2013 NHL PLAYOFF FORMAT

The Stanley Cup Playoffs are conducted by the National Hockey League in accordance with these NHL Stanley Cup Playoff Regulations (the "Playoff Regulations"). Any question regarding the interpretation of these Regulations shall be decided by the Commissioner or his designee. Violations of these Regulations may result in a fine to the offending Club(s) and/or individual(s).

PLAYOFF SCHEDULING

2012-2013 NHL STANLEY CUP PLAYOFF SCHEDULE*

FIRST ROUND - CONFERENCE QUARTERFINALS (Series A to H)

Tuesday, April 30 - Monday, May 13

SECOND ROUND - CONFERENCE SEMIFINALS (Series I to L)

Tuesday, May 14 - Tuesday, May 28

THIRD ROUND - CONFERENCE FINALS (Series M & N)

Wednesday, May 29 - Wednesday, June 12

FOURTH ROUND - STANLEY CUP FINAL (Series O)

Saturday, June 15 - Friday, June 28

*The dates for the Second Round and each subsequent Round are subject to "move-up" scenarios if, given the results in the prior Round, the League determines that an accelerated schedule can be implemented.

PLAYOFF SEEDING

The following summarizes the rules for seeding and scheduling for the Stanley Cup Playoffs; for complete details, please refer to NHL By-Law 27.

At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the Clubs in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities, in the order listed:

- a) First place in each of the three (3) divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.
- b) The higher number of points earned by the Club.
- c) The greater number of games won by the Club (excluding games won in shootout).
- d) The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two (2) or more Clubs having equal standing under priorities (b) and (c).*
- e) The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

*Note: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.

The first eight (8) finishing Clubs in each Conference will participate in the First Round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Home-ice advantage for the first three (3) Rounds of the Stanley Cup Playoffs will be established as follows: The higher-ranked Club will play Games One, Two and, if necessary, Games Five and Seven in its home rink. The lower-ranked Club will play Games Three, Four and, if necessary, Game Six in its home rink.* All Series of the Playoffs shall be on a four-out-of-seven basis.

*Note: Series will follow traditional "2-2-1-1" format unless higherranked Club opts for "2-3-2" format in accordance with requirements of NHL By-Law 27.

2013 NHL PLAYOFF SCHEDULE

FIRST ROUND - CONFERENCE QUARTERFINALS

EASTERN CONFERENCE

Series A — One versus Eight
Series B — Two versus Seven
Series C — Three versus Six
Series D — Four versus Five

WESTERN CONFERENCE

Series E — One versus Eight
Series F — Two versus Seven
Series G — Three versus Six
Series H — Four versus Five

Following completion of the First Round, the winner of each Series shall participate in the Second Round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs against another Series winner in its Conference. For the purpose of determining Second Round matchups, each of the First Round Series winners shall be reranked one (1) through (4) based on their final regular season rankings as determined above.

SECOND ROUND - CONFERENCE SEMIFINALS

Series I — The first versus the fourth-highest ranked Club in the Eastern Conference.
Series J — The second versus the third-highest ranked Club in the Eastern Conference.
Series K — The first versus the fourth-highest ranked Club in the Western Conference.
Series L — The second versus the third-highest ranked Club in the Western Conference.

Following completion of the Second Round, the surviving Clubs in each Conference will participate in the Conference Final Series, with home-ice advantage accruing to the higher-ranked Club.

THIRD ROUND - CONFERENCE FINALS

Series M — Eastern Conference Finals
Series N — Western Conference Finals

FOURTH ROUND - STANLEY CUP CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The surviving two (2) Clubs will participate in the Stanley Cup Final, which will be designated Series O. Home-ice advantage shall accrue to the Club which had the greater number of regular season points (or, in the event of a tie, in accordance with the other ranking priorities listed in (c) through (e) above). The higher-ranked Club will play Games One, Two and, if necessary, Games Five and Seven in its home rink. The lowerranked Club will play Games Three, Four and, if necessary, Game Six in its home rink.

The staging of the Conference Quarterfinals, Conference Semifinals, and Conference Finals is the responsibility of the Home Club. League consultation will be provided. The staging of the Stanley Cup Final is the responsibility of the League office with the cooperation of the participating Clubs.

The order of play as established above shall not be modified except by mutual consent of the participating Clubs, along with the prior approval of the Commissioner.

In the Conference Finals and Stanley Cup Final, no Club shall be required without its consent to begin play in the Series until the second day following the day on which the Club's final game in the previous Series commenced.

MANAGEMENT

JAMES L. DOLAN

EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN,
THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN COMPANY

As executive chairman of The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG), James L. Dolan oversees the company's many entities, including its world-famous arena complex, professional sports teams, sports and entertainment networks, and historic showplaces. Mr. Dolan also serves as president and chief executive officer of Cablevision Systems Corporation, one of the nation's leading media and telecommunications companies.

In his role at The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan is responsible for the Company's overall growth strategy and manages all of its operations. He also serves as governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and Rangers.

To ensure the standing of the Company's premier venues, Mr. Dolan has taken on a number of restoration projects throughout his tenure. In New York, the Madison Square Garden Arena is currently undergoing the final phase of a complete transformation that is already significantly enhancing the experience of customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and partners. Mr. Dolan was also the catalyst for a restoration of the Company's Beacon Theatre, which was renewed to its former grandeur in early 2009. Among his most significant accomplishments as MSG chairman, Mr. Dolan also spearheaded a multimillion-dollar restoration of Radio City Music Hall in 1999, returning the national landmark and MSG showpiece to its original splendor.

Over the past few years, Mr. Dolan has taken additional steps to expand MSG's entertainment properties. They include the addition of The Chicago Theatre, which was built in 1921 as one of the country's most opulent motion picture houses, and the Forum, which has been a celebrated arena in the Greater Los Angeles area since its opening in 1967.

Mr. Dolan has led MSG's response to local and national tragedies. He played a principal role in organizing the recent "12-12-12" benefit concert, which raised an initial $50 million for the victims of Hurricane Sandy, with additional money still coming in. Other extraordinary benefit concerts have included "The Concert For New York City," which generated more than $35 million in aid for 9/11 victims and heroes, and "From The Big Apple to The Big Easy," which raised nearly $9 million for Hurricane Katrina relief. Mr. Dolan also supports The Madison Square Garden Company's ongoing commitment to the community, particularly through the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit charity that works closely with all areas at the company to help children throughout the New York metropolitan area.

In addition to his leadership role at The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan is president and chief executive officer of Cablevision Systems Corporation, which served as MSG's parent company until February 2010, when the sports, media and entertainment business became a standalone, public company. Mr. Dolan oversees Cablevision's comprehensive portfolio of advanced Optimum-branded telecommunications products, including its digital television, digital voice and high-speed Internet services, and Optimum WiFi, the nation's largest regional wireless Internet network.

Also under his purview, and serving the New York tri-state area, are Cablevision's local media properties, which include News 12 Networks and Newsday Media Group, featuring Long Island's leading daily newspaper, Newsday. Other businesses under the Cablevision umbrella include MSG Varsity's local programming network and Clearview Cinemas, one of the tri-state area's leading motion picture exhibitors.

Prior to assuming his present posts at Cablevision and The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan was chief executive officer of Rainbow Media Holdings, the former Cablevision programming subsidiary that became a separate, public company named AMC Networks Inc. in June 2011. Mr. Dolan began his career with Cablevision in the 1970s and held a variety of executive positions before overseeing Rainbow Media.

Mr. Dolan serves on the board of directors for The Madison Square Garden Company and AMC Networks, and is a member of Cablevision's board of directors and its executive committee. He is also on the board of The Lustgarten Foundation, an organization he helped found in 1998 which today is the nation's largest private supporter of pancreatic cancer research. In addition, he sits on the boards of C-SPAN and the Breathe Easy Play Hard Foundation, and is a member of the New York University Steinhardt Dean's Council.

HANK J. RATNER

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER,
THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN COMPANY

Hank J. Ratner is president and chief executive officer of The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG), which includes renowned performance venues, entertainment properties, professional sports teams and television networks. Mr. Ratner directs the overall strategy and day-to-day operations of the business. He also serves as alternate governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

The Company's signature assets consist of some of the nation's most dynamic and powerful sports, media and entertainment assets and brands. This diverse collection of properties includes a portfolio of iconic venues: New York's Madison Square Garden, Radio City Music Hall and Beacon Theatre; The Chicago Theatre; the Forum in Inglewood, California; and the Wang Theatre in Boston. In addition, MSG owns and operates professional sports teams, the New York Knicks, Rangers and Liberty; MSG Entertainment and its entertainment properties, including the Radio City Christmas Spectacular, featuring the legendary Radio City Rockettes; regional sports and entertainment networks, MSG and MSG+; and Fuse, a national music network.

In February of 2010, Mr. Ratner led the spin-off of Madison Square Garden from Cablevision Systems Corporation and, today, The Madison Square Garden Company is a thriving, stand-alone, public company. Currently, Mr. Ratner is spearheading the three-year Transformation of the iconic Madison Square Garden Arena, which is already significantly enhancing the experience of customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and partners. The first two phases of the project have resulted in new seating, improved sightlines, spectacular public concourses, new Event Level and Madison Level suites, new food offerings by some of the best chefs in the world, and exhibits that pay homage to the building's storied history. The last and final phase of the Transformation will include a dramatically redesigned Seventh Avenue entrance and two new one-of-a-kind bridges suspended above the playing surface, as well as the restoration of The Garden's distinctive and celebrated ceiling.

Mr. Ratner served as MSG's vice chairman for seven years before being named president and chief executive officer following MSG's spin-off from Cablevision. Throughout his tenure, Mr. Ratner has been influential in formulating and implementing the strategic direction for MSG's multi-faceted business. For example, he has played a key role in bringing some of the country's landmark venues under MSG management. Over the last six years, these have included The Beacon Theatre, The Chicago Theatre, the Wang Theatre and, most recently, the Forum. In addition, Mr. Ratner is the architect of the company's integrated business approach, designed to capitalize on MSG's unique combination of iconic venues, sports and entertainment content, and programming and distribution networks, by strategically aligning these assets to work together to deliver incomparable opportunities and exceptional experiences for partners, entertainers, customers and fans.

As chairman of The Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit that works closely with The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Ratner has been the visionary behind the charity's commitment to "make dreams come true for children facing obstacles." Its extraordinary relationship with the company allows the Foundation to do what no other charity in the world can do – use the magic and power of MSG's assets to create on-going, unforgettable programs that improve the lives of kids and their families. Since its inception in 2006, Garden of Dreams has worked with all areas of MSG – including the Knicks, Rangers, Liberty, MSG Media and MSG Entertainment – to create thousands of unique and unforgettable experiences that have brightened the lives of more than 225,000 children.

Mr. Ratner has also served as vice chairman of Cablevision Systems Corporation since 2003. In this role, he helps to set corporate direction and strategy for the media and telecommunications company whose portfolio of operations includes a full suite of advanced digital television, voice and high-speed Internet services, and valuable local media and programming properties. Prior to serving as MSG and Cablevision vice chairman, Mr. Ratner served as COO and then vice chairman of Rainbow Media Holdings, Cablevision's former programming subsidiary which became AMC Networks, a separate company, after its spin-off in June 2011.

Mr. Ratner joined Cablevision as assistant general counsel in 1987. A year later, he moved to Rainbow Media, rising to the position of Rainbow's chief operating officer in 1998. Mr. Ratner was then promoted to vice chairman of Cablevision before also being named vice chairman of MSG in 2003.

Previously, Mr. Ratner was an associate with the law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell. He received a bachelor's degree and doctorate of law with distinction from Emory University.

Dave Howard is president of Madison Square Garden Sports where he oversees the business operations of The Madison Square Garden Company's (MSG) three professional sports teams, the New York Knicks, New York Rangers and New York Liberty as well as the AHL's Connecticut Whale. In addition, Howard manages MSG's Sports Properties business, which features a diverse lineup of world-class live sporting events.

In his role, Howard has a wide range of responsibilities that include optimizing the core MSG Sports businesses, while creating and driving new revenue streams, and enhancing the value of the sports division's brand. He oversees the marketing and game presentations of the Knicks, Rangers and Liberty, as well as the sale of each team's season and individual game tickets, suites and Madison Club memberships. Howard also helps direct integrated sales for MSG Sports, including the development and management of strategic, multi-platform marketing partnerships with industry leading brands. In addition, Howard manages the Sports Properties division, which promotes, produces and partners on a broad array of live sporting events, including boxing, tennis, college and high school basketball, along with developing new growth opportunities for MSG Sports.

Howard joined MSG Sports in April 2013 following more than two decades at the New York Mets and Major League Baseball. Previously, he served as executive vice president of business operations for the Mets, where he oversaw all business departments, including ticket sales & services, corporate sales & partnerships, marketing & communications, broadcasting, media relations, venue services, ballpark operations, guest experience and security. In addition, he was responsible for the team's Florida training facility and the St. Lucie Mets and Brooklyn Cyclones minor league business operations. During his 20 years with the Mets organization, Howard held a number of significant roles, including as the team's general counsel, corporate secretary, vice president of business affairs and senior vice president of business and legal affairs. He played a key role in moving the Mets from Shea Stadium to Citi Field, where he was also instrumental in attracting other premier events, including top concerts and college lacrosse, as well as the first-ever major soccer matches. Prior to joining the Mets, Howard was an associate counsel in the office of the commissioner's office at Major League Baseball, and an associate at the firm of Davis Polk & Wardwell. He began his career as a law clerk for the Honorable George C. Pratt at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

Howard has served on a number of community and charitable boards, including: The Bridge Church of the Nazarene; Rockville Centre Little League; Baseball Chapel, Inc; Molly College Board of Trustees; CCFA-Long Island Chapter Advisory Board; and Tufts University Athletics Board of Advisors. He graduated cum laude from Fordham University of Law and received his bachelor's degree in Economics from Dartmouth College, where he graduated magna cum laude. Howard and his family reside on Long Island.

GLEN SATHER

PRESIDENT, AND GENERAL MANAGER

With a strong mix of experienced veterans and promising home-grown youth on the roster, Rangers President and General Manager Glen Sather continues to illustrate why he is one of the great architects in the history of hockey management. With 36 years of hockey experience on his Hall of Fame resume, which includes five Stanley Cup Championships, he is the league's longest tenured general manager, serving the past 13 seasons with New York and prior to that, 21 years in Edmonton.

With a developing core of homegrown players, Sather has laid the foundation for long-term success by stockpiling talented prospects, while adding significant pieces via trades and free agency. Since 2005-06, the Blueshirts have totaled 330 wins and a .588 points percentage, ranking fourth in the Eastern Conference. In 2011-12, the Rangers advanced to the Conference Finals after finishing atop the Eastern Conference with a 51-24-7 record. The Blueshirts' 51 wins ranked second in franchise history, while their 109 points tied for second all-time.

The Rangers posted 40+ wins six times in seven seasons from 2005-06 to 2011-12, marking the first time in franchise history the team has accomplished the feat. The Blueshirts are also one of two teams in the Eastern Conference, along with Pittsburgh, to advance to the playoffs in seven of the last eight seasons.

Sather became New York's 12th President and 10th General Manager on June 1, 2000. He also served as head coach from January 30, 2003 to February 25, 2004. Sather led the Edmonton Oilers' to five Stanley Cup Championships between 1984 – 1990, overseeing the development of a revolutionary team concept as well as some of the finest individual talents ever to play the game. Sather's achievements were recognized and honored on September 9, 1997 when he became the first member of the Edmonton Oilers organization to be selected to the Hockey Hall of Fame.

During his tenure with the Oilers, the club posted a 791-660-215 record in 1,666 regular season games (.539 winning percentage), capturing three President's Trophies, six division titles and six conference championships. In Stanley Cup playoff action, Sather's teams compiled a 133-82 record in 215 games (.619 winning percentage), leading to the club's five Stanley Cup titles.

Upon his retirement as a player following the 1976-77 season, Sather immediately joined the coaching ranks, guiding the Edmonton Oilers to 12 straight WHA and NHL playoff appearances, four Stanley Cup Championships and five Stanley Cup Finals appearances between 1977 and 1989. Sather added the title of General Manager on June 15, 1979, and was named the team's President prior to the 1982-83 season.

Before embarking on his executive career, Sather put together one of the most impressive coaching records in NHL history. He has served as a Head Coach in 932 NHL regular season games, compiling a record of 497-307-128 (.602 winning percentage), ranking 16th on the NHL's all-time coaching list with 497 victories. In 127 Stanley Cup playoff games, Sather posted a record of 89-37-1, ranking sixth on the all-time list for playoff wins with 89 and first all-time with a .705 playoff winning percentage. He received the Jack Adams Trophy as the NHL's Coach of the Year in 1985-86 and is one of only six coaches to coach in five or more NHL All-Star Games.

Sather's knowledge of the game, tactical negotiating strategies, strong developmental skills and keen ability to get the best out of his players are keys to his managerial success. During his administration in Edmonton, Sather developed a dynasty by nurturing talented draft picks Mark Messier, Kevin Lowe, Jari Kurri, Grant Fuhr, Paul Coffey, Esa Tikkanen and Glenn Anderson, along with the acquisition of a rising star named Wayne Gretzky.

Sather's management experience and success also carries over to the international arena. He served as Team Canada's General Manager and Coach for the 1996 World Cup of Hockey. He also guided Team Canada's 1994 Canada Cup Championship and was the General Manager of the gold medal-winning team in the 1994 World Hockey Championships.

A native of High River, Alberta, Sather enjoyed a successful junior career with the Edmonton Oil Kings. Following the completion of his amateur days, he became property of the Detroit Red Wings but would never wear a Winged Wheel jersey. After a season with the Central League's Memphis Wings, Sather was drafted away from the Red Wings by the Boston Bruins in 1965, and would make his National Hockey League debut with the Bruins in the 1966-67 season. Sather would go on to play 10 seasons in the NHL with the Boston Bruins, Pittsburgh Penguins, New York Rangers, St. Louis Blues, Montreal Canadiens and Minnesota North Stars. In 658 regular season games, the feisty winger registered 80 goals and 113 assists for 193 points, along with 724 penalty minutes.

As a member of the New York Rangers from 1970 through 1974, Sather appeared in 188 regular season games, recording 18 goals and 24 assists for 42 points, along with 193 penalty minutes. In addition, he was a member of the 1971-72 Rangers club which advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals.

Sather and his wife, Ann, have two sons, Justin and Shanon.

JIM SCHOENFELD

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, PLAYER PERSONNEL, ASSISTANT COACH, AND GENERAL MANAGER, CONNECTICUT WHALE

Jim Schoenfeld is currently in his sixth season as Assistant General Manager, Player Personnel of the Rangers. In his role, he assists President and General Manager Glen Sather on all player transactions. In addition, Schoenfeld also continues as a member of the coaching staff, having joined Tortorella as an assistant coach on February 23, 2009. He is also responsible for all hockey-related matters for the Connecticut Whale.

Schoenfeld has spent the past nine seasons as General Manager of the Connecticut Whale/Hartford Wolf Pack and served as head coach of the team for two seasons from 2005-06 to 2006-07. He assumed head coaching duties for the organization on July 13, 2005, when he became the fourth head coach in franchise history. Schoenfeld has played a key role in developing the organization's pool of prospects.

Prior to joining Connecticut/Hartford, he served as an assistant coach with the Rangers for the 2002-03 campaign. He joined the Rangers after serving as a lead analyst for ESPN's National Hockey Night from 1999 through 2002. A veteran of 10 seasons in the National Hockey League as a head coach, Schoenfeld compiled a 256-246-78 record (.509 winning percentage) with the Buffalo Sabres, New Jersey Devils, Washington Capitals and the Phoenix Coyotes. His most recent NHL head coaching stint was with Phoenix in 1997-98 and 1998-99 compiling a record of 72-66-24. Schoenfeld guided the team to a 39-31-12 record in 1998-99, which ranks second in franchise history for most victories in a single season. Schoenfeld represented the Coyotes that year at the NHL All-Star Game, as a member of the North American team's coaching staff.

After leaving ESPN to assume head coaching duties of the Washington Capitals on January 27, 1994, Schoenfeld posted a record of 113-102-34 in 249 games. He ranks fourth in Capitals' history in games coached (249), victories (113) and winning percentage (.522). Schoenfeld guided the New Jersey Devils from January 26, 1988 through November 6, 1990, leading the club to a record of 50-59-15 in 124 games. During the 1987-88 season, he was responsible for leading the Devils to the team's first-ever Stanley Cup Playoff appearance, taking the club to within one game of the Stanley Cup Finals.

Schoenfeld made his NHL head coaching debut with the Buffalo Sabres during the 1985-86 season, where he directed the team until General Manager Scotty Bowman resumed his coaching career on January 15th. He also served as head coach of Buffalo's top American Hockey League affiliate, the Rochester Americans, for a portion of the 1984-85 season. Schoenfeld's stint behind the Americans' bench ended when he came out of retirement and rejoined the Sabres' active lineup on December 19, 1984.

A veteran of 13 seasons in the National Hockey League, Schoenfeld appeared in 719 games with the Buffalo Sabres, Detroit Red Wings and Boston Bruins from 1972-73 through 1984-85. A former captain of the Buffalo Sabres, he registered 51 goals and 204 assists for 255 points, along with 1,132 penalty minutes. Originally selected by the Buffalo Sabres in the first round, 5th overall, in the 1972 NHL Entry Draft, Schoenfeld is a member of the Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame and the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

A Native of Galt, Ontario, Schoenfeld and his wife, Theresa, have a daughter, Katie, and three sons, Justin, Adam and Nathan.

JEFF GORTON

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Jeff Gorton is currently in his sixth season with the Rangers and his second as Assistant General Manager. He previously served three seasons with the Rangers as Assistant Director, Player Personnel, after serving one season as a professional scout.

In his expanded role, Gorton is responsible for all aspects of hockey administration for the team, including matters relating to the hockey club's salary structure and to the team's interaction with the National Hockey League regarding player contracts, player movement and Collective Bargaining Agreement issues. He oversees the day to day work of the hockey operations area, including the administration of all player and staff contracts. Gorton represents the club in salary arbitration matters, assists in negotiation of player contracts and coordinates team research projects. He also continues his involvement with the club's professional and amateur scouting operations.

Prior to joining the Rangers, Gorton spent 15 seasons with the Boston Bruins organization, serving as the Bruins Assistant General Manager during the final seven years of his tenure. As Assistant General Manager, he was involved in contract negotiations, scouting operations and the team's American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate in Providence, Rhode Island.

Gorton served as Boston's Interim General Manager from March 27 to July 8, 2006, directing the Bruins' efforts at the 2006 NHL Entry Draft and negotiating contracts and trades at the start of the 2006 free agency period. At the 2006 draft, Gorton was instrumental in landing Bruins' star players Milan Lucic, Brad Marchand and Tuukka Rask, as well as former Bruins' star Phil Kessel. He also acquired key All-Star free agents Zdeno Chara and Marc Savard.

Gorton originally joined the Bruins organization in their public relations department at the beginning of the 1992-1993 season. He became the Bruins' Director of Scouting Information in October 1994, where he created the scouting database which networks the club's scouts via computer, and coordinated video on prospects in preparation of scouting assignments and the annual NHL Entry Draft. Gorton holds a degree in physical education from Bridgewater State College, and a Masters in sports management from Springfield College.

Gorton resides in Somers, New York, with his wife, Cyndi, and sons, Jack and Sam.

MARK MESSIER

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT

Mark Messier returned to the Rangers organization in an official capacity on August 12, 2009, as Special Assistant to the President. In his role, Messier assists President and General Manager, Glen Sather, in various on and off-ice team activities. In addition to his duties with the Rangers, Messier was named General Manager of Team Canada on December 9, 2009, for the 2010 World Championship in Germany. On October 8, 2010, he was named head coach of Team Canada for the 2010 Deutschland Cup and 2010 Spengler Cup, and led his team to a second place finish in the Spengler Cup.

The 16-time NHL All-Star originally joined the Rangers on October 4, 1991, in one of the most significant transactions in the history of the organization. Messier was acquired from Edmonton in exchange for Bernie Nicholls, Steven Rice and Louie DeBrusk. He was named captain in his first home game as a Ranger on October 7, 1991, following his Rangers debut in Montreal, on October 5. In his first season with the club, Messier guided the team to the President's Trophy, leading the team in scoring with 107 points and capturing his second Hart Trophy. He set a Rangers record for most assists by a center, with 72, while becoming the fifth player in franchise history to reach the 100-point plateau.

In 1993-94, Messier led the Rangers to the team's second President's Trophy in three seasons and carried the Rangers to its first Stanley Cup Championship in 54 years. He set a Rangers playoff record with 12 post-season goals, including the Stanley Cup winning tally on June 14, 1994, as the Rangers defeated Vancouver, 3-2, to win Game Seven of the Stanley Cup Finals.

Messier, who ranks seventh all-time with four career playoff hat tricks, recorded his most memorable three or more goal game on May 25, 1994, at New Jersey in Game Six of the Eastern Conference Finals, netting three goals, including the game-tying and game-winning tallies. He ranks second on the Rangers all-time playoff scoring list with 80 points, placing second in goals (29) and assists (51).

Messier played his final game with the Rangers on March 31, 2004, against the Buffalo Sabres, scoring the 694th goal of his career. He officially announced his retirement on September 12, 2005. Messier's number 11 was retired by the Rangers and raised to the Madison Square Garden rafters on Thursday, January 12, 2006.

The Edmonton, Alberta native was a four-time NHL First Team All-Star and two-time winner of the Lester B. Pearson Award as the league MVP, as voted by the players. Messier ranks fifth on the Rangers' all-time scoring list with 691 points. Named the club's MVP in 1992, 1995 and 1996, he places seventh all-time in goals with 250 and sixth in assists with 441. Messier holds Rangers club records for Most Game Winning Goals, Playoff Year (four, '94), Most Points, Playoff Series (11, '94 Conference Finals), Most Shorthanded Goals, Single Game (two, Apr. 21, 1992 vs. New Jersey) and Most Goals, One Period (three, May 25, 1994 at New Jersey).

Messier ranks second on the NHL's all-time scoring list with 1,887 points. In addition, he places seventh in goals with 694, third in assists with 1,193 and second in games played with 1,756. He is a two-time recipient of the Hart Trophy, as the league's Most Valuable Player ('90, '92), has appeared in the second most playoff contests in National Hockey League history (236) and also ranks second in goals (109), assists (186) and points (295). The winner of the Conn Smythe Trophy in 1984 as the Most Valuable Player in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, Messier is a six-time Stanley Cup Champion, captaining the 1990 Edmonton Oilers and the 1994 New York Rangers. Messier is the first player to have served as captain for two different Stanley Cup-winning teams.

JOHN TORTORELLA

HEAD COACH

John Tortorella is currently in his fourth full season with the Rangers after being named the 34th head coach in franchise history on February 23, 2009. He ranks first on the NHL's all-time wins list among U.S.-born coaches with 410 career victories, having passed Peter Laviolette with a 4-3 shootout win at Montreal on March 17, 2009.

Under Tortorella's guidance, the Rangers posted their second most wins all-time in a single season with 51, and tied for second in franchise history with 109 points in 2011-12. He became the 30th coach in NHL history to coach 800 games on March 27, 2012, at Minnesota (3-2 win), and won his 100th game as Rangers Head Coach with a 5-3 win on November 5, 2011, vs. Montreal. On March 26, 2013, Tortorella became the 30th head coach in league history to register his 400th NHL coaching victory, with a 5-2 win at Philadelphia. He also passed Tom Renney for fourth on the Rangers' all-time coaching wins list with a 3-2 shootout victory on April 10, 2013 vs. Toronto.

Prior to returning to the Rangers, Tortorella served as Head Coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning for seven seasons. Under his guidance, Tampa Bay compiled a 239-222-36-38 record in 535 games. He led the Lightning to four consecutive Stanley Cup Playoff appearances, including two Southeast Division Championships in 2002-03 and 2003-04. In 2003-04, Tortorella guided Tampa Bay to a franchise record 46 wins and 106 points, and went on to capture the only Stanley Cup Championship in franchise history. He was awarded the Jack Adams Award as the National Hockey League's top coach following that season.

Tortorella joined Tampa Bay following a one-year stint with the Rangers in 1999-2000 where he was an Assistant Coach and served as Head Coach for the final four games of the season. Prior to joining the Rangers, he spent two seasons as an Assistant Coach with the Phoenix Coyotes. He joined Phoenix during the 1997-98 season, after spending the previous eight seasons with the Buffalo Sabres organization. Tortorella served as an Assistant Coach with the Sabres from 1989-90 to 1994-95 and as Head Coach with their American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate, the Rochester Americans, during the 1995-96 and 1996-97 campaigns. He guided the club to the Calder Cup championship in 1995-96, and followed that up by posting the AHL Northern Conference's best record during the 1996-97 regular season.

Tortorella's coaching experience spans 23 years and includes several accolades. He began his tenure behind the bench with the Virginia Lancers of the Atlantic Coast Hockey League (ACHL), where he spent two seasons as General Manager and Head Coach from 1986-87 to 1987-88 and immediately established himself as one of the league's best. In two seasons with the Lancers, Tortorella compiled a 73-24-1-0 record to earn Coach of the Year honors both seasons, along with the league championship during the 1986-87 campaign. Following the 1987-88 season, Tortorella joined the Fort Wayne Komets of the International Hockey League (IHL) during their 1988 playoff run before serving as an Assistant Coach with the New Haven Nighthawks (AHL) in 1988-89.

Tortorella has also carried over his coaching success to the international stage. Most recently, he served as an assistant coach for the silver medal-winning Team USA at the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver, Canada. He also served as head coach for Team USA at the 2008 World Championship, and was an assistant coach at the 2005 World Championship.

Prior to joining the coaching ranks, Tortorella played at Salem State College before transferring to the University of Maine of the East Coast Athletic Conference (ECAC), where he skated for three seasons as a right winger. After playing in Sweden, he returned to North America to skate in the ACHL with the Hampton Roads Gulls, Erie Golden Blades and Virginia Lancers.

Additionally, Tortorella takes an active role in the community through The John and Christine Tortorella Family Foundation. Both personally, and in conjunction with the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the Tortorellas have focused their unique resources to advance amateur hockey and educational enrichment opportunities for children, along with medical research and treatment for those in need. Tortorella has also teamed up with Knicks (NBA) former Head Coach Mike D'Antoni at the MSG Training Center in 2010 and 2011 for the Garden of Dreams Coaches Challenge with 20 children from Harlem DOWling, a Garden of Dreams partner organization. Another passion Tortorella has become a prominent figure in is animal rescue, spearheading the first NY Rangers Dog Walk this September to raise money for the Westchester Humane society & other local shelters.

A native of Boston, Massachusetts, Tortorella and his wife, Chris, have two children, Brittany and Dominick.

BENOIT ALLAIRE

ASSISTANT COACH AND GOALTENDING COACH

Benoit Allaire is currently in his ninth season with the Rangers coaching staff after being named Assistant Coach and Goaltending Coach on July 15, 2004. Under the direction of Allaire, Rangers' standout Henrik Lundqvist has achieved considerable success, becoming the first goalie in NHL history to record 30 or more wins in each of his first seven seasons and winning the 2011-12 Vezina Trophy as the league's top goaltender. In 2005-06, with Allaire, Lundqvist enjoyed a breakout rookie season and was among the league leaders in several categories for goaltenders en route to being selected to the NHL's All-Rookie Team. Under Allaire's guidance, Lundqvist established a career-high in 2010-11 with a league-leading, 11 shutouts. In 2011-12 Lundqvist recorded career highs in wins (39), GAA (1.97), and save percentage (.930), and became the 45th goaltender in NHL history to reach the 250 career win mark.

Prior to coming to New York, Allaire spent seven seasons as the goaltending coach for the Phoenix Coyotes. He also served as the goaltending instructor for the Montreal Canadiens for one season in 1997.

Allaire was the first to implement the hybrid style of goaltending, a combination of stand-up and butterfly, relying on quickness and reaction to the puck, while utilizing butterfly technique in certain situations. Under the direction of Allaire, the Coyotes goaltenders enjoyed tremendous improvement and success. Before joining the Coyotes organization in 1999, Sean Burke appeared in 536 NHL matches and posted a 3.21 goals against average and .895 save percentage and 19 shutouts. While with Allaire, Burke's play improved enormously, appearing in 211 matches with Phoenix and recording a 2.39 goals against average, a .919 save percentage and 15 shutouts. He was also nominated for both the Vezina and Lester B. Pearson trophies following the 2001-02 season and appeared in the NHL All-Star Game twice (2001, 2002). Additionally, Coyotes goaltender Brian Boucher established a new modern NHL record shutout streak from December 22, 2003 to January 11, 2004, going 332:01 without allowing a goal and recording five shutouts.

Stanley Cup winning goaltender Nikolai Khabibulin also posted significantly improved statistics under the tutelage of Allaire. Prior to Allaire joining Phoenix, Khabibulin posted a 3.02 goals against average and a .906 save percentage with nine shutouts (1994-95 - 1996-97). Over his two seasons with Allaire (1997-98, 1998-99), Khabibulin twice participated in the NHL All-Star Game and shaved more than half a goal off his goals against average. In 133 games under Allaire, he registered a 2.45 goals against average and a .911 save percentage and 12 shutouts.

A native of St. Janvier, Quebec, Allaire served as a goaltending instructor for six seasons (1989-95) in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League (QMJHL) with three different teams: Laval, Verdun and Granby. During his stay in the QMJHL, the goaltenders under Allaire's supervision won two President's Cups (QMJHL's championship) and played in two Memorial Cup Tournaments (Canadian Hockey League championship). Over the course of his career, Allaire has helped develop some of the game's best goaltenders including Jose Theodore, Jean-Sebastien Giguere, Mathieu Garon, Tomas Vokoun and Jonathan Bernier.

Allaire and his wife, Lyne Chalut, live in New York City.

MIKE SULLIVAN

ASSISTANT COACH

Mike Sullivan is currently in his fourth season with the Rangers coaching staff after being named Assistant Coach on July 16, 2009. He arrived in New York after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Lightning. He served as an assistant coach under John Tortorella with Tampa Bay during the 2007-08 season. Prior to joining the Lightning, Sullivan served as head coach for the U.S. Men's team at the 2007 World Championships in Russia. He also served as assistant coach for the U.S. Men's Olympic Team at the 2006 Winter Olympic Games in Torino, Italy.

Sullivan began his coaching career in 2002 as head coach of the Providence Bruins in the American Hockey League (AHL). He led Providence to a 41-17-9-4 record and first place in the AHL's North Division through the team's first 71 games, before being named assistant coach of their parent NHL club, the Boston Bruins. The following season, Sullivan was named head coach of the Bruins (NHL), and led the team to a 41-19-15-7 mark and the Northeast Division title. In two seasons as Boston's head coach, he posted a 70-56-15-23 record in 164 regular season games.

Prior to joining the coaching ranks, Sullivan skated in 709 career NHL games in 11 seasons with the San Jose Sharks, Calgary Flames, Boston Bruins, and Phoenix Coyotes, registering 54 goals and 82 assists for 136 points, along with 203 penalty minutes. The Marshfield, Massachusetts native was originally selected by the Rangers in the fourth round, 69th overall, in the 1987 NHL Entry Draft. He began his NHL career with San Jose in 1991 after spending one season with the San Diego Gulls of the International Hockey League.

Prior to turning pro, Sullivan attended Boston University, where he skated in 141 career college games and registered 61 goals and 138 points over four seasons.

Sullivan and his wife, Kate, have two daughters, Kaitlin and Kiley, and son, Matthew.

SEASON NOTES & HIGHLIGHTS

- The New York Rangers concluded the 2013 regular season ranked second in the Atlantic Division, and sixth in the Eastern Conference, with a record of 26-18-4 for 56 points.
- The Rangers are one of two teams in the Eastern Conference, along with Pittsburgh, to advance to the playoffs in seven of the last eight seasons.
- The Blueshirts led the NHL in goal scoring since the trade deadline (Apr. 3), averaging 3.6 goals per game. Prior to the trade deadline, the Blueshirts averaged 2.4 goals per contest.
- The Rangers had 16 players make their debut as a Blueshirt this season – off-season acquisitions Rick Nash (Jan. 19 at BOS, one assist), Arron Asham (Jan. 20 vs. PIT), Taylor Pyatt (Jan. 19 at BOS), Jeff Halpern (Jan. 19 at BOS), and Micheal Haley (Mar. 5 vs. PHI), along with mid-season acquisitions Benn Ferrierio (Jan. 26 vs. TOR), Roman Hamrlik (Mar. 7 at NYI), Ryane Clowe (Apr. 3 vs. PIT, two goals and one assist), Derick Brassard (Apr. 3 vs. PIT, one goal and three assists), John Moore (Apr. 3 vs. PIT, one goal), Darroll Powe (Feb. 5 at NJD), and Brandon Mashinter (Feb. 19 vs. MTL), as well as Brandon Segal (Jan. 19 at BOS), and rookies Chris Kreider (Jan. 19 at BOS), J.T. Miller (Feb. 5 at NJD), and Christian Thomas (Feb. 23 at MTL).
- The Blueshirts were the least penalized team in the NHL this season with 183 penalties assessed for an average of 9.2 penalty minutes per game.
- The Rangers held opponents to 2.25 goals against per contest, which ranked third in the Eastern Conference and fourth in the league overall.
- New York ranked third in the NHL with 1,413 hits, and sixth in the league with 773 blocked shots this season.
- New York posted a record of 10-3-1 in the month of April, marking the third time the team won 10 games in a month since October of 2008.
- The Blueshirts recorded a point in 11 of their last 13 home games of the season (11-2-1 over the span).
- The Rangers' power play was 9-48 (18.5%) in the final 13 games of the season, compared to 14.3% with the man advantage prior to the trade deadline.
- New York registered a point in 19 of 23 games (17-4-2) when not allowing a power play goal.
- The Blueshirts have registered a point in 92 consecutive games when leading after the second period, dating back to the 2009-10 season, posting a record of 86-0-6 over the span. The Rangers' last regulation loss in a game when entering the third with the lead was Feb. 4, 2010 (6-5 loss vs. WSH). New York posted a 16-0-0 record when leading after the second period this season.
- Henrik Lundqvist finished the season tied for the league lead with 24 wins, becoming the first Rangers goaltender to lead the league in wins since Mike Richter in 1993-94 (42).
- Rangers' rookie J.T. Miller notched two goals while making his Madison Square Garden debut on Feb. 7 in a 4-1 win against the New York Islanders. The last Ranger (rookie or otherwise) to tally multiple goals in his MSG debut was Chris Kontos in a 6-2 win against Detroit on Jan. 3, 1983. Miller (19 years, 330 days) is the youngest Ranger to tally multiple goals in a single game since Alex Kovalev posted a hat trick on Dec. 27, 1992, at the age of 19 years, 307 days.
- The Blueshirts out-shot the Lightning, 42-25, including a 20-3 advantage in the first period of their meeting on Feb. 28 at MSG. The last time the Rangers had a 17-shot advantage in a period was on Jan. 9, 2010, when New York out-shot Boston, 21-3, in the second period.
- Rangers' Head Coach John Tortorella recorded his 400th NHL coaching victory with a 5-2 win on Mar. 26 at Philadelphia, becoming the 30th head coach in league history to reach the mark. On Apr. 10 vs. Toronto, Tortorella passed Tom Renney for fourth on the Rangers' all-time coaching wins list with his 165th victory as the Blueshirts' head coach.
- Ryane Clowe (two goals, one assist), Derick Brassard (one goal, three assists), and John Moore (one goal) combined for eight points while making their Rangers debut in a 6-1 win on Apr. 3 vs. Pittsburgh. It was the first time in franchise history that three players tallied a goal while making their Rangers debut in the same game. Derick Brassard registered a career-high, four points, becoming the first player to record four or more points in their Rangers debut since Doug Bentley on Jan. 20, 1954, vs. Boston.
- Henrik Lundqvist made 26 saves in a 6-1 win on Apr. 3 vs. Pittsburgh to record his 268th career win, passing Ed Giacomin for second on the Rangers' all-time goalie wins list.
- Henrik Lundqvist made 26 saves and stopped 2-3 shootout attempts in a 2-1 loss on Apr. 5 at Pittsburgh, while appearing in his 500th career NHL contest. He became the fourth Rangers goalie to appear in 500 contests.
- Henrik Lundqvist was named the NHL's Third Star for the week ending Apr. 7, after posting a record of 3-0-1 with a 1.22 goals against average and a .962 save percentage over the span.
- Prior to the Rangers' 6-1 win against Florida on Apr. 18, Rangers Captain Ryan Callahan was named recipient of the 2012-13 Steven McDonald Extra Effort Award, for performing "above and beyond the call of duty." It is the fourth time in the last five years he has captured the honor.
- Henrik Lundqvist posted his 20th win of the season in a 6-1 victory on Apr. 18 against Florida, to become one of five active NHL goalies to reach the 20-win mark in eight consecutive seasons (Brodeur, 12; Luongo, 9; Vokoun, 9; Kiprusoff, 8).
- The Rangers swept their final back-to-back set of the season, defeating the Florida Panthers, 6-1, at MSG on Apr. 18 and the Buffalo Sabres, 8-4, on Apr. 19 at First Niagara Center. Their 14 combined goals were the most by the Rangers in consecutive games since Jan. 17-19, 2010 (14 goals), and their most in a back-to-back set since Mar. 1-2, 1992 (16 goals). The Rangers' eight goals on Apr. 19 were their most since Nov. 14, 2010 (8-2 win vs. EDM) and they established a franchise record for fastest five goals, tallying five goals in a span of 2 min. 58 sec. in the contest.
- Brad Richards notched his first career hat trick with three goals in the 8-4 win at Buffalo on Apr. 19.

SEASON NOTES & HIGHLIGHTS

- Rick Nash notched two goals in the season finale, including his 20th goal of the season, to become the only player in the NHL with an active streak of nine consecutive 20-goal seasons.
- Henrik Lundqvist posted a 20-save shutout, his second of the season and 45th of his career, in the season finale against New Jersey to pass Ed Giacomin as the franchise leader in career total shutouts (regular season + playoffs), having posted 51 total shutouts in his career.
- Derek Stepan was named the NHL's Third Star for the month of April, finishing second among league skaters with 19 points (eight goals, 11 assists) and posting a plus-14 rating in 14 games. He registered points in 12 of the 14 games, including seven multi-point efforts, and tallied three game-winning goals over the span.
- Ryan Callahan finished the season with a career-high tying and Rangers' season-high, seven-game point streak, registering 11 points (five goals, six assists) over the span.
- Ryan Callahan was named winner of the 2013 Steven McDonald Extra Effort Award on Apr. 18, marking the fourth time he has captured the honor (2008-09, 2009-10, 2011-12). The Rangers' captain also captured the Players' Player Award for the third consecutive year.
- Henrik Lundqvist captured Rangers' MVP honors for a franchise record, seventh consecutive year. His seven Rangers' MVP awards are also a franchise record, passing Brian Leetch (six) for the most in franchise history.
- Dan Girardi was named the John Halligan Good Guy Award winner, selected by the NY chapter of the Professional Hockey Writers Association (PHWA). The award is named in honor of John Halligan, a longtime Rangers and NHL Public Relations executive, who passed away in 2010, and recognizes players' cooperation with the media.

QUARTERFINALS RECAP

RANGERS vs. CAPITALS

SERIES NOTES & HIGHLIGHTS

- The Rangers and Capitals faced-off in the postseason for the third consecutive season, and fourth time in the last five years. The last time New York played the same opponent in three straight playoff seasons was in the 1985, 1986 and 1987 playoffs against Philadelphia, and the last time the Rangers faced the same opponent in four out of five playoffs was against the Flyers from 1983-1987.
- The Rangers held the lead for 183:13, were tied for 219:48, and trailed for 34:23 in the series. The Blueshirts tallied the first goal in five of the seven games.
- Games 2-6 were each decided by one goal, including two games that required overtime.
- The Rangers have won nine of their last 12 first round playoff series.
- The Rangers came back from a 2-0 series deficit to advance in the playoffs for only the second time in franchise history, having previously done so in the 1996 Eastern Conference Quarterfinals against Montreal. It is the first time the Blueshirts advanced after losing the first two games in a playoff series on the road.
- The Blueshirts have come back from a 3-2 series deficit to advance in the playoffs three times in franchise history, having also done so in the 2012 Conference Quarterfinals against Ottawa and the 1994 Conference Final against New Jersey.
- The home team won Games 1-6 before the Rangers' Game 7 victory in Washington. It is only the third time the road team won Game 7 of a playoff series after the home team won Games 1-6 in the series since the NHL adopted the current playoff format in 1994.
- The Blueshirts were 2-0 in games when tallying a power play goal during the series, and 4-0 when not allowing a power play goal against.
- Henrik Lundqvist completed the first round ranked first in the NHL with two shutouts, and ranked fourth with a 1.65 goals against average and .947 save percentage.
- Derick Brassard led all skaters in the series with seven assists and nine points, and tied for the series lead with two goals, a plus-four rating, and one power play goal. Brassard completed the first round tied for third in the NHL in playoff assists and points.
- Brassard's nine points tied Pentti Lund for second most by a Ranger all-time in their first playoff series with the team. Lund registered nine points in the Rangers' Semifinal victory against Montreal in the 1950 playoffs.

SERIES NOTES & HIGHLIGHTS

- Three Rangers made their NHL playoff debut in the series – Derick Brassard (Game 1), John Moore (Game 1), and Kris Newbury (Game 1).
- Three Rangers notched their first career NHL playoff goal in the series – Carl Hagelin (Game 1), Derick Brassard (Game 3), and Mats Zuccarello (Game 7).
- Five Rangers tallied their first career NHL playoff assist in the series – Derick Brassard (Game 3), Mats Zuccarello (Game 3), John Moore (Game 6), Derek Dorsett (Game 7), and Steve Eminger (Game 7).
- Four Rangers registered their first career NHL playoff point in the series – Derick Brassard (Game 3, assist), Mats Zuccarello (Game 3, assist), John Moore (Game 6, assist), and Derek Dorsett (Game 7, assist).
- Derek Dorsett made his Rangers debut in Game 2 to become the 12th player to make his Blueshirts debut in the playoffs (Chris Kreider, Lauri Korpikoski, Doug Weight, Tony Amonte, Mike Richter, George McPhee, John Hughes, Bobby Sheehan, Steve Andrascik, Dennis Hextall, and Gordie Bell).
- Derek Stepan notched the game-winning goal in Games 3 and 4 to become the first Ranger since Adam Graves in 1997 (May 8, May 11) to tally the game-winner in consecutive playoff games.
- Derick Brassard registered his first career playoff points with a three-point effort in Game 3 at Madison Square Garden. His three points were the most by a Ranger in their home playoff debut since Sergei Zubov on Apr. 17, 1994 vs. the NY Islanders (one goal, two assists). Brassard followed up his three-point effort with two assists in Game 4, becoming the first Blueshirt to record five points in consecutive playoff games since Jaromir Jagr in 2008 (Apr. 29 vs. PIT: one goal, one assist; May 1 vs. PIT: two goals, one assist).
- The Rangers' 1-0 win in Game 6 was the 12th time in franchise history the Blueshirts posted a 1-0 victory in the postseason, and was the third time Henrik Lundqvist backstopped a 1-0 playoff win.
- The Rangers defeated the Capitals, 5-0, in Game 7 to advance to the Eastern Conference Semifinals for a second consecutive season.
- The 5-0 win is the Blueshirts' largest margin of victory in a Game 7, and is the first Game 7 shutout in franchise history. It is only the eighth shutout by a road team in Game 7 in NHL history.
- The Rangers are now 6-5 all-time in Game 7, including a 6-1 mark since 1992. It was their first Game 7 victory on the road in franchise history.

SERIES NOTES & HIGHLIGHTS

- Henrik Lundqvist made 35 saves to post his second straight shutout and eighth career in the playoffs. He passed Dave Kerr for second on the Rangers' all-time playoff shutouts list, and moved to within one of Mike Richter for first in franchise history.
- Lundqvist is the first goalie to post shutouts in Games 6 and 7 of a playoff series since Dominik Hasek with Detroit in the 2002 Western Conference Final against Colorado. It is also the fifth time a Rangers goalie posted shutouts in consecutive playoff games, and the first time since Mike Richter in the first round of the 1994 playoffs.
- Lundqvist improved to 3-1 with a 1.00 goals against average, .963 save percentage, and one shutout in four career Game 7s. His 1.00 goals against average is tied for first in the NHL all-time among goalies who have appeared in at least three career Game 7s.
- Arron Asham opened the scoring in Game 7 with his second goal of the series at 13:19 of the first period. The goal was Asham's first point in his third career Game 7, and was the eventual series-clinching goal.
- Derick Brassard recorded two assists in Game 7 to finish the series with a five-game point streak.
- With the win in Game 7, Head Coach John Tortorella tied Colin Campbell for third on the Rangers' all-time playoff coaching wins list, recording his 18th postseason victory behind the Blueshirts' bench. He also improved to 5-1 all-time in Game 7 of playoff series, including a 3-1 mark with the Rangers.
