ED SNIDER COMCAST-SPECTACOR CHAIRMAN

Ed Snider is an iconic entrepreneur and true visionary in the sports and entertainment industry. His emergence as a leader in the Philadelphia sports market began in 1966 when he brought a National Hockey League franchise to the city as the founder of the Philadelphia Flyers. He became the driving force behind the construction of the Spectrum and assumed control of the building in 1971. In 1974, Snider created Spectacor as the management company to oversee the Flyers and Spectrum. Over the next 20 years, Spectacor experienced unprecedented growth, earning national acclaim for its impact in the sports and entertainment business. Under Snider's guidance, Spectacor developed and acquired nearly a dozen related companies.

In 1996, Snider merged Spectacor with the Comcast Corporation to form Comcast-Spectacor. The new venture initially consisted of the Philadelphia Flyers, Philadelphia 76ers, Wells Fargo Center, The Spectrum, and the Philadelphia Phantoms. Comcast-Spectacor then joined with the Philadelphia Phillies to form Comcast SportsNet, one of the highest-rated regional sports cable networks in the country.

Most recently, Comcast-Spectacor developed Global Spectrum, an international facilities management company; Ovations Food Services, an international concessions company; New Era Tickets; and the Flyers Skate Zones. These entities all represent components of Snider's vision: "Take what you do well and grow it."

Snider's success and business acumen have been widely recognized by his peers. He was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1988 and serves on the NHL's Executive Committee. He is a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award for outstanding service to hockey in the United States and has been elected to the US Hockey Hall of Fame, the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame, the Philadelphia Sports Hall of Fame, the Philadelphia Jewish Sports Hall of Fame, the Washington, DC Jewish Sports Hall of Fame, and the Flyers Hall of Fame. In 2005, he received the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce's William Penn Award, the most prestigious business honor in the region, and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor awarded to Americans of all ethnic backgrounds who have made significant contributions to our society.

One of Snider's more recent and proudest accomplishments is the creation of the Ed Snider Youth Hockey Foundation, which provides underserved children from inner-city communities with the opportunity to learn to play ice hockey at area rinks. The program features an educational component that emphasizes the importance of staying in school, community service and goal-setting. In 2008, by taking control of funding and operations, the Foundation rescued three Philadelphia inner-city ice-skating rinks that budgetary constraints had forced the city to target for closure. This partnership quickly grew to include the staffing and programming at all five of the city's public rinks. In 2011, the Foundation matched a grant by the Commonwealth to fund a $13 million renovation project that will ensure the long-range sustainability of these vital community resources and result in the enclosure of up to four of these rinks for year round use.

Snider has received honorary degrees from Hahnemann University and Thomas Jefferson Hospital. He is also a Benefactor of the Sol C. Snider Entrepreneurial Center of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and Vice Chairman of the Simon Wiesenthal Center.

Snider's philanthropic generosity has benefitted numerous organizations and agencies throughout the Greater Philadelphia Region.

In May 1999, readers of the Philadelphia Daily News selected him as Philly's greatest mover and shaker of the millennium.

Snider resides in suburban Philadelphia. His children are daughters Lindy, Tina, and Sarena and sons Craig, Jay, and Samuel, as well as 15 grandchildren.

PETER A. LUUKKO

PRESIDENT / CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER, COMCAST-SPECTACOR CHAIRMAN, GLOBAL SPECTRUM

Peter A. Luukko is President and Chief Operating Officer of Comcast-Spectacor. He works closely with Comcast-Spectacor Chairman Ed Snider in overseeing the day-to-day operations of all of the company's interests.

Additionally, Luukko, who is also Chairman of Global Spectrum, is responsible for creating new business opportunities for Comcast-Spectacor in the fields of facility management, sports ownership and operation, food and concessions, as well as consulting in those same fields.

Luukko's extensive sports management career began in 1981 after parlaying an internship at the New Haven Coliseum into a position as the director of marketing for the facility. He later joined the Providence Civic Center as the facility's assistant general manager. In 1985 Luukko joined Spectacor Management Group (SMG), at the time owned in part by Snider, and soon became Vice President of SMG's Western Region and facility manager for SMG's Los Angeles Coliseum and Sports Arena. During that time, he was credited for greatly improving the facilities' reputation. In addition, he had spent time overseeing other SMG facilities.

In 1993, Luukko left SMG to become President of the Spectrum. In the following years he became responsible for managing Comcast-Spectacor's growing interests, and helped the company become a nationally recognized leader in sports and entertainment with the acquisition of Globe Facility Services in 2000. After renaming the company Global Spectrum, the public assembly management firm grew from seven facilities in 2000 to just over 105 facilities in 2011. Additionally in 2000, Comcast-Spectacor acquired Leisure Food Services and renamed the company Ovations Food Services. Comcast-Spectacor made a significant investment into a ticketing technology company, Paciolan, and employed its technology to create a full-service ticketing company, New Era Tickets, in 2004. Comcast-Spectacor acquired 100 percent of Paciolan from Live Nation in 2010.

Under Luukko's leadership, Comcast-Spectacor helped Philadelphia garner national attention and awareness by attracting several high-profile events to the city of Philadelphia, including the 2000 Republican National Convention, the 2000 NCAA Women's Final Four, the 2001 NCAA Men's East Regionals, the 2001 and 2002 X-Games, the 2002 NBA All-Star Weekend, the 2008 U.S. Olympic Team Trials for Gymnastics, the 2011 NCAA Wrestling Championships, the 2014 NCAA Frozen Four, and numerous other sports and entertainment events.

A recognized leader in the facility management industry, Luukko was the 2000 recipient of the City of Hope's Tri-State Labor Award. He also received the 2002 prestigious Harold J. VanderZwaag Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Sports Management Program of the University of Massachusetts for his accomplishments in the field of sports management.

Luukko actively serves on the Board of Directors for the Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Philadelphia Sports Congress, and the Ed Snider Youth Hockey Foundation. He also serves on the National Hockey League's Board of Governors.

Luukko is a hockey player, hockey coach, and hockey parent. He is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts. He and his wife, Casey, along with their children Nick, Dana, and Max, reside in West Chester, Pennsylvania. His son Nick was drafted by the Flyers in the sixth round of the 2010 NHL Entry Draft.

PAUL HOLMGREN

GENERAL MANAGER

Paul Holmgren enters his sixth season as the general manager of the Flyers and his 33rd as a member of the Flyers organization.

In 2010-2011, Holmgren oversaw a Flyers team that won the club's first division title since 2004 and made its fourth consecutive appearance in the Stanley Cup Playoffs, advancing to the Eastern Conference Semifinals. The Flyers posted a regular season record of 47-23-12 for 106 points, which was the most wins for a Flyers team since the 1985-86 season.

Holmgren's 2009-10 team made one of the most remarkable runs in Flyers history, making the eighth Stanley Cup Final appearance in team history. The Flyers compiled a regular season record of 41-35-6 for 88 points and qualified for the playoffs on the last day of the season. They then went on to dispatch New Jersey (ECQF, 4 games to 1), Boston (ECSF, 4 games to 3), and Montreal (ECF, 4 games to 2) to reach the Final against the Chicago Blackhawks.

In 2008-09, Holmgren put together a Flyers club that finished with a 44-27-11 record for 99 points, which was good for third place in the Atlantic Division and fifth in the Eastern Conference. In 2007-08, his first full season as general manager, Holmgren guided the Flyers to the best turnaround in the NHL that season. The club improved 39 points in the standings, posting a 42-29-11 record for 95 points after collecting just 56 points the year before. The Flyers returned to the Stanley Cup Playoffs and made an impressive run to the Eastern Conference Finals. Since the NHL expanded the playoffs to four rounds in 1980, the 2007-08 Flyers were only the second team to finish with the worst record in the NHL one season and reach the third round of the playoffs the next season (Detroit Red Wings in 1987). The 2007-08 Flyers were also the first team in 13 years to advance to the second round of the playoffs after finishing the previous season with the worst record in the league (San Jose Sharks in 1994).

Holmgren was named interim general manager of the Flyers on October 22, 2006 following the resignation of Bob Clarke. The interim tag was lifted on November 11, 2006 when he was named to the position on a permanent basis.

At the time of his promotion, Holmgren had served in various capacities in the Flyers front office for the previous 11 years. He re-joined the organization as a scout after he was replaced as the head coach of the Hartford Whalers on November 6, 1995, and was named director of pro scouting on December 30, 1995 when Bill Barber became the head coach of the Hershey Bears. Holmgren was named the director of player personnel on August 6, 1997 and was promoted to assistant general manager on June 14, 1999, a position he held for the next seven seasons.

Holmgren spent parts of four seasons (1992-93 through 1995-96) with the Hartford organization. He was named head coach of the Whalers on June 15, 1992 and added the general manager's duties prior to the 1993-94 season. He stepped down as head coach 17 games into the 1993-94 season to concentrate on his GM duties, but was re-appointed to the position on June 28, 1994 when Jim Rutherford was named the club's general manager. He compiled a record of 59-93-14 as Hartford's head coach.

Upon his retirement following the 1984-85 season, Holmgren was named an assistant coach with the Flyers and helped Mike Keenan guide the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1987. He was named head coach of the Flyers on June 1, 1988, becoming the first former Flyer to be named head coach of the team. Over four seasons as head coach, Holmgren compiled a record of 107-126-31.

Internationally, Holmgren has served as the assistant general manager of the 2006 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team and the general manager for the 2006 U.S. National Team at the IIHF World Championships. He also served as an assistant coach for Team USA at the 1998 Winter Olympic Games and at the 1996 World Cup of Hockey Tournament.

Holmgren played 527 games in the National Hockey League over 10 seasons with the Flyers and the Minnesota North Stars. He recorded 144 goals and 179 assists for 323 points while racking up 1,684 career penalty minutes. Holmgren was drafted from the University of Minnesota by the Flyers in the sixth round (108th overall) of the 1975 NHL Entry Draft and spent parts of eight seasons with the team. He was part of the club's historic 35-game undefeated streak and Stanley Cup Final appearance during the 1979-80 season. He was traded to the North Stars in exchange for Paul Guay and a third round pick in the 1985 NHL Entry Draft (Darryl Gilmour) on February 23, 1984. His Flyers totals include 138 goals and 171 assists for 309 points and 1,600 penalty minutes in 500 games over parts of nine seasons (1975-76 to 1983-84). His 1,600 penalty minutes with the Flyers are second all-time in club history.

Paul and his wife, Doreen, reside in Somerdale, New Jersey. He has four children: Jason, Kirsten, Wes, and Greta, and two grandchildren, Hannah and Noah. Holmgren was born on December 2, 1955.

PETER LAVIOLETTE

HEAD COACH

Peter Laviolette enters his third season as the head coach of the Flyers. During the 2010-2011 season, Laviolette led the Flyers to a 47-23-12 regular season record, an Atlantic Division championship and their fourth consecutive appearance in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. The 47 wins were the most by a Flyers team in 25 years, since the 1985-86 team won 53 games.

Laviolette was named the 17th head coach in Flyers history on Dec. 4, 2009. Over the final 57 games of the season, Laviolette coached the Flyers to a 28-24-5 record. He then led the club on a remarkable playoff run, picking up series wins over New Jersey (4-1), Boston (4-3) and Montreal (4-2) on the way to the eighth Stanley Cup Final appearance in Flyers history.

Prior to joining the Flyers, Laviolette spent parts of five seasons as head coach of the Carolina Hurricanes (2003-04 to 2008-09), where he compiled a 167-122-34 record in 323 games. In 2005-06, Laviolette led Carolina to the only Stanley Cup championship in franchise history, which culminated with a 3-1 win over Edmonton in Game 7 of the Stanley Cup Final on June 19, 2006. The Hurricanes won the Southeast Division that year with a record of 52-22-8, and set franchise records for wins and points (112) in a single season. Laviolette was named a finalist for the Jack Adams Trophy as NHL Coach of the Year that season.

Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Laviolette served as head coach of the New York Islanders for two seasons (2001-02 to 2002-03). He registered a 77-62-25 regular season record and led his teams to the playoffs in both seasons, returning the Islanders to postseason play after a seven-season absence.

In parts of seven seasons as a head coach (2001-02 to 2009-10), Laviolette has an overall record of 272-212-64 in 548 games coached with the Flyers, Hurricanes and Islanders. He begins the season ranked second in all-time wins among US-born head coaches. He also has a record of 34-27 in 61 career Stanley Cup Playoff games as a head coach.

Laviolette has been part of three Winter Olympic Games, taking part as a player for Team USA in 1994 at Lillehammer, Norway and 1998 at Nagano, Japan. He was also the head coach of the US squad at the 2006 Torino Games. Laviolette was the coach for Team USA at the 2004 and 2005 IIHF World Championships, guiding the squad to a bronze medal in 2004.

Laviolette began his coaching career with the ECHL's Wheeling Nailers in 1997. A 37-win season and trip to the conference finals earned him the head job with the American Hockey League's Providence Bruins, where Laviolette spent the last three seasons of his playing career.

In his first of two seasons at the helm, Laviolette led Providence to an incredible turnaround – after the team won just 19 games the year before, the P-Bruins posted an AHL-best 56-16-4-4 regular season record and won their first Calder Cup championship. The season earned Laviolette the AHL's Coach of the Year honors. He was promoted to assistant coach of the Boston Bruins in 2000, a position he held for one season before joining the Islanders.

Laviolette's playing career spanned 11 seasons, mostly in the AHL and IHL. He appeared in 12 games with the New York Rangers during the 1988-89 season.

A native of Franklin, Mass., Laviolette was born on Dec. 7, 1964. He and his wife, Kristen, have three children: sons Peter and Jack, and daughter Elisabeth.

CRAIG BERUBE ASSISTANT COACH

Craig Berube enters his fifth season as an assistant coach with the Flyers and his 15th overall season with the club. Berube has been a Flyers assistant coach since August 7, 2008, and also served as an assistant coach for most of the 2006-07 season. He has been a coach in the organization since 2004, when he was named the assistant coach of the Philadelphia Phantoms. During the 2007-08 season, Berube posted a 49-29-5-3 record as head coach of the Phantoms and led the team to a second-place finish in the East Division and a trip to the AHL's East Division Finals. He was originally named to that position on June 14, 2006. He was first named a Flyers assistant coach on October 23, 2006, and was re-appointed as the Phantoms head coach on June 4, 2007.

Berube returned to the Flyers organization for a third time on November 18, 2003 when he signed with the Phantoms as a player. He was named a player/assistant coach on January 29, 2004 and moved to full-time coaching the following year. He recorded six assists and 134 penalty minutes in 33 regular season games for the Phantoms during the 2003-04 season, his 18th and final professional season.
