JOSHUA HARRIS — OWNER/CHAIRMAN/GOVERNOR

Along with Co-Owner David Blitzer, completed the purchase of the New Jersey Devils and its long-term operating interest in Prudential Center and related assets on August 15, 2013. He also serves as Managing Owner and Governor of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers. In August 2014, was named The Star-Ledger's most influential individual – along with David Blitzer – in New Jersey sports. Harris is Managing Partner of Apollo Management, L.P., which he co-founded in 1990. He graduated summa cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business with a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics and received his MBA from the Harvard Business School where he was named a Baker and Loeb Scholar. Among other civic activities, Josh serves as a member of The Federal Reserve Bank of New York Investors Advisory Committee on Financial Markets and the Undergraduate Executive Board of The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. Josh has strong ties to northern New Jersey; his grandparents lived in Newark, while his father attended Caldwell High School.

DAVID BLITZER — OWNER/VICE CHAIRMAN/ALT. GOVERNOR

Along with Co-Owner Joshua Harris, completed the purchase of the New Jersey Devils and its long-term operating interest in Prudential Center and related assets on August 15, 2013. He is also the Co-Managing Owner and Alternate Governor of the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers. Named the most influential individual in New Jersey sports – along with Joshua Harris – by The Star-Ledger, August 2014. Blitzer is a Senior Managing Director and Co-Chair in the Private Equity Group at The Blackstone Group and is a member of the firm's Executive Committee. David is based in New York following 10 years in London establishing Blackstone's corporate private equity business in Europe. Since joining Blackstone in 1991, David has been involved in the execution of its investments in Spirit Group, SULO, Allied Waste, Aspen Insurance Holdings, Houghton Mifflin, Universal Orlando, Centerplate, Cadillac Fairview, Edward J. DeBartolo Corporation, Southern Cross, NHP, Orangina, United Biscuits and Jack Wolfskin. Blitzer graduated magna cum laude from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, and he currently serves as a Director of United Biscuits and Jack Wolfskin. A native of Scotch Plains, NJ, David's parents still live in the home that he was raised in, while his grandparents also grew up in New Jersey.

SCOTT O'NEIL — CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Scott O'Neil is the Chief Executive Officer of the New Jersey Devils, Prudential Center and the Philadelphia 76ers, overseeing the business operations of three of the top brands in sports and entertainment.

In August 2013, one month after becoming CEO of the Sixers, O'Neil was appointed CEO of the Devils and Prudential Center by the co-managing owners of both franchises, Josh Harris and David Blitzer. He was tasked with rejuvenating all three properties' overall business operations and branding.

Under O'Neil's direction, the Devils have shown unprecedented growth in new and renewed Season Ticket Member metrics and Prudential Center is consistently ranked in the top ten of national arenas by Billboard, Pollstar and Venues Today. The Devils and Prudential Center were named NJBiz's 2014 Business of the Year.

O'Neil's business savvy, ambition and driven personality have earned him the reputation for leading the industry vanguard in groundbreaking initiatives. The Devils became the first U.S. hockey club to invest in permanent 3D projection technology in 2014, and this season became the first team in the NHL to install a revolutionary in-arena personal video technology and social media app that will allow fans to instantly receive and share their videoboard moments on their mobile devices. In 2015 the Devils introduced a Flex Membership platform, where fans choose their games, number of tickets and seat locations – an industry first.

O'Neil's genuine belief that sports and entertainment offers a platform to unify and influence the world has been the driving force behind massive community engagement efforts by the teams and arena he oversees. The result is more than 8,000 volunteer hours used by Devils and Prudential Center employees to help foster change across Newark and New Jersey.

O'Neil previously served as president of Madison Square Garden Sports, where he oversaw the business operations of MGS's professional teams – the New York Knicks, New York Rangers and New York Liberty – and other sports properties associated with the arena. While there, O'Neil was the key architect in several of the largest deals in NBA history, resulting in record-setting revenue in sponsorships, tickets and suites.

Preceding his post at MSG, O'Neil was the NBA's Senior Vice President of Team Marketing and Business Operations, where he was responsible for advising NBA, WNBA, NBA Canada and the NBA Development League teams on all business operations. Prior to joining the NBA in 2001, O'Neil served as President of HoopsTV.com, and spent four years with the Philadelphia Eagles, where he was appointed Vice President of Sales at the age of 28. He began his career in the sports industry as a Marketing Assistant and later a Corporate Marketing Manager for the New Jersey Nets.

O'Neil serves as an Alternate Governor for the National Basketball Association and National Hockey League. He also serves on the boards for Hain Celestial; Zoomi Inc.; the Sixers Innovation Lab Crafted by Kimball; March of Dimes; and Give and Be Happy, a charitable organization founded by his family.

O'Neil's influence and experience in the sports and entertainment industry has earned him a place at the podium at some of the largest sports and entertainment industry conferences in the world, including Leaders in Sport, Beyond Sport, and World Congress of Sport.

O'Neil published two cases for the Harvard Business School in 1998 and a guide for recent graduates and young executives in the workplace in 2000. O'Neil is a member of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 Hall of Fame and has made numerous appearances on CNN, CNBC and FOX Business Network. He has twice co-hosted Bloomberg television's Bloomberg Go and interacts daily with the over 14,000 media and fans who follow his Twitter account. O'Neil resides in West Chester, PA with his wife, Lisa, and daughters Alexa, Kira, and Eliza.

HUGH WEBER — PRESIDENT

Hugh Weber is the president of the New Jersey Devils and Prudential Center, overseeing the day-to-day business strategy and operations for the team and arena.

One of the sports industry's most innovative executives, Weber had an immediate and invigorating impact on the overall culture of the organization after taking over the role in August 2013. He has led an aggressive evolution of the company's business model by initiating a fan-first approach focused on personal engagement, while creating robust partnerships and new, ground-breaking revenue streams.

Weber has spearheaded the Devils and Prudential Center's "One Jersey" movement across both consumer and B2B operations, resulting in an inspired season campaign for the Devils and pioneering collaboration with New Jersey's top businesses.

Under his leadership, Prudential Center developed the first Flex Membership program in the NHL, giving fans and businesses a customizable platform for purchasing Devils tickets with year-round member benefits; created the first farm-to-fan arena concessions experience, featuring local New Jersey chefs and produce; introduced the first permanent 3D projection system for a U.S. hockey team and arena; and partnered with Ritz-Carlton for staff training in customer service. Weber also oversaw the creation of Prudential Center's first brand campaign, "Our House Rules," which gained national attention, including the Event & Arena Marketing Conference's 2015 Campaign of the Year award.

Weber is dedicated to hiring the top talent in the industry and providing an environment that encourages professional and personal growth, with a focus on having a long-lasting, positive impact on communities in Newark and around the Garden State. With the guidance of incredible non-profit partners, Prudential Center and Devils employees are at the forefront of creating a better New Jersey.

Weber has a track record of business success that benefits partners, employees and community members. Prior to his role with Prudential Center and the Devils, he was president of the NBA's New Orleans Hornets. During his seven years with the organization, the team achieved record-setting ticket sales and sponsorship figures during a time of unprecedented instability created by Hurricane Katrina. The organization's success extended into the community as the team became a pillar of the region's resurgence.

Weber spearheaded the reorganization of the team's basketball operations and developed creative, interactive programs to procure season ticket holders and build significant, sustainable relationships with local partners and businesses. His efforts directly impacted the team's financial success and helped secure stable, local ownership and a long-term lease with the state.

Weber is a board member of a variety of community, economic development and entrepreneurship organizations, reflecting his priority in investing in the people, businesses and leaders around him. He has four children, Brenna, Zoë, Hugh III and Jackson, and enjoys running, reading and being a father.

Prudential Center is among the National Hockey League's newest arenas, and at the time of its opening, was the first state-of-the-art, major sports and entertainment facility to open in the New Jersey/New York metropolitan area in more than 25 years.

Kansas City-based HOK Sport+Venue+Entertainment, a renowned leader in sports facility design and construction, served as the project architect. The exterior of the building was designed by Morris Adjmi Architects of New York City, and is based on the rich history of Newark – the nation's third-oldest major city. Newark's El Taller Colaborativo, among the largest and fastest-growing minority-owned architectural firms in the northeastern United States, also collaborated on the project.

In just eight years since opening its doors, Prudential Center has enjoyed a meteoric rise to the top of the sports and entertainment industry. "The Rock" is an industry leader, not only in New Jersey, but worldwide. It has also become one of the hottest music venues of its size in the United States to host Hispanic cultural shows.

Part of Newark's Downtown Core District Redevelopment Plan, Prudential Center is bound by Edison Place on the north, Lafayette Street on the south, Mulberry Street on the east, and off Broad Street on the west.

Prudential Center is located just two city blocks from Newark's Penn Station, and is among the most accessible sports venues in the country, serviced by New Jersey Transit's rail and bus lines, PATH, light rail and AMTRAK. In fact, nearly half of the arena's guests arrive by mass transit.

Prudential Center is a multi-purpose venue that holds 16,514 fans for hockey and 18,711 for basketball, serving as the home to Seton Hall University Men's Basketball. Versatile enough to hold any sized event with more loading docks and storage space than its competitors to load in back-to-back events, Prudential Center is capable of hosting concerts, mixed martial arts, boxing, skateboarding, family shows, circuses, conventions, corporate events, ice shows and more.

Over the last several years, Prudential Center has hosted the 2012 NHL Stanley Cup Finals and professional basketball games including the New Jersey Nets and the New York Liberty. Prudential Center also hosted the 2013 NHL Entry Draft, the 2011/2012 NBA Drafts, the 2011 NCAA Men's Basketball East Regionals, 2011-2013 Street League Skateboarding Championships, Rolling Stones, Taylor Swift, Bruce Springsteen, Andrea Bocelli, Bruno Mars, Foo Fighters, The Who, Justin Bieber, Pitbull, Cirque du Soleil, Michael Jackson-THE IMMORTAL World Tour, X Factor and American Idol auditions and McDonald's Gospelfest. The Rock has also hosted a speech by President Barack Obama and New Jersey Governor Chris Christie's Inauguration party.

The Devils' practice facility – Barnabas Health Hockey House – is located along Lafayette Street. Prudential Center is one of only two National Hockey League arenas to have a connecting practice rink. It also serves as the home to Brick City Boxing, in addition to youth, high school and adult hockey programs and Hockey In Newark.

Prudential Center features a four-level seating bowl, four sideline suites, and two exclusive club level lounges. There are 74 suites spanning two private concourses, along with two larger party suites.

On Suite Level One, the Bud Light Goal Bar overlooks the arena floor on the north end. It offers premium seating with the luxury one would find in their own home. The 350-seat restaurant on the south end overlooks both the main rink and AmeriHealth Pavilion. The restaurant offers an extensive wine collection unrivaled among North American arenas.

The focal point of the seating bowl is an eight-sided, multi-level, center-hung scoreboard featuring four primary high-definition 16:9 video screens. Two full-color LED rings, and eight additional rectangular screens complete the 65,000-pound, 30-foot tall by 32-foot wide scoreboard. A 940-foot display circles the lower arena bowl, while four additional horizontal displays line the upper level.

Some of Prudential Center's best features are its ultra-wide concourses which allow for ease of movement, and an array of superb food options (including the first gluten-free offerings in an arena). Carefully designed sightlines create spectacular views from every seat while giving visitors an intimate feel for the action.

1994-95 STANLEY CUP CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

- The Devils' .542 regular-season winning percentage was the lowest for a Stanley Cup Champion since Toronto went 32-27-11 (.536) in 1966-67.
- The club started all of its playoff series on the road; no other champion had accomplished that feat since the 16-team playoff format was introduced in 1979-80. The 1966-67 Maple Leafs were the last team to start all of their playoff series on the road. In 1966-67, just four clubs qualified for the playoffs, and there were just two rounds.
- New Jersey went 10-1 on the road in the playoffs. The 10 wins are an NHL record (since tied).
- The Devils became the sixth NHL club to win a championship in their first Stanley Cup Finals appearance, and the first ever to sweep.

JERSEY DEVIL NAME & LEGEND

After it was announced in May of 1982 that the Colorado Rockies franchise was moving to New Jersey, several state newspapers ran a contest asking readers for their nickname suggestions.

So why Devils? Said Devils' founder, the late Dr. John J. McMullen, at the time, "It's a great nickname because it combines the folklore of South Jersey with the Meadowlands."

For those unfamiliar with the legend, the New Jersey Devil dates back some 250 years. While there are many variations of the story, it most frequently begins with Mrs. Leeds, a farm woman from the Pine Barrens region of South Jersey. Already the mother of 12 children, when Mrs. Leeds found out that the 13th was on the way, she apparently exclaimed in despair, "Let it be a devil!"

In addition to being a busy mother, it should be noted that Mrs. Leeds was rumored to have dabbled in sorcery and many thought her to be a witch. On the night of her delivery in 1735, fierce thunderstorms hit the area and an air of uneasiness surrounded her house. When she finally gave birth, the offspring was a demonic creature that has alternately been reported to have had the features of a bat, snake, kangaroo, as well as a man. In any case, the creature quickly flew out an open window and immediately began cutting a wide swath of havoc and destruction throughout the state.

The legend has been fueled through the years by alleged sightings. The devil has been the object of numerous hunts and other pursuits, none of which have apparently been successful.

NEW JERSEY DEVILS

WHILE AT PRUDENTIAL CENTER

SPORTS & THE ARTS

Prudential Center includes original abstract, contemporary and figurative paintings created by the renowned artists of Los Angeles, CA-based Sports & the Arts, and have been selected from across the United States and Canada.

The 200-foot wide by 30-foot high free-form mural on the west side of Prudential Center's Grand Concourse was created on site by artist Tom Mosser, and depicts local points of interest, architecture and teams. The mural is titled "Impressionistic Realism," and features artwork that captures the essence of New Jersey's sports and entertainment history.

BARNABAS HEALTH HOCKEY HOUSE AT PRUDENTIAL CENTER

On March 16, 2016 the New Jersey Devils announced Barnabas Health as Official Health Care Partner of the hockey team and sports and entertainment arena. The announcement also included the unveiling of a new name and logo for Prudential Center's practice facility, now called the Barnabas Health Hockey House.

The agreement launched the Devils and Prudential Center's Marquee Partnership program, naming Barnabas Health as a member. The new platform will align the most powerful brands in Jersey committed to unifying and inspiring the lives of the families, neighbors and communities throughout the state.

CHAMPIONSHIP PLAZA

Prudential Center's Championship Plaza is an outdoor area celebrating the rich 34-year history and tradition of the New Jersey Devils. Located across from PNC Bank Tower on Mulberry Street between Edison Place and Market Street in Newark, it has become the gathering place for Devils' fans before and after each game.

The centerpiece of Championship Plaza is an in-ground, 60-foot in diameter Devils' logo. Constructed of granite, the logo is surrounded by pieces of stone commemorating each of the team's three Stanley Cup Championships. A 22-foot tall, 7,000-pound, stainless steel hockey player statue, sculpted by New Jersey native Jon Krawczyk, graces the north end of the plaza on Market Street. Championship Plaza also include bricks recognizing the team's 1987-88 Patrick Division Playoff Championship, five Eastern Conference Championships and nine Atlantic Division titles.

Centered along Mulberry Street is a solid granite, custom-sculpted Prudential Rock. Prudential Financial's well-known brand symbol was inspired by the Rock of Gibraltar, and represents the company's strength, stability and financial security. Prudential has been part of the Newark community since its founding in 1875.

On February 9, 2016, the Devils honored Martin Brodeur by retiring his no. 30 jersey.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

MISSION STATEMENT

The Devils Alumni Association was formed with the purpose of bringing together former Devils' players to develop enjoyable civic activities and charitable fundraisers, of participating in worthwhile charity/ community service programs, and developing means to help promote amateur hockey.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Among the association's charitable endeavors, four $2,500 scholarships are provided annually to deserving high school senior hockey players. The purpose of this program is to assist in their education at the college or university of their choice.

Annually, the scholarships are presented at the NJSIAA scholarship luncheon in Edison, NJ. Winners were nominated by their athletic director or coach and complied with scholarship rules, which included the following criteria: through their most recent grading period, the applicant must have attained a high school cumulative grade-point average of 2.5 (on a 4.0 grading system) or equivalent grade if the student's school uses a different grading system.

Additionally, the applicant must have shown a commitment to volunteer work and community service through continued participation in a variety of projects or community organizations. Community activities should reflect that the applicant is unselfishly "giving back" to society and that the applicant is motivated to serve.

Each winner must be accepted for admission on a full-time matriculating basis to a two- or four-year academic program at an accredited post-secondary educational institution.

This marked the 13th year of the alumni association's scholarship program.

COMMUNITY APPEARANCES

Throughout the past year, members of the Devils Alumni Association reached out to more than 700,000 people, while attending more than 300 events.

The Devils' community appearances have grown both in number and scope thanks to the efforts of association Director Bruce Driver, as well as alumni representatives Ken Daneyko, Bryce Salvador, Grant Marshall and Colin White.

PLAYER INVOLVEMENT

HOSPITAL VISITS

Hospitals included annually are: Hackensack University Medical Center, Hackensack, NJ; Holy Name Medical Center, Teaneck, NJ; Robert Wood Johnson University, New Brunswick, NJ; Morristown Medical Center, Morristown, NJ; Overlook Hospital and Valerie Center, Summit, NJ; Saint Barnabas Medical Center, Livingston, NJ; Saint Joseph's Hospital, Paterson, NJ; and University Hospital, Newark, NJ.

For the second time, more than 30 Devils' prospects participated in a community day during the team's 2016 Development Camp in July. It is part of the organization's belief to teach the younger player about the importance of representing the team and giving back to the community.

GAME BREAK

In the spring, the team will pick a day after a practice session to go do various events in the community. Seven groups of three-four players each attend community events throughout northern New Jersey.

Historically, events included; Read Across America, Public School no. 23, Jersey City, NJ and Robert D. Reynolds School, Upper Saddle River, NJ; Hockey in Newark, Ironbound Arena, Newark, NJ; PSE&G Luncheon, Prudential Center, Newark, NJ; Saint Barnabas Medical Center pediatric ward, Livingston, NJ; Randolph High School ice hockey team, Randolph, NJ; and the management of the Ice Vault, Wayne, NJ.

The Devils join schools across the United States each spring in celebrating Read Across America. Players, alumni, and broadcasters visit local schools in an effort to promote literacy and education by reading to elementary school children.

As part of the NHL's Hockey is for Everyone initiative, Hockey In Newark is a non-profit organization committed to offering the game of hockey to Newark youth, regardless of their backgrounds or abilities. Over 200 children have taken part in their programming this year, and over 1,000 since its creation in 2003.

Newark-based PSE&G is one of the largest combined electric and gas companies in the United States and is also New Jersey's oldest and largest publicly owned utility.

Since 1865, Saint Barnabas Medical Center, New Jersey's oldest nonprofit, nonsectarian hospital has worked to exceed the community's highest expectation for compassionate, comprehensive health care.

The 2015 Devils/NJSIAA High School Ice Hockey Championships, presented by Barnabas Health, took place Mon., March 7 with three games at Prudential Center, marking the 19th year that the team hosted the state championships. Morristown defeated Randolph, 2-0, in the Public A School Championship; Ramsey defeated Glen Rock, 5-1, in the Public School B Finals; while Delbarton defeated Christian Brothers Academy, 3-1, in the Non-Public School Championship.

Through the Devils' Grassroots Department, the organization has partnered with more than 20 local hockey rinks throughout the metropolitan area. Through this program, the team provides on-ice clinics, roller hockey clinics, in-arena banners, dasherboard signs, mascot appearances, email blasts, alumni appearances and contests.

HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER

Hockey Fights Cancer™ is a charitable initiative founded in December 1998 by the National Hockey League® and National Hockey League Players' Association. It is supported by players, NHL member clubs, NHL alumni, the NHL Officials'

Association, professional hockey athletic trainers and equipment managers, corporate marketing partners, broadcast partners and fans throughout North America. The goal of HFC is to raise money and awareness for national and local organizations involved in cancer care and research.

The Devils hosted Hockey Fights Cancer Night at Prudential Center on Tue., Oct. 27. Devils' executives, coaches and broadcasters wore HFC lavender ties, while HFC-themed merchandise was available for sale, including ties, hats, and scarves, to help increase awareness for the program.

To date, HFC has raised more than $15 million via the National Hockey League's United States and Canadian charitable foundations. HFC is also a component of The Biggest Assist Happens Off The Ice®, the National Hockey League's and National Hockey League Players' Association's social responsibility program that builds on hockey's long-standing tradition of addressing important social issues in North America and around the world. For more information about Hockey Fights Cancer, please go to hockeyfightscancer.com.

GAME NIGHT DRIVES

DEVILS' SUPPORT

Devils' game night drives are successful for one reason – we receive tremendous support from our fans.

At each of our drives, wives/girlfriends of the Devils' players are on hand to assist in the collections at each of Prudential Center's entrances.

For approximately four weeks prior to the events, each drive is promoted through press releases, the Devils' Center Ice game program, MSG Plus, Devils' Sports Radio 66 AM/101.9 FM WFAN broadcasts, as well as scoreboard and public address announcements, to raise the public's awareness of each drive as well as each organization involved.

FOOD DRIVE

The Devils' Food Drive was held Sat., Nov. 14 in conjunction with the Community FoodBank of New Jersey and Goya. Fans attending that night's game were encouraged to bring unopened cans or boxes of non-perishable food. Requested items included canned fish/meat, powdered milk and infant formula, boxed/canned meals, peanut butter, and canned vegetables/fruits.

The CFB of NJ, a member of Feeding America, distributes 43 million pounds of food and groceries annually, helping non-profit groups such as food pantries, shelters, soup kitchens, child care centers and senior programs. The CFB of NJ serves nearly 1,400 organizations in 18 counties throughout the state, picking up donations from more than 250 corporations with its small fleet of trucks. Its staff and volunteers fight hunger and poverty not only through the distribution of food and grocery products, but by education, training, and by creating new programs to meet the needs of low-income people.

For further information, please contact the CFB of NJ at 908-355-3663 or njfoodbank.org.

TOYS FOR TOTS

The Devils' annual Toys for Tots collection took place on Fri., Dec. 11. The team encouraged everyone attending the game to bring new, unwrapped toys for collection.

Representatives from the United States Marine Corps, Picatinny Arsenal, Company G 2/25, based in Dover, NJ, were on hand for the collection.

Following the collection, the toys were distributed to hospitals and orphanages, and to less-fortunate children throughout the surrounding communities.

The 2015 collection marked the 67th year of the Marine Corps involvement with the nationwide Toys for Tots program. For more info, please visit toysfortots.org.

COAT DRIVE

Last season's drive took place Tue., Nov. 24. The Devils requested that all fans attending that night's game bring a new or gently-worn coat for donation.

Volunteers from Jersey Cares were on hand to collect the coats. The coats were then distributed to more than 200 non-profit agencies in New Jersey, including shelters, orphanages, faith-based programs, and senior citizen centers. Jersey Cares, a 18-year-old organization, makes volunteering easy and accessible for people who want to make a difference.

Jersey Cares has approximately 5,000 members who provide more than 12,000 hours of service to the community each year.

For further information, please contact Jersey Cares at 973-242-0033 or visit their website at jerseycares.org.

NEW JERSEY HOCKEY

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYERS OF THE MONTH

The Devils continue to honor top student-athletes throughout the state of New Jersey with its High School Player of the Month/Year program. Each month from December through February, seven high school hockey players from different conferences are selected as recipients of the award.

Three All-Tournament Teams are selected in March, while overall boys' and girls' High School Players of the Year are chosen at the conclusion of the season.

Junior defenseman Andrew Petrillo of Delbarton School was named the boys' Player of the Year, while senior forward Ally Detre of Morristown-Bear School was the girls' Player of the Year.

Award winners and their guests receive tickets to a Devils' game, a plaque presented by a Devils' player, and dinner, compliments of the Devils. This year marks the 25th season that the Devils will honor high school student-athletes.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS): An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Epicondylitis: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse of either the flexor or extensor muscles attaching to the medial or lateral epicondyle of the humerus.

Fat Percentage: The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentage can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Fibula: The smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Fracture: Breach in the continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or confused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally, torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Groin: Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and abduct the hip.

Hamstring: Muscle running from the buttocks to behind the knee. Often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility. Responsible for flexing the knee joint.

Hydrotherapy: Treatment using water.

Hyperextension: Extreme extension, or straightening, of a limb or body part.

Internal fixation: A surgical procedure to repair fractures that are unstable and require the use of screws, plates or internal metal rods.

Isometric (static) Contraction: A muscle contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is no appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle remains the same.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee attaching the lateral femoral condyle to the fibula head. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Ligament Reconstruction: Surgical procedure to recreate an irreparable ligament using a tendon or ligament graft from another site or cadaver.

Lumbar Vertebrae: Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS): An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic endorphin.

Ultrasound: An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or dispersing an edema.

"Wind Knocked Out": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

ASSIST: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

GAME-WINNING GOAL: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

GOAL: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

GOALTENDER: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

PENALTY-KILLING PERCENTAGE: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

PLUS-MINUS: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

POWER-PLAY GOAL: A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

SHORTHAND GOAL: A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

SHOT ON GOAL: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal."

SHUTOUT: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

TENTHS OF A SECOND: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

COACHES RECORD: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout.

2016-17 NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE ALIGNMENT

On March 14, 2013, the National Hockey League's Board of Governors approved realignment and a division-based format for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, effective for the 2013-14 season. The realignment plan creates two eight-team divisions in the Eastern Conference and two seven-team divisions in the Western Conference.

The new alignment will place several clubs in more geographically-appropriate groupings and will intensify already-fierce rivalries throughout the league. The new scheduling matrix will ensure that all 30 teams play in all 30 arenas at least once a season.

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFF FORMAT

Playoff qualification will be primarily division-based, with the top three finishers in each division qualifying for the first 12 spots in the Stanley Cup Playoffs (and the first three "seeds" in each division).

The two additional playoff spots in each conference, designated as "Wild Cards," will be awarded to the next two highest-placed finishers in each conference, ranked on the basis of regular-season points and regardless of division.

"Seeding" of the Wild Card teams within each divisional playoff will be determined on the basis of regular-season points. The first-place finisher with the highest number of regular-season points in the conference will be matched against the Wild Card team with the lowest number of regular-season points, and the first-place finisher with the second-highest number of regular-season points in the conference matched against the Wild Card team with the second-lowest number of regular-season points.

The playoffs will proceed as follows:

- #1 vs. #4 / #2 vs. #3 – winners play each other for berth in conference championship.
- Conference finals – two advancing teams in the West and two advancing teams in the East meet in conference championship.
- Eastern and Western Conference Champions will meet in Stanley Cup Finals.

The NHLPA has given its consent to play under this new alignment and playoff system for a minimum of three seasons, through the 2015-16 NHL season.
