- The Bruins completed nine sets of consecutive-night games this season ... They went 6-2-1 in the first game and 3-5-1 in the second game of those series.
- They played 18 sets of three-games-in-four-nights with a 10-5-3 record in game ones, 10-6-2 mark in game twos and 11-5-2 record in game threes of those series.
- The Bruins concluded their seven season series this year winning five and finishing even in two ... They went 7-1-0 vs. Buffalo, 6-1-1 vs. Philadelphia, 5-3-0 each vs. NY Rangers and Pittsburgh, 4-2-2 vs. Washington and 3-3-2 each vs. New Jersey and NY Islanders.
- The Bruins played nine afternoon games in 2020-21 (start time 4:00 p.m. or earlier) and they went 4-4-1 in matinees.
- The Bruins had five shutouts on the season - Two each by Tuukka Rask (51st and 52nd on April 20 at Buffalo and May 3 at New Jersey), Jaroslav Halak (51st and 52nd on February 12 and March 11 vs. New York Rangers), and Jeremy Swayman (1st and 2nd on April 16 vs. New York Islanders and May 6 vs. New York Rangers).
- It was the first season in which three Boston goaltenders posted shutouts since 2008-09 (Tim Thomas, 5; Tuukka Rask, 1; Manny Fernandez, 1).
- Jeremy Swayman was just the fifth goaltender in team history to record two shutouts in his first nine NHL games.
- The Bruins took 30-or-more shots in 40 games (24-12-4 record) and took 40-or-more shots in twelve games (7-4-1 record) ... That includes a season-high 48 shots taken in a 5-4 shootout win vs. New Jersey on March 30.
- They were held to a season-low 18 shots in a 4-0 loss to NY Rangers on March 13.
- The Bruins ranked second in the NHL on the penalty kill at 86.0%.
- They ranked ninth overall on the power play at 21.9%.
- The Bruins had five hat tricks this season - David Pastrnak had two (February 3 and February 21, both vs. Philadelphia) and Brad Marchand (April 3 vs. Pittsburgh), Patrice Bergeron (April 6 at Philadelphia) and Craig Smith (May 1 vs. Buffalo) and one each.
- Pastrnak's hat tricks were the ninth and tenth of his career, moving him into fourth place on the club's all-time hat tricks list.
- Brad Marchand finished third overall in the Art Ross scoring race ... He also became the first Bruin with five straight 40-assist seasons.
- David Pastrnak was the fastest Bruin to reach the 200-career goal mark, doing so in his 437th game, eclipsing Bobby Orr's mark of 502 games ... He was the fourth-fastest Bruin to his the 400 NHL points milestone, doing so in his 406th game.
- Tuukka Rask earned his 300th NHL win with a 4-1 victory vs. NY Islanders on April 15 becoming the fifth-fastest goaltender in NHL history to hit that milestone (552 games).
- Patrice Bergeron passed both Bobby Orr and Rick Middleton into fourth place on the Bruins' all-time scoring list ... He also became just the fourth player in club history to reach the 900-point milestone with the first of three goals on April 6 at Philadelphia.
- David Krejci became the seventh Bruin in team history with 500 career assists with his assist on April 3 vs. Pittsburgh ... He was the eighth Bruin in club history with 700 career points in a three-assist night on March 18 in Buffalo.
- Marchand followed as the ninth player in team history with 700 career points in a 2-2=4 effort on April 18 vs. Washington ... He was the fifth-fastest to hit that mark, doing so in his 792nd game.

BRUINS CONTINUE TD GARDEN SELLOUT STREAK:

- The Bruins sold out every regular season game available at TD Garden this season.
- They carry a sellout streak of 491 consecutive games (regular season and playoffs) at TD Garden into this post-season ... The stretch does not include the 2010 Winter Classic Game at Fenway Park, the 'home' 2010 Premiere Game in Prague, Czech Republic, or the 2016 Winter Classic Game at Gillette Stadium.
- Note - Fans were not allowed in the building from January 21-March 13, 2021 due to the Coronavirus pandemic ... Fans were allowed in at 12% capacity (2,191) starting March 23, 2021 and increased to 25% capacity (4,565) on May 10, 2021.

- Tuukka Rask hit the 20-win mark for the eighth time in his career, tying the club record for most 20-win seasons (Tiny Thompson, Frank Brimsek, Gerry Cheevers).
- Patrice Bergeron hit the 20-goal mark for the 11th time in his career, second only to John Bucyk's 16 20-goal campaigns ... He also became the sixth Bruin to have six 30-or-more goal seasons.
- Brad Marchand recorded 87 points this season, becoming the first Bruin with five straight 80-point campaigns since Ray Bourque did so in five straight years from 1989-90 through 1993-94.
- David Pastrnak was the second-fastest Bruin to reach the 150-career goal mark, doing so in his 341st game (Barry Pederson, 316 games); was the fourth Bruin to record 300 points prior to his 350th game (Pederson, Bobby Orr and Ray Bourque); and was the fifth player to hit the 25-goal mark in 27 games or fewer (Cam Neely, Esposito, Herb Cain, Cooney Weiland).
- 13 players hit career season-highs in categories this season:
 - Games played: Anders Bjork, Connor Clifton, Matt Grzelcyk, Karson Kuhlman, Jeremy Lauzon, Charlie McAvoy, Zach Senyshyn, Urho Vaakanainen
 - Goals: Anders Bjork, Connor Clifton, Matt Grzelcyk, Jeremy Lauzon (tied), Par Lindholm, David Pastrnak
 - Assists: Anders Bjork, Brandon Carlo, Matt Grzelcyk, Karson Kuhlman, Sean Kuraly, Jeremy Lauzon, Charlie McAvoy, David Pastrnak, Zach Senyshyn
 - Points: Anders Bjork, Brandon Carlo, Connor Clifton, Matt Grzelcyk, Karson Kuhlman, Sean Kuraly, Jeremy Lauzon, Charlie McAvoy (tied), David Pastrnak, Zach Senyshyn
- Zdeno Chara became the 12th player in NHL history to play in four different decades (90s, 00s, 10s, 20s) ... Chara became the sixth defenseman in NHL history to play 1,500 games and also the sixth Bruin in history to play 1,000 games with the team (January 13 at Philadelphia).
- Tuukka Rask (October 22 vs. Toronto) and Jaroslav Halak (December 3 vs. Carolina) both played in their 500th NHL games.
- Patrice Bergeron became the fifth Bruin in history to score multiple goals in three straight games with two-goal efforts each on December 21 vs. Nashville, December 23 vs. Washington and December 27 at Buffalo ... He was the first to do so since Cam Neely in 1988-89.
- Jake DeBrusk scored twice on December 29 vs. Buffalo and that made it the first time Bruins had four straight two-goal games since January 7-13, 2015 (Bergeron, Milan Lucic and David Pastrnak twice).
- Pastrnak factored into the game's opening goal in six straight games from December 27-January 7 (5-1=6), which tied an NHL record ... He was the eighth player in NHL history to register that streak and the first since 2014-15 (St. Louis' Jori Lehtera) ... In all, he scored the first goal of game on 15 occasions, tying Phil Esposito's club record set in 1973-74 and second in NHL history only to Brett Hull (20 in 1990-91 and 16 in 1991-92).
- Pastrnak played in the 2020 NHL All-Star Game in St. Louis, captaining his Atlantic Division squad ... It was his second All-Star Game appearance and he had four goals and two assists for the Atlantic team, earning Most Valuable Player honors for the event.

BRUINS AMONG LEAGUE LEADERS (top ten):

- The Bruins led the NHL in wins (44), points (100), regulation wins (38), goal differential (+53) and allowed the fewest goals against (167).
- They had the second-best home record at 22-4-9 (53 points) and the third-best road mark at 22-10-3 (47 points).
- David Pastrnak tied for the NHL lead in goals (48, Alexander Ovechkin) and ranked third overall in the Art Ross scoring race with 95 points ... He led the NHL with 20 power play goals, was third overall with 38 power play points and tied for the NHL lead with ten game-winning goals (Leon Draisaitl).
- Brad Marchand ranked sixth in the NHL's scoring race with 87 points ... He ranked fifth overall with 59 assists and was sixth each with 23 power play assists and 28 power play points (tied with Torey Krug).
- Torey Krug ranked eighth among league defensemen in scoring with 49 points and tied teammate Brad Marchand for sixth with 28 power play points.
- Four Bruins ranked among the top nine in the NHL in plus/minus rating - Zdeno Chara (tied for sixth at +26), Brad Marchand (tied for seventh at +25), Charlie McAvoy (tied for eighth at +24) and Patrice Bergeron (ninth at +23).
- Tuukka Rask led all NHL goaltenders (minimum 23 games played) with a 2.12 goals against average and ranked second overall with a .929 save percentage ... He tied for second with five shutouts and ranked seventh with 26 wins.
- Jaroslav Halak ranked sixth in the NHL with a 2.39 goals against average.
- Rask and Halak combined to win the Jennings Trophy for allowing the fewest team goals against at 167.

BRUINS CONTINUE TD GARDEN SELLOUT STREAK:

- The Bruins sold out every regular season game at TD Garden this season.
- They carry a sellout streak of 474 consecutive games (regular season and playoffs) at TD Garden into this post-season ... The stretch does not include the 2010 Winter Classic Game at Fenway Park, the 'home' 2010 Premiere Game in Prague, Czech Republic, or the 2016 Winter Classic Game at Gillette Stadium.

2020-21 SEASON IN REVIEW:

- Scored his 12th career 20-goal campaign (eighth straight) ... The 12 20-goal seasons are second in club history only to John Bucyk's 16.
- Led the NHL with a 62.3 faceoff win percentage ... Tied for second in the NHL with three shorthanded goals and four shorthanded points ... Tied for fifth overall with a +27 plus/minus rating.
- Moved into a tie for fifth place on the Bruins' all-time shorthanded goals list with 20 (Phil Esposito, Jerry Toppazzini) and into third on the club's all-time list of game-winning goals with 70.
- Had ten multiple-point games, including his sixth career hat trick scored on April 6 at Philadelphia and a 1-3=4 night on February 3 at Philadelphia.
- Had a seven-game point streak from March 30-April 10 (6-3=9 totals) ... Had a six-game point streak from April 29-May 8 (5-2=7 totals), which included a five-game goal streak from May 1-8 (five goals).
- Passed Bobby Orr into fifth place on the team's all-time scoring list on February 26 at NY Rangers with his 889th career point ... Passed Rick Middleton into fourth place on the team's all-time scoring list on April 5 vs. Philadelphia with his 899th career point.
- Played his 1,100th NHL game on February 5 at Philadelphia ... Recorded his 900th NHL point on April 6 at Philadelphia, becoming just the fourth player in team history to reach that milestone.
- Scored the 21,000th goal in Bruins history (not including shootout goals) on April 18 vs. Washington.
- Missed one game with a lower body injury (April 23) and did not dress (coach's decision) for the final regular season game.

PLAYOFF HISTORY:

- Is in his 17th NHL season and is playing in his 12th NHL playoff (team qualified in 2008 but he missed that post-season due to injury).
- Enters this post-season ranked third overall in team history in playoff games played (149), fourth in goals (42), third in assists (69), and third in points (111).
- Has played in three Stanley Cup Finals, all with Boston, winning a championship in 2011 as he scored the Cup-winning goal vs. Vancouver in game seven on June 15, 2011, and losing to Chicago in 2013 and St. Louis in 2019.
- Has 25 career multiple-point playoff games with his career-high a four-assist night on April 14, 2018 vs. Toronto ... Also has four three-point playoff games, including a 2-1=3 effort on May 13, 2013 vs. Toronto which included the game-tying goal at 19:09 of the third period and the game-winning goal at 6:05 of overtime.
- Had a seven-game playoff point streak from April 20-May 6, 2014 with 3-6=9 totals in that stretch, including a six-game assist streak from April 20-May 3 ... Had a five-game playoff point streak from April 26-May 7, 2010 with 2-5=7 totals in that span .. Had a four-game playoff point streak from June 3-12, 2013 with 3-2=5 totals in that stretch.
- Has played in 41 career playoff overtime games (4-1=5 totals in overtime scoring) ... Scored overtime goals on April 9, 2004 vs. Montreal; May 13, 2013 vs. Toronto; June 5, 2013 in Pittsburgh; and August 12, 2020 vs. Carolina ... His four career playoff overtime goals are the most in club history.

1958 NOTABLES:

- The Bruins and Rangers set an NHL playoff record for shorthanded goals in a playoff series, combining for seven (Boston four, New York three) in their Semi-Final series.

- Fleming Mackell leads the NHL in post-season scoring with 19 points. Mackell's 14 assists are a league record for one post-season.
- Jerry Toppazzini sets a club record for goals in one playoff series with eight in the Semi-Final series vs. the Rangers.
- April 3, 1958: Ferny Flaman scores two goals in a 6-1 win over NY Rangers, his first scores in 85 games dating back to March 7, 1957. The game is a road contest for the Bruins, but is played in Boston Garden due to circus dates in Madison Square Garden.
- April 5, 1958: Don McKenney ties an NHL playoff record with five assists in an 8-2 win over the Rangers as the Bruins take the Semi-Final series in six games.
- April 15, 1958: Fleming Mackell has two assists in a 3-1 win over Montreal, giving him an NHL playoff record of 14 in one post-season. His ten assists vs. New York in the Semi-Final series are also a league mark for assists in one series.
- April 20, 1958: The Canadiens clinch the Stanley Cup in game six in Boston, becoming just the second team in NHL history to win three straight championships. NHL President Clarence Campbell was unable to present the Cup on the ice as a group of Canadiens fans hopped the glass and mobbed the players.

1988 NOTABLES:

- The Bruins return to the Stanley Cup Finals for the first time since 1978.
- The Bruins set two playoff power play goal records, with their 11 goals scored in the Semi-Final vs. New Jersey their most in one series and the 17 combined in the Division Semi-Final series vs. Buffalo (Boston, 6; Buffalo, 11) the most by both teams in one series.
- The Bruins set three club post-season penalty minute records in their Division Semi-Final series vs. Buffalo, taking 95 penalties, recording 308 penalty minutes and both teams combining for 611 PIM.
- Ray Bourque's 18 assists are the fourth-highest total by a defenseman in one post-season in league history.
- Bobby Joyce ties a club record for post-season goals by a rookie with eight.

- Jay Miller sets a club record for penalty minutes in one playoff year with 124.
- April 9, 1988: Buffalo's John Tucker takes the first playoff penalty shot against the Bruins since 1937, scoring against Andy Moog.
- April 26, 1988: Cam Neely and Steve Kasper score twice each and the Bruins clinch their Division Final series with a 4-1 win in Montreal. It is Boston's first post-season series win over Montreal since 1943.
- May 24, 1988: Game four of the Stanley Cup Final series vs. Edmonton becomes the game that was never officially played when a blown transformer in North Station causes a power outage in Boston Garden. NHL officials and representatives from both teams agree to play the game as a game seven should it become necessary. Player statistics from the game are included in player post-season totals.

2011 NOTABLES:

- Tim Thomas wins the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP, joining Bobby Orr (two) as the only Bruins to win the trophy. He is later named the winner of the Vezina Trophy, becoming just the second player in NHL history to win the Stanley Cup, Conn Smythe Trophy and Vezina in the same season.
- The Bruins became the first team in NHL history to win three game sevens in one playoff year. It was the first time the Bruins had ever played more than one game seven in a single post-season.
- The Bruins set club records for games played in one playoff year (25), wins in a single post-season (16) and shutouts in one playoff year (4).
- The Bruins held the Canucks to eight goals in their Stanley Cup Final series which set an NHL record for fewest goals allowed in a seven-game series.
- David Krejci scored three of four game-winning goals in the Conference Semi-Final series vs. Philadelphia, joining Mel Hill (1939 SF) and Roy Conacher (1939 F) as the only Bruins with three game-winning goals in one best-of-seven series.
- Krejci led all post-season scorers in goals and points and his 12 goals were the most ever scored by a Czech player in one playoff year.
- April 27, 2011: Nathan Horton scores his second overtime goal of the Conference Quarter-Final series vs. Montreal as the Bruins take the series with a 4-3 game seven win. It is the first time in team history that the Bruins win a series in which they had lost the first two games.
- May 3, 2011: The Flyers put 54 shots on goal in game two of their Conference Semi-Final series but David Krejci scores at 14:00 of overtime to give Boston a 3-2 win. It is the most shots on Boston in a playoff game since Apr. 3, 1947.
- May 6, 2011: The Bruins complete the 13th best-of-seven series sweep in their history with a 5-1 win over Philadelphia in their Conference Semi-Final series and advance to the Conference Final for the first time since 1992.
- May 17, 2011: Tyler Seguin ties an NHL record for points in a playoff period as he scores two goals and adds two assists in a five-goal Boston second period vs. Tampa Bay in game two of their Conference Final series.
- May 25, 2011: David Krejci scores the first playoff hat trick by a Bruin since Apr. 25, 1991 in a 5-4 loss in Tampa Bay.
- May 27, 2011: The Bruins and Lightning play a penalty-free game and Tim Thomas makes 24 saves in a 1-0 Boston game seven win. The victory propels the Bruins into the Stanley Cup Final for the first time since 1990.
- June 4, 2011: Vancouver's Alexandre Burrows scores the fastest overtime goal in Stanley Cup Final history with a tally just 11 seconds into the extra session to give the Canucks a 3-2 win in game two.
- June 6, 2011: The Bruins take an 8-1 win over Vancouver in game three of the Final, including tying a Final record with two shorthanded goals in the game. It is their most goals scored in a playoff game since Apr. 20, 1983.
- June 8, 2011: Tim Thomas makes 38 saves for a 4-0 win over Vancouver, evening the Stanley Cup Final series at two games apiece. It is Boston's 14th win of the post-season, a club record that would be extended to 16.

- June 13, 2011: The Bruins set a Stanley Cup Final record for the fastest four goals by a team as they score four times in a 4:14 span of the first period en route to a 5-2 game six win over Vancouver. Brad Marchand scores his ninth goal of the post-season for a new team rookie record. The Bruins force their first-ever game seven in a Stanley Cup Final series.

- June 15, 2011: Tim Thomas makes 21 saves with a 4-0 win in Vancouver as the Bruins win the sixth Stanley Cup in their history. It is their second series victory of the post-season in which they had lost the first two games after entering the playoffs with an 0-26 record in that situation.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. BUFFALO SABRES ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- The Bruins outscored the Sabres, 33-23, in their seven-game Adams Division Final series in 1983. It is the most goals the Bruins have scored against any opponent in any one playoff series and the 56 combined goals are the highest scored by both teams in any series the Bruins have played.
- These teams also combined for the highest number of penalty minutes in any Bruins playoff series, as they totaled 611 penalty minutes over their six-game 1988 Adams Division Semi-Final series (Boston, 308; Buffalo, 303).
- Rick Middleton tied a team record for most points in a game when he factored in every Boston goal with a 2-4=6 effort on April 18, 1983 in a 6-3 win in Buffalo in their Adams Division Final series. Middleton's 19 points overall in that series (5-14=19) remains an NHL record for points in one playoff series.
- Barry Pederson scored the fastest hat trick by a Bruin in their playoff history when he scored his three goals in a 13:40 span of the second period (0:48, 3:56 and 14:28) on April 8, 1982 vs. the Sabres.
- Buffalo's John Tucker scored the only successful penalty shot against the Bruins in their playoff history. Tucker scored on goaltender Andy Moog on April 9, 1988 in game three of their Adams Division Semi-Final series and it was the third of his four goals in that game.
- Brad Park's overtime goal in game seven of the 1983 Division Final series vs. the Sabres was at that time just the third game seven decided in overtime in Boston's playoff history and the second won by the Bruins. Their first was decided by Boston's Mel Hill vs. the NY Rangers in game seven of the 1939 Semi-Final series.
- Tuukka Rask assisted on Miroslav Satan's overtime goal on April 21, 2010 in a 3-2 Boston win in game four of their Conference Quarter-Final series vs. the Sabres, which ended the 13th-longest playoff game in team history. He became just the second goaltender in NHL history to assist on an overtime goal.

BRUINS vs. HURRICANES

BOSTON BRUINS vs. CAROLINA HURRICANES ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- The Bruins tied a league record with four power play goals in the third period of a 6-1 win over Hartford on Apr. 11, 1991 in game five of their Division Semi-Final series. The Whalers had taken a 1-0 lead into the third period with Boston setting a club record with the six-goal outburst overall in the third period.
- The Bruins have come back from a three-or-more goal deficit to win a playoff game on seven occasions, including on Apr. 11, 1990 when the Whalers had carried a 5-2 lead into the third period before the Bruins scored four unanswered regulation goals by Dave Poulin (1:28), Bob Beers (7:00), Dave Christian (8:10) and Poulin again with the game-winner (18:16).
- The Bruins won game six of their 2009 Conference Semi-Final series in Carolina to force a game seven for just the second time in their history when they had trailed in a series one game to three.
- The Bruins and Hurricanes played their 2020 Round One series in a bubble atmosphere at Scotiabank Arena in Toronto, Ontario with virus prevention measures in place due to the Covid-19 pandemic.
- Patrice Bergeron became the Bruins' all-time leader in playoff overtime goals with his fourth career playoff overtime score at 21:13 of OT for a 4-3 win in Carolina on August 12, 2020.

BRUINS vs. BLACKHAWKS

BOSTON BRUINS vs. CHICAGO BLACKHAWKS ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- The Bruins played the first playoff game in their history on Mar. 29, 1927 with a 6-1 win over Chicago. The game was played at Madison Square Garden in New York since Chicago Stadium was previously booked for another event.
- Percy Galbraith scored the first playoff hat trick in Bruins history on Mar. 31, 1927 against Chicago goaltender Hugh Lehman in a 4-4 tie. It was the only tie in the playoff history between these clubs as the Bruins won the total-goals series 1-0-1 en route to their first Stanley Cup Final appearance.
- The Bruins and Blackhawks played the fourth-longest overtime game in team history and the fifth-longest in Stanley Cup Final history on June 12, 2013 when the Blackhawks' Andrew Shaw ended game one of the series after 112:08 of play for a 4-3 Chicago win. Nine Bruins played 30+ minutes in that contest, led by Dennis Seidenberg's 48:38.
- The Blackhawks outshot the Bruins by a 63-54 margin in game one of their Stanley Cup Final game on June 12, 2013 in a 4-3 Chicago triple-overtime win. It was the most shots the Bruins had ever officially allowed in a post-season game, as shots were not kept as an official NHL stat until the 1955-56 season. Newspaper accounts at the time listed 112 shots by Toronto vs. Boston in a six-overtime loss in 1933.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. COLORADO AVALANCHE ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- Quebec's Peter Stastny scored all three of his team's goals in a 4-3 Boston overtime win on Apr. 5, 1983. He is the only opponent to score a hat trick vs. the Bruins with all of his team's goals in that game. Stastny's son Yan played 38 games for the Bruins over the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons.
- That game was also one of just seven occasions in their playoff history when the Bruins have come back from a three-goal deficit to win a game. Stastny's goals had staked the Nordiques to a 3-0 lead in that Division Semi-Final game before Boston prevailed in overtime.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. DETROIT RED WINGS ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- Detroit players have scored three hat tricks vs. the Bruins in the eight lifetime series between these teams. Two of those hat tricks came in the same series with Mud Bruneteau (Apr. 1, 1943) and Don Grosso (Apr. 7, 1943) each accomplishing the feat against Frank Brimsek in the 1943 Stanley Cup Final.
- The Bruins won the third Stanley Cup in their history with a four-game sweep of the Red Wings in 1941. Bobby Bauer scored the Cup-winning goal at 8:43 of the second period in a 3-1 win on Apr. 12, 1941.
- The Red Wings would get their revenge two post-seasons later by sweeping the Bruins in the 1943 Final to earn their third championship.
- The Bruins suffered the biggest shutout loss in their playoff history with a 7-0 setback to the Red Wings on Mar. 24, 1953 in game one of their Semi-Final series, but Boston rebounded to win the series in six games.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. EDMONTON OILERS ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- The Bruins and Oilers played a game that did not officially exist in the 1988 Stanley Cup Final. Their game four on May 24, 1988 was suspended in the second period when a blown transformer in North Station caused a blackout in the area, including Boston Garden. Statistics from the game, which was tied at 3-3 at the time of the incident, were included in player totals but were not included in team totals. In suspending the game, the NHL ruled that if necessary, the game would be replayed as a game seven.
- The Bruins and Oilers played the longest game in Stanley Cup Final history on May 15, 1990. The game was ended by a Petr Klima goal at 15:13 of the third overtime period to give the Oilers a 3-2 win after 115:13 of play.
- John Byce tied a team record for fastest goal from the start of a playoff period when he scored at the 0:10 mark of the first period on May 20, 1990 in Edmonton. It was also the fastest goal from the start of a Stanley Cup Final game in NHL history.
- The Oilers, Canucks and the original Ottawa Senators (1927) are the only teams in their playoff history that the Bruins have only faced in a Stanley Cup Final series and never in an earlier round.

BRUINS vs. CANADIENS

BOSTON BRUINS vs. MONTREAL CANADIENS ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- The Bruins and Canadiens have met more times in post-season play than any other two NHL opponents with 34 playoff series in these team's histories. The Detroit Red Wings vs. Toronto Maple Leafs matchup is the second-most popular playoff rivalry with 23 series between those two teams entering this post-season. There are ten NHL teams that have not yet played 34 total series in their playoff histories (Anaheim, Arizona/Winnipeg, Carolina/Hartford, Columbus, Florida, Minnesota, Nashville, Ottawa, Tampa Bay, Winnipeg/Atlanta).
- The 177 playoff games played by the Bruins and Canadiens against each other heading into this post-season is also the most between opponents in NHL playoff history. The Red Wings and Maple Leafs have played 117 games in their playoff history.
- The Bruins retired Eddie Shore's number two in ceremonies prior to their Semi-Final series game with the Canadiens on Apr. 1, 1947.
- Montreal's Jacques Plante (16 saves) and Charlie Hodge (4 saves) had the first shared shutout - for or against - in Boston playoff history when they combined for a 2-0 win on Mar. 22, 1955 in the Semi-Final series. That was the only shared shutout in NHL history before Philadelphia's Brian Boucher and Michael Leighton combined for a 4-0 win over Boston on May 10, 2010.
- Bobby Orr scored the first playoff hat trick by a defenseman in NHL history on Apr. 11, 1971 in Montreal. Orr scored twice on Ken Dryden and once into an empty net during the 5-2 Boston win. He remains the only Boston blueliner to net three goals in a playoff game.
- Cam Neely and Michael Thelven combined for the fastest two playoff goals in team history when they tallied in a seven-second span on Apr. 23, 1989 for a 3-2 win over the Canadiens in their Division Final series.
- Neely set a team record for the fastest two goals by one player when he tallied just 0:11 apart (7:58 and 8:09) in the third period of a 4-1 Boston win over Montreal on Apr. 25, 1991 in their Division Final series.
- Ray Bourque became Boston's all-time leading playoff scorer with an assist in a 3-2 win in Montreal on Apr. 21, 1991. It was his 103rd career playoff point, passing Phil Esposito.
- Andrew Raycroft notched a 3-0 shutout over Montreal on Apr. 7, 2004 in his first career NHL playoff game. He was the first Bruins rookie goaltender to record a shutout in his first NHL playoff game since Cecil "Tiny" Thompson accomplished the feat on Mar. 19, 1929. Thompson earned a 1-0 win in that game, also against the Canadiens.
- The Bruins took the Canadiens to seven games in their 2008 Eastern Conference Quarter-Final series after trailing in the series, three games to one. It was the first time in their playoff history that they had forced a game seven after trailing 1-3 and was also the first time in Montreal's playoff history that they were taken to a game seven after leading a series 3-1.
- The Bruins defeated the Canadiens in seven games in the 2011 Eastern Conference Quarter-Final series after trailing in the series, two games to none. It was the first time in their playoff history that they won a playoff series in which they dropped the first two games. They would duplicate the feat in the 2011 Stanley Cup Final vs. Vancouver.
- The Bruins went 0 for 21 on the power play in their 2011 Eastern Conference Quarter-Final series vs. the Canadiens and won the series in seven games. It was the first time in NHL playoff history that a team had won a seven-game series in which they failed to score a power play goal.
- Matt Fraser scored his first career playoff goal with the overtime tally vs. Montreal on May. 8, 2014. He became just the sixth Bruin in team history to record his first career playoff goal in overtime, joining Mel Hill (1939), Des Smith (1942), Peter Douris (1992), Patrice Bergeron (2004) and Marc Savard (2008). He also became the first player in history to score overtime goals in both the American Hockey League and National Hockey League in the same playoff year.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. NEW YORK ISLANDERS ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- Mike Bossy is the only player in NHL history to have scored all four of his team's game-winning goals in one playoff series. He accomplished that feat against the Bruins in the 1983 Prince of Wales Conference Championship series.
- The Islanders won the Stanley Cup in each of the years they faced the Bruins in a playoff series.
- The Bruins (124) and Islanders (124) combined for 248 penalty minutes in the first period of game two of their 1980 Semi-Final series on Apr. 17, 1980. That remains an NHL record for penalty minutes by both teams in one playoff period.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. NEW YORK RANGERS ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- The Bruins have won six Stanley Cup championships in their history and have faced the Rangers en route to the title in four of those post-seasons (1929 Stanley Cup Final, 1939 Semi-Final, 1970 Quarter-Final and 1972 Final). The Rangers have won four Stanley Cup championships in their history and have faced the Bruins en route to the title in two of those post-seasons (1928 and 1940 Semi-Finals).
- The Bruins have played just two 0-0 ties in their playoff history. The first came vs. the NY Rangers in game one of their 1927 Semi-Final series as Boston's Hal Winkler made 28 saves and New York's Lorne Chabot made 41 saves in the game.
- The 1929 Stanley Cup Final series between Boston and New York was the first Final series that pitted two American teams against each other. The series featured Cecil "Tiny" Thompson in goal for Boston against brother Paul Thompson on left wing for the Rangers.
- There have been eight shutouts recorded by these teams in their nine series, but only one goaltender has recorded more than one shutout. New York's Dave Kerr recorded three shutouts in the six-game Semi-Final series in 1940, making 16 saves in a 4-0 win on Mar. 19, 18 saves in a 1-0 victory on Mar. 26 and 31 saves in a 1-0 win on Mar. 28.
- Boston's Mel Hill earned the nickname "Sudden Death" in the 1939 Semi-Final series between these teams. Although he had scored just ten goals over the course of the regular season, he scored three overtime tallies (twice in triple overtime) in that series, including the triple-overtime winner in game seven.
- The Bruins (four) and Rangers (three) combined for seven shorthanded goals in their 1958 Semi-Final series, which remains an NHL record for shorthanded goals by both teams in one playoff series.
- Torey Krug became the first rookie defenseman in NHL history to score four goals in his first five career post-season games when he scored four vs. the Rangers in their 2013 Conference Semi-Final series.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. TAMPA BAY LIGHTNING ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- Tyler Seguin tied an NHL record for points in a playoff period with two goals and two assists in the second period of a 6-5 Boston win over Tampa Bay on May 17, 2011 in their Conference Final series.
- David Krejci tied a club record for game-winning goals in one playoff year with his fourth of the post-season in a 2-0 Boston win over Tampa Bay on May 19, 2011 in game three of their Conference Final.
- Krejci became the first Bruin in 20 years with a playoff hat trick with three goals on May 25, 2011 in a 5-4 loss to the Lightning in game six of their Conference Final series. Cam Neely had scored the previous Boston playoff hat trick on Apr. 25, 1991.
- The Bruins and Lightning played a penalty-free game seven on May 27, 2011 as Tim Thomas made 24 saves for the 1-0 win. It was the first time in team history that the Bruins had played two game sevens in one playoff year [they would finish that post-season having played three game sevens] and was also the latest date at that time that they had ever played a post-season game.
- The Bruins and Lightning played their 2020 Round Two series in a bubble atmosphere at Scotiabank Arena in Toronto, Ontario with virus prevention measures in place due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. TORONTO MAPLE LEAFS ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- The Maple Leafs' 1-0 victory over Boston in the fifth and deciding game of their Semi-Final series on Apr. 3, 1933 was decided on a Ken Doraty goal in the sixth overtime. The overtime span of 104:48 (totals game time of 164:48) remains the second-longest game in Stanley Cup playoff history, behind only a 1-0 decision by Detroit over the Montreal Maroons at 116:30 of overtime on Mar. 24, 1936. Boston's Cecil "Tiny" Thompson faced an unofficial NHL record of 112 Toronto shots in that game while Toronto's Lorne Chabot saw 89 Boston shots on goal (based on newspaper accounts - shots on goal were not kept as an official NHL stat until the 1955-56 season).
- Ralph "Cooney" Weiland played the final game of his Hall-of-Fame career on Apr. 16, 1939 as the Bruins clinched their second Stanley Cup championship with a 3-1 win over Toronto.
- Toronto General Manager Conn Smythe was fined 100 dollars by the NHL for vaulting over the boards from his seat in the Boston Garden and entering into the middle of play to argue a call with referee Mickey Ion on Apr. 3, 1941.
- Game two of the 1951 Semi-Final series between these teams ended in a 1-1 tie so that Maple Leaf Gardens could be cleared of patrons by 12:00 midnight due to a Toronto law in effect that placed at 11:45 curfew on sporting events. It is the last tie in Bruins playoff history.
- The Bruins and Maple Leafs played a penalty-free game on Apr. 8, 1951 in game six of their Semi-Final series.
- The Bruins' 10-0 win over Toronto on Apr. 2, 1969 in game one of their Quarter-Final series stands as their largest margin of victory in a playoff game and is tied for the most goals that they have scored in a playoff game (Boston defeated St. Louis by a 10-2 score on Apr. 20, 1972). The Bruins also set a club record with six power play goals in that 10-0 victory over Toronto. The game was delayed when fans smashed the glass partition separating the penalty box from the seating area while pelting Toronto's Pat Quinn, who was serving a five-minute major penalty for elbowing Bobby Orr.
- Phil Esposito set a club record for points in a game and recorded the only four-goal playoff game in team history with four goals and two assists in a 10-0 Boston win over Toronto on Apr. 2, 1969 in game one of their Quarter-Final series.
- The Bruins became the first team in NHL history to win a game seven when they had trailed by three goals in the third period of that game when they defeated the Maple Leafs on May 13, 2013. Boston trailed Toronto by a 4-1 score at the 9:18 mark of the third period when Nathan Horton scored to start their comeback. Milan Lucic (18:38) and Patrice Bergeron (19:09) scored to tie the game with Tuukka Rask pulled for an extra attacker and Bergeron then won the contest at 6:05 of overtime.
- David Pastrnak tied an NHL record for most points in the first two playoff games of a post-season with 4-5=9 totals in games one and two of the Round One series vs. Toronto in 2018 ... That included tying a club record for points in a playoff game with 3-3=6 totals in game two of that series on April 14, 2018 and he became the youngest player in NHL history (21 years, 324 days) to record six points in a playoff game, breaking Wayne Gretzky's previous mark of 22 years, 81 days.
- The Bruins trailed Toronto by a 4-3 score after the second period in game seven of their 2018 Round One series but scored four unanswered goals in the third period to take the game seven victory by a 7-4 final.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. VANCOUVER CANUCKS ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- The Bruins became the first team in NHL history to win three game sevens in one playoff year with their 4-0 win on June 15, 2011 bringing home their sixth Stanley Cup championship.
- The Bruins set an NHL record for the fewest goals allowed in a seven-game series when they outscored Vancouver by a 23-8 margin in the 2011 Stanley Cup Final.
- Vancouver's Alexandre Burrows ended the second-shortest overtime in league playoff history when he scored just 0:11 into the extra period to give the Canucks a 3-2 win on June 4, 2011 in game two of the Stanley Cup Final.
- The eight goals the Bruins scored vs. Vancouver in game three of their 2011 Stanley Cup Final series was their biggest offensive output since Apr. 20, 1983. The Bruins tied a Stanley Cup Final record with Brad Marchand and Daniel Paille both striking for shorthanded goals.
- The Bruins scored the fastest four goals in a Stanley Cup Final game in history when Brad Marchand, Milan Lucic, Andrew Ference and Michael Ryder tallied in a span of 4:14 in the first period for a 5-2 game six victory over the Canucks on June 13, 2011.
- Patrice Bergeron and Brad Marchand scored twice each and Conn Smythe winner Tim Thomas made 21 saves for a 4-0 win in Vancouver on June 15, 2011 as the Bruins won the sixth Stanley Cup in their history. It was the second series of that post-season in which the Bruins came back from a two-games-to-none deficit after entering the playoffs 0 for 26 in that situation.
- The Canucks, Oilers and the original Ottawa Senators (1927) are the only teams in their playoff history that the Bruins have only faced in a Stanley Cup Final series and never in an earlier round.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. WASHINGTON CAPITALS ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- Washington's Kelly Miller took an unsuccessful penalty shot against Boston's Andy Moog at 2:55 of the first period in game one of the 1990 Prince of Wales Conference Championship series on May 3, 1990. It is the only playoff penalty shot between these teams and one of just seven taken against Boston in their history.
- The 2012 Conference Quarter-Final series between these teams marked the first time that they have met in the playoffs when the victor of the series did not go on to the Stanley Cup Final. The Bruins won their 1990 Prince of Wales Conference Final series and then lost to Edmonton in the 1990 Stanley Cup Final, while the Capitals won their 1998 Eastern Conference Quarter-Final series and then lost to Detroit in the 1998 Stanley Cup Final.
- The Boston-Washington 2012 Conference Quarter-Final series was the first time in NHL history that every game in a six- or seven-game series was decided by one goal. That occurred again in Boston's 2017 Round One series vs. Ottawa.
- Boston's game one 1-0 overtime victory vs. Washington on April 12, 2012 was their first playoff overtime win by that score since Mar. 23, 1935 vs. Toronto.
- The four overtime games between these teams in the 2012 Conference Quarter-Final series was the most in a Boston series since their 1939 Semi-Final series vs. the New York Rangers.

BOSTON BRUINS vs. DEFUNCT CLUBS ALL-TIME SERIES FUN FACTS

- The Bruins played the first Stanley Cup Final game in their history on Apr. 7, 1927 vs. the Ottawa Senators. The game was called at a 0-0 tie after two overtime sessions due to excessive heat in Boston Garden.
- The Bruins played the Montreal Maroons on Mar. 20, 1930 in a triple overtime game ended by a Harry Oliver score at 5:35 of the third extra period. The total game time of 105:35 was the longest at the time in NHL history and the referee ignored the NHL rule of the day that "overtime must be continuous" by allowing the ice to be scraped after 20 minutes of overtime.
