CONSOL ENERGY CENTER

CONSOL (kun-S AHL) Energy Center opened in August, 2010 as Pittsburgh's new multi-purpose entertainment venue — home of the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins as well as other professional and collegiate sports, concerts, children's shows, skating shows and more.

It replaces the old Civic Arena/Mellon Arena, which had operated since 1961 and was home of the Penguins from their inception in 1967. It was the oldest arena in the National Hockey League.

"CONSOL Energy Center represents an exciting new era for the city, the region and the Pittsburgh Penguins," said David Morehouse, CEO of the hockey team. "With open concourses, comfortable seating, cutting-edge technology, a state-of-the-art scoreboard and sound system, and an extensive array of food and beverage options, it is a spectacular symbol for the Pittsburgh of the 21st century."

CONSOL Energy Center was completed on time and under budget, thanks to the combined efforts of architectural firms Populous and Astorino; the owner's representative, ICON; the construction company, PJ Dick/Hunt; and the excellent construction workers and skilled trade workers of Western Pennsylvania.

The new arena seats 18,087 for hockey, 19,000 for basketball and almost 20,000 for concerts. It is a green building and is the first NHL arena to attain LEED Gold certification.

Even before its doors had opened, CONSOL Energy Center landed commitments from shows that would have bypassed the old arena – the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament first and second rounds, the 2013 NCAA Frozen Four, and back-to-back concerts by music legend Paul McCartney.

McCartney, who first played Pittsburgh with the Beatles in 1964 but hadn't performed here since 1990, christened the new arena with a grand opening concert on August 18, 2010.

In its first season of operation, CONSOL Energy Center also will be home to the Pittsburgh Power of the Arena Football League — bringing indoor football back to the city for the first time in almost 20 years.

A funding plan for the new arena project was completed in March, 2007, thanks to the combined efforts of Pennsylvania Governor Ed Rendell, Allegheny County Executive Dan Onorato and Pittsburgh Mayor Luke Ravenstahl, among others.

The Sports & Exhibition Authority owns the building on behalf of the city and county, and the Penguins have the lease. The new arena is managed by SMG, with Jay Roberts serving as general manager.

MARIO LEMIEUX

CO-OWNER/CHAIRMAN

Mario Lemieux always will be remembered for the magic he created on the ice, but one of the crowning achievements of his remarkable career came this season in his role as a businessman — the opening of CONSOL Energy Center, home of the Penguins and Pittsburgh's new multi-purpose entertainment venue.

The new arena puts the exclamation point on Lemieux's lengthy quest to ensure the Penguins' long-term future in Pittsburgh and provides his adopted hometown with a spectacular state-of-the-art center for professional and collegiate sports, concerts, family shows and other events.

"There were so many people who contributed to this project, including local and state political leaders, local business leaders, NHL officials and, of course, our fans," said Penguins CEO David Morehouse, "but I think it's safe to say that none of this happens without Mario Lemieux."

Even before the reality of CONSOL Energy Center, Lemieux and co-owner Ron Burkle had turned the Penguins into a premier NHL franchise, winning praise for off-ice business accomplishments in addition to creating a positive, player-friendly atmosphere on the hockey side. The Penguins have sold out a team-record 166 straight games, sold out every suite for three straight seasons and established records for local television ratings, merchandise sales and website hits.

Over the summer, the Penguins were named the No. 1 team in professional sports in "Fan Relations" by ESPN The Magazine.

Oh, and they won the Stanley Cup in 2009 — the third Cup of Lemieux's career but his first as an owner.

Lemieux was one of the greatest players in NHL history from 1984-97 and 2000-06, winning six league scoring titles, three MVP trophies and two Conn Smythe Trophies as playoff MVP, in addition to the two Cups.

An immaculately gifted 6-foot-4 centerman, he dominated play for parts of three decades despite a series of medical setbacks, including multiple back surgeries and a battle with Hodgkin's disease. He retired in 2006 as the No. 7 all-time scorer in NHL history with 1,723 points. He also ranked eighth all-time in goals (690) and 10th in assists (1,033).

In addition to his legendary hockey accomplishments, he continues to oversee the Mario Lemieux Foundation for cancer research and neo-natal research and hosts its celebrity golf tournament, which has raised more than $8 million for charity. More information is available at mariolemieux.org.

RON BURKLE

CO-OWNER

Ron Burkle has now added a new arena — Pittsburgh’s CONSOL Energy Center — to his tremendous list of accomplishments in the business world.

Burkle, widely recognized as one of the preeminent investors in retail, manufacturing and distribution industries, is in his 12th season as co-owner of the Penguins. He teamed with Mario Lemieux to buy the team out of bankruptcy in September, 1999, and together they have developed one of the outstanding ownership groups in all of professional sports.

Among Burkle’s many significant contributions to the Penguins was his role in negotiations for the new arena deal.

Under the leadership of Lemieux and Burkle, the Penguins have sold out every game for three-plus seasons and established new standards for television ratings, merchandise sales and website hits while winning acclaim as the No. 1 team in professional sports in “Fan Relations.” A consistent post-season threat on the ice, the Penguins reached back-to-back Stanley Cup Finals in 2008 and 2009 and won the Cup in 2009.

Young stars such as Sidney Crosby, Evgeni Malkin, Marc-Andre Fleury, Jordan Staal and others have been signed to long-term contracts, ensuring that the team’s core will remain intact.

Burkle founded the Yucaipa Companies in 1986 and has served as Chairman of the Board and controlling shareholder of numerous companies, including Alliance Entertainment, Golden State Foods, Dominick’s, Fred Meyer, Ralphs and Food4Less.

DAVID MOREHOUSE

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER & PRESIDENT

Pittsburgh native David Morehouse was named CEO of the Penguins in September and leads the team into an exciting new era at CONSOL Energy Center.

Morehouse had served as a team president since 2007, overseeing ticket sales, marketing, corporate sales, communications and brand development, as well as representing the team in corporate relations and governmental affairs.

Under his leadership the Penguins have become one of the top organizations in professional sports — ranked No. 1 in “Fan Relations” and No. 5 overall as a franchise among 122 pro teams in North America by ESPN The Magazine.

As team president, Morehouse implemented a brand strategy that featured a new commitment to marketing, fan interaction and community outreach, as well as a targeted focus on the team’s young fan demographic. Under his leadership, the Penguins have sold out every game for three straight seasons – the sellout streak was at 166 games entering 2010-11– while leading all U.S.-based NHL teams in local TV ratings last season and setting new standards for website traffic and social media.

Morehouse joined the Penguins in December, 2004 as Senior Consultant on the new arena project, following a career in national politics that included stints at the White House, Pentagon and on Capitol Hill, as well as key roles in two Presidential campaigns.

He was Senior Advisor for the John Kerry for President campaign in 2004, traveling on the campaign plane and serving as Senator Kerry’s traveling chief of staff. He worked in the Clinton-Gore White House in the 1990s, and was Senior Counselor and Trip Director for Vice President Al Gore from 1999-2001.

Morehouse grew up in the Beechview section on Pittsburgh. He attended the Community College of Allegheny County and Duquesne University, and received a master’s degree in Public Administration from Harvard University’s John F. Kennedy School of Government.

He and his wife, Vanessa, have three children and live in Bell Acres.

RAY SHERO

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Ray Shero, 48, is at the vanguard of the NHL's new breed of general managers – steeped in family hockey tradition but on the cutting-edge of new technology and modernization in hockey operations, player relations and team management.

His fresh ideas and calm but firm management style helped transform the Penguins from a team that did not qualify for the playoffs in 2005-06 to one that reached the Stanley Cup Final in 2007-08 and won the Cup in 2008-09. During that time, he has moved boldly to ensure a strong future for the Penguins, signing six key members of the team's core — Sidney Crosby, Evgeni Malkin, Marc-Andre Fleury, Jordan Staal, Brooks Orpik and Kris Letang — to long-term contracts.

Shero built on the team's already strong foundation by adding key pieces in the 2010 offseason to set the Penguins up for long-term success. With shrewd maneuvering and an aggressive approach during the first day of free agency, he solidified the team's blue line with the long-term signings of top-rated defensemen Paul Martin and Zbynek Michalek.

Shero made several moves during the 2008-09 season that had a huge impact on the Penguins' championship achievement. He installed Dan Bylsma as interim head coach on Feb. 15, 2009 (later removing the "interim" tag), assigned Tom Fitzgerald to an assistant coaching role and fortified the roster with the acquisitions of Bill Guerin, Chris Kunitz and Craig Adams at or near the trading deadline.

Shero was named GM on May 25, 2006 and one of his first acts was to declare a goal of building a team that could compete for championships on a yearly basis. He revamped the team's hockey operations staff and structure, upgraded professional and amateur scouting, added a team operations director and opened new lines of communication with the business side of the organization.

In his first season, 2006-07, Shero led his team to its first playoff berth since 2001 and a 47-point improvement in the standings — the fourth-largest improvement from one season to the next in NHL history.

Building on that success, the Penguins topped 100 points for the second straight season in 2007-08, winning their first division title since 1998 and advancing to the Stanley Cup Final, where they fell to Detroit.

After a rocky start in 2008-09, the Penguins rallied when Bylsma was named head coach in February, finishing 18-3-4 to earn a playoff berth and then defeating Philadelphia, Washington, Carolina and Detroit en route to the Stanley Cup. Along the way, they twice overcame 2-0 deficits in games (against Washington and Detroit), won all four series-clinching games on the road and won two Game 7s on the road — including the 2-1 thriller at Detroit for the Cup.

Ray's father, Fred, had won two Stanley Cups as head coach of the Philadelphia Flyers in 1974 and 1975. The Sheros are one of the few father-son tandems to appear on the Cup. The late Fred Shero also was a coach and general manager with the New York Rangers.

Ray built his hockey sense and managerial style during 14 seasons as an NHL assistant general manager — six with the Ottawa Senators and eight with the Nashville Predators.

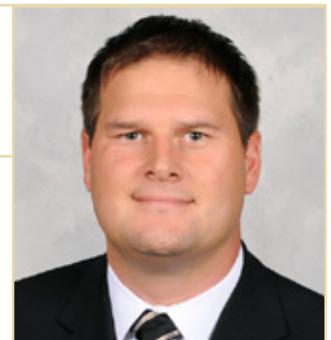

Shero played college hockey at St. Lawrence University, twice serving as team captain, and was drafted by the Los Angeles Kings in 1982. He spent seven years as a player agent before making the transition to the front office.

The native of St. Paul, Minn. is actively involved with USA Hockey and is a member of the USA Hockey National Team Advisory Group.

JASON BOTTERILL

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Jason Botterill is in his second full season as assistant general manager after being promoted to his current position on May 22, 2009 by general manager Ray Shero.

As assistant GM, Botterill works closely with Shero on all hockey-related matters, including scouting, player development and contract negotiations. He also manages hockey operations and acts as GM for the club's top-minor league affiliate, Wilkes-Barre/Scranton of the American Hockey League.

Prior to his promotion, Botterill, 34, worked two seasons as director of hockey administration with the Penguins; his responsibilities included salary cap management, professional and amateur scouting and overseeing prospects development. Botterill's avant-garde approach and understanding of the salary cap has been a major asset for the Penguins. Before joining Pittsburgh, Botterill worked with NHL Central Registry and also scouted for the Dallas Stars.

Botterill was a first-round draft pick (20th overall) by Dallas in 1994 and played 88 NHL games over six seasons with Dallas, Atlanta, Calgary and Buffalo. He also played 393 career games in the AHL and IHL, recording 127 goals and 257 points.

A native of Edmonton who grew up in Winnipeg, Botterill played four seasons at the University of Michigan, where he earned his MBA, and helped lead the Wolverines to the NCAA title in 1996. He also played for Team Canada at the World Junior Championships in 1994, 1995 and 1996, helping his team win gold medals in all three tournaments.

DAN BYLSMA

HEAD COACH

In less than two seasons behind the bench, Dan Bylsma has already become one of the most successful coaches in Penguins' history.

After being promoted to Penguins head coach in February 2009, Bylsma, 40, directed the team to its third Stanley Cup in franchise history - a feat previously accomplished by legendary coaches "Badger" Bob Johnson and Scott Bowman.

Bylsma (pronounced BYLE-zmuh) has the best regular-season winning percentage (.659) in team history, and is tied with Bowman for most postseason victories (23) and series victories (5). He also became the eighth-fastest head coach in NHL history to hit the 50-win mark (78 games).

All-time under Bylsma, the Penguins boast a 65-31-11 regular-season record; 35-13-5 home record; 31-17-6 road mark; 40-3-3 when leading after two periods; 42-1-1 when scoring four or more goals; and 43-9-6 when scoring first.

In 2009-10 Bylsma completed his first full NHL season behind the bench for Pittsburgh, leading the club to a 47-28-7 record for 101 points - breaking 100 points for sixth time in franchise history and for the third time in the last four years - finishing only two points behind New Jersey for the Atlantic Division title.

Under Bylsma's leadership the Penguins set many milestones during the season, including tying a team record with seven straight road victories, becoming the second-fastest team in franchise history to 40 wins (66 games) and totaling the third-most wins (tied) in a season (47).

Bylsma began the 2008-09 season with the first head coaching assignment of his career - with the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins of the American Hockey League. He ended it by hoisting the Stanley Cup. In between, Bylsma authored one of the most spectacular coaching stories in the history of professional hockey.

The Grand Haven, Mich. native was promoted to Pittsburgh on Feb. 15, 2009, and took over a club that was 10th in the overall Eastern Conference standings and facing questions as to whether a playoff berth was even a practical option. But he accepted the challenge with his trademark optimism, passion and raw determination.

Unleashing a swift, skilled team that was built to go on the attack, imploring his players to play "on their toes, not on their heels," Bylsma led the Penguins to an 18-3-4 record in 25 games, rising from 10th place to fourth in the conference and garnering not only a playoff spot but home-ice advantage in the first round.

In the playoffs, Bylsma's team showed a steely resolve, clinching all four series on the road and twice rallying from 2-0 series deficits (against Washington in the second round and Detroit in the Stanley Cup Final). The Penguins beat the defending champion Red Wings four times in the last five games to claim the Cup, including a nerve-racking Game 7 at Detroit's Joe Louis Arena - and became the first team in professional sports since 1979 to win Game 7 of a championship round on the road.

In the process Bylsma became the 14th rookie head coach, and just the fourth in the past 50 years, to capture the Stanley Cup. Of those 14, only Montreal's Al MacNeil (1970-71) took over mid-season.

Bylsma played nine NHL seasons as a right winger with Los Angeles and Anaheim from 1995-2004. He played 429 NHL regular-season games, recording 19 goals and 62 points, and also played in the 2003 Stanley Cup Final with Anaheim.

He began his coaching career as an assistant with the Cincinnati Mighty Ducks of the AHL in 2004-05 and made his NHL coaching debut as an assistant with the New York Islanders in 2005-06.

Bylsma was an assistant coach at Wilkes-Barre/Scranton for two seasons from 2006-08 and was named head coach at the start of the 2008-09 season. He went 35-16-1-2 in 54 games with WBS before being promoted to Pittsburgh.

He played four seasons of college hockey at Bowling Green.

Dan and his wife, Mary Beth, have one son and reside in the North Hills.

TONY GRANATO

ASSISTANT COACH

Tony Granato is in his second season on the Penguins' coaching staff. Granato, among his many responsibilities, works with the Penguins' forwards and penalty killing units. He oversaw the NHL's ninth-ranked penalty killing group with an 84.1-percent success rate, and second best on the road at 85.3 percent.

Prior to joining the Penguins, Granato spent six seasons behind the bench for the Colorado Avalanche and served two stints as Avalanche head coach from 2002-04 and 2008-09. Granato compiled a 215-104-17-16 record and led Colorado to a Northwest Division title in 2003.

Granato, 46, joined the Avalanche organization in June 2002 as an assistant coach. He was elevated to head coach on Dec. 18, 2002 and led the club to a 32-11-4-4 mark en route to its ninth consecutive division title. The following season Granato steered the Avalanche to a 40-22-13-7 finish and an appearance in the Western Conference semifinals.

The Downers Grove, Illinois native served as an assistant coach for the Avalanche from 2005-08. Granato was promoted to his second tenure as the club's head coach in 2008-09 and oversaw the development of a young Colorado team.

Granato played 13 seasons in the NHL with the NY Rangers (1988-90), Los Angeles (1990-96) and San Jose (1996-2001). In 1997, he played in the NHL All-Star Game and was the recipient of the Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy for overcoming a near career-ending brain injury. In 773 career games, the feisty forward posted 248 goals, 492 points and 1,425 penalty minutes. He tallied 16 goals, 43 points and 141 penalty minutes in 79 career postseason games and helped lead Los Angeles to a Stanley Cup Final berth in 1993.

Granato played four years at the University of Wisconsin and was inducted into the Badgers' Hall of Fame in 2000. Granato also played for the U.S. National team in 1987-88 and represented his country in the 1988 Olympic Games in Calgary.

Tony and his wife, Linda, are the parents of four children and reside in the South Hills.

Reirden, 39, completed his first full season as WBS head coach in 2009-10, leading a young and inexperienced team to an impressive 41-34-2-3 record, finishing third in the East Division, and a berth in the Calder Cup playoffs.

Reirden joined the Penguins organization August 18, 2008 as an assistant coach in WBS. A few months later he was promoted to interim head coach following Dan Bylsma's promotion to Pittsburgh in February 2009. Reirden guided WBS to a 14-9-3 mark in the final 26 games, and advanced to the second round of the AHL playoffs. Reirden then joined Pittsburgh's extended playoff coaching staff and helped the team win the Stanley Cup championship in 2009.

Prior to joining the Penguins organization, Reirden spent one season as an assistant coach with the Bowling Green Falcons (CCHA) - his alma mater. He was a teammate of Bylsma's during the 1990-91 and 1991-92 seasons at Bowling Green.

Selected by New Jersey in the 12th round (242nd overall) of the 1990 NHL Draft, Reirden played professionally for 13 seasons, retiring after the 2006-07 campaign with Graz EC of the Austrian Hockey League. He appeared in 183 NHL games with Edmonton, St. Louis, Atlanta and Phoenix, recording 46 points (11+35) and 181 penalty minutes.

UNIFORM HISTORY

Ken Schinkel (1970)

Syl Apps (1974)

Randy Carlyle (1983)

The Penguins have experienced plenty of changes in their history and their uniforms are no exception.

When the Penguins made their NHL debut at home on October 11, 1967, the team wore the colors light blue, dark blue, and white. Both the home (light blue) and road (white) uniforms simply had the word "PITTSBURGH" written diagonally down the front of the sweater with five white stripes with six thin navy blue stripes around the sleeves and bottom (home) and five dark blue stripes with six thin, white stripes around the sleeves and bottom (road). The logo, although not on the sweater, featured a hockey-playing penguin in a scarf over an inverted triangle, symbolizing the golden triangle of downtown Pittsburgh. The penguin and triangle were set inside a circle bearing the team name.

The following season (1968-69), the uniforms were changed so that the logo appeared on the game sweaters. The logo remained essentially the same, although the penguin was no longer wearing a scarf. The home (light blue) uniforms had a wide band of white trimmed in dark blue around each sleeve and the bottom, while the road (white) sweaters had bands of light blue trimmed in dark blue. The home (light blue) sweaters had white shoulder yokes and the road (white) sweaters had light blue shoulder yokes.

The Penguins wore light blue jerseys at home and white jerseys on the road until the 1970-71 season, when they began wearing white at home and light blue on the road. Beginning that same season, the Penguins became one of the first teams in NHL history to wear nameplates featuring a player's last name above the number on the back of the jersey. The nameplates with the player's last name were only added to the home (white) jerseys in 1970-71.

The uniforms themselves were essentially unchanged from 1968-69 to 1971-72, until the circle around the logo was removed, leaving only a penguin and a triangle, midway through the 1971-72 season.

The end of the 1971-72 season marked the final time the Penguins donned the light blue color in their uniforms until bringing the color back in 1977-78. Beginning in 1972-73, the Penguins replaced the light blue with a bolder, royal blue color. The Penguins uniforms were the same design as those worn from 1968-69 to 1971-72, but had the royal blue replacing the light blue. The Penguins kept this design for two seasons before switching again for 1974-75. During the Penguins' first seven years in the league, both home and road jerseys featured a lace-up collar at the base of the neck. The lace-up collars were also a thing of the past moving into the 1974-75 season.

Chevrons were used as the sleeve stripes for the 1974-75 season. Shaped in the form of an inverted V, the sleeve stripes were royal blue and white with navy blue cuffs on the home (white) jerseys. The road (royal blue) jerseys had white and navy blue sleeve stripes with white cuffs forming the chevrons. The colored shoulder yokes were also gone from the Penguins' uniforms. In 1974-75, the waist striping also changed to match the chevrons with royal blue, white, and navy blue moving down the home (white) uniforms and white, navy blue and white moving down the road (royal blue) uniforms.

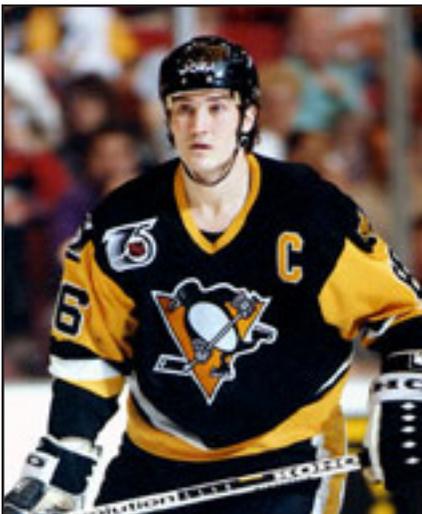

The chevrons remained on the road uniforms for the next two seasons and the only change on the road (royal blue) uniforms was done to the hem striping. From top to bottom, the hem striping was white, royal blue and navy blue. The home (white) uniforms reverted back to the 1972-73 and 1973-74 designs, but did not have the lace-up collar from those prior seasons. The collar was now a solid navy blue color. The Penguins kept the 1975-76 design for both uniforms for the 1976-77 season as well.

For the 1977-78 season, the Penguins changed to a design that would essentially remain the very similar for the next 15 seasons. The uniforms were tri-colored with the Penguins doing away with the royal blue and bringing back the light blue the team wore in its first five seasons in the NHL. The home (white) uniforms featured navy blue sleeves with white and navy blue striping capped by light blue cuffs. The road (navy blue) uniforms featured white sleeves with light blue and white striping capped by navy blue cuffs. The front hem striping from top to bottom was light blue, white, navy blue and light blue on the home (white) uniforms and was white, navy blue, light blue and white on the road (navy blue) uniforms. The Penguins kept this uniform color pattern until midway through the 1979-80 season.

On Jan. 30, 1980 the Penguins wore black and gold for the first time. With the Steelers winning the Super Bowl and the Pirates capturing the World Series title in the same year, the Penguins hoped to gain fan support with aligning their colors with the other teams in the "City of Champions."

Paul Coffey (1988)

Mario Lemieux (1992)

Ron Francis (1993)

Boston protested the color change to the NHL, arguing that black and gold had always been exclusively associated with the Bruins. However, the Penguins prevailed by virtue of a precedent set by the Pittsburgh Pirates hockey club of the late 1920s, which sported the colors. The Penguins' new uniforms were the same design as the previous ones, with black replacing dark blue and gold replacing light blue. A third sleeve stripe was also added to both the home and road jerseys. The player numbers that were formerly on the sleeves were moved to the top of each shoulder with the new black and gold jerseys as well. From 1980-81 through the 1984-85 season, the team alternated wearing gold sweaters with white at home, which also featured the tri-color sleeve striping.

On March 15, 1983, Baz Bastien, the Penguins general manager at the time, died tragically in a car accident as he returned home from a dinner honoring him. For the remainder of the 1982-83 season the Penguins added a black armband on the left sleeve of their home (white) jerseys.

For the 1988-89 season, the player numbers were moved from the shoulders to the sleeves as they were prior to the Penguins adopting the black and gold color scheme.

The NHL All-Star Game made its first appearance in Pittsburgh on January 21, 1990. The Penguins wore a 41st NHL All-Star patch on the left shoulder of their jerseys in 1989-90 and the beginning of 1990-91. Approximately during the same time frame, the NHL shield logo appeared on the back right hem of every jersey worn in the NHL.

Advancing to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time in team history, the Penguins honored this achievement by wearing the 1991 Stanley Cup Final patch on their home and road jerseys during every game of the 1991 Stanley Cup Final vs. Minnesota.

The 1991-92 season marked the NHL's 75th anniversary. The Penguins added the NHL 75th Anniversary logo to the right chest of their jerseys that season. In addition, the Penguins were also celebrating their 25th anniversary after joining the league in 1967-68. The Penguins added their own anniversary patch to the right shoulder of the jerseys.

After reaching the Stanley Cup Final for the second consecutive season, the Penguins proudly donned their second Stanley Cup Final patch in as many years. This time, the Final patch was sewn onto a piece of white (home) or black (road) material and then the material swatch was sewn over the NHL 75th Anniversary patch on the right chest of the jersey.

The black and gold uniforms remained virtually unchanged until 1992-93, when the triangle and penguin logo was modernized. The home (white) sweaters featured the new logo on the front and gold shoulder inserts. The road (black) sweaters had the city's name diagonally down the front, much like the original team uniforms, with the new logo on each shoulder. Also in 1992-93, the Stanley Cup turned 100-years old and was honored by each team by having a commemorative patch added to their jerseys during the season. The Penguins wore the patch on the right chest of their home (white) jerseys and did not wear the patch on their road (black) jerseys due to the lack of an appropriate place to put the patch with the new "PITTSBURGH" diagonal jerseys with the new logos on each shoulder.

During the 1995-96 season, the Penguins were one of five NHL teams to introduce a third jersey. The Penguins' new uniform, which made its debut on January 27, 1996 vs. the Philadelphia Flyers, featured a black background with a new, modernized midsection, shoulder and sleeve design that included innovative striping and a blend of team colors.

The "PITTSBURGH" road jerseys became defunct after the 1996-97 season with the then alternate uniform replacing it as the team's uniform away from the Igloo for the 1997-98 season.

In 1999-00, the NHL commemorated the league's advance into the new millennium with an NHL2000 patch that was placed on the right chest of each team's jerseys in team colors. The Penguins' NHL2000 patch was black with silver lettering.

Traveling to Japan for the first two games of the 2000-01 season to face the Nashville Predators, the Penguins wore a commemorative GameOne/Japan patch on the right chest of their home (white) jerseys and black (road) jerseys.

On October 28, 2000 the Penguins hosted the New Jersey Devils and introduced a new third jersey with an eye for the past. The black sweater featured the popular "skating penguin" logo, which the team wore during its 1991 and 1992 Stanley Cup championship seasons, and the newest color addition, Vegas gold. This black jersey served as the Penguins' third jersey for the 2000-01 and 2001-02 seasons.

The 2001-02 season marked the final year the Penguins would wear the former alternate jerseys that were introduced in 1995-96 and the home (white) jerseys that were unveiled back in 1992-93.

Tom Barrasso (1999)

In 2002-03, the Penguins introduced a white counterpart to the black "skating penguin" and Vegas gold colored jerseys. These "skating penguin" uniforms served as the Penguins home and road jerseys from 2002-03 to 2006-07.

The 2007-08 season marked yet another change in the Penguins uniforms. On Jan. 22, 2007 during the NHL All-Star break, the NHL and Reebok unveiled the new Rbk EDGE Uniform System. Stretch fabric in the collar and stretch mesh in areas of the tighter jersey, including the underarms and back, provide additional range of motion and increased ventilation. There is also new water repellant technology, helping retain three-quarters less moisture than the current jersey. The Penguins' jerseys now feature thicker Vegas gold side sections, while the black and white body portions of the jersey go all the way to the bottom hem. The cuffs and underarms and black on the white-based jerseys and are white on the black-based uniforms. Additional Vegas gold inserts appear on the sleeves just below the numbers. The NHL shield also has moved from the back right hem to the base of the front neckline.

The Penguins wore retro jerseys when they battled the Sabres at the NHL Winter Classic on January 1, 2008 at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The Penguins wore powder blue jerseys patterned after the 1968-69 uniforms. The jersey featured the Penguins logo inside a circle. There was a wide band of white trimmed in dark blue around each sleeve and the bottom with white shoulder yokes. The jersey became the club's official alternate third jersey for the 2008-09 season.

MEDIA ENTRANCE:

Members of the media can access the CONSOL Energy Center through the administrative entrance located to the right of the box office at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Washington Place.

Media with proper accreditation should proceed to the first floor, using the elevators just inside the administrative entrance. Media will pass through three sets of double doors before turning right down the hallway towards the media areas. The media work room will be on the left and the elevators to the media level are located further down the hallway to the right.

MEDIA WORK ROOM:

The media work room is located on the lower level in the south end of the building. Members of the media and game night staff must show passes or credentials at the door for admittance. The media room will be open two hours prior to the start of each game with dinner and beverages available for purchase.

The media room is equipped with hard-wired and wireless Internet, telephones, electrical outlets and a mult box. The media room is open to the media on all practice and game days.

MEDIA LEVEL:

The media level is located on the east side of the building above sections 216-223. It is for game personnel and working members of the media only. Designated elevators to the media level are located down the hallway from the media room in the southeast corner of the building. Take the elevators to the 7th floor and exit to the right.

Please note that ALL seats in the media level are assigned and media should refer to the posted seating charts for direction.

INDIVIDUAL GAME CREDENTIALS:

Game-by-game credentials will be issued based on availability and should be reserved as early as possible. Major daily newspapers, radio and television will receive priority in handling game-by-game requests. These requests must be submitted to Erik Heasley (eheasley@pittsburghpenguins.com) no later than 48 hours prior to the game. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS.

Game-by-game credentials can be picked up at the designated media entrance located to the right of the box office along Fifth Avenue two hours prior to game time.

Penguins team photographers and photographers affiliated with major media outlets that cover the team on a regular basis will be given priority for ice-level positions. All photographers at ice-level will be shooting through open holes in the glass. Single-game photographer credentials will be available on a game-by-game basis and assignments may rotate each period. Photo assignments will be posted in the media work room and the photographer work room prior to each game.

The Penguins will provide stools to be used at all ice-level photo positions. The stools will be numbered and available for pick up inside the photographer work room. All stools must be signed out and returned to the work room at the end of the night. The Penguins require that all ice-level photographers use the provided stools as a courtesy to our fans.

TELEVISION CREWS:

Due to seating limitations, television crews will not be assigned seating in the media level. Only on-air talent will be assigned seats in the media level. Television crews are asked to view the game in the media work room. TV crews are not permitted to shoot highlight footage of game action.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS:

The locker rooms are located behind the player benches on the west side of the building on the lower level. Both are accessible via the hallway from the media work room.

The Penguins locker room will open no later than five minutes after the conclusion of the game per NHL regulations. Please be advised that the conclusion of the game includes allotted time for post-game television interviews and the three stars ceremony. The Penguins training room and the players' dressing area is off-limits to the media at all times. The entrance to the Penguins locker room is through the double doors across from Suite 66 on the lower level.

At the conclusion of practice, the locker room will be open as per NHL requirements. Please enter the locker room from the runway after practices and morning skates.

Only working members of the media with proper media credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms.

POST-GAME PROCEDURES:

Post-game briefings with Penguins head coach Dan Bylsma will be held after each game in the media room. Wireless Internet and a mult box will be available in the media room.

FSN PITTSBURGH BROADCAST TEAM

PAUL STEIGERWALD PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Pittsburgh native Paul Steigerwald enters his fifth season as play-by-play announcer for Penguins telecasts on FSN Pittsburgh.

He spent six seasons as the radio voice of the Penguins and the previous 14 seasons as color commentator on Penguins TV and radio broadcasts.

"Staggy," a tireless worker and interviewer, is well-known by coaches and players across the NHL.

Steigerwald developed his interest in hockey as a youngster in the South Hills – in part because his neighbor, former Penguins GM Jack Riley, gave local kids tickets to attend Penguins games.

He attended Kent State University, where he worked as one of the hockey club's broadcasters, and began his professional broadcasting career with the Johnstown Red Wings (EHL) in 1979.

Steigerwald joined the Penguins organization in 1980 as director of marketing and also served as intermission host for radio and television broadcasts. In 1985, he joined the broadcast team as a color commentator. He left the Penguins front office in 1988 for a position in the sports department of KDKA-TV, but still maintained his color commentator duties.

In addition, Steigerwald served as play-by-play broadcaster with the Altoona Curve baseball club during the 2005, '06 and '07 seasons.

BOB ERREY COLOR ANALYST

Bob Errey returns for his seventh season on Penguins television broadcasts, where he joins Paul Steigerwald.

Previously, Errey worked as the color commentator for Penguins radio broadcasts alongside Steigerwald for four seasons.

Errey was the Penguins' first-round draft pick in 1983 and played 11 seasons in Pittsburgh, recording 132 goals, 272 points and 651 penalty minutes in 572 games.

A speedy two-way winger and excellent penalty killer, Errey was a key member of team's two Stanley Cup championships in 1991 and 1992.

Errey also played for Buffalo, San Jose, Detroit, Dallas and the New York Rangers in a 15-year NHL career. In 895 games, he registered 170 goals, 382 points and 1,005 penalty minutes.

PENGUINS RADIO NETWORK

MIKE LANGE PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

One of the most unique broadcasters in professional sports, Mike Lange enters his 35th season with the Penguins and will handle radio play-by-play on the club's flagship station, 105.9 FM "The X."

Known for his creative and colorful style, including trademark phrases such as "Buy Sam A Drink And Get His Dog One, Too," Lange was awarded the Foster Hewitt award by the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2001.

Lange's relationship with the Penguins began in 1974-75, when he broke into the NHL as a radio play-by-play man. He left for one season, but returned in 1976-77 and has been a fixture on the Penguins' scene ever since.

Lange did radio exclusively until 1979, when games were simulcast on radio and TV. He served as the television voice of the Penguins through 2005-06, before returning to the radio booth in 2006-07.

A native of Sacramento, California, Lange earned a degree in broadcasting from Sacramento State University before starting his career as the voice of the Phoenix Roadrunners (WHL) in 1970. He also served as the play-by-play voice of the San Diego Gulls (WHL) in 1973-74 before joining the Penguins.

In addition to his tenure with the Penguins, Lange handled play-by-play duties for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1986-87. A well-known member of the Pittsburgh community, Lange makes numerous personal appearances throughout the year and is actively involved in charity work.

PHIL BOURQUE COLOR ANALYST

Two-time Stanley Cup champion Phil Bourque begins his seventh season on the Penguins broadcast team, serving as color commentator alongside Mike Lange.

A gritty winger/defenseman, Bourque was signed by Pittsburgh as a free agent in 1982, and went on to record 164 points (75+89) in 344 regular-season games with the Penguins between 1983 and 1992. For his career he totaled 199 points (88+111) in 477 games with the Penguins, New York Rangers and Ottawa.

Since retiring from professional hockey in 2000, Bourque has co-hosted Penguins pre- and post-game shows on the Penguins Radio Network and worked as a contributor for FSN Pittsburgh's coverage of Penguins hockey.

2011 ENTRY DRAFT

Order of Selection

The NHL's annual Draft Drawing is a weighted lottery system to determine the order of selection for the first 14 picks of the 2011 Entry Draft.

The 14 teams that did not qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, or clubs that acquired those clubs' 2011 first-round draft picks, participate in the Drawing.

The Club selected in the drawing may not move up more than four positions in the draft order, thus only the five Clubs with the fewest regular-season points have the opportunity to receive the first overall selection.

No Club can move down more than one position as a result of the Draft Drawing.

- b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
- c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
- d) Clubs eliminated in the 2011 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
- e) Stanley Cup finalist
- f) Stanley Cup champion

- a) Non-playoff clubs in inverse order of points;
- b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
- c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
- d) Clubs eliminated in the 2011 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
- e) Stanley Cup finalist
- f) Stanley Cup champion

Eligibility for Claim

- a) All Players age 18 or older are eligible for claim in the Entry Draft, except:
  - i. a Player on the Reserve List of a Club, other than as a try-out;
  - ii. a Player who has been claimed in two prior Entry Drafts;
  - iii. a Player who previously played in the League and became a Free Agent pursuant to this Agreement;
  - iv. a Player age 21 or older who: (A) has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and (B) played hockey for at least one season in North America when he was age 18, 19, or 20 and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d); and 18
  - v. a Player age 22 or older who has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d).

Unsigned Draft Choices

- a) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the first three rounds of the Entry Draft and who was not signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by the Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.
- b) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the fourth or subsequent rounds who has not been signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by his Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the fourth day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

Entry Level Players

1. Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry-level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for one year. Age is defined as the player's age on September 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.
2. In the event that a signed 18 or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between September 16 and December 31 in his first contract year.

- In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

ROSTER INFORMATION

23-Man Roster

There may be a maximum of 23 players on each Club's playing roster at any one time from the commencement of the NHL regular season through the trade deadline. Prior to the start of the season, each Club must submit to the NHL its "Opening Day Playing Roster" which shall be comprised of not more than 23 players. Each Club must have a roster of at least 20 players, composed of 18 skaters and two goaltenders. Players on Injured Reserve do not count in the 23-Man Roster limit.

Injured Reserve List

In the event that a player is injured and a Club wishes to place him on the Injured Reserve List, the Club must follow these procedures.

- A Club may place a player on the injured reserve list if such player is injured, disabled or ill and unable to perform his duties as a hockey player after having passed the Club's initial physical examination in that season.
- A player who has an injury that renders him physically unable to play for a minimum of seven days after that date of the injury can be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. Once a player is placed on the injured reserve, the Club may replace said player on its NHL roster with another player. All determinations that a player has suffered an injury warranting injured reserve status must be made by the Club's medical staff and in accordance with the Club's medical standards.
- A player placed on Injured Reserve is ineligible to compete in NHL games for a period of not less than seven days from the date of injury.
- Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.
- Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.

Regular-Season Waivers

For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the five (5) year exemption for an 18 year old skater and the four (4) year exemption for a 19 year old skater shall both be reduced to three (3) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old skater plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next two (2) seasons, regardless of whether the skater plays any NHL Games in either season, shall count as the second and third years toward satisfying the exemption. For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the six (6) year exemption for an 18 year old goalie and the five (5) year exemption for a 19 year old goalie shall both be reduced to four (4) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old goalie plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next three (3) seasons, regardless of whether the goalie plays any NHL Games in any of those three (3) seasons, shall count as the next three (3) years toward satisfying the exemption.

The first season in which a Player who is age 20 or older plays in one (1) or more Professional Games shall constitute the first year for calculating the number of years he is exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers.

A Player 25 years old or older who plays in one (1) or more Professional Games in any season shall be exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers for the remainder of that season.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

- First place in each of the three (3) divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.
- The higher number of points earned by the Club.
- The greater number of games won by the Club.
- The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two (2) or more Clubs having equal standing under priority (b) and (c) **
- The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

** NOTE: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.
