TERRY PEGULA OWNER/CEO

Back in 1983, Terry Pegula told his business partner Robert H. Long, Jr., "If I ever have more than two nickels to my name, I'm going to buy the Buffalo Sabres one day." Almost 30 years later, Terry's dream has come to fruition.

A NEW ERA OF SABRES HOCKEY

On Feb. 22, 2011, Pegula became the fourth owner in Buffalo Sabres franchise history. The day he was introduced as owner, the Sabres were 27-25-6 and sat in ninth place in the Eastern Conference - five points out of a playoff spot. Pegula's purchase not only reenergized the fan base, but the players as well. With Pegula now at the helm, the Sabres went on a 16-4-4 run over the final 24 games of the season to finish seventh in the East. This included a 9-1-2 record at home, with every remaining home game selling out.

The momentum of the new era would stretch well into the offseason as the home of the Sabres – renamed First Niagara Center in August 2011 – began a multimillion dollar facelift. The renovations, which were completed in time for the 2011-12 season, included a new, state-of-the-art locker room with updated training and rehabilitation areas, player lounge and coaches offices. Along with the locker room transformation, First Niagara Center underwent several other upgrades with a focus on providing the best possible game-day experience for Sabres fans. This commitment to providing a first-rate environment for players and fans quickly earned Buffalo the label of 'Hockey Heaven.'

Buffalo fans responded to this new era of Sabres hockey in an overwhelming fashion. Since Pegula's acquisition of the team, the Sabres have ranked in the top 10 of NHL teams for game attendance at First Niagara Center and the team generated the second-highest local TV ratings for the third straight season in 2013-14. The excitement incited by Pegula doesn't appear to be subsiding any time soon; the season ticket renewal rate remains consistently high each season and the waiting list has grown to include more than 3,000 names.

HARBORCENTER

In 2012, Terry and his wife, Kim, looked to make an even bigger impact on the City of Buffalo, using hockey as a catalyst. On Aug. 29, 2012, it was announced that the city had selected the Pegulas and their development team to develop and construct HARBORCENTER, a $172 million multipurpose facility that will sit directly across from First Niagara Center in the city's Canalside District. HARBORCENTER will be anchored by two new NHL-size ice rinks that will be used year-round by a variety of Buffalo-area hockey teams and leagues.

Also in the facility will be a 200-room, full-service Marriott hotel, (716), an upscale, hockey-themed sports bar and restaurant, a one-of-a-kind Tim Hortons location that pays homage to the former Sabres player, as well as additional retail space and a parking structure.

HARBORCENTER is expected to draw more than 500,000 people to downtown Buffalo annually and, coupled with First Niagara Center, will provide a premier destination for hockey fans, right in the heart of 'Hockey Heaven.'

EXPANDING THE PEGULA-HOCKEY FOOTPRINT

On Sept. 17, 2010, Terry and Kim donated $88 million to Penn State University -- the largest private gift in the history of the school -- to fund a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose arena and a world-class practice facility, and to help establish an NCAA Division I men's hockey program. In 2012, the Pegulas announced they would increase their donation to the Nittany Lion hockey program to $102 million that allowed for the endowment of student athlete scholarships.

Thanks to their generosity, Penn State has been able to add both men's and women's varsity hockey teams, with both teams beginning play in 2012-13. Pegula Ice Arena, which opened in 2013 and enjoyed a sold-out 2013-14 season, includes two ice sheets and serves as the only major ice facility within an 80-mile radius of State College. In addition to providing hockey and figure skating opportunities for the entire Central Pennsylvania region, it is also used for a broad range of campus and community activities.

TERRY PEGULA OWNER

ROCHESTER REUNION

Soon after purchasing the Sabres, the Pegulas explored the idea of acquiring the Rochester Americans, the AHL team that had previously spent 29 years as the Sabres' affiliate before a three-year hiatus. On June 24, 2011, the Sabres announced the reunification of the Western New York teams as Pegula became the owner of the Amerks and resumed one of the longest and most successful partnerships between an NHL and AHL club.

The 'Hockey Heaven' mindset was quickly adopted in Rochester as well and, like the Sabres, the Amerks experienced a momentum change. The Americans had the highest jump in attendance in the AHL in 2011-12, a 44.5% increase from the previous season, and vaulted from 25th in league attendance to 13th in just one season. As the Amerks progressed into the Calder Cup playoffs, fans were attending the games in numbers not seen since 1990.

A HOCKEY FAN AND A BUSINESS MAN

Pegula's interest in the NHL began when the Sabres faced the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1975 Stanley Cup Final. His affection for the "French Connection" line began with that series, and led to his affinity for the Sabres franchise. Terry first bought season tickets at the Memorial Auditorium in 1980. He remained a loyal Sabres season ticket holder for the next 18 seasons.

Born in 1951 and raised in Carbondale, Pa., he attended high school at Scranton Preparatory School. Pegula entered Penn State University as a Math major, but in order to stay in school he entered the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering program through a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973, and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, Texas. He later joined Felmont Oil Co., a decision that first brought him to Olean, N.Y., in 1975.

In 1983, he borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to found East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years, he built it into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc. for $4.7 billion (US). That sale allowed the Pegulas to make their first foray into the hockey world.

BEYOND HOCKEY

Together, the Pegulas have expanded their business interests by forming Pegula Sports & Entertainment, a multifaceted parent company of 12 separate companies located in Buffalo, Nashville, Tenn., Atlanta and Boca Raton, Fla. In addition to the Sabres, Amerks and HARBORCENTER, the diverse portfolio of sports and entertainment properties includes: Black River Entertainment and Publishing, a country music label and songwriting studio based in Nashville; Five Star Athletes Management, a professional athlete representation agency based in Atlanta; and Impact Sports Performance, a high-performance training facility for professional and amateur athletes with a location in Boca Raton, Fla. and a future location at HARBORCENTER in Buffalo.

Terry and Kim currently reside in Boca Raton, Fla., and have five children: Michael (36), Laura (32), Jessica (20), Kelly (18) and Matthew (15). Pegula's younger daughters, Jessica and Kelly, were both born in Buffalo.

TED BLACK PRESIDENT AND ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

As president of the Buffalo Sabres, Ted Black oversees all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the franchise, with specific focus on making the Buffalo Sabres the premier destination for NHL players and the Sabres' current and future employees. In addition, Black provides strategic and creative leadership in areas including corporate partnerships, advertising, NHL relations, team marketing, Sabres television broadcasts, fan relations and ticket sales.

In late 2010, Terry Pegula enlisted Black to undertake the task of assembling and leading the group of professionals to advise Pegula on the acquisition of the Buffalo Sabres. Black's responsibilities included guiding the transaction negotiations, due diligence and the NHL approval process.

Since Black took charge of the Sabres' business operations in February 2011, the club has continued to be one of the strongest small-market clubs in the NHL. During the past four seasons, the Sabres' season-ticket holder base has grown to its highest levels in decades, with a consistently high renewal rate and a waiting list of more than 3,000 fans. Additionally, the team has set game attendance records and increased the capacity of First Niagara Center, pushing it into the top 10 largest arenas (by capacity) in the league.

Under Black's guidance, the Sabres continue to be one of the NHL's most popular draws on television as well. The team's games on MSG have posted the league's second-best local TV ratings for the past three seasons (2011-12, 2012-13 and 2013-14) and Buffalo remains as one of the strongest hockey-viewing markets for nationally televised contests on NBC and NBC Sports Network.

Black is also guiding the Sabres' role in HARBORCENTER, a $172 million multipurpose hockey and entertainment facility that will sit directly across from First Niagara Center in Buffalo's Canalside District. This one-of-a-kind project has led to partnerships with Marriott International, to develop a 200-room full-service hotel at the complex, and also with Canisius College, which will use HARBORCENTER's two NHL-size ice rinks as its home arena when the complex opens in 2014.

Black and his executive team led the effort to convince the NHL to relocate its annual NHL Combine from Toronto to Buffalo. In 2015 and in 2016, First Niagara Center and HARBORCENTER will jointly host the NHL Combine. Similarly, other events such as the USA Hockey All-American Prospects game (2012, 2014, 2015) and the first-ever OHL regular season game at First Niagara Center (2014) continue to raise the profile and image of Buffalo.

Before his move to the Sabres, Black served as the Senior Vice President and General Manager of FSN Pittsburgh, a regional sports television network that produced and telecasted more than 220 live pro events and 1,500 hours of programming per year. Under Black's executive leadership, FSN Pittsburgh grew advertising revenues every year and telecast a record number of live pro events. The station also generated record revenues, record earnings, record ratings and was widely recognized as the No. 1-rated U.S.-based regional sports network in the NHL.

Prior to his tenure at FSN, Black was a member of Mario Lemieux's senior management team and served as Vice President of the Pittsburgh Penguins from 1999 to 2008. Black was a member of the core group of executives that helped Lemieux execute one of the most successful franchise transformations in the history of professional sports.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Buffalo Sabres, Black serves as the President and Governor of the club's AHL franchise, the Rochester Americans.

Black is a 1987 graduate of Allegheny College and he received his J.D. from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law in 1990. Ted and his wife, Amy, live in the Elmwood Village neighborhood of Buffalo. They have two sons, Andrew and Nathan.

TIM MURRAY GENERAL MANAGER

Named general manager of the Buffalo Sabres on Jan. 18, 2014, Tim Murray enters his 22nd season in the National Hockey League and his first full season with the Sabres, leading all aspects of the club's hockey department. In addition to the Sabres, Murray oversees the hockey operations of Buffalo's American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate club, the Rochester Americans.

Murray joined the Sabres after serving as the assistant general manager for the Ottawa Senators, a post he held for seven years. Part of his duties as assistant general manager included serving as general manager of Ottawa's American Hockey League affiliate, the 2011 Calder-Cup champion Binghamton Senators.

Prior to being named the Senators' assistant general manager in 2007, Murray spent three years (2002-2005) as the director of player personnel for the Anaheim Ducks, where he was responsible for overseeing the amateur draft and college free agents. He also served as the assistant director of player personnel for the New York Rangers for two years (2005-2007), where he evaluated potential free agents and also worked as an amateur scout. Murray began his NHL career in 1993-94, when he was hired as an amateur scout for the Detroit Red Wings. He then moved on to the Florida Panthers, where he served as a scout from 1994-2002.

Born in Shawville, Quebec, Murray is the nephew of Ottawa Senators GM Bryan Murray and former Los Angeles Kings coach Terry Murray. Tim, Bryan and Terry Murray were all inducted into the Shawville Hockey Wall of Fame in 2012. Tim and his wife, Kathy, currently reside in Buffalo and have three children: Haley, Justin and Jared.

MARK JAKUBOWSKI ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Mark Jakubowski begins his 10th year with the Sabres and his first as assistant general manager. His responsibilities include statistical and salary cap analysis, contract research relating to player negotiations and arbitrations, managing player transfers, team roster administration, and all matters relating to compliance with the NHL Collective Bargaining Agreement and other NHL agreements.

Jakubowski also assists with the American Hockey League hockey operations of the team's minor league affiliate, the Rochester Americans. Prior to being named to his current role, Jakubowski spent seven seasons serving as assistant to the general manager

Jakubowski graduated with an economics degree from the University of Rochester, where he also played baseball. He resides in Hamburg, N.Y.

KEVIN DEVINE DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Kevin Devine, who begins his 17th year in the Sabres organization, was named director of player personnel in August 2014.

Prior to his current role, Devine served as the director of amateur scouting for eight years. Prior to that, Devine spent six years as a professional scout in the Sabres organization and two as an assistant amateur scout. Before joining the Sabres, he spent three years coaching the Prince Edward Island Senators of the AHL. He also coached in the UHL, with stints in Port Huron and Thunder Bay.

Devine enjoyed an 11-year professional playing career. He spent five years in the WHA, including three with the San Diego Mariners and two with the Indianapolis Racers. He went on to spend six seasons in the New York Islanders organization, where he was a reserve on the organization's first Stanley Cup championship team.

Devine resides in Buffalo, N.Y. during the hockey season, and spends his off-seasons in Charlottetown, P.E.I.

ROB MURPHY DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Rob Murphy joins the Sabres as a director of scouting after four years as a professional scout for the Ottawa Senators and two years as a scout for the Phoenix Coyotes. Prior to his scouting career, Murphy spent seven seasons as an NHL player. A native of Hull, Quebec, Murphy was selected in the second round (24th overall) of the 1987 NHL Entry Draft by the Vancouver Canucks. He would play in five seasons with the Canucks before being picked up by the Ottawa Senators in the expansion draft that preceded their inaugural 1992-93 season. After one year in Ottawa, Murphy signed with the Los Angeles Kings to finish his NHL career and moved on to play in minor pro and in Europe.

GREG ROYCE DIRECTOR OF AMATEUR SCOUTING

Greg Royce joins the Sabres in 2014-15 for his first season as director of amateur scouting. The 2014-15 season will be Royce's 18th year as a member of an NHL scouting staff after spending six seasons (2008-09 to 2013-14) as an amateur scout with the Ottawa Senators. Prior to his time with the Senators, Royce served as an amateur scout for three seasons with the Phoenix Coyotes and worked eight seasons with the Nashville Predators, including three as the Predators' assistant director of amateur scouting. Prior to his scouting career, Royce served as head coach of the Quinte Hawks (MetJHL) for one season, coaching the team to a 34-13-3 record. A native of Trenton, Ontario, Royce also played three seasons of OHL hockey as a member of the Belleville Bulls and Guelph Platers.

TED NOLAN HEAD COACH

On Nov. 13, 2013, Terry Pegula announced that the Sabres had hired Ted Nolan as interim head coach following the team's 4-15-1 start to the 2013-14 season. In his second coaching stint in Buffalo, Nolan guided the team to the end of the season and signed a contract extension to officially become head coach in March 2014. He joins Scotty Bowman as the second head coach to reprise his role with the Sabres in the franchise's 43-year history.

Nolan began his head coaching career in 1988, taking over as head coach of the Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds in the middle of the 1988-89 Ontario Hockey League season after originally being hired by the Greyhounds as an assistant coach. Nolan built a successful resume in junior hockey in his six seasons at the helm for the Greyhounds, earning various accolades at the OHL level while coaching the Greyhounds to two OHL Championships, culminating with a Memorial Cup win in 1993-94.

Nolan's success at the junior level earned him his first NHL coaching job as assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers in 1994-95. He was hired by the Sabres on July 18, 1995 and made his NHL head coaching debut with a 3-1 win at Ottawa on Oct. 7, 1995.

In two seasons with the Sabres, Nolan compiled a 73-72-19 combined record. He earned the franchise's first Jack Adams Award in 1997 after guiding the Sabres to a first-place finish in the Northeast Division with a 40-30-12 record in 1996-97. The Sabres followed up their strong regular season that year with their first playoff series win since 1993, besting the Ottawa Senators in a seven-game series before being eliminated in the Eastern Conference Semifinals by the Philadelphia Flyers.

Following his tenure with the Sabres, Nolan resumed his coaching career in the 2005-06 season as head coach of the Moncton Wildcats (QMJHL), leading the Wildcats to a league-leading 52-15-3 record and their first-ever QMJHL Championship before finishing as runners-up in the Memorial Cup final. Moncton's franchise records for most points (107), most wins (52) and most goals (345) – all set in 2005-06 – still stand today. Nolan's efforts earned him QMJHL All-Star head coach honors and he was also named QMJHL General Manager of the Year.

Nolan returned to the NHL ranks in 2006-07 for the first of two seasons as head coach of the New York Islanders and guided the Islanders to a 40-30-12 record – the same mark that earned him a Jack Adams Award with the Sabres – and the team's first playoff berth since 2003-04. Nolan returned for a second season on Long Island, but the team went 35-38-9 and Nolan was relieved of his duties during the offseason.

After parting ways with the Islanders, Nolan spent two years as vice president of hockey operations for the Rochester Americans. On Aug. 3, 2011, Nolan was hired as head coach of the Latvian men's national ice hockey team, a position that led him to coach Team Latvia during the 2014 Olympic Winter Games in Sochi, Russia, where the Latvians nearly upset Team Canada in the quarterfinal round of the tournament. Prior to his coaching career, Nolan was drafted by the Detroit Red Wings in the fifth round (78th overall) of the 1978 NHL Amateur Draft. In 78 career NHL games with the Red Wings and the Pittsburgh Penguins, Nolan tallied 22 points (6+16).

Away from the rink, Nolan has devoted himself to First Nations causes, including teaching hockey to First Nations children. His work in this area has earned him numerous awards, including the National Aboriginal Achievement Award, the Sault Ste. Marie Medal of Merit, the Order of Ontario 1991, Sault Ste. Marie Kiwanis Citizen of the Year and in 1986 he was chosen as a role model in the National Native Alcohol and Drug Abuse Program. He has also received an honorary diploma for human relations from Niagara College (1997) and accepted an honorary doctorate degree in law from Laurentien University (2002).

Nolan is an active member in the Aboriginal community and in 2003 established the Ted Nolan Foundation in honor of his late mother, Rose. The Ted Nolan Foundation mission statement is "through our philosophy of healthy lifestyle, the Ted Nolan Foundation is committed to the healing process to renew and revitalize the mind, body and spirit of our young people. We will explore to help us train a new cadre of Aboriginal leaders today, to take their rightful place in Canadian society tomorrow. We will raise scholarship funds for First Nation women wishing to complete their education."

Nolan and his wife, Sandra, are the proud parents of Brandon, a former player with the Carolina Hurricanes organization, and Jordan, who currently plays for the Los Angeles Kings.

BRYAN TROTTIER ASSISTANT COACH

Bryan Trottier enters his first season with the Buffalo Sabres after being named an assistant coach in August 2014. Trottier, who was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1997, is a seven-time Stanley Cup champion, having won six championships as a player and one as an assistant coach. He also remains one of the most prolific players in NHL history.

Beginning his NHL career with the New York Islanders in 1975-76, Trottier quickly established himself as one of the league's most productive centers by setting an NHL record of 95 points his rookie season and being awarded the Calder Trophy as the league's top rookie. He would go on to play 15 seasons with Islanders, setting numerous records including: games played (1,123); career points (1,353); career assists (853); assists in a single season (87, 1978-79); and most points in a game (8, Dec. 23, '78). Trottier was an integral part of the dominant Islanders teams that won four consecutive Stanley Cup Championships from 1979-80 to 1982-83 and put together his best statistical season in 1978-79, when he recorded 134 points (47+87). His jersey, number 19, was officially retired by the club in 2001.

He joined the Penguins in September 1999, the day after the team emerged from bankruptcy protection under a new ownership group led by Mario Lemieux. He first served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, becoming President in 2003 and later being appointed Chief Executive Officer in 2006.

Under his leadership, the Penguins adopted a strategic plan to ensure that the team would be successful both on the ice and as a business, and thus be assured of a long future in Pittsburgh. During his tenure, the on-ice product was rebuilt and now consists of one of the best rosters of young players in the NHL, including superstars Sidney Crosby and Evgeni Malkin. In 2009, the team reached the pinnacle of success on the ice, winning the Stanley Cup for the third time in franchise history. As CEO, Sawyer oversaw all of the Penguins' operations and the team has emerged as a tremendous success off the ice as well, selling out every game since early 2007. Sawyer led efforts to finance and then construct the Consol Energy Center, which opened in August 2010.

Sawyer also has extensive experience in League matters after representing the Penguins as a Governor of the NHL and serving as Chief Financial Officer of the NHL for 14 years. During that time he served on every major committee of the NHL.

Benson was also instrumental in facilitating Pegula's $88 million donation to help launch a Division-I men's ice hockey program at Pennsylvania State University in 2011.

Benson also led negotiations to partner HARBORCENTER with Marriott International, to develop a 200-room full-service hotel at the complex, and also with Canisius College, which will use HARBORCENTER's two NHL-size ice rinks as its home arena when the complex opens in 2014.

In 2000, Benson, along with members of the Pittsburgh Penguins Alumni, formed Hockey in the Hood. Founded with a grant from the National Hockey League's Diversity Task Force and assistance from the Pittsburgh Penguins, Hockey in the Hood (now called Pittsburgh ICE) was one of 40 major diversity ice hockey programs throughout the United States and Canada with the goal of reaching underprivileged inner-city children by teaching them skating and ice hockey lessons.

Benson served as the lead client service partner for the worldwide services provided to the United States Steel Corporation and H.J. Heinz. Other clients served over his long career at Deloitte include Armco, Bayer Corporation, Marathon Oil, PPG Industries, Rockwell International, the Pittsburgh Penguins and East Resources.

Benson is passionate about serving the community and has been actively involved in charitable organizations for most of his career – primarily those that benefit inner-city children with limited opportunities. He is affiliated with Hasek's Heroes, SABAH, Imani Christian Academy (Board Chair), the Buffalo Outer Harbor Development Committee and was named to the Penn State Board of Trustees in February 2014. For 17 years (1989-2006) Patrick served as the executive vice president and general manager of the Pittsburgh Penguins, during which time he elevated the club to being one of the elite teams in the NHL. STANLEY CUP PLAYOFF FORMAT

The NHL underwent a divisional realignment prior to the 2013-14 season that affected the league's playoff format. The new format is as follows:

Playoff qualification will be primarily Division-based, with the top three finishers in each Division qualifying for the first 12 spots in the Stanley Cup Playoffs (and the first three "seeds" in each Division).

The two additional playoff spots in each Conference, designated as "Wild Cards," will be awarded to the next two highest-placed finishers in each Conference, ranked on the basis of regular-season points and regardless of Division.

"Seeding" of the Wild Card teams within each Divisional Playoff will be determined on the basis of regular-season points. The first-place finisher with the most regular-season points in the Conference will be matched against the Wild Card team with the fewest regular-season points, and the first-place finisher with the second-most regular-season points in the Conference matched against the Wild Card team with the second-fewest regular-season points.

The Playoffs will proceed as follows:

- #1 vs. #4 / #2 vs. #3 – Winners play each other for berth in Conference Championship
- Conference Finals – Two advancing teams in the West and two advancing teams in the East meet in Conference Championship
- Eastern and Western Conference Champions meet in Stanley Cup Final

Any player who dressed in at least one Sabres regular season or playoff game in his career is listed. Twelve players have dressed but never played a game for Buffalo: #27 - Tim Regan (1973-74); #31 - Jim Weaver (1978-79); #30 - Jari Paavola (1981-82); #35 - Mike Craig (1984-85); #34 - Kenton Rein (1987-88); #33 - Bill Pye (1992-93); #30 - Markus Ketterer (1993-94 & 1994-95); #68 - Scott Buhler (1996-97); #50 - Michael Leighton (2005-06); #35 - Ryan Vinz (2013-14); #41 - Jaroslav Halak (2013-14); #35 - Andrey Makarov (2013-14).

Additionally, Martin Biron served as backup goaltender wearing #00 and did not play (3 times in 1996-97, 1 time in 1997-98) and Jhonas Enroth served as backup goaltender wearing #31 and did not play (3 times in 2008-09).

RETIRED NUMBERS

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only six numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on Oct. 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Martin (#7) and Robert (#14) joined Perreault in a ceremony to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on Nov. 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on Jan. 5, 1996. The Sabres retired two more numbers during the 2005-06 season. Right winger Danny Gare (#18) was honored on Nov. 22, 2005, while Pat LaFontaine's #16 was hoisted to the rafters on March 3, 2006. During the 2014-15 season, Dominik Hasek will become the seventh player – and first goaltender – to have his number retired by the team.

Center_1970-71 to 1986-87 GILBERT PERREAULT

CAREER SABRES TOTALS:

1,191 games played	512 goals	814 assists	1,326 points (regular season)
90 games played	33 goals	70 assists	103 points (playoffs)

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first ever draft choice and set the standard by which all future Sabres would be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number 11 in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, there will never be another.

Perreault' s number 11 was retired on October 17, 1990.

Left Wing_1971-72 to 1980-81 RICK MARTIN

CAREER SABRES TOTALS:

62 games played	24 goals	29 assists	53 points (playoffs)

Buffalo Sabres fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number 7's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Finals appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals, one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season. Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't wearing a Sabres' uniform. On Jan. 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the League's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds two single-season Sabres records and is tied for another. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories. Martin passed away on March 13, 2011, and his life was celebrated in a public memorial service at HSBC Arena on March 24. The team honored his memory by painting the number seven on the ice behind each goal for the remainder of the regular season and playoffs.

Martin' s number 7 was retired on November 15, 1995.

Right Wing_1971-72 to 1978-79 RENE ROBERT

CAREER SABRES TOTALS:

47 games played	22 goals	17 assists	39 points (playoffs)

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers' goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of game three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started by the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season. That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player. He later recorded another Sabres milestone by scoring the 2,000th goal in club history on Dec. 22, 1977. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number 7 in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star games.

Robert' s number 14 was retired on November 15, 1995.

2

CAREER SABRES TOTALS:

124 games played	1 goal	22 assists	23 points (regular season)
6 games played	0 goals	1 assist	1 point (playoffs)

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the intra-league draft in June 1972 from Pittsburgh. Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, N.Y. Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates. Today, in honor of the late defenseman, Horton's name is on the Buffalo award presented annually to the player whose performance is far superior to the public recognition he has received (known as the Unsung Hero Award before 1975). Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular season games plus 126 more in the postseason. Included in his playing days were eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

Horton' s number 2 was retired on January 5, 1996.

18

Right Wing_1974-75 to 1981-82 DANNY GARE

CAREER SABRES TOTALS:

58 games played	23 goals	21 assists	44 points (playoffs)

Danny Gare played his first game for the Sabres on October 10, 1974 against Boston, and scored just 18 seconds into his first NHL shift. He finished his rookie season with 62 points (31+31) and contributed 13 points (7+6) in the Sabres' run to the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. Gare followed up his strong rookie campaign with his first of two 50-goal seasons in 1975-76, when he netted 50 goals and 23 assists in 79 games, and chipped in two game-winning goals in the playoffs. That season, Gare recorded three of his 10 career hat tricks as a Sabre. In 1979-80, he scored a career-high 56 goals, including a club-record 11 game-winners. Rick Martin is the only other Sabre to have two 50-goal seasons. With 267 goals as a Sabre, Gare holds the record for goals by a Sabres right wing. He finished his Sabres career with 500 points. Gare's career as a Sabre came to an end on Dec. 2, 1981 when he was traded to the Detroit Red Wings. He spent his final NHL season in Edmonton in 1986-87. The Nelson, B.C. native finished his career with 685 points (354+331), and was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 1994.

Gare' s number 18 was retired on November 22, 2005.

Center_1991-92 to 1996-97 PAT LaFONTAINE

CAREER SABRES TOTALS:

19 games played	12 goals	15 assists	27 points (playoffs)

Pat LaFontaine enjoyed an illustrious 15-year career before retiring from the NHL in 1998 as the second highest-scoring American-born player with 468 goals and 1,013 points. He was born in St. Louis, but grew up in the suburbs of Detroit, and is still considered one of the game's best playmakers, fastest skaters, and most humble of superstars. A member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto, LaFontaine began his career in 1983-84 with the New York Islanders. He had a career year for Buffalo in 1992-93 when he set Sabres records for points (148) and assists (95) in a season. After being sidelined by a serious knee injury for most of the 1993-94 season, he returned as team captain in 1994-95 and was awarded the Bill Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to hockey. LaFontaine was with the Sabres from 1991-1997, finishing with 385 points (158+227) in 268 games. He completed the "Empire State Hat Trick" by playing for all three NHL organizations within New York State when he was traded to the Rangers in 1997. He remained one of the Rangers' leading scorers until injuries forced him to prematurely retire on Aug. 11, 1998.

LaFontaine' s number 16 was retired on March 3, 2006.

Goaltender_1992-93 to 2000-01 DOMINIK HASEK

CAREER SABRES TOTALS:

491 games played	234 wins	55 shutouts	.926 save percentage	2.22 goals against avg. (regular season)
68 games played	37 wins	6 shutouts	.930 save percentage	2.04 goals against avg. (playoffs)

Originally acquired by the Sabres from the Chicago Blackhawks on Aug. 7, 1992, Hasek remains one of the most decorated goaltenders in team and league history, appearing in a total of 491 games for the Blue & Gold during a span of nine seasons from 1992-2001. Hasek appeared in a career-high 72 games for the club in the 1997-98 season, setting a team record with 13 shutouts, only to follow that up with a career-best 1.87 GAA, .937 save percentage and a Stanley Cup Final berth in 1998-99. While backstopping the Sabres, he became the first goaltender in NHL history to win the Hart Trophy twice (1997 & 1998), while also capturing six Vezina Trophies (1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 1999 & 2001) as well as the William M. Jennings Trophy (1994 & 2001) and the Lester B. Pearson Award twice (1997 & 1998). By the end of his time in Buffalo, Hasek held every meaningful franchise goaltending record and still owns the team's career and single-season records (all from 1998-99) for shutouts (55 career/13 single-season), save percentage (.926/.937) and goals-against average (2.22/1.87).

Hasek' s number 39 will be retired in 2014-15.

BUFFALO SABRES ALUMNI PLAZA

On Oct. 12, 2012, the Buffalo Sabres unveiled the newly named 'Alumni Plaza' outside First Niagara Center, designed to honor all former members of the team. As part of the plaza's transformation, the six concrete columns that support a pedestrian walkway above the plaza were surrounded by bricks and mortar. Every player ever to play a game for the franchise is commemorated with a plaque on those bricks, detailing his first game with the Sabres.

Also unveiled that day was the centerpiece of Alumni Plaza: a cast in bronze statue depicting the French Connection. Comprised of center Gilbert Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert, the French Connection is widely considered to be one of the greatest forward lines in NHL history and remains the most celebrated offensive unit in Buffalo Sabres history. The trio, all of whom were French-Canadian, was dubbed 'The French Connection' – after the 1971 film of the same name – and played together in Buffalo from the team's acquisition of Robert on March 4, 1972 until his departure on Oct. 5, 1979.

Between them, the members of The French Connection played 2,396 games for the Sabres, scoring 1,116 goals and registering 2,573 total points. During their tenure in Buffalo, the three were honored with a combined 15 NHL All-Star Game appearances and seven selections to the First and Second NHL All-Star Teams. All three are members of the Sabres Hall of Fame and have had their numbers officially retired from use by the Sabres. Perreault, the franchise's first ever draft pick, served as the team's captain for five seasons and retired after 17 NHL seasons – all with the Sabres.

Inspiration for the statue came from a photograph taken during a playoff game at Memorial Auditorium on April 27, 1975 which features all three members of The French Connection. The photograph was taken by award-winning photographer Ron Moscati. During the game in which the photograph was taken, all three members of the French Connection scored a goal to lead the Sabres to a playoff win against the Montreal Canadiens.

To design and construct the statue, the Sabres commissioned distinguished American sculptor Jerry McKenna. McKenna is well known for his sports statues, and was named the 2003 'Sports Sculptor of the Year' by the All-American Football Foundation. A specially-designed pedestal, constructed by HHL Architects of Buffalo, features an integrated lighting system and an illuminated informational panel which provides a base for the statue.

BUFFALO SABRES EST. 1970

The NHL officially came to Buffalo on Dec. 2, 1969, when the league awarded Seymour and Northrup Knox the franchise that would soon be named "Sabres." The brothers wasted little time in hiring George "Punch" Imlach, formerly of the Toronto Maple Leafs, as the team's first Head Coach and General Manager. In June 1970, the Sabres were awarded the first pick in the NHL Entry Draft, and Imlach selected highly-touted center Gilbert Perreault from the Montreal Jr. Canadiens. Perreault lived up to the advance billing, scoring 38 goals his rookie season en route to winning the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year.

Another Junior Canadien, left winger Rick Martin, joined Perreault on the team's front line as the Sabres' top pick in 1971. That dominating duo turned into a trio when Rene Robert was acquired from the Pittsburgh Penguins near the end of the 1971-72 season. The line of Martin-Perreault-Robert would be dubbed "The French Connection" and would become one of the most dominating scoring lines of the 1970s.

By 1974-75, the young team was maturing and finished the season with a 49-16-15 record - still the best-ever season numbers in franchise history. Buffalo defeated Chicago in the first round of the playoffs and followed that with a second-round victory over Montreal to earn its first-ever berth in the Stanley Cup Finals vs. Philadelphia. While the Flyers defeated the Sabres in six games, the loss did not blemish the accomplishment of a team which had only been in the league for five years.

The Sabres had an opportunity to hire one of the game's all-time coaching greats, Scotty Bowman, and did so in 1979. In his first season as head coach, Bowman led the Sabres to the Wales Conference Finals before they lost, 4-2, to the eventual Stanley Cup Champion New York Islanders. Bowman finished with an impressive 210-134-60 mark.

Bowman spent the next few seasons revamping the Sabres' lineup, adding players such as Mike Ramsey, Phil Housley, Mike Foligno, Dave Andreychuk and Tom Barrasso. Those players formed the core of successful teams, and helped continue the tradition of winning hockey.

Through the good times and the bad times, there was always Perreault. Robert and Martin had both been traded by the early 1980s, but the original Sabre remained and continued to flourish. On March 9, 1986, Perreault and an Aud full of fans celebrated together as the franchise's favorite son scored his 500th career goal, making him the 12th player in history (at the time) to reach that milestone. Four years later, in 1990, Perreault was immortalized with induction into Hockey's Hall of Fame. This would be an omen of better things to come for the franchise.

Five-time Stanley Cup Champion John Muckler was chosen in 1991 to be the team's Director of Hockey Operations and soon assumed the title of head coach. He was instrumental in acquiring Pat LaFontaine from the Islanders in October 1991. LaFontaine teamed with Russian Alexander Mogilny to form a dynamic duo that combined to score 129 goals in 1992-93, including a franchise-record 76 goals by Mogilny. Buffalo capped that season by sweeping the Bruins in the first round of the playoffs to post its first playoff series win in 10 years.

That playoff excitement was just a precursor to Game Six of the 1994 Eastern Conference Quarterfinals vs. the New Jersey Devils. Buffalo won that game, 1-0, in four overtimes on a goal by Dave Hannan. Dominik Hasek posted an incredible 70 saves in the victory, playing the entire 125:43 without allowing a goal. Following that season, Hasek would win the first of two consecutive Vezina Trophies as the NHL's top goaltender. But that would only set the stage for the 1996-97 season.

Before it even started, the 1996-97 campaign was already one of the most memorable in team history. It would represent the first time in the team's history that it would have new uniforms (red and black replaced blue and gold) as well as a new state-of-the-art arena (HSBC Arena replaced Memorial Auditorium).

The Sabres shocked many of the so-called experts by winning the Northeast Division; the team's first-such title since winning the Adams Division championship in 1981.

The end of the season also brought many notable achievements off the ice. The Sabres were the stars of the NHL's postseason awards banquet. Hasek won the Hart Trophy as league MVP, the first time a goalie had achieved such a feat since 1962. For good measure, Hasek also took home his third Vezina in four years, an equally stunning feat. Michael Peca, a 23-year-old center in just his second full season, joined Craig Ramsay as the only Sabres to win the Selke Trophy, symbolic of the league's best defensive forward. Ted Nolan won the Jack Adams Award as the Coach of the Year.

Lindy Ruff was named the Sabres' head coach at the start of the next season, and led Buffalo to the Eastern Conference Finals. The Sabres eventually fell to the Capitals in six games, but their performance marked the team's best playoff finish since 1980. Hasek once again shined bright, taking home his fourth Vezina Trophy and becoming the first goaltender ever to win two consecutive Hart Trophies.

BUFFALO SABRES EST. 1970

Buffalo celebrated its 30th anniversary season in the NHL in 1999-00 with the impressive rookie debuts of Martin Biron and Maxim Afinogenov. The development of Biron and Afinogenov, combined with the late-season additions of veterans Doug Gilmour and Chris Gratton, enabled the Sabres to continue their winning ways as they began their fourth decade of play in the NHL.

The 2000-01 campaign will be remembered as one of the most successful seasons in recent memory, as the Sabres won the fourth-most games in team history (46). Once again, Miroslav Satan led the team in goals scored and total points in the regular season and had a stellar postseason with three goals, a team-high 10 assists and 13 total points. As a whole, the Sabres were the league's top defense, allowing the fewest goals and boasting the best penalty-killing unit. Andreychuk proved that you can go home again, returning to the Sabres to score 20 goals – including eight on the power play – and add some veteran leadership to a young, yet maturing, hockey club. And as he had in past seasons, Hasek proved why he was one of the best goalies in the NHL, posting a 34-24-4 record with 2.11 goals against and 11 shutouts en route to his sixth Vezina Trophy.

Ruff became the team's all-time winningest head coach with a 5-2 win over Philadelphia on Mar. 18, 2003. Ales Kotalik broke onto the scene by scoring 21 goals, the second most by a rookie in 2002-03 while Satan once again led the Sabres in goals, assists and points. B. Thomas Golisano became the Sabres' owner in March and brought a new enthusiasm level to the franchise.

The 2003-04 Sabres once again were one of the League's top teams in the second half of the season. Daniel Briere, who came to the club near the end of the 2002-03 season, continued his outstanding play and led the Sabres in assists and points. Dumont and Chris Drury were threats to score, while Satan recorded a team-best 29 goals.

Following a lockout that forced the league to cancel the entire 2004-05 season, NHL hockey returned in 2005-06, featuring new rules intended to create a more exciting style of play. Despite low expectations set by many hockey observers, the Sabres turned in a historic season. Led by Lindy Ruff, who would win the Jack Adams Award as Coach of the Year, Buffalo set a franchise record for wins in a season, with 52. Rookie goaltender Ryan Miller won 30 games on the season, despite missing 18 games with a broken thumb early in the season. The Sabres featured a tremendously balanced scoring attack, with six 20-goal scorers and 12 players with at least 30 points. Afinogenov led the team with 73 points (22+51), while Chris Drury led all goal-scorers with 30. Seven different players reached career highs in either goals, assists, or points. Perhaps the most impressive offensive player on the season was Briere, who, despite being plagued by injuries for much of the season, recorded 58 points (25+33) in 48 games.

It was also a breakout year for several rookies. In addition to the strong freshman campaign turned in by Miller, Thomas Vanek burst on the scene with 25 goals and 23 assists. Jason Pominville, who appeared in 57 games after being called up from Rochester, showed a terrific scoring touch, collecting 18 goals.

Buffalo made the playoffs for the first time since the 2000-01 season, and began by knocking off the Philadelphia Flyers in six games. That set up what turned out to be a wild series with conference-rival Ottawa. With Buffalo leading three games to one, Pominville became the first player in NHL history to score a series-clinching, short-handed, overtime goal when he eluded two Ottawa defenders and slipped the puck past goalie Ray Emery. That set up a showdown with the Carolina Hurricanes in the Eastern Conference Finals, where the Sabres eventually lost in seven games.

The 2006-07 season was unlike any other in Sabres history, as the team captured the Presidents' Trophy by putting together the league's best regular season record. The team started out by tying an NHL record with 10 straight wins, before losing in a shootout to Atlanta on Oct. 28. The Sabres went on to post 53 wins, the most in franchise history. The season was also a success at the turnstiles, as they sold out HSBC Arena for all 41 regular season games and nine playoff games.

A contributing factor to the team's success was having four players with more than 30 goals. Daniel Briere led the team with 95 points (32+63), while Thomas Vanek was a close second with 84 points, including a team-high 43 goals. Chris Drury finished with 69 points (37+32) and Jason Pominville capped a terrific sophomore season with 34 goals. Goaltender Ryan Miller also set a club record with 40 victories after being voted in as a starter for the NHL All-Star game.

Buffalo made it to the playoffs for a second consecutive season. The Sabres eliminated the N.Y. Islanders in five games, and then defeated the N.Y. Rangers 4-2 in the Semifinals. Buffalo advanced to the Conference Finals for the second consecutive year (and fourth time since 1997), before losing in five games to Ottawa.

The 2007-08 season was a drastic change for the Sabres as they failed to make the playoffs after finishing atop the NHL in the regular season standings in 2006-07. The Sabres did see two young stars emerge as Derek Roy and Jason Pominville led the team with 81 and 80 points, respectively.

BUFFALO SABRES EST. 1970

The Sabres made history yet again as they hosted the 2008 AMP Winter Classic at Ralph Wilson Stadium in Orchard Park, NY. The Sabres faced the Pittsburgh Penguins in front of 71,217 fans as snow lightly fell on New Year's Day. The game was the first outdoor game to be played in the United States and set the record for attendance at an NHL game. Buffalo would lose the historic game, 2-1, in a shootout.

The 2008-09 season started with high expectations after the Sabres failed to make the post-season a year before. The team got off to a hot start, posting a 6-2-2 record in the month of October. However, injuries to leading goal-scorer Thomas Vanek and starting goaltender Ryan Miller late in the year were too much to overcome. Despite a resilient effort in the final two months, Buffalo failed to make the playoffs for a second consecutive season.

The 2009-10 campaign saw the emergence of one future star and the continuing evolution of another. Sabres defenseman Tyler Myers, the team's first-round selection (12th overall) in the 2008 Entry Draft, burst onto the NHL stage with an impressive rookie season. Myers led all NHL rookies in ice time (23:44) and assists (37) to help earn the Calder Trophy as the league's top first year player. Ryan Miller also continued to raise his status as one of the league's top netminders. Miller was in the top five all season in every goaltending category, including goals-against average (2.22) and save percentage (.929). Miller's strong season was capped off by winning the Vezina Trophy. Miller also set the franchise record for wins, with 41. Overall, the team cracked the 100-point plateau for the ninth time in franchise history and won their sixth division title before falling to the Boston Bruins in the first round of the playoffs.

Following their return to the playoffs, the Sabres entered the 2010-11 season poised to take another step forward. However, after a 3-9-2 start began their descent to the league basement, it looked like the team would instead be taking a step back. When top point scorer Derek Roy (35 points in 35 games) suffered a season-ending injury in late December, the prospects for the Sabres – still eight points out of the final playoff spot in the East – didn't look good.

The Sabres continued to fight and put together an 8-3-1 record in January to close the gap. On Feb. 22, Terry Pegula announced his purchase of the team at a press conference at HSBC Arena. Pegula's arrival invigorated both the fans and the team, who welcomed their new owner with a seven-game unbeaten streak and finished the season on a 16-4-4 run to snatch the final Eastern Conference playoff spot.

Thomas Vanek led the Sabres in goal scoring for the fifth straight year, and also led the team in points for the first time in his career, with 73 (32+41). Vanek is the only player in Sabres history to lead the team in goals for more than three consecutive seasons. Tyler Ennis had a strong debut season, ranking fourth among all NHL rookies with 49 points (20+29), the most by a Buffalo rookie since Derek Plante had 56 in 1993-94. The Sabres were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs after a Game 7 loss to Philadelphia.

The 2011-12 season began on a high note as Buffalo traveled to Europe to take part in the NHL Premiere Series and came away with two wins in Helsinki and Berlin. The team returned home to the newly-named First Niagara Center, which had recently undergone a multi-million dollar facelift, and continued its success on the ice by winning five of its first six games of the year.

A midseason slump put Buffalo near the bottom of the conference in February as the trade deadline approached and the team acquired center Cody Hodgson and defenseman Alexander Sulzer from the Vancouver Canucks. The roster changes, along with the return of a multitude of injured players, seemed to provide a spark for the team and Buffalo quickly started its climb up the conference standings in the second half of the season. The team's success in late February and March pushed Buffalo back into the playoff picture when Buffalo captured eighth place in the Eastern Conference on March 27. However, the team dropped four of its next five games to finish the season without a playoff berth.

A key factor in the team's success during the second half of the season was the strong play of its goaltender, Ryan Miller, who posted 31 wins and a career-high six shutouts during the season despite suffering a concussion earlier in the year. With the 31 wins, Miller became only the sixth goaltender in NHL history to record six consecutive seasons with at least 30 wins. Miller also forever etched a place in Sabres history by passing Dominik Hasek's franchise record of 234 wins – he finished the season with 252 career wins for the club.

A lockout-shortened 2012-13 NHL season left the Sabres with little time to try and meld the new faces brought in through free agency, trades and the draft with the experienced core of veterans on the roster and the team got off to a rocky start. Standing at 6-10-1 in mid-February, the Sabres replaced head coach Lindy Ruff with Ron Rolston, coach of the Rochester Americans, as the Sabres' interim head coach.

More familiar faces departed at the trade deadline, including team captain Jason Pominville, further ushering in a new era for the Sabres. These roster changes, however, armed the Sabres with a stockpile of draft picks – boosting their total to 10 in the 2013 NHL Entry Draft alone – and prospects to continue building its roster of young talent. Despite missing the playoffs, the team made measured strides under Rolston and finished the season 15-11-5 under his guidance, earning Rolston the team's full-time head coaching position.

BUFFALO SABRES EST. 1970

Despite missing 10 games to injury, Thomas Vanek led the team in goals (20), assists (21) and points (41) for the second time in his career and also finished tied for third in the league with nine power-play goals. Vanek also moved up in the Sabres' record books, passing Miroslav Satan for the 10th-most points in team history (457). Goaltender Ryan Miller also achieved several milestones during the season, including becoming the 20th NHL goaltender to play 500 games with one team. Miller also passed Dominik Hasek in the Sabres' record books for most games played (500) and most career saves (14,806) in franchise history.

The 2013-14 season marked a period of continued transition; co-captain Thomas Vanek was traded to the New York Islanders and the team's slow start through the first 20 games of the season led to the removal of both Darcy Regier and Ron Rolston. Ted Nolan returned to Buffalo to replace Rolston on an interim basis and on Jan. 9, the Sabres hired Tim Murray to serve as general manager. With a series of trades that included the departure of Miller and team captain Steve Ott, Murray added to the team's growing stockpile of draft picks, as well as bringing in both veterans and prospects. Murray officially named Nolan head coach on March 31, adding stability to a team in transition. In the offseason, the Sabres used the second overall pick in the draft to make forward Sam Reinhart the team's highest draft pick in more than 25 years.

UNIFORM 1970 TO 2014

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier. The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years. The first major change to the team's look came in 1996-97, which accompanied a new home for the Buffalo Sabres (the team moved from Memorial Auditorium into its new address of HSBC Arena).

The crest which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October 1970 until April 1996 reflected the team's name. Along with the Buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier, 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders. While the next season was Buffalo's 10th anniversary campaign, a patch honoring that winter's Olympic Games in Lake Placid, N.Y., was the notable change on the uniforms. The 1980 Winter Olympics is where the legendary "Miracle on Ice" would take place, and where the Sabres held their 1980 training camp. It was probably fitting that 10 years later, a Buffalo Sabres' 20th anniversary logo patch was embroidered on the front right shoulder of the players' uniforms for 1989-90. Two years later, the Sabres joined the other NHL teams in wearing a commemorative patch for the league's 75th anniversary, and fans even had the opportunity to see it on both the home and road jerseys as Buffalo joined 15 other teams in the season-long celebration. For the second half of that season, the Sabres wore their road jerseys at home and donned the home jerseys for away games, to complement the "original six" teams who wore "throwback jerseys." A Stanley Cup centennial patch appeared on the 1992-93 uniforms. Buffalo would again recognize a significant anniversary with a special 25th anniversary logo, which was designed for the team's 1994-95 campaign. Players wore the fifth patch in seven years on the team's sweaters in 1995-96 (bearing jersey number one), remembering former NHL goalie Roger Crozier, who played six of his 14 seasons in the league in Buffalo.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jerseys. In their first season in the new uniforms, the Sabres honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

On Nov. 22, 2000, the Sabres unveiled the team's third jersey against the Philadelphia Flyers. The third jersey was a tribute to the original sweater, while incorporating colors and elements from the current design, unveiled in 1996. The organization chose from over 50 different concepts and developed a blend of the 1970s blue and gold crest, featuring the traditional circle and crossed Sabres logo, adorned on a red-based jersey, trimmed in the team's black and silver of the 1990s. The word "BUFFALO" appeared on the lower trim to signify the team's proud attachment to its hometown. The third jersey also featured the current Sabres white buffalo-head logo appearing on the shoulders. The Sabres also wore their original blue and yellow colors with the former logo and design for the season finale, April 4, 2003, against New Jersey.

The Sabres new uniform scheme, unveiled on September 16, 2006, took its inspiration from the original Sabres uniform (1971-1996) and second uniform (1996-2005). The design was a collaborative effort between the Sabres and Reebok International. The new "blue and gold" colors were altered to a deeper navy blue and richer gold that had a greater visual impact both in person and on television broadcasts. Silver accents and a revised "B-Sabre" logo were carried over from the team's second uniform. Unique in the NHL, the new uniforms had player numbers on the front of the jersey. Buffalo also debuted a new alternate uniform that was the original blue uniform from 1970 with the player number on the front like on the newly designed uniforms. The alternate jersey was only worn for the 2006-07 season.

For the Winter Classic game on January 1, 2008, the Sabres wore a modified version of the team's original white jerseys. This was the only time the jersey was worn that season.

The Sabres introduced a new third jersey in 2008-09 that incorporated design elements from the original uniforms while linking elements from the current jerseys. The team's original road uniform (1971-1996) was updated to incorporate the darker navy blue and rich gold featured in the current uniforms along with silver accents on the stripes to give dimension to the original design. The player numbers appeared on the front of the uniform and a neck tie was incorporated, similar to what was worn by the team the first seven years Buffalo was in the league. The original crossed Sabres logo also features silver accents to give a beveled look to the team's original logo. The jersey was designed to incorporate the design elements of the Reebok EDGE uniform system.

During the 2010-11 season the Sabres completed the return to their roots, adopting a uniform at home and on the road that recalled elements of the first uniform in franchise history. At home, the Sabres utilized the team's previous third jersey. On the road, they donned a white jersey that incorporates the same accent elements of the updated home jersey. The team also unveiled an all new 40th anniversary uniform. This classically-designed uniform was a tribute to not only the history of Buffalo hockey, but early NHL jersey designs of the past.

The 40th anniversary alternate jersey was worn 12 times at HSBC Arena during the 2010-11 season and continued to serve as the team's alternate jersey in 2011-12.

The team unveiled another new alternate jersey prior to the 2013-14 season. Challenged by Sabres ownership to use gold as the primary jersey color for the first time in team history, the Sabres' creative team – in collaboration with Reebok – created a two-tone jersey with gold as the primary color on the front and navy blue on the back. A newly designed Buffalo Sabres wordmark appeared on the players' pant leg as well as just below the neckline on the main jersey, right above the Sabres' traditional crest on the front of the jersey. Additionally, a unique font and number art were designed by Reebok and were inspired by the tips of actual sabers. The all-new font was used for the jersey numbers as well as players' names. Captain and alternate captain insignia incorporated crossed sabers as design elements and the patches were moved from the traditional spot on the chest to the shoulder of the jersey.

HISTORY OF THE AFFILIATION EST 1956

After three seasons with the Portland Pirates, the Buffalo Sabres renewed their affiliation with the Rochester Americans before the 2011-12 season. The 2014-15 season will mark the 33rd season of affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks, one of the longest relationships between and NHL team and its AHL affiliate.

The Amerks are entering their 58th season in the American Hockey League and the team will once again be an essential pipeline for future Sabres stars. The current Sabres roster is filled with 10 former Amerks.

It was during the 1979-80 campaign that the two organizations first formed a professional hockey partnership. Billy Inglis was the first head coach of the Amerks during the affiliation. Future coaches would include Mike Keenan, Joe Crozier, Jim Schoenfeld, Don Lever, John Van Boxmeer, John Tortorella, Brian McCutcheon and Randy Cunneyworth. Both Keenan (New York Rangers, 1994) and Tortorella (Tampa Bay Lightning, 2004) went on to coach NHL teams to Stanley Cup victories.

In 32 years of affiliation, the Amerks have compiled a record of 1,253-1,015-257-23 in 2,548 regular season games and captured nine regular-season titles. During that period, the Amerks have captured three Calder Cup Championships (1983, 1987 and 1996) and have advanced to the Calder Cup Finals six times.

The Sabres and Pirates enjoyed a successful three-year affiliation (2008-09–2010-11), with the Pirates compiling a 131-79-16-13 overall record and a first-place finish in the Atlantic Division in 2010-11. During the three-year span, three Pirates players were named Dudley "Red" Garrett Memorial Award winners, an award given to the AHL's most outstanding rookie: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11).

Besides the Sabres, the Amerks have been affiliated with the Montreal Canadiens, Toronto Maple Leafs, Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks and Florida Panthers.

CHADD CASSIDY HEAD COACH

Chadd Cassidy was named the 30th head coach in Rochester Americans history on July 12, 2013 after previously serving as interim head coach and assistant coach for the Amerks. After originally joining the Amerks as an assistant coach prior to the 2011-12 season, Cassidy was promoted to interim head coach on Feb. 20, 2013 when then head coach Ron Rolston moved up to the parent Buffalo Sabres before later being named head coach.

In his first full season as head coach of the Amerks, Cassidy guided the club to a record of 37-28-6-5 (85 points) and a berth in the American Hockey League's Calder Cup Playoffs for the third consecutive year. An historic first season at the helm for Cassidy included leading the Amerks to a dramatic 5-4 shootout victory over the Lake Erie Monsters in the "Frozen Frontier," the first-ever outdoor game in franchise history held at Rochester's Frontier Field on Dec. 13, followed by an appearance in the prestigious Spengler Cup tournament in Davos, Switzerland, from Dec. 26-31. Over the course of the season, 16 different players spent time with both the Amerks and Sabres as Cassidy continued his role in developing NHL players for the parent club.

Upon being named the interim head coach during the 2012-13 season, Cassidy guided the Amerks to a record of 16-11-1-0 over the final 28 games of the regular season to earn a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. Rochester finished the 2012-13 campaign with a 43-29-3-1 record (90 points), good for second place in the North Division and seventh in the Western Conference. The Amerks also finished the regular season ranked second in the AHL in penalty killing (87.0%) and fourth in power-play efficiency (20.3%), making them the only team in the league to rank in the top four in both categories.

Cassidy first joined the Amerks when he was named as one of Rolston's assistants on Aug. 31, 2011. The 2011-12 season marked Cassidy's first in professional hockey after he spent the previous five seasons (2006-2011) working alongside Rolston in the same capacity with the U.S. National Under-18 Team.

In his first season in professional hockey, Cassidy helped guide the Amerks to a 36-26-10-4 record and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. In addition to helping lead the Amerks to a second place finish in the North Division and a seventh seed in the Western Conference, Cassidy also played an integral role in the development of numerous young players. Eleven different Amerks were called up from Rochester to the Sabres over the course of the season, with those players combining for 65 points in a total of 157 NHL games for Buffalo.

Cassidy joined the Amerks organization following five seasons as an assistant coach at USA Hockey's National Team Development Program (NTDP), culminating in a gold medal at the 2011 International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) Under-18 World Championship in Germany. During the 2010-11 season, he also led Team USA to titles in the 2011 Five Nations Tournament and the 2010 Four Nations Cup. In addition, the U.S. National Under-18 Team posted a 12-9-1-2 (W-L-OTL-SOL) record in United States Hockey League (USHL) play in 2010-11, helping the NTDP reach the USHL postseason for the first time.

During the 2009-10 campaign, Cassidy helped guide the U.S. National Under-17 Team to great international success. While serving as an assistant to Rolston, Cassidy helped lead Team USA to its first title at the 2010 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge since 2002. He also helped pilot the squad to a first-place finish at the 2009 Under-17 Four Nations Cup in Trnava, Slovakia. The U.S. National Under-17 Team finished with a 9-1-1-3 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record against international foes under Rolston and Cassidy's watch. In August, Cassidy served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-18 Select Team that finished second at the 2010 Memorial of Ivan Hlinka Tournament in Breclav, Czech Republic, and Piestany, Slovakia.

In 2008-09, Cassidy helped guide the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team to its fourth gold medal at the 2009 IIHF Men's Under-18 World Championship in Fargo, N.D., and Moorhead, Minn. Additionally, he helped lead Team USA to a 15-1-0-1 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record against international opponents and a 13-13-1 record against college foes.

Cassidy also served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team that earned the silver medal at the 2007 IIHF World Men's Under-18 Championship in Tampere and Rauma, Finland.

Cassidy has been both an on-ice instructor and team coach at USA Hockey's New York district camps and select festivals. In December 2005, he joined Rolston's staff for the 2006 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Regina, Saskatchewan, where Team USA finished second in the 10-team event.

CHADD CASSIDY HEAD COACH

Prior to joining the NTDP, Cassidy served as the head coach for four seasons at the National Sports Academy in his hometown of Lake Placid, N.Y., where he posted a 124-71-15 record. His teams made the final of the Midwest Prep League playoffs every year in his tenure, and won the league championship in 2004.

Cassidy served as an assistant coach at State University of New York at Cortland from 1999-2001 and Potsdam State for the 2001-2002 season. A 1995 graduate of Cortland State, Cassidy earned his bachelor's degree in recreation and leisure studies while playing on the varsity hockey team.

Cassidy, and his wife, Tara, have two children, Sheldon and Ireland.

CHRIS TAYLOR ASSISTANT COACH

Chris Taylor was named as the assistant coach of the Rochester Americans on Feb. 25, 2013 after first joining the Amerks staff as development coach prior to the 2011-12 season. Before joining the coaching staff, Taylor enjoyed a 19-year professional career as a player that saw him become one of the all-time Amerk greats to ever don the red, white and blue.

Last season, Taylor helped guide the Amerks to a record of 37-28-6-5 (85 points) and a berth in the American Hockey League's Calder Cup Playoffs for the third consecutive year. He also oversaw a power play unit that ranked 10th in the AHL with a 19.8% efficiency, marking the second straight year that the Amerks have ranked in the top 10 in man-advantage scoring. Over the course of the season, a total of 16 different players appeared in games for both the Amerks and Sabres as the Rochester coaching staff continued to successfully develop NHL players.

During the 2012-13 season, Taylor helped guide the Amerks to a record of 43-29-3-1 (90 points), good for second place in the North Division and seventh in the Western Conference, as well as a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs for the second straight year. Taylor also oversaw a power play unit that ranked fourth in the AHL at 20.3%.

In his first season as a member of the Amerks coaching staff in 2011-12, Taylor helped guide the team to a 36-26-10-4 record and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs. As development coach, Taylor was primarily responsible for working with the team's forwards. During the season, a total of 11 Amerks players (seven forwards) were called up to the Buffalo Sabres, including left wing Marcus Foligno, who worked extensively with Taylor during the season and was named the NHL Rookie of the Month for March after scoring 11 points in 11 games with the Sabres.

After spending parts of nine seasons with the Amerks between 1999 and 2011, Taylor finished his playing career ranked among the franchise's all-time leaders in assists (3rd, 339), games played (4th, 519), points (5th, 481) and goals (10th, 142). He also served as team captain during the 2004-05 and 2005-06 seasons and was an alternate captain during several other campaigns.

A member of the Amerks' 50th Anniversary Team, Taylor is also a three-time Amerks team MVP and scoring champion (2001-02, 2002-03, 2004-05) and is the only player in franchise history to achieve those two feats in the same season on three occasions. During his final season as a player in 2010-11, Taylor ranked second on the Amerks in scoring with 51 points (10+41) in 72 games. He also finished second on the team in scoring the previous year with 61 points (17+44) when he returned to Rochester following a three-year stint in Germany, where he played for Frankfurt and led the team in scoring all three seasons.

During the 2004-05 campaign in which the Amerks won the MacGregor Kilpatrick Trophy with the AHL's best regular season record, Taylor was the Amerks scoring leader with 79 points (21+58) and was honored with the AHL's Fred T. Hunt Award for sportsmanship, determination and dedication to the game of hockey. Taylor also shares the franchise record for most assists in a single game with six, set on October 21, 2005.

During his pro career, Taylor appeared in 149 NHL games with the New York Islanders, Boston Bruins and Sabres, recording 32 points (11+21) and 48 penalty minutes. Of those 149 games, 90 came in a Buffalo uniform. In 2003-04, he set NHL career-highs in games played (54), goals (6), assists (6) and points (12) while with the Sabres.

Prior to joining the Sabres/Amerks organization in 1999, Taylor won two Turner Cup Championships with Denver and Utah of the International Hockey League. The Stratford, Ontario, native was originally drafted by the Islanders in the second round (27th overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft and finished his pro career with 1,297 games played at the NHL, AHL, IHL and European levels.

Taylor resides in Churchville with his wife, Lisa, and their two children, Samantha and Nicholas. He is the brother of former NHL player Tim Taylor, who won Stanley Cups with the Detroit Red Wings in 1997 and the Tampa Bay Lightning in 2004.

JOHN WROBLEWSKI ASSISTANT COACH

John Wroblewski enters his second season as an assistant coach of the Rochester Americans in 2014-15 after being named to the position on August 7, 2013.

In his first season as a member of the Amerks coaching staff in 2013-14, Wroblewski helped guide the Amerks to a record of 37-28-6-5 (85 points) and a berth in the American Hockey League's Calder Cup Playoffs. Over the course of the season, a total of 16 different players appeared in games for both the Amerks and Sabres as the Rochester coaching staff continued to successfully develop NHL players.

Wroblewski joined the Amerks after spending the previous two seasons as head coach of the ECHL's Gwinnett Gladiators, where he compiled a record of 84-46-9-5 while leading the Gladiators to a pair of South Division titles and posting the highest points-percentage in the Eastern Conference during that span. In 2011-12, Wroblewski was a co-recipient of the John Brophy Award as the ECHL's Coach of the Year. Prior to joining the Gladiators, he spent the 2010-11 season as assistant coach with the Wheeling Nailers (ECHL), helping guide the team to the Eastern Conference Finals.

A native of Neenah, Wisconsin, Wroblewski began his coaching career with the USA Hockey Under 18 National Team Development Program (NTDP) from 2007 to 2010. In 2010, he helped the NTDP capture the gold medal in Minsk, Belarus at the IIHF U-18 World Championship.

As a player, Wroblewski spent four seasons with the Fresno Falcons of the ECHL, recording 125 points (65+60) in 273 career games. Prior to his professional career, he played four seasons with the University of Notre Dame (1999-2003), where he served as a team captain his senior year and was named MVP by his teammates in 2003. In four years at Notre Dame, Wroblewski recorded 64 points (29+35) in 144 career games. He was a finalist for college hockey's Humanitarian Award.

2014-15 BUFFALO SABRES

MISCELLANEOUS

In 2014-15, all Buffalo Sabres regular season games will be both televised and broadcast on WGR Sports Radio 550 AM. All of the team's televised regular-season games will be broadcast in high definition.

TELEVISION

The Sabres and MSG Networks continue a multiyear partnership to telecast Sabres games, in which MSG will own the exclusive local rights to telecast the team's games. MSG Networks, an industry leader in production and technology, is the nation's longest-running regional sports network. The first regional sports network to produce games in HDTV and winner of 95 New York Emmy Awards, MSG Networks is part of Madison Square Garden L.P. In addition to being home of the Sabres, MSG Network's award-winning programming line-up also boasts the New York Knicks, New York Rangers, New York Islanders, New Jersey Devils, New York Liberty and over 400 live college football and basketball games.

In 2014-15, all Sabres telecasts –including games in New York/New Jersey – will be produced and broadcast by the team's in-house broadcasting teams and will feature the Sabres broadcasters and analysts exclusively.

Calling the action on MSG telecasts and on WGR 550 AM will be Foster Hewitt Award winner and Sabres Hall-of-Famer Rick Jeanneret, who embarks on his 43rd year behind the microphone. Rob Ray, a 10-year veteran of Sabres broadcasts, will begin his third season as the full-time color analyst. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray served as a second color analyst and the "between-the-glass" reporter for eight seasons before stepping into his current role. In his role as color analyst, Ray remains on the ice-level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Returning for his second season with the broadcast team is veteran broadcaster Dan Dunleavy. Dunleavy, who came to the Sabres from the Toronto Maple Leafs' broadcasting team prior to the 2013-14 season, will continue his substitute play-by-play duties this season, filling in for games that Jeanneret takes off. In addition to his play-by-play duties, Dunleavy will serve as on-air talent for Sabres pre- and post-game broadcasts and will have a substantial presence on Sabres.com.

Brian Duff, who joined the Sabres broadcast team in 2011-12, will again serve as the full-time in-game host for all Sabres broadcasts on MSG. In that role, Duff will host the Tops Game Night pregame show before all games, the Lexus Post Game Report and the intermission reports between periods.

Veteran broadcaster Brad May will be a mainstay across all Sabres platforms in 2014-15, providing in-depth analysis before, during and after games.

Buffalo Sabres hockey on MSG is produced by Joe Pinter and directed by Eric Grossman.

RICK JEANNERET PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Currently the longest-tenured broadcaster in hockey, Rick Jeanneret will begin his 43rd year behind the microphone calling the action for Buffalo Sabres games. Jeanneret is the 2012 recipient of the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award, the most prestigious award given to hockey broadcasters, and was formally recognized by the Hockey Hall of Fame in November 2012. He was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 2011 and was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in fall 2012.

With his vast knowledge of the game and his unwavering enthusiasm for hockey, Jeanneret's distinct voice has been synonymous with the Buffalo Sabres for four decades. He began his prolific career with the Sabres in the 1971-72 season as the club's radio play-by-play announcer and served primarily in that role until 1995, when he would also begin calling the action for the team's televised games. His memorable calls and player nicknames have become forever linked with Sabres history for generations of fans.

Jeanneret's career officially began in 1963, when the St. Catharines, Ont. native filled in for the regular announcer at a Niagara Falls Flyers (Junior A) game. He went on to become the color analyst for one season before moving to the play-by-play position in 1965. A native of St. Catharines, Ont., Jeanneret currently resides in Niagara Falls, Ontario, with his wife, Sandra. Rick has two sons, Mark and Chris.

ROB RAY COLOR ANALYST

Rob Ray, who begins his 11th season on Buffalo Sabres broadcasts, will be entering his third season as the full-time color analyst for all Sabres games this season. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray has served as a color analyst and the "between-the-glass" reporter for the past 10 seasons. In his role as color analyst, Ray will remain on the ice-level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Beyond Sabres broadcasts, Ray hosts The Enforcers, a weekly sports talk show on Time Warner Cable SportsNet, alongside other former players from the Sabres and the Buffalo Bills.

Ray's hockey expertise stems from his 16-year NHL career as a right wing, 14 seasons of which were spent with the Sabres. Known for his toughness on the ice, Ray ranks sixth in NHL history for career penalty minutes (3,207) and holds the Sabres' team record in the same category with 3,189 penalty minutes. Ray played in 900 total NHL games during his career and his 889 games with the Sabres, the fourth-most in franchise history.

Despite being one of the game's toughest enforcers, Ray was also awarded the NHL's King Clancy Memorial Award in 1999 for his leadership and humanitarianism. He remains as one of the Sabres' most active alumni, currently serving as president of the Sabres Alumni Association. Ray and his wife, Julianne, live in Grand Island, N.Y. with their son, Rob Jr., and their daughter, Jordan.

BRIAN DUFF IN-GAME HOST

A 23-year broadcasting veteran, Brian Duff begins his third full season as the in-game host for all Buffalo Sabres broadcasts. He joined the broadcast team in 2011-12 on a part-time basis in the same role for many of the team's road games.

Duff comes to the Sabres after spending five seasons with the NHL Network, most recently as host of NHL on the Fly and NHL Tonight.

Prior to joining NHL Network, Duff spent six years as the pre- and post-game host for Toronto Maple Leafs hockey on Leafs TV. His extensive hockey broadcasting career also includes stints as the radio host for pre- and post-game coverage of the Ottawa Senators and Edmonton Oilers and radio game analyst for the Senators and the WHL's Medicine Hat Tigers.

In addition, Duff has provided play-by-play for the National Lacrosse League on Versus and TSN, including the 2010 and 2011 championship games. He worked at The Score as an anchor and reporter and provided play-by-play for Ottawa Rebel lacrosse and the Mann Cup. Duff has also freelanced for multiple media outlets including ESPN and the Associated Press.

Duff, who grew up in Whitby, Ont., holds a Broadcasting Diploma from Mount Royal College in Calgary and currently resides in Hamburg, N.Y. with his wife, Leilon, and their children, Isabelle and Rhiannon.

DAN DUNLEAVY PLAY-BY-PLAY/REPORTER

Prior to joining the Sabres broadcast team in 2013, Dunleavy spent 19 years at Sportsnet Radio and The Fan 590 Toronto. In addition to filling in as a play-by-play voice for the Sabres in the 2010-11 season, Dunleavy's experience includes nine years of play-by-play of the IIHF World Junior Hockey Championship, the 2008 IIHF World Hockey Championship in Halifax and Quebec City, the 2010 Vancouver Olympics Men's and Women's Hockey, the OHL's Mississauga Majors, and Canadian Hockey League and American Hockey League games on Rogers Sportsnet. The Toronto native has also called soccer and lacrosse games, serving as the play-by-play voice for the National Lacrosse League's Toronto Rock on The Fan 590 and is the radio and television play-by-play voice for Toronto FC on Sportsnet TV/Radio and TSN 1050 Radio.

RADIO BROADCAST

Sabres coverage on the radio can be found exclusively on WGR 550, the team's radio partner for more than 25 years. Game-day broadcasts will include the action from Jeanneret and Ray, along with a post-game show hosted by Brian Koziol featuring a complete game recap, player interviews and scores from around the league. Paul Hamilton, who returns as the station's Sabres beat reporter, will provide live updates from Sabres games and practices all season long.

Returning for its third season is Sabres Hockey Hotline, the team's flagship radio program. The show is broadcast live, year-round from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. Monday through Friday from the Sabres Store at First Niagara Center. The program is an additional outlet for Sabres fans to hear exclusive interviews, analysis, team updates, and recaps of Sabres games and practices.

Serving as hosts of Sabres Hockey Hotline are Kevin Sylvester and Andrew Peters. Sylvester, who joined the broadcast team for the 2005-06 season, serves as the show's host and executive producer. Peters was a member of the Sabres for five seasons, from 2003-04 to 2008-09 before joining the broadcast team.

BEST ENJOYED ON ICE

Proud Sponsor of the Buffalo Sabres

©2012 The Coca-Cola Company.

I get to enjoy free skating on the same ice where the Sabres play. Plus my family and I get 10% off at the Sabres Store — just for being members of BlueCross BlueShield of Western New York. That's cool.
