PITTSBURGH PENGUINS 2008 STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS:

The 2007-08 regular season credentials will not be valid for the 2008 playoffs. Credential requests for all rounds prior to the Stanley Cup Finals, must be submitted to the Penguins Media Relations Department and will be distributed before the first home game of the first round.

Game-by-game credentials will be issued and should be reserved as early as possible. Major daily newspapers, radio and television will receive priority in handling game-by-game requests. These requests must be submitted to Jennifer Bullano or Brian Werger no later than 24 hours prior to the game. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS. Game-by-game credentials can be picked up at Gate 3 at Mellon Arena two hours prior to game time.

The NHL handles all credentials for the Stanley Cup Finals. All members of the media must apply to the NHL for Stanley Cup Finals credentials. Applications are available in the media relations office and must be received by the date determined by the league.

Only working members of the media will be admitted to the locker rooms. The Penguins require all members of the media to display credentials at all times at practice sessions and games.

PRESS BOX:

The press box is located on the west side of the building above section D-24. Elevators to the press box are located inside Gate 3 near the press lounge. Please note that ALL seats in the press box are assigned and media must sit in the seat assigned. Due to limited seating, overflow media will be assigned seats in the auxiliary seating areas in the north end and east side of the building when necessary.

PHOTOGRAPHERS:

Only outlets that have covered the team on a regular basis throughout the regular season and have applied for playoff credentials will be assigned shooting locations in the runways and Igloo seating. Ice-level positions will be available on a game-by-game basis for each period. Photographers at ice-level will be shooting through the glass. Photo assignments will be posted in the press lounge and the media workroom prior to each game.

TELEVISION CREWS:

Due to seating limitations, television crews will not be assigned press box seating. On-air talent will be assigned one seat per station in either the auxiliary press section or, space permitting, in the press box. Television crews are asked to view the game in the press lounge or media workroom. TV crews are not permitted to shoot highlight footage of game action.

PRESS LOUNGE:

The press lounge is located on the lower level near Gate 3. Members of the media and game night staff must show passes or credentials at the door for admittance. The press lounge will be open two hours prior to game time with dinner and beverages available for purchase. The press lounge is equipped with wireless Internet, telephones and electrical outlets and is available to media during and after the game for filing purposes.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS:

The Penguins locker room will open no later than five minutes after the conclusion of the game per NHL regulations. The Penguins training room and the players' dressing area is off-limits to the media at all times. Entrance to the Penguins locker room is through the side door at Gate 2. ONLY working members of the media with appropriate credentials will be admitted.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES:

Post-game briefings with both Penguins head coach Michel Therrien and the visiting head coach will be held after each game in the media workroom. The workroom is located between the locker rooms, near the elevators to the press box. Wireless Internet, a mult box and a television will be available in the media workroom. Post-game quote sheets for both head coaches will be available after the game in the press lounge, media workroom and press box.

SERVICES:

Game notes and statistics will be available in the press lounge, media workroom and press box prior to the game. Additional information from the NHL and press releases will also be available at these locations throughout the playoffs.

Game summaries are available after each period in the press box and auxiliary press box seating areas. Final game summaries are distributed in the press box, press lounge, media workroom and both the home and away locker rooms after the game. Out-of-town scores will be distributed throughout the game. If you require any special needs, please see a member of the Penguins' media relations staff.

PRACTICES AND MORNING SKATES:

Practice sessions are open to all members of the media. Please confirm location and time with the Penguins' media relations office as last minutes changes may occur. Credentials are required at practices.

2008 STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS FORMAT

The National Hockey League's 30 clubs are aligned into two conferences each consisting of three divisions (Eastern Conference: Atlantic, Northeast, Southeast; Western Conference: Central, Northwest, Pacific). The number of teams qualifying for the 2007 Stanley Cup Playoffs is 16.

First-round playoff berths will be awarded to the first-place team in each division, as well as to the next five-best teams (based on regular-season point totals in each conference). The three division winners in each conference will be seeded first through third for the playoffs and the next five-best teams (in order of points) will be seeded fourth through eighth. In each conference, the team seeded No. 1 will play the team seeded No. 8; No. 2 vs. No. 7; No. 3 vs. No. 6; No. 4 vs. No. 5 in the quarterfinal round. Home-ice in the quarterfinals is granted to those teams seeded first through fourth in each conference.

Teams will be re-seeded based on regular-season points at the start of the Conference Semifinals and Conference Finals. Home-ice advantage for the Stanley Cup championship series will be determined by points.

All series remain best-of-seven competitions.

Conference Quarterfinals (Series A-H)

The six regular season division champions are ranked in the first three positions in their respective conference, the club with the greater number of points being ranked first. The remaining five playoff clubs in each conference will be ranked based on regular-season points.

EASTERN CONFERENCE

Series A: No. 1 Montreal vs. No. 8 Boston
Series B: No. 2 Pittsburgh vs. No. 7 Ottawa
Series C: No. 3 Washington vs. No. 6 Philadelphia
Series D: No. 4 New Jersey vs. No. 5 New York Rangers

WESTERN CONFERENCE

Series E: No. 1 Detroit vs. No. 8 Nashville
Series F: No. 2 San Jose vs. No. 7 Calgary
Series G: No. 3 Minnesota vs. No. 6 Colorado
Series H: No. 4 Anaheim vs. No. 5 Dallas

Conference Semifinals (Series I-L)

For the Conference Semifinals, the teams will be re-seeded based on the same criteria used in the Conference Quarterfinals (Division winners, followed by remaining clubs based on regular-season points). The following are possible scenarios:

If one or two division winners are eliminated in the Conference Quarterfinals:

The remaining division winner(s) would be seeded first (and second if two division winners remain), followed by the remaining teams in order of regular-season points. The No. 1 seed would face the team with the fewest regular-season points, while the second and third teams would meet.

If all three division winners are eliminated in the Conference Quarterfinals:

The remaining four teams would be ranked based on regular-season points. The No. 1 seed would face the No. 4 seed, while the No. 2 and No. 3 teams would meet.

If Conference Quarterfinals end early:

The start dates for the Conference Semifinals may be moved up depending on a number of factors, including building availability and travel schedules.

Conference Finals (Series M and N)

The same criteria used in selection of order for the Conference Quarterfinals (Division winners, followed by remaining clubs based on regular-season points) will again be in effect. The following are possible scenarios:

If a division winner meets a non-division winner with more regular-season points:

The division winner would have home ice advantage.

If the Conference Semifinal series end early:

The start dates for the Conference Finals may be moved up depending on a number of factors, including building availability and travel schedules.

Stanley Cup (Series O)

The Eastern Conference champion and the Western Conference champion will meet in the Stanley Cup Finals series. Home ice will be determined by the higher number of regular season points, subject to the tie-breaking procedures outlined below. Games will be played on a 2-2-1-1-1 basis.

Tie-Breaking Procedure

In the event that two or more teams are tied in points at the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each conference will be determined in the following order:

The greater number of games won by the club.

The higher number of points earned in games against each other. If two teams are tied, and have not played an equal number of home games against each other, points earned in the first game played in the city that had the extra game shall not be included. If more than two teams are tied, the higher winning percentage of available points earned in games among those teams shall be used to determine the standing.

The greater differential between goals scored for and against for the entire regular season.

In his second full season behind the Penguins' bench, Michel Therrien guided the team to its first division title in 10 years.

Following last season's 105-point finish and playoff berth, Therrien wanted the Penguins to earn another spot in the postseason this year. They achieved that goal, but soared to the Atlantic Division title with 102 points despite spending most of the season without some of their top players. Captain Sidney Crosby and goaltender Marc-Andre both missed 28 games with high ankle sprains, while Gary Roberts missed nearly four months with a broken leg and high ankle sprain. In addition, defenseman Mark Eaton suffered a season-ending injury after appearing in only 36 games.

Nevertheless, the Penguins won the franchise's sixth division title and first-ever in the Atlantic Division. The last division crown came in the Northeast Division in 1997-98.

A finalist for the 2007 Jack Adams Trophy as NHL Coach of the Year, Therrien guided the Penguins to a 45-point improvement last season as the Penguins fell just short in the Atlantic Division race.

Therrien was named head coach of the Pittsburgh Penguins on Dec. 15, 2005, following a strong two-and-a-half year stint as head coach of the club's AHL affiliate in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton. He led the Baby Penguins to the AHL finals in 2003-04, and his 2005-06 team was off to a remarkable 21-1-2-1 start, including a league-record 15 straight wins, when he was summoned to Pittsburgh as a mid-season replacement for coach Eddie Olczyk.

andre savard - assistant coach

Andre Savard helped the Penguins capture their first Atlantic Division championship in his second season on Michel Therrien's staff as an assistant coach.

His primary responsibilities include working with the Penguins' defensemen. In 2007-08, the Penguins' defensive unit continued its improvement from the previous season as the Penguins allowed fewer goals than in 2006-07. It marks the second-straight season the team has allowed fewer goals against than in the previous campaign. Savard also helped in the development of young Penguins defensemen such as Ryan Whitney, Rob Scuderi, Brooks Orpik and Kris Letang.

Prior to joining coach Therrien's staff as an assistant on July 3, 2006, Savard spent the previous three seasons as the assistant general manager of the Montreal Canadiens.

He also served as the general manager of the Hamilton Bulldogs, the Canadiens' affiliate team in the American Hockey League. Savard was the Montreal general manager from Nov. 20, 2000, to the end of the 2002-2003 season. In his first complete season as general manager in 2001-2002, the team reached the second round of the playoffs for the first time since 1997-1998. Savard originally joined the Canadiens as director of hockey personnel on July 14, 2000.

mike yeo - assistant coach

Mike Yeo helped guide the Penguins to the Atlantic Division title in 2008.

He joined head coach Michel Therrien in Pittsburgh on Dec. 15, 2005. Together, the two helped lay the groundwork for this season's success, in which the Penguins produced their second-straight season with 100 or more points.

Yeo's primary responsibilities include working with the Penguins' special teams. The Penguins' power play remained one of the NHL's best in 2007-08. Meanwhile, the penalty-kill unit improved substantially throughout the season, especially in the second half of the year.

Yeo served as an assistant coach with the Penguins' top minor-league affiliate in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton for nearly six years. He was named the first assistant coach in team history on Jan. 24, 2000, after announcing his retirement as a player.

In 2005-06, Yeo helped guide the Baby Penguins to their most-successful start. The Baby Penguins opened with a 21-1-2-1 record and 45 points in their first 25 American Hockey League games. Wilkes-Barre/Scranton won its first nine games of the season and did not lose a game in regulation until its 24th game. The Baby Penguins also established an AHL road winning streak of 15 games, dating back to April 10 of 2004-05

gilles meloche - goaltending coach

In his second season as the Penguins' goaltending coach, Gilles Meloche has helped in the development of Marc-Andre Fleury, while Ty Conklin and Dany Sabourin both enjoyed success between the pipes in Pittsburgh.

He re-joined the coaching staff in 2006-07 mentoring the goaltenders and his impact was huge.

Under Meloche's tutelage, Fleury built off a 40-win season in 2006-07 with another strong campaign. Despite missing 28 games with a high ankle injury, Fleury returned to the lineup and was solid in the final stretch of the season as the Penguins stormed to the Atlantic Division title.

Likewise, Conklin thrived once he was called up to Pittsburgh and his steady goaltending kept the Penguins atop the Atlantic Division standings despite a rash of injuries to key personnel.

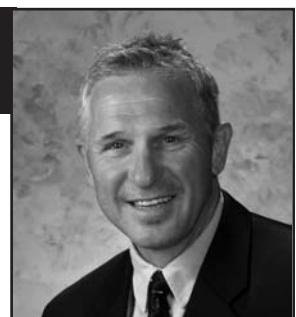

Sabourin also found success in Pittsburgh as he posted 10 wins while serving in a backup role for the Penguins.

Meloche served as the Penguins' goaltending coach from 1989-2004 and has served as an amateur scout for the Penguins for 17 years after joining the Penguins' management team in Dec. 1989. Meloche served in the dual role on both Penguins' Stanley Cup champion teams in 1991 and 1992.

Meloche coaches and evaluates the goaltenders both in Pittsburgh and with the Penguins' American Hockey League affiliate in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton.

A native of Montreal, Quebec, Meloche spent 18 seasons as an NHL goaltender with the Chicago Blackhawks, California Golden Seals, Cleveland Barons and Minnesota North Stars before playing his final three seasons with the Penguins after the team acquired Meloche in a 1985 trade.

He appeared in 788 NHL games during his career, posting a record of 270-351-131, with a 3.64 goals-against average. In 45 career playoff games, he posted a 21-19 record and a 3.48 goals-against average.

The Penguins are 94-52-18 over the past two seasons under Michel Therrien. The 2007 Jack Adams Award finalist has led the club to two straight playoff berths. The 4-2 win vs. the Capitals on March 9th was the 100th coaching victory for Therrien with the Penguins.

LARAQUE CONTINUES TO GIVE

The Pittsburgh Penguins have nominated Georges Laraque for the 2007-08 NHL Foundation Player Award, in recognition of Laraque's exceptional commitment to the community and devotion to charitable projects. The award is presented annually to the NHL player "who applies the core values of hockey – commitment, perseverance and teamwork – to enrich the lives of people in his community." In addition to taking a lead role in all of the Penguins' charitable and community events, Laraque also has developed a unique working relationship with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Western Pennsylvania and has been involved in the Hockey in the Hood inner-city hockey program, among other projects.

PENGUINS SELL OUT ENTIRE SEASON - SELLOUT STREAK AT 54 STRAIGHT

Dating back to last season, the Penguins have sold out 54 straight regular season games at Mellon Arena, which is a club record. The Penguins originally set the record of 30 by selling out the final 28 games of the 1988-89 season and the first two of the 1989-90 season. The club has sold out all 41 of its home games in 2007-08, drawing 700,137 fans for an average crowd of 17,076 (seating capacity: 16,940). The 41 sellouts this year is the first time the Penguins have sold out every home game in an entire season, breaking the mark of 34 set during both the 1988-89 and 1989-90 seasons. The waiting list for Penguins season tickets has reached over 1,300.

March 16 – When Tyler Kennedy scored his 10th goal of the season, it gave the Penguins 11 players who have scored 10-or-more goals this season.

March 22 – Evgeni Malkin became the 12th player in Penguins history to record 100 points in a season with two goals and an assist against New Jersey. He joins Pierre Larouche, Jean Pronovost, Mario Lemieux, Paul Coffey, Rob Brown, Mark Recchi, Kevin Stevens, Rick Tocchet, Ron Francis, Jaromir Jagr and Sidney Crosby as the only Penguins in the 100-point club.

March 25 – The Penguins won their 21st road game of the season with a 2-0 win at New Jersey. That is tied for the second-most road victories in a season in Penguins history: 1992-93 (24), 2006-07 (21).

March 30 – Malkin tallied his 46th goal of the season, which was also his 30th on home ice. Only five other Penguins have reached 30 goals at home in a season: Mario Lemieux (four times), Kevin Stevens, Jaromir Jagr, Mike Bullard and Rick Kehoe.

March 31 – The Penguins reached the 100-point mark in standings for the fifth time in club history. They have recorded 100 points in consecutive seasons for the second time in team history (1992-93, 1993-94).

April 2 – With a 4-2 home win over the Flyers, the Penguins clinched their first division title since the 1997-98 season and sixth division title in club history. It was their first-ever Atlantic Division title.
