Executive Management

Peter Karmanos Jr.

Chief Executive Officer / Owner / Governor

Peter Karmanos Jr., holds the dual role as the principal owner/governor and chief executive officer of the Carolina Hurricanes and as the chairman and chief executive officer of Compuware Corporation. With his partners Thomas Thewes and Jim Rutherford, Karmanos acquired the NHL franchise on June 28, 1994—the afternoon of the 1994 NHL Entry Draft. After three financially unsuccessful seasons in Hartford, Conn., and after an agreement on a new facility between the team and the state of Connecticut could not be reached, Karmanos announced he would relocate the franchise to Raleigh, NC, on May 6, 1997. There, Karmanos signed a 40-year lease with the city of Raleigh and the state.

Since their arrival in North Carolina, the Hurricanes have enjoyed tremendous all-around success. On the ice, the team has advanced to the Conference Finals three times in the last nine seasons, capturing Eastern Conference titles in 2002 and 2006 and the Stanley Cup in 2006. Off of the ice, the Hurricanes have become a key component of the sporting landscape in North Carolina, and in 2009 were recognized as the top hockey franchise and second-ranked franchise in all of sports by ESPN in the “Ultimate Standings,” a collection of data and survey results that takes into account a team’s on-ice or on-field success, as well as its community impact and overall fan experience. The spotlight shined on the Hurricanes franchise again in January 2011, when the team and city of Raleigh earned tremendous praise for the successful 2011 NHL All-Star Weekend.

In the summer of 1998, Karmanos formed Gale Force Holdings to manage his hockey interests, which include the Carolina Hurricanes and PNC Arena; the Florida Everblades of the ECHL and Germain Arena in Ft. Myers, Fla.; and the Plymouth Whalers of the Ontario Hockey League and Compuware Arena.

Karmanos attended Wayne State University in Detroit. He founded Compuware in 1973 with two partners who, with Karmanos, pooled their tax return money to start the company. With 4,300 employees and fiscal year 2010 revenues of $928.9 million, Compuware people, software and best practices lead the world in application performance. Karmanos’ initiative and business prowess were recognized in 1989 by the Institute of American Entrepreneurs, which named him Entrepreneur of the Year. In April 1999, Karmanos ensured that his company would not lose sight of its roots when he decided to relocate more than 4,100 highly-skilled jobs from Compuware’s headquarters in Farmington Hills, Mich., to Campus Martius, a business district in the heart of downtown Detroit.

The same competitive spirit that led to Karmanos’ success as an entrepreneur also fuels his 30-year sponsorship of youth hockey programs. In Detroit, Karmanos sponsors the Plymouth Whalers (players ages 20-under), which was the first American club to play in the Ontario Hockey League. Compuware youth hockey programs, including the Plymouth Whalers, have produced many NHL stars over the years including Pat LaFontaine, Al Iafrate, Mike Modano, Eric Lindros and Kevin Hatcher. Countless youth hockey programs benefit each season through the efforts and sponsorship of Carolina Hurricanes and Compuware. In December 1997, Karmanos was chosen as one of four recipients of the Lester Patrick Award. Originating in 1966, the award is given annually to individuals who are recognized for “outstanding service to hockey in the United States.” In 2010, Karmanos received the Ontario Hockey League’s Bill Long Award, presented in recognition and appreciation of an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the OHL, and was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame.

In addition to his business and hockey interests, Karmanos is widely known for his philanthropy, particularly in the area of cancer research. In 1995, Karmanos established the Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute in Detroit, with donations that now total in excess of $60 million. The institute is one of only 39 in the United States granted “comprehensive cancer center” status by the National Institute of Health, and the only one of the 39 named after a woman.

A committed supporter of the Triangle area, Karmanos continues to actively run Compuware Corporation. Karmanos resides in the Detroit area with his wife Danialle, and their sons Socrates, Leonidas and Spiros. He now has six sons and eight grandchildren. Danialle—in addition to her ongoing work as a nationally acclaimed video producer—founded and serves as Executive Director of Danialle Karmanos’ Work It Out (DKWIO). A 501(c)3 organization, DKWIO fights childhood obesity by providing kids with the tools they need to make healthy choices. By helping kids achieve health in mind, body and spirit, DKWIO has touched the lives of thousands of at-risk children in the Detroit and Triangle communities.

Danialle is also a founding member, steering committee member, education committee member and board member for the Museum of Contemporary Art in Detroit, as well as a member of the Board of Directors for the Michigan Opera Theatre. Additionally, Danialle is a member of the State of Michigan Film Office Advisory Council, responsible for advising the office, the fund, the governor and the legislature on how to promote and market Michigan to film, television, digital media and related industries.

Executive and Hockey Management

Jim Rutherford

President / General Manager

Jim Rutherford, a former National Hockey League goaltender, is the franchise's seventh general manager and the only general manager in the history of the Carolina Hurricanes. Under Rutherford, the Hurricanes have earned a 515-461-152-20 regular-season record since arriving in North Carolina prior to the 1997-98 season, including a pair of trips to the Stanley Cup Final and the first Stanley Cup Championship in franchise history in 2006. Rutherford's management efforts were recognized in 2002 and 2006, when The Hockey News named him "Executive of the Year," and in 2006 when he was voted by his NHL management peers as the Sporting News' "Executive of the Year." In 2006, he was named the Triangle's "Businessperson of the Year" by the Triangle Business Journal.

The Hurricanes captured their first Eastern Conference championship in 2002, when they defeated Toronto in the Eastern Conference Finals, and again won the Prince of Wales Trophy in 2006 when they defeated Buffalo in seven games. Rutherford brought the first major professional sports championship to North Carolina when the Hurricanes defeated Edmonton 3-1 in the deciding seventh game of the 2006 Stanley Cup Final in Raleigh. The Hurricanes have won the Southeast Division title three times, advanced to the conference finals three of the last nine seasons and established new franchise records for wins and points in a season in 2005-06.

In addition to their on-ice success, the Hurricanes also have been recognized for their impact and success in North Carolina. In 2008, the Turnkey Brand Index rated the team's brand 20th among North American professional sports teams. In 2009, the Hurricanes were recognized as the top hockey franchise and second-ranked franchise in all of sports by ESPN in the "Ultimate Standings," a collection of data and survey results that takes into account a team's on-ice or on-field success as well as its community impact and overall fan experience. An important part of that impact on the Triangle has been the major events that the franchise has attracted to the area. Rutherford spearheaded the efforts to bring the 2004 NHL Entry Draft and the 2011 NHL All-Star Game to Raleigh, both of which were deemed as tremendous successes in both the local and international media.

Rutherford has stocked the current club with bright, young talent through the Entry Draft, free agency and trades, to go along with a base of veteran leadership. He has a proven history of success in the NHL Entry Draft. Selections like Eric Staal, Cam Ward, Brandon Sutter, Jeff Skinner, Justin Faulk and Jamie McBain help to form the core of the current team, while prospects like Zach Boychuk, Zac Dalpe, Drayson Bowman, Brian Dumoulin and Ryan Murphy will play integral roles in the team's future. Rutherford also acquired several key members of the current team through trades and free agency, including forwards Tuomo Ruutu, Chad LaRose, Jussi Jokinen and Jiri Tlustý and defensemen Tim Gleason and Joni Pitkanen.

Rutherford completes his 18th year as general manager in 2011-12, making him the longest-tenured general manager in franchise history and the second-longest tenured general manager currently serving in the NHL. As president of the Hurricanes, Rutherford oversees the operation of the Hurricanes, the Florida Everblades (ECHL) and the Plymouth Whalers (OHL). He was originally named the team's president and general manager when the KTR Partnership—the ownership group comprised of Peter Karmanos Jr., Thomas Thewes and Rutherford—purchased the Hartford Whalers on June 28, 1994. In Nov. 2011, the Hurricanes announced that Rutherford was part of a new group of investors who were taking ownership stakes in the team.

A veteran of 13 NHL seasons, Rutherford began his professional goaltending career in 1969 as a first-round selection of the Detroit Red Wings. While playing for Pittsburgh, Toronto, Los Angeles and Detroit, Rutherford appeared in 457 games and collected 14 career shutouts. For five seasons he also served as the Red Wings' player representative. Rutherford played for Team Canada in the World Championships in Vienna in 1977 and Moscow in 1979.

At the conclusion of his playing career, Rutherford joined Compuware to serve as director of hockey operations for Compuware Sports Corporation. Originally hired in September 1983, he is beginning his 28th season with the Compuware hockey family. With Compuware Sports Corporation in the 1980s, Rutherford gained a wealth of experience in youth hockey and junior programs. He started his management career by guiding Compuware Sports Corporation's purchase of the Windsor Spitfires of the Ontario Hockey League in April 1984. During the next four years, Rutherford acted as general manager of the Spitfires. In 1988, the Spitfires advanced to the Memorial Cup Finals with a perfect 12-0 run to the OHL Championship. The following season, he led Compuware's efforts to bring the first American-based OHL franchise to Detroit on Dec. 11, 1989. Rutherford received the 1987 "Executive of the Year" award in both the OHL and the CHL, and won the OHL "Executive of the Year" award again in 1988. In 2009, he was recognized by the Ontario Minor Hockey Association (OMHA) as the "All-Time Executive" on its "All-Time Great Team," which also included forwards Wayne Gretzky, Doug Gilmour and Syl Apps, defensemen Bobby Orr and Rob Blake, goaltender Curtis Joseph and coach Roger Neilson.

Jim and his wife, Leslie, live in North Raleigh with their son James. Jim's daughter Andrea also lives in North Raleigh and teaches visually impaired/blind students for Wake County schools. In addition to his work with the team, Jim serves on the NHL's Competition Committee and the Board of Directors for Brier Creek Country Club.

Executive and Hockey Management

Jason Karmanos
Vice President/Assistant
General Manager

Jason Karmanos completes his 14th year in the hockey operations department for the Carolina Hurricanes. Karmanos rejoined the organization in June 2008 as executive director of hockey operations and returned to his role as vice president and assistant general manager in December 2009. He works with President/General Manager Jim Rutherford and Director of Hockey Operations Ron Francis in player evaluations, contract negotiations and player movements. His other responsibilities include overseeing the day-to-day operations of the hockey club and the Hurricanes' minor-league affiliates in the AHL and ECHL. Karmanos served as the team's vice president and assistant general manager from 1998-2007 and was in that role when the Hurricanes captured the Stanley Cup in 2006, marking the first championship of his career.

Karmanos played hockey collegiately for Harvard University, graduating in 1996. He attended the Pittsburgh Penguins' training camp upon the conclusion of his collegiate career, but had his professional career cut short when he suffered an eye injury while playing for the Raleigh Ice Caps during the 1996-97 season. Upon his retirement from hockey, Karmanos worked for an investment bank located in Boston.

Jason and his wife, Christy, reside in Wake Forest and have four daughters, Ella, Kayla, Anna and Lila.

Davin Olsen
VP/GM, PNC Arena

Davin Olsen completes his 15th year with the franchise. Olsen oversees the daily operations and functions held at PNC Arena. He contracts, schedules and coordinates all logistical and technical aspects of events that take place at the arena.

While he is based in Raleigh, Olsen also consults on other Gale Force Holdings ventures, including Germain Arena in Ft. Myers, Fla., and Compuware Arena in Plymouth, Mich. Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Olsen served as the director of recreational facilities at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. With 24 years of experience in arena management, Olsen has also administered the New Haven Coliseum, the Hartford Civic Center and UNC Charlotte.

Olsen resides in Apex. He has two sons: Davin (19) and Jason (15).

Brian Tatum
Sr. Director of Team Operations

Brian Tatum completes his 14th year with the Hurricanes, and his fifth in the role of senior director of team operations. As senior director of team operations, Tatum oversees the hockey operations and media relations departments, managing all of the responsibilities of the players, coaches and hockey staff in those areas, as well as continuing the roles he filled as the team services manager. Tatum served as the Hurricanes' team services manager for the previous six years, and was responsible for the coordination of all of the team's travel, including accommodations, transportation and catering.

Before joining the team's hockey staff, Tatum served as the Hurricanes' ticket sales manager. He joined the organization in 1997 after earning a master's degree in sports management from North Carolina State University. Tatum earned his undergraduate degree from UNC-Wilmington, where he was an infielder on the Seahawks' baseball team.

Tatum was raised in Raleigh and was a standout baseball and basketball player at Broughton High School. He and his wife, Liz, reside in Raleigh.

Mike Amendola
CFO/Alternate Governor

Mike Amendola concludes his 31st year with the franchise, making him the longest-tenured front office employee in the Carolina Hurricanes organization. As chief financial officer, he is responsible for all financial, sales, human resources and information technology areas for the Carolina Hurricanes and PNC Arena. In addition, Amendola also oversees the financial operations of the other entities of Gale Force Holdings, which include the Florida Everblades, Germain Arena, Plymouth Whalers and Compuware Arena.

Amendola first joined the organization in 1981, and previously held the titles of senior accountant, controller, treasurer and vice president of finance and administration. On July 18, 2005, he was named an alternate governor, giving him the ability to represent the club at NHL Board of Governors meetings.

Amendola received an undergraduate degree in business and economics from Lehigh University in 1976, and an advanced degree in accounting from the University of Miami in 1979. He is a member of the American Institute of C.P.A.s, the North Carolina Association of C.P.A.s and the Connecticut Society of C.P.A.s.

Amendola and his wife, Roberta, have two children, Michael Jr. and Chiara.

Executive and Hockey Management

Ron Francis

Director of Hockey Operations

In June 2011, Ron Francis returned to the Hurricanes' executive offices full-time, taking the new title of director of hockey operations. As director of hockey operations, Francis works directly with General Manager Jim Rutherford on all hockey-related matters.

Following a career in which he established himself as the greatest player in Hurricanes franchise history, Francis re-joined the organization in November 2006 as the team's director of player development. He was promoted to assistant general manager on Oct. 4, 2007, but returned to the team's locker room on Dec. 3, 2008, when he joined new Head Coach Paul Maurice behind the bench as associate head coach. While serving as a coach, Francis maintained a voice in the Hurricanes' front office decision-making, serving as the team's director of player personnel.

Francis announced his retirement on Sept. 14, 2005, following a 23-year NHL career with Hartford, Pittsburgh, Carolina and Toronto. In 1,731 NHL regular-season games, Francis scored 549 goals and earned 1,249 assists (1,798 points), to rank him fourth all-time on the league's points list behind Wayne Gretzky, Mark Messier and Gordie Howe. Francis' 1,249 assists rank second only to Gretzky (1,963), and he ranks third on the games-played list behind Howe (1,767) and Messier (1,756).

The Hartford Whalers drafted Francis in the first round, fourth overall, in the 1981 NHL Entry Draft. Francis played with the Whalers for 10 seasons before joining Pittsburgh at the trading deadline of the 1990-91 season. He spent seven full seasons with the Penguins before rejoining the organization that drafted him, when the relocated Carolina Hurricanes signed him as a free agent on July 13, 1998. In 16 seasons with the Hartford/Carolina franchise, Francis played in 1,186 games, scoring 382 goals and earning 793 assists for 1,175 points -- all of which are franchise records. The Hurricanes officially retired Francis' No. 10 jersey to the arena's rafters on Jan. 28, 2006, and on Nov. 12, 2007, Francis was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame.

During his playing career, Francis played in four NHL All-Star games, and he won the Lady Byng Trophy (sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct) three times (1995, 1998, 2002), the Frank J. Selke Trophy (best defensive forward) once (1995) and the King Clancy Memorial Trophy (leadership/humanitarian/community work) once (2002). He also won the Alka-Seltzer Plus Award in 1995, when he led the NHL in plus/minus, and was a key member of the Penguins' Stanley Cup-winning teams in 1991 and 1992.

Ron and his wife, Mary Lou, have a daughter, Kaitlyn, and two sons, Michael and Connor. They reside in Raleigh.

Glen Wesley

Director of Defensemen Development

Glen Wesley completes his fourth year as the Hurricanes' director of defensemen development. Wesley officially retired from hockey on June 5, 2008, following a career of more than 20 NHL seasons. As director of defensemen development, Wesley is responsible for working with all defensemen in the Hurricanes system, including drafted players in the Canadian major-junior hockey leagues, ECHL and American Hockey League (AHL).

Originally drafted third overall in the 1987 NHL Entry Draft by the Boston Bruins, Wesley completed his playing career ranked sixth on the NHL's all-time list of games played by a defenseman, skating in 1,457 total games over 20 seasons with Boston, Hartford, Toronto and Carolina. The Red Deer, Alb., native debuted with Boston straight out of junior hockey in his draft year, and was named to the NHL All-Rookie Team after earning 37 points (7g, 30a) and leading all rookies with a plus-21 plus/minus rating. Wesley played in the NHL All-Star Game in 1989, and completed his career with 128 goals, 409 assists (537 points) and 1,045 penalty minutes. He appeared in the Stanley Cup Final four times, reaching the championship series with Boston in 1988 and 1990, and with Carolina in 2002 and 2006, capturing the Stanley Cup with the Hurricanes in 2006.

The Hartford Whalers acquired Wesley on Aug. 25, 1994, in exchange for first-round draft picks in 1995 (Kyle McLaren), 1996 (Jonathan Aitken) and 1997 (Sergei Samsonov). Wesley went on to play 13 seasons for the franchise, and, prior to his retirement, he was the only player to have played for the Hurricanes in every season since the team relocated to North Carolina in 1997. He played more games (913) for the Hurricanes franchise than any player in team history other than Ron Francis, and his 728 games played for the Hurricanes are the most by any player in a Carolina uniform. Wesley totaled 227 points (51g, 176a) for the Whalers and Hurricanes, and the Hurricanes officially retired his No. 2 jersey to the rafters on Feb. 17, 2009.

Glen and his wife, Barb, have a daughter, Amanda, and two sons, Josh and Matthew.

Coaching Staff

Kirk Muller Head Coach

Kirk Muller, 46, completes his first season as head coach of the Carolina Hurricanes, and has a career record of 25-20-12. Muller, who was named head coach of the Carolina Hurricanes on Nov. 28, 2011, is the 12th person to serve as head coach in franchise history, and the third since the team relocated to North Carolina in 1997.

This marks Muller's first head coaching position in the NHL; he previously served as a head coach for the Milwaukee Admirals in the American Hockey League (AHL). The Kingston, Ont., native had a record of 10-6-0 with Milwaukee during the 2011-12, after taking the job as head coach for the Nashville Predators' top minor-league affiliate in July 2011.

Prior to joining the Admirals, Muller spent five seasons as an assistant coach with the Montreal Canadiens, helping the Habs reach the playoffs four consecutive seasons, including a trip to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2010. During his second season behind the bench in 2007-08, Montreal went 47-25-10 (105 points), marking its best record since 1988-89. Muller worked extensively with the Habs' penalty killing unit throughout his tenure in Montreal, helping it finish in the top half of the League in each season under his watch, including a seventh-place ranking in 2010-11 and a perfect 21-for-21 performance during the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Prior to joining the Canadiens on June 20, 2006, Muller spent one season as head coach with the Queen's University Golden Gaels in his hometown of Kingston. He also served as an assistant coach for Canada at the 2005 Lotto Cup and the 2006 Under-18 World Championship. Current Hurricanes alternate captain Brandon Sutter was a member of that 2006 Under-18 World Championship team.

As a player, Muller totaled 357 goals and 602 assists (959 points) in 1,349 career NHL games over 19 seasons with the New Jersey Devils, Montreal Canadiens, New York Islanders, Toronto Maple Leafs, Florida Panthers and Dallas Stars from 1984-2003. He skated in 127 career Stanley Cup playoff games, totaling 69 points (33g, 36a), including the Stanley Cup-clinching goal for the Canadiens in the 1993 Stanley Cup Final. He also reached the Final with Dallas in 2000, when the Stars fell to New Jersey.

A six-time NHL All-Star (1985, 1986, 1988, 1990, 1992, 1993), Muller posted 30-or-more goals five times in his career, 20-or-more goals nine times, and had seven 70-point seasons. He established career highs with New Jersey in 1987-88 and Montreal in 1992-93, totaling 37 goals, 57 assists and 94 points in each of those seasons. Muller served as captain for both the Devils (1989-91) and the Canadiens (1994-95).

Prior to turning professional, Muller played junior hockey in the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) for Kingston and Guelph, and represented Canada at the 1984 Olympic Games. He made his NHL debut for New Jersey straight out of junior hockey in 1984, after the Devils selected him second overall in the 1984 NHL Entry Draft, behind only Mario Lemieux. In addition to the 1984 Olympics, Muller also represented Canada at four World Championships (1985, 1986, 1987, 1989) and at the 1984 World Junior Championship.

Muller and his wife, Stacey, have four daughters – twins Brittney and Kourtney, Bryelle and Kira.

Rod Brind'Amour Assistant Coach/Development Coach

Rod Brind'Amour concludes his first year as assistant coach and development coach for the Carolina Hurricanes, after serving as the team's director of forwards development in 2010-11. He continues to work with the organization's drafted prospects, including players in the Canadian major-junior hockey leagues, ECHL and American Hockey League (AHL), while also having a voice with the Hurricanes current players as an assistant coach.

Brind'Amour officially retired as a player on June 30, 2010, following a career of more than 20 NHL seasons. Originally drafted by the St. Louis Blues in the first round, ninth overall, in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft, Brind'Amour completed his career ranked 16th in NHL history in games played (1,484), 44th in assists (732), 46th in points (1,184) and 54th in goals (452), in 21 seasons with St. Louis, Philadelphia and Carolina. The Ottawa, Ont., native debuted with the Blues during the 1989 Stanley Cup Playoffs after completing one season at Michigan State, and scored a goal on his first NHL shot against the Minnesota North Stars. He was named to the NHL's All-Rookie Team in 1990, after scoring 61 points (26g, 35a) in 79 games for St. Louis, and played in the NHL All-Star Game while a member of the Flyers in 1992. Brind'Amour represented Canada in the 1998 Winter Olympics in Nagano, Japan, and won back-to-back Frank J. Selke trophies as the NHL's top defensive forward in 2005-06 and 2006-07, as a member of the Hurricanes.

Brind'Amour played in 159 career Stanley Cup Playoff games, totaling 51 goals and 60 assists (111 points). He participated in the Stanley Cup Final three times, reaching the Final in 1997 with Philadelphia, and in 2002 and 2006 with Carolina, captaining the Hurricanes to the 2006 Stanley Cup championship. Acquired by the Hurricanes from the Philadelphia Flyers on Jan. 23, 2000, Brind'Amour ranks second in career points for the Hurricanes since the team's relocation to North Carolina, notching 473 points in 694 games played. He also ranks first in assists (299), tied for first in shorthanded goals (10), third in goals (174) and third in power-play goals (60) in the team's North Carolina history. Brind'Amour ranks second in franchise history (including Hartford) in assists (299), fourth in points (473) and fourth in games played (694). Named the Hurricanes' captain prior to the 2005-06 season, Brind'Amour netted 31 goals and earned 39 assists (70 points) that season to lead the team to a franchise-record 52 regular-season wins. His league-leading 12 playoff goals during the team's Stanley Cup run also set a franchise record.

Rod and his wife, Amy, live in Raleigh, with their newborn son, Brooks. He also has a daughter, Briley (12), and two sons, Skyler (11) and Reece (10).

Coaching Staff

Dave Lewis Assistant Coach

Dave Lewis, 57, completes his first season as assistant coach for the Carolina Hurricanes. This marked his 20th season as a coach in the National Hockey League, as Lewis previously worked behind the bench for Detroit, Boston and Los Angeles. He served as the head coach for Detroit (2002-2004) and Boston (2006-07), compiling a career record of 135-83-33 as a head coach (includes five games as co-coach with Detroit in 1998-99).

Lewis began his coaching career immediately after his retirement as a player in November 1987, when he was named as an assistant coach for the Detroit Red Wings. The Kindersley, Sask., native served in that position until being promoted to associate coach prior to the 1995-96 season. As associate coach, he worked under three head coaches over 15 years – Jacques Demers, Bryan Murray and Scotty Bowman – capturing the Stanley Cup championship three times (1997, 1998, 2002).

Lewis was named the Red Wings' head coach on July 17, 2002, following Bowman's retirement. In two seasons, he led Detroit to a pair of 48-win and 100-point seasons, as well as two Central Division titles. His team won the President's Trophy in 2003-04, finishing with the NHL's top regular-season record at 48-21-11-2 (109 points). Following the NHL's work stoppage in 2004-05, Lewis was replaced as head coach, and he served as a professional scout for the Red Wings during the 2005-06 season. On June 29, 2006, Lewis became the 27th head coach in the history of the Boston Bruins. He compiled a 35-41-6 record with the Bruins before joining the Los Angeles Kings as an assistant coach in 2007-08.

Lewis played 15 NHL seasons between 1973 and 1988, totaling 36 goals and 187 assists (223 points) in 1,008 games as a defenseman with the New York Islanders, Los Angeles Kings, New Jersey Devils and Detroit Red Wings. He skated in 91 career Stanley Cup playoff games, earning 21 points (1g, 20a) and 143 penalty minutes.

Tom Barrasso Assistant Coach

Tom Barrasso completes his fifth year with the Carolina Hurricanes' coaching staff, and his third as assistant coach. Barrasso previously served as the team's goaltending coach and director of goalie development.

Barrasso, 45, retired from hockey in 2003 after an 18-year NHL career, during which he played for the Buffalo Sabres, Pittsburgh Penguins, Ottawa Senators, Carolina Hurricanes, Toronto Maple Leafs and St. Louis Blues. The Boston native compiled a career regular-season record of 369-277-86, with a goals-against average of 3.24 and 38 shutouts in 777 career NHL games. Barrasso ranks 13th all-time in NHL wins with 369, and in 1997 became the first American-born goaltender to reach 300 wins. He was 61-54 with a 3.01 goals-against average and six shutouts in 119 career playoff games, leading Pittsburgh to a pair of Stanley Cup championships in 1991 and 1992. In 2009, he was chosen for induction into the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, along with forwards John LeClair and Tony Amonte.

Barrasso was originally drafted fifth overall by the Buffalo Sabres out of Acton-Boxborough High School in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft, at the time the highest a goaltender had ever been picked in an NHL draft. He made his NHL debut with the Sabres straight out of high school the following season, going 26-12-3 with a 2.84 goals-against average to win the Calder Trophy as the NHL's rookie of the year and the Vezina Trophy as the league's top netminder. Barrasso went on to earn NHL Second All-Star Team honors in 1985 and 1993 and shared the William Jennings Trophy (lowest team goals-against average) in 1985 with Bob Sauve. He played in the 1985 NHL All-Star Game and represented the United States at the 1984 Canada Cup, 1987 Canada Cup and 1986 IIHF World Championship. In 2002, after an outstanding start with the Carolina Hurricanes, Barrasso was named to the United States Olympic team for the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City, where he earned a silver medal.

John MacLean Assistant Coach

John MacLean, 47, completes his first season as an assistant coach for the Carolina Hurricanes. The Oshawa, Ont. native spent nine seasons as a coach in the New Jersey Devils organization, including seven years as an assistant coach. MacLean served as head coach of the Lowell Devils of the American Hockey League (AHL) in 2009-10, leading the Devils affiliate to its best-ever record and first-ever playoff berth. He was named head coach for the New Jersey Devils prior to the 2010-11 season, but was replaced 33 games into his first season as an NHL head coach.

Drafted by New Jersey sixth overall in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft, MacLean played 19 NHL seasons with the Devils, Sharks, Rangers and Stars, totaling 413 goals, 429 assists (842 points) and 1,328 penalty minutes in 1,194 career NHL games. A two-time NHL All-Star (1989, 1991), he won the Stanley Cup with the Devils in 1995, and totaled 83 points (35g, 48a) and 152 penalty minutes in 104 career Stanley Cup playoff games.

MacLean is the Devils' all-time franchise leader with 347 goals, and ranks second in New Jersey franchise history with 701 points. He was a teammate of current Hurricanes Head Coach Kirk Muller with New Jersey and Dallas, as well as with Canada at the 1984 World Junior Championship and the 1989 IIHF World Championship.

2011-12 Hurricanes Team Notes

HARRISON NOMINATED FOR MASTERTON TROPHY

The Carolina chapter of the Professional Hockey Writers' Association named defenseman Jay Harrison as its nominee for the 2011-12 Bill Masterton Trophy. The Masterton Trophy is awarded annually to the NHL player best exemplifying the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey. The winner is selected from a poll of the 30 chapters of the PHWA at the end of the regular season, and a $2,500 grant from the PHWA is awarded annually to the Bill Masterton Scholarship Fund, based in Bloomington, Minn., in the name of the winner.

Harrison, 29, led Hurricanes defensemen in goals (9), was second in points (23) and third among team blueliners in assists (14). Harrison's goals, assists and points all set new single-season career highs. Among Carolina defensemen, Harrison led in shots on goal (128), and was second in hits (117) and blocked shots (153). The Oshawa, Ont., native tied his career high for games played in a season (72) in 2011-12, and played in his 200th NHL game on April 3 at Ottawa.

Originally selected by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the third round, 82nd overall, in the 2001 NHL Entry Draft, Harrison has totaled 13 goals, 28 assists (41 points) and 200 penalty minutes in 202 career NHL games with Toronto and Carolina. Harrison has 39 points (13g, 26a) and 182 penalty minutes in 182 career games with the Hurricanes.

The PHWA presented the Masterton Trophy in 1968 to commemorate Bill Masterton, a player with the Minnesota North Stars, who exhibited to a high degree the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey. He died Jan. 15, 1968.

STAAL NOMINATED FOR KING CLANCY TROPHY

A poll of his teammates resulted in a nomination for Hurricanes captain Eric Staal for the 2011-12 King Clancy Memorial Trophy. The King Clancy Trophy is awarded annually to the NHL player who best exemplifies leadership qualities on and off the ice and has made a noteworthy humanitarian contribution in his community. It is the second time Staal has been nominated for this honor.

This season, Staal celebrated the fourth year of his "Eric's Entourage" program, in which he purchases a luxury suite – fully equipped with food, snacks and drinks – for each Hurricanes home game, and donates it to local children's charities. The children attending the games become members of "Eric's Entourage," and receive a goody bag that includes an "Eric's Entourage" t-shirt signed by Staal. Throughout the season, several of the groups using the suite visit Eric after games for a meet-and-greet.

Along with the "Eric's Entourage" program, Staal is an integral part of the Kids N' Community Foundation's fundraising events. He is one of the team's most-requested players at the Foundation's golf tournament, and fans gather around him in droves at annual Foundation events like Casino Night and Wine Tasting and the popular Skate with the Canes event. Eric also participates in team hospital visits, this year visiting Rex Hospital in Raleigh.

THE CAPTAIN LEADS THE WAY

Hurricanes captain Eric Staal led team in goals (24), assists (46) and points (70), while playing in all 82 games. Staal ranked 21st among all NHL players in scoring in 2011-12, and totaled 50 points (17g, 33a) in the team's final 43 games.

The Thunder Bay, Ont., native played in his 600th NHL/Hurricanes game on Dec. 31 at Tampa Bay, becoming just the seventh player to play in 600 or more games with the franchise. On March 30, the Staal notched his 250th career goal, making him just the third player to score 250 goals for the Carolina franchise, and the fastest to reach that mark, doing so in his 637th game.

Staal now holds both the Carolina (since relocation) and franchise records with 13 career shorthanded goals. He passed former captain Rod Brind'Amour for most shorthanded goals in Carolina history on Feb. 13 at Montreal, and Dave Tippett for the most in franchise history on Feb. 20 vs. Washington. Staal also passed Brind'Amour for most assists in Carolina history (since relocation), when he recorded his 300th career assist on Jan. 12 at Tampa Bay. Staal's 324 career assists rank second in franchise history (Ron Francis – 793).

Staal has scored 250 goals and earned 324 assists (574 points) in 642 NHL regular-season games since being drafted by the Hurricanes' with the second overall pick in 2003.

2011-12 Hurricanes Team Notes

STAAL'S RECORD SETTING STREAKS

Hurricanes captain Eric Staal set a Carolina record (since relocation) with a 12-game point streak (2/8-3/6), and set a franchise record with an 11-game assist streak (2/10-3/6) in 2011-12. Staal (1/16/10-2/5/10: 10g, 7a) and Cory Stillman (12/15/05-1/7/06: 7g, 12a) each held the previous record having earned points in 11 straight games for the Hurricanes (since relocation).

Staal's 11-game assist streak set a new franchise record, eclipsing Dave Keon's 32-year-old, 10-game assist streak (11/17/79-12/7/79: 1g, 12a).

WARD SAYS NO

Hurricanes netminder Cam Ward finished the 2011-12 campaign with a 30-23-13 record, 2.74 goals-against average, a .915 save-percentage and five shutouts. Ward ranked second in the NHL in both shots faced (2,143) and saves (1,961). The 28-year-old led the NHL and set a franchise record with 2,191 saves in 2010-11. He made 30 or more saves in a game 33 times in 2011-12, and posted a 19-5-9 record in those games.

Ward finished the season ranked fifth among NHL goalies in games played (68), tied for fourth in games started (68) and fifth in minutes played (3,988). His 30 wins in 2011-12 ranked tied for 16th in the NHL, and marked the fifth time in his seven-year NHL career he has earned at least 30 wins in a season.

On March 15, Ward became the 71st goaltender in NHL history to record 200 career wins when he shut out the St. Louis Blues at PNC Arena. The shutout was the 20th of his NHL career, tying him with Arturs Irbe for most in franchise history. Ward passed Irbe to set the franchise record with his 21st career shutout in a 3-0 win at Toronto (3/27).

Ward played in his 400th NHL/Hurricanes game on March 3 against Tampa Bay.

STEADY ON THE BLUE LINE

Hurricanes alternate captain Tim Gleason finished 2011-12 as the Hurricanes' leader in plus/minus (+12), and played in all 82 games for the second straight year. He had a plus or even rating in 64 games, and earned 18 points (1g, 17a) in 2011-12.

Gleason played in his 500th NHL game on Nov. 27 at Ottawa. He played in his 400th Hurricanes games in New York against the Islanders on Jan. 21, and notched his 100th career assist on Jan. 31, also against the Islanders.

Gleason signed a four-year contract extension with the Hurricanes on Jan. 30. The deal will keep the 29-year-old with Carolina through the 2015-16 season. Gleason has totaled 118 points (15g, 103a) and 541 penalty minutes in 557 career NHL games in eight seasons with the Hurricanes and Los Angeles Kings. He has 91 points (13g, 78a) and 443 penalty minutes in 432 career games in six seasons with Carolina.

STAAL TOPS 20-GOAL MARK FOR SEVENTH STRAIGHT SEASON

Hurricanes captain Eric Staal is one of just 12 NHL players who have recorded 20-or-more goals in each of the last seven seasons. Staal ranks second to only Ron Francis in Carolina's franchise history for the most 20-plus goal seasons, and most consecutive 20-plus goal seasons. Francis recorded 20-or-more goals in 14 seasons with the Carolina franchise, including 10 straight from 1981-82 through 1990-91.

2011-12 Hurricanes Team Notes

WARD LIGHTS THE LAMP

Goaltender Cam Ward scored his first career NHL goal on Dec. 26 against New Jersey when he was credited with Carolina's empty net goal. He became the first netminder in franchise history to score a goal, and the first NHL goaltender to score since Chris Mason on April 15, 2006, with Nashville against Phoenix.

FAULK AMONG TOP ROOKIE BLUELINERS

Hurricanes defenseman Justin Faulk finished the 2011-12 season with 22 points (8g, 14a) in 66 games for the Hurricanes. He led NHL rookie blueliners in average ice time (22:50) and power-play goals (5), ranked tied for first in goals (8) and was second in points (22).

Faulk made his NHL debut for the Hurricanes on Oct. 7 against Tampa Bay, and recorded his first career point with an assist on Nov. 20 against Toronto. He scored his first NHL goal on Dec. 9 at Winnipeg. A second-round draft pick (37th overall) of the Hurricanes in 2010, Faulk was one of 12 rookies selected to participate in the 2012 NHL All-Star Skills Competition in Ottawa.

WELSH SIGNS, MAKES NHL DEBUT IN SEASON FINALE

The Hurricanes signed center Jeremy Welsh to a one-year, entry-level contract on April 5, just hours after his collegiate team, the Union College Dutchmen, lost their national semifinal game against Ferris State in the NCAA Frozen Four. Welsh made his NHL debut on April 7 at Florida, and was (even) with four penalty minutes in 16:32 of ice time in the game. The 23-year-old had 27 goals and 17 assists (44 points) in 40 games with the Dutchmen in 2011-12. His 27 goals led Union and ranked fourth among all NCAA Division I goal scorers in 2011-12.

MULLER TAKES THE REIGNS

Kirk Muller became the 12th person to serve as head coach of the Carolina Hurricanes when he was named to the position on Nov. 28, 2011. Muller guided the Hurricanes to a 25-20-12 record in 57 games as Carolina's bench boss, including a 15-9-7 mark after the All-Star break. The Canes went 35-for-179 (19.6%) on the power play under Muller.

Since the Carolina franchise joined the NHL in 1979, coaches making their head coaching debut with the franchise are 5-9-2 all-time (includes the first games of multiple stints by Larry Pleau, Paul Holmgren and Paul Maurice). Below is a list of each of the 12 coaches to make their coaching debut with the franchise.

Carolina posted a 13-3-4 record against the Northeast Division in 2011-12, including a four-game sweep of the defending Stanley Cup champion Boston Bruins. The Hurricanes went 9-0-2 in their final 11 games against Northeast Division opponents. Carolina's last loss against a Northeast Division opponent came on Nov. 27 at Ottawa (4-3), in the final game before the team's coaching change. The 13 wins against the Northeast Division were the most the Hurricanes had against any one division in 2011-12.

CANES SWEEP THE CHAMPS

For the first time in the 32-year history of the Carolina-Boston series the Canes swept the Bruins with regulation wins in every game of the season series. The only time the Bruins swept the Canes was in 2008-09, the same season the Canes defeated the Bruins in the Eastern Conference semifinal. The series sweep of the Bruins also marked the first time in Carolina franchise history it had swept a defending Stanley Cup champion in a season series (not counting single-game season series).

STRIKING FIRST

The Hurricanes scored first in seven of their final 12 games, and were 6-1-0 in their last seven games when scoring first in 2011-12. Carolina posted a 23-8-10 record in 41 games when scoring the game's first goal in 2011-12. The Canes earned points in 19 of their last 21 games (12-2-7) when opening the scoring.

SUCCESS IN THE CIRCLE

The Hurricanes finished 2011-12 ranked 10th in the NHL in faceoff-win percentage (50.7%), greatly improving upon their 44.6 percent success rate in 2010-11 (29th NHL). Carolina won better than 50 percent of its draws in 51 of its 82 games in 2011-12. Jussi Jokinen (55.1%) was 17th in the NHL in face off win percentage. Eric Staal (52.5%) and Brandon Sutter (50.5%) also finished above 50 percent in win percentage for the Hurricanes in 2011-12.

BACK IN BLACK

The Hurricanes wore their black jerseys 14 times in 2011-12, and posted a 6-5-3 record when wearing their third jerseys. The Hurricanes unveiled their alternate uniform in 2008-09, and have gone 34-17-6 all-time when wearing the third jersey. Full 2011-12 alternate jersey results are below.

HURRICANES HONOR VASICEK WITH PATCH

The Hurricanes honored the memory of former player Josef Vasicek with a No. 63 patch on its sweaters throughout the 2011-12 season. Vasicek was one of 44 people killed in a Sept. 7 plane crash outside of Yaroslavl, Russia, including 28 players, two coaches and seven staff members of the Lokomotiv ice hockey club.

Vasicek, 30, skated in 460 career NHL games, and in 37 playoff games with Carolina. He helped the franchise to their first Stanley Cup championship in 2006, and Eastern Conference championships in 2002 and 2006.

HURRICANES' HOME RENAMED "PNC ARENA"

On March 15, 2012, the home of the Carolina Hurricanes was renamed PNC Arena. The naming rights agreement changed the building's name following PNC Bank's acquisition of RBC Bank (USA). The Canes scored a 2-0 win against the St. Louis Blues behind Cam Ward's 40-save shutout in the inaugural game at PNC Arena.

The Hurricanes went 186-130-42-5 (.577) in 363 regular-season games, and 14-8 in 22 playoff games, in the nearly nine seasons the building carried the RBC Center name.
