CONSOL ENERGY CENTER

CONSOL ENERGY CENTER

CONSOL (kun-S AHL) Energy Center opened in August, 2010 as Pittsburgh's new multi-purpose entertainment venue — home of the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins as well as other professional and collegiate sports, concerts, children's shows, skating shows and more.

It replaced the old Civic Arena/Mellon Arena, which had operated since 1961 and was home of the Penguins from their inception in 1967. It was the oldest arena in the National Hockey League.

"CONSOL Energy Center represents an exciting new era for the city, the region and the Pittsburgh Penguins, and in its first three seasons this new arena has been everything we hoped for — and more," said David Morehouse, CEO and President of the Penguins. "It has realized its promise very early by attracting national-level events to Pittsburgh that simply wouldn't have come to our old facility. We're proud that it has become such an important community asset."

Music legend Paul McCartney, who first played Pittsburgh with the Beatles in 1964 but hadn't performed in the city since 1990, christened the new arena with a grand opening concert on August 18, 2010.

In the past two years, CONSOL Energy Center has hosted the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament Second and Third rounds (2012), the NHL Draft (2012) and the NCAA Frozen Four (2013).

The USA Gymnastics Championships will be a featured national attraction in the summer of 2014, while the NCAA Men's Basketball Second and Third Rounds will return in 2015.

The arena seats 18,387 for hockey, more than 19,000 for basketball and almost 20,000 for concerts. It is a green building and is the first NHL arena to attain LEED Gold certification.

CONSOL Energy Center hosts the annual "City Game" between NCAA basketball rivals Pitt and Duquesne as well as the annual "Three Rivers Classic" hockey tournament, featuring Robert Morris and Penn State. It also is home to the Pittsburgh Power of the Arena Football League.

A funding plan for the new arena project was completed in March, 2007, thanks to the combined efforts of Pennsylvania

Governor Ed Rendell, Allegheny County Executive Dan Onorato and Pittsburgh Mayor Luke Ravenstahl, among others.

CONSOL Energy Center was completed on time and under budget, thanks to architectural firms Populous and Astorino; the owner's representative, ICON; the construction company, PJ Dick/Hunt; and the excellent construction workers and skilled trade workers of Western Pennsylvania.

The Sports & Exhibition Authority owns the building on behalf of the city and county, and the Penguins have the lease. Under a new management agreement signed in August, 2012, the arena is now managed by AEG Facilities.

LE MAGNIFIQUE

Le Magnifique THE STATUE

Penguins Hall of Fame owner Mario Lemieux addressed the crowd during the 'Le Magnifique' statue dedication on March 7, 2012.

The singular image of Mario Lemieux's greatness as a hockey player is Lemieux bursting through two defensemen en route to the goal – brilliant, determined, unstoppable. As captured in this unique sculpture, the image also is a metaphor for everything Lemieux has accomplished in his life and career, overcoming obstacles, turning back challenges, facing seemingly insurmountable odds yet somehow succeeding through talent, dedication and sheer will. After beating cancer, Lemieux turned his focus to raising money for cancer research and neo-natal research, and his efforts through the Mario Lemieux Foundation have had a far-ranging impact on our community, especially our children. Having bought the Pittsburgh Penguins out of bankruptcy, he also led the effort to turn them into a model franchise – worthy of championships but also of the No. 1 ranking in Fan Relations in all of professional sports. His relentless quest for a new arena for Pittsburgh resulted in the spectacular CONSOL Energy Center, the region's new multi-purpose entertainment center and soon to be a magnet for 21st century development.

Quick Facts THE STATUE

- The statue is made of bronze.
- It is 10.25' high x 13' long x 10' wide.
- It weighs 4,700 pounds.
- It took 15 months to design and construct.
- Each figure was sculpted separately and then assembled.
- It was transported across the country from California to Pittsburgh in February on a large drop bed truck. The trip took six days.

TEAM INFORMATION

MARIO LEMIEUX

CO-OWNER/CHAIRMAN

Mario Lemieux, one of the most respected figures in National Hockey League history, is in his 15th season as co-owner and chairman of the board of the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Under the leadership of Lemieux and co-owner Ron Burkle, the Penguins have become one of the premier franchises in the NHL and in all of sports, leading the way in fan relations, youth marketing, community outreach and innovative technology while consistently putting a winning product on the ice – including seven straight playoff appearances, three conference finals appearances in the past six years and a Stanley Cup championship in 2009.

The Penguins entered the 2013-14 season having sold out 286 straight games while setting new standards for local television ratings, merchandise sales, website traffic and social media.

Lemieux and Burkle were driving forces in the quest for a new multi-purpose arena for Pittsburgh and were proud to open CONSOL Energy Center in August, 2010. The facility is rated one of the top facilities in North America and hosted such national events as the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament Second and Third Rounds, the 2012 NHL Draft and the 2013 NCAA Frozen Four.

Known as "Le Magnifique," Lemieux was one of the greatest players in NHL history from 1984-97 and 2000-06, winning six league scoring titles, three MVP awards and two Conn Smythe Trophies in addition to two Stanley Cups.

A gifted 6-foot-4 centerman, he dominated play for parts of three decades despite a relentless series of medical setbacks, including multiple back surgeries and a battle with Hodgkin's disease. He retired in 2006 as the No. 7 all-time scorer in NHL history with 1,723 points. He also ranked eighth all-time in goals (690) and 10th in assists (1,033).

After retiring as a player in 1997, he put together an ownership group to buy the Penguins out of bankruptcy in September, 1999 and then returned to the ice on Dec. 27, 2000 – becoming the first player-owner of the modern era.

In addition to his legendary hockey accomplishments, he continues to oversee the Mario Lemieux Foundation for cancer research and neo-natal research and hosts its annual celebrity golf tournament, which has raised more than $9 million for charity. More information is available at mariolemieux.org.

The Penguins ownership group, local labor organizations and members of the Pittsburgh business community honored Lemieux in 2012 with a statue to commemorate his career and contributions to the city and the region. Appropriately named "Le Magnifique," the statue, by nationally-acclaimed sculptor Bruce Wolfe, can be seen outside the Trib Total Media gate at CONSOL Energy Center.

Mario and his wife, Nathalie, and their four children live in Sewickley.

RON BURKLE

CO-OWNER

Ron Burkle, one of the preeminent investors in retail, manufacturing and distribution industries, is in his 15th season as co-owner of the Penguins.

He teamed with Mario Lemieux to buy the team out of bankruptcy in September, 1999, and together they have become one of the outstanding ownership tandems in professional sports.

Among Burkle's many significant contributions to the Penguins was his essential role in negotiations for a new arena. CONSOL Energy Center is considered one of the finest indoor facilities in North America and has attracted many national-level events to Pittsburgh.

Under the leadership of Lemieux and Burkle, the Penguins have sold out every game for six-plus seasons and consistently rank among the most fan-friendly and community-minded teams in the NHL and all of pro sports.

The Penguins reached back-to-back Stanley Cup Finals in 2008 and 2009 and won the Cup in '09. The team's solid foundation of ownership has enabled hockey management to spend to the salary cap, sign many of the team's young core players to long-term contracts and put a competitive team on the ice year after year – leading to seven straight playoff berths, and three appearances in the conference finals in the past six years.

Burkle founded the Yucaipa Companies in 1986 and has served as Chairman of the Board and controlling shareholder of numerous companies, including Alliance Entertainment, Golden State Foods, Dominick's, Fred Meyer, Ralphs and Food4Less.

Ron is Co-Chairman of the Burkle Center for International Relations at UCLA and is broadly involved in the community. He is a trustee of the Carter Center, the National Urban League, Frank Lloyd Wright Conservancy and AIDS Project Los Angeles (APLA). Ron was the Founder and Chairman of the Ralph's/Food4Less Foundation and the Fred Meyer Inc. Foundation. He was a member of the board of Occidental Petroleum Corporation (NYSE: OXY), KB Home (NYSE: KBH), Kaufman & Broad S.A. (Euronext: KOF), Yahoo! (Nasdaq: YHOO), the J. Paul Getty Trust, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, The Music Center and the Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles.

He has received numerous honors and awards, including the AFL-CIO's Murray Green Meany Kirkland Community Service Award, the Los Angeles County Federation Man of the Year, the Los Angeles County Boy Scouts Jimmy Stewart Person of the Year Award and the APLA Commitment to Life Award.

DAVID MOREHOUSE

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER & PRESIDENT

David Morehouse is Chief Executive Officer and President of the Penguins, overseeing every aspect of the team's operations.

Since Morehouse was named President in April, 2007, the Penguins have reshaped their image and strategic vision with an emphasis on branding, fan relations, youth marketing, community interaction, corporate outreach and innovative technology.

He was given the additional responsibilities of Chief Executive Officer in September, 2010. He reports directly to co-owners Mario Lemieux and Ron Burkle.

Under Morehouse's leadership, the Penguins quickly developed a new commitment to innovative fan outreach – including an annual event where players personally deliver season tickets to fans' homes and a special preseason game where all 18,000 tickets are distributed free to local youth.

An emphasis on branding and marketing, coupled with the team's success on the ice, enabled the Penguins to lead all U.S.-based NHL, NBA and MLB teams in local television ratings during the 2012-13 season. The Penguins' rating of 12.66 was the highest achieved by any U.S.-based NHL, NBA or MLB team on a regional sports network since 2002. Keeping with that trend, the Penguins led all U.S.-based NHL teams in website traffic and Twitter followers while continually setting new standards for merchandise sales.

Youth hockey participation also is on the rise – in part because of the organization's support for efforts such as Sidney Crosby's Little Penguins Learn to Play program, which distributes free head-to-toe hockey equipment, including skates, to 1,000 kids aged 5-7 each year.

The Penguins have sold out every game for six-plus seasons, a streak that had reached 286 games before the start of the 2013-14 season. They also have sold out all suites for five-plus seasons and actually increased capacity at CONSOL Energy Center by 300 seats (to 18,387) after the arena's inaugural season in 2010-11.

The Pittsburgh native joined the Penguins in 2004 as Senior Consultant on the new arena project following a career in national politics that included stints at the White House, Pentagon and on Capitol Hill as well as key roles in two Presidential campaigns.

Morehouse attended the Community College of Allegheny County and Duquesne University and received a master's degree in Public Administration from Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

He and his wife, Vanessa, have four children and live in Sewickley Heights.

TRAVIS WILLIAMS

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Travis Williams is in his third season as Chief Operating Officer of the Penguins, overseeing finance, legal affairs, technology, business development and arena operations while reporting directly to CEO/President David Morehouse.

Williams joined the Penguins in 2008 as Senior Vice President of Business Affairs/General Counsel and oversaw the construction and development of CONSOL Energy Center – bringing the project to completion on time and under budget.

He is the organization's liaison with building manager AEG Facilities and works closely with AEG on all arena-related events and initiatives. In recent years, CONSOL Energy Center has hosted such national events as the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball Second and Third Rounds, the 2012 NHL Draft and the 2013 NCAA Frozen Four. Coming in 2014 will be the U.S. Gymnastics Championships.

Williams also is the Penguins' point man on the development of the former Civic Arena site and the construction of the UPMC Lemieux Sports Complex in Cranberry.

Previously, Williams had been a partner at Reed Smith LLP, where he specialized in mergers and acquisitions, investment management, commercial lending and general corporate matters. During his 12 years at Reed Smith, Williams also represented several sports franchises, regional sports networks and other sports-related businesses.

He graduated from Penn State University and received a Juris Doctorate from Duquesne University, summa cum laude. He lives in Nevillewood with his wife, Nichole, and six children.

RAY SHERO

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Ray Shero has established himself as one of the premiere general managers in the National Hockey League during his tenure with the Penguins.

Shero, 51, was named the 2013 NHL General Manager of the Year after crafting a team that finished with the best record in the Eastern Conference. Prior to the annual trading deadline, Shero made four deals that landed former Dallas captain Brenden Morrow, physical defenseman Douglas Murray, versatile Jussi Jokinen and future Hall of Famer Jarome Iginla.

Shero, an active member with USA Hockey and a member of the USA Hockey National Team Advisory Group, will serve as associate general manager for Team USA at the 2014 Winter Olympics in Sochi, Russia.

Shero, who is in his eighth season as Pittsburgh's GM, has transformed a franchise that missed the playoffs from 2002-06 into a perennial championship contender, including two Stanley Cup Final appearances and a Cup title in 2009.

Shero, who was named general manager of the Penguins in May, 2006, arrived in Pittsburgh with a firm, forward-thinking managerial style that incorporates cutting-edge methods of technology, player relations, prospect development and salary cap management.

Shero's efforts have secured the Penguins' long-term stability and competitiveness with his maneuvering of the salary cap – the Penguins ranked No. 3 out of 122 pro sports franchises in spending efficiency according to Bloomberg Business Week – and multi-year signings of the team's core players: Sidney Crosby; Evgeni Malkin; Marc-Andre Fleury; Chris Kunitz; Kris Letang; Pascal Dupuis; and James Neal.

Shero's riskiest and boldest move paid off with hockey's highest prize. With the Penguins needing a jolt of life late in the 2008-09 season, he promoted Wilkes-Barre/Scranton head coach Dan Bylsma to Pittsburgh. Bylsma led a turnaround that resulted in a championship in '09. Bylsma also won the Jack Adams Award as the NHL's "Most Outstanding Coach" in '11.

Shero cut his administrative teeth during 14 seasons as an assistant general manager with the Nashville Predators (1998-06) and Ottawa Senators (1993-98).

Shero, a native of St. Paul, Minn., was raised in a hockey family filled with tradition. His father, Hall of Famer Fred Shero, played for the NY Rangers (1947-50) and coached the Philadelphia Flyers for seven seasons. Fred won back-to-back Stanley Cups as head coach of the Flyers in 1974 and '75 and also served as general manager of the Rangers for three years (1978-80), leading the club to the Stanley Cup Final in 1979. In July of 2013, the Hockey Hall of Fame announced Fred's induction.

Fred and Ray Shero are one of the few father-son tandems to have their names on the Cup.

JASON BOTTERILL

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Jason Botterill is in his fifth full season as assistant general manager after being promoted to his current position in May, 2009, by GM Ray Shero.

As assistant GM, Botterill works closely with Shero on all hockey-related matters, including scouting, player development and contract negotiations. He also manages hockey operations and acts as GM for the club's top minor-league affiliate, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton of the American Hockey League.

Prior to his promotion, Botterill, 37, worked two seasons as director of hockey administration with the Penguins; his responsibilities included salary cap management, professional and amateur scouting and overseeing prospect development. His avant-garde approach and understanding of the salary cap has been a major asset for the Penguins.

Before joining the Pittsburgh organization, Botterill worked with NHL Central Registry and also scouted for the Dallas Stars.

Botterill was a first-round draft pick (20th overall) by Dallas in the 1994 NHL Draft and played 88 NHL games over six seasons with Dallas, Atlanta, Calgary and Buffalo. He also played 393 career games in the AHL and IHL, recording 127 goals and 257 points.

Following his playing career, he returned to the University of Michigan to earn his MBA.

DAN BYLSMA

HEAD COACH

Dan Bylsma is already one of the most successful coaches in Penguins' history, leading the team to a Stanley Cup championship, winning the Jack Adams Award as the NHL's "Most Outstanding Coach," and an Atlantic Division title in just four-plus seasons behind the bench.

The Grand Haven, Mich. native will realize one of his life-long dreams by representing his country at the 2014 Winter Olympics Games in Sochi, Russia as head coach of Team USA.

Bylsma (pronounced BYLE-zmuh) has led the Penguins to three 100-point seasons and five consecutive playoff berths, while becoming the winningest playoff coach in team history with 36 postseason victories and seven playoff series victories.

Bylsma has the best regular-season winning percentage (.669) in team history with an all-time record of 201-93-25. His 201 wins are the second most in team history (Eddie Johnston, 232). He became the fastest coach in NHL history to reach 200 wins (316 games) in a 3-1 victory at Ottawa April 22, 2013.

Bylsma, who is signed through the 2015-16 season, led the Penguins to their first division title since 2008 and the No. 1 seed in the Eastern Conference with a 36-12 record in 2012-13, highlighted by a 15-game winning streak that tied the second-longest in NHL history (NY Islanders, 1981-82). The Penguins boasted the NHL's No. 1 ranked offense (averaging 3.38 goals per game) and had the second-deadliest power play (24.7-percent success rate). Bylsma finished 6th in coach of the year voting.

Bylsma, 42, finished the 2011-12 season with a 51-25-6 record for 108 points. The team's 51 wins and 108 points are the second-highest in franchise history. For his work, Bylsma was named co-recipient of the Dapper Dan Sportsman of the Year Award (Marc-Andre Fleury). He also became the fourth-fastest coach in NHL history to reach 150 wins (251 games) on Feb. 26, 2012 vs. Columbus.

Bylsma earned the 2011 Jack Adams Award after masterfully steering an injury-depleted Penguins team to a 49-25-8 record for 106 points (third-most wins and points in franchise history) and the same point total as Atlantic Division-winning Philadelphia despite suffering 350 man-games lost – including 119 games to the team's three best players: Sidney Crosby (41 games); Evgeni Malkin (39); and Jordan Staal (39).

In 2008-09, Bylsma penned one of the most remarkable starts to a head coaching career in NHL history. He began the season in his first head coaching job, with Wilkes-Barre/Scranton of the American Hockey League, and finished the year by raising the Stanley Cup.

Bylsma was promoted to Pittsburgh Feb. 15, 2009 to help save a team that was 10th overall in the Eastern Conference standings with diminishing hopes of earning a postseason berth. With an injection of attitude and aggressiveness, Bylsma inspired an 18-3-4 run in the final 25 games to climb from 10th to fourth place and home-ice advantage in the opening round.

Bylsma oversaw one of the most dramatic playoff runs in NHL history. The Penguins clinched all four series on the road, twice rallying from 2-0 series deficits (against Washington and Detroit). Pittsburgh beat the defending champion Red Wings four times in the last five games to claim the Cup, including a 2-1 Game 7 victory in Detroit.

Bylsma became the 14th rookie head coach, and just the fourth in the past 50 years, to capture the Stanley Cup. Of those 14, only Montreal's Al MacNeil took over mid-season (1970-71).

During his coaching career Bylsma has led the Penguins on a 15-game winning streak (tied for second best in NHL and club history), 12-game winning streak (tied for third best in club history), an 11-game winning streak (fourth longest in team history), a 12-game home winning streak (best in franchise history), a 10-game home winning streak (tied for third longest in franchise history), a 15-game unbeaten streak and a seven-game road winning streak (tying team record).

Bylsma played nine NHL seasons with Los Angeles and Anaheim from 1995-04. He appeared in 429 regular-season games, recording 19 goals and 62 points. He was a member of Anaheim's 2003 Western Conference championship team.

He began his coaching career as an assistant with the Cincinnati Mighty Ducks of the AHL in 2004-05. Bylsma was an assistant coach with the New York Islanders the following season.

Bylsma joined the Penguins organization as assistant coach with Wilkes-Barre/Scranton in 2006. Two seasons later he was promoted to WBS head coach in 2008-09. He led the team to a 35-16-1-2 record in 54 games before being promoted to Pittsburgh.

Bylsma played four seasons of college hockey at Bowling Green (Central Collegiate Hockey Association).

Dan and his wife, Mary Beth, have one son, Bryan, and reside in the North Hills.

Tony Granato is in his fifth season on the Penguins coaching staff.

Granato will also serve as assistant coach under head coach Dan Bylsma for Team USA at the 2014 Winter Olympic Games in Sochi, Russia.

Granato, among his responsibilities with the Penguins, works with the team's forwards and penalty killing units. He oversaw the NHL's No. 1-ranked penalty killing unit (86.1 percent) in 2010-11 - the best mark in team history. During the 2013 playoffs, the PK posted a franchise-best 92.3-percent success rate.

Prior to joining the Penguins, Granato spent six seasons with the Colorado Avalanche and served two stints as Avalanche head coach (2002-04 and 2008-09). Granato compiled a 104-78-17-16 record and led Colorado to a Northwest Division title in 2003.

Granato, 48, joined the Avalanche organization in June, 2002, as an assistant coach. He was elevated to head coach Dec. 18, 2002 and led the club to a 32-11-4-4 mark en route to its ninth consecutive division title. The following season Granato steered the club to a 40-22-13-7 finish and Western Conference semifinals appearance.

The Downers Grove, Illinois native served as an assistant coach for the Avalanche from 2005-08. He was promoted to a second tenure as head coach in 2008 and oversaw the development of a young Colorado team.

Granato played 13 NHL seasons with NY Rangers (1988-90), Los Angeles (90-96) and San Jose (96-01). In 1997, he played in the NHL All-Star Game and was the recipient of the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy for overcoming a near career-ending brain injury.

In 773 career NHL games, the feisty forward posted 248 goals, 492 points and 1,425 penalty minutes. He tallied 16 goals, 43 points and 141 penalty minutes in 79 career playoff games, and helped lead Los Angeles to a Stanley Cup Final berth in 1993.

Granato played four seasons at the University of Wisconsin and was inducted into the Badgers' Hall of Fame in 2000. He also played for the U.S. National Team in 1987-88 and represented his country in the 1988 Olympic Games in Calgary.

The former NHL defenseman works closely with the team's defensemen and power play, among his responsibilities. Under his guidance, the Penguins' power play has ranked second (24.7-percent success rate, 2012-13) and tied for fifth (19.7, 2011-12) in the NHL.

Reirden has helped develop defenseman Kris Letang into a Norris Trophy contender as best defenseman in the NHL and oversaw a defensive corps that combined for 103 points (20G-83A) in 2012-13.

Reirden, 41, joined the Penguins organization August 18, 2008 as an assistant coach in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton of the American Hockey League. A few months later, he was promoted to head coach following Dan Bylsma's promotion to Pittsburgh. Reirden guided WBS to a 14-9-3 record in the final 26 games and into the second round of the AHL playoffs. Reirden then joined Pittsburgh's extended playoff coaching staff and helped the team win the Stanley Cup.

In his only full season as head coach in WBS in 2009-10, Reirden led a young and inexperienced team to an impressive 41-34-2-3 mark and a berth in the Calder Cup playoffs.

Prior to joining the Penguins organization, Reirden spent one season as an assistant coach with his alma mater - the Bowling Green Falcons (Central Collegiate Hockey Association). He was a teammate of Bylsma's during the 1990-91 and '91-92 seasons.

Reirden was selected by New Jersey in the 12th round (242nd overall) of the 1990 NHL Draft. He played 13 professional seasons, retiring in 2007 with Graz EC of the Austrian Hockey League. He appeared in 183 NHL games with Edmonton, St. Louis, Atlanta and Phoenix. He recorded 46 points (11G-35A) and 181 PIM in his NHL career.

Hynes, 38, recorded his 100th win on April 6 versus Hershey, doing so in just 152 games, becoming the fastest in Wilkes-Barre/Scranton history to accomplish this feat and second-fastest ever in the AHL.

Hynes led the Penguins to one of the most dramatic comebacks in AHL history during the 2013 playoffs. Trailing 3-0 in the series to the Providence Bruins, WBS ran off four-straight victories to win the series in seven games and advance to the East Final. The Penguins became just the third team in AHL history to overcome a 3-0 deficit and win a series. During the '12-13 regular season, Hynes' squad allowed the fewest goals (178) in the AHL - the second time the team has done so in his three years behind the bench.

Hynes enjoyed a remarkable first season as head coach in 2010-11. Despite playing with a depleted lineup due to call-ups to Pittsburgh, which suffered 350 man-games lost, Hynes coached WBS to an impressive 58-21-0-1 record, leading the franchise to its first-ever Macgregor Kilpatrick Trophy as AHL regular-season champions and also claiming the Frank Mathers Trophy as East Division regular-season champions. Wilkes-Barre/Scranton's 58 wins are the second most in AHL history. For his efforts, Hynes was named as a co-coach for the Western Conference All-Star Squad at the 2011 AHL All-Star Classic in Hershey, PA and won the Louis A.R. Pieri Award as the AHL's Outstanding Coach.

Hynes served as an assistant coach in WBS in 2009-10, his first year with the Penguins organization, working under current Pittsburgh assistant coach Todd Reirden and helping the team to the postseason.

Prior to joining WBS, Hynes spent six seasons as a head coach with USA Hockey's National Development Team Program, posting an overall record of 216-113-19-9. In 2007, he was a finalist for the U.S. Olympic Committee Development Coach of the Year.

That year he coached a defensive group that allowed the fewest goals (183) in the AHL.

Nasreddine, who was originally drafted by Florida in the sixth round (135th overall) of the 1993 NHL Draft, played for four NHL teams in his career — Chicago, Montreal, NY Islanders and Pittsburgh — and posted five points (1G-4A) and 84 penalty minutes in 74 games.

The Montreal, Quebec native also saw action in 850 combined games with Carolina, Portland, Fredericton, Quebec, Hamilton and Bridgeport of the AHL and Indianapolis of the International Hockey League. He played his last two seasons with Nuremberg of the German Elite League.

UNIFORM HISTORY

Ken Schinkel (1970)

Syl Apps (1974)

Randy Carlyle (1983)

The Penguins have experienced plenty of changes in their history and their uniforms are no exception.

When the Penguins made their NHL debut at home on October 11, 1967, the team wore the colors light blue, dark blue and white. Both the home (light blue) and road (white) uniforms simply had the word "PITTSBURGH" written diagonally down the front of the sweater with five white stripes with six thin navy blue stripes around the sleeves and bottom (home) and five dark blue stripes with six thin, white stripes around the sleeves and bottom (road). The logo, although not on the sweater, featured a hockey-playing penguin in a scarf over an inverted triangle, symbolizing the golden triangle of downtown Pittsburgh. The penguin and triangle were set inside a circle bearing the team name.

The following season (1968-69), the uniforms were changed so that the logo appeared on the game sweaters. The logo remained essentially the same, although the penguin was no longer wearing a scarf. The home (light blue) uniforms had a wide band of white trimmed in dark blue around each sleeve and the bottom, while the road (white) sweaters had bands of light blue trimmed in dark blue. The home (light blue) sweaters had white shoulder yokes and the road (white) sweaters had light blue shoulder yokes.

In the 1970-71 season the Penguins began wearing white at home and light blue on the road. The Penguins became one of the first teams in NHL history to wear nameplates featuring a player's last name above the number on the back of the jersey. The nameplates were only added to the home (white) jerseys in 1970-71.

The uniforms themselves were essentially unchanged from 1968-69 to 1971-72, until the circle around the logo was removed, leaving only a penguin and a triangle, midway through the 1971-72 season.

Beginning in 1972-73, the Penguins replaced the light blue with a bolder, royal blue color. During the Penguins' first seven years in the league, both home and road jerseys featured a lace-up collar at the base of the neck. The lace-up collars were also a thing of the past moving into the 1974-75 season.

Chevrons were used as the sleeves stripes for the 1974-75 season. Shaped in the form of an inverted V, the sleeve stripes were royal blue and white with navy blue cuffs on the home (white) jerseys. The road (royal blue) jerseys had white and navy blue sleeve stripes with white cuffs forming the chevrons. The waist striping also changed to match the chevrons with royal blue, white and navy blue moving down the home (white) uniforms and white, navy blue and white moving down the road (royal blue) uniforms.

The chevrons road (royal blue) uniform was done to the hem striping. From top to bottom, the hem striping was white, royal blue and navy blue. The home (white) uniforms reverted back to the 1972-73 and 1973-74 designs, but did not have the lace-up collar from those prior seasons. The collar was now a solid navy blue color.

For the 1977-78 season the uniforms were tri-colored with the Penguins doing away with the royal blue and bringing back the light blue the team wore in its first five seasons in the NHL. The home (white) uniforms featured navy blue sleeves with white and navy blue striping capped by light blue cuffs. The road (navy blue) uniforms featured white sleeves with light blue and white striping capped by navy blue cuffs. The front hem striping was light blue, white, navy blue and light blue on both the home (white) and road (navy blue) uniforms.

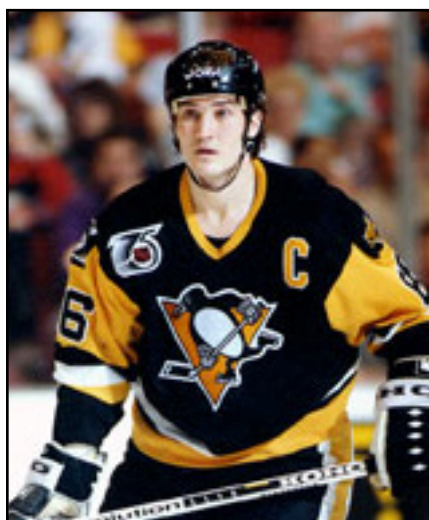

On Jan. 30, 1980 the Penguins wore black and gold for the first time. With the Steelers winning the Super Bowl and the Pirates capturing the World Series title in the same year, the Penguins hoped to gain fan support with aligning their colors with the other teams in the "City of Champions." Boston protested the color change to the NHL, arguing that black and gold had always been exclusively associated with the Bruins. However, the Penguins prevailed by virtue of a precedent set by the Pittsburgh Pirates hockey club of the late 1920s, which sported the colors.

The Penguins' new uniforms were the same design as the previous ones, with black replacing dark blue and gold replacing light blue. A third sleeve stripe was also added to both the home and road jerseys. The player numbers that were formerly on the sleeves were moved to the top of each shoulder. From 1980-81 through the 1984-85 season, the team alternated wearing gold sweaters with white at home, which also featured the tri-color sleeve striping.

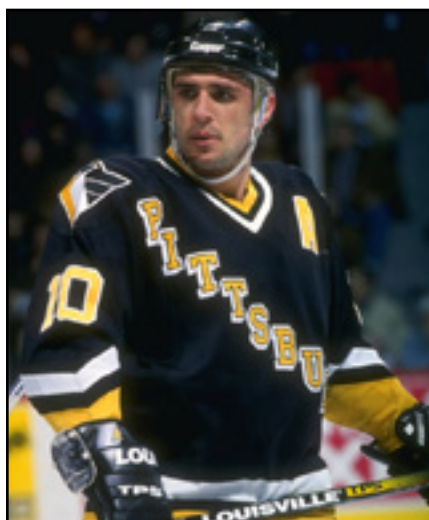

On March 15, 1983, Baz Bastien, the Penguins general manager at the time, died tragically in a car accident as he returned home from a dinner honoring him. For the remainder of the 1982-83 season the Penguins added a black armband on the left sleeve

Paul Coffey (1988)

Mario Lemieux (1992)

For the 1988-89 season, the player numbers were moved from the shoulders to the sleeves as they were prior to the Penguins adopting the black and gold color scheme.

The NHL All-Star Game made its first appearance in Pittsburgh on January 21, 1990. The Penguins wore a 41st NHL All-Star patch on the left shoulder of their jerseys in 1989-90 and the beginning of 1990-91. During the same time frame, the NHL shield logo appeared on the back right hem of every jersey worn in the NHL.

Advancing to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time in team history, the Penguins honored this achievement by wearing the 1991 Stanley Cup Final patch on their home and road jerseys during every game of the 1991 Stanley Cup Final vs. Minnesota.

The 1991-92 season marked the NHL's 75th anniversary. The Penguins added the NHL 75th Anniversary logo to the right chest of their jerseys that season. In addition, the Penguins were also celebrating their 25th anniversary after joining the league in 1967-68. The Penguins added their own anniversary patch to the right shoulder of the jerseys.

Head coach "Badger" Bob Johnson passed away on November 26, 1991. The following night, the Penguins honored the memory of Johnson with a candlelight ceremony and placed a "Badger" memorial patch on the left shoulder of their jerseys.

After reaching the Stanley Cup Final for the second consecutive season, the Penguins proudly donned their second Stanley Cup Final patch in as many years. This time, the Final patch was sewn onto a piece of white (home) or black (road) material and then the material swatch was sewn over the NHL 75th Anniversary patch on the right chest of the jersey.

The black and gold uniforms remained virtually unchanged until 1992-93, when the triangle and penguin logo was modernized. The home (white) sweaters featured the new logo on the front and gold shoulder inserts. The road (black) sweaters had the city's name diagonally down the front, much like the original team uniforms, with the new logo on each shoulder. Also in 1992-93, the Stanley Cup turned 100 years old and was honored by each team by having a commemorative patch added to their jerseys during the season. The Penguins wore the patch on the right chest of their home (white) jerseys and did not wear the patch on their road (black) jerseys due to the lack of an appropriate place to put the patch with the new "PITTSBURGH" diagonal jerseys with the new logos on each shoulder.

During the 1995-96 season, the Penguins were one of five NHL teams to introduce a third jersey. The Penguins' new uniform, which made its debut on Jan. 27, 1996 vs. the Philadelphia Flyers, featured a black background with a new, modernized midsection, shoulder and sleeve design that included innovative striping and a blend of team colors. The alternate uniform replaced the "PITTSBURGH" road jersey as the team's away uniform for 1997-98 season.

In 1999-00, the NHL commemorated the league's advance into the new millennium with an NHL2000 patch that was placed on the right chest of each team's jerseys in team colors. The Penguins' NHL2000 patch was black with silver lettering.

Traveling to Japan for the first two games of the 2000-01 season to face the Nashville Predators, the Penguins wore a commemorative GameOne/Japan patch on the right chest of their home (white) and black (road) jerseys.

On Oct. 28, 2000 the Penguins hosted the New Jersey Devils and introduced a new third jersey. The black sweater featured the popular "skating penguin" logo, which the team wore during its 1991 and 1992 Stanley Cup championship seasons, and the newest color addition, Vegas gold. This black jersey served as the Penguins' third jersey for the 2000-01 and 2001-02 seasons.

In 2002-03, the Penguins introduced a white counterpart to the black "skating penguin" and Vegas gold colored jerseys. These "skating penguin" uniforms served as the Penguins home and road jerseys from 2002-03 to 2006-07.

On Jan. 22, 2007 during the NHL All-Star break, the NHL and Reebok unveiled the new Rbk EDGE Uniform System. The Penguins' jerseys now feature thicker Vegas gold side sections, while the black and white body portions of the jersey go all the way to the bottom hem. The cuffs and underarms are black on the white-based jerseys and are white on the black-based uniforms. Additional Vegas gold inserts appear on the sleeves just below the numbers. The NHL shield also has moved from the back right hem to the base of the front neckline.

The Penguins wore retro jerseys when they battled the Sabres at the NHL Winter Classic on Jan. 1, 2008 at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The Penguins wore powder blue jerseys patterned after the 1968-69 uniforms. The jersey featured the Penguins logo inside a circle. There was a wide band of white trimmed in dark blue around each sleeve and the bottom with white shoulder yokes. The jersey became the club's official alternate third jersey.

Tom Barrasso (1999)

In 2010-11 opened the brand-new CONSOL Energy Center. To commemorate the event, the team wore a special patch at all home games featuring the team logo and outline of the new arena's spine.

The Penguins released a new Winter Classic uniform for their showdown with the Washington Capitals Jan. 1, 2011 at Heinz Field. Predominantly navy blue with light blue striped accents on the elbows and bottom, the jersey served as another alternate uniform for the season. The jerseys featured the team's inaugural skating penguin logo (which hadn't previously been worn on the jersey) on the crest and lace-up collar at the base of the neck.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA-ONLY WEBSITE:

Members of the media are encouraged to visit the media-only website for daily news clippings, stats, game notes, schedule updates and the most up-to-date team information. This website was created as a courtesy to our working media, and is intended to be used by members of the media who are credentialed through the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Please contact Jason Seidling

www.pittsburghpenguins.com/media

MEDIA ENTRANCE:

Members of the media can access CONSOL Energy Center through the administrative entrance located near the corner of Fifth Avenue and Washington Place, just to the right of the American Eagle box office.

Media with proper accreditation should proceed to the 1st floor, using the elevators just inside the administrative entrance. Media will pass through three sets of double doors before turning right down the hallway towards the media areas. The media workroom will be on the left and the elevators to the media level are located further down the hallway to the right.

The Penguins require all members of the media to display credentials at all times inside CONSOL Energy Center.

MEDIA WORKROOM:

The media workroom is located on the lower level in the south end of the building. Members of the media and game night staff must show passes or credentials at the door for admittance. The media room will be open two hours prior to the start of each game with dinner and beverages available for purchase.

The media workroom is equipped with wireless Internet, telephones, electrical outlets and a mult box. The media room is open to the media on all game days.

MEDIA LEVEL:

The media level is located on the east side of the building above sections 216-223. It is for game personnel and working members of the media only. Designated elevators to the media level are located down the hallway from the media room in the south end of the building. Take the elevators to the 7th floor and exit to the right.

Please note that ALL seats in the media level are assigned and media should refer to the posted seating charts for direction.

INDIVIDUAL GAME CREDENTIALS:

Game-by-game credentials will be issued based on availability and should be reserved as early as possible. Major daily newspapers, radio and television will receive priority in handling game-by-game requests. Requests from independent websites, freelance writers or blogs will not be fulfilled. These requests must be submitted to Ali Doyle (adoyle@pittsburghpenguins.com) no later than 48 hours prior to the game. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS.

Game-by-game credentials can be picked up at the designated media entrance located to the right of the box office along Fifth Avenue two hours prior to game time.

PHOTOGRAPHERS:

Penguins team photographers and photographers affiliated with major media outlets that cover the team on a regular basis will be given priority for ice-level positions. All photographers at ice-level will be shooting through open holes in the glass. Single-game photographer credentials will be available on a game-by-game basis and assignments may rotate each period. Photo assignments will be posted in the media workroom and the photographer workroom prior to each game.

The Penguins will provide stools to be used at all ice-level photo positions. The stools will be numbered and available for pick up inside the photographer workroom. All stools must be signed out and returned to the workroom at the end of the night. The Penguins require that all ice-level photographers use the provided stools as a courtesy to our fans.

TELEVISION CREWS:

Due to seating limitations, television crews will not be assigned seating in the media level. Only on-air talent will be assigned seats in the media level. Television crews are asked to view the game in the media workroom. TV crews are not permitted to shoot highlight footage of game action.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS:

The locker rooms are located behind the player benches on the west side of the building on the lower level. Both are accessible via the hallway from the media workroom.

The Penguins locker room will open no later than five minutes after the conclusion of the game per NHL regulations. Please be advised that this includes allotted time for post-game television interviews and the three stars ceremony. The Penguins training room and the players' dressing area is off-limits to the media at all times. The entrance to the Penguins locker room is through the double doors across from Suite 66 on the lower level.

At the conclusion of practice, the locker room will be open as per NHL requirements. Media are not permitted to access the Penguins runway at any time during practices or morning skates.

Only working members of the media with proper media credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. Interns are permitted in the locker room in a working capacity. They are not permitted to observe or "assist" full-time members of the media during availability. Still photography is prohibited inside the locker room.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES:

Post-game briefings with Penguins head coach Dan Bylsma will be held after each game in the media room. Wireless Internet and a mult box will be available in the media room.

Post-game availability with the visiting head coach will be in the hallway near the visiting locker room.

Post-game audio from both coaches is available by accessing the media-only website or via email. Please see a member of the communications staff prior to the start of the game to be added to the distribution list.

SERVICES:

Game notes and statistics will be available online and in the media workroom prior to practices and morning skates as well as the media level on game nights. Additional information from the NHL and media releases will also be available at these locations throughout the regular season.

Game summaries are available after each period in the media level. Final game summaries are distributed in the media level, media workroom and both the home and away locker rooms after the game. Out-of-town scores will be distributed throughout the game in the media level. If you require any special needs, please see a member of the Penguins communications staff.

PRACTICES AND MORNING SKATES:

Practice sessions are open to all accredited members of the media. Please confirm location and time by visiting the media-only website as last minutes changes may occur.

Credentials are required at practices.

ROOT SPORTS BROADCAST TEAM

PAUL STEIGERWALD PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Pittsburgh native Paul Steigerwald is in his eighth season as play-by-play announcer for Penguins telecasts on ROOT SPORTS.

He spent six seasons as the radio voice of the Penguins and the previous 14 seasons as color commentator on Penguins TV and radio broadcasts.

"Staggy," a tireless worker and interviewer, is well-known by coaches and players across the NHL.

Steigerwald developed his interest in hockey as a youngster in the South Hills – in part because his neighbor, former Penguins GM Jack Riley, gave local kids tickets to attend Penguins games.

He attended Kent State University, where he worked as one of the hockey club's broadcasters, and began his professional broadcasting career with the Johnstown Red Wings (EHL) in 1979.

Steigerwald joined the Penguins organization in 1980 as director of marketing and also served as intermission host for radio and television broadcasts. In 1985, he joined the broadcast team as a color commentator. He left the Penguins front office in 1988 for a position in the sports department of KDKA-TV, but still maintained his color commentator duties.

In addition, Steigerwald served as play-by-play broadcaster with the Altoona Curve baseball club during the 2005, '06 and '07 seasons.

BOB ERREY COLOR ANALYST

Bob Errey is in his 10th season on Penguins television broadcasts, where he joins Paul Steigerwald.

Previously, Errey worked as the color commentator for Penguins radio broadcasts alongside Steigerwald for four seasons.

Errey was the Penguins' first-round draft pick in 1983 and played 11 seasons in Pittsburgh, recording 132 goals, 272 points and 651 penalty minutes in 572 games.

A speedy two-way winger and excellent penalty killer, Errey was a key member of team's two Stanley Cup championships in 1991 and '92.

Errey also played for Buffalo, San Jose, Detroit, Dallas and the New York Rangers in a 15-year NHL career. In 895 games, he registered 170 goals, 382 points and 1,005 penalty minutes.

PENGUINS RADIO NETWORK

MIKE LANGE PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

One of the most unique broadcasters in professional sports, Mike Lange is in his 39th year as the voice of the Penguins, handling radio play-by-play on the club's flagship station, 105.9 FM "The X".

Known for his creative and colorful style, including trademark phrases such as "Buy Sam A Drink And Get His Dog One, Too," Lange was awarded the Foster Hewitt award by the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2001.

Lange's relationship with the Penguins began in 1974-75, when he broke into the NHL as a radio play-by-play man. He left for one season, but returned in 1976-77 and has been a fixture on the Penguins' scene ever since.

Lange did radio exclusively until 1979, when games were simulcast on radio and TV. He served as the television voice of the Penguins through 2005-06, before returning to the radio booth in 2006-07.

A native of Sacramento, California, Lange earned a degree in broadcasting from Sacramento State University before starting his career as the voice of the Phoenix Roadrunners (WHL) in 1970. He also served as the play-by-play voice of the San Diego Gulls (WHL) in 1973-74 before joining the Penguins.

In addition to his tenure with the Penguins, Lange handled play-by-play duties for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1986-87. A well-known member of the Pittsburgh community, Lange makes numerous personal appearances throughout the year and is actively involved in charity work.

PHIL BOURQUE COLOR ANALYST

Two-time Stanley Cup champion Phil Bourque is in his 11th season on the Penguins broadcast team, serving as color commentator alongside Mike Lange.

A gritty winger/defenseman, Bourque was signed by Pittsburgh as a free agent in 1982, and went on to record 164 points (75G-89A) in 344 regular-season games with the Penguins between 1983 and 1992. For his career he totaled 199 points (88G-111A) in 477 games with the Penguins, New York Rangers and Ottawa.

Since retiring from professional hockey in 2000, Bourque has co-hosted Penguins pre- and post-game shows on the Penguins Radio Network and worked as a contributor for ROOT SPORTS' coverage of Penguins hockey.
