George "Punch" Imlach was born and educated in Toronto. As a boy he played hockey with Ed Wildey's Young Rangers, and then with the Toronto Goodyears and Toronto Marlboros senior teams. During World War II he played for the Cornwall army team. Enlisting in the army in 1942, he was commissioned later that year and served as an instructor. From 1945 to 1957 he was with the Quebec Aces as player, coach, and manager. He spent one year as manager-coach of Eddie Shore's Springfield club in the American Hockey League prior to joining the Toronto Maple Leafs in 1958. During his eleven years with the Leafs they won four Stanley Cups, finished first once, and were in the Stanley Cup finals six times.

On Friday January 16, 1970, Imlach was named General Manager and coach of the Sabres.

Fred Hunt, born in Brantford, Ont., was appointed assistant general manager of the Sabres on Thursday, February 12, 1970.

Hunt turned pro in 1940 with the Springfield Indians and came to Buffalo in 1942 when the Indians transferred their franchise to Buffalo. He was named general manager of the Bisons prior to the 1952-53 season. In their last season in the American Hockey League, the Bisons won the League Championship (west division) and went on to win the Calder Cup—with Fred Hunt as general manager.

RULE CHANGES

PROVISIONAL RULE 52A—"FREE" FACE-OFF
(To be tested in 1970-71 NHL Training Camp period and CHL regular season games)

a. For an infraction of Rule 50(a)—Delaying the game by deliberately shooting the puck with stick out of the playing area—or Rule 73(c)—any player or goalkeeper who holds, freezes or plays the puck to cause a stoppage the Referee shall signal a "free face-off" to be awarded to the non-offending team.

b. In a "free face-off" the Referee shall place the puck on the center spot of the corner face-off circle (on the side where the infraction occurs) of the team committing the infraction and at a given signal (whistle) from the Referee the player taking the face-off shall play the puck in any manner except that he may not take a direct shot on the defending goal from within the circle.

c. In the conduct of a "free face-off" only the player taking the face-off may be in the circle at the time the signal is given by the Referee and all defending players must be on-side. For a violation of this Rule by the attacking team the "free face-off" shall be forfeited and the resulting face-off shall take place in the Neutral Zone on the nearest face-off spot.

d. For a violation of this Rule by the defending team the Referee will immediately stop the play and the puck shall be re-faced. For a second violation by the defending team during the same face-off a minor penalty shall be imposed on the player who commits the second violation of the Rule and the ensuing face-off shall take place in the normal manner at the same corner face-off spot.

Of several other changes to be in effect during the 1970-71 season, the most important changes are:

* The curvature of the blade of the stick shall not exceed one-half inch.

* If there are coincidental minor penalties involving a Goal-keeper, then a Player, on the ice at the time of the incident, shall serve the Goalkeeper's penalty.
