TOM DUNDON

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER / OWNER / GOVERNOR

Tom Dundon, 46, is the chief executive officer, owner and governor of the Carolina Hurricanes, after acquiring a majority stake in the franchise on Jan. 12, 2018. Dundon is the Chairman and Managing Partner of Dundon Capital Partners, a Dallas-based private investment firm. His investment activities have spanned the entertainment, healthcare, real estate and hospitality, technology, automotive and financial services sectors.

Born in New York and raised in Dallas, Dundon attended Southern Methodist University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in economics in 1993 and served as president of Phi Gamma Delta. Then, with a number of partners, he co-founded a business focused primarily on automobile financing, which over the next 10 years and through a series of transactions, became Santander Consumer USA ("SCUSA"), a large U.S. consumer finance company majority held by Banco Santander. Dundon served in various capacities for the company, and ultimately became chairman and chief executive officer.

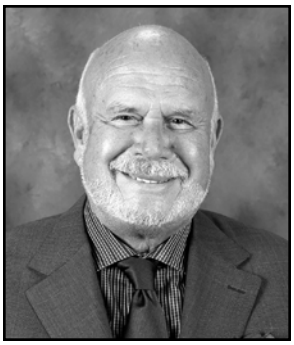

In the summer of 2015, Dundon stepped aside as CEO of Dallas-based SCUSA to focus on his entrepreneurial investments via Dundon Capital Partners. Dundon and the firm actively pursue investments across industries. He is the majority owner of Employer Direct, a growth-stage healthcare services company, and is a large investor and director of Topgolf, a premier global sports entertainment business headquartered in Dallas that incorporates technology, golf and entertainment. Dundon also serves as a director for OTO Development, a hotel development and management company headquartered in South Carolina, and for Redpoint Capital, an alternative credit manager. He has also made significant investments in real estate in Dallas and Aspen, CO, highlighted by his 2015 purchase of 2100 Ross Avenue, a landmark 33-story office building in downtown Dallas, where Dundon Capital Partners and Employer Direct Healthcare currently operate.

Dundon is a consistent supporter of the Dallas charities, with a focus on academic and sports-community focused initiatives. Of note is his support of the Salesmanship Club of Dallas, which hosts the PGA's annual AT&T Byron Nelson, one of the largest fundraisers for the Momentous Institute, a leading provider of therapeutic and education services that impacts 6,000 kids and family members each year. To help support the Salesmanship Club, Dundon funded the construction and development of Trinity Forest Golf Club, a premier, non-profit, 18-hole championship golf course and 9-hole short course that will be the future home of the Byron Nelson. Opened in 2017, Trinity Forest features a private golf facility built for Southern Methodist University's men's and women's golf teams, and provides support for the First Tee of Dallas, a non-profit organization that leverages golf to develop character building amongst the youth. Dundon formed the Dundon Family Charitable Fund, which will support various qualified non-profit initiatives, with a focus on supporting academic and athletic initiatives at top universities in the U.S.

Tom and his wife, Veruschka, have five children, Caden, Dax, Drew, Blake and Tagan, and reside in Dallas.

PETER KARMANOS JR.

MINORITY OWNER / ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Peter Karmanos Jr., 75, serves as minority owner and alternate governor for the Carolina Hurricanes, as well as the chairman and cofounder of MadDog Technology. Karmanos sold the Carolina Hurricanes to Tom Dundon on Jan. 12, 2018, after serving as principal owner/governor and chief executive officer for the franchise since 1994. Karmanos retained a minority ownership interest in the team. On Nov. 9, 2015, he was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in the category of Builder—defined as an individual who has contributed to the development of the game of hockey, moving the game forward.

Karmanos has been involved in hockey for more than 40 years, making an impact in youth hockey, the Ontario Hockey League (OHL), the ECHL and the National Hockey League (NHL). He created the Compuware Youth Hockey Program in the 1970s, a system that has since produced 15 national championships, 34 state championships, 235 Division I scholarship hockey players and 14 NHL first-round draft picks. Alumni of Compuware youth hockey include Eric Lindros, Pat Peake, Pat LaFontaine, Mike Modano, Brian Rolston, David Legwand, Ryan Kesler, Kevin Hatcher, Derian Hatcher and Jacob Trouba.

Prior to selling the Plymouth Whalers in 2015, Karmanos owned OHL franchises for more than 30 years, winning his first OHL championship with Windsor in 1988. In 1989, he founded the first American-based OHL franchise, which later became the Plymouth Whalers. Plymouth won OHL titles in 1995 and 2007 and produced 18 NHL first-round selections and more than 90 players drafted into the NHL. Alumni of Karmanos' OHL teams include James Neal, Justin Williams, Tyler Seguin and J.T. Miller. Karmanos' OHL franchises have also produced a number of managers and coaches at the NHL level, including Pittsburgh Penguins General Manager Jim Rutherford, Winnipeg Jets Head Coach Paul Maurice, San Jose Sharks Head Coach Peter DeBoer and Hurricanes Assistant General Manager/Charlotte Checkers Head Coach Mike Vellucci.

Karmanos acquired an NHL franchise, the Hartford Whalers, on June 28, 1994, and relocated the franchise to Raleigh, NC, in 1997. Since their arrival in North Carolina, the Carolina Hurricanes have captured three division titles (1999, 2002, 2006), two Eastern Conference championships (2002, 2006) and the 2006 Stanley Cup, the first major-league sports championship for the state of North Carolina. The Hurricanes also hosted the NHL Draft in 2004 and the NHL All-Star Game in 2011. Karmanos also owned the ECHL's Florida Everblades for 15 seasons, capturing the ECHL's Kelly Cup championship in 2012.

In addition to his selection to the Hockey Hall of Fame, Karmanos has collected a number of major awards during his career as a hockey builder, including the Lester Patrick Award (outstanding service to hockey in the U.S.), the Bill Long Award (outstanding contributions to the OHL) and the USA Hockey Distinguished Achievement Award. He is also a member of the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame and the United States Hockey Hall of Fame.

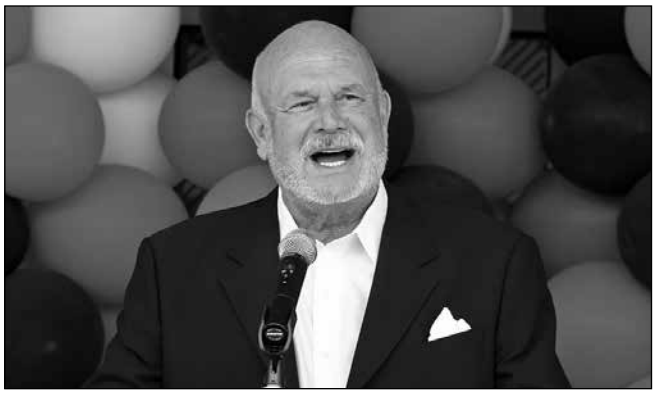

Karmanos attended Wayne State University in Detroit. He founded Compuware in 1973 with two partners who, with Karmanos, pooled their tax return money to start the company. Karmanos' initiative and business prowess were recognized in 1989 by the Institute of American Entrepreneurs, which named him Entrepreneur of the Year. In April 1999, Karmanos ensured that his company would not lose sight of its roots when he decided to relocate more than 4,100 highly-skilled jobs from Compuware's headquarters in Farmington Hills, Mich., to Campus Martius, a business district in the heart of downtown Detroit. He retired from his position of executive chairman of Compuware in March 2013.

Along with his business and hockey interests, Karmanos is widely known for his philanthropy, particularly in the area of cancer research. In 1995, Karmanos established the Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute in Detroit, with donations that now total in excess of $60 million. The institute is one of only 39 in the United States granted "comprehensive cancer center" status by the National Institute of Health, and the only one of the 39 named after a woman.

Karmanos resides in the Detroit area with his wife Danialle, and their sons Socrates, Leonidas, Spiros and Aristides. He now has seven sons and nine grandchildren. Danialle—in addition to her ongoing work as a nationally acclaimed video producer—founded Danialle Karmanos' Work It Out (DKWIO). A 501(c)3 organization, DKWIO fights childhood obesity by providing kids with the tools they need to make healthy choices. By helping kids achieve health in mind, body and spirit, DKWIO has touched the lives of thousands of at-risk children in the Detroit and Triangle communities.

As an award-winning writer, producer and director, in 2008 Danialle was tapped by Governor Jennifer Granholm to serve on the newly-chartered Michigan Film Office Advisory Council. In a 2010 Michigan-wide election, Danialle was elected to serve an eight-year term on the Wayne State University Board of Governors. She also works tirelessly on behalf of the Karmanos Cancer Institute, partnering with the organization to develop memorable creative content. Her creative talents also led Danialle to become a founding member, Board member and past chair of the critically-acclaimed Museum of Contemporary Art Detroit (MOCAD). She also serves on the boards of the Michigan Opera Theatre and the College for Creative Studies, and is a trustee for the Parade Company, the non-profit organization responsible for the renowned America's Thanksgiving Parade and numerous other family-oriented events in Metropolitan Detroit.

Mike Sundheim is in his 21st year with the Carolina Hurricanes communications department, and his 16th year heading the department. In July 2014, he was promoted to vice president of communications and team services, taking on travel and team services responsibilities in addition to his long-time media relations role.

A 2000 graduate of the University of North Carolina's School of Journalism and Mass Communication, Sundheim is responsible for the promotion of the team and its players in the local and national media, and serves as the Hurricanes' primary media contact and spokesperson. He is also responsible for team publications, including media guides and press releases, as well as managing the team's communications budget and staff. In 2017, he assumed additional duties coordinating the team's broadcasting efforts: serving as the primary contact for the team's affiliates, assisting in personnel decisions and developing the Hurricanes' broadcasts on television and radio.

Along with his communications role, Sundheim works with plane, bus and hotel companies to make the Hurricanes' travel arrangements and manages player community and corporate appearances and events throughout the year. He also remains active with the team's digital content efforts, contributing regularly to the team's website and helping to establish and develop the team's original Facebook and Twitter accounts.

Prior to joining the Hurricanes full-time in 2000, Sundheim spent two seasons as an intern in the team's media relations department, beginning with the 1998-99 campaign. Originally from Somerville, NJ, he also gained experience as an assistant sports editor for UNC's student newspaper, The Daily Tar Heel, a student assistant in the UNC sports information department and a summer intern for the New Jersey Red Dogs of the Arena Football League (AFL).

Sundheim completed a master's degree in Sport Management from North Carolina State University in 2015, and has served as an adjunct professor at UNC's School of Journalism and Mass Communication, teaching a course in "Sports Publicity." Mike and his wife, Leah, reside in Raleigh and have three children: Franklin, Charlie and Eve.

PACE SAGESTER

MANAGER OF COMMUNICATIONS AND TEAM SERVICES

Pace Sagester is in his eighth NHL season and his second as manager of communications and team services for the Carolina Hurricanes. In his communications role, Sagester promotes the team with local and national media outlets, serves as a media contact for the players and staff, and is responsible for team publications, including the media guide, news releases and the team's media site, CanesPR.com. On the team services side, Sagester helps make the team's travel arrangements, works closely with hotel and bus companies during Hurricanes road trips and helps to manage player ticket requests at home and on the road.

Sagester first worked for the Hurricanes as a media relations intern during the 2011-12 season, before joining the team in a part-time role as media relations and social media coordinator in 2012-13. He joined the Washington Capitals full-time in 2013, serving as the Capitals' manager of media relations for four seasons before returning to Raleigh.

A native of Fuquay-Varina, NC, Sagester is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's School of Journalism and Mass Communication. While in school, he gained experience with Tommy Baldwin Racing, Activ8 Communications, the Daily Tar Heel and Tar Heel Monthly, as well as working as a recruiting assistant for UNC's football program.

Pace and his fiancée, Katie, live in Raleigh.

He is the team's primary contact for game credentials and also assists in the promotion of the team in local and national media outlets. Brown also works with the hockey operations department on credential requests for scouting staff, as well as other administrative duties.

Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Brown spent eight seasons with the Boston Bruins as a member of the communications game night staff and served as a communications intern during the team's Stanley Cup run in 2010-11. He also gained experience working for the New England Sports Network, Hockey East Association and Northeastern University's athletic department.

A native of South Berwick, Maine, Brown graduated from Northeastern University's School of Journalism in 2013. Mike lives in Raleigh.

JOHN FORSLUND

TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY

John Forslund is in his 24th season as the Hurricanes' television play-by-play announcer, his 28th year with the club and his 35th year in hockey. In addition to calling all the action on Hurricanes television broadcasts, Forslund continues to serve as a play-by-play announcer for nationally-televised broadcasts on the NBC family of networks and as a contributor for the NHL Network.

Outside of his hockey work, Forslund has experience covering Atlantic Coast Conference and Southern Conference basketball for FOX Sports Net. In 2003, Forslund won Telly awards for Forslund Focus, part of the Hurricanes' in-game presentation, and "Raisin' Canes," the home video celebrating the Hurricanes' 2002 playoff run. Forslund has also been recognized with Mid-South Emmy Awards for Hurricanes broadcasts in 2007 and 2009.

Forslund first joined the organization for the 1991-92 season as the public relations director, a position he held for four seasons. During his tenure, Forslund also served as the Hartford Whalers' color analyst on the Whalers Radio Network. Prior to his appointment in Hartford, Forslund handled the television and radio broadcasts for the Springfield Indians of the American Hockey League from 1984-1991. He was recognized as one of the AHL's top publicists/announcers when he received the Ken McKenzie Award in 1989.

Forslund continues to be heavily involved in the Triangle community, and has served as emcee for charitable events including the Jimmy V Celebrity Golf Classic Gala, the Greater Raleigh Sports Council's Night of Champions and Carolina Hurricanes Kids 'N Community Foundation fundraisers including Canes Bash, the Canes 5k and the Golf Tournament. Forslund is on the board of directors for Spare Some for Autism and is also involved with the Make-A-Wish Foundation, March of Dimes, Genesis Home, Food Bank of North Carolina and the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation.

A graduate of Springfield College, Forslund went on to earn his master's degree in athletic management from Adelphi University. John and his wife, Natalie, reside in Apex. They have two daughters, Erika and Kara, and a son, Matthew.

TRIPP TRACY

TELEVISION ANALYST

Tripp Tracy is in his 20th season as the Hurricanes' television analyst, serving alongside John Forslund on all team broadcasts. In addition to his work on Fox Sports Carolinas, Tracy also broadcasted playoff games for NBC Sports Network during the 2014 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

A former goaltender, Tracy was originally drafted by the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1993 NHL Entry Draft. After completing four seasons at Harvard University, Tracy signed a free agent contract with the Hurricanes in August 1996. He spent two seasons in the organization, playing for Richmond (ECHL), Springfield (AHL), New Haven (AHL) and Carolina (NHL). Tracy retired from his playing career in 1998 and accepted a position at CNN before returning to the organization for the 1998-99 season.

Tripp lives in Raleigh and is involved in several charitable organizations in the Triangle, including the St. Baldrick's Foundation. He also serves on the board for Children's Charities at Adios and has participated in several Hurricanes Alumni events, including the 2012, 2013 and 2014 Alumni Fantasy games.

Prior to relocating to Raleigh, Maniscalco was the afternoon drive host at WRNL in Richmond, VA, from 2001-07. He began his broadcasting career in his hometown of Buffalo, NY, serving as an on-air host and assistant production director at WGR 550, from 1996-01. He was also named the OHL's Coach of the Year and Executive of the Year in 2012-13, becoming the first to win both awards in the same season. He was the second member of the organization to be recognized as the OHL's Executive of the Year, joining Jim Rutherford, who won it in back-to-back seasons in 1993 and 1994 with the Detroit Jr. Red Wings.

Prior to joining the Whalers, Vellucci was with Detroit Compuware of the North American Hockey League (NAHL), where his teams went 241-82-27 in the regular season from 1994-99, and captured U.S. national championships in 1994 and 1999. The Ambassadors also captured two NAHL regular-season titles and four Robertson Cups. Vellucci played professionally in the IHL, AHL, ECHL and BHL from 1986-89. CRAIG BRUSH PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Craig Brush, the President of the Florida Everblades, along with partners Peter Karmanos and Thomas Thewes, founded the Everblades and Hertz Arena in 1998.

Brush, a native of Milton, Ontario, oversees all aspects of both the hockey club and the sports complex. In 20 seasons, the Everblades have hosted more than 4 million fans in 714 regular season games, with an average attendance of over 6,000 per game. The team has placed in the top three of league attendance in ten of its 20 seasons, ranking first overall five times, and have led the Kelly Cup Playoffs attendance six times. The Everblades have also earned a post-season berth in 19 of their 20 seasons of existence.

The Everblades won the Kelly Cup and the ECHL Championship in 2012, and have reigned as conference champions three times. During the 2003-04 season, the Everblades captured the Eastern Conference title and made their first ever trip to the Kelly Cup Finals and followed that up by becoming the first team in ECHL history to make back-to-back trips to the Kelly Cup Finals after capturing the 2004-05 American Conference Championship. Florida has been awarded the Brabham Cup for winning the regular season championship in 2000, 2009 and most recently in 2018 when the team finished with a club record 112 points.

Brush was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame (Class of 2016) in the Builders category, on Feb. 5, 2016 in a ceremony in Kalamazoo, Michigan.
Brush played hockey for four seasons at Cornell University where he was a member of the 1970 undefeated NCAA Championship team, which was the only team in collegiate history to accomplish this feat.

From 2003-2006, Brush served as the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors. In addition, he has coached in the Compuware youth hockey program for many years.

Craig and his wife, Kyle, split time between Estero, Florida and Birmingham, Michigan. The couple has three sons – Matt, Tyler and Patrick – as well as five grandchildren, Anna, Mary, Jane, Sloan, and Brett.

BRAD RALPH HEAD COACH/DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Brad Ralph, 38, was named the fifth head coach in club history on July 12, 2016. Brad brought eight seasons of head coaching experience to the Everblades and enters his third season in Southwest Florida. Ralph has amassed a career coaching record of 350-162-42. Last season. Ralph helped lead the Everblades to their third South Division title in four seasons while setting a club record for wins (53) and points (112) and to the Kelly Cup Finals for the fourth time in club history. He also received the John Brophy Award as the ECHL Coach of the Year and earned the right to coach the ECHL All-Start Classic for the second consecutive season.

During the 2015-16 season, Ralph guided the Kelowna Rockets of the Western Hockey League (WHL) to a 48-20-4 record and a third-round appearance in the playoffs.

Ralph coached the Idaho Steelheads of the ECHL for three seasons (2012-2015) totaling a 132-64-20 mark along with three postseason appearances. Ralph began his coaching career with the SPHL's Augusta RiverHawks (2010-2012), and led his team to the league finals in his first year.

As a player, Ralph appeared in 383 professional games split between the ECHL and AHL, while making his lone NHL appearance with the Phoenix Coyotes during the 2000-01 season.

FOUNDATION SUPPORT

As the charitable arm of the Carolina Hurricanes, the Carolina Hurricanes Foundation takes pride in being a part of the community both on and off the ice. The Foundation provides funding to children's nonprofits with a health or education focus throughout North Carolina. Since the Foundation's inception in 1997, more than $14.5 million has been donated through cash grants and in-kind support to youth-serving organizations. Together, the Hurricanes players, coaches, and entire organization take pride in being actively involved in our community and are committed to making a positive impact where we live, work, and play.

During the 2017-18 season, the Carolina Hurricanes Foundation awarded $495,000 in cash grants to 24 children's charities and youth hockey organizations in North Carolina. Grants are awarded through three cycles: Game Changer, GOAL, and Future Canes. Each organization is subject to site visits and are required to provide use of funds summary reports.

Prior to the 2018-19 season, the Foundation changed its name from the Kids 'N Community Foundation to the Carolina Hurricanes Foundation. The Foundation remains committed to the North Carolina community and is dedicated to children's health and education with a focus on underserved populations.

FOUNDATION FUNDRAISERS

The Carolina Hurricanes Foundation is able to increase its collective community impact with unique and interactive fundraisers with our team. The Foundation's signature, annual fundraisers include the Alumni Game, Canes 5k, Canes Bash, Golf Tournament, and Skate with the Canes—combined these events raised more than $620,000 in revenue in the 2017-18 season to support the community. The success of these events, as well as the overall success of the Foundation, relies on support from fans, Hurricanes players, coaches, front office executives, broadcasters, and staff.

Corporate partners generously supported the Foundation through various initiatives including the Carolina Ale House Points for Kids program and Paper Heart & Magnet campaign, KIOTI Assist for Hunger campaign, Mercury Gate Score One for the Community, and Tito's Vodka for Dog People. Additionally, every home game features a silent auction showcasing unique, autographed memorabilia, raising $97,000 in 2017-18. The 24-Hour Bike Challenge, mystery item sales, and the We Love the Hurricanes Luncheon round out the Foundation's fundraising efforts.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

PICK UP A BOOK AND READ

The Pick Up a Book and Read program works to get children in third, fourth and fifth grade excited about reading by giving them the opportunity to log their minutes read over a period of six weeks. Students who read are rewarded with prizes such as school visits, tickets and even autographed jerseys. During the 2017-18 Pick Up a Book and Read program, nearly 900 students in 75 classrooms read nearly 1.4 million minutes. Each participating student received a certificate of accomplishment, and each student that read over 1,500 minutes and 2,500 minutes received a special prize. The five schools that read the most minutes were recognized with a visit from Stormy, Hurricanes alumnus Shane Willis, and members of the Community Relations department. The top five students in the program's annual essay contest and top five overall readers from each grade level were invited to a recognition luncheon at PNC Arena hosted by Mike Maniscalco, Carolina Hurricanes television reporter and web host. Stormy was on hand to celebrate the accomplishments of the students at the luncheon by presenting certificates and prizes.

CHARITY DRIVES

The Carolina Hurricanes strive to make an impact on the community through charity drives throughout the season. The drives help local and state charities collect goods that will help them in their mission. Seven charity drives benefitted 12 different North Carolina charities, with donations varying from books for children to snacks for military service men and women. Hurricanes fans are invited to participate by bringing goods to support the various drives and charities. These drives allowed Hurricanes fans to make giving back part of their game day experience.

HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER

The Carolina Hurricanes hosted their annual Hockey Fights Cancer awareness night on November 19, 2017. Cancer awareness, research and support groups were on the concourse to speak with fans and promote their respective groups. The Carolina Hurricanes Foundation silent auction consisted of Hockey Fights Cancer themed baskets with proceeds benefitting the cancer organizations in attendance. Cancer survivors, patients, and family members were nominated to be the evening's siren sounder and Olympia riders. Fans had the opportunity to share who they fought for by creating their own "I Fight For" card on the concourse before the game. Hockey Fights Cancer unites the hockey community in support of cancer patients & their families. The initiative gets an assist from players, coaches, officials, broadcasters, equipment managers, front office staff, corporate partners & fans. Together, the hockey community looks to inspire hope and courage for those who are living with, going through & moving past cancer.

HOCKEY IS FOR EVERYONE

Hockey is for Everyone reaffirms that the official policy of the sport is one of inclusion on the ice, in our locker rooms and in the stands. Around the League and in our communities, the Hurricanes celebrate hockey's diversity and our unwavering commitment to respect for all.

- Capital City Crew: The Capital City Crew is provides an opportunity for inner-city youth ages 8-14 to play ice hockey through our partnerships with the Wake County Boys & Girls Clubs, and the Carolina Hurricanes. This program is home to over 90 players this season.
- Triangle Special Hockey Association: Triangle Special Hockey helps educate, motivate and encourage individuals, who have developmental and/or physical disabilities to participate in the sport of ice hockey in an environment that is adapted to the level of ability of the participating athletes. - Triangle Sled Hockey Association: Sled hockey is played by a wide range of players with a variety of mobility limitations: amputees, spinal cord injuries, spina bifida, along with anyone who has a permanent disability that limits participation in stand-up hockey. With the support of the Carolina Hurricanes, Triangle Special Hockey has provided numerous opportunities to these players.

- Girls Hockey: With the growth of women's hockey across the country, the Carolina Hurricanes have helped increase numbers locally by providing the First Goal program, Girls Try Hockey for Free events, IIHF Girls Hockey weekend events, and RYHA Jr. Hurricanes Girls programs. Through these efforts, the Carolinas have seen significant growth in women's hockey.
- You Can Play: The NHL and National Hockey League Players' Association (NHLPA) partnered with You Can Play, to ensure acceptance for all who participate in our game. You Can Play works to ensure safety and inclusion for all who participate in sports, including LGBTQ athletes, coaches, and fans. You Can Play believes sports teams should focus on an athlete's skills, work ethic, and competitive spirit, not their sexual orientation and/or gender identity. The Hurricanes hosted a You Can Play Night on February 9, 2018. During the game, LGBTQ organizations were present on the concourse and several leaders in the local LGBTQ community were recognized. In addition, several Hurricanes players warmed up with specially Pride Tape wrapped sticks.

READVOLUTION

Readvolution was a new partnership between the Carolina Hurricanes and Wake County Public Schools. The program challenged 114 elementary schools to read 2,020 books, asking individual students to perform 20 minutes of reading outside the classroom each day during the first semester, from Oct. 2 through Jan. 12. As they achieve goals, students and teachers were rewarded with free tickets to Hurricanes games, school appearances from Stormy and the Pepsi Storm Squad, teacher recognitions and more.

POWER PLAY PROGRAM

The Power Play Program presented by Novo Nordisk was a 60-minute exercise program broken down into three periods focusing on strength, cardio and free play, designed to help educate students on the importance of leading a healthy lifestyle while demonstrating proper physical fitness routines and techniques. Students were challenged to exercise 60 minutes a day over the month-long program (totaling 20 total hours of exercise) and once they achieved the goal, each student received a complimentary ticket to a Hurricanes game.

CANES CARE

Annually, the Carolina Hurricanes and PNC Arena staff proudly participate in Canes Care, a community outreach program. During the offseason, 57 staff members volunteered over 1,400 hours of time in the North Carolina community. Staff volunteered with the following organizations: Autism Society of NC, Boys and Girls Club of Wake County, East Durham Children's Initiative, Food Bank of Central and Eastern NC, Passage Home, USO of NC, and The Green Chair Project. Additionally, as part of NHL Green, staff participated in a park clean-up at Lake Crabtree Park.

COMMUNITY WALKS

ST. BALDRICK'S

The Carolina Hurricanes staff and fans once again raised funds and awareness for the St. Baldrick's Foundation in 2017-18. On March 13, 2018, professional barbers from corporate partner Sports Clips volunteered to shave heads on PNC Arena's South Plaza. Fans received two tickets to the game that night in exchange for losing their locks in support of the cause. There were a total of 123 fans that shaved their heads and $56,993 was raised for the St. Baldrick's Foundation. The Carolina Hurricanes partnership with St. Baldrick's has raised close to $457,000 and led to over 1,300 heads being shaved over its nine-year span.

TICKET PROGRAMS

HURRICANES HEROES

Hurricanes Heroes is a program where tickets are donated to the community relations department by local businesses and season ticket members. The tickets are then distributed by the Carolina Hurricanes Foundation to local children's charities and organizations at no cost. Over 500 tickets were donated to non-profit organizations in our community during the 2017-18 season.

PLAYER EFFORTS

STAAL FAMILY FOUNDATION

Carolina Hurricanes forward Jordan Staal and his wife, Heather, donated a 12-person, all-inclusive luxury suite every home game to children battling cancer and their families and friends. During the 2017-18 season, 42 different children and their families visited the Staal Family Foundation suite. In addition to enjoying a hockey game VIP style, each child received a Staal Family Foundation t-shirt to commemorate the experience and was recognized on the video board during the game.

TRUE DEFENDERS

Carolina Hurricanes defenseman Justin Faulk created the True Defenders program supported by Fonville Morisey, to provide a full game-night experience for military service groups and their guests. At six games throughout the season a group was chosen to receive an all-inclusive VIP suite experience including food and beverage, a True Defenders long-sleeve shirt and hat personally designed by Faulk and a meet-and-greet with Faulk following the game.

ME FINE FOUNDATION SUITE

Carolina Hurricanes alumnus and ambassador Erik Cole partnered with the Me Fine Foundation to provide a 14-person, all-inclusive suite to critically ill children and their families. In addition to enjoying a hockey game, the families were provided with food and beverage and they were recognized on the video board during the game. During the 2017-18 season, 17 different children and their families were able to use the suite. The Me Fine Foundation provides financial and emotional support to over 1,500 critically ill children.

APPEARANCES

Each season, the Carolina Hurricanes partner with charitable organizations to host community days with our players and alumni to give back to deserving organizations.

Oct. 31 – The entire Carolina Hurricanes team participated in the annual hospital visits. They visited REX Hospital, UNC Children's Hospital, and WakeMed Hospital to take photos, sign autographs and offer well wishes. In addition, the team dressed in Halloween costumes and passed out candy and other gifts to patients.
Nov. 22 – The Carolina Hurricanes continued its annual Thanksgiving partnership with Helping Hand Mission by delivering 450 turkeys to area families. Hurricanes staff and Canes alumni Erik Cole & Shane Willis were on hand to help pass out turkeys and other non-perishable food. The turkeys were provided through the Tickets for Turkeys campaign where a portion of every ticket sold went towards the purchase of turkeys. This was the seventh year of the Hurricanes partnership with Helping Hand Mission which assists families on a one-on-one basis with clothing, furniture and shelter.
Dec. 22 – The Hurricanes continued their tradition of hosting a shopping trip with students from Durham Nativity School for their annual holiday community day. Jaccob Slavin, Haydn Fleury, Phil Di Giuseppe, and Trevor van Riemsdyk each partnered with one student and helped them select and purchase presents for their families and a special present for themselves for the holidays. The mission of Durham Nativity School is to provide a tuition-free, enriched learning environment and an eleven-year support system for middle school boys in Durham. The Carolina Hurricanes Foundation awarded a $150,000 GOAL grant to the school for scholarships in 2015.
Jan. 31 – Trevor van Riemsdyk and Haydn Fleury joined the Capital City Crew for a practice at PNC Arena to wrap up the Crew's 2017-18 season. Capital City Crew is part of the National Hockey League's Hockey is for Everyone initiative and supported by the Carolina Hurricanes Foundation. The program provides an opportunity for inner-city youth ages 8-14 to play ice hockey through partnerships with the Wake County Boys & Girls Clubs, Raleigh Youth Hockey Association and the Carolina Hurricanes. In addition, the players are taught life skills and positive character traits such as leadership, gamesmanship, respect, honesty and integrity through the sport of ice hockey.
Feb. 21 – Nearly 10,000 Wake County Public School System elementary students visited PNC Arena during the Cool School Field Trip to celebrate the Readvolution partnership. The students watched practice, participated in a Q&A session, and cheered on their teachers during on- and off-ice contests.

FAN DEVELOPMENT

STORMY

STORM SQUAD

The Pepsi Storm Squad was the first, and continues to be one of the best, fan development teams in the NHL. They are a key component to the organization, not just in-game, but out and about in the community and all throughout North Carolina as well. Members add to the home game experience by interacting with fans on the concourse, visiting suites, aiding in promotions and helping with multiple initiatives that benefit our local community. Outside of the Arena, the Storm Squad can be found at awareness walks and charity golf tournaments, as well as community festivals and fundraising events. Last year they appeared at over 125 events in the community.

Each year the Pepsi Storm Squad hosts a Junior Storm Squad clinic for girls ages 7-13. During the clinic, the Junior Storm Squad spends the day participating in activities focusing on the importance of leadership, perseverance, community service and self-confidence.

KIDS CLUB

The Hurricanes Hockey Kids Club has welcomed young fans into the Canes family for ten seasons. The Kids Club, led by the Hurricanes mascot Stormy, strives to develop a strong passion for hockey at a young age with the hopes of inspiring lifelong fans. This club presents members with opportunities such as exclusive merchandise and gear, ticket deals, access to official member-only parties, as well as autograph and Q&A sessions with players. Kids, ages 14 and under, can join the club to get in on the fun.

CAROLINA HURRICANES MOBILE TOUR

The Carolina Hurricanes Mobile Tour brings an interactive NHL experience to kids and adults alike at various community events, festivals and fairs throughout North Carolina. Inside the Canes Mobile Tour unit, fans have the opportunity to create a personalized trading card, sit in a replica Hurricanes locker stall and have a photo taken, immerse themselves in Hurricanes history with interactive touchscreens, view a replica of the Stanley Cup, and compare heights to that of Canes defenseman Jaccob Slavin.

The Canes Mobile Tour was introduced in February 2018 and has appeared at over 20 community events around North Carolina.

CYAH – CANES YOUTH & AMATEUR HOCKEY

To strengthen our involvement in the local youth and amateur hockey community, the Carolina Hurricanes created Canes Youth and Amateur Hockey (CYAH) during the 2006-07 season. CYAH continues to have a presence in and provide sponsorship to the local community to grow youth hockey at all skill levels. The number of local youth hockey players has increased ten-fold since the program's inauguration, and the numbers continue to climb.

Led by former Hurricane Shane Willis, the CYAH program has steadily increased its initiatives and investments in local youth hockey over the past year. CYAH utilizes hockey to build personal character and foster teamwork and dedication in young players. It has promoted interest in youth and amateur hockey programs throughout the state of North Carolina from individuals just starting to play to college level and hosted many major in-house hockey clinics each season.

JUNIOR HURRICANES

Now entering its 12th season, the Junior Hurricanes program is coming off another successful campaign. The Junior Hurricanes program (RYHA) included teams at the AAA, AA and A levels. The Jr. Hurricanes were extremely proud that RYHA alumnus, Josh Wesley, was drafted in the fourth round of the 2014 NHL Draft to the Carolina Hurricanes, Skylar Brind'Amour being drafted in the 6th round to the Edmonton Oilers during the 2017 Draft, and this past summer Raleigh native Tyler Weiss being drafted in the 4th round to the Colorado Avalanche. With several players moving on to top junior programs in Canada and the United States, the Jr. Hurricanes remain committed to developing young players and giving them every opportunity to succeed at the next level. In February 2011, the Junior Hurricanes 12U AA team won the Quebec International Pee Wee Hockey Tournament, B division. This past season, the Junior Hurricanes Tier 2 U18 AA team won the USA Hockey Tier 2 National Tournament.

CAROLINA HURRICANES FIRST GOAL PROGRAM

The National Hockey League's Carolina Hurricanes teamed up with the NHL and NHLPA to bring a new Gold Standard Learn to Play First Goal initiative to the Triangle. This past year, the Hurricanes First Goal initiative provided 780 children ages 5 through 9 with hockey equipment as well as the opportunity to enjoy seven on-ice instructional hockey sessions. To increase the number of kids playing the sport of hockey in a fun and effective program, we have created this Gold Standard hockey program. By reducing the cost barrier of getting started, parents have no risk in letting their son or daughter try the sport. By using age specific training from USA hockey and NHL alumni players to facilitate, each new player will not only feel comfortable on the ice but have a positive experience while on the ice.

Participants enrolled in the program are introduced to the game of hockey by Hurricanes alumni and received brand-new equipment. The Carolina Hurricanes First Goal initiative was offered at the following rinks: Polar Ice House (Cary, Wake Forest, Garner location, Raleigh Center Ice, and IcePlex), Hillsborough Sportsplex, Greensboro, Charlotte Bojangles Arena, Extreme Ice Center – Indian Trail, and Cleland Ice Rink – Ft. Bragg.

IN-SCHOOL HOCKEY CLINICS

For over 12 years, the in-school hockey clinic partnership that the Carolina Hurricanes has with Wake County Public School System continues to thrive. Each year, the Hurricanes visit over 25 schools for clinics, teaching over 10,000 local students how to play hockey. These clinics combine hockey education and character building activities that focus on teamwork, leadership and sportsmanship. Students who attended the clinics were always excited to learn a new sport, and the opportunity to promote hockey among local youth directly aligns with CYAH's initiatives.

With the assistance of the NHL's Industry Growth Fund, the Hurricanes took their In-School Program to the next level during the 2017-18 season. Twenty-five schools and after-school programs received full sets of Hurricanes-branded floorball equipment, allowing those programs to teach floor hockey as part of their regular curriculum. An additional 25 programs will be receiving gear on donation in 2018-19.

RINK DEVELOPMENT AND REBRANDING

During the 2017-18 season, the Hurricanes began working on large-scale changes to our local rinks with paint and graphics updates. This is a three-year NHL Industry Growth Fund project to increase the Hurricanes footprint in the local hockey community. Polar Ice House locations in Cary, Garner and Wake Forest are all a part of these updates, as well as Raleigh Iceplex, Raleigh Center Ice, and the Orange County Sportsplex in Hillsborough. Rinks have all received paint makeovers with Canes colors and will continue to see graphics updates in the form of player images, logos, and dashboards.

JUNIOR HURRICANES PEE WEE QUEBEC TOURNAMENT

Over 17 years, the Hurricanes have provided countless memories for more than 260 young men and women who have been a part of this one-of-a-kind tournament. The tournament takes place in Quebec City over 12 days, during which participants are exposed to culture as well as competition, staying with French-speaking families and learning about the French-Canadian way of life. The Quebec Pee-Wee Tournament has produced an amazing number of future NHL hockey players. The list includes Hall of Fame players Mark Messier, Mario Lemieux and Ron Francis, along with current Carolina Hurricanes.

The February 2011 tournament proved to be one of the most exciting for the program, as the 11- and 12-year-old team won their bracket for the first time. The team posted a 6-0 record in the International-B tournament, outscoring their opponents 32-6, and boasted eight of the top ten scorers in the division. That year, the Junior Hurricanes earned major victories against competition from Salt Lake City, England, Canada, Colorado, Anaheim and Switzerland.

RALEIGH YOUTH HOCKEY ASSOCIATION PARTNERSHIP

A new hockey partnership was formed on March 22, 2007, as Canes Youth and Amateur Hockey (CYAH) joined together with the Raleigh Youth Hockey Association (RYHA). The partnership allowed the Hurricanes to lend their name, insight and marketing abilities to RYHA. RYHA also received a grant from the Carolina Hurricanes Foundation that allows for scholarships to be provided at all three levels of competition.

POLAR ICE HOUSE

The Carolina Hurricanes announced a new sponsorship with the Polar Ice House in 2014-15. The sponsorship focuses on programming that offers players of all skill levels the opportunity to learn, train and grow in a competitive, organized environment at the Cary, Garner and Wake Forest Polar Ice House locations. This has expanded to the Polar Iceplex and at Raleigh Center Ice. The goal is to continue to support the growth of the sport locally and encourage kids to lace up their skates and get out on the ice.

TRIANGLE SPECIAL HOCKEY ASSOCIATION

The Carolina Hurricanes are proud sponsors of the CAT5CANES, a local hockey program that helps bring the sport to physically and mentally disabled kids at no cost to their families. Entering its sixth season, the CAT5CANES has grown from seven players in its first season to more than 80. Initially providing a place for the kids to learn to skate and try the sport, the program took a team to a National Tournament in Maryland in April 2010 and has not looked back since. In addition to the local program, CAT5CANES has helped start similar programs in neighboring cities. Triangle Special Hockey is also proud to offer a sled hockey program for mobility impaired players that is open to players of all ages and continues to attract more participants each year.

HURRICANES ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Hurricanes established the Carolina Hurricanes Alumni Association in 2011 to allow former players to continue to work with the team and the Carolina Hurricanes Foundation after retirement, through appearances and community outreach. The Alumni Association also gives former Hurricanes players and staff members a way to connect with their former teammates and coworkers, as well as the current team.

The Hurricanes Alumni held their seventh annual Alumni Fantasy Game, presented by Lenovo, on January 13, 2018. The annual event provides fans a chance to skate in a game with former Hurricanes players on the ice at PNC Arena. The 2018 Alumni Game featured 11 players: Rod Brind'Amour, Erik Cole, Tim Gleason, Jeff Daniels, Tim Brent, Shane Willis, Steve Rice, Robert Kron, Jesse Boulerice, Bates Battaglia, and Bryan Bickell. All proceeds benefited the Carolina Hurricanes Foundation, with a total of over $45,000 raised.

In addition to the Alumni Game, members of the Hurricanes Alumni Association participate in other Carolina Hurricanes Foundation events, such as the annual Foundation Golf Tournament and Canes Bash. Locally-based alumni are also active with the team's youth hockey initiatives, including the First Goal program, and make speaking and autograph appearances on behalf of the organization throughout the year.

SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

• The Hurricanes score a 9-3 win at TB, marking the most goals in a game for the team since relocating to North Carolina. Eric Staal scores four goals, marking the first time a player had scored four goals in a game since relocation, and the third time the feat was accomplished in franchise history. Staal's six points set a Hurricanes record and tie the franchise record for points in a game – March 7, 2009.

• Cam Ward earns his 39th win of the season in Carolina's 9-0 rout of the NY Islanders. For Ward, the win breaks Martin Gerber's franchise record of 38 wins in a season. For the Hurricanes, it marks their 45th win of the regular season - the second-best wins total in franchise history – April 7, 2009.

• "The Shock at the Rock" – Trailing 3-2 with 1:20 remaining in regulation, Jussi Jokinen scores the tying goal in Game 7 of the Eastern Conference Quarterfinals at New Jersey's Prudential Center. Eric Staal then beats Martin Brodeur with 32 seconds remaining, and the Hurricanes advance to the second round – April 28, 2009.

• Scott Walker beats Tim Thomas 18:46 into overtime of Game 7 of the Eastern Conference Semifinals at TD Banknorth Garden to give the Hurricanes a 3-2 win. Carolina becomes just the fourth team to advance to the Eastern Conference Finals three times in the first decade of the 2000s, joining NJ, PHI and PIT in that group.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS POLICY

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All credentials are non-transferable, and any unauthorized use will subject bearer to ejection from PNC Arena and confiscation of the credential. Credentials are good for admittance to the arena, press box, media meal room and both locker rooms.

Media credentials are divided into two categories: full-season and single-game. Full-season media passes will be issued to recognized newspapers, magazines, television, radio stations and established websites by completing the request form at CanesPR.com. Please follow up via email with Mike Brown (michaelb@carolinahurricanes.com) after submitting your credential request. A media credential cannot be used to sit in spectator seating areas.

Single-game credentials should be requested via email to Mike Brown at least 24 hours prior to game time.

Photo credentials will be issued on a priority basis to daily publications, wire services, team photographers or national publications on specific assignments only.

PRE-GAME ACCESS

By request, the Hurricanes may open their locker room to the media two hours prior to all home games for a short window of availability.

MEDIA PARKING

Full-season media will be issued general media parking passes. The East (black) lot is closest to the media entrance, which is the VIP entrance on the South end of the building, adjacent to the box office. Television crews will be allowed to park just outside the security entrance. However, there will only be space for one truck per station.

MEDIA ROOM

Media possessing credentials are invited to enjoy a meal before each game in the press room. The room opens two and a half hours before game time. Dining room usage is limited to those presenting valid Hurricanes or NHL Team Management passes. It is prohibited to allow family members, friends or guests into the press room without a valid credential. Our fine press meal costs $10.

MEDIA NOTES

A complete set of media notes and additional materials are available for all working media at the morning skate and in the media meal room. Notes and other materials will also be available in the press box before and during the game, and are posted on CanesPR.com.

PRESS BOX

The press box is located at the top floor (5) of PNC Arena and is accessible via the press elevator.

GAME-NIGHT STAFF

The Hurricanes game-night staff members are available to meet your needs, so please feel free to ask them for help on event nights. Staff members are posted at the press gate (VIP Entrance) and the media meal room prior to game time and in the press box after faceoff.

IN-GAME NOTES

In-Game Notes are delivered to all radio and television broadcasters, as well as all media located in the press box, throughout the game.

POST-GAME ACCESS

Both locker rooms will be opened five minutes after the teams leave the ice. Hurricanes Head Coach Rod Brind'Amour will hold a post-game news conference following each game in the Media Room. Written quotes from both Rod Brind'Amour and the visiting coach, in addition to game statistics, will be provided to the media. The officials' locker room is off-limits to the media. Should a comment or interpretation from the game's referee or NHL supervisor be needed, a pool reporter may be assigned.

AREAS OFF-LIMITS

Media are prohibited from entering the medical room and shower area within the Hurricanes' and visiting locker rooms.

PRACTICES

Hurricanes' practices are open to the public and all media. You should, however, verify times and location. Hurricanes' practices that are not at PNC Arena will be held at Raleigh Center Ice in Raleigh, NC. Updates to the practice schedule are posted on CanesPR.com.

ENTRY LEVEL PLAYERS

1. Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for one year. Players age 25 and older will not be subject to the entry level system and have no limits on their compensation. Age is defined as the player's age on September 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.
2. In the event that a signed 18- or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between September 16 and December 31 in his first contract year.
3. In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

INJURED RESERVE LIST

A Club may place a Player on the Injured Reserve List only if such Player is reasonably expected to be injured, ill or disabled and unable to perform his duties as a hockey Player for a minimum of seven (7) days from the onset of such injury, illness or disability.

- Players on the Injured Reserve List may attend team meetings, travel with the Club (at the Club's option) and participate in practice sessions with other Players on the Club's Active Roster.
- Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in NHL Games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on NHL Game days.
- Players on Injured Reserve and Injured Non-Roster shall have access to the Club's primary training and medical facilities during regular business hours provided, however, the Club may restrict such Players' access during periods when Players on the Club's Active Roster are expected to be present at such primary training and medical facilities (e.g., pre-game skates, practices, games, medical and physical treatments for other Players) and within a reasonable period of time before and after such time periods.
- A Player who finishes an NHL Season on the Injured Reserve List and continues to be disabled and unable to perform his duties as a hockey Player by reason of the same injury at the time he reports to the Club's Training Camp in the next League Year, will again be eligible to be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. For any other Player who fails the Club's initial physical examination in any League Year, or is injured, ill or disabled while not on the Club's Active Roster, he shall not be eligible for, and may not be placed on, Injured Reserve, but instead shall be eligible to be, and may be designated as, Injured Non-Roster.
- Once a Player is placed on the Injured Reserve List, the Club may replace said Player on its NHL Active Roster with another Player, and during such period of his designation as an Injured Reserve Player he will not count against the Club's Active Roster limit, provided, however, that the Injured Reserve Player's Player Salary and Bonuses and his replacement's Player Salary and Bonuses are each included in calculating a Club's Actual Club Salary and Averaged Club Salary, and the Players' Share of the Team Payroll Range System.

REGULAR SEASON WAIVERS

For purposes of Regular Waivers, the five (5) year exemption for an 18 year old skater and the four (4) year exemption for a 19-year-old skater shall both be reduced to three (3) years commencing the first season that the 18- or 19-year-old skater plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next two (2) seasons, regardless of whether the skater plays any NHL Games in either season, shall count as the second and third years toward satisfying the exemption.

For purposes of Regular Waivers, the six (6) year exemption for an 18 year old goalie and the five (5) year exemption for a 19 year old goalie shall both be reduced to four (4) years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19 year old goalie plays in eleven (11) NHL Games or more. The next three (3) seasons, regardless of whether the goalie plays any NHL games in any of those three (3) seasons, shall count as the next three (3) years toward satisfying the exemption.

The first season in which a Player who is age 20 or older plays in one (1) or more Professional Games shall constitute the first year for calculating the number of years he is exempt from Regular Waivers.

A Player 25 years old or older who plays in one (1) or more Professional Games in any season shall be exempt from Regular Waivers for the remainder of that season.

For Players age 20 or older, Professional Games include NHL Games, all minor league regular season and playoff games and any other professional games, including but not limited to, play in European leagues when Player is on Loan to such club, and while Player is party to an SPC.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

If two or more clubs are tied in points during the regular season, the standing of the clubs is determined in the following order:
1. The fewer number of games played (i.e., superior points percentage).
2. The greater number of games won, excluding games won in a Shootout. This figure is reflected in the ROW column in the League standings.
3. The greater number of points earned in games between the tied clubs. If two clubs are tied, and have not played an equal number of home games against each other, points earned in the first game played in the city that had the extra game shall not be included. If more than two clubs are tied, the higher percentage of available points earned in games among those clubs, and not including any "odd" games, shall be used to determine the standing.
4. The greater differential between goals for and against for the entire regular season. (A victory in a Shootout counts as one goal for, while a shootout loss counts as one goal against).

23-MAN ROSTER

There shall be a maximum of twenty-three (23) Players on each Club's Active Roster at any one time, provided, however, that, on the date of each season's Trade Deadline, a Club's Active Roster may be increased to any number of Players the Club, in its discretion, so determines, subject to the Team Payroll Range System.

Adduction: Movement of a joint toward the center of the body.
Adhesion: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved; or scar tissue which forms after trauma or surgery which can restrict normal motion.
Aerobic: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.
Anabolic Steroids: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).
Anaerobic: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.
Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.
Anti Inflammatory: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Baker's Cyst: Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the back of the knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.
Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a 'hot spot' on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.
Bursa: A fluid filled sac located in areas where friction is likely to occur. The bursa sac minimizes the friction, for example, between a tendon and bone.
Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.
CAT Scan (Computerized Tomography): Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x ray data.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.
Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.
Mandible: Jaw bone.
Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.
Meniscus: Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee: medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

ASSIST: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

GAME-WINNING GOAL: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning Club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

GOAL: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring Club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

GOALS-AGAINST AVERAGE: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

GOALTENDER: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

PENALTY-KILLING PCT.: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

PLUS-MINUS: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his Club scores an even-strength or shorthand goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthand goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

POWER-PLAY GOAL: A goal scored by a Club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a Club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that Club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a Club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a Club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

POWER-PLAY PERCENTAGE: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

SAVE PERCENTAGE: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

SHORTHANDED GOAL: A goal scored by a Club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthand as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

SHOT ON GOAL: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

SHUTOUT: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a Club shutout.

TENTHS OF A SECOND: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

COACHES RECORD: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.
