CREDENTIALS & MEDIA SERVICES

Media Credentials

The Washington Capitals will honor 2009-10 season media credentials that feature a Stanley Cup playoff logo sticker for the team's home games at Verizon Center during the first three rounds of the Stanley Cup playoffs. As in the regular season, anyone with a season credential who requires a press box seat must alert a member of the media relations staff that they are planning to attend by 4 p.m. the day prior to a game.

Media who do not have a season credential may apply for single-game credentials. These requests must be made in writing to a member of the Capitals media relations staff and be received no later than noon the day prior to a game.

As always, credentials and seat assignments are subject to availability.

While each club handles credentials for the first three rounds of the playoffs, the National Hockey League's public relations office manages the credential process for the Stanley Cup final. An application for Stanley Cup final credentials is available on NHLMedia.com and must be submitted by Wednesday, May 12.

Non-North American media outlets are required to request media credentials through the National Hockey League by contacting David Keon at dkeon@nhl.com.

Capitals media credentials are issued to print, television, radio and online media outlets that adhere to professional standards, regularly produce quality content and have a demonstrated audience. Space limitations may impact the decision to grant credentials. The final decision on all applications for media credentials rests with the Capitals media relations staff; we reserve the right to revoke media credentials at any time.

News Releases

Accredited members of the media who would like to receive Capitals news releases via e-mail should contact a member of the media relations staff with an e-mail address. Each morning the Capitals send out "Caps Today," which includes an updated practice schedule and the top storyline of the day. We offer additional updates, including late practice time changes and in-game notes, at twitter.com/capsmedia

NHLMedia.com

The NHL's password-protected media site includes statistics, press releases, game notes, credential applications, player headshots and pdf files of every team's media guide. To access the site, visit <http://media.nhl.com>.

MEDIA FACILITIES – VERIZON CENTER

Media Entrance

The media entrance to Verizon Center is located on 6th Street. Credentials to Capitals games may be picked up at the media entrance, which is open from two and a half hours prior to game time until the midway point of the first period. All media must show a photo ID and are subject to a security search.

Press Work Area and Press Lounge

The press work area and press lounge are located on the Event Level (ice level). The press lounge is located directly adjacent to the media work area. Meals are served buffet style two hours prior to game time. All food must be consumed in the press lounge and may not be taken to the press box. The press work area is located at the rear of the press lounge. There are reserved seats for beat media and additional work spaces with telephones and wireless Internet access.

Press Box

The press box is on the sixth floor of Verizon Center, on the penalty box side of the ice. Seats are on an assigned basis only. Please check the seating charts in the press room or press box, or check with the press box attendant for your seat assignment. The press box features wireless Internet access.

In order to ensure seating in the press box, it is necessary for all media to notify the Capitals' media relations staff of their attendance by 4 p.m. the day prior to the game. If you do not have an assigned seat, please check with a member of the media relations staff.

Overflow Media Area

Media without an assigned seat in the press box may watch the game on television monitors in the Press Lounge on the Event Level.

Media Parking

Media parking at Verizon Center is extremely limited and assigned prior to the season. There are numerous lots within walking distance of Verizon Center, and Verizon Center is adjacent to the Gallery Place/Chinatown Metro Station. Gallery Place can be reached on the Red, Yellow and Green lines. It is also one stop away from Metro Center, which provides service to the Blue and Orange lines. Metro will remain open at least one hour after the conclusion of any playoff games that go into overtime.

Photography

Media Policies

MEDIA FACILITIES – KETTLER CAPITALS ICEPLEX

Work Room

Kettler Capitals Iceplex features a media work room adjacent to the ice, near the entrance of the Capitals' locker room. The work room features high-speed and wireless Internet access. During the playoffs, overflow work space is provided in the party room overlooking the Capitals' practice rink or in the Capitals' offices.

MEDIA ACCESS AND INTERVIEWS

Practice Sessions

The media has access to all team practices at all practice facilities, including game-day skates, in accordance with the NHL Media Regulations. The media is allowed to enter the team locker room five minutes after the first regular player who has participated in the entire practice leaves the ice. In the event of a team meeting, the media will be allowed access immediately following the conclusion of the meeting. The locker room is closed to the media prior to and during practice.

Per NHL Media Regulations, media access at Kettler Capitals Iceplex is limited to the team's main locker room and the entrance to the locker room. All other areas of the training center are off limits to media. Capitals game-day skates are typically held at 10 a.m. at Kettler. During the playoffs the Capitals will offer a shuttle bus to take media downtown at the conclusion of Washington's morning skate.

Pregame

The Capitals locker room is closed prior to game time, although requested players will be made available during a 30-minute window beginning two hours prior to faceoff, with priority given to broadcast rightsholders. Television networks, including rightsholders, requesting pregame interviews with a player are asked to request these times prior to or during the morning skate. Head coach Bruce Boudreau is available to the media outside the Capitals' locker room two hours prior to faceoff.

Postgame

The Capitals' locker room will be open to working media five minutes after the conclusion of the game. Both teams' coaches and select players will attend a press conference held at the Verizon Center's basketball practice court. The visiting team coach will go first, followed by Bruce Boudreau.

If the media wishes to interview a player who is not present in the locker room, contact a Capitals' media relations representative who will locate the player and make him available.

Video

All outlets are prohibited by the NHL from shooting game footage of any Capitals game being played at Verizon Center. Television and online outlets are welcome to shoot Capitals practices, but are restricted to broadcasting five minutes of on-ice video content from any one practice. There is no limit to the length of interviews that outlets may broadcast.

Players' Personal Telephone Numbers

At no time will a player's home or mobile phone number be released to either the media or the public unless the player specifically authorizes such release. Members of the media attempting to reach players must do so through the Capitals media relations staff.

Autographs

Media attending Capitals' practices or games are strictly forbidden from requesting autographs. Any person with a media pass observed asking players for autographs will be asked to leave and may not be granted credentials in the future.

Leonsis is the founder, chairman and majority owner of Lincoln Holdings LLC, a sports and entertainment company that holds ownership rights in several Washington, D.C., entities, including 100% of the Washington Capitals and the WNBA's Washington Mystics. Lincoln Holdings also owns approximately 44% of Washington Sports and Entertainment Limited Partnership (WSELP), which owns the NBA's Washington Wizards, D.C.'s Verizon Center and the Baltimore-Washington Ticketmaster franchise.

In addition to Lincoln Holdings, Leonsis has investments and/or sits on the board of directors for several companies: Argentis LLC; Beacon Capital Strategies LLC; Bridgevine Inc.; Capitol Acquisition Corp; GridPoint; LaunchBox Digital; Triporati; Mahalo.com; MediaBank; Groupon.com; Mevio; MobilePosse; ObjectVideo; SB Nation; TidalTV; and Zedge. "Nanking" made its world premiere at the 2007 Sundance Film Festival, where it was awarded the Documentary Editing Award, and was released by THINKFilm in December 2007. The film won a Peabody Award and was nominated for three Emmy Awards. The film aired on HBO and is available on DVD.

While at the 2007 Sundance Film Festival, Leonsis coined the phrase "filmanthropy" to describe a new category of filmmaking that sheds light on important issues around the world and activates discussion as well as new volunteers and new funds to benefit a social cause. Leonsis is also the producer of "Kicking It," another example of filmanthropy, which debuted at the 2008 Sundance Film Festival. "Kicking It" aired on ESPN and Netflix.

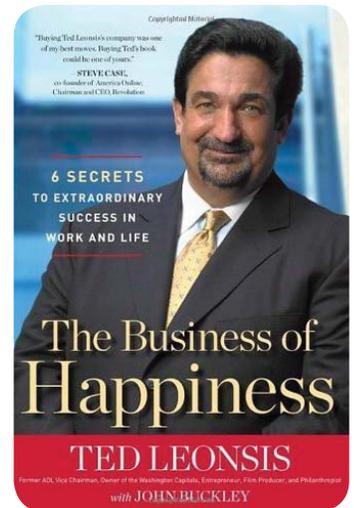

Leonsis recently published a book, "The Business of Happiness: 6 Secrets to Extraordinary Success in Work and Life," which examines what actually makes people happy. Business and financial success doesn't necessarily yield happiness, but happiness certainly can lead to professional and personal success. The book examines the six tenets to a happiness, shares relevant anecdotes that readers can apply not only at work but also in their everyday personal lives. Everyone wants to be happy and successful at what they do, and Leonsis' book provides the roadmap to achieving that happiness.

Dick Patrick President

Dick Patrick, along with Ted Leonsis, is one of the original partners in Lincoln Holdings LLC, which was formed in the spring of 1999. A mainstay for the Washington Capitals' franchise for more than two decades, the owner, president and alternate governor continues to lead the club with his tireless effort and intense desire to continue a family tradition – engraving the Patrick name onto the Stanley Cup.

For three generations the family name of Patrick has been synonymous with the sport of hockey and the National Hockey League. Patrick's grandfather, Lester Patrick, was the longtime coach and general manager of the New York Rangers. In his honor the Lester Patrick Trophy is awarded annually for "outstanding service to hockey in the United States." It was Lester who instilled in his family the desire to remain active in the advancement of the sport of hockey and the National Hockey League. Patrick's father, Muzz, and uncle, Lynn, both played on the 1940 New York Rangers team that captured the Stanley Cup.

Patrick's cousin, Craig Patrick, played for the Capitals from 1977-79. He won two Stanley Cups as general manager of the Pittsburgh Penguins and was enshrined in the Hockey Hall of Fame in November 2001 in the "builder" category.

Patrick, who joined the Capitals prior to the 1982-83 season, guides the organization on a daily basis. The former chairman of the NHL Finance Committee, Patrick has been instrumental in the Capitals' long-term success as a franchise both on and off the ice. Patrick was a leader in the conception and development of the Kettler Capitals Iceplex, the team's state-of-the-art training center and office building that opened in 2006 in Arlington, Va.

Before Patrick's arrival the Capitals never had advanced to postseason play. In his 28 seasons with the club, Washington has qualified for the playoffs 21 times – including the team's magical run to the Stanley Cup finals in 1998 with a team led by a blend of veterans and eager youngsters and this year's Presidents' Trophy winners. The 2009-10 Southeast Division championship is the sixth division title Washington has won under Patrick's watch and third in as many years.

In addition to his commitment to the Capitals, Patrick previously served as co-chairman of the Washington, D.C., Division of the Fighting Blindness League. FBL, a charity event sponsored by the National Hockey League, benefits the Foundation Fighting Blindness in the fight against retinal degenerative diseases. Held in nine NHL cities on the eve of the Stanley Cup playoffs, FBL gives participants the chance to "own" an imaginary NHL franchise and participate in a rotisserie-style fantasy draft of NHL players.

Born in 1946 in Victoria, B.C., Patrick grew up in the United States. He earned his undergraduate degree from Dartmouth College and a law degree from the Washington College of Law at American University. He has developed commercial real estate in the Washington, D.C., area for more than 20 years and, while raising children who have skated within local youth hockey programs, he has been instrumental in increasing the Capitals' involvement in youth programs throughout the area.

George McPhee

Vice President and General Manager

In 13 years as vice president and general manager of the Washington Capitals, George McPhee has overseen the club's development with an emphasis on scouting, drafting, coaching and building from within. McPhee has provided solid direction for the Capitals franchise by instituting a team-first philosophy that has extended from his hockey operations staff to the players on the ice. McPhee has led a Capitals organization that has grown from a lottery team to Southeast Division champions in each of the last three seasons and the Presidents' Trophy winners this year.

Named the fifth general manager in team history June 9, 1997, McPhee found immediate success with the Capitals while engineering the club's first trip to the Stanley Cup Finals in his first season (1997-98). Under his leadership the team has claimed five Southeast Division championships (1999-00, 2000-01, 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2009-10), six 40-or-more win seasons (1997-98, 1999-00, 2000-01, 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2009-10) and a club-record 54-win, 120-point season (2009-10).

In efforts to further cultivate the Capitals as a competitive and progressive franchise, McPhee has stressed the growth of the Washington organization through scouting, coaching, amateur drafts, free agency, trades and minor-league development. These focus points have resulted in 15 first-round draft picks during the last eight years, the most of any NHL team, including the No. 1 overall pick in 2004, Alex Ovechkin, the league's first repeat MVP in more than a decade. Capitals prospects have enjoyed tremendous success as well, leading the Hershey Bears of the American Hockey League to the 2006 and 2009 Calder Cup championships and three appearances in the Calder Cup finals in a four-year span.

Prior to joining the Capitals, McPhee spent five seasons as the vice president and director of hockey operations as well as alternate governor for the Vancouver Canucks, assisting then general manager Pat Quinn with all hockey-related matters. In his time with the Canucks, the team enjoyed four trips to the playoffs, a division championship and a trip to the 1994 Stanley Cup Finals.

McPhee began his playing career in his hometown of Guelph, Ont., with the Ontario Junior Hockey League's Guelph Platers, leading them to the 1978 Centennial Cup, Canada's Tier II championship. Following his stint with the Platers, McPhee attended Bowling Green State University of the Central Collegiate Hockey Association, where he became one of college hockey's most decorated players. A four-year letterwinner from 1978-82, he was the recipient of the 1982 Hobey Baker Memorial Award, given to the top player in college hockey. His other accolades included a first-team All-CCHA selection in 1982, second-team All-CCHA honors in 1979 and 1981 and his selection as the CCHA's Rookie of the Year in 1979. Earning a degree in business, he became the first player to be named to the CCHA All-Academic Team in three consecutive seasons.

Upon the completion of his college career, McPhee signed as a free agent with the New York Rangers and started his NHL career during the 1982 Stanley Cup playoffs. Following his seven-year playing career with the Rangers and New Jersey Devils, McPhee earned his law degree from Rutgers University in 1992.

Brian MacLellan

Assistant General Manager, Player Personnel

Brian MacLellan is in his ninth season with the Washington Capitals and third as the team's assistant general manager, player personnel.

MacLellan, who served as a pro scout for the Capitals from 2000-03 and then was promoted to director of player personnel, assists and advises vice president and general manager George McPhee in all player-related matters. MacLellan also oversees the club's professional scouting staff and works closely with the team's American Hockey League affiliate, the Hershey Bears, who won the Calder Cup in 2006 and 2009.

MacLellan, who won a Stanley Cup with the Calgary Flames in 1989, had a 10-year NHL career in which he skated for the Los Angeles Kings, New York Rangers, Minnesota North Stars, Flames and Detroit Red Wings. A forward who played 606 NHL games, MacLellan recorded 172 goals, 241 assists and 413 points. MacLellan also won a silver medal with Team Canada at the 1985 World Championship in Prague.

The Guelph, Ontario, native played hockey at Bowling Green State University from 1978-82, where he graduated with a bachelor of science in business administration. In 1982, he was named an All-American defenseman and First-Team All-CCHA. MacLellan earned his MBA in finance from the University of St. Thomas in 1995 and went on to work for an investment consulting firm in Minneapolis before joining the Capitals as a pro scout.

Don Fishman

Assistant General Manager, Director of Legal Affairs

Don Fishman is in his fifth season with the Washington Capitals and third as an assistant general manager and director of legal affairs.

In this role, he assists vice president and general manager George McPhee with player contract negotiations, player contract research and analysis, the salary arbitration process, NHL and team salary cap analysis and interpretation of NHL/NHLPA Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) issues.

Fishman, who spent two seasons as director of legal affairs and hockey administration before his appointment to assistant general manager, also assists with the day-to-day operations of the Capitals hockey operations department such as roster issues, player movement, budgeting, summer development camp planning, training camp planning and preseason and regular-season scheduling. In addition,

Fishman serves as legal counsel for the Capitals organization and the Washington Mystics WNBA basketball club.

Prior to joining the Capitals, Fishman served as general counsel of two Washington, D.C., city government agencies. In his role with District government, he worked as part of the local host committee that successfully bid for the 2009 NCAA Men's Hockey Frozen Four, held at Verizon Center in April 2009. Fishman also worked as a corporate and communications lawyer in Washington and Los Angeles with Latham & Watkins and Ervin, Cohen & Jessup.

Fishman, a native Washingtonian, graduated from Harvard College, where he served as the radio voice of Harvard hockey, and UCLA School of Law.

Ross Mahoney

Director of Amateur Scouting

Now in his 12th year as director of amateur scouting, Ross Mahoney is responsible for all of the Capitals' selections at the NHL Entry Draft as well as overseeing the organization's amateur scouting staff.

Prior to joining the Capitals, Mahoney was a scout with the Buffalo Sabres and Vancouver Canucks. He has coaching experience with the University of Regina, the Western Hockey League's Regina Pats and at the international level. He coached Canada's elite under-17 program in two World Championships. In 1995 he coached Team Saskatchewan to the gold medal at the Canadian Winter Games.

Mahoney earned a degree in education from the University of Regina, where he played hockey for the Cougars. After graduating he spent 17 years as a teacher.

Mahoney played junior hockey for the Tier II Regina Pat Blues and the Regina Pats in the WHL. He also played four years at the University of Regina, helping lead his team to two national finals. Mahoney was inducted in the Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame in 1999. An excellent baseball player as well, Mahoney was offered a scholarship to play in college in Iowa, but a knee injury prevented him from doing so.

Bruce Boudreau

Head Coach

Bruce Boudreau, the 2007-08 Jack Adams Award winner as the NHL's coach of the year and a member of the AHL Hall of Fame, has led the Washington Capitals to the Southeast Division championship in each of his three seasons as the team's head coach.

Boudreau, 55, became the 14th head coach in Washington Capitals history when he was named to the position on an interim basis, Nov. 22, 2007, and had the interim tag removed Dec. 26, 2007. He has a 141-56-28 record with Washington and was the fourth-fastest coach in NHL history to reach 100 wins (164 games).

Boudreau led the Capitals on a remarkable comeback from 30th in the NHL when he took over on Thanksgiving Day to the Southeast Division championship in 2007-08, his first season. His record of 37-17-7 would have been good for a 109-point pace in the course of a full season. The Capitals posted 17 come-from-behind victories under Boudreau and finished 20-6-7 in games decided by one goal. Boudreau was the first coach in NHL history to lead his team from 14th place at midseason to a playoff berth.

Boudreau became the second Capitals head coach to win the Jack Adams Award (Bryan Murray, 1984) and the first coach since Bill Barber in 2001 to win the Jack Adams award after taking over a team in midseason.

In 2008-09, Boudreau guided his team to a successful defense of the Southeast Division title, as well as Washington's first playoff series victory since 1998. His team ranked second in the NHL on the power play (25.2%) and third in goals per game (3.27) and he coached the repeat Hart Trophy winner (Alex Ovechkin) and two members of the NHL First All-Star Team (Ovechkin and Mike Green).

This season Boudreau's team has exceeded the standards he set in his first two years. Washington established a slew of club records, including wins (54), points (120) and power play percentage (25.2%) en route to the Presidents' Trophy and the top seed in the Eastern Conference. The Capitals were the highest scoring team in the NHL since 1995-96 and led the league in goals and power play for the first time in team history.

Boudreau has coached championship teams in the American Hockey League (AHL) and the ECHL and was in his third year as the head coach of the Hershey Bears, Washington's AHL affiliate, when he was promoted to D.C. He led the Bears to the Eastern Conference championship and the Calder Cup finals in each of his two full seasons in Hershey, winning the Calder Cup in 2006. Boudreau compiled a 103-45-11-16 record with the Bears (a .666 winning percentage), including an AHL-best 51-17-6-6 record (.713) in 2006-07.

Boudreau spent nine seasons as an AHL head coach, having compiled a 340-216-56-43 career record. He spent four years with the Manchester Monarchs and two years with the Lowell Lock Monsters before joining the Bears. Before ascending to the AHL, he was the head coach and director of hockey operations for the Mississippi Sea Wolves (ECHL), where he won the 1999 Kelly Cup championship.

After making his head-coaching debut in the Colonial Hockey League with the Muskegon Fury in 1992-93, Boudreau took over the Fort Wayne Komets of the International Hockey League (IHL) in 1993-94. The Komets advanced Bruce Boudreau was the fourth-fastest coach all-time to reach 100 wins.

Bruce Boudreau won the Jack Adams Award (above) after leading the Capitals to the playoffs as a midseason hire in 2007-08. On Aug. 20, 2009, Boudreau threw out the first pitch prior to the Washington Nationals vs. Colorado Rockies game at Nats Park in Washington, D.C. (below).

Dean Evason Assistant Coach

Dean Evason is in his fifth season with the Capitals and is the team's longest-tenured assistant coach, having helped direct the Caps to consecutive Southeast Division championships as a member of Bruce Boudreau's staff.

A 13-year NHL veteran and experienced coach in the junior ranks, the former Capital spent the 2004-05 season as co-coach of the Western Hockey League's Calgary Hitmen. Along with co-coach Kelly Kisio, he helped lead the Hitmen to a 34-23-9-6 record and an appearance in the WHL playoffs, where they reached the second round.

Prior to joining Calgary, Evason was the head coach of the WHL's Vancouver Giants for two seasons. He had a combined record of 59-61-14-10 with Vancouver, leading the Giants to their first winning season and playoff appearance in 2003-04.

Evason was the head coach of the WHL's Kamloops Blazers for three years before joining Vancouver, posting a 109-83-17-7 record from 1999 to 2002. His first junior coaching experience came as an assistant with the Calgary Hitmen during the 1999 playoffs, helping them capture the league championship. He also served as a player/coach for two seasons for Landshut of the German Hockey League in 1997-98 and '98-99.

A native of Flin Flon, Manitoba, Evason is a member of the Manitoba Hockey Hall of Fame. He was drafted by the Capitals in the fifth round, 89th overall, in the 1982 Entry Draft and played 17 games over two seasons with Washington in 1983-84 and '84-85. A center, Evason played 13 seasons in the NHL with Washington, Hartford, San Jose, Dallas and Calgary, recording 139 goals and 233 assists in 803 games.

Bob Woods Assistant Coach

Bob Woods, a former player and assistant coach under Bruce Boudreau, enters his first season as an assistant coach for the Capitals. Woods comes to Washington after serving as head coach of the AHL's Hershey Bears, where he led the team to the Calder Cup championship last season.

Woods, 41, served as Hershey's head coach for two seasons and guided the Bears to their 10th Calder Cup championship in 2008-09 with a 49-23-8 record. He was an assistant coach with the Bears on current Capitals head coach Bruce Boudreau's staff when the Bears won the Calder Cup title in 2006. Woods was appointed head coach of the Bears when Boudreau was hired by the Capitals on Nov. 22, 2007. Woods compiled an 83-47-15 record in 145 regular-season games with Hershey and was 17-10 in 27 Calder Cup playoff games.

Prior to joining Hershey in 2005, Woods coached the Mississippi Sea Wolves of the ECHL for four seasons. He compiled a record of 169-94-25 in the regular season and led the Sea Wolves to the playoffs all four years while he was behind the bench, including two trips to the conference finals.

Selected in the 10th round, 201st overall, in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft by the New Jersey Devils, Woods played 13 seasons, including 10 in the ECHL. He was an ECHL All-Star selection four times, and retired as the league's all-time leader in games played with 559. He set an ECHL record on March 14, 1998, as a member of the Tallahassee Tiger Sharks when he fired 17 shots on goal against the Louisiana IceGators. Woods was named second-team defenseman on the ECHL's 15th anniversary team in 2003, and was also named second-team defenseman on the Hockey News' 50th anniversary All-ECHL team in 1997.

A LeRoy, Saskatchewan, native, Woods spent three seasons as player/assistant coach with Mississippi from 1998-2001, playing for Boudreau during that time. He won the Kelly Cup in 1999, and scored 176 points in 209 games with the Sea Wolves, who retired his No. 8 on Oct. 13, 2002.

Blaine Forsythe

Assistant Coach/Video

Blaine Forsythe is in his fourth season with Washington and his first as an assistant coach. Forsythe joined the Capitals as a video coach prior to the 2006-07 season and was an integral member of Bruce Boudreau's staff that helped lead the Capitals to the 2007-08 Southeast Division championship.

Forsythe was promoted to an amateur scout after the 2007-08 season and spent 2008-09 in that position while living in Toronto. He returns to D.C. as an assistant coach and will also oversee the video coaching operations for the Capitals.

Prior to joining the Washington organization, the Calgary, Alberta, native worked for the Calgary Hitmen from 1998-2006, where he served as both an assistant general manager (1998-2006) and an assistant coach (2002-06). While with the Hitmen, Forsythe worked with fellow Capitals' assistant coach Dean Evason, who was both an assistant coach and co-coach of the Hitmen during Forsythe's tenure. Forsythe and Evason helped lead Calgary to a WHL championship in 1999.

Forsythe received a business degree from the University of Minnesota and played Division II hockey at the University of Minnesota, Crookston. He played junior hockey with the CJHL's Pembroke Lumber Kings in Pembroke, Ontario.

Arturs Irbe

Goaltending Coach

Arturs Irbe is in his first season as the goalie coach for the Capitals organization where he works with the team's goaltenders as well as goalie prospects throughout the minor-league system.

Irbe, 42, is a native of Riga, Latvia, and served as the goaltending coach for his hometown Dinamo Riga last season in the Kontinental Hockey League. He has also worked with the Latvian national team, which he represented in the 2002 and 2006 Olympics.

Irbe, a 13-year NHL veteran, played for San Jose, Dallas, Vancouver and Carolina, where he led the team to the Stanley Cup finals in 2001-02. He played in 568 games and compiled a career record of 218-236-79 while appearing in two NHL All-Star Games (1994, 1999). His last NHL season was 2003-04, and he finished his NHL career with a 2.83 goals-against average and an .899 save percentage. Irbe is a former teammate of Capitals' assistant coach Dean Evason, as both players were with the San Jose Sharks from 1991-93.

Irbe played professionally in Europe after he left the NHL and retired completely after appearing in six games with Slovakia's HK Nitra in 2006-07.

Irbe is fluent in English, Latvian and Russian and also speaks some German.

2009-10 Capitals Notes

New heights

Washington posted an NHL-leading 121 points in the regular season, becoming just the fourth franchise and the first outside of the Original 6 to have a 120-point season (Montreal had four, Detroit two and Boston one). It's the most points by any team since Detroit had 124 in 2005-06.

Washington enters the Stanley Cup playoffs hoping to become the eighth Presidents' Trophy winner in 24 years (since it was first awarded in 1985-86) to also win the Stanley Cup. The Capitals are the 14th franchise to claim a Presidents' Trophy and the first from the Southeast Division.

Leading the way

The Capitals led the league in several statistical categories:

- Team, Goals: Washington led the NHL in scoring for the first time with 313 goals, the most in the NHL since 1995-96 (Pittsburgh)
- Team, Power play: Washington led the NHL on the power play with the best percentage in franchise history (25.2%)
- Player, Shots: Alex Ovechkin became the first player in NHL history to lead the league in shots five times (since the stat was first kept in 1967-68)
- Player, Plus/Minus: Jeff Schultz became the first Capital to lead the league in plus/minus and his +50 was the best mark since Peter Forsberg and Milan Hejduk were +52 in 2002-03; the last defenseman to finish +50 was Chris Pronger (+52) in his Hart Trophy season

Young guns

The Capitals boast four of the top 21 scorers in the league in Alex Ovechkin, Nicklas Backstrom, Alexander Semin and Mike Green. Last year that group made the Capitals the first team since the 1995-96 Penguins to have its top four scorers all average more than a point per game, a feat they repeated this year.

Record pace

Washington set club records for wins (54), points (121), fewest losses (15), best power play (25.2%), longest winning streak (14), longest home winning streak (13), wins in a month (13 in January), points on the road (55), wins on the road (24), fewest road losses (10), points at home (66), wins at home (30, tied), fewest home losses (5, tied), fewest penalty minutes (940) and most overtime games (23). Individually, Jeff Schultz set a club record for plus/minus (+50) and Jose Theodore set a club record for best goaltending points percentage (.761).

40-40 club

Alexander Semin scored his career-best 40th goal of the season in the season finale and with Alex Ovechkin (50 goals) gave Washington two 40-goal scorers for the first time since 1988-89, when Dino Ciccarelli (44, 12 coming with Washington), Geoff Courtnall (42) and Mike Ridley (41) each finished with more than 40 goals. Semin and Alex Ovechkin (50) have combined for 90 goals, the most by any two teammates in the NHL, and they became the first two Russian teammates to both score 40 goals.

Goal oriented

The Capitals led the NHL with 313 goals, 45 more (or 17% more) than the next-closest team (not counting shootout "goals" reflected in the standings). The 45-goal gap between the first- and second-leading offensive teams was more than the gap between the sixth-leading team and the lowest scoring team in the league. Washington led the league in goals per game (3.82), even-strength goals (233), power-play goals (79), home goals (156), road goals (157), first-period goals (92), second-period goals (103) and third-period goals (112).

Even if you took away the Caps' league-leading power play they would have finished seventh in the league in goals. Take away Alex Ovechkin's 50 goals and they would have finished third.

Marching two by two

The Capitals combined for 54 multiple-goal games, far and away the most in the league – the other 29 teams averaged 21.0 multiple-goal games. In fact, Capitals players have scored two goals in a period 23 times; 21 teams had 23 or fewer multiple-goal games.

Follow the leader

On Jan. 5, when Alex Ovechkin was named captain, the Capitals were trailing by five points in the Eastern Conference race. After that they went 30-4-7 and won the conference by 18 points.

All about Ovi

Alex Ovechkin joined Wayne Gretzky and Mike Bossy as the only players with four 50-goal seasons in their first five years in the league and joined Gretzky, Mario Lemieux, Peter Stastny, Dale Hawerchuk and Sidney Crosby as the only players with four 100-point seasons in their first five years. Ovechkin is the only player with 90 points each season since 2005-06. He has accounted for four of the nine 50-goal seasons and four of the seven 100-point seasons in Capitals history.

Ovechkin led the NHL in points per game (1.51) and goals per game (0.69). He finished one shy of the NHL goal-scoring lead and three shy of the points lead. His +45 rating trailed only teammate Jeff Schultz and made him just the sixth player in the last 20 years with at least 50 goals and a +45 rating.

Nick of time

Nicklas Backstrom reached 100 points in the same game as Ovechkin hit 50 goals (April 9 vs. ATL), the ninth teammates all-time to do so in the same game and the first since March 15, 1988 (Craig Simpson, 50 goals, and Mark Messier, 100 points). Backstrom and Ovechkin are the first Capitals teammates to both record 100 points in the same season. Backstrom is the fourth Capital to reach the milestone, joining Ovechkin (four times), Mike Gartner and Dennis Maruk (once each).

Backstrom's 33 goals nearly matched his total from his first two seasons combined (36). He had seven multiple-goal games after posting only two in his first two years. Backstrom is the first Capitals center in 20 years to record 30 goals, since Mike Ridley (1989-90), and just the second Capital with 30 goals and 60 assists in the same season (Dennis Maruk also did so in his 136-point season, 1981-82).

Backstrom, Wayne Gretzky and Peter Stastny are the only players in NHL history to post 55 or more assists in each of their first three seasons. His 189 assists the last three seasons trail only Henrik Sedin (204) and Joe Thornton (197) in that time.

Green means go

Mike Green holds the NHL lead among defensemen in goals (19), assists (56) and points (75). Green's +39 rating ranked second among NHL defensemen (trailing only defense partner Jeff Schultz) and includes a +35 rating in games outside the Southeast Division (tied with Alex Ovechkin for the best plus/minus in non-divisional games).

Green was the only defenseman in the NHL with an eight-game point-scoring streak this season, and he had three of them.

Green has the most points by a defenseman in consecutive seasons (149) since a trio of Hall of Famers in 1992-93 and '93-94 (Ray Bourque, Paul Coffey and Larry Murphy). In the last three years he has 23 more goals and 27 more points than any other defenseman.

Green enjoyed his second straight 70-point season, making him just the 13th defenseman all-time to post 70 or more points in consecutive seasons (joining Bourque, Paul Coffey, Brian Leetch, Al MacInnis, Denis Potvin, Phil Housley, Bobby Orr, Larry Murphy, Nicklas Lidstrom, Borje Salming, Gary Suter and Randy Carlyle). He's the seventh to do so before turning 25 (the other six are in the Hall of Fame). Green, Lidstrom and Chris Chelios are the only active defensemen with a single 70-point season.

K Street

Mike Knuble scored 22 goals in his last 39 games, including five two-goal games and goals in each of his last three games. He is enjoying his seventh consecutive 20-goal season, one of nine players in the league with 20-plus goals each year in that time. With 29 goals – despite missing 12 games with a broken finger – Knuble, at 37, shares the lead among all players 34 and older in goals.

Positive development

Jeff Schultz led the NHL at +50, the first player to reach that total since 2002-03 and the first defenseman to do so since Chris Pronger's Hart Trophy season in 1999-00. He is the first Capital to lead the league in plus/minus and established a single-season club record. The Capitals had the top four players in the league in plus/minus – a first since the 1984-85 Edmonton Oilers (Gretzky, Kurri, Krushelnyski and Coffey) – and six of the top 11.

2009-10 Capitals Notes

No way

Jose Theodore went 20-0-3 with a 2.58 goals-against average and a .922 save percentage after Jan. 13. His 23 straight decisions without a regulation loss are the most in Capitals history, and the stretch included his club-record and career-best 10-game winning streak. Theodore was 30-7-7 on the season, his fourth 30-win season and second in a row (one of seven goalies with 30-plus wins each of the last two seasons). He is also the Capitals' nominee for the Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to the game.

Balancing act

Washington is the only team in the NHL to finish with:

- Two 40-goal scorers, three 30-goal scorers or seven 20-goal scorers
- Two 100-point scorers, three 80-point seasons or seven 50-point seasons

Sweep seekers

The Capitals swept three Eastern Conference teams this year: Atlanta (6-0-0), Florida (6-0-0) and Pittsburgh (4-0-0). The Pittsburgh sweep was Washington's fourth all-time against the defending Stanley Cup champion (minimum two games).

Streak seekers

Washington had the NHL's longest winning streak this season (tied for the league's third-longest all-time) at 14 games. The Capitals had three winning streaks of at least six games, more than any other team; before Bruce Boudreau's arrival in 2007-08, the Caps had gone six seasons without a six-game winning streak.

Slump dodgers

The Capitals have not suffered four straight regulation defeats under head coach Bruce Boudreau, the only team without a four-game slump in that time.

More than a .500 club

The Capitals – who finished 39 games over .500 this season – posted the franchise's 1,215th victory in the next-to-last game of the year. Washington has an all-time record of 1,215-1,214-303-72. The Capitals were 212 games under .500 after their first eight seasons in the league. This is the first time in team history the Caps have been over .500.

Just tell us where

The Capitals had the NHL's best record both at home (30-5-6) and on the road (24-10-7).

SRO

The Capitals owned the NHL's best home record at 30-5-6, set the team record for points at home (66) and tied the team record for home wins. Washington hosted sellouts for all 41 home games for the first time (total attendance: 749,357) and a club-record 48 games in a row dating back to last season (56 in a row including playoffs).

One for the road

The Capitals have wrapped up their road schedule with a league-best 24-10-7 road record, establishing club records for road wins and points (55). Nicklas Backstrom led the NHL with 48 points on the road (15g-33a) and the Capitals actually scored more goals on the road (157) than they did at home (156).

Three for all

The Capitals averaged more than three goals a game (3.82). When they scored more than three goals in a game they were 40-2-4.

Always in it

The Capitals lost only seven games by more than a goal and none by more than three goals. They only trailed by two goals in 23 games, tied with Chicago and Calgary for the fewest in the league. Washington only trailed by four goals in two games, and for a total of less than 10 minutes (9:58, Dec. 30 at SJ and March 28 vs. CGY)

Never say die

Washington had a league-leading nine wins in games they trailed by two or more goals. The Capitals came back from three-goal deficits to win three times. They were 22-15-10 in games that they trailed at any point. Washington had the best record in the league when their opponent scored first (16-8-6) or when they trailed after two periods (8-10-4).

Best of the best

Alex Ovechkin, Nicklas Backstrom and Sidney Crosby are the only three players in the league in the top 15 in both goals and assists.

Western conquerors

The Caps finished with a 10-5-3 record against Western teams, tied with Buffalo for the best mark among Eastern teams.

Woe, Canada

The Capitals went 6-5-4 against Canadian teams this season (.533) and 48-10-9 against U.S.-based teams (.784).

Divide and conquer

Washington is the first team to win three straight Southeast Division titles since the division was formed in 1998-99. The Caps' 19-3-2 record against the Southeast was the best divisional record in the NHL.

Nine lives

Five Capitals combined to produce seven point-scoring streaks of at least nine games this season.

Sensational streak

The Capitals' 14-game winning streak from Jan. 13 to Feb. 7 stands tied for the third-best winning streak in NHL history. The streak saw the Capitals get goals from 18 players, outscore opponents 67-33 and score power-play goals in 12 of the 14 games.

NHL Record: Longest Winning Streak

17 Games – Pittsburgh Penguins, 3/9 – 4/10/93

15 Games – New York Islanders, 1/21 – 2/20/82

14 Games – Washington Capitals, 1/13 – 2/7/10, and Boston Bruins, 12/3/29 – 1/9/30

Five alive

Washington scored at least five goals in five straight games in February, matching the longest stretch of five-goal games by an NHL team since 1992-93.

Shooting for three

The Capitals had hat tricks in three straight games – from Alex Ovechkin, Brooks Laich and Alexander Semin – Feb. 7-11 after not recording a hat trick in their first 58 games. The last team to record hat tricks from three players in three games, the 1992-93 Calgary Flames, actually had four in a row (Sergei Makarov, Joe Nieuwendyk, Theo Fleury, Gary Leeman, Oct. 31 to Nov. 5). The previous seven Capitals hat tricks before Laich's – dating back to Alexander Semin's on March 18, 2007 – belonged to Ovechkin.

During the 2009-10 regular season the Capitals established their highest local ratings ever and an average of approximately 40,000 D.C.-area households tuned-in Comcast SportsNet to watch the Caps. Since 2006-07 Capitals ratings on Comcast SportsNet have skyrocketed more than 300%, the largest increase of any NHL team during that span. The team also has generated some of the highest ratings on Versus, the NHL's national broadcast partner, as well as three appearances on NBC this season.

Engaging every fan

The Capitals continue to provide different avenues for every fan to get more involved with the team. Three of those popular avenues are Caps Kids Club, Caps Mobile Fantasy and Scarlet Caps. Caps Kids Club has more than 3,500 members and hosts exclusive special events where members can come to a Capitals practice, play games and get autographs from Caps players. The Caps Kids Club also hosts open skate sessions and pizza parties throughout the season and there are two home games that are focused on Caps Kids Club members. Caps Mobile Fantasy draws more than 3,500 active participants for every game. Caps Mobile Fantasy allows fans to pick one Caps forward and one defenseman each game, and the fan accumulates points based on how much their selected players score in that game. Scarlet Caps, which caters to the female fan base, has received rave reviews this season. The popular, third-annual Hockey 'n Heels sold out in 30 minutes this season and a club brunch and viewing party also sold out in an hour. There are more than 10,000 members in Club Scarlet with new members joining daily.

Giving back to D.C.

Washington Capitals Charities held their first Caps Care Casino Night this season and raised more than $285,000 for local charities. Nearly 500 fans attended the sold out event at the Hilton Alexandria Mark Center in Alexandria, Va. Caps wives and girlfriends helped spread the cheer during the holiday season by shopping for 63 kids through The Salvation Army's Angel Tree program. They spent $10,000 and filled up 40 shopping carts with toys, clothes and presents for 25 local families. After the holidays the wives and girlfriends, along with their husbands, invited the families to skate with them and treated them to a pizza party. Several Caps players generously donated their time and money, including Alex Ovechkin through his Crazy 8s program and Mike Green through his Green's Gang where they donate tickets and meet with the kids who use their tickets after games at Verizon Center.

First Caps Convention

More than 5,000 Caps fans attended the first Caps Convention, which was held during the preseason. The convention featured panel discussions, skill sessions, autographs, photo opportunities and gave fans a unique look at behind-the-scenes operations as well as an insight into the lives of NHL players.
