PRACTICE SCHEDULE

Updates provided on Caps Today and twitter.com/capsmedia

The Washington Capitals media relations staff works to provide information about the team and access to players, coaches and management in a timely manner for members of the media. It is the proud recipient of the Dick Dillman Award as the Professional Hockey Writers' Association's choice as the top media relations group in the Eastern Conference for each of the past four seasons.

CREDENTIALS & MEDIA SERVICES

Media Credentials

Credentials are issued to media who cover the Capitals both seasonally and on a game-by-game basis and are required for admission to the media areas at both Verizon Center and Kettler Capitals Iceplex. All credentials must include the bearer's name and affiliation and are non-transferable.

The Washington Capitals will honor 2010-11 season media credentials that feature a Stanley Cup playoff logo sticker for the team's home games at Verizon Center during the first three rounds of the Stanley Cup playoffs. As in the regular season, anyone with a season credential who requires a press box seat must alert a member of the media relations staff that they are planning to attend by 1 p.m. the day prior to a game.

Media who do not have a season credential may apply for single-game credentials. These requests must be received no later than noon the day prior to a game. The credential is good only for the game printed on the tag and must be displayed to Verizon Center security personnel to gain entry to restricted media areas. A letter on file from the sports editor, news director, etc., addressed to the Media Relations Department, Washington Capitals, 627 N. Glebe Rd., Suite 850, Arlington, VA 22203, will facilitate the issuing of this type of credential.

Non-North American media outlets are required to request media credentials through the National Hockey League by contacting David Keon at dkeon@nhl.com.

Capitals media credentials are issued to print, television, radio and online media outlets that adhere to professional standards, regularly produce quality content and have a demonstrated audience. Space limitations may impact the decision to grant credentials. The final decision on all applications for media credentials rests with the Capitals media relations staff; we reserve the right to revoke media credentials at any time.

News Releases

Accredited members of the media who would like to receive Capitals news releases via e-mail should contact a member of the media relations staff with an e-mail address. Among our releases is "Caps Today," sent daily during the season, which includes an updated practice schedule, recent transactions and the top storyline of the day.

Audio Files

The Capitals regularly post updated audio files in mp3 format on their website, WashingtonCaps.com, twitter.com/capsmedia and on TweetMic.com. Radio stations, websites and other media are welcome to utilize these audio clips.

Press Work Area and Press Lounge

The press work area and press lounge are located on the Event Level (ice level). The press lounge is located directly adjacent to the media work area. Meals are served buffet style two hours prior to game time. All food must be consumed in the press lounge and may not be taken to the press box. The press work area is located adjacent to the press lounge. There are reserved seats for beat media and additional work spaces with telephones and wireless Internet access.

Press Box

The press box is on the sixth floor of Verizon Center on the penalty box side of the ice. Seats are on an assigned basis only. Please check the seating charts in the press room or press box, or check with the press box attendant for your seat assignment. The press box features wireless Internet access.

In order to ensure seating in the press box, it is necessary for all media to notify the Capitals media relations staff of their attendance by 1 p.m. the day prior to the game. If you do not have an assigned seat, please check with a member of the media relations staff.

Media Parking

Media parking at Verizon Center is extremely limited and assigned prior to the season. There are numerous lots within walking distance of Verizon Center, and Verizon Center is adjacent to the Gallery Place/Chinatown Metro Station. Gallery Place can be reached on the Red, Yellow and Green lines. It is also one stop away from Metro Center, which provides service to the Blue and Orange lines. Metro will remain open at least one hour after the conclusion of any playoff games that go into overtime.

Photography

Verizon Center has a limited number of photo positions. All photo positions will be assigned prior to the game by team photographer Mitchell Layton. Daily print and wire services receive priority for the prime positions. Freelance photographers will not receive credentials; all photographers must be on assignment. Still photographers must receive permission in advance from a member of the media relations staff for postgame admission to the Capitals locker room.

Work Room

Kettler Capitals Iceplex features a media work room adjacent to the ice, near the entrance of the Capitals locker room. The work room features ethernet cables and complimentary wireless Internet access.

MEDIA ACCESS AND INTERVIEWS

Practice Sessions

The media has access to all team practices at all practice facilities, including game-day skates, in accordance with the NHL Media Regulations. The media is allowed to enter the team locker room five minutes after the first regular player who has participated in the entire practice leaves the ice. In the event of a team meeting, the media will be allowed access immediately following the conclusion of the meeting. The locker room is closed to the media prior to and during practice.

Per NHL Media Regulations, media access at Kettler Capitals Iceplex is limited to the team's main locker room and the entrance to the locker room. All other areas of the training center are off limits to media.

Capitals game-day skates are typically held at 10 a.m. at Kettler. During the playoffs, the Capitals will offer a shuttle bus to take media downtown at the conclusion of Washington's morning skate.

Pregame

The Capitals locker room is closed prior to game time, although requested players will be made available during a 30-minute window beginning two hours prior to faceoff, with priority given to broadcast rightsholders.

Television networks, including rightsholders, requesting pregame interviews with a player are asked to request these times prior to or during the morning skate. Head coach Bruce Boudreau is available to the media outside the Capitals; locker room two hours prior to faceoff.

Postgame

The Capitals locker room will be open to working media five minutes after the conclusion of the game. Both teams' coaches and select players will attend a press conference held at the Verizon Center's basketball practice court. The visiting team coach will go first, followed by Bruce Boudreau.

If the media wishes to interview a player who is not present in the locker room, contact a Capitals media relations representative who will locate the player.

Video

All outlets are prohibited by the National Hockey League from shooting game footage of any Capitals game being played at Verizon Center.

Television and online outlets are welcome to shoot Capitals practices, but are restricted to broadcasting five minutes of on-ice video content from any one practice. There is no limit to the length of interviews that outlets may broadcast.

Players' Personal Telephone Numbers

At no time will a player's home or mobile phone number be released to either the media or the public unless the player specifically authorizes such release. Members of the media attempting to reach players must do so through the Capitals media relations staff; failure to do so, regardless of a media member's existing relationship with a player, may result in forfeiture of credentials.

Team Medical Rooms

Team medical rooms located at Verizon Center, Kettler Capitals Iceplex or any other practice facility are off limits to the media at all times.

Ted Leonsis

Founder, Chairman, Majority Owner and Chief Executive Officer Monumental Sports & Entertainment

– the Washington Capitals (NHL), the Washington Wizards (NBA) and the Washington Mystics (WNBA) – as well as Verizon Center. The company also operates Kettler Capitals Iceplex (the Capitals training facility and front office) and George Mason University's Patriot Center.

Leonsis retired from active management of AOL in 2006, where during the previous 13 years he held a number of senior positions, including vice chairman and president. Since his retirement from active management at AOL, Leonsis retains the position of vice chairman emeritus. At a May 2010 ceremony celebrating AOL's 25th anniversary, one of the buildings on AOL's Virginia campus was renamed the Leonsis Creative Center in his honor.

Recently Leonsis was chairman of Revolution Money, which provides secure payments through an Internet-based platform and in 2009 was sold to American Express; Leonsis is now on the board of directors at American Express. He is currently chairman of Clearspring Technologies, the largest online content sharing network, which connects publishers, services and advertisers to audiences on the social web. Over the past 20 years he has been a board member or early investor in a number of successful technology companies, from Google to Groupon.

In 2008 Leonsis founded SnagFilms, which enables online audiences to find, watch, share and support thousands of documentary films. SnagFilms grew out of Leonsis' experience as a producer of such award-winning documentary films as Nanking and Kicking It. Nanking premiered at the 2007 Sundance Film Festival, where it was awarded the Documentary Editing Award and has won a Peabody Award and an Emmy Award. Kicking It premiered at the 2008 Sundance Film Festival and aired on ESPN. A third documentary produced by Leonsis, A Fighting Chance, aired on ESPN in 2010. In addition to being the Internet's leading site for watching and sharing nonfiction films, SnagFilms owns indieWIRE, the leading news, information and networking site for independent-minded filmmakers, the industry and moviegoers alike.

While working on documentaries and establishing SnagFilms, Leonsis coined and championed the term "filmanthropy." It is his unique way of combining film and philanthropy, raising the awareness of important issues with the goal of promoting change by increasing volunteerism and activating charitable giving.

Leonsis' book The Business of Happiness: 6 Secrets To Extraordinary Success In Work And Life was published in February 2010 and quickly became a bestseller. Previous books by Leonsis include Blue Magic: The People, Power, and Politics Behind The IBM Personal Computer (1988).

In addition to serving on the board of directors of American Express, where he is chairman of the Technology and Innovation Committee, Leonsis sits on the board of publicly held companies such as Nutrisystem and Rosetta Stone. He also serves on the Technology Committee of the board of directors for Alcatel-Lucent. He also serves on the board of directors of his alma mater, Georgetown University. Leonsis has numerous business interests and investments, including the following companies: Algentis, GridPoint, Triporati, Mahalo.com, MediaBank, MobilePosse, ObjectVideo, SB Nation, TidalTV and Zedge.

Leonsis is a committed philanthropist and is actively involved with numerous charities, including Best Buddies, D.C. Central Kitchen, ePals, See Forever Foundation, Street Soccer USA, Venture Philanthropy Partners, YouthAIDS and others through the work of the Leonsis Foundation.

Early in his career Leonsis was the founder of several new media companies, including Redgate Communications, a pioneering "new media company" – a phrase Leonsis is credited with coining – that in 1993 was the first company acquired by AOL. He was also the founder of six personal computer magazines and worked on the introduction of the IBM PC and the Apple Macintosh. He co-invented a successful board game called "Only in New York" and served as a marketing executive with Harris Corp and Wang Laboratories.

He once served as mayor of Orchid, Fla. Among his many honors, Leonsis has been named Washington's Businessman of the Year, a Washingtonian of the Year, one of the 20 most influential people in sports, one of America's most creative executives and a top 10 entrepreneur of the year. Leonsis blogs daily at TedsTake.com. Originally from Brooklyn and later, Lowell, Mass., Leonsis, his wife and two children now reside in Potomac, Md., after purchasing the Marwood Estate.

George McPhee

Vice President and General Manager

McPhee has provided solid direction for the Capitals franchise by instituting a team-first philosophy that has extended from his hockey operations staff to the players on the ice. McPhee has led a Capitals organization that has grown from a lottery team to Southeast Division champions in each of the last four seasons and the Presidents' Trophy winners in 2009-10.

Named the fifth general manager in team history June 9, 1997, McPhee found immediate success with the Capitals while engineering the club's first trip to the Stanley Cup Finals in his first season (1997-98). Under his leadership the team has claimed six Southeast Division championships (1999-00, 2000-01, 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10 and 2010-11), seven 40-or-more win seasons (1997-98, 1999-00, 2000-01, 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10 and 2010-11) and set a club record for wins and points (2009-10).

In efforts to further cultivate the Capitals as a competitive and progressive franchise, McPhee has stressed the growth of the Washington organization through scouting, coaching, amateur drafts, free agency, trades and minor-league development. These focus points have resulted in 16 first-round draft picks during the last nine years, the most of any NHL team, including the No. 1 overall pick in 2004, Alex Ovechkin, the league's first repeat MVP in more than a decade. Capitals prospects have enjoyed tremendous success as well, leading the Hershey Bears of the American Hockey League to the 2006, 2009 and 2010 Calder Cup championships and four appearances in the Calder Cup finals in a five-year span.

Prior to joining the Capitals, McPhee spent five seasons as the vice president and director of hockey operations as well as alternate governor for the Vancouver Canucks, assisting then general manager Pat Quinn with all hockey-related matters. McPhee began his playing career in his hometown of Guelph, Ont., with the Ontario Junior Hockey League's Guelph Platers, leading them to the 1978 Centennial Cup, Canada's Tier II championship. Following his stint with the Platers, McPhee attended Bowling Green State University of the Central Collegiate Hockey Association, where he became one of college hockey's most decorated players. Earning a degree in business, he became the first player to be named to the CCHA All-Academic Team in three consecutive seasons.

Upon the completion of his college career, McPhee signed as a free agent with the New York Rangers and started his NHL career during the 1982 Stanley Cup playoffs. Boudreau, 56, became the 14th head coach in Washington Capitals history when he was named to the position on an interim basis, Nov. 22, 2007, and had the interim tag removed Dec. 26, 2007. He has a 189-79-39 record with Washington.

Boudreau's Capitals barely trail San Jose (190-79-38) for the best record in the NHL since he was hired. Boudreau won his 100th career game Nov. 17, 2009, in his 164th game behind the bench – the fourth-fastest coach in NHL history to reach 100 victories.

Boudreau led the Capitals on a remarkable comeback from 30th in the NHL when he took over on Thanksgiving Day to the Southeast Division championship in 2007-08, his first season. His record of 37-17-7 would have been good for a 109-point pace in the course of a full season. The Capitals posted 17 come-from-behind victories under Boudreau and finished 20-6-7 in games decided by one goal. Boudreau was the first coach in NHL history to lead his team from 14th place at midseason to a playoff berth.

Boudreau became the second Capitals head coach to win the Jack Adams Award (Bryan Murray, 1984) and the first coach since Bill Barber in 2001 to win the Jack Adams award after taking over a team in midseason.

In 2008-09, Boudreau guided his team to what was the best record in franchise history and a successful defense of the Southeast Division title, as well as Washington's first playoff series victory since 1998. His team ranked second in the NHL on the power play (25.2%) and third in goals per game (3.27) and he coached the repeat Hart Trophy winner (Alex Ovechkin) and two members of the NHL First All-Star Team (Ovechkin and Mike Green).

Boudreau's 2009-10 Capitals team won the Presidents' Trophy and became the first team outside of the Original Six to accumulate at least 120 points in a season. The Capitals set franchise records in wins (54) and points (121) while leading the NHL in scoring (3.82) and power play (25.2%) for the first time. Boudreau's team had seven 20-plus goal scorers, the NHL leader in plus/minus (Jeff Schultz, +50) and two repeat NHL First All-Star Team selections (Ovechkin and Green).

Boudreau has coached championship teams in the American Hockey League (AHL) and the ECHL and was in his third year as the head coach of the Hershey Bears, Washington's AHL affiliate, when he was promoted to D.C. He led the Bears to the Eastern Conference championship and the Calder Cup finals in each of his two full seasons in Hershey, winning the Calder Cup in 2006. Boudreau compiled a 103-45-11-16 record with the Bears (a .666 winning percentage), including an AHL-best 51-17-6-6 record (.713) in 2006-07.

Boudreau spent nine seasons as an AHL head coach, having compiled a 340-216-56-43 career record. He spent four years with the Manchester Monarchs and two years with the Lowell Lock Monsters before joining the Bears. Before ascending to the AHL, he was the head coach and director of hockey operations for the Mississippi Sea Wolves (ECHL), where he won the 1999 Kelly Cup championship.

2010-11 Capitals Notes

Leading the way

The Capitals earned the top seed in the Eastern Conference for the second straight season for the first time in franchise history. In doing so, Washington also captured their fourth consecutive Southeast Division title. That streak of division championships is tied with San Jose for the longest active streak in the NHL. It is the longest streak in Capitals franchise history.

Century club

The Capitals finished the 2010-11 regular season with 107 points, tied for the third-highest total in franchise history. This marks the third straight season the Capitals have reached the 100-point plateau. The only other time Washington has recorded three consecutive 100-point seasons was from 1983-84 through 1985-86.

All about Ovi

Alex Ovechkin became the sixth-youngest player to reach 300 goals (25 years, 200 days) and the seventh-quickest player to reach 300 goals in terms of games played (473) when he tallied on Apr. 4 in Toronto. In addition, Ovechkin's overtime tally on Apr. 2 versus Buffalo was his third overtime game-winner of the season and the 10th of his NHL career. He has twice as many overtime game-winners as any other Capital; Peter Bondra and Kelly Miller each had five. Ovechkin's goal was his 30th of the season, marking the sixth consecutive season in which he has reached that plateau. The club record is nine straight 30-goal seasons, set by Mike Gartner. Ovechkin also recorded his 50th assist of the season, marking the fourth time in six NHL seasons that he has achieved that milestone. Ovechkin is one of only seven players to start their NHL careers with six-straight seasons of 80 points or more.

Perennial postseasons

With their 5-4, shootout win on Mar. 22 in Philadelphia, the Washington Capitals clinched their fourth straight playoff berth, marking the longest streak of playoff appearances in franchise history since their 14-straight postseason trips from the 1982-83 season through 1995-96.

Over the hill

With 48 wins this season, the Capitals captured their fourth consecutive 40-win campaign. This is the first time in franchise history that Washington has won 40 or more games in four straight seasons.

SRO

Washington closed out the regular season home schedule with a 25-8-8 record and the second best home winning percentage in the NHL (.707). The Capitals also had the least amount of regulation losses at home and finished second, behind Vancouver (59), in points earned at home (58). Washington has finished ranked in the top three in home record in each of the past three seasons, pacing the league with a 30-5-6 record last year and finishing third in 2008-09 (29-9-3). Their 84 wins at home in the last three seasons are tied with San Jose for most in the NHL during that span. For the second consecutive year, the Capitals sold out all of their home games and set a club record with 101 consecutive sellouts dating back to 2008-09 (including playoffs).

Road warriors

The Capitals, who went 23-15-3 on the road this season, have won at least 20 road games for four consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history. The 23 road wins this season were the second-most in franchise history, just one behind last season's total of 24. The Caps allowed 97 goals (2.37 p/g) on the road, which was tied for second in the NHL. Washington went 17-7-2 in its last 26 road games and allowed just 52 goals in those 26 contests (2.00 per game). In 18 of their last 26 road games, the Caps allowed two or fewer goals a game.

Near the top

The Capitals were near the top of the league in several statistical categories:

Team, Goals Against: The Caps 2.33 goals-against per game was ranked fourth in the NHL. They allowed 197 goals, fourth-best in the league and the third-least in franchise history

Team, Face Offs: Washington finished sixth in the league in faceoffs, winning 51.6% of their draws Washington won 26 one-goal games this season, second in the NHL (Anaheim, 28).

Goaltender, Rookies: Michal Neuvirth finished third amongst rookie goaltenders in wins (27) and goals-against average (2.45)

Player, Shots: Alex Ovechkin became the first player in NHL history to lead the league in shots (367) six times (since the stat was first kept in 1967-68)

Killing fields

The Capitals finished the season tied for second in the league, killing off 85.6% of opponents' power play. It was their fifth-best penalty killing percentage in franchise history. Washington has led the NHL in penalty killing three times in their team history, most recently in 1997-98 when they finished with an 89.2% penalty kill percentage.

In the record books

Capitals head coach Bruce Boudreau' recorded more wins (184) in his first 300 NHL games than any coach in the NHL history, passing Mike Keenan's 183 victories. In addition, Boudreau's .679 career winning percentage is the best of any coach in history with at least 250 games of experience.

Marching on

Washington posted a record of 12-2-1 in March, the best month of March in franchise history. The Capitals fell one win and one point shy of the franchise marks for one month in those categories. The Caps scored 43 goals (2.87 G/G), allowed 27 (1.80 GA/G) and killed off 50 of their 55 penalties (91%) during the month.

Triple play

For the first time in the Capitals' 36-year franchise history, three different goaltenders recorded 10 wins or more in the regular season. Michal Neuvirth led with 27 while Semyon Varlamov had 11 and Braden Holtby finished with 10. Washington is the first team in NHL history with three goaltenders aged 22 or younger (age prior to Feb. 1 of season in question) to record 10 or more wins in a season.

Nine in a row

The Capitals' nine-game winning streak from 2/26 – 3/15 was their longest of the season and lengthiest since the franchise-record 14-game run from Jan. 13-Feb. 7, 2010.

Young Gun

John Carlson matched a single-season franchise record for most points by a rookie defenseman with 37, a mark that stood for nearly three decades. Robert Picard notched 37 points as a rookie in 1977-78 and Greg Theberge matched it in his freshman campaign of 1981-82. Carlson finished his rookie campaign leading all NHL rookie defensemen in ice time (22:38), was ranked third among NHL rookies in plus/minus (+21), fourth among NHL rookie defensemen in points (37), third in assists (30) and tied for fourth in goals (7).

Rookie Record

Caps goaltender Michal Neuvirth finished with 27 wins to break Bob Mason's franchise record for victories by a rookie goaltender with 20 set during the 1986-87 season while his four shutouts also tied the rookie record set by Jim Carey (1994-95). In addition, Neuvirth became the first Capitals goaltender to post 10 wins in the team's first 16 games and became the last goaltender in the NHL this season to allow more than four goals in a game (36th game).

K street

Mike Knuble scored 24 goals this season, marking the eighth consecutive year in which he has scored 20 or more goals in a season. He is one of eight active players in the league to have scored at least 20 goals in eight straight seasons. Knuble's 24 tallies were also the third-most for all players aged 35 and older.

400

Jason Arnott tallied his 400th career NHL goal on Apr. 2 versus the Buffalo Sabres to become just the 84th player in NHL history to score 400 goals and is one of only six active players who have tallied 400 goals or more. Since being acquired from the New Jersey Devils on Feb. 28, Arnott has recorded seven points (four goals, three assists) in 11 games with the Capitals.

Working overtime

The Capitals set a single-season franchise mark with 25 overtime games in a season, besting the previous record of 24 set during the 2009-10 season. Washington finished 8-1 in their last nine games that went to overtime or the shootout.

Whitewashington

The Capitals recorded their eighth shutout of the season on Mar. 26 at Montreal (2-0) to tie the franchise mark set during the 1983-84 campaign. The club record for most shutouts in a single season is nine, set in 1995-96.

Hat trick hero

Alexander Semin, who has seven career hat-tricks, became the first Capital with four three-goal games in a single season since Peter Bondra accomplished that feat during the 1995-96 season.

Success north of the border

Washington, D.C.

Located in the heart of the nation's capital, Verizon Center is surrounded by an assortment of political, cultural, educational and social attractions. With more free attractions than any other U.S. city, Washington, D.C., is one of the most popular tourist sites in the world. Hockey fans can stroll through the city, relax on the Mall, visit the White House, Capitol Hill or any of the numerous monuments, museums and memorials.

Getting Around

The District of Columbia offers one of the nation's finest means of public transportation, the Metro. The Metro system is a clean, convenient way to access all parts of the city and some outlying suburbs.

Metro consists of five color-coded lines, all of which stop at points within walking distance of Verizon Center. The red, yellow and green lines deliver passengers to the Gallery Place/Chinatown station (at the corner of 7th and F Streets), just steps from the front entrance of Verizon Center, while the red, blue and orange lines stop at nearby Metro Center.
