, announced his retirement. Jewison had spent 30 years with the team, assisting in all areas of the business. His impact on the organization has been second to none and legacy with the Canucks will be celebrated for the club's lifetime.

Norm's career began soon after high school. Jewison attended Sir George Williams University and worked part-time at the NHL headquarters. In 1966, with a B.A. in hand, Norm joined the working ranks and began full-time with the NHL during the term of President Clarence Campbell.

Days were full of early starts when he would go to the offices at 2 or 3 am on Sundays to go over the Saturday evening game results. A large ledger with a page for each player was updated by hand, as Norm would go through the telegrams, with each game's stats, that the delivery boy had pushed under the door during the night. At the League he kept track of statistics, wrote press releases and saw the league double in size.

It was 1977 that marked the beginning of an era when Jewison began his career with the Canucks as Director of Media Relations. His first ten years were highlighted by road-trips, listening to Harry Neale's stories and dealing with the Vancouver media.

Norm then relinquished his PR duties and concentrated on the club's publishing projects. He's spent countless hours generating story ideas, overseeing the production of guides and yearbooks and chronicling the history of the Vancouver Canucks, not to mention giving endless "rookies" the opportunity to have their first article published for the adoring fans to read.

In 1995, with the origin of Orca Bay Sports & Entertainment, Norm added two magazines to his repertoire and quickly became basketball savvy.

Norm's final role saw him as the Canucks liaison to the alumni and senior editor of the Canucks game day magazine; both the alumni and magazine are seen as a model to the rest of the league. He sat on the board of the Canucks for Kids Fund and was the co-chair of the Jake Milford/Canucks Invitational Golf Tournament, an event which has raised nearly half a million dollars for charity since 1984.

In 2003, he won the "7th Man Award," presented by the NHL Alumni Association in recognition of exemplary work behind the scenes for the Canucks Alumni. Since 1997, he has coached and managed the alumni hockey team.

His years spent with the team have allowed Norm to develop into a living archive. He's the go-to guy for any statistical or historical question and never disappoints with his stories.

He is one of a kind and will be truly missed.

Each child is provided with a Naslund T-shirt, food and beverage, and if commitments allow, a post-game visit from Markus.

Through the sales of these prize balloons, the wives and girlfriends raised nearly $11,000 last season for the Lower Mainland Christmas Bureau in support of needy families during the holiday season.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Through the Canucks for Kids Fund, the Vancouver Canucks Alumni offer a number of scholarships each season to deserving students and minor hockey players in recognition of academic achievement and commitment to school and community service. Canucks scholarships include: Arthur Griffiths Scholarship - $3000, Vancouver Canucks Scholarships - $750 (three each) and the Vancouver Canucks Community Service Bursary - $500. The Canucks alumni provide the Larry Ashley Scholarship which is valued at $2,500 per annum for students in the fields of sports medicine or athletic training.

ABOUT THE VANCOUVER CANUCKS ALUMNI

Despite the fact that the Vancouver Canucks didn't enter the NHL until 1970, the Alumni group was conceived in 1952 by the Canucks of the Western Hockey League. The alumni began with Hall of Famers Babe Pratt and Cyclone Taylor, who organized a benefit game for a local amateur player whose wife had become seriously ill. This eventually grew into the BC Hockey Benevolent Association (BCHBA) – a registered non-profit society – designed to assist former players and their families who had fallen on hard times. Since that time, the scope of the BCHBA has broadened and over the next four decades, the group expanded and raised nearly $2 million for charity.

THE ALUMNI AND THE COMMUNITY

Canucks Alumni BCHL Scholarships

For nearly a decade, Orland Kurtenbach, the Canucks original captain, headed up an Alumni committee which provides scholarship opportunities (four per year at $3,000) for hockey playing youngsters from the BC Junior League to attend the University of British Columbia. Kurtenbach was a natural to spearhead this initiative, having coached several years in the BCHL with Richmond and Chilliwack. Recently, Kurtenbach handed over the reins to fellow ex-Canuck Gerry O'Flaherty, while taking on the task of BCHL marketing director. He works alongside another Canuck alumnus, John Grisdale, who is the League Commissioner. Over the years, more than 20 youngsters have graduated from the BCHL to pursue scholarships to UBC.

Larry Ashley Scholarship

The Canucks Alumni initiated the Larry Ashley Scholarship over ten years ago. Ashley was a longtime athletic trainer of the NHL Canucks and passed away from cancer in 1995. Widely recognized as a leader in his field, Ashley's name now lives on via the Larry Ashley Scholarship Program. It provides scholarship funds of $2,500 per year to academically qualified BC students pursuing post-secondary studies in the fields of sports medicine and/or athletic training. A major contributor of funds to sustain this program is the annual Larry Ashley/Allan McGavin Golf Classic, a tournament which features the presence of a variety of ex-Canucks and members of the sports medicine fraternity.

PCHA Scholarships

The Vancouver Canucks Alumni offer a number of scholarships each season to deserving students and minor hockey players in recognition of academic achievement and commitment to school and community service. Canucks scholarships include: Arthur Griffiths Scholarship, Vancouver Canucks Scholarships, and the Vancouver Canucks Community Service Bursary.

PLAYING AGAINST VANCOUVER CANUCKS ALUMNI HEROES

Each year the Canucks Alumni team travels throughout British Columbia to participate in charity games with fans from all over the province. Through a partnership with Boston Pizza the Alumni have travelled to a number of BC cities, including Kitimat, Smithers, Port Hardy, Rosland, Williams Lake, Comox, Victoria and Merritt, to name a few. Slapshots and hitting are no-no's but pretty well everything else goes. Pies-in-the-face, buckets of water thrown on the opposition bench, bribing the officials, a Superman sighting...all are part of the Alumni's road games.

In return for their performances, the BC Hockey Benevolent Society receives expense money for travel or accommodation (if applicable) plus a modest stipend which goes directly into the scholarship maintenance program. Any funds over and above are left in the community in which the game is played and go to minor hockey or other local causes. For more information on bringing the Alumni to your town click or call the Canucks Centre for BC Hockey at 604.899.7770.

What is the Canucks Alumni today?

The Canucks Alumni are a group of over 100 hockey people living mostly in the Lower Mainland. Membership is also extended to alumni living out of the area and the province. The group is unique in that former pros are welcome, not just ex-Canucks. Canucks Alumni have Bill Ranford, Mark Lofthouse and Gary Nylund as card-carrying members, even though they did not play for Vancouver. The bottom line is that the Canuck Alumni has the luxury of being able to ice not just one, but two teams at any given time. This, in part, is a tribute to the city of Vancouver being such a desirable Canadian retirement destination.

ALUMNI PRESIDENT

Gerry "Driller" Sillers was born and raised in Saskatoon where he played junior for the Blades with his longtime buddy Bobby Schmutz. He moved west to attend Simon Fraser University and turned pro with the Western League Canucks in 1968-69. He played four seasons with their NHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans of the AHL, a team for which the flamboyant Don Cherry both played and coached. He also played briefly with Portland of the WHL. Following his playing career, he became an enthusiastic member of the Canucks alumni organization and in 1989, became its president, a post he still holds.

Canucks Alumni Board:

Norm Jewison, Bob Murray, Orland Kurtenbach, Gerry Sillers, Mickey McDowell, Bill Ranford, Kirk McLean, Ernie Dougherty, Bob McCusker, Chris Oddleifson.

THE PRIDE OF POWELL RIVER – GARY LUPUL

The Vancouver Canucks hockey club lost a cherished member of its scouting staff and alumni with the passing of Gary Lupul in July of 2007.

Affectionately called “The Pride of Powell River,” Gary began his professional hockey career with the Canucks in 1979, playing for the club over a span of seven seasons before finishing his career in Europe. Gary got his start with the Canucks by way of an invite to training camp, which was being held in his hometown that summer. The 107 points scored in 71 games with the Victoria Cougars of the WHL and a roster spot on the Canadian National Junior team in the previous year helped attract the attention of Gary’s soon-to-be NHL club.

A member of the Vancouver Canucks during their 1982 Stanley Cup run, Gary played in 10 games and recorded five points (2-3-5) before the club was dispatched by the New York Islanders in four games of the Stanley Cup Final. Over his seven-year NHL career, the diminutive forward with a reputation as a hardworking underdog played 293 games scoring 70 goals, 75 assists (70-75-145) and 243 penalty minutes. In 25 Playoff games, Gary recorded 11 points (4-7-11).

Gary’s success on the NHL stage, despite his small stature and a humble hometown beginning, provided inspiration to fans and future players alike. Popular Canuck alumni Cliff Ronning, admired Lupul’s character and success while he was growing up and insisted that he wear the No. 7 on his jersey, upon being traded to the Canucks, in praise of his boyhood idol Gary Lupul.

In October of 2002, Gary returned to the Canucks organization as an amateur scout. Working alongside the scouting staff and team management for five seasons, Gary monitored amateur players in Eastern Canada based in Kitchener, Ontario throughout the hockey season.

Gary’s impact on the hockey community is a lasting legacy for all players who rely on sheer determination and will to earn a spot on the roster, especially those players small in size but big in heart.

ASSIST

An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED

A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

GAME-WINNING GOAL

After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

GOAL

A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

GOALS AGAINST AVERAGE

Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

GOALTENDER

A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

PENALTY KILLING PCT.

Subtract total number of power play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power plays killed. Divide the total number of power plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

PLUS/MINUS

A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or shorthanded goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthanded goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus/minus statistic.

POWER PLAY GOAL

A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.

- if a club is on a power play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.

- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

POWER PLAY PERCENTAGE

Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power play opportunities.

SAVE PERCENTAGE

Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots against.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGE

Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

SHORTHAND GOAL

A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power play goals, but in the opposite manner.

SHOT ON GOAL

If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal."

SHUTOUT

If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

TENTHS OF A SECOND

If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

WINNING PERCENTAGE

Multiply the total number of games played by two to find the total amount of possible points available then divide by total amount of points obtained.

COACHES RECORD

A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

** NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout

JOHN SHORTHOUSE

Play-by-Play, Team 1040

John Shorthouse enters his 10th year behind the Vancouver Canucks play-by-play microphone. The Vancouver native is the third radio announcer in Canucks history and his appointment fulfilled a life-long dream. A graduate of the British Columbia Institute of Technology, John spent eight years at Global Sports Page – his time there was highlighted by the Canucks '94 Stanley Cup run. John then spent one year calling games for CTV Sportsnet/VTV and KKNW before taking on radio play-by-play duties full time. John, his wife Christina, their son Will, daughter Maggie and dog Moses reside in Vancouver.

TOM LARSCHIED

Colour Commentary, Team 1040

Tom Larscheid joins his friend John Shorthouse behind the microphone this season to once again provide his insightful comments and infectious enthusiasm to the broadcast as the duo team up to produce one of the best and most listened to radio broadcasts in the NHL. For over 25 years Tom has provided commentary as a colour analyst of Canucks radio broadcasts.

He began his work on Canucks broadcasts in 1977 when he joined broadcasting legend Jim Robson at the microphone. The two remained together until Robson's retirement in 1998. Larscheid has been a colour analyst for Canucks games both on radio and television. Tom is also a former running back with the BC Lions of the Canadian Football League. He originally carried his football experience into the radio broadcast booth where he worked for 24 years as colour analyst for the Lions and is now a member of the CFL Football Reporters and Broadcasters Hall of Fame. Tom and his wife, Lesley, reside in Richmond, B.C.

JIM HUGHSON

Jim Hughson is one of the most respected and recognizable broadcasters in the NHL. Once again, Hughson will call Canucks games on Sportsnet Pacific this season, in addition to calling CBC's "Hockey Night in Canada" games for his third season. Hughson has over 20 years of NHL broadcasting experience, beginning with CKNW radio in Vancouver in 1979. In 1982, he moved to the other side of the country to become the play-by-play announcer for the Toronto Maple Leafs. After four years with the Leafs, Hughson was named as a primary announcer for TSN's hockey and baseball broadcasts, where he gained national recognition for his work. In 1994, he returned to Vancouver to succeed the legendary Jim Robson and become only the second radio play-by-play announcer in Canucks history. Hughson called games from CKNW's broadcast location until the 1998-99 season when he made the transition back to television.

JOHN GARRETT

John Garrett brings 20 years of broadcasting experience and 15 years as a professional goaltender to Canucks telecasts again this season. During the last NHL season, Garrett kept busy by juggling his time between his role on Canucks broadcasts and his regular spots as an in-studio analyst on the "NHL Gamenight" panel and his "Outside the Crease" features. Garrett was originally drafted 38th overall by St. Louis in the 1971 NHL Entry Draft, but his professional career gained momentum when he was selected by Minnesota in the 1973 WHA professional player draft. He went on to play seven seasons with Minnesota, Toronto, Birmingham and New England with his play being rewarded with three All-Star Game selections. John's NHL career began in Hartford in 1979 and he proceeded to play for seven seasons and 207 games for the Hartford Whalers, Quebec Nordiques, and Vancouver Canucks. He also represented the Canucks in the 1983 All-Star Game. Garrett broke into the broadcasting world with Hockey Night in Canada in 1986, following his last NHL season as a player; he served as a member of the Hockey Night in Canada team until 1998. John, a graduate of Queens University, is married with two daughters and makes his home in Vancouver.
